RUSSELL SCOTT WINS FIGHT TO ESCAPE NOOSE

Seven Ballots Taken By Jury Before Chicago Murderer Is Pronounced Insane; Jury Deliberates Three Hours

Execution Faces Man If Sanity Is Regained

Condemned Man Immediately Committed To Asylum To Spend Best Of Life There

CHICAGO, Aug. 7.—Russell Scott Thursday won his fight to escape the gallows.

A jury in the court of superior Judge Joseph B. David found him insane.

He will be committed at once to a state hospital.

The jury, which took seven ballots, reached its verdict after deliberating three hours and forty minutes.

Scott immediately was committed to the Chester Asylum.

Scott sat tensely in his chair while the jury filed into the box.

When the verdict was read and the hall filled with the sound of the gavel, Scott's eyes followed the slip of paper that might mean life or death.

When the verdict was read Scott's mouth twitched nervously and he shifted his position in the chair.

Scott, while going to the asylum as insane, still faces death on the gallows should he ever be found to have regained his sanity.

Scott, convicted of the murder of Joseph Maurer, a drug clerk, was saved from death three weeks ago, six hours before he was to have been hanged by a week's reprieve from Gov. Small.

Two weeks ago tonight, less than four hours before he was to walk on the death trap, he was again saved from the noose by a petition filed before Judge David at 2 o'clock in the morning declaring him to be insane.

The hearing which saved his life was the sanity trial concluded today and which started Monday.

New Spirit Of Community Greatest Result Of Campaign, Says Director

By Daniel H. McFarland, Director of the Campaign Vice President, American City Bureau

Sanford has raised $100,000 for the use of its Chamber of Commerce for advertising Sanford and Seminole county and rendering various kinds of service all designed to build a greater and more prosperous city.

Sanford now stands at the head of all cities in the world in the support of its Chamber of Commerce on a per capita basis.

Sanford now has one of the five largest Chamber of Commerce incomes in the world.

Sanford has increased the income of its Chamber of Commerce from membership dues 1,600 per cent.

Sanford has put on a Chamber of Commerce campaign that ran true to schedule from the day it started to the end.

Sanford furnished a team organization that was equal in size and ability to cities of a quarter of a million people, and it was as large at the end as at the beginning.

I believe that this is the beginning of a new day for Sanford and this section. I look for the news of this remarkable result to spread to all the United States and Canada.

When I came here I made a study of Sanford and decided that it had the location and foundation for a great city.

I believe that the first turning point in the history of Sanford was when the Hotel Forrest Lake project was conceived and made a success.

The second turning point is this campaign. I believe it has created a movement that will not stop but will grow in volume from day to day.

Young Bride Of Few Months Charged With Murdering Her Soldier Husband

LEXINGTON, Ky., Aug. 7.—Truman Viley, 24, selen of Kentucky aristocracy, came to Lexington three months ago from Manila on a furlough from the army.

Mrs. Mary Haley and Mrs. Barbara Thompson said they saw the bride shoot her husband. Asa Ray said Mrs. Viley told him she had shot her husband.

The death of Viley ended a swift courtship and marriage, with residence following in a modest part of the city.

Saturday a week ago, Viley, returning home after nightfall, was wounded by a bullet from a small calibre rifle as he was near his home.

Sanford's great forward movement, instituted by the Chamber of Commerce, came to a glorious end tonight at an elaborate Victory Dinner when a tabulation of the final day's campaign results showed that $105,000 had been raised and 4,200 memberships added to the Chamber in an intensive four-day campaign.

By virtue of its record, the Sanford Chamber of Commerce becomes the largest in the world per capita population, according to an announcement made by Daniel H. McFarland, vice-president of the American City Bureau and general director of the campaign.

Reports from the special committee and from the various teams showed that $34,965 was raised today. Of this amount the special committee reported $21,200 and the teams reported $13,765.

The city's appropriation of $20,000 toward the campaign was added to the fund tonight, swelling the total to more than twice the goal set for the drive.

The four divisions comprising 23 teams reported as follows: Maj. J. G. Ball, $2,845; Maj. D. L. Thrasher, $4,350; Maj. Floyd Palmer, $4,025; Maj. S. O. Shinholser, $2,550.

TEAMS, LEADERS RECEIVE PRAISE FOR THEIR WORK

Active Working Organization Of Campaign Largely Responsible For Large Membership Fund Subscribed.

The fact that Sanford's great "Forward Movement" came to an end in a blaze of glory today is credited largely to the untiring efforts of some 200 men and women who have faithfully done their part in the securing of approximately 4,000 memberships for the local Chamber of Commerce.

The spirit and the hearty response of the great number of Sanford citizens, who have subscribed to the big membership fund have also been praised by the most prominent persons in the community and the leaders of the campaign.

With W. H. McFarland, vice-president of the American City Bureau as director of the campaign and Dr. Alexander Karr as executive director, the presidents of the bands of this city were chosen for the "allied command," including P. P. Forester of the First National Bank, Mayor Forrest Lake of the Seminole County Bank and W. H. Tunncliffe of the Sanford Bank and Trust Company.

At the meeting of the "greater hundred" committee, nine persons were chosen to act with the Board of Governors of the Chamber of Commerce as the Executive Committee of the movement. Judge E. P. Housholder has acted as chairman of this body.

Those composing the Executive Committee are, Judge E. P. Housholder, chairman, Edward Higgins, Forrest Lake, R. J. Holly, S. O. Shinholser, W. H. Tunncliffe, John Meisch, George D. Bishop and John Meisch of the board of governors of the trade body and H. C. DuBose, George A. DeCotte, T. L. Dumas, F. P. Forster, Mrs. J. G. Leonard, J. G. Sharon, H. R. Stevens, Mrs. Henry Wight, F. T. Williams, and F. R. Wilson.

Later R. J. Holly was chosen colonel of the teams and then Majors J. G. Ball, D. L. Thrasher, Floyd Palmer and S. O. Shinholser were appointed to head the four divisions of the teams. The personnel of the teams follows:

Major's Ball's Division Captain John Bender; Lieutenants—H. Kent, John Jenkins, Ed. Meisch. Captain R. B. Chapman; Lieutenants G. L. Bledsoe, L. B. Steele. (Continued on Page Two)

World's Record Is Aim. Early this morning with $100,000 as their mark, the campaigners began their final drive. Spurred on by the knowledge that with the raising of this sum, their city could boast of the largest trade body in the world, the workers bent every energy toward making the campaign a success and one that would be broadcasted far and wide as one of the most outstanding civic achievements ever attained.

Before beginning their work this morning the campaigners joined by several thousand Sanford citizens, successfully staged a unique publicity stunt, which was filmed and made a part of a special movie taken of the campaign and which will be distributed and shown in all parts of the country. The stunt consisted in the formation of a parade made up of every person who has joined during the present campaign. The parade passed in front of the camera and on to a specially built booth on Magnolia Avenue where each person signed Chamber of Commerce membership blanks. This scene will be hailed in the picture as the expression of a united civic spirit.

"GREATER SANFORD" DAY

The Mayor Has Issued a

PROCLAMATION

Let Us Make It the Greatest Day in Sanford's History

Tomorrow the greatest civic movement in the history of Sanford, and one of the greatest in the history of Florida, will come to a close. The goal of $50,000—believed at first to be impossible—has already been passed, and the sales organization, imbued with the new Sanford spirit, is working to increase the total to $60,000, $65,000, $70,000, and even $75,000, depending upon the optimism of the individual. The greater the showing, the more astonishment it will bring to the people of the nation, because Sanford is breaking all records for a city of its size.

Every adult in the city and surrounding country who can afford to invest seven cents a day in building a greater community and creating larger opportunities should become a member. If you have not been called upon, it has been due to an oversight, and we would appreciate it if you would give your membership to any worker you see or telephone the Chamber of Commerce.

Motion Pictures Tomorrow

We want everybody in Sanford to come down town tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock to see and take part in a unique motion picture stunt that will be part of a Sanford picture. A Subscription Booth for those who will subscribe memberships in the Chamber of Commerce will be erected at First and Palmetto streets, and at 9:30 o'clock the line will form. Pictures will be taken of people subscribing for memberships and of the crowds. The stores have been asked by the Mayor to close from 10 to 10:30 o'clock so that everybody can take part.

LET US MAKE A GREAT FINISH OF THIS REMARKABLE CIVIC MOVEMENT. THE EYES OF ALL THE STATE ARE ON SANFORD. ALREADY IT HAS RECEIVED TREMENDOUS FREE ADVERTISING AS THE RESULT OF THIS CAMPAIGN. LET EVERY TEAM-WORKER KEEP AT HIS TASK UNTIL THE BIG "VICTORY" DINNER TOMORROW NIGHT AT 6:30 O'CLOCK AT THE SEMINOLE CAPE.

STEWART'S WASHINGTON LETTER

By CHARLES F. STEWART

WASHINGTON, Aug. 7.—What the next war will be like nobody knows. Military men say they doubtless think so. But they disagree. Different schools of experts predict a half a dozen or more entirely different kinds of fighting. Their predictions conflict, too. There's no way of adding them up, dividing by the total number of predictions and striking an average. According to military fundamentalists the next war will be about the same old thing. Armies, with infantry as their backbone, will fight on land. Navies with the strongest flying force will fight at sea. Aircraft will figure more than ever before but only as army and navy auxiliaries, after all. Warfare's principles haven't changed a bit. According to the aviation school the next war will be fought in the air. Aircraft will wipe out armies and navies in jig time. The country with the strongest flying force will have the enemy at its mercy before he realizes a fight's started. His surface defenses and defenders destroyed, his cities will be bombed, his countryside harried and he'll have to yield without ing. These aren't all the schools—only some of the principal ones. With so much disagreement among them, what's a nation, dependent on their advice, to do? Build up an all-round military establishment, to suit the whole outfit? That's a large order. A navy, for instance, is expensive. If it's to be destroyed, first shot out of the bottle, by aircraft, it would be better to scrap it and concentrate on aircraft. Yet suppose the country does that, and then the aviation school turns out to be mistaken. That would be bad business, too. Well, it's up to the experts to fight it out the best they can. Clearwater—Contract lot for construction of high school building.

Valuable Painting Of Christ Is Found Recently In Mexico

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Aug. 7.—Father J. J. Hartman, chaplain of St. Anthony's orphanage, has found what he believes to be one of the most important art discoveries of America or Europe in recent years, a life-size painting of Christ in a Catholic mission church at the Indian pueblo of Isleta, near here. Father Hartman has seen the most noted paintings of Christ all over the world, and he considers the work in the mission church the most perfect he has studied. The picture is partly in relief, and the color harmony is remarkable. He believes the painting to be of the Byzantine era, preceding any of the European schools. The name of the artist is not known. Father Hartman is of the opinion that the painting was brought to the Isleta mission by early padres who accompanied Spanish conquistadores on their trips of conquest through New Mexico. The mission church is about 300 years old. The picture has been temporarily removed from the church because of its great value, until permanent arrangements for its safe keeping can be made.

Tampa baseball club to be immediately declared who have been declared League rules the difference between the two clubs has been settled for the last three weeks at an end and except for one or two minor details that might yet be settled the league was officially organized at the meeting at which President Stanton, head of the National Association of Professional Baseball Players, was present and the president of the club presently had stated his side of the controversy. Dr. Opre made it two of his men go over the main cause for present were President V.

of Sanford, Calke Sci-
St. Petersburg, Claire Hen-Lakeland and Dr. Opre of Ray. Formerly, vice-pres-the league presided with Lakeland acting as secretary.
Dr. Opre of Sanford spoke and declared that his club had been in the rules all the season and that no charges could be sustained against it, that he had lived within the requirements of a Class D club and that he did not see the reason why he should be degraded to a Class B team, which he felt was a disgrace.
His principle charge was that Tampa because they alleged veteran players new rules of the league and also charged with violating certain rules based on a protest on one of these charges.
The High Class Ball League followed and at the people of Florida good baseball or none that if the original rules were put back in effect St. Petersburg would support the team, Mr.
said that they also did not support the team.

Dr. Opre said that the league was changed on July 20 in order to permit Tampa to permit Tampa to finish the season.
It was impossible to have a team that would give the class of baseball under the old rules.
Claire Henley consented to the enforcement of the rules adopted by the league and what was needed was and at the hotel and that should be forced "come and stick to the rules fixing classification of the league." Dr. Opre was last to talk and he said that he had no objection to any rules, but he had not known that the men veterans on the team that he had been and that there were only five on his roster and that he knew otherwise until the game played on Thursday and the protest of the league president. He said that two of the men and had only reinstated yesterday in order that there would be an official ruling at the meeting.
Dr. Opre was informed by Mr. Parnely that seven of the Tampa team had been and that it had been that they had played leagues offered the Sanford President to let him take his pick of any men on the Tampa team to be traded for men on the Sanford team. Mr. Douglass said he did not want to trade for Tampa players and Dr. Opre then said that he would immediately release two of his men which would bring him within the league rules. Upon the advice of Mr. Sexton this was accepted and Tampa is now again in good standing.

AMATEUR SHOW
THURSDAY NIGHT
PROVES SUCCESS

Local Performers Assisted By Miss Moody Put Over Creditable Entertainment; Competition for Prizes Marked

"If you ever had a sneaking suspicion that Sanford hasn't potential theatrical talent you have altered your opinion completely, providing you were one of the lucky ones to get a seat at the Milane Thursday night. And if you don't think that these Sanford folks are keen supporters of their favorites you've made another bad guess.
This was the statement today of Manager J. L. Marentette of the theater.

"Gettrude Moody had the pleasure of handling the acts and take it from us she had one ticklish job trying to pick out the prize winners with possibly one exception and that being the first prize which went to Catherine Waters.
The second prize went to Miss Cora Hill and the third to Miss Mary from Geneva. Please pardon our reference to the last of the prize winners as while we were duly and properly presenting to these folks it was one of those hurried affairs and as Bill has departed for the very thriving city which he and Mary very creditably represented we are not able to ascertain their surnames."

Miss Moody's act, as usual, went over big and George Brockhahn at the piano performed with a finish that only George is capable of doing.
Further entertainments with numbers furnished by home talent will be staged at the Milane soon, it is announced. The popularity of the first acts of this kind under the new management is proof enough that the Sanford people enjoy this kind of entertainment, it is said.

Utah Residents Are Much Worried Over
Naming Of Peaks

SALT LAKE CITY, Aug. 5.— Utah residents are aroused over chance and possibly inappropriate names bestowed upon many of the peaks and canyons in the south Utah region which includes Zion National Park, Cedar Breaks state park and Bryce Canyon National Monument. Suggestion has been made that a commission be appointed to take up the matter with the National Geographic Board of the United States.
Report from Zion National Park is that a woman tourist while riding through a rock crack recently remarked "This must be Purgatory Pass," and the name has stuck. Another instance which has created disapproval is the calling of the majestic triplet-peaks of the Three Patriarchs in Zion Park by the name of a nationally known concern.

A majority of the peaks and canyons in south region are unnamed. There are so many of them and it is hoped that something will be done towards proper naming before too many nicknames are given.

Surgeons In Berlin
Are Clashing Over
Opposing Theories

BERLIN, Aug. 5.—Prof. August Bier, the eminent Berlin surgeon who performed the operations of the late President Fierst and Hugo Stinnes, has stirred up the allopathic fraternity by not only saying a few kind words for homeopathy, but also publishing his personal successes with the homeopathic treatment.
At the last meeting of the Medical Society, Prof. Bier was subjected to a scathing criticism. One member declared: "It is nothing but unbelief for Prof. Bier to champion the cause of homeopathy." Another asserted: "Homeopathy is wrong because its adherents regard it as a system rather than a science. It is therefore to be condemned as a system." Prof. Bier, unperturbed, replied to these and other reproaches with the statement that this problem could only be solved by means of continuous experiments. He declared that after a careful study of the works of Samuel Hahnemann, the originator of homeopathy, he had come to the conclusion that from these text books the greatest wisdom as well as the utmost non-sense was to be learned.

Ex-Mayor Is Killed
In Hendersonville
During Gun Battle

HENDERSONVILLE N. C. Aug.
7.—In a gun battle on the streets of this city, Thursday afternoon between Bonnie L. Brooks, a local barber, his 12 year old son, Murray, and Sam Y. Bryson, former mayor, the latter was shot to death, his body having been pierced by four pistol bullets.
Brooks, according to authorities, resisted arrest but was taken into custody by Patrolman Clarence Edeney, and is held in Henderson county jail charged with the slay-ing. His son, upon request of hisself and his father, is permitted to be in the cell with Brooks.

Brooks came back to Hendersonville about three weeks ago from Knoxville where he has been at work as a traveling salesman. Today the two met. Each, authorities say, was well armed. Bryson, Brooks told police officers, opened fire first. Brooks returned the fire, and passed a pistol to his son, who also began firing. The lad, the coroner was told asked his father which one to shoot, an approaching police officer or Bryson.
An answer was not given, it was said, but Bryson soon fell to the ground his body pierced by four bullets. He was shot in the chest twice, also in the face and in the back. Bryson was for several years one of Hendersonville's leading citizens and business men. He was elected mayor on an independent ticket but resigned following his first trouble with Brooks. Prior to holding the office was mayor, he was postmaster. He is survived by his wife and several children.

Fourteen Points Guide
To Successful Movies

HOLLYWOOD, Cal., Aug. 7.— Through a recently established system of selecting plots that conform to the covenant of 14 dramatic points, motion picture producers here now practically assure the success of a photoplay before it is made. Of thousands of films produced in the past many were failures from the standpoint of audiences.
Irving Cummings, director under whose direction several productions have been filmed through the new method, declares that in the future failures will be almost completely eliminated. In this manner more pictures that appeal to the audiences will be turned out he said.

The photoplay when adjudged by this method should contain a majority of the fourteen following dramatic ingredients: ambition, conflict, conspiracy, distortion, eternal love, greed, intrigue, love, mother love, the quadrangle, res-tribution, reconciliation, sacrifice, feminine appeal.

BIBLE THOUGHT FOR TODAY

THE LEADETH ME:—I will bring the blind by a way that they knew not; I will lead them in paths that they have not known; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked things straight. These things will I do unto them, and not forsake them. Isaiah 42: 14.

MOTHERING

To want you for the joy of you, I thought was my desire, The singing, smiling boy of you That never seemed to tire; But, man of mine, it isn't then, Alone that women want their men— We want you sometimes when the smile Has left your lips a little while.

We know there is another you, Another life you lead; And, oh, we want to mother you When that is what you need! I used to think, O man of mine, Your song a joy, your laugh divine, But now I know, as women do, There always is another you.

So in your trouble come to us, When winds are blowing wild, You're always lovelier to us, Yet always sadder a child. For life the time will always bring You need a little mothering, To heal your hurts, to get you through— And then we want to mother you. —Douglas Malloch.

It's new Daytona Beach. By an overwhelming vote Tuesday, the citizens of Daytona, Sebring and Daytona Beach, decided to consolidate the three cities. After years of rivalry which materially retarded the growth of each place, the three cities have discovered that "united we stand" is better than "divided we fall." Congratulations to greater Daytona Beach.

Cornelius Vanderbuilt, Jr., of tabloid paper fame and publisher of the Miami Daily Tab, on a recent visit through Georgia, took occasion to boast that state but did so with many insinuations against Florida. We have heard of several instances where the young millionaire has intimated that Florida is unstable and its future uncertain, all of which lends us to ask that if these things are true, what in the world induced him to establish a newspaper in this state and what still makes him continue its publication at a loss of between twelve and fifteen thousand dollars a month?

Rockaway A Good Example

News dispatches Thursday told of a flood of worthless checks being circulated in New York where the Rockaway land boom—a real sensational boom—is in progress. Bankers have estimated that from eight hundred to a thousand bad checks are being received every day and they are finding it necessary to employ extra clerks in an effort to trace the paper. Real estate deals in many instances will be void because many of them have been floated on worthless checks.

So far Florida has been comparatively free from the wooden check writer but The Herald would like to see such public sentiment created that there would be no worthless checks issued. The daily reports of the Sanford Credit Association contain the names of all those who write checks without having sufficient funds on deposit to cover them. But it seems there are some people who take great delight in this class of publicity and do not consider the matter at all as anything to be ashamed of.

Checking accounts with banks have many advantages, but the most important ones are that they permit an individual to keep his funds in a safe place, provide uniform receipts for bills paid by check, and assist the depositor in systematic saving. The banks of Sanford are always glad to have checking accounts and can always be found looking after the interests of their depositors, protecting their money as it would be protected in no other way.

There is a danger in issuing worthless checks and the Rockaway boom in New York is a good example of it. Florida must exercise all precaution against the activities and operations of that class of speculator who makes a practice of writing so-called "wooden checks". He should not find a gullible public in any of our communities. We don't need that kind of citizens.

Who's Who And How?

Out of Boston comes news of a marriage which has caused much talk, especially among the relatives of those concerned. John Smith eight-one, and Hattie Nourse, fifty-five, have filed their intentions to marry and their families are all mixed up as to who will be related to whom and how.

We know of a lot of people who find difficulty in tracing their ancestors back through the years, even though there has been no mix-up in the family tree. But we can picture future generations of these two principals trying to solve their problem by searching through library after library to secure more light on the subject.

You see its like this. Mrs. Nourse's daughter is married to Mr. Smith's son and the husband and wife are about to become step-brother and step-sister. Young Smith's mother-in-law will be his step-mother and his wife's father-in-law will become her step-father. The younger couple's daughter knows she's going to have a pair of new grandparents but can't quite figure out how because they already bear that relationship to her.

MY FAVORITE STORIES

By IRVIN S. COBB

The Trifles of an Earlier Day In the great Meuse-Argonne advance two doughboys were separated in a shell hole for shelter. In another minute or two they expected an order to go forward again against the German positions. The enemy was pouring everything he had in their direction. Machine gun bullets were whining by just above their heads. High explosives and shrapnel shells were bursting about them. Hundreds of guns, big and little, roared and thundered.

HAYNES LOSES OUT

KEY WEST CALL

The inevitable has happened. Washington had expected it long ago. But its thoroughness surprised Washington and will be a distinct shock to those sections of the country not so well informed on the inner mechanism of Washington affairs.

Yes, Haynes has lost his job. Shorn of every vestige of power has been exalted, if exalted at all, to about the same position as a British Lord, he's there, but it ain't gonna do him any good and nobody else for that matter. Oh, he wasn't fired! He's expected to resign and to enter his candidacy for the governorship of Ohio in the next campaign.

But there is a significance attached to this shift in the enforcement division of the treasury department that is capable of various and sundry conclusions. Andrews and Internal Revenue Commissioner Blair were significantly silent upon the issuance of the edict. But we wonder if it isn't veiled confession on behalf of the administration of a previous weakness existent in the enforcement division of this governmental department. And, if this be true, are we to infer that the prohibition commissioner has been somewhat, oh, er—eh, ineffective in his capacities. Is this where the Washington administration is attempting to shift the blame?

Or perchance this is all wrong. Perhaps there is some of the veiled indications so easily inferred from Mr. Blair's order. But is the public to be left to draw its own conclusions? Which is the more dangerous for the Republican party and Coolidge's hopes for a third term. It could be a bitter dose, but our humble advice to the powers that be is to "fess up"; tell us what has been going on. "An honest confession," a sage has said, "is good for the soul."

DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

PALM BEACH POST

There is every indication that popular demand will cause an extra session of congress to be convened in the fall, prior to the regular session in December, if hard and soft coal mining steps on September 1. The coal question is frankly the most perplexing of a number of domestic problems which will have to be dealt with by the incoming congress. It is the most perplexing as well as the most exasperating, because a previous congress, with the remedy in its hands, refused to adopt the recommendations of the United States coal commission which called for the operation of a settlement between owners and miners. Now the general public will have to suffer the inevitable result—a coal shortage.

Then there is the potent question of tax reduction. The country has tasted the pleasant fruits of governmental economy, and, like the child in the fable, is crying "more, more". The public wants more economy and more tax reduction. It will be up to this congress to devise ways and means to appease the voters. Some of the congressmen will want to return to Washington. Here the serpentine and explosive question of departmental reorganization, looking toward further economy, raises its head. A pain which will have to be worked out, will have to be worked out. How else can some of these congressmen return to Washington for another term? Political henchman may make poor government employees but they garner the votes. Then there is agricultural legislation. There is an "investigation" of Col. Andrews' enforcement scheme scheduled and the Hughes trial for American adherence to international justice must be either ratified or rejected. With these facts before a congress faces a busy time and the Congressional Record will suffer from Coedon. Let us hope, however, that this congress will be useful as well as ornamental.

The Greatest Crop—How Gorillas Walk; Why Justice, Old Style. British Labor BY ARTHUR BRISBANE (Copyright 1925)

SEVEN CROPS of alfalfa in a year, tons of potatoes to an acre, great are the wonder crops of this rich land. But the greatest crop is the human crop. Without that, others would amount to nothing.

MR. JONE'S Star, of Rigby, Idaho, tells of a family gathering of the Call family. It included Anson V. Call, 70 years old, of Afton, Wyoming, father of 20 sons and 10 daughters. All alive, healthy and strong. Mr. Call is the grandfather of 90 children, and they are all well.

WHERE IGNORANCE, disease, poverty and drink, in the slums, combine to force large families upon weak women that cannot take care of them, birth control may be all that its advocates say. They don't need it in Idaho or Wyoming. What they need there is CHILDREN.

DR. BOCKOCK, of Toronto, says, "To keep your health, walk on tiptoe as gorillas do."

There is no evidence that gorillas are healthier than their alleged relations. They certainly do not live as long as humans. And the gorilla doesn't walk on tiptoe because he wants to, but because he must.

A GORILLA has two club feet, at least they would be called club feet in a man. And, as every obstetrician will tell you, all human beings, at a certain period before birth, also have two club or "gorilla feet."

Passing through that stage in their embryonic development, they are born with human feet and well developed heels. And that supplies the evolutionists with one of their favorite arguments.

DON'T WALK on your toes going upstairs. Plant your heel first on each step, and observe the difference.

IN INDIANAPOLIS, punishment is to fit the crime, when one man with his automobile kills another. The killer is to spend one hour locked in a room with the corpse of the person killed. The theory is that it will make the killer think, although it won't bring the dead back to life.

VOLTAIRE had the idea reversed. In "Zadig" a traveling philosopher causes the young widows of India to discontinue burning themselves alive with the corpses of their husbands. He didn't forbid it, only made a law that before being burned alive the young widow should pass a couple of hours with the handsome young man in the village.

After that, for some strange reason, the widow usually lost interest in being burned up with her aged spouse. Often she disappeared before the funeral.

SUCH PUNISHMENT as sitting up with the corpse are old and out of date. One man wants to whip wife-beaters, thus IMPATATING the wife-beater. In old days the thief had his hand cut off, and if he stole again they cut off the other hand.

THE MAN that peered through the window of a public road could have one or both eyes put out. Criminals were branded on breasts, hands, cheeks, forehead, to warn the public.

The great Cyrus, as a matter of course, wrote of a king whom he had captured, "I cut off his nose and his lips and chained him at my door."

WHEN A MAN murdered another in China it was customary to tie the corpse to the murderer's neck and make him move about with it for a few days. We would be beyond that kind of justice.

CONTRAST THE attitude of government toward dissatisfied labor in Great Britain and the United States.

United States coal miners want better pay. The mine owners want to pay less. And it is the same in Britain.

BUT HERE, if the Government did anything except let supply and demand fight it out at public expense, the interference would mean Government taking control of the mines, saying to workmen: "If you won't arbitrate, or work the mines."

THE BRITISH government approaches labor troubles in more gingerly fashion. You read that Baldwin, premier, proposes postponing the trouble by paying a government subsidy to keep the mines going, and persuades the mine owners to withhold the notices of lower pay that were to have been posted at the mines today.

There's a difference between saying to mine workers: "If you won't work, the government will run the mines" and offering, as temporarily contented by taking a subsidy for mine owners from the taxpayers' pockets.

Can you imagine the high financial anguish if such a plan were proposed here?

THE BRITISH, in their circumstances, are wise. British industry is in a desperate condition, undersold in the world's markets, from Canada to India. And the British labor party is a party, not as here, the plighting of a conservative parties that know how to "handle labor on election day."

TUNING UP

Florida's Growth—Will It Continue?

TIMES-UNION

The New York Commercial last Friday, in a very lengthy editorial review of Florida conditions, started its discussion by asking the question: "Will the rapid growth of Florida continue?" At the end of its column article, the Commercial said, "It (Florida) has just merely begun to grow. That growth will not stop while the rest of the United States grows and prospers."

This, then is the answer to the question—will Florida continue to grow? For believing that it will so continue the New York Commercial gives very many sound and substantial reasons. It calls attention to the fact that Florida growth is not phenomenal, that it had its beginning years ago, and that the growth has been continuous and steady. With reference to this the Commercial says:

It is well to remember that the growth of Florida is not so recent as many suppose. Since Henry Flagler built the East Coast railroad the population of Florida has been increasing. The city of Miami which is pointed to as an example of "mushroom growth" has been thirty years in the making. It is a remarkable municipality for one of that age. And yet it has been thirty years in coming to its present size although more than half its growth has taken place inside the past ten years.

The city of Tampa between 1910 and 1920 almost doubled in population. Jacksonville shows great and steady growth over a period of more than a quarter of a century.

The student of Florida matters will discover that the present land buying excitement there is logical enough, when the past is considered.

Florida is not growing because of speculators. Speculators are in Florida because the state is growing—and there is a vast difference between the characters of the sorts of growth specified.

Following this, the New York newspaper asks: "Why does Florida grow?" and proceeds to give the answer at considerable length and with specific statement of

SYMPATHY

TAMPA TIMES

We all crave sympathy. When we obtain it, just what have we accomplished? A sober analysis of the subject confronts us with the hard, cold fact that after all is said and done, it is quite worthless.

We cannot ignore the sorrows of others; to do so would be cruel, indeed, but we can realize that the constructive method of meeting this problem is to offer active aid, if that be possible, and if not, to refrain from dwelling on the subject. One can always bring individual with new hope without going down into the depths of despair with such a one. We cannot be of any real assistance by coming down to their level, emotionally or otherwise. The thing to do is to draw them up to ours, or else to evacuate in favor of the stronger-minded one who can successfully dominate such a situation.

The majority of people seem never to have learned that "what cannot be cured must indeed be endured," and that complaining and weeping but envelops them still deeper in the gloomy march of their own emotions. These are usually the people who just confide their troubles to any listening ear; and burden the unfortunate listener with their worries, when perhaps he already has considerable load along that line to carry himself.

It is an extremely self habit to recite out sorrows over and over again and dwell upon our disappointments and bereavements; for if we but stop to think that "into each life some rain must fall, and on some days must be dark and dreary," in order that we may fully appreciate and enjoy the sunshine when it appears in all its splendor. Everything in life moves in cycles, and the pendulum can swing just so far in one direction when it must begin to swing back to the other. We can control much of the sorrow and disappointment in our lives by cultivating a happy and optimistic frame of mind and watching the thoughts we think.

A circumstance or a thing is just exactly to us what we think of it, and if we think we have been hit hard and cannot come back it is a fact that we cannot.

If we look for sympathy from all with whom we come in contact we are but weakening our own characters and building into our lives the susceptibility to more misery. We should stand on our own two feet and recognize that into this world we came alone, and out of it we must go alone, and that in all crisis we must make our own decisions. What good, therefore, is sympathy to us? It may smooth the way for a short space of time, and make us feel better, but its ultimate effects are very deleterious, to say the least.

If you weaken your own character, your health, your very hold on life, just continue to enter into CINCINNATI, Aug. 7.—Cincinnati took the first game of the series from New York 9 to 1. Pincelli gave the Reds their first tally in the opening inning with a home run into deep right field. Cincinnati got to Bentley for seven safeties in the second, netting six runs. Luque allowed only six scattered hits.

A Smart Woman

Hon. Ed. Wallbank, Care Seminoles Hudson-Exxon Co., Sanford, Fla.
 Dear Ed:
 One of the problems which confronts the average wife is to keep her husband at home at night. I don't know why this is, for they don't seem to enjoy having them at home very much. Still, there is no denying the fact, and that is that wives want their husbands to be at home after supper and they want to know all of the whereabouts and the whereabouts.

It is equally true that husbands, as a rule, have what might be termed the night rambling instinct. Just as soon as the minute of darkness covers the face of the earth, they want to be out and gone. It doesn't matter particularly where, just so long as it's somewhere and that somewhere doesn't happen to be home.

So the husband is also confronted with a problem, and that is to keep himself at home or to manage to get himself away from home, to do either of which often requires all the ingenuity that he can command. To get away, and to get away with it, has even been one of the most difficult things that a husband has to do.

Now, anybody that can solve these two problems at once, those certain) comes gratifyingly close to stepping on and grabbing the rug out from under the feet of the husband and putting him in the predicament of the multitude, and husbands and wives all over the country should keep up and call such a one blessed.

It takes a smart person to devise a plan that will both enable wives to keep their husbands home at night and also make husbands want to stay at home after nightfall. And that is just what has been accomplished by one smart woman. I'll say she was smart!

This woman's name was related by the officers and it was discovered that she was operating a 20-gallon still. She explained to the judge that she operated the still because it was the only way she had known to work out her problem. She would keep her husband home at night.

I don't know what the judge did, but he certainly ought to have commended her and recommended that she be awarded a certificate of merit. Of course, this problem has been solved by thousands of people, but not in a very different way. The men and women have taken up the old idea of staying home nights. They are wise enough to see an Essex coach and husband and wife and all the family go out together and have about all the fun that manfully is entitled to enjoy in one evening.

Yours, HILL.
