Tucker Plans Talk, Program In North Orlando

By Ginny Skislak The North Orlando Garden Club will sponsor a speech and program by Cecil Tucker Seminole County agent, at the Village Recreation Center at 7:30 p.m. Thursday. This first of a series of such programs planned for various communities in the county will bring the opportunity to residents of learning care of lawns and gardens.

Tucker's talk on and their care will include choosing the variety, building a new lawn and maintenance of the lawn and will be followed by a question and answer period.

At this point, a 15-minute in termission will be provided in order that residents may get samples from their individual locations for soil analyses. The second part of the program, entitled "Yardening and Gardening," will include a film on visual illustrations plants.

For this, the county agent advises it will be sufficient to bring a leaf from a diseased plant for diagnosis. If grass samples are brought, he asks that the plug end with some dead and some live roots be provided. The runner should be at least one foot long and the plug three or four inches

Tucker is presenting this program to help residents beautify their lawns and to establish successful gardens. North Orlando Garden Club members urge all residents to join them in expressing their gratitude for the public service by attending the Thursday program.

Altamonte Show To Benefit New School

By Shirley Wentworth Faculty members of the Altamonte Springs Elementary School have reported that they made $106 on last week's fashion show. The fund will be turned over to the new Bear Lake Elementary School to furnish its clinic and teachers. lounge.

Chairmen of the event featuring styles from Playgirl Fashions of Fern Park were Mrs. Fleur Van Pelt and Mrs. William D. McGinnia. Models were from the faculty including James Moseley, teacher of the fifth and sixth grades skills classes, who gave a "highly entertaining" present-

Roberta and Dick Richards (principal of the Lake Mary School) gaily costumed, provided intermission entertainment while daughter, Sandra, played the piano.

Mrs. Laura Buell and Mrs. John Hall were in charge of werving " reiteshments" with members of the Mrs. Hall's Girl Scout Troop 497 acting as waitresses. The Scouts also were in charge of the nursery. For serving, the girls were dressed as French waitresses in colorful costumes of abbreviated skirts and white blouses worn with dainty white French

But times have changed. The Jaycees have gone out in the county to register voters and registrations have been taking place from Fern Park to Lake Monroe.

There are only a little more than two weeks left to register. Requirements are simple. The

Dear Abby:

DEAR ABBY: When my husband and I were married, we decided we would not have children for at least five years. Although we didn't plan it that way, I had a sweet little baby boy eleven months after we were married. My husband was very angry about it and, when it came time to have my baby, he was so disagreeable he wouldn't even take me to the hospital. A neighbor took me. Our son is seven years old. Abby, and my husband acts like the boy doesn't even exist. Our son has been known as "that kid" ever since he was born, My husband shows him no affection, although the boy is very lovable. He speaks to him only to scold or punish him. The boy feel to affection for his father (how could he?) - and he is frightened of him. How much longer should I live like this? My love for my husband has grown very cold. DEPRESSED

DEAR DEPRESSED: It is not "normal" for a man to behave this way. Something is bothering him. He may need the help of a psychiatrist to uneasth it. The theregour burkend is ill or just plain mean, your son needs a father. I suggest you seek

Ann Arundel Or Seminole, News The Same

Cracker transplant from Ann Arundel County, Maryland, has called the Herald's attention to the fact that many residents of the "Old Line State" are now in Florida, either with the Navy.

Bringing with him a copy of his hometown newspaper, The Maryland Gazette, published at Glen Burnle, Md., Zimmerman pointed out a marked similarity of its headlines with recent ones in the Herald.

Incidentally, the Gazette enjoys the record as being America's oldest continuous publication since its first issue on Sept. 19, 1727. It produced the untions' first columnist and its first female America's number one weekly.

Front page stories of the March 8 Gazette centered around elections, schools and, believe it or not, POPULATION EXPLOSION and a CAT BURGLER.

Ann Arundel's population was reported at an estimated 223,000.

The lead story announced that 146 Democrats and 48 Republicans had qualified for various political offices as of March 7. Included in this total for the May Primary were 30 for the House of Delegates, 48 for State Central Committee 82 for the County Commission, 10 for Sheriff and five for the State Senate.

Other stories called for support of the reapportloament bill before the Senate and for the people to "wake up" to the fact that organized gambling exists in the county. Another headline announced that the schools are far over-populated and that the county redistricting as been completed. (Sound familiar?)

Inside features were on the development of the airport and anniversary and expansion celebration of the paper's plant. Of particular interest was a story and picture of the Holly Run Method at Church, the world's first Protestant Methodist Church which soon is to be restored to its original state and made a national and historical monument.
