

Beauty Contest Extended

Deadline on the Miss Seminole County Contest has been extended 10 days to the 25th of March, Civilian Charlie Kampf announced today.

"Our county girls seem to be a little shy about stepping forward and signing up for this, but I think we've got the ball rolling now and the entries are beginning to come in," Kampf said. Civilian are the sponsoring club for the contest. E. C. Harper, Jr. is chairman.

Kampf said that he had word of several entrants from the Dynatronics plant personnel that would be in this week, and urged girls from Lyman and Oviedo and Seminole High Schools to pick up application blanks in the offices of the schools and get them in at once.

Unmarried career girls between 17 and 21 are also invited and urged to fill out an application blank.

"We'd like to have at least 30 girls in the contest. There are sponsors waiting to sponsor you, which means pay your entrance fees and provide you with a stunning swim suit from Alix of Sanford," Kampf reminded the young beauties of the county.

"There are just hundreds of really lovely girls in the county, many of them born and raised here, and we already know it's going to be hard to choose between them, but we want one of these lovely young ladies to reign over the big Semi-Centennial as Queen for a day," he added.

There are many useful and valuable prizes awaiting the Queen and her court, and every girl gets to keep the high-fashion latest-style swim suit that will be from Alix of Sanford, one of the top names in the world of beach wear.

Blanks are available at all the high schools in the county, at the USO, the Sanford Herald, Sanford Electric, Sanford Atlantic Bank, Florida State Bank, First Federal, WTRR and the Recreation Office at the Civic Center.

Town Shares Life Institute With Lyman

By Louise Simunek

Dr. Douglass Brown, who is taking part in the Family Life Institute Program currently being presented by the Lyman PTA will speak to members of the Altamonte Elementary School PTA Wednesday on family life relationships. Mrs. Lawrence Swafford, Altamonte PTA president, emphasized today.

This is part of the series which includes a talk by Dr. Brown at Lyman High School Tuesday on "Do Teenagers Need Parents?" to begin at 7:30 p.m. A discussion workshop will be held at the Altamonte School Wednesday afternoon at 2 p.m. in conjunction with the series.

Dr. Brown is professor of Marriage and Family Living of the School of Social Welfare at Florida State University, and all persons in the area are invited to attend any of the series.

Buy A Book; Read It; Donate It

By Donna Estes

Longwood Elementary School PTO will sponsor a Book Fair today, with a display made up of recommended books in many fields of interest.

Books were on display during the school day for children and teachers and will be from 7 p.m. until 9 p.m. for the parents.

Benefits to the school library will be realized, not from sales profits, but rather from the donation of the books to the school after the purchaser has finished reading them.

All sales will be recorded and a drive will be made at a later time to have the books brought to the school for the benefit of all the students.

The school library has made excellent progress since the opening of this term. PTO funds and book donations, combined with school funds, have raised the book count from 600 to more than 2,100 volumes.

To meet accreditation standards, five volumes per pupil are needed. This will mean upwards of 3,000 books depending on next year's enrollment." Principal Louis Kosky said.

All books at the Fair will feature the best in library binding and will be sold at absolute school costs. Many books will be available for immediate delivery while others can be ordered for early delivery.

MEET ARIZONA, a three act musical operetta will be presented by the Seminole High School Glee Club and Chorales at 8 p.m. tonight at the school auditorium. Miss Patty Glenn Johnson stars with Henry Lavender in the production. Here a gay group of duets and "dueness" dance a merry square dance in the old corral. (Herald Photo)

Pops Orchestra

Foot-Tapping Contest Set

By Louise Simunek

Plans for a foot-tapping concert by the Mid-Florida Pops Orchestra are all in readiness for tonight at 8 p.m. at the Altamonte Elementary School on SR 156.

Conductor Arthur Bell will direct the concert, which will open with the National Emblem March by E. E. Bagley, followed by highlights from Oklahoma by Richard Rogers.

Autumn Leaves by Johnny Mercer, Clear Track Gallop by J. Barnby and a spiritual Now Don't Let Nobody Turn You Around will be presented by the vocal quartet of "Bob Nedall, Harold Riesen, Kenneth Gruesbeck and Bernie Kiratzen.

There will be a dance by Pat Wise as well as a balon presentation by the Lake Weston Baton Twirlers under the direction of Mrs. Sarah McElfresh to the Semper Fidelis March by Sousa.

Mrs. Iris Balwelder will sing several Victor Herbert favorites. The program will end with the playing of the famous Sousa March, the Stars and Stripes Forever.

Tickets will be available at the door and also can be secured at the Library on Mainland Ave., Shepherd's Drug Store in Casselberry, Western Auto in Fern Park Plaza and the Countryside Doll Shop in Altamonte.

The Concert Committee has worked very hard on his subject and are hoping for its complete success as this is the means to provide funds for the operating expenses of the library to keep it open.

A table will be set up in the auditorium for renewal of memberships.

The Library has made great strides in its three years of operation. Their open house was well attended and Dr. Paul O. Schallet has accorded the honor of burning the mortgage during the open house ceremonies.

Rail Employees Invited To Apply For Dues Refunds

By Lyle C. Wilson

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Non-operating employees of the Southern Railway and affiliated lines have been invited to apply for refund of dues money misused by their unions for political purposes.

The Southern is union shop. Miss Nancy M. Luper, a Southern employe, won a 1961 Supreme Court decision forbidding labor leaders to compel a union member to pay for political activity to which the member was opposed. Miss Luper seeks to alert Southern employees to their chance to obtain a refund.

The case began in Bibb County Superior Court, Macon, Ga., in 1958. The Supreme Court ended it, June 19, 1961. Judge O. L. Long, Bibb Superior Court, now has invited to seek refunds from their unions 12,000 non-operating employes of these lines: Georgia Southern — Florida Railway Co., Southern Railway Co., Cincinnati, New Orleans and Texas Pacific Railway, Alabama Great Southern Railroad Co., New Orleans and Northeastern Railroad Co., Carroll and Northwest-ern Railway Co., New Orleans Terminal Co., Harriman and Northeastern Railroad Co. and St. Johns River Terminal Co.

Judge Long's circular to employes said: "The Supreme Court decided that dues, fees and assessments collected by a union under a union shop agreement may not be used by the unions for political purposes over your objection. The court will determine the extent to which such dues, fees and assessments are used for political non-collective bargaining purposes and will establish a system of making refunds or reductions in dues for employes who give notice to the union that they object to the use of their money for purposes other than collective bargaining."

"The demand for a union shop," Miss Luper told United Press International, "carries employe responsibility to regard and to respect the rights and ideas of minority groups. This presents a very serious problem to our nation when you consider that 64 per cent of AFL-CIO members are under a union shop. Ten cents per capita per month could swing a national election.

Tourist Club Plans Supper

The Sanford Tourist and Shuttleboard Club will hold a spaghetti supper today at 6 p.m. at the club building, with Joe Azzarella in charge of serving.

On Wednesday the Mainland Club, in New Smyrna Beach, will be in Sanford for an afternoon tournament.

New officers elected for the Sanford club, recently, are Mahlon Wright, president; George Rounds, vice president; Mrs. Rounds, secretary; Fred M. Walton, treasurer; A. C. Madden, tournament director and assistant director; Joe E. Murray.

Mikler Rites Set Wednesday

Funeral services are scheduled Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. at St. Luke's Evangelical Lutheran Church in Slavia for Joseph Mikler Sr., pioneer resident who founded the community.

Mr. Mikler's grandsons will serve as pallbearers and Rev. Stephen M. Tuhy will officiate at the services.

The family has requested that in lieu of flowers, donations be made to the building fund or to the missionary projects of the church.

Burial will be in the Lutheran Cemetery.

Halt Claims Pay Profiteers, Bar Asks

TALLAHASSEE — In a move to stem profiteering in workmen's compensation claims, the Florida Bar proposed a statute change sharply cutting payments to the permanently disabled.

If passed by the 1963 Legislature, compensation to permanently disabled persons would be reduced by the amount paid in Social Security benefits by the federal government.

The measure was regarded as an emergency step to prevent injured workers from seeking permanently disabled status in order to draw both workmen's compensation and Social Security.

Chamber Asks Giant Tax Cut

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U. S. Chamber of Commerce today recommended an $8.6 billion tax cut effective June 30 "to avoid the recession the President has been talking about."

Joel Barlow, chairman of the chamber's taxation committee, said corporate and individual taxes should be reduced this year "if the economy is to gain momentum" rather than over three years as President Kennedy has proposed.

In testimony prepared for the House Ways and Means Committee, Barlow urged cuts which "will principally encourage risk taking and extra effort" and not just relief for consumers.

Barlow said money lost to the Treasury by the reductions would be offset by "substantial reductions in federal expenditures." Increased consumer spending also would make up for the loss, he added.

Security Man

A representative of the Social Security Administration district office in Orlando will be at the City Commission room, City Hall, between 9 a.m. and noon April 3, 10, 17 and 24 for those who wish to apply for old age and survivors insurance benefits, Social Security account numbers or to obtain information about Social Security.

Thomas Oglesby Service Today

Funeral services were to be held today at 4 p.m. for Thomas Oglesby, 62, who died Sunday afternoon at the Seminole Memorial Hospital.

Services will be held at the Church of God of Prophecy with Rev. Robert Strickland officiating. Burial will be in Lakeview Cemetery.

Serving as pallbearers are Tommy Swaggerty, Jim Griffin, Clyde Walts, A. B. Sikes, W. C. Gailey, Randall Kinard.

Honorary Pallbearers are Clyde Muse, Ernie Kinard, William Leffler Sr., H. H. Duncan, W. G. Kilber, and R. C. Whitten.

Gramkow Funeral Home, Sanford is in charge of arrangements.

Concentrate Shows Increase

LAKELAND (UPI) — Cannery use of Florida oranges continued to increase last week and was running slightly ahead of the same period last season, the Florida Citrus Mutual reported this weekend.

The Mutual said a large portion of the fruit went for concentrate, with the balance going for chilled juice, single strength juice and chilled salad.

About 48 million boxes of oranges have been used this season in processor channels, with 35 million boxes being used for concentrate. But the Mutual said that cannery use of grapefruit has been falling for the past week.

Mrs. Ada Walker Dies Monday

Mrs. Ada Walker, 83, of 1303 Myrtle Ave. died Monday morning at Seminole Memorial Hospital.

She was born in Chipley, August 22, 1879 and had made her home in Sanford for the past 30 years, where she was a member of the First Baptist Church.

She is survived by seven children: Mrs. J. W. Gamble and Mrs. Cora Lee Griggs of Sanford; Mrs. Ouida Smith of Fort Meade; John Reddick of Phoenix City, Ala.; Bill Reddick, Lake City, Fla.; Ben Reddick of Tampa and Martin Reddick of Canada.

Also four sisters, Mrs. Ouida Stenstrom, Lake Wales; Mrs. Gladys McCurley and Mrs. Demouril Jowers, Opp, Ala.; and Mrs. Mamie Tillan, Phenix City, Ala.

Also four brothers: Allen, George and A. D. Cotton of Pensacola and Ben Cotton of Phenix City, Ala.

The body will be sent to Chipley for graveside services to be held at the Chipley Cemetery at 4 p.m. Wednesday.

Brisson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

Credit Women Hold Breakfast

The regular meeting of the Sanford Credit Women's Breakfast Club was held at the Placereast Inn on March 13.

Credit Blackouts from the Manuel were discussed with all girls participating.

Polly Jones from the Credit Bureau has taken over as Educational Chairman for the rest of the year.

Polly Jones also received word from the Jacksonville CWBC that she has been chosen to serve on the Bulletin Committee at the State Convention in Miami in October.

The next meeting will be held on Tuesday evening at the Strickland-Morrison show-room at 7:30 on March 26.

'Rigged' Charges Thrown At Election

By LARRY VERSHEL

Our informants told us today of an off-the-record meeting of the St. Johns-Indian River Navigating Committee Tuesday at Orlando. Several local and long distance telephone calls brought the same answer: "No comment for now." It was learned a delegation will be in Tallahassee Monday, with a promise to today of a news release Friday.

Thus far Republican Jan Fortune has spent over $900 in his bid for election to the legislature . . . Gordon Frederick . . . $105 . . . By the way Republicans are beginning to worry whether Fortune is in danger of being transferred . . . They remember S. J. Davis' GOP opponent a few years back was sent out of town a few months before voting time . . .

Jan Fortune sent us a telegram today saying he won't be at that Bear Lake meeting tomorrow night . . . Other commitments, said Mr. Fortune.

The Hospital Board recently okayed preliminary plans for completion of the new wing . . . John Burton given the green light to proceed with working details with bid letting seen for April.

County road department still working on freeze damage roads . . . Loch Arbog section . . . W. Crystal Drive and Lake Blvd.

Asked County Attorney Harold Johnson about franchise legislation and he says "I choose to be optimistic that the bill will be introduced this session."

Don't forget Coast Guard Auxiliary safe boat handling course tonight at 8 at the courthouse . . . 56 now signed up and enrollments still open.

Memo to Southern Bell . . . Ever notice those phones ripped out at various booths around town . . . Like by the zoo and National Guard Army?

It would be interesting to know if proposed public defenders would apply just to felonies . . . Can you imagine the outcome if it took in minor traffic cases? . . .

And the Supreme Court keeps legislating and legislating . . . and telling us to run our state and county . . . What's that about the usurping authority?

LOCAL MAN MAKES GOOD DEPARTMENT . . . George Hardin's prize cutting horse, Lee's Pride, took first place in the biggest horse show in the southeast this past weekend in Montgomery, Ala., beating out 24 other entries . . . George's brother Spencer didn't do too bad either . . . He came in first in the junior division.

Legislative candidates Gordon Frederick and Jan Fortune will appear on TV Sunday at 4 p.m. with a host of other candidates on Channel 6.

Which reminds me . . . Democratic women met yesterday . . . Only eight showed up.

It was a quiet two-hour wait, with no responses to repeated knockings on the door, as the voting judges counted Tuesday's election ballots at North Orlando. And then there was 30 minutes of turmoil as two losing candidates cried "fraud" and proclaimed they would protest to the Governor.

Rhodes, Ferrin Van Eepoel Win

Town Council of North Orlando will have a "new face" at its next scheduled meeting, April 1.

North Orlando voters turned out en masse Tuesday to vote in three new Council members, Irene Van Eepoel, Arthur Rhodes and Arthur Ferrin. Mayor Frank Fasula and Clarence Memory were unseated in the vote. Ruel Stripling did not seek re-election.

Soviets Rip Into France On Nuclear Tests

GENEVA (UPI) — The Soviet Union today ripped into France for resuming nuclear tests in the Sahara Monday and implied that the United States tacitly approved of the French action.

Soviet negotiator Semyon Tsarapkin told the 17-nation disarmament conference it was "characteristic" that the United States had "found no word to condemn France" for the new test.

Tsarapkin said U. S. silence on the subject took on added significance in view of last year's United Nations General Assembly resolution appealing for a halt to all nuclear testing by Jan. 1.

Earlier, the United States told the Soviet Union to quit stalling and get down to serious talks on negotiating a nuclear test ban agreement.

The United Arab Republic expressed its "genuine shock and grave alarm" at the resumption of French testing, and Canada's sign, E.L.S.T. Burns said his country is "opposed to any nuclear testing anywhere."

U. S. Ambassador Charles C. Stille told the conference that it is time for faster progress and fewer disappointments.

FEC 'Blasts' National Unions

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI) — The Florida East Coast Railway accused National Labor Unions today of seeking to keep other railroads in line by "making an example" of the Florida carrier by striking at a time which would cost "the greatest financial loss to the railway."

At the wage dispute strike by 11 nonoperating unions against the FEC went into its eighth week, the railway issued a booklet outlining its stand that it "should not agree to an wage demands which will inevitably lead to bankruptcy."

The booklet also took a smack at the U.S. Post Office, Department for what it called "discriminatory action" in not giving the carrier more Florida business.

In Jacksonville, meanwhile, unions removed pickets from the electromotive division (EMD) of General Motors Co. which has been working on two FEC locomotives. The pickets, which appeared Monday, were withdrawn when union leaders found EMD workers would violate their contract if they continued to honor the picket line.

Printers Move Near Deadline

NEW YORK (UPI) — Striking printers moved closer today to a deadline of "several days" set by their international union leaders to end the stalemate in the city's 103-day newspaper shutdown.

Milk Control Decision Nears

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Florida Milk Commission is expected to decide today whether it will end all price controls on milk in the state once and for all, or extend the controls to the wholesale level.

Commission Chairman Charles O. Andrews said Tuesday night after a day-long debate that he would probably ask for a vote on both questions at the end of today's session. Today's testimony was expected to be mostly pro-price control.

Tuesday, distributors claimed that the price controls were ruining them financially, and one agriculture expert said Florida's milk industry "is in a mess."

Roland W. Bartlett, professor of agricultural economics at the University of Illinois, said Tuesday night Florida's milk prices are too high and that "cost of production is not a sound basis for pricing."

Embassy Probes Yank Beating

MADRID (UPI) — The United States embassy today opened an investigation into charges an American photographer was beaten by Spanish police after he became involved in a riot over hot dog pictures.

Larry Shaw of New York photographer for Argony magazine, said he was struck several times by Spanish police when the riot ended. He and four other Americans were roughed up by the mob.

Remove Wreckage

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) said yesterday it has virtually completed removing the wreckage of a crashed jetliner from the Florida Everglades. It called the operation one of the most difficult airlifts in history.

Charges and counter-charges before, during and after spiced Tuesday's election of three Council members in the Town of North Orlando.

The Herald received telephone calls Monday and Tuesday claiming the election was "rigged." Two losing candidates proclaimed Tuesday evening, after the count, they will file protest with Gov. Farris Bryant.

Preliminary claims were that a sign was in the voting room pointing to write-in ballots would be allowed, in keeping with the Town charter. It is understood this sign was removed during the voting Tuesday.

Losing candidates Henry Ward and Reginald Webster, defeated by Irene Van Eepoel, aimed their blasts at a voting registrar, Mrs. Fred Salter.

Three Sailors Shot To Death

MIDWAY ISLAND (UPI) — Three sailors were shot to death on this mid-Pacific island Tuesday in what naval authorities described as an apparent double slaying and suicide.

Names of the victims were withheld pending notification of next of kin.

The Navy said two sentries were found shot to death at their posts shortly after they reported everything "secure" early Tuesday morning.

A third sentry, two rifles and a pistol were missing from the post.

Several hours later, the sailor was found dead of apparently self-inflicted gunshot wounds in an abandoned bunker on the two-square-mile island, 1,300 miles northwest of Honolulu. The missing weapons lay beside him.

FBI May Move In On Rigging

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI) — U. S. Atty. Macon I. Weaver said today he asked the Federal Bureau of Investigation to see if the Saturday Evening Post violated federal law by publishing a story based on an overheard telephone conversation.

The Post, in its current issue, carries an article saying former Georgia athletic director Wallace Butts and Alabama athletic director and football coach Paul Bryant rigged the 1962 football game between the schools. The story was based on an alleged telephone conversation between the two men that was overheard by a third man.

La Mantia, were the voting judges, named by the Town Council.

Ward charged, after the count was announced Tuesday evening, that he was "instructed how to vote" by Mrs. Salter. He charged the election was illegal and added that "Mrs. Salter said I could not make a write-in vote."

He was supported by Webster, who said he would join Ward in filing a protest of an illegal election with Governor Bryant.

The voting judges announced the count of the registered candidates and refused a request by the press for a count on the write-in candidates. The press was informed there were no write-in ballots and "besides they are in a sealed envelope."

$1.3 Million More Scheduled For NAS

A $1.3 million construction program for the Sanford Naval Air Station was approved today by the House Armed Services Committee, it was reported to The Herald by Congressman A. S. Herlong Jr.

This is in addition to the $1,138,000 approved by the full House last week, the Congressman reported.

Both items are included in a $15 billion military construction bill.

The $1.3 million item reported today is for construction of barracks and for training facilities, Herlong said.

The $1,138,000 item is for an aircraft parking apron and for a squadron hangar, office and shop complex.

Congressman Herlong also stated he had been informed by the U. S. Civil Service Commission that it has recalled the entire eligibility list of candidates for Sanford's postmastership for an investigation into the backgrounds of all who submitted applications.

Tornadoes Rip Through Dixie

United Press International Rivers on the rise today menaced residents of the Ohio River Valley in the wake of torrential thunderstorms and damaging winds.

Snow slugged northern Michigan and heavy snow warnings were posted for the Northeast.

Tornadoes, hail and violent winds scored parts of Alabama, Mississippi and Tennessee Monday, causing widespread damage.

Weston, W. Va., was on an emergency status. Volunteer workers were called out to aid more than 100 families forced from their homes by the rising West Fork River.

Nearly 30 patients at Weston's Stonewall Jackson hospital were moved to safety when several inches of water covered the first floor of the hospital. Water was five feet deep in some areas of the city.

Other cities in West Virginia and southwestern Pennsylvania braced for new flooding after driving rain storms dropped up to 2 1/2 inches of water on the area Tuesday.

The Weather Bureau warned of flooding along the entire length of the Monongahela River in Pennsylvania. The swollen river, fed by heavy rains and runoff, was expected to run as much 10 feet above flood stage at Brownsville, Elizabeth and Charleston.

The Ohio River was to pass the 25 foot flood stage at Pittsburgh by noon today. More than 600 persons fled the rising Ohio in southern Illinois.

The Hocking River in Ohio was rising and authorities feared it would reach two feet above flood stage at the college town of Athens, which was virtually isolated. It suffered more than $1 million damage less than three weeks ago.

Strong northerly winds dumped heavy snow across northern Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan today, with Houghton, Mich., getting 3 inches of fresh snow during the night.

More than 6 inches of new snow was predicted for northern New York, New Hampshire, Vermont and Maine.

Tornadoes, hail storms and high winds across Indiana and the Southland Tuesday caused thousands of dollars of damage.

Three persons were killed in Indiana by raging storms. A tornado demolished four homes near Crete, Ind., and caused an estimated $30,000 damage.

Winds up to 70 miles an hour ripped through Highland County, Ohio, flattening barns and tumbling telephone lines.

A twister at Decatur, Ala., destroyed several airplanes at an airfield; a tornado near Eupora, Miss., caused $3,000 in damages to several barns and homes; winds of tornadoic force ripped apart a feed mill, a drive-in theater and took the roofs of a dozen buildings at Alban, Ky., causing an estimated $250,000 damage.

No deaths were recorded in the South although several persons were reported injured.

Syria Promises Iron Fist Policy

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—The national council of the revolutionary command in Syria has vowed to "strike with an iron fist and without any mercy" those who oppose the revolution. Damascus radio reported today.

Reports reaching here from Damascus said there appears to be a growing split between the military junta that seized control last Friday and a large section of the civilian population.

She will study geology and physics this summer, the mother of three children said and begin her fifth year at All Souls next year. (Herald Photo)

Kiwanis Plan Freeze Proof Shrubbery Sale

A sale of freeze-proof shrubbery will be held for the next two weekends in Fern Park and Maitland by members of the South Seminole-North Orlando Kiwanis Club, chairman Charles Gatling announced today.

This shrubbery which includes podocarpus, ligustrum and pittosporum will withstand the coldest winters, even freezing and maintain its fresh green beauty almost the year round.

Most of the plants will be from two to three feet high, cutting and will sell for a very attractive price. This is the first big money-raising project of the club, which was chartered in March, 1962, and proceeds will go toward the Kiwanis youth work, one of their main projects. David Seltzer is assisting Gatling in the planning of the shrubbery sale. Sale sites will be in Fern Park, just south of the Winter Park Federal Savings and Loan and in Maitland, just south of the Forest Stone Fruit Shippers offices.

Air Patrol Cadets Set To Hold Car Wash

The Cadets of the South Seminole Composite Squadron are holding a "car wash" all day in Cassberry, at "Ed's Standard Oil Service Station" on Hwy 1792, Saturday.

Funds raised by this event will be used to purchase training books and other items the cadets need in their program. The Commander of the South Seminole Composite Squadron, Henry A. Ward Jr. announced the appointment of Senior Member Jack O'Donnell as Executive Officer of the unit. O'Donnell's services to the squadron have been outstanding, and he has been a credit to the Civil Air Patrol program, Ward said.

Science Fair Slated Thursday

Science projects in biology, chemistry, physics and mechanical drawing will highlight the annual Science Fair to be held at the Science Wing of Seminole High School, Thursday.

Students will be exhibiting over 300 displays of descriptive and impressive scientific theories and facts, which they have been able to turn into demonstrations.

Parents and interested persons are invited to visit the Science Wing (the north wing) of the school between 10 a.m. and 7 p.m. Thursday, by the science teachers who are:

Don Reynolds, biology teacher and head of the science department; Paul Hickerson, chemistry; Russell Pearson, physics; James Harden, science; and Robert Schmidt, mechanical drawing.

Some of the students have been researching and working all year on their projects, Hickson said today.

Among the displays will be some such as that by Norman Leach which shows the effect of radiation on animals; the effects of encephalitis or (sleeping sickness) by Linda Spencer; the products derived from oil by John Jernigan and Jimmy Page; how soap is made by Dayne Clemmer and Vance Brumbagh; a display of how crystals are formed and many, many others too numerous to mention here.

Prizes will be awarded by various civic and scientific organizations in the interest of furthering the work of the young scientists.

AN INCREDIBLE NUMBER of products used every day are made from oil and petroleum. Visitors to the Science Fair at Seminole High School will see some of them Thursday. Hours are from 10 a.m. to 7 p.m. (Herald Photo)

Arrest Miamian For Doping Dogs

MIAMI (UPI)—A sixth man sought on charges of doping greyhounds at a west Florida dog track surrendered to the FBI today.

The FBI said David J. Miles, 47, of Miami, was arrested when he walked into the FBI office here. He had been sought since early February, when the state attorney general's office here charged the others.

Miles and the others are accused of doping dogs at the Fort Myers-Bonita Springs track near Naples. Those already arrested are Kennedy W. Griffin, Walter E. Cantrell, Hiram Parnell, David Park, and Hyburn Tanner, all of Dade County.

New Cafetorium Set

By Jane Casselberry School Superintendent R. T. Milwee told members of the South Seminole PTA recently that construction on the cafetorium for the school will begin next month.

Work on the addition of the band room and science wing at Lyman High and construction of the new English Estates Elementary School are also scheduled to begin at the same time, Milwee said.

Construction is not expected to be completed on the Junior High cafetorium and the English Estates School until October however, and students and teachers scheduled to move to the new school will probably be on double sessions at the South Seminole Elementary School until completion, he added.

Milwee and members of his staff met with the PTA at their recent meeting to explain the duties of the school board members and explained sources of revenue by which schools are maintained for the 14,000 school children in the county's 22 schools.

W. H. DeShazo, superintendent of secondary education said that there is a need for more science course for Junior High School level and said that students show weakness in the field of mathematics, which is also true nationally.

W. W. Wharton, coordinator of guidance and the exceptional child program explained the testing program which allows the children to be grouped with others of the same learning ability.

Stewart Gatchel, director of instruction discussed school accreditation and admitted some shortage of books.

He explained that the rapid advances in science make many textbooks obsolete by the time the complicated process of approval and obtaining funds for their purchase is completed.

During the question and answer period, audience interest centered on the subjects of textbooks and the need for improvement of access roads to the school.

Mrs. Charles Dome, president of the PTA announced that 55 Junior High parents are invited to attend the Family Life Institute which will be sponsored this week by the Lyman PTA.

Adult discussion meetings will be conducted by Dr. Douglas Brown of Florida State University at 7:30 p.m. tonight, at Lyman, at the Casselberry Community Methodist Church, Wednesday at 2 p.m. and at the Altamonte Springs Elementary School Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Dr. Brown will also speak to the Junior High classes, Thursday a.m.

UF Names Four To New Board

Four new directors were elected to the three-year board of directors of the United Fund of Seminole County at a recent meeting.

New members include Mrs. D. M. Ladd, Geneva; R. W. Keogh, Lake Mary; John Border Jr., Fern Park; Arthur Beckwith Jr., Sanford and Paul D. Lewis Jr., Sanford.

Re-elected directors included George Touby, B. L. Perkins Jr., Randall Chase, Edward Kirchhoff and Mrs. Ralph A. Smith.

Test Ban Critics Hit

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Hubert H. Humphrey said today that GOP critics who claim the administration's test ban proposals would leave a "big hole" uncovered are just exposing a "big hole" in their logic.

Humphrey was replying to a claim by Rep. Craig Hosmer, (D-Calif.), that the test ban proposal would let Russia conduct underground nuclear tests undetected in a "big hole" embracing two and a half million square miles of the Russian interior.

"If our position is as bad as Hosmer says . . . If it is as weak and full of holes, then why don't the Russians accept it?" Humphrey wondered.

He called the Republican criticism "irresponsible, misleading and mischievous." Hosmer, he said, based his contention on assumptions "which are false."

Other congressional news: AID: Chairman Otto E. Passman, (D-La.), of the House Foreign Aid Appropriations subcommittee called for a $2.4 billion cut in President Kennedy's aid proposals. He said this would show the world "we are no longer going to be suckers."

TAXES: The American Farm Bureau Federation told the House Ways & Means Committee it will oppose a tax cut this year unless Congress cuts even more out of President Kennedy's spending proposals than Republicans are talking about.

BUDGET: House Republicans Tuesday, pledged to support their leaders' attempts to cut at least $4.5 billion from President Kennedy's record high $98.5 billion budget.

But GOP Leader Charles A. Halleck, Ind., told newsmen that the out-numbered Republicans will have no chance of making such cuts without Democratic help.

BUTTER: A big New York butter distributor and a spokesman for 9,000 dairy farmers in New York and New Jersey proposed that consumer subsidies be used to drive down butter prices at the same time the prices are being held up by farm subsidies.

The two appeared before a House agriculture subcommittee as it began a search for ways to curb dairy surpluses.

Hope Cooke Marries Her Prince Charming

GANGTOK, Sikkim (UPI)—Hope Cooke, a 22-year-old American girl just out of college, today became crown princess of this exotic Himalayan principality in a solemn Buddhist wedding performed by 14 lamas.

The bridegroom, Crown Prince Palden Thosup Namgyal, smiled as he leaned over from his throne to help his diminutive brunette bride unwind a long white silk scarf from around her neck to complete the ancient ceremony in the royal palace.

He thus transformed Miss Cooke into Her Highness Princess Hope of Sikkim, "consort of the deities."

Princess Hope, an Episcopalian, watched with a faint smile as her second cousin, John H. Humphreys of New York, sealed the match by placing a similar white scarf around the neck of the 39-year-old crown prince.

Quads Born In Naples

NAPLES, Italy (UPI)—Quadruplets—two girls and two boys—were born recently to a 35-year-old Neapolitan woman.

For Rosa Rea, wife of unemployed laborer Rocco Guadagni, it was the fourth delivery and the couple's fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh children.

A mother polar bear weighs more than 700 pounds, but her cubs weigh less than two pounds at birth and are only about 10 inches long.

McCloskey Re-Elected Fair Assn. 'Prexy'

John F. McCloskey was re-elected president of the Fair Assn. at a meeting Monday, when the final report of the 1962 fair was made and new officers elected for the next year.

Cecil Carlton was elected first vice president, Dan Ritzie and Frank Holmes, second vice presidents, and Chet Macek, honorary vice president.

Karlyle Housholder was named secretary of the group and John L. Galloway, treasurer.

New directors Joel Field, Robert Mahan, John Armstrong, George Maybury and Slim Galloway were named by the group.

Arabs Plan Rocket System, Israeli Say

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Israeli military experts said today the United Arab Republic plans to have a rocket system operational by this summer, after carrying out its initial development in Switzerland.

The reports by local military sources came in the midst of reaction to the arrest in Zurich March 2 of two alleged Israeli agents by Swiss authorities.

The two men, identified as Yosef Ben-Gal, an Israeli education and cultural ministry official, and Otto Juklek, an Austrian chemical engineer, were accused of threatening a West German rocket scientist who allegedly was working with the U.A.R.

Israeli foreign minister Mrs. Golda Meir was scheduled to report to the Knesset (Parliament) Foreign Affairs and Security Committee later in the day on the details of the case.

Sources said the Israeli government was particularly concerned about Swiss Authorities holding Ben-Gal incommunicado for 18 days and were likely to continue representations to the Swiss.

The Israeli Ambassador in Bern was permitted to see Ben-Gal today for the first time, it was reported.

Missing Tanker Hearing Opens

NEW YORK (UPI) — A three-man Coast Guard Board of Inquiry opens hearings today on the disappearance last month of the Marine Sulphur Queen and her crew of 29 men.

The Board last held hearings on the matter March 7 in Beaumont, Tex., the port from which the vessel sailed on Feb. 2 en route to Norfolk, Va., with a cargo of molten sulphur.

The ship apparently vanished off the Florida coast in the Gulf of Mexico, where some flotsam from the tanker has been found.

At the final Beaumont hearing, A. F. Normand, an official of the Sperry Gyroscope Co., told the board, "To the best of my knowledge the Sulphur Queen's navigation equipment was in good shape."

Crime Having More Success, RFK Declares

CHICAGO (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy said Tuesday organized crime has had "more success" in recent years in making contacts with public officials, labor unions and lawyers—particularly lawyers.

"And more and more gangsters are going into 'respectable' business," he said.

Kennedy said the organized crime infestation has reached into "all major cities, not only Chicago, but Detroit, St. Louis, Kansas City, New York—with the possible exception of the West Coast, especially Los Angeles."

Native habitat of the polar bear is the ice-covered Arctic region, but the animal takes to captivity quite well and can be kept in zoos while some animals from more temperate climates cannot.

Won't Take Exam, Sonny Advisors Say

The Sanford Herald Page 8—Wed. Mar. 20, '63

by Bill Vincent Jr.

Well, a howdy to all you fishermen. And a howdy to all this nice warm weather. It's really great for fishing. But it seems like no one is going fishing. Instead every one is going to the beaches. And a large number of these folks are from Sanford.

Sunday at New Smyrna Beach 20,000 people were counted. And a large number of these were from the Sanford area.

John Crim said the shad fishing is off and that the shad fishermen have disappeared at Crim's camp Saturday. Boyl Donaldson of Sea Island, Ga., and his brother got themselves a nice catch of 27 shad, with 14 roe.

Attention all boaters: On May 3 the St. John's River Marathon will be held on Lake Monroe. Instead of the Sanford-to-Jacksonville race. The event will consist of three big races, with the first and second races being 1 1/2 hours in time and the third race being 100 miles in length in an eight-mile oval.

On June 1 and 2 the annual Central Florida Cruise will be run to DeLeon Springs.

All boaters will stay or camp at DeLeon Springs and return to Sanford. This is a family cruise and every member of the family can go along for the fun.

The big Pirate Cruise this year will be from Daytona Beach to Jacksonville, to Palatka and on down to Sanford. From Aug. 31 to Labor Day the trip from Daytona Beach to Jacksonville will be run up the Inland Waterway, which is salt water.

I just called Jim Crowe and he reports that the fishing is kinda slack and if this warm weather keeps up the shad fishing will only last about two more weeks. Jim also tells me that the fish survey of the U. S. Commercial Fisheries shad bureau in the vicinity doing some research on how many are being caught.

Just a note to the bass fishermen that the bass are starting to school in Lake Monroe, Woodruff Creek and around the streams and rivers in the lower St. Johns River basin.

Well, I guess I will grab my cane pole and head for the river and try my luck at any kind of fishing. So will see you later.

ONE OF THE FAVORITES . . . Tony Murgulin of Key West, Fla., rates high among the favorites to win the 200-mile AMA national road race at Daytona International Speedway on Sunday, March 31. More than 100 crack experts will battle for the $12,000 in prize money.

Midge Woods Paces Sandspur Keglers

Midge Woods, of McRoberts Tire, was high bowler in the Sandspurs League last action. She led her team with a 170-536 series to a three-point victory over Alix of Sanford.

Peggy Stewart was the top gal for Jet Inn, coming through with a 186-526 and spurring the team on to a four-point win from Stempers' Ideal Estate.

Welsh Tire Shop topped three wins from Factory Paint Outlet. It was Marge Kipp, of Welsh's, who led in this contest with a nice 198-563.

Eleanor Anderson carried the torch for St. John's Realty with a 170-466 as they rung up a three-point win from Pietro Mfg.

The Sandspurs are proud of their showing in the city tournament as two teams, Factory Paint Outlet took top honors and McRoberts came in fourth.

Named AD

FRESNO, Calif. (UPI) — Cecil Coleman, head football coach at Fresno State College the last four seasons, Tuesday was named to serve as the school's athletic director and head of the physical education-recreation division as well.

Harold J. (Hal) Beatty held the latter two posts but he resigned last December.

Fight Board's Order Hit After Meet

MIAMI BEACH (UPI) —

Heavyweight champion Sonny Liston's advisor says he will refuse to comply with the Miami Beach Boxing Commission's order to bring the champ back here for a physical examination Friday.

Jack Nilon, a fiery little Irishman, charged the commission with "discriminating against Sonny" after a special meeting on Tuesday.

Nilon asked for the meeting to seek an "indefinite postponement" of the scheduled April 10 title rematch between Liston and former champ Floyd Patterson.

The fight has already been postponed once—it was moved from April 4 to April 10 when Liston hurt his left knee while swinging a golf club several weeks ago.

Nilon, armed with a battery of medical opinions and accompanied by local physicians, told the five-member commission Tuesday that "if Sonny needs an operation, it may be six months before he can fight."

Lie Detector Test For Butts

ATLANTA (UPI) — An attorney for Wallace Butts said Tuesday the former athletic director at the University of Georgia will take a lie detector test in connection with a report that Butts helped rig the 1962 Georgia-Alabama football game.

William Schroder, Butts' attorney, said Butts will submit to the polygraph test when he under less strain.

A Senate investigator continued to look into the charge that Butts and Alabama Coach Paul Bear Bryant rigged the game.

The charge is contained in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post which reported that Butts furnished Georgia plays and other secrets to Bryant before the game. Both Bryant and Butts have denied the charge.

DeLand Dumps Sanford, 5-1

The Sanford Seminoles out-

hit DeLand four hits to three but turned out on the losing end in the run column as the Bulldogs nipped the locals, 5-1.

It was the first loss of the season for Sanford against two wins.

Hutch Hiser hurled for Sanford giving up only three hits. Sanford's next game is against Lakeview here Friday.

Smith Fans Eight As Lyman Wins

Lyman's Dennis Smith struck out eight men, scattered four hits to lead the Greyhounds to a 5-2 victory over Father Lopez Tuesday in baseball play.

It was the fourth straight victory for the locals as they pounded out eight hits including a home run by Paul Blackford.

Lyman broke a scoreless tie with two runs in the third, added another in the fourth and led the tilt with two more in the sixth.

Denny Mac On SOKC 'Spot'

Denny Mac, track champion by virtue of being the winningest greyhound at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, is on the spot when he shoots for his ninth victory in the featured ninth race tonight.

He failed to score in his last two outings and if that happens tonight it will give Mystery Tamer a chance to tie his score in the evening's nightcap.

Incidentally tonight's tenth race is one of the best long races of the season. It is rated Grade T and sends Grade A and Grade H greyhounds over the long 3.8ths-mile course. It is just the distance Mystery Tamer likes and he will be trying for his seventh marathon win, his eighth win of the season.

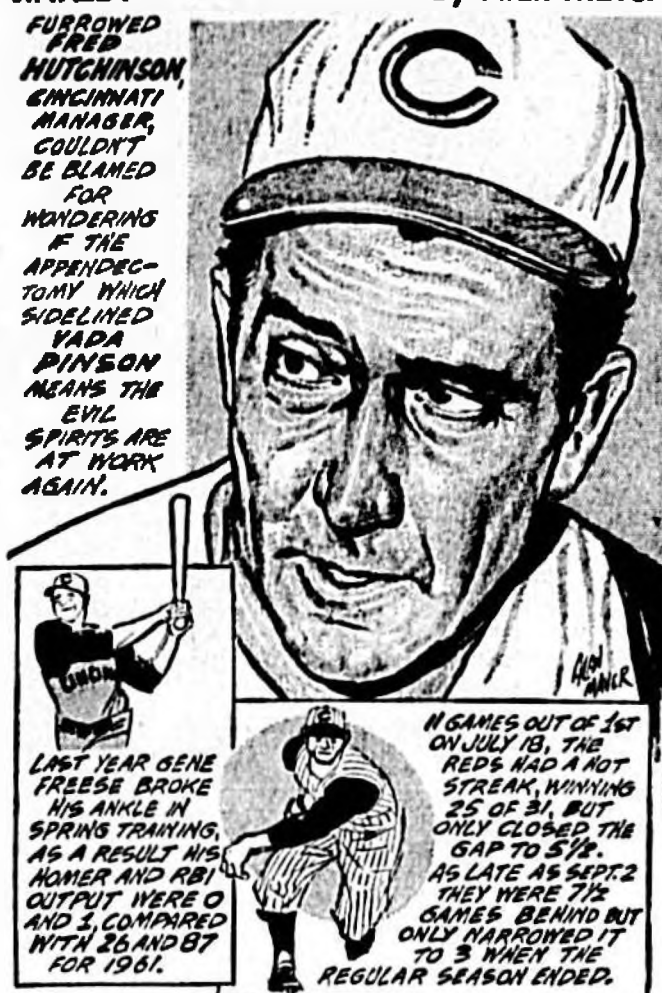

His most dangerous opponent appears to be C.H. Scott's Little Rhonda, who goes to the post a 5 to 2 favorite on the morning line. Both Mystery Tamer and Little Rhonda are famous for their terrific stretch drives.

Legion Takes Four Points

First place American Legion won four points from fifth place Wheeler Fertilizer in recent Jet Lanes Keglers League action. Second place O K Tire won all four from fourth place Team 4. Third place Bill & Louise's Tavern played two close games to win all four points from seventh place Riksha Inn. Kwik White split a 2-2 with Team 2.

High game and series was rolled by Ed Michalek, 205-265-576, for Kwik White. Other good games or series were Bob Steele, 201-561; Clyde Plevy, 202-573; Clifford Proctor, 519; George Swann, 512, all American Legion; Dick Christie, 511, O K Tire, and W. A. Ward, 503, Wheeler's.

Faulk, Batson Take First in Golf Play

Bill Faulk and Essie Batson took first place in the Mixed Scotch foursome at the Mayfair Sunday.

In second place was Andy Carraway and Marion Cox. Other results showed: Sonny Powell and Blanche Nicely, third; George Nicely and Grace Sayles, fourth; Will Bauman and Susy Dickey, fifth; Bill Bergstedt and Jean Faulk, sixth; Charles Park and Kathy Park, seventh; Frank Durze and Dot Dossie, eighth; Art Westley, who shot a hole-in-one on the 10th hole, and Myrtle Adams, ninth.

Other finishers were Al Stafford and Min Keenan, 10th, and Jim deJanahl and Cecile Heard, 11th.

Providence Gains In Play

NEW YORK (UPI) — Ray Flynn, a protege of former pro star of Bill Sharman, has advanced Providence College into the semifinals of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament against Marquette and bolstered the Friars' chances of winning the classic for the second time in three years.

"This is a better team than our team that won the NIT in 1961," said the 6-2, 180-pound Flynn, who scored 38 points in second-round Providence's 106-90 victory over Miami of Florida Tuesday night.

Most Valuable

NEW YORK (UPI) — It wasn't much of a season for little Lorne (Gump) Worsley, having to stop all that rubber, but he was rewarded in part today when the New York Hockey Writers Association named him winner of the West Side Association Award as the Rangers' most valuable player.

Tigers Cocky

United Press International Manager Bob Scheffing of the Detroit Tigers claims "we'll beat those dam-Yankees" if Al Kaline and Frank Lary shake off 1962 injuries.

The Bengal boss can stop worrying about Kaline, who missed 62 games last season because of a fractured collar bone but still managed to hit .304, slug 28 home runs and knock in 91 runs.

In an exhibition game against the Los Angeles Dodgers Tuesday at Lakeland, Fla., Kaline raised his spring average to .382 by collecting four singles in an 8-3 romp. It was the Tigers' fifth victory in a row and raised their exhibition record to 7-4.

Lary, though, is another matter. Hampered by a sore shoulder last season, the veteran right-hander won only two games after his big 1961 campaign when he posted a 23-9 record. In two outings this spring, Lary has given up 11 hits and six runs in six innings.

The rugged Alabamian was so concerned about his ability to bounce back that he agreed not to sign his 1963 contract until he was sure of his condition. He finally came to terms Tuesday, accepting a $3,000 cut to $35,000.

"I know I haven't pitched too good in the exhibitions but my arm hasn't hurt at all," Lary told General Manager Jim Campbell, who said he was convinced that Frank was throwing with a free and easy motion.

The Baltimore Orioles, who also have grown tired of chasing the Yankees in the American League pennant race, extended their unbeaten exhibition record to 10 games Tuesday by edging the Chicago White Sox, 4-3, at Sarasota, Fla.

Luis Aparicio tripped to touch off a three-run explosion against his former White Sox teammates in the first inning. The Orioles picked up their winning run in the third on singles by Brooks Robinson and Jim Gentile and a wild pitch. Steve Barber hurled the first seven innings for Baltimore, allowing two runs and six hits while fanning six.

The Yankees, who can't win for losing, dropped a 9-5 verdict to the Kansas City Athletics.

Let People Vote On Bond Program--Karl

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—State Rep. Frederick Karl said Tuesday Florida should not undertake any long-term bond financing program for state construction without specific approval of the people.

Karl said if the Legislature decides to follow Gov. Farris Bryant's "pay as you use" concept on university construction, he will insist it be submitted to the people in the form of a constitutional amendment that would also require that the bonds be sold on open, competitive bids.

"So basic a change in Florida's pattern of financing should not be made solely by legislative act or executive fiat," the Daytona Beach legislator said in an interview.

Bryant proposed that the Legislature pay for university expansion over a 20-year period through sale of revenue certificates, totaling between $50 million and $100 million, backed by revenue from a special tax.

At Bryant's urging, the cabinet several months ago issued $25 million in bonds for university construction, with student fees guaranteeing their retirement. He said he would not undertake a similar program again without specific legislative sanction.

The state's bond program for public school construction was put into the constitution by a vote of the people earmarking a portion of automobile tag revenues to retire the debt.

Karl said a similar approach on university construction would save millions of dollars in interest rates as contrasted to a borrowing program embarked on solely by the Legislature. He said interest rates on revenue certificates for school buildings ranged from 2 1/2 per cent to four per cent, compared to a net interest cost of almost five per cent on state turnpike extension bonds.

"To realize even more savings," Karl said, "the constitutional amendment should provide that any certificates sold under this program must be sold by competitive bidding."

"Negotiated sales provide too many opportunities for experienced financiers to negotiate the state into an unfavorable position involving high net interest costs and concealed agreements. Open competitive bidding guarantees ultimate protection of public interest and public funds."

Karl termed the governor's newly-coined phrase of "pay as you use" nothing more than a Madison Avenue slogan for "deficit spending." Karl said he prefers "pay as you go" and personally feels increased revenue from tax sources, coupled with increased economy and elimination of waste will meet the state needs without bonds.

But, he said, "if Florida is to go into debt to meet its capital outlay needs, then it should be done only with the full knowledge and approval of the people and under a plan that will afford the very lowest interest rate."

New Assistant

SOUTH BEND, Ind. (UPI)—Notre Dame Athletic Director Moose Krause has announced the addition of Dave Hurd as assistant football coach under Hugh Devore. Hurd had been line coach at John Carroll University the last two years.

School Lunch, School Nurse Work Together

County Health Nurses work in close harmony with school lunch programs to enrich the learning experiences of Seminole County school children through the use of Visual Aids, Mrs. Ruby Davis, Southside lunchroom manager said today.

Mrs. Evelyn Hayes, County Health Nurse visits Southside, Monroe, Wilson, Pinecrest, Lake Mary, Longwood and Westside grammar schools regularly to check with principals, health coordinators, teachers and as often as necessary the school lunch managers as to the illnesses of pupils, the Free Lunch program and anything pertaining to the health and welfare of the children," she added.

Other nurses who are assigned to the various schools in the county perform similar services, as needed including the showing of films, checking eyes, ears, etc. The nurses help to see that no person, either adult or student is allowed to work in any of the school lunch departments without a valid health card signed by the local Health Officer, Mrs. Davis noted.

During the 1962-63 pre-school planning period a list of the visual aids available to the schools through the Health Department was studied and selections carefully made. They were then placed on order by the School Nurse to arrive at the time they would be of most help, Mrs. Davis said.

At South Side those films especially related to the health of the child through the food they eat are presented by the nurse and the school lunch manager who make appropriate comments or give necessary information, she emphasized.

The children benefit greatly from the films as they emphasized many of the good health habits the classroom teacher has already stressed. With the ever increasing interest in physical fitness, parents can rest assured the local Health Department and the school lunch program are doing their bit to keep the children healthy and well informed, Mrs. Davis commented.

Mrs. Whitley Honored At Bridal Shower

By Mrs. E. L. Johnson
Mrs. Carl Chorpensing and Mrs. Earl Dossey were co-hostesses for a recent bridal shower, honoring Mrs. Jack Whitley, the former Miss Grace Edwards.

The party was held at the Dossey home. Party rooms were decorated with spring flowers and the dining table, overlaid with a white linen cloth, held a large punch bowl and a three-tiered wedding cake, complete with orange blossoms and wisteria decorations.

Bridal games were played by the guests and prizes were won by Mrs. M. Hoopengardner, Mrs. Charles Baker and Mrs. C. Myer. Mrs. Whitley is one of the school bus drivers in the Sanford area and most of the guests were other bus drivers and friends of the honoree.

Following the gift opening, game period and a session of talking, the hostess served refreshments of cake, punch, mints and nuts to the 25 guests attending.

Mrs. T. J. Cann Hostess For VAH-7 Bridge

Members of the VAH-7 Officers Wives Club met at the Idyllwilds home of Mrs. T. J. Cann for the monthly bridge session.

Mrs. Cann's mother, Mrs. A. Marple, of Pensacola, joined the Peacemakers for the evening. Mrs. R. L. Wright was high score winner and Mrs. G. F. Schneider won the "booby" prize.

Others attending were Mrs. L. A. Heath, O. W. McGuire, W. C. Holton and R. E. Lavender.

Personals

Dr. and Mrs. Walter Haynes and two children, of Columbus, Ohio, were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Haynes. They left for a trip to Nassau and enroute home will stop in Sanford for another visit.

Miss Buckner, T. D. Threewit Married In Home Ceremony

Miss Sharon Kay Buckner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herschel Vernon Buckner, and Terry Dean Threewit, son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Eugene Threewit, of Tachikawa, Japan, were married Feb. 26 at 2:30 p.m. at the home of the bride's parents on the Old Orlando Highway.

Rev. Billie Hamilton Griffin, pastor of the Elder Springs Baptist Church, officiated at the double ring ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of white lace, over satin, with scoop neckline, long sleeves and white accessories. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a crown of seed pearls and she carried a cascade bouquet of white carnations.

Miss Wilma Buckner, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a light blue dress, with white accessories and carried a bouquet of pink carnations.

Billie E. Tucker served as best man. The bride's mother wore a light blue linen dress with matching jacket, white accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. William F. Buckner, on the old Orlando Highway. The party rooms were decorated with white wedding bells, streamers, floral arrangements and candles.

Refreshments of cake, punch and candy were served to those attending. The reception was a joint celebration, as the grandparents were celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary. The bride and groom had a three-tiered wedding cake and the Buckners had a special cake in honor of their anniversary.

Assisting in the serving and entertaining were Miss

Cordens Enjoy Visit From Friends

By Frances Wester
Guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Corden, in Lake Mary for a few days, were Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Rowley, from Pittsford, Mich.

Pittsford is Mr. and Mrs. Corden's former home town. The Rowleys spent the past two months in Bonita Springs, and stopped to visit with their friends in Lake Mary on their way back home.

The group enjoyed reminiscing about the good times they had had together, and catching up on the news since they last saw each other.

Surveys show youngsters like pretty, washable throw rugs. Mothers like them, too, because they can literally throw these rugs into a washing machine.

Ethel Root Circle Plans Lenten Suppers

The Ethel Root Circle met recently in the Fellowship Hall of the Congregational Church for their regular business and social meeting.

President, Miss Ruby Booth called the meeting to order followed by the Lord's Prayer. Mrs. Ralph Loring presented the first part of a very interesting book review on "Dear and Glorious Physician" by Taylor Caldwell. This is an authentic story of Luke from childhood and was enjoyed by everyone. Other installments will be given during future meetings.

Lenten suppers were discussed, the first Thursday to be sponsored by the Diocesan, and the ladies of this circle will sponsor the following Thursday supper.

Mrs. Norma Cook, hostess for the evening served delicious refreshments of apple and cherry turnovers, salted nuts, tea and coffee to the 14 members and one guest Mrs. Walter Barton from Ohio.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Edward Woods.

Karen Nelson, Miss Gayle Nelson, Miss Dorothy Williams and Miss Wilma Buckner.

The couple has returned from their wedding trip and are now residing in Longwood.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Buckner, Doyle Buckner and Miss Joanne Page, all of Chicago Heights, Ill.; Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Buckner, St. Louis, Mo.; Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Buckner, Licking, Mo.; Miss Dorothy Williams, Virgin Islands, and Mrs. Vernon Jones and Mrs. Wayne Johnson of Jacksonville.

An informal discussion was held on safety problems which the men face with every trip and also the effects of "work rules" changes resulting in loss of jobs.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments of coconut cake and lime ice cream punch. Others present were Misses Ronald Brooks, H. E. Turner, Harold Keeling, J. A. Calhoun and R. R. Eisenhoff.

The regular monthly meeting of the VAH-7 Tigerettes is scheduled for this Thursday at the home of Mrs. William Davis, 164 Pinecrest Drive.

The business session will start at 8 p.m. On the business agenda will be discussion of plans for coffee, luncheons and definite plans will be made for the annual Easter egg hunt for the children.

All wives of VAH-7 enlisted personnel interested in the club are invited to attend.

First Birthday Celebrated

By Jane Casselberry
Jimmy Hamilton, young son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hamilton, 213 East Thomas Dr., Casselberry, celebrated his first birthday Saturday afternoon, with a party at his home.

Young guests included Laurie Ann Dempsey, Wayne Gregory, Tommy Herald, Sally Schuckert, and Debbie and Pamme Jordan of Casselberry and Lee and Chickie Dearolf of Longwood.

They enjoyed playing with toys and balloons and eating refreshments of birthday cake, ice cream and lollipops. Home movies were made of the proceedings by Jimmy's proud parents.

Osteen Personals

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Deloite of Chicago, Ill., are spending a month with their cousins, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Staley and Mrs. Rose Doyle.

Mrs. Robert Williams is in Orlando at the home of her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Hopper, for a week. Mr. and Mrs. Hopper are the parents of a daughter born March 11 in Orange Memorial Hospital. They have another daughter, Phyllis, who is eight years old.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Stoepher have received word of the death of his brother, in Grand Rapids, Mich.

Ladies Society Presents Safety Program

Mrs. C. H. Goethe, president of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Engineers, was hostess for the monthly business and social meeting of the group.

The yearbook committee, consisting of Mrs. H. J. Tishaw, Mrs. Paul Sefried, Mrs. Walter Cook and Mrs. Alfred Greene, presented the new books to those present.

An informal discussion was held on safety problems which the men face with every trip and also the effects of "work rules" changes resulting in loss of jobs.

During the social hour the hostess served refreshments of coconut cake and lime ice cream punch. Others present were Misses Ronald Brooks, H. E. Turner, Harold Keeling, J. A. Calhoun and R. R. Eisenhoff.

Tigerettes To Meet Thursday

Theta Epsilon Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, Sorority, has recently completed a very successful rush season.

Many styles were modeled and they created many laughs and comments. Mrs. Burt Revels won the prize for the prettiest creation with a tall lamp shade, covered with red net tiers, ruffles and pink roses. Mrs. Rick Walker had the most original hat. It was also a lamp shade, covered with blue feathers and a light bulb which flashed on and off. There were many other artistic entries and Mrs. Dick Houghton was awarded honorable mention.

The next event was a dinner party for the members and their husbands with the rushees and their husbands as honored guests. It was held at the First Reserve Hut, which was decorated in a "Peppermint Lounge" theme. Following the dinner dancing was enjoyed during the evening.

The final event was a model meeting at the home of Mrs. Revels. At the end of the season, rushees are invited to a typical meeting of the sorority. Mrs. Walker gave an interesting talk on the scope of BSP and on display were magazines, a sorority pin, scrap book and other mementoes of interest.

At this meeting the nominating committee presented a slate of officers for the coming year.

all round town!

WITH ... Dollis Higginbotham

MRS. DAVID GATCHEL, known as Patty to all her friends and customers, has been appointed District Four Finance Chairman of Pilot International.

How about that? Citing her leadership of the club the letter informing her of her nomination and appointment, failed to mention the ever-ready smile, the friendly willingness to serve and the never-too-busy-to-help-you personality that has endeared Patty to those who know her.

In her capacity as executive secretary to Gene Tucker, president of the Florida State Bank and an official job of assistant cashier of the bank, Miss Patty (as we say down here) is always trim, neat and pretty, too.

Our congratulations to Patty... we knew they'd find out about her someday.

MANY, MANY THANKS to all of you kind people who sent flowers and cards to cheer me up last week. You'll never know how much I appreciated them. It's good to be missed.

Especially warm thanks to all the nice gentlemen in the Rotary and Kiwanis Clubs for their beautiful flowers and cards. One was a nice potted plant, which will keep on reminding me how nice you are.

And the other... well, you must have known how I love yellow roses! Thanks, folks.

THINGS I NEVER KNEW 'TIL NOW... How many people read the Hospital Notes. Some of you must read the Herald from cover to cover... you don't miss nuthin', do ya'?

FINALLY, I got to hear the Wayfarers (Monday at Rotary) and they really sounded as good as everyone says they do. Cute kids. Love that "body English" Jim Touhy gives. Lynn's cute and there could never be but one Jack Ivey.

THEY HAD A BLAST at the Latin Banquet the other night. I was disappointed I couldn't go.

The Roman masters, their slaves and guests enjoyed a fancy Roman style menu of "finger food" which included barbecued pork chops, whole green beans, Roman bread, and all kinds of fruit and "wines" (It did look a little funny in the paper cups.)

Suggestion for the next Latin banquet: Take some silver foil and wrap it around your paper cup, shape it and twist it and pinch it a little, and you'll have a fancy-looking silver goblet, in keeping with the rest of the atmosphere.

REMEMBER PETE LEVEQUE, who wrote sports for the Herald for a few months between college semesters? Well, he was one of six Southern Methodist U. students to attend a Mid-Atlantic Model UN General Assembly in D. C. recently.

The SMU students represented the Finnish delegation and did a lot of research on Finland, studied copies of speeches actually given in the UN and the state policies of Finland for months ahead of the convention.

Delegations from over 100 other colleges and universities also attended. The meetings of the "General Assembly" were held at Georgetown University, George Washington U. and Howard U. as well as in the Mayflower Hotel, convention headquarters.

I don't know, but would judge from this that our former sports writer must be studying political science.

JANE FLETCHER has a new job. She's been appointed to the staff of the Rollins College Mills Memorial Library.

Jane is an accomplished gal, who attended the U. of Illinois and worked in the Chicago Public Library. She served in the Women's Army Corp and in the office of the Combined Chiefs of Staff, and the Joint Electronics Information Agency.

More recently she has served as wife, mother, Scout leader and numberless other civic, church and Scout activities.

So if you drop by the Mills library, look for our Jane.

Another Dance Planned In DeBary Saturday

The DeBary Volunteer Firemen sponsored a St. Patrick's Dance at the Fire Recreation Hall from 9 p.m. to 1 a.m.

The Hall was decorated with the traditional green shamrocks, high hats and clay pipes, with streamers and soft colored lights from the ceiling. The ball plants were placed to form an open door.

The refreshment crew was kept busy serving frankfurters, coffee, soda and ice. Both young and older dancers enjoyed the variety of selections played by the band. There were twists, rumbas, polkas and waltzes with many up for every dancer.

So many requested another dance soon that next Saturday evening there will be dancing at the Recreation Hall with an invitation to all who wish to attend. A small fee will be asked, and dance music will be tape recordings.

Personsals

By Louise Simunek

Mrs. John Stuart of Hermita Trail has been given the honor of serving as associate conductress at the annual Past Matrons' meeting of the Eastern Star District No. 13 this week at Winter Park.

This district is composed of the chapters from Orlando, Winter Park, St. Cloud, Kissimmee and Apopka.

The neighbors of Mr. and Mrs. Alton Kling and children Cathy Sue and Jimmy, formerly of Grandview Ave., greatly miss this happy family as they recently moved to the new subdivision of Oakland Estates in Altamonte Springs. Friends may now visit them at 115 Edsworth St.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Tyle, 108 Ju Anne Court, Altamonte Springs, have had as their guests his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Schak of Detroit, Mich., whom they had not seen for eight years.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Last year my husband started carrying on with another woman. He confessed and promised he'd make it up to me. I wanted to believe him because we have five children. Well, last August he came home with lipstick on his lips and behind his ear. I blew my top, but he begged for one more chance so I forgave him. He was fine until a few weeks ago. I started to see lipstick on his pillow case. (I stopped wearing lipstick to be sure it wasn't mine.) I've been putting these lipstick marked pillow cases aside. Should I show them to him and let him lie his way out of it? Or should I just see a lawyer? Answer soon as I am running out of pillow cases.

I am a liar and a thief. What to do? WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: You will have to rebuild your mother's trust in you. This may take a long time. You can succeed by being 100 percent honest in all things. And what's this about "paying" a boy to do your biology drawings for you? If it was done without the knowledge of your teacher, you might have to rebuild "trust" at school, too.

DEAR ABBY: Whatever happened to soft, silky hair? I spent several years in the service and fought my way through several barbed wire entanglements, but I never thought I'd be sleeping by one. Any advice for a puzzled husband?

DEAR HURT: Show your husband the pillow cases. Then launder them, and ask your HUSBAND to come clean — and to stay clean this time.

DEAR ABBY: I took some money from the place my mother had hidden. I had to pay a boy for doing some biology drawings for me. I intended to work and put it back before my mother missed it, but she missed it first. She took my driver's license away from me and says she is going to tell my father. She thinks

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

In spite of his bidding South was an expert card player. Unfortunately, he was also a hand hog. Otherwise, he would have let his partner wrap up three notrump. I cashed my king and ace of hearts. My partner had opened the three, dropped the deuce on the second lead and I knew he was ready to ruff. It was also apparent that unless my partner held the king of clubs declarer would have the rest of the tricks, but if my partner held that card declarer would have to guess between a club and a diamond finesse.

So I could play the ten of hearts to ask for a diamond return or the five to ask for a club return. I decided that South was in a mood to play me for a double cross so I carefully placed the ten of hearts on the table. My partner ruffed and led back a diamond as I had asked. South glared at me for a while and finally remarked "That was too obvious. You can't have the king of diamonds." Then he played the jack from dummy and another game contract had hit the dust.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

Americans have become a nation of weight watchers and calorie counters. From a health standpoint and even from an esthetic one, that's all to the good.

But why, oh why, do so many Americans insist on doing their calorie counting out loud, to the point where they are no longer even gracious guests?

A hostess will knock herself out to provide a gourmet dinner. As hard as she has worked to prepare it, she expects her guests to eat with obvious enjoyment, praise her culinary skills, and make her feel that her efforts have been worthwhile.

But what is more likely to happen is that the guests will make remarks about how many calories are in the sauce, self-righteously refuse the hot bread, look hungrily at the dessert but refuse it, and turn the conversation toward dieting.

It's enough to make a good cook cry into her crepes Suzette—and it is all so unbecomingly called for. Dieters can diet without fanfare, and they can count calories without moving their lips. If they can't enjoy a good meal without making the hostess feel ashamed because her specialties aren't all low-calorie dishes, then they ought not to accept dinner invitations. They should stay at home with their diet drinks.

It's really all just a matter of vanity. The calorie counters are more interested in pointing out their self-control than in doing honor to their host and hostess, by breaking bread without the all-too-frequent chant, "I really shouldn't be eating this. Think of all the calories."

Some well-mannered thoughts (for men): "Happier Wives (hints for husbands)."

3 Teachers Reinstated

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Three Pinellas County teachers, who lost their state certificates as a result of a morals investigation by the Johns Committee, were reinstated Tuesday.

The Cabinet Board of Education returned certificates to William James Neal, Mary Frances Bradshaw and Ann Louise Poston.

The decision of whether they get their teaching jobs back is up to the Pinellas County School Board.

Walking is said to stimulate the circulation of the blood to all parts of the body, including the brain.

Lyman Presents 3-Act Comedy

By Jane Casselberry
The Junior Class of Lyman High School presented a three-act comedy, "Which Shall He Marry?" by Omerca Denison last week in the school auditorium.
Don Philpitt played the part of the perplexed young man who would inherit two million dollars if he married the girl of his grandfather's choice.
He had to decide between the five Randolph daughters, Elaine, the beauty of the family; played by Marla Jones; Susan, the brainy sister played by Grace Hulbert; kind-hearted Patience played by Barbara Messmer; Frankie, the athletic type played by Cheryl Werley and pert Mary Jane, the youngest, played by Margaret Garrett.
Carol Highsmith brought down the house with her portrayal of Magnolia, the colored cook. Ramona Cox took the part of Mrs. Randolph, slightly mother of the girls and Jim Parsons played Mr. Henson, a lawyer and family friend.
The play was directed by two of the class sponsors, Fletcher Cockrell and Mrs. Gerarda Jones. Loleanno Wagner was stage manager and Marsha Lyons, associate manager. Kay Clark was in charge of the makeup and Joe Zukowski was in charge of the lights and curtain.

Housing Utopia

We need the stout "advocates of principle" at both ends of the political spectrum. They sharpen public debate on the great issues and serve as a useful check on too precipitate government action.

But it does not follow from this that those who stand for principle are of necessity braver and more useful than those who occupy the compromising political center.

It is not precisely difficult to argue, conservatively, that little or nothing be done. Nor is it really too hard to urge, liberally, that everything be done.

The National Housing Conference, a 32-year-old organization devoted to eliminating slums and blight, perhaps illustrated in its newest Washington meeting how easy it is to talk on the side of the angels.

The NHC notes some largely unassailable facts:

Our total annual output of new housing is insufficient to meet the needs of a growing population, especially those in lower and middle income groups. We are not getting enough urban renewal and we are getting too much urban and suburban sprawl.

To get more and better housing, to arrest deterioration, wipe out slums and check sprawl, the NHC proposes that the federal government quickly approve vast new sums.

Toting up the rough amounts involved in its proposals for expanded urban renewal, low-rent housing, housing for the elderly, improved rural and farm housing, we attain a figure upwards of $4 billion. A portion would be in loans.

A nonspecialist in housing problems is hardly equipped to question the wisdom of NHC's figures as an ideal proposition.

What the outsider can question, however, is how NHC President Nathaniel Keith and NHC's resolutions committee can discuss these proposals for 21 pages as if not one single other claim on the federal budget existed.

It is recognized that better housing is just part of a broad attack on poverty. But nowhere are housing's demands on the budget put in a scale of priorities with such other needs as job retraining, improved general education, health, welfare, highways.

Nothing is said of the fact that we must spend some $55 billion for defense and other sums to aid our friends abroad.

Indeed, NHC says plainly that its proposed bigger housing effort has a "first claim on the resources of our economy." Many Americans had thought that defense requirements enjoy that pre-eminence.

NHC's goals are fine. But in stating them flat out in a kind of political and economic vacuum, the group has done just the easiest part of the job.

Left to the political engineers who must deal in realities is the task of scaling such propositions to make them fit somewhere in today's baffling array of competing demands.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE 0-488: Jane J., aged 38, is a worried wife. "Dr. Crane," she began, "when we got married my husband made only $15 per week."

"So my mother thought we couldn't exist on that small sum, for my parents are fairly wealthy."

"Thus, mother insisted on sending us $50 per week, to apply on our household expenses."

"We hadn't expected that generous gift, for we had figured for weeks on how we would pinch and save and make out on my husband's $15 pay-check."

"Well, the extra $50 made things much easier for us. But it killed much of our fun in skimping."

"And I noticed in later months that my husband grew somewhat sullen."

"One time, when we quarreled, he angrily told me he didn't like to be a remittance man."

"Slowly, we drifted apart. I wanted a baby but he said he couldn't afford it yet and he refused to take any more handouts from my mother. "Well, I finally tried to solve our problem by getting a job. But we immediately began to live at a higher standard, and so my pay and my husband's were still gobbled up."

"We joined a Country Club and my husband took up golf in summer, plus bowling in winter."

"When I again suggested a baby, he said we couldn't afford it, for that would mean I'd have to quit my job. And how could we live on his salary and pay for a baby, even though he was now earning $95 per week?"

"Well, I delayed a couple of years more but still the put off our having a family."

"Now I find that he is running around with a younger girl who works in his office."

"And his excuse is that he wants a family and he feels I am too old to begin one."

"Dr. Crane, I feel that we started off on the wrong foot by ever accepting that $50 per week subsidy for our living expenses."

"My mother meant well but we should have refused her generous aid. "For it robbed my husband of his self respect and encouraged us to live beyond our own means."

"Now I am threatened with a break-up of our marriage. So please warn young brides about accepting money to apply on their current budget for living expenses."

Brides, heed Jane's tragic story, for Jane and her husband succumbed to a gilded trap at the outset.

And this is an all too common occurrence in America. So stand on your own feet after marriage. Don't try to keep up with the Joneses.

Get off of packing crates for tables and use hamburger, hot dogs and beans as your early menu, but LIVE ON YOUR HUSBAND'S PAY CHECK.

In-laws may make a down payment on a new house for the newlyweds, for that is a capital investment that doesn't upset their budget.

For they simply pay off the balance in monthly installments in lieu of their usual rent check.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Principal difficulty confronting President Kennedy's new tax program seems to be that it's so complex few people can understand it.

To offset this, Treasury Department is issuing a series of "fact sheets" to explain the details.

Each of these fact sheets, however, runs a half-dozen type-written pages or more and covers a number of points. It still comes out complicated, no matter how simply they slice it.

So even if it is old news, here are some simplifications of the Treasury's simplifications. They are presented because so many people are writing Congress and the Treasury, asking for clarification of points they don't get.

The President's plan calls for individual income tax rate reductions to go into effect in three stages over a three-year period. The purpose of gradual change is to cause minimum dislocation to government financing and the whole economy. If one meat-cake cut were to be made, as many people propose, it is claimed the effects might be harmful.

Individual income tax rates now range from 20 per cent on low incomes to 91 per cent on top-bracket incomes.

Under the President's plan the first-year cut, no matter when the bill is passed, would reduce income tax rates to between 18.5 and 84.5 per cent. This would cut revenues $2.8 billion.

The second cut in 1961 would bring tax rates down to between 15.5 and 71.5 per cent. The two cuts would cut revenues a total of $8.3 billion.

The third cut in 1965 would bring tax rates down to between 11 and 65 per cent. The three cuts would cut revenues a total of $11.5 billion.

In addition to these three cuts, two groups of seven reforms each are proposed. The first group is intended to relieve hardship on some taxpayers and encourage economic growth. Five of these reforms would reduce tax receipts by $740 million. The other two would have little effect. The seven reforms in the first group are:

1. Allow a minimum standard deduction of $300 for an individual, $400 for a couple and $100 for each dependent. The present standard deduction of 10 per cent of adjusted gross income up to a maximum of $1,000 would remain intact.

2. The present deduction for child care would be increased from a maximum of $600 to a maximum of $1,000.

3. Taxpayers older than 65 would be given a $300 credit. This would replace the present complicated retirement credit.

4. Moving costs would be made deductible when taxpayers change residences for purposes of employment.

5. Taxpayers whose income fluctuates widely, such as farmers or authors, would be allowed to average their income over several years to escape high taxes in big income years.

6. All medical care and drug costs over 1 per cent of adjusted gross income would be made deductible and the ceiling on medical expense deductions would be wiped out.

7. Donations to public-supported charities would be made deductible up to 30 per cent of income.

The second group of seven tax reforms are intended to broaden the tax base and increase receipts by $3 billion. They are:

1. A new floor of 5 per cent of adjusted gross income would be imposed on taxpayers who itemize their deductions. Only expenses above this floor would become deductible. In spite of this floor, increasing tax receipts by $2.5 billion, itemizers would still receive an average tax cut of 14 per cent.

2. A 4 per cent floor would be imposed on casualty expenses, such as auto damage, fire or storm losses.

3. Present law, which allows wealthy individuals to escape all taxation when their charitable contributions and income taxes exceed 90 per cent of taxable income for eight out of 10 years, would be repealed.

4. The present law which allows sick pay up to $100 a week to escape taxation would be repealed.

5. Companies that buy group term life insurance for employees would be required to pay taxes on premiums for coverage in excess of $5,000 on each employee.

6. The present law which allows the first $50 of dividend receipts to be tax free and gives a further 4 per cent credit on all dividends received would be repealed. Allowances on mineral resources, taxation of income received by individuals from natural resource industries would be changed. Taxpayers would be required to take into account prior exploration and development costs previously deducted as expenses.

Making Restitution

Conservationists have calculated that more than 200 species of mammals and birds have vanished off the face of the earth — because of man — since the beginning of the Christian era.

Intentionally or unintentionally, scores of species have been wiped out in America in the few centuries since the first Europeans landed.

In the 20th century, mammal species have been disappearing around the world at the rate of one a year. But it is also in this century that man, appalled by his own power, has altered his behavior and tried to preserve some of his fellow creatures.

For some, like the fabulous passenger pigeon, this recognition of the "rights" of animals and of our spiritual need of animals came too late.

For others, like the bison, it came in time to save for future generations remnants of the great herds which roamed over half the country.

For others, the issue is still in doubt. The bald eagle and whooping crane, for instance, hover precariously on the verge of extinction.

When once men killed whole herds and flocks shepherds for the perverse thrill of mass slaughter, they now take great pains to insure that one tiny animal is allowed to continue his way of life un molested.

The animal is Kirtland's warbler, a half-ounce rarity of fluff and bird bone. No more than 1,000 of the tail-wagging, yellow and gray birds exist in the world — a total weight of about 30 pounds.

The Kirtland's warbler is not yet on the vanishing list, but it could well be. For some not understood reason of evolution, the bird will nest only in certain patchy stands of jack pine in one area of Michigan.

It can't be any old jack pine. It must be a young pine — but not too young, but about 10 to 15 years old. The pine must have low-growing, live branches. And it must be somewhere near the Au-Sable River valley. Jack pine in other parts of the state doesn't attract the birds. While they fly thousands of miles each year on migrations to the Bahamas, they nest only in the north-central part of the lower peninsula.

In a co-operative program being carried out by the Michigan Department of Conservation, the Michigan Audubon Society, the United States Forest Service and the Packaging Corporation of America, power saws are raring in newly dedicated Huron National Forest near Mio, Mich. Old jack pine is being cut down as the first step in a long-range program of providing more nesting ground for Kirtland's warblers.

Eventually, the Kirtland's Warbler Management Area in the forest will cover more than 4,000 acres and will be under a 60-year rotation of logging, controlled burning, regrowth and logging.

The hope is that it will be enough to save the warbler from almost inevitable extinction.

Castro Overthrow Talked

By Stewart Hensley

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Administration officials have begun to talk with cautious optimism about the possible overthrow from within of Fidel Castro's Communist regime.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk has mentioned "evidence of great and growing discontent" in Cuba and intelligence reports disclose increasingly severe shortages of the necessities of life.

This comes at a time when Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev is pulling some of his military personnel out of the island, lessening the Kremlin's ability to keep Castro in power against whatever opposition may be developing.

There is divided opinion here as to whether the Kennedy administration actually sees more hope for home-grown trouble or seeks simply to justify the effectiveness of its policy of slow strangulation as opposed to more dangerous direct action such as an oil blockade.

The administration rejects the argument by some Republican leaders that a selective blockade aimed only at stopping Soviet oil deliveries to the island would not run the risk of war in the Caribbean.

Most officials believe now that Khrushchev will fulfill his pledge to pull "several thousand" of his estimated 17,000 military technicians and troops in Cuba out of the island by Friday. This is the promise he made to President Kennedy several weeks ago. Only the Russians know what they mean by "several thousand."

American officials are watching closely to see whether the Russians evacuated include the approximately 5,000 regular soldiers organized in four combat battalions. These units, equipped with the latest battlefield weapons, have been regarded as capable of helping Castro's government beat down any really serious threat of rebellion. If all of them have left or leave, Khrushchev gives up his most effective immediate means of controlling the situation in Cuba.

U. S. officials, while pressing for evacuation of every Russian, recognize that complete withdrawal might well increase the danger of an armed clash involving the United States and Cuba.

This stems from the fact that the Russians up to now have retained the control of the anti-aircraft missiles capable of knocking down the high level U2 planes which continue surveillance of the island to make certain no offensive weapons remain.

The Russians have held their fire, tacitly acknowledging the U. S. right to continue reconnaissance flights after Khrushchev—because of Castro's attitude—was unable to make good on his promise to permit on-site inspection to verify removal of offensive weapons.

It is acknowledged if Castro's trigger-happy forces get complete control of the weapons, there is increased likelihood of an "incident." Kennedy has warned there will be swift retaliation if any American plane is attacked.

Keep Poison From Children, Parents Warned

To stem the rising tide of accidental poisoning of small children, the American Red Cross urges parents to take the utmost precautions to keep poisonous substances beyond their children's reach.

The Red Cross has joined 21 member-organizations of the National Planning Council in observance of National Poison Prevention Week, March 17-23. John F. McCloskey, Chairman of the Seminole County Chapter, said,

"More than 300,000 accidental poisonings a year happen to children five years old and younger," McCloskey said. "Proper safeguards by parents could have prevented most of these accidents, of which some 500 were fatal."

Prevention and emergency care of poison victims is taught in all Red Cross first aid courses. At this time, peak season for first aid training, some 25,000 classes are in progress around the country, McCloskey said.

McCloskey recommended these measures to prevent small children from swallowing household items which are poisonous:

1. Lock up drugs, insecticides, detergents, and cleaning materials, or store them well beyond children's reach. Remember that children learn to climb at an early age—before they can tell the difference between harmless and harmful substances.

2. Return the dangerous items to their customary storage places immediately after using.

3. Keep harmful household items in their original containers. Do not transfer them to mason jars, milk or soft drink bottles.

4. Children are imitative—do not take medicines in their presence.

5. In administering medicines to children, refer to them as "medicine," not as "candy." Always take or give medicines in well lighted rooms and always read the label first.

6. When the illness for which a medicine was prescribed is over, dispose of the remaining medicine by flushing it down the drain. Rinse the container thoroughly before discarding.

Seat Controversy Door Re-Opened

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The North Florida District Court of Appeals Tuesday reopened the door for petitioners seeking an election to move the Volusia County seat from DeLand to Daytona Beach.

The petitioners—two of them—will have to be reexamined since the District Court set aside part of a ruling by Circuit Court Judge P. B. Revels which said the County Commission could not exclude a name from one of the petitions without following certain steps.

The high court opinion, written by Judge Wallace E. Sturgis, said that the two petitions will be considered together in the re-examination to determine if the election must be called.

Downtown Check Slated - McDonald

AROUND THE CLOCK

By LARRY VERSHEL
A FEW RANDOM NOTES ON A DULL DAY . . .

Republicans can rest easy . . . Jan Fortune sent us another telegram saying he will not be transferred.

We tried to get a statement from Jan Fortune on Fern Park incorporation . . . After speaking to three secretaries, two receptionists, a missile technician, a gentleman from the Orange County Chamber of Commerce, a member of the Rollins College university department on political science we were informed that Mr. Fortune would not be in today.

We'll probably get a telegram tomorrow on this matter.

Our legislation delegation, Mack Cleveland Jr., Gordon Frederick and Joe Davis, when they go to Tallahassee early next month will have about 20 bills in their hip pockets . . . Most important will probably be countywide drainage . . . Making it legal to spend road and bridge fund money for area drainage.

Under a new proposal Seminole County will get better forestry protection . . . In the past we shared a forest with Orange and Lake . . . Now it will only be Lake.

Homestead exemption deadline nears . . . and so do taxes.

Doug Stenstrom's long range planning committee on education will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p. m. at the Civic Center to discuss that proposed state university . . . Real important meeting . . . We noted Mack Cleveland and Gordon Frederick along with John Krider huddling together in the drug store the other day . . . Getting ready for the big push to get this school here.

They'll be putting the lime-rock on 25th St. next week . . . Project expected to be completed in about two months . . . Cost $75,000.

TV SHOWS I'D LIKE TO SEE

—On "The Defenders." The attorney tells his son, "We'll talk about the principle later. Did you get the fee?"

—On "Bonanza." The four heroes see a wounded man at the side of the trail. They look at each other and keep riding.

—On "David Brinkley's Journal." A half hour probe of "Chet Huntley reporting."

—On "The Untouchables." Eliot Ness is offered a bribe, accepts it happily, has a rousing good time, kicks a newspaperman, laughs at a little old lady begging for a few cents to buy some bread, and no one ever finds out.

Political pundits are betting that less than 1,000 people turn out for the special legislative election Tuesday . . . Let's show 'em they're wrong.

Maffett Building on Commercial looking real good.

A CONVERSATION WITH LEE GARY

Reporter: How do you feel about doubling the supervisor of registration's salary?

Gary: I don't have any decision this morning . . . Might have one in a few days.

The same question to John Alexander: "Still studying the matter. It ought to be considered if she can operate her office fulltime with the same amount of money she is presently getting along on."

The city will start extensive inspection of all downtown structures within the next month, Mayor Tom McDonald said today.

McDonald said the building and fire inspector will probably be given the green light in about a month to go over every building in the downtown area and report back to the commission.

At the present time more than 100 structures have been called condemned in the last six months—most of them in the outlying areas. All the structures have been vacant.

Most of the property owners of the condemned buildings have torn down the structures by themselves. Only in very minor instances has the city stepped in to clear the property.

Placed on recent condemnation list for public hearing has been the old Seminole hospital on Oak Ave.

Hunt Tuna 'Killer'

DETROIT (UPI) — A nationwide search for a killer, suspected of being lodged in a small can of tuna fish and causing the deaths of two women, continued today under the direction of the Food and Drug Administration.

Under voluntary action, all A&P brand tuna fish was removed from the food chain's shelves across the nation. The cans were subjected to close scrutiny by the teams of health inspectors.

Sought was the extremely rare Type E botulism, which is suspected of taking the lives of two Grosse Ile, Mich., women.

Mrs. Colette Brown, 37, died last Friday, and Mrs. Margaret McCarthy, 39, died Tuesday. They had eaten a lunch of tuna fish from a can bearing the A&P label, and became violently ill shortly afterward.

"There is no conclusive evidence as yet that the suspected tuna was the real cause of the botulism poisoning, but it was being checked," Thomas Brown, chief investigator of the FDA's Detroit office, said the other ingredients of the lunch, coffee and bread, were ruled out as possible causes of the botulism.

"Tests conducted on a dozen other cans of tuna from the same hatch showed no botulism, Brown said.

"It is remotely possible that botulism could have occurred in only one can, but we can't figure how that could happen . . . nor can we figure what else, besides botulism, was involved in the deaths," he said.

Tax Boosts For Jai-Alai, Dogs, Expected

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A Legislative committee recommended today bills to take additional state revenue from legalized betting at dog tracks and jai alai.

But the legislative council's tax committee voted not to recommend a proposal that would cost Sunshine Horse Track at Oldsmar another $187,817 in taxes.

LORRAINE CAMERON
New Entry Set In Beauty Show

Miss Lorraine Cameron, 17 year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cameron of West First St. is the third contestant in the Miss Seminole County Contest. E. C. Harper, Jr., contest chairman announced today.

Miss Cameron, a blue-eyed blonde was named Cutie of the Week by Radio Station WHOO, for March 11 to 17.

She plays piano, when she's not reading or collecting records or listening to them, or riding on her horse.

She hopes to marry a good-looking man who is kind and has a sense of humor, but in the meantime, she plans to study for some kind of social work after her graduation from Genoa High School.

Lorraine is five foot five and a quarter inches tall, weighs 120 with measurements of 32-22-33.

DeBary Gets Okay On Bank

A special meeting was held in DeBary Tuesday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Faron to advise the residents of DeBary that Deputy Controller of Currency T. G. DeBary of Washington, D. C. has approved a charter to open a National Bank in DeBary as requested last November.

Stock in the amount of $400,000, 15,000 shares at $30 per share, soon will be put on the market with residents of the community being given first choice of sales not to exceed 100 shares to any one person.

A new building will be erected on a site yet to be determined and a bank president and cashier will be hired. The new DeBary Bank will offer complete services and stock will be sold as outlined by the Deputy Controller of Currency in Washington, D. C.

Proposed as directors will be H. Guy Chase, Samuel Faron, Myron Acardi, Dr. George Frison, Oscar Papineau, R. Kaufman, James Spaulding, Arnold Hooper and E. Z. Walters.

Slogans
MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) — A band of tommy-guns seized temporary control of a radio station here Wednesday night and about anti-American slogans over the air.

Teacher Pay Hike Study On

MIAMI (UPI) — House Speaker Mallory Horne said Wednesday a special House committee studying education needs in the state has recommended raises of $200 to $300 annually for teachers. But the teachers are asking for more.

The Florida Education Association is plugging for raises ranging from $100 to $1,000 a year, a program which would cost the state twice what Horne's select committee plans on.

Let People Decide--Frederick

To Incorporate Or...

Increased interest in the proposed incorporation of Fern Park must be shown by residents of that community before any action will be taken by the Seminole County legislative delegation, it was indicated today.

Casselberry has gone on record as opposing Fern Park's incorporation and Altamonte Springs has indicated it will also oppose, with a meeting set for March 27 to discuss only that question.

Gordon V. Frederick, Democratic candidate for the Legislature, said today that "I personally believe that at least 15 to 20 per cent of the people should show some definite interest in forming the Town of Fern Park before the legislative delegation could consider such a proposal."

Frederick continued: "Frankly I do not know how many property owners are within the proposed town. I understand there are six people on the committee which prepared and proposes the charter. However, it has always been the policy to require a substantial showing that the people want a town charter before the Seminole legislative delegation would consider its passage."

The candidate concluded: "My present thinking is that such an act should provide a referendum be held on a petition of 15.20 per cent of the land owners and that the actual incorporation would require at least a majority vote."

Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. and Mack Cleveland Jr., unopposed Democratic candidates for state senator, reported that "whatever the people of the area effected want" will rule the action of the delegation. "Those in favor should let us know and those opposed should do the same, so that we can be in a position to make a decision as a delegation. We need an expression of a goodly number to determine the wishes of the majority."

Sign Controversy, Results Plague North Orlando

The balloting is complete, the polls are closed, the results have been announced . . . but the campaigning continues in North Orlando.

The Herald has been besieged this morning with telephone calls of complaints, charges, answers . . . but it appears many cannot accept the old democratic way that the majority rules, the top candidate wins and that is that.

One report The Herald did run down . . . that losing candidate Reginald Webster had complained of a sign in the voting room to Circuit Judge Volie A. Williams Jr.; that Judge Williams had ordered Sheriff J. L. Hobby to remove the sign.

Sheriff Hobby replied that he had received a complaint from Webster but "I told him it was a city election, the county had no jurisdiction and we did not take any action." However, the Sheriff did say that he learned the sign was removed shortly after he received the complaint.

Webster issued a statement to The Herald this morning to the effect that the sign was "in direct conflict with the state election laws . . . I contend this sign was placed there for the express purpose of influencing the vote, which it certainly did. I am not satisfied with the outcome of this election, only the manner in which it was carried out."

Webster and another losing candidate, Henry Ward, aimed complaints at a voting judge, Mrs. Malby Salter, Mrs. Salter said today: "After appointment to the election board I diligently endeavored at all times to make this election a model one . . . Contrary to slanderous statements made by two obviously rotten candidates in Group V there was no departure from state law on the part of myself or Mrs. (Henry) Fairburn at any time that we held official responsibility. Mr. Ward, who stated publicly that I told him how to vote, was apparently unfamiliar with the charter concerning written balloting and expressed his ignorance of his own charter."

Mrs. Irene Van Espeel, who topped Ward and Webster in the Group V vote, had this to say: "I take a long look at the two large arguments' vote total. Ward received 23 votes this year. The other one, Webster, received slightly more. Their yelling in duns in the apparent hope for a new election. The reason is clearly not outraged citizens' rights guardianship but plain old-fashioned injured ego."

The winning candidates, Mrs. Van Espeel, Arthur Ferrin and Arthur Tholmer, along with hold-overs Woodrow Anderson and Robert Stephenson, will sit April 1 to elect among themselves a mayor to succeed Frank Fusula.

State Legislature To Probe Fix

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI)—The Alabama legislature today named a seven-man committee to investigate a story in a national magazine charging the 1962 Alabama-Georgia football game was fixed.

Lawmakers requested aid from the attorney general's office in the current issue of the Saturday Evening Post. The joint Senate-House investigation is "to determine whether there is any truth in the charges or whether they are simply the products of a hostile attitude toward the athletic director of the University of Alabama and the people of this state."

Rep. Holt East of Jefferson County, who offered the resolution in the House, said Crimson Tide coach and athletic director Paul 'Bear' Bryant agreed that the investigation was in order.

"The Saturday Evening Post," the resolution said, "in an article entitled 'The Story of a Football Fix' has accused the athletic director of grave misconduct, which, if true, would reflect discredit upon the individual, the university and all the people of the state."

Altamonte 'Tables' Fern Park Talk

Because of prolonged discussions on other matters, Altamonte Springs Town Council Wednesday evening delayed discussion of opposition to the Fern Park incorporation question until a special session at 7 p. m. next Wednesday.

Mayor Lawrence Swafford informed the Council that "some action" should be taken since it appeared that the Fern Park charter committee wishes to "encroach" into Altamonte Springs territory. He referred specifically to the area along Highway 170 west from Highway 17-92.

Casselberry already is on record as opposing the Fern Park incorporation because it would "stunt" that town's growth.

Altamonte Springs Wednesday evening passed an ordinance on a 1-2-3 reading increasing the water rates to conform with requirements of federal government loan agreement on the new water system. A comparison of the rates is that minimum for single family residences is increased from $3 to $3.60 for the first 4,000 gallons.
