

The U.N.: Just Misguided Body

Amidst some uncertainties, two truths can be said of the United Nations: It depends heavily on generous American financial support, and it is a center of communist-bloc espionage...

The problem of too many Soviet staffers, some of whom draw salaries from the United Nations, is related to another timely issue: An administration reappraisal of the U.S. monetary contribution to the U.N.

Why indeed? Few Americans realize that United Nations has no spending limit. This means the United States must automatically pay 25 percent of the annual budget arbitrarily designed by a Third World majority...

Clearly the time has come to put a cap on the Soviets' swollen U.N. delegation and the unbridled U.N. spending of U.S. tax dollars, too many of which pay the salaries of Soviet espionage agents.

Security On Loan

The Social Security system is about to collapse. Social Security is no longer realistic. Social Security is living on borrowed time.

There were no radical changes made in Social Security, and it still has serious problems, yet it continues to provide retirement income for millions of Americans.

In addition to serving older citizens, Social Security also has served as a good fairy for the U.S. Treasury Department. In each of the past two years, the Treasury people have dipped into Social Security trust funds when the government ran out of money.

When Congress failed to raise the debt limit on time, the government borrowed from the trust fund. Of course, the money was paid back, and no harm was done.

But it is a bad precedent. That is not why Social Security was created. It should not be a revolving cash fund, and Congress should put a stop to the practice.

Another unanswered question was how much money the Reagans had with them when they returned to their California ranch. According to witnesses at the Santa Barbara airport, the president and his wife, Nancy, had a wallet and a purse loaded with American currency when they landed in an Air Force plane.

Teaching Retarded To Speak

By Deltha Ricks UPI Science Writer LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Retarded children, brain-impaired because of disease, and those with delayed language development are getting a first chance at speech with the help of a new computer program.

Myers described the children with language difficulties as those with Down's syndrome, cerebral palsy, autism and those classified by teachers and doctors as "developmentally delayed."

Evans, a retired Army colonel and State Department official who lives in the Georgetown section of Washington, was inspired to start his research when he was serving in Britain and saw the remnants of Hadrian's Wall, a monument to the dedication and vision of this ancient elite.

Evans has put the result of his research into a book, "Soldiers of Rome," published by a lively mom-and-pop publishing company, Seven Locks Press, which operates out of the Bethesda, Md., garage of its owners, Calvin and Elizabeth Kytte.

Praetorians' World

WASHINGTON (UPI) — In a world full of injustices, why did Robert Evans decide it was important to clear up the bad rap given the Praetorian Guard of the Roman Empire?

The Praetorians became a model for the professional military, an idea that became corrupted by, among others, Adolf Hitler, who tried to emulate the Guard with his Waffen SS.

Evans calls the Praetorians, who never numbered more than a few thousand, the precursors of the modern standing army, the military cadre that also served as a rude form of democracy and a check on the worst excesses of some of the more corrupt emperors.

writes, "regular bathing went out in Western Europe, not to be resumed for 1,400 years." When Christ on the cross was given "vinegar on a sponge" by the Roman soldier, he was probably given sour wine vinegar from the Praetorian's ration, since that was normally what they drank.

Evans has put the result of his research into a book, "Soldiers of Rome," published by a lively mom-and-pop publishing company, Seven Locks Press, which operates out of the Bethesda, Md., garage of its owners, Calvin and Elizabeth Kytte.

Evans calls the Praetorians, who never numbered more than a few thousand, the precursors of the modern standing army, the military cadre that also served as a rude form of democracy and a check on the worst excesses of some of the more corrupt emperors.

The rules then for a well-run military establishment are pretty much what they are now, according to Evans' research. Training was rigorous and continuous — "no different from combat except for blood."

Chinese Set To OK 5 Year Plan

PEKING (UPI) — China's National People's Congress meets today to approve a new five-year plan that broadens and consolidates the economic reforms begun by leader Deng Xiaoping.

Premier Zhao Ziyang will open the NPC, China's nominal parliament, with a major address expected to outline measures to slow record 8.8 percent inflation and cool down an overheated economy that grew 16.2 percent last year.

The first two years of the 1986-90 plan will be aimed at fine-tuning the sweeping urban reforms begun in late 1984 by leader Deng Xiaoping and his pragmatic allies.

China is very stable at the moment," said one Asian diplomat. "I don't think there will be any big changes in direction."

Diplomats say China has temporarily put the brakes on plans to build at least six nuclear power plants costing between $10 billion to $20 billion, and will concentrate instead on less costly hydroelectric and coal-fired thermal plants.

Peking has halted a huge import spending spree that began in late 1984 and saw foreign exchange reserves plunge 32 percent in six months.

The basic aim of the new plan is "to shift from meeting people's basic needs to enhancing the quality of their lives," Zhao said.

Budget Cuts Undermine Drug War

WASHINGTON — Nancy Reagan has made the war on drugs her top priority. But the White House budget handlers are quietly undercutting her efforts. The president's latest budget proposal, for example, amputated $20 million from the $75 million funding for the Customs Service's air interdiction program.

Just how helpful the radar balloon would be in the fight against narcotics smugglers was made dramatically clear in a secret three-day operation the Customs Service conducted last year to determine the extent of smuggling across the Mexican border.

On three consecutive nights, the surveillance missions were taken over by Navy E2C radar planes out of San Diego, flying along the border as far east as Tucson. The arrangements were super-secret; even the pilots weren't told their flight plans until they were airborne.

gested that anywhere from 300 to 400 planes that could be carrying drugs were penetrating the border each month in that region alone. "It is believed that such a high number of suspect targets were spotted in such a short period of time because the operation was initiated and conducted in a low-key manner that did not telegraph law enforcement intentions to narcotics smugglers," the internal memo explained.

Sheffield Strikes Out 11, 1-Hits Lake Highland

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
LONGWOOD — One-hitters have been the rule and not the exception the past four days. Not to be outdone, Seminole's Brian Sheffield added his name to the growing list Monday afternoon when he hurled no-hit baseball for 5 2/3 innings before finishing with a one-hit, 7-4 victory over Lake Highland in Greater Greyhound Invitational Tournament at Lyman High School.

Sheffield, who leads the county in innings (49) and strikeouts (89), struck out 11 and walked five. Sheffield evened his record at 4-4 and joined Oviedo's Scott Bowers, Lyman's Byron Overstreet and Lake Howell's Craig Wagner on the one-hit list. Those three all tossed their gems on Friday. "Brian really had a lot on the ball," Seminole coach Mike Ferrell said about his knuckleballing righthander. "It would have been great for him to get it but at least it was a clean single which broke it up." Brian Wilson ripped a two-out single up the middle with the bases loaded in the sixth to deny Sheffield. A wild pitch on the next hitter gave Highland another run. Ferrell was wary of the Highlanders since Seminole was surprised by 1A Trinity Prep last Thursday and Highland had already beaten Trinity. Seminole, 7-9, scored once in the third and put the game away with six more in the sixth. The Tribe plays Oviedo in today's 1 p.m. game and returns to action Wednesday at 1 p.m. against Lake Howell.

In the third, Dave Rape, who led the 'Noles with two hits and two runs scored, singled and stole second base. Alonzo Gainey, who also had a pair of hits and three RBI, followed with an infield hit. One out later, Sheffield lined a single to left for a 1-0 lead.

Lake Highland, 11-4 and ranked No. 9 in the Florida Sports Writers 1A Prep Baseball Poll, bounced back to take a 2-1 lead in the bottom of the inning. It stayed that way until Gary Derr slapped a single to left center with one out in the sixth. Greg Pond, another 'Nole with two hits, beat out an infield single and Joey Corsi walked to load the bases. Roy Jensen followed with a shot off the first baseman's glove for another infield hit to tie the game at 2-2. Jeff Blake, who has been mired in a yearlong slump, singled up the middle to snap the deadlock as Pond scored. Rape dropped a perfect squeeze bunt for a single to score Corsi and Gainey followed with a single down the left field line for two more runs and a 6-2 advantage. Sheffield's infield single plated Rape for the final tally.

Davis Blasts Hawks

By Sam Cook
Herald Sports Editor
LONGWOOD — As soon as it left Mike Davis' bat, there was just one question? Was it fair or foul? "I looked back at the umpire and he was pointing fair," Davis, Lake Brantley's hard-hitting catcher, said about his two-run homer in the sixth inning Monday against Lake Howell.

Lake Howell found out how fair one-half inning later as winning pitcher Mike Beams

Hofmann's Key Double Knocks Off Lyman, 5-2

By Chris Flister
Herald Sports Writer
When opportunity knocked Monday night, Oviedo's Lions answered while Lyman's Greyhounds weren't at home. Oviedo got a clutch three-run double from Steve Hofmann in the bottom of the sixth while Lyman came up empty on a bases-loaded, no-out situation in the third and that proved to be the difference as the Lions came away with a 5-3 victory in the Greater Greyhound Invitational Tournament nightcap at Lyman High.

Oviedo, which moved up to No. 3 in the Florida Sports Writers Class 3A Prep Baseball Poll, ran its record to 9-1. After today's early game against Seminole (1 p.m.), the Lions play Lake Howell Wednesday afternoon at 1. Lyman, which fell to 6-9, takes on Lake Howell tonight at 7.

Baseball

two hitter Byron Overstreet, then fanned number three man Chris Brock and got cleanup hitter John Burton to hit into a force play to end the inning. "Craig (Duncan) did a great job to get out of that inning," Mable said. "He made the right pitches at the right times."

Oviedo got to Henley for two runs in the bottom of the fourth to erase the Greyhound's 1-0 lead. Switch-hitting Mark Merchant was the first hitter in the inning and he blasted a Henley fastball into orbit and over the center field wall some 385 feet away. It was the second round tripper of the season for Merchant, both from the left side.

Leaders, Page 7A

slammed the door on the Hawks and their six-game winning streak with a 6-5 victory in the Greater Greyhound Invitational at Lyman High School Monday afternoon.

The victory was the third for Brantley in five days and boosted its record to 6-10. It also marked a reversal of fortunes for the Pats who have lost numerous game in the late innings.

Beams said that was on his mind when he took a 3-1 lead into the sixth inning, only to have the Silver Hawks, 11-8, scored four unearned runs and move ahead, 5-3.

"I wasn't disappointed because I know we can score runs," the hard-throwing senior righthander said. "Mike (Davis) always keeps me motivated. After he hit that home run, I was really pumped up."

Beams, who struck out four of the hard-hitting Hawks and walked six, allowed just six hits. All came in the fourth and sixth frames. Beams retired the side in order in the seventh.

Brantley's big sixth hung the loss on starter Greg Hill. Rick Koch greeted Hill with a single to open the inning and Mark Bellaw was safe on a bunt when Hill forced Koch at second. Beams helped himself with an infield single and Bellaw moved to third on a wild throw by the catcher.

Andy Dunn followed with a ground ball to second which forced Beams but chased home Bellaw to draw the Pats within 5-4. Hill then balked Dunn to second with Davis at the plate.

"After Andy moved to second, I was just thinking base hit," Davis said. "It wasn't a home run pitch but it sure went out."

The homer — Davis' sixth which ties him for the county lead with Beams — was a liner which hooks around the foul pole for the crucial two runs. The two ribbies ran Davis' RBI total to 23.

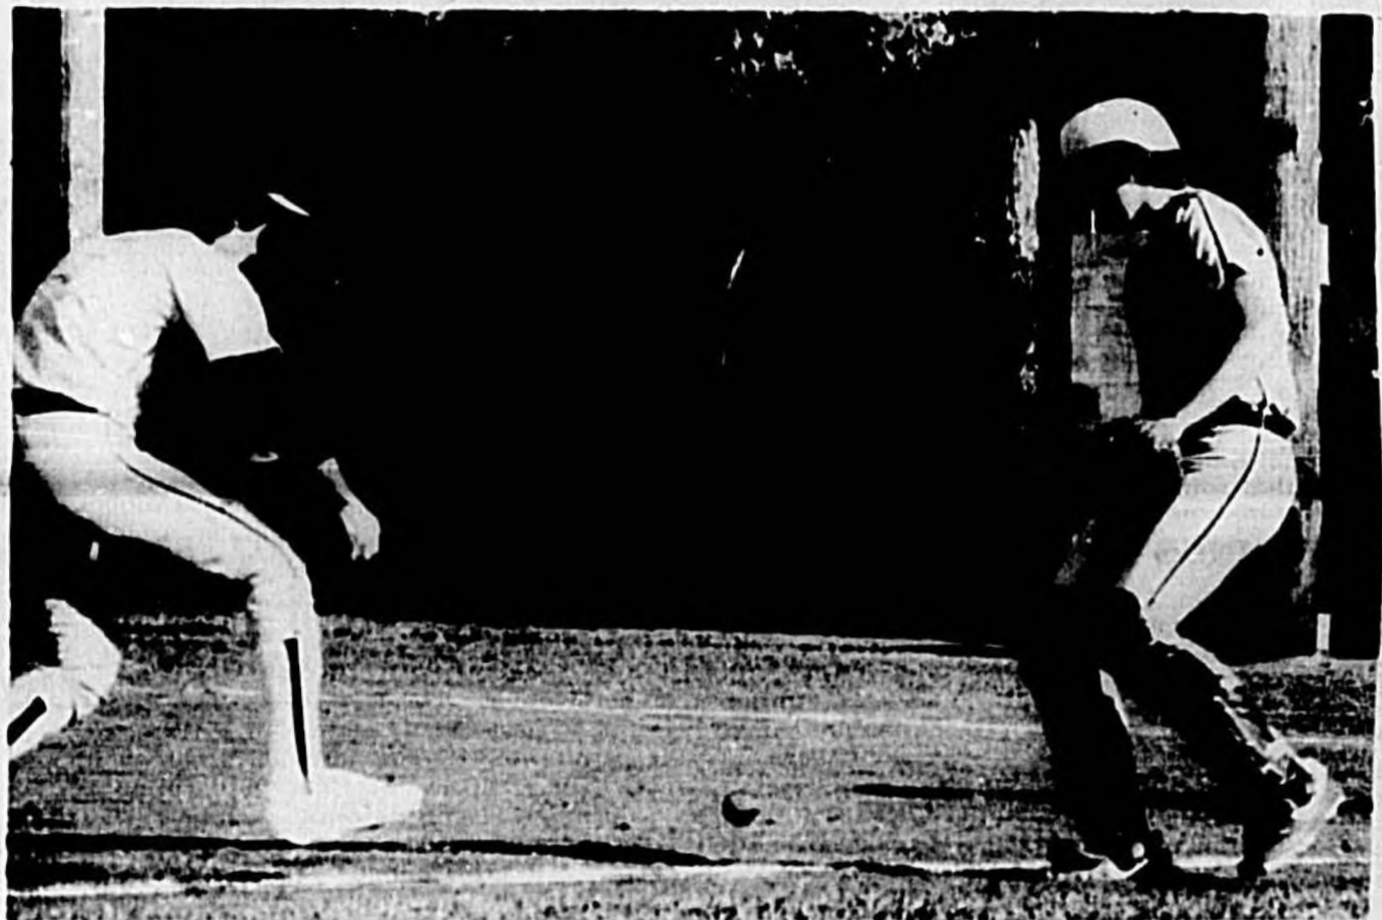

Brantley coach Mike Smith said he wasn't worried when the Pats fell behind. "This team can score a lot of runs," Smith said. "We have scored seven or more runs after the fifth inning a couple times. I honestly believe we're never out of a game."

Lake Brantley used its fitness, not its power to push across three runs in the fourth. Infield hits and well-placed bunts, along with two throwing errors by Hill, accounted for a 3-1 lead.

Lake Howell, which picked up an RBI single from Mark Schnitker in the fourth, used hits by Schnitker, Jim Read, Dave Martin and Damon Mariette along with a throwing error by Dunn for its four runs in the sixth.

Smith said his club could finally be putting it together. "I think we're starting to jell," he said. "We're playing better defense and our pitching is coming around."

"I'm looking for a strong finish."

Wyoming Rallies To Shock Gators; OSU Rolls

NEW YORK (UPI) — Only Wyoming stands in the way of Eldon Miller leaving Ohio State a vindicated man.

Miller's Buckeyes overmatched Louisiana Tech Monday night to advance to the championship of the National Invitation Tournament against Wyoming, which rallied to beat Florida in the first semifinal.

"I try not to take the game personally. That cheats the game," said Miller, who was fired effective the end of the season, and will coach at Northern Iowa next year. "We have to go out and play against kids who have done the same things we've done. It's a magic moment in your life. I love it."

Brad Sellers scored 23 points, 18 in the second half, grabbed 13 rebounds and equalled a tournament record with 9 blocked shots to lead Ohio State to the 79-66 victory over Louisiana Tech.

In the first game, Fennis Dembo scored 23 points, and Eric Leckner added 19 to lead the Cowboys to a 67-58 victory over

Basketball

Florida.

Dennis Hopson also scored 23 points for the Buckeyes, 18-14. Curtie Wilson and Jerry Francis added 10 each. The Bulldogs, 19-14, were led by Robert Godbolt with 18 points, followed by Louis Cook with 13, and Wayne Smith and Kelvin Lewis with 10 each.

"We played hard defense, and I really enjoyed it," Miller said. "We did a good job of getting the ball in to Brad in the second half, but defense won the game for us, just like it did for Wyoming."

Ohio State took a 20-8 lead and were not threatened thereafter. The Buckeyes led by 14 points in the first half, and by 17 several times in the second period.

Boston College head coach Gary Williams will take over at Ohio State next season.

In the first game, Wyoming, 24-11, trailed by as many as 12 points in the first half, and 37-32 at halftime. The Cowboys scored the first 8 points of the second period to take its first lead of the game. Florida, 19-13, went scoreless for 5:28 of the second half, and Wyoming used an 11-2 spurt to put away the game.

"I'm sure Laramie (Wyo.) is rocking right now," said Cowboys head coach Jim Brandenburg. "The entire state is behind us."

Kenny McClary led Florida with 13 points before fouling out with three minutes remaining. Joe Lawrence added 12, but went scoreless in the second half. Vernon Maxwell added 12, and Andrew Moten 11. Sean Dent contributed 10 points for Wyoming.

Dembo, a 6-foot-4 sophomore, hit 10 of 15 field goal attempts, and Leckner, a 6-foot-11 sophomore was 7 for 10, with 12 rebounds.

"Everything changed when we got out of the zone defense and went to the man to man," Dembo said. "We started getting more pressure on their perimeter shots."

Wyoming was outrebounded 19-9 in the first half, but compensated with a 22-14 advantage in the second half. The Cowboys shot 61 percent from the floor, but committed 17 turnovers, 12 in the second half. Florida committed 24 personal fouls.

Florida took its last lead, 48-47 on 2 free throws by Maxwell, then went scoreless while Wyoming scored 7 straight. After Moten scored on a drive to pull the Gators within 54-50, the Cowboys ran off a 7-2 streak to lead 61-52.

Florida hit its first 5 shots, and added a follow-up of its first miss to take a 12-6 lead. A 7-0 run put the Gators ahead 25-13 with 8:51 left in the first half. Wyoming used a 9-4 run to pull within 8.

"We have to rely so much on our perimeter shooting," Florida head coach Norm Sloan said. "But we need a couple of people who can move inside and do some things, and we didn't have that."

South Africa Reaches Agreement With Banks

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (UPI) — South Africa and American and European banks Monday agreed to reschedule about $14 billion of the country's foreign debt, Finance Minister Barend du Plessis announced.

Du Plessis said the agreement negotiated by Swiss mediator Fritz Leutwiler was approved at a meeting in London.

"It can now be confirmed that all outstanding issues have been disposed of at this meeting," he said in a statement.

The agreement calls for South Africa to lift its unilateral Sept. 1 freeze on repayment of foreign debt.

Du Plessis said foreign banks that are owed a total of about $22 billion agreed in London to basically carry over the debt until June 30.

"This interim debt arrangement has been negotiated in a relatively short period of time and should be seen as an effort to return normality to South Africa's international financial relations," said Du Plessis.

"It is based on a sense of goodwill, mutual faith and understanding for a difficult situation by all parties," he said.

According to the agreement negotiated by Leutwiler, a former president of the Swiss National Bank, South Africa will repay five percent of outstanding debts on April 15.

A similar portion will be repaid on debts due between April 15 and June 30, 1986, when South Africa will resume regular payments.

The government halted foreign debt repayments on Sept. 1 after a number of American and European banks unexpectantly refused to extend loans. The bankers demanded payment of outstanding debts because of concerns about the country's stability.

The move came amid a crisis for the South African currency, the rand, which dropped from an average value of 68 U.S. cents in 1984 to a low of 35 U.S. cents last year.

Heart Tests Are Relatively Safe

DEAR DR. GOTT — Recently my doctor suggested that I undergo cardiac catheterization. Is there a risk in this procedure? Also, what is the main purpose of a stress test?

DEAR READER — Cardiac catheterization is termed an "invasive" procedure because it involves the introduction of instruments or material into the body; therefore, it carries some risk, depending on the patient's condition. On the other hand, the technique is enormously useful and, when performed by experienced experts, is remarkably safe.

A small-bore plastic tube is inserted into an artery — usually at the front of the elbow. It is guided up into the aorta, through the aortic valve and into the heart. Pressures in two of the cardiac chambers can be measured. At appropriate times, a radio-opaque material — a substance that shows up on X-rays — is injected into the heart or into the blood vessels that supply oxygen to the cardiac muscle. X-ray movies are then obtained. The films show the direction and strength of blood flow, as well as the patency (openness) of the coronary arteries. Based on these findings, a specialist can discover many cardiac abnormalities and can determine whether surgery is indicated to correct those abnormalities.

A stress test is not an invasive procedure. It is a cardiogram obtained during exercise, while the patient walks or jogs on a treadmill. Sometimes radioisotope material is injected during the test in order to measure certain aspects of cardiac function. When a patient is exercising, the heart requires more oxygen. Therefore, a stress test is a useful method of determining how efficiently the coronary arteries supply blood to heart muscle. Unlike a cardiac catheterization, the stress test does not indicate the location of circulatory abnormalities; it gives information of a more general nature.

Both a catheterization and a stress test are relatively safe methods of evaluating heart disease. Each gives important measurements of heart function.

DEAR DR. GOTT — For years, I have been plagued with some kind of condition under my toenails. It is a white, granitic-like substance that forms, then thickens under the nails. It's spread to six nails and now my husband has it also. What is it and what will cure it?

DEAR READER — You and your husband may have developed chronic fungus infections of the toenails. Check with a dermatologist for diagnosis and treatment.

Send your questions to Dr. Gott at P.O. Box 91428, Cleveland, Ohio 44101.

WIN AT BRIDGE

By James Jacoby

If you are defending a doubled contract and you know you have the declarer set, you certainly want to take as many tricks as possible. That will be more money in your pocket at rubber bridge. In tournament play you need to be careful to take enough tricks to make up for what you would probably have made if you had played a contract of your own. Today East-West would usually make three no-trump. It was therefore important for them to exact a three-trick set in defending against two clubs doubled. Proper use of suit preference was the key to beat defense.

The king of diamonds was taken by declarer's ace as East followed with the two. South now led the spade four and West look the ace, East playing the six. At this point, West did not know who had the remaining spade. The defenders' partnership agreement was that East would play high from a holding such as 6-3. West cashed the queen of diamonds.

On this card East played the diamond eight. Because this was apparently a higher diamond than necessary, West correctly interpreted it as showing an original singleton spade. West led a spade, East ruffed and cashed the jack of diamonds, on which West threw a spade. East now played back a club. West won the queen and ace and put declarer back on lead with a third club, and poor South had to lead away from his king of hearts at the finish to go set 800.

HOROSCOPE

What The Day Will Bring...

YOUR BIRTHDAY MARCH 26, 1968

What you have already begun is going to work out well for you in the near future. Don't start making changes just for the sake of change.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) It will prove unwise to tell any tall tales today because what you say will have to be verified later. Speak sincerely without any embellishments. Major changes are ahead for Aries in the coming year. Send for your Astro-Graph predictions today. Mail to Astro-Graph, c/o this newspaper, Box 1848, Cincinnati, OH 45201. Be sure to state your zodiac sign.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) It's important today to be able to distinguish between wishful thinking and genuine optimism. Unrealistic daydreams won't be fulfilled.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) A well-intended friend's tips on how to make extra money could amount to a big zero today. Don't plunge into any schemes without thoroughly investigating.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) This is a day where you are going to be judged by the company you keep. Be sure to select companions who'll enhance your reputation.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Someone you once promised to help, but didn't, may make a similar promise to you today. This person won't follow through either.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Be on guard today because you might have to deal with someone who likes to manipulate people to his advantage. Don't be one of his puppets.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) You could be too easily influenced by others for your own good today. If an important decision is required, think for yourself.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) You are endowed with exceptionally fine powers of concentration, but today they might not be up to par. Your work will reflect this.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 21) A shopping excursion could turn out to be rather expensive for you today if you yield to your impulses for instant gratification. Be a disciplined spender.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) The spirit may be willing but the flesh could be weak. Don't let others down by failing to do what you told them you would.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) It's not in your best interests to mix socially today with someone who has deceived you in the past. This person's character hasn't altered.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Keep a close eye on your possessions today if you get involved with strangers. Someone in the pack might not be too honest.
