

Senate Unit OKs Teacher Salary Hike

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — A teacher pay raise with a $5,100 annual minimum, higher than the Florida Education Association proposal, emerged in the Senate Tuesday as a possible challenger to smaller versions.

The adoption by a subcommittee of the Senate Public Education Committee topped a day which also saw Senate passage of a $1.35 billion appropriations bill and a shakeup of State Cabinet powers in the House.

The Senate subcommittee recommended a $185 million teacher pay raise bill, which compares with a House committee's $167 million version, and the FEAs $277 million bill.

"The Senate version is smaller because raises for teachers with seniority are not as high as those proposed in the FEAs bill. However, it would grant a $5,100 minimum in 1967-68 and $5,300 minimum in 1968-69, while the FEAs bill provides only $5,000 each year.

Making reference to the FEAs controversial sanctions film, Subcommittee Chairman

Sen. Lawton Chiles, D-Lakeland, commented that the committee had time "to get our film ready" before revealing the proposal.

The committee meeting room roared with laughter when he said: "I guess the best we can do is hold hands in the dark."

FEA Executive Director Ed Henderson, in a serious vein, called the Senate proposal a "bitter projection that the House bill."

The subcommittee's recommendations were based on boosting starting salaries to put Florida back in the competitive market for teachers and in increasing salaries for those in the "middle group," who need encouragement to continue working for a master's degree or remain in teaching.

Earlier, Gov. Claude Kirk's budget - cutting proposal ran aground on the Senate's 25-17 passage of a Democratic-drawn $1.35 billion appropriations bill. Democrats turned down an offer of full support by the Republican bloc on condition that some $24.4 million in capital outlay projects be included.

At first, there was sentiment to accept the proposal. This was apparently squelched during a hurriedly called 15-minute recess.

"Juicy morsels," commented Sen. John Mathews, D-Jacksonville, in pointing out that a good many of the construction projects itemized in the capital outlay proposal fell in Republican-held senatorial districts.

Meanwhile, the House approved 116-6 a bill establishing a new cabinet board: A Transportation Commission which it would place in the cabinet, high-speed train and other mass transit systems.

Kirk would be chairman, and would be authorized to appoint the director of a State Transportation Department. No appropriation was provided, but sponsors said funds would be drawn off several existing agencies, which now do related work, and federal aid.

The House also blocked a

'Sabre Rattling' Hit By Kirk

TALLAHASSEE (AP) — Republican leaders in the Florida Senate Tuesday hit the "sabre rattling" and "intimidate the Legislature."

"The sabre that is rattled is not one that worries anybody. It doesn't worry Mr. Turlington or anyone else," Kirk said at a news conference.

He referred to House Speaker Ralph Turlington, who said the Legislature wouldn't be intimidated by the FEAs demands or threatened teachers' walkouts if education demands are not met.

"I am gratified that the preponderance of teachers are interested in the 'children' rather than sanctions," Kirk said.

Covering other topics, Kirk said that he is appointing Harry Hood Bassett, chairman of the board of the Florida Education Bank of Miami to head a committee on highway planning and financing.

Kirk, referring to his five-year $500 million primary road plan, said he wants a "Deliberative group to advise me of the method of arriving at the goal."

The committee had been referred to earlier as a group designed to investigate possibilities of a road bond program, but Kirk said "I don't care what you call it." He named 16 other members the chairman.

Again, Kirk refused to answer questions to advise me of the method of arriving at the goal."

Demo Party Labels 'Blasted'

By DONNA ESTES

Democratic Women's Club of Florida, blasted the designation of various party labels to Democrats at the meeting of the Seminole Democratic Association Tuesday evening.

"Many of you probably think you are a conservative Democrat," she said. "The two words are incompatible, simply by definition. Conservative means tending to preserve established institutions and methods and to resist or oppose any changes in these."

"According to Barry Goldwater's definition of government, the Seminole Democratic Association were here last week to discuss the nomination of a party label."

Piddlin' Precipitation Falls On Florida

MIAMI (AP) — Scattered showers fell on the parched peninsula of Florida Tuesday but except for a few lifted spirits, weather experts said, it might just as well not have happened.

Miami received a trace of rain as did most other points around the state where the rainfall was measurable. Fort Lauderdale's drizzle was gauged at .06 inches. Paul Hebert, district forecaster for the Miami Weather Bureau, predicted light, widely scattered showers again for Wednesday.

He said the two days of sprinkles do not signify the end of the three-month drought. Paul Hebert, district forecaster for the Miami Weather Bureau, predicted light, widely scattered showers again for Wednesday.

Central Florida, he saw the possibility of bringing these two ideas together. He was frank in admitting that he could provide no specific plans, but he was equally sure that the people about whom you have heard are not without reason. He urged the chamber members to give this proposal serious consideration.

"What he had to say about the present waterways, however, was specific. 'Tell the people about what you have heard in the middle of a stampede.'"

Local mariners smiled at this. They know the approaches to Lake Jessup. But they also were aware that this man was driving home a simple point. What is so familiar to us ordinary residents with the longtime residents of this water-laced area, is not the increasing number of tourists visiting our shores, but the U.S. Navy ships offshore boom in more shells.

Red Missile Sites Blasted By Yanks

SAIGON (AP) — American warplanes rained two surface-to-air missile sites in the North Vietnamese setting up the demilitarized zone Tuesday night with a force of 5,000 U.S. Marines just south of the zone.

Enemy units have infiltrated in strength to the west and south of Con Thien and the neighboring Marine outpost at Gio Linh. The North Vietnamese president will be 77 Friday.

The U.S. Command said the antiaircraft missile sites which Marine jets bombed were located about 20 miles from the demilitarized zone. The sites were the first SAM sites reported inside the demilitarized zone. Newsmen last weekend saw a Skyhawk jet downed by one of the "flying telephone poles" in the area, but the missile was believed to have been launched from another site — just north of the zone.

Walter Bistline Heads Council

Walter Bistline was elected to head the Lyman High School Student Council for the coming year in student body elections held Tuesday.

Steve Perry was elected president of the Senior Class and David Rutenroger, Junior Class president.

Other student council officers included Ken Plank vice president, Lynne Miller, secretary, and Robin McClave, treasurer. Also elected by next year's seniors were Bill Hall, vice president; Judy Chent, secretary; and Donna Kinler, treasurer.

Junior Class officers will include Chris Butterworth, president; Letty Cote, secretary, and Karen Schwarz, treasurer.

Danes 'Go For' Erotic Films

COPENHAGEN (AP) — Erotic films drew stronger 18-a ratings than approved by Danish liberal censors will be the drawing card for a private club opening in Copenhagen in about two weeks.

Danish police will not be able to clamp down on the films, to be shown on closed-circuit TV and because they will be closed to the public, said Leo Madson of the Scandinavian Picture Corp.

After his ideas for the club got the go-ahead, so many people planned wanting to become members he "was almost sorry" he hadn't kept his plans secret a little longer.

Monroe Gottings

Mrs. H. L. Johnson Joseph Govebeck, who passed away Sunday, leaves his wife and one daughter, Mrs. Opat Barn, and several grandchildren. Very glad to hear that Terri (Mrs. Charles) Babun is now home after undergoing surgery at the local hospital. I know that his family is very happy to have him home again.

Word was received here Sunday morning that the son of former postmaster Mrs. Annie McArthur passed away very suddenly in California. We are very sorry to hear of this and glad that she made the trip safely out here. Hope that you were one of the many who came out to the Agricultural Center to meet our new Home Economics teacher, Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck. We are very proud to have Miss Sandra Weiss with us and know that she will be a most welcomed addition to the Homemakers in the county. Seminoole high school seniors who are students on the school bus, Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck, and Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck were guests of honor at a swimming party at her home last Saturday. A wonderful afternoon was enjoyed by the group and Lynn gave the girls perfume and the boys fountain pens. A very nice gesture.

Ray Ransford, Mike Hild, and Mary Stogner were hosts at a surprise birthday party for Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck at the Rans home. The "raffers" rang with plenty of guests during the evening. Mrs. Steve Cain and adorable "dotter" Paula Marie have returned home after a plane trip to Louisiana. Mrs. Cain's inspection will be taking it easy, too. But this is another girl who doesn't know when to say stop. Maybe she will visit this time. * * * George and Jean Anderson of Ft. Benning, Ga., and Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck were guests of honor at a party given by Mrs. L. F. B. Govebeck's parents, Carl and Ruby Anderson. * * * Mrs. Alvin (Marie) Hittell is home again and will almost be back again by the time you read this to the hospital where she will undergo surgery. I am thinking of you Marie. * * * Our sympathy goes to the family of young James Voelker who passed away last week. The excellent care of a circle lies in its readiness, not in its bigness.

Strikes And Spares

BY JOHN A. SPOLSKI

A month or so ago, everyone heard about the men's bowling team from Sanford when the local-lads clobbered the pros in the world renowned American Bowling Congress Tournament in Miami.

This past weekend, there were three teams of bowlers competing in the Annual Florida State Men's Bowling Tournament in Jacksonville, and again, the local 'pros' brought recognition to the Sanford area due to their record-setting performance.

The three teams competing were Zuckerman's Auto Parts, Owens, Glas Met and the Jet Lanes five-ome.

Alex Serrano was the 'big noise' carrying the Jet Lanes team with his 224, 228-611 scratch series as they finished with a 2115 handicapped series. At the end of the first day's team events bowling, this team was posted as being fifth highest in the state.

The tournament runs for three more weekends and should their score stand, it'll be worth somewhere around three or four hundred dollars to them.

Others who bowled well on the squad were Jack Kramer 2115-224, Rich Murphy 219, 204-570 and sole L.I.S.E. (Lucky's 2115) Spilloni who had a 221-550.

In the doubles competition, Harry Pentecost couldn't do anything wrong as he rolled one of the highest individual games in the state, a gigantic 228-530 series. He carried that team to a 1225 series, including handouts, which should also be worth a bank or two (and please don't ask me for his partner's name because he wasn't so lucky that time).

How are we going to spend that loot, Harry? Ah, HOW SWIFT IT IS . . .

This coming weekend, the girls take to the roads and head for their tournament scheduled for Ft. Lauderdale. Here's wishing these ladies the best of luck and may they have just as much fun and luck as the guys did in their go-around.

More on this in next week's column.

For good news sake, come on out to the lanes this Saturday and watch DJ GH Lusk roll in his own 20 game marathon bowling tournament. Lots and lots of big and valuable prizes being offered to anyone who is closest to guessing what his average will be for those 20 games.

Just as a hint, he's currently averaging around 172 (but did carry 181 last season) and his highest game in league this season is around a 224.

So, there you are. Put your guess on a sheet and drop it off here at the lanes and you might just be the lucky one collecting all of this loot.

One night earlier, we'll be staging our smaller version marathon. It'll only be for 12 games and it's handicapped, open to men and women. It'll start at 9 p.m. and for it, we have the following slated to compete - Charley Ge, Ray Hatcher, Mac Maclean, Jim Brewer, J. E. Jones, Bob Lewis, Don Smith, Alex Serrano, Jack Kramer, Fred Lach, Ed Gallacher and Bobby Borasoff.

Speaking of Friday evenings, on May 25 we'll be starting the popular Parent-Youngster League again. They'll only bowl two games during this 13 week schedule and on the final night, the youngsters will be bowing for a chance to win a prize for their older partner. It need not be Father-Son or Mother-Daughter, it may be inter-mixed any way at all. We just want to have the adults bowling with the youngsters for the fun of bowling.

Don't forget about the Junior League Banquet, here at the lanes for all of the youngsters and also those adults who'd like to attend. It'll be on Saturday morning, May 27, with a complete buffet offered in addition to the many trophies and awards.

Many of the Summer Leagues are progressing nicely. The Jet Bowlerettes of Wednesday a.m. are filled and the Tuesday a.m. women's handicapped league is six teams full, with a couple of extras on hand for the possibility of teams seven and eight being organized.

The Thursday a.m. Shooting Stars are in need of about six or seven girls, as are the BVAH-7 Wives, with both leagues bowling side-by-side.

During the summer months, we offer two free weeks to the league bowlers for vacations, etc.

The Ellisor Valtewagen Mixed League of Thursday evening has absolutely no trouble in organizing. They're all set to start their league next Thursday with ten full teams. Soera proves how popular some of these leagues really are, doesn't it?

Did you get your ALBAC bowling ticket yet? Remember, the first two weeks in June are the home when he rolled 120 pins over his average. Others competing were Faye Parkman, Evelyn Britton, Mariene Lewis, Sarah Terry, D. J. Smith, Ruth English, Betty Drummond, Fred Oldham and Stan Seaman.

Congratulations to Lilly Cox of the Seminole Junior College Bowling Class on rolling her 224 game. (Only three girls and the rest, fellows, in this class and who has to roll the high game?????)

Roundup Special, with reduced rates for the entire family, is a good time to come out and practice. Jellah's 1727 Starts at 11 a.m.

One-half Game Separates Leaders

First Baptist Passes By All Souls

Although it took them 10 innings to prove a point, the First Baptist softball squad proved to their opponents, All Souls, that they're the top spot in league standings.

Winning hurler Otto Thomas pitched the First Baptist team into the top spot, by winning the contest 9 to 8. Leading the hitting assault were Ralph Foley, DeWitt Mathews and Oz Dermot with three or six apiece.

Jack Johnson with four hits and Dan Simon and Rick Gleason with three hits each were the top sluggers for the losers.

First Presbyterians won the second game of the season at the expense of the collar-wearing Phoenician Baptists, 11 to 6.

Ben Chada, Sr. was the winning pitcher and had his hitting support coming from Buddy Burton and Dewald MacFarlan who had three hits each. The losers were paced by Roy Dunn, Dale Davis and Jim Jernigan, all getting two hits each.

In the Metro Softball League, the league-leading American Oil team was behind 3 to 0 at the end of the top half of the first inning, and then they came to bat. From that point on, there was not over any doubt of the eventual outcome as they trounced Phoenician Baptist 12 to 0.

Sam Delancy blasted a solo shot for the winning Braves against the Giants 11-10. Doug Murray went 3 for 2 and Bernard Collier smacked out three hits in four at-bats for the losers.

Joe Hickens and Cecil Daniel had two hits each for the winners, and winning pitcher LaJoy Estridge and Bobby Jackson had home runs for the winners. Sid Lloyd and Don Robinson each had two safeties for the losers.

Garden Orders 'Cooling Off' Period For Fans

NEW YORK (AP) - Puerto Rican fighters will be barred from main events at Madison Square Garden for a cooling-off period, it was learned today in the aftermath of a fight show in the famed arena.

Bottles, pieces of chairs and other missiles were tossed into the ring and the ring side sections Tuesday night after the Puerto Rican-born Jose Torres in a very close round, 15-round title bout.

Eleven persons suffered cuts and were treated at nearby hospitals, police reported. None of the victims was reported seriously hurt. No arrests were reported.

The other two riots involved fights featuring Puerto Rican boxer Frankie Narvaez, a New York lightweight who lost both titles.

In the first, Narvaez dropped a split decision in a close fight with Flash Elorde of the Philippines on Aug. 1, 1965. In the second, on March 10, 1967, Narvaez and Elorde fought a 15-round fight.

Under "New Business," plans were made for a family outing for wives and children at Lake Golden sometime the first of June. A covered dish picnic lunch will be served—time and date to be announced later. Plans are being made to take movies of the outing to send overseas. All was not lost on a night at the movies as the husbands had a film of their ball games in Malta and this film was shown at the meeting. A hilarious time was had by the group as the film incorporated quite a bit of trick photography and the cast was superb as it featured many of the husbands. The consensus of opinion was "That the Savage Sons of the Sanford Squadron was not lacking in a sense of humor."

KOOKIE COOLERS The madress plus the maxiblowers add up to kookie. Next meeting of the Strippers will be this Thursday and very important business will be discussed. One item of discussion will be concerning the deadline on members dues, so come prepared to discuss this and other matters. If you have not paid your dues the deadline may be June 1st.

FEATHERS OR LACE Contemporary fashion design is the theme for the next meeting of the Strippers. How would you feel about wearing satin boxer shorts, under-pants, suits or dresses? Borrowed from the men but, then, isn't everything? Blowers trimmed with feathers for night growing or lace for conservative daytime wearers. Now we know what goes with what!

Barbecue Honors Graduate

MISS KATHY MARTINDILL, right, who was honored at a recent graduation barbecue at the home of Pat Lyon, on Elm Ave. Classmates and friends joined her at 4 p.m. in play games, reminiscence and eat barbecued hot dogs, potato chips, baked beans, potato salad, cake and cold drinks. Tables were set up in the yard and decorated in the class colors of yellow and white with colored balloons floating above the party area. The cake was decorated in the class colors and graduation napkins were used. Guests included Laurel Wilkie, Patty Book, Jo Marie Benton, Susan Nelson, Merry Lee Hackett, Kathy Moore, Polly Patrick, Rose Marie Simon and Debbie Whiteley.

Correction On Luncheon Time

The Sanford Garden Club will meet this Thursday at 1:30 p.m. at the Club Building on 17-92 for the regular General Luncheon and Business meeting. The luncheon will be served at 12 noon instead of at 12:30 p.m. as previously announced. Members please note the time.

PERSONALS Sanford. Pet. Russell V. Davis is home on leave and visiting his parents, and sister Mr. and Mrs. Johnny Davis and Tina.

ROBERT WILLIAMS GRADUATES FROM Fla. Southern. This past weekend marked a gala occasion for John (Capt. USN Ret.) and his lovely wife Mary Williams. Accompanied by their three daughters, Julie, Sarah, Anne and Jean they motored, with Mrs. Williams' mother, Mrs. Julia Higgins and Mrs. Williams' sister, Mrs. Adelaide Moses, both of Sanford, to Lakeland. There, they were met by Capt. Williams' mother, Mrs. W. Horace Williams of Sesta Key, Sarasota. The occasion was the graduation, from Florida Southern College, of Capt. and Mrs. Williams' oldest son Robert H. Williams. Only John, Jr., now a freshman at Tulane University in New Orleans, was unable to attend.

EVERY YEAR we fail to educate thousands of potentially successful citizens because they're mentally retarded. And we're supposed to be so smart. It is smart to spend $150,000 to keep a mentally retarded person in an institution for a lifetime, when he could be earning his own living? Is it smart or even fair to deny an adequate education and job opportunity to a citizen of your community simply because he's retarded? Even now it happens far too often. Yet, the fact is that 85 percent of the retarded are capable of supporting themselves if they are trained. Indeed, they do many routine jobs better than average or "normal" people. Does your community have special programs for education, recreation and vocational training of the retarded? If it doesn't, it's time it did. And you could be the person to get the ball rolling. To learn what you can do, send for a free booklet. Address: The President's Committee on Mental Retardation, Washington, D.C. 20201.

ITALIAN Dinner...

Del Monte Spinach Two 8 oz. cans 31c, Early Garden Lima Beans Two 8 oz. cans 37c, Early Garden Peas Two 8 oz. cans 33c, Mixed Salad Vegetables 303 can 21c, Stewed Tomatoes Two 8 oz. cans 35c.

What's more fun than an Italian dinner? Hardly anything. From your red-checked table cloth, to plates of sparkling wine, tonight's meal can be a festive one with an Italian flavor.

You might start with Minestrone soup. Then include on the menu, crunchy breadsticks, a crisp cold antipasto, Chicken Cacciatore, with its yummy tomato sauce, and Parmesan-good Noodles Alfredo.

We serve our breadsticks in a large, bright red, goblet. But if you haven't a glass suitable, serve them in a wicker basket or colorful cream pitcher. Any old wine or cordial bottle makes a good candle holder, and for more atmosphere, the cacciatore can be brought to the table in your iron skillet. (Just make sure you have a towel handy, so as not to mar your table.)

Best thing about your Italian dinner is that it's fine enough for company... and more enjoyable than almost any meal for the family. Here's how to make the Chicken Cacciatore and Noodles Alfredo:

1 2 1/2 to 3 pound broiler-fryer, cut up
2 medium onions, in 1/4 inch slices
2 cloves garlic, minced
1 1/2 pound can tomatoes
1 6-ounce can seasoned tomato sauce
1 teaspoon crushed oregano
1/2 teaspoon celery seed
1/2 teaspoon pepper
1/2 cup cooking sherry
1/4 cup cooking sherry

Slowly brown chicken in 1/4 cup hot olive oil; remove from skillet. Add onions and garlic; cook till tender, but not brown. Combine remaining ingredients, except cooking wine. Add chicken to skillet, pour sauce over. Cover; simmer 45 minutes. Stir in cooking wine. Cook uncovered turning chicken occasionally, about 20 minutes or till chicken is tender and sauce is thick. Skim off excess fat and remove bay leaves. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

For Alfredo's Noodles, take one half pound of broad noodles, 1/2 pound of unsalted butter and 1/2 pound of grated Parmesan cheese. Cook and drain noodles. Melt butter; add noodles and turn over with fork and spoon until well coated and very hot. Arrange on hot serving dish. Sprinkle with cheese and toss together with spoon and fork until cheese melts. Serves six.

Delicious dessert with this kind of supper is fresh fruit served with mellow cheese. You'll love it.

SAINTHOOD in the Roman Catholic church is considered likely for Edith Stein sometime next year. Born to a middle class Jewish family in Breslau, Germany in 1891, she later became a Catholic nun and worked under the name Sister Teresa Benedicta A. Grosse. She was arrested by the Nazis during World War II and died in a gas chamber at Auschwitz.

President Is Reaching For Political Hat

WASHINGTON (AP) — When he can interrupt his absorption in Vietnam war problems, President Johnson is reaching frequently for his political hat with the air of a man whose 1968 plans are made, if unannounced.

Johnson's high praise for Democratic Gov. William L. Guy of North Dakota, coupled with a personal visit to Fargo by Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey, bore the familiar markings of a presidential candidate's efforts to enlist strong contenders to run with him on his party's ticket.

In reading Johnson's letter praising Guy as "a model public servant," Humphrey told his listeners Saturday to keep Guy in public life. Guy, chairman of the National Governors Conference, has a choice of running for re-election or opposing veteran GOP Sen. Milton R. Young.

This political byplay capped a week in which the President pleaded at a congressional fund-raising dinner for party unity, fought against a Senate bid to repeal the income tax financing of presidential campaigns and shook up the machinery for enforcement of the desecration guidelines which have aroused boiling political controversy in the South.

Johnson also denied paring the anti-poverty program because of mounting Vietnam war costs. He reiterated his determination to push "Great Society" programs.

The President's political course in these and other respects seemed to parallel that taken by a beleaguered predecessor, Harry S. Truman, who decided 20 years ago to run again despite the bad news in the polls.

Truman was dealing with a Republican Congress which gave him the Greek-Turkish and European recovery programs but balked him on price controls, labor legislation, tax reduction and most other domestic issues.

Truman's answer was to propose sweeping social reforms and attack Congress for failing to enact any of them. He convinced the voters in 1948 that Republicans wanted to turn back the clock.

With Johnson, the problem is the unpopular war in Vietnam. He apparently hopes to offset this at least in part by his social programs.

Just as some highly placed Democrats tried to disassociate themselves from Truman in 1948 because they lagged him a loser, Johnson may find Democratic war critics conveniently absent when he campaigns in their states.

At least seven of the 23 Democratic senators whose seats are at stake in 1968 have been so vigorous in their criticism of Johnson's conduct of the war that it would be embarrassing for them to appear on any platform from which he defends it.

Campaigning under these circumstances is not likely to be a picnic. But the President's supporters are confident that if Truman could overcome the political odds, Johnson can do it, too.

BROTHER CHARLES has stolen most of the headlines lately, but Britain's Princess Anne is growing up quickly, too. The teenage aged daughter of Queen Elizabeth and the Duke of Edinburgh is shown in a chic pink suit she wore in attending the 28th National Scout service recently at Windsor, England.

Jet Streams Blamed For This Weather

WASHINGTON (AP) — You can blame those meandering jet streams for the unusual spring weather we've been having. Weather Bureau experts said today.

Drought in the semitropical Florida Everglades, spring snows in the Rockies, chills in the Pacific coastal states and heavy rains in the Northeast all are related to those high-level winds which frequently give airplanes a push across the continent.

The Weather Bureau takes a philosophical view of it all. "The weather is always abnormal somewhere," one expert said. "Normal weather is sometimes a hard thing to come by." Basically what is happening, the bureau said, is that a northern jet stream is going farther north than usual and bringing cold air into the continental United States from Alaska and Canada.

From Alaska this stream moves into the Great Lakes region and the East.

A southern stream is slightly farther north than usual and is stronger than normal. It is bringing storm systems in from the Pacific coast into the central part of the nation.

Between these two giant rivers of air is what weather observers call a "confluence zone" and it's here that snow and rain are falling from west to east.

The tendency is for the opposing systems to spread moisture toward the north with a dry area to the south, this accounts for the Everglades drought, the bureau said.

The jet stream dislocation began developing during March and it is anybody's guess when the wandering winds will go back to normal, one expert said.

During April, he added, it is normal for the northern mass to reach the Canadian-American border in the western part of the nation but it went as far as Alaska and is still there.

Just why the jet streams are meandering is a question the weather experts have not yet been able to answer with scientific accuracy. The streams are about 300 to 500 miles wide and their peak winds come between 30,000 and 40,000 feet.

There has been one advantage to all this, however. The jet streams have moved rainy weather into the North-east, plugging it by drought the last five summers. But the bureau said drought could strike again this year when the jet streams move back on normal course.

New York City, which had been on the verge of a serious water shortage, now has an above normal supply.

The city's water supply was 97.3 per cent of capacity Saturday compared with the normal 95.5 per cent. Last year on May 11, the city's water supply was only 80.7 per cent of capacity.

The queer fruit of the African baobab tree is called "monkey bread." The fruit is almost a foot long.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: My daughter went to New York to try out for a part in a Broadway musical. She is a very beautiful and talented girl. She is a little on the heavy side right now, but the part called for a girl who weighed at least 200 pounds and could dance. Well, my daughter weighed 220 pounds and she is a wonderful dancer.

When she got there she was told she was too thin. She spent her own money for the trip and was terribly disappointed. Inasmuch as she met the qualifications, can't she sue for the cost of the trip?

HER MOTHER: Anymore can sue for anything he wishes. But whether he can collect is something else. The fact she didn't get the job but I'm sure it was worth a lot to a 220 pounder to be told she was "too thin" for something.

DEAR ABBY: I am fast losing faith in my friends. I have just gone through an operation that has altered my facial expression. Part of my face is permanently paralyzed.

The operation was easy to endure compared to the pain I have suffered from the marks of some of my friends.

Bea Gale Schenken has won many women's and mixed events. Her last open result occurred this winter when the death of Peter Leventritt's mother left Howard Schenken with no partner for the board-a-match team of four. She took the place and finished third to two all male teams.

Bea is the author of "Bridge for Women" who prefers rubber bridge to tournament play. She is only the second best bridge player in her family. Her husband Howard has won many titles that he mailed down and has been one of the greatest players in the world for 35 years.

Bea points out that if she had been looking at all the cards she could have wrapped up her contract by going up with dummy's ace of spades

Beauty after Forty

"Dear Edyth Thornton McLeod: I've developed foot trouble and I'm miserable because now I must wear shoes that I consider terribly unfashionable shoes. They relieve the foot trouble all right, but don't you think shoes that are so unfashionable ruin one's appearance? I have lovely dresses and I have to attend many functions. I always had shoes in colors to match my outfit; my best dresses are usually black."—Upset.

Count yourself lucky that you've found shoes that really give you comfort. Buying feet can actually give you wrinkles and will surely upset your eyes. Put all your glamour and style in the shoes that help you and continue to see your foot doctor. High heels are not smart nowadays and, personally, I'm thankful.

Horoscope Forecast

GENERAL TENDENCIES: A very peculiar and unusual day and evening in which you would be wise to be ready to accept any course that fits into your general scheme or things. Return to become upset by conditions of a dramatic or startling nature that in no way please you. At times when a calm and impersonal approach to everything is wise.

ARIES: (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Get your labors performed in such a way that all will be less difficult for you in the future, but you have to be patient with irate co-workers. Be concerned with friends who are having difficulties. Be generous.

TAURUS: (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be sure to back up those persons you admire, since you are given many an opportunity to do so today. Your charming smile can do much to make others feel better. Best day to get your bills paid, also.

GEMINI: (May 21 to June 20) The situation is pretty touchy at home so be sure you act in a most diplomatic way. Try to be more understanding and do what will be truly helpful. Get that important business matter handled early.

MOON CHILDREN: (May 22 to July 21) A problem is not solved at all by doing nothing about it, so be objective, intelligent and all in fine. Make sure that reports are checked for mistakes. Make this a productive day and evening.

LEO: (July 22 to Aug. 21) You want to have a greater abundance and there is no better time than now to make a study. Your budgeting could be better planned, also so that you do not spend more than you take in.

VIRGO: (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You are in the mood to get what you want at almost any cost, but you had better be realistic if you want to get real results. State your aims in social matters. Don't let other's labor under false illusions.

LIBRA: (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) If you get right down to it, those small duties ahead of you find that the considerable amount of success is possible as a consequence. Be efficient. Don't rely on expert who is altogether too busy with other things.

SCORPIO: (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Comrades can be most helpful if you make it a point to cooperate with them in their ambitions as well. Although you may not care to go out socially very much, favors do come via that channel. Be eager to see rather unusual friends.

SAGITTARIUS: (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) If you listen to what good friends have to say, you can do much to put your finest talents and make your contacts. However, do nothing that upgrades your reputation.

CAPRICORN: (Dec. 22 to Jan. 19) Doing whatever requires an entirely different attitude, system is ideal at this time. Devotion to material system. Some new plan can give you data you need. Show appreciation for assistance.

AQUARIUS: (Jan. 20 to Feb. 18) Rely on your good judgment instead of intuition which is apt to be somewhat faulty at this time. Devotion to material is fine, but don't just follow orders blindly. There could be real danger in this.

PISCES: (Feb. 19 to Mar. 20) Contacting associates for whatever you have in mind is OK, but be sure you maintain discretion on a very high level. Avoid any severance of connections. Don't be circumspect or critical of others in the outside world.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY: . . . he, or she, will be one of those very fascinating young ones who wants order and neatness about at all times although he, or she, may act in a most unexpected way with others. Be sure you give training in ethics and the spiritual early so that your progeny will not be misguided. The field of research would be ideal here.

We The Women

We The Women By Betty Canary

I was interviewed the other day and, believe me, it was an experience. When you write for a newspaper, the hand holding the pencil is not your own. But it was interesting being on the other side of the notepad. When the little girl from the school magazine called on me things were in pretty good shape in the living room. What I had picked up I managed to push under. And, I felt I was prepared with all the pertinent facts. But, things didn't go the way I expected. I ended out O.K. but after that I lost ground. Actually, I had a lousy day. How do you feel when you write?" she asked.

"Oh, with my fingers!" I said. (I always have the mistaken idea kids think old jokes are funny.)

"Writers drink a lot, don't they?" She was looking behind the books now—for anything I might have attached away. I gave up and refilled the candy dish for her.

"No," I said, "but I do have this milk-covered luggage and I always carry my bronze platter. I can't live without fresh radishes every day."

"I KNEW IT!" she squealed. "You're a REAL writer!"

I lit a cigarette and grandly tossed the match into a bowl of dogwood blossoms.

"Your cigarettes, she posted. 'They're not pastel-colored, or perfumed, either.'"

"Oh, well, images come and images go."

Solon Faces Challenge As A 'Dove' In War

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (AP)— Sen. J. W. Fulbright, Arkansas, challenger of presidents and foreign policy for a quarter-century, faced a political challenge as a dove in a state regarded as hawkish on the Vietnam war.

Fulbright's most prominent foe Democrats in Arkansas—former Govs. Orval Faubus and McMath—think the senator is in trouble with the voters because of his attacks on administration war policy since he took office in next year's primary.

Faubus and McMath, as well as a rapidly growing number of election gains last year, are seriously considering trying to unseat the maverick chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. But they all note that a lot can happen in a year.

"Most people believe Fulbright's strength will depend on what happens in Vietnam," said Fulbright's spokesman. "But he added, 'I think he's in greater difficulty than he's ever been before.'"

Fulbright defeated today because the majority of people in Arkansas don't support his position on Vietnam," said McMath, a former state attorney and Marine Reserve major general who has spoken often on Vietnam in the past.

Some prominent Arkansas businessmen have believed to backroll the party as well as support Fulbright and Faubus, but a recent report says Fulbright is in trouble.

But some of them acknowledge privately that if Faubus does not win, they will be helped to backroll the party as well as support Fulbright and Faubus, but a recent report says Fulbright is in trouble.

When rumors began reaching the state politics as well as a strong Faubus backer, said: "I would disagree with Fulbright's position on the war but I agree with Fulbright's stand in that he's expressing his honest views, and the people of Arkansas know he's expressing his honest convictions."

Faubus, who did not seek reelection as governor last year, is looking over the situation from his expansive home in the Ozarks of Huntsville.

"It's likely if I run, he mused, "it would be for senator or governor." Fulbright said.

Right now Faubus says he regards Fulbright as vulnerable.

"For the past two years, for the first time, Fulbright dropped well below 50 per cent in the polls," he said.

Faubus didn't specify the polls he was talking about.

But in Republican surveys last fall Fulbright fell at one point to a low of 45 per cent, and Faubus, then governor, showed only 51 per cent.

Vicksburg, Miss., has been called the "Gibraltar of the South."
