Book Lovers' Club

The Book Lovers' Club was entertained by Mrs. R. J. Holly at her pretty home on Sanford Heights, which is surrounded by orange trees and which at this season of the year are especially beautiful, covered as they are with lovely and fragrant white orange blossoms and with many of the ripe oranges still on them, making as they did the attractive and natural color motif of green, white and yellow.

The rooms were decorated with orange blossoms and the entertainment was an orange party, featuring an orange puzzle and contest.

The guests were given an envelope on which was the following appropriate and original verse:

In this envelope you will find
Five pieces, each a different kind.
Now trade with every one you meet
Until your orange is complete.
To your hostess quickly go,
She may reward you—don't you know.

And in the envelope was a painted paste board orange, divided into five sections, one of the sections of each orange was put in the envelope, given to some one else and so on, until the sections of every orange did not make a perfect orange when put together as they were in the envelope. Each guest therefore had to compare her orange with some one else or several, before she could find the section which when put together with the sections she had, made a perfect orange.

The prize was given to the lady who succeeded in matching the sections of her orange first and in the shortest time.

Mrs. N. J. Perkins won the contest and an orange upon. The booby prize, and India rubber ball, representing an orange was received by Miss Luella Hampton.

After the conclusion of the interesting contest delicious cake, with orange ice in orange baskets was served by the hostess.

Mrs. Holly's guests were the following members of the club, Mrs. Henry McLaughlin, Mrs. C. H. Dingee, Mrs. E. R. Tolar, Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. F. L. Woodruff, Mrs. H. L. ...

Good Roads Convention

The Good Roads State Convention convenes in Eustis today. Delegates are expected from every part of the state. The citizens of Eustis have prepared to give the visitors a rousing reception during their stay in that prosperous little town. Yacht rides on the lake will be one of the features of the entertainment. It is expected that more than 250 visitors and delegates will be present.

One of the big features that will be discussed at the convention will be the Quebec-Miami Highway, a roadway 2400 miles long, and which is now practically completed with the exception of links amounting to 300 miles. These places are now being filled in at all places where they occur. The Canadians have already completed their part of the highway. It is pointed out that the highway, if completed before next fall will mean millions of dollars to Florida. The American Automobile Association with 400 clubs, and about 60,000 members means that probably 5,000 of them will tour Florida during the coming season, and it is also estimated that 20,000 people will be added to the winter tourists because of this highway. It is also estimated that they will spend on an average of $100 each, which means that they would leave $2,000,000 here when they departed.

That Florida is already doing a big road work is set forth in the fact that of the forty-nine counties in the state, thirty-two have road work under construction. Sanford district leads all other sections of Florida having started 25 miles of brick paved roads.

Some Booster

Of the exchanges coming to the Journal, the greatest boosters for its town and section. This is a strong statement, for many exchanges are boosters for their towns; in fact the Journal recalls none that are not. The unprecedented growth of the state is due in great measure to the enthusiastic advertising each paper is giving its section.—Daytone Journal.

Missionary Meeting

The Missionary Society of the Baptist church held their regular meeting Monday evening at the home of Mrs. N. J. Perkins, with a good attendance of their members.

After the program and business of the meeting had been concluded, delicious cake and chocolate was served by the hostess, and the society enjoyed a social hour together.

Wednesday Club

The Wednesday Club held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Henry Wight Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. S. O. Chase, leader.

As there was a very large attendance of the members it was deemed best to omit the program for the afternoon, except the music, to discuss thoroughly and in detail, the subject that has been claiming the attention of the various clubs in the city for some weeks, namely, the amalgamation of the several clubs into one large Woman's Club.

Mrs. R. E. Tolar played most delightfully, Sinding's beautiful "Rustle of Spring." Accompanied by Mrs. D. L. ...

The Little Irish Girl," by Lohr. After the enjoyment of the delightful music the club, as a body, entered upon the discussion of the amalgamation problem and, and in lengthy detail. The

J. W. WILDMAN.

The Clearwater News, through its able associate editor, Eugene L. Pearce, is starting an energetic campaign of agitation for protection for the pine forests of the state. It is likely that the next legislature will pass a bill on this subject, although it is held in some quarters that any provision in such measure involving privately held timber lands would be unconstitutional.

The special committee appointed some time ago by the Tampa city council to treat with the Tampa Electric Company on the matter of securing a reduction in rates on light and power last night reported, stating that the effort of the committee had been so successful that on April 1, 1913, the Tampa Electric Company will reduce its rates. This reduction will amount to about 16.23 per cent on lighting and 21 per cent on power, according to the report of the special committee.

OUR DEMOCRATIC LEADER

Takes Oath of Office at the White House Today

CAPITAL BLAZE OF GLORY NOW

Telegraphic News From Washington and Other Parts of the World

Washington awaits the coming of Woodrow Wilson, next President of the United States. Plans to welcome him today are ready and every detail is complete for the inauguration ceremonies and the attendant military and civic demonstration today.

No President-elect ever found the capital of the nation whose destinies he is to guide more brilliantly arrayed or more abundant with enthusiasm than Woodrow Wilson will find today. Flags and streamers from every staff and building will wave him welcome and cheering thousands assembled in the spacious esplanade of the union station approaches and the streets through which he will be driven to his hotel will stir the patriotism of his heart. One of Mr. Wilson's first acts as a private citizen will be to call, with Mrs. Wilson, upon the President of the United States and Mrs. Taft. Arrangements for this were made today. President-elect and Mrs. Wilson, shortly after their arrival will receive Colonel S. Cosby, chief aide to the President, who will escort them to the White House in the President's automobile. The President and Mrs. Taft will receive them in the blue room where ambassadors, chief justices of the supreme court and foreign princes visit the President. Many of the diplomatic corps in their robes will be present but none of the cabinet are expected. The reception will be short and then President-elect and Mrs. Wilson will return to their hotel for luncheon.

The one bandit who last night boarded a Wabash passenger train bound for Kansas City at Delmar Station, near the western edge of St. Louis, obtained only $10.00 and a watch. This was the proceeds obtained from two passengers held up at the point of a revolver. The bandit then seemed to lose his nerve and, pulling the airbrake cord, stopped the train at Glen Echo, a small station about thirteen miles west of St. Louis, and escaped in the darkness.

Charles Dewey Hilles, secretary to President Taft for the last two years and one of the best liked men in official life in Washington, will quit the White House March 4, to become a partner of Edmund Dwight, resident manager of the Employer Liability Assurance Corporation, Limited, of London. Mr. Hilles will retain the chairmanship of the Republican national committee, for which he was chosen last summer. As secretary to President Taft he received a salary of $7,500 a year and in his new position he will receive about $20,000 a year.

In a running fight on the border near Douglas, Ariz., early today between Mexican soldiers and troopers of the Ninth United States cavalry, four Mexicans were killed. None of the American troops were killed or injured, according to advices received here late today. Four American army officers, walking on the American line, three miles from Douglas, are reported to have been fired upon by forty regular Mexican soldiers, patrolling the border out of Agua Prieta, opposite Douglas. Sixteen of the negro troopers of the Ninth rushed to the place of the firing and had a spirited skirmish.

Sunday was a day of farewells for President Taft. He began his last Sunday as President with a brief sermon to the congregation of All Souls' Unitarian Church, where he has worshipped for four years; bade adieu to wives of members of his cabinet at a last formal dinner given by Secretary MacVeagh and observed the custom established by George Washington and kept green by President-elect Wilson, of visiting Georgetown University. In between times he took up with Secretary Hilles many important matters which he wishes to see settled before he turns the reins of government over to Mr. Wilson.

Meet your friends at the Gibson Reunion.

VALUE OF BRICK ROADS

Sanford District has the Right Idea on Road Building

By W. B. Powell, Secretary Tampa Board of Trade

Cuyahoga County, Ohio, of which Cleveland is the metropolis, is gridironed with a net-work of brick roads, and they have not cost the county one cent.

This is a broad statement, but it is gospel truth, and I hereby append some figures to prove that Hillsborough county can have brick roads the full length of the county east and west, north and south, and many miles of laterals, the initial cost to be paid by the county, but the county to be reimbursed by increased valuation of the property of the city and of the rural real estate.

Ten years ago the value of the rural real estate of Cuyahoga county was $29,000,000. Since that time $7,000,000 has been expended in the county for rural brick highways. Today the valuation of the rural real estate is $101,000,000. With this valuation of rural real estate and with the low tax rate of that county, 1.34, the county is able to build fifty-five miles additional miles of brick roadway each year, and brick roadway in the north costs nearly three times to build what it does in this state, as they have to have a thick grout to withstand freeze.

Increased land values have raised the county revenue far beyond the cost of the roads—not only has good roads increased rural valuations but done much to make Cleveland a bigger city, and the city of Cleveland and the county together has seen its valuations increase in ten years from $171,573,110 to $405,519,960.

The county commissioners in filing of their work says: "There is no economy in cheap roads. We are building vitrified brick roads now that will last fifty to one hundred years, the heaviest motor traffic. The roads we build cost $20,000 a mile."

In Florida it costs approximately $500 a mile per foot width. A nine foot road would cost $4,500 a mile. And I am in favor of a nine foot brick road, with 2x4 wood curbing, and outside of this road tamp three foot of clay, or shell and plant Bermuda grass—this would make a 15 foot roadway for turnouts—and in the country, say two or three miles removed from large cities, you would not find two autos or teams turn out in exactly the same spot, and the side roadways could not suffer from traffic. I saw a piece of road built under these specifications at Sanford, on Celery avenue, a county roadway traveled as much as Nebraska avenue. It was laid four years ago, and the side clay strip covered with Bermuda grass is as solid as cement and shows no sign of wear from the turn-outs.

In Cuyahoga County, Ohio, they pave one side of the road with brick and the other side is just graded, so that teams can use the clay roads in dry seasons.

They claim in Cleveland that the roads are responsible for the low cost of living—that truck farmers come to Cleveland for twenty to thirty miles with more ease than formerly four or five miles thus increasing the scope of their truck gardens available to the city's markets. Also, rural life has become popular in Cleveland with Cleveland people. The country people come to the city for a night's amusement, or a base ball game and the city people are taking to country homes and backyard farming.

This year they will build 110 additional miles of brick roads in that county, making a total of 1,100 miles of brick paving in the county exclusive of the city.

Build Church Addition.

The officers of the Presbyterian church at a meeting last Sunday night decided to build an addition to the church. This was imperative on account of the constantly increasing attendance and the large Sunday school.

Mrs. Bruton's Millinery Opening.

Mrs. J. H. Bruton has just returned from Atlanta where she inspected the large stock of the foreign representatives having headquarters in Atlanta.

that has ever been displayed in the city. Mrs. Bruton is planning to announce to her many patrons that the annual spring opening will take place on March 12th and 13th, at the new quarters in the Clark block next to the postoffice. The ready-to-wear hats are now open to inspection and can be seen at the millinery parlors. Remember the opening, and be ready to come early before the best creations are sold.

RETAIL HARDWARE MEN

Will Take Journey over State of Florida

SANFORD IN THE ITINERARY

Commercial Club and Citizens Generally Will Combine to Entertain Visitors.

The National Retail Hardware Dealers Association will hold their annual convention at Jacksonville, March 19-21. There will probably be present 500 representative business men from all over the United States. Many of them will be accompanied by their wives and daughters. The New England delegation of 135 will arrive in Sanford on the steamer DeBarry Mar. 22nd. They will have two hours to spend in Sanford, returning on the same steamer. Another party will arrive at the union station at 8 a. m. and remain two hours. They will then proceed to Lakeland and Tampa. The opportunity to entertain these visitors by an automobile or carriage drive about Sanford and to present them with some souvenirs of their visit that they can take to their homes should not be missed.

A letter from W. K. Jackson, secretary of the Florida Retail Hardware Association to Geo. H. Fernald of this city gives the following information regarding the visit to Florida of the retail hardware dealers of the United States:

National Secretary M. L. Corey, Argos, Ind., and W. K. Jackson of Lakeland, Fla., secretary of the Florida Retail Hardware Association, together with Stanton, Curtis of Chicago, Northwestern, and others, are working out the arrangements for the trip to the national convention to be held in Jacksonville, Fla. next month.

As already announced a special train will leave Chicago Saturday, March 15, at noon, arriving at Jacksonville Monday morning. The only stop of any duration will be at Chattanooga, where the party will spend Sunday.

From Jacksonville an interesting side trip is being arranged. As far as outlined it will be as follows: Leaving Jacksonville at 3:30 a. m. on Saturday, March 22, arriving at Sanford at 7:30 a. m., where coffee will be served and an automobile ride provided. Leaving at 9 a. m. the party will arrive at Winter Park at 10 o'clock, where breakfast will be served, and an automobile ride will be taken through the orange groves to Orlando, where the train will be waiting.

Fletcher Is Honored.

Hon. Duncan C. Fletcher, president of the southern commercial congress, although in the senate only since March 4, 1909, has been assigned to and holds membership on some of the most important committees of the greatest deliberative body in the world.

Shortly after the death of the late Senator Rayner, he was selected to take Senator Rayner's place on the judiciary committee, which stands at the head of the first five most important committees of the body. This committee includes the ablest lawyers in either senate or house, and is an assignment that comes to a senator only after he has shown himself worthy of it in every respect.

This assignment gives Senator Fletcher place on ten committees, as follows: commerce, which is to the senate what the rivers and harbors committee is to the house; judiciary; fisheries; five civilized tribes of Indian; Pacific islands and Porto Rico; Philippines; printing; privileges and elections, of which he will probably be chairman after March 4, 1913; and public health and national quarantine; also that of the joint committee on printing, which acts as a board of directors for the government printing office. Ocala Banner.

The Board of Health of St. Augustine will have very shortly a house to house canvass to ascertain the condition of the houses in that city.

The Tallahassee True-Democrat invites those residents who are dissatisfied with that town to move out and make room for the large number of people anxious to occupy these residences of these dissatisfied people.

FOR NINE BROTHERS

Monument Erected to the Memory of Confederate Soldiers

The following will be of interest to the Tolar family in this city:

There has just been erected in old Cross Creek Cemetery, this city, a monument that is unique in that it commemorates the deeds of nine brothers who served as Confederate soldiers, all of them volunteering in 1861. In addition, it has been reared by a son of one of these heroes, who himself at the tender age of 15 years served unenlisted (on account of his youth) during the last year of that memorable struggle.

This monument stands near the one reared to the memory of the Confederate heroes by the women of Fayetteville.

On the front side of the monument this is inscribed:

"In memory of nine Tolar brothers sons of Robert and Frances Tolar, all born in Cumberland county, North Carolina. All volunteered in 1861. They gave their best service to their country as Confederate soldiers."

On the three other sides of the shaft are the names of the nine heroes, as follows:

"William J., Captain Co. B, 10th S. C. Volunteers. Seriously wounded leading a charge, battle of Atlanta, Ga., July 22, 1864.

"John H., 1st Lieutenant Co. H, Orr's Rifle Regiment S. V. C. Killed battle of the Wilderness, May 5, 1864.

"Robert M., private Munn's Artillery, 10th N. C. V. Captured at surrender of Fort Fisher, N. C.

"Matthew A., Sergeant Cumming's Battery N. C. V.

"Thomas B., Sergeant Co. B, 10th S. C. V. Wounded, battle of Murfreesboro, Tenn., Dec. 13, 1862. Died in hospital, Aug. 5, 1863.

"Samuel J., private Co. K, 16th N. C. V. Wounded Hanover, Va., May 27, 1862. Disabled for later service.

"Alfred H., Captain Co. K, 18th N. C. V. Wounded three times, last at Gettysburg July 2, 1863, when disabled for later service.

"Haynes L., private Co. K, 18th N. C. V. Killed accidentally during Seven Days Battles around Richmond, June 1862.

"Joseph M., bugler Cumming's Battery, N. C. V. Fayetteville, N. C. Observer.

Who Paid for the Big Barbecue?

The citizens of Oviedo have kept silent too long amid the storm of ridicule and discountenances poured against them in windy newspaper articles. They have been accused of allowing Orlando office seekers to pay for their entertainment. They have been accused of being artful dodgers of their just taxes. They have been held up before the public as being objects of pity and ridicule, and we take this opportunity of exonerating them before the citizens of Orange county.

The barbecue at Oviedo was conceived, planned and paid for by the citizens of Oviedo. Not one cent has been received from Orlando or west Orange, and they naturally feel that they are being badly misrepresented by writers wholly ignorant of the facts.

They are not pampered sons of Orlando, neither do they feed their friends and guests on "rare hog" furnished by county officers.

They are friends of Orlando as they are friends of the whole county, and all citizens of Orange county were invited to the barbecue, without discrimination.

The citizens of Oviedo have the reputation of being enlightened, independent, self-adjusting, just and cheerful taxpayers.

They have sufficient intelligence to plan their own barbecues, are financially able to pay their own bills, and ask alms of no one.

They may differ somewhat concerning county division, but they stand unanimously and unalterably opposed to any adverse criticism of Oviedo, and the honor, integrity and hospitality of her citizens.

Respectfully,

—S. A. WATSON

HARBOR BILL WILL PASS

Florida Senators Hopeful Over The Result

ST. JOHNS RIVER GETS SLICE

Other Items Floating Around Florida That may or may not Interest You

The following telegram regarding the river and harbor bill has been received here: "The river and harbor bill, which was agreed upon by the conferees on the part of the house and senate, has gone to the President for his signature. House members believe that there is grave danger of his veto being applied, but on the senate side of the capitol there is much optimism. Among the senate members who have been most hopeful all along of the bill's passage is Senator D. U. Fletcher of Florida. He added a number of important amendments to it and has been watching it closely. He said: 'I believe the bill will be signed. A number of big senate amendments, including the Connecticut river dam, have been eliminated, and I see no reason why it should not now become a law.'"

It is reported that considerable acreage will be planted to short staple cotton in Alachua county this year. The cultivation of Sea Island Cotton has not proven profitable for several years, and the acreage planted to the long staple variety is not likely to be as large as usual. Notwithstanding the very short crop last year the price has been far below that at which it can be raised profitably, and farmers generally devote a larger acreage to crops of a general nature, in the way of grain, hay, etc., a specially large crop of potatoes of the Gainesville Sun.

The midwinter chautauqua opens Sunday at Orlando and the program announced for the week is most attractive. Many excellent speakers will be heard and several entertainments, musical and otherwise will be held. The chautauqua is free to all and is certain to prove an attraction in Orlando to the hundreds of visitors as well as the home folks.

Judge John M. Cheney of Orlando, closing the term of United States Court Saturday afternoon, bade farewell to the federal bench at Tampa. The judge has filled the position but six months, being appointed when Judge J. W. Locke of Jacksonville retired, being elevated from the position of prosecuting attorney. Judge Cheney was duly appointed by President Taft, but with many other appointments before the Senate it has been withheld from approval by that body and the judge's term of continuing on the bench will end when Woodrow Wilson takes oath of office today.

Ocala has grown so much in the past few years and the people who are now on the outside of the city limits being anxious it appears to come in, there is a strong movement for extending the city boundaries. City council and citizens generally are discussing the matter and it is likely that the next legislature will be asked to allow the extension desired.

The acceptance by the city council of the splendid new double tank chemical auto fire engine is another long stride forward in Palatka's progress. A number of tryouts have been made with satisfactory results and now that the city's fire fighting equipment has been increased and improved the lowering of fire insurance rates will be a consequence follow.

Tampa will have an exhibit at the Conference for Education in the South, which is to be held in Richmond, Va., beginning April 16. The Board of Trade has been asked to take up the matter and will do so at its meeting Wednesday.

Forty-nine thousand seven hundred and sixty-two quarts of strawberries were shipped from Plant City last week. The Plant City Coulter says: "407,864 quarts of berries have left Plant City in the past eleven weeks and these have netted the growers $68,012.60. The season will not last much longer; three weeks will probably see the end of the berry season."

CURBSTONE GLEANINGS

Between You and Me.

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A Chief is Among Ye Taking Notes and Faith, He'll Prent "Em"— So Says Saunterer.

"Home Sweet Home"
This "Home, Sweet Home" is good to Sing—
For it's a thrilling tune;
It stirs a man like anything
At midnight or at noon.
Around the board, beside the fire,
Beneath the sky's blue dome,
There's nothing more can inspire
Like that old "Home, Sweet Home."

But it is not enough to yell
That "Home, Sweet Home" refrain;
For men should practice it as well,
If home shall sweet remain.
It's not enough to loudly shout
The old familiar air;
It's something we must carry out—
Boost "Home, Sweet Home" for fair.

I've heard a man who sang it loud
When'er he had a chance.
He loved to yell it in a crowd
And every circumstance.
But when a catalogue he met
With low grade goods for sale,
Then "Home, Sweet Home" he would forget
And send for them by mail.

If all of us should do the same—
If many send their cash
To help the old mail-order game—
The town will go to smash.
The grass will gather in the street,
The crops uncut decay;
And home, that once we sang as sweet,
Will droop and pass away.

Oh, that that "Home, Sweet Home" y
It thrills us through and through;
But singing songs is not enough—
There's something else to do.
Let's send to more our cash to town
To make a millionaire;
Let's boost a bit for "Home, Sweet Home"
With "Home, Sweet Home" be square.

I have always contended that people who marry should be absolutely healthy.
This is a great hardship of course, but would eliminate untold suffering for coming generations. Unless the parents are healthy the children cannot expect to be strong and vigorous and since the nation is depending upon coming generations for the proper citizenship the idea of perfect health before marriage affects the nation as well as individuals.
Recognizing the grave importance of this subject Indiana has passed the following law:

"By an almost unanimous vote the Senate this afternoon passed a bill introduced by Senator Neal making it necessary for all brides and grooms-to-be to pass a successful medical examination before the marriage ceremony is performed. The bill not only states plainly that the parties to the wedding shall obtain a satisfactory certificate from a reputable physician, but that the certificate shall be filed at least ten days before the date of the wedding. The latter provision was included in the bill to put an end to the matrimonial business in Indianapolis that do a flourishing business marrying people who flee here from other states. No outsider can marry in Indiana who does not first go to a physician and obtain the necessary certificate of health. The bill provides that no couple shall marry where the medical examination shows that one or the other or both have a disease. An unsuccessful effort was made to amend the bill to make it necessary to present the health certificate only thirty-six hours before the wedding, but none of the drastic provisions were cut out. The bill provides a severe penalty for physicians who issue fraudulent certificates."

People seldom stop to consider how much their town means to them. They take it too much for granted, and in counting up their blessings make a source from which many of their dearest benefits flow. It is easy to overlook the home town in counting up the sources of one's happiness because the town is such a large, all-enveloping thing
—so large, in fact, that it's hard to see —and the citizen blindly draws sustenance from it like an infant from its mother. Traced to their source most of life's blessings will be found to have their root in that aggregation of human beings and human interests known as a modern civilization and in the channel through which civilization confers its benefits. There is scarcely a phase of civilization that does not find direct and specific expression in the life and organization of a town that is large enough to have a school, a courthouse, a library, a bank, a mill or factory, a church, a waterworks, a brass band, a newspaper and a railroad station. Representing education, jurisprudence, literature, finance, industry, religion, hygiene, art, and the speedy distribution of intelligence and commodities, these institutions express all that is highest and best in human achievement. If civilization is good, then the home town is good, and the citizens should be proud and thankful of it. Instead of casting wondering and envious glances at a distant New York, let us glow with pride for our own little city, realizing that the difference is only one of degree and not of kind.

We old fellows are passing, and what brings this most forcibly to my mind is a glance over the exchanges that are donated to me from time to time by the editor of The Herald. I happened to pick up the Inverness Chronicle the other day and read some of the stuff cooked up by Major Butler, and it reminds me that the Major must be about one hundred years old by now and yet his Faber finger is as nimble as ever and his sweet old refrains take me back to the green hills and pleasant vales of old Tennessee. Journalism advances like everything else and the old fashioned editors deal in high sounding platitudes and throw the Thesaurus at us in such a bewildering manner that we are indefinitely wound up in the highfaluting stuff and discover that we are living in the age of progress and it gives one the feeling that maybe the younger ones are going by. It does me good then to read some of the real good things that the old timers still write, for despite the fact that the writers of the new school can wrestle with Webster and throw him there is still the touch of ineffable sweetness, the touch of the hand of the old master in the pen of Major Butler as he draws word pictures of his town and describes the habits and life of his neighbors. My old friend, William Dean Howells, who afterwards became famous wrote his "Boy's Town" from the scenes that were about him in his childhood in the old town and the memories of these dear old friends and their vivid portrayals of prosaic pastorals have no place in the hurry and bustle of today. But we can look back on the past and remember that we were of some account and that if we did not make the wheels go round in the government we at least played upon the heart strings of our "fellow citizens" in our own little communities and at least where we have stopped for a spell, the people have known us and loved us not for our riches that we possessed (for we never had any) but for the spirit of comradeship that prevails among all good Bohemians who live by the pen and who are always willing to share their last nickel with the fellow who is down today and up tomorrow. Major Butler says in his last paper that a newspaper man only makes good in one place for five years and no more, which may account in part for my giving up newspaper work many years ago. Some day I will get on the bumpers and ride into Inverness and eat some of that turtle pie that Butler talks so glibly about and we can go fishing and do other stunts and enjoy them—none of the younger "journalists" can ever hope to do.

Office in Herald Building Telephone No. 148

Here's to you Woodrow! Show us what you've got!

At last we have a real Democratic President and hope to have a real Secretary of State, Hon. W. J. Bryan.

Some of those Orlando papers are still harping about county division in Orange county. Where is Orlando on the subject, anyhow?

We are certainly grateful to the Orlando papers for their assistance in getting county division for us and now as the time draws near for our departure to Tallahassee we wish to thank them one and all for this assistance. Without them we could never have accomplished it so quickly, and especially to the Citizen and the Reporter-Star are we grateful for those fine editorials that were written before they were subsidized by the county ring. Those were good boys when they were captured and put upon the chain gang of the county ring and right well did they fight for the rights of the people. To the editors who have died fighting county division we extend a nosegay of cabbages and promise that next year Harney county will plant celery on their graves.

HAPPY EDITOR

Editor Ben Davis of the Winter Garden Times must lead a happy existence, combining as he does the pleasures of printing a good weekly and having a good garden. Read his song of praise in the following:

In our garden we have up musk and okra, beets, Swiss chard, cabbage, collards, cucumbers, tomatoes, squash, artichokes, dandelions, beans, corn, peppers, brussel sprouts, endive, etc. We are testing out some new vegetables to see what effect the climate and soil of Florida will have on them, and should we mention our garden once in awhile, it is only with the end in view of finding out and telling what garden sass can be raised successfully in this locality. The soil was broken only two months ago.

SPEAKING ABOUT BOYS

The Orlando Citizen is putting up a howl because the mothers of the city are asking the authorities to help keep their children at home after night. Then this anti-paternalistic paper goes on to admonish against the tendency to have the state, county or town take a hand in the proper upbringing of children, insisting that about the sole responsibility rests upon the parents.

Well, why should not the state take an active interest in the proper training of its future citizens, I should like to ask. The parents go hence in a few years and the seed sown here for the shortcomings of their posterity, but the state remains to reap the results—be they good or bad of the rising generation. Better think again, Mr. Citizen, and do a little better job of it.—Estero Eagle

It is doubtful if Bro. Howard of the Citizen ever had any boys to raise. The people who have no lusty youngsters of their own know exactly how to raise them. The curfew law is a good one for any city, town or hamlet and serves to keep the boys off the street at night. While we believe that parents are responsible for the actions of their boys there are many occasions when the boys will frequent the streets and the parents are in total ignorance of the facts. The editor of The Herald has two and while he never claims that they are angels they certainly do not stay on the streets at night and yet they are allowed as many privileges as most boys of their age. This boy problem is a deep one and concerns all of us and all of us should unite in watching over them.

TO MR. LAWTON

Elsewhere in this issue is a letter from Mr. Lawton of Oviedo in which he states he has a grievance against The Herald for saying that Orlando paid for the barbecue at Oviedo and that Oviedo anti-divisionists were dodging taxes. We wish to state to Mr. Lawton that one would naturally conclude that Orlando was heading the barbecue when the letters of invitation were sent out from Oviedo, and if Orlando people were not in charge of the barbecue why send out the invitations from there and why were the leaders Orlando men? Give us the names of the Oviedo men who are interested sufficiently against division to put up this money? If all of Oviedo were against division this would be reasonable to believe but the anti-divisionists are in the minority.

Regarding the dodging of taxes we would call Mr. Lawton's attention to the fact that the statement made about the artful dodgers was a broad one and Oviedo was not mentioned. It would seem from the ready response given by Mr. Lawton regarding taxes and payment for the barbecue that the shot struck home, for as the late lamented Sam Jones said: "The hit dog always howls," and if the shoe fits a few property owners of Oviedo they will have to wear it off. The Herald has no wish to cast aspersions upon the citizens of Oviedo or any other section of Orange county. The editor has as many good friends in Oviedo as he has anywhere and Mr. Lawton who writes the communication is one of them, no matter if we do differ on politics of division. The statement that the Orlando politicians helped to arrange the barbecue at Oviedo and that there were people in Orange county who dodged taxes and because they did dodge taxes were against the formation of the new county is not casting aspersions upon the good name of Oviedo. There are tax dodgers in Sanford and Orlando. You find them everywhere, and they are usually against the old regime because any changes mean investigations and investigations mean that the tax dodgers will stand revealed. If Mr. Lawton thinks he has been badly treated we will make the amende honorable by replying to his communications and always giving him all the space he wants in The Herald for his replies. The editor of The Herald asks for no quarter and gives none, but this paper will always correct mistakes when these mistakes are pointed out to us. If The Herald has misquoted, misjudged or been discourteous toward any citizen of Oviedo the editor will make apology. In the matter mentioned by Mr. Lawton Oviedo has not been the target but the individuals who think they have been badly treated. Until the majority of the citizens of Oviedo vote against county division and petition The Herald to stop breathing this paper will go ahead and give the facts as we see them and they seem to be facts for they are drawing fire and fire always means results.

Up to the present the matter stands as it did. Mr. Lawton has not proved that the Herald said anything about Oviedo tax dodgers, or that we maligned the city of Oviedo, and he has not proved that Orlando did not take the leading part in the Oviedo barbecue, that Orlando speakers did not predominate in the meeting, that Orlando did not guarantee the money for the excursion, for The Herald has the goods and can produce them.

ALL FAVOR COUNTY DIVISION

Dade county has already been divided and at the last division there was considerable opposition against Palm Beach county being cut from the parent stem. Since Palm Beach county has set up housekeeping for themselves not only has the new county prospered but the parent county of Dade has likewise prospered more than it would have done with the big county to look after and keep up. As proof of this fact the Miami Metropolis is now in favor of making two more counties of Dade and in the following editorial gives good reasons for so doing and reasons that every voter in the proposed precinct of Harney county should read. Here is the county seat paper in a county already divided once giving good and sufficient reasons for again being divided, and if this is not evidence enough for the anti-divisionists of Orange county to cease firing, then they must be as the Metropolis states—office seekers or office holders or being paid by these officers to make the fight. Read the following from the Metropolis. The caps are ours and show where the case is identical.

In the proposal to divide Dade county, The Metropolis sees unqualified merit and hopes that the undertaking may be accomplished with harmony and dispatch.

From the northern end of the present Dade county to the southern boundary is an extent of seventy-five or eighty miles, while the average width is in the neighborhood of forty miles. THE CONSTANT INCREASE IN THE POPULATION AND THE LARGE NUMBER OF ACRES OF NEW LAND THAT ARE BEING PUT UNDER CULTIVATION ARE GIVING THE TERRITORY A GROWTH THAT IS PHENOMENAL AND A DIVISION OF THE COUNTY INTO THREE SECTIONS THIS EARLY IN ITS HISTORY WOULD MAKE FOR THE BEST DEVELOPMENT OF THE ENTIRE DISTRICT.

Lying about Fort Lauderdale to the north and south and now to the west with the great acreage of the reclaimed Everglades coming into cultivation—is in an extent of territory that should be improved as a county. ROADS SHOULD BE BUILT IN A SYSTEMATIC, GENEROUS WAY AND EVERYTHING BE DONE WITH THE IDEA OF THE COUNTY UNIT. By centralizing their interests in the smaller county, by setting up a "county" with their proverbial enthusiasm, the people in the northern section of the present county of Dade and the southern section of Palm Beach county would have something well worth working for and all of the lower East Coast would be benefitted.

Like arguments could also be used to show that county division would be for the furtherance of the interests of the southern part of Dade county. The Redlands territory might furnish the "Redlands county" and the growth of the lower settlements on the Florida peninsula be given an impetus that could not be accomplished in any surer way. WHILE THE CENTRAL PORTION OF THE TERRITORY, WITH MIAMI AS THE COUNTY SEAT COULD SO INTENSIFY IN DEVELOPMENT THAT REMARKABLE RESULTS WOULD BE ACHIEVED AND OUTSIDE OF THE EFFECT THAT WOULD BE PRODUCED ON THE FEES IN PUBLIC OFFICE, THE COUNTY DIVISION WOULD BRING NO REASON FOR COMPLAINT. ALL OF US, OF COURSE, ARE PROUD OF THE "STATE OF DADE"—BEFORE THE DAYS OF THE FIRST COUNTY DIVISION WHEN PALM BEACH WAS CREATED, THERE WERE HEARD MANY ELOQUENT 'PLEAS' FOR THE MAINTENANCE OF THE ROYAL OLD COUNTY WHICH RIVALED STATES IN EXTENT AND WAS FILLED WITH REMINDERS OF OLD DAYS IN ROMANCE AND TRADITION, BUT THERE IS NONE OF THESE ENTHUSIASTIC ANTI-DIVISIONISTS WHO DOES NOT KNOW THAT THE MAKING OF PALM BEACH COUNTY OUT OF THE NORTHERN END OF DADE HAS BEEN ENTIRELY BENEFICIAL TO THE INTERESTS OF BOTH THE OLD AND THE NEW.

From his activity in the formation of Brevard county and his friendship to the Dade-Palm Beach division, it would seem that Senator Hubert would be an advocate of the present division asked for, thus giving two legislators from the district the service in the passage of the bill. And apparently the division will meet with approval in the settlements affected.

FOR AS HAS BEEN COMENDABLY SAID THE IMAGINARY DIVISION LINE MEANS NOTHING. THE IDEA IS TO SECURE SMALLER UNITS FOR BETTER GOVERNMENT PURPOSES AND MORE EQUITABLE EXPENDITURE OF THE PUBLIC MONEY AS LONG AS FLORIDA MAINTAINS THE COUNTY UNIT SYSTEM INSTEAD OF THE TOWNSHIP UNIT. LARGE COUNTIES WILL BE FOUND TO BE UNWIELDY AND COMMUNITIES REMOTE FROM THE COUNTY SEAT WILL NOT RECEIVE THEIR JUST SHARE OF PUBLIC EXPENDITURES.

Here is to Everglades and Redlands counties!

City Appoints Secretary To Take Charge of Board of Trade

Despite the fact that a recent committee reported adversely in the matter of a paid secretary, considerable discussion has been heard of the advisability and feasibility of such an action. The present time is not an auspicious one for the employment of a compensated official, but it is the proper moment to plan for the fall when the need of one will be imperative.

Darlington, S. C., has adopted a novel plan; in fact, almost a municipal innovation, settling the question conclusively regarding the paid secretary. Their scheme was to have the city adopt the commercial secretary as part of the administration, the Darlington council providing the adequate tax levy, a new stride, to secure the revenue necessary for the secretary's expenses. This plan gives direct encouragement to the Board of Trade and enables that organization to be dignified and assertive. The tax levy is most judicious, as the man with much property will naturally receive the greatest benefits from new industries and settlers and will be compelled to pay his corresponding share towards the upkeep of the office of secretary. The entire population will be represented in the movement, as all tax payers will be nominal members of the Board of Trade, compelling the integral parts to assume an interest otherwise deemed unnecessary.

Ordinarily Boards of Trade are kept up at the expense of the liberality of a few prominent men; conditions of this kind are liable to produce certain disorders in the organization, but with a municipal assessment, where all business men are taxed according to their investments, the fairness is obvious.

The advantages of such an arrangement will appeal to the majority. It could be handled in Kissimmee perhaps without legislation changes and would prove most beneficial to the city.

One prominent member of the Board of Trade advocates this plan with a slightly reduced form, his idea being to have the city council pay part of the salary and expenses of a secretary, the organization making up the deficiency. This official is to be provided with suitable quarters near the depot, where literature and general information can be had at all times. The secretary is to be on the job each day and do nothing but look after the interests of the city. — Kissimmee Journal.

Atkins-Hendricks

Saturday afternoon at 3 o'clock a beautiful quiet wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. J. A. Hendricks, on Magnolia avenue, when Miss Gladys Hendricks became Mrs. Geo. Lee Atkins. A beautiful and impressive ceremony was pronounced by the Rev. D. H. Rutter of the Methodist church, proclaiming the pair one till death do them part.

This happy event was the culmination of a courtship of only a few months, for it was only a few months ago that they first met.

Miss Hendricks grew from young childhood to young womanhood in Daytona. When a little child her parents came here from Louisville, Ky., her father till his death, being in charge of the big mercantile business now the Peck-Hendricks Co.

Miss Gladys has charms of face and a personality which won her a circle of young friends who were sorry to lose her from their ranks, yet pleased to learn that their home is to be Daytona.

After the ceremony the young couple took an afternoon train for a few days in Jacksonville and other points. — Daytona Journal.

Mr. Atkins is a former Sanford man, having passed his early boyhood days here and has a host of friends who will tender their sincere congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Atkins and wish them all happiness that this life can hold.

Music Club

The Music Club held their regular meeting Saturday afternoon at the home of Mrs. T. A. Neal, who was leader for that date. A large attendance of the club members were present.

Leschitzky was the composer considered.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. Fannie S. Munson, the meeting was presided over by the vice president, Mrs. O. W. Brady.

Mrs. Margaretta Martin read a short sketch of the life and works of Leschitzky.

The musical contributions to the program were a piano number by Mrs. C. G. Butt and a vocal solo by Miss L. J. Dameron.

The discussion "Why is Classical Music Unpopular," was very general, nearly all

When the regular program was concluded the club discussed the proposed amalgamation of the clubs of the city, and put the matter on the table for a future meeting. A long and lengthy discussion by voting in favor of the proposition, which it is expected will become effective at the beginning of the new club year next fall.

The Music Club will hold their next regular meeting at the home of Mrs. F. L. Woodruff Saturday afternoon, March 15th. Mrs. G. L. Hoy, leader.

Resolutions Division 769 H of L. E.

Sanford, Florida, Mar. 2, 1913.

Whereas, Divine Providence, in the infinite exercise of wisdom, saw fit to move from our membership Feb. 21, 1913, Bro. George Armstrong, who early in life associated himself with the B. of L. E. and met some rebuffs in his vocation in early days; also lost his health, a long sufferer from effects of disappointments in his vocation and affliction, his faith was founded on divine promises:

Be it resolved, Division 769, B. of L. E. lost a good member, the wife a loving husband, the family a tender father, state county and municipality a good citizen. His walk in all stages was faultless, a fair example for those who survive him to imitate, we fully realize our loss, and extend our heartfelt sympathy to his family. Deprived of health his patience was astonishing, his faith steadfast; we fully realize he met great relief and received a rich reward when he went to rest.

Division 769 drapes her charter for thirty days in respect to him and consecrates one page of our minutes to his memory; admonishing our membership to imitate his pure character, exemplified and verified in his adherence to brotherhood obligations and principles, so distinctly outlined in his career as to insure us a grand reunion in the grand lodge above, provided over by the Grand Chief of the Universe, where our motto and brotherly love will prevail forever.

Secretary and treasurer ordered to send copy to Sanford Herald and Bro. Armstrong's family.

To the Tax Payers of Orange Co

I have a list of all the houses built in 1912 and take it for granted they were finished by Jan. 1st, 1913. The law requires you to make your return. I am trying to give you a fair deal and would like to have all property assessed equal. It is up to you to find out what your valuation is before the book is turned over to Tax Collector, for there will be no change made when tax paying time comes.

If I miss a house or assess a piece of land too low nothing is said. If I assess you too high you will have to pay the bill unless you have made your return.

West Side Improvement

The regular meeting of the West Side Improvement Association will be held at the Robbins Nest Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock. All the ladies of the West Side are cordially invited to be present and take part in the discussion, led by Mrs. May Dickens on the "Union of the Women's Clubs of Sanford." This will be an important and interesting feature of the meeting, as every phase of the subject will be discussed.

GIBSON FAMILY REUNION

Benefit Club Building Fund Library and Associated Charities

The home talent musical comedy, Gibson Reunion, to be given at Imperial Theatre for the benefit of the Club Building Fund, Library and Associated Charities by the Welaka Club will be the finest amateur performance ever given in Sanford.

The production is given in two acts, the first showing the Gibson family busily engaged in their preparations for the reunion. Mrs. Gibson, who is a suffragette, rules the situation with a high hand, and especially sways her meek and dutiful husband into quiet submission in every turn.

Caroline, Mrs. Gibson's favorite daughter, with her dignified, polished college manners, makes an interesting contrast with her sister's happy-go-lucky personality. The plot of the comedy brings out many interesting situations, and the real fun in the production is brought about by the henpecking by Mrs. Gibson and the ludicrous stupidity of Irish Molly and stammering Billy.

In the second act of the production Mrs. Gibson entertains her relatives and guests with an elaborate program of musical numbers. This program makes up, also, the greatest feature of the entertainment. It will consist of three large children's choruses and about eight choruses with young people. All the music is among the latest and catchiest, and the dances as given by the instructor to be sent by Bock Entertainment Company, are among the most artistic seen on the professional stage.

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that acting under and by virtue of a resolution adopted by the City Council I will within ten days from date bring suit to enforce payment of all sums due to the City of Sanford on all outstanding paving liens; also will bring suit to enforce payment of all sidewalk liens which have been outstanding for a period of one year.

Notice is hereby brought on the liens above stated unless settlement is made with me before March 8 1913 at my offices in the Garner-Woodruff Bldg.

WILL HAVE HOME MINSTRELS

Sanford Will Witness Good Performance

The amateur minstrels of Sanford will get together and give a performance some time in April for the benefit of the base ball association and the performance promises to be a good one from every standpoint. Sanford boasts of some very fine voices and some good comedians and the local hits will be rich, rare and of the 1913 vintage. The circle is not complete and all the good minstrels in the city or those who have ever pulled off a stunt or think they can pull off one are requested to meet in the city hall building third floor tomorrow night at eight o'clock when the first rehearsal will take place. Lake Hodges, an old minstrel troupier of Barlow Minstrels and C. H. Dingle, who is one of the finest in the city have been secured for two end men, and R. J. Holly will act as interlocutor. There are probably four more end men will be required and the rehearsals will start at once. Everybody is invited to come in and make the show the real article. The cause is a good one and the people will get their money's worth, for it is a well known fact that the amateur minstrel shows are always better than the professional show on account of the many local hits. The best musicians of the city will form the full orchestra and the musical feature will be the best part of the show.

Mettinger's Sale Notes

An immense crowd gathered at Mettinger's store Saturday afternoon, each one hoping they held the duplicate number that would draw the twenty-five dollars in gold. Simon Phillip, laborer on a Celery avenue farm was the lucky holder of duplicate ticket 2354, the original having been taken by Gladys Ingo, a little girl, from a box. This sale started by J. H. Cole, and under the supervision of M. Rathouser has been a phenomenal success and J. K. Mettinger is congratulating himself on having been able to obtain such energetic sales promoters to run this sale for him.

Mrs. Overman's Millinery Opening

The millinery opening of Mrs. Overman in the First building, this season promises to eclipse anything ever before attempted in this line in Sanford. Mrs. Overman believes in giving the people of Sanford the best and has secured the services of Mrs. Mehrtens, one of the best trimmers in the south, who will be here during the spring season. The regular spring opening will occur on Monday, March 10th, and refreshments will be served to the patrons during the hours of the millinery display. Mrs. Overman wishes to make no promises about the many beautiful hats but requests the ladies of this vicinity to call on Monday next and see the display.

An Early Attraction

With a bevy of exceptionally pretty singing and dancing girls, a splendidly balanced company, Billy "Single" Clifford supported by that clever prima donna, Marie Welter, will be seen in the merriest of musical farces, "The Girl, The Man and the Game?" at the Imperial Theatre Monday, Mar. 10th, 1913. The success of this clever play the past season from coast to coast was little short of phenomenal. This season it will be seen to much better advantage, the company being improved by the addition of Miss Marie Welter and a very clever little singing and dancing sou-brette, Miss Mae Collins, who was a feature the past season in The Pink Lady and at the Folie Bogere in New York. The chorus will be up to the Clifford standard, which means much, and Billy will have the best and brightest selection of songs he has ever had in his long career.

"The Girl, The Man and the Game?" is a success with a capital "S" as Billy Clifford's brand of comedy and dancing is delightfully pleasing.

At a recent meeting of the county commissioners of St. Johns county it was decided that the Augusta gravel was a failure for surfacing purposes and they cancelled all orders. Brick will be used instead.

Information has been received here of the untimely death of Mrs. D. H. Hartley, which occurred at her home in Waldo on Tuesday night. From the information at hand, it seems that the lady had been out calling during the afternoon and reached home after dark. After building a fire in an open grate, in some manner her clothing became ignited, and there being no one in the house to assist her, she was fatally burned. She was almost unconscious when found, and death relieved her suffering during the early evening.—Gainesville Sun.

Don't miss it—Gibson Reunion.

Death of Mrs. Morey

From Pensacola Journal, Feb. 28: Mrs. Lula Gholsten Morey, after an illness of several weeks, breathed her last yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at the Pensacola Sanatorium.

Although her death was not unexpected, when the information was given out it caused the deepest sorrow among her legion of friends. Mrs. Morey was a most lovable woman and had for some years been a prominent figure in Pensacola's social, church and charitable work.

Mrs. Morey was a leader in the work to establish a Young Woman's Christian Association in this city. She was 41 years old and is survived by her husband, Hon. M. E. Morey, a daughter, Frances, who is eleven years old and a pupil in the city schools, her mother in Clarksville, Tenn., three brothers and two sisters.

The home of the family is at 5 East DeSoto street and funeral services will be held there at 11 o'clock tomorrow morning. They will be conducted by the Rev. A. S. Moffett, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, and the Rev. K. L. Melver, pastor of Knox Presbyterian church. Interment will be in St. Johns cemetery.

With Mr. Morey and their daughter, Mrs. Morey came to Pensacola more than two years ago from Rochester, N. Y., where Mr. Morey formerly practiced law. She soon made friends and became an active member of the Shakespeare Society, the Caxtons and other similar organizations. She also took great interest in the Y. M. C. A. proposed for this city and did much to bring the efforts to secure one to their present promising point.

Her mother, brothers and sisters were telegraphed news of her death as soon as it occurred, but the service throughout this part of the south was so badly crippled by the storm that no replies have yet been received. It is feared that the aged mother of Mrs. Morey will be unable to come. Mrs. I. M. Raynor of Ocala is here, and Miss Dora Gholsten, another sister, is expected this evening.

Mrs. Morey was the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Gholsten of Clarksville, Tenn., and was prominent in church and exclusive social circles there at the time she became the wife of Mr. Morey.

In St. Johns cemetery the interment will be held, and all that is mortal of this estimable woman will be laid to rest forever.

Mrs. Morey came to Sanford a bride some years ago. Her husband's family were living here at the time. Mr. and Mrs. Morey resided in Sanford several years before going to Rochester to live. Mrs. Morey made many warm friends in Sanford who will regret to learn of her death.

Hold Earlier Services.

Commencing with next Sunday night the churches of Sanford will begin services at 7 instead of 7:30.

Celebrated Milliner Here.

Mrs. E. Glasgow Mehrtens of Jacksonville, has been procured by Mrs. S. M. Overman and will have charge of the Spring Opening of millinery and will also remain here during the busy season. Mrs. Mehrtens studied millinery art with the celebrated Madame Sokoia of Jacksonville for three years and has held positions in the millinery departments of large establishments in almost every state in the Union.

Mosquito Inlet Deep Water

At one of the most enthusiastic and largely attended public gatherings ever held in Volusia county, the Central Florida Deep Water Association was organized at New Smyrna by the election of Judge C. E. Barrett of that city as president. The other officers elected were: Vice presidents R. H. Boyd, DeLand; S. H. Gove, Daytona; C. R. Walker, Sanford, and M. Leiderdorf, New Smyrna; secretary, H. I. Hamilton, New Smyrna; treasurer, S. A. Wood, DeLand; board of governors, J. McCormick and G. M. Marshall, New Smyrna; T. K. Bates, Sanford, R. L. Smith, Daytona, and Bert Fish, DeLand.

Many prominent speakers were present from Volusia and adjoining counties and the project seems to be nearer an assurance than at any time yet. Dr. Van Valzah said that in a conversation with Capt. Slatterly, the government official stated that with the opening of the St. Lucie Inlet and the new island waterway along the East Coast, that matter of a government appropriation for New Smyrna Inlet would become a necessity. He further said that eventually the East Coast canal would be made navigable for boats drawing six feet.

A letter was read at the meeting from J. R. Parrott, president of the Florida East Coast Railway, saying that he was in hearty accord with the movement.

Among the speakers of the evening were Judge Barrett, Dr. Lincoln A. Hulley, president of Stetson University, DeLand; State Attorney Cary D. Landis, also of DeLand; T. K. Bates and C. R. Walker of Sanford; Rev. D. H. Ruttee and S. H. Gove, of Daytona; Dr. J. A. Van Valzah, of Daytona Beach; C. F. Burgman, of Sea Breeze and E. H. Perrell, of Titusville.—Daytona Gazette.

Wednesday Club

The members of the Wednesday Club are reminded that they have been invited to hold their regular meeting Wednesday afternoon, Mar. 5th, at the primary department of the school, in order that they may have the opportunity of seeing the apparatus used in the "Montessori method" with an explanation and demonstration of the method by Misses Farnsworth and Leffler, who are using it in their department. Please be on hand at 2:30 o'clock.

Cecilian Club

The Cecilian Club will hold their regular meeting at the studio of Mrs. Fannie S. Munson Saturday afternoon, Mar. 8th, at 3 o'clock.

The Senate campaign expenditures committee will make no report to the dying congress upon its exhaustive inquiry into campaign expenditures of 1904-1908 and 1912 and into the relations of John D. Archbold and the Standard Oil Company with members of congress and federal officers. Members of the special committee have found it impossible to agree upon a report and the matter is to be carried over to the new congress. It is understood that the five members of the special committee, Senators Clapp, Pomerepe, Oliver, Jones and Paynter, have been unable to agree on the character of the report or the extent to which the committee should go in analyzing the testimony taken. Some members of the committee will eventually recommend important changes in the laws regulating campaign expenditures.

BONDS HAVE BEEN SOLD

Sanford District Will Now Pave With Brick

ONLY DISTRICT IN FLORIDA

That Has Twenty-five Miles of Vitrified Brick Country Roads

The Sanford district will soon witness the laying of brick on twenty-five miles or more of the country roads. The final act in the great work of starting this innovation in road building was accomplished on Wednesday when the bonds were sold to a Cincinnati bond firm at 5½ which is a most excellent figure and demonstrates that the Sanford district is above par in the money markets.

Sanford is the first section of the state to form a special road district and vote bonds for brick roads and is probably the first section in the entire south to take the initiative in the matter of building vitrified brick roads.

Hand Bros. of this city and the Wilson Co. of Jacksonville have been awarded the joint contract for making the roads and the work will start as soon as the brick can be shipped. On account of the large amount of brick required for the twenty-five miles, two of the brick concerns will furnish the material and in this way the brick can be shipped at once and the work will not be delayed. The brick roads will be built as follows:

Celery avenue to the ferry, Beardsall avenue to Cameron City, Sanford and First street to the distance of eight miles, First street west to Sylvan Lake, and from the Stenstrom place north to Monroe ferry, from Stenstrom place to the same line at Sylvan Lake and from Beardsall avenue to Geneva ferry for one mile.

The average width of the roads will be nine feet, with the exception of those roads where the travel is large enough to warrant a wider road and some of these will probably be sixteen feet in width. The width may be changed on some of the roads by the trustees, as the nine foot road seems to be popular and it may be possible in some instances to build more nine foot roads and lengthen the roads.

Wednesday Club

A very entertaining innovation was added to the always pleasant meetings of the Wednesday Club at the meeting in the primary department of the Sanford school Wednesday afternoon, by invitation of Miss Farnsworth and Leffer, who had charge of the program for the afternoon.

The club were pleased to have with them the School Board and Prof. Maris, also several patrons and visitors to enjoy with them the splendid program prepared by their pleasant hostesses.

After admiring the very attractive and beautifully neat schoolroom and the new and novel accessories to an up-to-date school for little folks the club and visitors enjoyed the fine chorus "Ninth the Splendor of the Flag," sung by the following little girls and boys who marched to the front, the leader bearing the American flag, when Miss Leffer gave the signal on the piano: James Mitchell, Mildred Holly, Emma Spencer, Evelyn Higgins, Edward Brady, Irma Smith, John Wilson, Morris Moye, Klitty DuBose, Frances Rhodes.

A very sweet little solo, "Forget Me Not," was sung by Emma Spencer. "Down in the Buttercup Meadow" was nicely sung by three little girls, Evelyn Higgins, Irma Smith and Mildred Holly. Another solo, "Pretty Morn" sung by Frances Rhodes, concluded the little folks' part of the entertainment.

Miss Leffer gave a splendidly prepared "Sketch concerning Madame Montessori and her Discovery." The interesting paper gave a brief synopsis of the circumstances and conditions surrounding the life and needs which led to this remarkable Italian woman to make a study of methods for teaching children. Froebel's method as a basis to assist not only defective but normal children, and the development of every faculty of their being.

At the conclusion of Miss Leffer's fine paper Miss Farnsworth continued the interesting story of how Madame Montessori put her ideas of auto education and sense training into practice in Rome, and of its immediate

OUR BUILDING ASSOCIATION

Sanford's Best Institution Is Growing Better Each Day

The Sanford Building & Loan Association continues to be one of the great factors in upbuilding our progressive city. The secretary and treasurer reports that during the month of February more than four thousand dollars were taken in and immediately contracted for building new homes, and the month of March will show more than five thousand dollars income, all of which will be applied at once to building new homes.

Our Building & Loan Association is purely cooperative and is managed by Sanford's conservative citizens and in the interest of the whole community, and it most cordially deserves the cordial support of every business man and citizen.

Those of you who have not done so are cordially invited to visit the office of Secretary and Treasurer Connelly over First National Bank or to confer with any member of Board of Directors, as to plans and manner of handling preferred and common stock, making loans, etc. They are in position to build several more houses, quite a number of them in the year 1913. Why not have them help build yours, and if you don't want to build, the common stock as a savings institution can't be beat paying above nine per cent dividends now, and for those who have larger amounts to invest the preferred stock paying seven per cent is just the best of all. Officers and directors are as follow:

Geo. H. Fernald, president
A. P. Connelly, secretary and treasurer
Geo. A. DeCotter, attorney
Directors: Geo. H. Fernald, H. R. Stevens, T. J. Miller, J. C. Higgins, F. P. Foster, Ernest Case and A. P. Connelly.

ST. JOHNS WILL BE IMPROVED

Rivers and Harbors Bill Signed by Retiring President

The Rivers and Harbors Bill carrying appropriations for Florida of over one million dollars received the signature of President Taft last Monday night and was one of his last official acts. This bill means much to Florida, and while the people of this section would like to have more money for the St. Johns river south of Jacksonville the money appropriated will do much in the upper reaches of the St. Johns and will help Sanford materially. Following is the appropriations for Florida:

Jacksonville to the sea, $550,000; Jacksonville to Lake Harney, $60,000; Indian River, $22,000; Hillsborough Bay over $10,000; Tampa Bay, $5,000; Key West $15,000; Sarasota Bay, $13,000. From $2,000 to $5,000 will be spent in improving many other smaller places.

This means that over $1,000,000 is now available for the work in Florida. It has been feared for some time that the President would not sign the bill. Had he refused at the last moment it would have meant that the work here would have been delayed for perhaps two years. The local engineers were out of money and the work was at a standstill.

The meeting was also shown and the uses explained by Miss Farnsworth, which in its excellence teaches the child to read, write and the principles of elementary arithmetic. Madame Montessori in seeking to advance the methods to such an efficiency that auto education and sense training can be used during the entire school education. Having shown the advantage of this wonderful method Miss Farnsworth mentioned also the disadvantages in concluding her most excellent paper.

The meeting was then adjourned by the president, Mrs. Maris, and Miss Leffer, assisted by Mrs. L. R. Phillips served delicious punch and wafers to the club and visitors.

The club will meet next Wednesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Henry Wright.

Program for March 10th:

Music.
Account of the French Occupation.
Mrs. Geo. L. Maris.
Story of Maximilian and Carlotta.
Mrs. S. O. Shinholer.
The Monroe Doctrine, Prof. Geo. L. Maris.
Roll Call.

It's great—The Gibson Reunion.

GOVERNMENT BUILDING

Sanford is Among the Lucky Cities to Draw One

PRESIDENT TAFT SIGNS BILL

And This City Realizes The Nice Sum of $70,000 for Adequate Postoffice Building

Sanford has drawn a valuable prize in the $70,000 government building that was made possible last Monday when President Taft, as one of his last official acts, signed the bill giving the appropriations as approved by the House and Senate. The people here were waiting with bated breath the first intimation of the act of the President as it was feared he would use his veto prerogative and kill the bill for the time thus causing a delay in our building. The first intimation that the bill had become a law was through a telegram received by Secretary Bates from Senator Fletcher to the effect that Taft had signed the bill, although under protest as he did not think some of the cities with less population than Sanford should receive an appropriation although he really approved of Sanford knowing that this city would soon become the county seat of the best county in the state.

This public building for Sanford means more than the average citizen could imagine. It means more than a more pile of marble and brick for a postoffice. It means that Sanford has been recognized as a city of the greatest importance and on account of the location at the head of navigation, Sanford is the most important city in the state. It means that never before in the history of the country has a city other than the county seat received recognition over the county seat in the matter of appropriations and an appropriation of such magnitude.

A communication from Washington states that the retiring President was on the point of cutting out the other Florida cities other than Sanford because they could not show cause why they should receive government buildings on account of their lack of water transportation but that Sanford especially appealed to him and saved the day for all other cities.

Thus does the fame of Sanford precede them all and daily adds lustre to her name.

Consider the Operator.

"Notice. Remember when you talk to 'Central' you are talking to a lady." That's the exact quotation reprinted on a small placard and posted just above the telephone in one of the leading Broadway grocers stores. It was placed there by one of the proprietors.

Most any one knows that "central" is a lady. That is, they would know it if they stopped sufficiently long to think about it. The trouble is the average man using a telephone regards "central" not as a living, breathing piece of humanity, sweet, girlish humanity, but a portion of the machinery which makes the telephone system. Perhaps she is a part of the machinery, just as you are part of the machinery of your special line—besides, you are a great big, husky man and she, well, she is a lady.

It's a two to one shot that the average individual who gets mad and rants and swears over the telephone because he is not answered within two seconds after taking down the receiver, would be less agitated and considerably less profane and assy, and not at all subject to fits if a man were at the "central office" instead of a sweet-voiced girl. He would not feel nearly so anxious to abuse and curse and criticize in vehement terms if there was a probability of that voice on the other end coming back in the same adjective and a muscular development to emphasize the point if necessary. There are no reasons when one is rather certain that the telephone system is an incorporated insult to its patrons, but it is not the fault of "central." Something may be wrong with other portions of the machinery and she may be having a blamed sight worse time than the abusive patron. But, the placard says: "Remember she is a lady." ## AFTER THE EXPRESS COMPANY

Failure to Ship Vegetables Will Cause Trouble for Company

Tallahassee, Fla., Mar. 6.—The railroad companies are receiving complaints on account of the Southern Express Company failing to move promptly shipments of perishables offered for transportation. The shipments are principally for interstate points, and the commissioners, upon behalf of the growers and shippers have taken up the matter with the Interstate commerce commission, and have forwarded the following telegram to that commission:

"Interstate Commerce Commission, Washington, D. C.: Following wire received here last night from McIntosh, Fla., a point on the Atlantic Coast Line Railway:

"Train forty took no express today. Left over 100 crates on platform.

"These shipments are principally lettuce and other perishable products destined to markets outside of state. Failure to give service at that point was called to the attention of the general manager of the Southern Express Company by this commission last week. We are advised that it is almost a daily occurrence that the express company fails to carry all the express from that and other points in that vicinity. Please give this matter such vigorous handling as will break up this practice. If necessary this commission stands ready to prefer formal charges against Southern Express Company for failing to do its duty as a common carrier."

Welaka Club Notice

Orange County Citizen Can Get A Hair Cut

An interesting event took place in Orlando last Tuesday which attracted the attention of hundreds of people. The fact that it was in connection with the change of the administration of the United States, following immediately upon the inauguration of the new chief executive of the country, made the occasion of interest.

Code Hill, one of the leading bill-bills of Hill's Center had his hair and beard shaved. The operation took place on the public square in the barge stand, and was witnessed by hundreds of people. Mr. Hill made a vow at the close of the Cleveland administration not to shave his face, or have his hair cut, until another Democratic President was placed in the office. As many years had elapsed during that time Mr. Hill's beard grew to vast proportions while his hair was hanging down upon his shoulders, and his appearance has many times attracted much attention by strangers to the city, who were not "in" on the proposition.

When President Wilson was elected, Mr. Hill informed his friends that upon the Democratic President taking his oath of office he would have the "shave." Following the expert work of the tonsorial artist, Mr. Hill made a speech, contending that the growth of his hair "grew a Democratic President," and that he thought he should be advanced from Code Hill to "Colonel."

ANOTHER NEW COUNTY

Everglades County Will be Formed From Dade

COUNTY SEAT FAVORS PLAN

Other News Items Not so Important But Worthy of Notice.

Fort Lauderdale, March 7.—As a sequence to an article appearing in the Fort Lauderdale Herald two weeks ago regarding the division of Dade county, to be known as Everglades county, a meeting was held last night and attended by the most influential citizens of the north end of Dade, who will engage in an active campaign toward the establishment of the proposed new county. The proposition seems to have easy sailing as thus far no opposition whatever has developed and even Miami newspapers are cordially supporting the movement.

At last night's meeting a permanent committee was organized and a permanent secretary was employed. A bill creating the new county is now being prepared and will be submitted to the legislature when it convenes in April.

The boundaries of Everglades county will begin at the section line just north of Deerfield, run west to the Hillsborough canal, along the canal to Lake Okechobee and along the shores of the lake to the western boundary of Palm Beach and Dade counties, thence south to the southern boundary of township 51, thence east to the Atlantic
