Circuit Judge William G.

Akridge Wednesday dismissed a damage suit against Seminole County "with leave to amend" by the Plaintiff.

The suit "inexcess of $5,000" was filed against the county by Gerald Henry Wilhelm, who claimed negligence in the death of his 18-month-old son, Joel, last April.

Six lower bids than Washington National's were rejected because they did not meet specifications.

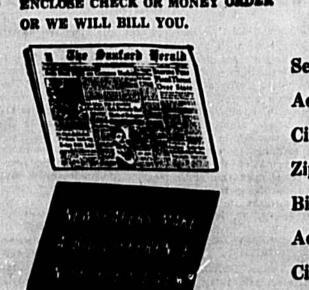

An Insurance Advisory Committee, headed by Robert E. Karns, tabulated all the bids and analyzed the 20 low bids for the commission.

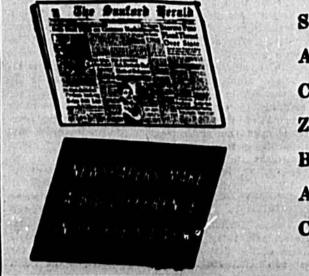

Others on the committee were Clifford McKibbin, Robert Crumiev and E.J. Mough-Joel, last April.
