NEW WRINKLES IN SIGNAL CORPS ARE ANNOUNCED

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—The annual report of Major General Squires, chief signal officer, announced that a number of messages may be sent over submarine cables simultaneously through the use of alternating current and trunks of growing trees may be utilized in place of sending and receiving antennae for radio apparatus.

PLAN LAWS TO AID BANKERS

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 25.—Banking legislation which will be submitted to the Florida legislature at its 1921 session, is being planned at a meeting of the executive and legislative committees of the State Bankers Association of Florida being held here today with State Comptroller Ernest Amos present. The bankers are also outlining plans for the annual convention to be held in April at Miami.

...Thanksgiving Proclamation...

WHEREAS, We the people of Sanford and Seminole County, are living in the greatest section of the greatest country in the world and, WHEREAS, This being the day upon which we give thanks for the many blessings that have been bestowed upon us during the current year and, WHEREAS, We believe that the greatest era of prosperity that this country has ever known is about to dawn and that living in this wonderful country and partaking of the many advantages of this great state and our neighbors in other states (benighted neighbors we might say) who are less fortunate, Therefore Be It

Resolved, That Sanford and Seminole County on this glad Thanksgiving Day invite all the people of the United States to come down here and share in the wonderful climate and crops, the fruits of the field and the game of the woods and the fish of the streams and that they begin today to make arrangements to pack up and come to Sanford before they are required to spend any more money for fuel and other supplies made necessary by the rigorous winter that they are facing and be it further

Resolved, That inasmuch as there are insufficient houses to give them the proper accommodations this winter that we build them several big camps at various places in the county where they can be comfortable in tents and houses of temporary construction and that every vacant lot in Sanford be made to hold some kind of structure that will shelter a family either of townpeople or of tourists and that we see to it at once that at least 500 such structures are made ready at once for the people who are needing homes now and our city will grow and expand and blossom as the green magnolia tree and that we also send people to our neighboring cities of Longwood, Altamonte, Oviedo, Geneva, Lake Monroe, Paola, Lake Mary and other cities of Seminole where there may be vacant houses and beautiful spots in which to reside. And be it further

Resolved, That we get to work on this project at once supported by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce and the various organizations of the city and backed by the people who want to see this city the home of at least ONE THOUSAND MORE PEOPLE THIS WINTER, and that this question be talked and discussed and brought to the attention of every one in this city and county and that we not only talk about it but do something about it for housing people is the greatest undertaking that we have on hand today, bar none.

This is the Thanksgiving Proclamation of the SANFORD HERALD.

THE REICHSTAG DENOUNCES ALLIES ACTION

IN KEEPING SUCH LARGE FORCE OF MEN ALONG THE RHINE

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Nov. 25.—Members of the Reichstag denounced the action of the Allies in keeping such a large force of men along the Rhine and assailed France for sending negro troops into Germany. Dr. Zapf, of the German peoples party, said Germany's financial situation seemed hopeless as interest charges alone amounted to two billion, five hundred million marks.

DRILLED WITH WOODEN GUNS, ROPE HARNESS, HOME-MADE PHONES

WASHINGTON, Nov. 25.—That artillery troops for the American army in the world war were forced to drill with "improvised wooden guns, rope harness and other expedients," because of lack of equipment is officially revealed today in the annual report of Maj. Gen. Wm. J. Snow, chief of field artillery to Secretary Baker. "Large quantities of guns, howitzers, ammunition and other artillery materials are on hand, left over from the war," the report said, and the country, thus, for the first time in half a century, has on hand sufficient stocks of artillery to equip a large size army. Should war unfortunately break out within the next few years, we would be spared the spectacle of artillery drilling with improvised wooden guns, home-made telephones, that characterized the first year of the present war.

Demobilization difficulties made it almost impossible to carry on regular peace time training of the artillery during the year, Gen. Snow reported, but he said an effort was made to keep two regiments trained and recruited up to strength for possible border duty. The signal corps is now engaged in developing combination radio telegraph sets for artillery firing, aerial observation and similar work, the report said. Similar sets for range finding and for reporting targets were to be evolved.

WEATHER AND CROP CONDITION IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING NOVEMBER 23

Temperature.—The week averaged 2 degrees to 8 degrees cooler than the normal, and light to heavy frost occurred over northern and north-central portions of the section on several days.

Precipitation.—Rain on the last day of the previous week was followed by fair weather; and much sunshine featured the week, except in the extreme south, where cloudiness continued during much of the time. There was no rain in much of the section, which was favorable for all work.

Condition of Crops.—The rains of the previous week left the soil in good condition except that some low lands were still too wet at the beginning of the current week. The planting of oats was resumed, and those above ground made progress. The cool weather was especially favorable for the maturing of citrus fruits, but the frost did slight damage to tender truck, and the cool nights delayed the growth of recently set plants. The setting out of celery, lettuce, and was active in central and northern counties. The harvesting of sweet potatoes and syrup making continued in all divisions. The shipment of citrus fruits increased; some hay was saved and moderate quantities of beans and other truck were in market. Ranges are in fair to good condition in the peninsula.

FLORIDA FARMERS VISIT FAIR

FARMERS FROM ALL OVER THE STATE IN JACKSONVILLE THIS WEEK.

With several addresses by prominent Floridians active in farming and cattle raising, Wednesday afternoon, and hundreds of farmers participating in Farmers' Day celebration, the sixth day of the Florida State Fair and Exposition promises to be a huge success.

Another banner day for attendance at the fair is anticipated by fair officials. Special attractions and demonstrations of farm machinery that will interest farmers make the fair officials believe that all during the afternoon and night the grounds will be invaded by farmers from all over the state.

In the field on the west side of the grounds preparations were made in the morning for the farm tractor demonstrations to be held late in the afternoon. A number of newly-invented machines were carried to the fields Wednesday morning and put in shape for the exhibition, arranged especially for farmers.

W. A. McRae, commissioner of agriculture, principal speaker for the occasion opened the afternoon's feature with an address on new methods of farming compared with the old devices. A huge audience, standing in the middle of the fair grounds heard Commissioner McRae's address.

He stated that the amount produced per hand in the United States is greater than in any other country and that the farmers of America should be congratulated upon their phenomenal success in reaping huge crops. "Intensive farming has its undeniable features," Commissioner McRae stated, "and wherever it is practiced extensively there is an ignorant peasantry."

An address on farm organization was scheduled to be made later during the afternoon by Prof. T. J. Brooks.

L. M. Rhodes, commissioner of the state marketing bureau, with headquarters in Jacksonville, will deliver an address on marketing and Prof. P. H. Rolfs will talk on the College of Agriculture and the Extension Division.

Dr. C. M. Nighbert will talk on the United States bureau of animal industry, to be followed by an address by Mrs. Sarah Patridge, on co-operation extension work in home economics. The activities of the Florida live stock sanitation board will be stressed by R. M. Storrs.

Final awards in the county agricultural building will be made Thursday morning and work of judging the various booths and selecting them for final competition were made Wednesday morning. Selections in the best displays of citrus booths were also made Wednesday.

Prizes have been awarded in every live stock class at the fair and a number of Florida firms and individual cattle dealers won the majority of the prizes donated by the fair officials and private stock concerns. The final awards will be made Wednesday afternoon by B. K. Hanaforde, general manager and secretary of the fair association.

William P. Douglas, of the Duval county board of public instruction, and a well-known chicken fancier, won several awards Wednesday for his exhibits placed in the association building.

Sweeping the Sea to Enrich the Land

By CHARLES S. EMERSON

THE FLEET OF BOATS

The company has four big steam-boats that are especially fitted for catching the Menhaden fish and each one of these boats is fitted with a tremendous net, about a quarter of a mile in length.

It is something of a sight to see these big boats, two of them over a hundred feet long, come into the docks with the fish piled up level with the deck and almost running over.

"Oh! about a thousand barrels," was the reply. "Go on, now, you don't mean that," said the farmer.

"That's straight, they're easily 12 feet deep, there in the boat." "Well, I'll be dashed," said the farmer. "I'm going back home and tell them mossbacks up there they've never seen any fish."

The catches have been running unusually large this year and the boats will be in constant commission until Christmas and there is every likelihood that the company will establish a record for production that has not been excelled by many of the older fishing concerns of this character in the famous Chesapeake Bay section.

MAKING VALUABLE OIL. But the fertilizer is not the only profitable part of these fish, that have been considered waste for many years.

UTILIZING FLORIDA PEAT. The company became interested in another product of Florida recently and is now erecting a plant on Pablo Creek where the Mayport branch of the Florida East Coast railway crosses it, not far from Pablo Beach and here thousands of tons of the black muck or peat is being taken from the marsh in that vicinity and dried and processed and is proving an excellent fertilizer material, as it contains several units of ammonia or nitrogen to the ton.

CONCERN COMPETENTLY MANAGED. The officials of the Seminole Company are all men of splendid business ability and the affairs of the company are being managed in a manner that must be satisfactory to all concerned as the big manufacturing plant is apparently operated to its greatest capacity and with a minimum of expense and the industry is being developed into one that will count for a great deal in the future development of Florida and the entire South.

For Albert Dörner, who has grown 15 to 17 heads of lettuce per bushel and a half, and every basket is branded with its content, how many heads of lettuce it contains, this one acre was grown with one-half ton C. S. Meal and one ton fish scrap 10 per cent ammonia and nothing else, so help me God.

Thousands of farmers have heard of fish scrap and have talked about it and many probably know that it is efficacious as a fertilizer material but few probably know how the fish get into the fertilizer.

My own curiosity had been so thoroughly aroused that I determined to see for myself and so I went to Fernandina, on invitation of some of the officials of the Seminole Fertilizer & Oil Company, to see the fish swept in from the sea to enrich the land.

I have known for a great many years that the fishing industry in Florida was a wonderful industry but I had no idea that the waste fish, those that have no food value, were so numerous and that they were being caught in immense nets to the tune of several hundred thousand barrels a year.

This great industry seems to be centered in Fernandina and the fine old city by the sea, with its picturesque harbor, is coming back into its own with this and several other industries, not the least of which is the shrimp industry, another product of the sea but a food product of great value.

As a result of these industries, coupled with the great phosphate elevator of the Seaboard Air Line and the new docks of the Strachan Shipping Company, which will soon be in active operation, Fernandina is taking on new life and activity and the citizens and business men are holding their heads a little higher and throwing out their chests and saying "Watch our smoke," or words to that effect, as they hold their meetings of the chamber of commerce and plan for the growth and development of the city.

Postmaster Roux, who takes great pride in the handsome government building, over which he presides, informed me that they were planning to secure a paid secretary this fall and go after new industries which their superb harbor facilities warrants them in having.

THE BIG FISH AND OIL FACTORIES

On an island, half a mile or more from the city and near the outer harbor, the big fish and oil plant of the Seminole Fertilizer and Oil Company is situated occupying with its hundreds of feet of docks and all of its buildings and tanks, several acres of ground.

As I had just arrived Superintendent Messick invited me to have dinner in the big dining room for the white employees and I was served as good a meal as anybody would want to sit down to anywhere, and it was thoroughly relished, even if the odors from the fish were a little strong.

To attempt to describe the process of handling the fish would be foolish for me, as I am a mere novice in mechanics and this is a mechanical plant, where the fish are practically sucked up by an elevator from the hold of the boat and carried automatically along to the crushers and presses and through the driers and grinders and finally dumped either in the big shed storage house or out on the yard, where a trestle is being gradually extended to provide a track for the ever increasing supply of fish scrap.

There are buildings after buildings and hundreds of tons of ponderous machinery and four big oil-burning boilers and monstrous engines and chains—such chains I have never seen, as all belts are chain belts, no leather being strong enough to handle the immense loads that are carried every night, when the hundreds of tons of fish are being put through the factory after the boats have come into harbor from their day's work on the ocean.

And lettuce is bringing $7.50 per crate in New York which is going some and cooler weather means good lettuce.

Sanford never looked prettier than at present with all the vivid coloring of the many flowers and the yards all filled with trees and plants and shrubs. And each yard should have a few orange trees to show the winter visitors. They come down here to see flowers and fruits and we should have them to show.

Everybody pull for a bigger Sanford and in pulling remember that your Chamber of Commerce is the place where the pulling counts. No village, hamlet, town or city ever amounted to anything without a good live board of trade or chamber of commerce or boosters club of some kind. It takes concentrated effort to make a real town and concentrated effort can only be obtained through a club that has all the business men of the city enrolled as members.

Don't worry about the outcome of the reconstruction period. The way to get through any depression is to look at things on the bright side and when money is tight spend less. If you cannot afford this thing and that thing that is really unnecessary cut it out until you can afford it. The world would be better off if put on a cash basis and each one was made to pay for what they obtained at the time they obtained it. And the world is coming to this period in a few short years. We are all spending more than we are able to spend. The financial situation is summed up in an article in this issue.

When all the new building that is contemplated in Sanford next year is started this city will look like a real city. And every citizen should stand back of his city and help it to move. That old groaning feeling that disapproves of all new movements and wants to knock instead of to boost should be thrown off forever and let us all get together with the idea that every building means so much for the town and regardless of who is doing the building he deserves our assistance in a moral way. It is the cooperative spirit of "all together" that makes cities and even hot air is better than cold water.

Florida, as a sugar producing state is coming into her own. The following comment from the Manufacturers Record should prove of interest: "Significant of expansion is the South's sugar industry, making the beginning of a development in Florida, is an announcement this week in the Manufacturers' Record's summary of industrial interests to the effect that Philadelphia plans to erect a $1,300,000 sugar refinery on the St. John's river in Florida, near Palatka. The new plant has a planned daily output during harvest of 160,000 pounds. Several small refineries are expected to feed the plant with raw sugar." What is happening at Palatka is not a remote possibility for this section of the state.

VOLUSIA POLITICS

Editor T. E. Fitzgerald promises some real sensations when he is "brought to trial." If our good friend Ed. had backed up The News in its efforts to purify Volusia county for the past 28 years, he would not be today separated from the penitentiary doors by a thin veneer of Volusia county justice. Volusia is better today than it ever was before, freer, cleaner in every respect; but the people are demanding more, which the politicians who control the county refuse to recognize. They will go down in the dust before they will be permitted to absolutely stultify the law. Even the most patient people sometimes get tired.—DeLand News.

Ge. Volusia county must be a mess. Let him tell it Chris, and let the high and low who have been breaking the law go to jail. It is about time something happened in Volusia to turn things upside down and shake out the "crotches" that have been fattening on the body politic.

TELLING EVERYTHING.

The editor is popularly supposed to see everything, hear everything, know everything and publish everything that is going on.

But sometimes he doesn't see it—doesn't want to see it—because, being an editor and trained to weigh all angles of every question, he knows that it is better for the community if he does not see it.

There are many things the editor does not publish because they contain no element of news, are distressing to many innocent people, and their publication could serve no good purpose.

Sometimes the editor is criticised for his forbearance, but at least some of his critics do not stop to remember that possibly the paper is just as forbearing regarding an incident or two of their own lives.

There are many things to be considered before putting it in cold type.

REAL ESTATE MEN MAKE THE TOWN

Live real estate men make a town or retard its progress according to the life they put into it. Strange to say there are dead real estate men just as there are dead merchants and when a real estate man is dead to the possibilities of his city that city is dead sure enough for it takes hoisting real estate men to move the town by keeping property on the jump and bringing in new people by plenty of advertising. The real estate men of Florida have formed a state association and they are meeting in Jacksonville this week and laying plans for one of the largest campaigns of advertising that has ever been put over in the state. Speaking editorially of the state association now in Jacksonville the Times-Union says:

"Real estate is the basis of all wealth, progress and prosperity, and the men who handle real estate are coming to be recognized as leaders in the commercial world. Time was when real estate men were looked upon with suspicion and even fear, but that time has passed and their organization this profession has been placed on a plane equal with the most respected of the professions or trades.

"The success of this movement culminated in the National Real Estate Association, with which are affiliated the various real estate associations and boards of the country and a membership in the national association is a badge of trust that is now given the respect of all those who trade or have occasion to buy or sell real estate. Florida has a number of live real estate organizations that are affiliated with the national association and about two years ago a State Realtors' Association was organized and just at this time the annual convention of this organization is being held in Jacksonville with representatives here from more than a dozen organizations in Florida.

"Jacksonville is well represented in the real estate world with a splendid local organization, the Jacksonville Real Estate Board, and it is affiliated with the State Realtors and the National Real Estate Association. The local board is acting host on this auspicious occasion and we believe it is making good in the important role. The visitors are being royally entertained and are being shown the city and its environments and today they will be guests at the Florida State Fair. Jacksonville is honored by having so many distinguished guests and extends them a most cordial greeting and the Times-Union wishes them every success in their splendid efforts to develop the state and to locate as many as possible of the good people of other sections within our confines. The real estate men are the builders of the nation and to them all credit is due for much of the progressive development in Florida in the past decade."

MOTOR CAMPS FOR TOURISTS

Motor camps for tourists have become the rule in the wide awake cities and towns of the state. If the hotel is crowded or other housing is scarce, the auto-bummer—as the tourist who come through from the North or West in his car has come to be known—doesn't worry a bit; he just goes to the auto camp and "beds down" in comfort for the night. There's a lot of them who prefer the motorists' camp to any hotel or boarding house, for not only is it cheaper, but there is the freedom also of the open air, and its healthfulness, and the quaint surroundings, and the stories the other fellows have to tell about their experiences.

Some of the motor camps are merely places for transients, while others are regular winter communities, with well regulated conditions, and allowing for permanency. The "campsite" at DeSoto Park, Tampa, is one of the latter kind. So popular was this camp last year that it sheltered several hundred winter visitors, or rather they sheltered themselves on the grounds provided by the city. It is a typically well-regulated motor camp, with running water, good sanitation, fuel, camp regulations, and the like. The folks who people it style themselves "tin can tourists" not as a term of reprobatation but because dinner is more frequently served out of a tin can than otherwise. Yet they don't have to get chuck from the innards of a tin can, for they are close to all sorts of supply depots, and good cook pots, and it's a poor auto-bummer who can't sling a pot from a tripod and make Irish stew or Hungarian goulash. And there is Sparkman bay, and the mile upon mile of Hillsborough bay right at the camp, and teeming with all sorts of edible fish and shellfish—yes, oyster stews, clam stews, fish chowder and any other sort of a "marine dish" ready to the hand.

Auto camps of inland towns are, in most cases, within easy distance of a lake, where fishing is good, and there's quail, squirrels and rabbits in the woods and the fields and the hunting license isn't costly.

If you leave it to us to say, it well, we'd rather be an auto-bummer, tin-can tourist in Florida at this time of the year than a stalled millionaire in decarbonized Gotham or Windyville.—Tampa Tribune.

MOON MEMORIAL LIBRARY.

As November 21 is the birthday of Rev. J. Lawton Moon, in commemoration of whose life and services the library formerly owned by him was presented to Southern College last year, this date this year will mark the first anniversary of this helpful movement for the enlargement and betterment of the library facilities at Southern by the friends of the institution.

Every reader of the Advocate and every friend of Southern and every Methodist in Florida is urged to remember the spirit in which this collection was given to the college and is requested to do something, no matter how little it may be, toward this worthy cause. The contribution of one good book by each of the friends of the school each year would do much toward increasing the library collection at Southern.

To those who contemplate observing the first anniversary of the J. Lawton Moon Library Memorial it is suggested that they select a volume of merit and worth, as it is true of the books in the Moon collection, and present it to the college during this month. If any contributor is in doubt about what kind of a volume to give a request directed to the Librarian, Southern College, will bring suggestions as to the books desired, and a list of books that are needed will be sent to anyone who wishes to help fill these needs. Will not the Methodists of Florida respond to this plea and help remove the handicap caused by lack of adequate library facilities at Southern College?—Florida Christian Advocate.

THAT IS THE LIFE.

The Jinx hit The News office on Saturday. The editor took his annual holiday, this being the first day of the game season, and spent it in the woods with his dog. His assistant, Clayton C. Coddington, was taken ill during the morning and was forced to leave his work and seek his bed. In the early afternoon, the day typewriter operator, Miss Katherine Taylor, was taken sick and was forced to go home. The force made the best effort they could, thus badly crippled, to get out the paper, and did as well as could be expected under the circumstances. That the paper was not up to its usual standard and that the most important item of all, the indictment of Editor T. E. Fitzgerald by the circuit court grand jury, was omitted from the columns, was unfortunate.—DeLand News.

AN EXPERIMENT IN CO-OPERATIVE SLAUGHTERING

Florida has many thousand cattle grazing on millions of unoccupied acres. The cattle owners have claimed and been granted special privileges, against which many truckers, farmers and town residents are complaining and protesting. Still, notwithstanding their privileges, the stockmen have grievances of their own, among the most prominent of which are: First, the low price of meat on the hoof. Second, the high price of meat off the hoof.

They might take a lesson from the cattle growers of a county in South Dakota, who likewise got tired of selling their stock to the packers at a low price, and buying it back as beef, at a high price. Those South Dakota stockmen decided it would be better to sell to themselves and buy from themselves, and they formed what they called a community meat ring, with that end in view. The results

Fall Fertilizing

Fertilizer applied to citrus trees in November is one of the greatest factors in securing a heavy crop the following season, for it is during the seemingly dormant period that incipient fruit buds are formed.

In addition to this, fall fertilizer induces a larger, stronger root system which is of great benefit to the tree in developing growth, holding fruit, and withstanding droughts. Fall fertilization in great measure prevents the usual "off year" following heavy yields.

FINANCIAL LEADERS SEE HOPEFUL SIGNS AHEAD IN RECONSTRUCTION PERIOD

No Long Depression Looked For In the South FOLLOWING LETTERS

FROM FLORIDA BANKERS ARE INTERESTING AND MOST HOPEFUL.

Financial leaders of the South do not look upon the present period of deflation and re-adjustment as a national disaster. On the contrary they consider it an inevitable process, which is the necessary preparation for sound growth and prosperity. They do not expect a prolonged depression and some of them predict, quite definitely, a turn for the better with the beginning of the spring season.

A number of men eminent in business and finance have expressed such views in letters to Governor M. B. Wellborn of the Federal Reserve Bank, written in reply to the following letter from him:

"My Dear Sir: In a period of re-adjustment, which is always accompanied by inconvenience, strain and some losses, it is a great help to the people if they are animated by a courageous, cheerful and patient spirit, with a disposition toward mutual helpfulness and co-operation. In such a crisis it is to them what morale is to the soldier and brings the same splendid results.

"The superb spirit which animated our people during the war, nerved our soldiers for every conflict and made them cheerful under hardship and suffering will bring us safely and triumphantly through these trying times.

"In order to cultivate such a spirit I would like to send out broadcast over the district some brief but strong statements by leading men whom the people will hear and follow. Let us crystallize a public sentiment that will meet the emergency in a manner creditable to the South and the nation. Our section has been very prosperous for the past few years, and surely it is in good condition to meet the present time.

"To this end I will be pleased to have from you at your earliest convenience a letter expressing your views on the situation and the best way to meet it."

The replies came from the states composing the sixth Federal Reserve District—Alabama, Florida, Georgia, part of Louisiana, Mississippi and Tennessee.

In Florida, where they have a succession of cash crops of fruits and vegetables, reinforced by the phosphate industry, the problem of financing the cotton crop is hardly felt, and as prices of vegetables and fruits have been good, the state is in a comparatively comfortable financial condition.

Without exception the writers of these letters express a feeling of confidence and hopefulness. With a clear view of the situation, facing its difficulties frankly, they manifest calmness, courage and strength, with a cheerful confidence in the ability of the people to meet and solve their problems.

Several of them emphasize the fact that with larger resources and greater reserve power the South, like the rest of the country, is greatly strengthened by the Federal Reserve System, which enables sound business to pass safely through a trying period, which, under our former inelastic financial system, might have resulted in disaster.

It is a noteworthy fact that Mr. Mason Smith, of New Orleans, one of the largest cotton men in the South, who has to deal with the financial problem of that crop, takes a hopeful view of the situation. It is also worthy of note that several of our leading financiers express the opinion that the period of deflation is nearing its end, and one of the most eminent of them, Dr. P. H. Saunders, a leading financier of New Orleans, predicts that this process will be practically completed in the South by March first, and that thereafter we will be ready to start out successfully on solid ground.

Taken as a whole these letters show that the business leaders of the South are meeting the difficulties of the re-adjustment period in the same splendid spirit which characterized all our people during the war. They are ready for the sacrifices or temporary inconveniences which the situation brings upon us and show the kind of cheerful and clear headed courage, which always wins. With these qualities they manifest a fine spirit of co-operation and willingness to "help the other fellow," provided the other fellow will help himself.

Edward W. Lane, president of the Atlantic National Bank of Jacksonville: It was a great day for the commercial interests of this country when the Governor of the Federal Reserve Bank of this District inaugurated a campaign for the control of credits. Time has vindicated the wisdom of this policy, and it behooves the bankers to take heed and co-operate to the fullest extent with this great institution during the period of deflation.

When re-adjustments are being made they are always accompanied by inconvenience to some, and strain and financial losses to others, therefore, we should meet the situation calmly and see that this deflation is done in an orderly way.

Our section of the country, especially Florida, has been very prosperous during the past few years, therefore, should be in a splendid condition to meet the situation.

In conclusion, it is my humble opinion that when this settling process is over it will redound to the best interests of the public as a whole.

Arthur F. Perry, President, Florida National Bank, Jacksonville:

The dreaded time which was looked forward to with such apprehension has arrived, and the re-adjustment is progressing without panic or violent economic disturbance, which fact should animate us all with pride.

It is a familiar saying that "the American people can be trusted to do the right thing," and it is apparent that the merchants and bankers are today showing that same steady nerve which has so often characterized their movements in other trying times, and the re-adjustment will undoubtedly be completed without undue strain or disaster.

It is indeed fortunate that we have at this time an adequate banking system, which enable the banks of the country to continue granting credit to those entitled to it, rather than aggravate a trying situation by contracting credits.

Merchants will, of course, suffer some loss in the downward trend of prices, but there seems to be a reluctance on the part of retailers to make drastic cuts in prices, and rather an effort to dispose of a good share of their present stocks at price-es calculated to show a fair profit before reordering at reduced prices. Just one more thing I would mention: frown on any attempt at selling pleasure cars on credit. If a man hasn't the money to pay for a car, he isn't able to own it, much less pay the upkeep.

SWEET POTATOES ON THE TABLE.

Sweet potatoes on the table is the title of a bulletin recently issued by the Home Demonstration Division of the Florida State College for Women. Miss Sarah W. Partridge wrote this bulletin. Miss Partridge is state agent for extension work with women and girls, and she is a recognized authority on subjects of this nature. In this bulletin the sweet potato is compared with the Irish potato and the comparison is in favor of the sweet. There are few people who know that the sweet potato is actually better for food than the Irish potato. The fuel or energy value of the raw sweet potato is found to be 50 per cent greater than that of the Irish potato, while the fuel or energy value of the cooked is greater by more than 100 per cent.

In this bulletin there are 21 recipes from Southern chefs and housewives. Fried potatoes, croquettes, mashed methods, half shelled, glazed, candied, souped, and just about anything in the category of cooking are told of in this pamphlet. It even tells how to make a potato cake. If you cannot cook potatoes or if you would like to be a better potato cook, write to the Home Demonstration Division, Florida State College, Tallahassee, and ask for a copy of Bulletin 32. It will help you.

HOGS PAY BIG MONEY

Mr. Pete Wing of Hawk Point, Mo., made a lot of money out of his hogs. He says: "I fed them Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription. It has given wonderful results in putting gains on them with less feed. They were on heavy feed for only a month, averaged a gain of 2 1/2 pounds daily, and were only 7 months, 10 days old, when sold."

Mr. Wing profited by the advice of Dr. LeGear, Graduate Veterinarian and Expert Poultry Breeder of 28 years' standing.

Dr. LeGear's Hog Prescription will put weight on your hogs also, because it expels worms, purifies the blood and conditions them so that they gain flesh on less feed.

It makes no difference what ailment is prevalent among your stock or poultry, it is money in your pocket to get the proper Dr. LeGear Remedy from your dealer, on a satisfaction or money back offer.

Demonstration of Wakefield Products at Womans' Club

(From Tuesday's Daily)

The meeting of the Welfare Department on Wednesday afternoon was unusually interesting and one of the most helpful it has been the good fortune of this most active department to have held.

Among the interesting features of the meeting was the wonderful demonstration given by Mrs. P. T. Wakefield, of the Uses of Florida Fruit Juices. A display table of preserves, jellies and marmalades made from Florida fruits and especially guavas and citrus fruits was of especial interest.

Mrs. Wakefield, who is an artist in her line, cleverly demonstrated the various uses of fruit juices, giving instructions in the preparation of them. The assortment of the fruit products was a beautiful display that charmed and delighted the housewives. The department is particularly grateful to Mrs. Wakefield for her interest and co-operation and fully appreciate the valuable gift of her knowledge and time.

In connection with the meeting a cooked food sale was also held under the direction of Mrs. Fred Williams which with the commission received from the sale of the Wakefield products, netted the department a nice sum.

CRANE PARDONED AND ORDERED RELEASED FROM PRISON

TALLAHASSEE, Nov. 22.—The state board of pardons announced recently that former state Senator Jas. E. Crane, convicted in Hillsborough county of grand embezzlement and sentenced to five years in the state prison in September, 1919, has been granted a conditional pardon and immediate release from prison.

J. C. Black, former tax collector of Liberty county, was granted a conditional pardon also. Black also was convicted of grand embezzlement April 26, 1919, and sentenced to four years in the state prison at Raiford.

James E. Crane was convicted of embezzlement of about $21,000 of the sinking fund of the hard road bond issue of 1903. He was one of the board of bond trustees for that bond issue and its secretary and received the monies from the county tax collector. It was understood that Mr. Crane invested the county's money in an unfortunate land speculation. He was unable to meet the demand for it when payment was due on certain of the bonds.—The Tampa Tribune.

Sanford Lettuce Growers Jubilant Over Prices Received for Crop

(From Tuesday's Daily)

Lettuce — Sanford lettuce—brought the remarkable price of $8.00 per hamper in the northern markets yesterday. This is the report from the F. F. Dutton Co., and other shippers no doubt did equally as well if they had stuff on the northern markets Monday morning. The lettuce shipped by F. F. Dutton was from the West Side Farm and was their own product. The cool weather of the past few days and the prospects of colder weather this week and the fact that Thanksgiving week is here makes the price of lettuce go up. It is not supposed for an instant that such prices will prevail very long but reasonable prices will prevail as long as the weather is cold and the lettuce will head up and carry strong.

It is thought by the growers that the record for good prices and good weather on lettuce will be broken this year and that the growers will make more money and make it during a longer period than ever before.

Today the F. F. Dutton Co. did really better on a car of lettuce for J. B. Little on the West Side who received $8.00 per hamper straight for a car of lettuce which totalled $3,200 gross on the car, the largest amount of money ever received by a grower in Florida or any other state.

CAMPERS RETURN

(From Monday's Daily)

The party composed of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Purden, Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Lloyd, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Smith and little daughter, Evelyn, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Holly, Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Holly and Robert Holly returned late last night from Camp N. N. N. at the ranch on the Econlockhatchie and they had a grand time. They used the ranch house for sleeping quarters and cooked out in the yard at the big camp fire. Henry Purden and Don Smith were the champions in the fishing line taking a fine string of speckled perch and trout and they divided honors in the hunting line with Reginald Holly and about fifty squirrels were brought into camp while there. Ralph Wight and Bob Kennedy happened along for dinner and swelled the larder with a brace of ducks and some snipe and they were such good fellows they were made to stay over for supper. Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Hand and Mr. and Mrs. Archie Betts came out for Sunday dinner bringing a big basket of lunch and they found the table piled high with everything in the game line and had a big Sunday dinner of baked duck, fried squirrel and snipe and fish and everything. The party had glorious weather and enjoyed the trip so much that the ladies are importuning their husbands to take them again about Thanksgiving time and maybe the camping idea will become a permanent thing. The camp was named the N. N. N. camp for reasons known only to those who were there and while it is not a permanent name the next camp will have to go some if there is any more enjoyment than the first one. Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lawson could not go on the trip as Mr. Lawson was taken ill at the last moment but he loaned the party his truck and the only drawback was the fact that the Lawsons had to stay home at the last minute. The camp also had a mascot in the shape of a stray fox terrier who was promptly named "Doodles" in honor of one of the ladies.

S. M. Lloyd and R. J. Holly qualified as first class camp cooks and they can cook flap jacks and fry squirrels with the best of them now. In fact everybody in camp was on the job and the boys think it is fine to have the girls along to show them how to really cook ducks as they should be cooked. Henry Purden is also recommended to anyone wanting a good truck driver and cook combined although at present he is very busy at his old job with the A. C. L. Railway.

RUSSIAN RADICALS READY TO START SOMETHING IN UNITED STATES IS REPORT

Make Estimate of Unemployed With View of Propaganda TO ORGANIZE HERE

WILL START REVOLUTION IN AMERICA AMONG THE ANARCHISTS

(By The Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Russian Soviet authorities estimate the unemployed in the United States will number five million by the end of the year and two representatives of the third Internationale have been sent to organize the Soviets here, according to official advices from Moscow. Their mission, advices said is to unite a revolutionary movement in America into one fighting body to bring about armed revolution.

DIVERSION ORDER HITS AT FLORIDA

Holding that the new reconignment and diversion rules of the Interstate Commerce Commission give an unfair advantage to California and the rest of the long haul states, and discriminate against Florida, with its proximity to the great markets of the nation, representatives of Florida fruit and vegetable growers will formally protest to the commission against the decision in case No. 10,173.

They declare that Florida, requiring only 25 to 36 hours for the movement of its products east or west, should not be discriminated against under a ruling made to fit other states which require from five to seven days to reach their markets and establish a diverting point.

J. J. Stowers, representing the shippers and growers' associations of Florida, Mississippi and Alabama, left Jacksonville Friday to enter oral protest before the commerce commission, and many other representatives of Florida's biggest shippers of fruits and produce will also appear, as Florida growers are intensely interested in the hearing.

E. D. Dow, traffic manager of the Florida Citrus Exchange, left Friday to attend it.

J. F. Thomas, vice president of the Saver-Thomas Co., fruit and vegetable shippers, Jacksonville, also left to attend the informal hearing and will confer with Florida, Mississippi, and Tennessee representatives prior to entering the hearing on Tuesday and the preliminary conference on Monday next between interested growers and shippers.

Mr. Thomas will represent at this hearing the interests of several Florida shippers.

Marshall & Bell, attorneys, Washington, D. C., will represent the Florida interests who have membership in the American Fruit & Vegetable Shipping Association, with headquarters at Chicago, Ill. Memberships of the Florida growers and shippers in the American Fruit and Vegetable Shipping Association is as follows: Nix & Butcher, Hastings; Chase & Co., and Saver-Thomas Co., Jacksonville; R. O. Applegate, Jr., Miami; Nocatee Fruit Co., Nocatee; Standard Growers' (Inc.), A. J. Nye, Dr. P. Phillips Co., Orlando; American Fruit Growers' (Inc.), E. F. Thanksgiving Proclamation

Three hundred years ago in November, 1620, the Pilgrim Fathers founded what they called a free nation. The following year they proclaimed a day of Thanksgiving because their plans had come safe to port after many storms.

The political freedom the Pilgrims sought did not come to women until 300 years later. Now the women of America have, after a long voyage and many storms, arrived at their port of freedom. Their day of Thanksgiving is therefore due. For this reason the National American Woman Suffrage Association, the direct heirs of the long line of brave women who in the person of Abigail Adams, Lucretia Mott, Susan B. Anthony, Lucy Stone, Elizabeth Cady Stanton, Anna Howard Shaw and thousands more, never paused in their work for liberty, now urges that the women of the United States use Thanksgiving Day as a day for special expression of their gratitude for the blessing of political emancipation.

We, the members of the executive board of the National American Woman Suffrage Association, offer our own thanks; first, to Almighty God, who has led the unflinching efforts of three generations to this hour; second, to the noble company of men in the fifteen full suffrage states, who have in the last fifty years braved opposition at the polls in order to enfranchise the women of their several states.

We thank again the Sixty-fifth and Sixty-sixth congresses of the United States which stood staunch against fierce opposition and finally brought the barge of liberty to port. We thank the President of the United States for his unprecedented act in personally bringing the amendment before congress. We thank those states which cleared the way for the amendment by prompt ratification. We thank the governors who called special sessions, the hundreds of legislators who responded to these calls, who endured journeys, resisted opposition, repudiated bribery, defeated corruption, for the sake of justice to the women of the country.

We thank all the political parties for their final acceptance of the principle that just government rests upon the consent of the governed; we thank the minor parties for their adoption of this principle before the major parties had awakened to its application. But we also thank the two major parties which have since 1915 increasingly accepted woman suffrage as a political issue to be maintained, and who furthered the cause of ratification in spite of reactionary element in their midst.

Finally we give thanks that in spite of all obstacles the women of the United States on November 2nd were invested with full political liberty. With new self-respect and new hope for the future, millions of them went to the polls and participated in the great presidential election. Reverently they dedicate themselves to the service of their country that "government of the people, by the people and for the people shall not perish from the earth."

DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Bonus checks aggregating more than $7,000,000 will be distributed to Ford Motor Company employees today.

THE PEOPLE WILL NOT STAND FOR IT.

It has been publicly denied that John J. Mendenhall, now serving a life sentence for the murder of Mrs. Charles Eliot, of this city, and still under indictment for the murder, at the same time of her daughter, Susie Eliot, will seek, or is seeking a pardon. This public denial came following the united protest of the women's clubs of the state after a "rumor" got out that application would be made for executive clemency prior to Jan. 1, 1920.

When we see what the mere rumor applying for a pardon for Mendenhall has done, what will be the result in Florida when the application for the pardon is published? The Tribune does not believe there would be housing accommodations enough in Tallahassee to take care of those who would flock to the capital protesting against the pardoning of this man, found guilty of the most cold-blooded spectacular murder of the elder woman and who still has hanging over his head in case he should be pardoned, another charge of murder, that of the younger woman.

The Tribune kept silent while the rumor was being spread, and later denied; but now that it is proven Mendenhall is actually working for a pardon and is admittedly seeking to overcome the protest of the women of the state against his release, The Tribune declares that Mendenhall must not be released from the punishment of his crime.

"Let justice be tempered with mercy" will be urged. True; but there is always to remain, Justice. Justice demanded of Mendenhall his life in expiation of this bloody crime; Mercy stepped in and spared that life for the very purpose which seems to have been attained by him—repentance for his sin; but Mercy stops short of defeating the lawful ends of Justice, and to pardon him would be to set at defiance Justice and to encourage hope in criminal breasts that no matter how dastardly the crime, a pardon will come upon showing that the prisoner is repentant.—Tampa Tribune.

ALBERT DORNER FEEDS THE PRISONERS

Albert Dorner is the champion long distance philanthropist and charity man in this section. He goes out home this morning and kills and dresses six chickens and together with fresh lettuce brought them to town for the prisoners in the city jail for their Thanksgiving dinner. He also remembered the editor of the Herald and Hon. Geo. A. DeCottes with a fine fat hen for Thanksgiving and while we are not prisoners we are glad to be numbered among Albert's friends. If Albert is peculiar in his way we wish there were more of them peculiar around here. He is the greatest little benefactor in our midst and spends part of his time doing something for other people. Last year he sent the editor of the Herald a nice pig for Thanksgiving and it was greatly appreciated.

COMPLETE THANKSGIVING DINNER WILL BE SERVED FOR TEN CENTS

(By The Associated Press.) MACON, Ga., Nov. 24.—Complete Thanksgiving dinner for ten cents will be served employees of the Telephone Exchange by the stewardess tomorrow including baked goose, cranberry sauce, corn, celery, roots and coffee.

LOCAL AND PERSONAL

(From Tuesday's Daily)
Two pleasant parties who motored to Orlando Saturday were, Mrs. Coleman, Mrs. Felder, Mrs. Keeler and Mrs. Overland, Mrs. Drummond, Mrs. Walsma, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Caldwell.

Chas. D. Brumley, of Chuluota, was in the city today bringing Mrs. Brumley and the grandchildren in to the circus. Mr. Brumley announces that the Chuluota Inn will open on Thanksgiving with a big turkey dinner.

Harry Reed, of San Francisco, is in the city today visiting his sister, Mrs. Harry Ward. This is Mr. Reed's first trip to Florida and he likes it so well he may remain all winter. Mr. Reed is a linotype operator and paid the Herald office an appreciated visit.

E. T. LeBaron, of the Mucklow & Ford Co., of Jacksonville, expert accountants, is in the city helping the City Clerk on making up the annual budget and other items. Mr. LeBaron has been here before and has many friends who are glad to see him again.

Secretary Pearman leaves for Jacksonville today where he will attend the state meeting of commercial secretaries and also visit his family and take in the state fair. He is anxious to move his family here but like hundreds of others is unable to get a house for them.

Col. J. A. Blount and wife, of Waynesboro, Ga., are in the city the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Henry Purden. Col. Blount has been to Sanford before and has many friends here who are always glad to see him. He is one of the big cotton planters of his section and is also a county commissioner for his county.

W. C. Fields in some manner ran into W. A. Stapler on Park avenue yesterday as Stapler was getting out of his car and crossing the road. He was knocked in the ditch and was unconscious when picked up. The case came up before Judge Maines this morning in police court and Fields was fined $10 and costs for reckless driving.

(From Wednesday's Daily)
Miss Helen Peck returned to school at Tallahassee Sunday.

Miss Lillian Lohr, of Philadelphia, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Yontz.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Ferrin, of Eustis, were in Sanford for the circus last evening.

J. P. Musselwhite and son, Lawrence, of Orlando, were among the visitors to the city today.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Blount, of Waynesboro, N. C., are the guests of their daughter, Mrs. Henry Purden.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Bona left today for St. Petersburg where they will spend Thanksgiving with the parents of Mr. Bona.

John Edward Fox has come home for the Thanksgiving holidays from the Florida Military and Naval Academy and is the guest of his relatives, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Emmett Wilson.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Coffin, of Manton, Michigan, are in the city and will spend the winter on the Walter B. Olson grove property at Lake Mary. Mr. and Mrs. Coffin are the parents of Mrs. Olson.

T. L. Cushing was among the Ovid visitors to the city yesterday. He has been ill with rheumatism for the past year and does not get to Sanford as often as he formerly did.

B. G. Smith, of Oviedo, was in the city today and his many friends were glad to see him. B. G. is a busy man these days with his many interests and gets to town only once each month.

T. O. Charles, of Sanford, has rented the store room in the Smith building facing on the river and is preparing to start an electrical contracting business in the room. He plans to open Monday.—New Smyrna News.

Mrs. Clarence J. Wolf was called to Norfolk, Va., Saturday by the death of her sister, Mrs. Harry Donovan. Mrs. Donovan, as Mary Kennedy, spent much of her childhood in Sanford and made many friends here who will learn with sorrow of her passing on.

Dr. George Hyman, Judge Maines and Supt. T. W. Lawton returned today from Jacksonville where they attended the fair and enjoyed the trip very much. They also heard Billy Sunday.

Messrs. Powell, Williams and White the Lake county boosters who went to Jacksonville Monday, were here today enroute home from the fair at Jacksonville. They all seemed comparatively sober and said they had a big time in the big city.

A. G. Swank was in the city today calling at the Herald office. He is a representative of the Mergenthaler Linotype Co., being in the "trouble" department and goes over the territory helping out the various owners of machines but very few Linotypes need any fixing and he found the Herald plant in fine shape.

Because Miss Saunders has often been the attractive guest of Mr. and Mrs. Parish in Sanford, she has many friends here who will be interested in the following announcement: "Mr. and Mrs. Adolphus Parrish announce the marriage of their sister, Alyce Marie Saunders to Elbert W. Spear, Wednesday, November 17th, 1920, at Greensboro, N. C." Mr. and Mrs. Spear will be at home after December the first on North Queen Street, Kingston, N. C.

(From Thursday's Daily)
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Pipler and son are visiting in Jacksonville.

Mrs. Claude Howard is visiting her sister, Mrs. Dickens in Chester, S. C.

Mrs. C. E. Henry and Mrs. Fred Walsma were among the Sanford ladies visiting Orlando yesterday.

W. J. Steed came last evening from Kissimmee to spend Thanksgiving the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Ball.

Mrs. A. R. Key and mother and Mrs. A. D. Key and Mrs. W. D. Holden were in Orlando yesterday visiting friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Starburg and Mrs. Karl Dunoway, of Kissimmee were guests of Mrs. W. J. Steed on Tuesday.

Mrs. W. D. Gilgen and little son, William, Jr., left Wednesday for Jacksonville to spend Thanksgiving with relatives.

Miss Adelaide Higgins is in Orlando, the Thanksgiving guest of her sister. She will attend the Thanksgiving ball at the Country Club.

O. B. Sinn has purchased the residence formerly occupied by Mr. Munson and owned by M. M. Stewart. This sale was made by J. E. Spurling.

Mrs. J. B. Lawson, Mrs. Henry Purden and little daughter, Louise, Mr. and Mrs. Blount and Mrs. R. J. Holly spent a few hours in Orlando yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Commons are in the city today visiting friends and report their fine place at Stone Island as being in first class shape after their four months visit to their old home in Indiana.

The many friends of E. R. Wiggins are glad to have him back in Sanford again with the Market Bureau that he handles so successfully each season. He and his family will be the guests of the Gables for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Warde, Harry Reed and Miss Fern Ward made a trip to Daytona Beach yesterday, spending a most delightful day among friends and showing Mr. Reed the finest ocean he ever saw even though he has been living in California.

The many Sanford friends of Misses Coral Lee Tillis and Ruth Gillen are glad to have them home for Thanksgiving. These two Sanford girls are graduates of the Sanford High School Class of 1920 and are now teaching school, Coral Lee at Eau Gallie and Ruth at Cocoa.

Miss Fern Ward attended the Ashbridge wedding at DeLand this morning. Miss Bridges known as "Billie" Bridges is well known here among the summer colony at Daytona Beach where both bride and groom reside. Rev. Clarence Ferrin, of the DeLand Presbyterian church, performed the ceremony.

Friends of Mr. A. D. Shoemaker and family will be pleased to know they are planning to be permanent residents of Sanford. Mr. Shoemaker has just purchased the splendid home of E. J. Rivers, on Sanford Heights formerly owned by C. H. Dingee. This transaction was made by J. E. Spurling.

A Message from the Purina House

HORSE SENSE in horse feeding.

It is shrewd common sense to feed a horse a balanced feed, which will develop every part of its body. Analysis of Purina O-Molene Feed shows that it contains in proper proportion all the elements for muscle, blood, hair and hide making, as well as a large percentage of Nitrogen free extract, which supplies heat and energy. There is no 15 to 18 percent waste as in feeding the whole oats, due to swallowing whole.

Purina O-Molene Feed is highly digestible.

I trade at home and never roam
Seeking "bargains" elsewhere.
I love the town in which I live,
For all my interests are there.
And then, again, I buy from friends,
We all need one another.
When I run short I can approach
My dealer as a brother.
When buying here with conscience clear,
I put my money down,
I know it stays right here and works
For the welfare of my town.
Another thing, right here I bring
The produce that I raise
And always get an honest deal—
I've found that it pays.
And then, I know when buying here
It helps things to relax,
And also helps the man who pays
His portion of the tax.
And when I'm sick or in hard luck
The man I buy from's here
With the pocket book, if need be,
And kindly words of cheer.
So that is why I trade at home:
I'm a booster thru and thru
For a town that's good to live in
Is good to buy in, too.

It at any time you're taken sick
And you need relief and need it

LONGWOOD PICKUPS

Mr. and Mrs. Stiles and family were shopping in Sanford Tuesday.
 Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Dinkel and Miss Olive Dinkel motored up to Jacksonville on Thursday to take in the fair, returning Monday.
 Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Hardy returned from their summer home in Malibu last week and are located in the Clouser home until their bungalow is built.
 Mrs. Bill Allen and Mrs. Tullis were visitors in Sanford Tuesday.
 Mrs. Frances Nelmyer is in Jacksonville this week, where she has a fine poultry exhibit at the state fair.
 The Longwood Library is completed and is an attractive building, being a credit to the town.
 The meat market building of Mrs. Guy Bryant was destroyed by fire last Saturday night.
 Mrs. H. H. Smith and two sons left Monday for Miami.
 Quite a number from here attended the Sparks Circus in Orlando Monday and others attended it at Sanford Tuesday.
 Mrs. J. S. Dinkel and Miss Olive Dinkel were shopping in Sanford on Wednesday.

LAKE MONROE

Jack Frost paid us a hurried up visit last week. The lettuce growers are glad to see the weather grow cooler.
 Mr. and Mrs. Wade Beasley and children have moved to Seaville. Mr. Beasley takes charge of the A. C. L. section crew there. We are sorry to lose this good family from among us.
 Quite a number of our folks spent the first day of the hunting season out among the game. Several took the families and enjoyed a pleasant picnic as well.
 Rev. E. Lee Smith, of Orlando, filled his regular appointment here at the Baptist church Sunday morning and evening.
 One of the most enjoyable parties of the season was the one given by Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Mann to their Sunday school classes last Thursday evening. Mr. Mann teaches the boys' intermediate class and Mrs. Mann teaches the girls' intermediate. The evening was very pleasantly spent in playing games and characters. Dainty refreshments, consisting of a delicious fruit salad and cake were served. The boys and girls heartily expressed their appreciation to their teachers for a most enjoyable evening.

DEATH OF MRS. ELIZA B. GRADICK.

Mrs. Eliza Burton Gradick, aged 79 years, died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. James Lytle, on Tuesday morning. She is survived by her brother, J. N. Edwards, Lakeland, Fla.; two sons, Wm. E. and W. L. Gradick, of Jacksonville; six daughters, Mrs. Ella G. Koonce, Lakeland; Mrs. Alice Wheeler, Catonton, Ga.; Mrs. H. H. Pattishall, Geneva, Fla.; Mrs. James Lytle, Jacksonville; Mrs. Ernest Tolar, Sanford, Fla., and Mrs. Jack Beggs, of Jacksonville.
 The funeral will take place from the residence, 730 Park street, Wednesday, 3 p. m., Rev. W. A. Hobson, D. D., assisted by Rev. Jos. G. Venable, D. D., officiating. The interment will be in Evergreen Cemetery, Moulton & Kyle in charge.—Jacksonville Metropolis.

DEATH OF WIGHT BABY

(From Thursday's Daily)
 The infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Wight died at the home of the parents on Palmetto avenue last night after a short illness. The funeral will occur from the house this afternoon at four o'clock. Dr. Brownlee, of the Presbyterian church, officiating. Interment being made in Lakeview cemetery.
 The sympathy of the many friends is extended to the parents and families.

The Seminole Hotel has installed a big electric sign that can be seen from two ways on Park avenue calling attention to the fact that the Seminole is ready to take the travellers in and give them what they want. The Seminole is now one of the best lighted places in the city.

Many parties left Sanford this morning on boat and by auto to spend the day in the woods and on the rivers and lakes. There is more good hunting and fishing around Sanford than any other part of the state.

A Tampa man dropped a dollar in the collection plate and it made so much noise that the congregation craned its neck in astonishment. Seems like there are some nerp people in Tampa.—Alapachicola Times.

CALIFORNIA WANTS HELP AGAINST ENCROACHMENTS OF THE JAPANESE ALIEN

Other States Urged to Protest New Treaty

MENACE TO WHITES

SENATOR PHELAN SAYS TREATY WOULD LEAD TO WAR.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 23.—Sen. James D. Phelan, of California, yesterday sent a telegram to governors and senators of western states asking them to "please telegraph your political protest to the state department against any treaty which gives foreign-born Japanese now in this country the rights of citizenship." The telegram was prompted, Senator Phelan said, by news dispatches from London which said an agreement was nearing completion between the United States and Japan which proposes full citizenship for Japanese now in this country and under which Japan would absolutely restrict further immigration to the United States. He further said, in an interview, that very often where treaties were in course of consummation reports were allowed to be circulated of the plans to test the public opinion.

"Citizenship for Japanese," said the telegram, "would give them not only control of the land but also a dangerous political power." The telegram said in part:

"Experience teaches us that Japanese exclusion can be effected only by United States laws. To grant rights of citizenship, including land ownership to the 100,000 Japanese in California and the other thousands scattered throughout the western states would be nothing less than the destruction of the white population.

"The Japanese invasion has taken the form of land purchase and under the constitution persons now born on the soil can own land and enjoy the voting privilege. The Japanese already here have a birth rate three or four times as great as the whites. Resident Japanese have recently returned to Japan in large numbers since the picture bride abuse was abolished, to bring back wives, with the studied plan of increasing their numbers.

"The initiative anti-alien land law just passed by an overwhelming vote by the people indicates their temper. Such a treaty as proposed, instead of producing better relations, would cause greater antagonism and possibly lead to war. The Japanese, as usual, are preparing for war as a background for forcing their diplomatic negotiations and the state department evidently is frightened.

"A treaty should not be allowed to attempt to avert a state law, passed by the people who understand their own peril and are acting for their own preservation."

BETTER PROTECTION OF LIFE AT ALL RAILROAD CROSSINGS

(By The Associated Press.)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—A campaign for the passage of laws in all states requiring better protection of railroad grade crossings is to be carried on by members of the Association of State Railway and Utility Commissions, which recently held its annual convention here.

A special committee appointed to investigate the whole subject said the elimination of all grade crossings in the United States "would probably cost as much as all the railroads are worth." It recommended laws requiring that every grade crossing be protected by an approach warning sign, placed in the highway at a distance not less than 300 feet on each side of the railroad tracks. The sign should be a circular disk not less than 24 inches in diameter, and properly lighted at night if deemed necessary.

Railroad companies would be required to maintain within the limits of their rights of way proper cautionary signs, to be equipped with a red light at night where necessary.

PITCHER VAUGHAN STABBED IN FIGHT WITH FATHER-IN-LAW

EAST SANFORD

Rev. W. T. Rancher was over from Apopka Sunday and preached afternoon and evening. His subject for the afternoon sermon was "Thought" and what thoughts did for us. Mr. Rancher hopes to be sent here again after conference as he has made many friends.

Dr. R. J. Fay, of Cameron avenue has been ill in the Fernald-Laughlin hospital; said to be improving now.

Perry Anthony, of Cameron City, was called to Atlanta by the serious illness of his mother. He left for that point Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Norman Nash, of Alabama, are guests of Philip R. Andrews and family of Celery avenue. Mr. Nash is very enthusiastic about our truck farming and may invest in a farm. Mr. Nash and Mr. Andrews are cousins.

Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Shoemaker have bought the Rivers residence next to L. P. Hagen's home on Sanford Heights and expect to move in as soon as possible.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Corley have sold their farm and residence at Moore's Station to W. A. Ozner, of Atlanta. Mr. Ozner is at Orlando for the winter. The Corleys bought their place of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Miller last May and paid $8,000 and sold it to Mr. Ozner for $12,000. They have made some improvements and have some fine growing crops that are included in the sale. Mr. and Mrs. Corley will occupy the place until May we understand.

Mr. and Mrs. George Townsend, of Mellenville avenue have as their guests, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Parker and daughter of Upton, Wyo., and Mr. and Mrs. James Hill, of Custer, S. D. Mrs. Parker is Mrs. Townsend's sister. The party came through in the Parker car, a Nash, making the trip in good time without accidents. They will see Florida this winter.

Louis Knelling, of Willoughby, O., arrived here this week for the winter and has been coming here for the past ten years.

Mrs. A. Corpany has been quite ill with ptomaine poison but is recovering under Dr. Stevens' treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Nick Zernovean and daughter were visitors in Orlando on Monday.

W. E. Prevatt brought a pair of wild turkeys home from a hunting trip to Chuluota.

Early risers saw some white frost last Thursday morning.

Robert Grier entertained Edward Brady and R. C. Keenan from town last Saturday. The boys had a fine time hunting.

THE NEGLECT OF THANKSGIVING DAY

What have I got to be thankful for?

Well, I live in that country which is the "land of the free and the home of the brave."

I live in a state of glorious beauty—where lakes glisten in the sunlight nearly every day of the year; where flowers bloom perennially, where birds never forget to sing; where the climate furnishes a resort to suffering ones for health and comfort; where delicious fruits abound; where more and more beautiful homes are being erected, and new churches ascending? Ought I not to be thankful?

Is it not proper for every patriotic American to resort to the holy sanctuary and offer Thanksgiving, on our great national day, to the giving of all good?

Isn't it right to bend the knees and worship the God, who, in spite of our national sins, has withheld a visitation of famine, flood and fever from sweeping over our broad beloved land?

Is it right when God's house is open to worshippers on Thanksgiving day to turn our backs and hasten away on some selfish excursion and neglect to render in public worship our mite of praise and gratitude to Him who alone can save us from all the ills and horrors of a national disaster?

"Blessed is the nation whose God is the Lord."

"He hath not dealt so with any nation" as ours.

Oh, come, let us sing unto the Lord. Let us come before His presence with Thanksgiving, and make a joyful noise unto Him with psalms." —Contributed.

Some big building projects are on tap for the first of January and this city will have plenty of room for everybody next season.

RECENT ORDER WOULD WORK AGAINST GROWERS

WASHINGTON, Nov. 24.—Claiming that recent orders of the Interstate Commerce Commission are prejudicial to the interest of Florida fruit and vegetable growers, and that recent orders of the commission work directly into the hands of California producers, practically every association interested in this industry, in the east, met here yesterday either thru legal counsel or other representation to protest against these orders.

The protest was heard by Messrs. Crossland, Ward and Towers, chiefs of divisions of the commission, informally sitting as a suspense board, who will report their findings to the full commission.

The protest was against a decision of the commission in the matter of reconsignment and diversion. "Scientific Distribution" is the gist of the matter, or, in plain words, when fruit and vegetables are shipped from California and Florida they have no fixed destination; California shippers have longer to determine upon place of destination than those in Florida, because distance shipped is longer, hence more time is consumed. It is now proposed in this order that after three consignments there will be a charge on the growers and this will work a hardship on the Florida man and give the California grower an advantage.

SOUTHERN COLLEGE NOTES

The Y. W. C. A. of Southern College, has taken up its work for the ensuing year with its customary enthusiasm. Could you have attended the recognition service held in the auditorium of the college Thursday evening, Nov. 11th, you would have seen a very inspiring sight. The new members, about fifty in number, all in white carrying lighted candles, marched by twos into the auditorium forming two lines in front of the platform where Miss Mary Elliot, president, administered the oath and welcomed the new girls on behalf of the organization. An appropriate solo by Miss Doris Verden, followed by a helpful talk by Dr. Alderman on the Y. W. C. A. as an organization and the high calling of womanhood, completed the program of the evening. Among the new members received into the Y. W. C. A. were Miss Gladys Adams of Sanford and Misses Carolyn White and Ellen Chappell, formerly of Sanford.

The Epworth League, one of the liveliest of the organizations of Southern College, has taken up its work with its customary enthusiasm and vigor. With the help of the new members, about fifty of whom were received into the League last Sunday night, this year it is expected that the League will do some of the best work it has ever done. Among the new members coming to us from Sanford were Gladys Adams and C. L. Irwin.

The League was fortunate a week ago last Sunday night in having the privilege of listening to an address by Miss Annette Gist, who has been for several years a missionary to Japan. Miss Gist pictured to the Leaguers the need for workers in the far east, and made her talk instructive as well as entertaining. After her address, she exhibited to her auditors several trinkets and interesting curios which she had gathered during her stay in the Orient.

SANFORD HAD TWO DAILIES AND THREE WEEKLIES

Frank Miller dropped into the Herald office this morning for a minute's chat and in talking over events past and future said that when he was a youngster here (several years ago) there were two daily papers and three weekly papers. So you see that Sanford in the early days was some town and the reason there are so many old buildings on the main streets of the city today is because this city was one of the first to be established in the early days before the freeze wiped Sanford off the map. Now we need to rebuild the old ones or tear them down and build many new ones to take the place of the old ones, and new ones to take care of the constantly increasing business and we will welcome the time when the city is big enough to have two dailies and three weeklies.

Republicans Will Make More Pies

LOOKS LIKE THEY WILL OUST EVERY DEMOCRATIC OFFICE HOLDER

(By P. H. McGowan)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 22.—Gossip: political Washington is pulsating and all agog over contemplated changes in the governmental changes when the Harding administration takes hold of the federal business on March 4, but already plans are not only being discussed, but in some instances are well under way for "firing" Democratic office holders. They will be supplanted by faithful from the Republican fold. This gossip covers the white house, the senate, the house of representatives and every government department and bureau, big and little, in and out of Washington. In plain words, if you are a Democrat and have failed to hold down your place with some kind of double locked contrivance, just back on the farm or in the village store, for that is the immediate objective of many a thousand Democrat the folks at home to take you out in the very near future. It is not only true but indicates at the same time that the Republicans are taking cognizance of the fact that for the next four years they are to be the proprietors of the mammoth federal pie-counter at Washington. Incoming Republican senators and house members have already passed the word out along the line that they mean business; everything from the president's executive order of 1917, whereby all postmasters were placed under civil service rules down to the various departmental places in Washington are to be reorganized, this organization to be for the principal purpose of putting the G. O. P. in and the Democrats out of business. The Republicans assert that the order of the Wilson administration just referred to will be revoked and the way opened to replace thousands of Democratic postmasters with Republicans. The establishment of a plan whereby any employee who has charges made against him will be given a hearing to see the evidence against him is almost a certainty. It is being circulated here that a majority of the postal clerks now in the service in the recent election worked openly against the Democratic ticket and for the Republicans. It is said that many of the officials and no small part of the personnel of the postoffice employes over the country have been at war with the postmaster general and, as a result, they refused to support Cox and Roosevelt. It is now being said that the Republican chiefs, having had the support of the big army of postal employes, want to see them satisfied.

Representative Martin M. Madden of Chicago, the Illinois member of the house, who openly declares that he sees no objection to the same schools for white and colored pupils, the same street cars for the two races, the general use of Pullman sleepers and dining cars for negroes along with white people, and that he has no use in any way for anything savoring of a "Jim-Crow" law is the chairman of the house committee on postoffices. With the leading men on the Democratic side of this committee defeated in the recent election landslide it will be easy sailing for Madden, with his Republican colleagues, to bring out of the committee almost any radical bills they may desire. John A. Moon, of Tennessee, was one of the southern members who fought the Democrats' battles, but now that will fall on the shoulders of Congressman Bell of Georgia, who will become the ranking Democratic member of the postoffice committee.

The general postal situation indicates that with a Republican postmaster-general, and with both the house and senate committee strongly Republican, Democratic officials generally see their severance from the government payroll soon after March 4. Madden doesn't like the southern people and does not deny it.

Declaring that in the near future the prospects are good for Florida and Texas to stand in the Republican column politically, Washington newspapers are making a strong bid in this direction. Today, in its gossip, the Washington Post quotes a visitor as saying:

"Despite Democratic hopes for a comeback four years hence, a number of prominent Democratic leaders have, since the election, expressed real apprehension over the great increase in the Republican vote in the South.

"During the last ten years the shift in the population of this country has been tremendous, and it is now being felt politically. Northern people, Republicans for the most part have moved by tens of thousands into the southern states. Texas and Florida perhaps furnish the most notable examples of this northern immigration. Northwest Texas is now overwhelmingly Republican because of the influx of northern people, drawn there by the great oilfields and the immense agricultural opportunities. Were it not for the fact that Texas is traditionally Democratic, the newcomers, following in a large measure the prevailing politics in their new homes, the Republicans might have captured one or two more seats in congress from that portion of Texas.

"The northern population of Florida is made up largely of wealthy people seeking health and recreation. Thousands of them have revoked their residences in northern states, and have established their voting residences in Florida. On the other hand, the colored population of the North, especially the border states of West Virginia, Ohio, Illinois and Indiana, has grown enormously since the war. It is stated that negroes are going north at the rate of 500,000 a year."

PROMINENT VISITORS HERE

(From Monday's Daily)
Among the prominent visitors to the city today were Willis B. Powell, secretary of the Lake County Chamber of Commerce; R. N. White, secretary of the Commercial Club of Mt. Dora and C. W. Williams, secretary of the Board of Trade of Eustis. All of them are Lake county boosters and they were enroute to Jacksonville to take, in the State Fair. They were taken out to the Brumley farm while here to see the Sanford lettuce being shipped.

Jas. Watson Says, "I'll Never Forget When Father's Hogs Got Cholera."

"One morning he found 20 hogs dead and several sick. He called in the Vet. who after dissecting a rat caught on the premises, decided that the rodents had conveyed germs. Since then I am never without RAT-SNAP. It's the surest, quickest rat destroyer I know." Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.00. Sold and guaranteed by Ball Hardware Co.

We admire the fight that the Palatka News and the Sanford Herald are making to force free bridges in this state. They are beginning at home with their own sections in an effort to abolish the toll bridges and if necessary will carry the fight to the end of having the county construct another bridge. This business of charging people money to cross a public thoroughfare, just because there is no other way around it, is an injustice and when a stranger comes into the state and meets with such a hold-up, he don't get a very favorable impression. Perhaps that is one reason that so many people have in the past known more about the east coast of Florida than the west.—Lakeland Star.

Missouri Lady Suffered Until She Tried Cardui.—Says "Result Was Surprising."—Got Along Fine, Became Normal and Healthy.

Springfield Mo.—"My back was so weak I could hardly stand up, and I would have bearing-down pains and was not well at any time," says Mrs. D. V. Williams, wife of a well-known farmer on Route 6, this place. "I kept getting headaches and having to go to bed," continues Mrs. Williams describing the troubles from which she obtained relief through the use of Cardui. "My husband, having heard of Cardui, proposed getting it for me. I saw after taking some Cardui... that I was improving. The result was surprising. I felt like a different person."

"Later I suffered from weakness and weak back, and felt all run-down. I did not rest well at night. I was so nervous and cross. My husband said he would get me some Cardui, which he did. It strengthened me... My doctor said I got along fine. I was in good healthy condition. I cannot say too much for it."

Thousands of women have suffered as Mrs. Williams describes, until they found relief from the use of Cardui. Hence it has helped so many, you should not hesitate to try Cardui if troubled with womanly ailments. For sale everywhere. K-11

LETTUCE SHIPPED OUT FROM SANFORD BRING GOOD PRICE

SANFORD SHIPING TEN CARS DAILY NOW.

(From Monday's Daily)
The lettuce season is on now in full blast and the markets promise to be getting better all this week or especially before Thanksgiving as all the world wants Sanford lettuce for the big day.

There were fifteen cars of lettuce shipped out Saturday, making a total for the week of eighty cars which is a fine record for the first week of the movement. There will probably be twenty out today and the price is said to be very good although just what it is bringing in New York is problematical, some saying it is high and it must be for it is bringing $2.50 here for fancy stuff.

If the weather remains cool Sanford growers will make a fine thing out of their lettuce this season, probably more than ever before.

YOU don't use as much of Calumet as you do of most other Baking Powders. It has more than ordinary leavening strength. You save about half.

You don't pay a big price for Calumet. It's sold at a moderate price—that represents another saving.

You don't feel uncertain as to results. Bakings never fail—because Calumet never falls below the proven standard of "Best by Test."

BEST BY TEST

It possesses the highest quality ever put into a Baking Powder. Contains only such ingredients as have been officially endorsed by United States Food Authorities.

For weeks, for months, it keeps as fresh and full of strength as the day it left the Calumet Factories, the World's Largest, most Sanitary and Modern Baking Powder plants.

It is important that you use only straight wheat flour not self-rising flour and pure baking powder if you wish to obtain the gluten demanded by sound health.
