ON VOTING . . . Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce predicts "we'll be lucky to have 6,500 go to the polls next Tuesday. . . . Why, oh why won't people exercise their voting privilege?"

A CONVERSATION WITH CHAIRMAN J. C. HUTCHISON

Reporter: What about this hassle Tuesday at the Commission meeting?
Hutchison: You know I've been trying to be a fair chairman but, I won't back down on my stand.
Reporter: What do you mean?
Hutchison: If they would have taken me into their confidence the whole thing would have been ironed out.
Reporter: When are they going to start work on the road?
Hutchison: You'll have to ask the group handling that.

Last year the City Commission agreed to clean up vacant lots. . . . give property owners an ultimatum. . . . What happened. . . ? Another pipe dream?

The coffee and crullers contingent that give so much "trial by the arresting officer" opinions in their deliberations of the DWI case tried the other day in the county court could be just possibly be wrong.

The arresting officer still must make a case that will stand up in court if he books someone on a DWI charge. UNLESS the accused pleads guilty.

That coffee cup comment that if the person with the "fragrance" of alcoholic beverage on his breath will not agree to take a drunk-o-meter test, he is automatically given a jail sentence, just isn't so, according to the lawyers who learned their law in law college instead of under a lamp post.

If the accused pleads not guilty, say the barristers, he has the right to jury trial and the state must "prove beyond a reasonable doubt" to six jurors that he (or she) was driving while intoxicated.

If the jury says "Guilty," THEN the judge will impose the jail sentence which he has said he would when a person is guilty of DWI. A verdict of "not guilty" takes that burden off his back.

That's the reason, according to the legal minds that have passed the state bar examination, that the judge emphasized that if there were to be convictions, the State Troopers and Deputy Sheriffs would have to be sure that adequate tests were given the detained driver and that someone other than the officer could give testimony as to the results. Otherwise, the trial jurors might not go along with the charge of DWI.

Any volunteers to check out these comments — or the officers' and the judge's seriousness about getting these intoxicated drivers, who are so likely to injure or kill innocent people, off the road?

Wonder if Longwood will take any action tonight on those long studied water and dog ordinances. City council meets for the May business session at 8 p. m.

Redistricting Completed At Sanford Area Schools

Study Set On South Seminole

School officials have completed redistricting schools in the Sanford area and plan a study in the "near future" to re-establish school boundary lines in South Seminole County, Administrative Aide Walter Teague reported today.

The purpose of the redistricting in the Sanford area, according to Teague, is to equalize children after the school board agreed to up the grades at Southside School from 1-6 grades.

Previously at the Southside School, grades were 1-4.

Other schools involved in the redistricting move are Westside-Grammar, Pinecrest and Lake Mary.

The biggest majority of the students will be from Ravenna Park and they will be moved from Southside to Grammar School.

About 15 percent of the 2,600 youngsters going to the Sanford area schools will be involved in the shift.

Teague also reported that a study will start redistricting the South Seminole schools to eliminate double sessions at the Altamonte Elementary School.

At the present there are three elementary schools. With the new Bear Lake Elementary ready for occupancy by the fall, the youngsters will be reassigned to eliminate crowded conditions.

U. S. Tells Neutrals: Will Gladly Cease Tests

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States told the neutral nations today that this country "will gladly cease" nuclear testing the moment an effective test ban agreement can be reached with Russia.

But in a note to the government of Ghana, the United States said that without a Soviet agreement, this country "will not unilaterally relinquish the right to conduct defense preparations."

The note was dispatched a day after the Defense Department and Atomic Energy Commission announced that the third U. S. atmospheric weapons test had been conducted in the Pacific.

The note to Ghana urged the neutral nations to support U. S. efforts to achieve an effectively monitored test ban agreement. It was in response to a note of April 26 from Ghana appealing for an end to testing by all nations.

The U. S. reply said that this country "regrets the necessity" for its Pacific test series but that in the absence of a Soviet agreement, it must be conducted.

The note said Russia undoubtedly "derived much information of military significance" from its test series last fall.

"If the Soviet Union," it said, "were to conduct nuclear test explosions while the United States refrained, military preponderance would in time come to rest with the Soviet Union."

This, the United States said, "would be exceedingly dangerous for any government seeking to maintain its independence."

But the note said this government "will gladly cease the testing of nuclear weapons the moment an effectively monitored agreement to that effect enters into force."

Ghana is not a member of the 17-nation Geneva Conference but the note said the United States would appreciate the African government's support.

It added the United States has accepted "as one basis for further negotiations" a neutral nations test ban proposal which would involve on-the-spot inspection in Russia only with Soviet consent on a case by case basis.

Wright Case Probe Expected

Twelve citizens were summoned to appear before the Seminole County Grand Jury selected this morning to probe into the shooting and death of Virgil James Wright on April 14.

Those called to testify included Dr. W. A. Derrick, an Orlando pathologist, who was summoned to tell the jury about the physical conditions resulting from the shooting that caused Wright's death.

Following the pathologist, the second witness was Robert Shelden, manager of the local office of the Southern Bell Telephone Co., where Wright had been employed for a number of years.

Others summoned to appear before the panel were John Rotundo, Edward Hayden, Sanford City Policemen Earl Bourquardes, Robert Howell and Fred Kelley; Deputies J. Q. Galloway, V. S. Brawster; Justice of the Peace W. H. Duncan, and Marion Harman.

Earlier Assistant State's Attorney Anthony J. Hoaman had said the Wright case was among those to be investigated, but he declined to reveal what other cases were to be investigated.

The 18-man jury was selected after all were qualified and they were sworn in by County Clerk Arthur W. Beckwith Jr.

Prior to the swearing in ceremony Judge Volle Williams gave the prospective jurors a talk about the importance of the duty to which they had been summoned, and termed it "the best protection of the people against arbitrary government." He prefaced his remarks by a scholarly and comprehensive discussion of the beginnings of our concepts of government.

Out of the 50 called for duty there were only five who asked to be excused. Among them was an elderly gentleman who said he was "82 years old, and a little young for this sort of thing."

Those selected for duty were: Leopold N. Wolfe, Lawson L. Wilson, Charles Wilkie, John W. Wilson, Wade H. Singletary Jr., George D. Bishop Jr., Ed. R. Willink, Oliver R. Mathews, Knute W. Davis, Robert E. Carnes, John W. Spaulding Jr., Merrill Robinson, Burrell P. Hennessy, Stanley A. Miller, William A. Ludwig, Otto McDaniel and Stanley Kulps.

The woman was identified as Mrs. Betty Ford, 1505 Wynwood Dr. Her husband, Leg Roy Ford, was treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital for a gun shot wound.

Police said that Mrs. Ford apparently shot her husband "accidentally" in the back yard of their home.

Titov, Glenn Meet In Cordial Comradeship

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Soviet astronaut Gherman Titov and U. S. space hero John H. Glenn met today for the first time in a spirit of cordial scientific comradeship.

Their introduction took place at the National Academy of Science where Titov, Glenn and their wives shared coffee before starting on a sightseeing tour of the nation's capital.

The Red Army major and the Marine lieutenant colonel—the second and third men ever to orbit the earth were to see President Kennedy at the White House around noon. Both will address a scientific meeting in the afternoon.

The 40-year-old Glenn and his 27-year-old Russian guest seemed to hit it off well as soon as they met. They exchanged autographs and joked together about the swarms of newsmen and photographers that flocked around.

As they were leaving the academy of science building, Glenn, taller than the Russian, came to the assistance of the five-foot-four Titov who had difficulty getting through the crush of newsmen.

Although both relied on interpreters, the two space explorers conversed animatedly and frequently exchanged grins.

Folsom Counted Out In Alabama

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (UPI)—A former circuit judge who battled to the top on a white supremacy platform and a dapper young state senator apparently won the runoff posts for Alabama governor, late Democratic primary returns showed today.

However, two-time Gov. James E. (Big Jim) Folsom dramatically refused to concede the second runoff spot to State Sen. Ryan deGraffenried of Tuscaloosa.

"We are in the runoff," Folsom telephoned United Press International, "and it will be a hell of a runoff."

The six-foot, eight-inch giant who wows the branches with gular picking bands and red galleuses said figures compiled at his hometown headquarters in Cullman showed him leading deGraffenried by 719 votes.

With only 36 boxes of an estimated 3,688 still not reported, George C. Wallace had a commanding 206,303 votes. DeGraffenried had 159,301 and Folsom 157,862. Five other candidates fell by the wayside.

Folsom, who admitted it was his "toughest race" in the last days of the six-week campaign, was adamant in his refusal to concede. "I'm going to be in that runoff or else there will be a hell of a grand jury investigation."

NATO Drafts Plan On Nuclear Weapons Sharing

ATHENS (UPI)—The NATO powers have drafted a three-stage plan by which the United States and Britain will share control of their nuclear weapons strength with their European allies, it was disclosed today.

A highly-placed source said the plan will be presented for review to the full-dress meeting of the foreign and defense ministers of the 15-nation alliance underway here.

The defense ministers met first in closed session this afternoon, with the NATO ministerial conference itself to get underway Friday morning.

Reign Of Terror, Blood Bath Rages In Oran Port

ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI)—The outlawed Secret Army Organization (OAS) blew up the office of the new regional prefect in Oran and bombed a social services center in Algiers today in a continuation of its current reign of terror throughout Algeria.

Three plastic bombs exploded at 1 p. m. (8 a. m. est) on the 13th and 14th floors of the downtown building where the prefect has his office. Police said no one was hurt by the blasts, but a riot squad trooper on guard outside was wounded by a sniper firing from a nearby building.

Earlier, two plastic bombs were set off in the Place du Gouvernement building on the lower edge of the Casbah in Algiers. There was extensive damage, but no casualties.

The attacks today followed Wednesday's bloodiest day of violence in Algeria since the March 18 cease-fire signed at Evian, France.

By 3 p. m. (10 a. m. est.) the terror toll of four scattered attacks in Algiers alone was three dead and four wounded.

Meanwhile, 10 freighters that arrived in Algiers port Wednesday and today stood at docksides or rode at anchor off the port for lack of stevedores.

The stevedores in Algiers are Moslems. None of them showed up for work today following the early morning bomb explosion.

Altamonte Mayor Answers Fire Critics

Wednesday night's meeting of the Altamonte Town Council was primarily concerned with routine matters with the exception of a statement concerning the activities of the Altamonte Springs Fire Department on the afternoon of April 28.

Before the meeting was called to order Mayor Lawrence Swofford delivered himself of a brief homily on the responsibilities of the press and his relations with the press. His purpose, he said, was to set the record straight and to point out that on the afternoon in question, which was the day of the brush fire north of the town, the Altamonte Springs Fire Department had the conflagration under surveillance from noon until it was declared out.

He pointed out that the Altamonte Springs department does not service areas outside the corporate limits of the town because of the expense involved in the operation of the department.

"We feel that if those desiring fire protection aren't willing to share the $4,000 annual cost of the department by being part of the town and paying taxes, they shouldn't expect the benefits that accrue to those paying taxes," he said. "But, we want it known that members of the department were patrolling the fire area at regular intervals all afternoon, and when the fire was expected to enter the city limits and do possible damage, the fire truck was there, manned and ready."

He also mentioned the presence of a clique in the community that is harassing his administration and said the press had "knowingly or unknowingly" joined it by "printing the misleading and one-sided article." He declined to name the leaders or members of the group.

In other business the council decided to investigate the purchase of Civil Defense equipment from the Federal Government's storehouse at Camp Blanding where it can be purchased, through channels, for a

Student Candidates Wage Election Campaign

Election Day Is Slated For Today

By Dottie Higginbotham
Today is election day at Seminole High School, when the busy candidates who have been campaigning for the past two weeks for class officers and student body officers will see the results of all their efforts.

This week has built to an exciting climax with posters, banners, billboards, signs, pictures, and placards in every available spot in and around the school, loudspeakers blaring, "man and woman in the hall" interviews, songs, poems and all candidates with their smiling, charming, friendliest manners polished to a glow.

Wednesday morning the student body heard speeches from each of the candidates and from their campaign managers, who spiced their introductions with glowing praise of the candidates' qualifications, scholastic averages (they must be very high to even qualify to run), previous experience and ability, as well as capabilities and talents. Candidates themselves promised to work for the student body, to promote school spirit, unity, cooperation and better communication.

One candidate even promised better student-teacher relationships.

All said that they would do their best, would provide good, strong leadership, would work for the good of the school and school activities.

All the speakers emphasized strongly the democratic principles on which the government of this country is based, and showed a good understanding of the principles and of the responsibilities involved in accepting the duties of a "public office."

A list of candidates are as follows:
STUDENT BODY PRESIDENT — Stanley Holcrauw and J. B. (Johnny) Phillips
Student Body Vice President — Steve Sewell, and Jerry Whitmore

Student Body Secretary — Rhoda Epstein and Linda Mills
Student Body Treasurer — Elizabeth Brandt and Louise Higginbotham
Student Body Class Reps. — Judi Taylor and Richard Mayer

Senior Class Vice President — Marty Wheeler, Linda Williams and Steve Wilson
Senior Class Secretary — Susan McCall (unopposed)
Senior Class Treasurer — Pat Kuhn (unopposed)
Senior Class Chaplain — Marrisanna Humphreys (unopposed)

JUNIOR CLASS PRESIDENT — Barbara Bolger and Carol Oxford
Junior Class Vice President — Susie Halback and Ann Mahan
Junior Class Secretary — Donna Baird, Mary Scott and Jill West
Junior Class Treasurer — Maureen Firestone and Carol Samuels
Junior Class Chaplain — Sherry Spinell (unopposed)

Adult Swim Class May Be Dropped

Only three people have shown up for the adult beginners swim class, being held at Municipal Pool from 11 a.m. to noon, which began this week and runs Monday, Wednesday and Friday for three weeks. Mrs. Martha Kilpatrick, Red Cross instructor, announced today.

"This is not enough interest to warrant holding the class," Mrs. Kilpatrick said, "and unless we have a lot more people come down Friday to join up, we will have to discontinue the class."

Mrs. Kilpatrick added that if additional members joined the class Friday to make up a group of at least 12, she would run the class straight through beginning next Monday, May 7.

"There are plenty of adults in Sanford who need to learn to swim—swim for their life," Mrs. Kilpatrick said, "and they will not be embarrassed by having any young people in the class."

But Friday noon is the deadline.

Dr. Parker To Represent Area At Meet

Dr. Vann Parker of Sanford will officially represent the Seminole County Medical Society at the 88th annual meeting of the Florida Medical Association being held here May 10-13.

He was elected a delegate to the state association by the local medical group. As a member of the House of Delegates, Dr. Parker will help decide—along with delegates of the other 39 county medical societies—the state organization's policies.

Nuclear Bomb Test Blast Not Expected To Do Harm

WASHINGTON (UPI) — It is at least possible that an H-bomb this country plans to fire high over Johnston Island in June or July will inflict a grievous wound on the bottom side of the thick radiation zone around the earth.

But foreign scientists who have been lamenting the passing of the so-called Inner Van Allen Belt may have mourned prematurely. They may take comfort from the fact that some leading U. S. authorities on space radiation believe the belt will survive and recuperate in plenty of time for further satellite study in the near future.

The radiation zone is a region extending out to some 40,000 miles in which charged particles from space have been trapped by the earth's magnetic field. It is named for Dr. James A. Van Allen of the State University of Iowa whose satellite-borne experiments discovered it.

The bottom part of the zone is populated largely by high energy protons, subnuclear particles which could do in astronauts who lingered too long among them without massive shielding. This belt is 2,000 to 4,000 miles long, north to south. At its ends it dips to 400 miles above the earth and rises to about 2,000 miles over the equator.

The United States plans three high altitude nuclear detonations over Johnston Island in the first two months of summer. The highest will be a device equal in energy to several hundred thousand tons of TNT. Carried aloft by a Thor missile, it will explode at an altitude of about 500 miles.

This will wreak havoc on the high-arching lines of force in the geomagnetic field which act as magnets for the positively charged protons in the bottom part of the radiation zone.

One of the results will be a grand distortion of the electric regions of the thin upper atmosphere which mirror radio signals and make long distance communication possible. A blackout of radio and radar signals, lasting hours and perhaps days, is expected to ensue.

Another will be auroral displays of heavenly fireworks visible for perhaps thousands of miles. These displays will occur because energetic particles, normally held in thrall by the earth's field, will be dumped into the atmosphere when their magnetic restraints are momentarily broken.

The Van Allen zone generally is considered the most interesting scientific discovery to date in space exploration. Scientists still have a lot to learn about it. They are still divided as to the mechanics of its origin.

This is why some foreign scientists have deplored any tampering with it by man. They want it preserved intact until its mysteries are solved.

On one thing everybody seems agreed: The sudden dumping of protons would not hurt anybody; the atmosphere itself is a fine shield against charged particles. Nor is there any reason to suppose a clearing out of particles at the bottom of the zone would have even an indirect effect on life at the surface of the earth.

It is a fact realized only by some scientists that the total weight of all the particles in the entire radiation zone is only about one pound. Halted in their flight along the magnetic lines of force and collected, they would make a pile of matter you could easily hold in one hand.

Scientist Says

"Machines Will Never Replace Women"

Speaking on the effects of rapid strides in automation and the creation of complex machines to do the work of dozens of people, Martin Engineer Bernard Raboy, told DCT students and their guests at a banquet Tuesday about a new device which will be perfected in the late 1960's or 1970's which is an audio-recording device. This will be a machine which can be spoken into and the printed word will come out.

Raboy noted that this was designed to replace secretaries, "but they'll have to put it in a mighty attractive package!" He said he doubted that any machine could ever be invented that would replace girls. "I think the scientists will be outsmarting themselves!" he said. This comment drew laughter and applause from the audience.

In answer to the question of the virtues and evils of automation Raboy cast a ray of hope for the human race with the observation of the approximate costs of building a machine to simulate a human brain.

Raboy told DCT students and their employers that such a machine would take a place as big as the state of Florida to house it and all the power of Niagara Falls to run it and would cost $200 billion to build (or half the gross national product).

Raboy, in his speech to the group on the effects of automation used this as an extreme example of the fast advancing age of work done so much better and faster by machines that thousands of jobs and workers are being eliminated every year by the advances of science.

"But machines will never get smarter than men," Raboy said, "we will increase our skills, using our ambition, talent and training to continually advance our capabilities."

Raboy demonstrated a small piece of equipment that was no bigger than the palm of his hand, which he said would, (in a few years) replace all of the complex tubes, wires, resistors, capacitors and equipment now used in television and radio sets. He pointed out that by the creation of such a tiny unit, the job of production workers, storage workers and procurement personnel will be eliminated, necessitating that these people be retrained to raise their skills in technical fields.

DCT Honors

Diversified Cooperative Training students Miss Carolyn Rice, Bill McQuatters, and Miss Mary Nelle King received the three top awards at the Sixth Annual DCT Employee-Employers Banquet held at SHS Tuesday.

McQuatters, president of the DCT Club served as master of ceremonies for the program which began with an opening prayer by James G. Brooks, Sr., a welcome by Larry Outlaw, vice president, response by the Honorable Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and introduction of guests at the head table, employees, employers and their guests.

This was followed with a dinner of roast turkey and dressing, green beans, glazed sweet potatoes, tossed salad and apple pie ala mode, prepared by the SHS lunchroom personnel.

The group then enjoyed entertainment furnished by Miss Jeri Wheatland, who sang two songs, the Ivy Three boys trio who sang several numbers and Stanley Vilhen who played several piano selections.

Following the speech on the effects of new advances in automation of Bernard Raboy, awards were presented. Honor awards went to Miss King, Miss Rice and McQuatters and awards of appreciation to the following employees or their representatives: Faust's Pharmacy, Winn Dixie, Florida State Bank, SHS Library, Dearborn Electronics, Florida Power and Light, Randall Electric Co.,

Girl Scouts Hold Camp At Lake Howell

By Jane Casselberry

Girl Scout Troop 442 of Casselberry camped out in tents last Thursday night in the yard of Mr. and Mrs. Ronald Heaven on Lake Howell to earn their backyard campers badges.

Before retiring that night, the young campers much to the surprise and delight of the young campers, they were treated to a serenade by Gasti, well-known Jai-Alai player who sang two songs in Spanish and one in Italian.

Before going home a one dish meal was cooked over a camp fire for supper and breakfast the following morning was prepared on buddy burners. Before leaving for home, the scouts and their hosts were invited by the hosts for a dip in their swimming pool.

Leader of the Troop 442 is Mrs. Tom Leonard and assistant leader is Mrs. Lewis Cote.

The vast contribution the South is making to the nation's economy is being marked this week by "Dixie Products Days," honoring growers and processors and featuring meals, staples and produce de-fresh from Dixie.

The 560-Winn-Dixie supermarkets located in this area and throughout the South are observing the event from April 30-May 6. Special decorations pointing up the importance of Southern agriculture are brightening each store.

Recordings In Court Show Big Gain

For the statistically minded a visit to the office of County Clerk Arthur H. Beckwith Jr., can be a rewarding experience.

A summary showing the number of instruments recorded, the amount of delinquent taxes collected and the work load of the circuit court terms of filing fees and cases filed, for the first four months of 1958, 1961 and 1962 presents a pattern of growth that indicates a glittering future for Seminole County.

In the matter of collecting delinquent taxes, Beckwith shows a growth of 1637.57 percent, with $1,009.85 being collected in the first four months of 1958, $14,284.75 in 1961 and $17,548.87 for the first four months of the three years cited.

The growth of business in the County Clerk's office for the number of instruments recorded shows an increase of 31.9 per cent, or 4,436 for January, February, March and April in 1958 to 6,741 for the same months of this year.

The work load of the Circuit Court showed an increase for the three cited years of 207.1 per cent, from 117 cases five years ago to 317 in the current year.

Beckwith has one big worry, even though business is fine. Says he, "What are we going to do when the Nova project blossoms in the next twelve months, with room for only nine employees now, and that number on the staff."

He pointed out that the growth prospect for the county as projected from his figures indicates a phenomenal increase in the county population and business transactions.

The county clerk pointed out that the county is either crossed or within easy reach of five of the state's most heavily traveled roads, and is within the predicted 30 mile area for the Cape Canaveral expansion due within the next 10 years.

Salute To The Law

(The following editorial is dedicated to Mack Cleveland Jr., Gordon Frederick, Bill Hutchison, Joe Muraako, Wallace Albritton, Carroll Burke, S. J. Davis Jr., Albert Fitts, Karlisle Housholder, Harold Johnson, Kenneth Leffler, Phil Logan, Kenneth McIntosh, Ambrose Olliff, Edwin Shinholser, Ken Spaulding, G. Andrew Speer, George A. Speer Jr., Douglas Stenstrom, R. W. Ware, Fred Wilson.)

Former American Bar Assn. president Charles Rhyne had a very good idea when he decided Law Day should be observed on May 1, the day the Communists around the world traditionally celebrate—in effect—their lawlessness.

As we pass the fifth annual Law Day milestone, it has to be acknowledged, however, that Rhyne's Committee on World Peace Through Law has a long way to go to achieve any solid semblance of legal order in this disturbed world.

Indeed, it is fair to say that even within our own national borders, law today does not have the force nor the respect that it should.

Delays and other inadequacies in the nation's court system play a considerable role in this deterioration. But it is also a fact that many people regard the law not as their protection but as an interference with their freedom to do as they please. This it is, of course, but for the common good.

There may be the value of a badly needed reminder, therefore, in the 100,000 Law Day programs sponsored this year by more than 1,200 separate committees in all parts of the country.

These programs, held in school-rooms, courthouses, churches and halls, wisely stress in 1962 that the rule of law—whether it affects where you park your car or the most powerful actions of great nations in the international sphere—is not just the protector but the very source of human freedom.

To be "released" from the governing of law is to be released into chaos—which is not freedom.

Rhyne, whose permanent passion is spreading the rule of law, continues optimistic in the pursuit of his goal. He believes "peace through law" conferences held in Costa Rica, Japan, Nigeria and Italy have aroused deep interest in the law's potential for peace.

The big trouble, say the advocates of world peace through law, is that up to now very little exists that can properly be called a "body of international law." The law of the sea, the postal convention governing the mails about sums up what we have.

Some people argue we have "too much world government" already. Rhyne and his supporters say flatly there isn't any, and that we'll all—everywhere in the world—be better off when there is.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON—(NEA)—Political changes in even the most remote parts of the world now have a direct impact on the U. S., although there may be little direct American contact.

This point has just been brought home by the new military government in Burma under Gen. Ne Win. He has just kicked out Ford Foundation, Fulbright scholarships and other Western influences to follow a policy of stricter neutrality and nationalism. The idea seems to be that henceforth Burma will deal with the outside world on a government-to-government basis.

This is of particular interest in the United States now because a Department of Commerce-organized trade mission of American businessmen was in Burma when Gen. Ne Win ousted Premier U Nu's civilian government in March.

The political instability made obvious the risks of trying to do more business with Burma. But since Ne Win had been head of the Burmese Economic Development Corp. under U Nu, assurances were given the Americans that the new government was interested in growth and stability.

The U. S. trade mission therefore came home feeling that this country, which last year had only $8 million of Burma's $230 million foreign trade, could increase the volume to $100 million. But all that hope is now on dubious ground.

This U. S. trade mission to Burma is the 100th such group that has been sent abroad in the last three years to drum up foreign trade prospects under the auspices of Commerce Department's Bureau of International Business Operations. Operation of the Burma mis-ion is typical of the 99 others that have gone before it, so it can be taken as an example of a little-known but valuable government service.

The mission spent six weeks in Burma, visiting Rangoon twice, Mandalay, Moulmein, Myitkyina and Taunggyi—of both Kipling and China-Burma-India theater war fame.

Commercial attaches of the U. S. Embassy in Burma beat the drums in advance with brochures on the mission, invitations to native businessmen to visit with its members and a list of 324 specific trade opportunities they could discuss.

The whole emphasis was on developing business prospects. No effort was made to sign contracts or close deals. That is left to interested parties after contacts are made.

Reason for this procedure is that the businessmen sent on each mission have gone as representatives of all American industry and not of just their own companies. It has been felt that this was as far as the government could go in spending the taxpayers' money without playing favorites.

Members got no pay, only travel expenses and $13 a day subsistence.

Head of the Burma mission was Bradley Murray, who took the first trade mission to Nigeria in 1959 and has since headed missions to Chile, Afghanistan, Rhodesia, Nyasaland.

Others on the Burma mission were Bjorne Andersen of Celanese Corp., New York; H. McKinley Conway Jr., Atlanta publishers of industrial guides; Ray Hemenway, Albert Lea, Minn., concrete and building products manufacturer; Eugene M. Lang, New York specialist on international licensing; John E. Melendorf, machine tool builder and former mayor of Muskegon, Mich.; Everett F. Zarris, Erie Pa., industrial equipment manufacturer.

One of every 12 Americans is a farm resident today.

In the U. S., approximately 400 persons are killed annually by lightning and another estimated 1,000 persons are injured.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Jane is the type of woman who does not deserve honor on Mother's Day. She has become so selfish that she violates all the rules of proper wifely behavior and flaunts her unfaithfulness even in the sight of her youngsters. Contrast her with the follow-up tomorrow.

CASE M-410: Jane J., aged 34, is the mother of three children.

Ike Looks On As Library Named

ABILENE, Kan. (UPI)—Former President Eisenhower looked on Tuesday while his old hometown dedicated a new $3,000,000 presidential library in his name.

Eisenhower heard Kansas Gov. John Anderson formally transfer the recently completed native stone structure to the federal government.

The dedication ceremonies at the library were preceded by a triumphant ride through Abilene by Eisenhower. Flags and bunting were draped everywhere, and the town closed so businessmen and school children could see the festivities.

"Dr. Crane," her brother protested, "Jane is the very opposite of everything a mother should be.

"She gets drunk. And then flaunts her unfaithfulness even before her own children.

"For she will actually entertain her playboy lovers right there in her own home. Her children range from 7 to 12, so they are aware of her misconduct.

"Her husband is a minor executive in a factory, but she bosses him around and he takes it, probably because he is devoted to the kids.

"Jane got elected president of a statewide organization where she was called upon to preside in formal clothes and be somewhat of a spotlighted actress.

"It must have gone to her head, for she now acts as if she is intoxicated with the desire for headlines.

"Dr. Crane, can women get drunk on the limelight and thus go berserk?"

Yes, for all the dope addicts are not opium eaters.

Many women develop an intense craving for the spotlight. This may start with their winning a high school beauty contest.

From then onward they think they will rate the big-time in Hollywood, so they primp and affect stage behavior.

Meanwhile, they keep complete scrapbooks of every printed story or picture in which they participate.

This craving for publicity can become a mania. They may properly be regarded as just as much an addict as chained to his drug injections.

Many of these women may stay single, for they become so jealous of their own figures that they will not marry, or if they do, they refuse to alter their figures for pregnancy.

Many of them will consent to affairs if by so doing they think they can lift themselves a notch higher in the social and stage limelight.

In their wrinkled old age, they even wish their skirts and still try to be cutesy. Like Jezebel, they paint their faces and lips even into the grand-mother age brackets as a bid for attention.

And they hoard all their press clippings, maybe dating back for 50 years. They read these as a tonic for a withered, selfish soul.

Mothers' Day was established to laud the GOOD mothers, but we psychologists and Marriage Counselors realize all too well that there are actually thousands of BAD mothers!

Jane is obviously so interested in her own selfish desires that she ignores the proper role of a good mother.

For good mothers will actually lay down their own lives for the betterment of their children.

They skimp and save to give the children an education. They try to teach them religious idealism and unselfishness.

They do not smoke or drink or flaunt unfaithfulness before those youngsters. They even efface themselves to give their youngsters the spotlight.

And in old age, they are still frugally thinking of their children, so they may hoard their limited funds so they can leave a bigger inheritance to their children. (More tomorrow.)

New House Bill May Raise Wages

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A House labor subcommittee Tuesday was expected to approve a bill that would raise the wages of thousands of working women.

The bill would require that women be paid the same as men if they perform the same work for companies doing business across state lines.

The legislation is backed by the administration, labor unions and other organizations. There was no testimony against it during subcommittee hearings.

Rhode Island has eight incorporated places and Illinois 1,247, according to the 1960 census.

The flower bulb industry of Holland employs 25,000 of the country's 11 million inhabitants.

Lake Monroe Jottings

Mrs. H. L. Johnson Well, it's that time again. Since last Thursday, what has happened. A little bit of rain has fallen. And have we enjoyed it too? Sort of got a little warm at times also. Have you got the spring cleaning fever yet or are you some of the smarter ones, already done? The O.E. Hunters spent last week in Jacksonville visiting Theo Johns and family and Pete Douglas and family. Glad to hear that Rena (Mrs. Brown) Swaggerly decided to return home with son Herman and his wife Barbara and their sons. They are residing in Charleston, S. C., where Herman is with the Atlantic Coast Line. Brown and the boys will hold down the fort here while she is gone. Gladys and John Barfield and daughter Dale of Tampa spent Easter with Gladys' parents, the J. C. Sappe. There were only 11 for dinner that day. Naomi must have certainly had something real good. Monroe lost another resident last week in the passing of Mrs. Dunn who resided on Upasala Road. Our sympathy goes out to her family. All members of the Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club please note that tonight is an important night as new officers for the coming year will be nominated. The meeting will start at 7:30 p. m. and will be held in White Hall of the Upsala Presbyterian Church. Sure hope you are planning to attend and other interested ladies are most certainly welcome to come and join the group. The Perry Wheatlands had company last weekend from Santa Ana, Calif. Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Scovell said this was their first visit here and from what I have heard it won't take much to put that Florida sand in their shoes. They are very much interested in coming back here to reside. That's the way we like to hear them talk. Well, Linda Hittel, Jean Stripling, Kathy Pettit, Pat Szabo, Cecil Wheatland, Charles Rabun, Terry Collins and Gene Bullard "natcheraly" helped the Seminole High School Glee Club come back Saturday from Daytona with all those big superiors. In fact five of them and one excellent. Who would want any better? I enjoyed it immensely. And I am just as Fourth Flight was taken by Doc Smith when he defeated H. R. Lary. In the Consolation Round of the Championship Flight, Don Conklin defeated Charles Daugherty. First Flight Consolation Round went to Al Vickers, who downed Rlph Brewer Jr.

Champs Tourney Gets Underway

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (UPI)—The first round of the $50,000 Tournament of Champions, golf's most exclusive event, gets under way today with the one and only Arnold Palmer listed as the favorite—a normal procedure in golfing circles these days.

But defending champion Sam Snead has been so spectacular in practice rounds that the odds on him dropped to 5-1, which placed him in the same category with three-time former champion Gene Littler, Doug Sanders and Billy Casper.

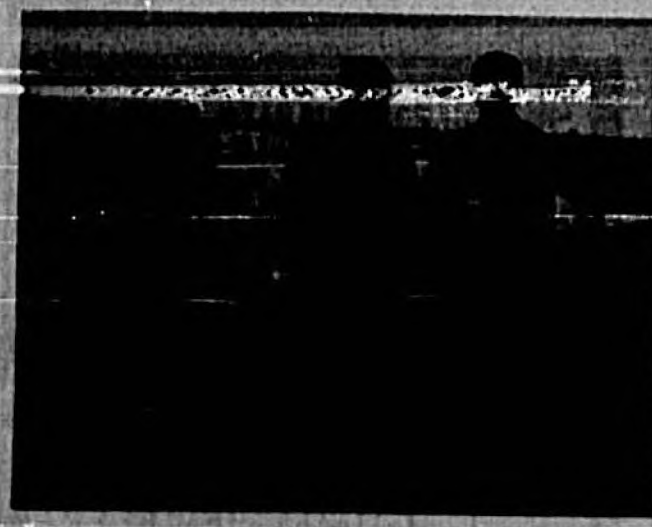

Palmer is listed at 5-1 in this gambling capital where they even post odds on whether tourists will make it across the street on "The Strip."

Snead had practice rounds of 66 and 69 without a bogey. Then Wednesday he wound up his warm-ups by shooting another 69 for the Amos Alonzo Stagg Foundation. In this one, however, he had five birdies and a pair of bogies.

Stock Races

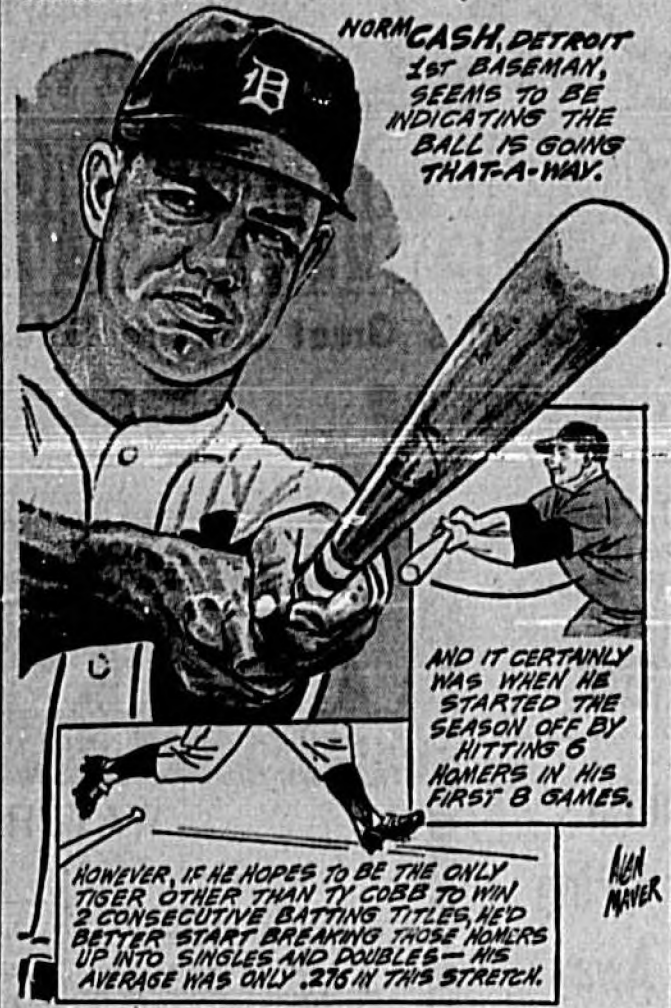

A stock and gas class automobile meet was held at Osceola Air Strip last Sunday. The meet was sponsored by the local Seminole Timing Association Inc.

The meet was attended by over 1,000 spectators and 100 competing cars. Top prize money given away was $300 to the fastest STOCK car entered.

TOM FINE of Orlando, owner and Wayne Truck, of Lake Wales, driver of the 1962 Chevrolet 400 h. p. Super Stock auto that won the $300.00 prize money. This car turned better than 100 m. p. h. in the 1/4 mile.

Derby Shapes Up As 'Tough' Race

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI)—The 88th running of the $125,000 added Kentucky Derby Saturday shapes up as a tough horse race and yet 18 horses were expected to be named for it today before the entry box closes.

"There are four or five of them that can beat my horse," trainer after trainer said with the exception of Casey Hayes, who handles favored Sir Gaylord, and LeRoy Jolley, conditioner of second-choice Ridan. They were confident but cautious.

Hayes, who has had two previous starters finish second and third, warned, "You still have to get the breaks." Jolley echoed these sentiments.

Behind Sir Gaylord, owned by the Meadow Stable of Christopher T. Cheney and Mrs. Moody Jolley's Ridan, were five dangerous contenders—Townsend B. Martin's Sunrise County, Fred W. Turner's Sir Ribot, Verne Winchell's Donut King, and Fred W. Hooper's Admiral's Voyage. Next in ranking were Robert Lehman's Prego, El Pecco Stable's Decidedly, Crimson King Farm's Crimson Satan, and T. Alle Grisom's Roman Line.

Then came the outsiders—Neil S. McCarthy's Royal Attack, Reverie Knoll Farm's Sharp Count, Golden Triangle Stable's Mister Pitt, F. & B.

Who Says Lightning Doesn't Strike Twice?

United Press International
The fellow who said lightning doesn't strike twice in the same place never heard of the San Francisco Giants and New York Yankees.

With the Giants and Yankees it seems that home run lightning strikes day after day . . . sometimes early . . . but more often in the late innings. Both lineups are loaded with whip-lash-bat-swinging sluggers and there's just no telling when or where the big will come.

The National and American league front runners did it again Wednesday to run their winning streaks to eight and seven games, respectively. The Giants now lead the NL by 1 1/2 games while the Yankees have opened up an early 2 1/2-length margin.

Willie Mays rocketed his eighth homer of the season halfway up the left field seats at Candlestick Park in the sixth inning to give the Giants a 3-2 triumph over the Pittsburgh Pirates. The winning streak is the longest the Giants have achieved since they transferred from New York to San Francisco in 1958.

Chicago White Sox rookie Joe Horlen had the Yankees beaten, 3-2, entering the ninth inning but suddenly found himself a 4-3 loser after throwing only two pitches. Yogi Berra hit the first one for a double and Elston Howard hit the next one for a game-winning two-run homer.

What makes the Giants and Yankees look even stronger is the powerful pitching each has been getting from a so-called question mark staff.

Juan Marichal struck out seven and pitched a seven-hitter to win his fourth game for the Giants. He was the sixth consecutive Giant pitcher to go the distance and he tagged the Pirates with their seventh loss in 10 games.

When Pirate pitcher Earl Francis departed in the eighth, it marked the 22nd straight time the Giants kayped their rivals' starting pitcher.

Ralph Terry was tagged for three White Sox runs in six innings but then Jim Coates took over to throttle the Sox on his hit during the last three innings. Bobby Richardson ran his hitting streak to 17 straight games for the Yankees and Al Smith had three of the White Sox' four hits.

The St. Louis Cardinals scored a 4-1 victory over the Houston Colts and the Chicago Cubs beat the Los Angeles Dodgers, 3-1, in other NL games. The Kansas City Athletics outslugged the Detroit Tigers; 12-5, and the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Minnesota Twins, 6-5, in the other AL action. Four major league games were rained out.

Former Harlem Globetrotter Bob Gibson struck out nine and walked only one in beating the Colts for the second straight time. Bill White homered and Julio Gotay had three hits to lead the nine-hit Cardinal attack that dealt Ken Johnson, who fanned 10, his fourth loss in a row. Jim Pendleton homered for Houston.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I am a freshman in college and, believe it or not, I have never kissed a girl. I mean really KISSED her. I have given girls little innocent pecks on the cheek, but that doesn't count. This may sound nuts but I have dated plenty of girls and, while everyone else is making out, we sit and talk. I spoke to a buddy of mine and he said, "Don't ASK a girl if you can kiss her. Just grab her and kiss her!" I would die of embarrassment if she pushed me away. Does a guy just grab a girl or does he ask first? SHY GUY

DEAR SHY: A kiss should be more of a spontaneous act than a planned campaign. If you have to ASK a girl for permission, the whole thing would probably be a big let-down. Wait until you get the "message."

DEAR ABBY: My brother and his wife were married for three years. They were divorced and stayed apart for almost a year. Then they were remarried to each other. If they had not been divorced, they would be celebrating their 25th wedding anniversary this June. Would it be proper to entertain at an open house for their "25th anniversary" anyway, and ignore the time they were apart? Incidentally, a daughter was born to them before their divorce. MIDWEST

DEAR MIDWEST: Be generous and ignore the divorce.

DEAR ABBY: My daughter was married two years ago, but it wasn't much of a wedding. She eloped with a schoolboy sweetheart. It lasted only a year and now she is getting married again.

We want to give her a large church wedding with a white gown and veil, but our friends say that we can't do it because of that first marriage she had. In view of the fact that she never had a "real" wedding, don't you think we should go ahead with our plans? HER MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Although your daughter never had a large church wedding, she did have a "real" marriage ceremony. Forgo the veil and gown for a simple wedding.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Alone and in love" that if she is the woman who is in love with my husband, she'd better get used to being "alone" because there is not going to be a divorce in THIS family! AWARE WIFE

For a personal (unpublished) reply to your problem, send Abby a self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

When East looks over dummy before playing on the first trick he should plan his play in such a manner that he will be able to avoid the diamond finesse. A combination strip and end play is indicated here and East should start proceedings by ducking the first spade. He won't care if North trumps the spade continuation, but he wants to guard against any chance that South will have overcalled on a four card suit. South will continue spades and North will discard. If he ruffs he just wastes his own trump trick.

Now East takes the ace of spades, cashes one high heart, leads a club to dummy's ace, cashes the other high heart and the king of clubs on which he is careful to discard one of dummy's spades, ruffs his last club in dummy and leads a spade. It won't do North any good to trump this lead. He will be back in the lead, but will be faced by a Hobson's choice. A club or spade lead will allow East to ruff in dummy and discard his three of diamonds while a diamond lead will be won by dummy's queen.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

A United States congressman suggested that maybe the Navy ought to establish an academy to prepare young brides for a service career after the Navy proposed rating the social qualifications of the wives of Navy officers. The Navy abandoned the idea. Well, let's string along with the congressman's tongue-in-cheek suggestion. What would the academy of charm teach young wives?

If you're never going to put your foot in your mouth socially, you've got to learn the art of small talk—or to be more blunt, the art of saying nothing vivaciously. Then, of course, there ought to be a course in "entertaining economically," based on the idea that you can go further socially by entertaining often—even though skimpily, as at big, crowded, noisy cocktail parties than by "squandering" your time and money on cozy, comfortable evenings entertaining close friends. The academy would have to offer a course on "looking like a million on considerably less," too, for no young wife is going to get a high social rating if she hasn't the knack of copying the Jackie look—or whatever look happens to be fashionable—on a limited clothes allowance. A course in "status symbols" ought to be in order, also. For it's a grave error for any woman courting social acceptance not to know how to budget the family income in order to get as much status mileage as possible out of it. Of course, wives would have to be given refresher courses this subject from time to time since status symbols keep changing. What's "in" this year may be "out" next.

THE DOCTOR TAKES A WIFE

The long-awaited wedding of Nurse Martha Hale (Abby Dalton) and Hennessy (Jackie Cooper) takes place on the Monday, May 7, episode of CBS-TV's Hennessy series.

Channel Swim

Joey Bishop, who himself was not happy on his show as a flunky-type publicity man, Wednesday night finally portrayed on his NBC-TV program what he's best at—being a comedian. That's what the show will offer him as next fall. Yet, though Joey was closer to playing himself, it seems his writers are missing one crucial point about him.

That point—obvious to anyone who has seen him on the Jack Paar Show or holding court at P.J.'s Club in Hollywood—is that beneath his warmth is a take-charge attitude with a latent threat of devastating humor. In short, he has backbone; and even though comedians like Charlie Chaplin and Jerry Lewis played paties, they always carried the threat of fracturing their opponents. So should Joey. People like backbone.

The Channel Swim: Zsa Zsa Gabor's scheduled slot as hostess of NBC-TV's "Tonight" show next week will be taken over by present emcee Merv Griffin; NBC says Zsa Zsa is tied up with personal affairs.

Bing Crosby Productions, boss of ABC-TV's "Ben Casey" is reported to have withdrawn its big salary raise offer to star Vincent Edwards after he demanded more; tentative plans call for him to get a normal contractual wage hike. He wants $7,500 a week, gets $1,750 now.

Steve Allen was asked to take over NBC-TV's "Today" show from exiting John Chancellor but refused to move to New York... High Downs may wind up as "Today's" host after he helps Johnny Carson get "Tonight" rolling in the fall... Ralph

Highlights TV Time Previews

7:30-8 p. m. ABC. Adventures of Oxie and Harriett. "The Fraternity Rents Out A Room." A repeat telecast, but better than many of tonight's "original" episodes. Guest star Wally Cox plays Professor Patterson, who incades the "sanctum sanctorum" of Rick's fraternity, throwing a major monkey wrench into the plans of Rick and Wally, Oxie, Harriett, Ricky and David Nelson star with Skip Young as Wally.

8-8:30 p. m. ABC. The Donna Reed Show. "Donna Meets Roberta." Night-club singer Roberta Sherwood and her brood of male offspring get a big play in this one. That's because it's a pilot for a series to star Roberta and her brood and it makes a fairly diverting half-hour. Roberta has her home up for sale, not knowing a planned freeway will double its value. The Stones (Donna Reed and Carl Betz) know this and are tempted to buy the house and make a profit, but you know they haven't the heart to carry out such a scheme.

8-9 p. m. CBS. Frontier Circus. "The Race." Here's another oater series injecting comic opera military characters into the script. There's an overbearing Duke (Edward Andrews) and his equally unbearable aide (Skip Homeier) heading an entourage of Europe military officers. They make things sticky for our circus heroes. Prime objective of the Duke is to hire Tony (Richard Jaeckel) away from the circus by fair means or foul. There's a pretty exciting horse race, but not much else.

8:30-9:30 p. m. NBC. Dr. Kildare. "Something of Importance." Personal stakes seem to influence rival teams of researchers striving to find a cure for a fatal blood disease. Kildare joins forces with Dr. Hodiak, who has spent his lifetime researching the cure and fears the rival team will find out, using his early discoveries. It's Dr. Gillespie who provides the solutions to motive and cure. Richard Chamberlain and Raymond Massey star with George Voskovec, Ivan Dixon and Jack Donner.

By the IVY CIRCLE

Each spring, azaleas burst into bloom and we all enjoy their beauty. They vary in color from white through pink, lavender, orange, salmon and red. They are effectively used in single color groups or planted for color sequence.

A rich but well drained soil of high organic content, acid in reaction, is essential as well as broken shade for most light sandy soils. They should be watered a great deal during the blooming period and while they are putting on new growth.

They may be moved easily before or during the flowering period. If the soil is not naturally supplied with organic matter, acid peat, peat, compost or leaf mold should be mixed with the soil before planting. It is also necessary to plant them the same depth from which they were moved. Pack the soil around the plants and water well.

Azalea blight is a disease that may be severe some years and non-existent others. When affected, the flowers do not have a normal bloom and look as if they had been soaked in boiling water.

This may be controlled by spraying with dithane and zinc sulphate. To have healthy plants, it is necessary to fertilize them regularly. Use an acid forming fertilizer such as 6-6-6 or 8-8-8. Apply this in three applications at the rate of a double handful to a good sized plant. Make the first application in February and March, the second in May or June and the last in July or August.

Pruning except to keep the plants shapely is not necessary. If you do prune, do it as soon as the flowering is over and before the new growth emerges. Pinching back half hardened growth will provide heavier flowering.

VERY GOOD REASON
Do you know that your hair picks up more dirt from the air in an hour than the rest of your body does in a day? What better reason to shampoo twice a week?

Memorial Day Observed

By UDC Members

Southern Memorial Day was observed by members of the Norman de Vere Howard Chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy on April 28.

The meeting was to honor the memory of the Southern Confederate soldiers.

The group met at the home of Mrs. Edmund Meisch and Mrs. M. R. Strickland, chapter president, opened the meeting with the ritual flag salute to both the American and Confederate flags.

Mrs. Lois Taylor gave the invocation and Mrs. S. J. Nix made an interesting talk on "the origin and history of observing Southern Memorial Day." Mrs. F. E. Roumillat sang "Tenting Tonight."

Mrs. W. B. Kirby read the roll call of the Confederate dead veterans of Seminole County and reported that Confederate flags had been placed at the grave of each soldier.

Following the memorial service a short business session was held and nominations for officers for the coming year presented. Refreshments were served to 25 members and a guest, Mrs. Bonnie Nix, of Commerce, Ga.

The Tomato Is Important Vegetable

The tomato is a Johnny-come-lately in the vegetable basket. A scant hundred years ago, people were asking, "What's that?" Today it's our second-most-important vegetable in dollar volume.

In the U.S.A. we use more than two billion pounds of fresh tomatoes every year. They are available at all times and there are literally hundreds of dishes which taste better for the tangy goodness of sliced or diced ripe tomatoes.

From test kitchens come recipes for casserole dishes, each topped in most savory fashion with thick juicy slices of tomato. Over the tomato slices space a few butter dabs. Or scatter the tomato topping with grated cheese, chopped chives, finely minced onion, bread crumbs herbed with basil or marjoram. Finely minced parsley, chives or green peppers make an attractive garnish after baking.

Unlike many casserole toppings tomatoes are both nutritious and low-calorie. Tomatoes offer a rich supply of vitamin C. They also contain a wide variety of other nutrients, including vitamin A and minerals. In short, when you want to combine both good eating and good nutrition, reach for a fresh ripe tomato.

The WSCS is serving as sponsor for the new circle, for young ladies of the church between the ages of 12 years and 21 years, which will meet on the first Tuesday of each month at 4:30 p. m. in the church annex. Pictured at the first meeting were, left to right, Mrs. George Ryan, adult advisor; Rev. and Mrs. Fred Foster, Connie Sellers, Linda Long, Sandy McBride, Susan Ryan, Etta Emanuel, Suzette Neal and Rose Gillespie. The back yard was divided into two sections for the two groups. Young Bill Durham had the best luck in finding the most eggs and received the prize.

Twenty children were present for the enjoyable event.

Founders Day Observed At Banquet

Mrs. Clyde Robertson was named "Girl of the Year" at the annual Founder's Day banquet of the Gamma Lambda Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi, held recently at the Capri.

Girl of the year is an award given to a member of the chapter who has contributed the most to the betterment of the sorority for a given year. She is chosen by secret ballot, by the members, and until her name is revealed at the banquet, no one knows who it is. Mrs. Robertson has been president of the chapter during the past year.

The head table held a beautiful arrangement of yellow gladioli and mums, sprigged with baby's breath, with black ribbon streamers completing the sorority colors.

The floral arrangement was taken to the home of Mrs. Clark Bruestle, vice president, who was busy taking care of a new baby girl and was unable to attend.

Mrs. Robertson presided at the head table and presented a lovely silver dish to Mrs. Joe Corley, sponsor, for her love and guidance during the past year. Mrs. Joe Dennison, president-elect, presented Mrs. Robertson with a gift from the sorority for leading them through a very successful year.

Preceding the dinner, Mrs. James Blythe and Mrs. Charles Kampf took their "ritual of Jewels" in an impressive candlelight ceremony and were admitted as full jewel members.

In another ceremony Mrs. LaMar Meredith, Mrs. Jerry McCabe and Mrs. Gilbert Daigle took the pledge ritual.

Competition On For Magic Show Billing

The extraordinary talent of 15-year-old ventriloquist Dottie Jardine will add an unexpected treat for the audience at Lyman's Magic Show Friday night when Dottie's pal, "wooden but witty" Ollie vies for top billing with Magician Fred Tirrell.

Dottie is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cal Jardine of Lake Mary and she and Tirrell, known throughout the showman's circuit for his baffling production acts and sleight-of-hand tricks, have joined forces to plan a sparkling and entertaining evening beginning at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Sponsors are Lyman's Junior Class and the Sanford Moose Lodge. The juniors, in charge of ticket sales, will use the proceeds for the annual Junior Senior Prom scheduled for May 12 at the Sanford Civic Center.

Although Ollie was invited by Tirrell to provide the intermission entertainment, the green-eyed monster intervened at a practice session earlier this week when the dummy realized that even he couldn't explain the simplest tricks the magician will pull.

When Tirrell told his plans for making beautiful roses from for-we-an-in-the-audience just by watering a small and bare bush, Ollie only strengthened his determination to "show up this guy who's only here on vacation, anyway."

However, the crowning blow came when Tirrell confided in Ollie his plans for two big acts of the show which involve a trust, a man and a woman, handcuffs, mailbags and many thoroughly tied ropes in one and a grown up doll who lives in a tiny doll house in the other. Ollie's had a whole week to sharpen his wits and Dottie's tongue and the Junior Class, the Lodge and all participants of the show are inviting the public to witness the results and see "just who does come out on top as the star."

Village Dances Highlight Last Weekend

The Village of North Orlando literally "danced through last weekend," when Our Lady's Circle of the Church of the Nativity sponsored a Teen Dance on Friday night and an Adult Dance on Saturday night.

The Bunny-Hop, held Saturday night for the adults on the new patio at the Recreation Center, also drew a large attendance from the village and surrounding communities. Music was by Dave Yorko and the Temptations, new band recently formed by Yorko.

Bunny rabbits with fuzzy cotton tails and pink and blue crepe paper streamers were used to decorate the open patio. Door prize, a dolphin ashtray, was awarded to Mrs. Mary Hudgins.

AROUND THE CLOCK

A CONVERSATION WITH CITY JUDGE KEN MCINTOSH:
Reporter: I hear that you backed down on your mandatory jail sentence ruling for DWI.
McIntosh: Who told you that?
Reporter: Well, have you put it into effect?
McIntosh: Yes sir!
Reporter: Isn't it true that there is no trial by jury in City Court?
McIntosh: Yes sir, unless the person demands and then we will transfer it to County Court.

FOR THE STATISTICAL MINDED... Spent the majority of Thursday afternoon going through the plat books in the Oviedo area and came up with some staggering figures of drastically cut assessments.
Take a look at these figures: One subdivision was assessed on the 1959 roll at $22,910 and on the 1961-62 roll it has been cut to $2,460.

AND SOME MORE: Another by Lake Charm was assessed at $202,840 in 1959 and on the last roll dropped to $136,000.

AND SOME MORE: Another subdivision was assessed at $19,840 on the 1959 roll and total assessed value on all the plats now is $9,240.

Other areas in the Oviedo area dropped in the total assessment in some cases as much as $20,000.

A CONVERSATION WITH MARY EARLE WALKER.
Reporter: I have some figures about drastic cuts in assessments in the Oviedo area.
Mrs. Walker: We have done a lot of work where assessments were cut.

Reporter: One dropped more than $20,000.
Mrs. Walker: I'll have to check the book.

One of the names called for duty on the Grand Jury, selected Thursday morning, was that of a resident of Seminole County who has been dead for two years.

When informed of this during the course of the afternoon, Judge Williams first question was, "I wonder if he has been voting all this time?"

Seminole Blvd. between Palmetto Ave. and Park Ave. will be closed to traffic Sunday during the St. Johns River Outboard Marathon. The north half of the public parking lot also will be reserved for boats and trailers belonging to competitors in the race from late Saturday afternoon through Sunday.

Let's hope the ACL sets to work immediately on those warning signals by the tracks by Lake Mary. I shudder to think school buses pass there daily.

Democratic Executive Committee Chairman Bob Billmeyer, in probably the biggest understatement of the year, thanked candidates for "being nice to each other" at the close of the final political rally at Sanford Junior High School Thursday night. . . a few minutes after most of the candidates blasted and slammed into the integrity of each other.

Before an estimated crowd of 100, candidates for two county commission races, two school board, and one legislative post made their last public appeal for votes before next Tuesday's primary.

Indications were that only two votes in the house were uncommitted. . . Most of the talk was a "rehash" of earlier rallies with the District 4 county commission race the "hottest" as far as verbal fireworks were concerned.

W. Pitt Varner charged, his opponent, Mayor Lee Gary of Oviedo, with "hanging on to the coat tails of the Avery empire."

Soviets Accused Of Geneva Disarmament 'Sabotage'

GENEVA (UPI) — Britain accused the Soviet Union today of deliberately trying to sabotage the work of the 17-nation disarmament conference.

British Minister of State Joseph Godber leveled the charge when Soviet Deputy Foreign Minister Valerian Zorin again rejected the American plan for "zonal inspection" of disarmament measures.

"This only signifies a change in Western intelligence gathering methods," Zorin told the conference. "The West now feels that instead of having to inspect the whole of the Soviet Union it can get away with inspecting only certain zones."

Godber replied that Zorin's remarks "cannot help the negotiations a great deal." He said the Russians are "trying to drag the conference down into an emotional sphere."

"In the past two weeks Mr. Zorin's speeches have been littered with polemics," Godber said. "It seems as though the Russians are trying to draw the conference away from serious debate."

U. S. Ambassador Arthur Dean did not enter into the argument directly.

He concentrated on presenting the Western case, calling again for acceptance of Part One of the U. S. draft treaty

Reds Preparing To Resume Tests?

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Administration officials said today they have solid evidence the Soviet Union is preparing to resume atmospheric nuclear tests very soon, possibly within the next few days.

They said all available intelligence shows the Russians have completed preparations for a massive new series and are only awaiting what they consider the best time, from the standpoint of weather and political factors.

In addition, these officials said, psychological factors seemed to favor resumption of Russian tests while the United States is still engaged in its Pacific series of nuclear tests.

By beginning while the U.S. tests are in progress, the Russians will not bring down upon themselves as much world condemnation as if they waited until the U.S. program ended and the atmosphere cleared.

The U. S. tests, which began April 23, were ordered by President Kennedy after more than three years during which the U. S. government held off such experiments.

The President, in ordering the resumption, said the new series was necessary because of "substantial gains" the Russians made in their massive blast last fall which broke the three-year moratorium on nuclear testing.

Longwood Approves Dog Law

Longwood's dog ordinance, opened to discussion for the first time at the Feb. 8 City Council meeting, was passed unanimously at Thursday night's regular monthly session.

Action on the proposed water ordinance was postponed until next week.

The adopted dog ordinance, effective July 1, requires all dogs be inoculated against rabies and tagged, licensed and registered at city hall by that date. Each year thereafter inoculations will be required three months prior to Jan. 1.

Provisions are included in the ordinance for the capture and humane disposal of untagged dogs if they are not redeemed according to ordinance regulations within a specified period of time.

Owners of dogs considered vicious or ferocious must keep the animal or animals, confined at all times.

The ordinance in its entirety will be posted in three public and prominent locations. Failure to comply could bring a fine up to $300, jail sentence up to four months, or both.

Rusk Tells NATO Work With Reds

ATHENS (UPI)—Secretary of State Dean Rusk told the NATO ministerial council today that contacts with the Soviet Union should be continued in hopes that some agreement can be reached on critical international problems.

Rusk addressed the council when it met for its first full-dress working session.

Conference sources said Rusk informed the ministers that the Russians have made no perceptible move toward agreement on Berlin or other major cold-war issues, but he believes the exploration of Soviet intentions should go on.

A Seminole County Grand Jury reported out a true bill this morning indicting Mrs. Christine Wright for murder in the second degree, for the shooting of her husband Virgil James Wright, on April 14.

The offense, which carries a 20 years to life penalty, was defined in the bill which was read to the court by Jury Foreman Dr. John W. Wilson, as "evinced a depraved mind" and as being "without a premeditated design."

Twelve witnesses appeared before the jury, including Dr. W. A. Derrick, an Orlando pathologist, who testified on the medical aspects of the shooting and the cause of death.

"Thanks For Being Nice," Demo Boss Says After Slug Fest

George Holder said he wanted to encourage industry, was for a full time health director and wanted to give the teachers more money.

He didn't elaborate how he would do this.

In the District 2 race, incumbent Ted Williams blasted critics of the proposed 28th St. paving job declaring that two of the commissioners that fought this voted for a road into a private parking lot.

"That wasn't on the priority list also," Williams declared. His opponent John Alexander emphasized the need for planning and vision on the County Commission and walked the inconsistent representation Williams has shown on the board. He hammered away at Williams' snap judgment on franchise directive, health director and appropriation funds for the zoo.

Legislative candidate Al Lormann said he favored more institutions for higher learning in the state, more supervisory control of welfare and the creation of a state examination board for teachers.

His opponent, S. J. Davis Jr., cited the need to improve our public school system and stressed that with "diversity we need leadership."

In the school board race, District 1, A. W. Epps Jr. stressed his qualifications and interests and declared, "I'm demonstrating my interest by seeking this post."

His opponent, Kathleen Reynolds, cited the need for joint cooperation on school problems and cited the serious shortage of books in many schools. "One class has 35 books for 300 kids."

However, when questioned by the Herald after the rally, Mrs. Reynolds clarified her statement saying it was seven classrooms and not just one.

J. Dan Wright and Clarence Clause in another contested race for the school board both cited the need to spruce up standards of education.
