

Worry Clinic

Newspaper publishers like Phil Buchheit are really champions of tremendous "Universities in Print". The newspaper is unique nowadays in being the major educational source for American adults. See how happy women want to make their homes happy and to good mothers, as well as successful wives. They look to newspapers for scientific help to "advise" columns must be authoritative.

BY — GEORGE W. CRANE
Ph. D., M. D.

CASE D — 422: Phil Buchheit, aged about 45, is a civic dynamo as well as publisher of the two newspapers at Spartanburg, South Carolina.

As Chairman of the YMCA campaign to raise $1,000,000 for a new building, he invited me to deliver the kickoff address.

It is typical of our newspaper publishers to be staunch rooters for all good civic and moral projects.

But not all of them have the vitality and personal energy to spearhead the actual campaigns in their cities the way Phil Buchheit does.

For example, while at Spartanburg, he introduced me to 1,200 high schoolers in the morning, plus 50 clergymen at a noon luncheon.

And there was a packed auditorium of 3,500 at the big evening affair.

But at 11 A. M., I spoke to 1,000 ladies at a "Women Only" clinic. I talked for 45 minutes; then answered questions which they had written, unsigned, on slips of paper. Here are a few:

TYPICAL DOMESTIC PROBLEMS

"Why do husbands fail to compliment their wives or praise them for their efforts to please their husbands?"

"Does it make a 6-year-old feel insecure because his mother has to work outside the home?"

"Should a younger child be told that his older brother is a child of the mother by a former husband?"

"How can eligible but unmarried people meet congenial members of the opposite sex?"

"Could there be a real disease called 'inertia'?"

"What are the pros and cons of social drinking?"

"My husband drinks though I do not, so how can I impress on my two boys that liquor is harmful?"

"How can I get my husband to quit smoking and become active in our local church?"

"What is meant by a schizophrenic personality?"

"My 15-year-old teases other children and acts like a 'Smart Alec'. Why does he do so and what can I do to correct him?"

"After 25 years of happy married life, my husband has suddenly grown cold toward me. He wants to go places alone. What can I do to restore our former happy relationship?"

"At 23, I want to get married, but my mother opposes the idea, saying I should stay home and look after her. But I have a wonderful boy friend whom I have dated steadily for over two years."

"We've been married 18 years and have 4 children, but my husband is running around with other women and says he wants a divorce. I have begged him to try to restore our happy home, but he refuses."

"For 14 years of our marriage, my husband has been a chronic phillanderer with no desire to change. For the sake of our children, aged 10 and 12, what should I do?"

"How can I get my husband out of bed and to church without nagging him?"

"What causes a husband of 25 to have no erotic desire?"

"I have two semi-invalidated parents to look after, as well as my husband and three children. I am so upset for I can't do justice to all my obligations. Just where does my first responsibility lie?"

"How can a wife help an immature husband grow up?"

"How can I stop jealousy in my husband when he has no valid cause?"

See tomorrow's follow-up for additional questions, but please note how sincerely these women want to succeed as wives and homemakers.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long de stamped, addressed envelope and see to never trying and printing some when sent for one of his booklets.)

Mrs. Miniver Proves Disappointing TV Fare

BY FRED DANES

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Mrs. Miniver," a rhapsodic motion picture tribute to Britain's finest hour in World War II, made for an uneven, disappointing 30 minutes on the TV tube Thursday night.

The fourth in the season's "Special Tonight" series, "Mrs. Miniver" on CBS-TV starred Maureen O'Hara in the role which, as every schoolboy knows, won an Academy Award for Greer Garson in 1942.

Miss O'Hara looked lovely but, unfortunately, mistook euphoria for courage and tended to depict hard times with excessive hand-wringing and looting-away. The other leads — Cathleen Nesbitt, Juliet Mills, Paul Robling and Leo Genn — displayed backbone with more believability. This is ironic, of course, since the name, Mrs. Miniver, has become a synonym for imperiousness and the unwomanly human spirit. I'm afraid Miss O'Hara made her Mrs. Miniver a synonym for the Donna Reed show.

The TV adaptation by George Sarg reduced to flimsy out some of the grip but was not entirely successful, although some stirring, realistic scenes came along, namely:

—The church scene at which war was announced.

—The table scene at which Vin,

Industrial High

High labor and production indexes in December in the San Antonio area were reported by the Federal Reserve Bank of Dallas. The index for the San Antonio area for December was 100.0, compared with 99.0 for November and 98.0 for October.

The San Antonio program includes a list of over 100 new jobs and 100 new jobs.

Supreme Court Faces Busy Agenda This Week

WASHINGTON (UPI) —

The Supreme Court reconvenes today after its holiday recess, with decisions awaited in some 30 cases involving espionage, race conflict, citizenship and other issues.

Later in the week, the nine justices will hear arguments on the constitutionality of the 1967 civil rights law, which permits the federal government to enforce Negro voting rights. Attorney General William P. Rogers will represent the government.

Federal Judge T. Hoyt Davis of America, Ga., ruled last April that the statute was unconstitutional.

Among the more important cases up for decision is the dispute between the United States and five Gulf Coast states over ownership of the rich offshore oil lands. The Government wants state ownership confined to a three-mile belt around the coastline. The states claim as far out to sea as three leagues, or 10 1/2 miles.

Decisions are due in race cases involving 1957 tax ordinances of Little Rock and North Little Rock, Ark., which require local NAACP groups to reveal their membership lists, and an attempt by Negroes to play on a Greensboro, N. C. golf course restricted to whites.

Arguments also have been heard on the appeal of Col. Rudolf Ivanovich Abel, Soviet Agent convicted of espionage in New York in 1957. Abel argued that the government violated the constitution's guarantee against unreasonable searches and seizures.

A group of cases vitally important to the military services will determine whether the 480,000 dependents and other civilians living aboard with the armed forces are subject to trial by court-martial for non-capital offenses. The court previously has ruled that in cases involving the death penalty dependents must be given a civilian trial.

In another personal liberties case, the high court has been asked to decide whether Congress can take away the citizenship of a native-born American if he goes abroad to escape military service.

Quotable Quotes

By United Press International
WASHINGTON — The National Geographic Society, noting the recent quarrel between two chief-lains on Formosa's once-wild eastern frontier shows civilization is advancing there:

"Instead of reverting to the decapitation of each other — and their hapless subjects — the two rivals held press conferences to air their differences."

BERLIN — West Berlin student Klaus Grabert, after watching a French-made film on Nazi concentration camps:

"Now I know why our parents and teachers always tell us about the 'gay 30's' but never about the horrific 30's."

FAIRBANKS, Alaska — Air Force Capt. William A. Culling, reporting that morale is good among 30 men at the scientific station on the disintegrating ice floe Charlie:

"Everyone seems unconcerned."

WASHINGTON — Sen. Hubert Humphrey (D-Minn.), stating that he considers the Wisconsin primary important in his bid for the Democratic presidential nomination:

"If I don't win in Wisconsin, then in the slogan of the current administration I'll have to make an agonizing reappraisal."

Monti Paces LA Open Play

LOS ANGELES (UPI) —

Home-town favorite Eric Montl, given a day of grace by the elements, carried a slim one stroke lead into the rain-delayed third round of the $7,500 Los Angeles Open today.

The postponement Sunday gave Montl a chance to nurse a perrier, out cold as well as his narrow advantage over second-place Dow Finsterwald, of Tuquesita, Fla. Montl's 71 Saturday provided him with a 36-hole score of 127, while Finsterwald gained ground with a 68. With his 70 Friday, it gave him a halfway score of 185.

Despite the forecast of more showers today — the weatherman said there was a 70 per cent probability there would be rain — morning officials were hopeful the field of 65 pros and 10 amateurs could resume play.

Jaycees Seek Outstanding Young Man

The public is being asked by the Jaycees to help select the county's outstanding young man of the year.

D. H. (Skip) Hartley, chairman of Jaycee Week which starts Monday, urged today that nomination blanks be obtained at the Jaycee Building on French Ave. Nominations must be entered not later than Monday, he said.

Selection of the outstanding young man will be one of the features of the Jaycee Week observance here in which the Junior Chamber of Commerce will pay tribute to the accomplishments of young people in the community.

Any young man under 35 years of age is eligible for nomination for this distinguished service award. He need not be a member of the Jaycees or any other organization.

Selection of the outstanding individual by a panel of judges consisting of prominent county residents will be based on contributions to community welfare or betterment; participation in all-round community activities and civic enterprises; evidence of leadership; evidence of personal and business progress, and cooperation with individuals and civic organizations.

The recipient of the award will be honored at the Jaycee Awards-Bosses Night Dinner Jan. 23. This is the highest tribute the Jaycees can give an individual.

Five Road Projects Selected

The County Commission today designated five major road projects to get funds out of the secondary gas tax funds.

The projects include purchase of a right of way for SR 44 from Mellonville to French Ave.;

right of way and construction of SR 427 from Altamonte Springs to Longwood, right of way on SR 436 from Altamonte Springs to the Turkey Farm, right of way and construction of Bear Lake Road to the Orange County line and realignment to eliminate curves on SR 426 from Goldenrod to Oviedo.

The board previously had agreed to extend its right to borrow on funds from the secondary tax money and singled out these five major projects because "they are the most travelled roads in the county."

In other action during the morning meeting, the board agreed to ask the state to purchase a signal light for the intersection of SR 436 and U. S. 17-92. The state would purchase the light and the county would install it. Cost of the project is estimated to be approximately $18,000.

Lake Mary Road Work Begins

Work started this week on paving Lake Mary Road from Country Club Road to SR 427, County Engineer Robert Davis informed the County Commission today.

Cost of the project is $30,000, Davis added, and includes a four-mile strip of road.

In other business concerning Lake Mary, the board upheld a zoning commission ruling to rezone four lots in the Crystal Lake Homes subdivision despite a disagreement on "just who owns the land."

The four lots were rezoned R2, which allows for multiple construction.

The board previously had held off any decision on the issue to allow Attorney Mack Cleveland to check into the claim that the property in question is designated as a park.

Cleveland said that evidence he has received indicated the plots were vacated 14 years ago.

Barry Sullivan Takes Role In Heart Fund Show

Barry Sullivan has been put into the co-starring billing with Betty Davis for the presentation of "The World of Carl Sandburg" Jan. 30 at the Civic Center.

Sullivan, a veteran star of stage, movies and television, will replace Cameron Mitchell in the show with Miss Davis.

The show, being brought here by the Seminole-DeBary Heart Council, has been getting unanimous praise in other cities. Mrs. Leonard Munson, chairman of the Heart Fund, has been notified.

One report said "it is an evening of song and shows—simple human emotions and big thought—pleasant to watch and hear." And another: "It is two hours of lively entertainment. Stimulating treatment that keeps the audience alert."

Florida Symphony To Present Two Concerts Tuesday

The Florida Symphony Orchestra will appear at the Civic Center in two concerts next Tuesday.

A special youth concert will be held at 3:45 p. m. with all children admitted free while a "pops" concert will be held at 8:15 p. m.

All county and city school children from the fourth to sixth grades will be excused from school early so they can attend the concert.

Offices Report Excess Fees

Excess fees from county offices were reported to the County Commission today before they are sent to the state comptroller's office.

Excess fees from the county judge's office totaled $4,106.29 and $3,009.22 came from the tax assessor's office, and $16,678 from the clerk of the Circuit Court.

The commission also heard a report that donations at the Big Tree Park totaled $1,333.25 for 1959.

The board also received donations from three property owners in the county for right of way.

The three are Central Florida Properties, B. W. Yale and the Overstreet Land Co.

In 1959, over 800 children attended the youth concert and 690 attended the evening performance.

Bitting Funeral To Be Wednesday

Funeral services for W. V. Bitting will be held at 10 a. m. Wednesday at the First Methodist Church, Sanford, with the Rev. T. O'Brien and the Rev. J. C. McKinley officiating. Burial will be in Oklawaha Memorial Park, with Erlson Funeral Home in charge.

Active pallbearers will be Harry Tenke, John Ivey, Albert Jarell, Dr. Henry Woodard, Tom Holt and W. A. Adams.

Honorary pallbearers will include Glen McCall, Alfred Chiles and all members of the Seminole County Medical Assn.

Students tickets are $1.25 and adult tickets, $2.25.

Air Safety Facilities

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Federal Aviation Agency today outlined its plans for spending $115,200,000 on new air traffic and navigation facilities. The emphasis will be on radar.

Freezing rain brought hazardous driving conditions to the Midwest today, while unseasonably warm air flowed across the South and rains soaked the West Coast.

Freezing rain fell in advance of the rising temperatures from west-central Michigan into northern Minnesota and affected Indiana, Illinois, Iowa, Wisconsin and parts of Kansas.

The City Commission last night changed the name of Orlando Drive to Park Drive from 25th St. south to 17-92.

Stork Leaves Gifts Along With Carrie Ann Foote

The stork also had a bag full of prizes in his beak when he delivered little Carrie Ann Foote at the Seminole Memorial Hospital Jan. 2.

The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Foote of 128 W. Woodland Dr., closed her tiny fist on $150 worth of prizes from Sanford merchants by becoming the first baby born in Seminole County in 1960.

The six-pound, 4 1/2 ounce arrival, first for the Footes, was born at 9:13 a. m. and hospital authorities told Mrs. Foote they thought Carrie Ann was the first county arrival for the new year.

Carrie Ann was named after her father's grandmother, Carrie Lorraine Foote. Lt. (j.g.) E. W. Foote and his wife, Laura, have lived in Sanford since March, 1954, when Foote came to Sanford NAS from flight training in Pensacola. The couple married after Foote's 1956 graduation from the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. The VAH-5 pilot expects to be in Sanford two more years. He hails from Akron, Ohio. Mrs. Foote is a former Washington, D. C. resident and a 1954 graduate of Mt. Vernon Jr. College.

Cubans Reject Protest On Property Seizure

HAVANA (UPI) — The Cuban government Monday night rejected a U. S. protest against seizure of North American holdings in Cuba and said a formal protest failed to deal with "a basic situation" of Cuba's new agrarian reform laws.

A statement by Acting Foreign Minister Marcelo Fernandez Font made it clear Cuba later would formally reject a State Department note handed over Monday by U. S. Ambassador Philip W. Bonsal.

U. S. insistence on cash payment for Americans whose property in Cuba is seized by the Fidel government put a new strain on the already cool U. S.-Cuban relations, and Fernandez' statement made it clear Cuba would continue expropriating property.

Jobless Mobs Riot In Venezuela

CARACAS, Venezuela (UPI) — Jobless mobs ran riot in the streets here Monday night and early today, stoning public buildings, burning automobiles and trying to loot stores.

A Spanish immigrant was killed and at least 23 persons were wounded by troops and police battling the rioters. More than 200 persons were arrested.

City Won't Use ACL Water Pipe

The City Commission last night decided not to use the Atlantic Coast Line water pipe, between Eighth and 13th Streets, and will begin metering the A.C.L. for the Sanford water the railroad uses. Sanford has been charging the A.C.L. a $112 per month flat rate for water. City Manager Warren E. Knowles tried to get the use of the eight inch pipe, keeping the flat rate, with the city having first rights to buy the line. Sanford would have used the pipe to deliver water to the new Seminole High.

Knowles said the A.C.L. didn't want the equity agreement. Metering the railroad would cost the A.C.L. about $250,750 per month. Knowles said. The city can use the Dreamworld line to get water to the new school, he pointed out.

The commission also passed an ordinance curbing zoning parts of Pinecrest, Country Club Manor and part of Dreamworld, single family residential. There were errors in the original ordinance concerning these sections.

Sanford firemen will come under Social Security as of April 1, by rules of the third ordinance passed last night. All the firemen have approved the agreement, City Attorney William Eubankson said.

The commission also authorized Hutchison to draw up a resolution in tribute to W. V. Bitting's service as a city official in 1951. Bitting, manager of Touchman's Drug Store, and a resident of Sanford for 20 years, died yesterday.

236 Homes Planned In North Orlando

North Orlando Mayor Roy Liddick today announced that engineering on 236 more homes for the community will start immediately. A contract has been signed with Miami and Ft. Lauderdale developer Perry Willets, for purchase by Willets of 500 lots and arranging for building the new houses. Liddick said. The homes in the $19,000 price range will be east of the North Orlando central office on the Longwood-Oviedo road.

Liddick said that the town's utility company is expanding its sewerage and water plant to meet the demand of the construction. The greatest problem with the new development will be the need for schools, the mayor explained. There are now 125 homes occupied in North Orlando and 25 under construction.

Camera Club Meets

A demonstration of darkroom techniques will be presented at a meeting of the Sanford Camera Club at 7:30 p. m. today at the Civic Center. A portable darkroom will be used to show the processes of developing of film and printing pictures.

Inspector General Gives Us A Hand

The Naval Inspector General, Rear Admiral J. W. Allen III, joined county and civic leaders to applaud Navy-Sanford cooperation at a Naval Air Station conference Friday.

"When we live with the community we seem to get along a lot better, as we're doing here. When we build our own houses and school system and pull back into our shell we don't do as well," the admiral from the Pentagon said. "It's your Navy. We need your sons to come into the Navy," he emphasized.

The discussion followed Adm. Allen's tour of the base with station commander Capt. Robert Slye.

It is good to know that the admiral said he was impressed with the community relations of the station.

An inspector general he is the man who makes recommendations about a lot of things, including expansion, improvement, etc. of bases and facilities. His staff is continuing a comprehensive survey of the Sanford station and, if our guess is right, they will find it an efficient, vital arm of the Navy.

Washington See Saw

BY WIN PENDLETON

This week's column takes the form of a letter to Senator George Smathers regarding his trip to Latin America.

Dear Senator Smathers:

As you leave Washington this week for a month's tour of the Capitol of 11 of our Latin-American neighbors, we wish you bon voyage, happy landings, and a most successful journey.

Your visit is most timely. The present unrest among the Latin-American nations calls for a diagnosis made from first hand information. This information must be gathered on the spot by someone who is thoroughly acquainted with the local customs and politics. You should be able to do a better than anyone else. This will be your eighth trip to Central and South America since coming to the United States Senate. You are thoroughly acquainted with the heads of most of the governments of the countries you will visit. You have made many public speeches in those countries and to those people you are one of the best known figures in the hemisphere.

If the information you will gather is properly evaluated and translated into constructive action, your visit might well mark a turning point in strengthening the relations of the Western Hemisphere by Central America. Your work when you next month could be the best possible advancement in foreign relations in this new decade.

We hope that when you return, you will present a thorough report of your findings. But more importantly, we are anxious to see you take a number of practical, workable solutions for our mutual problems.

Please don't fall into the trap of reading the most old clichés that show have repeated, such as: "The situation calls for drastic action—trade must be stimulated—economic aid must be increased" and so on and so on.

We know this. We have heard it for years. Milton Eisenhower, the President's own brother, made a study of the problems during the first six months of 1963. He said these things. What was done about it? Nothing! Like so many critical problems that have faced Americans during the past eight years—this one has been swept under the rug.

We hope you will bring it out into the open. If and when you say that we should do something to compete with Europe and Japan for the South American market—we'd like to hear you give us some concrete suggestions on the subject. Tell us how to do it. Tell us in the kind of language that an American businessman—looking for new business—can understand.

The Latin-American problem, as you have pointed out many times, has grown to monumental size. We think this growth is due to neglect—and by following the philosophy that if we look the other way long enough, our problem will somehow get itself out of our hands.

If America does not lead, where can our neighbors look? We are the only free nation equal to the task—if we do not assume the responsibilities of leadership, there are others—speculators of disaster—eager to step in.

We are looking forward to hearing the results of your trip.

Sincerely,
Win Pendleton

3,200 Homestead Forms Issued

The Tax Assessor's office has issued 3,200 applications for homestead exemption as of last Friday. Tax Assessor Richard McCanna said today.

McCanna said that this includes new applications and renewals.

The deadline for filing for homestead exemption is March 31.

Assignment Washington

BY ED KOTTERA

FORT MYERS BEACH, Fla. — On an independent income of $110 a month and $23 Social Security, Calix Pika has got it made. She lives in a cozy place under wide, spreading limbs of tall Australian pine trees, just 15 paces from the fine, white sand beach of the Gulf of Mexico.

"I'm a millionaire," she said, and when I looked surprised she laughed and said: "In the evenings I sit here at my window and watch the sun go down over the beach. I've always heard that only millionaires can afford a view like this."

Mrs. Pika is 71. She said her late husband, a lawyer, died a number of years ago, invested the money in an apartment house, and now gets $110 a month from the investment.

Her home, a silver and blue, 24-foot house trailer, cost $3,000. She has it parked permanently on the beach of this sunny, slim island, using against the coast below Fort Myers. Her rent is $600 a year—$25 a month.

Her only other expenses are for food, electricity and clothing. Her electric bill runs about $4 a month. She does her own cooking. "If I watch it closely I can eat well on a dollar a day," she said. She does her own sewing, and fashions much of her own clothing.

What could Uncle Sam do for her that he isn't doing now? I had dropped by late in the evening and interrupted a sentence of a bridge. Now her three neighbors joined in, and they nodded when she replied, "The government should give old folks free medical care."

It's the dog-gone doctor bills, she said, that upset her carefully laid budget plans—nothing else. I recalled what John Holmes, retired metal worker, told me in St. Petersburg the day before. "We all could use free hospitalization," he said, "just so it doesn't become socialized medicine." And so as afterthought, he said, "And it probably would."

Celia Pika was settled comfortably in a mobile home settlement called the Red Coconut Trailer Park.

The park itself is run by a couple who had "retired" last September. Jim McDorman had sold out his International Harvester dealership near Columbus, Ohio, and his Mrs. found this means of keeping busy and enjoying a nice income. They've turned much of the work over to their daughter and son-in-law, Bob and Suzanne Beatt.

We got lost looking for the trailer park, although there is only one main thoroughfare and it hits a dead end eight miles south. There we ran into Charlie Tucker, of Evanston, Ind., who with the Mrs. retired early in life and now he's working harder than ever fixing trailers, refrigerators and running a dress shop.

The southern end of the island is barren and seems lost to civilization. "Maybe we could buy some cheap land, for an investment," Dotty said. We asked Charlie about it.

He chuckled. "Costs $25 a front foot," he said. "That's $22,500 for a beachfront lot 150 feet wide—with nothing on it but sand and weeds."

I think the little lady in my company had been thinking in terms of a dress shop. "Buy your lot now, pay only $7 a month," he said.

You can spend a lot of money for property in Florida—or you can live inexpensively, and comfortably, like Celia Pika.

Capitol's Statuary Hall 'Crowded'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Do you remember Cassius M. Davis, Lewis Cass and John Gorrie? Neither do I.

These are names I copied at random from some of the sculptured figures displayed in the capitol's Statuary Hall. They are part of a monumental problem.

Although the situation isn't critical yet, the nation's capital is gradually running out of space in which to erect statues, fountains, towers and other memorials to our heroes and statesmen.

The National Capital Park

Service alone has 95 memorials of one sort or the other under its jurisdiction and it doesn't begin to cover the field. Neither the Library of Congress nor the public library would tell me how many there are in all.

In recent years, the town has been spawning monuments right and left. The IAF Memorial Hall Tower and the Iwo Jima statue are two of the more noteworthy additions.

Another bell tower, donated by the people of The Netherlands, is almost ready for dedication.

Plans are well advanced for big memorials to Presidents Theodore Roosevelt and Franklin Roosevelt and space has been reserved for 10 smaller statues near Arlington National Cemetery. The first, honoring Adm. Richard Byrd, will go in this year.

(Incidentally, the cemetery itself is rapidly using up its last burial plots.) Also arriving on the scene soon will be a statue of Gen. John J. (Black Jack) Pershing. This particular art work brings up a related problem as to how to design suitable statues of our modern military heroes.

The problem stems from the disappearance of the horse from the battlefield. There is almost no way to put a dismounted general in a fighting pose.

A sculptor couldn't very well exhibit Gen. George Patton inside a bronze tank or show Gen. Douglas MacArthur striding through marble waves to the Philippines shore.

Paraphrasing a line from an equestrian by virtue of his horseback chase of Pancho Villa, the Mexican bandit. But his probably will be the last statue erected here with its subject astride the traditional charging steed. Future heroes are more likely to be in the nose cone of a rocket.

One solution was proposed last week by Rep. Frank Thompson Jr. (D-N.J.). He introduced a resolution which would create a commission to plan "living memorials"—hospitals, museums and such—as a means of "perpetuating our esteem" for distinguished Americans.

His idea is to "avoid undue cluttering of the nation's capital with statues of the near-great and forgotten" and keep Washington from becoming "another Rome."

I asked Harry T. Thompson, Capital Parks superintendent, why he didn't move out some of the near-great and forgotten already enshrined in prominent spots and replace them with the great and remembered.

He seemed shocked by the suggestion and advised me to look up proverb 22:28. Doing so, I found this biblical admonition: "Remove not the ancient landmarks which thy fathers have set."

Reds Expected To Issue Nazi Revival Warnings

By PHIL NEWBOM
UPI Foreign Editor

West Berlin expects the Soviet Union to raise upon the recent anti-Semitic outbreaks in West Germany as a reason to issue a stern new warning to the Allies and West Germany against a revival of Nazi activities in the Federal Republic. The Soviet warning would be in 14th demands for a "free demilitarized" West Berlin and would provide Soviet Boss Khrushchev with additional ammunition for his summit meeting with Western leaders next May.

In Bonn, the West German government is believed reading get-together measures for anti-Semites but to be waiting for the story to drift out of the headlines. Informed sources say Chancellor Konrad Adenauer's government believes that, in the present atmosphere, critics would accept nothing but extreme measures which only would drive right-wingers underground. However, once the story has died down, the government is expected to move for legislation shackling them more effectively.

determined to hold to his curly lily line against other powerful Gaullists who demand a greater say in industry both for the government and the workers, including Communists. But the powers granted DeGaulle under the new fifth Republic place him in an unassailable position, and should his present cabinet dissolve, it probably would be replaced by an even more iron-fisted one.

Wounds left by Britain's disastrous invasion of Suez in 1956 still are far from healed, and a new political rumour is expected in the wake of this week's publication of former Prime Minister Sir Anthony Eden's Suez memoirs. Previous "inside stories" have caused brief stirrups but these are expected to be as nothing compared to Eden's own version of one of the most controversial incidents in British history.

Look for the Japanese government to come under increasing pressure to restore economic and cultural relations with Communist China. The Reds broke off contact with Japan last year in a huff when Japan refused to combine trade with diplomatic relations. At least two high-ranking politicians—with their eye on the presidency of the ruling Liberal Democratic party and the automatic premiership—are advocating economic and cultural relations with the Peiping regime. It's a popular issue and likely to be the only major one after the U. S.-Japan security treaty is signed.

Collins Boosted For Demo VP Slot

PANAMA CITY (UPI)—Franklin D. Roosevelt Jr. said Sunday Gov. LeRoy Collins is the man most often mentioned for the Democratic nomination for vice president.

Roosevelt, son of the late president, said party leaders across the country felt Collins "would be a good choice for second place on the ticket. Collins has said he is not an active candidate for the post."

Roosevelt also said Adlai Stevenson, Sen. John Kennedy and Sen. Stuart Symington are the "probable" leading candidates for the Democratic presidential nomination.

Mrs. Dickey Named Girl Of The Year

Mrs. John Dickey was named "Girl of the Year" Saturday evening at the annual dinner-dance held by the Gamma Omega Chapter of Epilion Sigma Alpha.

The event was held at the King and Prince in Casselberry. Miss Patty Walker, past-president, presented a silver tray to Mrs. Dickey, who is now serving as president of the organization. She was chosen by the group to receive this award because of her outstanding service and loyalty to the sorority.

During the evening, enjoyed by members, their husbands and dates, names of secret sisters for the past year were revealed. Announcement was made of a coffee to be held Thursday at 9:30 a. m. in the B. O. Q. dining room at the base. All wives are requested to make reservations with Mrs. Malicowski no later than today.

Mrs. C. O. Donaud reported concerning a board meeting she attended last week with Mrs. William Malicowski. Mrs. J. F. Bachman was appointed new representative and Mrs. W. H. Fouke was named alternate to the all Wives Club.

County Council Meets. The County Home Demonstration Council met Friday afternoon, with Miss Myrtle Wilson, home demonstration agent, in her office in the courthouse.

Mrs. George Otto, president, presided. Present were: Miss Myrtle Wilson; Mrs. D. D. Daniel; Orlando; Mrs. Hal Harris; Sanford; Mrs. H. L. Johnson, Lake Monroe; Mrs. Clover Marrs, Lake Monroe; Mrs. R. E. Mitchell, Seminole Evening Club.

On Jan. 21, (Thursday), at 10:30 a. m., the county council will present Dr. H. L. Reddick, specialist, University of Florida. His subject is: "Carving, Selecting and Sharpening Kitchen Knives." Dr. Reddick is coming to Sanford, especially for this meeting, and it will be a treat that members should not miss. Meat will be furnished and members are to bring covered dishes for the luncheon.

The State Council short course will be given in Gainesville July 18 to 22 and the theme for 1960 will be "Steps to Leadership Through Learning, Sharing and Achieving."

Mrs. Wilson asked that records be kept during the year of all home improvements — painting, upholstering, new curtains, gardening; that a list of clothing made be turned into the chairman; and record, too, any other achievements that make for better living in the home.

Council meetings are held on the first Friday of each month, and the next meeting will be Feb. 5 at 1:30 p. m.

DIRT GARDENERS' CIRCLE

The Dirt Gardeners' Circle of the Garden Club met at the home of Mrs. E. S. McCall for their January meeting with Mrs. S. C. Dickerson, Mrs. W. G. Fleming and Mrs. J. N. Robison Jr. as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Dickerson, civic beautification chairman, gave a report on plans for beautifying a city lot at French Ave. and 9th St. The name "Sanford" will be spelled out using Alamandus on a background of green grass.

It was announced that the Dirt Gardeners' Circle will offer Philodendrons, begonias, Nun's Orchids, Epicias and some small flowering vines for sale at the garden club card party at the Civic Center, Jan. 22.

MIMOSA CIRCLE

Mrs. Frank Donahoe gave a most interesting demonstration on flower arrangements at the meeting of the Mimosa Garden Circle Friday morning at the home of Mrs. C. Hittell in Lake Monroe.

Mrs. Walter Price served as co-hostesses.

Mrs. Donahoe stated that the florist usually sends one dozen flowers on order but that does not imply that they must all be used in one container. Oasis, a porous material for flower arrangements, is now being used instead of the frogs. Oasis should be soaked in water for two hours before using and water should be added every day. It can be wrapped in wax paper and stored in the refrigerator to preserve it when not in use.

Flowers that are opened the least should be selected as the tallest flower in an arrangement. Mrs. Donahoe made several arrangements as the group watched. They included an arrangement of Eucalyptus leaves sprayed black, with eight red carnations in a white container. This was very attractive.

Another arrangement of bronze mums and Mexican Jade leaves in a yellow container was very pleasing to the eye and last but not least, a Glanella corsage was made of red gladioli, using graduated flowers wired together.

Mrs. Jo Peck, chairman, presided at the business meeting. Mrs. B. F. McWhorter reported on the gift of boxes of fruit given to the patients of the Serepta Rest Home and Mrs. Scott's nursing home. Mrs. W. B. Moya assisted Mrs. McWhorter with this project.

At the conclusion of the business session, a white elephant sale was conducted and the hostesses served refreshments to the following members and guests: Mrs. Donahoe, Mrs. McWhorter, Mrs. Peck, Mrs. Alice Robolio, Mrs. Mary Swankhaus, Mrs. Ray Cluquonnet, Mrs. Herbert Behrens, Mrs. Herman Lederhaus, Mrs. C. L. Wallis, Mrs. Gerald Behrens, Mrs. Roy Parlin and Mrs. Margaret Herr.

WOODROSE CIRCLE

Members of the Woodrose Circle of the Garden Club enjoyed a covered dish luncheon at the home of Mrs. William S. Brumley, preceding their January meeting. Mrs. Williams Dinkins assisted Mrs. Brumley as co-hostess.

Following the luncheon and a social hour the group journeyed to Crystal Lake Nursery where they were taken on a conducted tour. Each one received a plant as a gift.

Those attending were Mrs. James Dolz, Mr. D. K. Dorman, Mrs. Elma Eckhart, Mrs. Fred Grey, Mrs. Ted Lewis, Mrs. A. B. Montford, Mrs. H. D. McNair, Mrs. A. S. Poulter, Mrs. Lee E. Salles and Mrs. John Stankiewicz.

O.E.S. Welcomes New Member

Seminole Chapter No. 2, Order of Eastern Star, met Thursday night at the Masonic Hall with 47 members and 13 visitors present. The only first-time visitor was Mrs. Lena Duckworth of Alhira Chapter No. 10, Keyser, W. Va.

Worthy Matron Linnie Moya read an article entitled "I Know something Good About You" and remarked how nice it would be if we all would take that as a New Year resolution when speaking of someone.

In an initiation ceremony, Mrs. Angeline Bulger became a member. During the impressive ceremony, Mrs. Eloise Pfeiff sang several selections.

End of the year reports were given by Mrs. Ella Haines, chairman of the auditing committee.

11 Are Assigned To Sanford Camp By Kansas City

Eleven players, including eight rookies, were assigned to the Sanford Greyhound entry in the Florida State League in week-end activity at the Kansas City offices of the Athletics who are sponsoring the local team.

The eleven will report to the Athletics' general farm system training camp at Panama City in west Florida early in March.

There they will undergo the usual modern day stiff tests which determine mainly how well scouts have selected raw material, and whether or not each is a prospective major league player.

W. Kenneth McRoberts, principal local sponsor of the Sanford club, said this morning that right-hander George Belden, left-hander Tom Kelleher, and catcher Ronald Ruta last year were with Playing Manager Robbie Robertson at Olean, N. Y., of the Class D N.Y. Penna League. Belden and Kelleher both first signed contracts in 1957 while Ruta saw his first professional service last year.

Rose and Perez will likely get special training camp attention as both will receive bonuses if they make good. Rose gets $720 upon reporting to spring training and an additional $1,380 if he is retained 30 days after the season opens on April 19. Perez is to receive $1,200 on July 1, 1960 and July 1, 1961.

Additional players likely will be assigned from both the Olean and Grand Island, Neb., rookie league clubs which were supplied by Kansas City last summer, McRoberts indicated.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON

Tonight marks a very important night in the Seminole basketball schedule. They travel to neighboring Apopka for more Orange Belt Conference action and they will also be in search of their sixth victory in as many games.

Apopka and Winter Park have set themselves up as the teams to beat in the OBC and if the Seminoles have a successful week against these two things could look rosy for the tournaments which begin in February. The Darters have a fine 6-1 record and the Wildcats are yet to be tamed in seven starts.

The contest tonight against the Darters will get underway with the JV's matching their skills in a tilt that will begin at 7 p.m. Friday the Seminoles round out their biggest week of the regular schedule by traveling to the headquarters of the hot Wildcats at Winter Park.

While traveling the circuits this week-end, it seemed very unusual to hear opposing coaches vying fondly over a Seminole team but this is what is being heard all over after they rolled past Wildwood last week. After it floundered around for so many years in the circuit, the opposition always looked upon Sanford as just the first team to be beaten in the tournaments but this is far from the case now.

The coaches know of the great potential of the Seminole scoring talents and they are going to have to have a good night to beat them.

We could be a little premature with our enthusiasm, but anyway it's good to hear that kind of talk going around. I definitely feel that if we ever have been ready to make something out of a season here in Sanford, this is the year. Never before have we had a point maker like Jim Gracey or a play maker and leader like Ray Lundquist, let alone boys like Terry Christensen, George Perides, and Cowboy Oravata.

We got a look at the Darters for the first time Saturday night when they defeated Edgewater by a single point and this is the smallest team they have come up with in a long time. However, you can bet that they are well coached and they make the best of everything they possess in the way of talent. They have only one player back from the entire varsity last season and that is little Larry Hutchinson. An interesting note about Larry is when he is not bustin' the bottom out of the basket he is filling in as drum major in the band. He is a talented little kid and has been the Darters' leading scorer for the past two seasons. Quite a battle looms between Larry and Lundquist and they should put on a big show for the fans.

Buckeyes Using 'Show Them No Mercy' Method

United Press International

Ohio State's Buckeyes, the top scoring major college team in the nation, are pulling it on their basketball rivals in the same "show-them-no-mercy" manner that made their football forces famous 25 years ago.

The Buckeyes wore out both the official scorer and the University of Delaware in a 100-60 romp at Columbus, Ohio, Monday night even though their shooting ace, Jerry Lucas, was sidelined with an ankle injury.

Thus far the fourth-ranked Buckeyes have scored a total of 1,119 points in 12 games, 10 of which they have won. That total is even better than the 1,111 by top-ranked Cincinnati in the same number of contests and gives Ohio State an average of 93 points per game or better than two points per minute.

In the midst of this cornucopia, the Buckeyes took over sole possession of the Big Ten lead when both Michigan State and Purdue lost Monday night.

The 100 points against Delaware was an all-time high for the Buckeyes, whose previous best was 106 against Miami (Fla.) in 1952.

Cincinnati, which faces two tough opponents this week, topped United Press International's major college ratings today for the sixth straight week with 90 first-place votes and 54 second place.

Cincinnati's 12-0 record figures to be tested severely this week. The Bearcats overcame 19th-ranked St. Louis Wednesday night and face a real toughie Saturday night when they visit fifth-ranked Bradley, Bradley, beaten only by Cincinnati this season, has a 12-1 record court record since Chuck Gurnea became coach and has swept the last 20 games played in its field house.

Hope Fades For Platoon Football

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—A six-man subcommittee submits its recommendations to the NCAA rules-makers today on how to liberalize the present substitution rules and still keep the "iron man" in college football.

Whatever the group suggested, it became almost certain that the demands of the nation's coaches for a return to platoon football would be rejected when the NCAA Rules Committee headed by Gen. Bob Neyland of Tennessee takes its final vote Wednesday.

The subcommittee spent the greater part of Monday night studying a compromise between the wishes of the coaches and last Friday's recommendation by the NCAA policy-makers that the rules be left alone.

Herbert O. (Fritz) Cotler of Michigan, lifetime member-at-large of the NCAA Rules Committee, said the planning body was "unanimously agreed" on two objectives:

—To work out some sort of substitution rule whereby the boys would be coached both ways on offense and defense.

—To find some way of reducing the present complicated system of reporting into the game by substitutes.

4 Indians Sign

CLEVELAND, Ohio (UPI) — Second-baseman Johnny Temple, pitchers Bobby Locke and Al Ciolette and infielder Billy Moras have signed 1960 contracts with the Cleveland Indians.

Redskins Sign Back

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Billy Brewer, nose defensive halfback of the University of Mississippi Sugar Bowl champions, has signed with the Washington Redskins of the National Football League.

Ashburn, Dark Swapped By Clubs

CHICAGO (UPI) — The major league's newest trade today sent veteran centerfielder Richie Ashburn for the Philadelphia Phillies to the Chicago Cubs in exchange for third baseman Alvin Dark and two other players.

Officials of both clubs said the deal was just what the doctor ordered.

Phillies Manager Eddie Sawyer, who also picked up right-handed pitcher Johnny Bushardt and rookie third baseman Jim Woods, said both clubs profited by the deal.

"Ashburn is a good ball player and should help the Cubs," he said. "Dark will be a steady influence in our infield and he should be able to play about half the games."

Cub General Manager John Holman said the swap crowed winter-long efforts to land the 28-year-old Ashburn.

"Ashburn led the league in getting on base," Holman said. "He's just what we needed. We now have him and Tony Taylor batting in front of Ernie Banks."

Worry Clinic

After Glen Long introduced me to the crowd of 1,000 women, he left me alone to answer their varied queries. Scrapebook these with yesterday's list so you can see some of the typical problems besetting modern American women. They are duplicated hundreds of times in every city, for psychological problems are as common as medical ailments.

By GEORGE W. CRANE

GABE D — 431: Glen Long, aged about 30, is the handsome Managing Editor of the Spartanburg Herald.

When Phil Buchheit, the dynamic publisher, scheduled me for a large "Women Only" clinic, he asked Glen Long to introduce me.

After a very gracious send-off, Glen departed, leaving me alone as the only male in this large gathering of women.

Following my 45-minute talk, we held a forum, and some of their questions which I didn't have time to answer, are listed below.

"Please police how sincerely these women are trying to create happier homes. This serious mood is typical of the thousands of letters that they send me each week via this column."

WOMEN'S QUESTIONS
"How can I get my daughter more interested in her school work and in going to college at least for one year?"

"Why does my husband constantly find fault and try to correct me in front of the children?"

"Can pregnant mothers mark their babies?"

"Why do some husbands maintain ultra nervousness about what they are eating and seem to take delight in keeping their wives ignorant of where they can be reached?"

"How do you explain a wife who leaves dogs and cats but hates children?"

"How can you help a child with a severe inferiority complex?"

"Should a child be punished for falling down in his school marks?"

Navy, Air Force May Meet Oct. 15
BALTIMORE, Md. (UPI) — The Navy and the Air Force Academy probably will play their first football game here next Oct. 15.

Dr. Frank C. Marine, president of the Baltimore Park Board of Directors, has notified Navy it wants to hold it to an agreement made last year that the game would be played here.

Capt. Asbury Coward, Navy's director of athletics, expressed pleasure at the receipt of the letter.

Rebels Losses Mount
ALGIERS, Algeria (UPI) — French troops killed an Algerian rebel and captured 100 more last week, the French high command announced today. French losses were 48 killed.

Worry Clinic

"What's wrong with a 14-year-old who plays hooky and doesn't want to go to school? He is also rebellious when corrected by his teacher."

"My 10-year-old girl wishes to be a boy and refuses to wear girl's clothing except under coercion. She is crazy about horses and seems to want to be a cowboy."

"How can I help my husband quit drinking? He says he wants to do so, but never does."

"How can I get my husband to take me dining and dancing occasionally?"

"At the age of 30, my husband suddenly told me he didn't love me any more and has started running around with girls half his age? Why?"

"After my 6-year-old was sick for 2 weeks, he cried and didn't want to go back to school. Why?"

"My husband has a severe inferiority complex, so how can I help him overcome it?"

"How can you get your children to help around the house without making them do so, or paying them for each task?"

"What makes a husband a veritable miser with money?"

"My husband spends all his spare time hunting or fishing and desires me and our three children. Shouldn't he try to include us occasionally?"

"Is it better for a widow to live with her grown children or remain alone in the old homestead?"

"I'm a shy girl, in love with a shy boy, so how do I stand a chance against the popular girl?"

"What can I do with a gifted child who is lazy and then, when his grades drop, refuses to let me help him?"

"Is it too early for a woman to lose sex desires, and how should I manage a husband of 35?"

"How can I get my husband to read ALL of your newspaper columns, instead of just the ones in which some of my faults are mentioned?"

(Always write to Dr. Crane care of this newspaper, enclosing a long or stamped, addressed envelope and 3c to cover typing and printing costs when you need for one of his booklets.)

Morse's Entrance Into Presidential Primaries Viewed As Possible Holding Action For Adlai

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Wayne Morse's decision to enter presidential primaries was viewed today as a possible holding action to build up support for Adlai E. Stevenson.

Morse announced Monday he would enter the District of Columbia primary on May 3 and run as "a favorite son" in the Oregon primary on May 20.

A. L. Wheeler, D. C. campaign manager for the Oregon senator, said today if Morse finds he can't win at the July Democratic convention, his backers here want him to throw his support behind Stevenson.

Wheeler, chairman of the D. C. Democratic Central Committee, said one of the main reasons why Democrats were backing Morse was "his undying support of Adlai Stevenson in 1952 and 1956 and his continued favorable comments about Stevenson."

Stevenson has said that he is not a candidate this year but he has not ruled out a move to draft him for a third try for the White House.

A United Press International survey showed Monday that a campaign to draft Stevenson has reached the official organization stage in at least five states—Wisconsin, Missouri, Ohio, California and Texas.

In the D. C. and Oregon contests, Morse will clash directly with Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.). The only other announced Democratic aspirant, Sen. John F. Kennedy (Mass.) has not said whether he would run in these two primaries. But Morse said he understood Kennedy would run in Oregon.

Morse said he had tried unsuccessfully to keep his name off the Oregon ballot, but that his supporters have more than the 1,000 signatures necessary to enter him without his consent.

He said he would not have campaigned in his home state even with his name on the ballot, had Humphrey and Kennedy voiced a similar intention not to.

"They have decided otherwise, so we'll have some debate on the issues," Morse said.

Parole Explained To Rotarians By Local Officer

Parole is the best means to get a deserving convicted and convicted prisoner back into the community in an orderly fashion, county probation and parole officer James Lee told Sanford Rotarians yesterday.

Through the probation and parole commission, thousands of persons have been released to become law abiding citizens, Lee told the Rotarians at their Civic Center yesterday.

Considering the safety of the community first, the Florida Parole Commission considers the offense, community background, jobs available and method of treating the prisoner when a man comes up for parole, Lee said. He explained that of the 8,000 persons released on parole in Florida since the system started in 1941, 83 per cent have completed their parole term or are completing it successfully.

Cost to the community is saved when a deserving prisoner is put on parole, Lee said. The direct cost is $5 per day to keep a person in prison, while the cost to keep a person on parole or probation is 50 cents per day. Persons on parole and probation in Florida last year earned $5 million, the county officer explained.

Art World Awaits Showing Of Latest Dali Masterpiece

NEW YORK (UPI)—In a closely guarded gallery on upper Madison Avenue, the art world's main street, a 100-square foot painting that is destined to be one of the best-known pictures in America awaits unveiling before a select few.

No one but the directors of the French & Co. gallery and the workmen who hung the 13 by 14-foot canvas, an allegory entitled "Christopher Columbus Discovers America," has seen it. Once it is viewed by a few hundred carefully selected museum directors, millionaire collectors, and high church officials this evening, it will disappear until 1965.

Only Salvador Dali, master artist and past master of publicity, could have planned the debut of a painting with such finesse.

The 33-year-old artist brought the mural-size canvas, the largest he has painted, here from Spain Dec. 31 without fanfare for final approval of the man who commissioned it, A&P grocery chain heir Huntington Hartford.

The painting, as yet unphotographed, is reported to have cost the 62-year-old playboy turned patron of the arts in the neighborhood of $250,000. It took Dali two years to create it.

Hartford was ecstatic and agreed with Dali that "Columbus" should have one news-making showing before it is stored away to await public exhibition, when Hartford opens his soon-to-be built museum, the Gallery of Modern Art.

"Columbus" will rank in importance with Dali's often reproduced "Last Supper" in the National Gallery in Washington and the "Crucifixion" at the Metropolitan Museum.

The new work proves that Dali has come a long way since he shocked and puzzled the world with Imp watches and detached eyes. His recent preoccupation with the spiritual meaning of life has given his paintings stature worthy of great cathedrals.

"Christopher Columbus Discovers America" is more crowded with mystic symbolism than any of Dali's works to date. An arrangement of figures produces two outlines of Christ, which Dali calls "double, invisible images." Columbus was obsessed by a mystical relationship with Jesus and often signed his name "Christo-feres," which means "Christ-carrying."

Dali describes other images in the picture as symbols of Columbus' gift of Christianity to the new world, his reception in America by St. Narcissus portrayed as a swarm of flies, and his reception in heaven by Ferdinand and Isabella.

The most mystifying object is a gigantic, pear-shaped sea urchin. Dali says it presages American achievement in atomic science and represents the true shape of the world as discovered by Explorer H, the American satellite.

Oviedo School Forms Honor Club

Oviedo High School's recently formed Drama Club for honor students is drawing up its by-laws and constitution. Principal W. H. DeShazo said today. The 16 member group is primarily for service and development of the school, DeShazo said. Students must have a B average to become members.

DeShazo said that he expects to have the new room addition to Oviedo High finished by August. The 5th and sixth graders now in the high school building will have classes in the addition to make more room for high school students in the male building.

Adult Art Class Slated For Crooms

An adult class in art will be organized at Crooms Academy at 7 p. m., Jan. 18. This class will be available for those desiring an adult high school credit to apply on a diploma.

The instructor will be Wilbert H. Smith, art supervisor at Crooms. He is a graduate of Tennessee State University, Nashville, Tenn., and has been with the Seminole County school system for the last four years.

The classes will meet from 7 to 10 p. m. each Monday night. The course will cover art appreciation, ceramics, graphic arts, water color painting, sculpture, charcoal drawing and pastel drawing.

All those interested in enrolling should report at Crooms Academy at 7 p. m., Jan. 18. The only charge is a registration fee of $1 and the cost of materials.

'Cool' And Calm

FAIRBANKS, Alaska (UPI) — The Air Force said today that 15 men remained on disintegrating scientific ice station Charlie in the Arctic Ocean from which an "orderly withdrawal" was begun last week.

Five men were removed Monday. The ice station has been reduced to one fifth the original size by the repeated breaking of the ice from its edges. The Air Force said ice was still breaking off but "the seriousness was greatly lessened."

Still on Charlie, located 400 miles west of Point Barrow, were 12 members of the original scientific crew — including three civilians, two Air Force evacuation experts and one Air Force photographer.

Those removed Monday were A-2 Franklin D. Yates, Ypsilanti, Mich.; T-Sgt. Jerry A. Bailey, Salisbury, N. C.; A-3 Hilda H. Carter, Ft. Smith, Ark.; S-Sgt. Thomas A. Boger, Greensboro, N. C.; and S-Sgt. E. K. Fernald, Anchorage, Alaska.

Originally there were 27 men on the ice where temperatures remain close to 30 degrees below zero this time of year.

Nikita Keeps Sending Gifts To Eisenhower

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev probably never heard of Emily Post. But she would be proud of the way he handled an international etiquette problem by sending gifts on two holidays.

Christmas is just another cold day in December to the avowedly atheistic Russians. Nevertheless, Khrushchev sent President Eisenhower a plane full of Christmas gifts on Dec. 19.

The Soviet boss also sent Christmas presents to the four Eisenhower grandchildren.

Then Monday Khrushchev sent Eisenhower two more large gift packages containing New Year's presents. New Year's Day is the holiday on which Russians exchange gifts.

White House Press Secretary James C. Hagerty said one of the New Year's boxes held caviar. He said he did not know what was in the other package.

The latest Khrushchev presents were delivered by Soviet Ambassador Mikhail M. Menshikov during a 20-minute White House conference. He also relayed an oral message from Khrushchev to the President and all his family.

Khrushchev's Christmas gift to Eisenhower last month was a plane load of 120 assorted trees, plants and shrubs.

When the plants are released from quarantine, they will be sent to Eisenhower's Gettysburg, Pa., farm.

It is not known what, if any, Christmas or New Year's gifts Eisenhower sent Khrushchev.

Hedda Hopper's TV View Of Hollywood Life Dull

By FRED DANZIG

NEW YORK (UPI) — "Hedda Hopper's Hollywood," a much-publicized NBC-TV special, offered pools of dewy-eyed and severely non-committal sentimentality about the film capital's past, present and future.

The Sunday Showcase hour, of what was left of it after Ed Sullivan applied his Hedda-lock to eliminate some prize guest stars from the competing show, could have benefited from a more realistic point of view. Most of it sounded like Shirley Temple's Hollywood. A hodge-podge of taped interviews and scenes portrayed the film capital as an untroubled, serene oasis of dream fulfillment, where there is little time for introspection or leisure and a disturbing absence of humor.

Miss Hopper's Hollywood seemed uncharacteristically dull. Of course, I make allowances in this for last-minute script changes occasioned by detecting guests. There was, however, ample evidence to indicate that we wouldn't have seen much of a show either way for the format almost completely side-stepped the exciting changes in Hollywood's structure, experience and purpose that have taken place through the years, and especially since TV's arrival. However, TV's impact couldn't be overlooked completely, for I noted that more TV shows than movies received plugs. And at least five of the 29 performers on the show achieved their greatest fame, not through TV shows.

Miss Hopper and the show's writer, Sumner Locke Elliott, apparently sought to avoid a travelogue-look for their special. But I found spark and an interesting approach only in those too-brief portions that let the cameras tour a studio backlot, some Hollywood homes and a restaurant.

Maybe they should have made it a travelogue? Anyhow, the program also maintained that unfortunate TV tradition in which audience-pulling "big-name" stars are used as bit players. Thus, Jimmy Stewart winked. Harold Lloyd waved. A few other old timers also were relegated to inconsequential glimpses.

If I can offer Miss Hopper any consolation at all, it is this. She certainly looked beautiful.

The Channel Swim: Archibald MacLeish's TV drama, "The Secret of Freedom," has been pulled out of NBC-TV's Jan. 31 Sunday Showcase slot in favor of "The Twisted Cross," a re-run documentary about Nazi Germany. The MacLeish play will be presented at a more suitable time spot, a network representative said. Competition on that particular night will come from the two-hour CBS-TV special, "The Fabulous Fifties."

Sessue Hayakawa and Shirley Yamaguchi will serve as guest guides in a two-part special on Japan that will comprise John Gunther's High Road ABC-TV episodes for Saturday, Jan. 30 and Feb. 6. Next Saturday's Jerry Lewis special on NBC-TV will include appearances by Lewis' oldest sons, Gary, 13, and Ronnie, 9.

Humane Society Directors Named

The board of directors for the reorganized Humane Society were named today.

Serving on the board will be Sheriff J. L. Hobby, T. E. Tucker, John Krider, Ralph Austin Smith, R. J. Bauman, Dr. R. L. Bass, Robert Crumley and David Gochel.

The advisory board will consist of Ken McIntosh, Jack Trim, Marion Harman, Judge Wilson Alexander, J. Q. Galloway, George and Mary Garrison.

The election of officers will be held at 8 p. m. tomorrow at the American Legion Hall on Hwy. 17-92.

Graves Wants LeBaron's Aid

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Ray Graves, new head football coach at the University of Florida, makes no secret about wanting pre quarterback Eddie LeBaron to assist him next season.

Graves, former Georgia Tech assistant who was signed Saturday to coach the Gators, is dangling a whopping salary and a law firm connection before the Washington Redskins' mighty mite.

LeBaron has told the Redskins management he must think hard before deciding whether to play in 1960.

McKibbin Named Chairman Of Committee Of 100

Clifford McKibbin was elected chairman of the Committee of 100 last night and made an immediate promise to "continue to expand the membership and activities of the committee."

McKibbin was elected along with Robert Crumley, vice chairman; R. N. Blackwelder, treasurer, and the following committees: Finance: R. J. Bauman, chairman; Andrew Carraway and Jack I. Greene.

Membership, Sylvan J. Davis Jr., chairman; Richard Dees and Dr. T. L. Lergen.

Advertising: William Hemphill, chairman; Walter Giesler, and Bob Shelden.

Local industries: A. K. Shoemaker Jr., chairman; Ralph O. Wain and Harry A. Cannel Jr.

Target industries: T. E. Tucker, chairman; John Ivey and W. A. Patrick.

Outgoing chairman W. Scott Burns, absent from the meeting, was given a vote of thanks by the committee for his efforts during the past year.

George Tosby, who presided in Burns' absence, introduced Maurice Marshall, head of the developers of Clearwater, who outlined today the project's progress.

Marshall explained his negotiations with the Clearwater circus family, which announced last

First Fire

North Orlando had its first fire Tuesday. And whose car suffered $380 damage in the blaze? His honor, the mayor's, naturally. Reporting on himself today, North Orlando Mayor Roy Lidditt said that the car fire started while his auto was sitting in front of the mayor's office. Fire Chief Frank Faulstich and assistant chief Harry Fries extinguished the flames, apparently caused by a fault in the auto's electrical system.

2 Jacksonville Navy Jets 'Ram' Together

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Two Navy jets were slammed together at 80,000 feet Tuesday, killing one and injuring the other.

The Navy identified the dead pilot as Lt. Thomas R. McKinnon of Willcoch, Ga. He apparently went down with his plane.

Lt. (J.G.) Jessie J. Smith of Los Alamos, N. M., the other pilot, ejected from his F8U Crusader jet and escaped with only minor injuries.

The collision occurred high over a wooded area in adjacent Clay County. McKinnon's body was found one mile south of the crash scene.

Both pilots were assigned to Fighter Squadron 175 at Cecil Field Naval Air Station, near Jacksonville. They took off Tuesday morning on a routine training mission, and crashed 25 minutes later.

An investigation into the cause of the crash was underway.

Humane Society Slates Election Meet Thursday

The Sanford Humane Society will meet at 8 p. m. Thursday at the American Legion Hall on Hwy. 17-80 to vote on a slate of officers for the next year.

A tentative slate of officers has been named by a nominating committee, but the voting will be open at the meeting. The tentative nominations include: for president, Mrs. Harriet Cowley; for first vice president, Gene Rankin; second vice president, Ebbel Williams; third vice president, Diana Calbeck; treasurer, Robert Johnson; recording secretary, Elaine Miller, and corresponding secretary, Mrs. Gene Rankin.

Also to be voted on will be a list of nominees for the society's board of directors. This slate includes Sheriff J. L. Hobby, T. E. Tucker, John Krider, Ralph Austin Smith, R. J. Bauman, Dr. R. L. Bass, Robert Crumley and David Gatchel.

An advisory board has been appointed and on it are Mrs. George Walls, Ken McIntosh, Jack Trim, Marion Harman, Judge Wilson Alexander, J. Q. Galloway, and George and Mary Garrison.

Added Authority

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Supreme Court's brief hearing on the constitutionality of the 1957 civil rights law today suggested an early decision in the first case testing the statute. The law gives the Justice Department authority to bring law suits on behalf of Negroes who claim their right to vote is being denied.

Renovation Ordered

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Public Utilities Commission today ordered the North Florida Telephone Co. to renovate its rundown exchange at McIntosh within the next six months. And the commission threw out complaints of two Pinellas County residents about service offered by the General Telephone Co. of Florida in that area.

Project Plans

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The State Road Board has formally asked the State Turnpike Authority to approve a project in Palm Beach County that would be part of the interstate highway system. The project, construction of State Road 9 between State Road 80 and a connection with the turnpike, needs Turnpike Authority approval before work can commence.

Rains Soak Midwest

By United Press International
Spring-like rains soaked the Midwest today for the second day in a row and fell over most of the eastern half of the nation. But freezing rain pelted parts of New York State, Pennsylvania and New England. Record rainfalls in unusually warm January weather threatened widespread damage at three levees and low-lying communities in midland states. Violent winds and hundreds of basements were flooded.

County Board Hires Brothers As Health Officer

The County Commission yesterday hired Dr. Clyde L. Brothers as county health officer after the board was informed that Dr. L. H. Smith, who had accepted the job earlier, would be unable to move here.

Brothers, presently health officer for Madison and Taylor Counties, agreed to assume his new duties Feb. 15.

The board told Brothers they would like him on the job when the commission receives bids Feb. 18 for a new health center.

Seminole County has been without a full time health officer for several months.

Last October the board agreed to hire Dr. Smith, but he informed the board by mail in December that his wife and child were in an auto accident and were in serious condition.

He was appointed to assume his duties Dec. 15.

Early this month, the board was notified that Smith would be unable to come until his family was completely recovered.

Dr. Brothers was born in 1912 in Richmond, Va. He has 20 years of service. He is a native of Richmond, Va.

Appraisers Get Additional Time

Judge Volle Williams Jr. today gave court appraisers Lawrence R. Condit and T. W. Mero until Jan. 25 to report on the value of 98 land parcels bordering Sanford Ave.

The appraisers appointed by Judge Williams Dec. 28 were scheduled to make their report Monday on the value of the land needed for the Sanford Ave. widening project.

Judge Williams said "it would be in the best interests of the property owners involved that the appraisers be granted additional time in order to complete their appraisal." The State Road Dept. has appraised the land owned by 137 persons to be worth $2,103.

Millionaire A. V. Davis Holds No Death Stock

MIAMI (UPI) — Arthur Vining Davis, 92, one of the world's richest men, holds no stock in death.

"I don't plan to die," he said recently.

With that attitude the crusty, old multi-millionaire was understandably irritated Tuesday at all the commotion raised when he fainted in a barber's chair and was rushed to a doctor's office.

"You got to hell," he snapped to reporters and photographers who waited for three hours outside the doctor's office to see him wheeled out.

His physician, Dr. William C. Phillips, said Davis was "feeling fine" although under the care of a special nurse after his fainting spell.

Davis, born in Sharon, Mass., in 1867, made a fortune in building the Aluminum Company of America — Alcoa — from a tiny outfit making kitchen utensils into a world giant. He resigned as chairman of the board of that company several years ago but at last count still owned 1,336,824 shares of Alcoa stock. Alcoa closed on the New York stock exchange Monday at $103 a share.

Davis' other major holdings are in Florida real estate. His total wealth is estimated at 350 million dollars.

Judge Sets Final Case Thursday

Judge Volle Williams Jr. will try the last 1959-60 fall term circuit court civil case here Thursday.

The Seaco vs. Albert W. Wisdom and Charles E. Jester will be the third Judge Williams has tried since the session began Jan. 5. Seaco Inc. charges Wisdom and Jester with causing an August 1958 accident involving a Seaco truck and two cars driven by Wisdom and Jester.

Cancer Program Slated Tomorrow

A free lecture and showing of a film about cancer will be sponsored by the Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club at 7:30 p. m. Thursday at the Lake Monroe School.

Dr. Thomas Lergen will be the speaker and the public is invited.

Ike Says Reds Have Right To Test Missile In Pacific U.S. Doing Same Thing

CENTRAL FLORIDA TELEPHONE PIONEERS installed their new officers at a Mayfair Inn luncheon Tuesday. Past president Charles J. Hay turned over the gavel to the new president, Frank Graham, while the other new officers looked on at the meeting of about 180 life members of the Telephone Pioneers of America. From right are: Alex D. Custer, secretary; Mrs. Bertha Stantial, treasurer; Graham, Hay, R. J. McCune, first vice president; and H. S. McCroby, second vice president. (Herald Photo)

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Eisenhower today conceded the right of the Soviet Union to use an area of the central Pacific as a missile target range.

Eisenhower, at his first press conference since Dec. 2 said it would be most unusual for the United States to protest against the Russian plan when this government had been doing precisely the same thing—firing missiles into pre-announced oceanic target areas.

Russia announced last week that it will test a powerful new space rocket in the Pacific west of Hawaii. It cautioned ships and planes to stay clear of the area from Jan. 15 to Feb. 15.

Assistant Senate Democratic Leader Mike Mansfield (D-Mont.) has led demands that the United States lodge a protest over the tests.

Eisenhower, at his news conference, also:

Stoutly defended his defense program, saying that anyone who approached the defense plans of his administration on a partisan basis was doing a disservice to the United States.

Predicted that the new steel contract would not lead to price increases if the labor-management cooperation evidenced in settlement of the strike is pursued vigorously.

Expressed a willingness to take Democrats, particularly members of the Senate, to summit conferences or similar international meetings if these meetings concern themselves with specific treaties which must be ratified by the Senate.

Disclosed that he was as much astonished as anyone else by New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller's announcement that he would seek the GOP presidential nomination. He declined to make a formal declaration of support for Vice President Richard M. Nixon, but he said there is an atmosphere of no competition.

Said he wanted to see Congress act decisively on the civil rights bill as approved by the House Judiciary Committee and now blocked in the House Rules Committee.

Disclosed that his estimate of a 1961 budget surplus of 4.3 billion dollars was based on an estimated gross national product of $10 billion. He said his gross national product estimate was regarded in some quarters as too conservative.

Defended American military commanders in West Germany for resisting press requests for alleged officials posts in the West German government. The President said certainly no military commander was going to become involved in local politics.

Winter Park Architect Named To Submit Plans On New Jail

Winter Park Architect James Gamble Rogers was selected to submit proposals in contract form for the new county jail and remodeling the courthouse.

The County Commission Tuesday, by a 3-2 vote, named Rogers to submit plans for the new jail and remodeling of the courthouse by the board's next meeting Jan. 18.

Roger previously had submitted a preliminary report of jail facility needs last June.

The naming of Rogers came after a discussion between board members on choosing a Winter Park firm over a local firm.

Commissioner Vernon Dunn said he would like to see Hal Harris named as architect for the new jail "as he has 30 years experience in his field and is a local man."

John Burton also asked by letter to be considered for the project, expected to cost about $700,000.

Chairman John Krider told Dunn that it was his personal opinion that the board should pick the "best qualified man" for the job and he felt that Rogers was the one.

Dunn then argued that he felt that the job should be given to a local man, but ruled out Burton because he felt "he was doing plenty of work right now."

Board Sets Up Law Library

The County Commission yesterday agreed to set up a county law library in the courthouse for the use of attorneys and law enforcement officers.

They appointed Mack N. Cleveland Jr., Ken Leffer and A. E. Shinholser as trustees for the law library with Circuit Judges Vassar Carlton and Volle Williams Jr. as honorary members.

Cleveland was named to a two-year term and the others to one-year terms.

The trustees were recommended by the Seminole County Bar Association.

Grotegut, Road Board Clash

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Road Chairman Joe Grotegut has taken issue with the Legislature's interim roads committee on the cost of Florida's interstate highway system.

The committee Tuesday ordered the board to attend a special meeting next month to explain reports that the system will cost more than federal reimbursement. This, the reports say, would require large sums of state money if it is to be completed in 1972 as scheduled.

Johnson Wins Confidence Vote

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate Democratic Leader Lyndon B. Johnson, undeterred by presidential hopeful, emerged today from the annual "revolt of the liberals" with his policy-making powers intact and his prestige enhanced.

By votes of 81-11, Senate Democrats Tuesday rejected reforms proposed by their liberal colleagues which would have undercut Johnson's authority to set party policy.
