He Had Eczema Problem Since Birth

DEAR DR. LAMB — My son has had eczema since birth. We have doctors at most of this time and always when he was a baby. The pediatrician said he would outgrow it but he's 31 now.

He clears up sometimes and then breaks out on his body, hands and in his hair. He was given shots for years and still takes them but we really can't see very much help from them.

What is lacking? I had a poor diet before his birth. Isn't there some way one can correct this? I insisted on good foods thereafter. We have three daughters and they have no problems.

When a person inherits this characteristic there are numerous different factors which can precipitate an attack. This might be contact with nothing more than wool clothing.

DEAR READER — The first question is the diagnosis. You need to be sure that it is simple eczema that your son has.

When a person has infections, reddening and other problems, the first goal in treatment is to correct these complications. This may involve taking antibiotics.

Because the problem is related to drying of the skin, it's important to prevent loss of moisture from the skin. One approach to treatment is to avoid taking baths. In severely affected people, doctors often recommend total cessation of baths for long periods of time.

The primary problem in eczema is a dry, itchy skin.

Grand Jury Meeting Indictments Expected

A Seminole County grand jury was expected to return an indictment today in connection with the May 25 shooting death of a 72-year-old Sanford man, said Chris Ray, chief assistant state attorney.

The grand jury, which convened Tuesday morning, also is expected to hand down a recommendation concerning county jail inmates' allegations that their civil rights are being violated, Ray said.

Odd-Even Gas Policy Hits States In Northeast

By United Press International
If your car's license plate ends in 2, 4, 6, 8 or 0, you get a spot in the gas lines today in parts of New Jersey, the New York City area and Connecticut.
If your license plate ends in 1, 3, 5, 7, or 9, you will have to wait until Thursday when you will be joined by the rest of the drivers in New Jersey and motorists in the Washington, D.C., area who go on the odd-even system of rationing then.

Starting Monday, Texas drivers also will line up by the numbers and Rhode Island motorists may find themselves under the same system.

Truckers Seek Shutdown

By UNITED PRESS INTERNATIONAL
Independent truckers escalated their 2-week-old protest against rising fuel prices today, blocking gasoline distribution centers in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan and calling for a nationwide shutdown of the trucking industry.

Governors of several states prepared to counter the trucker's tactic.
Produce being rotted Tuesday at farmers markets in the South, where independents had most of the fresh food supply. Pennsylvania dairymen dumped milk for lack of tanker-trucks.
Shipments resulted in more damage to working trucks in five states — Illinois, Indiana, Virginia, Georgia and Utah — but no injuries were reported.

Wayne Leaves $6.8 Million

SANTA ANA, Calif. (UPI) — John Wayne left an estate of more than $6.8 million, willing most of it to his children and first wife and specifically disinheriting his widow, Pilar.

"I am married to Pilar Wayne but she and I are separated and for this reason I intentionally make no provision in this will for her," stated the will filed by Wayne's attorneys Tuesday in Orange County Superior Court.

Attorney John Warren said lawyers for Wayne and his wife agreed before his death on the settlement between them, which need not be filed with any court and will remain "a strictly private matter."

Talmadge: 'No Defense'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Herman Talmadge's decision Tuesday to offer no defense to financial misconduct charges lodged against him by the Senate Ethics Committee was a "stunning" move, said his attorney.

Sources close to the investigation described his decision as designed to lessen the likelihood of harsh discipline by the Senate, preclude a possible perjury charge if he testified and — perhaps more importantly — keep viable his battle for reelection in 1980.

At worst, it would be interpreted by the ethics panel as a sign of weakness, a signal the powerful Georgia Democrat has no defense against the serious charges he faces — or, perhaps, has a defense he doesn't want subjected to public scrutiny.

Ormandy Hospitalized

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — Philadelphia Orchestra conductor Eugene Ormandy remained hospitalized today for observation and tests after suffering chest pains.

The 79-year-old maestro was admitted to Pennsylvania Hospital Tuesday because he had felt "uncomfortable," according to a hospital spokeswoman, who said he was "resting comfortably and doing nicely."

His physician, Dr. Edward Vener, said he did not believe Ormandy had any coronary complications.

'A Medical First'

NEWARK, N.J. (UPI) — Doctors at Beth Israel Medical Center say it's a medical first.

Patricia Isla, 30, suffered three heart attacks and shock while pregnant, had her baby delivered by Caesarean section, then suffered a fourth heart attack and underwent four coronary bypass procedures.

Mrs. Isla of Stanhope, and her two-pound daughter, Vanessa Lee, were in guarded condition Tuesday at the medical center.

"They've both been through quite a lot," a hospital spokeswoman said. "But the prognosis is very good."

Carter Backs Solar Power

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Carter, heralding a "great new adventure" in energy development, today was ready to unveil plans to use renewable resources — chiefly solar power — for 20 percent of the nation's energy needs by the year 2000.

The president essentially issued a national challenge to shift to other sources of energy than fossil fuels, an official said.

In a move some officials acknowledge has political motivations, Carter is asking Congress to adopt a package of proposals to back his goal, including the creation of a $400 million solar development bank.

The Bible Saves Him

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI) — An Air Force policeman who says he was charged with disobeying orders because he refused to stop carrying his Bible to work has been given an honorable discharge.

Steven Hstau, 20, a born-again Christian, said he was charged last month after being caught a second time with a Bible in his briefcase while on duty at the Mountain Home Air Force Base in Idaho.

"If found guilty and sentenced, I'd be the first person ever to go to jail for carrying a Bible in this country," he said. "If prosecuted, it would seem rather silly."

Cable Rate Hike Delayed In Longwood

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
Herald Staff Writer
Seminole Cablevision customers in Longwood who have been advised by the company a rate increase will go into effect July 1 may get a temporary delay — thanks to the Longwood City Commission.

The commission voted Monday night to defer adoption of the ordinance granting Orange-Seminole Cablevision a graduated rate increase pending action by the governor on a bill deregulating the industry in areas where it has non-exclusive franchise agreements. If signed, the deregulation would go into effect Oct. 1, according to City Attorney Ned Julian Jr., who said the firm should be advised by letter that the city has not authorized the increased rates.

On May 21, the city commission approved an increase in the basic monthly fee from $6.50 to $7.50 a month, to a maximum of $8 by the end of 1980.

The governor's legislative office in Tallahassee said today it may be another week or 10 days before the governor decides whether to sign or veto the legislation.

The Florida League of Municipalities has asked the governor to veto the bill. If the bill goes into law, when deregulation becomes effective the Longwood City Commission no longer would have control over the cablevision fees in the city since the firm does not have an exclusive agreement.

The city of Sanford, which several months ago denied a rate increase request from Orange-Seminole Cablevision, also could be affected by the deregulation as its franchise agreement is also non-exclusive. City Manager Warren (Pete) Knowles says the firm's 10-year contract with the city "has three or four years left to run," and he is not sure how the proposed law would affect the franchise.

Rick Holt, administrative assistant to the director of public works for Seminole County, says Orange-Seminole Cablevision also has a non-exclusive franchise to operate in the incorporated areas of the county. "As far as I can determine, this would definitely take us out of the picture if setting the rate structure, but we would have to study it document to see exactly how impact it would have," Holt said.

Sullivan Among Brightest On Death Row

MIAMI (UPI) — Robert Sullivan was being whittled away by his lawyers in Florida's death row learning to be a hotel manager. His chances of completing the correspondence courses in hotel and restaurant management appear extremely dim.

Sullivan's name was on one of the two death warrants signed Tuesday by Gov. Bob Graham.

Sullivan, 31, a sturdy-built, round-faced man with slightly curly dark hair, pale complexion, and engaging toothy smile, is one of the brightest among the 132 persons awaiting execution in Florida's electric chair.

He was sentenced to die in 1973 for the abduction and slaying of Donald Schmidt, 39, the assistant manager of a Howard Johnson motor lodge during a $2,600 robbery at Homestead, Fla., on April 9, 1973. His conviction was upheld by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1976.

Sullivan's life has been a mixture of privilege and denial. He never knew his real parents. At the age of two weeks, he was adopted by a Nashua, N.H., physician and his wife. But when the boy was six, his adoptive parents split up and he was raised by his foster mother in Boston.

Sullivan's attorney, Roy Black, said the foster mother is now a mental patient.

Fresh from high school in 1965, Sullivan enrolled in business administration at the University of Miami. He remained until 1969 and he sometimes told prospective employers he had a college degree, but he never was graduated.

Joe Pineda, for whom he worked at the University of Miami's Intramurals Office, testified as a character witness for Sullivan at the murder trial.

Pineda, now director of student activities at the university, said, "He led us all to believe he had completed his degree, and it wasn't until he applied for a position on campus and we checked his credentials we discovered he hadn't received his degree. It was a shock to many of us who knew him. That was not a part of his character before."

Sullivan and McLaughlin were traced through a credit card stolen from Schmidt and arrested a week after the circled Court Judge Edward Cowart, who sentenced Sullivan to die, said, "I was wrong because Sullivan failed to show 'one scintilla of remorse.'"

However, while awaiting trial, he edited the Dade County, Fla. magazine, "Jailhouse Blues" magazine. In it, he wrote, "If convicted and sentenced to death, the man will not receive any chance whatsoever to correct himself. To my eyes, it is a complete failure of the system."

After he left college, Sullivan managed a Howard Johnson's motor lodge for about eight months. Court records show he began drinking heavily and began frequenting homosexual bars.

In 1972, he returned to Miami from Boston with Reid McLaughlin, 26, a roommate, who pleaded guilty as an accomplice in the killing of Schmidt and testified against Sullivan. McLaughlin is serving life imprisonment.

WORLD IN BRIEF

Jury Deliberating In Jeremy Thorpe Trial

LONDON (UPI) — The jury in the trial of former Liberal party leader Jeremy Thorpe left an Old Bailey courtroom today to decide whether Thorpe is guilty or innocent of incitement and conspiracy to murder.

Judge Joseph Cantley told the jury of nine men and three women Tuesday that he would be concluding his two-day summation of the case and had "very little" more to say.

In the Old Bailey's case No. 78202, billed as "The trial of the century" in some British newspapers, Thorpe, banker David Holmes, businessman John Le Mesurier and amusement machine distributor George Deakin all face charges of conspiring to murder Norman Scott.

Soviets Issue Warning

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet Union issued a stern warning to the U.S. Senate today that amendments to the SALT II treaty could have "grave and even dangerous" implications for U.S.-Soviet relations.

The warning came in a long editorial printed by the Communist Party daily Pravda and excerpted in advance by the official Tass news agency.

Retaliating statements by Soviet President Leonid Brezhnev during last weekend's summit conference in Vienna, Pravda warned that Moscow would not consent to any departures from the accords reached.

Meet Called On Refugees

KUALA LUMPUR, Malaysia (UPI) — Malaysian troops have repaired six boats and lined them up on a beach in preparation for forcing another 2,000 Vietnamese refugees out to sea, diplomatic sources said today.

A world conference to deal with the tragedy of Indochinese refugees—including those from Laos and Cambodia—is expected to convene in Bangkok next month under U.N. auspices.

Malaysian soldiers were repairing at least 20 boats belonging to stranded refugees in preparation for shipping them out to almost certain death, and the diplomatic sources said work was completed on six.

Lake Mary Workshop Set On Tax Hike

By BRAD PURDOM
Herald Staff Writer
The question of whether Lake Mary will increase its property taxes — and, if so, by what amount — will be taken up at a city council workshop June 28, according to Phil Kubles, city manager.

At that time, the council will consider Kubles' recommendation that the tax be raised. If it decides to increase the tax, it then will determine an amount and set a date for a referendum. Kubles has asked the council to schedule the referendum for July or August.

Lake Mary's interim fire chief, Jim Ortoles, said Tuesday the truck could be purchased out of the fire department's existing budget.

He said the company from which the city plans to buy the truck will finance the purchase over seven years with a down payment of $11,500.

"I just don't want the fire department being blamed for a tax increase," he said. "The city may need one; I'm not arguing with that. But we could purchase the new fire truck by spending just a little more than one-third of the $32,500 we've already been allocated as this year's budget."

Kubles agreed Tuesday that the purchase probably could be made without the benefit of a tax increase, but said that would require "tightening our belts and cutting services in some other areas." He said such a pinch "might even include the police department."

Kubles said the city needs to pave some 26 miles of dirt roads, improve its storm drainage, extend its sewage and water lines, and construct a new city hall. He said the increase is needed for those reasons, and to keep up with inflation.

Lake Mary's tax rate, for its portion of the tax bill, is among the lowest in Seminole County. Winter Springs imposes a tax of $2.14 per $1,000 of assessed value. By taxing at a rate lower than $3 per $1,000, Winter Springs disqualifies itself from matching state funds on local projects. Florida will not match funds for any project undertaken by a city taxing at a rate under that figure.

If Lake Mary voters approve the proposed increase later this year, the 1980 tax on an average $20,000 home and land worth $2.45,000, homestead exemption will increase $15. At the current rate, the local portion of the tax would be $45, and at the new rate it would amount to $60.

Kubles said the tax rate in Lake Mary has not been increased in the five years since the city's inception. During those five years, he said, the city's population has almost doubled.

If approved, the tax hike would not be felt by homeowners until 1980. A special meeting of the council has been set for July 19 to discuss the availability of state and federal grants, Kubles said.

Kelly Labels Stamp Hearings 'An Outrage'

Florida Fifth District Congressman Richard Kelly has called Monday's Agriculture hearings an "outrage and an insensitive exploitation of the elderly for political purposes."

The House Agriculture Subcommittee on Nutrition held the hearings in Miami to consider increasing food stamp benefits for elderly persons with high out of pocket medical expenses.

"This hearing is unnecessary and untimely," said Kelly. "I introduced an amendment in committee on May 31 to restore food stamp benefits to elderly recipients who were cut back by changes in the Food Stamp law that went into effect last March. My amendment passed the full Agriculture Committee by a vote of 24-7."

Five days later the Kelly Amendment was dropped from the bill in another committee action. Congressman Fred Richmond of New York urged the committee to delete the Kelly amendment because hearings were scheduled later in the year and he wanted "to give others (in Congress) a chance to participate." Kelly argued that further hearings were unnecessary and called for immediate action to give help to the needy elderly.

"Elderly Americans with high medical expenses do not need hearings," said Kelly. "They need help. Instead of doing what we need to do for the elderly we are just offering a public relations road show. If this committee really wants to give immediate help to the elderly, they should vote for my amendment."

Subsequent to initial approval of the Kelly amendment, the House leadership went into a huddle to reverse itself on the legislation. On June 5, the committee voted to reject the amendment by a vote of 26-16. Kelly plans to reintroduce his amendment when the Food Stamp Authorization is considered by the full house in two-three weeks. Kelly has mounted a massive petition and letter-writing effort to support his amendment.

"Rejection of my amendment and these hearings are just a blatant attempt to put a bunch of politicians in the spotlight while thousands of elderly are hungry and deprived," said Kelly. "I do not object to full public debate on this issue, but if these hearings were so critical, then why did we wait so long to hold them. The food stamp cutback for the elderly went into effect 100 days ago. Why wasn't something done?"

"I don't know how long it has been since members of this Committee have been hungry," said Kelly. "If you have been hungry and without food for 100 days, eating dog food and chewing gum to kill your hunger, I wonder how long you would want to wait for a hearing. My amendment was the first congressional response to a problem that needed immediate remedy and this Committee voted it for purely political reasons."

The Kelly amendment would have allowed elderly persons to deduct out-of-pocket medical and dental expenses to calculate food stamp eligibility. Recent legislation put a limit on the deduction for medical expenses. As a result of changes in the law, more than 60 percent of Florida elderly food stamp recipients received a cut back in food stamp entitlements.

"It is certain that adjustments must be made in the food stamp program but none so vital as to protect the elderly who are sick," concluded Kelly. "Older people who are sick and cannot work should be the number one priority for help under any assistance program."

Noise Becoming A Global Problem

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A new United Nations report on the environment says noise pollution around the world is escalating so rapidly it is becoming "one of the major threats to the quality of human life."

No one can escape unwanted sound, the report said, and people slowly seem to accept noise and its consequences as an inevitable part of life.

"The problem knows no political or social frontiers," said the document prepared under the direction of Dr. Mustafa Kamal Tolba, the executive director of the United Nations Environment Program.

"It affects the rich who sleep in a quiet suburb, but travel by plane and cruise by motorboat just as much as the poor who must live next to a highway or railway or near an airport runway."

The report, an annual look at the state of the world's environment, also focused this year on three other global problems — a debilitating water-borne disease called schistosomiasis, growing resistance of insects to pesticides and the impact of tourism on the environment.

The report noted that noise is everywhere and since it does not pose as obvious and immediate danger as water or air pollution, action to limit noise pollution around the world has been modest.

Yet continued daily exposure to noise over a period of years can cause hearing loss ranging from slight effects to full deafness. The report said sudden and unexpected noise can affect the body in other ways too. Increased blood pressure, increased heart rate and muscular contractions have been observed from such noise.

"Even when a person is accustomed to an environment where the noise level is high, physiological changes occur," the report said. And it said noise also has psychological effects such as irritability, tenseness, moodiness, insomnia and fear.

In addition, the report said noise can impair the efficiency of work, damage structures and even affect the output of farm animals.

It has been estimated, the report said, that 500 professions and occupations involve the danger of hearing impairment because of noise. To avoid this, some countries have set noise exposure limits for workers.

The United States, for example, has a limit of 90 decibels for eight hours a day but the report said it has been found that under such a standard, one-fifth of the exposed work force will suffer hearing damage. As a result, the report said some countries such as the Netherlands have lowered their limits to 80 decibels. Some studies indicate that a maximum of 75 would be better.

Noise is not just a problem on the job. The report said the modern home in developed countries contains many sources of annoying noise such as air conditioners, blenders, washing machines, television and high fidelity equipment.

But of all the sources of noise today, the report said that caused by surface transportation is found almost everywhere. It is particularly bad in Europe and Japan.

"Everywhere it is growing in intensity, spreading to areas until now unaffected, reaching ever further into the night hours and creating as much concern as any other type of pollution," the report said.

"No one can escape the unwanted sound that is called noise — a disturbance to our environment escalating so rapidly as to become one of the major threats to the quality of human life."

COUNTY GETS NEW TANKER

County Director of Public Safety Gary Kaiser (right) shows off county fire division's new 5,000-gallon tanker to the county commissioners Tuesday. With a tank made of stainless steel, the truck not only will be useful in fighting fires, but also can be used to hold drinking water in times of emergency, Kaiser said.

$1.9 Million Project Approved In Oviedo

A $1.9 million development approved by Oviedo City Council will provide badly needed rental housing, according to City Planner Richard Stacey.
Stacey said he feels many of the fears expressed by residents of the Richfield single-family home subdivision, which adjoins the 16.20 acre site, are unfounded.

at the narrowest. Screening will be provided by trees and shrubs or a fence Stacey said.
To resident complaints that the buildings would block off the breeze, Stacey said there would be a minimum of 100 feet between each group of four-cluster homes.
There was also a fear that the traffic generated by the rental project would create problems, but Stacey said the Richfield subdivision would not be affected because there would be a separate entrance into the new development from State Road 426.

The New Vista Corporation development is a project of Orlando developer Robert Van Dyke, who according to Stacey has been building in Seminole and Orange Counties for several years. The R-2 zoned property is located on the west side of the city at Mission and Chapel Roads. A total of 93 rental units are planned, Stacey said.

Under the R-2 zoning construction of duplexes is already permitted, Stacey said, but the developer requested rezoning for 4.5 acres to permit construction of two-story quadruplex cluster homes.
One of the complaints by residents was their objection to increased density, Stacey explained, but actually under

Multi-Purpose Facility Oviedo Eyes Community Center Grant

By JANE CASSELLBERRY Herald Staff Writer
Oviedo City Council responded favorably Monday night to a proposal that the city seek a federal grant to build a multi-purpose community center.
Shelly Cox, program planner for Seminole Community Action and John Moore of Oviedo

Citizens in Action Inc. appeared before the council to request the council apply for a Community Development Block Grant to fund construction of the proposed center.
Moore said Federal Revenue Entitlement Funds could be used for the purchase of construction materials not covered by the CDBG and for purchase of furniture and related equipment.
Moore suggested current available revenue sharing funds be used to purchase a plot of land on which the multi-purpose center could be built.
One of proposed uses for the facility is as a Head Start Center. The program for educationally disadvantaged children, ages 4-5, is being forced out of its present location at Jackson Heights Middle School in Oviedo because the space is needed by the school for classrooms, according to Ms. Cox.

Other possible uses for the center include a community meeting room, facility for senior citizen activities and office for Outreach worker Janey House, whose office is now in a trailer.
The councilmen agreed there is a real need in the whole community for such a comprehensive center and set a work session for Tuesday, June 26 at 7:30 p.m. at city hall to discuss the concept. Among the items for discussion will be what should be included in the building, what size is needed, proposed sites, accessibility to those who will be using it, and available funding.
"i'm very optimistic," Ms. Cox said today. The Community Development Block Grant is a "no match" grant but is discretionary. There is a lot of competition for it and it is awarded based on need and what it will be used for.
Mayor Ben Bosley and the council are very interested in the project," she said.

Martin's The Same Man...

NEW YORK (UPI) — Stay loose, Bob Lemon. They may be calling the bullpen again for you pretty soon. You know what they say about baseball — you never can tell. Billy Martin never even had a chance to get his old seat warm, the one in the manager's office at Yankee Stadium he last sat in 336 days ago, when it became perfectly obvious that despite everything George Steinbrenner had said to the contrary, he hadn't changed at all.

He wasn't settled in the chair in his office five minutes before Tuesday night's homecoming game with the Toronto Blue Jays, which the Yankees ultimately lost 5-4, to drop 9 1/2 back, when he made it pretty clear there hadn't been any appreciable change in him. If anything, he looked and acted like a man who had never been away.

"We keep reading you're a changed man," a newsman said to him. "I don't know who wrote that," Martin said, pretending he wasn't aware everyone had gone so far in quoting Steinbrenner. "I'm no different than I ever was. I got the same address... I wear a lotta Western clothes. Maybe that's what they mean."

With Billy Martin, changing is synonymous with knocking under, and he'd never do that for anyone, regardless of who it was.

Before taking over the Yankees again, Martin held a news conference at which he answered all the questions put to him. "I'm the same Billy Martin," he insisted in answer to one of the questions. "I'm happy to be back and it's good to be able to go to the ballpark again. Baseball has been my whole life."

He was, as he was during the news conference a few hours earlier, but he showed he hadn't changed whatsoever by taking over the third-base coaching job for the Yankees after being given a thunderous ovation by the crowd of 36,211 at the Stadium.

One of those who wasn't surprised at what Martin did Tuesday night was Bob Short, his old boss with the Texas Rangers. Short signed him near the end of the 1973 season to replace White Herzog as manager of the Rangers.

"The first thing he said to me when I signed him was to be surprised if I found him coaching at third base," Short says. "Sure enough, that's where he was soon after he took over the club. He loves coaching third. He thinks he's a better third-base coach than he is a manager."

Short, who ran for the U.S. Senate in Minnesota last year and lost, evaluates Martin as a manager better than anyone I've ever heard of.

"He'll win by far more and steal you 10 games and it was those 10 games that were critical to the Yankees the last two years," Short says. "You've heard the saying, 'It doesn't matter whether you win or lose but how you play the game, haven't you?' Well, with Billy, it's the other way around. It doesn't matter to him at all how the game is played. All he wants to do is win, no matter what."

Along with that, Short adds, nobody could ask for a better friend than Billy Martin.

"He's faithful to the core," Short said. "When I was running on the Senate late last summer and it was difficult for me to find friends, people to stick their necks out for me, Billy was right there. He learned the whole state of Texas and he was standing with me at state fairs, signing autographs and shaking hands with people seven-eight hours every day. He did this for nothing, for free, right after the Yankees let him out. You don't forget a thing like that. At least, I won't, anyway."

Chase Tumbles In 14-7 Opener

Flagship Bank of Seminole shocked Chase & Co., 14-7, Tuesday night in the opening game of the Sanford Little League city championship series.

The two teams square off at 7:30 tonight in the second game of the best two out of three games series at Fort Mellon Park.

Chase & Co. coach Tolle Frank finds himself faced with the problem trying to find a pitcher who can stop the Bankers after he used his top three pitchers in Tuesday's loss.

Ace hurler Darryl Merthie started on the mound for Chase Tuesday night, but hurt his arm on the first pitch of the third inning and Keith McGriff moved to the mound.

McGriff pitched the first two innings, but hurt his arm on the first pitch of the third inning and Keith McGriff moved to the mound.

Reliever McGriff walked the bases full with one out in the third, but Merthie, who moved from the mound to first base, grabbed a grounder off the bat of Darrin Little, tagged the runner going to second and then stepped on the base for an unassisted double play that ended the threat.

Chase took a 5-3 lead with three runs in the bottom of the third. Theodore Graham was safe on an error by the short-stop and Merthie reached base on an infield hit when McGriff hit into a fielder's choice that forced Byington at third base.

Franklin Arrested

ANAHEIM, Calif. (UPI) — Jockey Ronnie Franklin, who rode spectacularly to victories in the Kentucky Derby and Preakness this year, was arrested at the Disneyland amusement park on a charge of possession of cocaine, police reported.

Anaheim police Tuesday said Franklin, 39, of Baltimore, Md., was seen Monday inside a car parked at Disneyland along with three other people. Officers said a Disneyland security guard observed Franklin cutting a white substance with a razor, and called police.

The four were brought to the police station but only Franklin was arrested and charged. He was released on $1,500 bail. Police said arraignment will be held within 10 days at Horton Orange County Municipal Court.

Franklin rode in Sunday's All-Star Jockey Race at Hollywood Park in nearby Inglewood.

Martin's Debut Spoiled By 5-4

By United Press International

With just a little luck or perhaps a well-timed breeze, Billy Martin's return as the New York Yankees manager before a wildly cheering crowd of 36,211 would have been triumphant. But late in the third inning, he was thrown out on a double play.

"I'm not a good loser so I can't say I'm in the happiest mood right now," said Martin, who officially replaced Bob Lemon as manager of the Yankees on Monday. "We were aggressive, but the ball hard and excited well on the cutoffs... but our luck was a little short."

Luis Gomez, a light-hitting infielder and an unlikely villain, hooped a two-run single to right in the sixth inning, snapping a 3-1 tie and scoring what proved to be the winning run.

Gomez's hit, coupled with a terrific game-saving catch by eighth-inning defensive replacement Joe Cannon, led directly to Martin's opening night flop. Cannon leaped above the outfield wall to snare Gary Nettles' ninth-inning fly ball, a shot that appeared headed into the seats for a two-run homer.

"I couldn't really say if it would have gone out or not," said Cannon, unaccustomed to large post-game crowds. But he thought it would have hit the top of the wall.

"That was a super catch in right field," Martin said with a shrug. "You've got to give Cannon credit and you've also got to accept a bit of bad luck. We do need some improvement, mainly in the area of winning. That's what you're here for, Billy."

Fulgham's Wait Was Worth It

By United Press International

Fulgham waited all night to pitch for the St. Louis Cardinals and when the opportunity presented itself, he did a good job.

The 23-year-old Fulgham, who was born in St. Louis, surrendered two unearned runs in the first inning but settled down to scatter eight hits Tuesday night, helping the Cardinals snap a six-game losing streak as they posted a 2-

1 victory over the San Diego Padres.

"I've been a Cards fan for a long time and Bob Gibson was my idol," said Fulgham, who struck out five and walked one in a complete game. "I want to thank Bob for his help. I've been here for a long time and I've learned a lot from him."

Fulgham's debut was a success, as he pitched a six-inning game, allowing only two runs and striking out five batters.

Fulgham's performance was a relief for the Cardinals, who had been struggling in the National League East only to fall three games behind Montreal during the losing streak.

Fulgham's debut was a success, as he pitched a six-inning game, allowing only two runs and striking out five batters.

ROTARIANS BRIEFED

State Office Masons Elect Wilson

John Frederick Wilson of 457 Elliott Ave., Sanford, recently was elected Grand High Priest of the Grand Chapter of Florida's Royal Arch Masons.

Wilson reportedly is the third Sanford person to win the state post.

Born in Orlando on July 23, 1933, Wilson and his family moved to Sanford in 1942. Graduated from Seminole High School in June 1952, he graduated from the University of Florida with BSBA degree in marketing and retailing in June, 1966.

Commissioned as an Ensign in U.S. Naval Reserve in March, 1979, Wilson was released from active duty with rank of Lieutenant in February, 1960.

He has been employed by Wilson-Mater Furniture Co., Inc. since 1960. Currently, he is president and general manager.

Married to the former Sandra Monforton on Feb. 22, 1958, the Wilsons have two sons, Matthew and Timothy.

He has been a Sunday School teacher of young adults since 1961 and was ordained a deacon of First Baptist Church of Sanford that same year. He was chairman of deacons in 1973.

A member of the Sanford Kiwanis Club since 1968, he became its president in 1977. A former member of the Jaycees, he was treasurer of the Downtown Development Corp. from 1977 to 1979.

His Masonic history is as follows:

Initiated, 1965. Worshipful Master of Sanford Lodge No. 62 in 1968. District Deputy Grand Master during 1970. Completed York Rite Degrees in 1968. Served as High Priest of Monroe Chapter No. 16 in 1969. Immediate Commander of Taylor Commandery No. 28 in 1971 and Illustrious Master of Sanford Council No. 20 in 1972. District Deputy Grand High Priest in 1971. Member of Bahia Temple AAOONMS 1967. Member of Bahia Temple Fun & Frolic Unit since 1968. Received Holy Order of High Priesthood in 1971. Member of Knights of the York Cross of Honor, Miami Priory No. 10 since 1973. Member of John B. Phelps York Rite College since 1976. Received the Royal and Select Master Degree in March 1979. Appointed to the Grand Line of the Grand Chapter of Royal Arch Masons of Florida in 1972.

On a single acre of rice or sweet potato or other crop, as many as 50 or 60 peasants can do with the tens of millions of peasants who could be displaced.

But Chung dismissed this problem, saying he hoped mechanization would merely give the commune members more leisure time and not disrupt their way of life.

Another major shift in China's commune policy is away from grains and toward fruit and vegetables, which are exported. Laking and other communes are exporting great quantities of fruit and vegetables, primarily to Hong Kong, even though China itself does not have enough food.

JOHN F. WILSON
... Wins state post

'Sideline Occupations' Being Allowed

China's Communes Go Capitalistic

Guangdong Province are paid on the basis of how hard they work, not how much they need. They are allowed to engage in "sideline occupations" by raising poultry, growing vegetables or making bamboo baskets and then selling the goods in the open market.

The commune is gradually being mechanized to help spur its production of lychee nuts, grapefruit, oranges, plums and other fruit, most of which is exported.

These changes spell a radical reversal of the commune concept introduced by Mao 20 years ago. Commune members would receive equal pay and their products sold at the state at fixed prices to help feed China's hungry masses. They would rely on raw manpower, not imported machines.

Laking is obviously considered one of Guangdong Province's most successful communes or it would not have been shown to foreign visitors. Other communes, for example, are threatened with disintegration and a few face the prospect of widespread hunger, according to provincial radio broadcasts.

Despite the fact that Laking is a model commune, a day spent on the 35-square-mile tract of land about 20 miles from Canton provided insight into China's agriculture, the most important sector of its economy.

Chung Hsiang-kuo, the 33-year-old Cantonese-speaking commune leader, said Laking was divided into seven "production brigades" and these in turn were subdivided into 102 "production teams."

"Members of the production teams are assigned points on the basis of how hard they work and their income is based on these points," he said through an interpreter. The workers have become "very competitive" and their output has increased, he said. "Each commune member also may engage in sideline occupations and sell their products in the market," Chung said. "This income belongs to the commune members individually."

The bustling rural markets can be seen while driving through the rural county side. Peasants bring huge bundles of scallions and other fruits and vegetables to the markets on bicycles and then spread out their wares.

One recent broadcast from Canton's Nanfang Ribao southern daily newspaper said the sideline occupations have "been revived and developed more quickly, millions of private plots of the peasant households have been well cultivated and the number of households raising pigs and poultry has greatly increased."

As a result of these capitalistic-style incentives, there are signs of a growing disparity of incomes on the commune, again hitting at the root of Mao's socialist vision.

The foreign visitors were guided to a series of "typical peasant homes" where they were allowed to sample the rural lifestyle. The peasants said their annual incomes ranged from $600 to $1,000.

A kind of "keeping up with the Joneses" syndrome had cropped up with such family seeking the better things of life.

Cook Of The Week The Kitchen Is Wife's Domain

By TOM NITSEL

When it comes to cooking, Sanford City Commissioner Julian Stenstrom prefers to take a backseat role, leaving the kitchen in the capable hands of his wife Louise.

He will admit to taking a spoon and recipe in hand prior to their marriage eight years ago and whipping up a batch of pancakes or frying an egg or two. "But since I've been married to Louise the kitchen is her domain," he confessed.

Stenstrom, boasts that with her Pennsylvania Dutch background, his wife, has some fantastic cookie recipes and is a "tremendous bread-maker and Christmas candy expert."

Mrs. Stenstrom is quick to add that they are both watching their weight and the cookies and candy are not a big part of their menus any longer.

Admitting to being on a diet and to having recently lost 30 pounds, the commissioner who is public relations director for Cardinal Industries and a board member of Seminole Community Action, finds a regular diet is difficult to maintain with the numerous luncheons, meetings and travel he must do.

But when he can sit down and enjoy his wife's cooking and not count the calories, what are some of his favorite recipes?

"All recipes are his favorites," answers Mrs. Stenstrom with a laugh. But when the two children and three grandchildren stop by for a visit the following are some of the families favorites:

ROAST BEEF
Roast beef roast, 3-4 lbs.

1 can cream of mushroom soup
1 onion
White potatoes
Carrots
Salt & pepper to taste
Place roast in laking pan and cover with can of mushroom soup. Bake at 350 degrees. After roast is partially cooked add chopped onion, potatoes, carrots and seasoning to taste. Continue cooking for 3 hours or until tender.

"Makes a wonderful one-pan meal served with a salad and hot dinner rolls," adds Mrs. Stenstrom.

BAKED PORK CHOPS AND RICE
6 center cut pork chops 2 onions
2 cups uncooked rice
3 cans condensed tomato soup
2 cans evaporated milk
Place 6 nice center cut pork chops in laking pan. Slice 2 onions and layer over pork chops. Sprinkle with salt and add rice, tomato soup and milk. Place in 350 degree oven for approximately 3 1/2 hours. Serve with green beans and rolls.

SPARE RIBS AND SAUERKRAUT
1 qt. sauerkraut
4 lbs. spare ribs
1 tsp. "Sweet 'n' Low" brown sugar
1-1/2 tsp. seasoned salt
1-1/2 tsp. pepper
1/2 cup hot water
Preheat oven to 350 degrees. Place sauerkraut in greased baking dish, sprinkle with brown sugar. Brown spare ribs under broiler. Season. Place on sauerkraut and add hot water. Cover and bake for 45 minutes to 1 hour.

OATMEAL CAKE
1/2 cup boiling water
1 cup oatmeal
Mix and let stand while combining other ingredients.
Mix together:

1/2 cup Crisco oil
1 cup white sugar
1 cup brown sugar
2 eggs
1 tsp. soda
1 tsp. salt
1 tsp. baking powder
4 tsp. cinnamon
1 sm. pkg. black walnuts or pecans (optional)
Add oatmeal mixture then 1 1/2 cups all-purpose flour. Pour mixture in laking pan and bake at 350 degrees for 35 minutes. Remove from oven when done and cover with following topping.

TOPPING
Mix together:
1 stick butter
2 eggs
1 cup brown sugar
1 7/8-oz. pkg. coconut
Return to oven to brown. Cool before serving.

APPLE PIE CAKE
1 box yellow cake mix
3/4 cup salad oil
1/2 cup apricot nectar
4 whole eggs

Mix ingredients and bake in tube pan at 300 degrees for 1 hour. Let cool in pan.
ICING
Juice from 2 lemons
1 1/2 cups powdered sugar
Mix and pour over cake when removed from oven.

Kids' Loud Music Presents Problems To Happy Family

DEAR ABBY: The house is finally quiet. My husband and two teenagers are in bed, but I am so upset I can't sleep.

Our marriage has been so wonderful, full of love and blessing with two healthy children who have always been well behaved. We were an exceptionally happy family until about a year ago. So what's the problem? LOUD MUSIC!

Abby, my music must be played so loud today? The only answer we get from our children is, "Because."

The words exchanged between my husband and son tonight were terrible. My husband asked our son politely to please turn down the stereo. Our son ignored him, so his father turned the stereo off and announced that neither of the children would be allowed to play music again until they agreed to keep the volume at a level that was comfortable for US.

I've never seen my husband so angry. The kids are mad and I'm upset.

Do other parents have this problem? And how do they handle it?

AM-PM DEAR AM: Yes, many parents have that problem. And they handle it the same way your husband handled it.

PINE BLUFF, ARK., MOM DEAR MOM: It would nice if the bridegroom could afford it, but most cannot, so it's customary for each attendant to pay for the rental of his own tuxedo.

DEAR ABBY: My husband is a physician who has just passed his 50th birthday.

He tells all his male patients who reach 50 to slow down. If they smoke, he orders them to quit but he's a three-pack-a-day man.

He puts all his overweight patients on diets, but HE is considerably overweight himself and can't stay on a diet for 100 days. He insists that daily exercise is a MUST, but HE doesn't exercise at all.

He says that an annual vacation is essential to good health, but HE hasn't had a vacation in six years. And this will floor you: He wants all his physicals to have a complete physical checkup every year, but HE hasn't had one for 10 years!

What's wrong with him, and how can I get through to him?

DOCTOR'S WIFE DEAR WIFE: He's human. He finds advice much easier to give than to take. You can get through to him (maybe) by insisting that HE consult a colleague for a checkup. If he refuses, ask him to keep paying those life insurance premiums, so that you and your next husband can retire in comfort.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LET IT BE" IN THE VALLEY: If you love something, set it free. If it comes back to you, it's yours. If it doesn't, it never was.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "LITTLE HEROES" IN OKLAHOMA CITY: Don't look back. There's hardly a man alive who couldn't retire comfortably in his old age if he could sell his experience for what it cost him.

Campers Awarded

The Seminole County Campers of the National Campers and Hikers Association (NCHA) installed new officers at the Chapter's June 1979 Campout.

Officers for 1978-80 are: William McLaughlin, Orlando, president; Tom Thompson, Daytona Beach, vice-president; Ed Samples, Maitland and George Shaffer, St. Augustine, secretary; and Irma Kirschenbaum, Sanford, treasurer.

Ken Johnson, Casselberry, Alan Carver, Chaplain; Alfred Kirschenbaum, Sanford, sergeant at arms; Connie and Tom Thompson were awarded with special "Gold Tree" pins, the only members earning the coveted award by 100 percent attendance at all meetings and campouts of the chapter this past year.

This Baked Chicken Has Italian Flair

Have you noticed how everything tastes better outdoors? Well, the Italians have known this for centuries. They are in love with outdoor restaurants and patio dining.

This baked chicken has all the flavor of an Italian meal on a terrace overlooking the hills outside Florence. And yet it's as easy to prepare as any summer meal should be.

Italian-style bread crumbs, which are already completely seasoned, give it the authentic flavor. They contain imported Romano cheese, parsley, onions, garlic, oregano, fennel and other spices.

The night before, or early in the morning, the chicken is pickled all over with a fork and placed in a bowl with milk, salt and black pepper. This allows the flavors to penetrate. When you're ready to cook, the Italian-style crumbs are combined with grated Parmesan in a plastic bag, and the pieces are dipped from the milk into the crumbs in the bag to coat thoroughly. Then it's baked to a golden brown.

Remember, if you're taking the chicken to the picnic in a cooler, let it warm up to room or outdoor temperature before serving, for best flavor and texture.

Fish Casino is a quick-to-prepare broiled fish dish which takes just a few minutes under the broiler. Once again, the topping is a crunchy mixture of Italian style bread crumbs plus onion, garlic and finely chopped red and green peppers. Delizioso.

ITALIAN-STYLE BAKED PICNIC CHICKEN

2½ pounds chicken parts
1-½ cups milk
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon ground black pepper
1-½ cups Italian-style bread crumbs
½ cup grated Parmesan cheese
2 tablespoons olive oil
Pierce chicken all over with fork tines; place in a snug-fitting bowl. Combine milk with salt and black pepper; pour over chicken. Cover and refrigerate for 3 hours, turning once. Preheat oven to 350 degrees F. In a plastic bag combine bread crumbs and Parmesan cheese. Place chicken, one piece at a time, in a plastic bag; shake to coat completely. Re-dip chicken in milk; return to plastic bag; shake to coat again. Place chicken pieces on a greased jelly roll pan or shallow baking pan. Sprinkle with olive oil. Bake until chicken is cooked through, crisp and browned, about 1 hour. Serve at room temperature or hot. Yield: 4 to 6 portions.

margarine, melted
½ cup finely chopped onion
¼ cup finely chopped green pepper
¼ cup finely chopped red pepper
1 small garlic clove, minced

Preheat broiler to hot. Wash fish. Place on a greased jelly roll pan. Brush with 1 teaspoon of the Worcestershire sauce; set aside. In a small bowl combine bread crumbs, butter, onion, green and red peppers, garlic and remaining 3 teaspoons Worcestershire sauce. Spread mixture on fish. Broil 6-inches from source of heat until fish flakes easily when tested with a fork, about 5 minutes. Yield: 4 to 6 portions.

Italian-Style Baked Picnic Chicken gets its flavor from packaged Italian-style bread crumbs containing Romano cheese, parsley, onions, garlic and other spices.

Kitchen Buffet Is Cool 'N Easy In Summertime

Cool 'n easy are the key words on a hot summer day for the best in dining. Have you ever thought of assembling the buffet in the kitchen for one of the simplest ways to entertain?

Fill the kitchen sink with ice cubes and then set among them the foods needing ice cold: a turkey or bowl of Chilled Mushroom Soup, made in advance and cooled; two ice cream beverages. Serve other foods on the counter top adjacent to the sink. The dessert can be assembled and frozen — then wrapped and held for a week or more. Remove from freezer 15-20 minutes before serving.

Some advance chilling is required for the preparation of the two sandwiches, namely, the topper for Triple Deck Meat-In-Ones and the spread for Tuna Open Facers. On other foods such as the Spinach-Yogurt Appetizers, Chilled Mushroom Soup and Swiss Cheese Salad, advance preparation is in order, with chilling essential to hold the food until party time.

When it's almost time to serve, complete making each of the sandwiches, spread crackers with spinach mixture, set out the other foods and send out the call, "It's time to eat." You can be whirling the two beverages, Mocha Refreshers and Tropical Pleasers in the blender as everyone enters since these two beverages are served immediately. Or, you might mix them later if you're to substitute for dessert. It's the instant convenience of dairy foods that simplifies preparation and serving of this Kitchen Buffet.

TUNA OPEN FACERS
6 servings
24 thin cucumber slices
1 can (1 1/2 oz.) tuna, drained and flaked
½ cup dairy sour cream
One-third cup thin diagonally sliced celery
2 tablespoons sliced green onion
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
½ teaspoon salt
6 slices whole wheat bread, buttered on one side
6 slices (1 oz. each) Colby cheese, each cut into 2 triangles
Place cucumber slices in cold water while preparing sandwiches. Combine tuna, sour cream, celery, green onion, Worcestershire sauce and salt. Cover and refrigerate 1 to 2 hours to allow flavors to blend. To assemble sandwiches, drain cucumber slices; pat dry with paper toweling. Place four slices on each bottom side of bread. Spoon tuna mixture over cucumbers. Arrange 2 cheese triangles on top of each sandwich. Serve immediately.

SWISS CHEESE SALAD
10 servings
8 oz. Swiss cheese, cut into 1 x 1/2-inch strips
3 hard-cooked eggs, chopped
½ cup dairy sour cream
½ teaspoon Dijon-style mustard
½ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon pepper
Thinly sliced green onion
Combine cheese and eggs in small mixing bowl. Combine sour cream, mustard, salt and pepper. Add to cheese mixture; toss well. Chill, covered, 1 to 2 hours to allow flavors to blend. Serve on crisp salad greens; sprinkle with green onion.

CHILLED MUSHROOM SOUP
Yield: 5 cups
One-third cup butter
6 oz. fresh mushrooms, chopped
2 tablespoons sliced green onion with top
¼ cup all-purpose flour
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon white pepper
¼ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon garlic powder
3 cups milk
1 cup whipping cream
1 cup chicken broth
Sliced fresh mushrooms
Melt butter in 3-quart saucepan. Sauté mushrooms and onion until tender, about 5 minutes. Stir in flour and seasonings. Remove from heat. Gradually stir in milk, whipping cream and broth. Bring to boiling over medium heat, stirring constantly. Boil and stir 1 minute. Reduce heat to low; cook 10 minutes, stirring constantly. Chill several hours or overnight to allow flavors to blend. Serve garnished with sliced fresh mushrooms.

MUCHA REFRESHERS
Yield: 4 cups
1 can (8 oz.) frozen concentrated Hawaiian Punch, thawed
1 cup apricots, chilled
1 cup cold milk
parley and seasonings. Refrigerate, covered, about 1 hour to allow flavors to blend. Meanwhile, combine butter and mustard; beat until well blended. Spread one side of bread with butter mixture. Place bread end to end forming a long row. Fold ham slices in half. Overlay slices on top of bread. Arrange pineapple

TROPICAL PLEASERS
Yield: 4 cups
1 cup cottage cheese
1 cup grated raw carrot
One-third cup chopped nuts
¼ cup finely chopped fresh parsley
¼ teaspoon salt
¼ teaspoon seasoned salt
1-6-oz. pkg.
Place milk, extract and ice cream in blender container; cover. Blend on high speed until of desired consistency. Pour into tall chilled glasses; serve immediately.

TRIPLE DECK MEAL-ONES
6 servings
3 cups cold chocolate milk
¼ teaspoon almond extract
1 pint coffee ice cream, softened
Place milk, extract and ice cream in blender container; cover. Blend on high speed until of desired consistency. Pour into tall chilled glasses; serve immediately.

Swedish Food Helps Boost Beef Budget

A tender, well-seasoned pot roast goes a long way toward stretching the beef budget. It's a perfect approach to using relatively inexpensive cuts of beef — as well as more costly ones — without losing tenderness or flavor.

A Stoltstek or Royal Pot Roast is prepared from a Swedish recipe. Its unique flavor comes from dark corn syrup, sweet cucumber pickles and pickle liquid.

hour longer or until meat is tender. Transfer meat to platter; keep warm. Remove cheesecloth. Skim off any surface fat.

Sprinkle together flour and cold water until smooth. Mix into pan liquids. Cook over medium heat until mixture thickens and boils. Season to taste with salt and pepper.

Serve pickle gravy with pot roast. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 8 servings.

DILLED SWEDISH MEATBALLS WITH NOODLES

5 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 cup chopped onions
¼ cup fresh bread crumbs
½ pound lean ground beef
1 egg
¼ cup chopped dill pickles
¼ cup milk
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
¼ teaspoon pepper
1 pint sour cream (2 cups)
8 ounces medium egg noodles, cooked
Paprika
In large skillet, melt 2 tablespoons butter. Add onions and sauté over medium heat until tender.

In bowl, combine ¼ cup of sautéed onion, bread crumbs, beef, egg, ¼ cup of the chopped pickle, milk, salt, Worcestershire and pepper. Mix well. Chill 30 minutes for easier handling. Reserve remaining onion mixture for your cream sauce.

Shape meat mixture into 1½-inch balls. Roll in flour.

In same skillet, melt remaining butter. Add meat balls and cook over medium-low heat, browning evenly on all sides.

Stir in reserved onion, sour cream and pepper to taste. Stir and heat slowly, about 5 minutes.

To serve, toss noodles with remaining chopped pickle and spoon onto platter. Top with meatball mixture. Sprinkle with paprika. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 8 servings.

HOROSCOPE

By BERNICE BEDE OSOL. For Thursday, June 21, 1979. YOUR BIRTHDAY June 21, 1979. This coming year you could find yourself with several different kinds of ambitious enterprises...

On Man's Most Common Pain

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am a 74-year-old man. I am 5-foot-11 and weigh 170 pounds. For the last nine months I have been having severe head pain. I wouldn't call them headaches. I wear glasses so I thought I got new glasses but that didn't solve my problem so I saw an ophthalmologist. He went through all the tests and said my eyes were O.K.

Your mistake is in not seeing your family doctor or a specialist in internal medicine. You need someone to look at your total medical status and see what might be your problem. In any case you should have some medicine to help relieve the pain if it's that severe.

WIN AT BRIDGE

Jones - A Household Face

NEW YORK (UPI) — Henry Jones walked into the restaurant late for an interview and the reporter, who had ordered a drink, apologized for starting without him.

"Great," Jones said. "What have I said so far?" Jones has been an actor for more than 40 years, and for most of them like many fine character actors he has been one of those familiar faces that everybody loves but nobody can slip a name to.

Patty Duke Astin has changed roles. The actress, who made a name for herself portraying Helen Keller on stage and screen, will play the blind-deaf girl's teacher in a television production of "The Miracle Worker."

SAME STORY - DIFFERENT ROLE

Jones doesn't deny recognition shares a place with films in all this — he grins broadly with delight at the fact that people are beginning to recognize him. "It's very disarming," he said, "to have people walk up and say, 'I know you — what have I seen you in?' When you've been around since 1935, that's disconcerting."
