A CONVERSATION WITH "INKY" THE TALKING MYNAH BIRD AT THE MUNICIPAL ZOO

REPORTER—How do you feel about moving?
INKY—I believe it when I see it.

REPORTER—Well, the City Commission said okay.
INKY—Sure, sure. . . . But one of the guys in the utility department told me Joe Baker tried to table action on the move at the meeting the other night.

REPORTER—The city cut the debt service budget instead.
INKY—Does that mean I'll still have this "box" as a home.
REPORTER—No, it means it will take longer for us to retire our debt service.
INKY—Eh, I don't understand all that. I just want a bigger and cozier home. . . . You know I'm thinking of getting married. . . .

They'll be calling city tax assessor Max Coberly "Superman" if he can measure and plot the 7,000 odd structures in the city in time for the 1967 tax roll. The word around City Hall is additional people will have to be hired. . . . One firm wanted $80,000 to review all the property and homes in the city.

Bonnie's Gallant Fight To Survive

By DONNA ESTES

One year ago today Jim and Mary Ann Smeltzer received the heartbreaking news that their only child, Bonnie, was afflicted with the dread disease, leukemia.

They were also told by Bonnie's doctor as gently as possible that their delicately beautiful blue-eyed daughter did not have long to live, that as yet there was no cure for leukemia.

The Smeltzers of Orlando and Bonnie's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. (Mac) McElhenny of Forest City did not permit grief and hopelessness to take over their lives, but instead decided to search for a way to keep their little pensive alive with the certain knowledge that a cure will be found and with the hope that it will be found in time.

World News In Brief

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate GOP Leader Everett M. Dirksen announced today he will offer his constitutional amendment on voluntary school prayer Monday and force a vote on it, "so help me."

The Illinois Republican said the timing of the move had been cleared with Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield, Mont. Dirksen said he will offer his proposal as a substitute for a routine bill immediately after a scheduled vote on civil rights cloture.

JACKSONVILLE (AP) — Circuit Court Judge William L. Durden has decided to hear suits challenging the constitutionality of Florida's intangible personal property taxes.

In a decision Thursday, Judge Durden also placed primary responsibility on the state comptroller to defend the suits.

Last year, Judge Durden ruled that real estate must be assessed at full market value. The ruling was upheld by the Florida Supreme court and led to reassessment of land in all Florida counties.

SARASOTA (AP) — Florida Gov. Haydon Burns says Dr. Carl Coppolino may be handed over to New Jersey authorities next Monday after the state comptroller to defend the suits.

But the frail author-doctor's attorneys say Coppolino isn't going anywhere — at least for the present.

Burns said Thursday in an interview at Tallahassee he had signed a rendition warrant holding Coppolino for New Jersey authorities at the request of State Atty. Frank Schaub.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Senate today marked time to the cadence of a dirge for President Johnson's "open housing" civil rights bill of 1966.

The foredoomed measure was destined for the congressional discard next Monday after the Senate makes its second attempt to choke off a listless filibuster.

No one expected there would be enough votes to break the filibuster, which began Sept. 7. The first try Wednesday failed by 10 votes.

FRANKFURT, Germany (UPI) — Joseph Eriber, a former detainee at Adolf Hitler's Auschwitz death camp in Poland today sentenced to life imprisonment for helping murder thousands of Jewish prisoners.

The sentencing of Eriber and two accomplices came on the second day of Jewish New Year observances. Wilhelm Harder was sentenced to eight years and Gerhard Newberg was ordered imprisoned for three years and six months.

SANTA CRUZ DE TENERIFE, Canary Islands (UPI) — A DC-8 airliner carrying 27 persons ditched in the Atlantic near here today when one of its two engines failed. Officials said all but one passenger were rescued by fishermen.

A spokesman for Spantax Airlines said one passenger was killed but the other 23 passengers and three crew members were pulled safely from the sea.

GREENADA, Miss. (AP) — Public schools reopen today after a federal judge ordered town officials to court in the aftermath of attacks on Negro students by angry whites.

Classes were suspended Thursday while U.S. District Judge Claude Clayton heard newsmen and others tell of white persons, some fifth ax handles, beating Negro pupils.

The Justice Department asked for the hearing today at Oxford.

Judge Clayton continues the hearing today at Oxford.

HAMMURG, Germany (AP) — Rescuers today abandoned virtually all hope for 13 crewmen from the sunken West German submarine Hal Shark as high sea hindered search efforts in the North Sea.

"There is not much hope that we will recover any more survivors," a navy spokesman said Thursday night. Only one member of the 20-man crew has been rescued. Six bodies were recovered Thursday.

CAPE KENNEDY, Fla. (AP) — Gemini 11's astronauta fly to Cape Kennedy today to fill in the details of one of man's most remarkable space flights — an adventure that set records for the moon, but which also raised questions about working in space.

Navy Cmdr. Charles Conrad Jr., and Navy Lt. Cmdr. Richard P. Gordon Jr., hoped to leave the carrier Gauche this morning and begin their 14-day mission in the Aurora 7C because of predicted squally weather in the area of the ship.

Court Trustee Says Raceway Cleared In Bribe Case

Seminole Raceway at Casselberry is not involved in two investigations now underway in Volusia, Orange and Seminole Counties, in the opinion of Carl Langford, court-appointed trustee of the local horse racing track.

Newspapers in Volusia and Orange Counties have quoted Clyde Hart, president of the financially-stricken Seminole Raceway, that he paid out $60,000 to five-six legislators for adoption of legislation beneficial to horse racing.

Dan Warren, Volusia state's attorney, called the Volusia County grand jury to investigate on Hart's complaint of the alleged payments.

Hart and other witnesses were called to testify this week but failed to appear. Warren said today it was learned Nelson Warren said today the grand jury halted its hearings Thursday until next week until a missing witness can be located.

Warren said Fred (Shad) Nelson, of Daytona Beach, reportedly an employee of Fred Van Lennep, owner of a horse track at Pompano Beach, had been located at Lexington, Ky., and had agreed to come to DeLand last Saturday to testify but failed to appear. Warren said today it was learned Nelson Warren said today the grand jury halted its hearings Thursday until next week until a missing witness can be located.

U. S. District Judge George C. Young Thursday ordered Langford to conduct an investigation into the activities of Hart and other officers of Seminole Raceway in connection with the newspaper accounts of alleged "pay-offs" to state legislators.

Langford told The Herald today he is convinced that Seminole Raceway is not connected in any way with any alleged "pay-offs" or beneficial legislation. He hinted he has "come into information which supports his contention. He would not elaborate for publication.

He added, however, his public hearing will be to determine which racket is involved in the Volusia County grand jury probe.

The grand jury is expected to report its findings before the Oct. 12 closing of the spring term of court.

State Rules Out Bridge Over Canal

No provision has been made in the current session of Interstate 95 in South Volusia County for a bridge over the proposed St. Johns-Indian River Canal. It was reported by the State Road Department.

When the Road Department announced recently it soon will ask for bids for construction of the South Volusia segment of the proposed canal would have it join the Indian River somewhere in the vicinity of Oak Hill, north of SR 16.

C. J. Schneck, assistant state highway engineer (planning), this morning said "at the time we purchased right-of-way for I-95 in this vicinity, the absence of the Indian River somewhere in the vicinity of Oak Hill, north of SR 16.

"As a result, property for the construction was purchased in fee and, under the circumstances, no other interests in the property can be recognized.

Cities Win Battle In Home Rule Hassle

ORLANDO (AP) — The local government committee of the Constitution Revision Commission let home rule stand in its final draft, but clipped county power in favor of the municipalities.

One section adopted by the committee Thursday restricts counties not operating under a charter to rendering services only in unincorporated areas, unless it's empowered otherwise by a special act.

No Price Increase 'Now' For Milk Here

Spokesman for four of the dairies in Seminole County reported to The Herald today "no further increase in the retail price of milk to local consumers is anticipated at this time."

Speculation that prices in this area would be hiked following the announcement by Sealest Thursday to grocers in South Florida indicating a price increase of four cents for half-gallon cartons and comparative increases for pints, quarts and gallons.

According to the announcement another increase can be expected there in October and again in November or December.

Construction Nears For Holiday Inn

Construction of Sanford's Marina Holiday Inn is expected to begin about the first of January and will take six to seven months to complete.

This was the word from A. J. Thomas, co-owner of Monro Motel Inc., as reported to The Sanford Herald today.

Preliminary sketches of the Holiday Inn which will be built on the west end of the marina landfill, are still being studied, Thomas said.

The builder, reached by telephone at his Orlando office, said the sketches he has received so far from Holiday Inn architects, "have not been quite what we want to see out there on the marina."

"This is a very unique location and we want the design of the motel to be outstanding and to keep with the natural beauty of the surround-

Companion In Labor

By REV. FRED B. CHANCE
In the apostle Paul's letter to the Philippians he uses some terminology in reference to Epaphroditus who had returned from Rome. He said, "Yet I supposed it necessary to send you Epaphroditus, my brother and companion in labor, and fellow-soldier..." (Phil. 2:25)

There is something wonderful about brotherhood in the flesh, and the ties of blood brotherhood are very strong. I have three brothers in the flesh and my feeling toward them is unique in that they are my own flesh and blood.

The Lumina Look This Fall Adds New After-Five Spark

By PATRICIA KING
Beauty Editor
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.
NEW YORK — (NEA) — Now we know what separates night from day. It's luminescence. In make-up terms it's like two cents plain as compared to a double scoop ice cream soda—with whipped cream. The gal with know-how captures evening magic with make-up that illuminates the face. To light up your companion's eyes and be the after-vecesant dazler you've always secretly wanted to be, pat on lumina foundation, brush on silver or gold face powder and apply matching eye or gold lipstick. The foundation is a pear-lized liquid make-up that adds dimension or depth to the skin tone. The face powder adds a luminous finish and a silver shimmer or warm golden glow to the complexion. To keep the "glow" going—like the brilliant luminescence found everywhere in fall fashions, a silvery pearl-toner lipstick makes every lipstick color versatile. If worn under lipstick it lights. Over lipstick it adds a luminous glow as it lights. Used alone, it frosts the lips with silver. You can carry out this luminous theme right up to your eyebrows in fascinating eye make-up of silver or gold.

LIGHT UP THE NIGHT by being that luminous, effervescent dazler you've always wanted to be. The combination of a foundation and powder pressed into one in lumina silver or gold can make this possible. The silvery pearl illumination lipstick (left) makes every lipstick versatile. Foundation, powder and lipstick (right) adds a luminous finish to the complexion.

Toastmistress Thespians Stage Fun-Filled Satire

Mrs. Pauline Gush, alias Mary Durant, and her board of members and guests of Sky Anchors Toastmistress Club at the Sept. 14 meeting in the Holy Cross Parish Annex. Anticipation for a fun-filled and informative morning ran high as the guests and members scanned their clover program sheet. Toastmistress Jean Bryant introduced the team on Speech Presentation, Dr. Maria Perez and Betty Kelly. Dr. Perez covered the rules of delivery and Mrs. Kelly delved into audience analysis. A social recess of 20 minutes allowed guests and members to mingle. Membership chairman, Maria Perez, took advantage of the intermission to give applications blanks to Sue Monroe, Helena Hagerly, Doris Johnson and Shirley Huanan. Mary Ann Swanson had already submitted her membership application and this was read during the brief business meeting. The 1966-67 edition of the typical club women's kit written by Kay Bartholomew is guaranteed to amuse and enlighten the local club women. The Toastmistress Thespians had the audience chuckling the full 20 minutes of its spoof-filled lines. Mrs. Pauline Gush (Mary Durant) of the Aphrodite Toastmistress Club, era of 360 BC, after a proper introduction by Toastmistress Jean Bryant, launched into a verbatim statement of nothingness. Dr. Ivory (Teddy Ables) managed to thoroughly confuse her listeners on the proper procedure of income tax filing. Bursting not only with enthusiasm but a few buttons as well, Mrs. Know-It-All (Money) had her audience convulsed with laughter at her idiosyncrasies. The Gull Johnson in the guise of

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Green of Hibiscus Road, who left the latter part of June for a summer vacation in the north, have just returned from their trip. On the way up they visited friends in Rocky Mount, N. C., and Baltimore, Md. They vacationed in New York enjoying the cool Adirondack region. One of the highlights of the trip was at-tending the American Legion and Auxiliary Conventions in Washington, D. C., just prior to their return. It was quite an honor to see Florida's own Mrs. Genevieve Ryan installed as new national president. Mr. and Mrs. Green are active in Me-morial Post 236 and the Auxil-iary of which she is president.

EPISTLE TO MR. V. FROM PERNKICKETY PEN-PAL. Recently had a friend call me from a distant city with her crying towel dripping into my telephone. Sheeping into my living with the man of her own choosing, she is ready to throw her hat in the ring. This gal is mixed up, and frankly, can't say I blame friend husband for accused episodes. She is a living hallmark of boor, bore, slob and snob.

A single woman is doomed, particularly if she thinks Prince Charming is on the rampage to whisk her and her household apes off to Utopia. Those men are as scarce as hen's teeth and so scared they have a well-defended, built-in line of defense (and bull) that only an arsenal of firearms could weaken.

Married friends neglect you or else they are always trying to shove some bona fide jerk in your direction. If you dare venture to an elite restaurant with another gal, you are either a pick-up or "hat way" about the girls.

All pubs are "taboo" for single doctors in the various cities who might be genuinely interested in getting their snoot full of fire water instead of getting picked up (but the two are synonymous).

Granted, there are plenty of rats in the world (men) but the cats outnumber them! The cunning, hissing cat can outwit the rat any old day, so re-group, plan your strategy and charge! You'll emerge the winner!

For the gal who feels that the grass is greener on the opposite side of the fence, with her pearls and shoes thrown away, she's a few fights with husband and his kiddy is nothing—BUT NOTHING—in comparison to wrestling the bear in our so-called great society and the struggle for survival.

So unless your man is a drunken bum who gambles away his pay check or squanders it on some broad at a low-end dive, don't nag, nag, nag! Get down on your propper bones and count 'em — BLESSINGS, that is—and be thankful.

BUCKLES—GONE TO HEAD The influence of the buckles used by current French shoe designers has now gone to the head. Wide-buckled harnesses and sprays are being shown as the latest in headwear. Styled in rhinestone, silver and gold they make the party scene. In plain silver, gold and wood, they show up for sporty occasions.

Anchor Club Taps 16 Girls; Chris Wilson Named Admiral

To be chosen as a member of the Anchor Club of Seminole High School is an honor. In selecting members for the club, a list of all girls having a "B" average is obtained. This list is first presented to a faculty committee who rates the girls on leadership ability, scholastic ability, and character. Secondly, the list goes to the officers of the club who review it. Finally, the list goes to the other members of the club who vote for the girls of their choice.

New members for the Anchor Club were tapped September 6. There were eight sophomores, seven juniors, and one senior as follows: sophomores, Faye Marazita, Anna Lee Moore, Sandy Bartholomew, Julie Williams, Jennifer Olliff, Julie Persons, Jayne Polgar, Ellen Sloan; juniors, Lynn Carlson, Kerry Wright, Sidney Park, Pam Edwards, Cindy Green, Linda Lee, Mary M. Reynolds; senior, Marillette Welch.

Mrs. Virginia Burney is the sponsor of the club.

School Stories Welcomed

New and photographs from Seminole County schools will be printed each Friday on this special page, which begins today in The Sanford Herald.

Stories, written in news style and not in personalized or column style, should be brought to The Herald, or mailed Monday or Tuesday with no copy accepted after Wednesday, for Friday's newspaper.

Editor of the schools news page is Mrs. Dotie Austin and copy should be addressed to her or left at her desk.

New Librarian Has High Goals Set

Mrs. Elizabeth Boyd, Seminole High School's new librarian, has set her goals high and intends to make the school's library both a center of interest and material.

She has purchased many new books covering fields in literature of art and music, sports, and foreign languages. Her plans include making the library the school's center of audio-visual equipment as well.

A recent trip to New York left Mrs. Boyd quite impressed with the city, although the heat made her family glad to get back to Florida's climate. Her family was especially interested in the Museum of Natural History in New York and J.F. Kennedy's home, Monticello, in Virginia.

Mrs. Boyd and her husband enjoy collecting antiques of different kinds. Their collection now includes clocks, lanterns, and ink-wells with a new addition of bottles and decanters. Seminole's new librarian said that at the present she has about fifty antique clocks and a dozen ink-wells.

About ten years ago, Mrs. Boyd was stationed at the Air Force base in Puerto Rico. Mrs. Boyd soon grew to love this country, with its beautiful rolling terrain, but is happy to be back in the U.S.

Perhaps Mrs. Boyd's love of books will rub off on her students as it has on her own family. For the Boyd family has a daughter living in California who is also a librarian.

Mike Gibson Unopposed For FFA President

The Seminole High Chapter of Future Farmers of America is preparing for election of new officers for the school year of 1966-67. Those running for office are as follows: Mike Gibson, president; George Carlton, vice president; Tommie Szabo, vice president; Leslie Richards, secretary; Don Patchin and Richard Justice, treasurer; David Cook, reporter; Dennis Brown, Sentinel, and Richard Chellette, chaplain. Presently there is no one running for the office of Parliamentarian, but it is expected that the candidates that have competition for their office will fill the one empty office.

There are more students joining the Seminole High FFA this year than there was last year, stated Mr. William West, FFA Adviser. The inactive membership drive is primarily the reason for more people joining. Chuck Brantley, a junior at SHS is the first person to submit his name as an applicant for inactive membership. This is the first time in the history of the SHS Chapter that this type of membership has been offered to students who are not enrolled in vocational agricultural classes. Those persons who are prospective members may join as an active or inactive member until September 30. The associate member may join any time during the forthcoming school year.

Husband-Wife Teaching Team Unique Here

Seminole's Campbells are believed to be the only husband and wife team teaching Education in Florida. Both Mr. and Mrs. Ken Campbell work with the students at SHS. Mrs. Campbell is a teacher in the community one Sunday of each month.

The National Honor Society which elects its members on the basis of high scholarship, character, service and leadership is looking forward to a busy, productive year.

Art Works Shown

The library of Seminole High School has been honored to display a number of famous art works through the courtesy of The National Gallery of Art in Washington, D. C.

The reproductions were secured by Miss Beth Hodgins, the former art teacher at Seminole, presently at Lyman, Fla. The paintings will be on display for several weeks, and then Lyman and Seminole will exchange displays throughout the year.

"Napoleon in His Study" by Jacques-Louis David is only one of many famous paintings. Another of the distinguished contributors to The National Gallery of Art is Count Cecil Pecci-Blunt with his "The Villa at Aray."

The students of Seminole now have a chance to view the works of famous artists arranged in the same way of a national gallery.

Area Mental Health Clinic Studied

By DOTTIE AUSTIN
There is a distinct possibility that Seminole County may — at long last — have an opportunity to establish the nucleus of a desperately needed mental health clinic here.

A young psychiatrist, Dr. Burton Podnos, has opened offices in the Maitland area and has indicated he "might possibly" be interested in helping open a part-time clinic here.

In fact, Dr. Podnos said, "I am civic-minded," and seems definitely interested.

What's the problem? Money, to put it bluntly. Psychiatrists have to put in more years of study than profession and the going price for the services of a psychiatrist is somewhere between $25 and $50 an hour.

It's expensive — but for many people, it's the only answer. Seminole County has many persons who need that answer, in order to be restored as a useful, functioning member of society.

Most pressing is the need of scores of children who are "seriously emotionally disturbed" and without help may never be able to acquire an education, cope with the world around them, or overcome the mental and emotional crippling that they now suffer and grow up to become mature, responsible adults.

Thomas Richey, county school supervisor of guidance, says, "At least 10 per cent of our children have 'hard core' emotional problems. These problems can be corrected — but these children will not get better, without special care.

"We have made a tremendous effort for many years to obtain a full time school staff psychiatrist, but they are very difficult to find," Richey pointed out.

Dr. Podnos has been giving one morning a week to free service in Seminole County, working from an office at the Seminole County Health Department. However, he cannot continue to do so, at a cost, to himself, of $100 a day approximately.

Since Dr. Podnos has indicated he might be induced to work in the county, one day a week, officials of the Seminole County Mental Health Association have moved to try to open the door to this opportunity.

A meeting has been set for 8 p.m. Tuesday at the Health Center, with officials of the Juvenile Council, school guidance counselors and testers, law enforcement officials, juvenile counselors, members of the Ministerial Association, social workers and others to discuss how funds can be raised to finance one full day of Dr. Podnos' time here each week.

Stanley Pierce, temporary president of the Mental Health Association, has asked that members of parent-teacher organizations, civic clubs and interested citizens accept an open invitation to attend the meeting.

"Mental illness strikes at least one family in four and more people than ever today find themselves overruled by

Federal Aides Unite For Welfare

The Combined Federal Campaign (CFC) kick-off got off to a roaring start Wednesday, served with people arrived. At 1:50 p.m. Cdr. Jesse S. Cleveland, executive officer of the station, welcomed everyone and gave the opening remarks.

Capt. Richard E. Fowler Jr., commander of Reconnaissance Attack Wing One, explained how the campaign would be conducted in the Wing and squadrons.

Civilian speakers were Lee Moore, president of the United Fund; H. M. Benninghoff, field representative for national health agencies, and Robert Moore, field representative for international service agencies.

This is the first year that CFC has been held. In the past a number of different drives were held each year. CFC is a one time solicitation for voluntary health and welfare agencies.

The new CFC will save a great amount of time and money for the government and for the voluntary agencies. The drive also makes it possible to have a payroll deduction.

For employees and service men who want to contribute their share payroll deduction may be of help. It enables one to spread his gift in small installments over a full 12 months. What the donor gives does not depend on how much cash he has on hand at the time of solicitation.

Firemen Fete Set Saturday

By JANE CASSELLBERRY
The volunteer firemen, unsung heroes who put in so many hours maintaining equipment, training, fighting fires, conducting educational programs, promoting water safety, and saving lives, without pay, will be honored Saturday night by the City of Casselberry.

Members of the Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department and their wives or girl friends will be feted at a dinner at 6 p.m. at the Woman's Club on Overbrook Drive. Highlighting the menu will be charcoal broiled steak.

Chairman of the affair is Mrs. Mary Hawthorne, city clerk, and Mayor L. E. Woodhams and members of the council will be hosts.

Sermon Series To Continue

By MILDRED HANEY
The second in a series of Bible Study sermons, "Who Are We, My Brothers?", will be given by Rev. Earl D. Logginbill at Sunday services of Deltona Christian Church.

Mrs. Roy Jones, organist, will play "Canonata," by William Sticksel, for the prelude.

There is a Fellowship Dinner and Program at the church on the third Thursday of each month.

Pastors Attend Conference

Church school workers from the Casselberry church attended a workshop Thursday night at First Methodist Church in Orlando on the new adult literature.

Seminoles, Lyman, Croons Open Play Tonight

The local football fever is running rampant throughout Seminole County as the local gridiron teams representing the area's high schools start their 1966 seasons.

Both Seminole High School and Lyman High School are traveling gear for their lid-openers tonight, while the Panthers of Croons High School are scheduled for a conference game at home against the Wild Bulls of Ocala.

The Oviedo Lions open a week later as Coach Herman Lofton and his eleven journey to Dunellon on Sept. 21.

The Sanford Seminoles, coached by Buck Metts and his staff of Dick Williams, Gray Boyles, Ralph Stumpf and Owen

McCartan, will be meeting the Terriers of Titusville. The Seminoles topped Titusville in their match last season to the tune of 6-0 and continued to establish a 1965 record of 7-3-2.

Notwithstanding the loss of potential "all stars" — Frank Whigham, the Seminoles have developed two capable early season replacements in the post-kicking spots of Buddy Stump and speedy Bob Lundquist at the quarterback slots.

The man to watch on the Terrier team is returning letterman and quarterback, Phil Edwards.

Head Coach Dick Copeland of the Lyman Greyhounds is optimistically looking for a chance from last season's record of 3-5-1, as they will visit with the Wildcats of Wildwood.

Copeland and his staff of Jim Farley, Jim Clark and Jerry Smith are preparing their defenses to the talents of the Wildcats' backfield of quarterback Arch Lewry and halfbacks Ray Pfifer and Dutch Watkins. All three have been "scouted" as being very good.

Coach Willie Holt of Croons High School isn't considering the Ocala home opener as a breather, either.

Since this is the initial conference tilt on this year's schedule, Holt is hoping that the quarterbacking of F. Peterson and Jim Holte, plus the hard charging of fullbacks A. Barkley and Bob Altred will be able to dent the defense of the Ocala team.

The following week, the Panthers play an away conference game at Gainesville on Sept. 25.

The Oviedo Lions head mentor Herman Lofton faces a monumental rebuilding task for this year's play having but 18 entries for varsity berths at the beginning of this season.

Hoople Kicks Off Sees Indiana, Nebraska Navy—Upset Victims

By MAJOR ANOS B. HOOPLE, Football's Foremost Forecaster

Egad, friends, here we go again! Your favorite forecaster is fairly bursting at the seams in his anxiety to tangle with the complex problems of pigskin prognosticating—let's call it My preliminary studies indicate this would be a turbulent season on the nation's collegiate gridirons and the projecting results of the first week's meetings bear this out.

The Hoople System has upsets galore in store for you this Saturday, dear readers, so on with the show!

The biggest explosions will occur in the Indiana-Miami (O.), and Navy-Boston College meetings. Bruce Matie, younger brother of the Baltimore Colts' Tom Matie, will give the Hoosiers the jitters as he leads little Miami to a 20-0 upset triumph over its Big Ten foe. Meanwhile, the Eagles of Boston College will soar, around and through Navy's midshipmen at Annapolis. I predict an 18-7 victory for BC—hah-kaff!

There are several mild upsets in the making, two of which we have pegged for the followers of the Hoople System, to watch for Texas Christian to surprise powerful Nebraska at Lincoln. And with great pass catcher Kenny Latt showing the way, the Golden Gophers will finish first—hell-heh—heh—their joke with just Missouri. Make it

BILLY CASPER

Casper Leads Portland Open Golf Tourney

PORTLAND, Ore. (AP)—The Portland Open Golf Tournament is a free-for-all going into today's second round, but you get the feeling Billy Casper means business.

The leading money-winner on the pro tour with $107,715, Casper shot a five-under-par 67 Thursday to tie three others for the early lead in the $50,000 event.

Although 11 more challengers were within two strokes of the top as the second round began, Casper seemed confident on the 6,436-yard Columbia Edgewater Country Club course.

"I'm more 67's might win it," he said, sounding as if he would not be at all surprised to accomplish that feat.

Bob Goobly, Bill Martindale and Pete Brown were tied with Casper, bidding for his fourth Portland Open title. He won in 1959, 1960, 1961.

Brown, whose best finish to date was a tie for 26th at Oklahoma City, made the most spectacular shot of the day. He eagled the 405-yard 13th hole with a nine-iron shot that traveled 180 yards, landed three feet past the pin and backed up into the hole.

Defending champion Jack Nicklaus, who has won this tournament three times in the last four years, was five strokes off the pace with a par 75. He missed two putts of less than three feet and came up short of the green on long iron shots.

Junior Keglers Open Fall Play Saturday

The new fall season for the Junior Bowling League of Sanford started Saturday consisting of 75 bowlers from seven to 18 years of age.

As in previous years, the bowlers are divided into two divisions — the Bantams (7-12) and the Juniors (13-18).

In the eight-team Junior-Senior Division, Jim Woods leads with a high series of 547. However, Gary Almond followed with the high individual game of the morning, a 207.

On the female side of this division, we had a close match between an "old veteran" and a newcomer, Pinky Simon. Vicki rolled a 135-401 while Pinky turned in a close 136-399.

Meanwhile, bowling on the remaining 12 lanes of hantlers bowlers, the adult spectators looked that some of the balls looked bigger than the bowlers.

The Lyman team threatened to score twice in the contest but was thwarted when unable to play with the big touchable play.

Following the game's lone tournament, Bobby Richardson outscored the kick 41 yards in the Lakeside 44. However, the host team held the "Hounds on down, limiting them to four yards in as many cracks at the line.

Early in the fourth period, Lyman quarterback Mark Dowell connected with halfback Brandon Heath on a 45-yard pass and run play which put the ball deep in Devil territory.

The Lyman threat was ended when on a third down a Dowell heave was intercepted. Coach Jim Farley's Baby "Hounds" will face the Seminole JV's in their opening game in new Ocala's Alameda County Coliseum when game Raiders big boost after shutout defeat in Houston. Chiefs have been rolling with Len Dawson and Pete Beathard splitting the work and Bert Coon carrying the ball.

Papa Bear Vs. LA Coach Angry Words--On Gridiron Now

NEW YORK (AP)—Remember the George Halas-George Allen feud last winter? Papa Bear went to court to keep Allen from moving to Los Angeles but finally relented. There were angry charges that Allen had snatched Chicago's vital defensive secrets.

Well, it comes down to the football field Friday night when Halas takes his Bears into the Coliseum to face Allen's red-tails.

When the Bears line up to attack, there will be Bill George, an old familiar face, playing middle linebacker for the Rams. It adds up to a game of get-even.

They say the Bears are a slight favorite but the pick here is the Rams because Allen has been building for his date since the day he left the Hais fire-side.

Green Bay let us have it right between the eyes last week when we picked Baltimore but the old Hand picker staggered through with 2-2-2 in the National Football League and a 4-0 in the American Football League for a season record of 10-2-2 (3-0 AFL, opening week).

Let's try again. All games are Sunday afternoon unless otherwise noted.

Los Angeles 16, Chicago 10 (Friday night)—Allen should know the hook on the Bears. He wrote some of it. Of course, nobody has written the chapter on how to stop Gale Sayers. If the players play as hard as the coaches coach, it should be worth traveling miles to see. Rams an edge on Bruce Gossett's kicking. Mike Ditka, doubtful starter.

Green Bay 24, Cleveland 20—Packers can't possibly be as good as they looked against Packers but they'll find that pass defense unlike Washington's sieve. Monte Clark to miss second straight game.

Milwaukee 25, Minnesota 17—John Ustas and Co. hungry for

Lakeview Drops Baby Hounds, 7-0

The Lakeview JV's defeated Lyman's Baby Greyhounds in a rugged defensive battle 7-0 in Winter Garden last night.

A fourteen yard dash to pay dirt by the Devils Teddy McLean, which set up the second quarter saw the only score in the season's opening contest for both teams.

On the female side of this division, we had a close match between an "old veteran" and a newcomer, Pinky Simon. Vicki rolled a 135-401 while Pinky turned in a close 136-399.

Win Streak On The Line For Panthers

A 19-game winning streak for Perry Moss, the coach of the Orlando Panthers, will be on the line against Charleston, the defending Continental Football League Champion, Sunday afternoon at 4:40 in the American Football League for a season record of 10-2-2 (3-0 AFL, opening week).

Can Anyone Stop The 'Bums' Now?

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Give the Los Angeles Dodgers a mile and they'll take an inch — all the way to the bank.

The Dodgers, walking the wire toward another National League pennant, danced to a five-run lead in the first inning of Thursday night's series opener against Pittsburgh but were tattered at the finish of a 3-0 victory that sent them 24 games ahead of the runner-up Braves.

Don Drysdale threw a three-hitter at the stumbling Bucs for 2-3 innings, then threw a scare into the Dodger Stadium crowd of 34,000 with successive home run pitches to Roberto Clemente and Willie Stargell before Phil Regan came out of the bullpen to nail the final out.

The Dodgers' seventh straight victory and their 12th in 14 games. Few have come any, but they wouldn't have it any other way.

"We wouldn't know what to do with a big lead," outfielder Ron Fairly said before the first of three key games with the Pirates. "We'd probably fall asleep." Fairly was talking about the pennant race, but his theory applied Thursday night, too.

After rocking New York and reliever Billy O'Dell for four hits in the five-run first, the Dodgers collected three more hits the rest of the evening.

Drysdale, however, overpowered the Pirates, retiring the first nine men he faced and setting down 13 in a row after Bob Bailey's fifth-inning double. But when he threw change-ups to Clemente and Stargell in the ninth, they wound up in the seats.

Regan ended the bid with one pitch, retiring Don Glendon on a fly ball to protect Drysdale's 10th victory against 16 setbacks.

Third-place San Francisco moved within one-half game of Pittsburgh by trouncing the New York Mets 10-4 and Chicago whipped Atlanta 8-2, snapping the Braves' winning streak at eight, in the only other NL games.

Dick Schofield, a former Pirate acquired by Los Angeles from the New York Yankees last weekend, started the Dodge ers' first-inning bludge with a one-out single. After Law retired Willie Davis, Farley and Jim Lefebvre singled for one run and Lou Johnson doubled another across, chasing the Pirate starter.

O'Dell walked John Roseboro, filling the bases, and the third run scored when shortstop Gene Alley booted Wade Parker's grounder. Drysdale bound to third baseman Bailey, but Parker beat the throw to second as Johnson crossed the plate. O'Dell then batted the fifth run home.
