Citrus Group Plans Special 'Bill' Package

LAKELAND (UPI) — The Joint Citrus Legislative Committee hopes to pound into shape a legislative package to be approved by the citrus industry March 8.

The committee gave tentative approval Monday to one proposal which would continue a 10 cents per box excise tax on oranges for the next four years.

Several other proposals were discussed and deferred for further action by the various committees within the industry. Represented at the meeting were Florida Citrus Mutual, the Florida Citrus Commission, the Florida Canners Association, the Florida Fresh Citrus Shippers Association and the Indian River Citrus League.

The 10 cents per box tax would revert to six cents a box after four years, unless changed later by the Legislature. The plan would provide that six cents of the amount be a permanent tax.

Two cents of the amount would be set aside for emergency reserve funds and one cent would be for incentive advertising rebates.

The committee continued its studies on possible ways that about one cent of the tax be used on new product research and development while carrying on with present research.

Mrs. Ball Cops Popular Art Support

The Beach Cottage, a painting of a summer home at a nearby beach resort garnered the most popular votes for its creator, Mrs. Georgia Ball, at the Fourth Annual Art Show, Sunday, Mrs. Mildred Babcock, president of the Art Association reported.

The second most popular picture was also a water scene, with docks and a beached boat, the work of 12 year old Craig Orseno, entitled, Fishing Village.

Each person who visited the exhibit of the work of local artists Sunday was asked to vote for the painting that they liked best.

Mrs. Ball's picture was voted first place in Landscapes by the official judges.

Area Roped Off By Lava Sludge

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (UPI) — Fire and police units blocked off today a one-mile square area in Louisville's industrial Rubbertown area where a lava-like flow of carbide lime waste sludge engulfed cars and trucks, damaged several houses, and crushed oil tanks.

Asst. Fire Chief Eugene Dodson said "There is a potential danger of an explosion from gas fumes," but the wind was helping dissipate fumes from broken lines leading to a plant of the Standard Oil Co.

"SERVING ALTAMONTE SPRINGS, CASSELBERRY, FERN PARK, LONGWOOD, MAITLAND, NORTH ORLANDO AND SANFORD" . . . from HIGHWAY 17-92 and STATE ROAD 436

By LARRY VERSHEL
The kibosh was put on any proposal for an extensive apartment house project at Hantsville by Zoning Director Bob Brown today. Out-of-state developers have been here looking over the Sanford Industrial Park with the thought of constructing apartments there. Brown says it can't be done — Zoning Commission will not rezone an industrial area for apartments.

The City Commission had an "informal" breakfast recently to get the gentlemen thinking along the same lines again after the Pipeline split. They talked about this and that... weather, traffic violations... had grins with their eggs and went about their business... The press, of course, was not invited... The taxpayers picked up the check.

Oops, which reminds me, did you know commissioners received their agenda for the commission meeting with postage due stamped over the envelopes... It was a heavy agenda, at that.

With all the money the county is spending repairing windows in the courthouse, could they please put some new metal strips on the inside staircase? Almost broke my neck the other day. (Ah, I know what you're thinking.)

Bids on the Delany Nursing Home expected to be opened today have been postponed again.

Remember last week "Clock" mentioned city employees will pick up tree debris on Myrtle Avenue at Fifth Street but not on Fifth at Myrtle? We watched them Wednesday noon-picked up two big piles of tree debris in an alley at Fifth Street, half block from Myrtle, and passed up a third pile at the curb less than 15 feet away. Wonder what gives?

Naval Air Station is asking for 150,000 additional gallons of water... Wow, that water program is definitely a must now... Plans should be submitted for the new well fields by April 1.

The Bear Lake Democratic Committee has invited Demos Mack Cleveland Jr., Gordon Frederick and GOP Jan Fortune to speak to the group at the Florida Power Lounge at 8 p.m. March 21.

Wonder if they're having water troubles out by Country Club Manor...?

Bill Bush says he has a hunch that Bear Lake Road will definitely be put into the county's road program next year.

It will be interesting to see what the State Industrial investigators turn up in that boiler explosion out by Hunt.

That young doctor leaving town is definitely not Vince Roberts.

What's all this fuss about building permit for English Estates School? It's customary for the contractor to get the permit... bids will be opened sometime next month.

Casselberry officials are seeking to establish the identity of a mysterious "Tom", Rollins College student who professes to have been the author of their proposed new charter. For "Tom's" information, it just won't work... the charter draft was drawn up by Art Lego and his committee from five other such documents and too much time and work went into the project for somebody else to get the credit.

Recommendations for proposed primary and secondary road improvements in Seminole County will be made by the Chamber of Commerce long range planning committee on roads to the County Commission at 7:30 this evening at the courthouse.

State 'Tables' Sanctuary Action Puts Off Indefinitely

Navy Denies British Sub Sneaked Past Defenses

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI)—The U. S. Navy denied Wednesday a report that a British submarine, after giving advance warning, slipped through this country's submarine defenses.

The London Daily Mail claimed the conventional sub HMS Orpheus penetrated the U. S. Navy's hunter-killer submarine defenses and surfaced within attacking distance of the New London, Conn., naval base.

The newspaper said the Navy radiated an "off the record" message to British submarine headquarters saying "well done."

Atlantic Fleet headquarters here said the statement the Orpheus penetrated U. S. defenses was "without foundation."

The Navy said the Orpheus participated in exercises with the U. S. Navy from Jan. 23 to Feb. 12 and was assigned a route for the trip from Scotland to the United States.

"Her position was known to Atlantic Fleet headquarters throughout the entire transit," the Navy said.

It said the "well done" message merely complimented the Orpheus on her participation in the submarine exercises.

Jet Noise Leaves Congress In A Muddle

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A House subcommittee reported today that there was not much Congress can do about the deafening roar of jet aircraft.

The subcommittee said aircraft noise is a "scientific problem which cannot be resolved by legislative action."

It did not completely rule out congressional action in the future but said it would not come until the problem had been dealt with by government agencies and the aircraft industry.

Among other things it recommended that local governments explore the possibility of using a "reasonable exercise of police power" in reducing the effects of aircraft noise.

Seven Killed As Jet Crashes

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (UPI)—An Air Force KC-135 jet tanker crashed on takeoff at Eielson Air Force Base Wednesday night, killing seven airmen aboard and an air policeman on duty at the main gate.

The four-engine jet faltered when taking off from the north runway, skidded along the ground and wiped out the main gate to the base.

Burning wreckage from the plane spewed across the Alaska highway which runs past the gate, blocking the highway to traffic for several hours.

The remainder of the squadron's 300 officers and men will arrive via transport at Ramey Field Saturday afternoon.

Heavy Attack Squadron Five, commanded by Col. Lyle H. Seltzer, USAF, left Sanford last Aug. 3 for operations aboard the USS Forrestal with the Second and Sixth Fleets.

While deployed, the "Savage Sons" participated in numerous joint service and NATO exercises, flew more hours for the first half of fiscal 1963 than any other Sanford-based squadron, and hosted many major military and governmental figures.

In addition, the Forrestal and VAH-5 extended United States good will to eight Mediterranean ports. Their itinerary included Barcelona, Spain, making the Forrestal the first aircraft carrier to visit that city in three years.

Flight crews and aircraft of Heavy Attack Squadron Five — the "Savage Sons of Sanford"—return Friday after an absence of nearly seven months.

The squadron's 12 A-1H Skywarrior attack bombers will dash over the city in a tight formation fly-by before landing at Ramey Field to long-awaited reunions with families and friends.

Officials at NAS Sanford report the fly-by will take place at 3 p.m.

Power Official Cites Need For Consumer Unit Service

Ted Johnson, assistant to the vice president of the Florida Power and Light Company defined a "consumer unit" as newly formed family unit of young married couples, who in setting up housekeeping and raising a family, create a need for all the services and products that industry produces.

Johnson said that the anticipated surge of such consumer units in Florida in the next seven years will be "like nothing ever experienced before in this country."

He based his predictions on the spiraling birth rate that began just before World War II and "has never slackened off since."

There are ten percent more young people of marriageable age today than there were 10 years ago, he said, and noted that the approaching group of late teens and early twenties is 28 percent larger.

"But the 14 to 17 year age group, which will be marrying in six to 10 years constitutes a 50 percent greater number of potential consumer units than we had ten years ago," Johnson said.

"That's why we unhesitatingly predict a tremendous growth and future for Florida," he said.

He pointed out that the state has maintained its growth pattern of doubling its population every 20 years, steadily and continuously ever since it entered the Union.

"We believe Florida's population will reach seven to seven and a half million people by 1970," he said.

"You'll ask, 'But what of the quality of this population?' he said, 'Will it be made up of retirees? Who will the industrial production to support these seven and a half million people come from?'"

Of the new people who have moved into Florida in the last ten years, Johnson said that 56 percent of them were in the productive working age group, 30 percent are those people's children and only 16 percent are retirees.

"And retirees are bringing more and more to the economy as business assumes more and more responsibility for pensions and retirement plans to make the years of the senior citizens comfortable and substantial, so that they are able to purchase the goods and services that stimulate and strengthen our economy," he said.

Future Farmer Week Set Here

The week of March 2 to 8 is 4-H Week in Seminole County throughout the nation. Cecil Tucker, County Agent and Miss Myrtle Wilson, Home Demonstration Agent, two of the organization's sponsors said today.

"There are more than 250 young people between the ages of 10 and 20 in Seminole County, who will be observing and demonstrating the theme of this year's motto. "4-H... Young Citizens in Action," Tucker said.

"During this week 4-H clubs and their leaders will be attempting to influence more young people to join or form 4-H Clubs; acquainting parents with 4-H and seeking their cooperation; encouraging capable, youth-minded men and women to become volunteer local leaders; increasing public understanding of 4-H aims and methods and expanding support for year-round activities," said Miss Wilson.

"During this time, we will also honor 4-H friends and express our appreciation to them for the important part they play," she added.

The 4-H Club program is a part of the national educational system of cooperative extension work in which the U. S. Department of Agriculture, the state land-grant colleges and the counties share.

4-H Informal, out-of-school learning supplements and enriches training given in the home, school and church, meeting the needs of youth in both rural and suburban areas, Miss Wilson noted.

Some of the more popular projects include career exploration, automotive care and safety, electrification, health and nutrition, money management, leadership, personality development, home beautification, horsemanship, entomology and citizenship development.

There are 94,700 4-H Clubs throughout the entire 50 states and Puerto Rico, and the 4-H plan has been adapted so that similar groups exist in more than 70 other countries.

Where Were We?

Although Seminole County has become a major theater of operations for certain firms which sell swamp-land by mail, county officials were conspicuously absent when the Governor's Committee of Interstate Land Sales held a public hearing in Daytona Beach last week.

The committee held that state and county laws governing installment acreage sales will have to be tightened up if the buyers and the reputation of Florida are to be protected.

The mail order sale of small tracts of undeveloped land in a "serious problem" which is creating legal waste-lands" said one developer.

The Seminole County plat law, as well as Volusia's, came under attack because it excludes land promotions in which there are no dedicated roads and lots are larger than an acre in size.

But the members of the County

Commission, who are responsible for the law weren't around to defend it or to suggest any corrective measures.

The regulation of subdividers is, or certainly should be, a matter of public concern for several reasons, not the least of which, is the possibility of the county (and that means the taxpayers) having to shell out for roads, drainage and sanitary facilities if the property is developed in the future.

That's happened before, and that's precisely why we have a subdivision code today.

It's generally regarded as an excellent law... as far as it goes. Whether it legally could be broadened to include one and a quarter acre promotions may be a matter of conjecture (although it's been done in Orange County), but the Commissioners might have gotten some ideas on this score by attending the meeting.

Your Red Cross

In a matter of days it will be time to start getting the money up again for the American Red Cross.

This is a kind of assistance the American people have never flinched from giving. With annual Red Cross expenditures running close to $100 million, the need for funds obviously is greater than ever.

No one has to be reminded of the invaluable services the agency performs for the armed forces and their veterans, for the relief of Americans stricken with a variety of disasters from floods to hurricanes for the development and maintenance of blood donor, nursing, safety and other volunteer programs.

But this year, marking the 100th anniversary of the first meeting in Geneva, Switzerland, at which the Red Cross idea was taken up, may be a fitting time to give a little more aid" have been extended by the agency's services.

Most newsworthy recent evidence of that effort was the collaboration of the American Red Cross in the collection and shipment of $53 million worth of medical and other supplies to Cuba in the exchange deal which freed 1,113 Bay of Pigs prisoners and thousands of their relatives.

Many other kinds of "foreign aid" have been extended by the agency. Disaster relief has gone to Korea, Burma, South Viet Nam, British Honduras, Brazil, Greece, West Germany, Yugoslavia, the Philippines, Indonesia, the Somali Republic, Tanganyika, the Congo, Togo.

Our own Red Cross also helped the League of Red Cross Societies and the United Nations in repatriating 200,000 Algerian refugees after the war in Algeria ended in that province's independence.

Technical assistance to other Red Cross societies was offered on a rising scale. In the Panama Canal Zone, representatives from half a dozen Central American nations gathered for "Gray Lady" nurses training courses.

About 300 of the 3,600 U.S. chapters engaged in "international activities" within their own communities. They offered service, training and hospitality to students, visitors and new U. S. residents from other countries.

The American Red Cross, therefore, is truly an agency for international aid — but one which even the stoutest critic of government foreign aid would not think to criticize.

In this work, as in all its other proven enterprises, the Red Cross in 1963 again merits your most generous financial support.

Iraqi Problem: Touchy

Assessing the probable direction the new Iraqi government will take, Western diplomats seem to have come up with the following conclusion:

Anti-Communist, but not necessarily pro-West.

It was one of the few cases where a revolutionary government has been accorded recognition by the United States before similar recognition by the Soviet Union.

At the very head of the parade was the United Arab Republic of President Abdel Gamal Nasser.

In its first few days, the new regime of President Abdul Salam Arel committed itself on a number of important points.

By naming two Kurds to its cabinet, the regime indicated it hopes for a peaceful settlement of the Kurdish rebellion which has been flaming in the north of Iraq for the last 18 months.

In a friendly exchange with the government of Kuwait, the Arel regime indicated it will not press Iraqi claims to oil-rich sheikdom. In 1961, the last Premier Kassem touched off a crisis when he claimed Kuwait. The British rushed troops to Kuwait, and the Iraqi representative walked out of an Arab League meeting when other Arab states failed to back Kassem's claim.

The new regime has declared for Arab unity, but otherwise has announced it will not be aligned and has indicated no slavish attitude toward Nasser despite Arel's known admiration for the Egyptian leader.

Internationally, it has declared it will keep all previous agreements. This included its contracts with the Iraq Petroleum Co. a joint American and European venture which in 1961 paid $200 million in royalties to Iraq. It had been Kassem's hope to nationalize the company.

It also included Iraq's economic agreements with the Soviet Union.

In this connection, it is noteworthy that violence carried out by the new regime's supporters has been almost entirely against the Communists.

However, radio correspondents were ordered to refer to them as "anarchists" rather than Communists.

The impact of this latest revolt on the Arab world still is to be measured. It may give encouragement to other pro-Nasser elements, especially in Syria where such a revolt already exists. Relations with the monarchies of Saudi Arabia and Jordan still are to be determined.

It may be assumed that the new government will be anti-Israel.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The Kennedy administration wants people to quit calling it "medical care for the aged," or "medicare." Congress defeated that last year, so please forget it.

The new name, presented in the President's whopping big special message to Congress on "aiding our senior citizens," is "hospital insurance."

What they should call it is "back to Methuselah." Requested therein are 36 different programs, some being repeats from earlier messages on health, taxation and aid to education.

Taken together, these programs to aid the aged would cost an estimated $9.8 billion over the next five years. All are designed to make old age not only less painful but also more comfortable, enjoyable, welcome, well-fed, well-housed and even profitable.

The President points out there are now more than 10,000 living Americans over 100 years old. But if Congress buys all the plain and fancy packages in this message the number of centenarians should zoom into the millions. There will be no reason to die. Old age will be too pleasant.

With only minor modifications, the president asks for the same compulsory health insurance under Social Security that he has wanted all along. Its cost to the individual would be one-quarter of 1 per cent on the first $5,200 of income—to be raised from $4,800 beginning Jan. 1, 1965—$13 a year for both employer and employee. It's cheap insurance for the working years. The health benefits after retirement would be many times its cost.

The new gimmick is that it will give the individual freedom of choice on three health care plans:

All costs for 45 days, all costs for 90 days after the first $90 of expenses, or all costs for 180 days after the first 2 1/2 days' expenses. Thereafter the patient could get 180 days in a nursing home and 240 home calls by a visiting nurse for any one illness.

This would not immediately replace present medical care benefits to the indigent under the Kerr-Mills bill now adopted in 25 states. That law would not only be kept, but would be expanded to provide benefits equal to those obtainable under Social Security.

In addition to hospitalization costs of over $5 billion paid from trust funds, the complete plan would give the aged many other benefits, the new programs costing an estimated $620 million in five years. Here are high lights:

To meet the housing needs of senior citizens, the President asks for $250 million for direct, low interest loans, with another $10 million earmarked for rural areas.

States would be asked to pass new legislation to protect standards of rental housing.

Additional employment opportunities would be sought, although it was only a few years ago that Social Security law was amended to permit earlier retirements and so reduce unemployment.

A new senior citizens act would provide $142 million over five years to aid local communities in planning recreational facilities. Adult education and library services would be offered those who missed college.

Whenever George would go out to the fields to work, Jessie, followed him like a dog and stuck at his heels till he'd come home. George named the pig Jessie, after a football pal at DePauw University.

Jessie would romp with the dog and try to break through the screen door to get into the house.

For Jessie thought he was a human being. Apparently, he had been stolen from the litter almost at birth.

Maybe he also had total

amnesia of pig sounds and smells, for his brain may have been inflamed at the start.

Anyway, Jessie never saw or heard or smelled a hog till he was grown, so his earliest recollections were of human companions.

So Jessie actually thought he was a member of the human species. But as he grew older, we had to pen him up, much to his chagrin.

And when any of us approached his pen, Jessie would stand up on his hind legs, with his front feet on the top rail of the pen, and then he would frantically try to climb out.

Finally, a farmer cousin a mile east decided he needed a boar to go with his sows, so we sold Jessie for breeding purposes.

But Jessie ignored the sows: He wouldn't associate

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

CASE O-470: Jessie, aged 2 days, was a little pig. Our oldest son George was fixing some fence on our farm in Indiana during his college vacation.

Our collie dog was with him. It began barking, so George went over to the entrance to a fox den.

And there lay a newborn pig, all chewed up and apparently dead. But even as George looked at it, the pig's front legs started to twitch and tremble.

So George picked it up and brought it home to his mother. She spent a couple of hours cleansing the tooth wounds from the fox that must have stolen it from a farm a mile away, for nobody within a mile of us had any hogs.

Mrs. Crane rubbed it with olive oil and wrapped the pig in a warm cloth. But its left eye was injured and later became cloudy so it was permanently blind in one eye.

I gave it some sulfas, for it seemed unable to stand on its two front legs and acted as if it had polio.

As badly chewed as it was, you'd have figured the pig would die. But it lived. And soon became a pet.

Whenever George would go out to the fields to work, Jessie, followed him like a dog and stuck at his heels till he'd come home. George named the pig Jessie, after a football pal at DePauw University.

Jessie would romp with the dog and try to break through the screen door to get into the house.

For Jessie thought he was a human being. Apparently, he had been stolen from the litter almost at birth.

Maybe he also had total

amnesia of pig sounds and smells, for his brain may have been inflamed at the start.

Anyway, Jessie never saw or heard or smelled a hog till he was grown, so his earliest recollections were of human companions.

So Jessie actually thought he was a member of the human species. But as he grew older, we had to pen him up, much to his chagrin.

And when any of us approached his pen, Jessie would stand up on his hind legs, with his front feet on the top rail of the pen, and then he would frantically try to climb out.

Finally, a farmer cousin a mile east decided he needed a boar to go with his sows, so we sold Jessie for breeding purposes.

But Jessie ignored the sows: He wouldn't associate with them. Instead, he'd hang around the gate, waiting for human beings to appear.

So we had to take Jessie back. Finally, my uncle across the road fattened him for market. He weighed about 400 pounds when he was sold.

But for weeks thereafter the children wouldn't touch pork lest they might be eating Jessie.

Cub Pack Has Annual Banquet

By Jane Casselberry
Cub Scout Pack 340 of Casselberry held its annual Blue and Gold Banquet last Saturday night in the cafeteria of the South Seminole Elementary School.

Theme of the banquet "Freedom Festival" was carried out in skits and decorations. Each den made clever centerpieces, place mats and favors to decorate the tables.

Rev. Delmas Copeland, minister of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church whose Men's Club sponsors the Pack, gave the invocation and presented the year pins. Cubmaster Wally Krohne acted as master of ceremonies for the affair.

Lyman High Band Presents Program At PTO Meeting

By Donna Estes
Longwood Elementary PTO members were treated to an outstanding musical program presented Tuesday night by the Lyman High Greyhound Band under direction of Michael Fisher.

The band played four selections which it also will play at the district meeting.

Greg Nichols, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Nichols and a student of Mrs. Lee Richardson's fourth grade, gave two trombone solos which were enthusiastically received by the audience. His selections were "I'll Never Smile Again" and "The Old Piano Roll Blues." Fisher played the piano accompaniment.

During the regular business session held preceding the program, Principal Louis Kosky gave a short talk on the Book Fair to be held at the school on March 19.

Longwood Asks Speed Survey, Road Repairs

Longwood will request the State Road Dept. to make a speed survey along Hwy. 17-92 between the north and south approaches to the Longwood Shopping Plaza area. Mayor A. R. Lormann advised today.

At the same time the city will request that a "City of Longwood" sign be located along the highway and that something be done to repair the north approach on the Old Dixie Hwy.

Lormann says that this road (SR 427) drops off in some places at least eight inches at curve locations and that painted center lines along more than a two mile stretch have become practically invisible at night and during rain.

Preliminary plans presumably are being made to resurface and widen that part of the road south of Longwood through Altamonte Springs to SR 430.

Three Year Old Is Lucky 'Adventurer'

By Jane Casselberry
A young three year old adventurer, later identified as the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Cusack of 808 Winter Park Dr. in Howell Park, was discovered just after dark Monday night traveling down busy SR 430 in Casselberry on his tricycle. A passerby took him home and called Casselberry Marshal Gus Sawyer.

Sawyer, after canvassing the neighborhood and finding no one able to identify the youngster, took him home to await a call.

Mrs. Sawyer pled the tired child with food but still was unable to learn his name or where he lived. Sometime later a call was received from the boy's parents to report him missing and the small "adventurer" was returned safely home.

World's oldest known town is Jericho, whose famous walls were built some 8,000 years ago.

Sanford Vs. Stuart In Group Tournament

Sanford's Seminoles will face Stuart in the opening round of the Group 4 basketball tourney. Game time for the Seminole-Stuart tilt will be 7:30 p.m. tonight at Titusville.

Coach Ralph Stumpf, although the Seminoles raked up a 5-7 total in the Orange Belt Conference, expressed confidence the local boys will give a good accounting of themselves in the opener.

Favored Seabreeze and third-seeded Titusville coasted to first round victories in the Class A, Group 4 prep basketball tournament in Titusville Wednesday night.

The Sand Crabs blanked Satellite Beach in the first quarter and rolled to an 82-30 victory while Titusville routed New Smyrna Beach, 69-40.

The first round will be completed tonight with Sanford facing Stuart at 7 and second-seeded DeLand meeting Florida Military at 8:30.

Ed's Last Straw Top SOKC Favorite

Ed's Last Straw, a sensational juvenile who has been a quintuple factor seven times in nine tries, four times with wins, will no doubt be the favorite in tonight's featured ninth race at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club.

Leonard Pryze's hard-driving 73-pounder had the first official start in his career Jan. 7 and then moved rapidly into Grade A competition.

Wearing Ed's Last Straw in popularity will be C. H. Scott's Annie's Hope, who starred at Daytona Beach last summer where she attained a national A-3 rating.

This top attraction is a closely matched contest with the octet rounded out by Western Storm, Foxworth, Earl's Mac, Dispose, Bertie Lee and Hello Charlie.

Another matinee is on tap Friday starting at 2.

Casey Promises 'No Fraud'

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. (UPI) — Casey Stengel has only one aim this year and that is to keep the New York Mets from becoming "a fraud."

"And that's just what we'll be if we don't do better than last year," claims Stengel, who will be 73 in July. Old Casey, after a long and brilliant stint as manager of the Yankees, took over the newly formed Mets at their inception last year and found the going "awfully rough."

They won only 40 games while losing 120, finishing 60½ games behind the pennant-winning Giants.

Heyman Paces All-Cage Quint

NEW YORK (UPI) — Art Heyman of Duke, the No. 1 prospect in college basketball, and Ron Bonham and Tom Thacker, standouts on top ranked Cincinnati, are the leading choices on the 1963 United Press International All-American team announced today.

Jerry Harkness of Loyola (Ill.) and Gary Graddis of Ohio State are the two other collegians honored in the UPI's annual poll of 247 sports writers and broadcasters throughout the country.

Heyman, regarded a clinch to be the first collegian drafted by the professionals in April, was the most popular choice on the team. The 21-year-old New York youth who migrated to the Carolinas for his education was a first-team choice of 201 voters and a second-team selection of 122 others. His name thus appeared on 86.2 per cent of the ballots cast.

NIT Tourney Teams Set

NEW YORK (UPI) — Officials of the National Invitation Tournament have completed the 12-team lineup for the 26th renewal of the college basketball classic. "Hometown" representation was assured Wednesday when Fordham and St. Francis College of New York accepted bids to close out the field for the March 14-22 tournament at Madison Square Garden.

Split Program Slated At Park Tonight

Tonight's program at Seminole Park continues with a split card of five harness and four quarter horse races.

Don Hartley's Miss Leo War will be going the favorite in the seventh 400 yd. quarter horse feature. The four year old mare holds the second fastest time for this distance at Seminole. She clocked the 400 yards in 20.9 on Feb. 9th with Jockey Bill Rollins in the irons. This was her only win of the meeting but she has been second in all her three other starts.

Other strong contenders in this one will be Fire Glow and Duke Priest.

Ted Taylor will be in the sulky behind Grand Kathryn in the co-featured pace for harness horses.

M&M Package Deal - - - Just $172,000

By United Press International

It'll cost the New York Yankees approximately $1,000 per game for the privilege of having Mickey Mantle and Roger Maris swing their big bats this year.

The famed M&M combination attended to the formality of signing their 1963 contracts Wednesday—for a record two-man package of $172,000. Mantle became the fifth player in baseball history to reach the $100,000 level when the Yankees gave him a $10,000 raise and Maris received the same $72,000 salary which he was paid in 1962.

Willie Mays of the San Francisco Giants is the only other active player in the $100,000 class. Others who made it were Joe DiMaggio, Ted Williams and Stan Musial.

"I hope I get at least five more good seasons," said the 31-year-old Mantle, who hit .321 and won his third American League Most Valuable Player award last season. "I would like to play as long as Stan Musial but I don't think I can."

The $172,000 is the highest salary ever paid two players on the same team but the Yankees made it clear they are happy to do it.

"We have said many times in the past that when the time came we would be happy to pay Mickey $100,000 for a season's work," said club owner Dan Topping and General Manager Roy Hamer in a joint statement. "This past year he won the MVP award for the third time and he gained the admiration of fans and baseball people everywhere with his desire to play ball in the face of injuries that obviously hampered him."

Sandy Kousser, another star who was hampered by injuries in 1962, continued to impress in the Vero Beach, Fla., camp of the Los Angeles Dodgers. Koufax pitched 30 minutes on the sidelines for the second straight day Wednesday and said, "I think I'm in a better groove now than I've ever been at this time."

Pitcher-playboy Bo Belinsky starred in the Los Angeles Angels' batting drill, despite a stiff wind, causing Manager Bill Rigney to quip "He might have to spot start him—using him only on windy days."

A minor flaw in Belinsky's delivery of his curve ball also was corrected during the drill.

Elsewhere around the camp: Boston Red Sox slugger Dick Stuart hit seven more batting practice "homers," bringing his four-day total to 32. Third-baseman Gene Freese, a key man in the Cincinnati Reds' 1961 pennant triumph, shows no ill effects of the broken right ankle which sidelined him for virtually the entire 1962 season.

Outfielder Floyd Robinson ended his brief holdout when he signed with the Chicago White Sox for about $25,000.

Ball pitcher Don Larsen of the right wrist by a ball thrown by Manager Alvin Dark and will see limited action for several days.

Jim Gentile promised an arrival in the Baltimore Orioles' camp that he'll improve on his .251 1962 batting average.

It's official—as reported in the Sanford Herald earlier in the week, the Seminole Park Raceway will close its scheduled meeting Mar. 9, Clyde Hart said Wednesday.

Hart said the track was closing due to the early opening of the Northern race tracks and a resultant shortage of trotters and pacers. The meeting originally was scheduled through April 2.

With the early opening of Yonkers Raceway, all but 40 of some 800 harness horses presently stabled at Seminole will ship North earlier than expected.

"Rather than continue our scheduled meeting of 32 days with short fields of horses or cut down the weekly schedule to three nights a week, we have decided to end our 1963 season Saturday, March 9, three weeks before our scheduled date," Hart said.

SOKC Boosts Charities Here To $2,600

A total of $2,600 went to Seminole County charities last month as a result of the Eighth Annual Charity Night Program at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club. It was announced by track mgr. Jack Ledoux.

Ledoux said that 18 Seminole County charitable organizations shared in the proceeds from the night's greyhound racing proceeds.

A charity night program has been held annually since the present owners, headed by chairman of the board Jerry Collins, took over the operation of the track.

Seminole County organizations benefiting from the charity night proceeds included the United Fund, Sanford Elk's Crippled Children's Fund, Longwood Medical Center, The March of Dimes, several veterans' organizations and other groups.

Both Ledoux and Collins expressed pleasure with the 1963 total. "It's always a pleasure to reach a goal," said Ledoux, "and particularly when the goal aids such worthy causes."

Sent To Minors

BOSTON (UPI) — Goalie Bob Ferrellet, who played 22 games with the Boston Bruins of the National Hockey League before his Dec. 18 injury, has been sent to the Rochester Americans of the American Hockey League. Ferrellet is subject to immediate recall.

so said an earlier opening will be planned for the 1964 season to offset the early opening of the northern tracks.

Through March 9, Seminole will continue to have its full card of nine harness and quarter horse races nightly except Sunday.

Anniversary Celebrated By Couple At Open House

Mr. and Mrs. A. Wieboldt celebrated their golden wedding anniversary with open house at their home on Lake Ellen Drive, Casselberry, Feb. 17 from 2 to 5 p.m.

The house was decorated throughout with gold and white floral arrangements, including mums and daffodils and other arrangements in keeping with the theme. Two especially attractive items were a large heart with the letters 50 in the center and a gold money tree.

On display was a large picture of the couple made when they married, in an oval antique frame. This was a gift of their son and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Wieboldt, of Sanford, who also served as floating host and hostess and assisted with arrangements for the occasion.

All three of their children and seven grandchildren were on hand for the celebration. Both daughters are missionaries. Miss Wilhelmina Wieboldt came from Bangalore, India, and Mrs. Lydia Carlson from Peru.

Miss Esther Osborn, a friend of Wilhelmina and a worker at the Literary Mission Center in Bangalore, accompanied her to the States and attended the open house.

Mr. Wieboldt presented his wife with a corsage. The napkins bore an appropriate inscription and refreshments of cake, petit fours, minis, nuts and punch were served to the 85 guests who called during the appointed hours. Miss Joanne Olsen of Casselberry presided at the punch bowl; Mrs. A. H. Walsh of Orlando cut and served the cake and Mrs. Harvey Pugh of Lake Mary kept the guest book.

Included in the out of town guests were Rev. Amy M. Main, president of the Evangelistic Center and Bible Institute in Philadelphia, Pa., and Rev. Margaret E. Kuns, vice president and treasurer of the Center.

Churchwomen Give Program On Unity

The Women of the First Presbyterian Church held the regular meeting in Fellowship Hall, President, Mrs. Wilson Newman, presided over the business session. Several guests and 43 members attended.

Members were reminded to attend the District Conference at the Maitland Presbyterian Church and the World Day of Prayer, March 1, at the Congregational Christian Church in Sanford.

Mrs. Joel Field read a letter concerning White Cross. It is a far-reaching witness of our love of Christ and His people around the world through medical missionaries. The White Cross quota, in which the local church has a part, will be used to buy supplies for the Yodogawa Christian Hospital in Osaka, Japan.

Mrs. A. H. Parker and members presented an inspirational program entitled "Unity in Christ with Young Churches." Through the question and answer portion of the program much information was given on the membership in the local church, St. Johns Presbytery, Synod of Florida and the General Assembly. It was stated that Presbyterians have over 1,200,000 missionaries in foreign fields.

New churches, especially those in foreign countries are supported by gifts, prayers and missionaries.

Taking part on the program were Mrs. Parker, Mrs. George Touhy, Mrs. Neil Houston and Mrs. Earl Turner. The devotion was given by Mrs. George Malfet.

Mrs. J. L. Hobby Hostess For Homemakers Class

Mrs. J. L. Hobby was hostess for the monthly meeting of the Homemakers Sunday School Class of First Baptist Church.

Mrs. C. L. Park Sr. opened the meeting with prayer and Mrs. John Tatum led the devotion period, using as her topic "Spiritual Character."

Mrs. John Fuller, secretary-treasurer, read the minutes, which were approved, and gave the treasurer's report. Members signed cards to be sent to Mrs. Jean Tripp, Mrs. G. T. Pittard and Mrs. Joe Routh.

In the absence of the president, Mrs. H. E. Long, vice president, presided at the business session.

During the social hour refreshments of pound cake and ice cream, punch, minis and nuts were served by the hostess.

Miss Barbara Willford was welcomed as a guest by the group. Other members attending were Mince, R. A. Beck, T. A. Best, R. A. Cohen, H. H. Fortner, Ruby Hofecker, E. C. Campbell, N. C. Booth and M. A. Gonzalez.

Homemakers

By Mrs. H. L. Johnson
H. Glad to be with you again. This week I have had requests for a repeat on the Pecan Pie from Mrs. Donelson and the Hershey Pie recipe from Pauline Owens. I also have a request from Mrs. J. D. Cordell for someone's recipe for Pickled Eggs. Who can help her? I looked through my files but did not find the one she requests. Let us hear from anyone who has it.

Here is the Hershey Pie. 6 Hershey Bars with Almonds 18 marshmallows 1/2 cup milk 1/2 pint whipped cream Melt bars and marshmallows in the milk. Cool and add whipped cream. Pour into graham cracker crust. Chill. This is very quick and very good.

Now for the Pecan Pie Recipe. 1 cup white corn syrup 1 cup dark brown sugar 1/2 cup melted butter 1/2 tsp. salt 1 tsp. vanilla 3 whole eggs 1 heaping cup shelled pecans Mix syrup, sugar, salt, vanilla and butter. Mix in slightly beaten eggs. Pour into 9 inch unbaked pie shell. Sprinkle pecans over filling. Bake at 350 degrees for approximately 45 minutes.

Now that the Lenten season is here we will give a few Lenten dishes. Let's try this Topsy Turvy Tuna Pie. 1 can (6 1/2 or 7 oz.) tuna 2 tbsps. chopped onion 1 tbsps. tuna oil 1 can (10 1/2 oz.) condensed cream of mushroom soup 2 eggs, beaten 1/2 cup fresh bread crumbs 6 thin slices orange or lemon 1 pkg. (12 oz.) cornbread or muffin mix Drain tuna, reserving oil. Flake tuna. Cook onion in oil until tender. Add soup, egg, bread crumbs and tuna, mix well. Arrange lemon or orange slices on the bottom of a well greased 10 inch pie pan. Pour mixture over fruit slices. Prepare cornbread mix as directed on package. Spread batter over tuna mixture. Bake in a hot oven, 400 degrees, for 25 to 30 minutes or until brown. Remove from oven and let stand for 10 minutes. Loosen from sides of pan with a spatula and invert onto serving plate. Serves 6.

Try this Scallop Bisque. 1 lb. scallops, fresh or frozen 1 can (4 oz.) mushroom stems and pieces 1/2 tsp. salt 1/2 tsp. powdered mustard Dash pepper 1/2 cup melted fat or oil 1/2 cup flour 1 quart milk Paprika Thaw frozen scallops, rinse with cold water. Grind scallops and mushrooms. Add seasonings and scallop mixture to fat. Cook for 3 to 4 minutes, stirring occasionally. Blend in flour. Add milk gradually and cook until thick, stirring constantly. Serve with paprika sprinkled over the top. Serves 6.

There's more than one way to bake an apple. Try your hand at Apple Chip Brunch Cake—a new kind of dessert, delightfully easy to prepare. It's a moist cake with a delicious spicy topping. Young brides should appreciate this recipe. It takes so little time to put the cake on the table that it's a good "emergency" recipe to have on hand when you have short notice that guests are arriving.

Removal from the corners of cake tins that have been in use for a long time, dip a raw potato in cleaning powder and scour.

An old table oilcloth can serve many new uses. Use pinkish shears to cut out a number of placemats—or trim off worn corners to make a smaller cover for another table or—cut bibs for the children or—potholder pockets to hang on the kitchen wall.

To remove rust from the corners of cake tins that have been in use for a long time, dip a raw potato in cleaning powder and scour.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been married for five years to a man who is getting on my nerves. He doesn't give me a dime unless I tell him what I need it for. I haven't bought myself any clothes for two years. He says I don't need anything. If he wants something, he buys it. I don't know what he earns as I've never seen his pay check. He takes me to the local drive-in movie three times a year. That's my entertainment. He has an ugly temper and when he gets mad he kicks everything in sight. He won't leave the house without sun tan lotion on his face and dark glasses. Winter and summer? Is something wrong with him? Do you think he's dangerous?

SICK OF IT ALL.

DEAR SICK: He is certainly peculiar, and could be dangerous. Ask your clergyman to help you get him to a doctor. And do it now.

DEAR ABBY: Our son is 16. He is constantly going up to his room and looking across into the neighbor's window where two teen-aged girls have their bedroom. I told my husband and he said it was "natural." I don't think so, do you?

WORRIED

DEAR WORRIED: Curiosity IS natural, but this is bordering on the mischievous, if not parthological. Tell your son to cut out the peeping, and peep on him until you are sure he has.

DEAR ABBY: Recently my husband and I were invited to a sit-down dinner at the home of an officer of his firm. Everyone there was connected with the company. (Mostly executives and their wives.) One man came without his wife, so I asked my hostess if the absent wife were ill or out of town. She whispered that she didn't invite the wife because she had place settings in china and silver for only 12 and didn't want to spoil her table with an odd place setting. This hostess is a college graduate and supposedly intelligent. Did her reasoning make sense to you?

FLABBERGASTED

DEAR FLABBERGASTED: An odd place setting probably wouldn't have been noticed. And if it had, no one would have cared. If the hostess actually excluded the man's wife for that reason, SHE is odder than the place setting.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

How would you go about playing South's seven spade contract?

You would probably lead the opening heart lead to your king and lay down the ace and king of spades. West would show out on the second spade lead and you would eventually have to concede a trick to East's jack of trumps.

Longwood Hotel To Be 'Restored'

By Donna Estes

Plans for the complete remodeling and restoration of the old Longwood Hotel were announced last week by William J. Lancaster of Altamonte Springs who has taken a five year lease on the year old building from Mrs. L. T. (Bobbie Joe) Hunt with a two year option to buy at a price of $65,000. Lancaster, a native of Kissimmee and present owner of the Altamonte Springs Coffee

Shop, spent the first 23 years of his life in show business, primarily in motion pictures for which he traveled from Texas to Pennsylvania and

New York. He retired in 1950 and came to Florida where he became a painting contractor until receiving an injury on a job six years ago. Two years later he bought the Coffee Shop.

He expects to spend somewhere near $50,000 on remodeling and renovating the hotel and hopes that work on the ground floor will be completed in time for a grand opening scheduled this fall.

Overall plans for the building include complete rewiring and installation of new plumbing with a bath to each room. Steam heat will be put in throughout and the dining room will be restored to its early splendor.

Built in 1883 by E. W. Henck, founder of the Town of Longwood, the hotel once was a noted resort of the Central Florida area. Winter vacationers came from Jacksonville by St. Johns River Steamer to Sanford where they transferred to horse drawn carriage for the 11 mile journey to Longwood.

It is reported that in his declining years General Ulysses S. Grant once spent a night at the hotel. Its most outstanding recorded event was a reception in 1927 for governors of all the states which was attended by 22 governors.

Mrs. Hunt, the former Bobbie Joe Allen, came to Longwood with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Allen, in 1908 from Warm Springs, Ga. She became owner of the hotel in 1950 after it had been bought and sold many times over the years. With it came most of the original furnishings, among them a quad-ruple seated chair, or "sofa," which has been estimated by an antique collector to date back to the pre-Revolutionary period. The story has been handed down that this item of furniture once was a "hotel piece" in England.

Mrs. Hunt believes that Longwood, the "City of Opportunity," is beginning to "move forward" again and in the near future she hopes to have a hand in this progress by building a Five and Ten Cent Store and offices for a doctor and dentist.

Lancaster, who also believes in the city's future, will begin work immediately on restoring the hotel once again to "a resort of renown in Central Florida."

The executive board, which met on Monday night of this week to plan the meeting, urges all members to attend.

Burke Elected Fire Chief In Village

By Mona Grinstead

The recently re-organized North Orlando Volunteer Fire Dept. elected Roy Burke temporary fire chief at a meeting held last Saturday at the Village Community Building.

Burke will hold the job until June 1 which time the group will elect a new chief. Robert Dean was elected president of the organization and Henry Ward, secretary-treasurer.

At the suggestion of Bob Stephenson the department voted to ask the Seminole County Fire Marshal to address the group at a meeting in the near future.

The next meeting of the volunteers will be held on March 23 when members and their families will hold a casserole box supper. Casseroles will be wrapped in newspaper and sold for 50 cents. Wives who prepared the dish will share it with the firemen who buy it.

Altamonte Boy Scouts Kick Off Fund Drive

By Louise Simunek

Altamonte Boy Scout Troop 38 is in the midst of a big campaign drive to help the Central Florida Council raise a needed $250,000 to secure additional land and make improvements at Camp Lenoche.

The Council has obtained option on some adjoining land and is negotiating for other parcels which will consolidate its holdings and permit more effective camp usage.

There now are five-and-one-half times as many boys camping as there were in 1953.

The camp was originally designed to accommodate 100 scouts per week and today it is necessary to put up from 250 to 300 boys per week. Such crowding is a deterrent to good camping as isolation is one of the main desires.

A second phase of the program provides for the erection of buildings to improve total efficiency of the camp and to provide sanitary facilities at the weekend campsites.

These sites are Camp Wilderness at Longwood, Camp Aubrey Point at Kissimmee and Camp Samuela at Samulita.

Solicitors from the local area met Monday evening at the Altamonte Springs Community Chapel to review the purpose and mechanics of the forthcoming capital drive.

Working will be Mrs. Marguerite Umstead for Longwood, Robert Sewell for north Altamonte, Kenneth Krause for west Altamonte, Ray Peit for south Altamonte and Winston L. Greshie for Oakland Shores.

Home Sewell Jr. will solicit on behalf of Explorer Post 38.

Lyman Girl To Compete In District Contest

By Joan Casselberry

Miss Ann O'Donnell of Lyman High School will compete in the district competition in the American Legion's National Oratorical Contest to be held at Mt. Dora High School at 7:30 p. m. next Thursday.

Area competition will be held in Winter Haven on March 14.

EDITORIAL COMMENT

'Just Isn't So'

"IT JUST ISN'T SO," ... Mayor A. R. Lormann told the Longwood City Council last week when reporting that some residents of the city had been heard to say that "all the police do is rifle around in the car all day."

As an example, although no names could be revealed, Lormann reported that just within the past week Police Chief Lavo had caught three "characters" in the act of breaking and entering to put an end to what could have developed into a minor crime ring in the area.

Such opinions by people "not in the know" all too often discredit and vilify a public servant, especially a law enforcement officer who, of necessity, has to "ride around" to do his job. In most cases particulars of an investigation cannot be revealed until it is completed and resulting action taken.

On the other hand, if such reports as could be made were regularly publicized, perhaps the people would more fully realize that there is more, much more, involved in being a policeman than just "riding around."

Volunteer Firemen Explain Services To Bear Lake Club

By Shirley Wentworth

A resume of equipment and services available to residents of the Bear Lake area from the Lockhart Volunteer Fire Dept. was presented at last Thursday night's regular monthly meeting of the Bear Lake Community Club.

Representing the department were Wesley Polson, Charles Moore and Chief D. A'Horian.

The men reported that the department now has a junior organization for boys 15 to 18 years of age who may join the regular volunteers at age 18 if they wish. They also advised that 22 members of the department presently are taking a first aid course and that 90 per cent of the group already is well qualified in the application of first aid treatment.

The main goal of the Lockhart department at this time is to obtain a radio base station for dispatching equipment and firemen, they reported.

Also appearing before the club was Bob Simon, editor of Overflow magazine, who showed slides of various water plants in the state and proper and improper operations at these plants.

Simon said that presently water stations may be operated without either a license or health card and that House Bill No. 1 will be presented to the Legislature seeking compulsory certification for water and sewage operators.

Following appearance of the guest speakers, Richard Osterlander, building chairman of the club, reported on progress at the playground and what is needed to complete the area.

Mr. and Mrs. Otto Engleman entertained with a medley of songs after which refreshments were served to close the meeting.

NORTH ORLANDO'S Garden of the Month Award for February went to L. L. and Mrs. Earl W. Achord of 180 Lombardy Ave. who have designed and built the lovely Haitian Patio and Garden, pictured above. ## CTP To Hear Dr. Burnett

By Jane Casselberry

The Council of Teachers and Parents of South Seminole Elementary School at Casselberry will hear a talk by Dr. Carol Burnett, professor of reading at Rollins College in Winter Park, next Tuesday at 8 p. m. in the school auditorium.

Dr. Burnett will speak on the reading problems most encountered by children of elementary school ages.

Revised constitution and by-laws of the organization will be presented for the first reading during the business meeting.

All school parents are urged to attend.

Achords Win Garden Of The Month Award

By Mona Grinstead

The February North Orlando Garden of the Month award went to L. L. and Mrs. Earl W. Achord of 180 Lombardy Rd. where the lawn is green with rye for the winter and the garden is fresh with young plants and seedlings which will blossom out into full color this spring.

The most attractive spot is viewed from a built-in patio facing the south which is landscaped with a rock garden in the left corner. White lawn furniture is used and azaleas, camellias, rubber plants and crotons make up the landscaping. A curved rose line borders an entrance into the garden.

On the right side of the back from this view is a ligustrum hedge. Along the patio screen is a Hong Kong orchard consisting of elephant ears, lilies and chinese elms. Flower beds to add color in a few months are carefully planted around a reed fence which also adds to privacy and beauty.

A play area completely provided with gym equipment for the children, Lee, four and Valerie, five, has a spot of its own to the left of the Achord home which is of Haitian design.

In the front, the Achords chose azaleas, camellias, gardenias and ligustrum which is placed around the house and expanse. Hydrangeas and azaleas add pastel beauty when in bloom along the front sides.

Mrs. Achord is a native of Florida originally coming from Jacksonville. Lt. Achord is a Californian. The family moved here from California last June. He is the newest member of the North Orlando Civic Assn.

Their garden is the second to be chosen for the Garden of the Month award from the community as a whole. In addition to the plants placed in front of the home, Mrs. Achord received an artificial flower arrangement from the Garden Club, a token gift for achievements accomplished by the couple in the short time they have lived in the village.

Readiness Clinics Scheduled At South Seminole School

By Jane Casselberry

The Council of Teachers and Parents of South Seminole Elementary School at Casselberry is sponsoring a series of "Readiness Clinics" for parents of pre-school children who will enter the first grade next fall.

The first of these meetings will be held Tuesday, March 12, at 8 p. m. in the school cafeteria. April and May meetings will be scheduled at that time according to the preference of those attending.

Purpose of the pre-school clinic program is to show parents how they can better prepare their children for entering school through the use of inexpensive materials and careful planning.

According to Mrs. Mary E. Dunn, first grade teacher at South Seminole, the program was conceived because experience has shown that at least one fifth of all first graders are not sufficiently prepared and become frustrated when they are unable to keep up with the rest of the class.

Many of these students are required to repeat the grade and this is an added expense to the county. As there are no public kindergartens in the state, it is hoped that through the help of these clinics, some of the mothers will be able to organize neighborhood groups or home kindergarten classes.

The Central Florida School Supply and a toy store of the area will provide a display of educational toys and materials for use of pre-schoolers.

Visiting days also are planned at the school for any children to acquaint them with the classrooms and cafeteria.

Fire Auxiliary Plans Sales

By Mrs. Adam Muller

The Auxiliary of the DeBary Volunteer Fire Dept. will sponsor a white elephant and bake sale at the Recreation Hall of the Fire Station from 10 a. m. until 2 p. m. on Saturday, March 9.

Mrs. Paul Frenschler, chairman, has requested that articles for the sales be left at the fire house Saturday morning until noon.

County To Push For Four-Laning 25th Street

Primary aim of the County Commission when it meets next Thursday with the State Road Department will be to convince the latter board of the dire necessity of four-laning 25th Street between French and Mellonville Avenues. This is a primary road project, to be accomplished with state funds.

This was emphasized Thursday evening when some 25 persons, including the five County Commissioners, met with the long range planning committee for roads of the Chamber of Commerce at the courthouse.

Douglas Stenstrom, committee chairman, pointed out the Commission has included the four-lane request in its resolution to be presented at 4 p. m. next Thursday to the SRD at DeLand.

Twenty-fifth Street, between French and Mellonville, now carries 6,300 cars a day, the highest count for any street or road not now four-laned in the county, Stenstrom stated.

Stenstrom stressed the 20th Street project since, he said, "Highway 436 and Highway 427 are assured for completion."

He went on to say that plans for Highway 436, a primary project, are 100 per cent completed and "it is expected contract will be let before the end of this fiscal year, June 30." Plans call for a municipal or boulevard type highway from Highway 17-92 to the western limits of Altamonte Springs and a rural four-lane road to Interstate 4. This 2.7-mile project will cost between $600,000 and $700,000.

The committee chairman cited that Interstate 4 through Seminole County is scheduled for completion by Christmas. He painted a picture of four-lane highways criss-crossing Seminole County—1-1 and 17-92 running north and south, and 46 and 436 running east and west.

Plans for Highway 427, a secondary project connecting Longwood and Altamonte Springs are 80 per cent completed, Stenstrom said, and it "appears contract will be let in this calendar year, if not in this fiscal year."

During the briefing of the County Commission's program for presentation to SRD, with the aid of County Engineer William Bush, Stenstrom made the statement that all proposed road projects for this county should be completed within the next six or seven years. And this, he said, also includes the Lake Jessup causeway.

Up for considerable discussion were the Osteen bridge, Bear Lake Road improvements, four-laning of Highway 46 east to the Volusia County line and a Lake Mary Boulevard-Interstate 4 interchange.

Stenstrom said that the SRD and the U. S. Corps of Engineers are at variance over the Osteen bridge. SRD, he said, is willing to construct a span similar to the Mims bridge, with a 60-foot span 25 feet above the mean high water mark. Corps of Engineers is not satisfied with this, he added. He continued the "SRD doesn't want to hedge but it appears that the department will have to give."

Chairman J. C. Hutchison pointed out the Osteen bridge is in Volusia County and is included in that county's program and has the support of Seminole County.

It was pointed out that Bear Lake Road is not primary or secondary but strictly a county road, and in worst shape than any other county road in the county.

Commissioner James Avery stated that at one time the county had the funds and had budgeted for repairs to Bear Lake Road but that in 10 years legal difficulties had arisen over the right-of-way, titles are clouded and boundaries overlap.

General Hutchison reported the county surveyor has been authorized to make a right-of-way survey, one of sufficient strength to stand up in court at such time as the county may have to go to law to determine the right-of-way.

Stenstrom recommended that additional rights-of-way be obtained now along Highway 46 east to Volusia County in order to be ready for that time in the future when traffic is sufficient to warrant SRD to four-lane the road.

A proposed interchange at I-4 and Lake Mary Boulevard would give a break in the nine-mile stretch between the north and south ends of the county. County officials already have contacted federal and state authorities relative to including the interchange in present building plans.

It also was emphasized the County Commission will request the SRD it renege on a maintenance basis Highway 415 (Celery Avenue) to a 22-foot width to the Osteen bridge, with county secondary funds if necessary.

Stenstrom urged all interested persons to support the County Commission by attending the session with the SRD at 4 p. m. Thursday at DeLand.

For a couple or more weeks the author of this column, Larry Vershel, has had his news staff checking daily to learn if the flu epidemic prevalent in the North and West had spread to here. Don't forget Teenage Driving Hooey Saturday morning at 9 . . . Judges will be members of the Sanford Police Department, County Sheriff's Office and the Florida Highway Patrol. Next week is really 411 Week in Seminole County as well as throughout the nation, rather than Future Farmer's Week as stated in a misleading headline in Thursday's Herald. (The FFA had their week Feb. 17-23.)

There are about 250 boys and girls in 4H Clubs around Seminole County, led by 20 adults.

The 4-H is taken from their emblem, a four leaf clover, with the four H's standing for Head, Heart, Hands and Health.

Their pledge is . . . "I pledge my Head to clearer thinking; my Heart to greater loyalty; my Hands to larger service and my Health to better living, for my club, my community and my country."

And that's a pretty good pledge for anybody.

Don't forget the Heart Benefit Show Sunday at Melodee Skate Rink. Those kids always put on a fine show, and you get a good return on your donated dollars, plus the satisfaction of knowing that when you help your Heart Fund, you help YOUR heart.

Agent K-9 down Casselberry way tells us that one or two people in the town know all about this mysterious "Tom" who professes to have written the proposed new charter. How about enlightening the charter committee who spent many, many long hours drafting the document . . .

Rain falling 25th St. construction . . . Really in bad shape?

Casselberry Utility crews were on the job up into the night both days this past weekend winding up work on improvements being made at the main plant which they hope to have in operation by the first of the month.

Phones were out in Casselberry Tuesday all along Quintuplet, Lake Tripet, Seminole Hike and Lake Dr. due to cable trouble on the east side of Hwy. 17-92. Although service at most places was restored shortly after noon some phones were out the better part of the day.

Percentage wise, candidates apparently are showing more interest than the voters who all must register or re-register before March 16 if they wish to vote in the upcoming election which will give the village its first fully elected council.

A check today with Mayor Frank Fasula showed that still only 128 from the estimated more than 400 eligible have registered. Fasula said that in addition to keeping the office open on Wednesday and Friday nights it also will be kept open one Saturday and possibly one Sunday before the books close for the convenience of residents who are employed away from the community.
