Sunday was the opening of "Safe Boating Week." So what happened? Our new spy, R. E. Porter, informed us that Harry Horvish, wildlife officer, had stopped a boatman for a routine inspection on the St. Johns River. Another boatman came along and ran into both of them.

Further assurance that Sanford Naval Air Station is a permanent installation and not temporary was given by Gerald Rauch, head of the new pipeline. Of 56 military installations in the U. S. supplied with fuel through pipelines, not one has been closed by the government. Imminently of the local program also was given by Rauch: Six barges of jet fuel will be shipped into here from Jacksonville each month to supply NAS planes.

Congressman Syd Herlong's Washington office this morning reported the lawmaker has returned to his home district (including Seminole) for the long July 4 holiday and some speech-making.

The flag pole in Casselberry's Memorial Park, damaged two weeks ago in a heavy wind and rain storm, was repaired over the weekend and by Monday morning the flag was back over the area.

Residents of DelBary who have the interest of the community's young people at heart are invited to attend a meeting next Monday at 10 a. m. in the Community Center to make plans for a recreation program.

Miss Joy Bartlo, of Orange City, State FFA Sweetheart, was model for artist Elliot McMurrough at the recent demonstration at the DelBary Mansion House.

Police blotter had three similar reports this morning: "Man down at such-and-such an address. Now in jail facing a drunk charge." Three different men.

"Foots" Yelvington said he investigated that house on South Elm Avenue, reported giving out an unpleasant odor. Said he couldn't find any offensive smell only mustiness caused by a house long closed up.

Sheriff's deputies found, lost and found again some merchandise stolen last weekend, including wine, cigarettes and miscellaneous items. One deputy tracked (like in the TV westerns) the culprits through the fields to an empty building and found the merchandise. He went for help to watch the place until he found on his return the culprits had been there and made off with the goods. Then a woman reported her 13-year-old son was drunk on wine. The boy's incoherent, drunken mumbles revealed the names of the culprits. They are in jail and most of the merchandise recovered.

County Commissioners will sit at the Board of Equalization, commencing July 15, to hear complaints on tax assessments. Then will follow budget hearings for the next fiscal year.

The "Clock" had a question a couple weeks ago: Residents of Alabama are Alabamians, of Sarasota are Sarasotans, . . . then why are we not "Floridians" as opposed to the old, accepted "Floridaans"? We've been using "Floridaans" in our headlines to learn if anything. Only one person has reported we made a mistake in our spelling. So, "Floridians" must be acceptable.

Any definite report on further plans for Seminole College out in North Orlando will have to wait until the summer, it seems. Addison Williams, Orlando attorney, who is chairman of the board of trustees for Orlando Junior College, said today that committee will report at next month's meeting of the board.

Cabinet Finds New Job For Bryant's Kin

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The cabinet trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund found another and better job today for William R. Weigel Jr., first cousin to Gov. Farris Bryant.

The trustees, headed by the governor, appointed Weigel to the newly created job of Chief of the Land Acquisition Division at a salary of $2,150 for the first year and $2,500 for the second year of the biennium.

Weigel was hired about six months ago as land appraiser for the trustees at a salary of $9,000. But the State Legislature, in drafting the general appropriations bill, left the position out of the budget.

In his new job, Weigel will be in charge of the new program of acquisition of land for public recreation areas, under a bill passed by the 1963 legislature.

The Land Acquisition Fund will be composed of revenue from a $1 increase in fresh water fishing licenses, a five per cent wholesale tax on sporting goods and surplus funds from state land sales.

A constitution amendment authorizing the cabinet, sitting as the outdoor recreation council, to issue bonds backed by this revenue for the big acquisition program goes to the voters for action Nov. 5.

Until some funds are put into the Land Acquisition Trust Account, Weigel's salary and travel expenses will be paid from funds of the Internal Improvement Fund which will be reimbursed when the Land Acquisition fund is activated.

Meanwhile, the trustees authorized $1,000 in Internal Improvement funds to be contributed toward costs of publication of 10,000 copies of the illustrated report of the governor's committee on recreational development and authorized purchase of 2,000 copies at 50 cents per copy.

Castro To See U. S. Students

HAVANA (UPI)—Fifty-nine American students, housed at the elegant Riviera Hotel overlooking the Gulf of Mexico, continued their all-expenses-paid tour of Cuba today.

The Cuban Federation of University students (FEU), sponsor of the trip, announced Monday that the Americans will meet Premier Fidel Castro but said the date had not been determined.

The U. S. students, mostly from New York and the San Francisco Bay area, arrived in Havana Sunday by a roundabout route through Prague, Czechoslovakia, circumventing a U. S. State Department ban on travel to Cuba.

Jose Maria Lima, who identified himself as a native of Puerto Rico and a graduate last month from the University of California, said yesterday he was "anxious to submerge myself in the Cuban revolution."

Front Sweeps Away The Heat

By United Press International
A cold front and thunderstorms poked holes today in a burning week-old heat wave across much of the nation.

The front stretched from the eastern upper Great Lakes southwestward into the central plains and brought relief from record temperatures of the past few days.

It touched off thunderstorms as it collided with the warm, moisture-laden air that filled much of the Mississippi and Ohio valleys.

At Tampa 1.70 inches of rain fell Monday during a six-hour period.

The temperature reached 111 at Blythe and Imperial, Calif., Monday, and 110 at Yuma, Ariz.

Oviedo Council Hears Reports

Reports on street paving and repairs and on the preparation of the 1963-64 delinquent tax lists were made at Monday's monthly session of the Oviedo City Council which met at 6 p. m. in the City Hall.

Mayor Lee Gary reported that paving had been completed on North Lake Jessup and that repairs had been made on Garden St. He advised that work would be placed on the Magnolia St. bridge by the weekend.

Mrs. Dorothy Courier, city clerk, announced that the annual equalization meeting on the 1963-64 tax rolls would be held at 8 p. m. on Aug. 5, preceding the regular council meeting. She presented the delinquent tax lists for council approval and advised that a tax sale would be set for the near future.

In other business Council Chairman Ben F. Ward Jr. reminded that various committees should start planning their requirements for the annual budget which will be drawn up in September.

Sentenced
JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Arthur Eugene Williams was sentenced to five years in state prison Monday in connection with the murder of William J. Arnold, a Jacksonville gambler, in June, 1962.

4-H Outing Offers Fun And Instruction

Fifty-four boys and girls from Seminole County rolled into 4-H Camp McQuarrie near Astor Park Monday for their annual one-week campout.

Camp McQuarrie is one of five 4-H camps operated during the summer to offer 4-H boys and girls an opportunity to study nature first hand.

Aside from a regular recreation program that includes swimming and boating,

History In The Making Or As The Kennedys See It

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A couple of Republicans think the Kennedy brothers should brush up on their history.

Sen. Karl Mundt (R-S.D.) said Monday he caught President Kennedy in the following historical errors in speeches made in Germany the oldest city in the United States. Wrong, said Mundt, it's St. Augustine, Fla.

—Kennedy said Gen. Custer led 500 cavalry troops against Sitting Bull in 1878. Wrong again, said Mundt, it was June 25, 1876, and there were only 278 soldiers.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy came in for more of the same treatment when, while testifying on the administration's civil rights bill, he said Rhode Island was the ninth state to ratify the Constitution.

Sen. Norris Cotton (R-N.H.) caught him on that, pointing out that New Hampshire was the ninth state, Rhode Island was the 13th to ratify.

—Kennedy said the first Roman Catholic president of the United States, spent 36 minutes in private audience with the pontiff. Their discussion centered on their mutual hopes for peace.

After talking alone with Kennedy, the 63-year-old Pope received members of the presidential party and spoke in English.

He said he was confident that Kennedy's work for world peace "will find a ready response in all men of good will." Then, in an obvious reference to racial problems in the United States, the Pope added:

"We are ever mindful in our prayers of the efforts to ensure to all your citizens the equal benefits of citizenship which have as their foundation the equality of all men because of their dignity as persons and children of God."

Seat Belt Good For Free Ride
TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—If you are wearing a seat belt July 4 when you enter the Sunshine State Parkway, the ride is on the state.

Gov. Farris Bryant said Monday that, in an effort to make July 4 safe, the state agency is lifting the tolls on the parkway for motorists who wear seat belts.

Florida Ends Year In Black

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida ended the fiscal year in the black yesterday, even though sales tax collections fell 1.56 per cent below expectations.

State Comptroller Ray E. Green said Florida would not end in the red because there was no need to spend all the money authorized by the 1961 Legislature for the just-ended biennium.

For instance, some $21 million in public school funds went unused because pupil enrollment was below predictions.

The books on the fiscal year won't close until tomorrow because the bills are still pending in Green said, but he emphasized there was no danger of Florida going into the red.

In fact, the state should have a small amount of cash on hand when all the bills have been paid.

State Warns On Travel Funds

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The cabinet budget commission released $102,716,143 today for the operation of state government agencies for the first three months of the new fiscal year.

Sitting in the first cabinet session of the biennium, the members asked the new money which Budget Director Harry Smith said was based on "highly tentative" budgeting. He said the money was made available based on spending by the agencies during the last quarter of the 1962-63 biennium and exact needs of the agencies would not be known until about September when all budgets were in.

In other actions, the cabinet okayed some last minute releases made by Smith in the closing days of the last fiscal year. All of the releases were for minor amounts.

$250,000 Ring Stolen From Mrs. Firestone

ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, Ill. (UPI)—Mrs. Russell Firestone, 26, told police today she was held up by two men who robbed her of more than a quarter-million dollars worth of jewelry.

Mrs. Firestone, Palm Beach, said she and her brother, Charles Turner, 21, Big Springs, Tex., were approached by two men as they returned from the race track here Monday.

"Close your eyes or I'll shoot," Mrs. Firestone told police one of the men said. She said he then told his partner, "get that ring."

"That ring," police said Mrs. Firestone told them, was a 2 1/2 carat diamond ring, valued at $250,000.

Police said Mrs. Firestone also reported the loss of a white leather bag containing a gold mesh coin purse, a gold lipstick case, gold pill box. They said she set the value of these items at $3,800. She said the men also took $48 in cash.

Mrs. Firestone told police her husband was returning to the home they had rented in another car.

The Firestones are visiting here during the racing season.

Kennedy, Pope Discuss Peace

VATICAN CITY (UPI) — Pope Paul VI met today with President Kennedy and praised his efforts to obtain world peace and racial equality in the United States.

Kennedy, the first Roman Catholic president of the United States, spent 36 minutes in private audience with the pontiff. Their discussion centered on their mutual hopes for peace.

After talking alone with Kennedy, the 63-year-old Pope received members of the presidential party and spoke in English.

He said he was confident that Kennedy's work for world peace "will find a ready response in all men of good will." Then, in an obvious reference to racial problems in the United States, the Pope added:

"We are ever mindful in our prayers of the efforts to ensure to all your citizens the equal benefits of citizenship which have as their foundation the equality of all men because of their dignity as persons and children of God."

Seat Belt Good For Free Ride

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—If you are wearing a seat belt July 4 when you enter the Sunshine State Parkway, the ride is on the state.

Gov. Farris Bryant said Monday that, in an effort to make July 4 safe, the state agency is lifting the tolls on the parkway for motorists who wear seat belts.

Hearing Set In Slaying

Preliminary hearing for Nelson Moore, Negro, 1104 1/2 Locust Avenue, charged with second degree murder, will be held at 2 p. m. next Monday before County Judge Vernon Mize. The charge was reduced from first degree murder at arraignment Monday afternoon.

Moore, being held at county jail, is charged in the death of Luis Gaines, Negro, 77, same address, who died of a head injury last Sunday at Orange Memorial Hospital, Orlando.

Go-It-Alone Policy Hit

NAPLES, Italy (UPI) — President Kennedy, in an apparent new challenge to French President Charles de Gaulle, wound up his European tour today with a call for greater Allied trust and an end to "self-sufficient nationalism."

In a speech at the NATO news...

BRIEFS

Mitchell Named
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — State Rep. Richard Mitchell of Tallahassee has been named vice chairman of the Southern Conference of the Council of State Governments.

More Refugees
MIAMI (UPI) — The last scheduled mercy airlift of Cuban refugees arrived Monday, and the final Red Cross ship to sail from Cuba loads about 950 more exiles in Havana today.

Mafia Blamed
ROME (UPI) — The dynamic killing of seven police and soldiers spurred fresh demands today for a government onslaught against the Mafia, the notorious Sicilian criminal society.

Baptists Meet
DALLAS (UPI) — More than 10,000 Baptists assembled today for a nationwide Southern Baptist Evangelistic Conference, the first meeting of its kind sponsored by the nation's largest Protestant denomination.

Teacher Elected
DETROIT (UPI) — Elizabeth Knotts, a Negro special education teacher from Salisbury, N. C., Monday was elected vice president of the powerful department of classroom teachers of the National Education Association.

Indicted
ORLANDO (UPI) — Lester A. Lipp, 33, was indicted by a federal grand jury Monday on bank robbery charges. The Bradenton man is charged with the $23,000 robbery of the Inter-City National Bank of Bradenton.

Stamp Tax
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant signed the documentary stamp tax bill into law Monday, cleaning up a package of tax measures designed to raise $164 million in the coming two years.

Guiana Clash
GEORGETOWN, British Guiana (UPI) — One man was killed and 11 others injured Monday in fighting at Betterhope, about seven miles east of here, capping a day of disorders in the area. There was no immediate explanation for the clash.

Battery Heart
ATLANTIC CITY, N. J. (UPI) — Dr. Edward R. Annis of Miami, Fla., newly elected president of the American Medical Association, said Monday the "day will come when a battery-operated heart will be inserted in the chest of an infant born with a cardiac impairment, while his own heart is corrected with surgery."

4 Youths Held In Gun Incident
ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — Police arrested four white teenage boys who they said were involved in a shooting incident at the home of a Negro dentist early today.

Four Negro youths were hit by pellets from a 20-gauge shotgun fired by one of the white youths, Police Chief Virgil Stuart reported. None of the Negroes was hurt seriously.

Held in jail on an open charge was James Riley Kennedy, 19, John Edward Lane Jr., 17, and two other white boys, both minors, were released in custody of their parents.

Stuart said he and two agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation questioned the four white youths for three hours. They told conflicting stories, the police chief said, but apparently there was an exchange of gunfire.

The shooting incident took place in front of the home of Robert B. Hayling, located in a Negro subdivision, shortly after midnight. Hayling is a dentist and an advisor for the youth council of the local NAACP chapter which has been picketing two St. Augustine variety stores for a week.

Mapoles Named
TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The cabinet named William Mapoles of Tallahassee today as director of the division of Sunland Training Centers, succeeding Arthur Dodier who has held the post in an acting capacity for two years.

54 Seminole Youngsters At Campout

The boys and girls will study water safety and marine life. Other programs include game management, nature lore and landscaping.

Daily programs in dramatics and crafts are also on the schedule.

According to W. W. Brown, state boys 4-H club agent, 4-H camping provides more than just these organized programs. It offers an opportunity for the youths to develop their personalities, to get practical leadership training and to make new friends.

Chadwick, Rosemary Walton and Betty Green.

Those from Maitland attending are Rudolph Mueller, William Helen Jr., Eleanor Hoin, Judith Carson, Suzette Berg and Debra McGuire.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am 27 and my wife is 20. I'm a high school graduate and she quit at the eighth grade because her mother said she didn't need a diploma to have babies. We've been married for two years and this is my problem: All my wife reads in the newspaper is the news on the radio and she puts it if I do. She doesn't know what's going on in the world and doesn't care to learn. Last week she asked where the Berlin Wall was, and why it was there. I nearly fainted. She can't spell worth a hoot and says as long as people can understand her when she talks she doesn't have to spell. The cookbook I bought her is collecting dust. If food doesn't come in a can or a package she won't buy it. How can I get her to improve her mind?

TROUBLED HUSBAND

DEAR TROUBLED: If she has no desire to improve her mind, you'll go out of yours before she improves hers. You speak of this woman as though you won her in a raffle. She is the woman you chose to be your lifetime partner. I suggest you make the best of a bad bargain.

DEAR ABBY: This guy I am going with told me that he was married to a Danish girl while he was in the service over there. Now he wants to marry me. He told me they don't have "divorces" in Denmark.

If a married couple wants to dissolve a marriage, they just shake hands and say goodbye. Maybe I am ignorant, but I never knew there was anything like that in Denmark. Something tells me he is giving me a line. Can you straighten me out?

CATHY

DEAR CATHY: The "something" that tells you it's a "line" is your common sense. Divorce is dissolved in Denmark through a court of law, just as it is here. If something was rotten in Denmark, it was your "guy".

DEAR ABBY: I was recently invited to a "house-warming" party. The invitation said a chair had been selected at a local furniture store and everyone was supposed to pay "something" on it. This seemed very crude to me. If this is the "style" now, maybe we should give a housewarming party when we move into our new home next month and ask everyone to pay "something" on the mortgage.

"DISTURBIA"

DEAR "DISTURBIA": Perhaps it's the season, but people seem to be getting bolder in their manner of harvesting gifts. In my opinion, there is only one sound reason for giving a gift—for the pleasure of giving.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "C": God divided man into men that they might help each other. Don't stop now.

SAFE BOATING WEEK — It's a good father who can land fish like these under the critical gaze of his offspring. And it's a wise father who makes certain that tots like this pair find all non-swimmers in the boat wear approved life jackets at all times. National Safe Boating Week, June 30 to July 6, is a reminder to the small boat skipper to check on his children's safety habits as well as his own.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

The great difference between an expert and an ordinary partnership is defensive play. Experts use their low cards to best effect and there- by get more out of their high cards.

For instance, look at this defense by Cliff Russell and Harry Harkavy of Miami. Cliff opened the queen of spades and Harry played the four spot. Nothing abnormal about this, but Cliff knew immediately that Harry didn't like spades. If he had liked spades Harry would have played a higher card as a come-on.

South won the trick and led the six of diamonds. Cliff played the three spot. Again nothing abnormal, but it told Harry that Cliff held three

He could not be showing strength in the suit so the echo would be unmistakable. Harry allowed dummy's jack to hold the trick, but won the diamond continuation.

Cliff's first play had shown three diamonds so Harry knew that South had started with just two. Then Harry led the six of spades. South played the five and Cliff was in with the ten. He couldn't lead another spade because Harry's play had marked declarer with the nine, so he shifted to the nine of hearts.

At this point South was doomed to defeat. Jim strug- gled on since there is no bon- us for giving up, but the best he could do was to gather in eight tricks.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

Parents who are too ambi- tious for their children often subject the youngsters to ex- treme pressure.

It starts when a child is in the first grade. And the older he gets, the greater it be- comes. Unless his grades are the highest that can be achieved, the overambitious parent shows disappointment. Mom takes herself off to school to berate the teacher. Dad of- fers the boy a bribe for every top grade mark he can get.

And with every good inten- tion, these parents have blind- ly started a potential cheater on his way. Why do youngsters cheat to attain parental goals? Be- cause children want to please their parents. They need their approval almost as much as they need food.

And if all that the parents are interested in are grades, then the youngsters will get the grades somehow—even if they have to cheat to get them. Wiser parents don't push their children into cheating in order to save face at home. They are interested in know- ing what junior learned to- day — not what grades he made for last month's work.

If grades are low they take into account the fact that maybe their child isn't a near genius—even with the bright parents he has. They recog- nize other accomplishments besides grades.

Is junior gaining in self-re- liance? Is he happy in school? Does he remember what he learns—even though he may be slow to learn it? Is he making friends? Is he learning good sportsman- ship?

There's so much a child can get out of school besides grades that it is foolish by parents to set such a store by them that a child believes than anything—even honesty. For elders, about young- sters: Ruth Millett's booklet, "Tips on Teen-Agers." Just send 25 cents to Ruth Millett Reader Service, c/o The San- ford Herald, P. O. Box 489, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Pastrano Seeks Non-Title $$$

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) — Willie Pastrano would like a few non-title fights—possibly one with British heavyweight Henry Cooper—before he puts his newly-won light heavy- weight crown on the line. Manager Angelo Dundee said today.

Dundee made it clear, how- ever, that Pastrano would "fight anybody any place" for $70,000.
A bout with Cooper in Lon- don would draw well, Dundee said. "They like Willie over there," he added.
Dundee said Pastrano re- ceived offers from Bakersfield and Fresno, Calif., to defend his title against Wayne Thorn- ton, but was not interested because they guaranteed only $40,000.

De La Beckwith Case To Probers

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — The state presents to a grand jury of 17 white men and one Negro today its evidence against former Marine Byron De La Beckwith, charged with the sniper slaying of Negro leader Medgar Evers.

Diast. Atty. Bill Waller said he expected the panel to make a report in the case by Friday. If Beckwith is indicted and tried, Waller says he will ask for the death penalty.

Gala Gathering, Gifts Given For Gayle Gazil

Three year old Gayle Gazil was joined by about 40 of her little friends Friday afternoon at her home on Chase Ave. for a party celebrating her birthday.

Central figure of the party theme was a figure of a pretty white kitten with pink ears, and this theme was carried out and repeated in the table cloth, napkins, paper plates, cups and other decorations, including the cake with pink and white icing and candles. During the afternoon, games were played and the winners were awarded prizes. The group sang songs and Gayle received many nice gifts which she enjoyed opening. Chuck Cowan presented her with a posey.

All of the guests at the party received favors of party hats, candy cups, pinwheels and toy accordions as gifts from the hostess, Mrs. Joe Gazil, who was assisted by Mrs. Geraldine White, Mrs. Ralph Cowan and Mrs. Nat Bentley. The children and some mothers who attended enjoyed refreshments of cup cakes, punch and ice cream as one of the highlights of the party. Each little cupcake bore a fancy decoration in the party theme.

Invited to join Gayle in the celebration were Steve, Mike and Chris Parkinson, Douglas and Dave Salter, Mara Tracy Helms, Greg and Vicki Allen, Tim and David Hoyous, Julie Brown, Jim and Jerry Schroeder, Cheryl Setzrod, Pam Parker, Kathy McCoy, Teresa Clark, Clay Bass, Bryan Stapleton, Becky and Grady Legette, Allison Smith, Howard Rumbley, Gayle, "T," Chuck and Keith Cowan, Becky, Butchie and Peggy Basla, Ramona and Ray Gidz, Danny, Marty and Kim Boyd, Star Gazil and Susie White.

Shower Fetes Recent Bride In Osteen

By Lind Smithson
Mrs. Joe Len Battle, recent bride, was honored at a bridal shower Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Roy Weisenbarger Sr., on Lake Georgia in Osteen.

Also serving as hostesses were Mrs. John Lundy, Mrs. Leonard Faulk Jr. and Mrs. Roy Weisenbarger Jr.

After Mrs. Battle (the former Miss Joan Lorberg) opened her gifts, refreshments were served. Following this many of the guests went swimming in the lake. Among those enjoying the fete were Mrs. Joe Battle, Mrs. Milton Gore, Mrs. J. M. Staley, Mrs. C. L. West, Mrs. Ray Heasley, Mrs. James Partin, Mrs. James Wilson; Also Mrs. C. T. Niblack, Mrs. W. R. Meek Sr., Mrs. Harold Lyles, Mrs. P. M. Smithson, Mrs. Richard Smithson, Mrs. Jack Dodd, Mrs. Tom Ferrell, Mrs. James Brookshire, Mrs. M. L. Gary;

Also Mrs. R. W. Estes, Mrs. Pete Aulin, Mrs. E. J. Walls, Mrs. J. W. Coates, Mrs. L. H. Webb, Miss Ruth Davidson and Miss Judy Wurst.

Fall Injuries Cause Wedding Postponement

The wedding of Miss Nancy Carol Estes to Roderick Herbert Tanner has been postponed until further notice, it was announced today.

Miss Estes was recently hospitalized with head injuries resulting from a fall.

She is confined to the Winter Park Memorial Hospital.

Bear Lake

Personals

New residents of the Bear Lake area are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ryan and their four children from Elizabethtown, Ky. who are making their home here at 3542 Shirley Drive.

Major and Mrs. H. E. Chapman and their three sons have moved into their new home at 3517 Bonnie Drive. They were recently stationed at Fort Leavenworth, Kansas. Major Chapman will leave shortly for a one year tour of duty in Korea.

HATWING Leaders Wives Bid Hail And Farewell

The Commanding Officers Wives of Heavy Attack Wing One at the Sanford Naval Air Station feted newly arrived Mrs. J. O. Mayo and departing Mrs. J. M. Tully Friday with a Hail and Farewell luncheon at the Imperial House. The honorees were presented with orchid corsages to commemorate the "aloha" occasion.

MRS. MAYO

MRS. TULLY

Besides playing bridge, the ladies also enjoyed viewing fashions that were modeled during the cocktail hour. After lunch, Mrs. R. E. Farmer presented a special bridge player, Mrs. Tully, with a token farewell gift of monogrammed playing cards accompanied by an original poem, asking her to remember Hatwing One's "esprit" whenever she used the cards.

The popular departing couple and their three children are leaving for duty in Washington, D. C. Sanford newcomers, the J. O. Mayos are currently getting settled in their Mayfair home.

Other guests attending the bridge luncheon were the Executive Officers wives and Mrs. G. W. Kimmons, wife of the new Chief Staff Officer at Hatwing One.

Friends Join Couple For Birthday Dinner

A group of friends were invited to a dinner party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Kirschstein on Country Club Circle, Saturday in honor of the occasion of Mrs. Kirschstein's birthday.

Following dinner, the group enjoyed card games and the showing of home movies.

Those joining Mrs. Kirschstein for the evening included Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Ale, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Gayle Howe, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Lundeen, Mr. and Mrs. John Millonig, Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wylie, all of Sanford, and Dr. John Bradin of Osteen.

Local DOES Leader Reports On National Convention

Mrs. Brad Foley, president of Sanford Drive No. 100 returned recently from RPO DOES National Convention held at Van Nuys, California to give an exciting account at last week's meeting of her trip.

She and her husband traveled by jet to California and while there took time out during their tight schedule to visit Disneyland, the Movieland Wax Museum, Cinerama, Knotts Dairy Farm and attended a Luau made quite authentic with native Hawaiian entertainers.

Irene Cook of Lubbock, Texas was elected 1961 Supreme President of the Grand Lodge. Two Florida members were also elected as Grand Lodge officers. The National Convention will be held next year in Rochester, N. Y.

The Sanford Drive has made plans for a Luau to be held at Mrs. B. G. Caruthers to celebrate the fourth anniversary of the Drive in August.

Arrangements were completed at this meeting to donate a hundred dollar bond to the Harry Anna Crippled Children's Home.

Mrs. Foley reminded the members that the weekly fish fry held Friday evenings at all Elks' Clubs are open to all Elks, their wives and friends. Many families take advantage of these dinners which also includes fried chicken, by calling the club for "carry out" orders.

Bridge table tantrums embarrass all concerned.

Ailing Cities

A fresh opportunity is at hand for state, county and local governments to show their staff in competition with a federal authority against whose encroachments they complain.

Special Senate and House subcommittees on intergovernmental relations are beginning a long series of field inquiries into basic problems confronting the various levels of government in the nation's major metropolitan areas.

What the subcommittees want to hear is not Washington solutions but "grass roots" proposals for improving regional co-operation in solving such problems.

For example, if there is widespread opposition to plans for federal mass transit legislation, the probes will ask simply:

"How do you in your area propose to meet the crushing transportation needs of the present and future? Do you have the legal power and the organizational capacity to deal with these needs?"

Authorities and interested parties at the various levels below Washington will be on test. For many of these areas, the answer is:

"Leave us alone. Leave these matters to us. We are better able than the federal government to solve our difficulties."

The answer to that, in the present circumstance, is that their case is unproved.

Many American communities are in deep trouble and show little sign of knowing how to extricate themselves. Slums grow faster than they can stamp them out. Automobile traffic strangles them. Air pollution comes near to smothering them on certain days. Financial burdens weigh them down.

Author Mitchell Gordon, in a new book called "Sick Cities," notes that one town equipped its postmen with gas masks because its air was unfit to breathe. It is a fact of life today, he adds, that every urban American who lives to be 60 can expect sometime to be victim of a crime ranging from theft to mayhem.

In less than two decades, says Gordon, nine out of 10 Americans will be living in urban metropolitan regions. Conditions then may well be utterly intolerable unless citizens and their communities set now to crack some of their most desperate problems.

Many of the "solutions" thus far tried, like widening streets and highways, only turn out to intensify the problems.

But in many ways — control of sprawl, of road patterns, of pollution, of recreational facilities — effective solutions are clearly barred by antiquated regional and local governing practices.

If these echelons of government have the capacity to clean away the deadwood of decades and grapple imaginatively with the huge dilemmas of city and town and county, the men of Congress now plunging into the field—coast to coast—will be only too happy to hear it.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — President Kennedy's civil rights message is in effect a second State of the Union message sent to Capitol Hill in June instead of January.

Using the current race relations disturbances as a peg, the President has hung onto it all the major domestic reforms he has recommended before. He includes tax reduction, the need to promote greater and more rapid economic growth, aid to education, his youth programs, more vocational training and even the Area Redevelopment Act, which the House recently killed, but which the Senate is trying valiantly to bring back to life.

The President now wraps all these old requests in a message of more than 20 major legislative recommendations, with some new demands for sweeping new executive powers. He tells Congress to stay in session till it gets all the parts put together in a single omnibus bill, this year.

The rationalization for this approach is fairly obvious.

Most of the 20 million Negroes in the United States are at the bottom of the economic heap. They have the lowest paid jobs, the lowest average income, the worst housing, the lowest educational level, the highest unemployment, the highest percentage on relief.

Until this one-ninth of the population is better educated and put to work at higher skills there can be no full employment, no general prosperity, no economic growth sufficient to absorb all the new workers entering the labor force every year.

"Delinquency, vandalism, gang warfare, disease, slums and the high cost of public welfare and crime are all directly related to whites and Negroes alike," says the President. He adds that, "Recent labor difficulties in Philadelphia may well be only the beginning if more jobs are not found in northern cities."

Here the President indirectly brings into the civil rights message his juvenile delinquency program, medical care under Social Security, urban renewal, public housing, the anti-crime drive and improvement of labor-management relations. The President even requests a company-by-company, plant-by-plant and union-by-union report on equal employment opportunity agreements covering 20 million workers.

The President is marshaling all the executive powers of his office to further his objectives. He has told his secretary of labor and health, education and welfare to deal directly with local communities on work relief for unemployed fathers and aid to dependent children, wherever state co-operation lags.

He has earmarked $400 million which he had previously cut from his January budget requests for new aids to education. He has instructed the Departments of Commerce, Labor and Health to re-examine their programs to see if they cannot give more aid to depressed areas and the long-term unemployed.

In short, he makes civil rights an economic problem, not a social problem to handle on an emotional or a moral basis.

"Our concern with civil rights must not cause any diversion or dilution of our efforts for economic progress," the President declares. "For without such progress the Negro's hopes will remain unfulfilled."

Finally, the President is setting up by executive order — until Congress gets around to establishing it by law — a new Federal Community Relations Service. Its function will be to try to restore peace to communities threatened or torn by racial tensions.

This race relations conciliation service will be empowered to act on invitation of local communities or on its own motion. The latter option is an experiment intended by the federal government in what has always been considered the domain of local authority may also mean the beginning of the end of states' rights forever.

The powers which the President's civil rights message asks Congress to bestow on the United States attorney general is another long step in that direction.

Congress will be taking a long, hard look at this whole bill of particulars. It's going to be a long, hot summer in Washington, lasting till Thanksgiving before it's all over — if not CHRISTMAS.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE P-400: Russell Kirk is a very able newspaper columnist.

Recently he attacked what he called "educational boondoggling."

He cited a course in "Relaxation" at the state University of Iowa.

Can you imagine the hard-headed farmers and business men of the Hawkeye state squandering their taxes in that manner?

And 500 students tried to register for a course in bowling at a prominent Texas college.

At home, papa and mamma are struggling and skimping to help put Junior or Susie through college. So how do you suppose they feel to find such flimsy courses included in the curriculum?

In my own field of psychology, many of my colleagues assign cockeyed Ph. D. thesis topics to their graduate students.

After three years of research and a dull thesis, these graduate students usually have made little or no real contribution to science at all.

Indeed, many of our closeted psychology profs neither understand the rudimentary principles of logic, nor do they have any "horse sense."

For example, I took Mrs. Crane with me a few years ago to attend a psychological association meeting where I had been asked to read a paper.

But before my turn on the program arrived, we sat and listened for 30 minutes to a dry, sleep-producing report by a psychologist from Indiana.

This psychologist had sent graduate students into the community to interview mothers of a first baby.

And after 30 minutes describing the purpose, methods, etc., this Indiana psychologist then reported the world shattering conclusion that:

"After a baby arrives, it is more difficult to keep the home tidy than previously!"

Mrs. Crane raised her eyebrows in sheer disbelief that anybody would waste the taxpayer's money and preempt the time of overworked graduate students with such an insane and axiomatic project.

It is any wonder your children graduate so poorly equipped for life when many of their professors have a kindergarten sense of social proportion?

The Bible says, "When the blind lead the blind, they both fall into the ditch."

Perhaps that's why we have so many harebrained schemes foisted on us taxpayers at Washington, D. C.

Obviously, I am bitterly attacked by many of these "ivory tower" psychologists, who insist I am depreciating their exalted scientific prestige by "over simplifying psychology by using 3-syllable words and dealing with trivia."

Is the prevention of insanity a trivial matter? Or stopping divorce, delinquency, school drop-outs and trial marriages by teenagers?

The Bible's average word has only two syllables! And all smart newspaper men know it is inefficient to use a 3-syllable term when a 2-syllable one will do the trick just as well.

Except for teaching reading and arithmetic, plus music, there is little the schools offer for the average child of any lasting practical value. Newspapers are far better.

Dick West Says

Well-Being Of A Radish

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Each summer since I joined the colonization of darkest suburbia I have grown a small "victory garden" in my back yard.

Little things that I have heard and read in recent years lead me to believe that the Victory Garden campaign has been losing momentum since the end of the war. But I have continued to do my part.

People who have the stimulus of war to grow a victory garden belong in the same class with sunshine patriots, I say.

This year, however, we victory gardeners find ourselves caught on the horns of a dilemma, which is the next worse thing to being caught on the horns of a water buffalo.

The dilemma got into the garden by way of Rachel Carson's widely discussed book "Silent Spring." Either that or somebody left the gate open.

At any rate, I was spraying a radish with an anti-tomtit tincture (three parts tetraethyl to one part vermouth when it hooked me).

Suddenly I straightened up and said to myself, "This spray I am using is undoubtedly contributing to the health and well-being of this radish, but how do I know it is not upsetting the balance of nature?"

Miss Carson, as you know, raised a warning against the heading use of pesticides and other horticultural chemicals lest they destroy nature's equilibrium.

Her message has had a profound effect upon us victory gardeners. We figure that nature isn't any too well balanced anyway.

I put down the sprayer and was balancing myself in the hammock when my wife came out and asked why I had quit gardening.

"I'm weighing the benefits that will accrue to our radish from a spraying with an anti-tomtit solution against the possible disturbing effect that it might have on the natural order of the universe by driving away the tomtils," I told her.

"I am glad to know that," my wife said. "It appeared to me that you were taking a nap."

"I think better with my eyes closed," I explained. Later on, I tried to get my mind off the problem by tuning in the ball game. But there was no escape.

As I watched the Washington Senators sink deeper into the cellar of the American League, I couldn't help but wonder if their inability to hit and catch baseballs was a result of the chemicals that the groundskeeper uses on the outfield grass.

If anything, the Senators are even more off balance than nature is. Perhaps Miss Carson will explore this situation in her next book.

Isaac Watts wrote the Christmas carol, "Joy to the World," in 1719.

SECURITY FOR YOU

As specialists in savings and home financing, our great pleasure is to help people like you attain the two-sided blessings of security:

- Profitable and safe savings plans
- The opportunity to own a debt-free home

SECURITY FOR THE TOWN YOU LIVE IN

The money folks save here finances the purchase and construction of homes. In turn, these housing dollars pay realtors, contractors and building trades craftsmen, most of whom reside in our community. Such money continues to circulate — creates retail sales — pays grocery bills — generates business in our city.

SECURITY FOR AMERICA

This same chain of events is taking place across the nation in 6,400 savings associations like ours. These savings and loan associations provide 44% of the home financing funds in the U.S.A. — put more than 17 billion dollars to work purchasing homes this year. Over the years this association, and others like it, have helped make ownership possible for 62% of all home dwellers.

Nancy Schnering's SKI SCHOOL

ARMS extended and legs slightly bent for good appearance.

Written for NEA
The forward lean is a beautiful trick that looks much harder than it is. It is actually one of the simplest of the ballet tricks. It is performed on one ski.

To get into the lean, drop one ski and raise the free leg as though climbing a ladder. Lean back, grasping the tow bar with hand on the side of the working ski.

Extend the free leg straight ahead, balancing this action by extending the free arm to the back. Now swing the whole body forward and the free foot toward the back. In this final position, the free leg is horizontal and the knee of the sking leg is slightly bent. For appearance, doubly important in ballet-type tricks, the extended arms and legs should always be slightly bent, rather than rigidly locked.

Lauderdale, Lakeland, Miami Tied

By United Press International
Lakeland, Miami and Fort Lauderdale shared the Florida State League lead today after a win, a loss and a rained-out game threw them into a tie.

Fort Lauderdale beat Lakeland 4-2 to make up the one-game difference that had separated them, and Miami had the night off because of rain at Tampa.

In other games, Orlando squeaked by St. Petersburg 2-1 in an 11-inning game and Sarasota beat Daytona Beach 5-7.

Chet Trail and Gary London rapped out singles in the ninth after two teammates drew walks to give Fort Lauderdale a win at Lakeland and move the Yankees into the three-way tie for first place.

Curt Sauer pitched 11 innings of tight ball for Orlando and then his teammates took over and scored the winning run. Second baseman Bill Wagner singled with a teammate aboard and St. Petersburg left fielder bobbed the ball just long enough to let the run score.

Sarasota exploded in the third inning for a six-run rally. Centerfielder Buddy Bradford banged out a deep-flying triple with the bases loaded for three runs, and three consecutive singles scored the other three runs.

Tonight, Miami is at Tampa for a doubleheader and Fort Lauderdale goes to Lakeland, St. Petersburg to Daytona Beach and Sarasota to Orlando for single games.

The Switch: Boxing Writer Turns Pro

PHAINESVILLE, Ohio (UPI)—Man bites dog! Rider carries horse! And now—Jack (Bobo) McKinney, boxing writer of the Philadelphia Daily News, turns professional fighter.

Referring to this nearly incredible switch today promoter Don Elbaum of Painesville declared: "And he is one fellow who can put his fists where his mouth is."

Elbaum, who promotes professional shows in the 600-seat St. Mary's Gymnasium in Painesville, was talking about writer-fighter McKinney and not about Cassius Clay.

Stocky, muscular, dark-haired McKinney needed only one minute of the first round to knock out middleweight Alvin Green of Akron, Ohio, in a scheduled four-round Saturday night in St. Mary's Gym. Left hooks to the chin dropped Green twice.

Jolting Jack, who had some amateur fistic experience before squaring off against a typewriter, turned professional Saturday night at the age of 33. He weighed 167 pounds to Green's 166.

"And I would say," continued Elbaum, "McKinney should have at least 10 good fighting years left—on the basis of the Archie Moore and Sugar Ray Robinson careers."

Duren's Eye Glasses Now Have Rose Tint

PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—only one major league game he started and completed for a victory—a 3-0 three hitter over Cleveland for the Angels, he thinks back in 1961. There's a line in the record book that he fanned seven batters in a row in a game of June 9, 1961.

The old flaming fast ball and a good slider make the current set of glasses rose tinted and for the moment at least, the big Texan is out of the fire department. He's a starter, not a stopper, something of a departure from his customary big league role.

Duren has made three recent starts for the Phils, by necessity at the beginning, and he's done quite well with a 1-1 record and no decision after nine innings in his third start.

He went six-innings-plus in his beginning against the Reds, gave it the old college try against the Mets and left for a pinch hitter in the sixth with a 1-0 deficit—a talented run, by the way—and blazed through nine innings against the Cubs before leaving tied 3-3 when, with a little bit of luck, he might have won 3-0.

Seems like baseball always has accepted Duren as a reliever, and his starter role might be regarded as an innovation. Actually, it is something old hat, in that the former Yankee fireman made starts for the Los Angeles Angels last year and the year before.

"I was a starter coming into the majors with Kansas City. You don't come into the big leagues as a reliever, do you?" Duren observed. "But then I guess I did most of my time in relief."

Actually, he can remember

4th Qualifying Runs Set Today

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—Qualifying trials for the July 4 Firecracker 400 stock car race were to start today.

The trials determine starting positions in two 50-milers set for Wednesday to fix the lineup for the fifth annual Firecracker.

Race officials said M. H. Rains on the Fourth, the race will go on the first clear day following.

Meanwhile, NASCAR officials said that Junior Johnson's win in the Atlanta Dixie 400 Sunday pushed him into the top ten pointholders in NASCAR's standings.

The win moved the Beale, N. C., driver from 14th to 10th place and gave him a total of 10,016 points.

Joe Weatherly of Norfolk, who leads the list again this week, brought his total up to 18,880 with a fifth-place finish Sunday.

Richard Petty of Kosciusko, N. C., is in second place with 17,788 points and Ned Jarrett of Conover, N. C., has 16,656 points for third place on the list.

A reception was held at the DeBary Mansion House Sunday afternoon to welcome Artist Loran Wilford who will be artist in residence at the Mansion through July 12. During his stay Wilford will give demonstrations each Wednesday afternoon. The public is invited to attend at a nominal charge. The buffet table at Sunday afternoon's reception was overlaid with a white hand-crocheted cloth and centered with a floral arrangement of pink roses flanked by tall pink tapers. Two crystal punch bowls and trays of sandwiches, cookies and mints completed the appointments. Hostesses were Mrs. John Leone, Mrs. Isabel Bearick, Mrs. Ralph Schenk, Mrs. J. L. Beville, Mrs. Vera Johnson, Mrs. O. Kilhaas, Mrs. Robert M. Wells, Mrs. John Tillrock, Mrs. D. N. Little and Mrs. Florence Seymour.

Cows Like Polka

FORT ATKINSON, Wis. (UPI)—Mrs. Carl Lange said she and her husband noticed a milk production slump during the two months their barn radio was broken. Mrs. Lange said production rose after it was repaired and added the cows seem to like a "good lively polka."

UPW Circle Two Holds Meeting In Lake Mary

By Frances Wester
Mrs. Harry Sandusky was hostess for the June meeting of Circle Two of the UPW of the Community Presbyterian Church of Lake Mary held at her home last Tuesday night. Mrs. Don Smith was in charge of the meeting. She gave an account of the activities and progress made by the missionaries of the church, both at home and abroad.

The devotionals were given by Mrs. Marie Lowe on the subject, "If You Never Read The Bible."
Mrs. P. D. Anderson presented the study lesson from chapters five and six of the Study Guide, One People of God.

Refreshments of punch and cake were served by the hostess during the social hour.
Other present included: Mrs. Horace Cochran, Mrs. Richard Beebe, Mrs. John Reeves, Mrs. Ray Cress, Mrs. Joe Smathers, Mrs. Charles Sjoblom, Mrs. Marion Lee and Mrs. C. Conaway. There were fifteen present.

550-650 Deaths Seen Over 4th

CHICAGO (UPI)—Within three days the bloody slaughter of the Fourth of July weekend begins and the National Safety Council estimates that 550 to 650 persons will be killed in traffic accidents.

The 102-hour holiday weekend begins at 6 p. m. local time July 3 and ends at midnight July 7.

"With the Fourth of July historically more dangerous," Safety Council President Howard Pyle said, "it calls for extra caution by all of us to hold the number of fatalities to the lower side of the estimate."

He noted the Memorial Day weekend toll of 525 killed last month set a record for a 102-hour holiday period.

The previous high for a 102-hour Independence Day holiday period was in 1961 when 509 persons were killed in traffic and 415 lost their lives in other types of accidents.

The worst holiday toll in history was the "black Christmas" of 1956 when 706 persons died.

The first national observance of Flag Day took place in 1877, when the government requested that the flag be displayed on all public buildings on the 14th of June, the 100th anniversary of the flag's adoption.

PVT. FESLER W. A. Fesler Jr. Ends Military Police School

Eight weeks of military police training has been completed by Pvt. Walter A. Fesler Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Fesler, 109 East 21st Street.

A 1958 graduate of Seminole High School, Fesler also attended Stetson University and enlisted in the Army last January. He completed his military police course at Fort Gordon, Ga., receiving instruction in such subjects as civil and military law, traffic control, map reading, prisoner-of-war control and self defense.

Cadets William E. Gailey and John M. Stansfield, of Sanford, are scheduled to complete six weeks of training at the Reserve Officer Training Corps (ROTC) summer camp at Fort Benning, Ga., July 26. Both graduated in 1959 from Seminole High School.

Gailey, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William R. Gailey, 2506 Laurel Avenue, is active in the ROTC at The Citadel, Charleston, S. C. Stansfield, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. William A. Stansfield, 519 Magnolia Avenue, is active in the ROTC at Florida State University, Tallahassee.

Sgt. Franklin H. Cummings, Sanford, is one of 17 officers and enlisted men who will complete their military careers of from 20 to 30 years on Aug. 1 at Fort Polk, La.

Pfc. Davie L. Thompson, son of Mrs. Lula Thompson, R. R. 2, participated in the Army's display of missiles, artillery and engineer equipment in honor of President Kennedy's visit to Hanau, Germany, June 25.

Lightning Kills Man, Daughter

TAMPA (UPI)—A father and his nine-year-old daughter were killed here Monday when a bolt of lightning hit them during a cloudburst.

Dead on arrival at Tampa General Hospital were Domingo Ruiz, 34, and his daughter, Vivian, 9.

The Ruiz family had gone to a park for a ball game in which a son, Bobby, 12, was scheduled to play. But it began to rain and Mrs. Ruiz suggested they go to the car.

Mrs. Ruiz reached the vehicle first and turned around just in time to see a flash of light where her husband and two children had been walking.

The father and daughter apparently were killed instantly, but the son was only dazed, police said.

8 Witnesses Refuse To Answer Probers

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—A House subcommittee on un-American activities hearing resumed for the final day today.

Eight witnesses invoked Constitutional protection 193 times at the opening session Monday while refusing to answer questions about alleged trips to Communist Cuba after travel to the island was banned by the U. S. government.

Most of the witnesses, including a Los Angeles attorney, Mrs. Rose Rosenberg, 67, read long prepared statements giving reasons why they felt they should not answer.

Chairman Edwin E. Willis, D-La., was provoked to anger several times when he tried to speed the hearing.

On several occasions Mrs. Rosenberg, Willis and committee counsel Alfred M. Nitke were all shouting at the same time.

Mrs. Rosenberg, who refused to answer questions about an alleged visit to Cuba last year and whether she belonged to various organizations, invoked the First, Fifth,

Ninth, 10th and 14th Amendments in refusing to answer and in challenging the legality of the committee.

"It is no proper concern of this committee when a citizen goes anywhere—including Cuba—to find the truth," she said.

Nearly 300 persons crowded into the hearing room while an estimated 100 pickets paraded outside the federal building.

Most carried signs denouncing the committee while a much smaller group bore signs supporting it.

Florida Income Up By $2,200

GAINESVILLE (UPI)—The University of Florida said Monday that the income of the average Florida family rose $2,200 a year between 1949 and 1959.

The figures were released by the school's bureau of economic and business research which also said that the income rise found Florida second only to Virginia among southeastern states in per-family income with $4,722.

The median national income for the year 1959 was $3,660, the bureau said.

There are about 70 peaks ranging from 10,000 feet to approximately 13,000 feet in the European Alps.

No All-Out War On Bill Seen

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Sen. Richard B. Russell, (D-Ga.), said Monday President Kennedy's legislative program will not be helped by his civil rights proposals but Southern Democrats will not wage retaliatory "all-out war" against it.

The Southern leader, chairman of the Senate Armed Services Committee, also said he thinks the United States now must wait for "some overt act" to justify a U. S. military "clean-up" which he felt should have been launched against Cuba last October.

Russell said in an interview that neither recognition of a Cuban-government-in-exile nor a "Pacific blockade" of Cuba, both urged by Republicans, is practical at this stage. He said the blockade would be a "belligerent act" without the "reason" which the Soviet missile threat provided last fall.

OF SANFORD

VAH-1 is leaving Saturday for a shakedown cruise aboard the USS Independence out of Norfolk and will proceed next month for a tour of duty in the Mediterranean until next March.

The North Orlando recreation area Tuesday night looked like a brightly lit Christmas Tree when volunteer workmen turned on the lights being strung over the entire park for Thursday's big July 4 celebration.

These workmen, who are, as usual, the same group that turns out for any civic project when the work is to be done for free, have worked every night for more than a week getting the park in shape. Weeds and grass have been cut, the lights put up, a brand new concession stand has been built and the entire area has been cleaned and raked.

Although it possibly will take the State Road Dept. four to five months to put up road signs, the speed limit on SR 434 has been set at 45 mph.

It appears that the North Orlando Development Co. might run into trouble with the village over franchise to operate the water and sewer works. Mayor W. W. Anderson said Tuesday night he has it on good legal advice that the agreement could be broken since the company has not lived up to rebate terms in the contract.

City fathers and Chamber of Commerce roads committee are very, very unhappy with the State Road Department. Over the improvement (?) job on Celery Avenue between Sanford and Mellowville. Seems SRD is laying Hmerock with intention of adding a tar cover. Local officials argue this is a primary road and the project should include curbing, gutters and drainage. They're seeking a conference with Max Brewer, SRD fifth district commissioner.

There's a big laugh circulating around town . . . and we feel we should share it with our readers. Longwood will include in its Fourth of July Fiesta a greased pig contest . . . whoever catches the porker may keep it. Chuchota is having a greased watermelon contest . . . whoever fishes the fruit out of Lake Catherine may keep it. Sanford is promoting a greased girl contest.

Sanford police officers are having an election this afternoon . . . for the police pension board.

Sanford now has a "chewing gum bandit." A burglar broke into Hair's Gulf service station at 1118 Sanford Avenue last night. The loot was four cartons of chewing gum and one of cough drops.

Seminole Memorial Hospital today offered "family rates" to George Touhy. Mrs. Touhy is in for minor surgery. Jimmy Touhy was held overnight for treatment of facial cuts suffered last night when his car slammed head-on into a utility pole at the end of West 25th Street.

City Manager Pete Knowles' girl Friday, Mary Harkey, has the following notice taped to the lamp shade on her desk: "I am a secretary—All I have to do is: Look like a girl, think like a man, act like a lady and work like a dog."

Shareholders in the Sanford - Seminole Development Company are "cutting a melon." The non-profit firm, designed solely and primarily to finance and aid in the financing of new business in the city, has declared its first dividend of 35 cents per share. The dividend distribution is substantially the same amount as the firm's net profit. A reserve of approximately $1,800 is left in the bank . . . several times the amount required for annual ordinary expenses.

RING THOSE BELLS! says Mayor Tom McDonald as he meets with Lions Club officials Jack Stomper (left) and George Hughes (standing) to officially proclaim 1 p.m. Thursday as the time to ring all the bells of the city for four minutes as an Independence Day celebration. ## Bells To Ring On 4th

Let Freedom Ring. Sanford will join other communities all over the nation in a country-wide ringing of the bells of Freedom on Independence Day at 1 p. m. Mayor Tom McDonald today called upon all citizens of Sanford and the county to join the official ringing of bells at the churches, four minutes beginning at 1 p. m. A program has been scheduled at Independence Hall in Philadelphia, sponsored by patriotic organizations of the country, in a renewed push to bring back the fervor and spirit of July 4th as the birthday of the nation's independence.

In Sanford, the Sanford Lions Club, and the Sanford Woman's Club have joined the Mayor in urging participation in this ringing of the bells, and the cooperation of churches having bells has been assured.

In addition, the Lions are sponsoring a Fun Fair at Fort Mellon Park in conjunction with activities of the Little Leagues, with have scheduled a father-son game, the annual all-star game and a barbecue.

Lions have on hand a color television set, stereo set and radio which will be given away at a drawing at 6 p. m. The Fun Fair will begin at 11 a. m., the father and son game at 2:30; the barbecue at 5 p. m. and the all-star game between teams from the National and American Leagues at 7:30 p. m. to cap the day's activities.

'Dead' Gator Has Last Fling
Bob Johnson, intrepid game warden will probably enjoy his rifle into the next gator he has to kill, after his experience Saturday. Called out to Paola to get a big gator reported in a lake out there, woodman Bob took careful aim, and with one well-placed shot between the eyes, dispatched that of gator to Gator Heaven . . . he thought, but driving down the road in a little while with the "dead" gator in the back seat of his car, Bob heard a noise, and before he knew it Bob was out in the street and the hard-headed gator had taken over the car!

Upshot was, Bob had to play cowboys and gators and leave the burly brute to get his car back.

"That doggone gator was all over that car," said Bob ruefully. "Wasn't room for me and him both!"

Arrests Solve Burglary Here
Burglary at Hair's Fashions, 2526 Park Drive, May 7, has been solved with arrest of three persons at Daytona Beach. It was reported today by Police Chief Roy Williams.

Howe's reported loss of $1 dresses valued at between $10.98 and $24.98, six to eight houses and four purses. Some of the merchandise was recovered. Chief Williams said.

Arrested were Emory Blackman, Walter Nesley and Sadie Byrd, all of Daytona Beach, police there reported to Chief Williams.

Kennedy Returns To White House
WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy returned to a business-laden desk at the White House today, convinced that his 10-day trip to Europe strengthened his hand in forging a more powerful Western defense alliance and in dealing with Russia.

Kennedy scheduled a Cabinet meeting at the White House after an 11-hour flight from Naples, Italy, to Andrews Air Force Base outside the nation's capital.

Prosecution Of Pro-Reds Asked
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. William C. Cramer, R-Fla., has called for prosecution of the "knowledgable pro-Communists" who arranged a trip to Cuba by 57 American students.

Cramer also called in a House speech for a list of names of the students and a "full investigation" by an appropriate committee of Congress.

Robert McCloskey, a State Department spokesman, meanwhile said it was hoped the students would have a "frank exchange" with Cuban students and "have an opportunity to talk with some of the hundreds of thousands of Cubans whose main aim in life is to leave the island for freedom elsewhere."

First Federal Reports 6-Month Gains
In what was described by President E. C. Harper Sr. as "not one of our best six month periods" the First Federal Savings and Loan Ass'n's midyear statement never the less shows assets of $16,944,981 as compared to $16,162,169 at the beginning of 1963.

The savings end of the business amounted from $11,211,583 to $15,987,065 in the half-year span. This was a jump of 7.5 per cent, and compared with a 4.5 per cent increase in mortgage investments, Harper said. However, it was pointed out that over $1,700,000 in loans were closed and this compared favorably with the preceding six months.

Reserves and surplus in the statement came to $1,909,522, up 6.8 percent from the year end, and indicating a healthy ratio to capital, Harper said.

On June 30 dividends amounting to $299,277 were declared at the annual rate of four and one quarter percent. The total increased approximately five per cent over the June-December 1962 total. In view of the climb in many operating expenses and the mounting taxes, the dividend and reserve features most heartening, according to the chief executive.

Savers at First Federal added over two and one-half million dollars to their accounts, but a 77 per cent turn-over indicated the strong demand on personal finances during the first-half of 1963. Of course, the impact of the winter's freezing temperatures was reflected throughout the local economy, Harper pointed out.

The conditions in the state are indicated by the reductions of anticipated dividends in many associations, said Harper. "Our Directors feel that we can prudently anticipate a continuation of the four and a quarter per cent annual dividend rate for the latter six months of this year," the president continued.

The indications of "rather trying times" at the beginning of this year have been fulfilled and now there is reason to feel that there will be a "slight bulge" from now to December, he believes, but the status of the property investment picture does not justify bound-time optimism. However, First Federal will have a very good final six months in 1963, Harper concluded.

Cabinet Split On Nuclear Defense Force

BONN (UPI) — West German support for President Kennedy's plan to share nuclear responsibility with Europe showed signs of cracking today.

As Kennedy left Europe after a 10-day visit to sell the plan, and West Germany awaited a visit from French President Charles de Gaulle, the Bonn cabinet split on the issue so crucial to the future of the Western alliance.

Economic Cooperation Minister Walter Scheel, a leading member of the Free Democrats who form the government coalition with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's Christian Democrats, said he thought an independent European nuclear force was best.

Informed sources said other Free Democrat ministers share Scheel's view. Free Democrats form one-fourth of the cabinet and have provided plenty of evidence they could bring down the government if they wished.

Scheel echoed De Gaulle's worry that Europe cannot depend forever on the United States for protection against Communist aggression.

Adenauer's government is on record as supporting Kennedy's plan for a multilateral, mixed-manned seaborn nuclear missile force within the North Atlantic Treaty Organization, Defense Minister Kai'we Von Hassel says it is necessary to insure the Americans can never withdraw from Europe.

De Gaulle, who opposes many NATO policies and insists on building an independent French nuclear force, is due here Thursday for a two-day visit. He was expected to do his best to widen the division on the nuclear issue.

Railroad's New Work Rules To Begin July 11

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The nation's railroads announced today they will place new work rules into effect at one minute after midnight July 11 despite union warnings that such a move would trigger a national rail strike.

J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the railroads' negotiating committee, said union refusal to accept recommendations of a White House board has led to "a complete breakdown" in talks designed to end the dispute.

The new rules would result in elimination of thousands of jobs and make sweeping changes in working conditions for 260,000 men who run about 93 per cent of the trains in this country.

The railroads' announcement came as Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz called in Wolfe and heads of the five rail unions to make proposals looking toward a settlement.

But Wirtz said no real progress had been made on key issues. He said the railroads have accepted recommendations from presidential boards but charged that the five unions have "adamantly refused to make any realistic concessions."

North Orlando Swears In Johnson As Judge

Fern Park Attorney Orville Johnson of the law firm Johnson and Murasko was sworn into office as the North Orlando Municipal Judge by Mayor W. W. Anderson at Tuesday night's monthly session of the Village Council.

Johnson fills the vacancy created by the recent death of Cheldon R. Lautenburg. As a member of the Florida Bar who also has been admitted to the Federal Courts, he fills all qualifications for the office as called for in the Village Charter.

Municipal Court, if needed, will be held at 7 p. m. on the second and fourth Wednesdays of each month.

In other business the council, plagued with old debts and some new ones which would more than equal the village treasury if paid in full, voted to pay $155.30 to satisfy current payments.

From this amount, $200 was paid to ABC Fire Equipment Co. toward the new $325 pump for the fire truck; $100 to Lew Arnold toward part payment of the more than $400 for past insurance coverage; $50 as the monthly payment on last year's bill from Pickersell Sporting Goods of Orlando and $25.50 on current incidental expenditures of the council.

A variance as requested last month by Horace C. Fire Chief Bill Hahn was authorized to order a 1000-gallon section of hard suction hose for the fire truck at a cost of $15.

A public hearing on complaints against the use of paratons by lawn spraying companies operating in the village was set for 7:30 p. m. July 15, at the Community Building. Immediately following the hearing a special meeting of all village officials will be held to determine duties of each office in connection with operations of the new fiscal year which began July 1.

Of course, the impact of the winter's freezing temperatures was reflected throughout the local economy, Harper pointed out.

The conditions in the state are indicated by the reductions of anticipated dividends in many associations, said Harper. "Our Directors feel that we can prudently anticipate a continuation of the four and a quarter per cent annual dividend rate for the latter six months of this year," the president continued.

The indications of "rather trying times" at the beginning of this year have been fulfilled and now there is reason to feel that there will be a "slight bulge" from now to December, he believes, but the status of the property investment picture does not justify bound-time optimism. However, First Federal will have a very good final six months in 1963, Harper concluded.
