Alien Communists Refuse U. S. Meals At Ellis Island

NEW YORK, Mar. 2. (AP)—A group of alien communists, including Potash, manager of the Furrier's Joint Council (CJO), immediately joined four other alleged alien communists today in refusing to appear for meals at Ellis Island detention quarters.

The others, who haven't reported for government meals since yesterday morning, are Gerhart Eisler, described by a congressional committee as the "No. 1 Communist" in the United States; John Williamson, labor secretary of the Communist Party; Ferdinand G. Smith, West Indian-born negro and secretary of the CJO National Maritime Union; and Charles A. Doyle, regional director of the CJO gas, coke and chemical workers at Niagara Falls, N. Y.

District Director W. P. Watkins yesterday threatened the four men had plenty of food. In reporting today, however, that the four had not appeared for breakfast and had been joined by Potash in boycotting lunch, Watkins said their food packages had been finished "and there now is no food in their possession."

Potash, the latest to be picked up in the Justice Department's roundup of more than a score of alleged alien communists, was said by the department to be a member of the American Communist Party's national committee. He was born in Russia and has lived here since 1915, the department said.

Vandenberg

Republican convention would accept the nomination?

Vandenberg wired McConnell: "Responding to your message I decline to speculate with utterly improbable contingencies. Your question defies intelligent answer without full knowledge of unknown ultimate events."

"I have hitherto made my position clear. I shall not discuss it further."

"I again request that my name be not filed for a position for which I am not a candidate. If I am filed despite this urgent and current request, I ask my Nebraska friends to confine their primary votes to others."

The reply apparently left the way open for McConnell to go ahead with a move to place Vandenberg's name before Nebraska voters. He filed names of six Republicans and a Democrat yesterday, but held off temporarily.

Vandenberg's telegram also was interpreted by politicians immediately as indicating he would accept the nomination if it came to him as a result of a genuine draft at the June Republican convention.

Vandenberg outlined his views in a national magazine (Life) a year ago.

said the Commission reported that Condon had not been cleared for access to its restricted files.

Replying, the House committee said Condon had been cleared for access to its restricted files.

"This is gratifying information because I'm absolutely reliable and therefore have nothing to worry about. The country can relax."

To an accusation that he "knowingly or unknowingly entertained and associated" with alleged Russian spies, Condon commented to a reporter:

"That's just too vague to talk about. I certainly didn't do it knowingly."

At a three-hour closed session with commission members, Hickel reported the special Senate House Atomic Energy Committee was told:

The commission has an FBI report on Condon. (An FBI report that Condon associated with alleged Soviet espionage agents was mentioned in the report of the House Un-American Affairs Committee.)

The commission has not decided whether to clear Condon for access to its files.

Hickel noted that as a physicist, of 25 years standing, Dr. Condon had worked on the wartime Manhattan atomic project. He said subsequently Condon was a scientific adviser to the special Senate committee which drafted the Atomic Energy Act.

As adviser to the special Senate group, Hickel reported that Condon was present at closed meetings but heard nothing more than information "fairly widely known to physicists generally."

Hickel quoted commission members as saying they would give "every consideration" to the House committee's report before taking any action which would make top atomic secrets available to Condon.

votes to 186 secured by Bobby Parks.

Another "chip off the old block," Bobby Morris, son of Principal Herman E. Morris, was elected "County Superintendent of Public Instruction" when Junior High School's solid block of 183 votes gave him a total of 245 to the 191 cast for his nearest opponent, Billy Brinson, who got 173 votes at Seminole High School.

Walter Gardner became County Judge by getting 196 votes, 177 from Seminole High School, to the 183 votes for Walter Routh, his nearest opponent, who had a 185 Junior High School bloc vote.

Floyd Cooper with 236 Seminole High School votes out of his total of 278 beat Bob Kilpatrick in the race for County Tax Assessor. Bob had a JHS vote of 183 out of 201 votes.

County Commissioners elected were: Keith Schumacher at Seminole High School, Happy Abney at Junior High School, Donald Langford at Lyman, Bobby Ward at Oviedo and Florence McGill at Geneva.

For School Board members the following were selected: Leroy Strawder, SHS; Janet Ratliff, JHS-Lake Monroe; Clyde Walker, JHS-Lake Mary; Sadie Fleming, Oviedo, and Isabel LeFalls, Geneva district.

The candidates who were elected will be permitted to visit the Court House on Mar. 9, when the County Commission convenes, to confer with heads of various departments and offices and see how they go about their official business. On Mar. 11, the youth government leaders will be special guests, along with faculty members, at the Jaycee luncheon at the Mayfair Inn.

LARGEST EGG

C. E. Harrell yesterday afternoon came forward to contest the claim of F. Hasky Wright, local publisher, in finding the "largest hen egg" in a local chicken coop. Mr. Harrell, who lives at 311 North French Avenue, brought a six ounce tan colored egg to The Herald office yesterday afternoon. He announced it was a hen egg and that he will put it on exhibition soon.

Mr. Wright, as the owner of the "largest egg" was presented with a Kiwanis inscribed turtle by County Agent C. R. Dawson at a meeting at the Mayfair Inn about a year ago. The egg was also put on exhibit in the Kader Jewelry Store window.

Rear Admiral Richard P. Whitehead, (left), receives hearty best wishes from Rear Admiral E. C. Ewen, whom he recently succeeded in command of Naval Air Reserve Training for the entire nation. Admiral Whitehead is no newcomer to Naval Reserve activities, having enlisted in the Naval Reserve prior to World War I. He served as a Reserve Officer during the first war, and shortly thereafter was commissioned in the regular Navy. During the late war, he served as Commander, Support Aircraft Air Force, Pacific Fleet, and immediately prior to assuming the Naval Air Reserve Training Command was Commander of Carrier Division 14 which operated in the Atlantic.

"Not unless we make a mountain out of a molehill," Fairless replied.

Both Fairless and Arthur B. Homer, president of Bethlehem Steel Co., told the committee they do not think a third round wage increase is justified.

Fairless said further wage boosts would "only result in further inflation and distress for many of our people." He urged labor to forego its demand saying it would bring "still higher prices for most of the products of industry."

The committee called the steel makers to find out whether the $4.85 a-ton increase in semi-finished steel prices will mean higher living costs.

Fairless said the increase is "too small and unimportant" to be inflationary. Its influence on the general price level has been "grossly exaggerated," he continued, adding that much of the criticism is "emotional or political in character."

Both Fairless and Homer told of rising costs. Fairless estimated labor costs of his firm were up 80 per cent since 1940, while he said worker output has dropped.

Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) wanted to know how, in view of this "bad picture," U. S. Steel was able to pay an extra dividend in 1947.

"We declared it out of earnings, of course," Fairless answered. "The history of U. S. Steel dividends is a sad one as far as the stockholders are concerned."

Fairless said U. S. Steel "will give earnest consideration to all changes in their cost of production," when costs are no longer on the upward trend.

Homer said that average hourly earnings have gone up 95 per cent over the 1936-1939 base, and that the wage stability and 63 per cent in the same period. Saying he saw no need of further wage increases, he added:

"We believe that our employees are becoming convinced that it is in their own interest and the public's interest that the spiral of upward costs and prices be halted."

of every individual. The federal government could step in and bring prosecutions when there was a lynching.

Persons participating in any manner in a lynching would be guilty of a felony and punishable by 20 years imprisonment and a fine of $10,000.

Peace officers failing to make "diligent efforts" to prevent lynchings in their jurisdiction could be punished by five years imprisonment and a $5,000 fine.

Any person injured by a lynching mob could recover up to $10,000 from the community in which the incident occurred, provided the community did not prove that it had made every effort to prevent the violence. In event of death, the victim's heirs would receive the money.

These committee members were reported to have voted against the bill: Representatives Hobbs of Alabama, Kefauver of Tennessee, Bryson of South Carolina, Cravens of Arkansas, Chelf of Kentucky and Gossett of Texas, Democrats; and Fellows of Maine and Cuyamaca of Iowa, Republicans.

The southern "rebellion" has raised Republican hopes of winning the White House in next fall's election, but some party leaders say they anticipate a hard fight to keep control of the Senate in any event.

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 2 (AP)—Lawrence R. Duncan, 33, arrested here several weeks ago as a participant in a Birmingham, Ala., jewel robbery last December, was ordered returned there today by U. S. Commissioner T. V. Cashen.

Louis W. Perry and his daughter, Mary, told the commission a room full of Alabama police officers and FBI agents there. Duncan was one of four men who entered their home, bound and gagged the girl and her mother and waited for Perry to return from his store at the end of the day to force him to give up his safe combination, store keys and keys to his car.

Duncan pleaded that they were mistaken in identification. He asked to be returned to Georgia because "there probably are a dozen warrants against me there."

Since they were issued before the Alabama warrant, I'd like to go to Georgia to plead guilty to that charge."

Since its founding in 1881, Red Cross Disaster Service has assisted in 3,651 disaster operations in the United States. During the first 10 months of last year, American National Red Cross had allocated more than $8,000,000 for the relief and rehabilitation of disaster victims. Assistance is given to families on the basis of need, not loss, and is an outright gift, not a loan.

Tax Reduction

Hanes replied.

"Surpluses of the size that are now in prospect," he said, and "mean that the government is taxing the people far beyond its means," he added.

"Tax laws which steal from the individual the fruits of his labor will produce stagnation in this country just as it has done in England, France, Italy and elsewhere."

"Socialism and capitalism cannot live together, and our obligations are so great we cannot afford any further experiments in Socialism."

Before today's hearing opened, Senator Brewster (R-Me.) predicted the finance committee will vote to cut taxes only by $4,500,000,000.

Florida railroads required a weight of 68 pounds to some destinations and 57 pounds to other destinations.

He declared that he could not understand this discrimination in favor of California and asked the representatives of the Florida railroads to explain the situation. The representatives of the Florida railroads admitted this situation, but offered no solution. Mr. O'Brien also agreed that this situation existed.

Present at the meeting were shippers, growers, representatives of the Everglades branch of the Florida Growers Association, of the National League of Wholesale Fruit and Vegetable Shippers. Railroads represented were: Atlantic Coast Line, Seaboard Air Line, Florida East Coast, Baltimore and Ohio and Pennsylvania.

YOUTHS ARRESTED
MIAMI, Mar. 2 (AP)—Two youths who escaped from a Lansing, Mich., reformatory and later from the Inverness, Fla., jail were held in federal custody on a car theft charge today.

The two were placed under a $1,000 bond yesterday. C. H. Carson, agent in charge of the Miami FBI, said the two other youths were turned over to Michigan authorities or tried in federal court at Tampa.

action among the people."

The British Press Association reported that an official at the Czechoslovak embassy denied the resignation report, saying:

"We are authorized to say that it is not true. President Benes has not resigned."

Benes was reported in Prague to have feared civil war would have broken out had he not acceded to the Communist demands.

A friend said he had told Gottwald "You talk to me like Hitler" in one of the conferences over the crisis.

Benes helped Thomas G. Masaryk form the Czechoslovak republic with the assistance of Woodrow Wilson after the first World War. He first became President of Czechoslovakia in 1935 when Masaryk died, but four years later he saw his republic dissolved by the Germans. The six war years of exile were spent mostly in England, where he headed a refugee government.

He addressed both houses of the U. S. Congress during a visit to the United States in 1943. He was restored to rule in Czechoslovakia in 1945, two years after he had signed in Russia a 20-year mutual assistance pact—the same type Russia now is offering Finland.

Stock Market

NEW YORK, Mar. 2 (AP)—Stocks continued their recovery on a selective basis today, although many market leaders failed to progress.

Prices turned irregular and dealings slowed after a fairly active opening. Assorted steels and oils then came to the fore and volume expanded a bit. Most of Monday's climbing aircraft were grounded. While declines were plentiful, gains of fractions to a point or so predominated near the fourth hour.

Another rally in commodities stimulated the stock division. Buying for an extension of the recent technical revival was a bolstering influence. Professionals cashed quick profits and public customers still avoided the market. Doubts regarding taxes, business, labor and foreign situations provided cautionary arguments.

Pacific Western Oil and Mission Corp. enjoyed a rising flurry as merger gossip persisted. Better performers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, U. S. Rubber, Grumman Aircraft (at a 1947-48 lot), Paramount Pictures, Standard Oil (N.J.), Illinois Central and Southern Pacific.

Twentieth Century-Fox held aloft even despite a sliced dividend. Backward most of the time were Boeing, Lockheed, United Aircraft, American Airlines, Transcontinental & Western Air, United Air Lines, Chrysler, Owens-Illinois, Kennecott and International Nickel.

Bonds were narrow. Grains exhibited trepidation.

debate on the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Plan. He also urged that Congress pass legislation for Universal Military Training.

Knowland took the floor after offering an amendment to legislation for the aid program. He proposed to write in a prohibition against sending to countries not taking part in the program any materials needed by those countries coming in the program.

William C. Bullitt, former ambassador to Russia, advised Congress to vote $100,000,000 for military supplies to China. Bullitt testified to the House Foreign Affairs Committee which is considering the Administration's request for $570,000,000 aid for China.

The Administration's program contemplated only economic help for the Chinese—money to finance food and other consumer imports and for improvement of railroads, roads and factories. Some Congress members have urged that the program be broadened to include weapons the Chinese government can use in fighting Communists.

Bullitt accused the State Department, which drafted the aid program, of "blindness and apathy" toward China.

"China is in dire need of the entire Far East," he said. "If our government should permit the Communists to take over China, it would have failed to bar the way to attack on our country by overwhelming masses of Stalin-driven slaves. We cannot successfully oppose Communist conquest of the world by opposing Communism in Europe only."

Bullitt said economic aid for China is but one leg of the table to protect the vital interest of the American people in Chinese independence.

Meanwhile, President Truman asked Congress for legislation enabling him to reappoint Dean G. Acheson as civilian member and chairman of the American section, Joint United States-Canadian Defense Board.

Present law forbids anyone to hold a government job, even part time, who is connected with a private firm that may prosecute claims against the government.

Marshall, Forrestal Say Nations Can't Be Free If Military Aid Not Increased

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3 (AP)—Secretaries Marshall and Forrestal told Congress today there is "grave danger" Greece and Turkey cannot remain free unless they get more military aid from the United States.

The two cabinet members testified jointly to the House Foreign Affairs Committee in support of the Administration's request for $275,000,000 to be spent on guns, planes and other weapons for the two nations.

Secretary of State Marshall said that arming the Greeks and Turks would be "discouraging" to further aggression against their countries.

Both Marshall and Secretary of Defense Forrestal left little doubt they were thinking of Russia.

Marshall said there is "clear evidence in Greece and Czechoslovakia of Communist intention against all nations that stand in the way of their expansion."

And as long as threats confront Greece and Turkey, Marshall said, there can be no assurance that American assistance can be stopped.

Forrestal said it is evident that "the military position in both countries must receive our first attention." Both cabinet members said the guerrillas are getting help from neighbors.

Tobey Raps McCab On Sale Of B-25's To Chinese Agency

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3 (AP)—Senator Tobey (R-N.H.) said today that Thomas B. McCabe ordered the sale of 11 B-25 bombers to a private Chinese agency.

Tobey made this charge as the Senate Banking Committee opened hearings on McCabe's fitness to be a member of the Federal Reserve Board of Governors. McCabe was in charge of war surplus abroad from 1944 to 1946.

The plan was to sell the bombers to a private Chinese agency, Tobey said. He said McCabe admitted that his objective was to forestall public publicity at home.

Later McCabe told reporters he has no recollection of ordering the sale of 11 B-25 bombers to a private Chinese agency.

Union Is Indicted For Political Work

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3 (AP)—The Justice Department today announced the indictment of an AFL union local in connection with charges of violating the Taft-Hartley Act's ban on political spending.

A federal grand jury in New Haven, Conn., returned the indictment against the local of the International Brotherhood of Teamsters, Local 401 (AFL), and the local's president, John R. O'Brien.

The indictment charges the illegal use of union funds to buy political advertising space in the Hartford Times, and to buy broadcast time for a political speech over radio station WKNB.

High Catholic Body Pleads For Members To Vote Anti-Communist

VATICAN CITY, Mar. 3 (AP)—The sacred Consistorial Congregation of the Roman Catholic Church issued a decree today informing Catholics that they may vote only for candidates who will "respect and defend the rights of the church."

Throughout Italy Catholic prelates, following the lead of Alfredo Lidelonso Cardinal Schuster, immediately made clear that the decree precluded a vote by Catholics for Communist or extreme left candidates. The Consistorial Congregation is the high legislative and administrative body of the church.

A pastoral letter by Cardinal Schuster two weeks ago ordered priests in his diocese to refuse absolution to Communists.

The letter was attacked by the extreme left as a violation of Italy's electoral laws. There was a possibility that it might be discussed in today's session of a Central Committee of major political parties formed to help maintain an electoral truce for the Apr. 18 elections.

The decree of the Consistorial Congregation—a body whose functions include discipline and administration—was described by Vatican sources as "normal" guidance for the faithful in political elections.

British Labor Attacks Pinks In Slovakia

Playing Ball With Commies Is Blamed; Finland Gets Ready For Kiss of Death

LONDON, Mar. 3 (AP)—Britain's ruling Labor (Socialist) Party maintained today that the Communist victory in Czechoslovakia would have been impossible without the aid of Socialists who play ball with the Communists.

The party's executive committee issued a statement last night declaring that last week's events in Prague constituted "a warning and lesson to Democratic Socialists."

Lord Pakenham described the Communist coup in Czechoslovakia as "intense in technique and utterly damnable in every way."

The fate of Czechoslovakia "should be a warning to all who put faith in fellow travelers elsewhere," said Lord Pakenham, government spokesman in the House of Lords.

"In Czechoslovakia a revolution has been carried through in a few days," he said. "Now Finland is being approached with the kiss of death."

Eleven Groups In Palestine Hit Partition

Christian Communities Urge Shelving Of Partition Plan To Further Peace

JERUSALEM, Mar. 3 (AP)—Leaders of 11 Christian communities in Palestine urged today that the partition plan be shelved in the interest of peace. The statement was issued at a news conference in the old city at the Holy Sepulchre.

It was signed by the Orthodox (Greek) Patriarchate, the Latin Patriarchate, the Armenian Patriarchate, the Custodian De Terra Santa, the Vicar of the Melkite Patriarchate, the Arab Evangelical Episcopal Community, the Coptic Patriarchate, the Vicar of the Syrian Orthodox Community, the Vicar of the Syrian Catholic Patriarchate, and the Arab Lutheran Community in Palestine.

The statement was addressed to all world religious and political bodies.

It expressed "deep sorrow and strong indignation at the lamentable situation in which the Holy Land, the cradle of peace, has been placed as a direct result of the erroneous policy which has been imposed on the country and which has culminated in the partition plan."

Britain Uses Up Last Of Its American Loan

White Paper Reveals Country Has Over-spent Income By 4 Billion In 2 Years

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3 (AP)—Britain has exhausted its $3,750,000,000 loan from the United States with a final $100,000,000 draft the Treasury disclosed today.

Originally expected to last three to five years, the loan funds held out only 19 months. Britain checked them out at an average rate of nearly $200,000,000 a month.

The last withdrawal was made Monday.

Exhaustion of the loan came a short time after a British government white paper declared, in effect, that Britain faces bankruptcy and that it has overspent its income by $4,000,000,000 in the last two years.

New dollar aid, however, is in prospect in the $5,000,000,000 European Recovery Program now under debate in the Senate. Upwards of one fourth of EERP funds may go to Britain, expected to be the largest beneficiary under the program.

The loan agreement, which took effect July 10, 1946, provides that Britain must begin repaying the money Dec. 31, 1951, and clean it up with payments once a year over a 60-year period unless the U. S. grants waivers.

The annual payment would amount to about $140,000,000 each (Continued on Page Two)

Improvements At Sanford Zoo Are Underway On North Section

A number of improvements are under way at the Sanford Zoo, particularly on the north side, where new additions to the "Bird Fly," as Zoo Superintendent Sid Hild calls it, are being built.

Papa and Mama Deer and the baby Deer will be moved within the next three weeks to the present large screened area now housing larger birds, said Mr. Hild, who pointed out that the deer are seldom seen at their present out-of-the-way location near the Legion Hut. There is plenty of room for the deer in the large enclosure.

Other improvements include putting the cages in a larger pen. Otto and Otter have been quite proud of late of the blooming nucleus planted around their pool and pen.

The concession booth, long a sore to officials due to children standing in the street to buy soda and peanuts, has been moved across the sidewalk to the Zoo proper. An addition to the booth will be made for storage purposes, eliminating an unsightly shelter now used for storage of empty bottles, said Mr. Hild.

The Zoo continues to attract large crowds, especially on Sundays. Many of the visitors are from out of the state.

During the war we heard a good deal about the long suffering people of the Red Cross.

Power From The Sun

Man's dream of converting the energy of the sun into mechanical power never loses its allure. H. D. Cullity of the Massachusetts Institute of Technology has suggested to the American Institute of Mining and Metallurgical Engineers that special kinds of wire might be used to absorb the heat of the sun and deliver electrical power, on the principle of the thermocouple. The idea is not new, and the thermocouple has long been in use as a device to measure heat. Simply, the idea is that if a loop is made of two different metals, properly chosen, electrical current will flow through the loop when one joint is warmer than the other.

The difficulty with trying to get mechanical work from a thermocouple is that the electrical current it produces is too small to operate anything but a sensitive meter. The idea of a thermocouple large enough to energize an ordinary home light bulb seems almost fantastic. We are reminded, however, that such commonplace electrical gadgets as the motor, the telescope and the incandescent lamp also were fantastic before they were perfected.

More progress has been made in schemes to use the sun's energy as direct heat. Successful plants have been made to heat water or even a house with the sun's rays. In most parts of this country cloudy weather is a hindrance to such development. But if plants can be built to convert sun energy into electrical power on a large scale, such plants could be set up in areas, such as the deserts, where clouds are rare, sending power to cloud-shadowed cities hundreds of miles away. Small wonder the dream persists.

Land Of O'Higgins

Can you find O'Higgins Land on the map? If so, you probably have an atlas printed in Chile, for this is a name given by that country to the stretch of Antarctic coast which most maps list as Graham Land. Chile is claiming this frozen territory now, apparently because other nations are staking down Antarctic areas, not because it is regarded as of value itself.

Why O'Higgins? The name is a proof that the Irish do get around. Ambrose Higgins, born in County Meath in 1730, died as Ambrosio O'Higgins, marquis of Osorno and Spanish viceroy of Peru. His greater son, Bernardo, after whom this Antarctic region is named, was a leader in the struggle to free Chile from Spanish rule, and later became dictator.

As such he instituted too many reforms for which his country was not ready, and he was forced to retire. Unlike some Latin American dictators, he abandoned power without a fight, rather than lose a war upon his country. Now, years after his death, Chile recognizes his greatness, and tries to commemorate it by putting his name on the Antarctic map.

It is one thing to claim a territory and another to get it. Argentina and Great Britain also have ideas about this region, and will have to be consulted.

Unto Each Age

What an age in which to be alive! Says today's citizen as he reads about conquests of earth, sea and air.

So thought the generation of men who first pulled themselves upright on their hind legs and found the new powers this posture gave their forelegs.

Centuries later the discovery of the lever and the wheel opened such achievement as to make that seem the era of wonders.

The knowledge added by each age is but a drop in the pool, each bit of progress only a faltering step forward in the march that us yet cannot glimpse its goal.

One of the most intelligent of mankind, Dr. J. Robert Oppenheimer, whose brain officially ushered in the atomic age, knows only with his great store of learning "how vast is the novelty of the world, and how much it transcends the limits of man's poor imaginings."

What marvels are in the storehouses of the future, waiting for the vision that is to unlock them and permit their orderly appearance on the stage of time? Of these wonders-to-come we know only that they will dwarf today's attainments to puny proportions.

NO NEED OF PUBLICITY

DALLAS (TEX.) NEWS

The names of juvenile first offenders will not be published in The News in connection with what they have done unless their crimes are of such serious nature that the public interest obviously requires identification. In adopting this policy, this newspaper shares the view of most trained workers in the field of welfare and rehabilitation that pitiless publicity is not only a mistaken course but an actual handicap in making good citizens of the immature backsliders.

The problem of the juvenile offender is of immense social importance. Society's initial problem is to classify him properly, to learn whether he is really incorrigible or whether he has strayed through carelessness or heedlessness. Society may have to punish, but it has no desire to wreck the life of any youngster who can be trained to useful life. Clearly the point of determination is at the first known offense.

The experience of the trained workers with juveniles is that unnecessary publicity can and often does defeat their efforts. The youngster ridiculed or shamed feels that he is branded. He may feel that acting tough is the best answer and that repeating crime proves him a man. In most cases where incorrigibility is not involved, corrective measures in the absence of publicity work as well. And of course whether of fence is to be started right morally or psychiatric weakness, public identification as a young criminal is of no help in building character and responsibility to society.

Every newspaper is familiar with public curiosity in cases of this sort, but on the other side every newspaper knows that most of the public want to help a youngster go right. The News feels that, in this spirit, thinking Texans will endorse a policy which may make a useful Texas by merely not exposing a first juvenile offender to shame—Dallas News.

THE WORLD TODAY

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
AP Foreign Affairs Analyst

The revolution of the non-Communist nations to the Bolshevik rule of Czechoslovakia is reminiscent of the violent reaction to Hitler's assault on that same little Republic ten years ago as he got his conquest of Europe under way—both reminiscent and significant.

Toward the close of 1938 I arrived in London looking for the solution of an important problem. This was after I had attended the Munich conference, followed Hitler into Czechoslovakia, and made a grand swing of the Balkans and back through Italy and France to England.

I immediately sought out a distinguished British source and placed my problem before him. "I sense a decided hardening of the British and French attitude toward Germany, but I can't put my finger on it. I shall be grateful if you will tell me whether I am right and, if so, what that hardening means."

"You are quite right," he replied without hesitation. "We have decided that appeasement goes out with the wind. We shall use our armies if necessary."

That was to say, of course, that the two powers would use their armies to keep Hitler in hand if he started a rampage. It was the right idea but a couple of years too late. The Nazi dictator was about ready to open up his earlier display of two-fronted firmness by the Allies might have prevented war.

Now with the Communizing of Czechoslovakia we have reached a critical point in a fresh world conquest which the democracies have been trying to halt by appeasement. The first reaction to the red assault on the small democracy was the joint note of condemnation by America, Britain and France. This has been followed by a wave of anti-Soviet sentiment which has swept Scandinavia, Norway, Denmark and Sweden—all of which are in the danger zone of red aggression.

As such he instituted too many reforms for which his country was not ready, and he was forced to retire. Unlike some Latin American dictators, he abandoned power without a fight, rather than lose a war upon his country. Now, years after his death, Chile recognizes his greatness, and tries to commemorate it by putting his name on the Antarctic map.

Czech Envoy Fears Germany Even As Reds Tighten Grip

WASHINGTON, Mar. 3 (AP)—At the very moment that Communists were tightening their clutch on his country, Czech Ambassador Dural Slavik said that "Our main danger and political danger is still Germany."

Finland's minister, Dr. K. T. Jutila, said that "We have not a real iron curtain."

Both, in talking with Reps. Kersten (R-Wis.) and Nixon (R-Calif.) said that Democratic elements have been able to work with Communists in their countries and get along with them.

But for the future the diplomats made no definite predictions. The two freshmen congressmen made the round of embassies of seven countries living under the red shadow. With a reporter along, they also interviewed diplomats from Poland, Yugoslavia, Rumania, Hungary and Bulgaria.

They said the came away convinced: 1. That "cooperation with Communists means capture by Communists."

2. That "no amount of economic aid alone can keep Russia out," and hence the Marshall Plan must be reinforced with military alliances.

They agreed that the satellites and their representatives here are in "deadly fear" of Russia and are "compelled as a practical matter to be friendly."

They saw Dr. Jutila just before Russia made her move for a non-aggression pact with Finland. They found him more outspoken than most of the other diplomats, but he gave no direct answer when asked if it possible that something similar to what is happening in Czechoslovakia might take place in Finland?

"The Czech situation is more severe," he replied. "I think the Czechs are mostly anti-Communist. Democracy in Finland is 800 years old and is strong. We believe that every man is as good as another or a little better."

A few minutes earlier, however, he had said:

"We have not a real iron curtain. We can speak freely and publish freely. I can't say how it will be in the near future."

A rugged man in his fifties, Jutila spoke good English with an accent.

Slavik, former cabinet minister and veteran diplomat, was more reserved and obviously disturbed.

"It is very difficult to talk in the light of developments, to say anything definite," he remarked.

Paul M. Campbell Builds Many Homes In Sanford Area

Paul M. Campbell, contractor and builder, was brought up in the building trade, his father having been one of the large contractors and builders in West Palm Beach, where Mr. Campbell was born and reared.

A resident of Oviedo for the past 16 years, Mr. Campbell operated a wood working and cabinet shop underneath his modern three-car garage apartment, where he lives with his wife, who is an Oviedo girl.

Mr. Campbell expanded his mill works to such an extent in the past two years that he had to have larger quarters and recently moved to the new location at the Municipal Airport in Building No. 10.

Specializing in all types of cabinets for the home and some modern furniture, Mr. Campbell has built over 75 homes in Sanford and Oviedo as well as contracting for a number of business buildings, including the Greyhound Bus Station and remodeling Roumilt and Anderson's Walgreen Agency drug store. He also maintains an inspection survey service for homes contemplating purchasing homes already built.

Hints To Housewives

By Isabelle S. Thursty
Extension Food Economist

PLENTIFUL FOODS
Florida housewives are interested in featuring plentiful foods in their menus, to support the national food conservation program and for economy in meals. The Production and Marketing Administration says the following foods are in plentiful supply now.

Apples and pears are both plentiful, storage stocks of both being considerably larger than they were a year ago.

Production of winter cabbage in Florida and Texas is larger than in any year since 1944, when a considerable quantity was not harvested for lack of a market. This old standby vegetable can well be served often while it is in season.

The celery crop is estimated as 30 per cent larger than last year and it should be easy to keep the relish dish filled.

Canned citrus juices—orange, grapefruit and blended—are in large supply, and the current canning season is in full swing. Both fresh citrus and canned juices are plentiful.

Dried figs, apples, prunes, raisins and peaches are very plentiful and prices are lower than for several years.

Stocks of frozen fish are lower than a year ago, but still above average. Catches of fresh fish are

Lormann's Is One Of City's Newest Restaurants

"For really fine dining," Lormann's Restaurant on the Sanford-Orlando Highway one and a half miles south of First Street, offers the combination of fine food expertly prepared and served amid pleasant, quiet surroundings.

Lormann's Restaurant was opened to the public on May 6, 1947 by L. Lormann and his father, R. Lormann, who with four trained employees and their wives operate the restaurant.

Of reinforced concrete and steel, the white and cream building is insect proof. It received recognition from officials of the Food Handlers School held last Fall at which the Lormann Restaurant had 100% attendance. The entrance to the building is one of beauty with its landscaped grounds, beautiful shrubbery, its well kept lawn and a gravel driveway. A large lot adjoining the building offers ample parking facilities.

The color scheme of aqua and cream lends a restful atmosphere to the inside of the building. The tables have formica tops and chrome pedestal bases. The floors of asphalt tile are easily cleaned and the kitchen, open to inspection at all times, is equipped substantial also.

Increased consumption of stewed chickens, fricassee, etc., is to be encouraged, since farmers have not yet reduced their flocks to levels recommended in the grain conservation program. Prices are relatively low compared with competing foods.

Rural Common Sense

By Spud Johnson

RURAL LIFE TRENDS REFLECT NUMBER OF IMPORTANT CHANGES

Rural life in Florida, as elsewhere throughout the country, has changed materially during recent years. Sometimes the shifts come slowly and are almost imperceptible until we stop and take stock. Again, they come with very noticeable speed which brings a metamorphosis in a short time.

The trend from local to non-local contacts is quite noticeable. No longer is the farm family isolated in the backwoods. Modern transportation and communication facilities have extended horizons for farm families just as they have for other families.

The nation's population continues to shift from rural to urban. Time was when 19 farm families fed only themselves and one urban family. Now the same number of farm families feeds and clothes 80 families. Many farm families have moved to town, but continue to operate their with the most modern facilities available. There is a three compartment sink where all dishes are sanitized. A large Garland 83-B range has a combination grill and broiler and two ovens. A deep freeze unit assures a supply of fresh foods and meats at all times. The delicious pastries served at Lormann's are prepared in their own kitchen.

H. T. Carpenter, the school's former president, said Mr. Lehmann was impressed with the need of practical education for boys and girls that would enable them to make a living. He first located his school at Enterprise, then when it failed to progress, moved to Montverde where the 100 people living there pledged to donate the 200 acre site, and furnish a building a year for the school for five years.

Mr. Lehmann illustrated his talk with charts and photographs and pointed out a picture of the three story girls dormitory funded by the DAR and 60 percent of which, including concrete floors and concrete blocks, was built under expert direction by student labor. Completion of a third floor will accommodate 24 more girls, he said. He also mentioned the dining hall and other buildings which were erected with the same amount of student labor.

He also told of the 30 percent of food used in the school produced on the school farm, the milk from its dairy and the 2,000 poultry raised. He stressed the Christian training and wholesome recreation afforded the students. Guests included former Congressman Wm. D. Upshaw, Judge Syd Herlong of Leesburg, Dan J. Berthelme of Detroit, Mich., John Doan of Windsor, Ont., Harry Saunders and Stewart (Tatchel) Leon Cornell, general foreman of the ACL shops here, was educated as a member of Kiwanis by the Rev. W. PRICES SUSTAIN
BRADENTON, Mar. 3. (AP)—Prices of well-located and cared-for Florida properties are holding firm, said Walter S. Hardin, president of the Florida Association of Realtors and state representative from Manatee county. Hardin said a statement last week by economist Roger Babson that realty prices are going down may be true in other states but not Florida. Construction costs will continue at or near present levels for at least two and possibly three years, Hardin forecast.

Chapman & Pezold Cement Block Plant Is Large Industry

The Chapman and Pezold Concrete Block Company was organized in February, 1946, by Bert Chapman and Paul Pezold on Commercial Street and Myrtle Avenue. Beginning with one machine the business has expanded to such an extent to necessitate installing another machine. Also a building in which to house builders' supplies.

Recently installed was a spader which paces while it vibrates, thereby producing a denser block that is entirely waterproof, in one operation. The first of its type to be built, it is conceded by the block industry to be the best available.

Special type blocks are produced which make it more economical to the builder, inasmuch as any cutting or sawing of the blocks on the job is eliminated. With proper planning in spacing doors and windows the blocks can be taken from the plant to the site and each block ready for its particular location without any waste of material, time, or labor.

The plant has devised a U-type lentic block, 8" and 12", which give stronger support than the old type lentic. Their 4-8-16's are made on a special pallet, designed to eliminate leaky mortar joints, assuring the builder a leakproof wall.

Only the best of materials, including gravel, sand and cement go into the making of the blocks and two test blocks filled with water are on display at all times to prove that they are waterproof and leakproof. It is the theory of Mr. Chapman that block properly constructed with the right proportions of materials will produce a uniform, waterproof block. The plant has a capacity of 2,000 blocks daily, said Mr. Chapman. Blocks, which are made for any type dwelling or business, include the U-type block, the bull nose, the vent, joint and partition blocks.

Byrnes Calls For Quick Vote On Europe Aid

Truman Is Denounced By Florida Industrial Group For Playing Politics

JACKSONVILLE, Mar. 4 (AP)—Former Secretary of State James F. Byrnes today called for swift congressional passage of the bill for Europe reconstruction. "In view of world conditions, it is important that Congress should now act promptly," he said in an address before the Associated Industries of Florida.

Earlier today, the industries group condemned President Truman's civil rights program as "iniquitous, invidious and malicious."

At a meeting co-incidental with election of officers, the organization of some 500 members adopted a resolution stating the President's program was "promulgated for selfish political expediency at the expense of creating racial and sectional prejudice and hatred."

The resolution further resolved that Governor Millard Caldwell of Florida be requested "to begin to use every means at his command of his high office to inform our people of the dangerous consequences of these laws to Florida and the Southland, and to lead our people with all the powers at his command in attacking this impractical scheme and invasion of southern Democracy."

Byrnes said "we must aid the countries of Western Europe at this time because it is right, because it is humane and because we know that without such aid there cannot be a return in Europe of the stable conditions necessary to enable the people of Western Europe to defend their liberties."

"Our enemies abroad and some local-thinking people at home charge that the Marshall Plan is responsible for the permanent unemployment of our people."

Tuck Anti-Truman Bill Is Substituted By New Legislation

RICHMOND, Va., Mar. 4 (AP)—A complete substitute for Governor Tuck's "anti-Truman" election law bill was ready for Virginia's general assembly today. The substitute, which has the Governor's full approval, would open the door to the appearance of President Truman's name on the November ballot.

The original legislation would have banned the names of presidential and vice presidential candidates. The new measure is a variation in a minor key of Tuck's declaration for a revolt against Mr. Truman in the wake of his civil right proposals. It will be offered to the privileges and elections committee of both House and Senate prior to a public hearing tonight.

The Democratic convention should instruct for some other presidential candidate, Mr. Truman's name, however, would still not appear as the candidate for the Democratic Party. This would be so even if the national convention nominated him. In the event of unfavorable action by the state convention, Mr. Truman nevertheless could get on the ballot by being offered as

Boat Parade Sunday To Celebrate Completion Of Woodruff Cut-Off

The Hill Dredging Company has completed its work on the Woodruff Creek cut-off, which will be six feet deep at low water and 75 feet wide at the bottom. The big dredge has been brought back to Lake Monroe and will soon be in action opposite Sanford, according to Edward Higgins, manager of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce.

The Coast Guard Auxiliary Unit, of which Joe Mensch is commander, will celebrate the event with a parade of boats through the new channel at 3:00 o'clock Sunday afternoon, and the Chamber of Commerce will cooperate in promoting the outing, said Mr. Higgins.

Efforts are being made, according to Al Lee of the Coast Guard, to contact Lieut. West, commander of Sub Chaser 679 to have the vessel join the boat parade. John Brunley, operator of the Sanford Boat Works, today declared that the new channel will be a big help to yachtsmen, as it will save more than three miles in the trip from the boat works to Lake Monroe.

At the present time there are 50 yachts, 20 to 50 feet long, moored at the boat works, he said. Some of these are owned by Or-lan-las are from Gloucester, Mass., Norwalk, Conn., and Red Bank, N. J. Additions may have to be made to the boat works if the number of craft keep increasing, said Mr. Brunley.

Mr. Brunley also reported that the Coast Guard is going to use some of the money derived from taxes to place new piling for

Mihai Says He Is Not Bound By His Recent Abdication

Former King of Romania Leaves Friday For U. S. Visit

LONDON, Mar. 4 (AP)—Former King Mihai of Romania said today his abdication was forced upon him and he does not consider himself bound by it. Mihai said tomorrow for the United States. He had lunch today with the British royal family at Buckingham Palace, and then issued a statement saying:

"At the present moment it is no longer necessary to insist on the circumstances and causes of certain political events. The motives of the profound political changes imposed on the small states of Eastern Europe are all too well known."

"As for Romania, I am concerned, I want to avail myself to the first possibility personally to confirm the facts as they happened."

On the morning of Dec. 30, 1947, Mr. Petru Groua and Gheorghe-Del, members of the Romanian cabinet, presented to me the text of the act of abdication, urging me to sign it at once. Both of them came to the royal palace after it had been surrounded by armed detachments, informing me that they would hold me responsible for the bloodshed which will follow.

2 Education Leaders
Endorse College Plan

GAINESVILLE, Mar. 4 (AP)—Leaders of two national education foundations today endorsed the Regional College Plan as the only answer to needs for better training in highly specialized fields throughout the nation.

Owen D. Young, New York industrialist and educator, told a conference of Southern college officials the South will be able to put its plan into effect "quicker and easier than we in the north, but we know it is inevitable there too."

Dr. Oliver C. Carmichael, president of the Carnegie foundation, said interstate pooling of resources under a plan similar to the Southern compact provides the only present hope for adequate training in certain fields.

No Inquest Held On Drowned Negro

No inquest regarding the drowning in Lake Monroe Friday evening of Will Gardner, 80-year-old negro, whose body was recovered from the lake Monday morning, was found to have been necessary. It was announced this morning by Justice of the Peace W. E. Watson.

The death was said to have been due to accidental drowning, according to Mr. Watson, who pointed out that the elderly negro could have stumbled in the darkness and fallen from the sea wall at the foot of French Avenue due to being unable to see where he was going, as he was totally blind in one eye and had a cataract on the other. The decision by the coroner's jury followed an autopsy by Dr. George Stark.

Austin Ready To De- mand UN Group Ap- proval Despite Ob- jections Of Others

DAMASCUS, Syria, Mar. 4 (AP)—Fawzi Bey Al Kaikh, commander of the Arab volunteer army, moved into Palestine this afternoon with a hand-picked headquarters company in full combat equipment.

JERUSALEM, Mar. 4 (AP)—Arabs ambushed a Hagana patrol near Ramallah today and police said 17 Jewish militiamen were killed. Arab sources said the patrol was trying to penetrate through the hills to lay mines on the highway when it encountered Arab defenders. A two-hour gunfight resulted. There was no estimate of Arab casualties.

LAKE SUCCESS, Mar. 4 (AP)—The United States stood firm on its Palestine policy today despite a recognized probability of defeat in the United Nations Security Council.

Informed quarters said U. S. Chief Delegate Warren R. Austin would not change his original resolution to meet objections raised by Russia, Belgium, Canada, Syria and China in the past week.

Some quarters had hoped that the recent today in the Palestine debate might lead to some off-the-floor compromise, but a check of the delegates failed to disclose any consultations either in progress or planned.

Austin was reported ready to press for a vote tomorrow on his proposal approving partition as the solution of the Palestine problem and getting up a big five committee to find a way to Arrangements were started and committees appointed to promote "dollar days" in the near future, said Mr. Lyon.

4 Injured In Search For Officer's Slayer

SWAINSBORO, Ga., Mar. 4 (AP)—Two men and two women were reported wounded today when a posse seeking the slayer of a Georgia police officer poured shots into a house where he had hidden.

Deputy Sheriff Elmer Van Pelt at nearby Augusta said the posse numbering several score men had trailed the quartet to the house. Three airplanes and a pack of bloodhounds aided the officers.

The deputy said shots from the old house, at rural Dyer's Crossing, was that none was wounded seriously. One of the women had a deep shoulder wound.

Officers said they fired after the group in the house fired upon them when they surrounded the place.

MacArthur Boom For Presidency Promised By GOP

Representative Says General Is Not Con- trolled by Cliques

NEW YORK, Mar. 4 (AP)—A presidential boom for General Douglas MacArthur so strong that the Republican national convention will have to nominate him was promised yesterday by a backer from Chicago.

Warren Wright, Chicago banker and former Illinois state treasurer, said at a news conference that he was leaving today for Washington, D. C., to open national headquarters for the Douglas MacArthur Campaign Committee.

Wright, acting committee chairman, declared he came here to "coordinate MacArthur sentiment."

Wright said his committee plans a national poll on the presidential possibilities by an independent group about three weeks before the GOP convention. Each convention delegate will be informed of the results, he said.

Rep. A. L. Miller (R-Neb.) said he is sure General MacArthur would accept the Republican presidential nomination.

"The general would certainly

ICC Official Asks High Freight Rate Revision By Board

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4 (AP)—An Interstate Commerce Commission examiner has recommended that certain classes of rail freight rates between Shreveport, La., and some other cities be lowered "unreasonable and unduly prejudicial."

Examiner Frank M. Weaver, in his report to the commission, suggested that "lawful rates" be prescribed for the future.

Weaver also recommended that a 1934 southwestern area rate revision be reopened for further hearings on whether so-called one factor rates should be substituted for an arbitrary combination of factors now applying to a certain number of commodities.

The commission will make the final decision.

The change in rates is sought by the Shreveport chamber of commerce, which opened proceedings against the Aberdeen and Rockfish Railroad Company.

Buildings Inspected For Fire Hazards

Firemen are continuing inspection tours of downtown buildings in order to keep thoroughly acquainted with possible fire hazards, said Fire Chief M. N. Cleveland this morning.

The type and contents of stores and buildings are carefully noted so that firemen can assist merchants in keeping down losses in case of fire, he declared.

Residents who wish to burn trash, rubbish or grass on vacant lots are advised by Chief Cleveland to first notify the Fire Department which cooperates by advising the best way to go about burning the lot. In this way many runs by the department may be averted.

New Orleans Strip-Tease Dancer Gets Act Dunked In Campus Lake

BATON ROUGE, La., Mar. 4 (AP)—Stacy "Stormy" Lawrence, New Orleans striptease dancer, brought her hot act to the Louisiana State University campus today, but got a cold plunge in the university lake for her trouble.

The dancer, center of a controversy that set the unorthodox student magazine "Pel-Mell" hanned from the campus was dealt the cold water treatment by a group of muscular young men. They charged out of a crowd of students watching her routine in front of the university field house.

The water was only knee-deep. Miss Lawrence splashed out and wrapped up in an overcoat. She was taken to a campus police station. Students milled around the building, which was tightly closed.

Miss Lawrence had driven up to the university with her band from her French Quarter night club. She was demurely covered up with a long overcoat, wore horn-rimmed glasses and had her hair swept up.

Before the field house the band played and she went into her routine, taking the glasses off. Then she let down her hair, peeled off the overcoat and revealed a blouse and skirt, revealing a bra and black and white striped shorts.

But she put the overcoat back on. Then to the accompaniment of calls of "Take it off," she started the act again. At this point the group from the crowd went into action. First they overpowered the truck, scattered the band and smashed its instruments. A piano was shredded.

"Pel-Mell" dedicated its last issue to the dancer, featuring her picture on the cover and an extensive picture story inside. She came up to the campus last month, fully clothed, to autograph copies. Two weeks later university authorities forbade sale or advertisement of Pel-Mell on the campus.

Florida And Alabama Police Hold Suspects

PENSACOLA, Mar. 4 (AP)—Florida and Alabama officers today were holding four persons in connection with the $15,000 burglary of the Magnolia Club in Fort Walton on Feb. 25.

They also are held as suspects in a recent wave of liquor store robberies in this area. Deputy George S. Smith of Okaloosa County is reported.

William H. Love, 23, and his wife, Doris Louise, 23, were apprehended Saturday by Mobile police and were extradited by Okaloosa authorities. They are being held in the Crestview jail.

John Fallon and Bryant H. McCoy of the Mobile area were arrested Monday by Constable Oscar L. Henson of Fort Walton and Deputy Smith, who acted with Mobile police. Smith described Fallon as the "ringleader of the mob."

Graw Says Social Act On Citrus Put Aside

ORLANDO, Mar. 4 (AP)—Manager Lamonte Graw of the Florida Growers Association advised his office from Washington today that a recent ruling of the Internal Revenue Department putting agricultural workers under provisions of Social Security and withholding taxes has been set aside.

The ruling would have made all agricultural employees, including grove and vegetable workers, subject to the provisions of the tax and, Graw said, would have cost Florida fruit and vegetable producers many thousands of dollars.

MEYERS' TRIAL
WASHINGTON, Mar. 4 (AP)—Attorneys for Maj. General Bennett E. Meyers failed today in an effort to get a two weeks' recess in his federal court trial.

Judge Alexander Holtzoff denied the motion. He ruled that once a trial begins hearing the case no temporary adjournment is allowed.

Lamarre has testified that he falsely denied to senators on Meyer's instructions that Meyer received $150,000 wartime profits from a Dayton, O., plane parts firm, the Aviation Electric Company.

PROMOTION BARRED
TAMPA, Mar. 4 (AP)—Promotion of Sunshine Groves and the Citrus Growers Corp., was barred from interstate commerce today by a federal court injunction granted today by Federal Judge Louis W. Strum of Jacksonville.

General Disagrees With Truman Over Type Of Help To Be Provided China

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4 (AP)—Lieut. Gen. Albert C. Wedemeyer told Congress today that the United States must back up economic and direct military aid to be stopped in China and elsewhere.

"We are going to pay in blood" if proper steps are not taken by America to stop the spread of Communism, Wedemeyer told the House Foreign Affairs Committee.

"I don't think dollars alone will stop the spread of Communism anywhere," the one-time chief of staff to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-Shek continued. The Administration has proposed $570,000,000 aid to China without military help.

He said that economic aid should be backed up with military support. But Wedemeyer made plain he is talking about military aid and not military preparation.

He said military aid means sending competent officers to advise in the use of weapons which a country has been given economic aid.

"I don't believe military preparation is necessary at this time," he added at the committee hearing on the China aid measure.

Wedemeyer said Communism "is out to destroy everything we

Plot To Blow Up 2 Railroad Stations Fails To Come Off

NEW YORK, Mar. 4 (AP)—A "fantastic plot" to blow up two railroad terminals and other city key points sent police and federal agents out last night on one of their largest "smoke hunts" in years. But the threatened zero hour—the 5:15 P. M. rush period—passed without even one small explosion.

The bizarre "plan," which police dubbed the "flood and burn" plan, was unfolded in a rambling 15-page letter, undated and intercepted yesterday by police inspectors at a postal station.

Labeled "Plan Volok," it assigned 25 men, all carrying suitcases filled with "burning oil," to blow up the Pennsylvania station, 25 to Grand Central terminal and 25 to the Grand Central Office.

Reaching these points, they were directed to leave the suitcases, vanish into the homeward-bound crowd.

Safe Driving Urged At Jaycee Meeting

Regional officers of Orlando, chairman of the safety committee for the Florida State Junior Chamber of Commerce, stressed safety on the highways at the noon luncheon meeting of the Seminole County Jaycees at the Mayfair Inn today.

"Drunk driving is the greatest menace to those who use our public highways in the state of Florida," he said. "Drunk drivers kill more innocent people on our highways than any other way on our roads," he asserted.

Moffett stressed the importance of keeping automobiles in as near perfect running condition as possible. "One never knows what may happen. Have your cars inspected regularly," he declared.

He stressed a point that fast driving is unsafe driving. The meeting was presided over by President Bailey Odham.

THURMAN TO LEAVE

KEY WEST, Mar. 4 (AP)—President Truman took his last dip into calm vacation waters today before plunging into international and domestic political problems awaiting him at Washington.

The presidential plane, "The Sacred Cow," is due to leave the Boca Chica airport eight miles away at 9 A. M. Friday.

THE WEATHER

LAKELAND, Mar. 4 (AP)—Northern Florida will receive occasional rain and cooler weather tomorrow, the Federal State Frost Warning Service predicted.

GETS A WEEK

WASHINGTON, Mar. 4 (AP)—Senators today gave Thomas B. McCabe a week to answer charges of mismanaging surplus war sales in China.

On his reply may hinge his appointment to the Federal Reserve Board of governors. President Truman has said if the nomination is approved McCabe will replace Marshall S. Ecker as chairman.
