By Karen Talley Herald Staff Writer

More than 100 property owners in downtown Sanford will be notified this month that they must appear before the city's Historic Preservation Board if they plan to construct new buildings or modify the exterior of existing structures.

The notification will explain the board's "objectives and constraints" to historic district property owners, some of whom may not be aware they are under city mandate to comply with them. Building and Planning Director Bill Simmons said today.

As dictated by the city ordinance, property owners in the district, boundaries extending west from North Sanford Ave., along East Commercial, Fulton and West Third Streets to North Myrtle Ave., must secure a historic board certificate of appropriateness prior to commencing with any construction.

Although these property owners were notified of a public hearing in September, when the city was considering the historic preservation ordinance, the information they received did not address the law's requirements, Simmons said.

Since the law's adoption in October, many downtown property owners have only learned of its requirements when applying for building or sign permits. Building department staffers have told them a permit can be issued only after their plans have been reviewed and approved by the historic board.

Some structural modifications, however, do not necessitate a building permit, so no one may have notified property owners engaged in such construction that they may be violating a city ordinance, Simmons said.

To address the situation, ad hoc policing of the area has been undertaken by some historic board members who have contacted Simmons regarding building they've seen going on downtown.

With the mailing, "We'll spell out the board's and the law's requirements to all historic district property owners." Simmons said. "We hope it will avoid unnecessay problems resulting from unauthorized construction."

Simmons is drafting the mailing, which he said will take "a positive approach" toward the perpetuation of an area "we couldn't resurrect from scratch if we tried.

We have a virtually intact historic district," Simmons said. "And whether they're aware of it or not, property owners in that area have a responsibility to maintain its unique characteristics."

Smoking In Bed Blamed

Seminole County sheriff's Investigators said today that a 73-year-old Midway man who died late Friday in a home fire had apparently been smoking in bed.

Walter Ruffus Williams of 3625 Main St., in the Midway area cast of Sanford, was the only occupant of his home. which caught fire about 9:30 p.m. Friday, Seminole County sheriff's investigator Barry Brady said today.

The fire was confined mainly to Williams' bed and Brady said apparently Williams had been smoking in bed. Williams was removed from the burning home by Seminole County frefighters and was pronounced dead at the scene at about 11 p.m.

There was no smoke detector in the retired Williams' home, Brady said. An autopsy was scheduled today at Central Florida Regional Hospital in Sanford. -Susan Loden

Group Strives To Find Jobs For Area Residents

By Sarah Fischer Herald Staff Writer

Sitting before a paper strewn desk. Gary Earl and Cheryl Maughan were hard at work this week putting the finishing touches on a plan to help Seminole County residents find employment.

As executive director of the Seminole County Private Industry Council Inc. (PIC) and manager of the state-run Job Service office in Sanford, they have the task of developing a two-year proposal they will submit to the governor April 1.

The two are busy dotting all the I's and crossing all the t's in order for their agencies to continue receiving funds under the Job Training Partnership Act (JTPA) and the Wagner-Peyser Act.

Although the laws many not be familiar to most people, they are the lifeblood for programs which help steer low income individuals, youth and the handicapped toward counseling, training and ultimately jobs. The laws also offer incentives for businesses to hire the disadvantaged.

Federal funds are passed through the state "block grant style" under JTPA, which replaced the Comprehensive Employment and Training Act (CETA) in 1983, Earl said.

PIC, a private, non-profit corporation located at 4280 Hospital Rd. in Sanford, receives and administers these grants for Seminole County, he Earl said. Its seven staff members said. Part of the process includes writing a "plan of action" every two years spelling out how these funds. which amounted to $1.1 million last year, will be spent, Earl said.

Once an advisory board to the county commission, the Private Industry Council gained responsibility for handling the grants in 1984. The three-year old organization is headed by a 25-member board of directors, including 18 individuals from private business.

Offering everything from tultion assistance to motivational counseling to eligibility screening, the purpose of the council is to work with the poor and the unemployed, are "jacks of all trades," doing everything from counseling to marketing to contacting businesses, he said.

"We take indigents and do whatever we have to do with them to prepare them for the job market and get them employed," Earl said.

The Council's success rate for job placement has grown from just over one-half in 1984, when it first began operating JTPA programs, to 90 percent, he said. Last year, PIC served 229 adults and 188 youths under the age of 22 and also helped more than 350 youngsters find jobs under its summer youth employ-See JOBS, page 2A

Man Who Opened Fire In Church Nabbed; Charged With Murder

A PUENTE. Calif. (UPI) - The congregation had just knelt to pray when a man who had been laughing during the services at the Church of Christ suddenly stood up and began firing a pistol at a couple in a pew behind him.

Eugene Brown, 39, was mortally wounded, his wife, Carolyn. 38, critically injured and a worshiper caught in the line of fire was hit in the back. The gunman ran out of the small, mustard-colored church and sped off in a black car.

Eight hours later, police 15 miles away in Chino arrested Carlos Thomas, 25, described as having recently been jilted by Carolyn Brown's sister.

Thomas was arrested as he stepped from an apartment complex Sunday night, and was to be returned to Los Angeles without bail on suspicion of murder, authorities

HOUSTON (UPI) - A top space agency manager. responding to a critical memo written by chief astronaut John Young, says launch schedule pressure did not lead to compromises in shuttle flight safety.

"I believe we put flight safety first." said Arnold Aldrich. manager of the shuttle program at the Johnson Space Center in Houston.

'Each day of work we've treated decisions each day at a time with safety considerations our first priority," he said Sunday in a telephone interview. "I don't think manifests have ever been a driver in determining what we needed to do for flight safety."

Young, the most experienced astronaut in the space program and head of the astronaut office, charged in an internal memo dated March 4 that a brutal launch schedule led to compromises in flight safety.

Two memos and a list of flight safety issues were outlined in a copyright story Saturday in The Houston Post. NASA later released the memo and list, which was developed by engineers in response to a directive from Aldrich to reassess critical flight systems in the wake of the Challenger disaster.

Administration Pushes Rebel Aid

WASHINGTON (UPI) - Administration officials, pushing President Reagan's plan to aid the Contra rebels in Nicaragua, found themselves trying to defuse the furor over some remarks that questioned opponents' patriotism.

At the same time, a hard line emerged in response to suggestions Reagan might accept a compromise on the $100 million package - such as placing the funds in escrow to see if fruitful peace negotiations take place.

"The president is not looking for compromise at this time. He's looking for 218 votes in the House." said Elliott Abrams, assistant secretary of state for Latin America.

Congressional foes of Reagan's proposal - which would mix $70 million in guns and bullets with $30 million in blankets and butter over 18 months - made plain their resentment of comments by White House communications director Patrick Buchanan that ald opponents are backing the Kremlin, and Reagan's remarks that his foes may be "unwitting" supporters of Moscow.

Anyone who fails twice will lose what traditionally has been regarded as a lifetime license to teach.

While the "no-pass, no-play" crackdown on student extracurricular activities dominated headlines in 1985, probably no part of the Texas Legislature's education reform package in 1984 has generated as much fear and anger from Texas educators as the competency test.

Their widespread indignation also has prompted many of them to abandon their political backing of Gov. Mark White, a strong supporter of the exam, whom they helped elect in 1982.

"I think the governor should have been the first one to take it," said Rosalinda Medrano, who has taught bilingual English at Ysleta High School in El Paso for eight vcars.

Educators complain the exam fails to measure their classroom teaching efficacy. but supporters contend it will identify those teachers unable to read and write well enough to instruct others.

'Anyone who can't pass that test shouldn't be teaching." said Dallas computer magnate H. Ross Perot, who headed the Governor's Select Committee on Public Education and led the campaign to persuade lawmakers to adopt sweeping educational reforma.

Only two other states. Georgia and Arkansas, require teachers to pass a competency test. But while Texas is requiring that all certified educators take the exam, only 40 percent to 60 percent of the teachers In Georgia are affected. Arkansas educators have several years to pass the test.

College instructors do not have to take the test.

The Texas State Teachers Association last week lost a court battle to have the test declared unconstitutional, but leaders of the group say they will continue their fight in state and perhaps federal courts.

Strikebound TWA Cuts Fares

NEW YORK (UPI) - Trans World Airlines, luring travelers with reduced fares, pledged to be flying at full strength by the end of the week despite claims by the striking flight attendants' union that the airline cannot maintain its planes.

The strike against the nation's fifth-largest airline by 6.000 members of the Independent Federation of Flight Attendants entered its fourth day today with no new talks scheduled.

TWA Sunday cut fares for flights between March 7 and March 27 by 30 percent, and offered a 20 percent reduction on flights from March 28 to Dec. 31 if they are booked between March 7 and March 27.

Discount coupons given to eligible passengers will only apply to the price of a ticket or to future tickets, and the discounts are only being offered for flights that originate in the United States, the airline said.

Soviets Celebrate Vega II's Close Encounters With Halley

MOSCOW (UPI) - A modern Soviet space probe swept past the ancient space wanderer Halley's Comet, sending back photos of the "dirty snowball" that scientists said would help explain the origins of the solar system.

Scientists at the Soviet Space Research Institute today were celebrating the fly-by of VEGA II Sunday and an early encounter by VEGA I as they continued to analyze photos beamed back from the space probes.

The Soviets' VEGA-2 encountered the mysterious "dirty snowball" as it hurtled through space just 5,075 miles from the comet, about the distance from Chicago to the Hawallan Islands.

It was the closest meeting of a man-made space probe and the object scientists have called one of the most ancient fragments of the universe.

The Soviet press called it a "spectacular success" and American and Soviet-scientists alike said they had gotten 'exciting data.'

VEGA-2 was the third probe to brush by the comet in four days. The Soviets' VEGA-1 had an historic close encounter with Halley's on Thursday from a distance of just 5,575 miles.

French Work To Free Hostages

BEIRUT. Lebanon (UPI) - French officials worked in three Middle East capitals today to obtain the release of four French journalists kidnapped by a pro-Iranian group.

The intricate diplomacy in Bagdhad, Damascus and Beirut was set off when the pro-Iranian Islamic Jihad (Holy War) said Sunday it was giving France one week to obtain the release two pro-Iranian Iraqis from a Bagdhad jail, where the two were sent after France expelled them last month.

The terrorist group then backed up its demand by kidnapping four members of a French television crew. The four employees of the television network Antenne 2 joined four other French citizens the Islamic Jihad claims to have kidnapped.

We hold the French government responsible for any refusal or procrastination," a caller from Islamic Jihad told a Western news agency.

The Shilte Moslem organization seized Philippe Rochot, Georges Hansen, Aurel Cornea and Jean-Louis Normandin Saturday after they had filmed a demonstration in west Beirut by another radical Shiite group, the Hezbollah (Party of God).

Panel Considers Marcos Trial

MANILA. Philippines (UPI) - Corazon Aquino moved her offices to the presidential palace today, and a government panel considered putting ousted President Ferdinand Marcos on trial in absentia on charges of corruption.

Aquino, 53, called her first Cabinet meeting to discuss economic affairs at a guest house across from the main Malacanang palace complex, which is being repaired because mobs stormed it Feb. 25 when Marcos fled the capital. Two weeks after ascending to power. Aquino received her first foreign cabinet-level minister and was told that an international group of financiers would help rebuild her nation's ruined economy. Australian Foreign Minister Bill Hayden met with Aquino for 30 minutes at the palace guest house, where she moved from cramped quarters at a family-owned building in the financial district.

Managua Expects Contra Defeat

MANAGUA, Nicaragua (UPI) - An economic recovery package, including 50 percent salary hikes and huge increases in food and fuel costs, will lead to defeat of the U.S.-backed Contra rebels by the end of 1986, the government said.

The salary hikes and food and gas price increases were announced Sunday in a long-awaited package aimed at ending severe food shortages, stimulating production and fighting inflation, which is running at more than 20 percent.

President Reagan is seeking $100 million in new aid for the insurgents, who have received some $100 million in U.S. funding since they began fighting in late 1981.

Despite past covert and overt American aid, the roughly 15,000 Contras have faltered in their efforts to overthrow the government and the Sandinista army has taken a strong lead in the civil war.

Portuguese Leader Stresses Unity

LISBON, Portugal (UPI) - Former Socialist Party chief Mario Soares made unity the overriding message in his inauguration as the nation's first civilian president in six decades, pledging to work for political stability.

"I will be the president of all the Portuguese, not only of those who elected me," Soares, 61, said Sunday in a ccremony attended by Vice President George Bush and hundreds of other foreign dignitaries.

Soares, who served three times as prime minister, won support of the Communists and other leftist parties to win the Feb. 16 presidential election runoff by 1.36 percent over Christian Democrat Diogo Freitas Amaral.

Portugal has had 16 governments since it regained democracy in 1974 after leftist officers overthrew a 48-year dictatorship. In all that time, the presidency was never held by a civilian.

Volcker Speaks Out

It's the job of Federal Reserve Chairman Paul Volcker to swim against the tide. In times when everyone else is relaxing because tight-money policies seem about to bring inflation under control, the Fed has to start easing the money supply to prevent recession.

When everyone else is enjoying a boom induced by lower interest rates, the Fed has to start raising them to prevent inflation.

And so it was that — with the dollar happily dropping against European and Japanese currencies, with American exports picking up as a result, with oil prices plunging and most economic indicators pointing upward in response, with the stock market in a record upsurge on the assumption that interest rates were falling — Volcker recently announced to Congress that he's starting to think about the coming downside of all this good news.

Interest rates, he said, should not be pushed down further, as everyone had anticipated; the dollar has "fallen enough."

The stock market immediately plunged and the foreign currency markets reversed.

But the next day the stock market resumed its jagged climb: If Volcker's psychological intervention is to be successful, his remarks will have to produce a more moderate response in the markets.

The real risk is that he will be over- or under-heeded is what's so tricky about the job.

That and the continual risk that the Fed will choose to start fighting the next cyclical demon too soon — cutting off a recovery before it has to, pumping its way out of a downturn before it's safe to do so.

Volcker has made such mistakes before, and the addition of new Reagan appointees more ideological than flexible in their economic responses only makes it more likely that mistakes will be made again.

Indeed, that may be why Volcker took the very unusual step of speaking out so plainly about his future intentions.

GEORGE MCCOVERN Upside Down Lessons of The Philippines

Following the withdrawal of Philippine President Ferdinand Marcos. I appeared on a nationally televised broadcast with the Rev. Jerry Falwell, in which Falwell contended that the Philippine experience makes clear that the United States should now step up its military aid to the contras in Nicaragua and to rebel leader Jonas Savimbi in Angola.

The Philippine experience, of course, leads to no such conclusion. Indeed, Falwell has turned the lessons of Manila upside-down.

What we saw in the Philippines was the power of an indigenous democracy supported by intelligent American diplomatic and political support. Philippines President Corazon Aquino did not shoot her way into power with arms supplied either covertly or overtly: she won an election fair and square against a greedy. corrupt leader who had lost the respect of his own people.

For too long American policy in the Philippines has been dictated by our determination to maintain the leases on our military bases there. To meet that objective we were willing, until time and history ran out on us, to tolerate regimes in Manila that did little for their people except to wave an anti-communist banner.

But Mrs. Aquino taught both us and Marcos the limitations of military power. In the end, it was masses of Aquino followers who built a human wall of protection around the military leaders who withdrew in disgust over Marcos' effort to subvert the recent election.

In Nicaragua, by contrast, the Reagan administration is trying to sabotage the Nicaraguan government by "coverily" shipping American arms to a band of guerrillas known as the contras, largely composed of former members of hated dictator Anastasio Somoza's National Guard.

Few would contend that the Sandinistas nowruling Nicaragua are cut from the same cloth as Mrs. Aquino. But they are, for the most part, young revolutionaries who overthrew Somoza in a struggle that had many of the same elements that led to the toppling of Marcos.

The Sandinistas are not Jeffersonian Democrats, but there is little evidence that their enemies, the contras, enjoy widespread popular support in Nicaragua. Contra power rests on American arms, not, as with Mrs. Aquino, on indigenous political support which enjoyed the moral backing of many Americans.

As columnist Mary McGrory has observed:

"Americans are proud of what we did in the Philippines and uncomfortable, even indignant, about what we are doing in Nicaragua. Bringing about democracy at gunpoint — and killing peasants in the process — contradicts the lesson of Manila, which is about negotiation, commitment and nonviolence."

The same observations apply to President Reagan's request for arms to Angolan rebel leader Savimbi. This "freedom fighter." as Mr. Reagan is fond of calling him. was a professed Maoist until his American public relations advisers told him to cultivate a different image, in order to win conservative support in the United States. Now we are asked to support Savimbi on the tired, old discredited ground that he will save us from communism.

It would be more accurate to see Savimbi as a clever opportunist who is really an agent of South Africa in its desire to make trouble for its Angolan neighbor.

France, Africa's New Pact

By Francois Dupuis

(Duputs is an editor of the Nouvel Observateur, the French weekly magazine).

PARIS — For more than 50 years. the French dominated Africa. Before the start of World War II. more than 4 million square miles of African territory were governed by France.

By the 1960s, France had lost the last of her empire in Africa. But the end of her colonial adventure marked the beginning of a new partnership.

Today, a network of cultural, commercial and military ties connect a large group of African countries with France. The French schoolteacher in the Senegalese bush, the paratroop trainer in Zaire and the engineer near Abidjan all contribute to strengthening these ties.

More than 300,000 French citizens currently live in Africa. This large number does not include the 7,300 soldiers at a total of five bases or the 47,000 men in the Rapid Intervention Force. They have already intervened twice in Zaire, in 1977 and 1978, and they are currently supporting the regime in Chad against the harassment of

The reported fact that Marcos arrived in Hawaii with a large quantity of jewels and "freshly printed" Philippine currency was of course taken as proof positive that he had stolen the public treasury blind. Perhaps he did: but certainly a man in his position - flecing his country with no expectation of ever returning - would be well advised to take with him whatever transportable valuables he owned. And if he withdrew large sums of money from his bank accounts to take them too, just how incriminating is the fact that the notes were "fresh"? The media had better stick to sweeping allegations about the "billions" of dollars Marcos allegedly owns in U.S. real estate. Brooklyn Rep. Stephen Solarz floated that gaudy figure back during the Philippine election campaign, and can investigate the rumor, through his House subScience world Sleep Disorder No Joke

By Pat Scales

NORFOLK. Va. (UPI) — Staying up nights may only result in annoyance or fatigue during the day, but an expert says the sleep disorders suffered by 7.2 million Americans can lead to more serious problems and even make insomniavictims dangerous to others.

"The consequences of sleepiness have been joked about in the past, but it's a very serious problem," said Dr. Catesby Ware, director of the Sleep Disorders Center at Norfolk General Hospital.

Finding it occasionally difficult to fall asleep is normal, but an estimated 7.2 million Americans have significant sleep disorders, and in the view of some experts, should seek medical advice.

The center for treatment of sleep disorders - which treats "well over a hundred" patients annually - opened in 1980 to study and help people who chronically have trouble sleeping or sleep too much. Ware said. The center expects to begin treating as many as 400 patients annually, Ware said. "If people are generally sleepy and sleepy all the time, they aren't sleeping well." Ware said. "There are several stages of sleep. You may not be getting enough of a particular kind of sleep." Sleepiness can strike anyone sitting in warm, unventilated rooms or if they are bored. But some of the patients with whom Ware works fall asleep too easily - perhaps in social settings, at traffic lights or while driving.

His control over the Fed's policies is less certain nowadays: speaking out of school may be a way of keeping his thumb on the scale inside the Fed.

One can only hope he succeeds.

Volcker's warning about the risks of a new round of inflation is unpleasant to hear in the middle of an upsurge, but it is probably correct.

If the dollar keeps dropping, the rising cost of imports and the leeway given to American businesses to raise their own prices to match the imports eventually will become inflationary.

If the Fed can keep that from happening by taking modest steps now — like not easing interest rates any further for a while — it might prevent the economy from reaching a peak it otherwise would have, but it will also prevent it from hitting the next low.

Genocide Treaty

Genocide goes on today. An unenforceable treaty won't stop it.

But, after 37 years, the U.S. Senate finally has ratified a United Nations treaty declaring genocide an international crime. That's good, even if it's only a statement of good intentions.

The constitutional argument against it carried no weight, compared to the importance of acknowledging the common humanity of all members of the species homo sapiens, no matter what the subgroup.

BERRY'S WORLD

Libya's Col. Moammar Khadafy. While the main task of the Rapid Intervention Force is to ensure stability in that part of the world, the most stabilizing force is economic.

Thirteen African countries share a common currency through the African Financial Community. The rate of exchange of this currency to the French franc is so stable it has not changed since 1948.

All the member states are required to contribute at least 60 percent of their foreign assets to a common fund managed by the French Department of Finance. This arrangement seems to benefit everyone. The countries can depend on a relatively stable economy and the French can play a key role in the international commercial ventures of 13 African nations.

While 150 years of colonialism in Africa have brought the French both special friends and special enemics, their influence is widening beyond ancient ties.

At the first Franco-African summit held in 1973 there were 11 African participants, representing the core of the former French colonies south of the Sahara. In 1985, the African continent was represented by 36 countries.

Democrats for a long and ghastly fall over U.S. policy toward the Marxist government of Nicaragua.

Easing Ferdinand Marcos out of the Philippine presidency was a messy but necessary business, and Mr. Reagan deserves (and is receiving) high marks for accomplishing it with so little bloodshed. Whether Mrs. Aquino actually won a majority of the votes in the recent election is much more doubtful than you would suppose, listening to the U.S. media or noting the huge rallies of her supporters (old and new) that are being staged every day in Manila's parks in an effort to reinforce the legitimacy of her rule.

But certainly the Philippines were ripe for some sort of change, and there are enough competent politicians and dependable anticommunists in high positions around Mrs. Aquino to afford hope that the new regime will get on with the business of suppressing the communist insurgency and, in due course, renew the leases on the important U.S. bases in the archipelago.

Meanwhile, Marcos-bashing will continue to be a popular sport for a while among those who enjoy kicking a man when he's down. 'Its comic high point was reached during the recent election campaign when the owner of an anti-Marcos Filipino newspaper in California was shot and killed. For 24 hours the media treated us to blunt charges that the hated "dictator" had now begun employing his murderous tactics on U.S. soll. Then California police arrested the victim's son and

At a more serious level, however, our liberals are going to have trouble explaining why, if it's perfectly all right for this country to help topple an authoritarian government far away on the other side of the Pacific (and do it, moreover, to prevent communist insurgents from seizing power there), it is so terribly wrong for us to assist indigenous forces that are battling an explicitly Marxist regime, far more authoritarian, that is entrenching itself and exporting revolution, on the Central American spine of the North American continent. just a thousand miles south of Miami.

Falling asleep behind the wheel has been described as the second leading cause of traffic accidents.

Despite increasing scientific knowledge about sleep and its associated problems, researchers find the area difficult to explain, Ware said.

"As best we can tell, while we're awake, particular chemicals are secreted in the brain and increase to make us sleepy," he explained. "The body metabolizes these chemicals during sleep. You wake up refreshed or you should be."

But sometimes, other factors breathing or neuromuscular problems, abnormal heartbeats, depression or drugs — make it impossible for some people to get their proper rest.

Many patients complain that they wake up exhausted after a seemingly undisturbed night's sleep.

JACK ANDERSON

Inside On An Airline Hijacking

By Jack Anderson And

Dale Van Atta

WASHINGTON – Airplane hijackings make big headlines when they occur. But by the very nature of these terrorist operations, the planning that went into them is secret.

We can now provide a rare, behind-the-scenes look at the preparations for a hijacking that occurred a little more than a year ago. Two Americans were murdered and two others tortured during the ordeal.

Our sources at the CIA have helped us piece together the nuts-and-bolts planning that led to the airborne piracy of Kuwalt Airlines Flight 221 in December 1984. Here's how the plotters did It:

On Nov. 22, 1984, the four principal terrorists got together in Baalbek, the main city of the Bekaa Valley, in Syrian-controlled eastern Lebanon. They were the Iranian charge d'affaires in Lebanon,

Mahmoud Nourani: Sheik Sobhi Tofailli. commander of the military forces in Baelbek for the terrorist group Hezbollah; Hassan Hashem. the pro-Iranian leader of Moslem militia units that control Beirut's international airport: and Ali Al Yafi. the Lebanese Shilte Moslem who had been chosen to lead the team of hijackers.

The targeted plane was an A-310 Airbus that Kuwait Airlines flew to Bangkok with stops at Dubai and Karachi. Al Yafi briefed the three other members of his team — two Shiites and a Palestinian — on the configurations of the Airbus: the location of its exits. galleys and lavatories. Meanwhile, Iranian spies in Kuwait were sweeping airline reservation computers for names of any VIPs on Flight 221.

The hijacking was to occur before dawn on Nov. 27. Flight 221 would leave Kuwait the evening before and take off from Dubai shortly after midnight. The terrorists were to leave Beirut on a Middle East Airlines flight the evening before and connect with Flight 221 in Dubai.

Their weapons — to be planted on board at Dubai — were two .25-caliber pistols (unlikely to pierce the airplane's hull unless fired point-blank) and a single hand grenade.

By the morning of Nov. 26. everything was set. Then the terrorists learned that three Kuwaiti diplomats and at least three Americans, would be aboard the same Flight 221 a week later, Dec. 3-4. The Americans' reservations had been made by the U.S. Embassy in Sanaa, North Yemen.

This meant the hijackers would have six VIPs to be swapped for the 17 terrorists imprisoned in Kuwait - whose release was the point of the hijacking. So the hijacking was postponed a week.

After prayers on the alternoon of Dec. 3, the hijackers were driven to Beirut airport to catch Middle East Airlines flight 426 to Dubai. They had no baggage, and were driven directly to the plane, avoiding examination of their forged travel documents by Lebanese officials.

During the hour-long layover at Dubai waiting for Flight 221, the hijackers sat apart in the airport lounge, avoiding even eye contact. Al Yafi used the interval to shave off his beard. Then the four hijackers quietly mingled with the other 14 passengers who boarded Flight 221 at Dubai. Two were iranians who later acted as spics for the terrorists, listening for hints of resistance among the passengers after the hijacking.

The hijacking occurred 40 minutes out of Dubai, when two of the terrorists overpowered the lone security guard. They used weapons from a briefcase that had been planted on board in advance.

The hijacking lasted six days and led to the coldblooded murder of two U.S. aid officials. International pressure eventually led Iran to stage a phony "rescue" as the plane sat at Tehran airport.

Tuesday SAC: Lyman To Invade Seminoles

By Sam Cook Herald Sports Editor

The Seminole Athletic Conference baseball race heats up Tuesday when Seminole entertains Lyman and Lake Mary hosts Lake Brantley. Both games are set for 3:30 p.m. Oviedo, off Orlando Jones for an Orange Belt Conference encounter.

Lake Mary and Lyman both picked up victories Saturday while Oviedo pummeled Lake Brantley. Oviedo and Lake Howell have played the lone SAC game thus far, which the Lions won.

Here's a look at Tuesday's confrontations:

At Sanford, Seminole coach Mike Ferrell said ace righthander Brian Sheffield (2-3) would pitch if he's recovered from a tightened bicep in his pitching arm. Lyman will counter with Byron Overstreet (2-3). If Sheffield can't go, Ferrell said Mike Edwards (0-0) would hurl.

•At Lake Mary, coach Allen Tuttle said he was leaning toward Anthony Laszaic (4-0) although Mike Schmit (4-0), who was knocked out in the second tripped Mainland, 6-3.

NCAA Stays With Favorites' Role

KANSAS CITY. Mo. (UPI) - The NCAA, an organization that likes favorites, held true to form Sunday by tapping its last eight titlists to play in this year's national college basketball tournament.

Along with the eight former champs, a like number of teams will make their first bids for the NCAA title. The newcomers are Akron, Arkansas-Little Rock, Cleveland State, Drexel, Fairfield, Marist, Mississippi Valley State and Nebraska.

The most familiar name is Nebraska, which isn't used to keeping company with the Marists and Fairfields of the world. The Combuskers usually run with the Southern Cals. Penn States, Texases and Ohio States - in football.

Boyd Needs More To Eat But Red Sox Hurlers Serve Feast

United Press International

Dennis "Oil Can" Boyd's weight problem will resolve itself faster than the troubles of the rest of the Boston Red Sox pitchers.

Red Sox physicians Sunday said that Boyd simply has to eat more to regain the weight he lost over the winter. After the announcement was made, the Detroit Tigers shelled the Red Sox for 17 hits on their way to an 11-2 victory.

"Dr. Arthur Pappas reported this morning that a battery of tests for a variety of possible ailments has been conducted on Dennis Boyd and all are negative," stated a a Red Sox release.

The statement also said Boyd's liver had been retested "and the area appears improved from the last reading." More liver tests will be done Monday, and, if the area is at least unchanged. Pappas will recommend Boyd. Boston's winningest pitcher last year, rejoin the club in Winter Haven and begin working out Wednesday.

In addition, Boyd will be put on a high-protein diet in an effort to build up his weight, reportedly at 138 pounds.

Darnell Coles, Nelson Simmons and Larry Herndon each had three hits as Detroit blasted Boston. Simmons also scored three runs and drove in three runs. His big blow was a two-run homer in the seventh inning to cap a five-run rally and turn the game into a rout.

While the Red Sox await the return of their ace, New York Mets right-hander Dwight Gooden picked up where he left off last year as the Mets pounded the Caridinals 8-1. Gooden pitched three scoreless innings. allowing two hits and striking out two.

Los Angeles also showed off its top starter Sunday as left-hander Fernando Valenzuela pitched three scoreless innings and his teammates backed him with a 12-hit attack as the Dodgers rolled to a 6-1 exhibition victory over the Houston Astros.

"It's nice to get a win, but I don't worry about that so much," Valenzuela said. "I had manager Lou Gorman. "He does a good outing, which is more the sixth inning for a 3-2 lead.

Beat Goes On For Rams; Lyman, Oviedo Post Wins

By Sam Cook Herald Sports Editor

The beat goes on for Lake Mary's Rams. Despite Mike Schmit being knocked out for just the second time in his varsity pitching career. Lake Mary won its 14th consecutive game against no setbacks Saturday with an 11-10, eight-inning victory over Boone at Orlando.

"I've never seen us so tight," Lake Mary coach Allen Tuttle said about the sloppy performance. "The streak must be getting to us.

The Braves, 5-5, got to Schmit in the second inning, scoring five runs to erase a 4-1 Lake Mary lead. The only other time the ace righthander has falled to finish what he started was in a district tournament game as a sophomore against DeLand.

"Mike's arm was sore and he just didn't have it." Tuttle said about his senior who hadn't pitched in 11 days. "But the ump was squeezing the strike zone, too. He threw five strikes to the first batter and walked him."

Sean "Flake" Flaherty, neverthless, bailed out the Rams in the middle innings until the bats started producing again. The junior righthander shut out Boone in the third, fourth, fifth and sixth innings while striking out six. He gave way to Steve Shakar in the seventh when Boone rallied for three runs to tie the score.

Shakar picked up his first win when Lake Mary pushed across two runs in the top of the eighth and Boone could come up with just one in the bottom of the inning.

Schmit reached on an error by the second baseman and Matt Messina went in to run. After Ryan Lisle popped out, Brett Molle singled Messina to third. With Molle running on the pitch. Kelly Hysell hit a potential inning-ending double play ball to shortstop. Molle was already to the bag, however, and when the shortstop had go to first. Messina scored the tlebreaking run. Neal Harris singled in what proved to be the difference.

"Charlie Reynolds sent Molle on that pitch," Tuttle said about his assistand and first base coach. "I'm glad he did. The shortstop didn't have any play at second with Molle running. It probably cost them a double play."

Lake Mary scored four runs after two were out in the first but Boone came back to take a 6-4 lead after two innings. The Rams tied the game in the third when Lisle walked and moved to third on Hysell's one-out single. Hysell stole second and Harris drove in Lisle with a groundout. Hysell stole third and Sutton walked. With Shane Letterio at the plate, a balk scored Hysell.

In the fifth, Laszaic doubled home two runs and Schmit singled home the third.

Lyman, meanwhile, picked away at Mainland, scoring in five of the seven innings for a 6-3 victory at Daytona Beach Saturday. Mark Whittington (2-0) struck out five and allowed just two hits before losing his control in the fifth. Sandy Hovis carned his first save by hurling one-hit relief over the final four frames.

home. In the third. Gib Lundquist singled to right, moved to second on a sacrifice bunt by Darren Boyesen and third on a passed ball. He scored on Overstreet's single. Chris Brock doubled to right to plate Overstreet for a 3-1 lead.

In the fourth. freshman Chris Radcliff walked and moved to second on Marty Martin's bunt. Dale Stevens singled to left for the run. In the fifth. Overstreet walked and stole second. One out later. Burton doubled to left for a 5-1 lead.

The Greyhounds added an insurance tally in the seventh when Overstreet walked and stole second. Two outs later. Bill Henley came through with a single to right for the RBI.

In the only SAC game Saturday. Oviedo. 5-1, jumped to a 5-1 lead after two innings and put it out of reach with a six-run fourth to blow out the Patriots, 12-2, in six innings. Brantley fell to 2-8.

Junior Scott Bowers limited the hard-hitting Pats to three hits, two of which were solo homers by Mike Davis and Dan Beaty.

"Bowers was moving the ball well mixing this pitches). It was a real impressive outing, probably his best one at Oveido." Oviedo coach Howard Mable said. "He only threw two bad pitches all day. Beaty hit a hanging curve and Davis, whose a good fastball hitter, crunched a fastball."

Oviedo's Mark Merchant picked up three more steals to run his season mark to nine, two behind leader Letterio. The Lions stole six bases in eight attempts to run their season total to 36 in 41 attempts, an 88 percent success ratio.

Oviedo scored three in the first when Glenn Reichle singled in one run and another scored on an error by the left fielder. Jeret Kinnaird dropped a perfect suicide squeeze to score Reichle one batter later.

In the second, Belflower drew a two-out walk and Frank Torrez tripled for the run. Torrez, who scored four runs Saturday, scored on a passed ball.

In the six-run fourth, Randy Ferguson walked and Sink tripled him home. Merchant scored Sink with a groundout. Belflower ripped a triple to center and Torrez was intentionally walked, Torrez stole second and Reichle delivered a a sacrifice fly to score Belflower. Bobby Bradley singled past third to chase home Torrez. Kinniard kept it going with a single and Jimmy Barrett plated two more runs with a double down the left field line.

The 10-run rule took effect when Torrez walked in the sixth and Reichle singled. Brantley catcher Davis tried to pick Reichle off first and his throw went into right field allowing Torrez to score from second for the 12-2 final.

According to Randy Newman, who wrote and sang the tune "Short People," Lake Howell's Erin (5-2) Hankins and Valerie (shorter than 5-2) Monico would be good for little more than squid food.

Au contrare, barnacle breath.

Hankins, a junior shortstop, and Monico, a freshman second baseman, made up a solid middle infield for the Lady Silver Hawks in Thursday's game against Oviedo. Both fielded flawlessly and Hankins showed off a throwing arm that is just about as strong as any shortstop in the county. The two combined for a double play. Monico to Hankins to first baseman Leslie Barton, to turn Oviedo away in the second inning.

While Monico vacuumed the second base area for the first four innings, freshman Brooke Burns came on in the fifth and she made the defensive play of the game for the Lady Hawks.

Oviedo's Lady Lions put together a two-out rally in the sixth when they scored one run to cut Lake Howell's lead to 10-2 and had runners on first and second with two outs

Oviedo then sent Bridget Jenerette to the plate as a pinch hitter. In her previous two at bats as a pinch hitter. Jenerette was 2 for 2 with a triple and four RBIs. This time, she scorched a vicious grounder toward Burns at second base. Burns showed she's no slouch with the glove either as she flagged Jenerette's grounder and threw her out at first to kill the Ovledo uprising.

I hate to pick on a cripple, but Ron Gardner's sense of judging distance has pretty much gone haywire.

This season, the Lake Howell High softball team is using the field that the baseball team played on a year ago. The switch was made mainly because the Silver Hawks' baseball team was getting tired of people like Lake Mary graduate Rod Metz hitting two or three homers a game out of the Japanese-like ballpark.

The dimensions were about 290 feet all the way around. When asked if the fence was moved in to accomodate the softball team, Gardner, whose daughter Ava is recovering from shoulder surgery and hopes to be playing for the Lady Hawks soon, said. "No. it's still the same distance."

If that's true, then Lady Hawk outfielder Jaudon Jonas is either taking steroids or has a lot more power than you would think. In the bottom of the sixth inning Thursday. Jonas hit a ball over the outfielder's head and it landed about 25 feet from the fence. If those were the same dimensions. Jonas hit the ball 265 feet. It was later learned though that the fence had been moved in to 200 feet.

Senior pitcher Beth Watkins has a pretty to attend.

Hagier, Hearns Become Allies, Need Wins To Promote Rematch

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI) - Marvin Hagler and Thomas Hearns, who fought each other brutally 11 months ago, will enter the ring as allies tonight when they fight back-toback bouts on a closed circuit television doubleheader.

Hagler and Hearns need impressive showings in their scheduled 12-round bouts to build fan interest for their rematch to a peak.

Hagler will defend his world middleweight title against John Mugabi, and Hearns will challenge NABF middleweight champ James Shuler in the same Caesars Palace ring in which Hagler stopped Hearns in three rounds last April.

The winners of the two fights have been promised a fall meeting by promoter Bob Arum.

Arum would love to put on Hagler-Hearns II, but realizes a sluggish victory by either will hurt the rematch at the gate. Hearns especially must prove he has recovered from the beating he took against Hagler.

"I think they gave me Mugabi because they were afraid Thomas Hearns would get knocked out again (by Hagler)." Hagler said.

Against Mugabi, Hagler is up against a big puncher (26 knockouts in 26 fights) who has not fought fighters the callber of the undisputed 160-pound champ from Brockton, Mass.

Curry Tops Rodriguez In Second

FORT WORTH. Texas (UPI) - Welterweight champion Donald Curry says a wildly cheering hometown crowd made him a bit nervous. But it didn't take long for him to shake off the litters and dispose of Panamanian Eduardo Rodriguez.

"I was a little nervous. I've never been that slow out of the blocks before. I think it was the crowd," said Curry, 25-0, who kayoed Rodriguez at 2:38 of the second round Sunday.

Cheered by a sellout crowd of 8,600 chanting "Curry, Curry, Curry," the champion unleashed a flurry of second-round punches to floor Rodriguez, who remained on the canvas for five minutes and later said he could not get up because of a leg cramp.

The champion got off to a slow start, winning the first

Lakers Win 5th Straight

Evening Herald, Sanlerd, Fl. Menday, March 10, 1906-7A

United Press International The Los Angeles Lakers took another step Sunday night toward defending their NBA championship.

The Lakers clinched at least a tie for their fifth straight Pacific Division title with their fifth straight victory, a 108-106 decision over the host Seattle SuperSonics.

"I was wondering how much petrol was going to be left after the win (against Sacramento Saturday night)." Lakers coach Pat Riley said. "We are like a '55 Packard with a lot of dents right now, but we seem to be getting the primer on and getting ready for the playoffs."

Los Angeles led 87-81 at the start of the fourth quarter, and trailed only once in the final period. After Tom Chambers sank two free throws to give the SuperSonics a 99-98 lead with 4:23 to play, Maurice Lucas hit a jumper and Magic Johnson sank a layup to give the Lakers a 102-99 advantage with 3 1/2 minutes to play. Johnson led all scorers with 32 points, his third straight game with at least 30 points. He tossed in 33 against Sacramento and had 30 Thursday against Golden State.

"I've always said Magic is too unselfish." Riley said. "I want him to be selfish. He has to score for us."

'They shot extremely well and did a job down the stretch." Seattle coach Bernie Bickerstaff said. "That's why they're champions."

Elsewhere, New Jersey topped Phoenix 115-111, Philadelphia defeated Indiana 120-102. Chicago beat New York 114-101, Denver edged the LA Clippers 123-121, and Dallas topped Sacramento 117-102.

Bean's Back 9 Sews Up Doral

MIAMI (UPI) - Andy Bean enjoyed success on the back nine all week. Sunday, when it counted most, was no different.

Bean shot a 2-under-par 34 on the back side to the Hubert Green after 72 holes, then went on to sink a six-foot birdle putt on the fourth playoff hole to capture the $500,000 Doral Eastern Open.

The victory, Bean's first in nearly two years, made him the first three-time winner in the 25-year history of the Doral.

But things didn't look good for Bean after the front nine, when he was down five shots to Green as he made the turn.

"I told my caddy I thought it would take a 31 to win," he said later.

Bean made strong finishes all week, but as it turned out, he didn't have to finish quite that strongly.

"I'm going to sneak up on you if I don't cut my own throat first," Bean said. "Once I was in position, all I worried about was making birdles, because when you start throwing birdles at them, they start to lose ground."

Inkster: Birdie Made Difference

PRINCEVILLE, Hawaii (UPI) - Juli Inkster saw her birdle on the par-4 eighth hole Sunday as the turning point of her victory in the $300,000 Women's Kemper Open.

"I birdied and she (Marci Bozarth) bogeyed," Inkster said. "After the birdies at 10 and 11, I was in control, and they had to catch me. I'm fortunate they didn't get hot."

Inkster started the final 18 holes over the 6,210-yard Princeville Makai Course on the Island of Kauai tied for the lead with Bozarth at 10-under 206. But after seven holes, Bozarth was 11-under and Inkster 9-under. They were even, however, after inkster rolled in a six-foot birdle putt and Bozarth bogeyed No. 8.

'That was the big hole," Inkster said. "It was a two-stroke swing." Inkster, who now has three Top 10 finishes in five 1986 events, birdled the par 4, 349-yard 10th and the par 5, 463-yard 11th to open a three-stroke advantage.

First Indoor BMX Is March 29-30

The National Pedal Sport Association in conjunction with World of Wheels will present the first indoor BMX race in the Central Florida area. It will be held on March 29-30 at the Orange County Civic Center.

This is NPSA's National Opener, and will feature Double Point racing both days. Entertainment will also be provided by the Haro Freestyle Team from Carlsbad, California: performing Saturday and Sunday afternoon. with Freestyle Clinic's Saturday evening and Sunday morning.

There will be 50 classes and six open classes with trophies from first to eighth place starting at over 36 inches tall, all custom designed especially for this race.

For information, call Marie E. Kyle at 298-2378

'Hall' To Open Door To 2 More?

TAMPA (UPI) - The doors to the Baseball Hall of Fame may open today for the late Ernie Lombardi and Bobby Docrr.

Lombardi, a catcher who won two National League batting titles, and Doerr, a hard-hitting second baseman, head the list of the players being considered to the Hall of Fame by the Committee of Veterans.

The 18-member committee will meet this morning, and an announcement on the new inductees is expected around noon EST.

SEC Lands 7 Teams In Women's Tourney

KANSAS CITY. Mo. (UPI) -Every day, Nora Lynn Finch sees the reason for the rise of southeastern basketball.

"At the end of every driveway and in every backyard there's a basketball goal," said Finch, chairwoman of the NCAA Division I women's basketball committee. "We have the weather for it, so the kids can play year round.

"It's just become so popular with the attention level given by the media, it's elevated the sport to a high level of prestige."

The popularity in the southeast is most evident in the pairing of the NCAA women's basketball tournament.

The 40-team field has seven flavor. Southeastern Conference schools, including No. 2-seeded Georgia, No. 7 Louisiana State and No. 8 Mississippi. The seven SEC entries break the NCAA record of five teams from one conference, set by the SEC last year.

Also given seedings were No. 1 Texas, No. 3 Southern California, No. 4 Virginia, No. 5 Rutgers and No. 6 Louisiana Tech. Only Texas and Georgia among the seeded teams won giving 24 teams byes into the automatic berths.

began its women's championship competition. Texas' bid was its fourth. Eleven teams received tournament slots for the first time.

The tournament's new 40team format includes eight first-round games on competing teams' campuses Wednesday, second round.

For more than a generation, thou sands of lovely lawns have been established annually with Centi-Seed, the original and depend-able Centipede grass seed. New Centi-Seed is treated for lungus and bacteria protection and with a natural growth stimulant for quicker, surer results. Centipede develops and grows slower than other grasses but unlike "quicker" starters" it produces a dense, weed-trae, lifetime turf. Ask your neighbor who has used it and insist on Centi-Seed for planting your new lawn or converting your old lawn.

partment. We don't know who's in there or what's in there. Until we do, we aren't making any plans until we hear from NASA officials." Tony Smith said.

Schoolteacher Christa McAuliffe's father, Edward Corrigan of Framingham, Mass., would say only, "I really don't care to discuss it" when asked for his reaction.

McAuliffe. 37, a high school social studies teacher at Concord (N.H.) High School, was selected from more than 11,000 applicants to become the first private citizen to fly aboard a shuttle.

Astronaut Judith Resnik's father. Dr. Marvin Resnik of Akron, Ohio, said he "didn't expect this part to be found," saying he had been led to believe that part of the shuttle had vaporized in the explosion.

This new information does nothing to change the situation." he said.

A service for Resnik was held in her hometown of Akron shortly after the accident, and her father said he had made no plans for a funeral. He said he had not planned to go to Florida since a NASA liaison has kept the families informed.

Francis W. Scobee, father of shuttle commander Francis "Dick" Scobee, 46, told The New York Times the family would make no decision on funeral plans until the remains are identified. "It just opens up a lot of wounds again," he said. Relatives of mission specialist Ellison Onizuka, 39, were not available for comment.

NASA officials said they did not know how many of the seven astronauts' remains may be inside the cabin, but that recovery of the compartment from a depth of about 100 feet should take several days.

The New York Times reported today that the brother of one crew member, who asked not to be named, said he was told the crew cabin was to be raised from the ocean floor Sunday or today and that relatives would be told details of the findings no later than today.

NASA officials said "assistance in positive identification of crew will be provided by Armed Forces Institute of Pathology personnel located at the Patrick Air Force Base Hospital."

The USS Preserver, a Navy salvage ship equipped with two cranes, one of which can lift 10 tons, will spearhead the attempt to raise the cabin debris. High winds and seas blocked recovery efforts during the weekend, officials said. The ship remained at sea overnight.

"On Saturday morning, after securing operations during the night for safety reasons, the USS Preserver, whose divers are thoroughly briefed on debris identification and have participated in similar recovery operations, began to work," the statement said.

"Subsequent dives provided positive identification of Challenger crew compartment debris and the existence of crew remains.'

So far, the search for shuttle debris has netted about 10 percent of the giant spaceship. The primary goal of the recovery operation is salvage of key debris from the shuttle's right-hand solid-fuel rocket booster, which ruptured and triggered the explosion of the ship's giant external fuel tank.

While the condition of the beefed-up crew compartment was not known, sources said it appeared to be relatively intact. If so, computer gear on board could help investigators piece together the sequence of events that led to the disaster.

But debris from inside the 2.525-cubic-foot crew cabin, including personal effects from crew lockers, already has been recovered indicating it probably broke open or apart either in the initial explosion or when it hit the water after falling 8.9 miles.

Scobee and Smith were riding in the two forward seats on the upper flight deck. Immediately behind them were Resnik, who was serving as flight engineer. and Onizuka to her right.

Below on the middeck, Jarvis and McAuliffe were strapped to scats in front of an airlock leading to the ship's payload bay. McNair was seated beside the hatch used by the crew to enter the spaceship. McNair and Onizuka had planned to trade places for landing.

During this session, Orlando Historic Preservation Board officer Beth Chave will discuss rehabilitation standards developed by the Secretary of the Interior and the board will consider three requests for certificates of appropriateness. The proposals are for replacement of upper level windows at the Roumillat building on the corner of 1st Street and Park Avenue, a sign and two spotlights for Harry's Bar at 114 Park Avenue, and replacement of a side door and construction of a one-car parking canopy at the Bremer Brace Company, 112 South Sanford Avenue.

Brown, who says she is a Catholic, also said her organization will conduct research on other prominent Catholics who support abortion such as former Rep. Geraldine Ferraro and Sen.

Told about the news conference, Smeal said, "Is that it? They must be really desperate," adding. "That's not bad company" when told of the efforts planned against Kennedy and Ferraro.

Girl Scouts, Not Parents, Should Sell The Cookies

I was approached by 12 co- uniform. She has long, blond workers who were selling Girl Scout cookies for their daughters. I feel this is cheating these girls of the opportunity to be part of a team who agreed to help their organization by selling cookles.

I am 100 percent for the Girl Scouts of America. I went through the entire program myself many years ago, and when my doorbell rings and there is a Girl Scout asking me to buy a box of her cookies, I always buy a box. I would never refuse a Scout who has the courage to come to my door to sell her wares. I do, however, refuse to buy from a parent who indirectly encourages laziness in her daughter by selling the cookies at her office for her child.

It's important for parents to realize that they are sacrificing character building when they take over a job for their child. NO NAME OR TOWN, PLEASE share your view, but there are those who think the bottom line is racking up as many sales as possible. And speaking of selling Girl Scout cookies, read on:

DEAR NO NAME OR TOWN: I

DEAR ABBY: I am a concerned 71-year-old retired businessman. Less than an hour ago.

DEAR ABBY: This past week young girl in a Girl Scout hair, large blue eyes and a winning smile. "I'm selling Girl Scout cookies," she announced brightly. Of course I bought some. She thanked me politely and proceeded on her way.

As I watched her walk away with her blond hair blowing in the wind, I thought: "My God, that child is going from door to door facing strangers. How easy it would be for some sick or evil person to grab her and pull her inside, and do God only knows what to that lovely, trusting child! You read about it in the papers nearly every day."

I telephoned the Girl Scout headquarters and suggested that they have girls go either in pairs or with an adult to sell their cookies. Then I thought I would reach an even wider audience by writing to you.

I hope you think this is worth publishing.

GRÄNDFATHER OF FIVE

DEAR GRANDFATHER: It is. and I thank you for an important message.

DEAR ABBY: My commonlaw husband of five years has given me an ultimatum: the dog or him. I find this a hard choice to make as I love them both. my doorbell_rang. When I Mind you, I love my man more. opened the door. I saw a pretty, but the dog has been my pet for five and a half years - since he was six weeks old.

Keeping a dog in the city is hard, especially a Doberman pinscher. She is intelligent, protective of the people she loves, but as you know. Abby. all animals, no matter how welltrained, do slip up occasionally, especially when confined in the house during the winter months.

My husband wants me to put her to sleep. I don't think I could do it, but it is coming to a showdown, and I must make a decision.

I take care of the dog, feed her. walk her twice a day and pay all the expenses of owning her. as zen. well as half the rent and household expenses. (I do all the housework.) In other words, the man I live with does not support me and/or my pet. Please help me decide.

MS. CATCH-22

DEAR CATCH: No contest. If you need help with this decision. send the heartless scoundrel packing. So what will you lose? A man who would rather kill your pet than find another home for it. Good riddance! You (and the dog) deserve better.

DEAR READER - Ringing in

DEAR DR. GOTT - Many 16 prescription pills a day. After years ago I had shock treat- about a week, my cars started ments, and they helped me. Last ringing, and haven't stopped year I had six more, and three since. The sound is very loud for weeks ago I had two. Now my two or three days, then it quiets head feels funny, I am dizzy and I can't think straight. I'm 78 and taking medicines for blood pressure and diabetes. Could the shock treatments be making me treatments could certainly cause the mental changes you describe. On the other hand, diabetes and hypertension (and the medicines used to control them) can also cause dizziness and inability to think straight. Perhaps your doctor, in conjunction with your psychiatrist, can sort out the pieces of the puzzle and help you return to 59-year-old woman. A few months ago I suffered a severe case of hives and my doctor gave me two cortisone shots and cortisone pills. My body, face and eyes swelled up. I went for tests. First my blood pressure was high and my cholesterol was 500. Then, after a week, my cholesterol was normal, but my liver was not. Then, after another week, the doctor took me off medication and said I was allergic to cortisone. I'm still

DEAR READER - I suggest that you make an appointment with a specialist in internal medicine. The combination of hives, hypertension, increased cholesterol and liver malfunction seems to indicate that something is going awry with your internal organs, particularly the liver. In my experience, allergies to cortisone are extremely rare, because each of us makes cortisone and this compound is necessary for normal health. Furthermore, cortisone and its derivatives are useful in treating a variety of diseases that are 62 So (Scot.) 63 Margin that, in consultation with your doctor, you stop all medicine. If, after a week without medication, you are still bothered by the ringing, see an car, nose and throat specialist to make sure the ears is often the first sign of that the accident did not in some aspirin toxicity. I recommend way affect your cars.

DEAR DR. GOTT - In 1978 I had an accident that hurt my back. My doctor prescribed drugs, but they nauseated me. I 2 Moon (Fr.)

By James Jacoby

It's a little unusual, but sometimes three small cards in a side suit can be a distributional feature. A good declarer will not overlook such opportunities.

North was reluctant to rebid one no-trump with only three little spades, but the alternative - raising hearts with 4-3-3-3 shape - was equally repugnant. He finally chose the bid that told the truth about his shape. When South then invited game by jumping to three hearts, North change horses in midstream. If happily raised to four. he plays two rounds of trump

To safely make the game and then realizes he should contract, declarer must suppress perhaps trump a spade, it is too his natural instinct to draw trumps. Instead, realizing that ace and a spade. East is in with there is a possibility of losing the queen and can lead back his three spade tricks, he should last trump to eventually set the plan on using one of dummy's contract. Better to plan ahead heart honors to ruff a potential and do it right.
