Natural Gas Decontrol May Be Stalled In House

WASHINGTON (AP) - Although the Senate voted to remove federal price controls from natural gas, the plan appears headed for the back-burner in the House. The bill, passed by the Senate 58 to 32 Wednesday, would mean higher prices for natural gas, despite amendments aimed at softening and delaying the impact on homeowners. The administration backs the bill. In addition to phasing out price controls over a 10-to 12-

PERC To Hold Hearing

On Broward Teacher Strike ORLANDO (AP)-The Florida Public Employes Relations Commission has decided it has the power to act on its own to discipline striking workers. The commission voted 2-1 Wednesday to conduct a "full, trial-type hearing" on whether Broward County school teachers conducted an illegal strike last month. Voting on the procedural question of whether it had jurisdiction to initiate disciplinary action, the commission rejected the contention of union attorneys that the panel could not act in the absence of an unfair-labor charge.

Primary Deadline Set

TALLAHASSEE (AP)-Presidential prospects who want to enter the Florida primary election should make their intentions known by the first week of December.

That's when a committee will meet then to begin selecting the presidential candidates whose names will appear on the ballot, Secretary of State Bruce Smathers announced Wednesday

The committee is required by law to enter in the state's presidential primary all those candidates whom news media publicity indicates are serious contenders for the Republican and Democratic presidential nominations

Capitol Speedup Hoped

TALLAHASSEE (AP)-The head of legislative probe into delays in finishing the new Capitol says he hopes his group will be able to spur contractors into speeding up the work to save taxpayers money. Senate President-designate Lew Brantley, D-Jacksonville, announced formation of the ad hoc committee Wednesday after officials confirmed that it's extremely unlikely that the 22-story Capitol will be ready in time for the 1977 legislative session.

"We are going to be pushing for a speed-up. All these delays can't do anything but cost taxpayers money."

Cost Increase Predicted

The increase was approved Wednesday by Insurance Commissioner Phil Ashler. "We hate to see any increase because it's going to in-crease the cost of construction," said Kenny Harley, executive director of the Florida Homebuilders Association, "This will probably increase the average

Dickinson Tax Trial Postponed TALLAHASSEE (AP)-Former Comptroller

Fred O. Dickinson's federal income-tax evasion trial, which had been scheduled to start-Monday, has been postponed until Jan. 12, 1976. Defense attorney Dexter Douglass of Tallahassee said

Dickinson and his attorneys agreed to the postponement because of a serious injury suffered by the trial judge's "We're ready to go to trial," Douglass said. "Bud's had this thing hanging around his neck now for long enough. He needs to get it over."

Tourism Promotion Sought

FORT LAUDERDALE (AP)-Faced with declining travel revenue, the Florida Tourism Advisory Council is calling for tripled state spending to attract visitors to the Sunshine State.

The council, composed of travel-industry representatives, voted here Wednesday to lobby the legislature for a $6.3-million budget for the state's Division of Tourism instead of this year's $2 million. Meeting on the eve of a gathering of the Governors Conference on Tourism, the council heard a mixed report on how 1975 will shape up for the industry.

Cost-Cutting To Be Shown

TALLAHASSEE (AP)-Blue Cross and Blue Shield will be required to show what they are doing to hold down costs in their application for a $20-million rate increase, Insurance Commissioner Philip Ashler says. Ashler said Wednesday the Insurance Department would not be deterred by a Blue Cross-Blue Shield suit challenging its right to demand action to hold down spiraling hospital and doctor costs. But he also said the firms cannot be denied a rate increase they need to stay in business because that would hurt subscribers worse.

Goals Of Labor Are Inflationary

George Meany told the AFL-CIO convention in San Francisco that efforts to relieve unemployment should strive to create "real work and real production that could mean real recovery." We could not agree more. However, Mr. Meany and the AFL-CIO, along with the Democratic presidential candidates who went to San Francisco bidding for their support, are coming up with economic proposals that do not see real work and real production as the basis for an extended economic recovery.

The labor leaders are saying that if the economy is not improving fast enough to absorb the unemployed at a satisfactory rate, the government should begin hiring people simply for the sake of putting them to work. That is not a formula for real work and productivity. Moreover, the AFL-CIO is proposing legislation that would work against the creation of jobs in business and industry and set back the effort to improve the nation's produc-

The convention adopted resolutions calling for an increase of more than 40 per cent in the minimum wage - from the present $2.10 an hour to $3 an hour - and a universal 35-hour workweek with no reduction in pay for those who now work longer. Moreover, off the convention floor the union officials were talking of plans to demand doubledigit wage increases - 10 per cent or more - in contract negotiations coming up next year in several key industries, including construction, the auto industry, trucking, rubber and electrical manufacturing.

While a case can always be made for wage increases that protect the purchasing power of workers against inflation, Mr. Meany is arguing for higher wages - in some cases for less work - on the theory this would help stimulate economic recovery and thus create more jobs. He has conveniently shunted aside the fact that many employers would have to sacrifice positions on their payrolls to offset these higher labor costs, and he ignores the serious impact that the gap between wage levels and productivity is already having on inflation, the No. 1 enemy of our economy.

The output of goods and services per man-hour of work in America generally increased at a rate of about 3 per cent per year in the last two decades. The gain began to slow down in recent years, however, and in 1974 for the first time there was actually a decline by 2.2 per cent in the productivity index. This is a root cause of inflation and a trend that must be corrected if there is to be genuine strength in our economic growth.

Make-work jobs in government do not increase the productivity of the American people. Raising wages at rates which far exceed any increase in the value of goods or services produced by workers would only accelerate the downward, inflationary trend in productivity. If Mr. Meany and the AFL-CIO really believe that "real work and real production" are the key to real economic recovery, they are going to have to change their tune.

Fishermen Out

Owners of about half the fleet of U.S.-based tuna seiners have taken out applications to transfer the registry of their vessels to foreign countries, and some have already filed the applications. The grievances of our tuna fishermen against their own government have been piling up like straws on a camel's sagging back.

The government is requiring that U.S.-registered boats abide strictly by quotas designed to protect the yellowfin tuna in a Pacific conservation zone, even while boats from most other countries violate it wholesale. It is proposing new regulations that would limit tuna catches according to the number of porpoises killed accidentally - a step that might have merit in itself but which again would not apply to competing fishermen under foreign flags. It also is seeking to place a federal official on each U.S. tuna boat to enforce the proposed regulations.

Police Tried Spying In Kennedy Home The load of straws also includes the long record of velvetglove responses by the U.S. government to the seizure of U.S. tunaboats off the coast of South America by countries claiming jurisdiction over fishing 200 miles off their coasts. And Congress may compromise U.S. protests against those seizures by claiming 200-mile jurisdiction for the United States of America.

Another curtain is about to fall as the United Fund of Seminole County, Inc., fund-raising campaign nears its final hour.

Many people from all walks of life have helped with this very worthy cause and to each of them we give our heartfelt thanks. Going into today, the final day of the drive, the campaign was still a few percentage dollars shy of the $154,500 goal. However, a last-ditch effort was being made today to 'hustle' that much-needed last $45,000 that would put it over the top prior to tonight's victory dinner. Let's hope that General Campaign James Rasa are shaping up nicely and many people in the over-55 age group are expected to be on hand to compete in events ranging from horseshoes to bowling to ceramics.

Plans for the Golden Age Olympics in Sanford

At least 16 various categories of events are planned for the Nov. 10-15 'Olympics' and it's our guess there will be plenty of competitors - not only from Seminole County but from many other areas

We've heard that a large contingent from Treasure Island, near St. Petersburg, might be here to vie in the Games and many more could come from Naples and Florida's Gold Coast.

The Golden Age Olympic Committee of the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce has worked long and hard to get the ball rolling and to make sure this initial venture is a success. We think the Olympics could develop into a national thing in the years ahead and hope the entire citizenry of the area will cooperate in an effort to insure this year's success. The entire project is good for Sanford and what's good for our town is good for all of us.

Woman Governor Won't Join Strikers

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - Gov. Ella Grasso says American women will have to get along without her when they strike Oct. 29 against sex discrimination. "I'm not going to strike because I have to go to work," Mrs. Grasso, the nation's only woman governor, said

The National Organization for Women is asking women to stay home from work next Wednesday to show how much the nation relies on them.

Mrs. Grasso said she expects women working in her office will find the strike "a luxury they can't afford."

Legal Wife Declared

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - A federal judge has ruled that Billie Jean Berlin was the wife of country singercomposer Hank Williams Sr. when he died and that she has the right to a share in copyright renewals on his songs. Williams, who died Jan. 1, 1953, had taken part in three marriage ceremonies with Mrs. Berlin, but at the time of all of them her divorce from a former husband was not yet

U.S. District Court Judge L. Clure Morton said Wednesday that since the couple subsequently lived together, Mrs. Berlin was qualified as a "putative wife" under Louisiana law, which derives from the French Code, and as a "common-law wife" under Alabama law, which is derived from the English system.

A jury verdict last March 22 agreed on the putative wife aspect but denied the commonlaw issue. Morton's decision overrode the latter part of the verdict.

Smith Praises Reagan

"I've been quite impressed by Ronald Reagan's directness," the Maine Republican said Wednesday. "I think he's telling it as it is.

"He's trying to instill a need of self-discipline, selfreliance, less permissiveness and greater respect for the law. American people like this. I like this." Of Ford, she said, "He was a good representative in Congress from Michigan, and he was a very effective minority leader in the House.

"I've been a little disappointed in his lack of leadership. I had hoped he would settle down and lead us as the American people want." She spoke in an interview with WCVB-TV.

Woman Governor Won't Join Strikers

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) - Gov. Ella Grasso says American women will have to get along without her when they strike Oct. 29 against sex discrimination. "I'm not going to strike because I have to go to work," Mrs. Grasso, the nation's only woman governor, said

The National Organization for Women is asking women to stay home from work next Wednesday to show how much the nation relies on them. Mrs. Grasso said she expects women working in her office will find the strike "a luxury they can't afford."

Legal Wife Declared

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) - A federal judge has ruled that Billie Jean Berlin was the wife of country singercomposer Hank Williams Sr. when he died and that she has the right to a share in copyright renewals on his songs. Williams, who died Jan. 1, 1953, had taken part in three marriage ceremonies with Mrs. Berlin, but at the time of all of them her divorce from a former husband was not yet

U.S. District Court Judge L. Clure Morton said Wednesday that since the couple subsequently lived together, Mrs. Berlin was qualified as a "putative wife" under Louisiana law, which derives from the French Code, and as a "common-law wife" under Alabama law, which is derived from the English system. A jury verdict last March 22 agreed on the putative wife aspect but denied the commonlaw issue. Morton's
