

QUESTIONS TO ANSWER FOR SELECTIVE DRAFT ON REGISTRATION DAY

QUESTIONS WITH WHICH ELIGIBLE MEN SHOULD BE FAMILIAR

The following are the questions that will be asked all young men who have passed their twenty-first birthday and have not reached their thirty-first birthday on June 5, the day that President Wilson has set aside for registration for the new conscript army.

All young men, whether citizens or not, coming between the age limits are required to register on this day, or to provide for registration. Those who are not citizens, who are physically incapacitated or who are exempt from draft for any other reason will not be called to service.

1. Name in full. Age in years. This means all your names spelled out in full.

State your age today in years only. Disregard additional months or days. Be prepared to say "19," or "25," not "19 yrs. 3 mos.," or the like.

2. Home address. This means the place where you have your permanent home, not the place where you work. Be prepared to give the address in this way: "32 Main Street, Chicago, Cook county, Illinois," that is, giving number and name of street first, then town, then county and state.

3. Date of birth. Write your birthday (month, day and year) on a piece of paper before going to register, and giving the paper to him the first thing. Example: "August 5, 1894."

4. Are you (1) a natural born citizen, (2) a naturalized citizen, or an alien? or have you declared your intention to become a citizen (specify when)?

(1) If you were born in the United States, including Alaska and Hawaii, you are a natural born citizen, no matter what may have been the citizenship or nationality of your parents, if you were born in Porto Rico, you are a citizen of the United States unless you were born of alien parentage. If you were born abroad, you are still a citizen of the United States if your father was a citizen of the United States at the time you were born, unless you have expatriated yourself.

(2) You are a naturalized citizen if you have completed your naturalization; that is, if you have "taken final papers." But you are not a citizen if you have only declared your intention to become a citizen. That is, if you have only taken out "first papers"; in the latter case you are only a declarant.

You are also a naturalized citizen if, although foreign born, your father or surviving parent became naturalized while you were under 21 years of age and if you came to the United States under 21.

(3) You are a declarant if, although a citizen or object of some foreign country, you have declared on oath before a naturalization court your intention to become a citizen of the United States. Receipt from the clerk of the court of the certified copy of such declaration, is often called "taking out first papers." You are not a declarant if your first paper was taken out after September 26, 1906, and is more than 7 years old.

(4) You are an alien if you do not fall within one of the three classes above mentioned.

(5) Where were you born? First name the town, then the state, then the country, as "Columbus, Ohio;" "Vienna, Austria;" "Paris, France;" "Sofia, Bulgaria."

6. If not a citizen, of what country are you a citizen or subject?

This need only be answered on by by aliens and declarants. Remember that a "declarant" is not yet a citizen of the United States. If an alien or declarant, state the name of your country, as "France, Japan, China, etc."

(7) What is your present trade, occupation, or office?

This does not ask what you once did, nor what you have done most of the time, nor what you are most likely to do. It asks what you are doing now. It asks what you are doing in your present trade, occupation, or office. If you hold an office under state or federal government, name the office you hold. If you are in one of the following offices or employments use one of the names hereafter mentioned:

"Business," "Merchant," "Farmer," "Carpenter," "Cabinet-maker," "Mechanic in automobile factory," etc. If you hold an office under state or federal government, name the office you hold. If you are in one of the following offices or employments use one of the names hereafter mentioned:

(8) By whom employed? Where employed? If you are working for an individual firm, corporation, or association, state its name, and its business, trade, profession or employment for your own use. If you are an officer of the state or of a political organization, state its name, and its business, trade, profession or employment for your own use.

(9) Have you a father, mother, wife, child under 12 or a sister or brother under 12 who is dependent upon you for support (specify when)?

(10) Married or single (which)? Race (specify when)?

(11) What military service have you had? Branch? Years? Nation or State?

(12) Do you claim exemption from draft? Specify grounds.

Because you claim exemption from draft, it by no means follows that you are exempt. For the information of the War Department you should make a claim now if you intend to do so.

FLAG RAISED OVER LYRIC WEDNESDAY

APPROPRIATE CEREMONIES MARK THE RAISING OF OLD GLORY

The flag raising at the Lyric Theatre last Wednesday was marked with most appropriate exercises and a large crowd witnessed the event.

Judge Housholder as master of ceremonies had charge of the event and introduced the speaker of the day, Hon. Geo. G. Herring who delivered one of the patriotic orations that are anticipated by his friends as being not only gems of oratory but breathing his deep conviction regarding love of country and unity.

When the time came for the raising of the flag little Esther Miller pulled the rope and as the Stars and Stripes reached the end the flag was hoisted and draped on a stand of honor.

The economics of this second flag raising and the immense crowd present attests the patriotism of the Sanford people and their devotion to the President and the flag.

Married Men Not Exempt

Washington, May 22. Married men are not exempt from the operations of the new draft law, it was reported today.

The Zepelin and the submarine are prominently in the news of the day.

The ride from Sanford to Orlando over that new highway is dream stuff.

The city council of the city of Sanford, Fla., met on May 21, 1917, at 7:30 p. m. in regular session.

OUR CITY MARKET

That Sanford is alive to the seriousness of the high cost of living is demonstrated in the way this city took hold of the market idea and the other cities in the state are falling in line.

"Delegations from the Tampa Housewives' League and from various local labor unions appeared before the city council last night to inquire the cause of the tedious delay in supplying the people with a public market and demanding that action be taken without further procrastination.

The Speakers for the Housewives' League were Mrs. Armstrong and Mrs. Sauls. The union speakers appearing were Mr. Harrington of the Typographical Union, Mr. Sprunk of the Tailors' Union and Mr. Rogers of the Printers Union.

FENCE THE CATTLE
Plant food stuffs, yes. Spend thousands on good roads. Yes. What is the use when a ten cent, tick ridden cow can get in your field and eat up all your stuff in one night?

There are hundreds of acres of groves and hundreds of acres of old fields in this county that could be growing stuff for feeding the army—but they are not fenced and no one can afford to fence the fields temporarily and who wants to buy fence when the law should compel the owner of the ten cent, tick ridden cow to be fenced or killed?

Nice talk, all this about growing more food stuffs. While the government is talking about growing more food stuff the majority of us are thinking that the government should compel the people to fence their cattle in this country not only for the complete eradication of the tick but also in order to allow all this good land to be cultivated right now when the food crops should be raised.

Thus on account of the ten cent, tick ridden Florida cow we cannot raise the food stuffs as the government urges us to do. With all the thousands of acres that could be cultivated we are compelled to sit down and watch the ten cent, tick ridden cow meander through the steaks, queen of all she surveys, for is she not of greater importance than a mere farmer who wants to cultivate the land and raise something for the army?

And if the ten cent, tick ridden cow is not greater than the farmer why does the legislature refuse to pass no fence laws and why are the people afraid to assert themselves?

THE BRIGHT SIDE

The people of the United States are so unaccustomed to war that they become unduly excited when they see their country involved in one. The result is a feverish, hysterical advocacy of all kinds of preparation and reform. Public sentiment is sure to go too far but it goes in the right direction.

The good feature is the fact that the craze wears off and the country settles down to business. Excesses proposed at first do not last but that which is not excess does last and is of benefit.

A few weeks ago imagination filled the water with German submarines and the land with German spies. The majority of it soon passed away but the reasonable precaution still remains. The country no longer is hysterical but it is watchful and has settled down to a rational preparation for emergencies.

The food situation has been discussed as if the country were on the verge of starvation and economies were advocated that would have sounded the death knell of trade. We have not entirely passed through this but we are passing and will soon settle down to the proper stride.

Provision has already been made for the payment by this country of seven billion dollars for the war and no one has any idea how much more it will cost. If we get out with another seven billions we will get off lightly. Taxes have been doubled and the extra burdens will continue for many years. But is there no compensation? We hope there is and in this we do not refer to the political results to be accomplished by our participation in the war.

We have heard for a number of years of the high cost of living. There has been justification for the talk and yet to a great extent we could more properly have complained of the cost of high living. Our people have bought without consideration of the price. High prices could be combated in many ways. There are men in this city and probably in all other who sell products far below the prices charged by others and yet large majority of the people have continued to buy where they have been accustomed to trade regardless of the price charged.

Women are supposed to be great bargain hunters but they are bargain hunters only when they find that some merchant has marked down a five dollar article to $4.98. They continue to pay 60 cents a pound for butter when they know they can get it elsewhere for 50. They continue to buy high priced foods when they know they can get other foods as palatable and as nutritious for half of what they are giving.

They follow fashion and the fashion has been to splurge. The fashion now is to economize and attention is now given to saving where it was centered in spending. The excessive economy will pass and the intelligent economy will remain for a time at least. If those who manage the business of the households give their attention to getting as much as possible for the money they handle, and stick to it a half dozen years, after the war ends, they will save enough to be full compensation for the money losses by the war. The south recovered through economy and the United States will do the same thing.—Times-Union.

Miss Henrietta Dickins
Born in Alabama about eighty years ago. She is the daughter of Mrs. Edgar Powell in Ft. Myers, where she has been for the past eighteen months. Mrs. Powell will accompany the remains to Enterprise. Miss Dickins and her two maiden sisters owned fine property in and around Enterprise in early prosperous days, and were identified with progressive interests of Volusia county, settling there in 1869.

Miss Dickins was well known on the East Coast, having lived at various times at Melbourne and New Smyrna. She is survived by her sister, Mrs. M. S. Sims of Calvert, Alabama and a large number of nieces and nephews, many of whom live in Alabama. Interment will be made in the family plot in Enterprise, Rev. Mr. Bartlett officiating. Miss Dickins was a consistent and earnest member of the Methodist church.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Music Department
The final program of the season was given by the Music Department of the Woman's Club on Tuesday afternoon. A program of charm and interest was presented that showed careful study and well prepared work on the part of those who rendered the beautiful selections. Mrs. Gwynn Fox, who had charge of the arrangements deserves much credit for the varied selections and distribution of the talent assisting. The silver offering of the afternoon was given to the club house debt, although this department was the first to discharge its obligation of one hundred dollars. The meeting was opened by Mrs. R. E. Tolar, chairman of the department. Mrs. Fox gave a paper on "England as a Musical Country" and a brief sketch of each composer on the program then followed the musical numbers. "Drink to Me Only"

The social hour which followed the program was most enjoyable.

On Wednesday afternoon the Welfare Department met for the last time until October, closing the club meetings for the season. Mrs. Jas. Moughton, the incoming chairman presided with gracious dignity and the meeting was interesting throughout. Seventy-five dollars and ten cents was reported on the Department obligation of the club house debt and arrangements for a rummage sale to complete the amount. At the conclusion of business the chairman introduced Mrs. Wallace, who rendered two beautiful vocal solos. She was followed by Messrs. Hiers who gave delightfully a humorous reading. Singer and reader were much enjoyed and received enthusiastic applause. An informal social hour with refreshments followed. Officers announced for the department were Mrs. M. C. Savage, vice chairman; Mrs. Alfred Lijja, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. W. H. Peters, chairman of finance.

True Age of Man.
How old is man? Measured in years no one knows. But he is as old as thought is mind. When man's memory first began to think, that day man was born. As man has progressed in the last million years, or half-million, so we may hope he will progress in the next half-million or million, and the time may yet come when, as a great scientist has said, he will stand upon this earth and touch the planets.

Radium Emanations.
The emanations from radium cannot be stopped, but as severely any exhibition of the material is appreciable, despite the fact that a stream of emanations is constantly being drawn off. It is of small amount, but the rays were allowed to escape promptly, however, they might do considerable damage; in order to confine them, therefore, a safe has been constructed with a thick lining of lead inside the steel.

HAYES LEWIS OUT

Mack Cathcart Lands Best Job in State of Florida Washington, D. C., May 18. James M. Cathcart was nominated today by President Wilson to be collector of internal revenue for the District of Florida.

The announcement of the appointment of a successor to Hon. Hayes Lewis, collector of internal revenue for Florida for his past four years and whose commission expires "At the pleasure of the President," comes as a surprise to his friends, who believed that no effort would be made to bring about a change. Mr. Lewis was appointed shortly after the commencement of the first term of President Wilson, and he succeeded Joseph E. Lee, collector of Jacksonville, who had held the office under successive Republican administrations for many years. Mr. Lewis was a warm friend and supporter of Senator Bryan, who was elected to the senate two years before President Wilson took office, and it was upon the instance of Senator Bryan that he was appointed under objections made by Senator Fletcher. Prior to his elevation to the office of collector of internal revenue Mr. Lewis was sheriff of Jackson county and one of the most prominent men in Florida politics. He was in the midst of every political fight and was always on the side of the so-called progressives.

Mr. Cathcart is a former newspaper man of Florida, having been city editor of the Tampa Tribune prior to his accepting the appointment of secretary to Senator Fletcher during the senator's first term. During his service in Washington he studied law at Washington and Lee University and this year received his degree. He is one of the most efficient and most popular secretaries in Washington, as well as one of the most popular students at Washington and Lee. During the recent presidential campaign he was elected president of the Democratic Students' Club of the school and as president of the Wilson Club made many speeches in and around Washington in favor of the return of the President for another term.

Owing to the pressure of war legislation before the senate it is possible that confirmation of the appointment of Mr. Cathcart as collector of internal revenue for Florida may be delayed for a short while, in the meantime Mr. Lewis will continue to serve.

Mr. Lewis this morning stated that he had not been officially notified of any change in the local revenue department headquarters, and said that until he was so notified he had nothing to say.

Queer Ideas About Snakes. The people of Uruguay have some queer ideas and superstitions. One is that if one throws a live snake into a fire, it will stick out its legs, which it keeps concealed under its scales. This idea probably arose from the scales sticking outward as the snake felt the heat. Another idea is that for every snake one kills during Easter week one is let off a year in purgatory.

Pretty Flower Party

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Britt entertained on Thursday afternoon with pretty flower party in honor of the fourth birthday of their lovely little daughter, Margaret, who with eighteen tiny companions celebrated the event in all the happy abandon of childhood. With their gay ribbons fluttering in the breeze they flitted about the lawn like so many pretty butterflies. In all the charming details a color motif of pink prevailed and the effect was a garden of roses, the little maidens themselves being the loveliest flowers of them all. In the dining room where refreshments were served the table was centered by a white birthday cake adorned with four pink candles in pink rose settings. From the chandelier was suspended a basket of roses and ferns that drooped over the sides and fell in a shower of ribbons over the table. Extending to the corners, ribbons were caught in graceful bows with ferns and roses. Vases of pink roses with small watering pots filled with flowers completed the effective table arrangements.

Roses with quantities of ferns in baskets and vases were placed about the room. In the living room the same pretty decorations prevailed with white roses for the flowers.

The ice cream was served in carmelita cups and to complete the dinner suggestion the children were given outline cards in rose design to be colored with crayons. The invitations were cards circled with wreaths of roses containing this verse: "Flowers that bloom in my garden will bloom for you on Thursday. And if you'll come and play with me I'll welcome you right gladly."

The little guests, all of whom brought lovely gifts to the young honoree were Lucile and Lillian Mahoney, May Purdon, Lois and Anna Couch, Carmen Guthrie, Antoinette Shinholser, Billy Bonchelle Wight, Dorothy Lawson, Margaret Dornier, Marie Louise Walsh, Margaret Bowman, Wanda Smith, Clara Bray, Martha Almota Bryan, Evelyn Peabody. Three handsome little men who graced the occasion were Braxton Perkins, Jr., Charles Betts and Charles Britt, Jr. Flash light pictures of the table and group were taken.

Complimentary Dinner In honor of Miss Lillian Jones of Orlando the charming young guest of Miss Elizabeth Stafford, the younger society set gave a delightful dance at the Woman's Club on Thursday evening. The young people were chaperoned by Mrs. Allan Jones.

Red Cross Benefit Committees of the Red Cross Association are busily engaged selling tickets and advertising with a house to house canvass, the Red Cross benefit at the Lyric. Each ticket represents six admissions and can be used for any of the regular features at the Lyric until June 1st. Should there be any special attraction, however, these tickets will not admit the holder. Mr. Lane, manager of the Lyric, offers a liberal percentage that will net the Red Cross Association a generous amount. The cause is worthy and the committees are efficient and enthusiastic. The attractions for this week are unusually good and there is no special attraction at higher prices.

His physician after a thorough diagnosis of the case pronounced him to be in a very serious condition. An X-ray examination is to be given soon which may show that an operation will be necessary in order to save his life, and as his heart has not been strong for two or three years past and is in a weak condition at present the probability of his recovering from an operation does not appear to be favorable. Mr. Rayton has had several good friends among the colony growers, all of whom will be sorry to hear this news.

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH. "HE'LL PRENT 'EM"---SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

The New Style Patriot Listen, my children, and you shall hear Of a patriot's work in this present year. He didn't through the roads ride at night To rouse the neighbors to arm-and-flight, But he went to work with a spade and hoe And he made ten bushels of taters grow.

He mopped the sweat from his beady brow As he trudged behind his hand power plow; His hands grew tough and his feet got sore As he turned the stubborn furrows o'er, And his children laughed and they called him slow, But he made ten bushels of 'taters grow.

Oh, cheer the boy with the sword and gun, Who has fought and bled when the war is done, And cheer the generals and majors, too, And the sailors bold on the ocean blue; But cheer this man with the spade and hoe, For he made ten bushels of 'taters grow.

—Detroit Free Press.

¶ Schelle Maines says "Conserve your food supply" and from the looks of him I believe he has been doing it.

¶ That idea of the Home Guard may be funny to some people but to my mind it is the best thing that any city can do and if more of the middle aged men of this city will come out and drill every Friday night they will need the doctor less and the undertaker will be that much farther from them. The drills are just what the men from thirty to sixty need.

¶ The day will soon come when our young men are to be called upon to register for the army and navy and when it does come we should meet it bravely and like patriots. All of us are going to suffer one way and another in this great war and if we must give up our young men let us give them up with the true spirit of Americans. We are not fighting because we like it but because this fight is for humanity.

¶ Say, that city market is getting results and if the farmers will meet us half way we will do big things in this market in the next few years. I really believe the city market is one of the best things pulled off here and will mean as much to our people in this section as anything we have ever done. The market is being managed along the right lines and the farmers will find the city officials looking after their comfort on every occasion. Bring in your garden truck every Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday and bring it in early and you will find the buyers here to take it and pay cash.

Mash Notes!
Frank Kennedy, stage door man at the Palace Theatre, New York, has had more flowers and sweet scented notes on his hands than falls to the lot of the most popular chorus girl. They all came about through the popularity of Mrs. Vernon Castle—star of the International's photoplay serial supreme, "Patria." The same is true at the Lyric Theatre where "Patria" is being shown. The last episode will be a feature. Tuesday.

"His Father's Son"
Father bets son $6,000 he can't hold $60 a month job 30 days.

"His Father's Son," a Metro wonderplay combining powerful dramatic action and the most delightful comedy elements will be seen at the Star Theatre on Tuesday. Lionel Barrymore and Irene Howley are co-starred in this five part feature production.

Adam Barron, disgusted because his son, J. Dabney Barron seems to be worthless, discontinues his income and bets the young man $6,000 that he cannot hold a $60 a month job for 30 days. The boy takes him up, and with his valet starts off in his racing automobile to look for work. Thus the story beginneth.

"The Test"
One of A. H. Woods' biggest stage successes, "The Test," has been produced as a Pathe Gold Rooster Play by the Antra Film Corporation, under the supervision of George Fitzmaurice who directed such famous Pathe Gold Rooster hits as "Via Wireless," "At Bay" and "New York."

The star is Jane Grey, famous both on stage and screen as one of America's finest actresses. The supporting cast includes Lumsden Hare, who has been in many Charles Frohman productions, Claude Flemming, remembered in many parts on Broadway, including that of Massakoff in "The Chocolate Soldier," Inez Luck, star of "The Misdemeanor," and Carl Harbaugh, an actor of unusual ability.

The story is an intensely human one dealing with a wife's self sacrifice and speaking of it the moving Picture World says: "The production will find favor with any audience."

Manager Lane of the Lyric Theatre announces that he will present this great picture Tuesday.

Daily Thought.
In general, pride is at the bottom of all great mistakes.—Ruskin.

DOINGS OF THE LEGISLATURE

Tallahassee, May 16.—The house this morning passed Speaker Hardee's bill entitled "An act to allow railroad companies in this state to make reduced rates to delegates to meetings of religious bodies, fraternal societies, educational and other associations regularly organized in this state, and to leave it optional with such railroad companies as to whether or not such reduced rates shall be extended to the general public."

The house passed the Speaker's bill providing for a uniform affidavit by newspapers of the state in connection with all legal notices. In addition to the regular form now in use by most publishers, the publisher must swear that no part of the fee for the publication of a legal notice is to be given or promised to be divided with anyone, and the fee is to be paid along with other costs when the notice is a court document.

Another bill by Speaker Hardee allowing railroads to exchange transportation for advertising in newspapers of the state was defeated by a vote of 44 to 21. The measure created quite a lively discussion on the floor of the house, Langford, Robson, Wilder, Marshall and other making strong speeches against it. The objections raised by the opposition to the bill were that it was class legislation which gave the railroads a chance to discriminate against the newspapers of the state, and that it was wrong in principle to allow one class to ride on passes while another class had to pay the cash, the cash-fare passengers being the people who paid for running the trains to carry the deadheads.

Tallahassee, May 16.—It begins to look as though the newspaper fraternity of the state stand a very poor show of getting relief from the infamous libel law at this session. Senator Carlton's bill authorized by the South Florida Press Association, was killed by indefinite postponement in the senate and the amendment offered in the house by Speaker Hardee to the present law is of no material value to the press of the state as it only makes possible to publication of court records and documents without subjecting the newspaper to prosecution.

The Carlton bill was supported by Senators Alexander, Baker, Carlton, Crawford, Hughlett, Igou, Oliver, Sheppard, Wells and Wilson. The men responsible for its defeat are President Johnson, Senators Calkins, Davis, Farris, Fogarty, Gornto, Greene, Jones, Mathis, McEachern, McWilliams, Middleton, Moore, Roland, Turner and Willis.

The newspapers of the state should paste these latter names upon the office wall for future reference. Most of them will sooner or later come before the state for political preferment. This is said not only because of their attitude on this measure, but because they compose almost entirely the reactionary element in the senate. With the exception of Senator Farris and these men have defeated more wholesome laws than they could originate and pass if they served in the senate for a quarter of a century. Eliminate the two exceptions, Farris and McWilliams—and add to the list Igou and Wells, and you have the bunch that has plotted and schemed throughout the session to frame up legislation to slap the administration in the face and rob the chief executive of his constitutional rights and privileges. The people of Florida said by their vote that Sidney J. Catts should serve this state as Governor, but this autocratic remnant of the old guard have said by their actions and votes, "The will of the majority be damned." The idea of the majority of the voters of this state "putting one over" on their altitudinosity of this exalted bunch by electing this person, Catts, as their chief executive is an insult to their superior statesmanship and extraordinary intellectuality.

One need not be surprised at the antagonistic attitude of these autocrats toward a free and unbridled press. Who knows but what some audacious country editor might have the temerity to publish the official record of some of these mighty ones if they should so far forget themselves as to take the journalistic bubbles off. They might tell how President Johnson leaves his chair to defend railroads and other special interests on the floor of the senate. They might publish the fact that this list of senatorial sublimities can be relied upon to expose the cause of every occasion. They might truthfully say that the galleries can already tell you in advance just how this bunch is going to vote if a bill is brought up that seeks to curb corporate interests and organized greed in this state.

Tallahassee, May 16.—By a vote of 55 to 9 the house passed the anti-locker bill, recently passed by the senate and the measure now only lacks the signature of the governor to make it a law. The bill is entitled "An act relating to the sale, service or dispensing of intoxicating liquors, wines or beers by clubs or other association of persons whether incorporated or not incorporated." This law knocks out all the service clubs in the state whether they are located in wet or dry territory. The vote on the measure stood as follows:

Nays—Messrs. Chaires, Gomez, Haddock, Jennings, Stockton, Withee, Woodruff (Orange, Woodruff (Seminole)

Tallahassee, May 16.—The house passed the primary election bill after attaching thereto such a multitude of amendments that it is doubtful if many members of the body knew what they were voting for when the job was finished. One member was heard to remark that under this new bill nobody will be allowed to vote in the Democratic primary but the executive committee.

The bill provides for two separate primaries and makes a great many changes in the present election machinery of the state. Unless the senate can straighten out the kin's in this chaotic mass legislative provisions it is doubtful if the bill escapes the veto power of the Governor. As the senate will at least make a great many changes in it, its publication at this time is hardly worth while.

Tallahassee, May 16.—The Carlton bad check law passed the house with a few minor amendments. This bill makes it a felony to issue checks or orders on a bank without having sufficient funds on deposit to pay such check or order. The bill allows only twenty-four hours' time in which to make good bad checks after they have been turned down by the bank.

Lyric Wednesday
Gladys Huette's latest Pathe Gold Rooster Play is called "Her New York." This young star is one of the few in moving pictures who has been made famous by one production. When Thanahouser produced the "Shine Girl" for Pathe, Miss Huette immediately stepped into her own as one of the screen's cleverest and most attractive actresses. It was not by any means her first picture, but it did offer her the best opportunity she had ever had up to that time. Then came "Prudence, The Pirate," in which she again scored a triumph.

"Her New York" was written by Agnes C. Johnston, the author of both of her Gold Rooster successes. Likewise it is produced by Thanahouser with a splendid supporting cast including William Parke, Jr., Ethyle Cooke, Riley Cnamberlin and Robert V.

Lyric Wednesday.

Sarah Bernhardt in "Mothers of France"
Lyric Friday, May 25.—Sarah Bernhardt in "Mothers of France," the wonder picture that made the most tremendous hit in the history of motion pictures when it was first presented in New York City at the Rialto theatre.

In this superb attraction Madame Bernhardt is seen at her unforgettable best. She portrays a role that calls for the superb histrionic ability that has made her famous and she has put into the production so much heart and soul and fire that it grips spectators and lifts them to their feet shouting with applause.

"Mothers of France" is not alone notable for its splendid entertainment, the sweetness of its love story, the depth and strength of its patriotism, but is also notable for the almost inspired quality of its direction and for the beauty of its many scenes and for the real educational and historical value that it possesses.

The sight of Madame Bernhardt before the half destroyed Cathedra at Rheims, the views in the front line trenches, the scenes in one of the French schools showing how the school children act in the face of war, all these go to help make this picture the greatest that the industry has ever seen.

To see Sarah Bernhardt in "Mothers of France" is to see one of the greatest documents of the war. It is a never to be forgotten record of one of the world's greatest events.
