Prospect

Earlier this week, Herlong and Sens. George A. Smathers and Spessard H. Holland called on Navy Secretary Charles S. Thomas to discuss the Sanford base.

In letters to the three Wednesday, Thomas said the Navy has the choice of expanding the facilities at Sanford to take care of new jet aircraft, or relocating the base. He said a recommendation was expected by June 1, after "full consideration" of all pertinent facts.

Herlong said that his second meeting Thursday with other Navy officials was "most helpful" in clarifying the situation further.

He said they indicated that whether the base remains at Sanford depends largely on the "attitude" of the people of Sanford.

Prospects Good
And Herlong said that since his understanding of Sanford's attitude is that the majority viewpoint favors retention of the base there, he feels "very good about" prospects that the base will stay.

It was learned elsewhere that engineering surveys made of the Sanford base shows runways could be expanded to the east "with no difficulty whatsoever."

A spokesman in Smathers' office commented that the senator, has volunteered to send Thomas "some of the thousands of letters and telegrams" he received to give Thomas a sample of Sanford opinion. All have urged retention of the base at Sanford.

Holland, meantime, has reminded Thomas of President Eisenhower's warning on the need to keep the budget down. And in effect an aide said, Holland indicated that he personally would "give a careful look" at any Navy budget which included a big outlay for a new naval base.

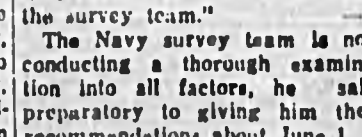

Delay Another Factor
Herlong said today that an additional reason for optimism about the Sanford base is that even if a decision should be made to move the base, it would be "three to five years" before the move could take place.

He said the budget now before Congress for fiscal 1950, beginning July 1, 1957, includes no funds for creation of a new and larger base.

In his letter to Herlong, Smathers and Holland Wednesday, Thomas said "full consideration will be given to such factors as economy, community relations, and the feasibility of expanding the existing station at Sanford as well as the recommendations of the survey team."

The Navy survey team is now conducting a thorough examination into all factors, he said, preparatory to giving him their recommendations about June 1.

SOKC Winds Up Season; Plans For Next Year

LONGWOOD—The record-breaking 1937 racing campaign just wound up last night at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club, but general manager Jerry Collins is already planning bigger and better things for next year's meet.

Despite a handsome increase in attendance and pari-mutuel handle, Collins plans to move the starting date back a month from Nov. 13 to Dec. 14. That means that the busy month of March will once again be included in the season.

Collins also plans many more improvements on the Sanford-Orlando track which he has already beautified to the tune of more than $200,000.

Last night was the biggest in track history as 5,000 fans watched $103,580. Total for the day, counting the matinee was a record $150,550. The figure for the entire season was $5,458,167 which was about 4.4 per cent over the banner 1935-36 meet $5,224,713.

J. Wildridge Sings National Anthem At Ball Games
CHARLESTON, S. C. — Back home in Indiana, Joan Wildridge's parents wanted her to have a concert singing career, but she gets a bigger kick out of singing the national anthem at basketball games.

She sings "The Star Spangled Banner" before all games in the armory at the Citadel, the military college headed by Gen. Mark W. Clark.

After each performance, Joan takes her place in the stands and nervously tears paper cups to shreds while yelling lustily for a Bulldog victory.

She's the Citadel's No. 1 feminine fan, and well she should be—she married the coach.

Joan Wildridge and Norman Sloan were classmates at Lawrence Central High School in Indianapolis, but he was too busy playing basketball to bother much with girls—even a pretty brunette like Joan—and he never asked her for a date.

Her father sang in minstrel shows and both parents wanted her to have a concert career. At the age of 13, she won a scholarship to a conservatory.

DR. E. W. McELWEE To Talk At School's 2nd Session Tomorrow

The second session of the Sanford Garden Club's Landscape and Gardening School will be held tomorrow night 7:30 in the Seminole County Court House court room.

The 8-week school is being held in cooperation with the Agricultural Extension Service of the University of Florida.

Speaker at tomorrow night's session will be Dr. E. W. McElwee, head of the department of Ornamental Horticulture of the University of Florida.

McElwee is a native Mississippian and received his B. S. Degree in Horticulture from the Alabama Polytechnic Institute at Auburn, Ala., and his Ph. D. Degree in Ornamental Horticulture from Ohio State University.

The Ornamental Horticulturist taught courses in ornamental horticulture at Mississippi State College, Alabama Polytechnic Institute, and at North Carolina State College.

He served on Experiment Station staffs in Alabama, Mississippi, and North Carolina. He joined the staff of the Florida Agricultural Extension Service as Ornamental Horticulturist in October of 1953 and was appointed to head the department in July of 1956.

McElwee is married and has two children.

The subject of McElwee's instruction tomorrow night will be "Developing the Landscape Plan."

It is emphasized, said Mrs. Fred Ganas, president of the Sanford Garden Club, that these instruction classes are open to the public.

Mrs. L. E. Leeper is the Landscape School chairman.

Wilson Graduates From OCS Mar. 1; Is Now Ensign

John F. Wilson, son of Commissioner and Mrs. A. L. Wilson of 2000 N. E. 1st St., arrived in Sanford Saturday following his graduation on Mar. 1 from the Navy's Officer Candidate School at the Naval Station, Newport, R. I., and commissioning as an Ensign.

To earn his commissions, the 20-year-old Wilson had to complete an intensive 18-week course of study and indoctrination covering such subjects as navigation, engineering, seamanship, military justice and naval weapons.

Rear Admiral Thomas H. Robblee Jr., USN, President of the Naval War College at Newport, R. I., presented the honor graduates with their certificates.

Members of the graduating class have been assigned to ships and stations while others will take further specialized training.

JERUSALEM, Israel (UP)—Premier David Ben-Gurion today ordered the Israeli military commander to make a swift withdrawal from the Gaza and Gulf of Aqaba areas.

The order followed a meeting between Maj. Gen. E. L. M. Burns, commander of the United Nations Emergency Force, and Maj. Gen. Moshe Dayan, Israeli army chief of staff.

The UNFE will take over the regions from the present Israeli occupying forces.

Ben-Gurion planned to go before the parliament Tuesday to make the government's formal announcement of the withdrawal. He also scheduled another cabinet meeting after the session between Burns and Dayan.

The decision came after a harrowing weekend of crisis at home and confusion abroad over Israel's plans. A cabinet revolt against any withdrawal threatened to topple the Ben-Gurion government.

Jury Selected For Van Eeghen Trial Today

TITUSVILLE, (UP)—A jury was selected today for the murder trial of Phillip Van Eeghen, Melbourne laundry operator charged with bludgeoning to death his seven-year-old daughter.

Van Eeghen, who served with the Canadian Army during World War II, is on trial only for the death of his daughter, although the bodies of both the child and Van Eeghen's wife were found in his car parked near a funeral home.

A coroner's jury investigating the 1955 slaying concluded the victims were murdered with a sharp instrument by "a person or persons unknown." Mrs. Van Eeghen's body was slumped in the front seat of the automobile and the girl was stuffed into the trunk.

Van Eeghen was released from custody after the coroner's jury report, but was indicted by a special grand jury following investigation of the case by former Broward County Sheriff H. T. Williams.

State Prosecuting Officers Adopt Recommendations

Recommendations made jointly by Assistant State Attorney Volle A. Williams Jr., of Sanford and State Attorney Phil O'Connell of West Palm Beach were adopted overwhelmingly by the State Association of Prosecuting Officers at a two-day meeting in Tallahassee.

The association voted to ask the Legislature to give prosecuting officers and grand juries equal power with sheriffs. It also recommended that the Florida Sheriffs Bureau be changed from its present membership of five sheriffs to two sheriffs, one state attorney, one county solicitor and a citizen, all named by the governor.

The association, winding up its meeting, indicated that legislation recommended is intended to take the Florida Sheriffs Bureau under the direct control of sheriffs.

Boy Accidentally Shot By Brother

MACON, Ga. (UP)—An 11-year-old boy was accidentally shot to death by his 17-year-old brother during a bird-hunting trip near here, authorities reported today.

Jones County Sheriff Holmes Hawkins said James Venable of Gray, was fatally wounded Sunday by his brother, Judson. The boys were hunting birds on a farm about two miles south of Gray.

Hawkins said the boys apparently went into a barn to get out of the rain and a .22 caliber rifle fired while the older boy was trying to ram a cartridge into it. The bullet hit James in the chest and arm.

The boy was rushed to a Macon hospital but was dead on arrival.

tions with Israeli representatives in the United States and a letter from President Eisenhower apparently saved the day for Ben-Gurion.

Ben-Gurion was fighting desperately to keep his coalition government together. Gen. Yigal Allon, leader of the left-wing Ahdut Avoda Party, announced that "with all good will to continue the labor coalition, we will not vote for the government in this instance."

The leftist Mapam Party also said it opposes the withdrawal, but it authorized its representatives to "make their own decision."

Ben-Gurion's own Mapai Party agreed with some hesitation to support the government. But the religious parties asked to be excused from fulfilling their coalition obligations, stating they wished to vote "according to our conscience," presumably against Ben-Gurion's withdrawal commitments.

Senator Says U. S. Made Mistake Upholding Retreat

ATLANTA, (UP)—Sen. Stuart Symington declared here that the United States made a mistake in supporting the withdrawal of British and French troops from the Suez Canal Zone last fall.

"Anyone knows that the best way to have kept Communists out of the Middle East was to keep the soldiers of a democratic power there," Symington told a "B'nai B'rith" meeting Sunday night.

"But it was largely thought the actions of this country that Britain moved 80,000 troops out of the Suez area. Now the Communists are in Egypt in force."

He said he deplored the thought of U. S. sanctions against Israel but thought they should be applied against Egypt "for its continuing aggressive actions against Israel which brought on the fight last fall."

Open Meet Tonight

Sanford and Seminole County citizens will hear a complete report on the efforts to retain the Sanford Naval Air Station in Seminole County at a special meeting of the Board of Sanford City Commissioners called by Mayor David Gatchel.

Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider and J. Bralley Odham will both make reports on their recent Washington trip during which they conferred with 20 or more top Navy and political figures relative to plans for the Sanford Naval Air Station.

It is a public meeting starting at 8 o'clock this evening. Krider said this morning "We want everybody who is interested to attend this meeting so that they will be aware of the full facts concerning the future of the Sanford Naval Air Station."

Krider also revealed that "We will make public our future plans."

In addition to the Board of Sanford City Commissioners at the meeting it is also expected that members of the Board of Seminole County Commissioners and the full committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Armed Forces Committee will attend tonight's meeting to hear the full report.

The Armed Forces Committee of the Chamber of Commerce is headed by Andrew Carraway.

Krider appeared this morning to be more confident and enthusiastic about plans for the future of the Sanford Naval Air Station. However, he revealed that "There is a lot more work to be done before June 1 when the Secretary of the Navy expects to make his final recommendation."

J. Bralley Odham returned to Sanford last Thursday night after spending the first four days of the week in the Nation's capital conferring with the high Navy and political officials to determine what steps should be taken next in order to retain the Naval Air Station in Seminole County.

Odham praised the work of John Krider as well as the efforts of Congressman A. B. "Byrd" Herlong Jr., Senator George Smathers and Senator Spessard L. Holland.

Krider returned to Sanford Saturday and has already initiated efforts which must be accomplished in a period of less than two weeks in order to further present the Sanford and Seminole County story relative to keeping the Naval Air Station here.

"We hope to have a huge crowd at tonight's meeting," Krider said this morning.

CHICAGO CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY OF 'BANG'

CHICAGO (UP)—Chicago celebrated its 120th birthday today with a bang. A composite battery from the 33rd Division National Guard artillery fired a 120-gun salute.

Dr. Lucid M. Spivey, who observed his 32nd year as head of the school next week, held a reception for Lakeland civic and city officials following the ceremony this morning.

"Miss Southern" of 1957 was to be crowned later after being selected from nine coeds nominated for the title.

CHINA LAKE, Calif. (UP)—A crimson World War II Hellcat fighter roared across the Mohave Desert wasteland under a high overcast of clouds, heading for a rendezvous with death less than 60 seconds away.

Out of the clouds, screaming like its namesake, came a Navy delta-wing Demon jet fighter. For a few moments it swallowed up the intervening distance. Then, still a good two miles from its prey—it unleashed a pencil shaped missile and banked away sharply as though no longer interested in the affair.

There was a brief streak of fire and smoke as the missile left the plane and hurtled like a javelin at the fleeing dragon.

It moved so fast it literally vanished. Only a small ball of orange fire and an obscene wailing shriek marked its passing.

In two blinks of any eye the ball of fire caught up with the obsolete fighter. The red plane was blotted out for a second in a puff of white smoke. There was an explosion like a sonic boom. Then, so broken and gutted it was hardly recognizable, the plane fluttered

Nearly 300 Acres Of County Woods Burn Last Weekend

Nearly 300 acres of woodland were burned over the weekend when fires broke out in three sections of the county.

All of the Florida Forest Service personnel in the county were called out to fight the blazes which ate through woods and underbrush sending billows of smoke into the air. A pall of smoke could be seen over the entire Seminole County area as a result of the three fires.

The Florida Forest Service, from its tower in Longwood, reported that six men, two large tractors, a power wagon, and a small tractor were pressed into use Saturday afternoon to control the fires. Additional crews were called in to assist from Orange County.

One fire, which started about 11 o'clock Saturday morning, burned 117 acres near New Upsala. A crew of two Negroes working for a surveyor in the area were forced to flee from the burning trees and underbrush.

Another fire burned approximately 37 acres north of Markham and near Paola just off State Road 46.

The third area burned over the 17-92 northwest of the Movieland Ride-In Theatre near Peterson's pasture. The approximate acreage burned was 125 acres.

Southern Opens Founders' Week Celebration Today

LAKELAND, (UP)—Florida Southern College opened its founders' week celebration today with a sunrise ceremony on the campus hill and the crowning of a beauty queen to reign over the festivities.

Dr. Lucid M. Spivey, who observed his 32nd year as head of the school next week, held a reception for Lakeland civic and city officials following the ceremony this morning.

"Miss Southern" of 1957 was to be crowned later after being selected from nine coeds nominated for the title.

in a flat spin and struck the desert.

Some 300 newsmen and television cameramen assembled for the first public demonstration of the Sidewinder, the Navy's newest and most deadly air-to-air guided missile, were almost too stunned to applaud.

It was like watching a championship fight that ended in a knockout in the first minute of the first round. It was over almost before they realized what had happened.

This truly terrible new weapon, named for a small but deadly desert rattlesnake, has been an operational arm of the Navy since last October.

Conceived and developed by Dr. William B. McLean, civilian technical director of this big desert research, development and testing center, it is nine feet long and five inches in diameter and hits the target with the explosive force of an eight-inch naval gun.

Although the inner secrets of its inhuman electronic brain are classified, it has been described as "heat homing device" operat-

'Shine Confiscated In 2 Raids Saturday

Sheriff Luther Hobby and his crew of deputies confiscated more than 30 gallons of moonshine whiskey in two raids late Saturday afternoon.

Watching from nearby concealment, the sheriff observed the operations from two Negro homes from which the "white lightning" was sold.

Taken into custody and charged with possession of the illegal moonshine whiskey were Willie Canty whose bond was set at $5,000 and Mary Jane Wingate who drew a $500 bond.

Largest store of the illegal liquor was taken from Peter Cone's home located in Flint's Quarters at Midway. The whiskey was stored there by Willie Canty who lived directly across the street from the dwelling from which the liquor was dispensed.

David Wingate's home, next door to the home of Willie Canty, was searched. Deputy's were forced to force the door to the home when Mary Jane Wingate was pouring moonshine whiskey into the toilet.

Armed with search warrants the Sheriff and deputies found five 5-gal. jugs full; one 5-gal. jug with four gallons; one 1-gal. jug full; six empty 5-gal. jugs; 18 empty half-pint wine bottles; two half pints filled with moonshine whiskey; a funnel used to fill the bottles and other paraphernalia, in the Willie Canty operated house.

In the David Wingate home the officers found two full half pints of moonshine whiskey; four 1-gal. jugs with small amount of moonshine in them; and a half pint bottle partially filled with moonshine.

Taking part in the raid and search were Sheriff Luther Hobby, Deputy Morgan McClelland and H. S. Smart, and Constable J. Q. "Slim" Galloway.

Hibbard Retires After 31 Years Of Naval Service

Willie (n) Hibbard, CHIEF-TECH, USN, who joined the Navy in 1926 at the age of 18, and saw the Navy develop from coal burning ships to atomic submarines and from a strength of 60,000 to over three quarters of a million personnel, has retired after 31 years of Naval service.

Early in his Navy career, Chief Warrant Officer Hibbard entered flight school at NAS, Pensacola. As a student pilot there, he recalls training in the famous Jenny airplane in the days when the flying silk scarf and leather knee boots were symbolic of all dashing young men who dared challenge the laws of gravity. However, Mr. Hibbard did not complete flight training, but for one or more reasons turned to his sea where he spent the next 17 years of his Navy career, eleven of these years were with the "tin can fleet" aboard destroyers.

During WW II, he served with the Destroyer USS GLEVES (DD-423) which supported the U. S. Army landings in Salerno, Italy. He was a member of this same ship when it engaged and drove off five enemy E-boats in August of 1943 off Palermo, Italy.

He is a holder of the Yangtze Service Medal, American Theatre Medal, Victory Medal, European and African Medal with four stars, American Defense Medal and the Korean Medal.

Mr. Hibbard reported aboard the Sanford Naval Air Station from Fleet Activities, Yokosuka, Japan on December 14, 1953 and was immediately assigned duties as Electronics Material Officer and aviation communications officer. He has been largely responsible for the many electronic improvements accomplished aboard the SNAS during his tour.

Chief Warrant Officer Hibbard, who is married to the former Della C. Bundy of Manchester, Ky., is residing in Orlando, Florida where he plans to remain active in fields of real estate and citrus.

The all-important pilot's point of view was voiced by Lt. Cmdr. Glenn A. Tierney, a combat veteran of two wars, who acted as commentator for the demonstration.

Meet SHS Faculty

The teacher of the week for this week is Mrs. Mary Rogers. And as most everyone knows, is the business arithmetic and typing teacher.

Mrs. Rogers was born here in Sanford and attend both Florida State University in Tallahassee and Stetson University in DeLand, majoring in Business Education.

Mrs. Rogers has been at Seminole High School for one year and we all hope she will stay many more. She resides at 2107 Amelia Dr. with her husband and daughter.

MRS. MARY ROGERS

Millionaire

By WANDA GILBERT

How many times have you heard someone wish for fame and fortune?

We all do at some time. But would the trouble be worth it?

You would sleep 'til noon, go for a walk around your huge estate and attend stuffy parties with even stuffer guests.

The servants would always be pestering you with trivial things. The more money you have the more problems you have.

Here's a typical day in the life of a "millionaire."

You awaken when you can't sleep any more. You ring a buzzer and in ten seconds a servant comes.

Each want special permission, orders and releases. They simply love you. Their incompetence is beyond reason. They never get orders straight. They relay messages incorrectly. Like the day

Jeeves told you the party at Mrs. Van Gohn was formal and it turned out that it was a Hawaiian party with swimming the main event. Oh well — you didn't mind. Although you did feel a bit conspicuous. And there was the time Jeeves the income tax collector you didn't own five Cadillac but when he mistook the revenue for the governor who had an appointment at the same time.

Money — what's that? It just legal tender. Maybe you don't need a money tree with a million dollar bill right up on top to be happy. There are more ways than one to skin a cat, as Mr. Dabbs would say.

It may be fun to rule everyone but all good things must come to an end. At the end, a poor house.

Let's see first of all I spot Eddie Harbour's Ford and Brantley Schirard's jeep. They look rough and rugged but you can't help but notice those two great big innocent eyes glaring at you. (headlights)

Next, we see Jimmy Emerson's pretty Chevy convertible all shiny and neat but way back behind all the others.

What's that we see now — a 57 Chevy — I don't know who belongs to it, but I'm very curious — hint, hint.

There we go — Jackie Davis' crazy moped — Pontiac isn't that description enough? (just joking)

Where is Jimmy Blythe's Hawk? Oh, it's being fixed you say — Well we'll give him a break this time.

Well, well if it isn't Freddie Behren's great big shiny Merc sitting there so quiet and settled just like Freddie.

I can't see to find Phillips' fun loving jeepster. I wonder why.

There's Kenneth Hosack's friendly looking little truck. I hear it can be pretty rough at times.

Last but not least is Jimmy Gracely's putt putt. A real sweet running little gadget that glides with the breeze just like its owner.

To all involved: This article is all in fun and nothing personal is meant by it.

Corner" with the "girls". This time Nancy Cash accompanied.

The Triple Trio having gotten over their serious bit sang "Lullaby of the Leaves". "Rock of My Soul" and "I'll Walk With God".

The last number of the program was "Once In Love With Amy" with the Triple Trio and the Double Quartet.

Your Duty To Make Him Feel Welcome

By BONNIE STOFFER

In the past few weeks there have been many newcomers to our high school. How many of them do you know? Have you tried to make friends with them and help them out around the school?

Getting acquainted isn't hard once you try. Just think how you would feel in a strange school with strange people. Many of us do our best to become acquainted with more people and many of us just don't care. We should all care because these newcomers will grow to be a part of our school also.

There are many ways to help them. For instance, showing them where the lunchroom, auditorium, or some other room is.

By telling them about the different activities and clubs the school has and what programs

Latin Club Banquet Is Set March 7

By WANDA GILBERT

On Mar. 7 a very important part of Latin will be taught. The way the Roman people live.

The theme for the banquet this year is a meeting of the Gods in honor of Neptune (Bill Bernosky) and Athena (Evel Kratzert). Jupiter and Juno are giving this. This couple was voted on by the three classes taking Latin. Angelo Campaign and Wanda Gilbert were chosen.

A lot of work has been going into this affair in order to make it the most successful of all.

The students play a very important part. The one, taking second year Latin are masters and this year each has the name of a certain god or goddess. They dress in costumes of Roman origin and are usually carrying some item which represents the god or goddess portrayed. The first year students are slaves.

This is the most enjoyable position in the evening. They do not have to worry too much about costumes because slaves wore simple costume. They must obey the lightest or greatest command of their master, which in some cases turns out to be hilarious. Last year more grapes were seen being pushed across the floor with noses than ever before.

After introduction of guests and students the slaves will serve meals. This consists of foods only eaten in Rome. Half-fried chicken and all the trimmings will be are scheduled for that week. It will help them in many ways, and they will appreciate you for it.

Also introduce them to your friends. No one has so many friends that they can't have one more. Let's try hard to make our newcomers feel welcome everyone. It's your duty.

Advice To The Lovelorn

Dear Miss Cry Shoulder:

I feel a little embarrassed writing to you but I'm so unhappy and just can't stand it any longer. My whole trouble is my life at home. Lots of days when I come home from school I find an empty house to clean up and supper to fix. My parents both work but I don't know where the money goes because very little comes home for groceries and things. I wear my same old clothes over and over and when I mention getting a new dress they tell me how ungrateful I am. I just hate to come home. Please tell me what to do.

"Hello," I said.

"Heater? Come here." It was the receptionist.

"Oh, yes, Leone."

"Your boy friend phoned."

"Oh? That would be Steve. I kind of liked him being my boy friend again. 'Am I to call him?'"

"He left a message, Heater. You understand that we can't interrupt lessons for phone calls."

"No, of course not. Am I to call him?"

"No, he said he couldn't get those tickets for the hockey game. He'll meet you at your place instead of the garden."

"Oh, thanks so much, Leone."

I felt better. Steve was safe, he was sound. I felt very much better. . . then, looking at my studio with its glass walls broken only by a single door that nobody but Steve had used at the time of Anita Farrell's murder, the relief was blasted from my mind. It was still necessary to prove that someone else, not Steve, had murdered his dancing teacher.

"There was 'Am I to call him?'" do along that line. I could see the traces in Studio J and find out which pupil of hers had made a trip to Rhinebeck Place.

I had five minutes before my next lesson. I opened the door and stepped out into the corridor. The most vacant-looking but absolutely the prettiest girl in the world was staring at me from the doorway opposite mine. Perhaps I was being unfair. If a girl had an angel face like that, she would be silly to suit it with anything resembling a living, human expression. This girl was wearing a low-cut evening gown, so low-cut that I was sure it not only broke the rules of Mr. Oliver Heller's establishment, but was illegal in most states of our union.

Her voice surprised me. I had expected it to tinkle like little bells in a Christmas tree caught in a draft. It was alto, a rather nasal alto.

"Hello," she said. "You're Heater Frost."

"That's right."

"I'm a teacher, too. My name is Hooray Hoot."

I repeated her first name questioningly.

"Yes," she said. "Like in hip-hip-hooray."

"Oh," I said. "Of course."

She giggled. "That isn't my real name. Some place agent gave it to me. When I was a show girl . . . my first night club job. He wanted to call me Hooray F."

AN OPEN LETTER OF THANKS TO THOSE CONTRIBUTING TO THE SEMINOLE COUNTY EXHIBIT

I would like to take this opportunity to express my heartfelt thanks to those who have helped either materially or physically, in the placing of Seminole County's exhibit in the Central Florida Fair.

From the response we received we felt that the exhibit was a success in many respects in getting Seminole County and its products before the public. This would not have been possible had it not been for the hard work of a few individuals and the cooperation of a lot of Seminole County's people.

A lot of praise goes to the Fair Planning Committee. This committee was composed of Mrs. Fred Ganas, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Simpson, Ben Weizins, and of course County and Home Demonstrators. Aunts others contributing to the planning were Dr. Fletcher, Joe Mathews, and Mr. and Mrs. Phil Packard, Oviedo. Each committee member was responsible for a portion of the exhibit. Mrs. Fred Ganas and Mrs. Ben Weizins were responsible for the Shadow Boxes. These were made possible by the background drawings made by Joe Mathews, art instructor at Seminole High School. Mrs. Ganas also made the floral arrangements that drew so much attention on the moving Ferris wheel.

Perhaps the hardest working committee of all was the committee in charge of building the Ferris wheel. Our hats are really off to Bob Batten, Yawell and Company, and Keith Abney for their long hours they put into building the wheel. Thanks also go to R. T. Millwee and Bill West for letting us use their boys and facilities, and to Jack Hall for letting Bob Batten use "company time."

Others that played a large role in the wheel project and we are indebted to are: Dicky Schultz, and Sline Machine Company and their employees.

The patio arrangement was done by Mrs. Henry Simpson, Lucky Acres Nursery, Geneva. She also donated the use of two Liveoak trees used in the honey exhibit.

Many other people also contributed their part, and we would want to say our thanks to them too: "Doc" Bountree, Hildon Lake Nursery, for use of some fifty plants and transporting them; Wilson Maier, furniture; Hill Hardware, fishing tackle; Homer Osborne, Kilgore Seed Company, planter brackets; Jack Hatterer, flowers; Gertrude Vining, flowers; Chase and Company, celery; J. C. Hutchinson, celery; Frank Wheeler, Oviedo, celery; A. Duda and Sons, Slavia, celery; George Means, Oviedo, fruit; Charles Lee, Oviedo, fruit; Ernest Southward, fruit; Mr. Joe Corley, cabbage, Fosgate and Company and Fosgate Cooperative for jelly and concentrate materials; to the Chamber of Commerce, Dr. John Darby, Dr. Phil A. Westgate, and Homer Osborne for colored slides; to Jerry Senkark, Dan Meyers and Sanford Electric Company for assistance given; to Fred Ganas for use of a truck; to Commander Deane, USN, for his assistance in getting model Navy planes to use in the exhibit, and to O'Ham and Tudor for use of a sabre saw.

We would not forget the Chamber of Commerce or the City of Sanford for their help. Syd Richards and Jim Dunn were most cooperative. In the carpentering and painting line our hats are off to Mr. Jenkins, city carpenter. Also to Charles Fox, A. J. Clemente and Nolley Dunn for their part in building and painting the exhibit.

Last, but far from least, are our thanks to Miss Wilson and those who manned the booth during the week. They were: Mrs. J. W. Yarbrough and Mrs. L. W. Shaw, Geneva Club; Mrs. Charles Bushong and Mrs. Agnes Bryant, Longwood Club; Mrs. C. M. Flowers, and Mrs. R. F. Roebk, Sanford Club; Mrs. Olan Boutwell, Lake Mary Club; Mrs. T. A. Stiles; Mrs. J. A. Gales Sanford and Mrs. Laura Kreuger, Lake Mary Club; Mrs. B. R. Gray and Mrs. John Murray, Longwood Club; Mrs. George Otto and Mrs. Vincent Matecki, Longwood Club; Mrs. Steve Mikler, Conulata Club; Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Ararallo and Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Roebk, Sanford Club; and Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Tindel, Elder Springs Club.

Seldom do we realize how much work and how many people are involved in putting on an exhibit, even a small one. I feel the above mentioned people and those in the Chamber of Commerce should be congratulated for the part they played in getting the name of Seminole County before the public. It's a thankless, back-breaking job, but an important one. So when you see these people, pay your respects to them and thank them for both you and me for their part in the Seminole County Exhibit in the Central Florida Fair.

Sincerely yours,

Citizens Duty To Help Keep Navy Informed That We Want Base Here

Public opinion can be heard loud and strong when a community in unison proclaims its wishes.

Such was the case when the possibilities that the Naval Air Station might be moved were announced.

Never before have so many people, at the same time, loudly protested the fact that even the slightest idea was being considered in moving the Sanford Naval Air Station.

It was the first time that merchants, citizens, businessmen and commercial men acted as one. From one side of Sanford to the other the move "Keep the Naval Air Station in Sanford" was the number one topic of discussion and the number one desire of the individual.

To show their sincerity—and their earnest desire—a fund was raised on the spur of the moment "To help in the effort to retain the Naval Air Station in Seminole County."

Sanford is proud of the ownership—so to speak—of the Naval Air Station. Shoulders sort of rear back and heads become erect when one says "The SANFORD Naval Air Station at Sanford." When visitors come it is the first boast—we have the Naval Air Station here and we're proud of it!

Sanford is proud of the fine calibre of men who make the Navy a part of their lives—and beyond a doubt become solid citizens of the community. Churches, schools, civic and fraternal organizations boast of the number of Navy men who attend their respective organizations.

Again, Sanford is proud of the Navy people who want to make Sanford and the Naval Air Station their home and location for duty. Cooperation between Navy people and civilians is unparalleled.

And Sanford is proud to have a part in keeping Democracy alive by keeping strong defensively. If it takes noise—then noise is preferred over enemies. A Navy plane in the air is significant of the greatest defense team on earth.

Sanford is proud to have made so many improvements in its facilities so that the Navy personnel and families can better enjoy their tour of duty here and perhaps decide to make Sanford their permanent home.

There is but one answer to the question "Do we want the Navy in Sanford?" Most certainly we do.

The Navy is a part of Sanford—our next door neighbors in practically every block of the city. The Navy is a part of our Sunday School classes—each class in our public schools—our civic clubs for both men and women—our hospital—our recreation and community life.

Nothing is planned in Sanford without our Navy people. Whether it is for their entertainment—their benefit—their pleasures—and for pleasant surroundings, attention is focused first upon how best will the Navy be served. Certainly we want the Navy and the Naval Air Station!

Now that another job to be done is announced—it is felt that in short order there will be resolutions from the Board of Sanford City Commissioners—the Board of Seminole County Commissioners and every civic organization in the county, forwarded to the Secretary of the Navy for his perusal.

None of us must feel that the work is done—as far as keeping the Naval Air Station in Seminole County is concerned.

There are many hours to be put in before the final announcement is made from official sources that the Navy will stay with us where they're wanted and where they're needed.

John Krider, the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce Manager has done a remarkable job in Washington representing the county and the City of Sanford in its bid to keep the Navy here in our Community. His approach has been one of optimism and confidence, his representation has been factual and spelled out in the language of the community. Sanford and Seminole County can be proud of the accomplishments of a man so well versed in the wants and needs of the community he represents and the sincerity of effort he has expended to let officials know just exactly how the citizens of the area feel.

J. Bralley Odham, who accompanied Krider to Washington, and who also placed Sanford and Seminole County's story before the Navy officials in Washington, magnificently represented the community.

Our Congressional Delegation, Congressman A. S. "Syd" Herlong, Jr., Senator George Smathers, and Senator Spessard Holland deserves the plaudits of a grateful community for their plea "as a team" to keep the Naval Air Station in the Seminole Community. Though they represent many other communities in the State of Florida, they readily recognized the community's assets, the community's wishes, and the Navy's immense investment in the Sanford area.

Sanford needs, Sanford wants, and Sanford deserves the consideration of those good offices in deciding the final move of the Navy in its midst.

There's much work yet to be done on the part of everyone to keep the Navy informed that Sanford and Seminole County does want the Navy in its midst.

No noise is loud enough to drown out the noise of a protesting people over any attempt to move the Sanford Naval Air Station from its present site.

It is expected that the space satellite, if successful, will rise even higher than living costs.

Queen Elizabeth has promoted her husband to prince. A fellow we know expects a similar honor. His wife has promised that the next time he's late for supper she'll crown him.

Letters To The Editor

Editor Sanford Herald
Dear Sir:
Rarely in the midst of a problem have we been confronted with a solution that for freshness and enchantment rivals the new green of spring and sends the spirit reeling!
We refer to a recent authored by a young lady letter to the editor. For the extreme naivete, forthrightness and common sense of which we are certainly obliged to credit her.
This female reader of the Herald in an impulse that doubtless was intended only to be light.

Nevertheless clearly indicates that those who pride themselves on their good judgment and their know-how have not been handling the situation in connection with the Naval Air Station exactly right.
While the problem has been attacked . . . in the irritatingly dull manner of men . . . from an angle mainly economic.
Along comes a young lady with an argument as simple and as old as the world itself, but so potent it is practically atomic. In short, instead of sending weighty statistical reasons for keeping the Base to Messrs. Herlong, Holland and Smathers and on those grounds respectfully requesting aid.

All we need to do is sit back, and let each one of our unattached Sanford females go to the top brass with the statement that she'll be darned if she wants to wicker away on a vine and die an old maid!

Grateful
The Sanford Herald—
Sanford, Fla.
Attention Editor:

Your views and efforts regarding the organization of the Atlantic Gulf Intracoastal Waterway deserve commendation and help. Please count on me to contribute time and any other means possible to assure eventual realization of such a worthy, well founded and long range plan.
All Florida would stand to gain in efficiency, economy and better public services.

Very truly yours,
H. B. Smart

FILING 'EM DOWN!

Reds Open New Drive Against Tito

By CHARLES M. McCANN
United Press Staff Correspondent

Soviet Russia has opened a new campaign against President Tito of Yugoslavia as part of its attempt to tighten its grip on its satellites. Criticism of Tito's Communism has been intensifying for several weeks in Russia and other Soviet bloc countries.

Now the Soviet government has put on economic squeeze on Tito by withdrawing from commitment to grant him promised credits of up to $250 million.

There is no doubt that the Russian leaders have opened up against Tito again because they regard him as a menace.

After the successful Polish revolt against Moscow domination, and the Hungarian revolt that failed, Russia is doing everything it can to safeguard itself against further trouble in its satellites.

Tough "Stalinist" leaders are being strengthened in all of the East European Communist satellite countries.

It is reported that one reason Russia reneged on its promise of credits to Yugoslavia is that Tito refused to help in the build-up by recognizing the East German Communist regime.

But aside from that, Tito remains an ever-present danger to Russian domination of Eastern Europe.

He constitutes living proof that a Communist ruler can completely throw off Russian domination and get away with it. The surge of revolt in Eastern Europe has subsided, but it could start again at any time. Tito, to Soviet leaders, is a horrible example of independence who might give others ideas.

Foreign News Commentary

United Press Staff Correspondent

Generalissimo Francisco Franco appears to have moved another step toward restoring the Bourbon monarchy in Spain.

He seems also to have moved a step toward giving up some of the sweeping power he has held for more than 20 years.

These developments seem indicated by Franco's drastic reshuffling of his cabinet, the first since July, 1951.

The representation of men who favor the restoration of the monarchy is a little stronger in the new cabinet.

And Franco has provided for the appointment of a prime minister at some future time.

There is every indication, however, that Franco, now 64, intends to stay in office for the foreseeable future.

Franco is now his country's "caudillo"—leader of the empire, chief of the state, commander in chief of the armed forces, prime minister and head of the falange political party.

Dictator Since 1936
He has wielded dictatorial power ever since he was named chief of state on October 1, 1936, two months after the outbreak of the civil war, as leader of the nationalist rebellion against the leftist-tinged Republican government.

King Alfonso XIII had been overthrown in 1931 when the Republicans won an overwhelming victory in a national election.

The civil war ended in 1939. Franco remained head man. On March 31, 1947, he announced that Spain was to become a monarchy again. He appointed a regency council which, in the event of his own incapacitation or death, would name a king.

Nominally, the heir to the throne would be Alfonso's son, Don Juan who lives in exile in Portugal. Spain's next-door neighbor on the Iberian Peninsula.

But Franco has been grooming Juan's son, Don Juan Carlos, for the throne.

Franco and Don Juan met in 1954. They agreed that Juan Carlos, now 19, should go to Spain to complete his education an education pointed toward his eventual assumption of the throne.

Geta Military Training
Juan Carlos is studying now at a military school in Geta, Spain.

The urge to travel got the best of me.

the Zaragoza Military Academy. He is being coached by special tutors in problems of statehood and government under Franco's direction. Later he is to attend the naval and air force academies.

The idea of the restoration of the monarchy is not very popular with the leaders of the Falange party. Some of these leaders are bitter opponents of the restoration idea. Others believe that plans could be worked out by which, under king, the party might still be a real power.

There may be a serious clash at some future time for it Franco decides what the time for a monarchy has come or if something happens to him which makes the restoration an immediate issue. Army leaders are strongly monarchistic. A lot of army men do not like the Falange.

But for the present, Franco seems to be in no hurry to make any change in the governmental system.

His first step, when he gets ready, is likely to be the appointment of a prime minister who would take over some of his heavy burdens of government, while leaving him head of state.

Now Hear This!

Hope you got there early for the Fleet Reserve "Shrimp Boil" last Friday night! We arrived at 8:1, and we were among the last to get some potato salad with our shrimp! I think there were actually more civilians there than Navy, which itself, shows how much the local people would like to keep us here, by being willing to support our different projects. Over the week-end it was a little hard to obtain the figure on how many actually attended, and how much was cleared for the Fleet Reserve Building Fund, but no doubt that will appear in the paper shortly. All that I do know is that there was an enormous crowd, and regardless of when the salads ran out, everyone was kept happy eating shrimp!

Want to add my congratulations to those of many others, on over Sanford yesterday morning! These were the places that performed at Daytona Beach yesterday, for the motorcycle races. It makes me, and lots of others I know, very proud to be associated with a Navy that turns out such wonderful flyers. And how much nicer to see them performing in this way than in others in which they are equally adept.

Want to add one last reminder about tonight's meeting of the Enlisted Men's Wives Club, 8 o'clock, at the U.S.O. The plasticware party will follow the regular business meeting, so let's all turn out for it. Also remember that the club gets 10% of whatever is sold, and there isn't a housewife among you who can't use some little item in her home that will be available tonight.

Sanford's Ham Bibebe is currently in the thick of the race for the starting right end on Florida State's football squad. The 175-pound junior is battling Tampa's Tony Romeo, a 215-pounder, for the post. FSU head coach Tom Nugent says Bibebe has a slight edge to date.

Powells On Top In Bowling League

Powell's Office Supply took over the lead of the Mixed Bowling League last Thursday night by winning all three games from Clyde's Grill, proving that Powell's have a hot team and are hard to beat, especially Harold Ring, who came up with a high series of 649, twice bowling a high single game of 190.

Powell's high single game was 789 and their high three was 2380, which was high for the night, but they had to accept a tie with their high single game of 789 with hot-rolling Sanford Bowling Alley. Powell's record is now stretched to an impressive 17-7.

While only winning one game from Seminole Dry Cleaners, Harvey's Plumbing Co. broke the second place tie with Clyde's Grill and stretching their record to 11-10.

Harvey's high game was bowled by Hal Gilstrap, a 167, and the high series was bowled by Jesse Cook 144.

Sanford Bowling Alley played an impressive trio of games last week, winning two of their games and giving them 13 won against 11 lost and putting them in third place in a new tie with Clyde's Grill. Jim Maloney had a strong arm last week, hitting a 201 high game and a 378 high series, and indication now is that Jim has beat Harold Ring for Clyde's Grill showed a marked decline last week, losing all three games. Their poor showing last week hurt them and dropped them down to the third rung of the League ladder. High game was bowled by Eugene Gill, a 177, along with a high series of 476.

Wolcott Camera Shop took one game—a tough assignment when bowlers against a team like Sanford Bowling Alley. The win moved them to four place. A few more week's experience may well change the 9-15 record they now possess. Larva bowled the team high (189) and also the high series (173).

Seminole Dry Cleaners picked up with their two wins over Harvey's Plumbing Co. Their high game was 171 by A. L. Salter and their high series was 411, bowled by S. E. Anderson. It looks like this team pulled out of their rut at long last and are on their way upward with six wins against 18 losses. Their showing last week served indication that almost anything can happen in the next seven weeks.

Lillian Donat still holds high game of 224 and Jim Maloney has taken high series with a 578. Sanford Bowling Alley has an unbeaten teams single game of 844 and Powell's holds onto team high, three games, with an impressive 2356. High average is 138 for Harold Ring, with Eugene Gill closing in fast with a 164 and Jim Maloney in the running with a 164. Ellen Betts still holds high average of the women with a 156, Dot Powell

TALLAHASSEE — After three full weeks of spring practice, Fla. State coach Tom Nugent was "just about set" on the eleven men who will form the Seminoles' starting football team in the fall.

Nugent said he was "relatively surprised with the progress we've made this spring," but he added the Seminoles still have a long way to go, especially in the backfield.

Giving a position-by-position rundown, the FSU coach said there's no question about starters at three positions—quarterback, fullback and left end.

He said the quarterback is Bob Renn, a classy 170-pounder who was the Seminoles' left halfback last fall. Eddie Johnston, W. Va., is the fullback and son, a 190-pounder from Charleston Schomberger, FSU's All-American candidate from Pittsburgh, Pa., is Nugent's choice at end.

Schomberger has been an FSU starter for the past two years and Johnson played behind regular Joe Holt last fall.

The FSU chief said Stan Dobos, a stubby 185-pound junior from East Chicago, Ind., is his choice at left half. Dobos broke a rib in a practice session this past week and will be laid up for about ten days.

At right half, Billy Weaver of Miami is the leading contender but he is being pushed by Gerald Phillip, a 185-pound junior who has been shifted from end.

"We're fairly satisfied with our first team backs but beyond that, we're frankly worried about depth."

George Boyer of Jacksonville and Bill Musselman of Lynchburg, Va., the regular tackles last year, have returned and both have firm grips on their positions.

Nugent said Musselman has "been outstanding so far this spring," but he said Boyer has is second with a 147, and Lillian Donat is still in the running for top honors with a 145.

All teams are still holding a pretty tight score, but it looks like Powell's are going to walk away with first place since they have widened their lead in three games. The pins, however, can always be upset in many ways in the next week to cause a big mixup in the league standings.

The public is invited to attend this Thursday night's bowling session and see what happens when the Mixed League starts making noise with fast balls and falling pins.

been handicapped by a knee injury.

The guards, a trouble spot for the Seminoles when the present spring drills began, "have developed at a fine pace and we think we're about set," Nugent commented.

Ahner Bibebe, a rugged 180-pound freshman from West Palm Beach, is presently the starting right guard while Joe McGee of Raleigh, N. C., and Al Ulmer of Clearwater are alternating at the left guard.

Two other potential starters, Bob Fountain and Jerry Graham, are laid up with injuries and may be out for the rest of the spring. Graham, a 200-pound junior, has vertebrae veins from an injury received in high school.

Troy Barnes, a starter last fall, is still Nugent's choice as the regular center and Paul Slayton of Miami has developed into "an excellent No. 2 man."

Perhaps the most uncertain position is right end where junior Ham Bibebe of Sanford and freshman Tony Romeo of Tampa are battling for starting honors.

The regular left end last fall was Pensacola's Bob Nullums who is sitting out the current spring drills recuperating from a recent knee operation.

Nugent said he planned to taper off his seasons during the next two weeks in preparation for the spring game, March 15. To date, he has had the Seminoles scrimmaging every day.

65 Free Agents Are Vieing For Contract With Giants

By HUGH ANSLEY

Human drama moved into the baseball diamond today as some 65 free agents, young men from all over the country trying to get a contract from the New York Giants farm system, began performing for Carl Hubbell, head of the sprawling Giants farm system, and his associates.

Each of the men are not to make a name for themselves in baseball. Each man is under tremendous pressure to do the best. Each man is hoping for that one sensational play, that one act, that will attract the discerning eye of Hubby II. Just a little more attention, just a little closer watching may land a contract. It is the thought of every free agent housed in the New York Giants dormitory near Memorial Stadium.

A free agent is a baseball player without a contract. And they come to Sanford in the hopes of getting signed, or just a commitment from one of "the men up there" that will justify their being brought to Sanford by one of the many scouts.

So far there has been no money changing hands by the New York Giants. For the inspection period these men are the guests of the great baseball organization. They were brought here by them, they are fed and housed by them, and their futures lay in the hands of them.

Out of the 65 some six seven, or, if this year happens to be a good year for the scouts, eight will care out a niche for themselves in the New York Giants vast organization. Maybe one of them may make the roster of the New York Giants itself someday.

But the majority will go home sad and disappointed; brokenhearted that they failed to make the grade. Some will try harder, improve more, and be back next year—they may even make the grade through sheer determination.

This is the continual drama of democracy. It's here that social barriers are crashed to the ground and it is up to the individual what he or she is to be. On the diamond it does not matter who or what the father is like, where the parents live or what side of the tracks. The spotlight is on the player—he is on his own to make or break—to realize a dream or burst his bubble of fantasy.

Many of the people of Sanford will say in a year or so, "Sure, I know that guy, I watched him work out here. He was great and I knew from the first moment that he was destined to make good in the majors."

Aspiring baseball players are a proud bunch. Some may be even arrogant, and that's what a recent knee operation.

Nugent said he planned to taper off his seasons during the next two weeks in preparation for the spring game, March 15. To date, he has had the Seminoles scrimmaging every day.

Golf Gossip

By HUGH ANSLEY

Women's Golf Tournay This Week

After the exciting play for the Dot Powell Trophy, the Women's Golf Association yesterday finished qualifying for the Sanford Women's Golf Association Tournament that will get underway Wednesday.

A note of appreciation goes out to Dot Powell, who, on her own initiative began giving a trophy some eight years ago. Each year Dot gives a replica trophy to the runner-up in the tourney bearing her name and the winner's name is inscribed on the huge trophy kept in the clubhouse.

The coming championship tourney will be on a flight basis, and as soon as the complete results of qualifying have been compiled the tourney will get underway.

Jay Hebert in Clinic, Exhibitions

Here Next Week

Jay Hebert, bearing a Sanford seal on all his luggage and the only man in top golf today to draw a pay-check from a major baseball organization is still the only man with two wins under his belt in the 1957 PGA Tour.

Hebert, the playing pro for the Mayfair Inn, will be in Sanford next Monday and will please an anticipated large crowd with a clinic and 18 hole exhibition. Ed Porky Oliver will join Hebert in the Clinic at the Mayfair Inn Country Club and at 1 p. m., Monday, March 11, will be a part of an 18 hole exhibition game. Hebert and Marti Carfagno will team together and play against Porky

It takes for some people to face a major crisis. But after the shower and the signing of the contracts each man among them is a clean living, hopeful even, American lad with a stake in the future—he has to be or he would have never been brought here in the first place.

Intra-Squad Ball Game Wednesday

The wheels of the Sanford Seminoles baseball machinery began fitting into place last week after a week's interruption by inclement weather, but this morning baseball mentor Dave Laude voiced high optimism for the progression of his charges and announced an intra-squad game for Wednesday afternoon.

Wednesday afternoon will mark the first donning of uniforms for the season. But according to coach Laude the boys are beginning to fit into the routine of practices and are shaping into their prospective positions on the team.

"There are still two strong prospects for each position," Laude said this morning, "and Wednesday's practice game will give us a good indication of the boys who will fill the starting positions."

In Friday afternoon's practice session the boys were going through quarter speed under the watchful eye of Laude, and appearances indicated that even a practice game would hard press the mentor to choose the top man in many positions.

Only one aspirant, Eddie Barbour, is taking on the double role and Frank Mebane Jr. in the exhibition.

Hebert will fly to Sanford after the Pensacola Open and will stop off here for the day before going to St. Petersburg for his St. Pete field. At right field veteran Open, to get underway March 14.

Hubbell's Game Said Improving

Some top baseball names have been crowding the fairways at the Country Club, making fine conversation as well as golf. Carl Hubbell, head of the sprawling minor league training system for the New York Giants is improving his game and some rumor that he cracked per last week.

Slavia Teams Win Tourney

Slavia made a clean sweep of the Seminole County Junior High Basketball Tournament Saturday in both the girls and boys divisions in two of the most thrilling games ever witnessed on the Seminole High School courts.

It was a perfect tournament all the way as both games were settled by one point. In the Girls' division Slavia came out champs by a 24-23 score, and in the Boys' division Slavia repeated their prior feat by a 23-22 score to make them undisputed champs of Seminole County.

Slavia was considered to be in top contention from the first, but for position. He is a pitcher and is also a candidate for third base. Also working out on the mound is L. C. Smith and Ken McMur-ray.

A hot race is on between Cecil Dandridge and Bob Stubbings for the catcher's honors and at first base the perplexing problem of a hitter, in the person of Bill Tyre, and a fielder, in the person of Al Stanley, has raised its head for the consideration of mentor, Laude. At second base Doyle Corley and Ray Johnson are vying for a starting berth, and in the short-stop action veteran slugger Ronnie Rasi is pitting his efforts against David Bramlett, a freshman that Laude doesn't want to do away with. Should Russi cop the starting assignment there, Bramlett will probably move to the outfield.

Hurler Eddie Barbour and Vernon Kirk are at battle for third base and George Harriett and Kenneth Hosak are trying to top each other for the nod at left field. At right field veteran leader Brantley Schirard is proving tough competition for sophomore Henry Russi, and a raging battle is in progress at center field, where two sluggers, Johnny Yeakle and Terry Goemmel, are vying for position.

Wednesday's practice game gets underway at 3:30, in front of the high school, and the public is invited.

their most formidable foe was a dark horse in the tournament—Sanford Junior High JV.

But the Sanford Junior JVs always have proved to be top performers in tournament action. In Friday afternoon's thriller, they went into the intermission trailing top seeded Oviedo 19-12. But in the second half they bounced back with 10 points a quarter and edged out the tournament favorites 23-20 to gain for themselves a berth in the championship game.

During the championship games Saturday night, the marked play was predominantly close defensive action with cheering young people and excited parents urging the chosen ones to victory.

Hugh Carlton, principal of Sanford Junior High, said, "It was a good tournament. It couldn't have been a better one."

CONNING THE NEWS

Judy Smith starred as cook last Thursday afternoon when she prepared lunch for Jean Dooley, Betty Guy, and Louise Parker. All was fixed "from scratch," and consisted of tuna fish salad, cheese biscuits and pineapple upside down cake. Bridge followed, but the victor remains a mystery. Forgot to ask with all the enthusiasm about the lunch.

The "hostess of the mostess" is Celia Higginbotham. Cannot go on without remark about the lovely dinner party they had Thursday night. Earl expounded on the new civic center soon to be started, and it sounds fabulous. This completely air-conditioned building will house a huge auditorium, large room, ultra modern kitchen, and many smaller conference rooms, which will soon be another feature will also be used as music rooms, reading rooms, etc. A skating rink will be another feature in this beautiful structure.

A bridge club that has been going strong for two and a half years is the one originally formed by VAIL's wives. Now it is composed of many who have left Vail, and are in HATU or on the Staff. Since they are all bridge friends they rarely need substitutes, and will probably leave town still playing that last hand. This Friday they met at Sonja Blackwood's and ate lunch to the tune of bids and doubles. Attending were Betty McCracken, Jean Fitton, Mike Stone, Hazel Rowell, Ruth Tully, Lola Elder, Mily Donaud, Joyce Baker, Barbara Jacobsen, Ethel Fitzsimmons, and Marge Hill.

VAH-11 came together at Happy Hour at the B.O.Q. Friday night. Sorry to hear that Howe Hansen is in the hospital ill. Next Tuesday 11 will have an All Hand party at Golden Lake. In the new picnic area. Attending happy hour were John and Ann Bear, Vail and Charlie Mldahn, John and Spook Hook, John and Bert Burkholder, Cy and Lou Johnson, and Ruth and Forrest Norvell.

The After-Five Club brought their steaks to the Michels Friday night for the monthly meeting. Salads were prepared by Judy Smith and Helen Griffin. Another officer of the After-Five song was composed by Paul O'Dea. Jim (Shortstroke) Wagner, dropped in unexpectedly. Seemed glad to be in Sanford, if only temporarily. Those of the party not in voice played bridge. Enjoying the reunion were Mac and Bill Edwards, Paul and Puntin O'Dea, Mike and Bob Stone, Evie and Bob Williams, Cy and Jean Fitton, Harry and Helen Griffin, Betta and Doc Linker, John and Jean Dooley, Judy and Jack Smith, Carl and Jean Tegfeld, Elizabeth, Caton, Lib and Red Cleveland, Tom Blackburn, Marge and Bill Hill and Ginny Conn. Mike and Treeta had a perfect spot for an outdoor party, although the weather turned nippy and forced us indoors after dinner.

Polly Brubaker modeled in the Folde-Rol show in Orlando benefiting the Florida Symphony. She was the only Sanford model. Incidentally, the Harry-Anna Crippled Children's Home in Umatilla is badly in need of children's clothing of any size and description, but especially socks and underwear. If you have any, don't worry about the condition, but drop it by at Polly's home on Mellonville and she will see that the articles are mended and delivered to the home. Congratulations to Myrtle Adams for winning the Dot Powell trophy offered by one of the Women's Golf Association's most popular members. Dot does not have the time to play as much as she would like, so she substitutes by urging others to play even more. This year's tournament was a close race, with everyone competing giving all. Three cheers to Myrtle and runner-up, Augusta Russell, and thanks to Dot for making it possible. The Station Wives put on a Friday night in the barbecue pits at the B.O.Q. Lee and Bea Hamrick and Mary and Jim Gobel were hosts and hostesses. Dot Leary also comes in for honorable mention, since she baked some pies, as did Mary and Bea. Guests of Lee and Dave Cuning were Louise and Jim Parker. After dinner, the party adjourned inside as it was getting chilly. Here games were played and farewells were said to Ida B. and Russ Wilson. Welcomed were Ann and Dave Tammy. He is the new ex cutive officer of N.A.S. Nearly everyone was at this Station function, including the elusive bunch. The Wives will have a coffee on Thursday morning at the B. O. Q.

Today marks the beginning of the Girl Scout Cookie Sale. Buy form the Girl Scouts or Brownie that you know, and help her realize her dreams as a camper.

SHS Band Presents Outdoor Concert For Mayfair Guests

The SHS Band presented an outdoor concert for the guests of the Mayfair Inn, Sunday, Mar. 3. They played everything from an overture to the latest rock 'n' roll for the enjoyment of everyone. The brass sextette played "Memories of Stephen Foster", and the string quartet played "The Merry Widow". The band intern from Stetson University led the band in "The Merry Widow", and a John Philip Sousa March, "El Capitan".

One of the novelty numbers the band played was "Mamboanga", a rollicking South American composition with an added twist. The district contest music was also played.

Mrs. W. Pippin Hostess To Circle 4

Mrs. Willie Pippin was hostess to the Circle 4 meeting and covered dish luncheon Thursday at her home on West First St. The Rev. H. H. Martin introduced by Mrs. B. C. Circle members present: Mrs. B. C. Moore, chairman, Mrs. C. L. Park, co-chairman, Mrs. O. C. Gibbs, Mrs. Martha Marshall, Mrs. R. T. Humphrey, Mrs. Fred Myers, and Mrs. Willie Pippin.

Guests included, the Rev. and Mrs. H. H. Martin, and WMV president, Mrs. E. A. Covington and husband.

Pine-Apple Jam Cake
1 package instant apple chip cake mix
Confectioners' sugar
Prepare cake mix according to package directions, baking in two 8-inch layer pans. After cake has cooled, spread the Pineapple Jam between layers. Place lace paper dolly on top of cake and cover with sifted confectioners' sugar. Remove dolly carefully, leaving design.
Pineapple Jam
Yield: about 6 medium glasses (3 lbs. jam.)
2-1/3 cups (No. 2 can) sugar
3 tablespoons lemon juice (1 large lemon)
1-1/4 cups (1 lb. 6 oz.) sugar
1/2 bottle liquid fruit pectin
Combine crushed pineapple and lemon juice in a large saucepan. Add sugar and mix well. Place over high heat, bring to a full rolling boil, and boil hard 1 minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for 5 minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with 1/8 inch hot paraffin.
Note: This recipe may be doubled to make twice the yield.

Routh Bulldogs School Champs

The Routh Bulldogs fired a blazing path in the Girls tournaments of Sanford Grammar School last Friday afternoon to gain the school championship as they took the Richards Raiders to the cleaners 35-13.

Judy Van Winkle was high pointer for the girls with 17, but the big feature of the game was LaVigne Pitts, who scored 40 points to lead the Richards room team into the finals, but in the final game she was held to only four points by the magnificent defensive play of Vada Stofer.
