

Celery Feds Will Battle Leesburg Wednesday Night

Season's Last Game Believed Certain To Be Interesting

By HENRY SLAUGHTER
After a smashing victory over the weak St. Augustine squad last Friday night, Coach McLucas has his hands full preparing for the Celery Feds' final game of the season with the Leesburg Yellow Jackets next Wednesday night in Leesburg.

This contest has always been an annual Thanksgiving Day game, but this year it is scheduled for Wednesday night as the Rollins College-Wofford game was set for that day before the Sanford-Leesburg game.

Seminole High will give its best exhibition of football tomorrow night as it usually does against its old strong rival, the Yellow Jackets had the edge over the Celery Feds in the past seasons, but tomorrow night the two teams go on the field evenly matched and it will not be a surprise to any one if either team emerges victorious.

The last time the Celery Feds beat Leesburg was in 1931 when Pete Higgins, Seminole center, scored a touchdown on a freak play to win by a 18-7 score. In 1933 the teams played a hard fought game to a scoreless tie, in 1934 the Yellow Jackets had the breaks in their favor and won another exciting fray by the score of 7-0, last season the Yellow Jackets racked up another victory over a weak Celery Fed team by the score of 19-0, but tomorrow night the Yellow Jackets are meeting a much better team than they did last season and these boys are full of pep and that determination that it takes to win football games.

Sanford needs a victory over the Leesburg team to place it in the first division in the North-eastern Conference standing. At present the Celery Feds are in the lower division with a standing of .500. Should they end the season in the upper division it would not effect the conference rating. Landon of Jacksonville needs only a victory over the weak St. Augustine team to assure it of the top position under the Dickerson system.

Deland meets Daytona Beach this week and regardless of the outcome of this game Landon will be at the top of the list, unless of course, it does the unexpected and drops its last game of the season to the St. Augustine team that has lost every game of the season.

shown up so well this year due to injuries and illness.

Nevertheless, he will be out there tomorrow night giving his best to beat the Yellow Jackets, and he will be with the team next season to show that this was just a bad season on account of injuries.

At right tackle the Celery Feds will have Franz Wraner, a junior, who has played a good game on the offense and defense this season and will be much improved for next season. The left tackle will be played by Jim Stapler who did not see much play in the earlier games this season, but when given a chance he gave a good exhibition of play and will be back on the gridiron next season causing plenty of trouble for the opposing linemen and backs.

Billy Colbert, one of the outstanding linemen on the Seminole High squad will start at right end and it is a sure bet that Billy will play his usual game—which is always above the average. Billy is only a junior and should go places next season. At left end will be Jack Purdon, another junior, who has been the sparkplug of the Celery Feds' pass attack. Jack has been out there all season spilling the opposing backs and knocking down interference so that one of his teammates could bring down the ball-carrier.

The Seminole back field will be composed of Roy Wright at quarterback for the last time. Roy has been running the team for the last few games and has shown up better than expected by some. At half back positions will be Billy Zachry and Leen Lawson. These two boys have played a good game all season with Leen doing most of the Celery Feds' kicking and Billy most of the passing. Both are good ball carriers and usually make a good game when given the ball.

At fullback the Celery Feds will have Leland McClelland who has displayed one of the best games that has been seen by local fans in the past few seasons. Leland was slow in starting, but when he got over his first few games, he has been the big feature in the Celery Feds' offense.

Jack Morrison and Arthur Moss, both seniors and centers, will probably get into the game for a few minutes as it will be their last chance. Jack has been used quite a bit this season and has shown up well. Arthur was used as a utility player last season and did not get a chance to play at all this season. He has been out there every afternoon and was not used in a game until last week in St. Augustine, but he deserves much credit for helping make the team and it is quite possible that he will get his chance in his last game for Seminole High.

John Mauser, a senior tackle, will probably be given his chance to play a few minutes with the team that he has so patiently helped to develop.

Boy Boxers Will Put On Exhibition In Oviedo Tonight

Judge Wilkinson will take his boy boxers to Oviedo for an exhibition tonight, the show to be put on for the Men's Club of that town. The bouts scheduled are as follows:

Pete Tillis vs. Clarence Barrineau, both 14 years of age, weights 105 and 100 pounds, respectively; Clifford Williams, 17, vs. J. R. Ellis, 13, weights 103 and 108 pounds; Harry Lee Moore vs. Earl Percy, each 9 years of age, weights 60 and 65 pounds; and Floyd Sparkman vs. Walter Kelly, each 4 years of age, weights 32 and 36 pounds.

The boys put on 10 bouts in the Fourth Street Arena last night, the star performance being between Walter Kelly and Floyd Sparkman, little 4-year-old lads. Other one and one-half minute bouts, all to no decision, were between Earl Percy and Milton Edge, Billy Wilkinson and Harry Lee Moore, Robert Sparkman and Billy Barrineau, Calvin Burch and Hugh Carlton, and between Ray Edge and Duane Tillis.

Two-minute, no-decision bouts were put on by Pete Tillis and Clarence Barrineau, Lawrence Barrineau and Joe Johnston, J. R. Ellis and Clifford Williams, and by H. C. Tippins and Ray Edge. Judge Wilkinson says he wants all the boys out for practice Friday night as that will be the final work-out before the selection of boxers is made for the show to be put on for the American Legion next Monday night.

Crooms Is Defeated By Team From Miami

Crooms Academy, Sanford, was defeated by Booker T. Washington, Miami, on the football gridiron Saturday by a 7 to 0 score.

During the first quarter Strickland placed a kick, Patrick and W. Johnson made the first gain of 10 yards. Scoring opportunities were great during this quarter. In the second quarter Crooms gained the ball after Miami lost it on downs. On the 22-yard line Patrick completed a pass with B. Rickland carrying it to first and ten. Strickland attempted another place kick, but the ball was lost on the 20-yard line, though Booker Washington could not make a touchdown, ending the first half.

The third quarter began with Monroe receiving a kickoff gain of two yards and Patrick a 10-yard end run. Rosier punted to Booker Washington, driving a touchdown and extra point, ending the third quarter. The last quarter began with Patrick completing several passes. The ball went to Miami. On the fourth down Singleton intercepted a pass, gaining 35 yards thus ending the game.

Colleges Will Play Thanksgiving Game On Leesburg Field

WINTER PARK, Nov. 26. — Determined to give little Georgie Miller some high class blocking when he performs before his home town fans, the Rollins Tars went through a spirited drill yesterday afternoon, in preparation for their game with Wofford College in Leesburg Thanksgiving night.

Used sparingly for the past three games because of an injured ankle, Miller is reported in perfect condition and will more than likely see full time service against the invading South Carolina eleven. Miller will start at quarterback with "B" Young, Bill Carmody, and Bob Howe rounding out the starting backfield.

With the entire forward wall in good shape, Coach McDowell will start the same line he has been using all year, consisting of Tom Powell and Ed Levy, ends; Gus Greaves and Elliot Arker, tackles; Mobley and Argyris, guards; and Winant or Goodwin at center.

Orlando Lad One Of Champion Debaters

GAINESVILLE, Nov. 26. — R. J. Dixon, Pierson, and Martin Regal, Orlando, representing John Marshall Law Club, are the 1935 Interscholastic Debate champions of the University of Florida. Paul Akin, Jacksonville, and Malvin Lobel, Grantwood, N. J., were defeated in the finals. They represented Farr Literary.

Victory by John Marshall Law Club eyes that society the faculty loving cup for the ninth time since it was first awarded in 1918. Farr Literary Society has earned it eight years, and until the final verdict held an even status with John Marshall.

H. P. Constans, head of the University's department of speech, judged the debates which brought forth more than usual interest.

Water Main On Park Ave. To Be Abandoned

City Will Make Connections To Mains In Alleys Without Cost To Residents

Sidewalk Survey Is Ordered Made

Improvement May Be Provided In Places Where Necessary

Abandonment of the old water main on Park Avenue was ordered by the City Commission last night and the water department was instructed to connect residences of that avenue with the new water mains recently laid in the alleys on either side of Park Avenue, the work to be done without cost to property owners.

Park Avenue is being widened and the pavement is to be raised as far south as Tenth Street, but the old water main will be abandoned only as far south as Ninth Street at which intersecting street it will be laid into the new alleys mains.

Connecting of residences with the new mains is to be done at once so the old main, laid some 40 years ago down the center of Park Avenue, can be abandoned and torn up before the pavement is raised.

The entire cost of the work will be borne by the City except in those cases where property owners wish new pipes used between their meters and the mains. If they want new pipe they must furnish it, but the city will lay the pipe and do the necessary plumbing without expense.

Be Thankful
 The people of the United States have so much to be thankful for that it is doubtful if very many of them really appreciate just how far their blessings actually do extend. We have seen so much that isn't pleasant around us, unemployment, sickness, impoverished old age, parentless children, dwindling incomes, businesses closing out, men losing their jobs, mortgages being foreclosed, taxes that can't be paid, and taxes that are always going higher, automobile accidents, hurricanes, earthquakes, and tragedies of one kind and another, that we sometimes are inclined to wonder if there is anyone left who has anything to be thankful for.

But after all, everything is relative. A man is tall, only because he is taller than another man who is shorter than he is. And so we in this country have so much to be thankful for because we have so many blessings which are denied practically every other people on earth. We enjoy here so many means of happiness which we take largely as a matter of course but which people of other countries have fought, bled and died for and still don't have, that it would seem by comparison we are by far the most favored nation on earth.

We in this country have liberty. Whatever we may think of our public officials, we elected them to office. We did not have them thrust upon us. And if we don't like them, we can say so, and we can turn them out of office at the next election. In practically every other country on earth, the people have to take what they get and like it. We in this country can worship God as we please. We can attend any church we like, and we don't have to attend any church we don't want to. Our ministers can preach the gospel as they see it and as they believe. That is a great blessing. Very few countries permit that.

We in the United States produce great crops of food. We have almost unlimited natural resources. We have extensive plants and factories capable of turning out all the necessities and all the known luxuries of life in quantities which would amaze the people of foreign nations. We have more gold than all the other countries of the world put together. We have actually more of all these things than we know what to do with. While other countries are contriving in every conceivable way to produce more, both of agricultural and industrial products, we are seeking with equal ingenuity to curtail our supplies.

While we have not solved the problem of distribution, while many in this country still have more than they have any real need for, and while many others have too little for their own good or that of their families, still no one has starved. At least such starvation as there has been was due to oversights on the part of fallible public officials, or to false pride on the part of some destitute person. Our charitable organizations, and our government, have been generous with relief, as compared with other countries, and even our poorest people are infinitely better off than they are in foreign lands. And we can be thankful that we have had little social strife and discord, little as compared with the things which have happened in Cuba, in Austria, in France, and even now in Brazil. Labor strikes have been confined to local areas. There has been no organized revolt against the government. We have escaped most of the bloodshed, most of the rioting and fighting, which have made miserable the lives of so many foreign families. And, too, of all the countries in the world either at war, or most likely to go to war, the United States is the very last which may again be involved in international conflict.

So, we who live in this country have much to be thankful for. We can be thankful that the Pilgrims who founded this great Thanksgiving day, landed at Plymouth Rock, and started a great country which is doing so many great things for us.

SANFORD TWENTY YEARS AGO

The don't dance of the Social Department on Tuesday evening, while not largely attended, owing to several counter attractions, was a very delightful affair and much enjoyed by those present. The music was lovely, furnished by Mrs. Houser at the piano and Allison Witherington on the violin. Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Herndon, Mr. and Mrs. Archie Betts, Mrs. Samuel Puleston, Mrs. R. A. Newman, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. C. E. Henry, Mrs. Webb, Mrs. Fred Walema, Mrs. O. W. Brady, Mrs. M. L. Raines, the Misses Adelaide Higgins, Anna McLaughlin, Sadie Williams, and Roy Chittenden, George McLaughlin, Billy Hill, and Ned Chittenden.

One of the prettiest of small affairs this season was the meeting of the Book Lovers' Club at the home of Mrs. W. W. Abernathy Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. Eab Raliff, and Miss Frances Gonzalez served a "four-course" luncheon. Those present were: Mrs. Fred Williams, Mrs. Charles Folk, Mrs. J. C. Bennett, Mrs. John T. Brady, Mrs. E. N. Luke, Mrs. Henry McLaulin, Mrs. R. E. Tolar, Mrs. J. K. Metzinger, Mrs. H. H. Chappell, Mrs. L. P. Hagan, Mrs. Claude Herndon, Mrs. Gerror, Mrs. W. L. Morgan, Mrs. Frank Miller, Mrs. F. J. Gonzalez, and Mrs. R. A. Terhune. Miss Marion Knight and Miss Flossie Robbins of Daytona are the guests of Mrs. Claude Herndon and Mrs. Osborne Herndon.

WASHINGTON, D. C.—Senator Kern was re-elected chairman of the Democratic Senate caucus and floor leader by unanimous vote today at the conference of Senate Democrats. Senator Pittman of Nevada was elected secretary.

Among the delightful Thanksgiving events on Thursday was the charming family dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Thornton at their home on West First Street. Enjoying the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Hunter of Winter Park, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Haley of Kissimmee, Mr. and Mrs. T. C. Carlson, Miss Pearl Hunter, and Mr. and Mrs. Thornton.

Jacksonville Council Seat Remains Vacant

JACKSONVILLE, Nov. 27.—City council last night accepted the resignation of Ralph T. Gray, member at large who recently of county commissioners, to take was appointed on the Duval board effect at noon Nov. 20, but refused, after much wrangling, to elect his successor.

Gray's resignation came as a surprise in some quarters of the council, and the question of his right to vote on his successor was challenged until City Attorney Austin Miller ruled that such procedure was proper.

With council boss Gosley drawn, the names of James R. Boyd, Jr., and Wayne E. Epley, both young attorneys were placed in nomination, but when a motion is presented with the election was put it resulted in a tie vote

Two Children Die in Blazing Farm Home

MCOONS, Miss., Nov. 27.—Two small children were trapped in bed and burned to death when fire destroyed the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Wilkinson yesterday.

Annie, 4, and John Edgar, 2, were consumed by flames while their mother milled a cow's feed in the barn. Mrs. Wilkinson did not discover the fire until the house was enveloped in flames. Her husband, member of the O.C.C., was away at the time.

THE COMPASS
 The Louisiana Atmosphere
 By Arthur Dunn

NEW ORLEANS, La. Nov. 27.—It is a good thing the same antagonisms existing in Louisiana do not prevail throughout the nation. For they contain the seed of civil war.

After mingling with the leadership of both factions, and talking with Mr. Average Citizen, I admit feeling a little dizzy. In the vernacular, I have an ear full. So far the men I have met in both camps seem pretty much alike in education, temperament and character. If you ran across them in a non-political environment, they would impress you as the run-of-the-mine of the average American. It would not occur to you to question their sincerity or veracity, yet they have spent hours pouring into my ears opinions as diverse as the poles, and statements as contradictory as black and white.

The Home Rule party will not concede a single favorable thing to Long—either to his character or to his achievements, and approve Walter Davenport's article in Collier's of Nov. 23. They contend that in building highways and bridges Huey did nothing more than other governors during the same period; that he had millions and that alone explains the state's low bank mortality in the pre-mortuorium days.

They belittle his fight for free text-books and deny they will abolish these. They think the Standard Oil Company justified in resisting to the utmost taxation levied to provide free schoolbooks because the tax itself discriminating. They assert they favor the Long $2000 homestead exemption and his recent act eliminating all poll taxes.

They account for the overwhelming majority of Huey's constitutional amendments (ranging from 6 to 1 up to 20 to 1) because the amendments were desirable—many of the anti-Long element voting for them. Huey's power is attributed by them to venality—he bought and owned, they freely assert, 70 per cent of the legislature through patronage, jobs, or direct purchase if necessary. In their eyes the late senator was a swashbuckling, insolent, ruthless dictator, teaching the youth of Louisiana that the real objective in life was to win—regardless of the methods involved.

On the other hand, Huey Long's devotees are zealous in their devotion to him. They seem crushed by the loss of their leader, and their bitterness is tinged with sadness. They charge his death resulted from a plot of the leaders of the opposition, but admit that no definite evidence of it has yet been reported. They point out to you the hotel here in New Orleans where the alleged murder conversation was relayed by dictaphone from one room to another. Huey

It is asserted that the opposition, if victorious, will repeal all the Long laws, including those providing for free text-books, for homestead exemption, and for elimination of the poll-tax.

Just at the moment the Home Rule party is clamoring for an honest count in the January primaries. The election boards are appointed by a commission controlled by the governor, who has promised fair election. He has been called on for a bill of particulars—challenged to say whether he will accord the anti-Long faction representation on the boards and watchers in the booths. Feeling runs strong about this. I heard a man, described to me as the leader of the New Dealers (the fighting anti-Long element), say before several people: "What I'm looking for are knives and pistols. Unless we have representation on election day, there won't be any election. There aren't enough polls in New Orleans to cover 212 voting booths at one time. If they count the votes, they'll steal the election. Before they have the chance, we will seize the ballots and destroy them."

The Home Rule high command concedes, unless the governor gives both sides an even break, there will be bloodshed, but maintains it will not be organized—it will be individual and sporadic. Ballot boxes have been burned before in Louisiana; militia and police have clashed; bloodshed and assassinations have stained the pages of its too recent political history.

Under the new law, the governor is not obliged to appoint opposition representation in the voting booths. This contradicts established practice governing fair elections everywhere. It is inconceivable that Governor Allen will fall to do whatever is necessary not only to assure, but to insure to all a count honest beyond question.

There are No Safer Brakes Made
 than the Super-Safety Brakes on the 1936 Ford V-8

No other car in America has the same basic design as the Ford V-8. And because of its unique design—the Ford car could use any type of braking system now in common use.

BUT, with the whole field to choose from, Ford stands by mechanically-operated, Super-Safety brakes as the safest, surest, most positive for the Ford V-8.

This is the type of braking system used on many of America's costliest cars and on most racing cars. And because of its unique design, Ford can use it to better effect than any other automobile built today.

Then, for the brakes themselves, Ford has provided more effective square inches of braking surface (166) than is found in any other low-priced car. And big 12-lb alloy iron drums with special cooling fins to give maximum braking power under all road conditions. All in all, no safer brakes are made than you get with the 1936 Ford V-8.

And right through the Ford V-8 for 1936, from bumper to bumper, the same attention to your safety, comfort and peace-of-mind, characterizes the whole car. Ford uses a one-piece, welded-steel body because it is safer and quieter. Ford gives you Safety Glass in every window at no extra cost because Ford believes it is the manufacturer's duty to provide for maximum safety as part of the car's value price.

Drive the Ford V-8. Notice how it "holds the road" on curves (you never have to "fight" a Ford around turns). Notice how dependably the brakes work on rough roads—on steep hills—or anywhere else. You can arrange to do this easily by calling:

FORD FRONTVIEW WHEELS
 Radius rods (1) brace the front axle. Big a part of front axle. Radius rods and torque rods (2) give extra bracing to the front axle. This means that the front will steer out of a Ford car are always held semi-direct—in particular alignment. On this permanent wheel-assembly every bushing, spring, ball joint, etc., is made of steel. Only with this Ford-type construction, and mechanical, Super-Safety brakes (3) used to the fullest advantage.

FORD REARVIEW WHEELS
 Four brake rods (4) of strong, tempered steel link the pressure of your foot on the pedal with the four big brake drums on the wheels. They do this positively, surely, under all road conditions. Note especially that no one Ford brake line is dependent on the other three. Followed our practice, these four—would have three perfectly-operating brakes.

Test out this car and check it with the car you are driving now.

Gail DeForest, Miss Knox Are Hostesses

Entertaining for a small number of their friends, Miss Muriel Knox and Miss Gail DeForest were hostesses at an informal party given Saturday evening at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norman S. DeForest, Country Club Road.

Games and contests were enjoyed throughout the evening and prizes were awarded to Jessie Burden, Doris McCall, John Angel and Melba Brown. Raymond Monahan presented a few tricks of "magic," and another feature of the evening was a raffish yell.

Refreshments were served at a late hour by Mrs. DeForest and Mrs. A. W. Knox. Those present were: Doris McCall, Barbara Stan, Violet Koloff, Alice Higgs, Evelyn Siles, Jessie Durden, Ethel Boat, Betty Thomas, Elaine Wilson of Winter Park, Raymond Monahan, LeRoy Cooper, Ernest Southward, Dickie Brown, Beryl Higgs, John Angel, Danby Altman, James Smith, and Dick Mason.

Missionary Society Has Big Attendance

With a large attendance of members, the Woman's Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church studied the mission book, "That Other America," on Wednesday, Thursday, and Friday of last week at the church. Mrs. J. F. Hall, mission study superintendent, had charge of the meetings.

Leaders for the first session were Mrs. W. S. Thornton and Miss Anna Lenora Brown while Mrs. W. E. Kirchhoff and Mrs. E. W. Turner had charge of the second day. Mrs. T. E. Wilson and Mrs. C. E. Williams taught the final chapters of the book on Friday.

Wiggins Home Scene Of "Sub-Deb" Party

The home of Mr. and Mrs. M. S. Wiggins, Magnolia Avenue, was the scene of a progressive dinner party and dance given Tuesday evening by the members of the Sub-Deb Club for a few of their friends. Dinner was served at several tables arranged about the home and dancing was enjoyed between courses to piano music rendered by Miss Dorothy Marshall.

Lavender and gold, the colors of the club, were used for decorations and table appointments. Quantities of lavender and gold flowers were arranged about the living rooms and smaller bowls of the same flowers graced the tables. Favors were: novelty paper turkeys.

Those present were: the Misses Elizabeth Laffer, Lillian Adams, Nancy Rosseter, Marjorie Conburn, Karlin Palmer, Jacqueline Campbell, Helen Palmer, Hazel Whitehurst, Cecelia Truluck, Oleda Dyson, Dorothy Wiggins, and Miss Wallace, Viole Williams, Lester Guthrie, Bob Peterson, Douglass Stenstrom, Buddy Bishop, Robbie Newman, L. M. Telford, Jr., John Morgan, J. E. L. Langry, Albert Pitts, and R. G. Hickson, Jr.

Barnyard Bridge Is Given At Mayfair

Over 150 guests attended the annual barnyard bridge party given Tuesday afternoon in the card room at the Mayfair Hotel by Sallie Harrison Chapter of the D. A. R. with Mrs. E. R. Dighton as general chairman. Miss Lillian Branan was awarded the door prize, a Thanksgiving turkey.

Bridge games were enjoyed throughout the afternoon in the large room which was decorated in a Thanksgiving motif. A large table, laden with colorful fruit and vegetables, was lighted with candles in silver candelabra. Tallies and other bridge accessories bore Thanksgiving designs.

Mrs. B. D. Caswell and Mrs. John Meisch, Jr. collected scores and Mrs. Samuel Puleston awarded the prizes to Mrs. Iva Bonick, Mrs. William Leavitt, and Mrs. Dale of Oakland. Mrs. Bonlake and Mrs. Leavitt received home as high score and second high score prizes, respectively, and Mrs. Dale was the recipient of a dozen eggs, low score prize. Guests were met at the door by Mrs. C. R. Dawson and Mrs. H. J. Lehman and ushered to the card room by Mrs. W. S. Humbley and Mrs. Vall Lovell. Mrs. R. J. Holly and Mrs. M. S. Wiggins received in the latter room.

At the conclusion of all the bridge games refreshments were served by Mrs. Gordon Cherry of Tampa, Mrs. Henry Douglas, and the Misses Katherine Thigpen, Katherine Vernay, Mary Dighton, Martha Adams, and Camille Deas.

F. P. Forster Came To Sanford Sixty Years Ago Today

When Mr. Forster came to this section, but it soon overshadowed Mallowville in importance, and Mallowville gradually began to sink into oblivion, some of its buildings being moved to Sanford.

Building construction was practically all of frame, and the result was that when a fire started in 1887 "there was no stopping it." It was a real conflagration, Mr. Forster recalls, four entire blocks being swept away. The fire zone was east of the present main business section of the city.

The first "skyscraper," as it was called in the early days, was a four story frame building about where the Yowell store now stands. The Sanford House, leading hotel in its day, was on the site of the present postoffice.

The postoffice (Mr. Forster was postmaster in 1881 and 1882) was in the same block as the present federal building, north of First Street, facing Palmiste Avenue.

When Mr. Forster was postmaster the Sanford postoffice was in the fourth class rating, and he became a victim of the political wheel of fortune and was ousted in 1888. He thought it was quite a blow then, but he got a job as bookkeeper in the old First National Bank, worked up through various offices in the institution, and retired as president of the bank. He was with the bank for 46 years. It was during his presidency of the institution that the magnificent banking house occupied by the Sanford Atlantic National was erected.

Mr. Forster continues to make his home in the residence in the 300 block on Magnolia Avenue (next to the Montezuma Hotel) where he and the late Mrs. Forster started housekeeping many years ago.

ANNIE OAKLEY JOINS BUFFALO BILL

Affiliating herself with Buffalo Bill in whose show she eventually became the stellar attraction was a milestone in the life of the world-famed rifle shot dramatized in "Annie Oakley." Barbara Stanwyck carries the title role. Moroni Olsen is seen as Buffalo Bill, Preston Foster depicts her romantic lead, and Melvyn Douglas, Andy Clyde and Pert Kelton have other important parts. Premier showing of Annie Oakley will be at the Milane Sunday and Monday.

Wilcox Asks City To Advise Him On Bond Legislation

An investigation into the activities of municipal bondholders' protective committees. During the course of these hearings I have developed facts which I think disclose a most extravagant and reckless operation of these committees. It has developed that these committees are self-constituted and that they give themselves unusual and unlimited powers both as to their actions and as to the amount of money which they may spend. It has also developed that very few of these committees have seriously worked out any workable plans for readjustment of municipal indebtedness.

"You are of course familiar with the terms of the Municipal Bankruptcy Act which was passed during the last Congress. It is my belief that legislation should be adopted by the national Congress which will place some control over the actions and activities of these committees, and it is also my belief that the Municipal Bankruptcy Act should be amended and extended.

"It is my present purpose to arrange a meeting for some convenient point probably at Orlando, for about two or three weeks from now at which I would like to have the city attorneys and city officials attend and give me their views as to the character of legislation which should be adopted to prevent a repetition of the abuses which have recently been disclosed, and also as to how the Municipal Bankruptcy bill should be amended so as to make it more effective.

"I am most anxious to have your views of these important questions, and trust that in the next few days you will give me cense was refused when application was first made several weeks ago in the belief that it should be classed among the "other" machines requiring a $250 license fee.

Two large Washingtonia palms in front of the waterworks, "electrocuted" by power lines, will be replaced by young trees. Street Superintendent James Moughton was instructed by the City Commission to make the improvement.

Chief of Police Roy Williams reports that new mufflers are being placed on most of the trucks passing through Sanford at night, and as a result there has been no complaint lately of unnecessary noise in this City.

The H. B. Pope automobile service station is being moved tomorrow from the present location on Second Street at Magnolia to one block west, Second Street and Park Avenue, where a large and modern station has been erected. Both the old and new stations will be open to serve the public tomorrow, Mr. Pope said today, but the old station will be closed after tomorrow night. The formal opening of the new station will be some day next week.

Water Main On Park Avenue Is To Be Abandoned

to note the end of the wide part of the Avenue.

French Avenue also came in for discussion, brought to the attention of the commission by E. F. Dunner on behalf of the Farmers' Market. He asked if some way could be figured out whereby that stretch of the Avenue between the end of the City's jurisdiction and the beginning of the state maintenance could be improved. It was decided that the only thing the City can do now will be to temporarily improve the surface of the artery by spreading cinders on it, and this work was to be undertaken by Street Superintendent Moughton today.

On the suggestion of Commissioner W. A. Laffer, Engineer Fayle and Street Superintendent Moughton will make a sidewalk survey, or more particularly a survey of where sidewalks are needed, and report back to the commission Mr. Laffer said that after the information is obtained the authorities can consider what had best be done. The necessity of sidewalks in some sections was brought to his attention recently, the commissioner said, when A. J. Loring was fatally injured by a bicyclist as Mr. Loring was forced to walk in the street as there is no sidewalk at the scene of the accident.
