Now that most of you bowlers are back in action again, remember those better bowling times when you can come out and sharpen up your game . . . at reduced rates. Bowler's specials are offered each Tuesday from noon 'till 4 p.m. and then on Sunday we have our weekly feature designed for the entire family.

Come on out and try a game of bowling. It's good exercise and healthful, too. And besides all that jazz, you'll probably become one of the large group which helps to make bowling the world's largest participation sport. GET SMART . . . GO BOWLING!

Some people have all kinds of bowling problems. Take Margie Carathers as an example. She went out and bought a new ball, found that it wasn't working just like she'd expected it to, and then picked up the old pumpkin and rode home on it like a queen with a 620 series. All of this action took place on Monday evening in the

Mixed Scratch League. Later that evening, the men's Singles Classic League started its match games and bombs by Bobby Borsdorf, Harry Pentecost and Pete Petersen echoed throughout the lanes. All three of these keglers averaged over the 200 plateau in otaling plus 800 four-game series. Still an opening for three more bowlers in this league

Miss Branson Bride Of P.A. Drappo

Miss Julia Ellen Branson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Branson, Altamonte Springs, and Paul Alan Drappo, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick W. Drappo, of Virginia, were united in Holy Matrimony Sept. 2, 1967, at 2 p.m. at Northside Christian Church, Maitland. Rev. Frank McKinney was the officiating clergyman at the double ring ceremony before an altar accented with baskets of white glads and yellow carnations.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a formal Empire-styled gown of white linen with lace Kabuki sleeves. Her two-tiered veil of illusion was topped with a crown of flower petals and she carried a cascade of white orchids. Miss Maria Yancey, Paxton, Ill., served as maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow taffeta, floor length, and her headpiece was a crown of yellow petals with a matching yellow veil.
