"SERVING ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, CASSELBERRY, FERN PARK, LONGWOOD, MAITLAND, NORTH ORLANDO AND SANFORD..." from HIGHWAY 17-92 and STATE ROAD 436

Fall Fashions Greet Shoppers Friday Night

Stores in downtown Sanford will be open Friday night as usual from 5:30 to 9 p. m. and today's Herald lists two full pages of specials, bargains and sales.

Stocks of new fall and winter items are especially attractive and offer a fresh change from the attire and activities of the summer months, although there are still a few chances left to get some real good buys on end-of-summer specials.

Merchants, realizing that although today is the first day of fall, the weather will be warm for a while yet, are calling attention to the convenience of Lay-a-Ways.

Selection of items now, while stocks are fresh and the choice of colors, styles and sizes is at its peak, is the smart buyers way to get ahead of the game.

Casselberry

'Forsaken'

Casselberry Alderman Hope Bennett, commenting on the county five year road program adopted by the Commission Tuesday, referred to her town, second largest in the county, as "the forsaken municipality."

"I hope the taxpayers wake up now since they can see the type commissioners they put in office. Just look what they've done with this road program for example," she pointed out. "I think it alarming that the county can take many thousands of dollars from our municipalities and give back only a few cents in the road and bridge refund. I've urged our residents for more than a year to attend the commission meetings to see how their money is spent."

Lab Loss Helps

Canal Chances,

Bryant Believes

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Although Texas instead of Florida will get the federal government's $60 million space center, Gov. Farris Bryant believes this will improve Florida's chances of getting a $168 million cross-state barge canal.

"That's the lemonade in that lemon," Bryant said here. "The location of this space thing in Houston, while bad for Florida, is good for the barge canal."

The Senate Appropriations Committee Wednesday approved the full $103,000 that was requested for pre-construction planning of the proposed canal. Bryant greeted this news with a "hooray."

The House earlier voted only $50,000 for updating an economic study of the project. Bryant said that if the full Senate approves the $103,000 appropriation and the matter goes into a conference committee, Sen. Spessard Holland would be on the committee to boost chances of the Senate having its way.

Bryant was here for a brief address at the dedication of the Jacksonville News Club.

On road matters, Bryant said his administration is moving "as fast as we possibly can" to procure rights-of-way from Jacksonville and Daytona Beach for construction of Interstate Highway 95.

Berlin Bolsters

Border Guard

BERLIN (UPI) — West Berlin authorities announced today they are assigning crack "alert police," trained to deal with Communist rioters, to duty on the border between East and West Berlin.

The 3,000-man force, backed up by its own motorized units, will reinforce U. S., British and French troops and regular city police holding the border against Communist encroachment.

West Berlin also plans to swear in 2,000 police reservists next week to join the 16,000-man regular force in guarding food stockpiles, public buildings, factories and other key installations.

The Communist organ Neues Deutschland today derided President Kennedy's appointment of retired Gen. Lucius D. Clay as his representative here. It described Clay as "a famous carrier of chopped meat"—a reference to the ex-general's post-retirement position with the Continental Can Company.

Western observers were waiting today to see what use Communist boss Walter Ulbricht would make of the sweeping powers granted him by Communist East Germany's puppet parliament.

Nobody asked me but is it true that the new Seminole County Jail is so plush that it may be called the "Seminole Hilton?"

County Commission scorebook on county officials after eight months: two fired; one resignation and three near miss!

I thought they were gonna repair the Palms Hotel!

County Commissioner James P. Avery was upset about the high grass near SR 437... said it was higher than an automobile.

A word to the State Road department: Better take some pistons along when you cut the grass... might be some snakes there.

Nobody asked me but it took the merchant a long time to educate the public about shopping in Sanford... How long it gonna take them to educate our governing bodies?

A police-escorted motorcade to the football game in Orlando at the Tangerine Bowl will be formed at the Seminole High School parking lot at 8:30 p.m. Friday.

The motorcade will leave promptly at 8:45 to decorate your own car with the school colors of orange and black, get in line, and away we go!

For those who can't make it to the motorcade, the Tangerine Bowl is located four blocks west of the Orange Blossom Trail in Church St. Game starts at 8:15.

Sure would be nice to see an American flag at the ball park during the next home ball game.

THOUGHT FOR THE DAY: Did Mack Cleveland Jr. resign as County Attorney for pressing business reasons or, was it because he missed target practice one day.

The reported who wrote that new school books had been ordered on Oct. 18 certainly was a forward looking individual, to say the least. Sorry.

UN Committee Takes Up China

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — The question of a UN seat for Communist China comes up for initial debate today when the General Assembly's Steering Committee takes up the agenda.

While the 21-member committee met and the assembly was in adjournment until Friday, backstage efforts went ahead to have the world parliament name an acting secretary general until a successor to Dag Hammarskjold is chosen.

An informal 12-nation committee with wide geographic distribution scheduled an afternoon meeting to draft a resolution asking the Security Council to recommend Hammarskjold's successor. It would propose that the assembly meanwhile select an acting secretary general.

$4 Million Plant To Open In Sanford Early In '62

A $4 million cabinet making industry, called one of the biggest in the nation, will open a branch office in Sanford in the spring of 1962, the Herald learned today.

The company, Del-Mar of Atlanta, Ga., and Miami has purchased a nine-acre site on Country Club Rd. between 21st and 25th St. and will start construction on a 50,000 square foot building in December.

President of the firm, Jerome Zimmerman told the Herald this morning that about 65 persons will be employed at the start of the operation "but it will be expanded and will double its size in two years."

Zimmerman also stressed that the majority of the employees will be from the Sanford area.

Zimmerman said his company, in business for 25 years, will develop a new type of kitchen cabinet with the main operational headquarters in Sanford.

He and Vice President Dewey Smith, as well as members of the newly formed Sanford Seminole Development Company, met this morning to arrange the financing of the new building and to hold a brief press conference afterwards.

TWO COUNTY COMMISSIONERS made a preliminary inspection of the new county jail Wednesday and were "pleased" with what they saw. From right to left, Commissioners Ted Williams, J. C. Hutchison, Chief Deputy

Jim Singletary, associate architect John Burton and contractor Jack Jennings. The Sheriff's force hopes to move into the new facility sometime next month. (Herald Photo)

Cease-Fire News Radioed To Troops

NDOLA, Northern Rhodesia (UPI) — Repeated radio broadcasts beamed to the Congo's "independent" Katanga Province today advised troops on both sides of the battle there that a cease-fire had been arranged.

It was not immediately certain whether word of the agreement reached by Katanga's President Moise Tshombe and UN negotiators here was getting through to the troops.

The broadcasts were carried in French by Rhodesia's Federal Broadcasting Corporation at the request of both the United Nations and Tshombe to make sure that all the troops got the news.

Esther Slows, Hits New England

BOSTON (UPI) — Capricious Hurricane Esther pounded southern New England with winds and rain today. The weather Bureau said, however, the storm had slowed down and appeared weakening slightly.

Men, women and children, including President Kennedy's two children, were evacuated on Cape Cod in the face of flood tides.

In a mid-morning advisory, the Weather Bureau said "Hurricane Esther has slowed down and is giving indication of a slight weakening."

The slowdown means that the brunt of the storm will not reach southern Cape Cod until this afternoon, the Weather Bureau said.

At least 1,000 persons on Cape Cod moved inland or to higher ground. Nearly five million persons in New England weathered or were in the path of the tropical storm which packed winds up to 115 miles an hour.

At least one death was attributed to the hurricane, Fred Towne, 45, of Cleveland, N. Y., was killed when his truck skidded on the rain-slicked Massachusetts Turnpike at Chicopee, Mass., and plunged off a railroad bridge.

The hurricane lashed eastern Long Island, N. Y., and barreled into New England on the 23rd anniversary of one of the worst hurricanes in history. The hurricane of 1938 killed 632 persons and caused $500 million damage.

The Kennedy children, Caroline, 8, and John F. Jr., 9 months, were taken from the summer White House overlooking Nantuxett Sound to Otis Air Force Base, 25 miles away.

Castro Charges New U.S. Plot

MIAMI (UPI) — Premier Fidel Castro charged last night the United States is plotting new "aggression" against Cuba.

In a 24-hour speech broadcast by Radio Havana, Castro said the tough talk of some Americans and the "campaign of the Fascistic clergy" indicated a new attack is in the making.

It was the second time Castro had "cried wolf" in as many days. Wednesday night's speech was made at commencement exercises for 750 army political commissars educated at Havana's Osvaldo Sanchez Cabrera school.

Citrus Meeting
LAKELAND (UPI) — The Florida Citrus Commission will hold a special meeting Monday to consider a proposed marketing order to boost grapefruit sales.

Three Pot - Shots From The Bushes - - Or Who Dunn It

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn, laid up at home with a heart condition but, promising to be back at the front next Tuesday, fired some lengthy salvos at the Mayor of Sanford and Longwood and even a short blast at the county board today.

Dunn released a 400 word statement from his Fern Park home in reference to Sanford Mayor Joe Baker's and Longwood Mayor A. R. Lormann's remarks criticizing the commission for adopting the five-year-road program Tuesday.

Both Baker and Lormann, saying they criticized the program, charging that the cities in the county were being neglected.

Dunn said he wished the County Commission would had taken more time to study the program and had not adopted it the same day.

The board should have looked at the program on a countywide basis... according to need and priority, he said.

Here is Dunn's statement: "Contrary to some opinion I have repeatedly stated that I am not, never have been, or ever will be a politician.

"Therefore, I am not seeking headlines... I don't need them.

"The one and only promise I have ever made was to do my best to assist other commissioners to conduct county business on a more realistic business-like basis and keep the public informed.

"I cannot help but comment on statements made by Mayor of Sanford and Mayor of Longwood as reported in the Herald regarding the county road program.

"Let me refer them to page 231 of the Florida County Commissioner manual as supported by the attorney general's opinion."

"The county road system consists of all public roads outside of municipalities not included in the state highway system or state park system and such municipal connection links and extensions may be agreed upon by the county commission and municipal authorities.

"Let me also call attention to the 1961-62 budget listing $32,210 for Sanford and $3,800.39 for Longwood which is 50 percent of the ad valorem tax levied or collected within these municipalities for 1960.

"That is all the county is required to do—municipalities are supposed to be self maintained with the above provision there is supposed to be a complete separation of municipal and county operation.

"Mayor Baker's statement of $20,000 which Sanford kicked in to the road and bridge fund requires further explanation. This amount includes the $32,210, the remaining 50 percent of the road and bridge fund tax, together with a per capita estimate of race track funds, 20 percent of the surplus of the seven cents gasoline, motor fuel tax, sales, etc., etc. which does not refund directly to the county road and bridge fund.

"Let's look at the record of what has been spent in the Sanford area during the past six years of road and bridge funds, state secondary funds and state primary funds.

"Let's look at the entire picture.

"It had been my impression that the ensuing year's county road program would be presented for the commission for study and the entire board would in turn inspect each District and then assign priorities on a county wide basis according to a certain criteria.

"However I read that it was approved bang, bang," Dunn said.

Laos Reports Discouraging

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Laos, the trouble spot shunted out of the headlines by Berlin and the Congo, is again arousing high-level concern in the U. S. government.

Roving Ambassador W. Averell Harriman, assigned by President Kennedy to try to negotiate a settlement of the proxy East-West war in Laos, has filed discouraging report from his current mission to Southeast Asia, officials said.

No break in the deadlock blocking a peace and unification agreement is yet in sight. The rainy season which hampers military operations in Laos is ending. The Berlin war threat is putting a high priority strain on U. S. and Western military resources.

American officials say this combination of circumstances does not necessarily add up to the likelihood of a renewed offensive by the Soviet-armed Pathet Lao forces, but it might.

The uninspected truce is enabling Communist North Vietnam to use Pathet Lao territory as a military supply route for arming and reinforcing the Viet Cong terrorist war in neighboring South Vietnam.

Thailand, the neighbor to the southwest, is worried that it will be the next target.

Harriman has gone from Laos to Saigon. He also will go to Bangkok to discuss the outlook with anxious South Viet Nam and Thai leaders.

He flew to Southeast Asia after the 14-nation Geneva Conference stalled on the critical issue of international inspection and other specific guarantees of the security of a neutral, and independent Laos.

The Western powers hoped that the logjam might be broken if the neutral, right-wing leftist factions could agree on formation of a neutralist-dominated coalition government to speak for Laos at Geneva.

Carla Did Some Good After All

CARSON CITY, Nev. (UPI) — When Hurricane Carla roared through Texas it brought about the delivery of a letter to a Nevada Highway Department engineer — more than five years after it was "mailed."

On March 28, 1966, John and Marge Cavanaugh of Reno wrote a letter to Denton Hays while they were on their way home from a tour of South America. They sealed the letter in a bottle and tossed it off the ship Del Norte in the Gulf of Mexico.

The bottle was found Sunday by Mr. and Mrs. John Rimmer of Leckhart, Tex., on the beach of the Mustang Peninsula near Corpus Christi, where they had gone beachcombing after Carla had passed. They placed the letter in another envelope and mailed it to Hays in Carson City.

The date of the letter was fixed by the date of a check, which also had been placed in the bottle by the Cavanaghs to help encourage anyone who found it to send it on its way.

The letter, although wrinkled from being in the bottle, was clearly legible and was not water-stained—despite what must have been a long stay in the sea or buried on some beach until uncovered by Carla.

Area C Of C President Stresses Member Value

Longwood Area Chamber of Commerce members, meeting for the first time after the summer recess, heard their new president, E. P. Richards, stress the importance of increasing the membership.

Making suggestions on means of gaining new members and of stimulating the interest of present ones, Richards called attention to the fact that the area organization does not operate as those in metropolitan areas but, instead, serves the smaller municipality more on the basis of a civic organization. He pointed out that not only does it represent the businesses of Longwood but is a voice of its people as well. For this reason, he advised, residents as well as business men should become members and give the organization their wholehearted support.

In other business, tentative plans for the annual Christmas Party, a community event sponsored by the chamber with assistance from other Longwood civic, social and church groups, were discussed.

Members also were reminded that although the city's residential areas have been numbered for some time, very few of the homes are displaying the numbers. They

A Few Words Can Pay Off

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—Mrs. E. Potts Johnson, wife of the superintendent at the city prison farm, is a woman of few words.

She used exactly 11 to recapture an escaping prisoner.

Mrs. Johnson was driving to town Wednesday and saw Walter E. Davis, 24, striding away from the farm in his prison garb. She drove up to him.

"Where are you going?" "I'm running off," he replied. "You're not either. Get in this car," Mrs. Johnson ordered.

Davis did. And he waited quietly while Mrs. Johnson drove to service station and called police to take him back to the farm.

Residents Petition Against Stable

The request for permission to construct a horse stable on First St. in Chuluota was denied by the Seminole Zoning Commission at an adjourned hearing held in the court house Monday.

Chuluota residents presented a petition with more than 100 signatures in opposition to the stable construction which was contrary to present zoning restrictions.

Kennedy To Address UN Next Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy will probably make his speech before the United Nations early next week.

He canceled a news conference scheduled for today to keep his schedule flexible.

But his speech plans could not be completed because of changes in the UN General Assembly schedule caused by the death of Secretary General Dag Hammarskjöld.

Informed sources said Kennedy now would most likely make his appearance early next week, possibly Monday or Tuesday.

The White House announced that Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson would head a group representing Kennedy at Hammarskjöld's funeral in Stockholm, Sept. 28.

The President planned to spend the weekend at Hyannis Port, Mass. Monday is set for the speech, he will fly from Cape Cod to New York for the address, then go to Newport, R.I., for a relatively brief holiday at the home of Mrs. Kennedy's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh D. Auchincloss.

Kennedy was hopeful his speech would help keep the United Nations from faltering following Hammarskjöld's death.

Classes would be held in the Forest City Baptist Church, Forward said, and arrangements can be completed if an additional 20 residents of the area sign for the classes.

Deer report on progress of the Community Park said that an access road has been cut to the property and grading should get underway almost immediately.

In other business, the association appointed a Ways and Means Committee to organize money-raising projects for a building at the park, naming Clarence Atchley as chairman. Members working with him will be Mrs. Neel Buell, Mrs. Ernestine Forward and Mrs. Flora Evelizer.

The group was advised that membership cards are back from the printers and are ready for distribution upon payment of association dues. It also voted to notify residents of the next monthly meeting through postcard advances in an effort to have all areas represented for the business session.

Pinecrest Parents Hear Answers On Queries About School

Pinecrest fathers and mothers turned out in large numbers Tuesday for the first meeting of parents and teachers, under the leadership of Mrs. Gordon Stanley, P-TA president.

A panel show called "Information, Please" was conducted on the stage, with Mrs. Ray Braden, representing the parents and asking questions of general interest of the teachers and school personnel.

Mrs. Brown, first grade teacher answered the question of "where does the $3 instructional fee go?", by showing a whole table full of materials for testing including stencils, paper of every size and kind, craft paper, memo-graph paper, workbooks, drawing paper, paste, water paints, finger paints, modeling clay and educational magazines, and explaining the need and function of each item of equipment.

Mrs. Long, librarian described the work of a librarian, the material made of the school library, the need for many more books on many subjects, particularly reference books, and ended by reading a humorous poem on the busy day of a librarian.

The Glee Club program was explained by Mrs. Ernest Bolick, music teacher, who said she sorts out the ones who "can sing and won't," the ones who "can't sing and try," and the ones who "want to sing and can."

Mrs. Ann Reynolds, sixth grade teacher, took the subject of homework and stated that some of the reasons for homework were: To reinforce learning; for practice and drill; to stimulate voluntary work and research; to enrich their school experience by the use of extra material, which may be contained in the home and not in the school.

Mrs. Lucile Fesler, lunchroom superintendent defended the practice of having each child pay for his lunch each day, rather than having the teacher take up all the lunch money at the beginning of the week.

Mrs. Fesler said that it teaches children the responsibility of handling money, and assured parents that though losses are small, no child will ever have to go without eating if he should lose his money.

Mrs. Marie Lewis, school secretary told parents how to make appointments with the teachers.

She stated that there were three methods: Write a note to the teacher, asking for an appointment; call the school office and they will arrange a conference or see the teacher before or after school and ask for a conference. She added that the last method is the least preferred.

Explanations were also heard from assistant principal Louis Kooley, head of the safety patrol, and the general education pattern was outlined by Mrs. Margaret Reynolds, principal.

Mrs. Stanley, president, named the heads of committees which have been appointed for the year. They are as follows:

Program chairman—Ken McIntosh; Membership—Mrs. Stewart Gatchel; Ways and Means—Paul Simpson; Health Clinic—Mrs. Don Howard; Hospitality—Mrs. Charles Schenover; Publicity—Mrs. E. S. Higginbotham;

Beautification—Mrs. John Carlton and Mrs. Carl Schilke and Safety—Louis Kooley.

The assembly voted to hold a Halloween Carnival this year and set the date for October 21st.

It was also announced that a school of instruction will be held here October 19th, beginning at 7 p. m., conducted by the new state president-elect, for all officers, committee members and interested persons.

UAW Meets To Decide Whether To Call Nationwide Strike

DETROIT (UPI)—United Auto Workers President Walter P. Reuther took the matter of a complete settlement with General Motors before the 280-member GM council of the union today for the second time in less than 24 hours. Reuther expressed confidence that the council would approve union International Executive Board action during a 2 1/2-hour session late Wednesday which would send all striking GM workers back to their jobs. Earlier Wednesday the council had voted to support what would have amounted to a nationwide strike against the auto giant despite a "settlement" announced by Reuther and GM vice president Louis G. Seaton. The hectic council session at one point appeared to amount to a repudiation of Reuther himself but in the end the union leader grabbed the reins in time to prevent a runaway and pulled the unwieldy body to a halt by reminding it that the IEB was the final authority.

"The IEB has a responsibility to the membership and to the nation," Reuther said, "and we will exercise that responsibility." He also spoke of a "new approach" to local issues which still are unsettled at about 30 per cent of the General Motors plants. He said he was confident the "new approach" the IEB and the union's GM department had worked out would meet with the approval of the council which was called into special session today. The IEB ordered workers at the plant which have settlements back to work at once. The remaining workers would continue their strikes pending today's council action. The council approved by a vote of 2,236-381 the national contract terms as announced by Reuther and Seaton. Then the matter of local plant disputes came before the body and by a 1,305-1,003 margin the council voted to support the locals in their disputes. In effect this vote was in support of a strike, since the council failed to order the still-striking minority of GM workers back to their jobs. Failure to end the 10-day-old strike amounted to a nationwide stop for the auto company since some of the affected plants are key parts operations. The 24-member executive board went into immediate session which resulted in the "new approach" statement. Reuther said, the executive board was "of the unanimous opinion that the union can't call a nationwide strike" under the circumstances.

Fallout Rises To Record Level

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Radio active fallout, borne on cold winds from Russia's Arctic proving ground, has risen to a record high in the nation's capital and some other northern and eastern cities. But the Public Health Service said the new levels, recorded over the weekend, posed no health threat unless sustained over "a long period of time." It didn't say how long that would be. Health service officials announced the record radiation figures Monday, after Russia touched off its 13th fallout-producing nuclear device. It was equal to about one megaton—a million tons of TNT.

The New Capitalism

People guide much of their living and thinking by slogans and labels. We like things categorized or wrapped up in neat little, uncomplicated packages. This is good; that is bad.

The trouble with putting life in a number of sharply defined categories is that, while seeming to simplify human affairs, it all too often acts as a block to penetrating thought.

Two important labels that have become rigidly stuck in our minds are "capitalism" and "communism." But the capitalism of today is not that of a century ago, nor even 30 years ago. Nor is Russian communism the same thing as the communism of Karl Marx.

The world changes, but the words we use do not. Marx today would scarcely recognize, nor approve, his communist dream in the Soviet version. Nor would he recognize the capitalism he hated and wished to destroy.

"Capitalism" (what other word can we use?) is changing while we look at it. A case in point is the new profit-sharing contract between the auto workers and American Motors. Many believe it is only a matter of time before the unions seek this from other industries, too.

Though it is perhaps foolhardy to predict what things will be like a generation from now, even assuming there will still be a world, this contract seems part of a definite trend toward a completely new kind of "capitalism." (Automation and the multiplication of stockholders are two other phenomena changing American economics.)

Today, labor and management in most cases view each other essentially as enemies, each seeking the advantage over the other. Labor points to the sizable bonuses paid executives by some corporations. Management cites instances of union "featherbedding." Neither side yields, so the public makes up the difference.

Tomorrow, labor and management will both recognize their involvement not only in each other but in society as a whole. Owners, while still reaping the financial reward that is the incentive under the free enterprise system for founding industries and services and creating new jobs and products, will realize that once they hire a man, they do not rent a unit of energy that is merely another item in the costs column but a human being with whose life they have become intimately connected—no matter how many thousands they may employ.

Workers, sharing more fully in the destinies of their companies, will gain new responsibility toward their employers. Eventually, the functions and interests of "workers" as opposed to "managers" will be more and more intertwined and indistinguishable.

It is a long road to go toward this "new capitalism," with many bumps and wrong turnings. But the American people seem firmly upon it. This is one of our strengths.

Fay Henle's

Your Pocketbook

If you're a woman and the last of your brood has finally gone off to school you probably are giving some thought to going back to work. It's expected that, by 1976, 36 million women—many of them married—will be at work.

If you've been out of the work market for years, or if you'd never worked, where should you start looking?

Gula Hall, deputy commissioner of the N. Y. State Department of Commerce, is an authority on this score and her department is a model for helping women get into the world of business. Her advice, pertinent in 30 states is:

- * Give some thought first to what you might most enjoy doing, for it is certain that you'll do well at something that especially interests you.

- * Determine how well skilled or qualified you are in that particular field.

- * It might pay you in the long run to either develop the skill you'll need or brush up on a skill you once had.

- * Where might you get the training you need? The New York

State Employment Service guides women to local sources and so, probably, can the employment service in your state.

Check with your local school board. Colleges, business schools and YWCA's also offer instruction.

Investment in time or money for training or retraining could pay off but don't overlook the fact that, once you start earning money, your expenses increase.

Figure what you might expect to earn and then list what it will cost you.

When you job hunt, Miss Hall says, your appearance is most important. Nothing reveals that you are out of touch with business world as much as being overdressed when you look for work, or the neglect of good grooming.

One occupation pointed up for the unskilled woman, aged 17 through 50, is practical nursing. The need for teachers continues, and so do opportunities in all the service industries.

Not to be overlooked is the possibility of starting a business of your own.

WE'LL NEGOTIATE

From Rome

Henry McLemore

BERTINORO, Italy — It's a good thing that Bertinoro's Feast of Hospitality lasts but one day. Were it a two-day affair I'd have to go back to Rome in a moving van. Never has one man eaten so much, with so few stops, than I did yesterday on this little town's centuries-old festa.

I told you the rules and regulations of the festa, I think. If I didn't, here they are:

When you get to Bertinoro you symbolically hitch your car or scooter or truck, or whatever it happens to be, to a ring on the 14th Century Column of Hospitality in one of the town's squares.

Each ring belongs to a family, and the families offer food and hospitality to the stranger, just as they started doing in the 14th Century.

I must have drawn the best possible ring.

It belonged to a couple in their fifties, Signor and Signora Gian Franco Bianchi, and they welcomed this stranger as if he were six prodigal sons. They have a son in Chicago and wanted to know right away if I happened to know him, and when I said no, they showed me an album of pictures of him, starting at age three, and said I was sure I'd never met him.

While I told them all about Chicago they told me all about Bertinoro, and between the swapping of information Signora Bianchi would slip away to the kitchen to work on dinner.

The wonderful odors that swirled through the house would have kept a man in strength, and the dinner was fit for a prince and extensive enough for a regiment.

I have no idea of all the things that were on the table, and brought to the table, but I remember melons and prosciutto, cannelloni with a bubbling cheese sauce, pollo diavolo, insalata verde, piselli, and bottles of bar-dolino and grappa, and figs, peaches, apples, nuts, home-baked bread, coffee, ten sorts of cheese and, I believe, two kinds of soup, one thick enough to skate on and filled with everything that grows in a garden.

We sat down to dinner around two in the afternoon and the shadows were long when we got up from the table. At the end of the first two hours of eating I thought I had finished, but I got my second stomach, so to speak, and started again.

The fact that my hosts spoke just about the same amount of English as I do Italian didn't slow us down conversationally one bit. We talked about everything in the world, and proposed toasts to half the American who ever lived, and most of the Italians.

The wonderful couple wanted me to spend the night, but I was afraid they'd want me to have some supper, and that was too much.

It took us almost as long to say goodbye as to eat dinner. We almost wore out the front steps.

I left with a drumstick to munch in case I got hungry, and an affection for the family that had shown me that the Column of Hospitality was built as much of human kindness and warmth as of marble.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE K-404: Henry H., aged 42, is an unpopular boss.

"Dr. Crane," one of his assistants told me, "Henry is a bearcat at the office."

"He barks at his employees and scares his secretaries till they develop all sorts of neurotic ailments."

"Seldom does a girl remain as his secretary longer than six months, for none of them can take his bellowing and regan."

"What's wrong with a fellow like Henry, anyway, for he graduated from engineering school with top honors?"

"The 'bearcat' at the office is often a 'housecat' at home," runs an old adage of Applied Psychology.

Thus, some of the most dominating people at work are meek "yes men" when they meet the little wife at dinner.

For people who feel deflated, frustrated and inferior in their home adjustments, often try to throw their weight around at the office.

Sometimes, however, shy folks have consciously cultivated the "bearcat" attitude, thinking that is the only way to run an office.

"Put the fear of God into 'em" was thus the standard formula for management in the old days.

But a smart secretary can soon undermine Henry's barking. It is usually much worse than his bite, anyway, for a great many supposedly tough people are very tender-hearted and sentimental inside.

They often adopt this rough, austere outer shell as protective armor to cover up their soft, sympathetic inside personality.

So I helped cook up a little plot for use on Henry.

We coached his secretary to use the Compliment Club strategy on him.

"Which type of stenci do you think we should order?" she asked next day.

"That's what I pay you for . . . to make your own decisions," he snapped back.

But we had anticipated his remark, so she did not quake inside and grow tense, but smilingly added:

"Oh, I know, but you have had so much more experience than I. So I figured you'd be an authority."

Peter Edson's

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Any doubts that U. S. commercial farming has become a big business should soon be removed by a huge expansion of Department of Agriculture's farm credit programs.

They are something none of the Communist countries and few of the underdeveloped countries have. But those countries may have to imitate the American private enterprise systems if they are to become self-sufficient agricultural.

"American farmers now have a businessman's approach to credit," says Gov. E. R. Tootel of the Farm Credit Administration. "If convinced it will pay them to borrow, they borrow."

Last year 178,000 U. S. farmers were using Farmers Home Administration credit. They borrowed a record $386 million, raising the total of government-supervised loans outstanding to nearly $1.1 billion. Meanwhile, 23,000 U. S. farmers have paid off their FHA loans in full.

Though the number of U. S. commercial farms has dropped 30 per cent in the last eight years, the amount of government supervised farm credit has jumped 130 per cent.

This is expected to increase further under the new credit programs authorized in the 1961 farm bill recently passed by Congress and signed by President Kennedy.

The legislation recognizes that modern farming is a high-cost operation. It requires a larger land base, heavier farm machinery and more electrification for efficient and economic operation under today's squeezed-down profits on each unit of farm production.

Heretofore, the limit on the amount of money a farmer could borrow under Department of Agriculture-supervised credit programs has been based on the average farm value in each county. The national average is a little over $40,000.

Under the new regulations, effective Oct. 13, loans to buy and enlarge farms may now be made on any family farm if its total indebtedness is not more than $60,000 when the deal is closed.

This will cover not only purchase of farm real estate but also a maximum of a $35,000 operating loan for farm machinery, livestock, seed, feed and fertilizer to get going. The former limit was $20,000.

These loans can be made by FHA directly, where no other source of credit is available. They may also be made by local banks under FHA guarantee. The bank gets 4 1/2 per cent interest and FHA collects 4 1/2 per cent insurance. The former charge was 1 per cent and the bankers got 4.

What's more, loans may now be made for full 100 per cent of valuation instead of the former 90 per cent limit.

So it's a better deal for all parties concerned.

Farm purchase loans may be made for 40 years. But since 1937 it has been FHA experience that the average loan is paid off in about 17 years.

Operating loans may be made for seven years as in the past, but renewals may be made for five years, instead of three. Interest rate remains 3 per cent. Operating loans may also include educational loans to send a farm boy through agricultural college.

Another big expansion is expected in loans to part-time farmers with outside jobs and income. They may borrow to buy and large or improve small farms. Previously, loans were limited to full-time commercial farmers.

Small loans for farm improvement may now be made without a mortgage.

A team of Agriculture Department officials under John Baker, director of credit services, is touring the country this month for meetings with field officers to explain these new programs.

The new credit plans for rural housing and rural area economic development will also be explained to local officials who will make the loans.

Citrus Tour Friday By Seminole Group

A tour of the citrus growing areas of St. Lucie County will be held Friday under the auspices of Seminole County Agent Cecil A. Tucker II and his assistant, Ernest C. Lundberg.

This trip was arranged as the result of increasing interest among growers and landowners in the feasibility of growing citrus on the old vegetable lands and other flatwood lands in this area, Tucker said.

The group will inspect plantings and bedding methods in the Ft. Pierce section which has soils similar to those in Seminole County, the county agent explained.

Assisting the visitors on the tour will be St. Lucie County Agent Hugh Wheelock, a former Sanford resident. Among the groves to be visited is the 6,000 acre Minute Maid operation.

In addition to studying the various types of beds and plantings the group will also inspect and discuss drainage systems with the growers in the field.

The tour will leave from the courthouse Friday at 8:30 a. m. and then go to Oviedo where a group from that area will join them. They are scheduled to leave Oviedo City Hall at 7 a. m. and reach their destination in time to begin the inspection tour at 10 a. m.

Tucker asks all interested persons to phone him at FA 3-3231.

Junior Seminoles Roll Over Seabreeze, 37 - 6

Lawson Paces 1st Victory

By DAVID BROWN

The Seminole Junior Varsity's ground offensive moved into high gear Wednesday night as they steamrolled Seabreeze 37-6.

It was the first game of the season for the locals as they played before a capacity crowd at Municipal Stadium.

The Seminoles didn't waste any time as they got rolling in the first quarter with Buddy Lawson setting up the first touchdown with runs of 30 and 40 yards. Jackie Carlo scored the first TD to give the locals an early 6-0 lead.

In the second quarter, Lawson, with the help of some brilliant blocking, scored two more TD's with Jim Westland also crossing pay dirt for a score.

In the third quarter, the Seminoles made it look easy as Lawson nabbed a short pass and raced down the sidelines 50 yards for the score.

In the final period, Frank Noell charged through the middle of the Seabreeze line for a marker. The final Sanford score, came in the final minutes of play when Lloyd Freeman raced 25 yards for the score.

The only Seabreeze score came late in the final period.

Seminoles Need Big Tribe; Backup Up 'Heap - A - Plenty'

BY DOTTIE HIGGINBOTHAM

There are approximately 65 boys on the two football teams at Seminole High School, the varsity and the junior varsity, but only 12 of them were represented by their parents at a meeting Tuesday to attempt to re-organize the defunct Booster Club.

The main purpose of the Booster's Club is to provide moral support for the players, encourage sportsmanship, honesty, integrity and physical well being.

It also serves to stimulate public interest in high school athletics, and to show the world that Sanford is 100 percent behind its team.

Mrs. Jewell Riser, presiding in the absence of Jim Riser at the Tuesday night meeting said, "In order to have a club, organization is needed, publicity is needed and a good program is needed."

"Contrary to what may have been a misunderstanding, it is not necessary to purchase a season ticket to be a member of the Boosters Club, and it never was a requirement."

"The Booster's Club has only a nominal membership fee and the main purpose is to get together with other parents, former athletes of the school, and all sports-minded persons of any age, whether they have children in Sanford schools or not, to band together to express to the boys on the playing field . . .

"We're behind you 100 percent win or lose!"

The approximately 23 persons at the meeting voted unanimously to start the ball rolling with a motorcade to the Tangerine Bowl in Orlando Friday night, where the Seminoles meet Edgewater High at 8:15 p. m.

Mrs. Michael Conalo and Mrs. Riser volunteered to serve as marshals and asked that decorated cars meet at the high school parking lot at 6:30 p. m. Friday, to leave in a police-escorted motorcade not later than 6:45 p. m.

During the rest of this week and weekend, a telephone committee will be contacting the parents of the high school athletes to ask for their cooperation in setting up the Booster Club again and in turn contacting other interested persons, who would like to express their active support in a realistic way.

One more meeting is scheduled Monday at 8 p. m. in the high school auditorium, to elect officers and set up the organization. Everyone is invited, whether you are called or not.

Time Runs Out For Maris; Gallops For Reds In NL

United Press International

Time has run out on Roger Maris but it's galloping swiftly along for the Cincinnati Reds in their rush to a World Series date with the New York Yankees.

Maris hit his 50th homer to help the Yankees beat the Baltimore Orioles, 4-2, Wednesday night and clinch their 26th American League pennant. In his last three times at bat, however, he was unable to hit the 60th homer that would have earned him a share of baseball immortality with Babe Ruth.

Still, there are many who will recognize him as home run king if he surpasses the magic 60 during the last eight games of the regular season without any pennant pressure.

As for the Reds, the only magic number they're interested in is "4," which happens to be their pennant-clinching combination. Cincinnati moved a step closer to the World Series by edging the Pittsburgh Pirates, 3-2, on Wally Post's two-run homer in the eighth inning.

"The Los Angeles Dodgers kept 'alive' by edging the Chicago Cubs, 3-2, in 12 innings. Los Angeles now is five games behind Cincinnati and has nine games left to play. Thus, any combination of Reds victories and Dodger defeats that add up to four will clinch the pennant for Cincinnati.

The Milwaukee Braves defeated the San Francisco Giants, 1-4, and the Philadelphia Phillies beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 6-1, in other National League games.

In the American League, the Kansas City Athletics defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4-2, the Detroit Tigers ended their home schedule with a 6-3 victory over the Los Angeles Angels, and the Chicago White Sox beat the Boston Red Sox, 3-1, Minnesota at Washington was rained out.

For the second straight season, Ralph Terry pitched the pennant-clincher for New York. He held the Orioles to four hits as he gained his 15th victory against three defeats. Besides Maris, Yogi Berra hit a Yankee homer.

The triumph made Ralph Houk the 12th manager in baseball history to guide a team to the pennant in his first season as skipper.

In the World Series, the Yankees' opening-game pitching opponent undoubtedly will be Joey Jay, who yielded seven hits Wednesday night in achieving his 21st victory. Post's game-winning homer was a walk to Vada Pinson.

Ron Fairly singled home Wally Moon with the Dodgers' winning run in the 13th. Norm Sherry sent the game into extra innings with a homer in the eighth. Sandy Koufax pitched the distance for his 18th victory and struck out 13 batters. That gave him 250 strikeouts for the season and tied him with Christy Mathewson for the third highest total in National League history.

Greyhounds Open Home Grid Season Friday Facing Ocoee

The Lyman High Greyhounds face a "pretty hard" ball game Friday night when they meet the Cardinals from Ocoee. That's the way Coach Bill Proctor of the Greyhounds put it this morning.

Ocoee has a seasoned line with six seniors on the first eleven and some other good linemen to back them up. Add to this the fine quarterbacking and passing which the team has and Lyman knows that it faces a tough assignment to get past this aggregation.

But Lyman has some things to be proud of itself. For one thing it has a boy who can run 50 yards in the mud to score a TD. That was Jerry Watkins' contribution to the 10 to 0 victory over Crystal River last week.

And that's not all. Lyman has a line which in fact kept its first opponent from crossing its goal. Last week's game was played on a field made soft by pre-game rains and Coach Proctor was not able to get a good picture of his passing and running game. Friday he is going with the same lineup he sent against Crystal

River and he is hoping for a firm field to give his charges a better chance to show their stuff.

The game starts at 8 p. m. Friday at Lyman Field in Longwood and the athletic officials are expecting a good turnout for the first home game.

Famed Griffith Stadium Becoming 'Ghost Park'

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Griffith Stadium—the major league home of Walter Johnson—is becoming a baseball ghost park.

Barring unexpected front office snags, today's meeting between the Washington Senators and the Minnesota Twins will be the last big time contest in the 30-year-old park.

Contract negotiations are underway for the Senators to move next year to the modernistic new 40,000-seat Washington Stadium. The pro football Washington Redskins already have abandoned Griffith Stadium for the new park.

Georgia Ready For SEC Opener Against Alabama

By United Press International

Georgia Football Coach Johnny Griffith Wednesday said his squad was "mentally ready" for Saturday's opener with Alabama—the only Southeastern Conference battle of the day—but Crimson Tide Coach Paul Bryant said his team was marked by "sluggishness, particularly mental."

"I don't know what they were thinking about," Bryant said after Wednesday's practice session, "but they sure weren't thinking about Georgia and football."

Bryant said reserve center Ronnie Burnham was counted out of the Georgia game at Athens, Ga. when he discovered he had broken his nose in the previous day's practice. But tackle Billy Neighbors, sidelined with a cold, is expected to be ready for the season debut.

Georgia, the underdog against highly rated Alabama, ran through a snappy signal drill Wednesday and then viewed Alabama game films.

Mississippi, which meets Arkansas Saturday in the TV game-of-the-day, polished its kicking Wednesday with drills on field goal kicking and returns, kick off and kick-off returns and punting and punt coverage.

The Razorbacks, who split 12-12 last year with Ole Miss, went through a sharp workout Wednesday with one big question un-

Golfers 'Mourn' Oliver

WILMINGTON, Del. (UPI)—Ed (Porky) Oliver was mourned by pros and duffers alike today in the world of golf he brightened for 29 years with sparkling play and a matching wit.

The 46-year-old Oliver died Wednesday in Memorial Hospital after a 16-month battle with cancer which had reduced him to a shadow of the round, 240-pounder who sprinkled the pro trail with laughs and buoyancy while getting his share of tournament victories.

Although Oliver was a member of the U. S. Ryder Cup team three times and won several important championships, the big ones always got away from him. But he looked upon these setbacks philosophically.

"Money is important, but without laughs life just wouldn't be worth the battle," he used to say. Oliver's jolly nature helped tide him over two operations and other ailments which set in during his long struggle against cancer. His concern was mostly for his wife, Clara, and their four children.

"They're all taking it fine, taking it in stride," Oliver would say. About himself, "You just have to pray and have faith," he would say.

Pink Ladies To Present Variety Show

The Women's Auxiliary of the Seminole Memorial Hospital held a board meeting, Tuesday, in the hospital conference room.

Harry Weil, hospital administrator, spoke to the group concerning the new annex. He told them that when it is completed there will be about 130 rooms available.

During the past year the percentage of patient occupancy was 65 per cent which is beyond the maximum for efficiency. When the new annex is completed, hospital employees will be increased to 135 and eventually will total 175 to 190.

He asked the auxiliary members to remind anyone who wished to donate furnishings for a room that it will cost $725 to $750 per room.

During the business session, plans were discussed for a variety show that the group is sponsoring. It is scheduled for Oct. 19 at the new High School Auditorium. Proceeds will be used for the auxiliary work.

Tickets are now available at the Hospitality Shop or from any member.

8-8:30 p. m. ABC. The Donna Reed Show - "A Rose Is A Rose." By any other name this "rose" would rate as no beauty, but is still okay.

9-10 p. m. CBS TV Workshop - "My Theory About Girls." (Repeat). Cute idea, worked out with a modicum of wit.

9:30-10:30 p. m. ABC. The Untouchables - "The Seventh Vote." (repeat) Thanks to capable cast, headed by Robert Stack.

Mrs. E. L. JOHNSON third and Mrs. Thelma Sikes third and fourth. Morris Ruby is the principal of both schools. Hope the parents of the Wilson School attended the first meeting of the PTO on Tuesday evening. Louise Thompson called to say that the Brownies will hold their first meeting Tuesday at the Monroe School starting at 2:30 p. m. This will be for girls in the second, third and fourth grades. All girls interested and their mothers are invited to be there. Mrs. Mable Carroll and Mrs. Maxine Steversen will assist Louise this year. She really has done fine work in the past with the Brownies. Troy and Mary Lee Thompson have bought one of the Bryant homes just off First St. and Monroe Corner and moved in during the weekend. They have been in Nassau. William Reddick, father of Rena Hawkins is seriously ill at his home in Merrillville and Rena is ready to go there at a moment's notice. The Clarence Hilliells and son Buddy and his wife of Jacksonville were visitors at the Claude Hilliells. Happy Birthday Mrs. C. B. Sapp on your 86th anniversary. Her children and other relatives had a picnic at her home on Sunday. I heard she really received some very lovely gifts. Despite the rain they had a covered dish dinner in the Burness garage. Walter and Margaret Price, along with Frank and Bertina Price, have returned from their vacation trip up north. Lucille Fitzgerald, Betty Blackwelder, Olga Hunter, Naomi Sapp and I attended the Fish School at the Home Demonstration center last Friday and it was certainly interesting and what made it so good was that we all got to sample the recipes that our instructor made. They are recipes that are quick and easy to prepare. Tommy and Ruth Swaggerty returned home Tuesday after enjoying a wonderful trip to the mountains. Tom brought us a Knoxville, Tenn. paper. I asked him if the leaves had started turning yet and he said they had not. For our closing thought for this week I found this beautiful piece in our daily Grapevine paper that we get while attending the Short Course every year in Gainesville. I hope you enjoy it as much as I did. This is one to remember.

Congress Adjournment Hinges On Foreign Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Adjournment of Congress this week hinged today on foreign aid and a possible Senate battle over tax relief for DuPont stockholders.

000, but the House has approved $3,637,000,000. Congressional leaders hoped a speedy agreement on foreign aid and a decision on the DuPont bill would clear the path to adjournment, possibly Saturday.

Two other foreign policy measures, to put the Peace Corps on a permanent basis and set up an arms control agency, were heading toward final approval.

The House and Senate were expected to send the Peace Corps bill to the White House today. The House also was set to send the arms control proposal to a conference committee where quick action was anticipated.

Hunger Strike Negroes Go On Trial

ELKTON, Md. (UPI) — Three Philadelphia Negroes, on the 15th day of a hunger strike, go on trial at the Cecil County court house today on trespassing charges.

The three, Wallace F. Nelson, 32, his wife Juanita, and Miss Rose Robinson were traveling with a friend, Mrs. Kay M. Fields of Chicago on their way to Philadelphia on Maryland U. S. Route 40 when they stopped at the Bar-ll Chuck House near Northeast, Md., to eat on Sept. 6. They were refused service and arrested when they did not leave the restaurant.

After being arrested, the four were taken before a magistrate who fined Mrs. Fields, a white stenographer, $50 on trespassing charges. The Nelsons and Miss Robinson refused to walk to the hearing and vowed they would not cooperate in any way. They have refused legal counsel.

Cecil County authorities became concerned about the hunger strike when it went into its 12th day Monday and ordered the fasters taken to the Crownsville state hospital at Annapolis for mental examinations.

Hospital authorities at Crownsville declared them fit to stand trial and the three were returned to the Elkton jail Wednesday.

They did not eat while at Crownsville and again refused to walk to the hospital from police cars.

Route 40 restaurants in Maryland have been the scene of discrimination incidents recently which have attracted national and international attention when African diplomats were refused service.

The legislation stems from a Supreme Court ruling that DuPont must dispose of its 63 million shares of GM stock within the next 10 years. The bill is aimed at easing the impact of the stock disposal.

EDITORIAL COMMENT Mothers Needed

Many young peoples' organizations time their active months to coincide with the school term, particularly in resort states such as Florida.

One such group, The Girl Scout Lyman Neighborhood Three Assn., has announced its first meeting for Monday. Eleven troops, represented by 22 leaders in this association, will hold their first meetings of the new year within a few days.

Mrs. Frank Russell, Neighborhood Three chairman, has reported a serious shortage of adult leaders and an appalling lack of interest from parents in the program for the coming season.

Scouting, too, she reminds, can be considered an educational activity particularly valuable to girls in that it not only aids in character building but teaches our future homemakers to rely upon their own ingenuity in many emergencies and unexpected situations.

True, troop meetings and work largely are the responsibility of leaders, but think how much a troop could accomplish if it also had wholehearted support and interest from the mothers of its members. Mrs. Russell has observed that troops without parental support are robbed of ambition and purpose and all too often, talented leaders wind up with the feeling that the only purpose they are enabled to fulfill is that of "a glorified baby-sitter!"

Girl Scouts of America, Inc., Mrs. Russell advises, stands ready to make scouting available to every girl who wants it, but the organization cannot possibly carry out this obligation without cooperation from mothers who are willing to give some of their time as leaders, neighborhood chairmen, consultants, organizers, registrars, troop committee members and other officers.

This year, Seminole County schools reported the greatest enrollments ever... What an opportunity in each area for Seminole County mothers to set the pace for record growth in the Girl Scout program here.

Over $1 Million Cost Is Expected

The County School Board will take the first step Friday afternoon to relieve overcrowding in South Seminole schools when it opens bids on two new facilities—one in Bear Lake and one near Casselberry.

Bids will be opened on a new Bear Lake Elementary School at 2 p. m. Last year the State Survey team recommended the new school which is expected to cost an approximate $400,000.

The 1957 team recommended that the school have a capacity for 600 youngsters and that it be planned to have an "ultimate capacity of 720."

It will include 20 classrooms, special education room, library, storage space and administrative suite.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee said recently that he expects the new school to be ready by next spring.

The new junior high school near Casselberry is expected to have a capacity for 1,082 youngsters and an "ultimate capacity of 1,500."

It is to consist of 28 classrooms, arts and craft room, science rooms, shop and band room, cafeteria and is expected to cost more than $800,000.

Financing for the new schools will come from the sale of State Board of Education bonds.

Girl Scout Official Announces First Meeting For Year

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Mrs. Frank Russell, chairman of Lyman Neighborhood No. 3 Girl Scouts, has announced that the first meeting of the fiscal year of the Girl Scout Neighborhood Assn. will be held at 7:30 p. m. Monday at her home on Lake Howell Rd.

She urges all leaders and group committee members to be present at this important meeting when Miss Judy Jacobs of Orlando, director of this district from the Citrus Council of Girl Scouts, will make her first visit. Advising that there also is an urgent need for more leaders in the scouting program, Mrs. Russell especially invites those who are interested and who would be willing to devote some of their free time to this work with the girls to attend the meeting.

This year's first meeting of Girl Scout Troop 338, which is made up of sixth grade girls, also will be held at Mrs. Russell's home after school on Tuesday. Co-leader of the troop is Miss Janice Stone.

Casselberry Swim Classes Teach More Than 300

Casselberry's Volunteer Fire Dept. monthly report, presented at this month's meeting of the Board of Aldermen, advised that more than 300 adults and children in the area took part in the department's water safety program this summer, either learning to swim or improving their ability.

Chief Paul Bates, also a member of the board, said that "if this program is an indication, we must have more qualified instructors next season."

The water safety program each year is carried out in Casselberry as a combined effort of the Volunteer Firemen and the Seminole Chapter of the American Red Cross.

Another happy fact included in the report... there were no fires during the month.

Casselberry Legion Names Officials

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Leonard Caselberry, commander of Casselberry American Legion Post 256, has announced the election of a second vice commander and an executive committee for the organization.

Named at a meeting held last Friday night at the Women's Club of Casselberry were Kenneth Walbridge as second vice commander and James F. Myers, Daniel Porter and Luther Mynderse to the executive committee. Commander Caselberry reports that the post is growing rapidly and already has 70 members on its roster.

Oviedo Tea Planned

The Oviedo Women's Club Executive Board will honor all members of the club at a tea to be held between the hours of 3 p. m. and 5 p. m. Friday in the new clubhouse.

NEW OFFICERS of the Bear Lake Manor Civic Betterment Assn., Inc., were installed at this month's general membership meeting. Shown taking over the gavel from retiring president Bob Kowalski is Douglas Kerr. Other officers of the new team include, from left, E. T. Jamieson, treasurer; Mrs. Dean Hendricks, secretary and William Taylor, vice president. General membership meetings are held at 8 p. m. on the first Thursday of each month at members' homes. Demand For HD Extension Services Rising

MRS. H. L. JOHNSON The people today want to be successful, efficient and capable managers. In general, they want to be well informed. This means that requests for assistance from the County Home Demonstration agents have increased sharply. The Extension Service helps people in eight Program Areas. They are: 1. Agriculture Production. 2. Marketing. 3. Conservation. 4. Farm and Home Management. 5. Family Living. 6. Youth Development. 7. Leadership Development. 8. Community Development and Public Affairs.

Here are some of the kinds of information most requested. Selecting food, clothing, household equipment and furnishings; understanding the role of family members, including all ages; health education and safety; managing time and energy; giving the family well balanced meals and stretching the family dollar which today is very important and making our home comfortable, livable and attractive.

To reach this vast, growing audience which includes men, women and youth, the Agriculture Extension Service is broadening its program. It is making this information available not only to organized groups, but to everyone through special interest meetings, workshops for family members in food and nutrition, family life, management and other personal contracts through home visits, telephone, office calls and letters. The Extension Service also has bulletins and leaflets for distribution, educational tours and co-operation with other agencies and groups.

Today's new frontiers in H.D. emphasizes information designed for special audiences such as young homemakers, low income groups, homemakers who work away from home and retired persons.

Home Demonstration information and ways of providing it fill the needs and interests of these groups. These people help decide their own needs. The agents help in developing these programs which cover all aspects of family living. In 1960 H.D. agents emphasized human relations, citizenship, public affairs, conservation and leadership.

Through a new program on Human Relations the families learned more about the growth and development of personalities from childhood through adult life. Families discovered the importance of healthy inter-personal relationships within the home and community.

public affairs Home Demonstration workers helped Floridians better understand good citizenship and their responsibilities in the affairs of the community, state and nation.

Leaders are very important in

H. D. work. Future leaders had many opportunities for training in 1960. Families learned to make wise decisions in managing their financial resources, this included the use of credit and other business procedures.

Won't Sit 'Supine And Silent,' GOP Chairman Miller Declares

Holmes Alexander has left on a brief European vacation. During his absence a number of prominent and interesting guests will contribute columns.

By Congressman WILLIAM E. MILLER (R., N. Y.)

(Republican National Chairman)

As the Kennedy Administration proceeds into the perils at home and abroad, there will come times in both areas of concern when Republicans will rise and say: "No. We disagree with the Administration's course of action. We believe that the national interest requires alternative action." I am grateful to Holmes Alexander for this chance to develop the subject.

When we disagree, of course, proponents of the Administration will seek to brand us as "obstructionists" and as politicians fishing for partisan gain in the sea of national challenges.

I can think of no reaction more irresponsible—no greater neglect of high duty—than for the Republican Party silently and meekly to rubber-stamp the entire Administration program just to create a false facade of national unity.

My viewpoint has been stated in more elegant language by one of the masters — a master of both politics and of language.

In December of 1945, Prime Minister Winston Churchill—the architect of the British war effort—arose in the House of Commons at a tense hour and offered a motion of censure of the Labor Government which ousted him the previous election. Anticipating charges of "obstructionism" and "politics in a critical hour," Churchill explained his duty this way, and I second his views today:

"The Government reproaches us with making their task more difficult, but what do they expect?"

Churchill went on: "Can we with our convictions, as honorable men, as a great party in the State, afford, for the sake of appearances of unity, to acquiesce in a destructive downward trend in our affairs at home and abroad? Are we not bound in honor to give our warnings in good time about the future, and to record our censure on the present?"

"Would we not be blameworthy before history if we sat supine and silent, while one folly and neglect is piled on top of another, and much that we fought for together is lost or frittered away?"

"The only excuse for silence and inaction would be despair, and despair is not to be tolerated among Britons."

Well, despair is not to be tolerated among Americans, especially the 84 million Americans who supported the Republican Party in 1960.

In 1960, we were denied continued executive power by an eyelash while we were increasing our seats in Congress—in state capitals, state legislatures and county courthouses.

But this narrow defeat, to my mind, does not relieve us of national responsibility. I firmly believe that the national security, national defense, foreign policy and domestic matters continue to be as much the responsibility of the Republicans as of the Democrats.

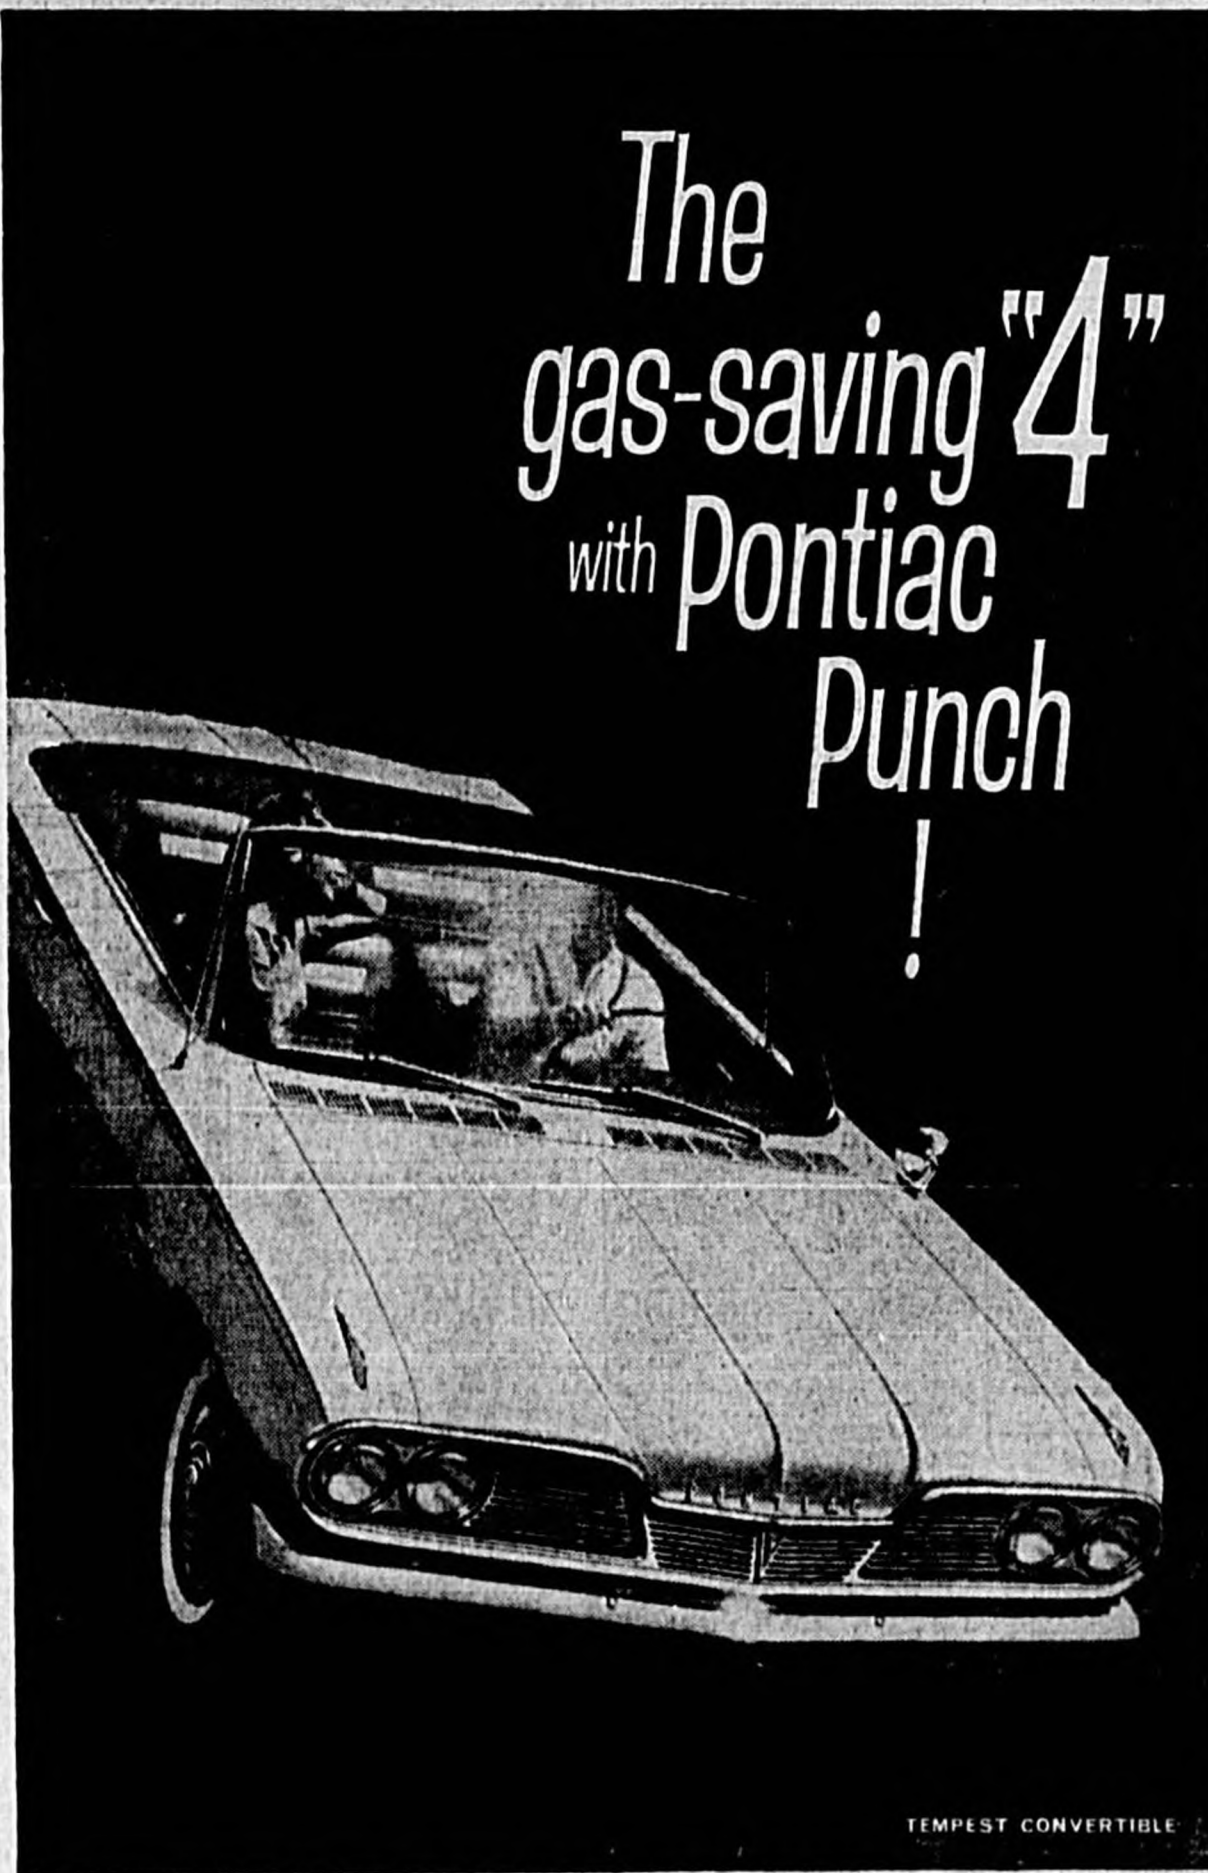

This is what I mean by our role of participation. We intend to make certain that our philosophy and our plans are injected with massive impact into the formulation of national policies.

We intend to continue fighting on all levels for our programs as I approach, when they differ with those offered by the new administration, and we intend to carry on this fight with all the power and voices at our command.

I believe that our nation has grown to be the most powerful on earth because its policies have been forged in the hot clash of competing ideas. Out of this continuing and healthy clash has come a set of steel-hard principles and ideas that perhaps are better and more enduring than the originals from either side. And once a basic American program is forged with the best from either side, it truly represents a consensus of all the people. This is why our government is the most representative on earth.

PONTIAC TRIGGERS ANOTHER TEAM OF WINNERS. Every one is a fancy mover. Choice of 110, 115, 120 or 140 h.p., gas-saving 4-cylinder engine. A couple of extra cost options: 4-barrel carb, 166 h.p. Plenty of punch without big maintenance and running costs. The citizen who wants more can go for an aluminum V-8 option that pulls 185 horses.

TEMPEST HAS A FRONT ENGINE/REAR TRANSMISSION! (The only American car with this feature.) It gives Tempest equal weight at every wheel. It has biting traction on the bricks or in the mud. Tires last longer. Brakes take hold like they mean it. The front floor is practically flat (no big hump in the middle). Tempest seats six—easily!

TEMPEST HAS INDEPENDENT SUSPENSION—FRONT AND REAR! Each wheel (and it's a big 15" one) moves up and down independently of the opposite wheel. There's no solid axle in the rear. Result: Firm ride on pavement, soft ride in the boondocks! Swing axles in the rear help the Tempest to carve out clean, firm curves.

Single Purpose Bomb Shelters Tax Exempt

Tax Assessor Mary Earle Walker today said her office would allow exemptions for fallout shelters if it is used for that purpose alone.

Mrs. Walker said that if a shelter is strictly for fallout purposes, a token value would be placed on the tax roll.

"However," she added, "if the shelter is for a dual purpose, such as game rooms and storage facilities, then the valuation would have to be determined and placed on the tax roll."

Sanford already has agreed to give relief for citizens building a shelter.

Meanwhile, hundreds of residents have swamped the Civil Defense office in the past two weeks about building their own family nuclear bomb shelters.

Russia's resumption of nuclear tests put the final spur to a surge of public anxiety that followed President Kennedy's warning last month about protection and the grim developments in Berlin.

In Los Angeles, for example, there are six trunk telephone lines into the CD office. The switchboard has been so overrun that plans are being made to install 20 lines.

No figures are available on the number of shelters actually being started there. But in the city of Chicago, only two building permits have been issued for construction of shelters.

And in the building permit office in New York City—with more than 7 million people—there is not a single application for a permit for shelter construction!

There are indications, however, that people are about to do more than think about protecting their families.

In Philadelphia, a model shelter was built in Fairmount Park with visiting hours 1 to 4 p. m. five days a week. Since the Russian tests started, crowds have become so great the exhibit is open seven days a week.

Defense Coordinator Joseph R. Costa says thousands of inquiries have been coming from radio stations who pass on listener requests.

"We're suffering from prosperity but we love it," he said.

"We've been trying for years to get our message across. Looks like Khrushchev did it for us."

The survey could not measure families who have started shelters without asking for permits or housewives who have stocked food and water, transistor radios, candles and other essentials in their basements.

Ready To Talk Terms On Any Level-Nikita

MOSCOW (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev said today that Russia is ready to negotiate with the United States "at any time, at any place and at any level."

The threat of war has perhaps never been as great in the post-war period as it is now, Khrushchev said. Governments of the Western powers are intensifying military preparations in every way, he said.

Khrushchev made the statement in a letter to Indian Prime Minister Jawaharlal Nehru. It was the Soviet Premier's answer to a message sent him by the non-aligned nations after the recent Belgrade conference. He sent similar letters to other neutralist leaders.

"The Soviet government is ready to participate in talks which are really directed toward the speediest solution of urgent international questions," Khrushchev said, "particularly a peace conference on concluding a German peace treaty and the normalization of the situation in West Berlin."

"The sooner such serious talks, the better."

The Soviet Premier said the situation in Europe would be better if countries which have not recognized both German states—the German Democratic Republic (East Germany) and the Federal Republic of Germany (West Germany)—would recognize them in fact and establish relations with them.

He also said that both East and West Germany should be admitted to the United Nations.

"The Soviet Union always favors the regulation of controversial problems by negotiations," Khrushchev wrote Nehru.

"We also consider that negotiations between states, and particularly between the USSR and the United States, as the most powerful and influential states, can and should play an important role in improving the international situation."

"We are ready in the name of securing peace to negotiate at any time, at any place and at any level."

Senate Democratic leader Mike Mansfield and Republican leader Everett M. Dirksen agreed at the breakfast meeting with Kennedy that adjournment "tomorrow night was quite possible."

Fears Toll Road To Delay Freeway

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—Rep. William C. Cramer (R-Fla.) isn't convinced extension of Florida's toll turnpike will not seriously delay construction of an east coast freeway.

Cramer called on Gov. Farris Bryant Thursday to specifically exclude planned Interstate Highway 95 between Daytona Beach and Miami from an agreement with turnpike bondholders against building any freeways which might jeopardize turnpike revenue.

Yogi Classes

Mrs. Dwight R. Smith announced today that her new fall classes in the ancient Indian science of yoga, which proved so popular last year, will begin again on Oct. 2, upstairs at the Evans Building in Lake Mary.

Longwood Adopts Budget

Longwood adopted its 1961-1962 budget Thursday night calling for expenditures of $15,700, an increase of $8,117 over last year, without having to raise the 10 mill tax levy.

However, Mayor Al Lormann's hopes for an allocation to begin building a new city hall were shelved for the present to make way for a new fire truck.

Councilman Carl Lommler, making a strong plea for the new truck and $2,500 in repairs on the old one, read the second survey report from authorized dealer inspectors suggesting that this be done.

He won approval for a $500 start out of this year's funds on the repair work and the board agreed to take up the matter of a new piece of equipment in about six months. Estimated costs for a new truck were quoted at $18,500.

Avery Reassures Council On Orange Ave. Project

District 3 County Commissioner Jim Avery, making a special visit to the Longwood Council Thursday night, reassured the city that Orange Ave. will be paved all the way to Hwy. 17-92 and that work on the project would begin Monday morning.

"I dropped by tonight to clear up some of this confusion on Orange Ave. that developed after an unfortunate press notice following the Commission's adoption of the county's five year road program."

"Materials already have been bought and stockpiled out of money from the old budget and your road definitely is going to be paved on out to the highway," he said.

"Actually, the work should already be underway but we delayed it one week in order that grove owners could remove a row of trees from the right of way. They've been paying taxes on those trees for some 20 years and we felt the delay was justified."

Avery also told the council that the county had been advised by the State Road Dept. that it is ready to let bids on the almost one-quarter million dollar Molnar Ave. paving and that he understood changes requested by Longwood had been incorporated in the project.

Big items on the new budget include police salaries, $5,000 as compared to last year's $4,200; maintenance salaries at $5,400; streets, parks and buildings at $5,500 and truck-equipment maintenance at $2,000 all remained the same; new items—reserve debt service at $1,700 and equipment at $4,715. The debt service fund was set at $9,785 as compared to $10,180 last year.

The only other reductions were in office and telephone expense funds.

A meeting to discuss the engineering report on feasibility of installing a city sewage plant was discussed, however, the board tabled the matter for at least another 30 days.

County Engineer Carlton Bliss today denounced the county's five-year-road program and declared criticism to the program was "just a case of politics."

"The program will prove to be in the interests of the entire county and not one municipality is neglected as was charged," Bliss said.

Bliss stated that the record bears out that the cities—were given the lion's share of the secondary road fund program and declared that out of that fund is $147,000 for Altamonte Springs and the $247,000 Molnar Ave. project that will benefit Longwood.

The road program is bound to help cities provide better circulation into the county, Bliss said.

At the same time, the majority of the county have agreed to

U. S. Bolsters UN Forces In War-Torn Congo

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (UPI)—The United States bolstered the United Nations force in The Congo today with four big multi-engine transport planes.

The first plane, a C124 Globemaster, arrived Thursday night at Leopoldville's N'Jili Airfield. Three C130 Hercules were due today.

Up to now the distribution of supplies in The Congo has been done by a fleet of chartered DC3, DC4 and C54 planes. Now has the carrying capacity of the Globemaster and Hercules.

The United Nations had four planes damaged by jet strafing during the Katanga operation in addition to the one lost in the crash which killed Secretary General Dag Hammarskjold.

Water Pollution Probe Promised

ATLANTA (UPI)—A South Georgia state senator promised Thursday there would be a thorough investigation into Florida complaints that its waters are being polluted by wastes from Georgia streams.

Sen. Dan Hart of Quitman said a Senate subcommittee has been conducting investigations into the pollution problems of Georgia, not only in the areas mentioned by Florida, but state-wide.

St. Johns Put To Use By Sanford Contractor

Proof that the St. Johns River can be used for low cost transportation was provided here this week when the contracting firm of Burnup and Sims shipped 135 tons of building material on a 220 foot cargo vessel to the Virgin Islands for a construction project.

The largest cargo ship ever to visit Sanford is now en route to St. Croix, Virgin Islands, where the Sanford firm has the contract to construct a building.

The company of which Victor Hutchins is the manager, chartered the motorship Corinto to transport everything needed for the building except the concrete. This can be obtained in the Virgin Islands, Hutchins said.

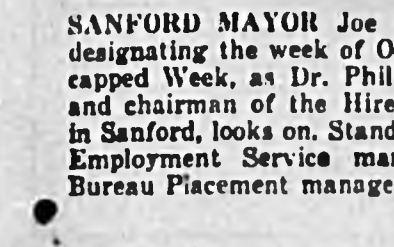

Materials which the ship loaded here included blocks, lumber, steel, roofing and sheet metal. In addition it carried trucks, autos and food, Hutchins said.

The vessel left Sanford Tuesday at 7 a. m. and will arrive at St. Croix on next Wednesday, according to schedule set by its skipper, Capt. Charles Thompson.

Hutchins said that the loading of these supplies here shows that the St. Johns River can be used by Sanford and Central Florida interests for low cost transportation, even before the Sanford-Casaveral Canal is built.

The St. Johns River has a 12 foot channel to Sanford and the Corinto draws 10 feet with 135 tons of cargo, Hutchins pointed out. He believes that there is no reason why the river should not be used more extensively for bulk transportation.

Sanford Mayor Joe Baker signs a proclamation designating the week of Oct. 1 to 7 as Hire the Handicapped Week, as Dr. Phil Westgate, Rotary president and chairman of the Hire the Handicapped committee in Sanford, looks on. Standing in back are Florida State Employment Service manager, Joe Foy and Farm Bureau Placement manager, H. A. Thurston.
