"LET'S TALK DRY CLEANING"

Just what does drycleaning do to your clothes? Here are some facts about drycleaning from Downtown Cleaners. Cleaning a garment in a drycleaning solvent rather than in water has the advantage of minimizing shrinkage. It also preserves tailoring details and many of the colors and finishes which are ap-

Many types of soil are not removed from fabrics by water. Drycleaning solvents remove oily and greasy soil more readily than water does. Modern drycleaning equipment is designed s that the solvent is pumped continuously out of the cylinder, through a filter, and back into the cylinder at a rate of from 1,000 to 10,000 gallons an hour. Florist Presents Corsage

Tips To Lake Mary Club Make A Corsage" was presented by Mrs. Charlotte Donahoe at the February meeting of the Lake Mary Garden Club held at the home of Mrs. Lois Mahen with Mrs. Sadle Hackett as co-hostess.

Mrs. Donahoe demonstrate.

Mrs. Donahoe demonstrat. man. ed the making of orchid, carnation, daisy and rose bud corsages. The most fascinating one was made from a spike of gladiola, which made a very beautiful corsage. She encouraged the ladies to make their own corsages and

Each member was given a flower and the necessities for wiring and covering the wire and ribbon to finish the corsage. Mrs. Donahoe had several corsages made up and later in the program these were given to members. The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Alyce Lansing. The program will be on cut flowers and air layering. Each member is to practice making corsages at home and to wear one they have made to the meet-

Clothes are important on should the dinner be formal?"

— M.A.

Why, of course; you should entertain often, but I would not suggest a formal atmosphere. Have attractive but fairly informal things. People seem to have more fun.

Women who live alone should have all the privileges of entertaining as they would if they were part of a "family."

"I am going on a month's cruise in March, my first. I clothes are important on slengthy cruise. People dress lengthy cruise.
