

SANFORD CELERY BRINGS UNHEARD OF PRICES COMES BACK STORY

Green Top And Spring Crops Save The Day

The Sanford section is the greatest section in the United States. Not only is it the greatest winter vegetable section in this country but it has the greatest recuperative powers and despite some hard knocks always "comes back."

This season, for instance, was not a profitable one for the growers of celery and lettuce. The cold here and the cold north millated against the growing and the shipping of celery and lettuce and the congestion of freight in the northern yards spelled ruin to the growers who had placed their all in these crops only to see them delayed in transit until they rotted on the tracks or arrived in zero weather and froze on the tracks.

But the farmers here have something all the time and intensive farming as practiced here means that the growers keep the ground producing crops of some kind every month in the year and now comes the growers of green celery with a crop although not large is bringing as high as $1700 per car and it is estimated that the crop of green celery alone will bring some $150,000 into the Sanford section.

In conjunction with the green celery is green corn, peppers, cucumbers, potatoes, beans, etc., all bringing good prices with the exception of the Irish potatoes perhaps and these spring crops will average enough to bring the farmers out of the slough of despond into the sunshine of prosperity once more.

The law of supply and demand is made plainer this year than ever before for celery that a month ago looked like a losing proposition has come to the front and while it is not fine stuff by any means is bringing the price of between four and five dollars per crate.

All of which brings to our minds the one fundamental thought that too much green stuff can be raised, the markets can be glutted at certain times and stuff will not always be moved as promptly as it should be, but Sanford will be Sanford and Sanford growers will always win in the end and business will go on as usual this summer, Seminole will raise as much money for war purposes, her sons will fight the battles of the nation and her farmers will keep them supplied with the products that have made and will continue to make this section great.

FLORIDA'S GREAT RECORD

Oversubscribed Greater Than Others In Liberty Loan

Atlanta, Ga., May 7, 1918. In the Third Liberty Loan Campaign just closed the Sixth Federal Reserve District made a record which certainly cannot be excelled, and I think could hardly be equalled by any district in the United States.

The district oversubscribed its quota, and each state oversubscribed its quota as follows:

Table with 3 columns: State, Quota, Over-subscribe. Rows include Florida, Alabama, Tennessee, Georgia, Mississippi, Louisiana.

The above record is one of which each one of us should feel justly proud. These figures are based on reports which we have in hand from county chairmen, and may vary some when returns are made to the Federal Reserve Bank; and are therefore subject to final adjustment.

At the opening minute of the campaign more communities in this district reported their quota oversubscribed than any district in the United States. I believe when the final figures are available, our record as to the number of individual subscribers will compare favorably with that of any other district.

This remarkable success will, I feel sure be most gratifying to the bank in the district. They have contributed largely to the success and are due a large amount of credit for same; and this committee takes this opportunity to express its sincere appreciation for the cooperation which has been accorded it by the banks. There is sufficient glory for all in this achievement.

Without your untiring efforts and cooperation these results could not have been obtained; but with your support this district has been placed in an enviable position near the top of the list.

Yours very truly, W. C. Wardlaw, Chrm., Liberty Loan Exec. Comm.

Precious Idol Pup and Rooster

"BOW-OW-OW-OW-OW!" It is one o'clock in Sanford, the resident district, morning. "BOW-OW-OW-OW!" A sick woman tesses and moans, "Oh, I wish that dog would stop!" It is somebody's precious idol pup, and somebody let's it "BOW-OW-OW-OW-OW!" It is two o'clock in Sanford, two in the morning, and "BOW-OW-OW-OW-OW!" A man who needs every minute of sleep he can get is wide awake muttering, "I wish somebody would kill that dog!" "BOW-OW-OW-OW-OW!" Is this the explanation that somebody's precious idol pup is a dachshund?

"COCK-A-DOODLE-DO!" It is one o'clock in Sanford, the resident district, any morning. "COCK-A-DOODLE-DO!" Somebody's rooster thinks that it is morning. So he thinks every night from twelve to four, then he is sure of it and starts in with renewed confidence. Oh, Mr. Rooster Owner, do you not know that unless you are raising eggs for hatching your Cock-a-doodle-doe is utterly needless? Unfertilized eggs are better to eat than fertilized. Mark you, Sunday is coming, and Sunday's dinner! Think, think of Sanford's welfare! Two o'clock in the morning—"COCK-A-DOODLE-DO!"

INSTRUCTIONS

To Housekeepers Regarding Storage of Flours and Meals in Warm Weather

Hot weather frequently produces spoilage in certain flours and meals if they are not properly cared for, especially those which contain a high percentage of fats, moisture and the outer coatings of the grain. To prevent such losses, particularly at this time when bread stuffs are so essential to the allies and ourselves, the following instructions for the storage of these flours and meals are given:

- 1. Buy in small quantities. 2. See that flours and meals are in good condition when purchased. 3. Keep in a cool, dry place. (a) Use tins or covered jars for containers, scalded and perfectly dried. (b) It is well to use two covered containers alternately, always putting fresh purchases in a clean container, and never mixing the residue from the previous purchase with the fresh purchase. 4. Sterilize before putting away by placing in shallow pans (or clean cotton containers) in an oven and heating slowly, being careful not to burn or even brown. The flour or meal must be in thin layers and stirred frequently so that every part may be equally heated. After cooling, place in clean covered containers.

Next Monday night at the Lyric Theatre.

BLACKMAN IS ELECTED TICK HEAD

Manager Tick Eradication Committee For Florida

The following interesting account of Dr. W. F. Blackman's appointment to head the tick eradication committee appeared in the last issue of the Times-Union.

Dr. W. F. Blackman of Winter Park has accepted the position of manager for the Florida Cattle Tick Eradication Committee, as successor to the late P. L. Sutherland. The announcement was made yesterday by Jules M. Burgulzer, chairman of the committee, who said to a Times-Union representative: "The members of our committee feel very fortunate in securing the services of Dr. Blackman to carry on the work which has been in progress for two years, under the leadership and impetus given to it by Mr. Sutherland."

"Dr. Blackman is thoroughly familiar with Florida conditions, having been a property buyer and winter visitor for more than thirty years, and a resident of the state for the last sixteen years."

"His interest in livestock production is shown by his having been re-elected president of the Florida Live Stock Association for several years and he also is a member of the state live stock advisory board, which was created by the last legislature. He has a ranch at Lake Monroe, near Sanford which is well stocked with cattle, hogs and sheep."

Dr. Blackman is well known throughout Florida, having been for thirteen years president of Rollins College in Winter Park, the oldest institution of higher learning in the state. He also has been president of the Florida Audubon Society for

Says We Have Half Million And Then Some

Washington, May 9.—More than half a million American soldiers have been sent to France.

Secretary Baker today authorized the statement that his forecast to congress in January that 500,000 troops would be despatched to France early in the present year now had been surpassed.

Mr. Baker dictated the following statement:

"In January I told the senate committee that there was strong likelihood that early in the present year 500,000 American troops would be despatched to France. I cannot either now, or perhaps later, discuss the number of American troops in France, but I am glad to be able to say that the forecast I made in January has been surpassed."

As a result of a personal investigation of gun machine production during the past few days, the secretary announced that there is no present shortage of light or heavy types of these weapons either in France or America and no shortage is in prospect.

Mr. Baker said that there has been no question brought up as to the supply of light type Browning guns, which were coming forward in quantities. He would not say whether shipment of these guns to France had been started. As to the heavy Brownings he said:

"Early manufacturers' estimates as to the production of the heavy type perhaps were more optimistic than was justified. The estimate of the ordnance department has been met and is being met. Some of these heavy guns have been pro-

PRESIDENT PROCLAIMS

Red Cross Week

Washington, May 7.—President Wilson today issued a proclamation designating the week beginning May 20 as "Red Cross Week," and calling upon the American people to contribute generously to the second $100,000,000 war fund of the American Red Cross for the alleviation of suffering among the American troops in France and their dependents at home and among the fighting forces and civilian populations of the allied countries. The proclamation follows:

"Inasmuch as the war fund of 1917, so generously contributed by the American people to the American Red Cross for the administration of relief at home and abroad, has been practically exhausted by appropriations for the welfare of the men in our military and naval forces, and for those dependent upon them and for the yet more urgent necessities of our allies, military and civilian who have long borne the brunt of the war;

"And, inasmuch as the American Red Cross has been recognized by law and international convention as the public instrumentality for war relief;

"And, inasmuch as the year of our own participation in the war has brought unprecedented demands upon the patriotism and liberality of our people and made evident the necessity of concentrating the work of relief in one main organization which can respond effectively and universally to the needs of humanity under stress of war;

"And, inasmuch as the duration of the war and the closer and closer co-operation of the American Red Cross with our own army and navy, with the governments of our allies, and with foreign relief organizations have resulted in the discovery of new opportunities of helpfulness under conditions which translate opportunity into duty;

"And, inasmuch as the American Red Cross War Council and its commissioners in Europe have faithfully and economically administered the people's trust;

"Now, therefore, by virtue of my authority as President of the United States, and President of the American Red Cross, I, Woodrow Wilson, do hereby proclaim the week beginning May 20, 1918, as Red Cross Week during which the people of the United States will be called upon again to give generously to the continuation of the important work of relieving distress, restoring the waste of war and assisting in maintaining the morale of our own troops and the peoples of our allies by this manifestation of effort and sacrifice on the part of those, who, though not privileged to bear arms are of one spirit, purpose and determination with our warriors.

"In witness whereof I have hereunto set my hand and caused the seal of the United States to be affixed.

"Done in the District of Columbia, this 7th day of May, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and eighteen, and of the independence of the United States of America, the one hundred and forty-second.

(Signed) "WOODROW WILSON."

(By the President: "ROBERT LANSING, Secretary of State."

COMMITTEE AT DeLAND VOLUSIA COMMISSIONERS FAVOR ROAD ACTION

ded and there is every indication of forthcoming production increasing in substantial numbers."

The secretary chose his words about the troops in France with the utmost care. He would not amplify the statement in any way and specifically asked that the press refrain from speculation as to what precise figures his guarded remarks covered or as to what possibilities of early additional increase in the force on the other side there might be.

There has been repeated official announcements, however, that the government is bending every energy to rushing men across to France, and officers directly in charge of the transportation have expressed satisfaction with the progress being made.

There are indications that the department has adhered strictly to its policy of equipping fully before his departure every man sent across. That is the first consideration in checking off supplies of clothing and arms.

Secretary Baker's conclusion as to machine guns follows on the heels of the statements by members of congress in this regard. In the discussion of the production of Browning machine guns, contracts for other types both here and abroad apparently have been lost sight of. Those contracts preceded the placing of orders for the Brownings and that supply was designed to meet the emergency until the new gun was available in quantities.

The present practice of brigading American units with French and British divisions, it is pointed out, makes the artillery question less pressing as an immediate independent supply. The allied divisions to which the Americans are assigned already have the artillery necessary, and the fact that American infantry is added to them does not mean a proportionate increase in guns.

Today's statement regarding the movement to France is the first official utterance made during the war indicating even indirectly the number of men sent abroad. The first force to go over was never described except as a division, although as a matter of fact it was constituted two divisions soon after its arrival on the other side. The fact that more than 500,000 have gone this year also shows the accelerated rate at which the men have been moving forward since the winter passed and eased the shipping and embarkation situations.

The effect of Mr. Baker's announcement in Germany and Austria, if it is allowed to reach those countries will be watched with interest. There is little doubt that the German general staff has known that some hundreds of thousands of men have been sent across by the United States, but the size of the force has been carefully kept back from the rank and file of the German army as well as from the civilian population.

To date 1,227,000 Americans have been called to the colors under the selective service act. Provost Marshal General Crowder today gave this figure as the approximate strength of the national army.

Sunday at Congregational Church. At the morning service Mrs. Tack and Mrs. Hoy will be special request repeat the singing of "The Magdalene," Warren's impressive hymn, which added so much to the Easter program.

Titusville Road Will Receive Attention In Near Future

Repairing and making passable the Titusville-Geneva road is a matter that has been discussed and planned for many months but no definite action was taken until the Geneva Board of Trade auxiliary took the matter in hand, brought their troubles to Sanford and before the Sanford Board of Trade and urged immediate action. Resulting from this, a committee composed of Messrs. J. J. Dickinson, E. H. Kilbee, L. M. Rehlinger and M. E. Dooley were appointed by President Kelly to put this matter before the Volusia county commissioners. This was done yesterday and afflicting with this committee were Messrs. G. F. Duren, T. G. Knight and W. F. Allen of Titusville and A. Donaldson and P. L. Klier of Southmere. After hearing the well established reasons as set forth by this committee, the Volusia commissioners have agreed to make a trip of inspection over the entire route and have accepted the invitations of the Sanford Board of Trade to come to Sanford and be shown over the road. On this occasion the Titusville, Southmere and Geneva progressives will stage a fish fry and dinner at the Southmere club in honor of the visitors. Contrary to advice and reports, the Volusia commissioners showed a broad spirit of willingness to do what was asked of them and while they took no official action at their meeting yesterday, the individual expression, with one exception was favorable to the requests made. This is an important highway and saves autoists enroute to east coast points some eighty-five miles by cutting off the long way via New Smyrna.

The Board of Trade is due the sincere appreciation of every citizen of this county in their prompt and effective action in this matter.

Recruiting in the Naval Reserve

The three million men to be called this year means that all able bodied men must go, whether married or single. While the Naval Reserve can only take a limited number, it has been decided by District Enrolling officer, Lieutenant Marcy B. Darnall to keep the Tampa Enrolling Office at Room One, City Hall, open for a limited time to take care of the men in the draft age who will be able to secure release from their local boards. Only able bodied men between the ages of 18 and 35 will be enrolled. Any able bodied man of that age who is not in the service is a Slacker. Girls who do not urge their sweethearts and brothers to get into uniforms are Slackers and are aiding Germany. If we put forth every effort we will win. If we fail to stand up and give blow for blow Germany will soon be delivering all the blows.

Men with families need not hesitate about enlisting because the government has provided for their families by extra allowances and cheap life insurance. Over two hundred fine men have arrived in Key West for the Reserve in the past ten days, among them bankers, merchants, clerks and others of good standing in their home towns, and they, as well as all who enlist will be given opportunity to pass examinations for commissions.

The young men who enlist now, and try to do the right thing have great chances for promotion. The choice of army or navy is now open to drafted men who can secure permission from their local boards.

This privilege may be withdrawn at any time, and those who prefer the Reserve should not lose a single day in applying for enrollment.

Launched at Tampa. Tampa, May 8.—Nymeeoki, the first of four wooden steamships being built here was launched this afternoon. The hull was laid last October. Mrs. C. M. Vorce who as usual has been spending the winter here, left yesterday for her home in Cleveland, Ohio.

The many friends of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Henck will be glad to hear of their safe arrival at Plainsfield, N. J. After advertising his Longwood property in the north this summer Mr. Henck will return to Longwood on October 1st.

It is hoped every person in Longwood will be at the Library promptly at 8 o'clock Friday night to hear the speakers from Sanford tell of the Red Cross work and new drive.

We suppose the next business opened up in Longwood will be a jewelry store with a special display of silver cups, etc. The Poultry Yards and Squab Farms have so many prize cups that room for storing them is beginning to be an item.

Work on the rifle range here is to begin on Thursday of this week. All honor to Mr. Entzinger.

How long will the town council allow the Coast Line to keep the ditch open at north end of the depot? At all other points between Jacksonville and Tampa such an unsightly ditch would not be tolerated.

Longwood and vicinity cotton acreage now totals one hundred and sixty-five acres.

We extend sympathy to Maitland and Altamonte Springs, both these places being without telegraph offices. Ours is still ticking.

Longwood Auxiliary to Sanford Board of Trade met Tuesday night. A delegation from Sanford promised to come out but failed to appear so Longwood will go to Sanford's meet-

HOUSEWORK A BURDEN

Woman's lot is a weary one at best. But with backache and other distressing kidney ills life indeed becomes a burden. Doan's Kidney Pills have made life brighter for many Sanford women. Read what Mrs. M. E. Manning, 114 Magnolia avenue, Sanford, says: "A few years ago I suffered from backache. At that time I had a pain in my back that kept me awake nights and I couldn't do my housework. My kidneys acted irregularly and caused me a lot of annoyance. I didn't feel fit for anything at all. I finally bought a box of Doan's Kidney Pills and they brought me relief. One box drove away the backache and fixed my kidneys up in fine shape."

CALIFORNIA.—Increased cost of elections because of women voters very little.

OREGON.—Woman suffrage has increased election expenses only so far as naturally they would increase proportionately to increase in number of voters.

KANSAS.—Increased cost of elections insignificant.

ARIZONA.—Increased cost of elections through women voting not worth considering.

MONTANA.—The argument of increased taxation because of woman suffrage is absurd.

NEVADA.—Slightly increased cost for printing additional ballots and compensation for election clerks.

In considering this question it must be remembered that women pay their full pro rata share of the taxation for election expenses and that they have been doing so for more than a century while deprived by law from casting a vote.

TAKE YOUR TOWN OFF THE MARKET

The slogan of this year's Food Production Committee of the National American Woman Suffrage Association is, "Take your town off the market."

Shortage of food, shortage of transportation, shortage of labor, confront us today, says the committee. How are we best to meet these conditions? What can suffragists do to help during the coming year?

Raise enough vegetables for every man, woman and child in your community and save transportation space. Cultivate your own garden. Help raise the Woman's Land Army to furnish labor to the farmer.

England now has an army of 200,000 women farmers and asks for 14,000 more. What English women can do American women can also do.

ENFRANCHISE WOMAN NOW, SAYS NEW YORK SENATOR

"From now on every woman must be directly affected by a vast majority of the activities of government," said Senator Calder of New York, speaking on the floor of the United States senate on March 12. "If we are convinced that democracy is sound in principle, if we are determined to protect and extend and perpetuate the system, must we not concede to women the right and must we not ask them to assume the obligation of assisting to direct the course of the state and nation?"

"There are those who claim that this is no time to consider the question of woman suffrage, but the question of suffrage at this time is not only the right of women, but it is also a question of war-time efficiency for a country struggling in the throes of this great world war."

"Men and women today are ready, as they have never been ready before in history, to give themselves, their life's blood, the things they hold nearest and dearest, for a cause which is greater than personal gain, a cause which means freedom to the world.

"There are those who say that women do not want to vote; that when they have the vote they do not use it."

"The fact that women do want the vote was proved by the signature of the 1,020,215 women now in the possession of the New York State Woman Suffrage Party."

"That women who have the vote use it is evinced by the fact that in no suffrage state has suffrage ever been regretted or revoked after it once was given to women; that in every suffrage state labor legislation has advanced with a steady and parallel growth."

ENJOY THEIR WALRUS FEAST

Eskimos Have Solid Repast When One of These Big Creatures Has Been Taken.

Among the Smith Sound tribe of northernmost Greenland the favorite diet in walrus meat, says Fitzhugh Gleet in Popular Mechanics Magazine. When one of these animals has been harpooned and, after a struggle, sometimes lasting many hours, is finally dispatched, his 2,000-pound carcass is towed to the ice edge and hauled out for butchery.

Shoulders, flippers, and sections of the trunk are buried under a pile of stones to guard against the depredations of thieving foxes. Entrails are raked out and fed to the famished wolves which form North Greenland dog teams.

Follows then the feast. For entree a segment of the outer flipper has been saved, a little stringy as a rule, but of a peculiar rancid flavor exceedingly tasty to the native palate.

The creature's stomach may contain several gallons of clams. One rip of a knife and the yellow lumpy broth foams out over the snow to the immense delight of the hunters. Instantly all turn to and swallow great mushy handfuls of the repulsive, half-digested morsel.

By this time the pot is on and some thick lumps of meat and fat from near the backbone are boiling with fragrant (to the Eskimo) odors. Much meat has already been devoured raw by those too hungry to wait.

Men are almost full. Sleeping skins are spread. Tales begin in sleepy, droning tones. "Brother, a bit of mumiuk-to-suan" (the most delicious part) one suggests. At which a young man rises and goes out. Presently he returns with the huge tusked head. Dangling from it is a foot or so of thick, white windpipe. This is cut into short lengths, apportioned out, and eaten with the greatest gusto.

FOR JUSTICE FOR MERCY
WAR WORK OF NATIONAL AMERICAN WOMAN SUFFRAGE ASSOCIATION.

The National American Woman Suffrage Association, of which Dr. Shaw is honorary president and Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt is president, began its work for the war by an offer of service to the government in February, 1917. For the past year the association has had vigorous campaigns of war service all over the country.

The women of the suffrage association have helped to take the military census.

They have raised millions of dollars of the Liberty loan.

They have worked for the Red Cross.

They did a nation wide work in food production and food conservation in 1917 and will do a bigger one in 1918.

They have now co-operated with other women's organizations to raise an army of women to work on farms.

They are carrying on an extensive work in Americanization of the alien.

They have a committee on guard for equal pay and for the protection of women in industry.

They have pledged support to the work for the children of the nation.

COST OF ELECTIONS.

Does woman suffrage increase cost of elections?

Take first hand testimony on this question from the states where women vote. Do not let yourself be deceived by anti-suffrage gossip.

The following answers from governors and secretaries of equal suffrage states have been received in answer to the question, "Does woman suffrage greatly increase election expenses and make additional taxation possible?"

WYOMING.—"Woman suffrage has not increased taxes in this state nor cost of elections."

COLORADO.—"Only increase in cost of elections what naturally accrues from added number to electorates."

IDAHO.—"Added election expense infinitesimal."

WASHINGTON.—"Election expenses only increased by slight cost caused by effort to keep voting precincts under 250 voters."

MOTHER
 She never touched with skillful brush the canvas
 And left a picture that the world might praise;
 Or, with inspired fingers on the keyboard,
 Sent down with eyes tear stained, yet looking upward,
 With smiling almost to the vale of shadows
 To bring a little new-born soul from God.

She never sang a song of joy or sadness,
 In clear, sweet tones to make us smile or weep;
 Her voice, too weak to win the world's approval
 Was the only good to hush the babe to sleep.
 She never penned a book whose glowing pages
 Might lift us up and help us in the fight;
 But day by day she sought with loving patience,
 To guide two little stumbling feet aright.
 And yet, mayhap, when at the gate of heaven
 She paused, God looked at her and smiled,
 With hand outstretched, his kind voice spoke a welcome
 To her, the mother of a little child.

NOT A CANDIDATE
 Having been importuned by many friends to become a candidate for various offices in this campaign I wish to say that it is impossible for me to be a candidate in this election. Since America entered the war I have given my services entirely to the government and expect to be called away at various times as long as the war lasts. In conjunction with the various committees engaged in war work I have given my time and given space in The Herald for everything asked by the government and expect to devote all my time and all my attention and my little money in helping to win the war.

In fact war is my business and will be until it is over and we have marched to Berlin and until that time I cannot engage in politics or have any part in politics. The call to accept office has been so insistent that at some time in the future when peace is declared and my friends think I can serve them to advantage they can again come to me and find me in a more receptive mood. Until then America has the first call on my services.
 Respectfully,
 R. J. Holly.

MOTHER'S DAY
 Everything has a deeper significance since the war has thrown the world into a raging cauldron of seething flames of hate and destruction and the crucible of sorrow and suffering. And in the midst of so much anxiety and care and worry we instinctively turn to mother for solace and counsel and if mother is not here we miss her wise counsel and the protection of the arms that never refused their shelter and today as ever in the world's history it is mother who is bearing her large share of the world's suffering.
 Mothers who watch over their sons, who would not keep them home when their country needs them and mother who bids them go forth with the smile breaking bravely through the tears and mother who in the stormy reaches of the night offers up a prayer for the boys who have gone over there.

 It is mother who waits anxiously each day to learn of the battle and mother who stitches and knits and weaves for the boys and the tears mingle with the stitches. It is mother who keeps the home fires burning and the boy's picture in his brave uniform on the mantel and it will be mother who will greet him upon his return after her sacred memory has kept him from the dangers and the pitfalls that ever beset the feet of the soldier in the camps, and mother's face keeps his spirit bright before the battle and through the battle and after the battle and it will be "mother's name" breathed as his last should the enemy slay him.

And to the boys in the camps and to all who are at home comes again Mother's Day and comes again that sacred duty of giving into her dear hands if living the white flower and if gone before to lay it on her shrine and if we are absent from her to wear the white flower as the badge of a son's devotion to her.

Mother's Day will be celebrated on Sunday all over this great country and in every church in the land will be especial exercises and mother will be upon every tongue.

A beautiful story is credited to Sam Jones which describes a decision in heaven as to what is the most lovely thing on earth. An angel was sent down from heaven one day to bring back the most beautiful thing on this terrestrial hemisphere. He hunted long and carefully. He saw a bed of beautiful American roses in bloom, lovely beyond comparison, and he gathered an armful and started to return to his home above. As he soared into the air he saw a baby smile, and filled with rapturous admiration at the sight returned to take it too. By its side he discovered mother's love and with all these in his arms he mounted to the place beyond the skies. Just outside the heavenly gate the spirit paused for a moment, and lo! the roses were withered and dead, and the baby's smile had vanished, but strong and faithful and serenely beautiful as ever mother's love remained, and he cast the others aside and took this and laid it at the feet of his Master as the most lovely and lasting thing on earth.

YOUR PAPER REPRESENTS YOU

In Florida there are many live towns that are moving forward rapidly to city size and many small cities that will soon be large ones if they keep up their present rate of gain. No one needs to be told that the growth of a city benefits nearly every man who settled in it when it was a village or town or even a small city. Land that at the beginning could be bought at little more than farm land prices is sold by the town lot and then by the city lot and it goes on up, enriching the man who bought it when it was cheap.

Besides this motive of self interest a patriotic pride makes a man love to see the community he lives in grow, and so throughout the state there are thousands of men with whom the community interest is next to self interest and not very far behind it as an incentive to effort.

What can I do to build up the town I live in? This question is engaging the attention of tens of thousands of Floridians. Various things can be done but we can tell the best one—build up your local newspaper.

We know the Florida press pretty well and we do not know an editor who is not a booster. We do not know one who is not giving his people as good a paper as they permit him to give them. We do not know a state whose papers are better, considering the size of the towns in which they are published, than the Florida papers. In fact we do not know any state whose papers are as good considering the size of the towns that support them.

This speaks well for Florida editors. They put their energies and their talents into the papers they publish and more than that they put their money into them. Display with them means display through the papers they publish. We do not know of an exception when we say they make their papers just as good as their means will allow.

The newspapers of this state speak well for their publishers but that is not all. They speak well for the communities in which they are published. The paper, shows the talent of the editor but it shows just as plainly the enterprise and the liberality of the people of the community it serves. Could a paper published in a town of five thousand inhabitants in Florida be as good as one published in a town twice as large in another state just through the efforts of the editor? It could not unless the five thousand Floridians gave it as good support as it would have received from ten thousand people in another state.

Your local paper is your representative. It is as good as you enable the editor to make it. If it is not good the community in which it is published suffers. If it is remarkably good for the size of the town those who see it will know that the town is full of progressive men and will soon grow up to the size and the excellence of the paper. The two work reciprocally, each pushing upward.—Times-Union.

BE SURE YOU ARE RIGHT

As the casualty lists from the American army now in France grow in length the war will come home to us more and more closely and the bitterness of feelings against the Huns will increase in proportion. But we must continue to keep our heads cool and our judgment sound. We cannot afford to let emotion overwhelm us or lead us to acts that we may later regret. We have an element to deal with at home that is very trying to our patience, an element that must be dealt with firmly, without gloved hands, but we must make no mistakes in so doing. The pro-German is something of a problem, difficult to corner and frequently escaping all efforts to detect him. Suspicion does not justify drastic action, but when the evidence backs up reports or suspicion, then the law should be imposed without mercy. We have the necessary law machinery for dealing with spies, seditious persons and all kinds of pro-Germans, and only harm will come from mob violence. In the first place a mob acts on impulse and not on cold facts. It frequently makes the innocent suffer for the acts of the guilty, but in courts of law there is a chance for the innocent to prove themselves guiltless and a mis-carriage of justice while possible is not probable. It is difficult to trace rumors to its source and rumor is often accepted as fact by those who would take the work into their own hands. But where a citizen overhears seditious utterances or sees a secret enemy, or a traitor, attempting anything prejudicial to the interests of the United States he will not be blamed for acting swiftly and effectively.

Every patriotic citizen desires to act for the best interests of the nation and desires to punish only the guilty. If, led astray to his loyalty, a citizen inflicts injury on some person whom he later discovers did not merit punishment he would regret his action keenly. This is where the danger of mob rule prevails. The innocent may suffer and the guilty escape.

It is best to report to constituted authority rumors of disloyal utterances on the part of any suspect so that the same be investigated. If the rumors can be substantiated the spy, traitor or pro-German will be taken into custody and be punished in accord with the law of the land.

Every loyal citizen, however, should be vigilant and be forever on the watch for the damnable Hun spy, or the traitorous resident who may be spreading German propaganda. The fact that a man is an American citizen does not always prove that he is loyal. If he has been guilty of seditious talk he is an enemy and should be reported, but the witness to such utterances should testify, not those who have heard somebody else say that they heard the party in question was disloyal. It is the old adage, "Be sure you are right, then go ahead."—St. Augustine Record.

"Among the degrees which have been awarded to Dr. Blackman are: A. B., by Oberlin College; B. D., by Yale University; Ph. D., by Cornell University, and L.L. D., by the University of Florida.

"The rapidly changing conditions of Florida make it imperative that livestock production be established on a permanently safe basis, which means that the cattle fever ticks must be eradicated from the entire state as quickly as possible. The people are recognizing this fact, and through hearty co-operation of all agencies with the cattle owners we hope to see Florida entirely released from tick fever quarantine.

In an interview with Dr. Blackman he said, "During more than thirty years I have been a careful student of live stock conditions, and have been working for development of the industry along improved lines, which I have urged on the attention of the people of the state at every opportunity.

"I am convinced that Florida has greater opportunities for live stock production, perhaps, than any other state in the Union. On my own ranch in recent years I have introduced a number of pure-bred cattle and hogs, and have crossed them on native stock with great success.

"I have been co-operating with the bureau of plant industry at Washington, in testing out numerous improved forage crops and grasses. My creed, if such you might call it, is that we should have better feed crops and better breeds of live stock, which I have urged others to adopt. As a preliminary to all this forward movement the eradication of cattle fever ticks and greatest possible control of hog cholera in the state is absolutely essential.

"With suitable co-operation of the people of the state and further action by the next legislature, I believe that it will be possible to completely eradicate the cattle fever ticks from the entire state within the next three years. It will be my effort as manager for the Florida Cattle Tick Eradication Committee to assist in the accomplishment of this result."

NEW POTATOES MUCH LOWER

Sharp declines occurred in the producing sections, the price to growers reaching $3.00 per bbl. for No. 1, Spaulding Rose, f. o. b. usual terms. Hastings, Fla., resisting power was shown at the low point. Values recovered temporarily to $3.25 but sagged back at the close. These prices are about one-half the range at the beginning of the season and with a range of $7.75-8 on May 8 of last year. Total movement of new potatoes was 968 cars compared with 501 last week and 979 for the corresponding week last year. Texas shipments were 21 cars, a loss of 15 compared with last week. Sales to the jobbing trade in northern markets followed a very weak range. No. 1 Florida Rose selling generally at $4.50-6.00 and showing losses of $1.00-2.00 per bbl. in several markets. On May 8 of last year the jobbing range was $9.00-9.25.

FEED THE COTTONSEED MEAL

It Can Be Returned to the Soil With Stable Manure.

Since potash is virtually unobtainable and both nitrogen and acid phosphate are high priced because of the use of nitrates and sulphuric acid for munition purposes, cotton seed meal, which carries all three of the fertilizing elements is of great importance. Immense quantities of this material have gone into fertilizers in past years, and much is being used for fertilizing purposes at the present time.
 Although cotton seed meal is a good fertilizer, the University of Florida experiment station insists that the most economical use of the material will be made by feeding the meal to live stock and applying the manure to the land. In this way the material is made to serve a double purpose. Most of the mineral ingredients in cotton seed meal are recovered in the manure if the material is used as a cattle feed.

 European dairymen have for some years bought large quantities of American cotton seed meal for feeding purposes. Northern cattle feeders also have used large quantities. As the livestock industry develops in the south, doubtless an increasing amount of this material will be diverted from the fertilizer trade for use as stock feed, and at present wherever possible the practice of feeding the meal and using the manure for fertilizer should be followed. Rather than the direct application of the cottonseed meal to the land.

There should be special efforts in every community of the county this season looking to closer cooperation in the drive for production. American farmers, live stock breeders, and truckers should abandon the old hit-or-miss custom of operating every man for himself get together, discuss the question of production with intelligence, and all pull together for a common object. The needs of the community should be developed and provided for. Where it is clearly seen that any particular crop must be increased or resort to shipping in from other points, this crop should be promptly speeded up. This is imperative if we are to comply with the government's request to draw as lightly as possible on transportation facilities. The government has urgent need for every available freight car in the country. If the farmers of the various communities can provide for the annual needs of their respective centers this will help greatly in releasing cars for government needs. Each community should also develop a fairly accurate estimate of the probable amount of any supplies it will have for export.

All Day Picnic
The Truth Seekers, the Sunday school class of Miss Sally Robson and a few friends spent a very delightful day Thursday picnicking on the Heights at the oak grove and adjoining the home of Mrs. W. P. Fields.

In the afternoon a short program was given. Mrs. Filcher of Leesburg who is the guest of Rev. and Mrs. Hilburn gave several readings which were much appreciated. Short but interesting talks on the war were given by Rev. R. C. Brower and Mr. E. T. Woodruff.

Stand By The Boys
Mr. Bob Holly:

The news of today from Washington refreshes one's memory on historic facts. We open wide our eyes to the fact that General Pershing is in command of three times as many soldiers as both General Lee and General Meade when they fought the great battle of Gettysburg in 1863.

And we are forced to believe that General Pershing is a soldier, and a General of superior ability to handle successfully more than five hundred thousand American soldiers on the battle lines of France.

The facts inspire confidence. General Pershing and our boys "over there" should be sustained as they will be, by the prayers of the nation, as well as by Liberty Bonds and Red Cross angels. A. M. Thrasher.

See your hens perk up—hear them sing—look for eggs. Your money back if it fails. L. Allen Seed Co., Sanford, Fla. 73-1tc

According to the estimates, the Palmer House block value was placed at from $4,000,000 to $5,000,000.

Death of W. B. Noell

W. B. Noell died at the Bradley home near Geneva last Sunday after a lingering illness of several years. The remains were brought here Monday and funeral services held at Miller's chapel, Rev. Massey of the Baptist church officiating. Interment was made in Lakeview cemetery.

Deceased had been a resident of Sanford for many years and for the past seven or eight years being afflicted with tuberculosis. He was an inmate of the sanitarium at Trilby and became greatly improved and was able to work at his trade of house painting, but a year or more ago the disease seemed to again fasten on him and he was never able to recover. All that loving friends and family could do was done to make his last hours comfortable and he was given the best of care and attention by all who knew him but after a hopeless struggle of many years he was called home.

He leaves a wife and two small children to mourn the loss of husband and father and the sympathy of all go out to them in their bereavement and loss. The family wishes to thank the many friends for their many acts of kindness during the illness of husband and father and for the beautiful floral offerings at the funeral.

Your Poll Taxes

H. C. DuBose, supervisor or registration is in receipt of the following advice from Attorney General Swearingen in regard to payment of poll taxes:

"Replying to your communication regarding the payment of poll taxes I beg to advise that the payment of poll taxes is allowed up to and including the second Saturday of the month preceding the day of the election. I take it that under the law Saturday, the 11th day of May would be the last day upon which said poll taxes could be paid."

The voters should read this and remember it. Tomorrow (Saturday, May 11th) is the last day. Pay the poll taxes now if you want to vote in the primary election.

From the Daughter of a Farmer

The following is worth the consideration of some of our town folks: Editor Star: I clipped this piece out of the Atlanta Constitution. Will you please print it in the Star? It gives my views exactly. If the ladies in town would do more of their own work we could have more help on the farm. With most of our boys gone and most of the negroes working in town it makes it hard for the farmer's wife and daughter. York, Fla., April 28.

A Farmer's Wife Speaks Her Mind
Mr. Editor: If you will allow me space I will drop in a few words on how we Americans can win the war. We want to win and must win, but it can't all be done by economy of the farmers and farmers' wives. There has been a lot of talking, ranting and wringing on the subject of economy, all of which has been addressed to the wives of farmers. There are not many farmers' wives who have not done their part and have been all the while.

It is springtime and there is a great demand for farm lands, and we, the farmers' wives, can take our babies to the field and set them down under a bush in a cracker box and hoe back and forth while two or three little ones play around the box. This is often seen on the farm.

And there is another scene, often witnessed in the cities, and that is a nurse in the back yard with the children while the mothers are at card parties and receptions, or some other social function. I do not know anything about those societies, but I read about them. They do a lot to win the war, they say; but they could do more; they could send their colored nurses out in the country and help us farmers' wives on the farms, and attend to their own children like I have to do. They could do their own cooking and send their cooks to the farms where they are much needed to raise foodstuffs. They could clean their own houses, wash their own clothes and the washerwoman and the scrubwoman could be used on the farms. Try this for three months. There are thousands of men and women who are doing nothing but having a good time just like there was no war.

It makes me tired to read a piece of advice to farmer's wives. After we have finished our breakfast, cleaned up our house, milked and churned, fed our chickens and pigs, taken our box and babies to the field, hooed until we think it is 11 o'clock, take up our load and go back to the house to hurry dinner by the time the plow hands get in. Washday comes when it is too wet to work, and ironing Saturday afternoon. And I think after we have gone through all this day after day we might have meat or biscuit if we raise it. And if anyone has to go without let it be the ones who do not work. I am not trying to run the government's business, but I say if all the waiters, maids, butlers, cooks, chauffeurs and corner loafers were sent to the farms and the soldiers to the front, we could win the war and have plenty to eat at home and to feed our soldiers. But the farmers cannot feed themselves and soldiers and all these idlers. Let's everybody work. Let's all do something to win the war and save our country.

—Ocala Star. A Farmer's Wife.

Candidates Should Qualify

County Clerk Douglass wishes to call attention to the fact that next Tuesday, May 14th is the last day upon which they can qualify if they expect to run for office. There are still a few candidates who have not paid their filing fee with the executive committee and with the clerk who represents the county board. If these candidates expect to make the race for the office they should get busy at once. There is such a lack of interest in the campaign this year that even the candidates have forgotten to qualify. Get busy, you candidates and get right.

Orlando Board of Trade Condemns Bryce Advertising

Vital Statistics is the name of a booklet or card or some such mode of advertising arranged by one James Bryce who is said to have property at Geneva which he has placed upon the market and in the endeavor to call attention to the fact that this part of the country is healthy compares Sanford and Orlando and other places in a health report.

The booklet, originated from Orlando where Bryce is said to reside and no one here seems to have a copy of it but the comparison is odious to Orlando and the Orlando Board of Trade condemns it in the following resolution:

The Sanford Herald, Sanford, Fla. Gentlemen:—At a meeting of the directors of the Board of Trade of Orlando, Fla., Tuesday, May 7, 1918, the following resolution was adopted:

Resolved, that we condemn the card distributed by Jas. H. Bryce of Geneva, dealing with "Vital Statistics," because, first, it is misleading in that only five cities are mentioned, and, second, that it is distributed without state authority and for the evident purpose of giving Orlando a "black eye."

And, We respectfully request the Geneva Board of Trade, the Sanford Board of Trade, the Sanford Herald and all other organizations as well as individuals in Seminole county to protest against the circulation and distribution of the scurrilous card for the reason, if for no other, that a contemptible publicity method and not in keeping with the spirit of Orlando's friends in Seminole county.

And, that a copy of this resolution be sent to the above organizations.

Respectfully submitted,
Board of Trade of Orlando, Fla.

"Great White Trail" Land

In Wastes of Snow
Great stretches of snow, with never a track of sledge or snowshoe upon them, long vistas of Mountains, ice caves and glaciers—these things form the background of "The Great White Trail," the new Wharton super-feature, which is coming to the Star Theatre soon. "The Great White Trail" is a love story of many vicissitudes, in the days when men turned brute in their wild rush to the gold of the Klondike, and when thousands fought their way over the icy steeps and great flats of snow in their crazed desire for northern gold.

And all through this atmosphere of roughness, a tiny pair of baby shoes tugs and strains at the heart of a man, a woman and their child, tugging and tugging with the strength that only the sentiment of baby shoes can possess, until at last the sunshine of happiness comes to those who have suffered long in the shadows of sorrow.

SAUERKRAUT TIME

Cabbage Should Be Preserved Now and Prevent Waste

Much excellent food is going to waste in the rotting of cabbage in our fields. Low prices or lack of transportation should be an incentive to securing a supply for next season since less cabbage will probably be planted and the cost therefore be more.

Because of many inquiries I repeat here directions of Dr. L. A. Round, government brining specialist, for making sauerkraut. In the Herald of March 26th directions are also given for preserving cabbage in salt (without fermentation) and extra copies are to be had upon application to the Herald office. The bulletin on Brining and Salting I will be glad to send to anyone applying for it, but the bulletin does not contain all of the information given in the Herald article of March 26th.

Sauerkraut

Take off dirty, outside leaves; quarter and shred. Allow 2 1/2 lbs. salt to 100 lbs. cabbage (one level tablespoonful to one pound). Sprinkle in layers; add 2 qts. vinegar of grapefruit juice to each barrel. Pound down with a wooden masher and spread thick layer of cabbage leaves on top; from 2 to 5 (or more) inches thick. Cut out a cotton cloth larger than barrel and place over the barrel. Then put on cover, made to fit inside, and a weight on top of this. Set aside till fermentation is complete when take off the scum on top, replace cover, and pour upon the surface boiling paraffin. If the brine covers up to but not over the cover only the brine exposed between cover and sides of barrel need be paraffined, thus saving paraffin. See also Herald of March 26 and Bulletin on Fermentation and Salting.

The Capital's Fifth Avenue.

Pennsylvania avenue in Washington is usually listed among the world's famous streets, but to the Washingtonian this avenue has not half the importance and attractiveness of F street, the recognized parade ground of the fashionable on sunny afternoons. F street in Washington is an institution like the monument, the government clerk and band concerts in the park. It dates back far enough to tax the memory of Washington's few oldest inhabitants, but no records of its origin are filed in the city hall.

New Electric Furnaces.

The success of electric heat in Japan and various oven work has led to considerable investigation along the line of what might be termed low temperature heating; that is, heating with temperatures up to 600 degrees Fahrenheit. The results of these investigations have brought out numerous other applications, among which are electric core baking ovens, electric bread baking ovens, ovens for making cereals, drying woolen articles and equipment for sherdrying.

WOMEN'S OVERSEA HOSPITAL, U. S. A., NOW IN FRANCE

Supported by the Suffragists of the Nation and Staffed by Women.

The first "all women's hospital" unit to go to the front has arrived in France. This is the Women's Oversea Hospital, U. S. A., backed by the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

It is a matter of special elation among suffragists that this first women's unit should have gone out from the New York Infirmary for Women and Children, the institution founded by the great pioneer suffragist physician, Dr. Elizabeth Blackwell, in 1854. The unit was formally accepted by the French government in August. It could not be offered to the United States government because women are not eligible to the United States Medical Reserve Corps.

The director of the unit is Dr. Caroline Finley, who has been in France since November. The unit's personnel includes seven doctors, among whom are gynecologists, general surgeons, obstetricians, medical practitioners, pediatricians, an otologist, a bacteriologist, radiologist and dentist, all women. It also includes women nurses, aids, clerks, dietitians, a pharmacist, mechanics, chauffeurs and a plumber.

In addition to Doctor Finley and the plumber, the staff members already in France are: Dr. Alice Gregory, who has been acting director in Doctor Finley's absence; Dr. Anna van Sholp, Dr. Mary Lee Edward, Dr. Marcep Formad, Dr. Olga Pavitzky and Dr. Laura Hunt.

It is expected that another contingent will sail some time in March and that other hospitals staffed by women will go to the front in the name of the National Suffrage Association. Suffragists of Great Britain are responsible for a chain of 11 hospitals which have been making history under the title of "The Scottish Women's Hospitals."

"What British suffragists have done U. S. A. suffragists can do," says Mrs. Charles L. Tiffany, who is chairman of the Advisory Committee. Other members of the committee are Dr. Pearce Bailey, Mrs. John Claffin, Dr. Alice Gregory, Mr. E. C. Henderson, Dr. Samuel W. Lambert, Mrs. V. Everitt Macy, Dr. Mary D. Rushmore, Mrs. Edwin Thorne, Mrs. Norman de R. Whitehouse, Mrs. Carrie Chapman Catt, Dr. Mary Lee Edward, Miss Mary Garrett-Hay, Mr. Gustavus Town Kirby, Mrs. Philip Lydig, Mrs. Ogden Mills Reid, Mr. John L. Wilkie, Mrs. F. ## WOMEN'S CLUBS HELP THE WOMEN'S HOSPITAL

Women's clubs throughout the country are becoming interested in the plucky little hospital unit, staffed by women, which has recently sailed for France to work behind the lines for the restoration of women and children. The Colony Club of New York city has donated a motor truck, and Sorosis, the oldest incorporated woman's club in the United States, has given a present to celebrate its fiftieth birthday. The present is a $2,600 ambulance to go to France with the hospital unit and run on errands of kindness for the French children and their mothers. Civitas, a large Brooklyn club, has presented another ambulance. Both bear on their sides the legend, "Women's Oversea Hospital, U. S. A." with the Red Cross and the emblem of the hospital.

A fifty bed hospital will be stationed behind the lines in one of the most devastated areas in France. While it will be at the call of the French War Department for the care of the military wounded, its direct object is to build up the broken down women and children who have suffered from lack of care during the occupation of their towns by war forces.

In a cablegram received from Doctor Finley the dire need of the French people for the help to be secured through the hospital is set forward in a startling sentence or two—"Great need for unit. Civilians taken many miles for hospital treatment. Must do much surgery; need specialists, ambulance service, several dispensaries."

It will be recalled that the French High Commissioner, Monsieur Tardieu, was most hospitable to the idea of the unit from the start.
