Nixon Wanted Evidence

Dean To Implicate Fellow Aides

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House Counsel John W. Dean III, who has declared he will not be made a scapegoat for the Watergate affair, appears ready to implicate other presidential aides, says a source close to him.

In another development, The Washington Post quotes sources today as saying President Nixon was told by members of his own staff last year that former Atty. Gen. John N. Mitchell and Dean probably were involved in both the wiretapping of Democratic party headquarters and a subsequent coverup.

Nixon, said the Post's sources, responded, "Give me some evidence."

Mitchell, former campaign director for Nixon, testified last week before a grand jury investigating Watergate. He told newsmen afterwards that he had heard discussion of wiretapping plans in the 1972 campaign but disapproved them.

Dean reportedly has been named by former Nixon campaign aide Jeb Stuart Magruder as among those present at a meeting where bugging of the Democratic headquarters was planned.

Dean, presidential counsel, conducted the initial investigation into the case, which was followed by Nixon's statement that no White House aides were involved. Nixon said April 7, however, that he had learned of major new developments pointing to the truth in the case.

"In a perhaps misguided concept in protecting the people around the President, he (Dean) has been caught up in questionable activities," a source close to Dean said Sunday.

The source said Dean's April 19 comment that he would not be made a scapegoat was "a clear indication that he is now going to help the President clear the White House staff of those that have hampered the office of the presidency to the end that President Nixon will have better and purer advisers in the future."

High Court Denies Appeal By Scribe

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Baltimore reporter, faced with jail for refusing to answer a grand jury's questions about a news source, today lost his bid for a hearing before the Supreme Court.

David M. Lightman appealed his potentially indefinite contempt sentence to the high court with the contention that the grand jury probe was motivated by a desire to harass his newspaper, the Baltimore Evening Sun, for publishing articles implicitly critical of law enforcement in Ocean City, Md.

The justices declined 8-1 to hear Lightman's case. Justice William O. Douglas said he would have heard the issue.

In a 1971 article, Lightman wrote that he was offered marijuana by the operator of an Ocean City pipe shop while a uniformed policeman was in the store.

"Don't worry about him," the story quoted the operator as saying. "We have a lot of cops come in. You know, it's rough on them, most are under 21. We're nice to 'em, so they don't come sniffing around."

Lightman was later called before a Worcester County grand jury where he answered some questions, but refused to identify the shop or the operator, citing a state law shielding news sources.

WEEKEND WONDERING — why is that "all of a sudden" the public is so aroused over the Watergate incident?

These are the same persons who knew of it before the election, but overwhelmingly put an X behind Mr. Nixon's name, as well as all of the others who were "swept" into office under his coat tails. (Come to think of it, there weren't too many of those, were there?)

And some of those other dailies who were so much in favor of a continuation of 4 years of bombing and fighting in Indochina (even though we were led to believe that by voting for a certain individual it would be over in short order), why is it that now these same newspapers are saying that we shouldn't get ourselves involved in Cambodia and Laos? Really, what's the difference between Vietnam and the others?

With both of these issues burning in the minds of all of us, I find it difficult to accept the results of the latest Gallup Poll wherein 77 per cent had no opinion or had not heard of the case!

Forty-one per cent feel that President Nixon knew in advance about the Watergate bagging attempt; 32 per cent felt he had no advance knowledge. . . . And then we come to that 27 per cent . . . who never heard of the rotten mess! (Oh well, perhaps they're better off as a result of same.)

Latest on our Gary Taylor's diet . . . in the past 10 1/2 weeks he has lost 70 pounds and is now down to 354. He's demanded a retraction of my comments about him wanting to drop down to 250. Says he is shooting for an even device — 250 pounds!

Creek Pollution Source Utility?

Bradshaw said no one realized the seriousness of the matter. . . I can't believe it's so bad. . .

By MARION BETHEA

Casselberry Utilities Company will be charged tonight with polluting Gee Creek, according to Winter Springs building inspector Bill Bradshaw.

Bradshaw told The Herald he would present tonight's 7:30 city council meeting with evidence he has gathered showing raw sewage has been dumped into the creek for years by CASSUCO, the utility.

The charges met an indignant denial from CASSUCO general manager Marvin Mandel, who said "I haven't any idea what this is all about."

"We've been working with the county and the state on pollution problems and are in the middle of a $1.4 million sewer plant to take the effluent out of Gee Creek," Mandel said.

"Why wouldn't Mr. Bradshaw come to us in this thing—frankly, I'm totally lost," Mandel added.

Mandel said his company would attempt to send a representative to tonight's council meeting.

According to Bradshaw, he appraised the condition of a sewage treatment plant of Florida Land Co. and learned the pollution was further upstream than the plant's location.

Bradshaw said raw sewage has been dumped into an open creek for years, with no corrective measures being taken.

Bradshaw said he will bring the situation to council's attention, since it is his opinion no one realizes the seriousness of the matter.

Bradshaw continued he was called by a building official of the Terraces who indicated he saw raw sewage in Gee Creek. Bradshaw said in an inspection that a clear portion of the stream disclosed floating excrement.

"I can't believe it's so bad," Bradshaw said.

In other council business, Bernard Brender, representing

Watson and Company, will display plans of the new city hall. Mayor Granville Brown met with Brender last Tuesday to discuss the city's specifications for the new building.

Some weeks ago, fiscal agent Logan Browning advised the city $250,000 would be adequate to construct a new city hall, fire station and police department. Financing will probably be through a bank loan, with revenues from Florida Power Corp. and Seminole Cablevision pledged against the loan.

Brown appointed Councilmen Troy Pilard, John Booth and Victor Miller to serve as a building committee.

Council will act upon recommendations of the city zoning board which were presented last week.

Included in the report was the recommended approval of preliminary plans of Section 2 of the Highlands and plans for the Wildwood subdivision.

The issues were tabled awaiting recommendations from the city engineer.

25,000 Enjoy Air Show In Sanford

More than 25,000 spectators thronged Sanford Airport Easter weekend for the second annual Sanford Air Show sponsored by the Sanford Rotary and Shrine Clubs.

The crowd thrilled to spectacular precision maneuvers by the high-flying U.S. Navy Blue Angels demonstration team and aerobatic acts by Corky Forman in his Gruman Bearcat, Gene Seay in his Pitts special, and Sandi Pierce perched atop a looping biplane piloted by her husband, Walt.

Eight Bahla Temple uniformed units also performed. Following posting of the colors by the Bahla Legion of Honor and invocation by U.S. Congressman Bill Gatter former prisoners of war and their families were honored. Those present included Navy Capt. Charles James, Cmdr. William Hartman, Lt. Cmdr. Giles Norrington, Lt. Cmdr. Richard Tangeman and Lt. Thomas Waldani.

Jim Prusack presented the Blue Angels with a special Appreciation Award before their performance.

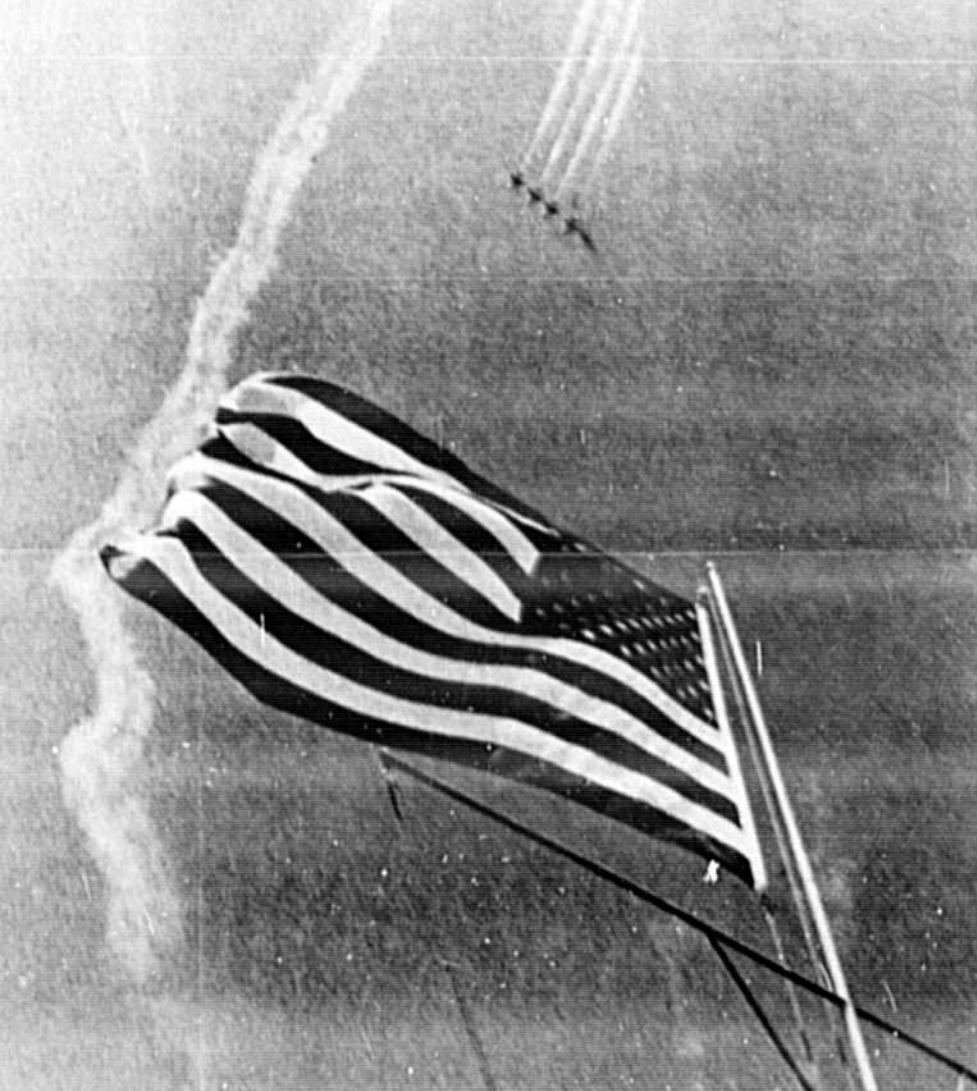

Rotary and Shrine officials said the "biggest crowd yet" devoured hundreds of pounds of barbecue chicken, hot dogs, hamburgers and thousands of cold drinks.

Air show narrators were Bill Bordeni, Kirby "Kay King" Grant and Lt. John Chelchansky of the Blue Angels.

Officials expressed special thanks to Bud Merrill and Holiday Inn for hosting the Blue Angels and the following auto-dealers for furnishing vehicles used at the air show and associated functions: Bob McKee, Bill Baker, Jim Lash, Guy Thornton, Johnny Bolton, Hal Spraggins, Joe Creamons, and Mid-Florida Dodge. Trucks were furnished by Clarence Flannery and Aubrey Jacobs.

Hanger space was furnished by Henry White and Jud Garvin. John Perkins hosted a dinner and reception for military enlisted personnel Friday evening preceding the Saturday air show.

Special thanks were also given Orlando Navy Training Center commanding officer Capt. John F. Gillooly for use of a bus and the NTC band. Col. Funk of McCoy Air Force Base furnished vacuum sweeper units for runway housekeeping.

Shevin Proposes County Tax Rise

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) — Atty. Gen. Robert Shevin said today that proposed legislation to force county tax assessors to raise valuations to full market value needed to give more definite directions to the Revenue Department.

In a letter to House Speaker Terrell Sessums, Shevin said an analysis of the bills found they failed to include "any objective legislative guideline" on weight the department should give to the auditor general's findings on property values.

The Supreme Court ruled unconstitutional April 3 the use of the auditor general's ratio study, comparing assessments with market values, to withhold state education funds from counties where the assessments were low.

Bulletin
The employment of William Snow as city manager of Winter Park was terminated by the city council at a special meeting this morning. Councilman Byron Villwock confirmed to The Herald at press time today.

Villwock said Mayor Jim Driver asked for Snow's resignation Friday due to the fact "the man wasn't working out and for lack of communication." Named interim city manager was Frank Wooten, director of public works.

Weather
Yesterday's high 85 low this morning 55. Generally fair through Tuesday. Afternoon highs in the mid to upper 80s. Low tonight in the mid 60s.

The rain-soaked Mississippi Valley took the brunt of the new series of thunderstorms and heavy rains early today following a weekend of tornadoes, rain and flooding through the nation's mid-section.

Sessums has placed top priority on working out a new system to force full value assessments and a joint House-Senate committee recommended that the Revenue Department be given the responsibility.

Shevin's analysis said, "it is necessary to add an express requirement that the Department of Revenue shall not certify the levels of valuation in tax rolls except when the auditor's findings are rebutted by other evidence."

Past experience has shown the department needs more detailed supervision, said Shevin who was asked by Sessums to analyze the bill.

The attorney general added that he doubted the department would or could make a detailed study of actual market values, as the auditor general did.

Typhoid Lawsuits Filed

MIAMI (AP) — Members of three migrant farm labor families have filed suits seeking $1 million in damages each as a result of a recent typhoid epidemic at the South Dade Labor Camp.

The suits, all filed by Miami attorney Ralph Ezzo on behalf of the migrants, name the Homestead Housing Authority as defendant. The authority operates the camp.

The migrants allege the authority was negligent in maintaining the camp's water supplies, in not warning residents of the danger and in not quarantining the camp.

Seeking damages are Frances Trevino and her daughter, Josefa; Luis Diaz, his wife, Mary; and Efran Rodriguez on behalf of his son, Efran Jr.

Reds Attack Ships On Mekong River

By RICHARD BLYSTONE Associated Press Writer

SAIGON (AP) — Another river convoy passed through a stretch of enemy fire on its way to the Cambodian capital of Phnom Penh today but suffered no serious damage, American sources reported.

Two rockets hit the district town of Hong Ngu in the same border area, but no casualties were reported. A ground attack and several small shellings were reported against government positions eight to 10 miles northwest of Hong Ngu, with six Viet Cong and two government troops killed and 38 government troops wounded.

The South Vietnamese command reported 86 Communist cease-fire violations in the 24 hours ending at dawn today, the lowest number since the truce began Jan. 23. The previous low was 85 on April 16.

However, the drop in the total was not considered significant because the number has fluctuated widely from day to day.

The Saigon command reported more attacks around the defense perimeter in mountains west of Hue in the northern part of the country, and three miles northwest of the base camp at Phu Cu on the central coast, 200 miles northeast of Saigon. It said six enemy troops were killed in the attack near Phu Cu and seven government soldiers wounded. Hanoi radio charged, meanwhile, that the United States plans to introduce troops from Thailand into Cambodia in a "hopeless" attempt to save the government of President Lon Nol.

Senators Confer With Brezhnev

By JAMES R. PEIPERT Associated Press Writer

MOSCOW (AP) — Seven U.S. senators met with Leonid I. Brezhnev today for a discussion of Soviet-American trade package signed in Washington Oct. 18 provides for most-favored-nation status for Russian exports to the United States and extension of U.S. credits for Soviet purchase of American goods and technology.

A U.S. spokesman declined to disclose details of the senator's three-hour conversation with the Communist party leader but indicated that a prime topic was legislative obstacles to further expansion of trade.

The Soviet news agency Tass said Brezhnev "voiced the readiness of the Soviet Union to widen and strengthen trade and economic relations with the United States." It made no mention of the amendments on Jewish emigration.

The senators, all members of the Senate Commerce Committee, have been in Moscow since Thursday discussing the general state of East-West trade.

The meeting with Brezhnev came as a surprise. It was interpreted as a further indication top Soviet leaders

County, City Debate Traffic Signal $$

By CHRIS NELSON

Seminole County Commissioners will spend Tuesday morning debating the fate of county participation in Sanford traffic signals, with a possible cutoff of county funds in the offing.

The work session prior to the regular afternoon meeting will hear arguments on why Sanford should not bear at least part of the cost of maintaining signals on the city's primary and secondary roads.

Also on the workshop agenda are proposals for a county-wide annual ordinance, and more discussions of the longstanding problem of housing city prisoners in county jail.

The regular evening session will see six zoning, public hearings with a 7 p.m. leadoff for the controversial proposal to rezone an agricultural tract northeast of Howell Branch Road by Bear Creek Road for multiple family dwelling.

California, New York States Spend Image $

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Public relations is a big business for the nation's two most populous states.

Such spending in California and New York illustrates the size to which state public relations can grow.

In New York, taxpayers support a $4.25-million-a-year public relations operation, Californians pay over millions that go into a daily cascade of press releases, pamphlets, books on state government, tourist brochures, state agency reports and for the salaries of hundreds of persons responsible for producing this information.

The taxpayer's dollar also contributes to a certain amount of image-polishing by state bureaucrats and politicians.

Although accurate figures are hard to come by, it is estimated that New York has about 300 employees working full time in public relations. California has about 120 working for state agencies, and considerably more if one counts aides to the state's 120 legislators and Gov. Ronald Reagan's eight-member public information staff.

Salaries for these people in California range from the $10,600 paid a beginning PIO, to the $28,875 a year earned by Reagan's press secretary Ed Gray.

New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's public relations staff costs $550,000 annually in salaries and other expenses, according to the Budget Division.

The $1.25 million spent on all public relations in New York State represents slightly more than one-tenth of one percent of the $1.3 billion annual state operating budget.

California officials said they could not say how much money is spent on PIO work, but state Capitol reporters estimate the figure at about $2 million annually.

"Public information is so difficult to label," said Alan Post, the California Legislature's nonpartisan fiscal adviser. "It's so difficult to extract. We were unable to put on any kind of meaningful price tag. We finally threw up our hands."

The output of the PIOs is impressive. For example, during a typical 24-hour period at California's state Capitol at Sacramento, 18 press releases were tossed into the "in" basket of The Associated Press' bureau there — about one every eight minutes.

The state operates its own printing plant, which did $18 million worth of work last year, including $6.34 million for textbooks, $6.6 million for state agencies and $3.9 million for the legislature.

Let him eat cake and you'll get the crumbs

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: Like so many others, I can't believe I'm actually writing a Dear Abby letter. My husband is having an affair with an 18-year-old girl. [He's 37.]

I found out about it three months ago. He promised to stop, but now he says she's pregnant and he has an obligation to her. [What about his obligation to ME? We have four children, 5 to 14 years old.]

He spends every weekend with her and comes home to me during the week. He says if I don't like it, he'll stay with her during the week, too. Abby, I love him and don't want to lose him, yet I can't live like this.

He says he doesn't want a divorce or a separation. He just wants to go on like he is. How can I save our marriage? DEAR CONCERN: You can't save your marriage without your husband's cooperation. He should see a lawyer about his legal obligation to the girl, then make a choice between you and her. If you let him continue to have his cake and eat it, too, you will wind up with the crumbs.

DEAR ABBY: Concerning the brides who are always being criticized because they are late getting out their thank-you notes for their wedding gifts. My niece was married in September, and I did not receive a thank-you note for my wedding gift until mid-January. The reason: She had colored pictures made of herself and the groom and they wanted to enclose a picture with each thank-you. She didn't get her proofs from the photographer until December, and the pictures weren't finished until January. I think this was a lovely gesture which more than compensated for the late thank-you note.

DEAR AUNT: You were more understanding than most people would have been. I agree, it was a lovely gesture, but four months is about two months too long to wait for an acknowledgment.

DEAR ABBY: My husband uses a very clever gimmick to get acquainted with pretty young women wherever we are on a vacation. He always carries a copy of a thank-you note to make himself look like a real expert photographer, and when he sees a pretty girl, he compliments her on her figure, or face, or hair, and asks her if she would mind posing for a few pictures. This never fails to get her to buy her a drink or lunch or something so he can get better acquainted with her. [Of course he takes her name and address so he can send her the pictures later.] Sometimes he doesn't even have any film in his camera. He's 45 years old and acts like a teen-ager. Would it be within my rights to introduce myself to some of these bathing beauties and spoil his fun?

DEAR WIFE: Certainly. But be sure you catch him before he "clicks."

DEAR ABBY: In reference to non-Catholics attending Catholic services, I recommend that you wait until you see the priest before entering the pew. The first time I took my Methodist husband to church we nearly played leapfrog! R. T.

Give the finest religious and ethical training you can. He or she will, although it may be somewhat hard to do. The latter part of the life is apt to be spent in philosophical study. A good marriage is indicated. Some travel in early life is wise.

POLLY'S POINTERS It's Prime Time For Milk Can Antiquing

DEAR POLLY: I am answering Hazel who wants to know how to "antique" an old Italian milk can. An antiquing kit can be bought for this job. Be sure first to paint the can with a metal primer. I did not do this and when the glaze was wiped off the paint came off with it and I had to start all over. After the primer is dry follow the directions that come with the kit. When dry, apply red and wipe off until the desired effect is obtained. I applied a large eagle decal on one side of mine and then applied the final coat of varnish. Gold paint can be bought at a hobby shop to use for touching up the rim, handles or wherever desired.—MRS. K. W.

DEAR GIRLS:—Be sure your milk can is thoroughly clean before you start. Many old milk cans have rough and rusty spots that must first be removed for a professional looking job.—POLLY

DEAR POLLY: I have a problem with washing walls. The idea, of course, is to get them clean in the shortest time without rinsing and then keeping them clean as long as possible without rinsing. I have tried several cleaners but notice that when I take a shower the walls steam up and begin to run and streak from a left-to-right motion. Can anyone suggest a way to do this without a lingering odor or rinsing?—MRS. J. C. R.

DEAR POLLY: I was saved a bill by cleaning my son's red and white letter jacket with rug shampoo. I filled a sponge brush topped bottle two-thirds full of cold water and added shampoo. After shaking well, I brushed this foamy mixture into the cloth part of the coat and the colors did not run since it was a cold water shampoo. The white leather trim was washed with warm soapy water. The jacket was put on a hanger and hung on the clothesline to dry completely.—MRS. W. C.

DEAR POLLY:—Each morning I take the milk I will cook for dinner out of the freezer so it will thaw. On hot summer days I always try to get the milk out of the freezer for fear it would thaw too quickly and spoil before I got home. One day I arrived home to find the cat had chewed the package and the milk was all over the floor. Right then I decided that to keep the cat from eating my dinner again I would leave the frozen meat to thaw in the cold oven. Upon my arrival home the meat was thawed but still cold and fresh looking. The coldness of the frozen meat and the insulation in the oven had combined to keep the temperature cool and the meat thawed more.—PATRICIA

Night on the Town

We knew New York would be expensive. We had already committed ourselves to the $110 weekend special.

Of course, I had to wear the velvet pants and top Lew had bought me especially for our New York getaway and the high platform shoes I had picked up at the last minute because there wasn't time to shorten the pants.

Overall, we had been more appropriate for Vincent's. It was the sort of place New Yorkers who are sick of phony atmosphere seek out to reaffirm the basic ordinariness, the natural grumpiness and had humor of "real people."

Clams, octopus and squid were slapped down on the table with a grunt. The "medium hot" sauce on the calamari was enough to sear the stomach lining. No salad, spaghetti, vegetable or dessert served. No garlic bread.

TWO INJURED IN LAKEFRONT CRASH

CHRISTINE GROW, 50, north Miami Beach, was listed in poor condition today at Seminole Memorial Hospital, following Sunday night collision on U.S. 17-92 east of 14 between her car (above) and truck (below) driven by Walter Hopson Jr., 119 West Ninth Street, Sanford. Also injured was Mrs. Grow's sister, Martha Giles, 54, Lake Monroe, a passenger in the car. Florida Highway Patrol Trooper Ernie Jacobs said the truck plunged into Lake Monroe after collision that ripped away its front axle. Jacobs, who was not injured, charged Hopson with driving under influence of alcoholic beverages. (Bob Lloyd Photos)

UNPROTECTED RAILROAD CROSSING BLAMED

TROOPER M.E. Leggett of the Florida Highway Patrol blamed "inadequate railroad crossing warning devices and real bad view obstruction" on a Saturday afternoon accident on Port of Florida Road, about a quarter-mile west of U.S. 17-92 in DeBary. Charles Sirman, 28, of Route 2, Oviedo, was treated at Seminole Memorial Hospital. His wife, Nancy, 25, was transferred to Winter Park Hospital, where she is in the intensive care unit. The car was struck by a Seaboard Coastline passenger train traveling about 60 miles per hour. Leggett said trailers, a high dirt bank and high bushes obstructed view, and that by the time the driver reached the point that he could see the train, he had inadequate reaction time to stop. # Log Cabin Lot Bids Expected At Meeting

Sanford City Commission is scheduled to receive bids at its meeting tonight at 7 on lakefront lot fronting on Seminole Boulevard and Myrtle Avenue. Mogul earlier offered $40,000 for the lot, site of a former American Legion log cabin. This morning, city clerk Henry Tamm said no bids had been received but advertisements for bids specified a deadline of 7 p.m. It wasn't immediately known if Mogul will re-submit his bid for the lot as site of a proposed office building. Also on tonight's commission agenda is a public hearing on a consulting firm of traffic engineers and a downtown parking and traffic study, a request by South Seminole Cab Co. for licenses to set up a two-car, 24-hour a day operation in Sanford; and establishment of a public hearing date for 28 condemnations of structures. Bids will be considered on the "Big Inch" sewer interceptor line slated to serve 5,700 new units in the city's southwest quadrant.

Newport Rocking From Navy Cutback

By TERRENCE HUNT Associated Press Writer NEWPORT, R.I. (AP) — A banker expresses optimism for the future. But grocers, gas station owners, shopkeepers and others who relied on Navy business are gloomily awaiting the worst. Newport, the faded playground of millionaires and socialites, has been rocked by a Pentagon order that will wipe out nearly 14,000 military and civilian jobs at the Newport Naval Base. "It's going to depress it for a while, but it's going to bounce back," says the sales manager of a large real estate firm says that, since the cutback announcement a week ago today, "it's just a story of one cancellation after another. The market has gone absolutely stone dead. There's no phone calls for sales." In nearby Middletown — where a string of gas stations, car washes, hamburger joints and two shopping centers have grown up outside the Navy's gates — a clerk for a dry cleaner says, "We're going to suffer. We probably won't be here next year." The future looks equally bleak to furniture store owners and used-car dealers, who do up to 80 per cent of their business with the Navy. A developer already has cancelled plans to build a new $10 million shopping center near one of the base's gates. William A. Perry, president of the Newport National Bank, says marginal businesses probably will go under and Newport will become a bedroom community to a local area. "It's going to depress it for a while, but it's going to bounce back," he says emphatically. "If you have a labor force available, industry will come in."

Commissioners will discuss appointing a consulting firm of traffic engineers and a downtown parking and traffic study, a request by South Seminole Cab Co. for licenses to set up a two-car, 24-hour a day operation in Sanford; and establishment of a public hearing date for 28 condemnations of structures. Applications are still being accepted for the Sixth Annual Summer Camp for Little League Baseballers which will be held at the Southern Regional Headquarters for L.L. baseball in St. Petersburg. The camp offers a variety of activities including swimming, volleyball, badminton and tennis but of course the most emphasis will be placed on baseball. Employing all of the latest equipment and techniques for training youngsters in the skills of baseball the camp will utilize batting cages, pitching machines and other innovations approved by the Research Department of Little League. The first of three 2-week sessions begins June 24. All three sessions are still taking applications. Full information can be obtained by calling Arnold White in St. Petersburg at (813) 344-2961 or writing c/o Little League Baseball, P.O. Box 13366, St. Petersburg, Florida, 33733. Other members of the Lyman 400 freestyle team were Heudlinger, Rick Schoepflin and Jim Bistline. Readlinger had the Greyhounds' first place finish as he breezed home in 1:51.90 in the 200 freestyle, well ahead of Oak Ridge's Ed Collins who had a time of 1:54.0. Heudlinger was second in the 400 free but it took a record breaking effort on the part of Boone's Admunsden to do it. Admunsden really let it all out in posting a time of 3:55.3 while the best Heudlinger could do was a 3:59.5. Professional golf is not the kind of sport where an athlete can really set his mind on "beating" one certain competitor but often it does work out that way. Case in point: The head to head confrontations of Jack Nicklaus and Lee Trevino. It was Trevino who prevented Trevino from setting all time money winnings for one year (at that time) by winning the 1972 British Open and just this past week Nicklaus delayed Trevino's bid to reach the million dollar mark in career winnings by taking the Tournament of Champions this past week in La Costa, California. That Nicklaus victory also kept Trevino from winning his first tournament in California. On a pace that is better than his $300,000 plus effort of 1972 Nicklaus is hot after the one more 'major' championship that will put him ahead of the late, great Bobby Jones. # Pioneers 'Drive' Past Lyman For Metro Title

ORLANDO — Lyman High's Swim team did not take a chance at their first Metro Conference Swimming title Saturday at the South Orange YMCA. Skip Foster does not have any divers on his five aggregation team and it was in that event that 1973 Metro Champion Oak Ridge picked up the valuable points necessary for the team title. Oak Ridge finished with 249 1/2 points to Lyman's 231. In diving the Pioneers were awarded 28 points with Phil Schoelster taking a third and Don Carpenter finishing fourth. First place finishes were not dominated by either the Greyhounds or the Pioneers. Lyman had two, the 200 free style and the 400 free relay while Oak Ridge had two top finishers, the 100 yard butterfly and the 200 medley relay. No one school was able to make off with more than two first place finishes. Winter Park's David Leb was a double record breaking winner in the 50 and 100 freestyle events; Keith Admunsden of the best Boone Braves, was a double winner, taking the 400 freestyle in record fashion after he won the 200 individual medley. Bishop Moore took first in the diving and 100 yard backstroke while Colonial had the top finisher in the 100 yard breast stroke. The record breaking efforts of the Parker Lee had much to do with Lyman's finishing behind the Pioneers for second to Lee in both events. Senior Rick Hartman, Hartman had a time of 23.5 or 1.5 off that of Lee in the 50 free and in the 100 free Hartman finished at 50.1 while Lee's record effort was 48.8. Hartman had a time of 48.8 in 100 yards of freestyle swimming but it came in the 400 freestyle relay when the Greyhound senior anchored the Hounds victory. Other members of the Lyman 400 freestyle team were Heudlinger, Rick Schoepflin and Jim Bistline. Readlinger had the Greyhounds' first place finish as he breezed home in 1:51.90 in the 200 freestyle, well ahead of Oak Ridge's Ed Collins who had a time of 1:54.0. For finishing third was Ed Kreimbort, a mere nineteenth of a second ahead of Lyman's Ed Kentner. In the 200 finishing far ahead of Oak Ridge, 324 to 175. Evans, which finished ahead of only Lyman and Colonial, in the team totals, prevented the Winter Park Lassies from completing a first place sweep. Pam Rogers captured the 100 yard breast stroke, the only event in which the Parkers failed to take a first. Locally to the Greyhound girls were Cathy Cattaneo who took a third in the 100 yard backstroke and a sixth in the 100 butterfly and Mary Hawkins' fourth in the 100 yard breast stroke.

Trinity Prep Closes 14-3, Tourney Bound

By J. RICHARDS Herald Sports Writer Bobby Fiquette and Winston Dubose tamed Boca Raton St. Andrews for a pair of games Friday and Saturday as the Trinity Prep Saints wound up their season on a winning note, 3-2 and 5-3. Going with a young team comprised mostly of freshmen and sophomores, Coach Steve Stevenson forged his third consecutive winning year with a 1-3 mark. Trinity lead-off batter and center fielder, speedster Lawrence Cleveland scored four runs in six trips to the plate, including a two-run 300 first game home run. Pee Wee Knowles, the Trinity diminutive freshman second sacker and shortstop had a fine day at the plate in the number two position, slapping out three hits in seven trips to the dish in the two-day end of season trip to South Florida. The Saints open their post season play in their bid for a third straight Class A District title Thursday in St. Dea. Fiquette tame J. St. Andrews with a three-hitter in the first game for his ninth win against one loss for the year, while Knowles' double was a key in the Trinity victory. Fiquette tame J. # Third Seeded Greyhounds Face Pioneers Wednesday

Bob McCullough's Lyman Greyhounds must "prove" themselves to more skeptics in the Class AAAA, District 3 baseball tourney which opens Tuesday in DeLand. The Greyhounds, champions of the Metro Conference, were seeded third behind DeLand and Edgewater in the eight team district tourney which is to be played at Conrad Park. DeLand comes into the tourney with a 16-3 record card, one win more than the Greyhounds who closed at 13-3, and were 13-1 in the highly touted Metro Conference which sent five teams into the District 3 tourney. Edgewater closed at 14-7-1 to get the second seed while the fourth seed went to Boone, third in the Metro and 15-1 overall. Opening the tourney Tuesday night at 8 p.m. will be Winter Park and Edgewater. At 8 p.m. DeLand and Seabreeze, a pair of Big Eight Conference entries square off. The opening game Wednesday night is a 6 p.m. affair matching the Braves of Boone and the Gainesville Hurricanes. Lyman gets into action in the 3 p.m. clash with Oak Ridge providing the opposition. Lyman has beaten Oak Ridge twice this season 2-0 and 6-4.
