BUDGET OF OPINION "JUST BETWEEN YOU AND ME."

EVEN THE GATE POST NOT IN IT

A CHIEF IS AMONG YE TAKING NOTES AND FAITH. "HE'LL PRENT 'EM"---SO SAYS SAUNTERER.

It has been suggested by some warped and twisted genius that the President appoint a commission of eminent American statesmen to submit proposals of peace to the warring kings of Europe, that commission to be composed of Theodore Roosevelt, William Jennings Bryan and William Howard Taft.

It is a tremendous array of intellect, representing the three extremes of political faith, but we fear such a composite selection would be surcharged with so much dynamite that the inevitable explosion would scatter the dear kings to the four winds.

From little sprouts big trees will often grow.

We trample upon the sprouts of today and gaze with admiration upon the giants that were sprouts of a former generation.

And it is much the same in municipal affairs. We think too much of the ending and not enough of the beginning. We overlook the little things of today which have in them the making of the big ones of tomorrow.

This tendency of human nature is strikingly illustrated in the case of a gentleman who had occasion to spend a week in a country town, and was remarkably impressed by the uniform courtesy shown him by the citizens of the place.

If he was interested in a public building, or a park, or a manufacturing enterprise, a dozen men were ready with information and explanations, pointing out the various advantages, and with ever a good word for the people. They made him welcome.

A few weeks later while traveling in another state he met a manufacturer who was in search of a change of location for his plant. He mentioned the place he had recently left, and spoke in glowing terms of the people, their characteristics, and especially of their courtesy to the stranger within their gates.

The manufacturer was much impressed, and a few days later visited the place. He is there now, with his factory and his 150 employes.

Truly, a man can have a wonderful influence upon the future of his own town.

You hear a lot about war time prices and what an awful struggle we will have this winter to make a living and yet little Cupid goes right on and a marriage is noted every week in Sanford. This certainly shows the confidence the young people have in the future of Sanford and demonstrates to me that the future of Sanford will at least be a future of married people.

It seems that the contagion has spread to remote places and the lightning has struck in many spots. Old and young alike are imbued with the thought that getting married is the thing and they are getting married without loss of time. I am glad to note this in our people. There is nothing that spells as much for a place as the idea of people getting married and settling down in homes of their own. The jolly bachelors are all well enough in the joke book but they do not pan out in real life and I think that the most lonesome and most selfish person on earth is the bachelor who fondly imagines that he is reducing the high cost of living by eschewing marriage. Certainly it is not good for man to live alone. The Bible teaches this great truth and that it is a great truth exemplified in every day life. The happiest people on earth are the married people who know how to live and they get the best out of life. On the other hand the man who has never married is bound to be lonesome and can never know the joys of real home life. Take the boys who are single and ask them how they are faring and they will tell you they are tired of restaurant, hotel and boarding house and each and every one of them are pining for home cooking and are trying their best to get board with some private family where they can in a measure make up for the food problem and get a taste of domestic happiness.

Get married!

That is the thing. Now that the start has been made I want to see every bachelor in Sanford tied up in the next twelve months.

I have been keeping quiet about the bulkhead because I wanted the great work to get fairly started before I called attention to the fact and now that the concrete posts that will form the bulkhead are being placed in position I want all the doubting Thomases to go down and inspect the work. This has been the dream of my life and now that it is about to be fulfilled I can die happy—that is, after the new hotel has been built for I fully believe that with the bulkhead and the new Hotel Sanford will have nothing more to be desired. The bulkhead is so far superior to anything that my fondest dreams ever fashioned that the readers will have to pardon me for going into rapture about it. I will not take up any space here to tell about it only to remark in passing that it will be a work that will stand as a monument to the city council and the men who are doing the work. When completed it will probably be one of the best pieces of work in the state and will last long after all of the present generation are dead and gone. The work has been going ahead quietly and but few people realize that such a great undertaking is about to be consummated and few will realize after it is finished that it means so much to our city.

Here is one who realizes the magnitude of the work and one who will give due credit for the same. Sanford will be one of the prettiest places on the St. Johns, one of the prettiest cities in Florida and one of the healthiest when this is finished. Could any more be said?

"Sit tight! Don't rock the boat! That's the watchword today. That's the first duty of every American at this moment. That is what this country needs to keep it straight and safe and true to its course—absolutely all it needs."

The above is the opening paragraph of a recent editorial in the Chicago Herald. It is sound advice. Let every business man in Rock Hill realize that at this moment calm confidence and calm thankfulness are the first duty. Both are justified by the favorable situation in which we find ourselves.

According to the Boston Globe, "The consensus of opinion of some of the keenest and most far sighted men is that the United States is entering on an era of prosperity that will completely overshadow even the great periods of business prosperity that have already come to this country since the civil war. They assign many sound reasons for this."

"The first and the one which is the most significant to many of them is that we have gone through a season of business depression for the first time in our history without a panic."

"We have seen Europe throw back into this country from $250,000,000 to $300,000,000 worth of securities and have seen these securities absorbed and the gold sent to Europe without any particular fuss."

"We have seen a tariff enacted lower than the Wilson tariff, and yet we have seen raw wool, one of the best tariff barometers there is, sell higher than before."

"We have seen a delicate railroad situation that would have created a financial panic at any time in the past studied over and pondered over in a way that has simply taken the breath from speculators."

The Globe continues: "Why then have we had a business depression in the face of these things? Simply because a great many people thought we ought to have it; we should have it; and must have it; it was due. It was largely a mental state. There was no real need of it or for it. Business men see that more clearly now. But many of them are more satisfied apparently because we have had it. And they have learned something."

Business men, "sit tight. Don't rock the boat. Keep its head well up against the sea. Don't let it go into the trough of waves!"

A good German citizen who shall be nameless, aside from the appellation of Jake, has been watching with interest the progress of the Kaiser's troops in the present war and naturally he has been much elated over the success and has discussed the matter with his friends on every occasion. Like some of the rest of us he is not familiar with the names of all the towns which have appeared in the dispatches and the fact gave opportunity for a joke at his expense the other day.

Jake was accosted by a friend who remarked: "Well, Jake, did you see what the Kaiser's army did yesterday?"

"Vell, maybe not," was the response. "Vat did dey do?"

"Why," was the answer, "the bulletin say that a German army of forty thousand took Peruna yesterday."

"Goot, goot," exclaimed Jake. "Py golly, I knew dey would do it. Day cand't stop dose Cheraman troops."

The press dispatches carry the announcement that Christmas toys will be higher in price this year owing to the war in Europe. This will be sad news for the kiddies, for a vast volume of the toys which Santa Claus brings in his pack are secured in the countries that now are at war. In thousands of homes across the water the one occupation of the entire family is the manufacture of toys of all descriptions that finally find their way into the stockings of the children of America.

But this year all this is changed. The deft fingers which should be fashioning the things to delight the hearts of children at Christmas time are pressing the triggers of high-powered rifles to a sanguinary effort to exterminate the father of some other little boy or girl whose Christmas this year will be indelibly stamped upon their memory as a period of sorrow and hunger and suffering.

The great newspapers of the United States are cooperating in an effort to bring a little sunshine into the lives of the children of Europe by sending a Christmas ship across the water. A great ocean liner will be filled with toys and gifts of every description and when many a little one awakes on Christmas morning some of the sting will be taken out of their grief through the medium of the things which the Christmas ship will bring to them.

It is a beautiful thing to do and the response which is already being made to the appeals of the great-hearted, considerate men at the head of the movement insures its success. It is America's tribute to the innocent sufferers of the greatest crime in all history.

Luncheon

A delightful affair, given in honor of the approaching nuptials of Miss Ruth Stewart was the luncheon and china shower given by Mrs. J. B. Calder at her home last Saturday afternoon.

As the guests arrived they were ushered into the living room, which looked unusually inviting in its decorations of blue and green. The centerpiece on the library table carried out the color scheme, the flowers being embroidered in blue for the nuptials, and having come from Norway.

As the last guest arrived, Max Stewart entered the living room, bearing a large covered basket which, with an amusing little rhyme he presented to the honoree. Much to her surprise the basket contained many useful pieces of beautiful china.

The doors to the dining room were then thrown open, revealing a beautifully laid table, the color scheme of blue and green being carried out in many pretty ways. At each plate was a wineglass containing grapejuice and as each guest had been warned:

"Before of luncheon she partakes, A toast to the Bride each one makes, The variety of toasts given provoking much laughter. At the conclusion of a delicious luncheon each guest was presented with a small envelope, sealed with a blue forget-me-not and green leaves and bearing the inscription "After Dinner Thoughts," which proved to be witty conundrums, the solution of which caused much merriment.

Besides the honoree, Miss Ruth Stewart, those invited were: Mesdames M. M. Stewart, E. E. Cox, George Hyman, Jas. B. Lawson, W. E. Betts, W. C. Bray and G. P. Lovell, Misses Edith and Minnie Stewart, Ruby and Daisy Betts, Clara Millen, Mary Gatchel and Jimmie Laing.

Wedding Cards

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mooney Hand have issued invitations to the marriage of their daughter, Mabel Elizabeth to Mr. Archibald Lucius Betts, the wedding to take place Wednesday evening, September 30, at the Church of the Holy Cross.

A reception at the home will follow the marriage ceremony, from nine to eleven.

Stocking Shower

One of the delightful series of entertainments being given for Miss Mabel Hand, prior to her wedding was the stocking shower at the home of Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin, Friday afternoon.

The rooms of the lower floor were charming in their decorations of pink hibiscus and asparagus fern in the parlor and dining room, and red hibiscus and ferns in the hall.

In the dining room the table was the center of attraction with its perfect appointments. From the ceiling to the corners of the table were ropes of asparagus fern, ending in trailing sprays and outlining a tracery of green upon the white cover. Pink sashed candles in white candelabra adorned the corners. The centerpiece was a green basket filled with pink double hibiscus. From the chandelier, suspended by green ribbons, hung the pretty little souvenirs, sachet bags of straps of the bride's wedding gown.

The merry group of guests were given pencil and paper and told to write "The best way to retain your husband's affection." Many and varied were the ways suggested and read aloud to the accompaniment of joyous laughter and will be treasured among the bride's souvenir clippings together with the original verses penned to the gifts, many pairs of beautiful silk hosiery.

Another game enjoyed was the making of the greatest number of words from the names "Hand-Betts." In this contest Mrs. Bishop won the prize, a pretty little fancy work apron.

Delicious refreshments of cake and cream were served and the guests departed with hearty good wishes for the young hostess who had so graciously entertained them.

Invited to meet the honoree were Mesdames Bishop, Ernest Betts and J. B. Lawson; Misses Charlotte Hand, Rena Murrell, Genie Wicker, Saldie Williams, Ruth Mettinger, Daisy Betts, Essie Purdon, Eva Walker and Anna McLaughlin. This afternoon the young ladies of St. Agnes Guild will entertain with a miscellaneous shower for Miss Hand and on Thursday Mrs. R. J. Holly will entertain with another shower.

Afternoon Shower

Miss Mabel Whitner entertained charmingly Monday afternoon in honor of the season's brides and brides-elect, Mrs. Bishop, Mrs. Brownlee and Misses Mabel Hand, Linda Lefler and Genie Wicker being the honorees.

An effective simplicity prevailed in the decorations, the pink and green tones of the color scheme being most artistic. A delicious sandwich course was served and the delightfully informal affair was much enjoyed. Miss Whitner's guests were: Mesdames Bishop, Bowers, Misses Linda and Patricia Lefler, Genie Wicker, Mabel and Charlotte Hand, Saldie Williams, Addie Neal, Ruth Mettinger, Belle Smith, Madeline Hill, Anne Higgins, Annie Lee Caldwell and Essie Purdon; Misses Lettie Caldwell, Adelaide Higgins and Annie Whitner assisting in serving.

Children's Parties

Little Miss Evelyn Biggers was the happy young hostess to a number of her friends, in celebration of her eighth birthday Saturday afternoon, from three to six.

The little folks made merry until the afternoon was on the wane, when Evelyn's Mama served the party, which was very much enjoyed by all.

The big white birthday cake, with its pink and green candles was the center of attraction. Pink oleanders and green ferns featured the decorations. Evelyn was the recipient of many pretty gifts, among them being a set of silver ice cream spoons, the gift of her grandmother. Enjoying Evelyn's hospitality were Irene McGaghin, Emily Griffin, Verge Horne Hyman, Florence and Helen Witte, Irma Smith, Olive Renfro, Margaret Peters, Deane Turner and Dick Terheun.

In honor of his sixth birthday Master Horton Washburn Mabry entertained with a beautiful birthday party Monday afternoon at the handsome home of his aunt, Mrs. G. F. Smith. A happy time was enjoyed by the gay little folks with romps and games. In the "donkey game" the prize, a fine box of candies was won by Rose LaVerne Hurt.

The attractiveness of the home was enhanced by its decorations of pink and white cut flowers and green ferns.

To the music of a lively march the young people circled the room several times, marching into the dining room and around the table, upon which was the pretty birthday cake with its six pink candles. To the sound of merry laughter, great fun was enjoyed in their efforts to blow out the candles. As each guest passed the little host there was given a pretty pink crepe paper bon bon bag filled with candies. Cake and ice cream were served out upon the pretty lawn and the happy group dispersed with the conviction that it was the nicest party ever.

Many lovely presents testified to the popularity of the little host. Assisting in serving were Mrs. Mabry and Miss Elizabeth McLaughlin. Harton's guests were Rose LaVerne Hurt, Katherine Symes, LeClaire Jones, Georgia Motley, Elizabeth Whitner, Elizabeth McCullough of Orlando, Mary Elizabeth and Camilla Puleston, Olive Newman, Thomas Wight, Deane Turner, Albert Connelly and Robert Adams.

Surprise Party

Mrs. W. B. Noells was delightfully surprised by her many friends and neighbors, upon the occasion of her birthday last Friday evening at her home on French avenue. They brought with them all the good things that constitute a real party, lovely presents, ice cream and cakes, homemade candies and fruit punch. Among the gifts was a very lovely silk dress pattern, the gift of all present.

The game of "Rummy" was enjoyed throughout the evening and the delicious refreshments were served upon the lawn.

The occasion was a complete surprise to Mrs. Noells, who was gratefully appreciative of the kindness of her friends.

Those conferring the pleasure were Mesdames Theo. Schaal, James Hoohehan, M. H. Hynes, Joe Fernandez, J. P. Butler, M. Gardner, Hogan and Mother Hoohehan; Messrs. Schaal, Hoohehan, Hynes, Fernandez, Butler, Hogan, Starrett, H. Smith, Geo. Terast and A. B. Bolton.

Class Meetings

The Sunday school class of Mrs. Roberts held its first business meeting for the fall at the home of their teacher on Laurel avenue, Friday evening with a good attendance. Plans for the winter's work were discussed.

VIRGINIA HAS GONE DRY

Richmond, Va., Sept. 25.—State-wide prohibition won a sweeping victory at the polls in Virginia Tuesday, returns showing that its supporters had won by a majority of 32,825. This figure will be increased largely in favor of the drys when further returns are received from counties which are inaccessible. With complete returns from all the cities and forty-four of the one hundred counties and with scattering returns from other counties, the total vote is 121,768. It is estimated that the final total vote will reach 150,000. Of this vote the drys received 77,453 as against 44,618 or the local optionists.

The cities expected to roll up a majority for the local optionists sprang a surprise by giving 1,315 for the drys. Only four cities, Alexandria, Norfolk, Williamsburg and Richmond returned majorities for the wets. The total vote cast by the cities was 40,977, of which the drys got 21,146.

CHURCH WILL BE FINISHED

WORK IS TO BE RESUMED ON THE NEW BAPTIST TEMPLE

The building committee of the Baptist Temple met recently and decided to resume work on the building by Oct. 5th, provided enough funds can be raised to cover half the cost of construction. An active campaign is being planned to raise the amount and it is confidently believed that workmen will soon be heard on the new building. In case this plan works then it is promised by the contractor that services can be held in the building by Nov. 15th. The auditorium in the front part of the Temple which is now being constructed will seat at least 100 more people than the old auditorium. The large audiences now attending the church demand more space.

Congregational Church Next Sunday morning, at the Sunday school and the 11 o'clock service a Sunday school rally, will be held. Every Sunday school scholar is urged to be present and to bring a friend with him—some one not going to any other Sunday school.

At 11 o'clock a sermon will be given on "The Influence of the Sunday School on the Community." Every parent and every individual, not interested elsewhere is cordially urged to be present.

The C. E. Society, at 6:45 p. m. will have for its subject, "How Every Christian can be a Missionary."

At the evening service, 7:30, the subject for consideration will be, "Moses, Failing Yet Victorious," a short, practical talk for those who feel burdened under their mistakes and yet who long for encouragement.

Sunday morning, Oct. 4th, the Lord's Supper will be received and new members received. Every member is urged to plan to be present for that service.

A splendid business and social meeting of the C. E. Society was held last Tuesday evening at Mrs. Ensminger's, with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kent as hosts. NO DECISIVE RESULTS IN EUROPE'S WAR

VAST ARMIES STRUGGLE FORWARD AND BACK IN WHAT SEEMS FRUITLESS EFFORTS

A GREAT BATTLE RAGES AT Breslau—WARSHIPS ARE VERY ACTIVE IN THE BALTIC SEA

London, Friday 11 a. m., Special to Herald.—Zeppelin coming from Thournot dropped three bombs on Ostend escapes. City terrorized.

Paris, Friday 11 a. m., Special to Herald.—Von Kluck's communications cut by French cavalry at Catelet.

Petrograd, Friday 11 a. m., Special to Herald.—Russians capture Prizeworsk and Lancut on way to Craew.

Copenhagen, Friday 11 a. m., Special to Herald.—Great battle raging near Breslau. Thirty warships seen steaming into Baltic in Kattegat. Nationality presumably British.

Reports from the disaster in which the British lost three cruisers at Emden being torpedoed by German submarine is that sixty officers lost their lives. List of killed not yet obtainable but must be heavy, considering the loss of officers.

The allies are revived by the dispatches stating that in another week all Gabaia will be occupied by the Russian forces. Despite the retreat of Rencampf the Russian troops have pulled all along the line and the defeat of the combined Austrian and German forces is assured as the Russians out number their opponents ten to one and are forcing their way through Galicia by sheer weight of numbers. The Russians have all the supplies needed and an unbroken line of communication with their base.

The sinking of the three submarines has given an added vigor to the British fleet and under the advice of the heads of the Admiralty they will take a more aggressive part in the blockade, even to advancing upon the German fortifications that now block the entrance to the Kiel canal.

In the east the allies have the best of the engagements and are slowly forcing the Germans to retire. Unless the retreat is made in good order covered by the heavy siege guns it will soon become a rout, in which event the Germans will suffer heavily.

The allies have several plans perfected to cut the German line of communications, once their right wing is turned and a backward movement of the Germans spells disaster.

Rollins College Notes

Whoever returns to the Rollins campus, after a summer's absence is always impressed afresh with its unique beauty. It is perhaps not too much to say that no college campus in the country—not Cornell or Wisconsin has a more charming situation. Bordering Lake Virginia are a chain of four lakes of various shapes, connected together by navigable streams. A slope southward to nearly forty feet to the water's edge. The porches and windows of the men's and women's dormitories command a view of the lake, of the woods on the opposite bank and of the sunset. The campus itself is grassed, shaded with large water oaks, and decorated with numerous shrubs and plants. At the edge of the lake are the large college boat house, and two swimming and diving docks, one for men and one for women, and flanked by three clayed tennis courts for the use of teachers and students.

The college will open its doors for the thirtieth year on next Wednesday morning, Sept. 30. Several members of the faculty are already on the ground and the others are on the way.

Word has been received of the sudden death last Saturday in Oyster Bay, Long Island, of Albert Joseph White, a member of the incoming sophomore class. Mr. White was one of the brightest and best men in college, of a singularly refined nature, courteous and winning manners, and fine Christian character. He will be sorely missed.

Mrs. George Watson has returned from a visit to Mr. Watson's mother at Floral City.

SANFORD SCHOOLS OPEN MONDAY

Next Monday will be a red letter day in Sanford as it will mark the opening of the Sanford City Schools, the greatest asset of the city and an institution in which every citizen of Sanford takes the greatest interest.

The opening this year will be made a memorable occasion and in honor of the event one of Florida's foremost educators will be present and deliver an address, the Hon. John A. Thackston, dean of the Teachers College and Normal School Department of the University of Florida and better known as the State High School Inspector. Dr. Thackston has made the High School his life work and has accomplished much in his chosen profession. Sanford is fortunate in having such a well known authority here on opening day and to be given the opportunity of hearing from him on the subject of public schools.

The opening exercises will occur at the High School auditorium on Monday morning, September 28th at ten o'clock. The members of the school board of Sanford district, the county school board, the city officials and other prominent people will have a place on the rostrum and on the program and the opening exercises promise to be very interesting.

Prof. B. F. Ezell takes charge of the Sanford City Schools this year as superintendent and comes to Sanford fully cognizant of the high grade of the schools and their former reputation as the best in the south and being fully competent to keep them up to the standard has been busy for several weeks arranging the opening of the schools and expects to have the largest attendance and one of the best sessions in the history of the Sanford schools.

Prof. Ezell announces the following teachers. They have not all been assigned to the different grades at this writing on account of some changes in the staff.

B. F. Ezell, Superintendent.

High School—Miss Clara L. Guild, Principal; Miss Alice M. Tetherly, Miss Flora Walker, Miss Myrtle King and Mr. B. F. Ezell, teachers.

Grammar School—Mr. J. R. Wildman, Principal, Miss Louise Harris, Mrs. Geo. B. Dickinson, Mrs. E. N. Luke, Miss Lillian Higgins, Miss Pearl Hunter, Miss Edna Plant, Miss Carrie Ensminger, Miss Eva Walker, Miss Clara Millen and Miss Nita Moore, teachers.

Primary School—Miss Lillie Farnsworth, Principal; Miss Edith Stewart and Miss Salome Hampton, teachers.

Methodist Church

Sunday school session 9:45 a. m. A class and a welcome for every one. Services at 11 o'clock, subject of sermon by pastor, "Standing with God."

Evening worship, 7:30, subject of pastor's sermon, "Marriage." A special invitation to the young people of the church and city.

The public is cordially invited to all our services being held in the Star Theater while the new church is being erected on corner of Park avenue and Sixth street.

On Sunday, Oct. 4th will be Rally Day in the Sunday school and Home Coming Day for the congregation. Let every Methodist in Sanford and vicinity know that their presence is earnestly desired, and the public will find a Methodist handshake awaiting every visitor.

The pastor is earnestly endeavoring to be what a true pastor would be in a city. He heartily appreciates the cooperation being given him in this great work. As we are entering the season of the year when the visitors are coming into our city, let every Christian seek out these who come into our midst and give them an invitation to the services of the churches.

The Judgment Day

On next Sunday night Rev. George Hyman will deliver a sermon on the above subject. So many people are to face the Judgment that it is well that as much as possible be understood in regard to the same. This subject will be used on next Sunday night. The Baptist church is located at the corner of Park avenue and Sixth street.

Large audiences continue to hear Mr. Hyman each Sunday evening. It is predicted that this winter will see the largest audiences at church in the history of Sanford. The crowds at the Baptist church this summer, if taken as a basis of reckoning will certainly bear out this opinion.

SUNDAY SCHOOL COMMENCEMENT

GRADUATION DAY AT THE FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH SUNDAY SCHOOL

Next Sunday will be Graduation Day at the Baptist Sunday School. The school is graded according to the very latest methods and is kept in perfect harmony with the Forward Sunday School Movement of the country. The auditorium is already decorated for the occasion. Time and money have not been spared in making it the prettiest church decorations that has ever been in Sanford. A special program has been prepared and will be rendered to a large audience, for the friends of the school are planning to come in large numbers. The program begins promptly at 9:30 a. m.

The graduates are as follows: From Cradle Roll to Beginners: Eldredge Duncan, Harvey Vincent, Thelma Egge, Ben Glidewell, William Wheelless.

Mrs. Stevenson is anxious to meet the members of the Woman's Club and the young ladies who are desirous of enlisting in the campaign to sell the Florida dollar and obtain a free trip to California during the Exposition. Any one desiring more information on the subject should see Mrs. Stevenson at the Sanford House between the hours of 4 and 5 in the afternoon.

THE RIVERS AND HARBORS BILL SAVED IN PART

PROJECTS ALREADY BEGUN IN FLA. NOT TO SUFFER

Washington, D. C., Sept. 25.—The statement made here today by Senator D. U. Fletcher of Florida, chairman of the senate committee on commerce, that the recommitting of the rivers and harbors bill to that committee with the recommendation that it be limited to $20,000,000 would not injure Florida waterways improvements which have already begun or which have been provided for in former acts of congress; and the insertion in the Congressional Record of a speech by Congressman S. M. Sparkman of Florida replying to attacks on the bill were features of this matter today.

In order that many of the misstatements as to what the pruning down of the rivers and harbors bill would do for Florida might be offset, Senator Fletcher said:

"I would be glad if you would say that all projects now under way or which have been duly provided for heretofore by acts of congress will not suffer at all. The only ones to be affected are new cases. They will have to await another time."

Sparkman in Denial

On the house side of the capitol, Congressman Sparkman, although permission was refused him to reply on the floor to attacks made on the bill, succeeded in having his speech go into the Record. In making the position of the members of the rivers and harbors committee clear on this matter, Mr. Sparkman said in part:

"Time will not admit of a specific reference to all these waterways nor of a detailed answer to the criticisms Mr. Fear of Wisconsin makes of their treatment of the pending bill. Part of them, however, the Ocklawaha and Kissimmee river, being in the state of which I have the honor of representing here, I shall take the liberty of noticing, and of dealing at some length with his criticisms of the projects submitted for their improvement."

"When the gentleman strikes these two waterways he is particularly caustic and severe, characterizing the adoption of the Ocklawaha river project as a crooked game, fishing money from the treasury for the benefit not of commerce but to develop water power for the benefit of one J. D. Young."

Not for J. D. Young

"Now, first, I want to deny with all the emphasis at my command that the improvement is to develop water power for J. D. Young, or any one else, for it has absolutely no foundation in fact, as a study of the report will show. The gentleman was kind enough to refer to a certain portion of the engineer's report as proof of his assertion, and yet a reference to this particular paragraph contradicts the charge he makes, for it is there shown that it is not proposed by this improvement to develop any water power whatever."

Mr. Sparkman closed his remarks with a statement that nowhere else in this country would more fertile lands be found than along the banks of the rivers in Florida and he made an urgent appeal that we pursue a wise policy of waterway development until the demands of our commerce have been fully met.

RAILWAY HELPING FLORIDA

Another of the interesting exhibits of an educational nature is that of the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad, which is conducting a campaign of publicity throughout the north.

Messrs. Cardwell and Cohen, the former of the colonization department, are in charge of the display, which consists of fruits, vegetables, grain and other commercial articles of the south all the way from Virginia to Florida. They have received many inquiries from interested parties and it would not be surprising if there were a number of people from this county who will be lured by the riches of the southern agricultural fields. The exhibit is one of the most interesting and instructive on the fair grounds and is well worth visiting.—Easton (Pa.) Free Press.

Music on Violin and Guitar by Misses Kilbee.

By request, Clifford Proctor gave several selections on the player piano before the exercises of the evening began.

Geneva was saddened last Saturday on learning of the death of Mr. John Hart, which occurred at the home of his son, Dee Hart near Sanford. Mr. Hart had not been well for some time, though no one thought no one thought him seriously ill until within an hour of his death. Relatives were hastily summoned and everything done for his good but death claimed another victim and the soul of another mortal was launched into the great beyond, there to await the final judgment day. Mr. Hart had once been a resident of Geneva and has several relatives who still live here. Among them is his daughter, Mrs. W. J. David, one son, Dan Hart, a brother, I. D. Hart and also other children near Sanford. The body was brought to the home of his son in Geneva Sunday afternoon and the burial took place Monday morning from the Baptist church, Rev. Stones of Oviedo officiating.

For the second time within three days death claimed a resident of Geneva and again caused sincere sorrow among the people. After a six weeks' severe fight with typhoid fever Miss Jessie Grant died at her home last Monday night at eleven o'clock. In view of the long illness the end was not unexpected, though none the less hurting to her dear old widowed mother, other near relatives and friends. Than Jessie there was no young lady in Geneva more unassuming, more quiet and had more friends. As a true Christian and a good daughter she will be greatly missed in the community. She was buried from the Baptist church Tuesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Messrs. Harry Geiger, Joe Smith, Edwin Raulerson, George Mathieu and George Pitzer acting as pall bearers. The coffin was completely covered with floral offerings contributed by loving friends, thus attesting sympathy. The services were conducted by Rev. Stones of Oviedo. Mr. Hunt of Oviedo was the undertaker in charge. The sympathy of the entire community goes out to the aged mother and other relatives.

The relatives of Mr. John Hart and of Miss Jessie Grant wish to express their sincere thanks to all those who so lovingly assisted in performing the necessary duties, during their late afflictions.

Farmers for Florida

"There is nothing so important for Florida as farmers," says The Jacksonville Metropolis. "We have the lands, the transportation facilities, the close markets, and everything that is attractive to the man who wants to farm and make a profit, while living comfortably and in a congenial climate."

Continuing the Metropolis says: All the railroads entering this state have immigration and land departments. They are working to build up Florida. They should have more cooperation from the boards of trade, from the land owners, and the people generally than they have had hitherto.

Some of the best, most attractive, and most reliable data about the state has been compiled by the various railroads interested in building up the state. There is enough of this to last for months. The state boards of trade, for instance, could get together and take all, merge it into a composite form, and cooperate with the carrying lines to spread the gospel of Florida opportunity.

Florida is asleep on her rights, and her opportunities. She is not taking advantage of them as she should. We are all too busy looking out for ourselves, and our own selfish interests to devote that time to the state that somebody must devote to it if we are to get anywhere soon. Just a little time from all of us. Just a little attention from all of us. Just a little money from all of us, and Florida would be put on the map in a big way, in such a way as she has never been on the map before.

Now is the time. General farm crops and food supplies are higher than they have been since the Civil War. They will be higher before they will be lower. We have millions in Europe to feed that we have not had to feed previously. This creates a greater demand on America, and America has little acreage on which to increase her output, outside of Florida. This state has millions of fine lands waiting to be cultivated.

What board of trade will be the first to start a movement for more immigration of farmers to Florida? — Ft. Myers Press.

HORSES KILLED IN BATTLE AT HAELEN

Hon. Winston Churchill, Head of England's Navy, A Farseeing Statesman

THE recent engagement off Helgoland showed that England was still mistress of the sea. Nor did Germany seem to gainsay this fact, for her fleet seemed in no eager haste to try conclusions with the British armament.

When the British fleet moves into battle its efficiency is the expression of a very real American contribution to Great Britain, for it has been recreated and perfected into its present splendid shape by a man of genius whose blood is as American as British, perhaps even more so. This man is Winston Churchill, first lord of the Admiralty. His mother was Miss Jennie Jerome of New York, now Lady Randolph Churchill and until recently Mrs. George Cornwallis West.

Winston Churchill has all the stamp of genius and high daring and has crowded more into his forty years than any man of his day. He has been through five wars; he has written seven books, one of them being the biography of his father, which ranks among the first half dozen in the English language; he was first elected to the house of commons as a Conservative, but has been a Liberal minister of the crown for nearly nine years, and he has proved himself one of the most active and powerful of modern English statesmen.

It is a singular coincidence that the two men now at the head of the British war office and admiralty were once bitter enemies in the Sudan. Lord Kitchener of Khartoum, secretary of state for war, incurred the disapproval of Winston Churchill when the younger man was a war correspondent. Churchill wrote such a bitter criticism of Kitchener for the Graphic, because the commander razed a certain tomb that the matter was taken up in the house of commons. Kitchener for years did not forgive Churchill, but now that they are in such correlated responsible positions and Churchill has laid down the pen Kitchener probably has buried the hatchet.

Aside from their ancient antipathy, it is strange that Kitchener should be in the war office and Churchill in the admiralty at a time when England is at war. It is curious because England was far more likely to have had a lawyer presiding over the army and a professor at the head of the navy department, for never before in all her history was England ready with her fighting machines at the beginning of a war.

Churchill has an infinite capacity for work and grasps swiftly and with splendid breadth. There is a story that a peace loving radical said upon his appointment to the admiralty, "It is very sad, Churchill will make the navy so dreadfully efficient."

His physical courage is of a high type, as has been proved again and again. He took part in the famous cavalry charge at Omdurman, although nominally only a newspaper man. During the Boer war he fought when the armored train was captured, lending a forlorn hope again and again after all the officers were killed, until at last some one without authority hoisted the white flag. He was captured by the Boers, but escaped in remarkable fashion to take his chance in a hostile country of reaching the British troops. He succeeded, however, and fought again, although there was a price on his head for recapture and a firing squad for his punishment.

Who can foretell the possibilities of such genius in a man of forty years of age? And should the navy do what is now expected of it he may easily become a great popular hero, and there will be associated with his name a tradition of political glory worthy of the Churchill glories in the sphere of war.

He will be the first Churchill to lead a party should he become prime minister. His father led in the house of commons and led brilliantly when he was only thirty-seven, but he was erratic and not trusted. His own leader, Lord Salisbury, accepted his resignation with relief. But the American strain in Churchill may teach him the wisdom of learning the lesson of his father's life.

THEORY IS WRONG

Extreme School of Eugenists Attacked by Doctor Saleeby.

Based on Wrong Premise—Taking Children From Unnatural Environment Is Not Interfering With Natural Selection.

Liverpool—The "better dead," or extreme school of eugenists has been sharply attacked at a national "welfare of infancy" meeting here by Dr. C. W. Saleeby, a pupil of Francis Galton, the founder of eugenics. While heredity does bear on the problems of health, vitality and longevity, it is not, said the doctor, all essential and all important. Environment is quite as important. He accused those of the "better dead" school of blocking attempts to improve the conditions of human life by the "policy" that such attempts interfered with natural selection.

In fighting against the causes of infant mortality, Doctor Saleeby denied that natural selection was being interfered with.

"Conditions inflicted in the slums and public houses are not natural," he said. "They are hideously unnatural."

Eugenists of the extreme school were accused of forgetting the importance of nurture before birth, of prenatal influences due to environment. They assumed that it was simply a question of heredity from birth, when it has been proved that infections and the forces of malnutrition have been playing on the child for months before birth. The nurture of the mother is therefore just as important as if the child had been fed on gin and pickles after birth.

"There are no statistics and no arguments," declared the speaker, "as regards the relative importance of nature and nurture, which seems to recognize the fact that everyone of us was alive, or should have been alive, at least nine months before we were born, and that nurture was playing upon heredity during the whole of that period with a degree of power which it will never be able to display at a later period."

Alcohol could be found in a baby born of a tipsy mother, the speaker continued, but this was not heredity. It was racial poison working out as antenatal malnutrition. It therefore followed that the nurture of the future parent was essential for real eugenics.

Doctor Saleeby, after criticizing the biologists who spoke without any practical experience with either children or mothers, laid down the following proposals for the improvement of infant life:

- 1 All motherhood to be regarded as a first charge on the resources of a nation
- 2 Government authority to look after maternity
- 3 The handing over of all maternity cases, regardless of wealth or social conditions, to the public health authority.
- 4 The establishment of maternity centers both prenatal and postnatal throughout the country.

All this, Doctor Saleeby concluded, "is fundamental eugenics, and is far more easily feasible than any question of breeding for genius or of deciding who shall marry whom and who shall not marry whom."

GOV. MAJOR IN OVERALLS

Missouri Executive Heads State Highway Work on Second Annual Goods Roads Day.

Jefferson, Mo. Armed with pick and shovel, Governor Major for the second time led Missouri men in the betterment of the state's highways. Major inaugurated a good roads plan last year, and 250,000 men in the two days donated work and material estimated to be worth $1,500,000. Greater results are expected this year.

The results obtained last year in Missouri stood out so favorably and the plan proved so popular that many other states took up the idea, while more are preparing to follow the move of Missouri this year. August dates were selected because the season is most favorable for road improvements and because the farmers have more spare time at this particular season.

Thousands of Missouri chickens were sacrificed to the cause. The good wives, knowing well the appetites of road workers, selected shady spots near where the various gangs were at work and served real feeds for the volunteers, which turned the noon hour into a picnic.

BULL GOES TO THIRD STORY

San Francisco Flat Dwellers Terrorized by Animal Who Smashes Many Doors.

San Francisco—An unruly bull broke loose from a bunch of cattle here and, dashing through the downtown business district with a vaquero in full chase, galloped up Nob Hill and butted into a fashionable apartment house hallway, silencing the door with his head.

To the terror of the tenants, he kept on up three flights of stairs, butting in doors whenever the turns were too sharp. On the fourth floor the vaquero cornered him, but it was necessary to back him into a woman's bedroom before he could be turned around and led downstairs.

A Longer Season For Florida Citrus Fruits

Heretofore Florida fruits have had too short a season. The fine prices usually secured for late oranges and grapefruit could be had on a much larger volume of fruit than the State now markets and for a longer period.

Buckeye Nurseries have urged the planting of late varieties for many years. Many of the most prosperous growers of the State owe their success to this advice. The best late oranges and grapefruit were introduced by Buckeye Nurseries.

Buckeye Nurseries Catalog Tells What to Plant

Also it gives suggestions for selecting location of grove and on every other phase of citrus fruit culture. It is a complete guide to success and all its advice has been tried out in the experience of successful growers. Varieties are described in detail; many of them are illustrated in natural colors. Some of the best groves of the State are pictured to show proper methods of planting, cultivation, fertilization, spraying, marketing, etc. Too expensive to permit of indiscriminate distribution, the book is free to all intending planters. You will be welcome to a copy if you write for it while we have a supply on hand—edition is limited.

BIG WINTER RUSH TO FLORIDA POINTS

RAILROADS ARE PREPARING FOR THE BIGGEST SEASON IN HISTORY

Jacksonville, Sept. 25.—Looking forward to a big tourist season in Florida this winter, the railroads here are making preparations for handling large numbers, which are anticipated to make the greatest season for visitors the state has ever had. The railroad officials are very optimistic over future prospects here, despite talk of hard times and war. New schedules and more trains are prominent among the changes, and the latest improvement in the or-have assured better transportation than ever before.

Chief among those preparing for an early season is the Atlantic Coast Line, which has improved its through trains and added others. The Dixie Limited between Chicago and Jacksonville is a new train that will be put into operation during the coming season. It is composed of all modern railroad equipment and conveniences. The New York and Florida Special and Dixie Flyer will continue to run on a better schedule. The special runs between New York and this city while the Dixie Flyer operates to Chicago. A. W. Fritot, Florida passenger agent of the A. C. L., spoke enthusiastically about the prospective tourists coming to Florida. In his opinion, neither the war nor the Panama exposition in San Francisco will have any effect on Florida's business in 1915.

Presbyterian Church

With the reopening of the preaching services for the winter, the whole work of the Presbyterian church has begun to show evidence of renewed activity. The Presbyterian Endeavor Society is one of the largest and most active in this section of Florida and its members are filled with enthusiasm for its work. The prayer meeting maintained a good attendance all summer, and from the spirit of the meeting last Wednesday night, the prospects seem bright for a largely increased attendance in the near future. Sunday school had 103 present the first Sabbath the pastor was at home, and showed an increase last Sunday. Plans are on foot for an aggressive campaign during the month of October. We confidently expect to see over 200 present before the first of November. All are invited to the Sunday school and preaching services Sunday in the Imperial Theater. Sunday school 9:45. Preaching 11 a. m. and 7:30 p. m.

DON'T TAKE WRONG MEDICINE

If your liver gets lazy you need a liver tonic, not merely a laxative for the bowels. Many people take a simple laxative when the liver gets sluggish rather than take calomel, which they know to be dangerous. But a mere laxative will not start a sluggish liver. What is needed is a tonic that will liven up the liver without forcing you to stay at home and lose a day from your work.

You have such a tonic in Dodson's Liver Tone. Dodson's Liver Tone is all that is claimed for it, because the druggists who sell it agree to hand back the money with a smile, to any person not satisfied with the relief Dodson's gives. Dodson's Liver Tone is a vegetable liquid with a very pleasant taste and is a prompt and reliable remedy for constipation, biliousness, sour stomach and torpid liver. L. R. Phillips & Co. give it their personal guarantee. Large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone is only 50 cents. For children or grown people it is the ideal medicine. Try it on the guarantee.

LEADER OF CLEVELAND NAPS

Owner Somers Denies Emphatically Rumor That Larry Lajole Will Succeed Joe Birmingham.

Answering the rumor, originating in New Orleans some weeks ago and reprinted recently in eastern papers, C. W. Somers denies emphatically that Larry Lajole is to succeed Joe Birmingham as Nap manager.

No attention was paid to the yarn when it was first sprung, but when it began to spread through the big league circuits Somers thought it a good opportunity to make public his platform as to the Naps.

"Joe Birmingham is manager of the team," said Somers, "and there's no chance for Larry, Olsen or any other member of the club to get his job. In fact there isn't a chance for any man to take Joe's place. I think he is a good manager and will prove his class to the Cleveland public."

"Lajole had his chance as manager of the Naps for five years and resigned in 1909. I don't know that he aspires to succeed Birmingham, but if he does there isn't a chance for him to land, and he might as well know it now as any other time. The same goes for any other player on the club roster and for any outsider, too. I have Birmingham signed as manager for 1914, 1915 and 1916, and what's more, the ten-day clause is out of his contract. That's proof positive I have faith in him, isn't it?"

"Of course, I am disgusted with the showing of the team this season. After their great work last year I joined with the fans in hoping and looking forward to a pennant. However, I attribute the poor showing of the team in a large measure to accidents and sickness. I can't recall any team in the history of baseball that has had so much ill-fortune in this respect."

MATRIMONY SPURS VIOX ON

Pirates' Scraggy Little Infielder Proves Batting and Fielding Sensation of the Team.

When Connie Mack lost the pennant in 1912 he blamed it on the fact that so many of his players had married recently and were thinking more about their spouses than baseball. This is not the case of Jimmy Viox.

Jimmy Viox.

however, for the Pirates' scraggy little infielder took a trip upon the sea of matrimony not long ago, and since that time no one has been able to stop him. He is the batting and fielding sensation of the team at present and shows no signs of letting up.

GOVERNMENT OWN BASEBALL

New York World Declares Editorially Theory of Missouri Professor is Not Entirely Fanciful.

The theory of a Missouri professor that within 25 years the government will take over and operate organized baseball is not entirely fanciful. There have been threats of the prosecution of the major league as trusts which oppress the players, keep the cost of baseball too high and ought to be dissolved on general principles; and it is quite conceivable that another quarter of a century may witness this extension of government control, says New York World.

Given, then, that in due time congress passes the proper enabling act, appoints committees to determine the physical valuation of ball parks and franchises, creates the necessary federal machinery and takes over the "national game," what an admirable example we shall have of government in one of its highest activities! Under a secretary of sports, with an interstate baseball commission to regulate salaries and admission fees, a federal board of umpires, a baseball civil service and a "plucking board" to retire players, baseball would be "organized" as it was never organized before. A congenial form of government employment would be added to those which already enable an increasing percentage of the public to live at Uncle Sam's expense, and we might look in time for "15-cent baseball" as a campaign issue.

EASY TO INJURE AN UMPIRE

Arbiter Has Less Show to Protect Himself Than Any Other Man Connected With Game.

The accident which Brick Owens, the umpire, experienced in Milwaukee a week or so ago, resulting in a broken shoulder from a foul tip, shows how easily an umpire may be severely injured.

It looks fairly easy for a man to stand up behind a catcher with a big inflated protector in front of him and a wire mask on his face, but he has less show than any man connected with the game when it comes to protecting himself against injury, says Milwaukee Sentinel. It is a pretty hard job to stand up behind a moving, wriggling catcher and a shuffling, shifting batsman and see the ball when it passes the plate, but it is a whole lot harder to get out of the way when a foul tip comes.

It is pretty hard work for a baseball spectator to get up much sympathy for an umpire, but there are those who realize how hard the job is who have a little sympathy for men when they are injured as Owens was. They even get up a little enthusiasm about an umpire when, as Owens did, he works notwithstanding his injury.

more consistently and the Sox are not so far behind the Athletics that they can't overhaul them before the end of the season comes in sight. M'GRAW TOO SOFT-HEARTED

Manager of New York Giants One of Most Generous Men Connected With the National Game.

Manager McGraw of the Giants is one of the most generous men connected with the national game. His friends say he is almost too soft-hearted when listening to stories of distress.

"I'll wager McGraw gives away $2,000 a year," said one of the New York men traveling with the club. "Especially when the team is training in the South does he stand for a touch."

"We may be playing at a little town and a woman will be standing outside the gate when we leave the grounds. She tells McGraw how her husband used to play against him in the old days and how he is in the hospital now with a broken arm or some illness."

"McGraw immediately goes down in his pocket and comes up with a $50 for her. He has many persons almost entirely dependent on him, broken-down players and the like. It is seldom he refuses to listen to tales of woe."

"Then there's another side of McGraw. He always loves a good time. I know he'd give a lot to have a fellow like Germany Schaefer of the Senators on his club just to keep him and the bunch in good humor. That was the reason he had Arlie Latham and others around."

"He'll sit up half the night if there's a chance of playing a good joke on a fellow. I've traveled with McGraw for seven years and have never found him anything but good-natured, generous and kindly to his friends."

Marquard After Another Record. After absorbing two records from the mound, Rube Marquard will start after the National league strike-out mark. Rube says he's going to fan 20 stickers on some nice afternoon and beat Sweeney's record of 19, which the latter established back in 1884.

MARSANS KEPT OUT OF GAME

Court Postpones Hearing of Cuban's Case Until September—Judge Off for Vacation.

Representatives of organized baseball were cheered the other day when Judge J. H. Trierber, in the United States district court here, postponed until September a hearing on the St. Louis Federal league club's petition to have dissolved the injunction against Armando Marsans, the Cuban fielder, who jumped from the Cincinnati Nationals. The judge announced he would not try the case until he returned from his vacation, which would be some time between September 7 and 15. As the Federal league schedule closes early in October, it is considered doubtful if a decision will be rendered in time to permit Marsans to play again this season.

Graceful and Durable Party Gown

IN SPITE of the changing styles there are gowns which are designed along lines that remain and are acceptable for several seasons. In designing a party gown it is a matter of good judgment to select conservative models in order that a dress which receives no hard service may outlast a single season or be easily remodeled. This is more especially true when high-priced fabrics are chosen. A very pretty gown, designed for a dinner dress or for parties, is shown in the picture, and has an advantage in that it is suitable to both youthful and older wearers. A glance at the model convinces one that it might have been worn at any season for several years without clashing with the prevailing fashions. The model pictured is a brilliant design made up of rose-colored satin in the skirt and underbodice and draped with silk mousseline in the same color.

The skirt is slightly draped, its graceful folds hanging from the waist line with some fullness arranged in the seam at the center front. It is full enough for dancing. There is a short underbodice of the satin with a rich design embroidered in self color with silk floss. The overdrapery of silk mousseline could hardly be simpler. It is gathered into some fullness over the shoulder and top of the sleeves, which are cut in one. The mousseline is caught up in two places at the back and falls to a long point at the left side in front, where it is weighted with a fancy tassel in deep rose color. The sleeve amounts only to a short drapery at the top of the arm, supported by a short undersleeve of satin and finished with a medallion of embroidery. A girld of wide moire silk matching the satin in shade completes the gown. JULIA BOTTOMLEY.

SUMMER JACKETS.

Dainty Lightweight Affairs to Wear With Washable Gowns.

ATTRACTIVE JACKET.

The dainty wash gown shown here is fashioned of cotton crape in a plain and striped fabric. A stylish effect is achieved by the use of the short frilled peplum. The little jacket with the long shoulder lines is caught together in front with a ribbon bow and buckle. It is short in front and slopes down to a moderate length in the back. Coats of the Norfolk type are very popular this season. The fullness of the coat from the yoke to the coat edge is gathered in at the shoulders. It is fitted smoothly under the arms and confined at the waist under a fairly broad belt made of the coat material. Large patch pockets are a most necessary detail which should never be omitted. They will hold without undue weighting various little accompaniments which will be found handy to possess when indulging in cross country walking.

Miscellaneous Shower

One of the prettiest entertainments being given for Miss Mabel Hand was the miscellaneous shower at the home of Miss Eva Walker Tuesday afternoon, at which the young ladies of St. Agnes Guild were hostesses and guests alike.

The color motif of pink and green was beautifully carried out with quantities of roses, hibiscus, Love's sweet and the graceful vine of the star jessamine. In the reception hall the balustrade was entwined with vines and Love's wreath while the mantel was festooned with masses of the pretty flower, trailing sprays of asparagus fern giving a relieving touch of green. The doors and windows were festooned with vines, potted plants and cut flowers over which the pink shaded lights casting the roseate glow of the early dawn completed the artistic effect.

In the dining room a beautiful Battenburg tea cloth covered the table, centered by a green basket of pink roses and hyacinths.

Over a bank of ferns in one corner of the parlor a pink spider web had been woven, to the cords of which the gifts were tied and concealed in various parts of the house, creating much merriment as the unwinding progressed, and Miss Hand was followed from place to place by the merry group of girls, in her search for the gifts. When opened each package contained an original little rhyme telling Miss Hand what was expected of her.

Upon her arrival she was met by the guests and escorted by Miss Madeline Hill, impersonating the groom, into the parlor, to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, played by Miss Lucille Aspinwall. Before the spider web, a mock marriage ceremony was performed by Miss Frances Aspinwall, to the delight and merriment of the gay young people.

There were many lovely gifts and delicious refreshments of pink and white ice cream bricks and white cake tied in pink.

Those invited were Misses Mabel and Charlotte Hand, Madeline Hill, Lucille and Frances Aspinwall, Agnes Renfro, Saidee Williams, Josie and Junie Stumon, Ruth Mettinger, Zoe Munson, Genie Wicker, Ruby Betts, Linda Lessler, Elizabeth and Anna McLaughlin and Eva Walker.

New Smyrna Club Meeting

Mrs. Henry Wight, Mrs. L. W. Dickins and Mrs. A. W. Fitts, Jr., went over Monday to New Smyrna to be present at the meeting of the Woman's Club, where Mrs. Hocker and Mrs. Wight have been invited to take part on the program. The ride through the country in the early morning, to Daytona was a joy and delight. At Daytona, Mrs. William Hocker, president of the Florida Federation of Women's Clubs joined the party and the pleasant drive was continued to New Smyrna, where they were delightfully entertained by Mrs. L. P. Bouchelle and the New Smyrna Club. Mrs. Bouchelle was the gracious hostess at a very charming luncheon in honor of Mrs. Hocker and the visiting ladies. The table with its handsome crochet luncheon set, centered by a beautiful silver vase, filled with autumn leaves, its gleaming silver and sparkling cut glass was very attractive and lovely. A delicious six course luncheon was served. Enjoying Mrs. Bouchelle's hospitality were Mrs. Wm. Hocker of Ocala; Mrs. H. L. Hood, president of the New Smyrna Club, Mrs. Cora Wilson of New Smyrna, Mrs. Hopkins of Jacksonville and Mesdames Wight, Dickins and Fitts of Sanford.

Repairing to the club rooms after luncheon the visitors were cordially welcomed by the New Smyrna Club. Mrs. H. L. Hood conducted the meeting and introduced the speakers of the afternoon in a most gracious and pleasing manner.

Mrs. Hocker made a very fine talk on the "State Federation Work, as a Part of the Individual Club" that was bright and inspiring.

The "Sphere of the Woman's Clubs in Small Towns" was the interesting subject of a splendid paper given by Mrs. Wight.

Upon request Mrs. Dickins told of the rose meetings and the City Beautiful Ball and touched upon the binding together in a common interest the club women of Sanford in these social gatherings.

Mrs. H. H. Sams gave a resume of the work of the New Smyrna Club, since its organization, showing a splendid activity.

Mrs. E. L. Greer rendered a number of fine selections on the piano and the meeting came to a close with a most enjoyable social hour. The Sanford ladies returned home with the conviction that the New Smyrna Club, officers and members are royal hosts and are quite appreciative of the cordial welcome, the kindly hospitality and courteous attentions showered upon them.

For Visitor

Among the very pleasant social affairs of the week was a delightfully informal neighborhood party, at which Mrs. Ray Butts was the gracious hostess, in honor of Miss Pearl Stallings of Leesburg.

Amusing and entertaining guessing contests were greatly enjoyed. In the flower contest, Miss Pearl Stallings won first prize, a handsome box of fine chocolate bonbons. Mrs. Terheun won the consolation prize, a box of fine stationery. The hooby prize fell to Mr. John Minnerick, who failed to guess even one question. Mr. Robt. Walthour made highest score on his original hits at the newspaper fraternity.

Vera Terheun assisted in serving the delicious pineapple sherbet and dainty cakes. Enjoying Mrs. Butts' hospitality besides Miss Stallings were Mesdames Anna Walker, R. A. Terhoun, Misses Eva Walker, Elizabeth Strange, Vera Terheun; Messrs F. P. Strange, Bob Walthour, Harry Walker, John Minnerick, Joe Matthews, Frank Adams, W. V. Hull and Fleetwood Joiner.

A Pretty Luncheon

Miss Ruth Mettinger, who is home on a vacation from St. Timothy's Hospital, Philadelphia, was the attractive young honoree at a beautiful luncheon given by Mrs. W. L. Morgan Thursday afternoon. Red and green featured the decorations, confined to the dining room which was very lovely with its ferns and flowers, and silver candelabra and red shades, placed about the room.

Resting upon a dainty crochet centerpiece was a basket of ferns and red hibiscus, surrounded by silver candelabra with their red shades, the green and red blending harmoniously with the handsome white cover. From the ceiling were ropes of blossoming asparagus fern reaching to the corners of the table. The electric lights shaded in shed a soft radiance upon the table. The place cards were hand painted red roses and the favors were Japanese green woven baskets filled with coral flower and ferns, tied with red satin bows.

A tempting five course luncheon was served, the tones of the color motif being carried out effectively in the menu.

Invited to meet Miss Mettinger were Mesdames R. C. Bower, Eugene Larramote, George Bishop, D. C. Marlowe and Misses Martha Fox, Mabel and Charlotte Hand.

Pretty Home Wedding

A home wedding of unusual beauty was celebrated at the home of Miss Forrest Gatchel, which took place last evening. The plan of the lower floor with the rooms opening one into the other was beautifully adapted to such an occasion.

The colors of the wedding were green and gold, charmingly carried out in rich masses of goldenrod, ferns and the graceful vines of the starry white jessamine. In the large reception hall, where the beautiful gifts were displayed, vines and goldenrod-entwined the balustrade and festooned the windows and doors, masses of goldenrod placed here and there completing the effect. Across one corner of the drawing room, a lovely arch had been erected, graceful and lovely with its trailing sprays of jessamine, behind which a bank of ferns formed the altar. From the center of the arch hung a big white wedding bell from which was suspended a gold ring. The dining room was particularly beautiful. From the center above the table, ribbons of gold entwined with green extended to the corners of the room, which was aglow with masses of yellow daisies. The center of the table was adorned with a bowl of the bell shaped almander. The handsome punch bowl was placed in an alcove of the reception hall, festooned in vines and goldenrod.

Preceding the coming of the bridal party Miss Margaret Davis at the piano rendered very beautifully, "O Promise Me" and "Traumerel" and softly played "O Perfect Day" during the ceremony.

To the strains of Lohengrin's Bridal Chorus the bridal party descended the stairway. The bridesmaids, Miss Edith Stewart with Miss Mary Gatchel, Miss Ruby Betts with Miss Mary Simms entered, first passing through the reception hall to the drawing room. They were followed by two little flower girls, Virgie Horne Hyman and Helen Chapman, carrying pretty baskets of rose petals which they scattered in the path of the bride and groom, entering together. The party grouped about the arch and the beautiful ring ceremony was performed by Rev. George Hyman. Immediately preceding the ceremony, Mrs. Ernest Betts sweetly sang, "I Love You Truly."

The bride was very lovely in her wedding gown of white charmeuse, which she wore over a long dress, the bodice arranged at the neck with full soft lace, the drapery and bodice garnitured in pearl beads. Over the gown fell the long veil of tulle which was becomingly arranged to fit closely about the face in cap effect and confined with a wreath of lilies of the valley. The bride carried an arm bouquet of white roses and asparagus fern.

The four bridesmaids were gowned alike in pink crepe de chine over a skirt of white lace flounces. The bodices had short sleeves and were cut low at the neck. They carried bouquets of pink carnations.

The dear little flower girls wore dainty white frocks and pink ribbons.

The bride's mother was gowned in a grey crepe de chine.

An informal reception followed the ceremony and the bride's cake was cut at the prettily decorated table.

Miss Marie Stewart presided at the punch bowl and those assisting in serving were Mrs. Lovell, sister of the groom and Misses Minnie Stewart, Jimmie Laing and Clara Millen.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatchel left last night on their wedding trip to North Carolina. The bride's going away gown was a tailored suit of Copenhagen blue broadcloth. The smart little hat was black velvet, trimmed with blue wings.

The wedding presents were of cut glass, silver, dainty china and linens, and attractively displayed in the reception hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Gatchel will spend several weeks in the mountains and will begin housekeeping upon their return.

Mrs. Gatchel is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Stewart. Mr. Gatchel is a successful young business man, a member of the firm of Gatchel & Son.

Heart Shower

Marked by a beautiful simplicity, attractive and charming was the heart shower given by Mrs. Robt. Holly for Miss Mabel Hand yesterday at her pretty home on the Heights. Festoons of pretty drooping ferns were used effectively with strings of red hearts, joined together with red cords, prettily carrying out the green and red tones of the color scheme. Outlined by small hearts on the window draperies were larger hearts, while the shades over the lights were made of red hearts. Portieres of red hearts draped the doors and hung in the alcove of the reception hall.

The round table in the dining room was covered by a beautiful tea cloth of linen edged with crochet, the centerpiece of crochet being worked in, over a red silk lining. Ropes of ferns amidst the foliage of which red hearts peeped here and there. In the center of the table was a lovely basket of ferns and red hibiscus, surrounded by red shaded candelabra.

An artist contest was delightfully amusing. The guests were handed white cards to which were attached red pencils and told to draw the article named at the top of the card. These were articles of the bride's trousseau and members of the bridal party. Bursts of happy laughter followed the efforts at drawing. To Mrs. Geo. Davis Hart fell the prize, a lovely vase, whose drawing of the bride's trunk was voted by the guests to be the best.

The favors were red hearts with fortunes written upon them and clipped from a string by the blindfolded.

DRAINAGE DISTRICT IS ESTABLISHED

TRACT OF LAND BONDED CONTAINS 265,000 ACRES AND INCLUDES UPPER ST. JOHNS RIVER

Judge Daniel A. Simmóha yesterday signed the decree formally and legally forming, establishing and organizing the Upper St. Johns Drainage District, a public corporation of Florida, to exist for the term of thirty years from the date of the decree.

The new drainage district contains 265,000 acres of land, more or less, being a tract 42 miles long from north to south, and some 22 miles wide, situated, lying and being in the counties of Orange, Osceola and Brevard.

Vans Agnew and Crawford were the solicitors for the petitioners who constituted practically every land owner in the district.

The decree was granted after fulfillment of the conditions prescribed in chapter 6458, of the Laws of the State of Florida, Acts of 1913.

An election will be called for October 28, at which time property owners will vote on the selection of trustees for the upper St. Johns Drainage District. Votes will be allowed, one for every acre owned, making a total of 265,000 votes to be cast.

Isham Randolph, consulting engineers, Jacksonville-Chicago, made the surveys and prepared the report on which the drainage district was finally established.

Valuable Acreage

By the formation of this drainage district a large and valuable acreage in Florida between lines drawn westward from Hardeville and from Sebastian, and from the eastern rim of the St. Johns watershed, westward to the St. Johns river, will, by drainage, become available for habitation and cultivation.

The plans call for main canals from three great basins to the ocean, namely from Lake Winder, Lake Worthington, and Lake Poinsett, with connecting and lateral canals covering the territory in such manner as to dry permanently and successfully the lands within the district.

The estimate of the cost is not yet worked out, but the preliminary investigations and figures show that it can be done at a figure less per acre than almost any other such project yet undertaken in this country. Bonds will, of course, be voted later, and issued as money is needed to prosecute the work, but it is not proposed in the immediate present to undertake this, owing to financially unsettled conditions because of the European war. The whole matter will be left to the trustees of the drainage district to be elected in October.—Times-Union.

Free Trip to Frisco

Mrs. Hazel Powell Stevenson was in Sanford Saturday in the interest of the sale of the Florida Dollar, the souvenir coin which is being sold by the Florida Panama-Pacific exposition commission to obtain funds for a Florida exhibit at San Francisco. Four young ladies, one from each congressional district of Florida will be given railroad and Pullman tickets for selling the largest number of these coins. The young lady of the four who sells the largest number will be given a hundred dollars in cash besides her fare. In addition to these inducements a commission of ten per cent is paid on all sales. Mrs. Stevenson thinks that this should be sufficient to induce young ladies to take an interest in the contest to say nothing of the real object of the contest, which is to have a Florida exhibit at San Francisco.

THE SANFORD CITY SCHOOLS OPENED YESTERDAY MORNING

WAS A MOST AUSPICIOUS OCCASION WITH NEW PRECEPTORS AND THE LARGEST ENROLLMENT OF PUPILS IN THE HISTORY OF THE SCHOOLS—ADDRESSES BY PROMINENT CITIZENS

Yesterday was an epoch in Sanford's history not only with the school children but with the parents and all the patrons of the schools, marking as it did the beginning of another school term. All of the schools opened on time and the scholars were assigned to their respective places, the teachers working with precision and with no confusion of any kind.

Promptly at ten o'clock a goodly number had assembled at the auditorium of the high school where appropriate exercises were to mark the opening of the schools.

The teachers and scholars of the high school and several grades of the grammar school were present besides many parents and patrons of the school. On the platform were D. L. Thrasher, county superintendent of Public Instruction, Prof. Ezell, superintendent of Sanford City Schools, F. P. Forster and S. C. Dickson of the County School Board, B. F. Whitner, S. Range and H. R. Stevens of the District School Board, C. R. Walker, former member of the School Board, R. J. Holly, Rev.

Mr. Thrasher then announced that on account of the late appearance of Dr. Thackston who was to address the audience that he would call on several of the gentlemen who were on the platform and began with Rev. Steinmeyer of the Methodist church who gave a short talk on the schools, followed by Rev. Peck, rector of the Episcopal church, Rev. Strong of the Congregational church, Dr. Brownlee of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Hyman of the Baptist church.

Prof. Ezell was then announced and the new superintendent of the city schools created a most favorable impression as he stepped forward and gave a brief outline of his past and future endeavors in the educational field and his work in Sanford schools as he saw it. Prof. Ezell remarked that as Dr. Thackston had not yet arrived that he wanted to hear from other gentlemen present and suggested Hon. F. P. Forster of the county school board. Mr. Forster is never at a loss for words and his address demonstrated that his best efforts will be was not disappointed. Space will not permit giving the full text of this stirring appeal to pupil and teacher and parents made by a man who has given many years of his life to school work.

One of the strong points of Dr. Thackston's address was the idea that a pupil in school should make up their minds at least after they reach the high school as to their future career and not seek an education with no definite plans in their minds or have no idea of their chosen profession or life work. That they should not waste their time in wanting this position or that position already filled but create their own positions and only with a good education could they hope to create a position in the world and succeed in life. It is to be regretted that more of the patrons of the school were not present to hear this able exponent of the schools and those present were sorry that his time was limited and he was forced to cut his address short.

After Dr. Thackston's address Dr. Brownlee dismissed the meeting the eighth grade and finally the high school proper, for pupils through the twelfth grade.

The primary building is of wood construction, conveniently arranged and located, with a valuation of about $4,000. The grammar school building is of brick, fairly well equipped and amply able to accommodate about 500 pupils. This building is valued at from $25,000 to $30,000. This high school building itself is a thoroughly modern buff brick structure, equipped with all of the most up to date conveniences of the 20th century school house and is valued at about $35,000.

HON. D. L. THRASHER Superintendent of Public Instruction of Seminole County

Thirty-five teachers are employed in the various white schools of the county at salaries ranging from $40 to $225 per month, a very excellent showing in this respect.

Eight colored schools are maintained in Seminole county, with an attendance of 586 pupils and giving employment to 17 negro teachers at a salary of from $30 to $90 per month.

The cities of Sanford and the towns of Oviedo, Chuluota, Longwood and Geneva are all special school districts, with a 3 mill tax which is used locally for school purposes, thus enabling these communities to maintain better school buildings than would otherwise be possible, but on the whole the standard of excellence throughout the county is highly satisfactory.

The personnel of the Board of Public Instruction is as follows: F. P. Forster, chairman; S. C. Dickson and J. T. Jacobs, while the supervision of the entire educational department of the county is in charge of D. L. Thrasher, superintendent of Public Instruction.

used in building up the schools of Seminole county.

He was followed by R. J. Holly, editor of the Sanford Herald and before he had finished Dr. Thackston arrived and was escorted to the platform. Although he was late he was better than ever and being introduced by Mr. Thrasher launched into his address with a vigor that awakened interest in an audience that expected something good and with a prayer and the exercises closed upon a most auspicious opening of the Sanford City Schools.

Eleven white schools with a total attendance of 892 pupils are in operation in Seminole county, three of these, including a high school, being located in the city of Sanford. Three buildings constitute the high school, namely the primary department, for children through the third grade, the grammar school, for those through

NEWS FROM THE THEATRE OF WAR

London, Tuesday, 11 a. m.—Report from Ostend right wing of Germans in retreat, leaving dead and wounded. Allies centre holding firm.

Rome, Tuesday 11 a. m.—The fall of Tarnow reported. Budepest menaced.

Summary of War For three days without cessation the Germans have hurled their masses against the French and English along the entire front in Northern France. The French official view is that these operations, the fiercest yet that have taken place, are by high command, meaning possibly direct instructions from the Emperor himself. Their purpose has been to break through the allied lines, but both French and British official reports say they have failed. From Paris it is announced that not only have the Germans been able to achieve their object, but they have lost a flag, guns and men in the attempt.

The British as usual are laconic. "The situation is satisfactory," the report reads, "and the counter attacks on the British front have been beaten back with heavy losses to the enemy."

The bayonet has played an important part in these engagements, where men in the trenches on the one side or the other, only a few hundred yards apart, come to grips with steel after the positions have been shelled and raked with rifle fire.

The French claim appreciable progress on the left wing and a decisive victory over the famous Prussian guard in the center. Of the Woevre district, where the Germans have made gains in the last two or three days, little is said. One of the remarkable things in this great battle which has entered upon its sixteenth day, is the spirit maintained by the troops. British, French and Germans have withstood the most terrific shelling the world has ever known, an almost constant rain of rifle bullets and hand to hand encounters with gun and bayonet, but all reports agree that they are fighting with the same determination and tenacity as in the beginning and that even the commanders in some cases are having difficulty in holding their men back.

The German general staff, by way of Berlin, reports that the allies are using their railroads in a general attack on the extreme end of the right flank of the German army. The general staff also reports slight gains on the center of the battle front and an engagement with artillery south of Verdun.

The German casualty list, as adopted officially from Berlin, numbers 104,689 up to date, of whom 16,674 are dead; 65,907 wounded and 23,007 missing.

In the Far East according to Japanese reports the Japanese have defeated the Germans on the outskirts of Tsingtau, capital of the German protectorate of Kiaochow. Though the battle lasted only fourteen hours the losses so far as known were small.

German Zeppelin have dropped bombs on Belgian towns, a German aeroplane has paid another visit to Paris, dropping explosives in its flight, while a Zeppelin also has appeared above the city of Warsaw.

The German Emperor is reported suffering from inflammation of the lungs. Only a day or two ago, his fifth son, Prince Oscar, was obliged to withdraw from his regiment and is being treated for a heart affection, the result of over exertion.

FOOD LAW AMENDED AND NOW IN EFFECT

ALL PACKAGES OF FOOD MUST GIVE CONTENTS, WEIGHT AND DATE IN FUTURE

Hereafter all packages of food packed in the United States and sold to the public must bear on the outside a statement of the quantity of contents in terms of weight, measure or numerical count. The law requiring this is an amendment of the food and drug act and was passed March 3rd, 1913, with the provision that it should not become effective for eighteen months.

Thus, September 3 was the date on which the packages were to be given their labels, and the purchaser who wants fresh stock can readily see by scrutinizing the information on the packages he buys he will be able to see whether they are packed before or since that date.

Goods packed previous to September 3 are not to be thrown out of stock, but when they are sold or disposed of there will be no more unmarked packages to take their place and the public will be protected better against false weights and false counts of the "original packages."

It pays for housewives to know something of these laws. It pays for housewives to keep reliable scales in their kitchens and a standard quart cup and other measures. There are few merchants who are either dishonest or impolite enough to give short weight, but sometimes the concerns from which the "original packages" come, need watching.

To Equalize Railroad Rates

Congressman Frank Clark has introduced the following bill, which was referred to the committee on interstate and foreign commerce and ordered to be printed:

To equalize transportation rates on vegetables, citrus fruits and other fruits transported from one state to another state of the United States.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the United States of America in Congress assembled, that immediately upon this act becoming a law it shall be the duty of the Interstate Commerce Commission of the United States to fix as entirely new schedule of rates for the transportation of vegetables, citrus fruits, and other fruits, from one state to another state of the United States on a mileage basis. That is to say, the said commission shall fix a uniform rate over all the common carrier railroads of the United States on packages of certain dimensions or of certain weight as the case may be for the same distance carried from the initial point of shipment.

Section 2. That the said commission shall likewise fix rates for express companies, steamship lines, and other common carriers of freight between the different states of the Union.

Sec. 3. That the Interstate Commerce Commission is hereby given full authority and it is hereby made the express duty of said commission to make and promulgate all necessary rules, regulations, and orders to carry this act into effect, it being the intent and purpose of this act to so equalize transportation rates on vegetables, citrus fruits and other fruits by railroads, express companies, steamship lines, and other common carriers, as that the rates on such products will be the same in all parts of the country for the same distance carried.

Sec. 4. That all laws and parts of laws in conflict with this act shall be, and the same are hereby repealed.

Sec. 5. That this act shall take effect immediately upon its passage and approval by the President, or upon becoming a law without such approval.

The following announcement has been received by several Sanford people. George Ivey is well known in this city where he has resided several years:
