CITRUS SHIPPERS MEET FORMULATE ORGANIZATION PLANS FOR EMERGENCY

ALL OF THE INDEPENDENT
SHIPPERS WILL CO-OPERATE

IN CLOSER UNION

SITUATION AS IT EXISTS TODAY
CALLS FOR DRASTIC ACTION
AT ONCE

ORLANDO, Jan. 13.—Responsive to a call issued at the instance of E. P. Burton of Leesburg, chairman of the committee on organization, appointed at the mass meeting of growers and shippers of citrus fruits and perishable vegetables on December 28th last in this city, five members met with interested interests in the parlors of the San Juan hotel at 11:00 a. m. yesterday. The committee and identified interests, before the close of a rather protracted session, formulated initial plans looking to a consolidation of all independent shippers and operators into a closely working whole. While these plans are by no means complete, and will need a good deal of whipping into shape before a thorough co-operation can be secured, the intent and aim of the proposed organization has behind it most if not all the largest and most influential factors in the state.

Before the close of the meeting a committee of fifteen or more members was appointed to arouse interest in the need for action on the question of co-operation to preserve the fruit and produce industry of Florida. Provision was made for the addition of other names to the committee from independent operating concerns in every county in the state. Those already appointed are: Lawrence Gentile of the Standard Growers' Exchange, Orlando; Frank L. Skelly of the Florida Fine Fruit Co., Orlando; John F. Taylor, Largo; S. O. Chase, Sanford; F. E. Lane, DeLand; H. T. Montgomery, Tampa; E. W. Walker, Orlando; Dr. P. Phillips, Orlando; Charles Turner, Umatilla; J. Thomas, Jacksonville; B. J. Sligh, Orlando; Walter Preston, Tampa; W. E. Lee, Plant City, and A. J. Nye, Orlando.

This committee, with other members to be appointed, is obligated to meet at the San Juan hotel at 11:00 a. m. on January 20th next. Its members will on that date confer with the full membership of the organization committee, and take such action as may be necessary to advance the cause.

At the session yesterday the members of the organization committee on hand were: R. P. Burton, Leesburg, chairman; F. E. Lane, DeLand; J. H. Sadler, Winter Garden; Dr. M. Sample, Haines City; H. O. Hamm, Palatka; L. C. Edwards, Thonotosassa, and A. B. Michael, Wabassa. Prominent among other interests in attendance were Dr. P. Phillips of Dr. P. Phillips, Inc.; J. J. Crutchfield, president American Fruit Growers, Inc.; Paul T. Schooley of the Package Sales Corporation, and John Downey of the Leesbrug chamber of commerce.

FOUR MEMBERS RESIGN AND MOUND IS REMOVED BY RE-APPOINTMENT.

TALLAHASSEE, Jan. 13.—Announcement was made yesterday afternoon by the governor's secretary, M. L. Dawson, that Governor Hardee had accepted the resignations of four of the members of the state road department.

The appointment of an entirely new board was announced at the same time, which is as follows:

J. D. Smith, of Marianna, recently removed by Ex-Governor Catts, was reinstated, thus automatically removing H. V. Maund of Tallahassee, appointed by the former governor to succeed Mr. Smith. The other new members are: W. W. Clark, Wall Springs; W. J. Hillman, Live Oak; I. E. Schilling, Miami; Judge H. B. Phillips, Jacksonville.

The personnel of the retiring board is: Forest Lake, Sanford, chairman; C. A. Tutewiler, Jacksonville; A. J. Johnson, Perry; D. W. Stevenson, of Moore Haven; H. V. Mound, Tallahassee.

Chairman Lake's resignation was received by the governor yesterday and becomes effective January 15. In his letter of resignation Mr. Lake says:

"When the position of Chairman and member of the state road department was tendered me, I was moved to accept the honor because I realized the great importance to the state of an aggressive, practical and business-like administration of the affairs of the highway department, and I was earnestly desirous of serving the state in that capacity. Since I have been connected with the department, however, the duties of my position take up so much more of my time than I anticipated that I will be compelled to either sever my relations with the board or give up entirely my position. This is a sacrifice that I do not feel justly ified in making. I therefore tender my resignation as chairman and member of the state road department, to take effect Jan. 15, 1921.

"Please permit me to say in this connection that I am grateful to you for the many courtesies which you have extended to me and wish that your administration may be as successful as the citizens of Florida everywhere believe it will be."

Mr. Stevenson in his letter of resignation, which bears date of Jan. 7, says: "In a spirit of sincere co-operation with you and your administration, feeling that the work of the state road department might be further advanced by the appointment of another, I hereby tender my resignation as a member of that body to become effective at your pleasure."

Mr. Tutewiler's resignation has been in the hands of the governor since Jan. 5, and was yesterday formally accepted.

The resignation of Mr. Johnson likewise bears date of Jan. 5, and is simply a formal letter of resignation without stating any reasons therefor.

The formal order of reinstatement of J. D. Smith, filed in the office of the secretary of state, recites the suspension of Mr. Smith and states that "Whereas, it appears that said suspension was unauthorized, in fact, it is therefor ordered and consider that order of suspension of the said J. D. Smith, made at time aforesaid, is hereby revoked. It is further ordered that the said J. D. Smith be and he is hereby reinstated to membership on said state road department, effective instantly."

The order bears date of January 12.

AMERICANIZATION CLASS OF THE WOMAN'S CLUB

This class was organized early in the summer with the understanding that it would begin in the early fall but the University of Florida was not able to secure the speakers as soon as was wished.

The following speakers have been secured for the course: Mrs. Cotman, president of the Arkansas League of Women Voters; Mrs. McMahon of New York, a nationally-known suffrage worker, and Dr. Sparks, president of the Pennsylvania State College. These speakers will give in all six lectures. Dr. Sparks will give the first address.

For the Women's Club to be able to secure this course it was necessary for them to guarantee an attendance of at least twenty-five at each meeting of the class. The regular class work will consist of six meetings with a definite assignment of different parts of the government of the United States, state, county and city. As the women are newly enfranchised voters, it will especially appeal to them.

There is no fee, except twenty-five cents for the bulletin and a very small assessment for books.

The class will have its initial meeting Thursday afternoon at the Women's Club at 3:30 o'clock at which time the general workings of the course will be explained, the bulletins given out and the dates that the speakers are available announced.

Date, January 13th, at 3:30 at the Women's Club. This is not only for club members but anyone that would be interested.

THE VEGETABLE GARDEN

No vegetables are as good as those grown in one's own garden at home. There is no reason why fresh vegetables should not be a part of the daily diet of every home. As the new year begins, attention should be devoted to the home garden and desirable crops planted, says C. K. McQuarrie, state agent of the agricultural extension division.

Now is the time to prepare seed bed and the soil for the garden. Frosts in Florida are usually light enough not to kill most vegetables, if given the protection of a hot bed or cold frame. This fact makes it possible for early vegetables.

It is a good practice to test seed for germination before planting in order to insure a good stand. Small seed, like cabbage and turnip, can be tested on the hot stove. Those that pop have vitality; the dead ones burn. Large seed, like beets, carrots and sugar corn, can be tested by means of the rag doll tester. This consists in rolling the seeds in a wet cloth and placing the roll in a warm location. After ten days, more or less, open it and calculate the percentage of sprouted seed.

Another point to consider is that of having a fertile soil. Stable manure is one of the best fertilizers known. It should be well rotted and should have a small percentage of straw to manure. This should be applied broadcast at the rate of ten tons an acre and thoroughly mixed into the soil. Stable manure raises the temperature of the soil and thus hastens the growing of the plants. Commercial fertilizers should be used at intervals during the growing period as a top dresser to make the plants grow rapidly.

Cabbage, cauliflower, collard, eggplant, lettuce, tomato and onion seed can be sown in the seed bed in January. Do not cover more than 3-4 inch deep. Turnips, beets and carrots should be planted in the field as early as possible, if not already planted. Brussel sprout plants should be set also in January. Corn can be planted as soon as danger of frost is over.

An effort should be made to have new vegetables every few days. This can be done by planting new ones between the rows every week or two. To keep plants in such a garden growing rapidly, it should be remembered a fertile soil is necessary.

Fort Meade is to have an auto tourist camp. A special lot near the north side of town on the Dixie highway has been chosen. Water, lights and a load of firewood will be placed there this week. The city is supplying these and the board of trade will do the advertising.

RATE REDUCTIONS ON FRUIT AND VEGETABLES SOUGHT BY AGENCIES

(Continued from page one) his opinion, were absolutely prohibitive, threatening the very life of the citrus and vegetable industry of the state. Hundreds of carloads of citrus fruit and vegetables were rotting because the high rates were absorbing every cent of profit. This condition was robbing the railroads of a large revenue and facing growers and shippers with disaster, he said. Asked if definite action by the railroad officials would be taken shortly, he stated that they were hoping to get their answer any day, if relief is to be had from the existing rates it must come at once, he said.

Trammell Has Acted
"Have urged Interstate Commerce Commission to give Florida growers relief from the high transportation charges and also introduced in the senate a bill to require a reduction in rates. Will do all I can."

The message above, from Senator Park Trammell, was received yesterday by Dr. J. H. Ross, president of the Florida Citrus Exchange, in reply to a message which he had sent the junior senator, in company with messages to other members of Florida's representatives in Congress. In his message Dr. Ross urged that the railroads should establish the pre-war rates on foodstuffs and fruits as emergency rates, in order to provide more tonnage for the carriers and to prevent untold losses to Florida producers.

The citrus exchange has asked all farmers' and growers' organizations to co-operate with it in securing the reinstatement of pre-war rates and has received assurances from a number of organizations that they will back the movement. Senator Trammell's prompt action in introducing the bill which he mentions has given added impetus to the move for lower rates, in the opinion of officials of the exchange, who express the hope that the absolute necessity for the readjustment which is requested will be so apparent that favorable action on the bill in question will follow.

Secretary L. P. Dickle of the Tampa Board of Trade is in receipt of a letter from the Interstate Commerce Commission, stating that the commission has no power to reduce freight rates, on any single article or commodity, to a lower level than was authorized by a recent act of the commission, allowing a certain rate of profit for the carriers.

The letter further states that the best thing under the circumstances will be for the shippers and growers to themselves take up the matter of rate reduction directly with the railroads, as if the rates are so high as to cause reduction of shipments the roads will find it to their advantage to so adjust them as to give relief to the shippers.

The letter follows a recent resolution adopted by the growers of the board of trade regarding the shipment of fruit and vegetables from Manatee county.

ONE WOMAN'S REGRETS

A man in Denver killed another man, who, he declared, had despoiled his home. The husband is now in jail awaiting trial, and the wife also is held. The wife declares that she herself is guilty of the dead man's blood; "for," she says, "I am to blame for conditions that led my husband to take the law into his own hands to revenge the honor of his home."

The wife goes on to make public confession of her going to work in an office in disregard to her husband's known wishes, and of the intimacy which grew out of the situation.

"After each meeting I would return home and begin to compare the man to my husband and always in Jimmy's favor.

"And we are in prison because I wasn't content to be a good wife to

SAYS FEW READ THE BIBLE

Writer Criticizes the Present Generation for Its Lack of Knowledge of the Scriptures.

The bookseller's story of the woman who demanded to know where in the Bible she could find the story of Dagon and Fythis is called to mind by the recently reported attempt of a professor at the university to measure the Biblical knowledge of his class in English literature. The test resulted in a rather naive display of ignorance concerning a book which has been called "the fountain head of English literature," and which, with Shakespeare, invariably heads the list of "best" books and gathers more dust than any other.

There are those who, having made acquaintance with the Bible in their own youth, and realizing its poetry, history and style, agree with Prof. Dallas Lore Sharp that we are a "Bible-starved nation." What parent reads the Bible to or with the children these days? They get fairy stories or animal fables. Even the Sunday-school lessons are given from a leaflet. The Bible has been storyized and expurgated in the so-called interests of children, and has shared the usual fate of such well-meant but unnecessary endeavors. It is not without occasion that educators are discussing the need and the methods of increasing interest in the book.

Whether we regard the Bible as a sacred book, as a saga of the Hebrews, or as a collection of stories, legends and historical fact of ancient origin, it is so thoroughly a part of our literature, which is so abundant in allusions and references to its content, that not to know their source and application is to argue one's self unread. Youth ought to be as aware of Moses the lawgiver as of Hamlet or King Lear.—Detroit Free Press.

HAD REHEARSAL OF FUNERAL

Curious Notion Held by Spanish Monarch Concerning Ceremony in Which He Would Figure.

Charles V, king of Spain and emperor of Germany in the sixteenth century, was a pious ruler. Toward the end of his life he conceived the curious idea of rehearsing his own funeral, not because he wished to have the event go off without a hitch when the time should come, but because he thought the performance of the ceremony would redound to the credit and well-being of his soul in the after-world. His friends sought to dissuade him, but, deeming it a holy act, the ruler went ahead with his preparations. A catafalque was erected and the service performed. The high altar, the catafalque, and the entire church shone with wax lights; the friars were all in their proper places and the household of the emperor attended in deep mourning. "The pious monarch himself was there, attired in sable weeds," according to the monkish historian, "and bearing a taper, to see himself interred and to celebrate his own obsequies." While the mass for the dead was sung, he came forward and gave his taper to the officiating priest as a symbol of his desire to yield up his soul. Not only once, but for many years, until he finally died in 1558, Charles V performed this strange ceremony annually.

Sheep Driven to Mountains.

Wild sheep live in small flocks in rocky, mountainous parts where food is sparse. Had they been possessed of such means of defense as the heels and the speed of the horse, or the horns and the strength of the bison they would probably have congregated on the plains where food was plentiful. As it was, their only protection from their natural enemies, the wolves, lay in their agility in the most inaccessible spots. The length of time sheep have been domesticated is as nothing compared with the preceding ages when their home was in the mountains, consequently coming under the dominion of man has utterly reversed their conditions of life. So the growth of the hoof is out of all proportion to the wear on our soft pastures, and footrot supervenes. Similarly the thick coating of wool which was absolutely necessary at the altitudes the wild sheep inhabited, has, as far as the sheep itself is concerned, become a nuisance, and rendered it a prey to ticks and maggots.

How to Enjoy Walk.

There are road walkers, trail followers, forest roamers—locality and scenery are matters of taste. The thing is to keep marching, to fill one's lungs with draughts of invigorating air, to banish care and to revel in high spirits. There should be a stop at every spring, the colder and slyer the better, and when a landscape is to be viewed, some scene that charms and inspires, it is a sacrilege if the walker does not throw himself down on the grass, or seat himself on a fallen tree, to spend a few minutes feasting his eyes on the picture. The true walker is not one who merely puts miles behind him, to vaunt his speed and endurance.—Exchange.

Origin of Languages.

Authorities believe that all languages had their origin in the dialect of one common language whose home is conjectured to have been between the Baltic and Caspian seas. The language spread with migrations in different places, and separation and race admixture increased the differences in the dialects until they became distinct languages, which in turn spread and broke up into dialects.

Students of southern agriculture see no reason why the average acre yield of corn should remain below twenty bushels when it is possible to produce much larger yields per acre. Some South Carolina boys during 1919 made yields of one hundred bushels per acre and over, and most of them around fifty bushels per acre. The same is true of Georgia, Florida, Alabama and other southern states where the results secured by the older farmers did not average this. There is no place quite as busy as Sanford.

If you do not believe it, make a trip and come back in the busy afternoon.

All we need to do is keep the business going good during the spring and summer months.

And the way to keep business good is to keep building, keep putting on sales, keep them coming to Sanford.

There should be a busy summer here and it will be busy without baseball, at that. There are many things to be accomplished.

Fighting the battles of the late war at this date are all right but it seems to be lost motion. What we are mostly concerned with at this time is fighting the battles of the present date and there are plenty of them to fight.

That fountain in Central Park should either be fixed or it should be abolished, or the small boys who stop at it should be abolished. This is one of the prettiest parks in the state but the ladies who have it in charge are in despair of keeping it in condition on account of the vandalism of certain boys.

The more one sees of court procedures the more the thought grows with thinking men that more than half of the cases that get into court could be settled easier and with less expense out of court if the people would only use some judgment, some sense and a trifle of that friendly feeling and understanding with which we are endowed but which we use so infrequently. Taking cases into court to settle means more trouble, more expense, more time lost and many times more lacerated feelings.

All of our parks should receive the attention they deserve this spring. All of them should be replanted to flowers and grass and trees and shrubs. There are quantities of poinsettias and hibiscus that can be obtained for the asking and planted in our parks. The spot in front of the union passenger station should be fixed up by the railroad company or turned over to the ladies for their ministrations. We have so many beautiful parks and such a big job on hands that it will take the combined efforts of all the ladies and all the men in the city to keep the parks as they should be kept but it will be worth the time and labor and expense when they are finally put in first class condition.

We want the tourists. Tourists want first of all a good place to stay. We have that and need more of them. Tourists want amusements of all kinds from pitching horseshoes to playing golf. We need all of them. Tourists want a club house where they can amuse themselves and be amused. We need such a building and will have one whenever the Rod and Gun Club can make arrangements. But remember that the tourist crop is the greatest crop in Florida and when you are slipping a chance to get tourists here you are losing a chance to make your city twice as large and this means tourists of all kinds. You will find the tin can tourists spending more money and wanting less at your hands than the so-called millionaires. We should strive to give the auto tourists a good place to camp and they should have it at once. Will the Auto Committee of the Chamber of Commerce and the City Manager please get together and arrange this camping place or two of them if necessary?

J.P. SAYS: Investments in stock have jumped into greater popularity among the people in moderate circumstances than anything else. Drawing dividends is no longer confined to the wealthy few. People all over the country have formed the habit of investing in stocks who a few years ago hardly knew what stocks were. The people in America are making more money investing more money and giving it more thought than ever as to how to make the best and safest investment and to improve their individual financial condition. This problem is solved by investing in the SOUTHERN UTILITIES COMPANY'S 8 PER CENT PRIOR PREFERRED STOCK. This stock can be purchased for cash or on the installment plan. There is none better.

OUR BANKS ARE SAFE

Many persons with a few hundreds or thousands of savings are looking around for opportunities for investment. There are thousands of such opportunities, but many of them are far from safe.

The daily press is full of offers of mining stocks, municipal and building bonds, and other forms of investment. Some of these are unquestionably safe and desirable, while others are far from it. The difficulty is to tell the good from the bad.

The country is making feeble and spasmodic efforts to recover from its orgy of price inflation and spending, with but indifferent success.

If a panic or a severe stringency in the money market overtakes us, as many think will be the case, these stocks and bonds may suffer serious shrinkages in value or become scraps of paper upon which the holder finds it difficult to realize.

Local citizens who are looking for investment might do well to leave their money in bank yet a little while longer, until the price of these securities comes down.

Investing at the maximum of inflation is a hazardous jump in the uncertain regions of finance.

It will leave many scars before we return to a rational standard of values.

GOOD AS GOLD

The wave of indifference and consequent immorality which has been sweeping this country has met an opposing force which is quite as powerful as its own.

Men inclined to fastness smile at the efforts of the churches to curb the growing evil. Such efforts are without avail.

But in the mothers of the country they are meeting a more determined opposition, a stone wall that is difficult to scale.

Millions of good mothers are warning their daughters against having anything to do with men who "go the pace," and it is havin' its effect.

Little by little these men are finding themselves excluded from decent society.

Others are beginning to see the handwriting on the wall and are quietly mending their ways.

There is no grandstand play on the part of these mothers. There is no publicity to feed a silly vanity. It is a sincere and determined effort to save their daughters from a fate which the moral laxity of the times invites.

And these mothers are as good as gold.

AN EARLIER "RESORT" SEASON

Florida's campaign for an earlier resort season has attracted much attention throughout the north, newspapers commenting freely on the concerted effort being made by southern resorts to coax people away from snow and ice at as early a date as possible. The Transcript editorial, which makes mention of the Jacksonville Times-Union's part in the campaign, and refers to Miami's Palm Fete, is as follows:

"The quality or weakness of the human mind which lately, in these columns, were denominated "climate cowardice," and which evidences itself in a developing disposition to take flight from the severities of our northern winter, is resulting in a new prospect for the Florida resorts. Time was not so long ago, when this timor-ousness in the face of blizzards did not appear to develop, in the northern consciousness, until about the middle of January, and the result was that the Florida hotels did not open until that date. But a change has come over them. The Jacksonville Times-Union says that this year all of the tourist hotels in Florida that were open in October have been constantly filled, while the big hotels that never opened until late in November or after Christmas are all open now, or nearly all of them, and are well filled, with applications which will run them at capacity until late in the season.

The city of Miami, which is keen to pursue any new advantage, has met this tendency by instituting a "palm fete" to be held in that city from December 7th to 11th, which will formally inaugurate the tourist season. At a date, therefore, when silence and solitude once prevailed in the Florida resorts, they will this year be humming with activity.

"The condition noted brings up anew the question whether northerners are becoming more and more uncomfortably susceptible to their own climate. It is possible that this is the case. The development of the habit of heating the interiors of houses to a high and constantly higher temperature, and the wearing of furs, may have heightened the prevailing susceptibility. It seems rather more likely, however, that the tendency is due to the advance in wealth and the general luxury. There are more people who are financially able to go to the south in the winter than ever before and they become impatient to enjoy the balmy airs of Florida, California and other delightful places of climatic refuge."

Much can be done now to reduce the possibility of insect plagues next season if a little effort is directed toward the destruction of insect shelter areas. Around the grounds and gardens, under hedges, beside ditches, and in fence corners are bunches of insect-sheltering weeds or grasses. By the time cold weather approaches many kinds of insects in the adult or immature stages have taken full advantage of these nooks and have hidden away there for the winter. The U. S. Bureau of Entomology says that if these spots are cleaned up and the refuge cut and burned, many of these hibernating insects will be destroyed and the damage from such pests during the coming season will be materially lessened.

According to the report of the U. S. Bureau of Fisheries, the present annual production of fishery products in the United States, including Alaska, is estimated to be about 2,500,000,000 pounds, valued at approximately $30,000,000 to the fishermen, an industry employing more than 200,000 persons. For the fiscal year ended June 30, 1918, value of imports of fishery products was $26,268,014, and of exports $57,017,427. Fishing is one of the great industries of Florida.

THOMAS R. BAKER, Ph. D.

Analytical and Consulting Chemist; Professor of Natural Science Emeritus
ROLLINS COLLEGE
PRIVATE LABORATORY OF ROLLINS COLLEGE
Winter Park, Fla., December 22, 1920.

Dear Mr. Lord:
From a careful Chemical Analysis of the sample of water that you brought me late last week, I have obtained the following results:
Color Clear
Reaction Neutral
Free Ammonia None
Albuminoid Ammonia None
Chlorine 9.00 parts per 1,000,000
Total solids 6.00 parts per 1,000,000
Hardness 47.38 parts per 1,000,000
Nitrates None

The entire absence of both free and albuminoid ammonia, and the very small amount of chlorine in the sample—the purity of a water depending largely upon its freedom from these ingredients—indicate the good quality of this water. It is of very superior quality.

Yours very truly,
THOS. R. BAKER.

WEATHER REPORT

For Florida: Cloudy tonight followed by rain in early morning or on Friday. Somewhat warmer in North and Central portion.

The Averow aeroplane is carrying passengers every day now and making landings on the lake front.

Local fishermen are having great sport these cool mornings catching "speckled perch" from the city docks.

John McPhatter and J. W. Miller, two of Kissimmee's prominent business men, were in the city this morning on a business mission.

Mrs. B. F. Hutchins and two attractive little children, Naomi and Winifred, spent last Saturday and Sunday with her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Walker, Sr.

H. B. Earl, of Denver, Colo., representing the Earl Sales Service, is in the city and making preparations to put on a sale for the firm of Woodruff & Watson. Watch the Herald for future announcement.

Attorney C. P. Dickinson, of the law firm of Dickinson & Dickinson, of Orlando, was in the city today attending the meeting of circuit court. Mr. Dickinson has many friends here who are always glad to see him.

Dr. Jesop says that things are moving so fast in Sanford that he was obliged to buy a car to keep up with them and yesterday bought a new Dodge. He has his trusty chauffeur with him to pilot the car through the busy lanes of commerce on the main streets of the city.

Sanford merchants are putting on sales that are bringing the people here to trade. This is the time to take advantage of the many sales and do your shopping in Sanford. The prices are lower than any other city can offer you. Read the Daily Herald and save money.

C. G. Beck and R. L. Boyd, prominent officials of the Southern Bell Telephone Co., of Jacksonville, and F. L. Thorp, manager of the Orlando Telephone station, were in the city today enroute from Orlando to Daytona. All of these gentlemen have many friends here and elsewhere in the state.

Among the many visitors to the city and one who was enticed here by the many fishing tales of Dr. Jesop is George Cochran, of Brockton, Pa., who is a great friend of the doctor and who enjoys the life in Florida equally as well as his friend. He is charmed with everything here and will spend the balance of the winter at the Valdez.

A. B. Cheney, of the Automotive Supply Co., is happy today having received several car loads of supplies that he has been waiting for this past week. WEATHER AND CROP CONDITIONS IN FLORIDA FOR THE WEEK ENDING JANUARY 11.

Temperature: The temperature averaged much above the seasonal for the period, the daily excess being as much as 5 degrees in the northeastern portion of the state.

Precipitation: The week was without rain, except in the extreme south, where it was locally heavy on one day. And there are localities in the central and southern divisions where rain would prove beneficial; the soil is in good conditions, however, except that low lands are still wet in the north and west.

Condition of Crops: General farm work made progress during the week, and plowing was more active, except portions of the north and west. Uplands are rather dry in the south and central divisions. Oats, rye, celery and truck are in fair to good condition; the week was rather too warm for lettuce. The planting of Irish potatoes continues, and some tomato plants were set out. Seed beds are being prepared for tobacco in Gadsden county. Moderate shipments of truck continue, and shipments of citrus fruits are increasing; strawberries are fair to good. Pastures are good for January. Rain is needed locally in the south and central counties.

Escambia: Many farmers in this county are protecting their corn from weevils by fumigating it with carbon disulphide in air-tight cribs.

THREATS AGAINST BLACKS IN GEORGIA CAUSING TROUBLE

CRISIS IN AGRICULTURAL INDUSTRY THREATENED—GOVERNOR TO ACT.

ATLANTA, Jan. 13.—Threats made against negroes in Hall county have resulted in hundreds of them seeking refuge in Gainesville, the county seat, and threaten an industrial and agricultural crisis in that part of the state, according to reports to Governor Dorsey by citizens of Hall county. No actual violence has been reported.

When the situation became known last night, the Governor stipulated that the names of his informants should not be made public, but they were described as some of the leading men in the county, and were declared to have said that no overt act by negroes had precipitated the threats. There was some trouble in Hall county early last year when negro lodge halls were burned, and again last fall there was a brief outbreak when warnings were posted that "No negroes will be permitted to remain north of the Chattahoochee river in Hall county."

Efforts to drive all negroes out of the county have been resumed in threats, according to the information reaching the governor and while hundreds of them have abandoned their homes, and fled into Gainesville, others are remaining under guard of white employes.

It was said two large saw mills were operating with negro labor under armed guards to protect them, and that the Gainesville and Northwestern railroad had suffered by flight of its negro laborers. Many plantation owners have armed guards to protect negro laborers, it was said. The housing and food situation among the negro refugees in Gainesville was said to be becoming serious.

Governor Dorsey said he was investigating the entire situation, but he did not publicly forecast his probable action.

The process of "getting back to normalcy" has affected all lines of business. This country is now going through a temporary season of depression that must naturally follow after a long "spree" of high prices and high living as enjoyed by all classes. What we lack most of all is a restoration of confidence. This will come, of course, when the people find themselves adjusted to the new conditions. We are only beginning to experience the reconstruction return to normal times, as has been predicted by every thinking person for the past two years.

SOCIALISM IS DIFFERENT IN DARK RUSSIA

REPRESENTATIVE OF SOCIALISM AND AMERICAN FED. OF LABOR COMES BACK TO U. S.

BERLIN, Jan. 13.—"Communism in Russia is robberism; it tolerates imprisonment, persecution and execution without trial; it has brought Russia starvation, disease and death. There is no government. It is a worse autocracy than the Czaristic government and I lived there for over twenty years under the Czar and had the experiences necessary to make comparisons."

M. Schwartz, an American Socialist of San Francisco, who was recently released from four months' imprisonment in Soviet prisons in Moscow, made this declaration today. With his wife, who lived for twenty years in America as a socialist worker under the name of Jessie M. Mollie, he went to Russia last June, and attended the second congress of the third International. The couple were thrown into prison on August 6 because they failed to express approval of conditions in Russia. They were released on December 3, after Mrs. Schwartz went on hunger strike, and sent to Lenine, Trotzky and Tchitchekin notification that she would cause to be advertised to the workers of Russia and America the hardships she had to suffer under Soviet rule in Russia, where she had thought Sovietism stood for justice. Mr. Schwartz is returning to America alone to depict his experiences.

"Before I went to Russia," said Mr. Schwartz, "I came here to Berlin and visited Mrs. Karl Liebknecht to express my sympathy with her over the death of her husband, whom she has charged Noske with murdering. Now I have come to see her again and tell her that the communist leaders in Russia have killed my wife and that I am going to America to tell the working people there the truth about the Soviet government which I formerly sympathized with thoroughly and supported on the platform from New York to San Francisco.

"I want to tell them what that second congress of the third International was. It was only Zinovieff, Bukharin, Lenine and Trotzky. It was all cut and dried. The members were told what action to take, and they did not dare do otherwise."

Before their imprisonment, Mr. Schwartz and his wife travelled thru fourteen governments. They visited Samara, Tambov, Nizhni-Novgorod, Tula, Kazan and many other important centers. Schwartz, who is a member of the American Federation of Labor, was sent to Russia by Otto Branstetter, executive secretary of the Socialist party of America, to make a thorough investigation, as he spoke the Russian language and knew the pre-war conditions.
