

Many Think Mass Transit Idea Could Make Nationwide Comeback

By ROBERT BUCKHORN
WASHINGTON (UPI)—Mass transit, long ago jilted by the automobile-loving public, may be on the verge of a nationwide comeback.

On a downhill curve since World War II, the bus, the trolley, the streetcar and the commuter train now are being touted as the answer to such critical urban problems as smog and traffic jams.

This revival of interest in mass transit comes none too soon. Since the number of passengers has dropped by one-third, over 235 bus and subway firms have gone out of business.

The Federal Railroad Administration begins its own tests next year at Pueblo, Colo. By late 1970s a 150-mile-a-hour vehicle may be in mile-an-hour version of the air operation between the Los Angeles International Airport and the San Fernando Valley.

SkyBus System
Ever hear of a gravity train? The Transportation Department is investigating the prospect of using these so-called tube trains for mass transit and city-to-city travel. Operating as much as 1,500 feet underground, the trains would roll down hills to stations, and then use a momentum and vacuum pressure to climb uphill.

Then there is the "SkyBus" system being used for DFLA through commuters. Rolling on a track at speeds of 88 miles an hour, it is being considered for use at a new Dallas airport.

While such exotic forms of transportation may be more eye-catching, for all but the largest cities in the United States, rapid transit usually means bus transportation.

Set like the car, the bus is the victim of traffic jams. One solution to this is the reserved highway lane for buses. For example, under a federal-state project, one lane of Interstate 85 leading to Washington, D.C., from suburban Virginia is now used exclusively by commuter buses during rush hours.

The subway, however, still is the only practical way to move large numbers of people rapidly through congested metropolitan areas. Washington is building a new subway system. In San Francisco, the $3-mile Bay Area Rapid Transit, scheduled for operation in 1972, will provide modern cars with automated fare collection systems based on distance traveled. Chicago is making plans to replace its famed Loop elevated system with a subway.

Sanford Budget Chopped Away

Sanford City Commissioners, armed with a budget-cutting attitude, got down to serious business at last night's trimming session and chopped away money to operate the city's swimming pools and over half of the funds requested by the Sanford Chamber of Commerce for its 1970-71 operations.

By keeping the swimming pools closed, city saved $16,700 and by tentatively clipping $14,200 from the chamber funding, the commission indicated it would be willing to approve $100,000 for the chamber operation.

Observers believe this will not be the final chamber figure and expect the city to pay the amount by at least another $7,000 by the time the budget is finally adopted.

City faced a deficit of $422,970 at time City Manager W. E. Knowles submitted the unbalanced budget which projected revenue at $1,896,000 with anticipated expenditures at $2,318,970.

Including last night's pairing, the deficit dropped a total $216,163 to $206,807.

Other items deleted in the action included: $16,800 for a shop-building needed to house city equipment; $3,800 for new Civic Center stage curtains; $23,940 for a pulverizer and street sweeper at five years financing; $25,000 for a new borrow pit; $24,420 for new refuse packer on five-year financing, and $11,000 for aerial tile on five-year financing.

'Not John's Plan' Seminole Taxpayers Question Angel

By GARY TAYLOR

"Now let me get this straight young lady, this plan is not John Angel's," said John Angel when he was asked what he thought of the plan to pay for the Seminole County Taxpayer's Association.

Angel, the last speaker on the program, began his talk before 10:30 p.m. and the clock had already passed 11:30 when he finished a heated question and answer session.

Angel began by showing transparencies of the school board budget. He commented that he thought "this is what the taxpayers should be interested in."

But even before he had shown the last of the transparencies, the people began to get restless. "Why don't you talk about what we want to talk about," asked one of the crowd, "about housing and desegregation." To this, Angel replied, "This is something I thought you might be able to do something about. On the other, I'm not so sure you could do anything about it."

Many of the people present, estimated at 100, came in from the school board meeting. It was mainly this hard-core group that stayed till the end.

"I'm going to Tallahassee," Angel began by showing transparencies of the school board budget. He commented that he thought "this is what the taxpayers should be interested in."

But even before he had shown the last of the transparencies, the people began to get restless. "Why don't you talk about what we want to talk about," asked one of the crowd, "about housing and desegregation." To this, Angel replied, "This is something I thought you might be able to do something about. On the other, I'm not so sure you could do anything about it."

Polk also pointed out the need for a juvenile detention home and a place to house the mentally ill.

"This was not the only one in the name of Mack Cleveland," said one of the speakers. "I would regret and have to apologize to you if I told you what I told Mack Cleveland."

This came about when Sanford residents questioned him about their water bill. "The Senate killed this bill," commented Woods, who added, "Jack Matthews was President of the Senate and Cleveland is now his campaign manager."

Cleveland was selected to represent the Sheriff's Department and they told me to use the county attorney. The county attorney is so busy he can't pay for local bills from other areas. When asked why they broke this "rule" he answered, "Some politicians don't have any honor." Mrs. Margaret Cammack presented her plea to the board. (Continued on Page 3A, Col. 4)

Working Mothers Protest To Board

By BILL SCOTT

Working mothers from Goldboro showed up at last night's Seminole County School Board meeting to protest verbally the board's 1971 desegregation plan that requires basic first, second and third graders from the predominantly black neighborhood school to Pinecrest and Lake Mary Elementary facilities.

Reason for the disagreement with the board's desegregation plan that requires basic first, second and third graders from the predominantly black neighborhood school to Pinecrest and Lake Mary Elementary facilities.

The protesters, who were led by families with several children expressed concern over having to leave for work before 7 a.m. and leave their children alone "on the street" until the bus came along and picked them up.

The county commissioners approved transfer of $3,000 from expenses other than salaries to the capital outlay account for purchase of vans. However, a joint resolution is needed in expenditures over $1,500 and Urban was requested to refer the matter to the Lake Mary Department.

The influx of new voter registration in the county was evidenced when Mrs. Camille Bruce, Supervisor of registration, requested utilization of two graphotype machines from the tax assessors office, on a temporary basis, for name plates for new registrations. Mrs. Bruce stated that it would be necessary to make between 1,800-2,000 name plates. Commissioners authorized the use, with the addition of an expenditure of $200.

Maintenance of Big Tree Park also came under the consideration of the commission. Problems still exist in the park relative to drainage and the road department was authorized to clean the drainage ditches and replace culverts. Commissioner Robert Parker also suggested that it would be advantageous to haul shell to the park for the walkways, and this was authorized by the commission.

"After all," he said, "we're a group of volunteers and you can only get them to do so much—you're lucky to get them to come out to a legitimate fire, let alone a church."

Paving Question Gets Discussion

To pave or not to pave? That is the question in the minds of the Seminole County School Board during last night's meeting.

The educators approved paving total 1,573 square feet of property on SR 28 at Goldboro Elementary School for $11,228 now bid by Law Paving and Excavating Company, but declined to approve assessing its property on Pine Street in Sanford's Georgetown area to pave those city streets.

Walter Teague, school finance officer, informed the board that the bid setting is still proposed for September 15. The board is scheduled to meet on September 15 to approve paving its property on Pine Street in Sanford's Georgetown area to pave those city streets.

Big Tree Upkeep Questioned

Ron Urban, representing Lake Mary District Fire Commissioners, has appeared before the county commission requesting purchase of a new truck . . . a two door van to cost between $2,800-2,900. Urban told the board that the district had $4,500 in the miscellaneous expenditure fund.

Casselberry Firemen Complain To Council

By JANE CASSELBERRY

Dissension in the ranks of the Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department has come to a head with the receipt of a letter by Mayor Curtis Blow and each member of the city council demanding an investigation of certain aspects of training, leadership and functions of the department.

The letter was signed by eight of the 25 volunteer firemen in the department and asked the council to look into the organization and training programs, public relations and educational programs as pertains to fire prevention, morale, maintenance of equipment, and safety.

Fire Chief Herman Joyce, chief since last October, but with 20 years experience as assistant chief, expressed complete surprise when informed of the letter.

"After all," he said, "we're a group of volunteers and you can only get them to do so much—you're lucky to get them to come out to a legitimate fire, let alone a church."

Mayor Blow told the board that as far as community relations go, Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department has the best in the area. He added that as the council had also been requested to investigate it was now their prerogative.

Council Chairman Tom Napier stated that the fact that Casselberry has more equipment than many towns in the area including a 1,000 gallon pumper, two 500 gallon pumps, a rescue truck, rescue boat, resuscitators and personal safety equipment.

Passes County Inspection

By MARION BETHA

County Sanitarian Val Robbins, in a report to the County Commission upon exit requirements at the Seminole Turf Club, has stated that it appears that the facility will meet all requirements by the deadline tomorrow.

Robbins told the commission that the 21 stables, six are remaining open during the "off" season used for training of the horses. Robbins continued that the work force had been doubled at the track, and that as of Aug. 10, 38 per cent of the stables had been cleaned and had passed inspection, and 10 per cent had been sprayed.

The Aug. 15 deadline had encompassed spraying and cleaning of the stables which will not be used in training season.

Commissioner Robert Parker told the board that he had visited with officials at the Turf Club, who had told him, "they felt that the press was not doing right by the club and that the commission was also not doing right . . . they felt that they were complying with regulations." Parker continued that, in his opinion, the club should be state regulated.

The press was welcomed to the club to take pictures of the horses. Parker went on to say, to show that the horses were well cared for, and club attaches told him that so much of the publicity was unfavorable that they were anxious to get good publicity. Parker suggested that the commission and the press visit the club within the week to ascertain the progress.

(The Sanford Herald attempted to telephone the Turf Club this morning relative to the above statements and was informed in a recorded message that the number was not in service at this time.)

What advice can you give to a young boy who has not been taught to respect his parents? This is a question that I have heard many times in the past. "How do you tell a seven-year-old child that God is like a father?" asked a father.

That's a tough question, as many conscientious parents have learned from experience. Children won't settle for dogmatic definitions, and abstract concepts such as "round of being" or "first cause" have little meaning for them.

Doug Dickey Luncheon A Success For Lyman Boosters

By GARY TAYLOR
Herald Sports Editor
"The three most important things in life are adaptability, decisiveness and teamwork. All three of these are taught in competitive sports." These were the words of Florida head football coach Doug Dickey. Dickey was speaking at a Lyman Boosters Club luncheon yesterday at the club in Attempting to raise money for rest rooms and concession stands at the new stadium, located behind the school. Dickey compared athletes to pioneers, commenting that adaptability, decisiveness and teamwork were essential to both. This is also the key to the success of the Lyman Boosters Club. Through a team effort, the boosters club put the luncheon on yesterday and sold $2,008 in honorary deeds and had another $225 pledged. A disappointing crowd of around 200 was on hand for the luncheon. It was hoped that a capacity crowd of 500 would be on hand. Nearly 400 persons returned cards to the school, saying they would attend. Members of the boosters club were hopeful that several of these would drop a contribution in the mail. Since the Deed Day kickoff, the boosters have raised $8,718 from the sale of these deeds. First Federal Savings and Loan of Seminole County and the Sanford Orlando Kennel Club have each donated $1,000. The Seminole Turf Club, Ken Plante and the City of Casselberry have each given $500. Florida Power gave $300 and D & S Snavely donated $250. Art Landry, First National Bank of Maitland, Doug Stenstrom and Dr. Stuart Calpepper are $100 donors. Dick Pace donated $75. Fifty dollar donors were H. W. Taylor, J. C. Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. Wilburger and John Evans. Dickey discussed the team for the upcoming year, bringing out the high and low points. He also talked a little about the opponents for the coming year. The next activity for the boosters will be their "get acquainted" picnic set for Saturday, August 22. It will be held behind the school on the practice field. The picnic will be for all students of Lyman High and their families. The boosters at this time will be signing new members.

Jackson Wants Change, Unhappy With Oakland

NEW YORK — A's slugger Reggie Jackson is unhappy in Oakland and doesn't care who knows it. Reluctant to reveal his feelings until recently, Jackson tells in the current issue of SPORT Magazine of his disenchantment with his situation. "There was a time I dreamed of being a part of a dynasty," he says. "I was a part of a team which got so strong it could just go over the other teams the way Baltimore does, and filling the empty Oakland Coliseum seats with excited fans. Now I just dream of going somewhere where I can play in peace and perhaps become the player I should be."

Both are defensive coaches.

Fight Promoters Want Clay In Atlanta

ATLANTA (AP) — Promoters say only the lack of signatures on a contract—something they view as a formality—stands between a heavyweight championship fight between Joe Frazier and Cassius Clay in Atlanta Oct. 26. The proposed bout has been rejected by a number of cities because Clay, stripped of his heavyweight crown when he refused induction into the Army, has been unable to secure a license. But the Atlanta Athletic Commission has issued him a license. And Clay said at a news conference Thursday that he would be willing to fight Frazier.

Twins Lose Sixth Straight Game; Dick Bosman Throws One-Hitter

By TOM SALADINO
Associated Press Sports Writer
Dick Bosman gave up a dropping baseball much to the regret of the skidding Minnesota Twins. The hard-throwing Washington right-hander moved down the Twins on a mealy bust single-Cesar Tovar's leadoff hit—handing the West Division leaders their sixth loss in succession Thursday night, a 1-0 beating as Minnesota's once comfortable lead dwindled to five games over Oakland as the A's lost 4-3 to Cleveland. Bosman, a husky 6-foot-3, 210-pounder, issued a walk to opposing pitcher Jim Katt in the sixth, after retiring 16 straight. Twins, then got Tovar on a double play bounce before retiring Minnesota the rest of the way, facing only 28 batters, one over the minimum. The 25-year-old from Kenosha, Wis., who has driven grand racers at 215 miles per hour gave up driving a couple of years ago "because I realized the dangers of auto racing and you must drive consistently at those speeds to react properly. You just can't play ball then jump into a car and win a race."

DUFFING WITH DON

By: Don Farrens

The PGA
If you ask Dave Marr, Al Gieberger, or Ray Floyd what is the most prestigious tourney on the tour their answer would be the PGA. Of course you can blame them as this is only one of the big four that has been their privilege to win... If you ask Arnold Palmer which one he would like to win the most it would also be the PGA. Of course he has won all the others on two occasions and by a great margin on several other times out. Then again if you asked Larry Hirsch, or Ken Still or Tom Shaw or John Miller or any number of rabbits which one they would like to win it also would be the PGA because it is worth 40 grand and a lifetime of exemption from all the Monday qualifying rounds and though they have copied one or more of the little ones they would still like to have this event for the bread and for posterity. And if you asked any number of the PGA regular pros which one they would like to win it would be this week's event because it is their event, and each state will be represented by at least one rep, and the club pro keeping that one of their group will have the hot hand and bring home the bacon to give their club lessons, run the pro shops and wish for the big break on the tour. The lineup will be impressive. It will include such well known as Gordon Jones of Windermere, Florida to Jack Nicklaus the odds on favorite in every tourney he enters and certainly in the camp. Also present will be the man, Arnold Palmer. The sleepy Mexican Leo Trevino (he says that all of his family has alarm clocks and that there will be another over sleep starting time such as Westchester, Bill Casper, Gene Littler, Bruce Crampton and Frank Beard. The colorful winners with the one exception that all important color of green. Tony Jacklin of U.S. Open fame will try to be the first non-American to win two big ones in one year. Gary Player, Bruce Devlin, and George Knudson three others of an out of the country origin, that would like to crack this year's port of Tula Gold. These of course are just the stars and they leave out last year's winner Ray Floyd, old Ockle Ockle Moody and past greats Sam Snead, Tom Bolt and others. And of course it is always possible that some where in some club there is a Ken Venturi or Leo Trevino just waiting to break into big time golf and wouldn't that be great? The Tulsa layout is called the Southern Hills Country Club and it is 6,900 plus yards of sand, water, and deep rough. It is going to take some long accurate driving, crisp approach shots and some smooth putting to make the grade. And of course in all of these plays for pay events there will be the element of luck and the guy who gets the bounce will be the man of the hour... We only hope that it is a new face to the winners scene.

Super Bowl Instant Replay?

By BEN THOMAS
Associated Press Sports Writer
The millions of fans who spend autumn Sundays watching their favorite pro football teams clash get a chance to relive their own version of pre-season training. They can get in shape for the regular season by watching the Kansas City Chiefs, 1970 Super Bowl champs, take on the Baltimore Colts in a nationally televised pre-season game. It's on NBC-TV and the kickoff is 8:30 p.m. EDT. There was gloom, meanwhile, today in the camp of the Cincinnati Bengals, youngest of the 26 NFL on a 1971 football League transfer over to the NFL. Greg Cook is scheduled for surgery early next week and probably out of action for the entire campaign. The game at Kansas City is one of two tonight as the second weekend of exhibitions get underway. The Detroit Lions are at Buffalo in the other.

MONTREAL (AP) — Clarence Campbell, president of the National Hockey League, said Thursday he was "greatly relieved and very gratified" with a court decision turning down baseball star Curt Flood's antitrust suit filed against baseball's reserve clause. "I feel greatly relieved about the improved stability that all professional sport now finds itself in." "The decision will tend to stabilize all professional sport in the time being... since a decision against the clause would have left all sport in a chaotic position."

This will be the last weekend that LOL has ever had. Saturday will see three tourneys get off with the Mike Jones benefit getting it started and the Bell Duffer and Men's Match Play going at the same time. Then on Sunday the club has over 20 teams entered for its cottage event with three males and one gal golfer on each team. The group will then rest until Tuesday night at midnight when pro Gene Jones and George Lidel will tee it up for 24 hours to try to break the marathon record set by two brothers over the Sherwood Country Club a few weeks back... It should be a great week.

Isaac's Problems Caused By Points

By BLOYS BRITT
Associated Press Auto Racing Writer
CAMBRIDGE JUNCTION, Mich. (AP) — To charge or not to charge is the problem facing race driver Bobby Isaac. "I have to decide in every race whether to go for the win or hang back and go for the points," the 32-year-old stock car veteran from Catawba, N.C., said Friday. Isaac is locked in a close battle with James Hylton, Bobby Allison and Richard Petty for the lucrative driving title in NASCAR's Grand National Division. The title this year will be worth at least $75,000 to the driver and car owner who win it. The four are among 28 entries for Sunday's Yankee 400, one of the key money and points events on the NASCAR schedule. Isaac, Hylton and Allison were among prime favorites to win the pole position in time trials today. But the quest for the driving title presents problems of a different nature to Isaac and Hylton. Isaac is known as a short track specialist who isn't at his best on courses like the two-mile, 18-degree-banked Michigan International Speedway. In fact, of the 2 wins he has recorded in his NASCAR career, only one has been on a track of a mile or longer.

Polk Feels Law Enforcement Unrightly Chopped

By MARION BRETREA
"When any chopping is done... these were the words of a disgruntled Sheriff John Polk yesterday when apprised of the deletion of the jail addition from the Court House planning in which County Commissioners voted a one mill increase. Polk, in an impassioned plea for retention of the facility, told the commissioners that "I want to do what is best for the taxpayers and citizens of the county, but the basic fact is that, in this country, law enforcement is taking a back seat to every other project. If you postpone the jail, we won't have the jail. I won't hold my breath 'til we get it. When Disney World opens, we'll have people arrested, if you don't have a place to keep them when they are initially arrested... you won't need court rooms. I can't see cutting-out facilities needed for vagrants and murderers to build a nice Court House... we will have a security situation."

Expert Doubts Claims

By JIM PURKS
Associated Press Writer
TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Florida's state marine archaeologist said today he doubted that a coral encrusted wreck on Haiti's north coast was the site of the long lost flagship of Christopher Columbus.

Carl Clausen, an expert in shipwrecks, especially Spanish, said he made dives at the site in July and told officials of the Santa Maria Foundation that the wreck was not the Santa Maria. He said he studied in detail the site on July 12, going there at the request of the foundation. He said he studied in detail the site on July 12, going there at the request of the foundation. He said he studied in detail the site on July 12, going there at the request of the foundation.

Two Florida experts in marine archaeology, Dr. John Hall of the University of Miami, and Raymond McAllister of Florida Atlantic University, will travel to Haiti this weekend seeking evidence of success in the search for the ship which ran aground and was abandoned on Christmas Day 1492. Neither Fred Dickson, a West Palm Beach explorer leading in the search, nor scientists working and advising on the project will say that the wreck definitely is the Santa Maria. One of three ships that carried Columbus to Florida was the Santa Maria. He said he studied in detail the site on July 12, going there at the request of the foundation.

Mutual Funds Suffer; Sources Depleted

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP) — There have been tough days for the mutual funds, what with prices depressed and government investors and academicians sniping at one thing or another. They have also been days of growth—in numbers, not assets.

The latest criticism of the industry comes in a book to be published this week by researchers at the Wharton School of Finance and Commerce. Called "Mutual Funds and Other Institutional Investors: A New Perspective," it faults the industry for probably contributing to excessive price swings for smaller and more speculative stocks during the past decade. Prior to publication, however, the authors have hurled another spear into the side of this mammoth industry. During the first nine months of 1970, they state, a sample of mutual funds actually performed worse than an unmanaged portfolio.

In June 1969 the Investment Company Institute, trade association of the open-end fund industry, numbered 251 members. One year later the total had risen to 323, although assets had shrunk to $38 billion from $49 billion. The trend seems clear: The number of funds doesn't depend upon the success of funds. They are permanent and growing aspect of the securities industry, and that growth could accelerate as insurance companies enter the field.

"Hopefully, the County Commission will set a public hearing next Tuesday," said Brown. The classification will require the minimum lot size of 100 by 135 feet. The minimum size of the house built on the lot would be 16,000 square feet of living space. The new classification would be "strictly residential," said Brown. A request by R. L. Pardue for a recommendation approving a proposed change of zoning from A-3 agricultural to C-2 commercial was denied by the Planning and Zoning Commission. The parcel is located across from the Westfield Subdivision on the northwest corner of the intersection of highway 436 and Montgomery Road. The commission recommended that the area be rezoned R-3A multiple family. The commission also performed a preliminary review of several plats at last night's meeting. The Zoning and Planning Commission will meet next at Lyman High School, September 9 at 7:30 p.m.

President Meets Greatest Involvement

By G. C. THELEN Jr., Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — Stressing cooperation rather than coercion, President Nixon ventured his greatest involvement in Southern school desegregation today with a New Orleans meeting with advisory councils from seven states.

Shultz is vice chairman of the Cabinet Committee on Education and director of the Office of Management and Budget. Also accompanying the President were Secretary of Welfare Elliot L. Richardson, Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell, White House aides Robert H. Finch, Leonard Garment, Harry Dent and Daniel Patrick Moynihan, Director Donald Rumsfeld of the Office of Economic Opportunity and J. Stanley Pottinger, Richardson's chief civil rights aide.

On the eve of the President's meeting with Southern officials, Mitchell said he expects the Supreme Court to decide later this year what steps the Justice Department should take in attacking school segregation in the North. Mitchell agreed the criticism is valid. The state desegregation advisory councils were formed by the Nixon administration to lead the Southern integration drive this fall. Administration officials are forecasting integration this fall up to double the current rate.

Economic Report Is 'Glimmering'

By JOHN M. PEARCE
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's newest economic report shows a "glimmering" of a better situation, but the Nixon administration's expected business upturn still depends on what the nation's consumers do with their money in the coming months, economists believe.

Statistics issued by the Commerce Department and the Federal Reserve Board Thursday showed increases in industrial production and personal income during July, while a revised report on Gross National Product disclosed that real production of goods and services rose more than was reflected in the preliminary report for April, May and June.

A less encouraging report showed a $14.3 billion deficit in federal finances on the "national income accounts" basis for the April-June quarter. The N.I.A. figures, showing the largest deficit since World War II, are not the same as the unified budget normally cited when budget surpluses or deficits are mentioned.

Administration economists said they were optimistic about the day's news, although it did not point entirely toward a recovery. They emphasized the most important factor in a recovery will be consumer spending, hopefully spurred by such things as increased social security payments.

Major Reshuffling Of U. S. Troops

By GEORGE ESPER
SAIGON (AP) — American forces in the Saigon military region are being cut by about 15,000 men as the result of a major reshuffling of allied units and the transfer of a large base to the Vietnamese, official sources disclosed today.

The sources said two full brigades plus other units would be shipped home from Saigon and the 11 surrounding provinces of the 3rd Military Region. Men who have not completed most of their 12-month tour in Vietnam will be transferred to other units.

Security regulations prohibit publication of the units to be sent back to the United States until the U.S. Command announces them. Elsewhere in the war—Small ambush actions and mortar up operations were reported along the northern coast where U. S. and South Vietnamese forces claimed they killed more than 300 North Vietnamese in fighting Wednesday and Thursday.

The largest allied casualties reported today occurred about 65 miles northwest of Saigon when mortar rounds fired by an American unit accidentally landed on a South Vietnamese position. Eleven government troops were killed, and 24 Vietnamese and two American advisers were wounded.

Senate To Follow Lead Of House Veto

By JOE HALL
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate is expected to follow the lead of the House and override President Nixon's veto of a $1.4 billion education bill. It would be Nixon's second such defeat this year.

The Senate vote is expected Tuesday or Wednesday. The House overrode the veto Thursday by a margin of 289-114, 20 votes more than the necessary two-thirds majority.

But in a history-making day of considering two presidential vetoes, the House sustained Nixon's rejection of an omnibus $18 billion appropriations bill carrying funds for housing, veterans, the space agency and a score of other programs.

The vote on that one was 203-195, a majority but 63 short of two-thirds. The second House vote ended any chance for the omnibus measure and made it necessary for the Appropriations Committee to go to work to draft another one.

Obscenity Warning Issued

By JIM ADAMS
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — President Nixon was warned months ago he would be blamed for a proposal to liberalize the nation's obscenity laws if he didn't fire the Commission on Pornography staff and most of its members, a packet of letters has disclosed.

The letters from Charles H. Keating Jr., Nixon's lone commission appointee, were received Thursday by Rep. Robert N. C. Nix, D-Pa., after the White House disclaimed the commission and called it former President Lyndon B. Johnson's "inasmuch as it is a presidential commission."

Keating's letters, "I am concerned not only that the pornographers will have taken a giant step toward winning the war but that your administration will receive the blame."

There is some sentiment at the Capitol for deeper cuts in the space program to preserve the extra funds provided in the original bill for veterans and for such programs as urban renewal.

Nerve Gas Disposal Decision Today

By JIM LUTHER
Associated Press Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — A judge was to decide today whether to halt the Army's destruction of surplus nerve gas as workers loaded the concrete-encased rockets aboard a rusty ship for a final voyage to the bottom of the Atlantic.

Army officials said the loading in Sunny Point, N. C., might be completed late today, allowing the ship and the 2,675 tons of deadly nerve gas to begin the final voyage trip Saturday, a day ahead of schedule.

U. S. Dist. Court Judge June L. Green of Washington promised a decision today on a suit by an environmental group seeking to halt the dumping operation.

Plans call for sinking of the LeBaron Russel Briggs and its cargo Tuesday, 282 miles east of Cape Kennedy, Fla. The suit, contending there are safer ways of disposing of the gas, asked a delay in the operation until alternatives are studied.

People In The News

Bobby Darin
INCLINE VILLAGE, Nev. (AP) — Singer Bobby Darin has been credited by observers with saving the life of a drowning boy.

Darin, fully clothed, leaped into rough water from a motorboat off King's Beach at Lake Tahoe Wednesday when the boy began screaming for help about 150 feet from shore.

The boy was then taken back to shore "but I didn't stop to ask his name," said Darin, who just closed a nightclub appearance here.

The singer said he was grateful the boy was only 20 feet away because I'm such a lousy swimmer, if it was any farther someone would have had to save us both.

FUNNY BUSINESS

By Roger Bollen
Lola Lee, lawyer for the Environmental Defense Fund, argued Thursday that the Army erred in determining the ship will not break up before reaching the bottom of the ocean. The suit said the ship and its cargo could contain the nerve gas might break up before Tuesday night.

HAVING FUN or accidents looking for a place to happen? Cycling in this manner violates two basic bicycle rules of the road: Stay to the right and ride single file, to say nothing of keeping feet on the pedals. According to National Safety Council estimates, 65,000 children will be injured in or near school in 1970, another 50,000 will be injured between home and school and 75,000 children will be crippled for life. In a new program called P.A.C.—Protect America's Youth—insurance agents will provide youth safety programs, providing promotion aids, speakers and speech kits, and helping spouse safety awards to community leaders.

Computerized Check-Out System Seen For Stores

Price arguments between supermarket shoppers and check-out personnel may soon be a thing of the past.

Check-out counters of the future will be linked directly to a computer which will not only eliminate pricing errors but also record inventory movement at the same time.

Jack Friedland, president of Food Fair Stores, reports that tests of the computerized systems are already under way and may be ready for introduction within the next couple of years.

He sees them as a natural extension of the ways in which technology has improved supermarket efficiency during the 1960's, by taking over such functions as ordering, warehousing, payroll and accounting.

The way this will probably be accomplished is that the cashier will put codes, rather than prices, into a cash register. The codes will immediately be transmitted to a computer which will translate them into prices, to be flashed back to the cash register. A print-out machine at the customer's side of the check-out counter will produce a itemized price tape instantly. The system will not only be error-free, it will largely eliminate the need for marking individual cans and packages and free store personnel for better customer service.

The stocking of shelves is also slated for major changes. Wheeled pallets, or completely pre-stocked shelving modules, are expected to replace today's method of transferring cases from delivery trailer to storage area, then bringing them to the sales area and individually placing each can, package, or other product on the shelf.

Teachers Entertained At Reunion

By MARYANN MILES

Elder and Mrs. Kenneth Wright of Forest City held a luncheon party at their lovely home and brought together four teachers, who had at one time or another taught school, under the leadership of Elder Wright.

Miss Edna Stoneburner, Orlando, held her first teaching job in Union Springs, when Elder Wright was the principal. Miss Stoneburner has just retired as Dean of student nurses, at the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital in Orlando. In between these positions, she has served as a missionary in the Philippines and also in India. She was interned during the war in the Philippines. Miss Stoneburner is soon leaving for Shenandoah Valley, Va., where she hopes to retire.

Mrs. Ruth Higgins is a former missionary to Africa, where Elder Wright's son, Burton Wright, has also been stationed for a number of years. She was the home economics teacher for a number of years at Southern Missionary College, and was also a teacher at Union Springs, N. Y., under the leadership of Elder Wright.

Mrs. Myrtle Watrous served as librarian at Southern Missionary College, when Elder Wright was the president of the college. She also served in Alaska for the school located there.

Miss Merle Sillaway, who now lives in the Forest City Florida Retirement home, was the matron at the Pine Tree Academy when Elder Wright was the principal. She also taught home economics.

MEASLES RAGING

More than twice as many common measles cases were reported in the first nine months of the 1969-70 measles epidemiological year than in the comparable period of the previous year, according to government records.

Despite the availability of vaccines which provide long-lasting immunity such as Litagen, the only single-shot measles vaccine, there have been more than 20,000 cases reported in the U. S. since October, 1969, when the epidemiological year began.

In the comparable 1968-69 period, there were only 12,000 cases. (Only about 10 per cent of all measles cases are reported.) Reported cases for the current period are the highest since the 1964-67 epidemiological year, the National Communicable Disease Center points out.

MARGIE ROBINSON and her two beautiful daughters, PAM and DIANE, have been frequent visitors in the area since their move to Atlanta.

Last weekend BILL GIELOW entertained at a bridal luncheon for PAM... friends were delighted to see the family back in town... and a good time was had by all.

Pam will become the bride of JOE FARLESS, Aug. 30, at First Baptist Church of Sanford.

BARBARA SHEAFFER, left, and Alice Arnold, are two of the pretty models who will be featured in a fashion show Saturday night at Sanford's Plaza Theater during the showing of the movie, "Airport".

Never in history has the American woman had such a wide choice of hemlines. And seldom has the change of length been so controversial. Chart shows eight different skirt lengths ranging from micromini to maxi and all acceptable in today's fashion world.

French Woman Discovers Secret To Staying Young

By ROSETTE HARGROVE PARIS (NEA) — Dynamic Ingrid Millet, 50, is a pioneer dermatologist — beautician in finding sea elements to help women look beautiful as long as they can. She herself looks a young 35, bubbling with enthusiasm.

Her reputation is growing in Paris where, after 20 years of hard work and study, she has devised a treatment which is unique.

"That oyster woman" is how some people describe her. With an equally healthy effect, she has acquired in the space of less than two years an imposing number of clients who realize she has something different to offer them.

This is in the form of a cream containing glycolic extracts from live oysters and all the essential vitamins.

"The nutritional properties of oysters have been known since the beginning of time," she said. "The Romans even attributed aphrodisiacal effects to this bi-valve. Given all these considerations I began to think that oysters, like all good things to eat, should have an equally healthy effect when applied directly to the skin. I tried it out and it worked."

The purpose of Ingrid's "Oyster" is to renew skin cells in order to firm up skin tissues and give a clearer skin tone.

Ingrid Millet came to Paris from Germany after World War II. She decided 20 years ago to study under biologists and dermatologists to find ways of preserving and improving beauty — but not with cosmetics.

Her first professor was a French dermatologist known for his rejuvenation treatments by the injection of live cells.

Ingrid's establishment is on a quiet street in a residential section of Paris. She personally examines every client before prescribing the treatment necessary. All of her products are thoroughly tested in a laboratory.

During the summer months when oyster supplies are restricted because it is still a closed season, Ingrid has supplies flown from the colder waters of Holland and Australia. She also uses air express to send out her hair treatment for balding men. She has customers all over Europe and fields such as the royal fete of Ethiopia and a French governor in Polynesia. Her visitors' book is a Who's Who of the European jet set. It is said that more eligible international bachelor socialites pass through the doors of the small modern Millet salon than through any one night club in Paris.

Ingrid Millet products are as yet not widely marketed and can only be obtained at her institution or by mail. But they probably will be available in the United States and Canada by the end of 1970.

Ingrid is a thorough person. "I give free lessons on how to apply my products. The application is most important and often determines the ultimate effect," she pointed out.

She is all for the soft treatment — her cream should be applied to the skin with butterfly fingers. As for the old-fashioned idea of the strenuous daily 100 strokes of the hairbrush, she is against it.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: The advice you give, "seek professional help," is good except for one hitch. One should check on any prospective therapist first.

I went to a look whose office walls are festooned with degrees but he must have left his ethics behind in grade school. Three years and thousands of dollars later, I wound up with a divorce. The man? My therapist. (And I'm not even good looking.)

Therapy often causes women patients to "fall in love" with their doctors, but the competent (and ethical) psychiatrist knows how to handle this situation.

A little investigating later turned up the facts that my doctor was known for "intimating around," "helping" people, raking it in and no doing nothing out.

Me? I have a ruined marriage, two fatherless children and no money. Please print this. It might save some unsuspecting woman from my fate.

DEAR BITTER: 36-year-old therapist wouldn't touch a woman with a 16-foot pole. You just happened to get the local Lochner. However, you're in a better position than I am to "save some unsuspecting woman from the same fate."

Report your doctor to the county medical society. He desperately needs therapy himself, and shouldn't be permitted to practice.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I have been married for 9 years. We have four daughters, 7, 5, 4 and 2. We own our own business, and drive an average late model car.

My wife is just about the most wonderful woman in the world. She's a great cook, an excellent housekeeper and works in the yard, seldom raises her voice or loses her temper and we have a lot of beautiful children.

Our children are exceptionally well-behaved and we have wonderful friends. My wife loves my folks, and I love hers.

My problem, Dear Abby, is I am about to go completely out of my mind trying to figure out how a woman like me ever got into such a wonderful situation. Should I accept the fact that I am the luckiest guy in the world, or should I just keep trying to figure this thing out?

DEAR EUGENE, OREGON: DEAR DAVE: Accept it. And also knock on wood and bite your tongue.

DEAR ABBY: My husband and I were eager to entertain at home after our marriage last year. We have invited friends for cocktails, brunch, formal meals, buffet dinners and letters to out-of-town. We were blessed with the high number of acceptances, and our guests always seemed to have a good time. As a result, we live in a small apartment in a new high-rise building in the "city." But in spite of the limited space, we have a lot of entertaining.

DEAR ABBY: The advice you give, "seek professional help," is good except for one hitch. One should check on any prospective therapist first.

Dean Faces Trial ... Rape Charges

An attempt by Joseph Kenneth Dean to keep state courts from trying his case on several rape indictments was unsuccessful Friday. Federal Court Judge George C. Young denied the motion of defense attorney Michael F. Gyzmanick for a temporary restraining order that would have halted the trials.

Dean, a 34 year old Casselberry father of an infant girl, faces trial in Orange and Seminole Counties. He will be tried in the Circuit Courts in those counties on charges of rape. The charges involve an 18-year-old Orlando girl, a 19-year-old Orlando housewife, and a 12-year-old Longwood school girl.

State Attorney Robert Eagan, Orange County, and State Attorney Abbott Herring, Seminole County, prosecutors of the indictments fought the motion for the restraining order.

Dean was attacking the constitutionality of the State's rape laws. In denying the restraining order Judge Young noted that presently there are 47 appeals of the death penalty now pending in the U.S. Supreme Court.

Federal injunction against executions in this state has been under effect for several years. Even if the penalty is deemed unconstitutional, said Young, it is doubtful if this would invalidate convictions for rape or preclude other punishment.

County Tax Rolls Reviewed

By MARION BETHA
 Seminole County's new Tax Adjustment Board, which replaces the former Board of Equalization, met this morning in the County Commission chambers to review the county tax rolls.

Representing the county commission were John Alexander, who is serving as chairman of the Adjustment Board, Edward Yarborough and Robert Parker. The commission also appointed two members from the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction, Allen Keeth and Ray Slayton. Also meeting with the board were Tax Assessor Guy Allen, Clerk of the Court Arthur Beckwith and County Attorney Harold Johnson.

Normally, the tax rolls are prepared by the assessor on July 1; however this year, the Department of Revenue granted a 30 day extension until Aug. 1. Allen advised the board that the Department of Revenue has accepted the rolls, meaning acceptance of 100 per cent assessed valuation.

The specially called meeting today was for the purpose of the assessor presenting each of the assessed rolls for the county, in which individual properties have been described and assessed, with the assessments having been completed and compiled.

Alexander told the board that it must meet on a daily basis until the tax roll is accepted by them. The board then adjourned to the tax assessor's office to review the tax roll book by book.

Alexander stated that the assessor had refused to grant homestead exemption in 18 offices, and that there were six receipted complaints as to assessment by taxpayers.

In a recapitulation sheet presented to the board, Allen gave the total values of all properties and the different classifications as follows:

Lands reverted to state under Chapter 18286, $179,970; County tax certificate lands (non-exempt), $96,627; County tax certificate lands (homestead), 0; Valuation of land, wholly exempt, $64,161,611; (Widows, Government, County, State, Schools, Churches, etc.); Homesteads (current), $86,129,941; Non-exempt lands (current), $286,423,391; Personal Property, $28,500,000; Railroads and Telegraph, $3,981,235.

Total value of all properties is $466,278,295.

AT AN EARLY MORNING MEETING TODAY, SEMINOLE COUNTY Tax Assessor Guy Allen, left, watches as Allan Keeth and Robert Parker, members of the County Tax Adjustment Board review each of the tax assessment rolls for the county. The lengthy process is to be continued tomorrow.

Drugs Raising Crime Rate

Harvey Douglas Hunter of Sanford was charged by Sanford police with breaking and entering and possession of narcotics and his two 16-year-old companions were booked on entering without breaking charges in a weekend foray against city drug and burglary activities.

Sanford Detectives William Foster, Dailey Smith and Ralph Russell early Saturday arrested Hunter and the juveniles after reports the trio were burglarizing vending machines at the Texaco Service Station at 25th Street and French Avenue.

Police Chief Ben Butler stated Hunter was charged after a Turkish water pipe containing narcotics was removed from Hunter's possession. Hunter is still held at city jail while the two juveniles have been removed to the county jail.

Seminole County Deputies Roy Hurkey, O'Dell Hunt and Oscar Reising caught 18-year-old Hunter was charged after a

Askew Campaigning In Sanford

By BILL SCOTT
 State Sen. Reubin Askew says the people of Florida are tired of government by crisis and there is a need for someone in the governor's office who can get the job done, rather than just headlines.

Speaking to a gathering of 40 persons this morning at a coffee held at Holiday Isle, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate said it was time to bring people into the state government who can prevent crisis.

He stated that present Republican Gov. Claude Kirk had first agreed with the legislative pay raise enacted a year ago, but then came back before that body and condemned everyone because of its passage. "Kirk purposely tried to create an issue in order for him to seek re-election," Askew added.

The Pensacola legislator, who is married to the former Donna Lou Harper of Sanford, said no one was in possession of absolute truth and no one knows it all. "We need executive leadership with a specific program," Askew declared.

He said approximately 90 per cent of the money donated to politicians for campaigns come from only one per cent of the people and added his legislation which would put a cap on campaign expenditures would aid future political campaigns.

Referring to the state road problem, Askew said every part of the state feels like "step children" when it comes to better roads. "I have yet to make a promise on the road situation, but I have traveled SR 46 from Mount Dora to Sanford many times and I promise you I will do something about that road after I am governor," he stated.

Askew said 40 per cent of road money is allotted for administrative tasks and he pledged.

Commission Listens To Bids

County Commissioners face a busy day tomorrow . . . in addition to the regularly scheduled meeting, they will meet with members of the state Subcommittee on County Government for lunch and a discussion of proper assessment practices in the county.

At 4 p.m. three members of the commission, appointed to the Tax Adjustment Board will meet in a continued review of the county tax rolls.

Scheduled for the meeting of the County Commission is a report upon bids for the new Court House and prison equipment. Low bid for the Court House submitted on July 21, was $4,134,000. Low bid for the equipment was $248,500. Although no action may be taken until a ruling by the Florida Supreme Court, to be held in September upon the working modifications on the bond interest rates, the bids will be reviewed by the commission.

There will be a report by the county's consulting firm Clark, Dickie and Associates upon the Orlando Sewage Plant Disposal. This is in relation to a proposed sewer plant site in Seminole County in 1970.

What's the latest on the Seminole County Courthouse? Will the construction get underway?

The answers to these and many other problems confronting this explosive issue will be answered in the first of a series on the subject starting in tomorrow's Herald.
