Burglars Active In Sanford Area

Burglars continued to plague Sanford businesses last night and at least four reports of forced entries were discovered this morning as the firms opened. Rabalo Marine at the Sanford Airport was entered and several vending machines smashed and the contents, including money taken. Some vandalism was also reported at the firm's office as papers and records were strewn and file cabinets ransacked.

An undisclosed sum of money was taken in the break-in at Rinker Materials on West 25th Street when intruders entered by forcing a window.

Mid-Florida Dodge, West First Street, was also entered by window and several vending machines and a cash register were opened and the undisclosed contents removed.

An attempt was made to enter a window at Sanford Manufacturing Company, 918 West First Street, but according to city police records the effort was unsuccessful.

At least three medical offices in the vicinity of Seminoe Memorial Hospital were entered the day before and some cash taken, police records disclosed.

Red Bug Rd. To State; 46 Shelved

County Splits In Road Race

By MARION BETHA

Seminole County Commissioners John Alexander and Greg Drummond, who attended a meeting yesterday in Tallahassee, indicated that the state Department of Transportation (DOT) to a joint House and Senate sub-committee on transportation on road needs in the Central Florida area for the next 20 years, returning both heartened and discouraged by the action taken by the committee.

On the plus side, Drummond stated that Red Bug Road has been taken into the state road program and will be extended to carry traffic to Florida Technological University, Maitland Boulevard from U.S. 17-92 diagonally to Red Bug Road. The road has been designated as a primary road in Seminole county. In Orange county where Maitland Boulevard has been designated in the five-year road program but Orange county must pay for construction of secondary road funds as well as paying for the right of way also from secondary road funds. Thus Seminole county has emerged the victor over Orange county with the designation of this section as a primary road. Drummond continued that SR 454 has been designated as a four-lane road from I-4 to SR 427. On the negative side, Drummond stated that the state has county belt-line in the western loop from the 20-year program. I-4 south to Orange county is in the five-year road program as a state road with 90 per cent federal funding and 10 per cent state funding as a primary road. In the eastern loop in Seminole county which will be in the 20-year program the county will provide the road.

Drummond further stated that west SR 46 four-lane County has been temporarily shelved due to Lake County not wishing to designate four lanes at this time. Weiva Springs Road has been designated as a county road in the 20-year program. The road will run diagonally from the Lake Mary interchange southwest past Weiva Springs to Orange County. A limited access road to improve traffic will run north. Further, an extension of Bear Lake Road to Weiva Springs in the 20-year program.

Drummond advised that the remainder of the program which was in the county resolution on roads was still in

6 Held On Dope Charges

Including Teen Girl

An 18-year-old Caselleberry girl is among the six persons arrested last night by Seminole County authorities on narcotics charges.

Pauline Ruth McCraw, giving an address of 1649 Lake Drive, to arresting Deputies Jack Bush and Daniel M. Lane and Lt. J. J. Smith, was charged with possession of narcotics, along with Richard Merton Austin, 17, of 8217 Columbia Drive; Randolph E. Miltonberger, 18, of 1449 Quail Avenue; Wade Thomas Herring, 19, of 607 Alder Drive; Mary-Ann Elizabeth Ward, 19, of 801 Euclid Avenue, all Orlando, and Elden Kenneth Gist, 29, Boulder, Colo.

In addition to possession charges, Gist was looked on additional violations of contributing to delinquency of a minor, driver's license, unauthorized license display and improper inspection sticker.

Sheriff John E. Polk said other possible charges are pending after information concerning the type pills found in the car of the accused is made available.

At present a total $18,165 bond has been set on all six persons. Possession alone carries a $2,000 bond, Polk stated.

Polk said the arrest came after the car containing the six was stopped near the Weiva Marina for a license check when Lieutenant Smith became suspicious after seeing a dealer's tag on an old car.

In order to check into the mystery of why only one of the six had proper identification, the group were being removed to the county jail, after first placing two of the passengers in the county car.

On the way to Sanford, Polk said Deputies Lane and Bush saw a small packet tossed from the car's window and stopped to investigate.

A search of the cellophaned packet disclosed a quantity of marijuana, and the youth's car was then searched.

Lieutenant Smith reported six bottles containing pills, a crude pipe used for smoking and cigarette papers were found in the car. Contents of one of the bottles has since been found to contain phenobarbital, Smith added.

'Common Virtue'

By WARREN L. NELSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Twenty-five years ago Thursday U.S. Marines captured a porkchop-shaped hunk of rock named Two Jims. It took 36 days but the Marine Corps had won the greatest and costliest battle in its history.

Admiral Chester Nimitz said of the 06,000 Marines in that battle: "Uncommon valor was a common virtue."

The toll in American blood amounted to 3,331 dead and 17,272 wounded—over one-third of the men in the engagement.

For the 20,000 Japanese defenders, the battle was devastating. Only 1,083 left the island alive.

The United States needed the island for its three airfields. American fighters did not have the range to escort the new B-29s from the airfields in the Mariana Islands all the way to Japan. But two was halfway to Tokyo. With the island's airfields the fighters would provide escort.

City, CAP Feud

The Seminole Composite Squadron of Civil Air Patrol secretary this morning questioned the "fairness" of the feud between the City of Sanford and the CAP over the use of Building 17 at Sanford Airport by the CAP.

In a prepared press release, Mrs. Dorothy Walker, squadron secretary and mother of one of the CAP members, queried, "Why was a water fountain not provided in the CAP building for these canteen if there was one available on the airport and not in use?"

Lashing out at Commissioner Thomas McDonald for his avowed Monday night threat during City Commission discussion of the CAP Airport, Walker said she had written to the CAP members, queried, "Why was a water fountain not provided in the CAP building for these canteen if there was one available on the airport and not in use?"

The secretary concluded her verbal blast with a question aimed at the Sanford Industrial Commission (SIC) group charged with recommending to city Commission on leases at the airport.

She asked, "If there are so many complaints against the CAP activities at the airport why is the SIC silent on the matter?" When the complaints were discussed at their meeting they took no action against the CAP.

This would indicate that the SIC thought the problems minor and certainly solvable," she concluded.

She accused City Manager W. E. Knowles of saving the property could be rented to a prospective tenant for $1 a square foot and quoted Knowles as having said if the CAP improved the building to his (Knowles') standards there was no guarantee that the CAP could remain in the building.

And so the controversy rages...

Morals Trials Set May 18

By BILL SCOTT

All witnesses Friday left the county jail for their homes in Kentucky and Chicago, Polk said Monday.

The woman and her two daughters returned to Kentucky and the 15-year-old went to Chicago to await the Supreme Court decision challenging the legality of the 18th circuit.

Now, Harrell said, the witnesses will return voluntarily to Sanford for the trials of both Blackburn and Kirkland, which are scheduled for May 18.

Blackburn, reputed Central Florida bolita figure, is accused of lewd and lascivious assault upon a female child. His attorney, Edward Hanlon, had sought to delay the trial by appealing to the Supreme Court for a writ of prohibition, which was denied Tuesday by the court.

The court yesterday at Tallahassee denied Hanlon's contention and ordered the trial to take place.

Hanlon's petition was dismissed "without prejudice" and it was noted to the attorney that the question concerning 18th circuit constitutionality could be brought up in an appeal which might be forthcoming after the trial.

Hanlon maintained that the 18th Judicial Circuit consisting of Seminole and Brevard Counties had been illegally established, and argued that Judge Rumberger is prejudiced in the case.

Hanlon also denied that Blackburn is being deprived the privilege of access to witnesses.

The attorney refers to the protective custody status of a mother and her two daughters, aged 12 and 14, and an 18-year-old woman who were lodged for 65 days in the Seminole County jail after Blackburn and Orlando attorney Edward Kirkland were charged.

Kirkland is accused of lewd and lascivious assault upon a female child and a crime against nature.

HEW Answers Schools

Latest action in the continuing confrontation between the U. S. Department of Health, Education and Welfare (HEW) and the Seminole County District School Board over occurred yesterday when the HEW replied to exceptions made by Douglas Stenstrom, school attorney, to the Review Board in trying to save $683,000 in federal funds due to be cut from two of county's six federal programs.

John L. Wodatch, HEW attorney, said the citing by Stenstrom of the Orange County federal court decision allowing all Negro schools could not be applied to Seminole county since the particulars were of a different type.

Wodatch accused Seminole County of operating a dual school system. HEW took black and white pupils and said since the federal government neither created nor perpetuated the dual school system in Seminole County, it should not be held financially responsible for its operations.

Men And Toys
CHICAGO (AP) — Marvin Glass, who studied to be a psychologist wound up designing toys, says men should play with toys regularly to remain nimble and vital in body, mind and heart.

"What's more, they should play with a variety of toys as they did when they were boys, and not confine themselves to just one 'hobby' type of toy, such as model airplanes or model railroads," he said.

"Men should remember how alert, quick and perceptive they were as children," he added.

Easter's Here ... Collegians, Too

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla. (UPI) — The college crowd is here—bunnies, sweatshirts, beer cans and fist banging out of car windows attest to that.

But many of the collegians, bound for sun and fun on the beaches during the Easter vacation, may be just passing through.

The "in" spot this year seems to be Freeport in the Bahamas Islands.

Three mustached students from Southern Illinois, 30 hours without sleep in a marathon drive from the Midwest, sat in a bar Tuesday rapping about how to get to the Bahamas.

"We've even tried to get a boat to Freeport," one said.

"The place is supposed to be really grooving this year. When I walked in the travel agency on the campus this girl said, 'What's the big deal with Freeport? Everybody's trying to get reservations.'"

But the "Bahamas" plans are training off some of the annual migration of vacationing college students.

Postal Workers 'Wildcat Strike' Sounds Alarm!

Stoppage of mail deliveries by a wildcat strike is an event which only the wildest fancies of extremists could have conjured up.

It is not that the postal workers' strike is in itself illegal, it involves violation of duties of office and refusal to follow the national union leadership.

Surely the damaging and hazardous postal workers' wildcat strike, based on the implacable demands of an inflation that calls more dollars in the pay envelope to just stay solvent, should now let the sober planners within and without the administration give the economy gets out of hand entirely.

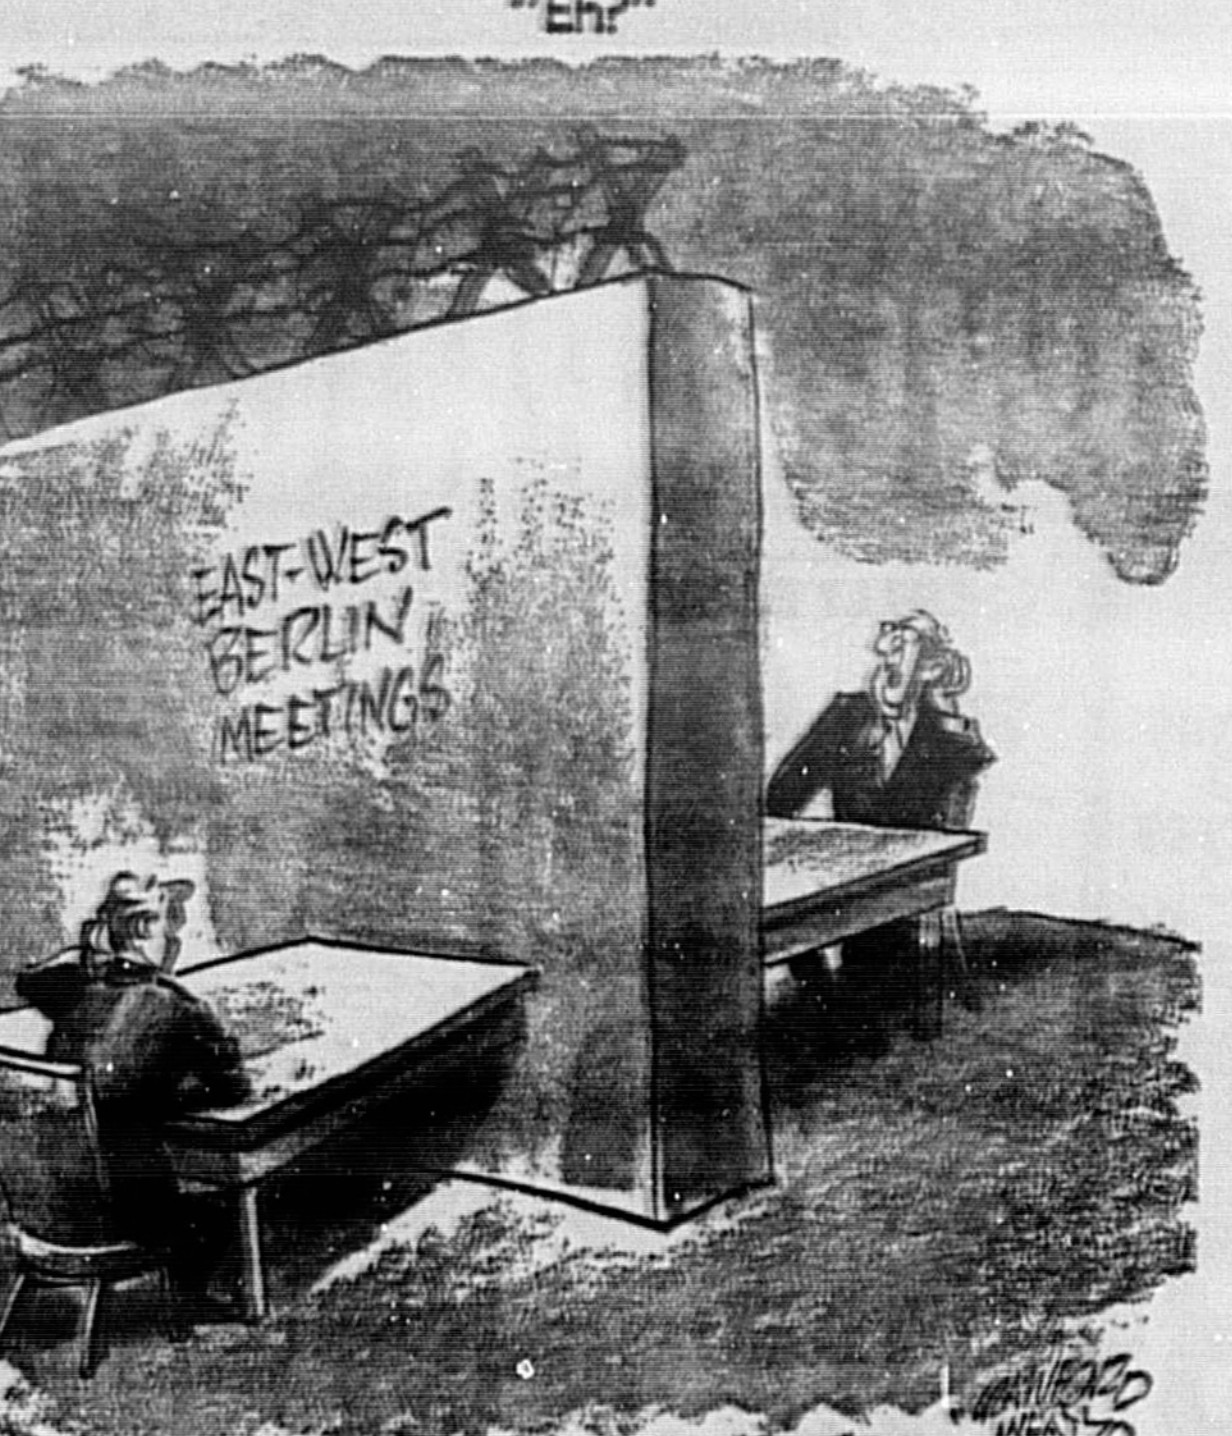

For the past several years during the latter part of the Johnson administration and through the Nixon administration the very mention of price-and-wage controls has been avoided or muted.

Oh! Those Docks!

Ever since the marina was completed off Seminole Boulevard and into Lake Monroe our daily ride to work has been one where progress along and on East Harbor and West Harbor was a delight to watch.

For the graceful and eye-catching moored boats on West Harbor are about all gone. Instead of floating docks to care for the visiting craft with safety, there are submerged docks and landed docks.

Now, however, the docks are a drawback to any beauty improvement for the lakefront and its vicinity. Whether or whatever is holding up immediate actions to restore West Harbor to its original attractive nature should let go and get going!

Step-Up In Terror Starts?

These violent men and women reason that persistent attacks on certain targets will most quickly bring this repression: Police stations, policemen and their families.

At any given scene there may also be hangovers and onlookers. There will also be emotionists caught up in the emotions and excitement of the moment.

The violent ones face problems. They become isolated from most college students. They fall at recruiting in most high schools.

They feed on public attention. They vie in violence. The extremes of violence drive more away. But it creates new initiators.

Their want society to strike back. They want the police to get frightened and rough.

They want the courts to be harsh. They want to provoke repression. They aim at causing the Fascist state. Enough repression, they believe, will bring a revolution. They will lead it.

Some of the violent ones have such high IQs as we measure such things conventionally. But most are emotionally unstable.

They, therefore, regard themselves as "superior" men and women, destined to rule.

These are middle, rejected by their fellows, but capable of great deal of damage in the period ahead.

A Visit With Namath On Broadway

TO MEET A STAR

PAT HOLT, who played football for the South Orlando YMCA Gra-Y team, smiles happily as he receives Joe Namath's autograph at the grand opening of Broadway Joe's restaurant in Casselberry yesterday. Looking on is another star quarterback, and a good friend of Namath's, Don Jonas of the Orlando Panthers. It's just a coincidence Pat wears the number 12. (Gary Taylor Photo)

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Writer

"Love and Peace — Joe Willie Namath." That's how he autographed the picture of the football player that hardly looked like him. For the football player, wearing the number 12 on a New York Jets uniform was clean-shaven with a nose-direct. Not the autographer. He wore mod clothes and his hair was long. The average person would mistake him for a hippie.

This was Joe Namath, considered by many the greatest quarterback in pro football. The leader of the Jets, who put the American Football League on the map by leading them to a win over the Baltimore Colts in the Super Bowl.

The site was Broadway Joe's in Casselberry. Odd coincidence the restaurant should be named after Namath? Not really, it's part of his franchise and yesterday was the grand opening.

He shook this writers hands with a firm grip and said, "Hello, I'm Joe Namath." as if I didn't know. Why with the girls screaming and trying to just touch him I could hardly miss him.

In walked Don Jonas, quarterback of the Orlando Panthers, and suddenly he was signing more autographs than Joe Willie. Don and Joe were old friends and the two got together in the back to discuss quarterbacking.

It was a big day for many — young and old. They flocked to the restaurant to get his autograph and talk to him. They loved every minute of it . . . and so did he. Namath was made a member of the South-Seminole Jaycees.

Namath, who stated he had gained 19 pounds since the Jets' final game, commented that his knees, that had one time threatened to end his career, "were the best they had been an off-season since he had started playing football." He went on to say, "I definitely plan to play next year."

Joe balked at making one of his famous predictions so early. He commented, "If we stay healthy, we'll definitely be in contention." It was an IF that he placed much emphasis on.

Namath voiced displeasure with the new pro football alignment. "It's all right for the spectators and the television viewers," he said, but it's not good for the players. They won't have any bargaining power. If they don't want to play for one team they can't play. See what I mean?" I nodded. I did, or did I?

Namath had just returned from Marco Island, where he played in a best ball golf tournament and was teamed up with Doug Sanders.

On Saturday he will be in Fort Worth, and in Coral Gables on Monday. Both of these trips will be for the purpose of opening new Broadway Joe restaurants. April 3 he will depart from Miami and Florida for good to travel to Austin, Tex. to join Jim Hudson, one of his teammates who owns the Texas franchise in opening the Tuscany Joe restaurant there.

He will arrive in Tucson, Arizona April 7 to begin filming "C. C. Ryder." The film will star Namath and Ann Margret. Namath will join the list of many athletes who make their try on the silver screen.

The mod Joe Namath departed, leaving Casselberry all but unaffacted by his short visit.

Lyman Speedsters Ready For Meet

By CHUCK GRILE
Herald Sports Staff

After their most successful week of track in the history of Lyman High School, the Lyman High Greyhound trackside journey to Sanford today for a meet including Seminole High School, Lyman's big rival at the "Big TD" Relays, Palatka and a host of other Central Florida schools. Meet time is set for 4 p. m. with the field events beginning at 3:30 p. m.

Young coach Ronnie White is looking forward to running against the Palatka squad today, especially where long distance events are involved. So far this year, Bruce Knoebel, Lyman's star distance runner, hasn't been pressed to hard this year, except last Saturday in Deland where he placed runner-up in the mile run. But Knoebel broke the school record with a time of 4:29.3 and is looking forward to bettering that mark in today's meet. All in all, he is very strong.

White's comments on last Saturday's "Big TD" Relays win were, "I'm proud, but we could do better." He said no one qualified for the broad jump and Lyman has two very good jumpers. Lyman took a mere fifth in the high jump and Lyman didn't even qualify for the final in the shot which they could have won. The Lyman track coach is looking forward to the Sanford meet and host Tom Perrin, coach of the Seminole track squad. He said of Perrin, "He's a fine coach and puts on excellent meets. I'm looking forward to working with him in the future." He said of Sanford, "They always are an excellent host of any track meet."

Watch That Mitchell Guy

The Tuesday evening Sanford Handicap Doubles League has been the scene of lively bowling by Phil Mitchell these past two weeks. Sports people to one and all that it wasn't a fluke when he pounded-out a plus 600 set. Phil came back the following week and smashed through the 200-average plateau again . . . with both of 'em around the 620 mark.

There are many ways to enjoy the game of bowling, but the easiest and most comfortable is as a participant in this Saturday's Youngster-Adult Tournament.

And you can't sneak out of it, either just because you don't presently bowl in any sanctioned league. A provision has been made to allow the men to come in with a 100 average, while you mothers may try your luck at keeping the ball on the lanes with an entering average of 150. Handicaps will be based on these figures for bowlers without recognized averages, while all others will be figured at 70 per cent of 180.

Squad times have been set for 3 and 5 p. m. . . and if enough interest is shown, then there'll be still another day of competition, the following Saturday, April 4.

Most importantly, both for the youngsters and the adults, don't worry about getting a partner . . . just sign up and we'll match you with another teammate.

Powerful Foes Eyed SJC Nine Meets Amherst

The SJC diamond nine will take time off from their rugged Junior college slate to play a couple of rougher foes today and tomorrow.

Today's foe is Amherst College and the Raiders will be playing their powerful varsity squad. Game time is 3 p. m. and the Raiders will meet them again tomorrow at 11 a. m. Tomorrow afternoon at 3 p. m. the Raiders host the varsity team of the University of Dayton. These powerful four-year college teams will be tough tests for the Raiders and coach Jay Bergman would be more than pleased if they could win two of the three games.

Don Harry is slated to handle the mound chores today. Tomorrow morning Bergman will likely call on Dennis Pitts and then come back with Steve Shumaker in the afternoon tilt.

The pitching staff is currently being paced by Chip Gierke, Gierke is 2-0 and is pacing the staff with his 1.84 ERA. Steve Shumaker also has three games as compared to one loss. The ex-Seminole High star has been credited with one save.

One reason the Raiders are sitting on top of a 12-3 record is their hitting. Tommy Austin is currently leading the team with a tremendous .308 average. Also hitting above the 300 mark are Steve White at .354 and Bill Dancy at .306.

Mike Ferrell is leading the team in RBIs with 13. He has two of the team's three home runs. Joe Turnbull has six doubles and the team's other round-tripper.

The Raiders are now 4-2 in Division II play. The leader is St. John's, standing 6-0. The Raiders suffered both their division losses at the hands of St. John's. Both the top and second place team will compete in the state tournament.

Milwee Falls To Slavia

The Milwee Spartans baseball game with Slavia yesterday ended in a 5-2 victory for visiting Slavia. The first four innings were scoreless. Then in the fifth inning Slavia broke loose with three runs. Pat Fader, Carl Borg and Maikie Bunn scored the runs for Slavia. In the fifth inning Slavia came back with two more runs, with Fader and David Wolfe doing the scoring. Milwee tried to make a comeback in the fifth when Allen O'Brian and Mike Smith crossed the pay station to score two runs. Milwee had hopes of evening the score in the seventh inning when Jim McGee got to third, but the rally ended before a score.

A sports car for people who have better things to spend their money on than a sports car.

If $6,000 sports cars were one of life's necessities, a lot more people would buy them. Instead, they save their money to get married. To buy a house. To send their kids to college. And it's the college kids who drive the sports cars. This didn't seem quite sporting. So Volkswagen came out with the Karmann Ghia. It looks like a $6,000 sports machine. (The body's an original Italian design.) But it carries a modest Volkswagen price tag. $2999.* And that includes the 4-speed stick shift and front-wheel disc brakes. (They're not part of an optional sports package. They're part of the car.) The Ghia sprints and saves on gas. You should get up to 27 mpg. And it goes to come to service. It when it's a VW dealer. No costly tune-ups. No temperamental ports to coddle. (VW's treat it like a VW because, underneath, that's what it is.) You might say the Karmann Ghia is for people who want everything for their children. And just a little something for themselves.

Seminole Clads To Bounce Back

After a tough time at the Deland Relays, the Seminole High trackside is expecting to bounce back in their second big home meet of the year. The field events will start at 3:30 p. m. and the running events at 4 p. m. today. The teams are Apopka, Lyman, Melbourne Central Catholic, Ocoola, Palatka, Wildwood and host Seminole.

Lyman will rule as the favorite due to their past showings with Seminole and Palatka, rated as the dark horses. The Seminoles have been improving each week in the Mile RELAY with a 3:31 and the SPRINT MEDLEY RELAY with a time of 1:32.

Some of the events and players to watch for are Aaron Johnson and Duane Rodgers in the 200 Yard Dash. Kenny Allford in the HIGH HURDLES and Alford, Mike Stephens and Tommy Hanks in the LOW HURDLES. Ricky Nesmith and Randy Britner in the BROADJUMP. Tim Perrin and Bill Houser in the 800 yard run.

Richard Settle and Mark Gregory will go strong in the MILE AND TWO MILE RUNS, and Steve Ryals and Bill Houser are also tough in the two mile run.

Nesmith is also a top HIGHER JUMPER as well as strong in the Broad Jump. Tom Brennan, Keith Kough and Dan Feltner will lead the Discus toss and Dallas Brown and Wade Rinehart-Mitchell will be strong in the SHOT PUT. Mike Leary is the leader in the POLE VAULT.

The team will give their best effort and coach Perrin and Coach Feltner expect a fine meet and a fine crowd.

Hounds Dropped

For the fourth time in 1970 the Lyman Greyhound baseball team lost by one run. It happened yesterday afternoon in Daytona Beach, when the Seabreeze Sandcrabs slid by Lyman 2-1.

Ferry alker, the Lyman pitcher, hurled an outstanding game, giving up only two hits and allowing only two walks, but this was enough for the Sandcrabs. They expect a fine meet and a fine crowd.

Richard Settle and Mark Gregory will go strong in the MILE AND TWO MILE RUNS, and Steve Ryals and Bill Houser are also tough in the two mile run.

Scatty and Bang Bang Billy, Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club's two most popular Greyhounds, both see action in Wednesday night's card.

Cecil Austin's Scatty, a nine-time winner in the 5/16ths mile event, looks for victory No. 10 in tonight's 11th race.

Bang Bang Billy, still unbeaten in the 3/8th mile test, will be out for his ninth win in the 12th race. The Lowland Kennel All-American has won seven consecutive times in the 3/8th mile race.

His shortest margin of victory came last Saturday night when he came from seventh place to beat Larry Hughes' Mystic Dash by 1/4 length.

Hounds Swamped SNA Tankers Win

Yesterday afternoon at the Sanford Naval Academy pool, the Middle Swamped the very inexperienced Greyhound tankers 18-32, but Lyman showed much improvement over the last meet.

Doing outstanding jobs for Lyman were Lee Constantine, who won the 100 yard free style and came in second in the 200 yard free style. Also Mike Brooker, Ken Loby and a host of other tankers did a fine job for the Greyhounds.

Lyman put forth a good effort and is hopeful of doing even better against the Sanford Seminole Swim team on Thursday. The girls, who had no one to swim against yesterday, practiced and are looking forward to the Seminole girls tomorrow afternoon.

Coach Tom Barnes feels that his team is progressing and in every meet they are doing better and better. The small, but potent, Lyman High swim team is generating steam every minute.

The swim team has their toughest schedule this week as they have two early meets with a one-day break in between. Yesterday's meet at the Sanford Naval Academy will be followed tomorrow with a meet against the tough Sanford Seminoles at the Sanford Airport pool. The young Greyhound swimmers, who participated in a closed every practice and work out hard, are hopeful of giving the swim more experienced Seminoles the race in the water.

Prayer Urges: Take Politics Out of Golf

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Staff Writer
MIAMI (AP)—South African Gary Player reiterated his plea to take sports out of politics after a practice round prior to the start of the troubled National Airlines Open Golf Tournament.

"I don't have anybody," the stocky little man said Tuesday. "I'm not a fighter. I'm a professional golfer."

Player, one of the favorites in the $200,000 event that begins Thursday, has been the target of endless questions concerning his country's national policy of apartheid since he arrived in the United States three weeks ago.

He made a statement before a left South Africa," said Player, one of only four men to win all the world's major titles, "and I didn't want to say anything more about it."

"Sports should be above politics. It should be an area of international good will."

But he had an observation to make about the exclusion of South Africa from the international Davis Cup tennis tournament. South Africa recently refused permission to American Negro Arthur Ashe to compete. "I don't think you achieve anything by putting a country into isolation," Player said. "It's been pretty well proven that whatever South Africa does is what the rest of the world does. Player declined to say what his actions may be if he is the subject of demonstrations, such as the one that took place in Dayton at the PGA national championships, last year.

"At the moment, I plan to play in the 1970 PGA championships in two tournaments in two or three trips over here," he said.

Player missed the cut for the final two rounds at the first time that has happened to him in two years. But Gary said he was playing well and was one of the top choices for the $60,000 first prize in this strike troubled tournament.

Scheduled national television coverage was cancelled in an effort to avoid demonstrations such as the ones that marred last year's tournament when the airlines was the subject of a violent walkout.

Members of a striking union which has picketed the airlines this year picked the entrance to the Country Club of Miami Tuesday, but no incidents were reported.

SHS Scalping Party Crooms Falls To Tribe

By ROBERT SMITH
Herald Sports Staff
Seminole High's baseball nine defeated the Crooms Panthers for the second time in a week yesterday, 9-4, behind a 3-run 9th.

The tribe went ahead for keeps with two runs in the very first inning. Catcher Dave Wagner led off for the squad with a single, went to second on a passed ball and stole third. Tommy Gray reached on a base-on-balls and raced to third on a fielder's choice as Wagner scored. Gray crossed the plate on another passed ball.

In the second inning, right fielder Kip Braden reached Ronnie Nobles. The game was played at the Seminole Junior College field.

David Brown batted, allowing Braden to go to third as Gray scored. Braden then scored after a base-on-balls. Braden came home on yet another passed ball. Braden eventually came home on an error.

The Fighting Seminoles next game is against Lake View Friday afternoon at 4 p.m. in Lake View. The JV's defeated Apopka 11-2.

Air Strike Fails To Materialize; Some Aides 'Ill'

WASHINGTON (AP) — A precursor of a widespread walkout by members of the Professional Air Traffic Controllers Organization failed to materialize today on the basis of early reports from some of the nation's major airports.

Robert C. Stigall, PATCO public affairs officer, said "initial indicators" pointed to a wide spread walkout by its members. However, instances of what might be considered significant controller absences were relatively few.

At the airport said, would occur at 11 a.m. EST. The FAA also reported normal conditions at New Orleans, Omaha, Neb., Indianapolis, Ind., and Milwaukee.

New York City Is Only Major Holdout But 'Yielding' Postal Strike Ends; Hike Due

By WILLIAM SUNDERLAND
United Press International
The nation's first postal strike was over today and Congress sat down to decide how big a pay raise it will grant the mailmen.

New York City, where it all started eight days ago, was the only major holdout. But back-to-work votes in the Boroughs of Queens and Brooklyn indicated all the city probably soon would join workers in 13 other states sorting a backlog of millions of pieces of mail.

Postal service resumed Tuesday in such major cities as Philadelphia, Chicago, Detroit, Los Angeles, Newark and San Francisco.

Wiegiers (light coat), administrator of the Barnard Macfadden Foundation, sponsor of the academy, was the dedication speaker. At the height of the strike, 208,269 post office employees were off the job in Illinois, Nevada, California, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Michigan, Ohio, Pennsylvania, Connecticut, New Jersey, New York, Massachusetts, Colorado and Rhode Island.

Government spokesmen said the strike would cost the government $100 million each succeeding day of the strike.

Sen. Strom Thurmond, R-S.C., one of the President's chief sources of strength in the South in 1960, said Nixon the candidate is a national message in which the President has bitten the bullet.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The government has agreed to meet with the postal unions today for the first time since the post office strike began, while the postal pay raises stalled since last year.

Door Prizes Spark Gala Fashion Show

By CHARNER LEONE
Sanford women will swing into spring very well indeed this year, if the fashions exhibited at the Sanford Woman's Club Fashion Show are any indication! Charming apparel, from swinging sports to modish daytime and glamorous evening attire were skillfully and attractively displayed during the evening's show.

The clothes from Mary Esther's, of Sanford, were modeled by six attractive Sanford ladies, Mrs. Franklin Goss, Mrs. William Kirkhoff, Mrs. Gerald Greene, Mrs. James Wade, Mrs. Betty Wallace and Mrs. Fred Wilson.

The lovely, low contralto voice of Mrs. Charles Collier, accompanied by Mrs. Carol Dandridge on the Club's baby grand piano gave a pleasant interlude during the fashion show.

Mrs. Collier's husky, true voice was complimented by Mrs. Dandridge's soft soprano during several of the renditions of the old favorite songs.

Door prizes added to the allure of the evening. Area merchants donated the prizes to the club, all of them marvelous gifts that would please the heart of any winner.

The prizes now hold place of honor in the homes of: Mrs. James Ehlers, Mrs. Edna Sorenson, Mrs. Frank Leone, Mary Colgrove, Mrs. Ralph A. Smith, Mrs. R. Humphrey, Mrs. Colleen Winship, Mrs. Tom MacDonald, Mrs. Macie Thomas, and Mrs. S. G. Harrison.

Also, Mrs. C. D. Wesley, Mrs. Robert McKee, Mrs. Rose Woodall, Cathy Dougherty, Mrs. A. Toney, Mrs. Ann Brinson, R. Turner, James Wade, Clara Edge, Harold Kastner, Lou Ann Wade, Mrs. H. J. Blawie, and Milton Smith.

A Woman's View

By GAY PAULEY
UPI Women's Editor

NEW YORK (UPI)—Observations in the American news: A recent column on how parents cope with a child's persistent "why?" prompted a note from Mrs. R. H. Michael of Columbia, S.C. She enclosed a poem she said her daughter (age not given) had written because it was Mamma who kept asking "why?"

"Why we need the thing called love,
"Why we need the Lord above,
"Why we need the coming day,
"Why at peace we want to stay,
"Why we ask the question 'why?'
"Why with us shall some day die."

Some words are so overworked these days, it'd be a pleasure to see them shelved for a good long rest. I'd suggest among others — polarization, Vietnamize and Vietnamization, finalize, relevance, viable, charisma, chauvinism, and ecologize.

A sign on a New York restaurant specializing in whole family of sausages reads, "World's Worst."

And a sign in a pet shop in downtown Manhattan advertises, "Fish and Cheep."

Oh, the rude awakening of growing up. One of my nieces as a toddler loved, at most children do, to run outside the minute a snow began and "catch" the flakes in her mouth, try to grasp them with her hands, laugh with delight as they melted her face.

Routine Necessary For Tidy House

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

It there a formula for easier house cleaning and entertaining, asks a young woman who's been married one year.

She claims she "can't" ever get ahead of the housework. Her husband complains the house is a mess. She can't bear to have company, she says, "because it exhausts me so."

"When I'm ready to serve guests, I notice the silver needs to be cleaned or I discover the napkins aren't ironed. Or I don't have all the ingredients I need for the meal."

Routine is an unimaginative word, but it is the only solution to the housekeeping problem.

Two first-thing projects that keep a house looking neat are: (1) putting away everything that is not in its proper place before you do anything else (2) vacuuming or washing floors. Then you can dust when you get a chance.

If this routine is followed daily, the house will look neat until you get around to polishing brass door knobs, washing windows, and some people wash windows seasonally; those who live in sooty areas must wash windows more often. Bathroom tiles and fixtures should be washed once a week. Floors may need to be mopped twice a week.

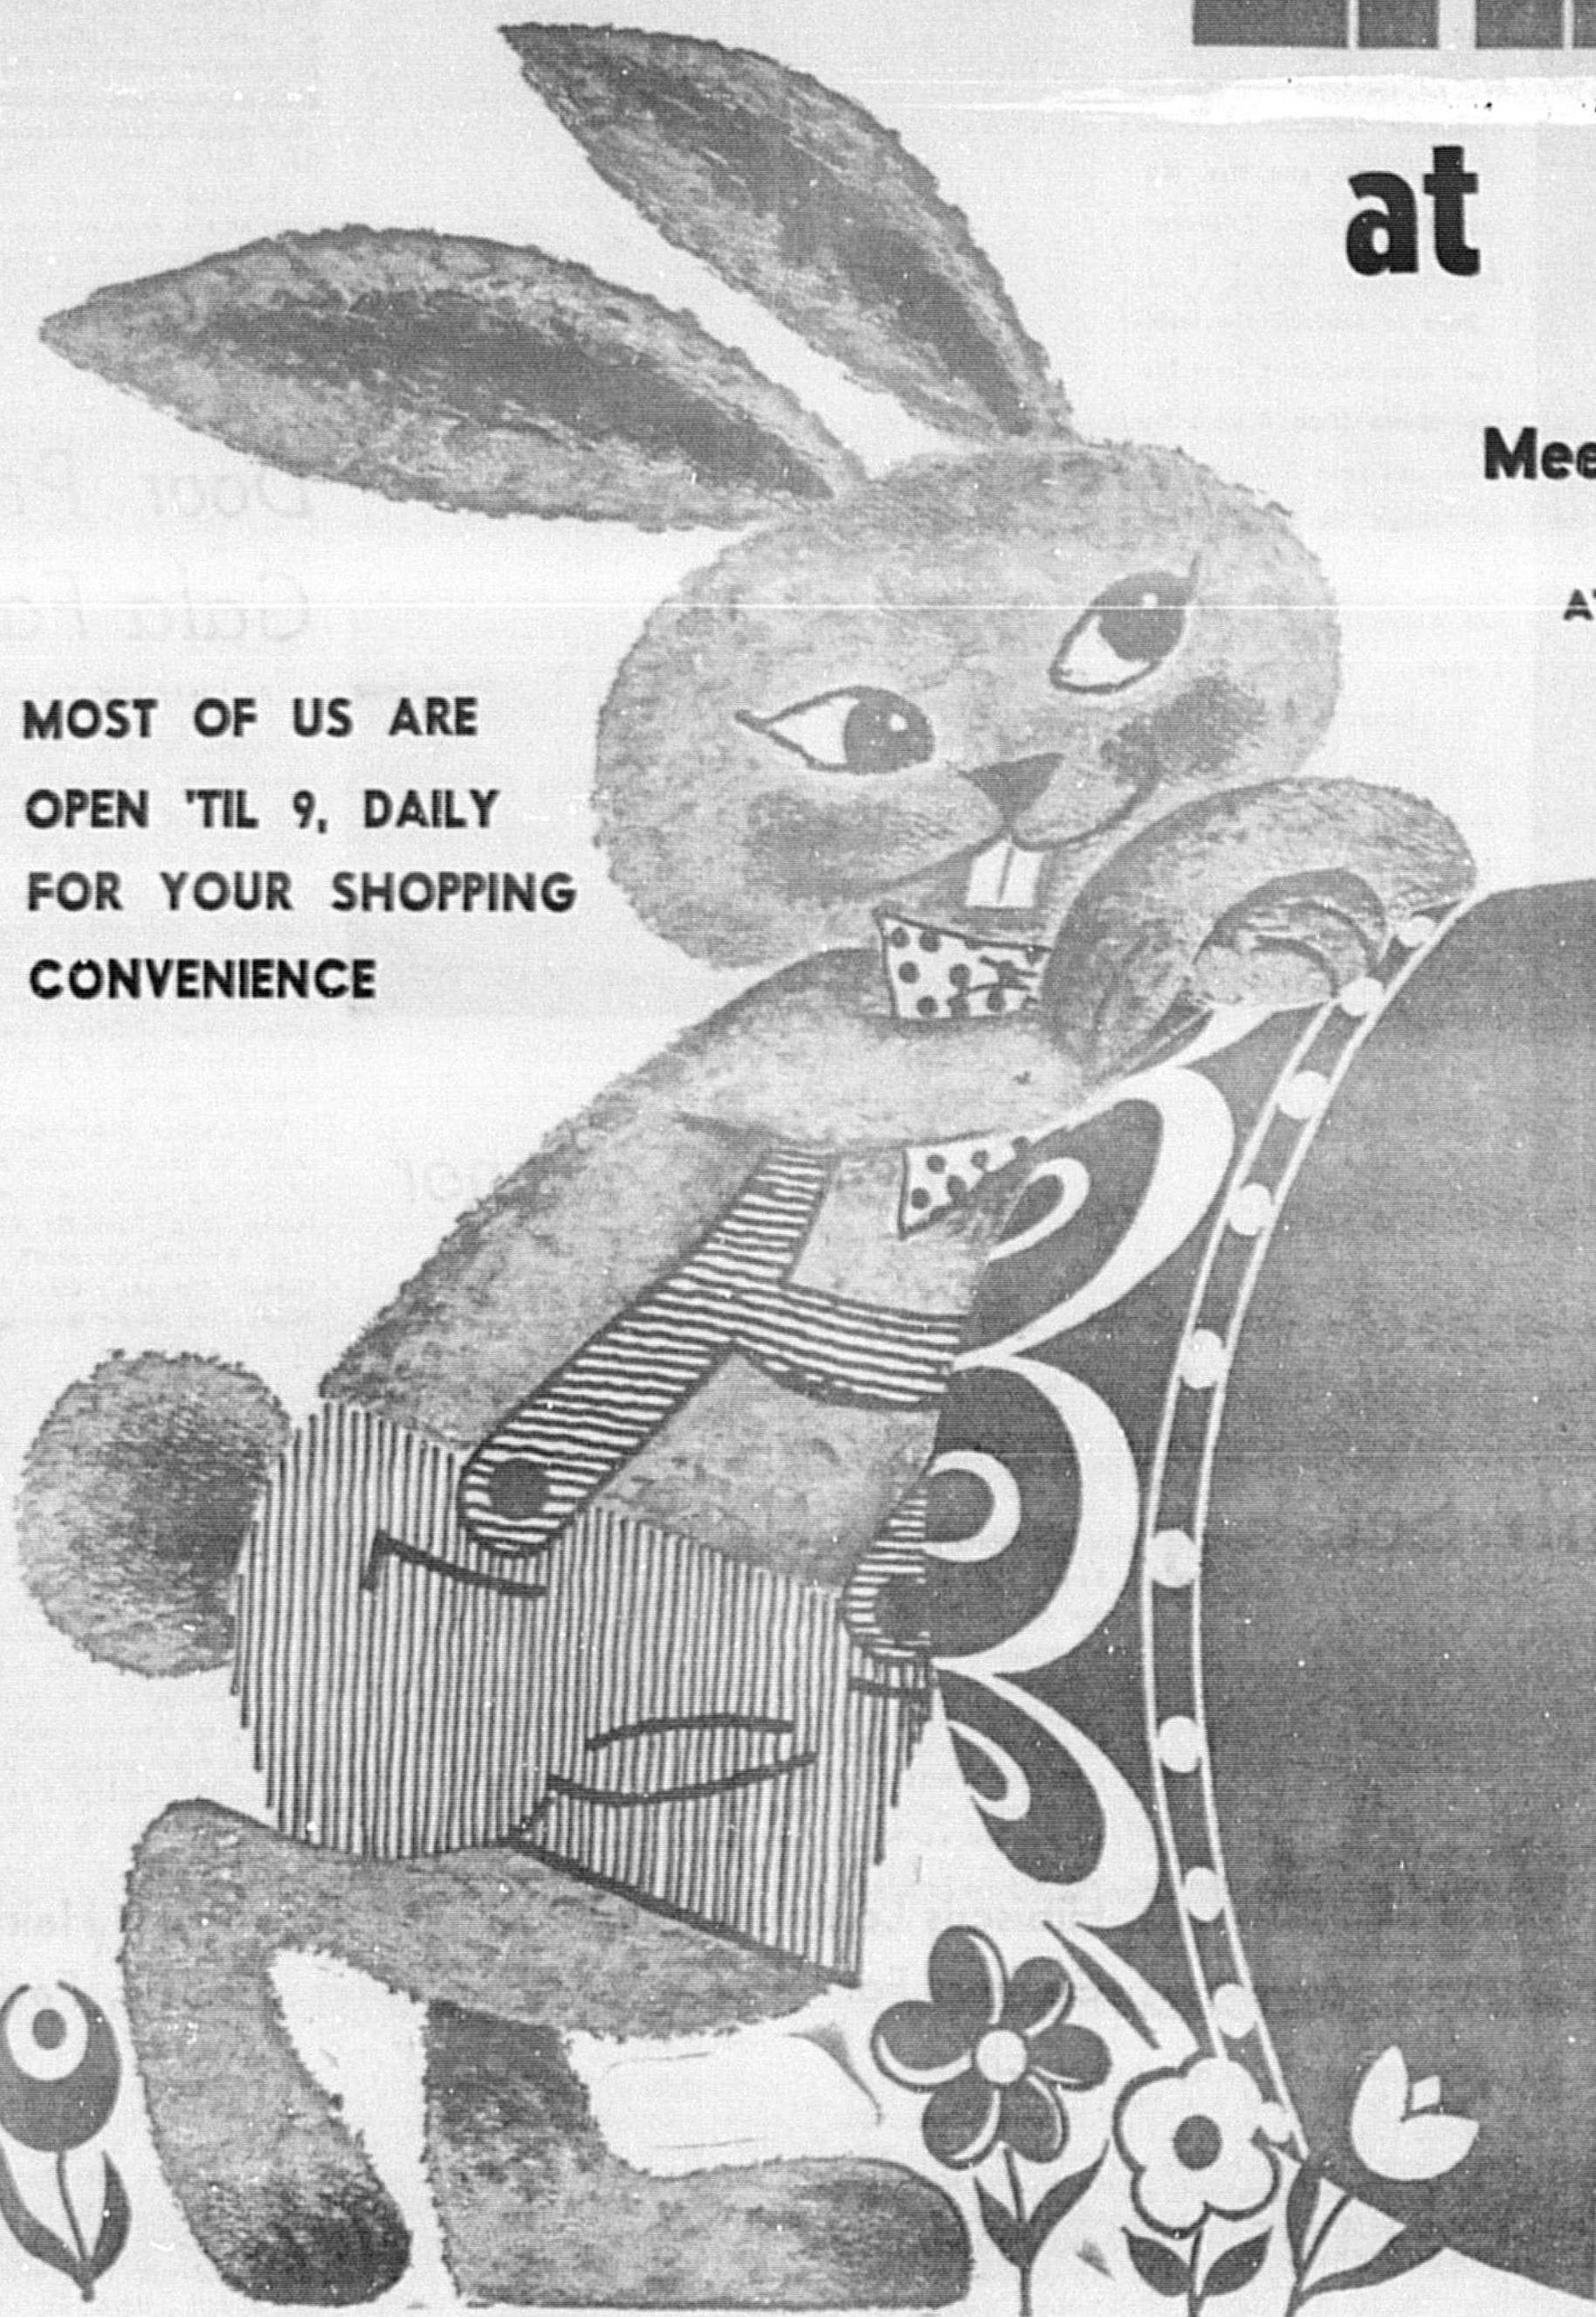

Keep track of foods needed by making a list of every staple—flour, salt, sugar, pepper. Add to the list those foods you like to keep on hand—pancake flour, syrup, cereal. Use this list as your master list.

You write the week's menu for example, if you plan curried shrimp, you will need curry powder. If you are planning a special recipe such as lasagna, check the ingredients. Do you need ricotta or cottage cheese? Tomato sauce? Chopped meat?

You add those items to the staples needed and that's the list you take to market.

When you give a dinner party, write out everything in advance. You must write "tablecloth," "candlesticks," "place mats."

The longer length skirt is here to stay, if the Wool Bureau's endorsement means something. It usually does. The business collection of mid-length skirts includes: A side-buttoning jacket with a small bias cut neckline and a cross-over collar with big revers. The sleeves are gathered at the wrist length cuffs. Mid-calf length skirt falls softly in four large unpressed pleats.

Petit point dots of all sizes in the Dior collection inspired a wool-worsted jersey coat from Beauvilliers, designed by Saché. It has white mini dots on a maroon glaze ground. The close-fitting coat is double-breasted under a round-reversed collar. Other marks: patch pockets and a back slit.

One mid-length look to consider: matching coat and dress in scarlet and brown wool tweed. The long cardigan style coat has a wide stand-up collar lined in the same white plume of the cuffs. Underneath, a slim sleeveless dress with two pleats forms a low front panel.

Full, fluted skirts and small-shouldered, close-fitting tops are the main point in a dress in Wolmark's saffron yellow crepe from Palidori in the Italian couture collections. The top is side-buttoned, the waist is belted in leather.

Light Blusher Perks Up Skin

Skin is where all the make-up artistry turns to unaffected freshness. Make-up never looks like it and can, in fact, be practically eliminated if you soften your skin with moisturizing lotion and perk it up with a light blusher.

Attending were Mrs. Clyde Trooper, mother-in-law; Mrs. Beva Gleason, Mrs. Terry Trooper, Mrs. Robert Martin, Mrs. Robert Herb, Mrs. William Herb, Mrs. Howard Law, Mrs. Pat Bliscoe, Mrs. Al Alkire, and Mrs. Jim Dickmann.

Also Mrs. Charles Connolly, Mrs. John Isley, Mrs. Harry King, Mrs. Robert Lloyd, Miss Joan McFarland, Mrs. Owen Meredith, Mrs. Jack Wilgins, Mrs. Jeanette Rosell, Mrs. Ted Williams, and Mrs. H. E. Long, Jr.

Glow With Proper Make-up

There was a time when the average woman didn't have much choice in the type of make-up she used on her skin. This is no longer the case. Today, women have different consistencies of make-up to choose from, each type geared to a certain kind of skin.

Many cosmetics manufacturers have skin products—moisturizer, cleansers, etc.—to coordinate with their make-up to make every woman's face glow with health and freshness.

Mrs. Trooper Honor Guest At Shower

The South Grandview Avenue home of Mrs. Leon Wilson was the setting, March 27, for an "infatigating" shower for Mrs. Gerald I. Trooper.

Shower co-hostesses with Mrs. Wilson were Mrs. Jack Hunt, Miss Susan Lacey and Mrs. Charles Kindred.

The popular honoree was presented with a lovely pink carnation corsage.

Highlighting the evening's festivities were the opening of the lovely gifts and playing of games. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Al Alkire, Mrs. Owen Meredith and Mrs. Robert Martin.

The refreshment table, overlaid with a lovely lace-bordered cloth, featured crystal candle holders burning pink tapers and pink and blue mums with greenery. The beautifully embossed pink and white cake was served with pink and blue punch, assorted butter mints and toasted nuts.

Pot Pourri

A new floor shine product forms a clear plastic coating on any hard surface flooring when exposed to air. The manufacturer says it is for use wherever a liquid or self-polishing wax might be applied.

With an effective life more than twice that of traditional wax, the new product is highly resistant to stains, scuffs and spills, the manufacturer reported.

Other characteristics: non-yellowing, shine-brilliance and shine-retention.

The new spring collection of a "strippable" wall covering features prints of jungle animals, geometrics, kitchen-like prints, sleek sports cars and some very wild florals. And for this astrology-minded age, there's a zodiac print.

The wall-coverings are vinyl-coated for washability, pre-pegged for easy installation and stripable—which means the do-it-yourselfer can pull whole sheets from the wall in seconds when redecorating.

No steaming, scraping or tools required. There are 145 designs in the new spring collection.

"How to Have Wow Power Legs," a 12-page booklet, is for teenagers. Free from a hosiery manufacturer, it tells what every teenager should know about selecting pantyhose and stockings—plus tips on leg grooming.

A new wax for automobiles is billed as the most expensively formulated wax in the world. It's so special the manufacturer won't call it a car wax.

Rather, it's named after the Concours d'Elégance, the formalized competition in which magnificent vintage motorcars, polished like jewels, are placed side by side and judged for beauty, craftsmanship and elegance.

Better Less Than More

Consistent with the emphasis on "naturalness" in the new decade, women may profit from reexamining their make-up application technique.

If you think you're wearing a little too much blusher, foundation or whatever, remove it. It's better to be under-than over-made-up.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We live in a small town where everybody knows everybody's business. Well, my husband and I have two cars. He drives one and I drive the other. About a week ago he asked me if I would mind letting him use MY car because his had to go into the shop. Well, of course I said I didn't mind, even tho' it meant my begging rides with my neighbors to haul my kids here and there, do my marketing, and so on.

It turned out that HIS car never did go into the shop as there was nothing wrong with it. Instead he let some readead divorcee who works for him use HIS car because HEES had to go into the shop. How about that? Everybody in town has seen this readead driving my husband's car and she's pleased mad! My sister says I should go see this readead and smash her nose in. What is your advice?

NOE IN WHATS?
DEAR NOE: Don't take your sister's advice seriously or you could have an assault case on your hands. Ask your husband if the readead is driving his car for business or pleasure. If it's pleasure — give him the business.
DEAR ABBY: I am 27 years old and I'm writing to you with a problem I am

Jacoby On Bridge

Jacoby and Son

The palooka was buying the drinks and, therefore, entitled to lead the conversation at the bridge club bar. He was engaged in a diatribe against the bridge experts in general and specifically one known as "Careful Cal."

"I had just gone down at three no-trump. Cal, in his most delightful fashion, had informed me that his five-year-old son would have made an overbid and had begged me not to bid any more no-trumps while he was my partner. Therefore, instead of bidding three no-trump, I raised him to four hearts. Here are the hands."

"No, he didn't. East cashed his ace and king of clubs and continued. Cal discarded a diamond, led a heart to his king, came back to dummy with a spade, led a second heart to his king and might well have just as small a trump. In that case, the led of a second trump to the jack would have left West with the 10-spots. East would bid the hypothetical 19-spots would then take the setting trick. But experts can't win them all and Cal's expertise had failed miserably."

"Besides," I informed my dad, "we Northwestern University doctors were told to let Nature handle matters and they reached a far more acute stage than Mom is now in."

"So you should absolutely oppose any surgery at this time, despite the fact I will seemingly assent to it."

Which my Dad did, and Mom came home a week later. She had been fairly chipper ever since.

few physicians ever have their own gall bladders removed! My mother's surgeon, kindly and a friend of mine, urged an immediate gall bladder operation for my mother, so she was sent to the hospital for observation and possible surgery.

"When I came down from Chicago to visit her, I could detect no yellowing of the whites of her eyes, which is an early sign of blockage of the bile ducts. A more refined test called the "icteric index," was made from the patient's blood."

I showed a slight increase but not enough to indicate surgical removal of the gall bladder.

In fact, if you laymen were more scientific and used your "horse sense," you'd not need 40% of the surgical operations now in vogue!

DEAR POLLY: Joann will have no trouble in ironing Barbie doll clothes if she will wrap a ruler or popstick stick with gauze or other fabric and place this under her side seams, hold in the hand and press with the iron. I have pressed many doll clothes this way. Light another stick — but so it will go in the sleeves.—FRANCES

DEAR POLLY and JOANN: When making doll clothes, be sure the material is pressed before cutting and handle carefully during the construction. Press seams as soon as stitched. The finished garment should need little pressing. Just lay the dress flat and iron the back and then the front. After laundering, the seams should be pressed out with the hands while still damp and laid flat for drying.

The greatest thing that has happened to doll clothes is permanently press fabrics. This removes all the bother and one has a newer-looking doll with less work.—EDITH ANN

"Doctors Day" To Be Observed

Seminole County physicians, marks the discovery of ether as an anesthetic agent. Dr. C. W. Long, who made the discovery, is the author of the quote, "My profession is to use a ministry from God."

Red carnations will be placed upon the laps of each of the doctors as well as on the food trays in the hospital so that the patients may play their part in the day's activities. The vivid red carnation has been selected as the official flower for the day.

CREAMY CORNUCOPIAS... cookie-cones, given a vanilla filling, make a superb dessert.

Elegant Dessert For Gourmet Party

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Want an elegant party dessert to please your most epicurean friends? Then bake crisp thin cookie waters, shape them into cones and fill the cones with a creamy vanilla filling.

CREAMY CORNUCOPIAS
1/4 cup (1/2 stick) butter
1/8 cup dark corn syrup
1/3rd cup unsifted flour
1/4 teaspoon salt
1/4 cup finely chopped pecans
Creamy Vanilla Filling, see recipe below

Remove from heat. Stir in corn syrup, stir in flour and salt until smooth. Stir in pecans.

Drop level tablespoonfuls of the batter, four inches apart, onto prepared cookie sheets—no more than four to a sheet. Bake in a preheated 350-degree oven until lightly browned—six to eight minutes.

Let stand 15 to 20 seconds—just until firm enough to remove. With a wide spatula quickly remove a cookie, and using fingers and a wooden spoon handle, form into cone shape. Work quickly or have someone help you so cookies can be removed rapidly and shaped quickly.

Store in a tightly covered tin box—cones will stay crisp for several weeks.

Just before serving, spoon Creamy Vanilla Filling into each cone.

Make one and a half dozen cones.

Calling Macaroon Fans

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Here's something something new macaroon cupcakes baked in foil or paper cases. They're pretty as can be and have pronounced macaron flavor.

MACARON CUPCAKES
6 tablespoons sifted cake flour
1/2 teaspoon double-acting baking powder
1 package (7 ounces) cookie coconut (about 1 cup)
2/3rd cup sugar
2 large egg whites
1/2 teaspoon almond extract (recipe below)

On wax paper sift together the flour and baking powder. Sift into the top of a double boiler turn the coconut, 1/3rd cup of the sugar and one egg white. Set over boiling water.

Gradually beat in the remaining 1/2rd cup sugar. Continue beating until mixture forms peaks that tilt over slightly when beater is slowly withdrawn; fold into coconut mixture.

Divide mixture among eight medium-size foil baking cups or 15 small-size (about 1 1/2 inches) foil baking cups, filling each to the top. Place on cookie sheet and bake in a preheated 325-degree oven until a cake tester inserted in center comes out clean—about 25 minutes. Cool.

Spoon Lemon Glaze, if used, over cooled cupcakes. Garnish if you like, with candied cherry halves and silvered toasted almonds.

Makes eight medium or 15 small cupcakes.

Note: If desired, paper baking cups placed in muffin pans may be used instead of foil baking cups.

LEMON GLAZE
1 cup sifted confectioners' sugar
2 tablespoons lemon juice
1/4 teaspoon cream of tartar
2 to 4 teaspoons milk

With a spoon, beat together all the ingredients until smooth and the right consistency to spread thinly.

Wisconsin passed the first state workmen's compensation law in 1911. It was the first such law to be held constitutional and effective in the United States.

DeBary Orchestra Schedules Concert

A musical treat for the residents of the DeBary-Deltona area will be presented in the DeBary Community Center at 8 p. m. on Friday, April 3, according to Howard Sharp, business manager of the DeBary orchestra.

Now in its 13th season, the orchestra, conducted by Roger Caslin, a conductor of various New York City orchestras back in the silent movie days, has performed numerous benefit concerts. These have produced several thousand dollars for worthwhile local projects, while at the same time defraying its own expenses.

Most of the music performed has been either from the conductor or numbers composed or arranged by him. His ability as a professional arranger, for many years on the staff of the Warner Brothers Publishing Company in New York City, makes it possible for him to rearrange some numbers to be within the scope of the limited instrumentation of the DeBary orchestra.

Mrs. Christiana Belnie, of Orange City, mezzo soprano, will be back to sing a group of interesting numbers in the first part of the program. She will be accompanied by Laura Platt Brown.

In the second part of the program, Mrs. Belnie, accompanied by the full orchestra, will sing an original composition, entitled "At Twilight," a composition by Schuyler C. Lee, of DelBary, a recognized authority on classical music. This number, arranged by Casini will be one of the highlights of this concert.

Concertmaster of the orchestra is W. E. Symons, of Orange City. Other members added this season include M. F. Richards, of Deland, on clarinet; Wolfgang L. Kulkach, of Orange City, on cello and Earl A. Shorum, of Deland, a professional flutist and doctor of music. Symons is also a conductor and composer.

In addition to the DeBary members of the group are Raymond Ball, of Sanford, on violin; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bell, of Orange, on trumpet and cello; Charles Cort, of Deltona, and Florence Deslow, of Enterprise, on violin; Charles Lamb, of Geneva, on trumpet; Neil Langrum, of Deland, on clarinet; Ray Snow, of Winter Park, on flute; George Goodie, former concertmaster and his daughter, Mrs. Georgia Craig, of Daytona, and Ruth Suris, of Deland, on violin.

Local members in addition to Casini and Sharp are Mrs. Theresa Epper, piano; Mildred Hubbard and Harold Barry, violin; James Sims, string bass; Jori.

INDIA S. BROOKEN first birthday

This group will feature Bobby Williams and his Rhythm Makers for your dancing pleasure. Proceeds from this benefit dance will be used toward the building fund.

Tickets are on sale now and may be purchased from members of the Lodge, Edward Washington, Reporter, D. C. McCoy, Exalted Ruler.

The Celery City Lodge No. 543 I.B.P.O.E. of W. of Sanford is sponsoring a dance on Friday evening, March 27, at the Club Altamonte from 10 p. m. until.

D. J. Baird, clarinet; Charles Horton and Janet Potter, french horn; and Maggie Murr, trumpet.

Roy Rice a professional clarinetist and former band conductor from Chicago and Miami is also expected to appear.

Birthday Dinner Set By Post 53

Clinton Westbrook, Civil Defense Director showed a film, "Tornado," at the March meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary Unit 33 held at the post home.

Plans were announced for a dinner on March 21 in conjunction with the post at 6:30 p. m. in observance of the 31st birthday of the American Legion Auxiliary, any members may call 322-9889 for further information.

Final plans were discussed for the unit's community service project—taking part in the Institutional Smorgasbord to benefit the Seminole County Mental Health Center, Inc., by helping in the USA Outdoors food booth.

The unit held initiation ceremonies for new members with Mrs. Frank Luecker, president, in charge.

Refreshments were served by hostesses Mary Roettiger and Alourne Slaback.

The District Meeting of the Local Order of the Moose and the Women of 200 members was held recently presided over by District President Fred Frick of Orlando Lodge. Other presiding officers were District Vice President Bill Yacks of Deland; District Secretary John Beck; Pilgrim Leon Silver; Sergeant-at-Arms George Kasis; Prelate Herb Romine; Outer Guard Frank Williams; Membership Chairman Ralph Moore and Endowment Fund Chairman Danny DeVelle.

Other lodges participating in this monthly meeting were Ocala, Leesburg, Deland, Daytona Beach, Orlando, Lake Panasofkee, Eustis, New Smyrna Beach and Sanford. Sanford Lodge 1851 was awarded the attendance award for the past year with a total attendance of 200 members.

Roll call of members was called with 111 members present. Dinner was served prior to the meeting by the Women of the Moose Chapter 1804 of Sanford.

Alsatian Foods Tempting

By TOM BOGE
Associated Press Writer

Getting to know wines well takes long practice and a little knowledge about their body and bouquet. A wine-tasting party is a delightful way to do this.

Food editors, students of the grape and a number of people who just like good food and drink spent a pleasant afternoon recently when the Alsatian Wine Information Bureau invited us to New York's Cornell Club for what was billed as America's first festival featuring the wines and favorite foods of Alsace.

Cradled in containers of cracked ice were four noble Alsatian wines: Riesling with its fine bouquet and distinctive flavor; Sylvaner, dry and fruiting; Traminer with a deep, lingering flavor and dry, spicy Gewurztraminer.

Alsace, in the northeastern part of France is a storybook land with quaint cobbled streets and half-timbered homes. In our opinion, the region's white, cool wines are as inviting as anything Germany or Austria have produced.

Wine-tasting is quite a ritual, with the sampler judging each candidate for appearance, bouquet and above all taste. Spicy is the word most often used to describe the special pungent aroma and taste of Alsatian wines.

Fortunately, no one took themselves too seriously at the Alsatian party. Other than one bespectacled gentleman who spoke with some pomposity about the "breeding" of the wine in his goblet, everyone sipped and enjoyed and then lapsed into conversation.

And what food there was! One table featured Choucroute Garnie, a succulent mixture of sauerkraut, simmered in Gewurztraminer, then cooked slowly with pork, knoekwurst, frankfurters and boiled ham. For five centuries this has been a favorite dish of the Alsatians.

At another table there was Poulet Riesling, chicken braised and poached in dry white wine until tender. Further on, was a great platter of pike dumplings, light as a feather with moose-leaf mushrooms which grow so abundantly in Alsace.

Finally there was our favorite—tender roast veal stuffed with grouse pate that was out of this world. Four chefs, all born in Alsace and all noted in this country, made the four dishes, and each stood proudly by his masterpiece. Charles Mabilie the creator of the veal and grouse pate told us that his grandchild was too costly for most restaurant menus and is reserved for special occasions.

ROAST VEAL STUFFED WITH GROUSE PATE
5 pounds boned loin of veal
5 ounces grouse pate
1 tablespoon salt
1 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup oil
2 ounces butter
2 large carrots, sliced
1 medium onion, sliced
1 bay leaf
1 stalk thyme
2 ripe tomatoes, cut in quarters
1/2 cup Madeira
1/2 cup water

Have your butcher bone the veal, but do not tie it. Lay it flat and mound the grouse pate down center. Then roll and tie. Rub well with salt and pepper. Heat oil and butter in casserole and brown veal on all sides. Add carrots, onion, bay leaf, thyme and tomatoes. Place casserole in oven for 28 minutes at 350 degrees. Pour Madeira and water over veal and cook slowly for one hour more.

Remove veal from oven and transfer to heated platter and set aside, keeping warm and let sit for 15 minutes. Meanwhile, strain the sauce from the casserole. Remove strings from veal and slice. Serve with sauce on the side, topping each serving with a spoonful or two of sauce and a slice of truffle (optional).

Lion Killer
BILIA, Mozambique (AP) — A marauding man-eating lion which terrorized the Mocuba area of central Mozambique met its end at the point of a 17-year-old African boy's spear. The lion raised the boy's village, killing an old man and mauling another. The youth, 56 lamanga, pounced on the beast and stabbed it to death. It was later recognized as a lion which had killed several Africans in the area.

Monacoan Cuisine Finest

By AILEEN CLAIRE
NEA Food Editor

MONTE CARLO — (NEA) — This summer several thousand Americans will make a whirlwind stop in the petit (375 acres) principality of Monaco for a bite to eat. Some will be tempted to try one of two dining rooms of the fabulous Hotel de Paris and see just how unflappable executive chef Charles Balleur really is.

Recently Balleur, in the finest Gallic tradition, curled the tip and shrugged the shoulder at the trials and tribulations of 47 years of cooking for what he calls "some of the richest, most elegant, most discriminating people in the world."

Balleur, 64, appears to have kept his cool while maintaining his own culinary standards against onslaughts of bizarre requests.

He says the hotel's dining room's haute cuisine is so fabulous not one would dare order for an item not on the menu. Some do.

And he admits pampering certain customers allows him to rise from the ranks of the vast kitchens beginning at 17.

"They hired me as the lowly assistant in the fish chef. I thought I was already a fine cook but for this establishment I wasn't fit for sardines yet. I didn't dare dream that one day I would prepare a 600-portion buffet table for the marriage of Prince Rainier III to Grace Kelly (April 18, 1956)."

Of the many luxury hotels in Monte Carlo, across from the famous gambling casino, is the four-star grande dame.

Known for its fine food and wines, the hotel kitchen harbor an army of sub-chefs and assistants. During a busy week, the kitchen tour Balleur pointed to the big wood-burning stove.

"Some of these hardwood antique saw being replaced by gas ranges," he explained with a note of regret. "We old-time chefs prefer the wood stove but we can use only iron or copper utensils on them. Gas stoves are not so romantic but on them we use big aluminum pots. They are lighter to move around and also heat up very fast without scorching the food."

There is a smaller patry kitchen with a glass-door refrigerator brimming with freshly made cakes, tarts and cookies. The baker's aroma is an evil snare for the dieter. And to illustrate the hotel's tender care for guest's sensibilities there is a walk-in freezer like a bank vault to keep garbage frozen and deodorized.

Seemingly miles of winding corridors in the wine cellar contain more than 25,000 bottles of champagne and there is a small museum of ancient wine thickly coated with dust.

Aristocratic Omelette House bought and opened a treasured bottle of wine dated 1811 but found it barely drinkable.

"Outrage!" according to Balleur. "I love ravioli and raw onions. Egypt's King Farouk admired duck and orange sauce. The Sand of Arabia always came with a large retinue and a secretary took the first taste of everything in case of poison. Yes, Don Said was so pleased with the cuisine he gave each one of my staff an expensive watch."

Balleur discreetly refused to identify the female celebrity who orders vegetable soup served boiling hot and then put ice cubes into it or the multimillionaire who insists on having his sirloin steak cut into diamond shapes. Many guests order filet mignon for their poach.

And heartwarmingly nostalgic to the American tourist who declines to join the 1500 cooks of Balleur's workshop is the fact that their Serene Highnesses, the Prince and Princess of Monaco, often dine at the hotel with their children as quietly as an ordinary family.

Daily exposure to the rich saucers and other threats to waistline keeps Balleur on a diet of mutton and green beans. At home he keeps out of the kitchen and defers to his wife as an excellent cook. He says: "I never make one peep of criticism of her cooking. If I did, she would say, 'Bonjour, my friend,' and leave me."

'Rock Fete' Fan 'Camps' In Jail

An early arrival for the expected "rock festival" planned for this weekend near the Orange-Seminole County line was arrested this morning for possession of marijuana by the Florida Highway Patrol after he "pitched camp" near the rest area located off I-4 at SR 434 intersection.

George Prolex, a curly-haired French Canadian from Quebec, was arrested this morning by Troopers W. E. Glass and Ernie Leggett after a complaint was received from the State Road Department.

Glass said he first went to the "camp" and found the man gone, so he left a note on his tent informing him it was illegal to camp in the area.

Later on, when checking back, the troopers found the man had moved over into a field on private property.

More checks by Leggett revealed the man's car bore a state license plate not found on his type vehicle. Still more investigation brought forth a packet of marijuana from Prolex' car and the man was arrested and taken to the Seminole County jail.

Glass said the first identification furnished proved to be false and, after more checking, Prolex blurted out his real name and address.

He was subsequently charged with possession of marijuana, improper display of a registration tag and displaying another person's driver license. Total bond on Prolex was placed at $2,150 for all three violations, Glass added.

46 Improvement 'On'

Actual construction for the improvement and realignment of SR 46 between Interstate 4 and the Wakiva River (Seminole-Lake County line) is expected to start early next year. This was the report this morning via telephone by a State Department of Transportation spokesman in Tallahassee to The Sanford Herald.

The DOT spokesman said this morning that the DOT (formerly the State Airport Department) after 11 years of planning, the report yesterday followed a hearing by state road officials and legislators, with county officials looking on.

The confusion which caused the false report yesterday has been one of long standing. The plan is and has been all along to purchase a four-lane right-of-way but at this time to build only a two-lane highway. There never has been any discussion of building a four-lane roadway now. The state wants the four-lane right-of-way for use (and to save costs) at some dim distant date.

The DOT spokesman said this morning that at the moment the construction plans call for the proposed alignment of the new 46 to follow for about three miles the present alignment toward the east.

Under study now is a plan to proceed from a point north of Paola for a mile and more to 1-4 on the east.

When the full alignment is completed, from the Wakiva River to Interstate 4, the DOT will call for a "design public hearing," probably some time this summer, at which time the public will be informed of the proposed four-lane right-of-way.

The DOT spokesman emphasized that Seminole County can be assured that construction will be started early in 1971 on a two-lane highway replacing the present wet 66.

Some of the confusion resulted yesterday when the DOT quoted Lake County officials they were not prepared at this time to improve SR 46 westwardly from the Wakiva River (Seminole-Lake border) to U.S. 441.

Reports Of Lease Untrue

Published reports that Krebs and Company, a German-based Christmas tree ornament manufacturer, will begin Sanford Airport manufacturing operations May 15 in a former Navy building is causing confusion among airport personnel.

Reason for the bewilderment is that no structure has yet been leased to the firm in which to employ the announced 100 workers and the Sanford Industrial Commission (SIC) which recommends leases to city commission for approval has not approved the type industrial manufacturing proposed for the airport, says J. S. (Red) Cleveland, airport manager.

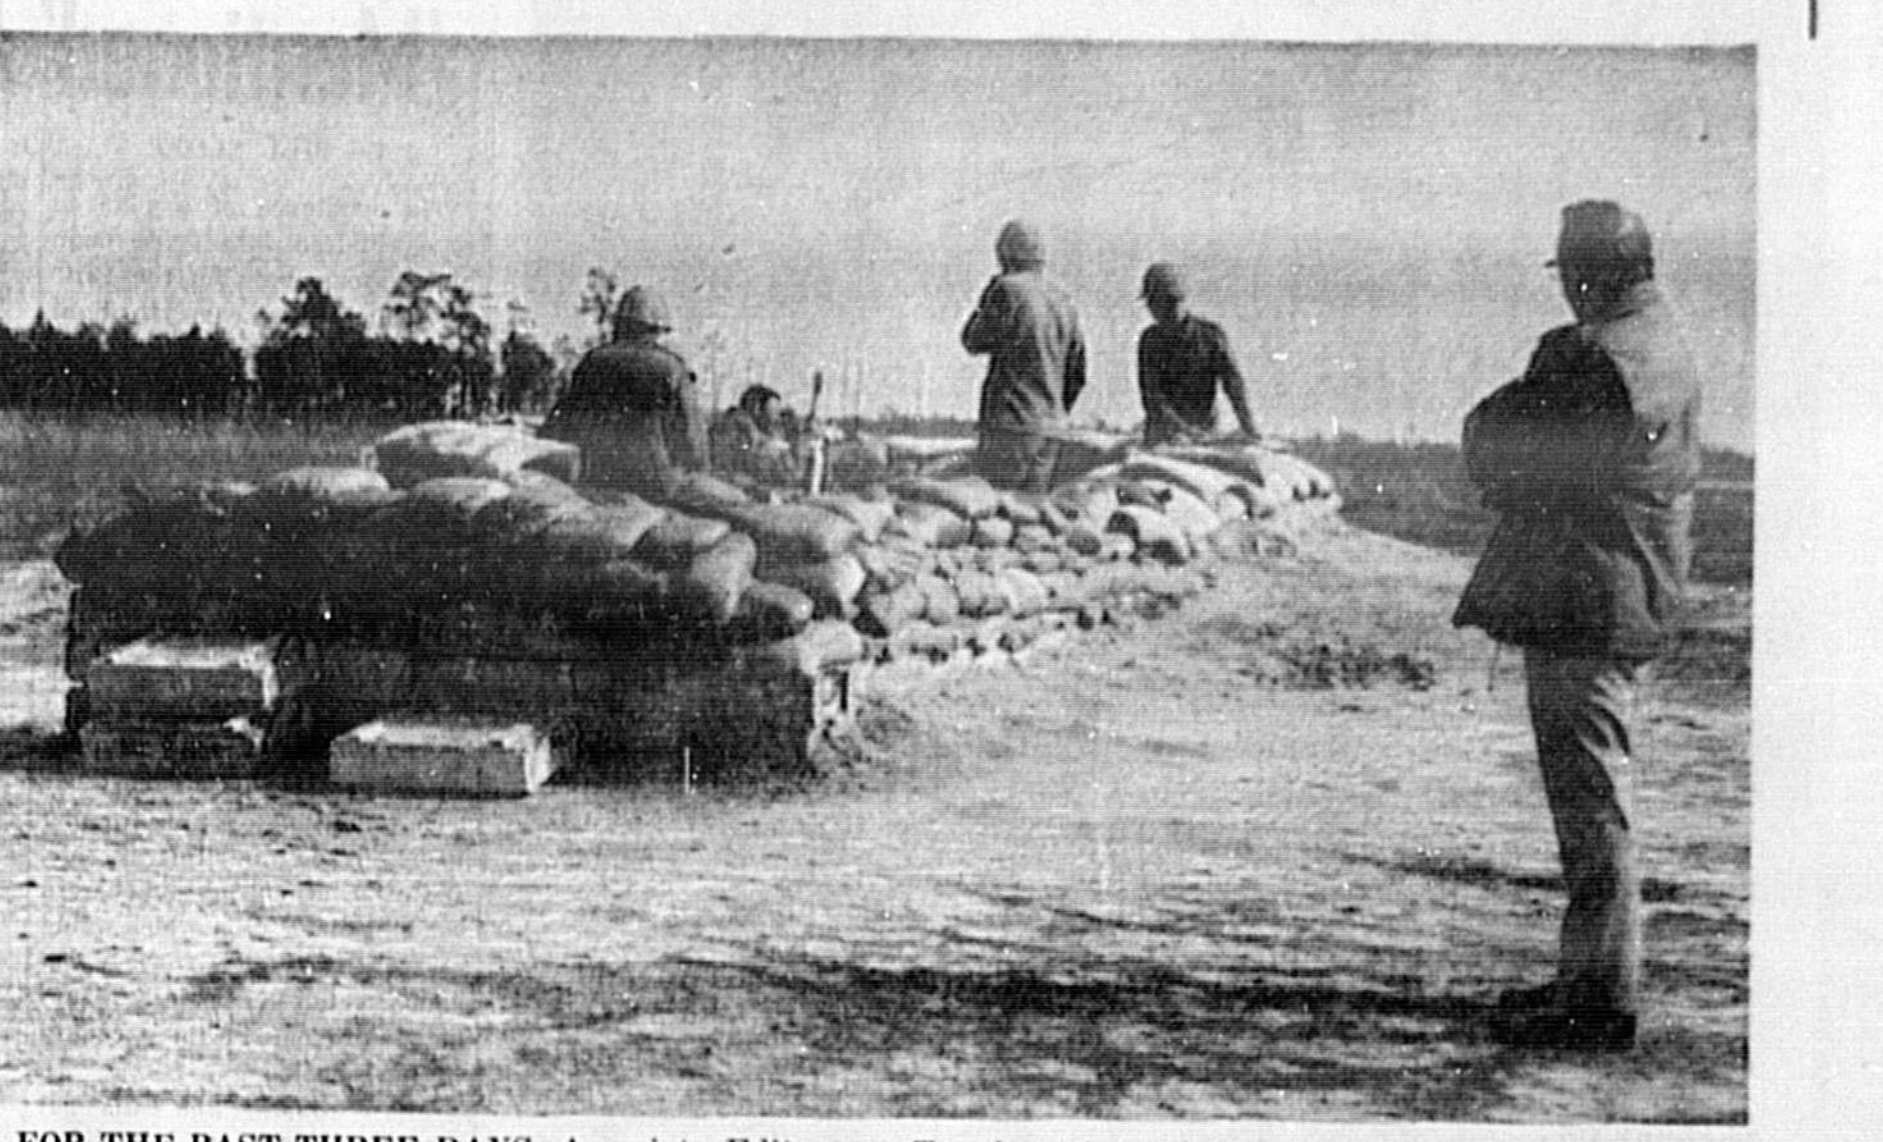

Cleveland said a representative of Krebs and Co., visited the airport one time to look at Building 289, a 17,235 square foot structure, but no deal was even discussed. Cleveland said he told the representative that lease price was $1 a square foot. Usual procedure is to have the firm apply to the SIC for permission to rent a given property and then that body decides whether to recommend the lease to the city commission for final approval.

Mayor Clifford Jordan, recently re-elected in a landslide victory, apprised the councilmen of the divergent portfolios under which they might work and asked that each express their preference.

Revenue in the village was approximately $240,000. To be included in these additional services are basic education courses, child care, medical and dental examinations, transportation, orientation, advisory training and other smaller services.

A St. Louis fish manufacturer was also interested in the rental of the same airport structure earlier this year and some negotiations have been underway to move the firm to Sanford.

Exclusive With The Marines

FOR THE PAST THREE DAYS, Associate Editor John A. Spolski visited Camp Lejeune, N.C., talking with the "grunts" and the generals, and will present a pictorial review for The Herald next Tuesday. A total of 15 dignitaries from Florida were guests of the Marine Corps, with The Herald the only newspaper covering the event editorially as well as through the camera lens.

Four Sources Of Income Proposed

being advanced as the principal source of income, with franchise being an additional source. Currently there is $2,100 in the village general fund. Average yearly income for the village was cited as being $15,000.

Jordan touched upon the Road and Bridge fund with the mention that six years ago the millage set by the county was 2.17. Last year the figure was .77 which brought a revenue of $1,400. The millage has been decreased this year to .68 and Jordan advised that the anticipated revenue will be one-tenth of last year.

Jordan suggested four sources of solution to financial problems as being the removal of the ceiling from the utility tax, imposition of ad valorem taxes, consolidation of the adjacent cities, currently under consideration, and construction and development.

Jordan further remarked that there are three areas of development in the village which could produce revenue. One is development of Coronado Homes, another is a proposal for a trailer park which will be zoned to the Planning and Zoning Board tonight. A request has been made for a change in zoning on property between Moss Road and Hays Road. Also a possibility is sale of the Gulf American Corporation holdings in the village.

Annexation was brought to the attention of council, and Jordan stated that zoning board chairman Charles Kelly will give recommendations to council in this respect. Jordan suggested that the council send spokesmen to Casselberry meetings on annexation to express the views of the village. Jordan said that Casselberry was "grabbing up all available land" and that he is not in agreement with this method.

Jordan made several recommendations for improvement in the village, among which was development of the village, which was advanced as the principal source of income, with franchise being an additional source. Currently there is $2,100 in the village general fund. Average yearly income for the village was cited as being $15,000.

Jordan touched upon the Road and Bridge fund with the mention that six years ago the millage set by the county was 2.17. Last year the figure was .77 which brought a revenue of $1,400. The millage has been decreased this year to .68 and Jordan advised that the anticipated revenue will be one-tenth of last year.

Jordan suggested four sources of solution to financial problems as being the removal of the ceiling from the utility tax, imposition of ad valorem taxes, consolidation of the adjacent cities, currently under consideration, and construction and development.

Jordan further remarked that there are three areas of development in the village which could produce revenue. One is development of Coronado Homes, another is a proposal for a trailer park which will be zoned to the Planning and Zoning Board tonight. A request has been made for a change in zoning on property between Moss Road and Hays Road. Also a possibility is sale of the Gulf American Corporation holdings in the village.

Annexation was brought to the attention of council, and Jordan stated that zoning board chairman Charles Kelly will give recommendations to council in this respect. Jordan suggested that the council send spokesmen to Casselberry meetings on annexation to express the views of the village. Jordan said that Casselberry was "grabbing up all available land" and that he is not in agreement with this method.

Jordan made several recommendations for improvement in the village, among which was development of the village, which was advanced as the principal source of income, with franchise being an additional source. Currently there is $2,100 in the village general fund. Average yearly income for the village was cited as being $15,000.

Seminole County Commission was to meet in special session at 3 p.m. this afternoon, presumably to approve an ordinance leasing "mass demonstrations" in the county, such as rock festivals.

Golf Club Burglarized

Burglars last night made off with cash estimated between $1,200 and $1,500 after breaking into Mayfair Country Club. Information released this morning from the office of Seminole County Sheriff John Polk disclosed that a thief entered the club by first prying open a door leading to the men's locker room, then crawling through a hole in the ceiling, the intruder managed to slide along the attic area until directly over the office.

A hole was knocked into the ceiling to enable the obviously small man or boy to drop onto the floor.

Several cabinets and drawers were ransacked before the money was found in four cigar boxes stored in a filing cabinet. Investigators believe the robbery occurred some time before midnight as a heavy downpour had washed away all tracks when authorities were called at 12:04 a.m. by Michael Wheeler, club operator.

Some fingerprints were found by Detective George Abgay in the attic area and the investigation is underway.
