

U.S. Has Confident Space Timetable

EDITOR'S NOTE—The United States and the Soviet Union both have said they are headed for the moon and planets. The goals are common, the differences are not. In the following dispatch, a U. S. space timetable is discussed along with the possibility of a lunar landing by 1967.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Russians say they are going to the moon and planets. So are we. The Russians, addicted to secrecy, give no timetable for their next man-in-space ventures. Here are America's plans:

In the next couple of months or so, two or more suborbital flights like Alan Shepard's, with John Glenn, Virgil Grissom, and perhaps another astronaut on the pilot's couch.

Then orbital flights by a Mercury spacecraft, the first one empty except for instruments, the next one perhaps occupied by a chimpanzee.

Late this year or early next, an orbital ride by a Mercury astronaut three times around the earth.

Eventually, the Mercury man-in-space project may see an astronaut sailing up to 18 times around the earth and enduring weightlessness for 27 hours, compared to an hour and a half for Yuri Gagarin and five minutes for Shepard.

When man no longer rides the Mercury capsule in space, chimpanzees may take over for extended bouts with weightlessness ranging from two days to two weeks.

After Mercury comes Apollo, a program to put three men at a time into space for periods of weeks. The Apollo spaceship, unlike the cramped Mercury cabin, will be roomy enough for its crew members to move about, and comfortable and secure enough for them to work in their shirtsleeves instead of a pressure suit.

The crew will fly it, once it has been boosted into space, just as aircraft crews fly modern jet transports. Shepard's "Freedom 7" and Gagarin's "Vostok" could be maneuvered to a small extent. But, except for braking rockets to bring them out of orbit, the American and Soviet craft have no control over speed and trajectory.

Apollo crews, however, will be able to change speed and trajectory at will, and they will be able to land the craft under its own power at places of their own choosing.

The first launching of an unmanned design model of the Apollo spaceship may come in 1964 when the first version of the big Saturn space vehicle is expected to be ready for regular assignments.

The year 1965 may see three Apollo spacemen soaring in orbit around the earth for as long as three weeks. This craft, an orbiting laboratory, would be the forerunner of future space platforms.

These orbiting platforms in turn will serve as spacehips rendezvous, spaceships assembly, spaceship crew exchange, and supply stations for manned missions to the moon or planets.

Before men make lunar landings, however, they will be put in orbit around the moon and brought back to earth. This could be done in 1967 if a second generation Saturn is ready, as expected, by then.

Not even the second generation Saturn will be able to lift enough weight to land men on the moon in a craft equipped to keep them alive while there and to carry them back home.

This will take Nova, which at present is just a "concept" built in men's minds around the F-1 engine now being developed.

The first lunar landing by an American conceivably could come in 1967. But 1968, 1970, or 1971 appears much more probable. Flights to the planets, taking more than a year for the round-trip, cannot be scheduled until the engineers see how the moon trips turn out.

Planetary flights by man are, as the space people say, "planned but not programmed."

HUNDREDS OF POPPIES went into this poster which depicts the poppies growing between the rows of crosses in Flanders Field after WWI. Mrs. Carolina Pierra of the American Legion Auxiliary set up the display in a downtown window. The display reminds Sanfordites that Saturday is Poppy day, with all proceeds going to the aid of Disabled American Veterans.

92 Americans Allowed To Depart From Cuba

MIAMI (UPI)—A special airliner from Havana today brought home 92 Americans—the first to be repatriated since Premier Fidel Castro proclaimed Cuba a "socialist republic."

The Swiss embassy in Havana, which arranged the repatriation as the representative of U. S. interests in Cuba, said another 89 Americans are being cleared for departure.

The State Department said this week that 300 to 400 of the 1,200 Americans still in Cuba have asked for repatriation since Castro declared the nation "socialist" in a May Day speech.

The other Americans—persons who have lived most of their life in Cuba or have married Cubans—are expected to remain in that country.

Meanwhile, some Cuban refugees here were urging President Kennedy to accept Castro's offer to trade prisoners captured in last month's invasion for American tractors or bulldozers.

Sergio Carbo, publisher of a refugee edition of the confiscated Cuban newspaper Prensa Libre, urged Kennedy to accept the offer "in the name of the fathers of the brave prisoners."

Three hundred Cuban women—wives or mothers of prisoners—demonstrated outside the headquarters of the Democratic Revolutionary Front refugee organization in a public appeal for acceptance of the offer.

The Cuban Revolutionary Council, which backed the invasion, announced Thursday it had asked the International Red Cross to verify Castro's offer and to seek guarantees that it would be carried out if accepted.

Castro said Wednesday night that he would exchange the 1,000 prisoners said to have been taken in the invasion for 500 tractors or bulldozers.

Radio Havana said the offer was approved by the 3,100 peasants who were present at the farm fair where he spoke and by "millions of Cubans" in their homes.

Mrs. H. R. Olson Dies Thursday

Mrs. Anna Louisa Eriksson Olson, wife of Herbert R. Olson of Casselberry, died early Thursday in the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital at Winter Park.

The daughter of John and Juliana Eriksson, she was born in Eskilstuna, Sweden, on Jan. 7, 1881 and became the bride of Olson in New York City on Oct. 7, 1911.

Throughout her lifetime she had a great love of nature and her daily ritual of feeding the birds and fishes was a familiar one to friends and neighbors in Casselberry. She also was a talented amateur artist.

Other than her husband, survivors are one daughter, Mrs. Esther J. Burton of Cincinnati, Ohio; a son, John A. Olson of Denver, Colo.; a brother, John Udd, of Morgardshammar, Sweden, and five grandchildren.

Funeral services will be held from Cox-Parker Funeral Home in Winter Park at 4 p. m. Saturday with Rev. C. R. Zehnder officiating.

Dredge Uncovers Engine Part As Probe Of Plane Clues Continues

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI)—Salvage workers today resumed their search for additional pieces of plane wreckage on the Banana River bottom in an attempt to determine if the scraps were those of five World War II Navy Avenger torpedo bombers missing since 1945.

A dredge sucked up an engine cylinder Thursday, and an Air Force officer said it may have been from a heavy, combat-type aircraft. The first plane scraps along with pieces of human bone were found by the dredge last week as it brought up silt from the river bottom for a new missile pad at Cape Canaveral.

Lt. Col. Luther C. Cox of Patrick Air Force Base said the dredge broke down after throwing up the cylinder but would be repaired in time for operation today. He said a plan to send down skin divers was called off because of murky water and thick mud on the river bottom.

Cox said the cylinder was heavy enough to indicate it came from an operational or line type aircraft. The Avenger would have fallen into this category.

The bombers took off Dec. 5, 1945, on a training mission from a base near Fort Lauderdale carrying a total of 14 men. They never were seen again. A large amphibian which was sent to search for them the same day also was lost. It carried a 13-man crew.

Survivors are her husband, B. E. Ramey of Sanford; three daughters, Mrs. Lorry Black of Sanford; Mrs. Julian Mitchell of Norfolk, Va. and Mrs. A. K. Phiefer of Cumberland, Md.; one son, Roy A. Ramey of Norfolk; six grandchildren; three brothers, T. W. Kindrick and E. R. Kindrick, both of Rutland, Ohio, and M. K. Kindrick of Mobile, Ala.; one sister, Mrs. A. M. Stepp of Vinton, Ohio.

Services will be at 2:30 p. m. Sunday at Brison Funeral Home with Rev. Grover Sewell of the First Presbyterian Church officiating. Burial will be in Oaklawn Cemetery.

House Starts Vote On Constitution

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—The House started voting today on a proposed article-by-article revision of the State Constitution and immediately rejected suggested changes in the preamble.

The proposed new passage did not change the meaning, but merely shortened and reworded the preamble. But Rep. George Stallings of Duval County charged it would be like "changing the state flag or seal."

5,000

Thousands of Sanford and Seminole County residents poured through the gates of the Sanford Naval Air Station Saturday to view the displays and presentations put on by the Navy and Marines in celebration of Armed Forces Day. There were about 5,000 men, women and children and military who observed the static displays, saw the action movies and the demonstrations of fire-fighting, assault, parachute jumps, carrier landing tactics performed to demonstrate U.S. armed might and readiness status. ROK Regime Sets Sweeping Reforms

SEOUL, Korea (UPI)—The Republic of Korea's new military regime continued its sweeping reforms today by banning all political parties and social organizations.

It also ruled out any attempt to unite with Communist North Korea by force.

The ruling junta ordered the dissolution of political parties and social organizations by Tuesday. Academic and relief organizations were exempted, but they were ordered to register with the military supreme council before May 31.

The new edict increased the tension which already was high as a result of mass arrests and a series of decrees that sharply curbed individual liberties. The strikes and political activity were banned under martial law imposed last week and the National Assembly has been dissolved.

More than a dozen political parties were affected by the edict, including the Democratic party of deposed Premier John M. Chang, the main opposition New Democratic party formed by dissidents from Chang's faction, and a group of middle-road and left-wing splinter parties.

The United Nations Command said the rebellious generals who staged the coup in defiance of UN authority still were refusing to cooperate with Gen. Carter B. Magruder, UN commander. Control of the 600,000-man ROK army is under operational authority of Magruder.

Anthony Fede Grenade Carrying Fugitive Sought As Most Wanted

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A grenade-carrying Ohio fugitive whose interests range from antiquities to strip-teasers today was placed on the FBI's list of 10 most wanted criminals.

The hunted man is Anthony Vincent Fede who the FBI warns may be mentally unbalanced and exceedingly dangerous. He has been sought since Sept. 9, 1960, for the armed robbery and kidnaping of a Cleveland tavern owner.

Fede, 46, is also recognized as a professional barber who once operated his own shop, a canary fancier, a narcotics user, a skillful sketch artist with a pencil and a heavy gambler with special fondness for the Greek game of barbooth. He also likes to sing and does well at it.

In his penchant for antiques, Fede is said to dote particularly on white statuary of almost any sort. In his proclivity for strip-teasers and other exotic dancers, the FBI reports he frequently wines and dines them.

Because of gall bladder trouble, Fede is known to eat mainly lean meats with a strong preference for chicken fixed in almost any style.

The wanted man, born in Worcester, Mass., stands 5 feet, 10 1/2 inches tall and weighs about 175 pounds. Fede has a dark complexion, brown eyes, black hair and a medium build. He has several small scars on the back of his neck and operation scars on his abdomen.

Anti-Segregation Debate Is Started

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The Senate plunged into debate today on a controversial anti-segregation amendment to the $2.5 billion school aid bill.

The amendment was sponsored by Sen. Prescott Bush, (R-Conn). It would require the government to deny funds to any state with segregated schools.

But despite the racial violence in Alabama, Senate Democratic leaders expected the amendment to be defeated.

The education bill's backers were confident they could kill the Bush amendment in line with their strategy of keeping the measure as free as possible of the civil rights issue.

The Bush amendment is similar to one sponsored in the House by Rep. Adam Clayton Powell, (D-N.Y.). Powell's proposal has been a major block to school bills in the House.

Senate leaders hope they can win approval of the school bill this week. Its three-year program calls for $630 million a year in federal grants to states to help build new public schools and help pay elementary and high school teachers.

Some Space Experts Favor Machines, Not Men

By JOSEPH L. MYLER
WASHINGTON (UPI) — Many scientists wish less money and skill were being lavished on man-in-space and more on instruments-in-space.

Before man can safely go to the moon and planets and carry out useful explorations, the trail must be scouted thoroughly by his instruments, these scientists say.

There is no doubt that the United States is investing more in its $500 million Mercury project and the even costlier big booster programs than it is on strictly scientific space research.

Up to now it has not skimped on space science. All but a few of 41 earth and sun satellites fired by the United States to date have carried sophisticated instruments for performing scientific experiments in near or deep space.

They have put this country far ahead of Russia in space science. But some scientists feel strong-rocket, satellites and probes will be made available in the next decade to follow up recent discoveries and to maintain the U.S. space research lead.

Be that as it may, a lot of scientific spacecraft are scheduled for launching during the rest of this decade. These include a dozen moon exploration craft and five or more probes to the vicinity of Venus and Mars in the next few years.

Hardy instruments will be crash-landed on the moon to detect and report "moonquakes." Remotely controlled jeeps with television eyes some day will be soft-landed on the moon to study its crust.

Eventually, after the Mars and Venus "fly by" probes, ingenious contraptions will be landed on those planets to sample and analyze their surface material and transmit their findings back to earth by radio.

The earlier planetary probes should provide information about the radiation belts — like those around the earth — which are assumed to ring Venus and Mars.

A prominent space scientist, Prof. John A. Simpson of the University of Chicago, paid warm tribute to Alan Shepard's successful leap into space May 5. But he warned:

"The popular demand for a spectacular space first could destroy the present U.S. lead in scientific discoveries in space."

Eichmann Had Two Heart Attacks Before Trial, Israeli Report

The Sanford World
Mon. May 22, 1961—Page 3

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Adolph Eichmann suffered two heart attacks before his trial opened six weeks ago, an Israeli government spokesman announced today.

The spokesman said they were attacks of "extra systolia" or "functional arrhythmia" that manifested themselves in an irregular pulse caused by nervous tension.

The spokesman said this condition causes an irregular heart beat but is quite different from coronary thrombosis or other major heart ailments.

Eichmann was reported to have lost about 10 pounds in weight since the trial began April 11, but otherwise not to have shown any physical ill effects.

The spokesman did not know the exact dates when the attacks occurred but he said they apparently were about two months ago.

The 4th session of the trial opens this afternoon after a three-day Pentecost recess.

Israeli officials, from Premier David Ben-Gurion down, are worried that the trial may have missed the hoped-for impact abroad. They are frankly disappointed that, aside from the newspapers in some United States and West German cities, the world press generally has lost interest in the marathon trial and is devoting relatively little space to it.

In Israel they fear that an undiluted diet of horror for weeks may have psychological repercussions on a population where one person in four lost family members in the Nazi terror.

Both parents and schoolteachers are complaining that the horror stories broadcast early in the evening when most children still are listening may be having too severe a shock impact.

Cuban Questions

No sensible American can doubt that the ill-fated Cuban assault was inevitably an extremely difficult enterprise, involving a whole cluster of hair trigger choices.

But as the confused story continues to unfold, what can fairly be asked is why so many of those delicate choices seemed to fall the wrong way. There may be value in summarizing major criticisms. It is said:

1. We miscalculated the possible weight of Fidel Castro's armor and the prospect of a popular Cuban uprising against him.
2. A strong and perhaps controlling voice in the choice of landing spots and distribution of rebel forces was exercised by State Department officials backed up by President Kennedy's White House foreign policy advisers.
3. To an outsider, this sounds like contending that men who might never have seen a Cuban beach were telling military and intelligence officers where to land, and with what.
4. Cuban forces trained only for guerrilla warfare and intending to practice it in this instance were sent ashore in a co-ordinated, army assault-type landing without the air and naval cover such an attack demands, onto beaches unsuited for any fighting at all.
5. Military critics say guerrillas should hit the beach in darkness and vanish into ground cover within 15 minutes. These rebels wallowed in swampland six to eight hours, under Castro's murderous fire, trying unsuccessfully to secure their hold.
6. They got their guerrilla training not from the Army but from the Central Intelligence Agency, which never before had been charged with such an assignment, having focussed on "small jobs with small groups" bent on sabotage, infiltration, more modest guerrilla effort.
7. The Cuban underground was never informed (evidently because mistrusted by CIA), nor were all the key rebels, nor was much of the populace whose rising was necessary to final success. And top revolutionaries were held incommunicado while U. S. officials issued statements in their name.
8. No serious consideration was given as to how to meet the consequences of failure.

We need to know what substance there is to these charges, and where there is substance, what the explanation is. Obviously the administration sought to have its cake and eat it, too. It wanted to assist the assault, but manage it in a manner to play down its intervention. The question people want answered is whether, in pursuit of this tight-rope course, we did not doom the enterprise from the start by relying upon the judgments and labors of men and agencies not fully qualified for their particular part in the effort.

Your Pocketbook

Have you ever figured what it costs to run your car each year? The answer is particularly important if you are operating on a tight budget or are thinking of buying that second car.

A study by the American Petroleum Institute can help you to figure car operating costs and discover ways of trimming expenses. Divide your car expenses into fixed and variable costs. Your fixed costs change little regardless how much or how little driving you do. They include insurance, taxes, license and registration fees and depreciation.

Under taxes include only property and use taxes. Federal and state, excise taxes and state taxes are paid only when you buy your car and thus should be considered part of the total purchase price.

Generally the largest single cost of owning a new or recent model car is depreciation. Depreciation is the difference between what you paid for the car and what you can get when you sell it. A rule-of-thumb offered for depreciation of a lower-priced car is up to $300 for the first year, $200 for the second and about $100 less for each successive year thereafter.

Variable costs include gasoline, oil, tires, maintenance and repairs. These depend upon the number of miles you drive and how you use your car.

According to the API the cost of oil and gas for some model cars may vary as much as 50 per cent depending upon how a car is driven, whether it travels in city traffic, flat or mountainous country, the loads carried, its condition.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: A friend of mine lives in a hectic neighborhood. Her neighbors come in for coffee every morning even before she has her children off to school. And they stay until they come home for lunch. She never gets her morning chores done. They don't wait to be offered coffee. They help themselves. (She uses 3 pounds of coffee a week, and she is the only adult in her family who drinks it.) I suggested she hang a sign on her door—"SORRY, NO TIME FOR COFFEE! HAVE WORK TO DO"—but she wouldn't do it. Her husband travels, and when he is home the neighbor ladies are there having coffee with him at breakfast. How can I help my friend get rid of these pests before she has a nervous breakdown? DEVOTED FRIEND

DEAR FRIEND: Many people complain that they are constantly being "imposed upon" by unwelcome guests, but for some strange reason they never DO anything about it. This leads me to suspect that the "victim" not only secretly enjoys these drop-in pests, but enjoys complaining about them. It's HER coffee, HER time and HER nervous system. When SHE complains to ME, I will send her a fool-proof pest-exterminator.

DEAR ABBY: I have three sons—10, 11 and 12. They are active, spirited young boys but no worse than any other boys their ages. They play together and frequently get into mischief. One thing I will say for them, they are not tattletales. They stick together. When something is broken or some damage is done, I never know which one did it. I hate to punish the innocent ones, so I have to let it go. How can I get the truth out of the boys so I can punish the guilty one? MOTHER OF BOYS

DEAR MOTHER: I know a mother who had the same problem. When something was damaged and no one confessed, she would punish all of her boys. The next morning the one with the blackeye caught the dicens.

DEAR ABBY: I am 18, unmarried and pregnant. I know the boy, but I don't know his address. I know what I did was wrong, but there is nothing I can do about it now. Can you recommend a free home for unwed mothers near here? Also I would like a free booklet on hair styles. Thank you. SORRY NOW

DEAR SORRY: Get in touch with your County Welfare Association. They will refer you to one of the many fine homes for unwed mothers in your area. I have a booklet on hair styles, but I think it's time you paid more attention to what is IN your head than what is ON it.

We The Women: By Ruth Millet

Great-grandmother was a wonderful woman in her day and she got full credit for it. But how would she fare if she were living today? Why, the experts would have a regular field day with great-grandmas.

Great-grandma put her family first and was proud of it. Today she would be accused of not looking "beyond her own four walls."

Great-grandma studied her family with wonderfully rich and soul-satisfying meals. Today the psychiatrist would tell her she was stuffing her family with food to make up for a lack of love.

Great-grandma was a hombody. Today she would be told she was shirking her civic responsibilities.

Great-grandma washed her kids' mouths out with soap when they used naughty words. Today the experts would call her down for not realizing that the children were only trying to shock and that the way to handle such a situation is to ignore it.

Great-grandma laid down the law where her children were concerned and expected to be obeyed without question. Today she would be told a child has a right to question adult decisions and should have the reason behind them carefully explained to him.

Great-grandma didn't consider that staying glamorous looking through the years was one of the requirements of a good wife. If she was walking around today, she would be walking around today,

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE H-401: Dick D., aged 16, is a struggling student. "Dr. Crane, Dick barely makes 'C' grades," his worried mother began.

"I've tried to urge him to study harder so he can go on to college. But he says Dad had two years of college and it didn't do him any good."

"Besides, he says he is tired of studying all his life. He wants to quit school and get a job. What can I do to perk up his interest?"

Remind him that he goes to school only 10 years, even though he complains of being tired of it. When he quits school and takes a job, however, he'll have to keep his nose on that grindstone for 50 years, whether he grows tired of it or not!

And Dr. Paul C. Glick, of the U. S. Census Bureau, has shown that a high school diploma is worth $49,000 in actual cash value. For it brings its owner that much more earnings the rest of his life.

Each year of college also adds an additional $25,000, over and beyond that $49,000 for the high school diploma.

Four years of college thus produces $103,000, but even one year of Liberal Arts or especially Business College adds at least $25,000.

"Dr. Crane, how is that possible?" you may ask. If 100 apply for a job but the company needs only 10, how do you think the firm weeds out the 90 from the 10 it finally selects?

Freeman admits that his plan, if adopted, would mean supply adjustments for every commodity covered. This would mean that costs might be shifted from, say, cotton export subsidies to compensatory payments for cotton growers.

But Freeman maintains that the total farm legislation cost will be reduced the first year his plan is in operation. And over the long haul, price support payments, now $1.5 billion a year, and storage costs, now $1 billion a year, could be greatly reduced.

The Freeman Plan obviously means stricter controls, including quantity limitations to replace acreage limitations, to reduce production and bring it more into line with consumption. But the secretary's ultimatum to agriculture and the rest of the country is, "Take controls or face ruin." Total U. S. farm income dropped from $15 billion in 1952 to $11 billion in 1960. Jacoby On Bridge By Oswald Jacoby

Written for Newspaper Enterprise Assn. South was decidedly unhappy when his partner doubled West's one heart response, but things looked better when East went to two clubs. South was off the hook and he passed gladly, but North put him back on the hook with a further take out double of East's two club bid.

South wanted to pass this bid and let East romp in two clubs, but South was a good partner and knew it was up to him to bid.

A two spade call was the least of the evils facing him and needless to say South was really unhappy when North jumped right to game.

Usually the pessimism of a player with a hand like South's is fully realized in the final result and this time would have been no exception if East and West had been looking into South's hand, but they weren't and everything turned out for the best.

East overtook his partner's queen of clubs with the king and continued with the ace and jack. South ruffed with the jack of spades; drew trumps with four leads; and ran off five diamond tricks to make his contract.

Dodgers, Indian Dreams Of Biggest Series Ever Start As Teams Gain

United Press International
The Los Angeles Dodgers and Cleveland Indians are having a beautiful dream today — and it comes true it will mean the biggest payoff in baseball history. Imagine a World Series played in the two largest parks in the majors — the Los Angeles Coliseum with its 93,000 capacity and Cleveland Stadium with space for some 86,000 spectators. It's a series that would dwarf all others in attendance and gate receipts so you can't blame the Dodgers and Indians for dreaming even if there are still four months of the season to play.

The Dodgers completed a sweep of a three-game series by beating the San Francisco Giants, 3-2, and moved to within .016 percentage points of the National League lead Sunday while the Indians swept the Minnesota Twins, 9-0 and 2-0, to take over second place 1 1/2 games behind the league-leading Detroit Tigers in the American League.

Strong efforts by "questionmark pitchers" were the big news for both teams. Sandy Koufax turned in a four-hitter and struck out six to win his fourth game for the Dodgers while Wynn Hawkins pitched a two-hitter and Jim Grant a three-hitter for the Indians. Hawkins raised his record to 4-2 and Grant made his 3-0.

The Pittsburgh Pirates overcame a seven-run deficit to beat the Philadelphia Phillies, 13-11, the St. Louis Cardinals whipped the Chicago Cubs, 6-3 and 3-0, and the Milwaukee Braves scored a 3-2 victory after losing to the Cincinnati Reds, 7-6, in other National League games.

In the American League, the Tigers defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 5-3, the Baltimore Orioles beat the New York Yankees, 3-2, after a 4-2 loss, the Boston Red Sox scored a 4-1 triumph after the Chicago White Sox won the 10-inning opener, 6-5, and the Washington Senators downed the Los Angeles Angels, 6-2, and 7-2.

A crowd of 41,495 at San Francisco saw John Roseboro hit a solo homer and Jim Gilliam connect for a two-run homer off Billy Loes to produce all the Dodgers' runs in the fifth inning. Koufax yielded two runs in the fourth but then retired the final 16 San Francisco batters in succession.

Johnny Temple had three singles and a triple and Jimmy Piersall had a homer and two singles to lead the Indians' 18-hit attack in the first game. The Tribe scored its runs in the second inning of the nightcap on a double by Willie Kirkland and singles by Johnny Romano, Woody Held and Grant.

The Pirates, trailing by seven runs after a nine-run Philadelphia third inning, tied the score at 11-11 on Hal Smith's pinch double in the eighth. Don Hoak then delivered a two-run single with the bases filled in the ninth to give Bob Friend, seventh Pirate pitcher, his fifth win of the year.

Ride-A-While Gets Lead In League

In last week's play in the Tuesday Night Businessmen's Summer League, Ride-A-While Stables took all four points to move into first place with seven wins and one loss, followed closely by Owen's Gulf Service with six and two.

Faron's Builders, Fla. Forestry Corps and Betty Anne's Salon all have five wins and three losses with the next five places held by Senkarik, Phillips 66, Town Pump, ACL and Seminole Realty.

Ride-A-While took high game and series, in both scratch and handicap. Al Moretz had a 597 scratch and Russell had three good games to add up to a 584 series.

Competition Keen In Hi-Nooner Loop

Competition is keen in the Hi-Nooners League, with only one more game to go to complete the season.

Last week's play gave Siemstrom Realty four more points won from Smith's Amoco, to put them in third place. Al's Barber Shop won four from Dawn's Beauty Shop and CPO Wives took three from the Capri team.

North Orlando won three points from Monroe Harbor and the Big Dip won three points from Shoemaker Construction.

Spills converted were the 5-8-10 by Mary Elmore, 3-7 by Betty Cox, 4-7 by Verna Bolton and Nola Ferguson, 5-10 by Jane Spoiski and 3-10 by Marge Kipp.

Turkeys were rolled by Carolyn Betts, Helen Kaelin, Lee Kromas and Ann Porter. Lee Kromas rolled a high score of 213.

Pitchers Take Charge Of Batters With Three No-Hitters In BRL

Stellar mound work featured the past week's competition in the Babe Ruth League with three pitchers turning in no-hit performances.

Berry Johnson, doing the chunking chores for Kiwanis Wednesday threw a no-safety game at Oviedo, winning 6-0.

The next day the Shriner's Accardi kept Civitan guessing with flights of wildness that saw an excess of free tickets issued, but came up with the second no-hitter as the Nobles won 4 to 3.

With the supremacy of the throwers over the swingers established, Red Jenkins held the Rotarians hitless as his Kiwanians trounced them 10-2.

The gallery is increasing as the battles wage hotter both from competition and a zealous sun. League officials working with the cooperative Jim Holtzclaw of Coca Cola are hoping to have cooling refreshment available this week. This should give added zest to the vociferous fans.

With games starting at 4:00 p. m. on the fields of the diamonds at Eighth St. and Elliot Ave., Kiwanis meets Shrine and Lake

Mary and Rotary tangle this afternoon.

Tuesday: Elks-Oviedo. Wednesday: Rotary-Civitan; Oviedo-CPO; Thursday: Lake Mary-CPO; Friday: Kiwanis-Elks; Civitan-Shrine.

At the end of the week the league standings lined up like this:

Kiwanis	5	0
Civitan	3	3
Elks	3	3
CPO	2	3
Oviedo	2	3
Shrine	2	3
Lake Mary	2	3
Rotary	0	5

Vince Smallwood, state safety officer for the Highway Patrol, spoke to members of the Woman's Club, Wednesday, on "You and your driving IQ."

He pointed out various changes in our traffic laws and drivers licenses for the coming year. Due to the change, they will only have to be purchased every two years in the future.

He urged the members to advise teenagers to take advantage of the driver's education program in the high school, since trained drivers have a lower accident rate than those not properly trained.

A question and answer period was held after the talk and the main discussion concerned the traffic lights, not yet working due to some small technicality, located on highway 17-92 and state road 436. 10 Cubans Sent To U. S. To Bargain For Rebel's Ransom

MIAMI (UPI)—Ten Cubans captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion prepared to fly to Washington today for negotiations aimed at ransoming 1,200 of their colleagues from Fidel Castro for 500 tractors and bulldozers.

Money already was pouring in to the Cuban Revolutionary Council here.

Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York sent $5,000. Former U. S. Ambassador to Peru and Brazil William Pawley contributed $25,000.

The Miami National Bank gave $1,000, put up another $25,000 loan and asked the 14,000 member banks of the American Banking Association to put up $1,000 each.

Dr. Jose Miro Cardona, president of the revolutionary council, estimated $20 million would be needed to fulfill Castro's demand for 500 tractors and bulldozers, in good condition and with spare parts.

Castro sent the 10 Cuban prisoners to the United States Saturday. He gave them 72 hours to get the negotiations started or return to their Cuban prison, and one week beyond that to complete the negotiations and return.

The U. S. government adopted a hands-off attitude. But a group headed by Walter Reuther said it would launch a fund-raising program to buy the 500 tractors. It planned to form a national committee to raise the money.

Three Red Spacemen Believed Lost Before Success

CHICAGO (UPI)—Three Soviet cosmonauts either burned up in their capsules or were horribly crippled by space flights months before Yuri Gagarin's successful orbit, a missile engineer and student of Russian space technology has said.

Robert G. Brown, chairman of the National Telemetering Conference, said a fourth Soviet cosmonaut "probably" went into orbit about four days before Gagarin, but "there seems to be some dispute as to whether there was a space shot at that time."

"Gagarin's flight represents the fifth Russian into space," Brown told a news conference Sunday before opening the three-day conference of five major technical societies.

The groups are the American Rocket Society, American Institute of Electric Engineers, Institute of the Aerospace Sciences, the Institute of Radio Engineers and the Instrument Society of America.

Brown said United States space science lags behind the USSR in booster rockets, is even with the Soviets in Brown's field of space guidance systems and has outdistanced the Soviets in the caliber of space vehicle instruments.

He said he was "52 per cent sure" Gagarin orbited the earth successfully as announced last month. But he said there were at least three reasons to believe Gagarin was not the first human in space:

The Russians, Brown said, "do not lack the technology to orbit a man and return him. As early as May 1960, Russia launched a booster and a capsule big enough to carry a man."

The Soviet "always seem to go for a weekend of generally fair skies and high temperatures."

"The technical status of the Mercury program was relatively common knowledge, and the Russians geared their accelerated programs to beating Mercury."

New Maitland Post Office Bids Asked

Postmaster General Day announced today that advertisement has been posted to secure new post office facilities at Maitland on a long term lease basis.

Specifications call for the new quarters to contain approximately 4,000 square feet of floor space, 240 square feet of platform space, and a minimum of 11,753 square feet of driveway, parking and maneuvering area.

According to Postmaster Charles T. Perry, interested bidders may obtain bidder's kits and more detailed information from W. P. Selcer Jr., real estate officer, Post Office Department, P. O. Box 4964, Jacksonville 1. Bids should be submitted to Selcer not later than June 19, 1961.

The Maitland Post Office will be a part of President Kennedy's plan to put $200 million into our economy, including $100 million in existing postal facilities.

weekend of the young season ended abruptly today in coastal and tornado-battered central states.

Cold air pushed south from Canada across the Great Lakes as the week began and dropped temperatures to freezing at Traverse City and Pellston, Mich.

A separate cold front accompanied a warning of severe thunderstorms in northwest Texas, northern Oklahoma and Kansas, western Arkansas and southwestern Missouri.

Tornadoes and winds up to 75 miles per hour Sunday night raked Tornado Alley from eastern Kansas to Texas. In Oklahoma, electricity was cut off to Clinton, Elk City, Altus, Lawton, Sherman Air Force Base and dozens of smaller communities.

At Tulakes Airport in Oklahoma City, winds were clocked at 75 m.p.h. shortly before a funnel was sighted. Gainesville, Tex., reported trees uprooted in 70 m.p.h. gusts.

Concentrated rainfall was the heaviest in weeks in the central states. In six hours during the evening, Elmo, Kan., measured 3.02 inches, most of it in 1 1/2 hours and Herington, Kan., 2.75 inches. From Memphis, Tenn., to Vicksburg, Miss., a 40-foot crest on the Mississippi River swirled into the South and the U. S. Weather Bureau warned of extensive lowland flooding south of Memphis.

Cold fronts and low pressure centers moved east on both coasts after a weekend of generally fair skies and high temperatures.

In the South, showers and thunderstorms were slated for the Gulf Coast, northeastern Florida and the Appalachians. The bureau said East Coast showers would spread north toward New England with a noticeable drop in temperatures.

Tennis Classes Set Tournament

A playoff tournament will get underway Tuesday at 4 p. m. as the wrap-up to tennis lessons sponsored by the Sanford Recreation and Parks Dept.

Mrs. Joan Moore, instructor, says that trophies will be awarded to winners.

She also says that since there was such enthusiastic response to these classes the possibilities of continuing the instruction during the summer recreation program are very good.

10 Cubans Sent To U. S. To Bargain For Rebel's Ransom

MIAMI (UPI)—Ten Cubans captured in the Bay of Pigs invasion prepared to fly to Washington today for negotiations aimed at ransoming 1,200 of their colleagues from Fidel Castro for 500 tractors and bulldozers.

Money already was pouring in to the Cuban Revolutionary Council here. Francis Cardinal Spellman of New York sent $1,000. Former U. S. Ambassador to Peru and Brazil William Pawley contributed $25,000.

The Miami National Bank gave $1,000, put up another $25,000 loan and asked the 14,000 member banks of the American Banking Association to put up $1,000 each. Dr. Jose Miro Cardona, president of the revolutionary council, estimated $20 million would be needed to fulfill Castro's demand for 500 tractors and bulldozers, in good condition and with spare parts.

Castro sent the 10 Cuban prisoners to the United States Saturday. He gave them 72 hours to get the negotiations started or return to their Cuban prison, and one week beyond that to complete the negotiations and return.

The U. S. government adopted a hands-off attitude. But a group headed by Walter Reuther said it would launch a fund-raising program to buy the 500 tractors. It planned to form a national committee to raise the money.

Three Red Spacemen Believed Lost Before Success

CHICAGO (UPI)—Three Soviet cosmonauts either burned up in their capsules or were horribly crippled by space flights months before Yuri Gagarin's successful orbit, a missile engineer and student of Russian space technology has said.

Robert G. Brown, chairman of the National Teleastronautics Conference, said a fourth Soviet cosmonaut "probably" went into orbit about four days before Gagarin, but "there seems to be some dispute as to whether there was a crash at that time."

"Gagarin's flight represents the fifth Russian into space," Brown told a news conference Sunday before opening the three-day conference of five major technical societies.

The groups are the American Rocket Society, American Institute of Electric Engineers, Institute of the Aerospace Sciences, the Institute of Radio Engineers and the Instrument Society of America.

Brown said United States space science lags behind the USSR in booster rockets, is even with the Soviets in Brown's field of space guidance systems and has outdistanced the Soviets in the caliber of space vehicle instruments.

He said he was "50 per cent sure" Gagarin orbited the earth successfully as announced last month. But he said there were at least three reasons to believe Gagarin was not the first human in space:

"The Russians, Brown said, 'do not lack the technology to orbit a man and return him. As early as May 1960, Russia launched a booster and a capsule big enough to carry a man.'

"The Soviet 'always seem to go for broke' on their space attempts. It has been their history to emphasize speed and sensationalism in their programs."

"The technical status of the Mercury program was relatively common knowledge, and the Russians geared their accelerated programs to beating Mercury."

Cold, Tornadoes End Balmy Weekend Weather

By United Press International

Balmy weather that jammed reports and baseball stadiums with near-record crowds for the best weekend of the young season ended abruptly today in coastal and tornado-battered central states.

Cold air pushed south from Canada across the Great Lakes as the week began and dropped temperatures to freezing at Traverse City and Pellston, Mich.

A separate cold front accompanied a warning of severe thunderstorms in northwest Texas, northern Oklahoma and Kansas, western Arkansas and southwest Missouri.

Tornadoes and winds up to 75 miles per hour Sunday night raked Tornado Alley from eastern Kansas to Texas. In Oklahoma, electricity was cut off in Clinton, Elk City, Altus, Lawton, Sherman Air Force Base and dozens of smaller communities.

At Tulare Airport in Oklahoma City, winds were clocked at 75 m.p.h. shortly before a funnel was sighted. Gainesville, Tex., reported trees uprooted in 70 m.p.h. gusts.

Concentrated rainfall was the heaviest in weeks in the central states. In six hours during the evening, Elmo, Kan., measured 3.08 inches, most of it in 1 1/2 hours and Herington, Kan., 2.78 inches. From Memphis, Tenn., to Vicksburg, Miss., a 40-foot crest on the Mississippi River swirled into the South and the U. S. Weather Bureau warned of extensive lowland flooding south of Memphis.

Cold fronts and low pressure centers moved east on both coasts after a weekend of generally fair skies and high temperatures.

In the South, showers and thunderstorms were slated for the Gulf Coast, northeastern Florida and the Appalachians. The bureau said East Coast showers would spread north toward New England with a noticeable drop in temperatures.

A playoff tournament will get underway Tuesday at 4 p. m. in the wrap-up to tennis lessons sponsored by the Sanford Recreation and Parks Dept.

Mrs. Joan Moore, instructor, says that trophies will be awarded to winners.

She also says that since there was such enthusiastic response to these classes the possibilities of continuing the instruction during the summer recreation program are very good.

New Mailfland Post Office Bids Asked

Postmaster General Day announced today that advertisement has been posted to secure new post office facilities at Mailfland on a long term lease basis.

Specifications call for the new quarters to contain approximately 2,000 square feet of floor space, 500 square feet of platform space, and a minimum of 11,700 square feet of driveway, parking and mail-receiving area.

According to Postmaster Charles T. Ferry, interested bidders may obtain bidder's kits and more detailed information from W. P. Selcer Jr., real estate officer, Post Office Department, P. O. Box 684, Jacksonville 1. Bids should be submitted to Selcer not later than June 19, 1961.

The Mailfland Post Office will be part of President Kennedy's plan to put $200 million into our economy, including $100 million in existing postal facilities.

Building Called Public Hazard

Inspection has revealed the Woodruff Building at 100 W. First St. to be "dangerous to the general public" and "a health menace and hazardous to adjoining and surrounding buildings," Fire Chief Mack Cleveland Sr. reported to the City Commission Monday night.

The chief recommended "compliance with both local and state fire laws and regulations, otherwise that the building be condemned, and/or removed."

Cleveland made the report after the commission asked him and the city building inspector to make the inspection.

Mayor Joe Baker said he thought such reports were in the public interest and agreed with Commissioner Tom McDonald, who requested the inspection of the Woodruff building, long discussed as a sub-par building for such a strategic downtown location.

Cleveland's report listed these details:

"All electric wiring and fixtures should be removed. The canopy, plastering and floors, ceilings and plumbing are all in a dilapidated condition. I also found the roof defective and leaky. In my opinion, these conditions make the building hazardous to any kind of occupancy, from both a fire and safety standpoint."

Explanation

A detailed explanation of the urban renewal proposal for Sanford, containing many factors apparently misunderstood in connection with it appears on Page 6 of today's Herald. Reading this information from the chairman of the committee which saw the need for urban renewal and acted in the public interest in proposing the bill will eliminate misinterpretations.

Guard In Control In Montgomery

MONTGOMERY, Ala. (UPI) — National Guardsmen kept quiet but firm control today in the city of Montgomery, showing no force at every incident or near-incident.

The guardsmen even sipped a group of American Nazi Party storm troopers through town so fast they didn't get a look at Confederate Square.

In Washington, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy's office said there was an uneasy calm in the Alabama capital and described the situation as "touch-and-go." Byron R. White, top aide to the attorney general, flew from Montgomery to Washington Monday night to keep the administration up to date. The force of U. S. marshals here was placed at 600.

The least sign of trouble brought an immediate response to any part of the city, but the nearest thing to a clash between race rioters and guardsmen was a brief "incident" Monday night at a Greyhound bus terminal, scene of Saturday's bloody rioting.

About 100 additional guardsmen joined the assigned troops at the terminal when rumors that more "Freedom Riders" were due in brought a small group of hard-core segregationists to the terminal.

Five white men were ordered out of the station by a squad of guardsmen after one of them told Maj. Gen. Henry Graham, guard commander, that "we've come to meet them niggers."

A Montgomery man, Claude Henley, 42, was arrested early today in connection with an attack on NBC cameramen Morris Levy and H. W. Riser during Saturday night's violence. Police identified Henley as "the man with the cigar" who, witnesses said, helped direct the mob. He was charged with assault and battery and released under $200 bond.

The guardsmen, many of them farm boys, seemed to have the situation well in hand. The number of battle-hardened reservists scouting the city on foot and in jeep patrols rose to about 900 with Graham's order bolstering the terminal sentries.

Circuit Judge Walter B. Jones, an outspoken segregationist, Monday night ordered authorities to search for 18 of the "Freedom Riders" on contempt of court charges.

The bi-racial group whose arrival here last Saturday touched off the violence went into hiding when they were escorted from the scene of Sunday night's rioting, a Negro Baptist church, by guardsmen.

No Government Role Expected In Castro Deal

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy intends to keep the government completely out of the "tractors for prisoners" proposal made by Cuban Premier Fidel Castro, Democratic congressional leaders said today.

Kennedy wants all the negotiations to be handled privately.

The president "does not propose to let this become a tribute to Mr. Castro's bullying tactics," Sen. George A. Smathers said following a meeting with Kennedy.

Asked to comment on the tractors operation when he left the White House conference, Speaker Sam Rayburn said, "The government is not taking any stock in that."

"The president said the federal government is out of it and going to stay out of it," he added.

Smathers said it was his impression that Kennedy recognizes the deal has "certain humane appeal qualities."

But, he added, "I believe that his feeling is it is a matter that should be left essentially to handling by private citizens in cooperation with the Cuban refugees."

The 10 Cuban invaders who have been sent to the United States to handle the negotiations met here with the private group seeking to gather funds to buy the tractors.

The proposal has come under some congressional criticism. Sen. Styles Bridges, (R-N. H.), said the move to send 500 tractors to Cuba in exchange for 1,200 prisoners was a bribe to a "comic strip Communist"—Castro.

Redistrict Plan Commended By Area Officials

The proposed redistricting of Seminole County as set out by the planning committee was presented for approval at a joint city and county commission meeting today.

The plan explained by zoning director Robert Brown is designed to divide the county as equitably as possible, taking into consideration the miles of roads in each district that commissioners must maintain and having each area represented by more than one county commissioner.

As proposed now, the city of Sanford would be served by three commissioners, Longwood, two Altamonte Springs, two North Orlando, two Casselberry, two and Oviedo, one.

Brown said that every attempt was made to use natural boundaries, lakes, rivers, roads, rather than section lines, which sometimes divide an owner's lot, or even his house.

The map was examined by South Florida representatives and Commission Chairman J. C. Hutchison asked for comments and opinions.

Mayor Wilbur Hawkins of Altamonte Springs said "I like the map; the zoning director has done a good job. I know that he had much to take into consideration. I like the idea of having two commissioners. It relieves one of all the responsibility."

"This is a great improvement," said Mayor Al Lawman of Longwood. "Knowing the problems confronting you, I think that you have done a good job."

Paul Bates, newly elected alderman of Casselberry, representing the board of aldermen, said that the redistricting was satisfactory to Casselberry.

W. A. Forward, president of the Forest City Community Assn., gave his community's approval and felt that bringing the population division within 400 of each other was a very good job.

Mayor Joe Baker of Sanford commended the committee for a "well-thought-out job" and said that the City Commission would support the redistricting plan.

Ed Zimmerman of Lake Mary expressed concern that future population bulges in the southern part of the county might make some sections too heavy.

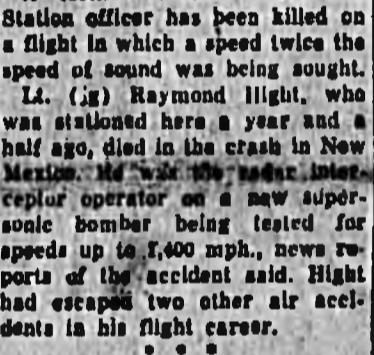

To this Commissioner James Avery replied that the county can be redistricted every ten years or following a federal or state census.

"If one section gets overly populated, we can always ask for a state census to be conducted," Avery said.

Avery also asked that final approval be delayed until next meeting to give everyone a chance to study the map, so that any proposed changes can be taken into consideration.

John Fitzpatrick urged quick action so that Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce could proceed with the transfer of voters into new precincts and Hutchison said that the commission hoped to complete action at the next meeting.

Both Mrs. Bruce and Robert Brown were commended by the commissioners for their study and work on the redistricting plan.

A former Sanford Naval Air Station officer has been killed on a flight in which a speed twice the speed of sound was being sought.

Lt. (jg) Raymond Light, who was stationed here a year and a half ago, died in the crash in New Mexico. He was the radar intercept operator on a new supersonic bomber being tested for speeds up to 5,400 mph, news reports of the accident said. Light had escaped two other air accidents in his flight career.

Dr. C. L. Brothers will speak to the Kiwanis Club Wednesday on the work of the local county health office unit. The noon luncheon meeting will be at the Civic Center. R. C. Whitmire is the program chairman.

The Jaycees will hold a business meeting at their luncheon meeting at the Civic Center Thursday. Retiring president John Alexander will give his president's report on the year's activities.

The Civitan Club will hold its weekly supper meeting at the Sea Shell Restaurant Thursday at 7 p.m. followed by a business meeting.

UN, Korean Junta Fail To Agree On Troop Use

SEOUL (UPI) — The new ruling military junta and the United Nations Command failed today to reach agreement on the return of all South Korean armed forces to the control of UN Commander Gen. Curtis B. Magruder.

Maj. Gen. Pak Chung Hl, considered the real power behind the junta, conferred for four hours with Magruder. Afterwards he told a news conference that they had "areas of very close agreement" and that the junta accepts the fact that ROK forces are still under UN channels of command.

"We are trying to go back to normal as soon as possible," Pak said. "That is my desire as well as that of Gen. Magruder."

But a statement issued by the UN Command following the meeting said the two generals found "many points" on which their views coincided, but that "they were unable to reach complete agreement."

"They had a draft on an agreement that required approval of the Supreme Council of National Reconstruction." The UN statement said. "The council did not approve all of the draft. Therefore, at the present time, we do not have an agreement."

Pak, vice chairman of the 30-man junta which is headed by Lt. Gen. Chang Do Young, said the military leaders of Korea's government have "no intention"

Board Cancels Road Discussion

The county commissioners voted today not to make a previously planned trip to Tallahassee to talk to the State Road Dept., after Chairman J. C. Hutchison said that he had been in contact with Max Brewer, 9th District Road Board member, and Brewer had assured him that the road department knows of the problem of SR 436 and that at a conference in Tallahassee Wednesday the file will be forwarded on the basis of need, traffic and available money, in an attempt to gain early approval for improving the road.

Hutchison said that he had contacted Rep. Mack Cleveland Jr. and that Cleveland had promised to keep in close contact with the road board there and with the commissioners here in regards to the project.

State Drags Out Sewer Rule Again

A technical big stick that has been waved over the heads of Sanford city commissioners intermittently for several years was poked out again Monday night in connection with a housing developer's plans for expansion.

This came out when representatives of Fairlane Estates appeared to ask the city's advice on procedures for obtaining consent of the State Board of Health to approve expansion of water and sewer lines until the city does something about building a sewer treatment plant.

The developers wanted to tie to existing sewer lines with a new section of Fairlane Estates, but the health board applied an old decision not to allow any more homes to be connected with the city lines until a treatment plant is built, they said.

City attorney William Hutchison explained to the developers that this is the same old argument that the state board made in several other instances. A compromise was reached at one stage by a previous commission in which the city agreed to set up procedures and funds to attempt to get enough money for a treatment plant.

"The city has complied with this commitment to the exact letter, but the fiscal agent advised that securing the funds for such a project would be difficult, if not impossible at all," Hutchison said.

He also explained that the application for the federal aid in getting construction funds for a plant remains buried in a priority list in the state board files.

A meeting has been requested June 1 on the matter and Syd Berkowitz, assistant director of the water and sewage division of the board of health, will be present.

Protest Group Spurns Meeting

By MONA GRINTZAD

Art Ferrin, spokesman for a group of North Orlando residents who have organized in protest of the 66-acre annexation action taken at a May 3 meeting of the Village Council, last night announced that he would not be present at a meeting called by Mayor Frank Fasula for Thursday.

"Neither I nor any of my group will be there. I don't feel that we should go because of the crusade we are on," Ferrin said.

Fasula, in announcing the Thursday meeting, said that Ferrin and Lawrence Swafford, former District 3 county commissioner, would be present. The meeting is scheduled at 7:30 p.m. in the Village Hall and the mayor has asked that all residents of the entire area bring all complaints concerning village operations for an "airing."

Volusia Split Opposed; Teachers Pay Bogs Bill

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House started debate on its $763 million appropriations package today and immediately bogged down in argument over a merit pay plan for teachers.

Rep. Robert Mann of Hillsborough attempted to amend the merit plan to chop out a requirement that teachers must make a score of 500 on the national teachers examination before they could be certified.

Mann said the teachers did not want this section nor did they want any part of merit increases.

But Rep. William O'Neill of Marion said he understood the teachers said they "can live with the plan."

The merit plan, if passed, would add $4 million to the appropriation proposal.

Another effort to alter the merit proposal was killed. It would have removed from the proposal all subjective ratings of teachers. Most teachers have strongly opposed it.

Appropriations differences between the House and Senate will be left to a conference committee after the House approves its version of the general spending bill.

The Senate Friday passed a $753.7 million appropriations measure which did not include a $700 general raise for all teachers or a $400 merit raise for superior teachers.

House Appropriations Chairman J. J. Griffin of Osceola distributed to House members a new $771 million estimate of revenue the state should take in from present sources.

Griffin said the new estimate meant there was no necessity for new taxes.

The House amended the legislative article to provide for 45-day annual session of the legislature. But the House never got to articles giving the state a lieutenant governor and extending limited home rule to counties.

These two items received stiff opposition in the Senate Constitutional Amendments Committee. The committee ended its session without taking a vote on motions in bill both provisions.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate, moving slowly through the knotty problem of congressional redistricting, today voted to turn down the House plan splitting up Volusia County.

The Senate informally approved joining Volusia to the Fifth District with Citrus, Seminole, Bunker, Marion, and Lake counties, but left the way open to return at any time and make changes.

The Senate adopted the House plan for creating a new district in North Florida and for making Pinellas and Duval counties districts by themselves.

A floor fight over division of Dade County erupted and slowed down final action. Sen. W. C. Herrill of Miami Springs held out for dividing Dade into two districts, each with a congressman.

The Senate approved a district composed of Orange, Brevard, Indian River and St. Lucie counties.

Before deciding on what to do with the remaining counties, south Florida senators gained a recess to see if they could get together on a plan.

A Senate committee was able to agree on alignment of only eight districts, leaving the others to be settled on the floor. Unless the House and Senate can agree on a new districting plan and not it approved at the polls, the four new congressmen will be elected from the state at large.

The House bill splits Volusia County and puts parts of it into two different districts. The bill also splits Dade, attaching the southern part to Monroe, Lee and Hendry in one district and giving North Dade a congressman of its own.

The House bill gives one of the four new congressmen to South Florida, one to North Florida and two to Central Florida.
