

Red Compliance With Cease-Fire In Laos Reported

GENEVA (UPI)—United States officials were heartened today by reports of increased Communist compliance with the cease-fire in Laos and opposition to Soviet veto demands by two neutral nations. American sources said the report received here Monday night from the three-nation International Control Commission showed considerable lessening of cease-fire violations by the rebels during the past three days. But they emphasized that the United States still does not consider the situation sufficiently stable to warrant disclosure of its comprehensive plan for guaranteeing and policing a neutral and peaceful Laos.

U. S. Ambassador Averell Harriman was said to believe there can be no real assurance the truce will last until India, Poland and Canada—the three members of the ICC—have enough equipment and manpower to inspect the country effectively.

The 14-nation conference here has been somewhat handicapped by the refusal of the pro-Western royal government to participate as long as the Communist Pathet Lao and neutralist delegations are given equal status.

Thailand was reported coming up with a plan which would bring in some of the political parties represented in the government in place of an official government delegation.

Nine Workers Die In Lab Explosion

ROCKET CENTER, W. Va. (UPI)—Investigators today sought the cause of an explosion at the Allegheny Ballistics Laboratory that killed nine workers.

Six other workers were injured Monday in the blast that destroyed a powder casting building and a motor testing structure at the Navy's missile center nine miles west of Cumberland, Md.

Four of the injured were hospitalized and two were treated for minor injuries and released.

The Navy said loss of the two buildings would not affect its missile program. Damage was confined to the solid propellant division, it said.

The ABL said one of the buildings destroyed was the "pilot plant east building" where casting powder, one of the ingredients used in propellant systems, was poured into molds.

The other structure levelled by the explosion was located near the east building and was known as a "conditioning" plant where missile motors were subjected to temperature tests ranging from 1,000 degrees to 65 degrees below zero.

Officials said the laboratory primarily was involved in making solid propellants for rockets and missiles but also built and tested engines for rockets under construction.

Softball Players Seek Competition

The North Orlando Ladies' Softball Teams are hunting some competition.

Mrs. W. W. Anderson, manager of the two teams organized within the community, asks that any other such groups in Seminole County get in touch with her to arrange playing dates.

At present, she says, the North Orlando team plays each other on Thursdays at 8:30 p. m. and on Saturdays at 5 p. m. However, if arrangements can be made to meet competition from other communities, she says, the best players from each will be chosen to make up the Village Team.

Long-Promised Expense Report Is A Whole Lot Of Nothing Definite

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House was in print today with a long-promised report on expense accounts of its members in the 12 months that ended June 30, 1959. At first inspection, the 418-page book appeared likely to embarrass nobody.

For one thing, it was ancient history. A similar book on House expenses for the last fiscal year has yet to go to the printer. For another thing, the book was not indexed. Expense items were filed in chronological order. Many of the entries left something to be desired by the reader in pursuit of detail.

An unspecified number of unidentified members of the Committee on Interior and Insular Affairs, along with unidentified and uncounted staff members, went somewhere to investigate something in June 1958. Wherever it was, the tickets on Eastern Air Lines cost the government $1,297.62.

Members of the Merchant Marine Committee and staff—again unspecified as to name or number—conducted an inquiry about the Panama Canal Nov. 28 through Dec. 11, 1957, and brought back two bills from the El Panama Hotel totalling $1,536.10.

Individual members frequently found it necessary to investigate matters in their home states, their expense reports showed. These trips were charged to their respective committees. One member of the Foreign Affairs Committee—not identified in the report—ran up a $298.81 bill sending telegrams from India to the United States.

The House commissioned a portrait of a former speaker, not named, Painter Boris B. Gordon got $2,500 for the job.

In September 1958, members used $246 worth of ice. They bought robotypes, duplicators, mimeographs, dictaphones, calculators, addressographs, autographs, and electric typewriters. Despite the mountains of waste paper produced by these and other legislative machines, they periodically bought shrouded newspaper from the Salvation Army, at the rate of $6.22 per 470 pounds. To pack things in, officials reported.

Promenaders' New Officers Installed

The newly elected officers of the Starlight Promenaders, Sanford's own square dance group, sponsored by the Recreation and Parks Department, have taken office. Re-elected as president is Harold Jenkins; vice president, Bob Lockwood; secretary Shirley Burkholder, treasurer, St. Clair White.

The planning board met at the home of Louise Drebert to plan the events for the coming year. Some of the highlights for the season are the Central Florida Square Dance Association's Annual Election Ball on May 27, with the Promenaders as host club.

The club Anniversary Party is to be held at the Shrine Club June 3. Mr. and Mrs. James Jernigan, director of recreation and parks, will be the guests of honor. There will be beach parties and picnics during the summer months.

Thanksgiving weekend the Promenaders will be host club for the Third Annual Holiday for Rounds, for the Round Dance Association. The club has elected to continue their regular dances each Wednesday night throughout the summer.

Juvenile Names To Be Published

TALLAHASSEE (UPI)—It will be legal to publish the names of juvenile traffic offenders under a highway safety bill which became law Monday without Gov. Farris Bryant's signature.

Bryant also allowed two other safety measures to become law. One eliminates half-points in the traffic violation point system and requires that all offenders' points be counted at full value up to 36 months.

Another requires a driver to report to police any accident resulting in property damage of $50 or more. Members of the West Lake Brantley Home Demonstration Club will meet Wednesday for the last time this season. The 12:30 p. m. session will be held at the home of Mrs. Allen Burns on Triangle Ave. with the topic to be "Selecting Your Furniture."

Slaughter Of 300,000 Romanian Jews Is Blamed On Eichmann

JERUSALEM (UPI)—Adolph Eichmann drove 300,000 Romanian Jews to slaughter and fought bitterly to prevent any slipping through his dragnet by emigration or other means, the Jewish court trying him for mass murder was told today.

Eichmann, pinched and grey-faced but otherwise apparently none the worse for two slight heart attacks in recent weeks, listened to the testimony sometimes intently, sometimes with seeming boredom.

The Israeli prosecution brought forward two witnesses and a mass of documents designed to prove that the former Gestapo official was the master killer who drove nearly half of Romania's 600,000 Jewish population to their deaths.

The testimony showed that Eichmann angrily vetoed a single emigration to Palestine of 1,000 Romanian Jews, including 1,000 children.

The testimony supported the prosecution argument that Eichmann was not merely a big-time policy planner in the extermination of European Jews but a man who took time out to deal with the smallest details of individual cases.

When the Romanian government offered to let millionaire industrialist Max Ausschmitt emigrate if his property was confiscated by the state, Eichmann vetoed this and ordered him to listen to the testimony.

Dr. Theodor Loewenstein-Lavie, a prominent Romanian Zionist and one-time professor of Jewish history at the University of Bucharest, told the court that the 300,000 Romanian Jews who perished were about one-half of the total pre-war Jewish population of the country.

Loewenstein-Lavie said 10,000 Jews were killed in a single program in the city of Jassy in 1941 and 160,000 were exterminated in the provinces of Besarabia and Bukovina between July and September 1941.

Krushchev Choice As Successor Reported Ailing

LONDON (UPI)—The Daily Telegraph said today that Frol Kozlov, Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev's apparent choice as his successor, is ill with heart trouble.

The report came from David Floyd, the paper's Soviet affairs specialist, who said Kozlov has not been seen in public for more than a month.

Observers recalled that similar reports circulated last year about First Deputy Premier Anastas Mikoyan. He was not seen at important functions for several weeks, but it turned out he was on vacation.

The report on Kozlov led to speculation among Western observers of the possible effects of such a development on the power alignment in the Soviet Union.

Kozlov, 52, is a secretary of the powerful Communist party central committee and a member of its presidium.

The New York Times quoted diplomatic sources as saying Kozlov suffered a mild heart attack late last month and now is convalescing. It said Western diplomats learned about Kozlov's illness from Soviet officials who were asked why the top official was absent from some important functions.

Intangible Tax Cut Passes

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A House bill rolling back the intangible tax on stocks and bonds cleared the Senate today. But an amendment tightening enforcement to offset any revenue loss from the lower rate was tacked on.

The bill, passed by a vote of 34-1, now must go back to the House for concurrence in the Senate amendments.

Sen. Charley Johns of Starke cast the lone dissenting vote. The bill passed the House without the enforcement features which it has included in a separate bill not yet passed. The Senate amendment, adopted by voice vote, requires all domestic and foreign companies to file a list of their Florida stockholders with the state comptroller.

A company could by-step this requirement by voluntarily paying the tax for its stockholders.

The bill would reduce the tax from $2 per $1,000 of stocks and bonds to $1.50 next year and to $1 the following year.

Sen. B. C. Pearce of East Palatka led the move to tack on the enforcement provisions. He said otherwise, there is a chance the lower tax might become law without the enforcement provisions which the governor said would not guarantee the state would not suffer any revenue loss.

Sen. John Rawls of Marianna failed in an effort to hold the reduction at $1.50 in the coming biennium and give the 1963 Legislature a chance to study its effect before any further reduction is made.

The Senate adopted an amendment by Pearce which reduces the penalty for failure to pay the tax from 25 per cent to 10 per cent of the amount of tax due.

The Senate rewrote the House redistricting bill Tuesday and passed its version which included putting Seminole County in the Fifth District with Volusia, Citrus, Sumter, Marion, Lake and Osceola. The House had split Volusia.

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House, working its way through a proposed constitutional revision, today turned down a move to elect House members to four-year instead of two-year terms.

Efforts to abolish the Game and Fish Commission as a constitutional agency also failed, it was the second day of work on the constitutional rewrite by the House.

The House spent a full day on the constitutional rewrite Monday, but the going was slow. Members adopted a slightly changed preamble and two minor articles and added a new provision calling for 45-day legislative sessions each year.

The Legislature now meets for two months every two years. Tuesday, the House approved and sent to the Senate a $767 million budget bill which included a $200 across-the-board pay raise for all teachers and provision for $400 merit raises for superior teachers.

The Senate last Friday passed a $755 million budget bill. But it didn't include any raise for teachers. The Senate Education Committee, however, unanimously approved and sent to the Appropriations Committee Tuesday a $200 teacher pay raise measure.

Differences in the House and Senate appropriations measures will be worked out in a joint conference committee.

Attempts to change the spending package, including efforts to increase the teacher raise, were shouted down during the day of debate in the House.

In other House action Tuesday, the Public Schools Committee killed a bill to let the state pay the school bus transportation expense of children living within two miles of public schools. Under present law, children may be picked up inside the two-mile limit, but the counties must pay for it.

The House Public Health Committee, meanwhile, approved a bill authorizing state financial aid to all counties for mosquito control. Only counties under mosquito control districts get the aid at present.

Indies House Sold
DUCK KEY (UPI) — Indies House, a luxurious Keys resort hotel built by Canadian financier Bryan Newkirk, has been turned over to Virginia hotelman E. A. Stephens in a $2.25 million lease-purchase deal, it was announced Tuesday. Newkirk opened the 101-room hotel in January, 1960, and last August announced its sale to a California syndicate for $2.3 million. But Hurricane Donna did an estimated $1 million damage to the hotel last September and the sale was called off. Newkirk vowed to have the hotel back in operation by December and did it.

Government Committed To Protect 'Freedom Riders'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The federal government is prepared to take whatever steps deemed necessary to maintain order if the "Freedom Riders" encounter new violence on their Southern tour, officials said today.

Informed sources said the federal government had embarked on a course of action in protecting the Freedom Riders from which it could not retreat.

An inter-racial group left riot-scarred Montgomery, Ala. today in a Trailways bus and headed west on U. S. 80 toward Jackson, Miss.—the hard core center of segregation in the South.

They were escorted by 16 highway patrol cars, each containing three guardsmen and two highway patrolmen.

A National Guard plane and other small planes circled overhead as the caravan rode west toward the border and a scheduled stop at Meridian, Miss.

The Justice Dept. said the Kennedy administration had been given assurances by Mississippi officials that the students would not be harmed.

Gov. Ross Barnett of Mississippi issued an immediate appeal urging citizens to "just let the officers handle the situation."

But he said the inter-racial group would be arrested if it violated Mississippi segregation laws.

More than 250 National Guardsmen and highway patrolmen ringed the Montgomery bus terminal to protect the students while they boarded the bus. Only a few bystanders watched from across the street. There was no evidence of the mob that mercilessly beat several of the students when they arrived in Montgomery Saturday.

About a dozen U. S. marshals were reported to have arrived at Meridian during the night. The city's police force was alerted and scores of highway patrolmen poured in to augment local forces.

Mississippi Safety Commissioner T. B. Birdsong arrived at Meridian, about 18 miles from the border, to take charge of the patrol units which have moved in there.

All city and county police units in Lauderdale County (Meridian) were mobilized and coordinating their efforts through Birdsong, a source reported.

The bi-racial group was made up of 10 Negroes, including two white girls, and two white men. The white was Paul Dietrich, 29, of Washington, D. C. He said he was making his first freedom ride.

"I'm a little anxious," he conceded before the bus left Montgomery.

MAYOR JOE BAKER declares the week from May 28 to June 3 as Telephone Week in Sanford as Southern Bell manager Bob Shedden looks on. The telephone company is prepared to throw the switch opening the new direct dialing system Sunday at 2 a. m.

Telephone Week To Set Off New Direct Dialing

Telephone Week in Sanford begins May 28, when the new Direct Distance Dialing system goes into effect at 2 a. m. Sunday, the first of its kind in Seminole County.

Telephone users here will be able to dial 45 million Bell System telephones in 868 exchanges in the U. S.

DDD (Direct Distance Dialing) is a system enabling Sanford's one and two party line users to dial most of their long distance calls without the assistance of an operator. The system is now in effect in several other Florida cities as well as other cities and in many towns throughout the United States and Canada.

"This new service is in keeping with Sanford's rapid rate of growth," Bob Shedden, Sanford manager for Southern Bell said today.

"This growth has resulted in a steady increase of long distance calls," Shedden pointed out.

"However," he added, "operators will still be needed to handle person-to-person calls, coin telephone calls, collect calls and others requiring the assistance of the operator."

Big Losses Open Stock Market

NEW YORK (UPI)—Big losses in Du Pont and American Telephone featured irregularly lower and moderately active first hour dealings on the stock market today.

AT&T and Du Pont dropped three points apiece after the opening, the former on reports the Justice Department is investigating its activities and the latter as a further repercussion of the Supreme Court's ruling that it must yield its 23 per cent interest in General Motors common.

Asians Complain About Answers

TOKYO (UPI) — Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson's easygoing Texas ways scored a hit in Asia, but some officials and newspapers complained that he left too many key questions unanswered.

From Saigon to New Delhi, Johnson was hailed for his friendly, open manner. After his departure, however, officials and those newspapers which were free enough to criticize expressed some second thoughts.

The most persistent criticism was that the vice president made no firm statement on U. S. plans in Laos, giving the distinct impression that the United States plans to pull its anti-Communist defense perimeter back to the Makong River and leave Laos to the Reds.

Realtors Hear State Head

Three out of four Florida residents lived in other states at end of World War II, Arthur Boazman, president of the Florida Realtors Assn., told Seminole County realtors Tuesday night in citing the growth of the state.

Boazman paid his official visit to the local board at a dinner meeting at the Sea Shell Restaurant.

The Florida realtor organization has kept pace with other growth and now is the third largest in the nation, Boazman said. He commended the Seminole group on its progress.

Calling on all the realtors to cooperate in aiding the growth of the section, Boazman reminded them that they are bound by their code of ethics to act in the public interest.

"It is the duty of every realtor to protect the public against fraud, misrepresentation and unethical practices," he quoted from Article 3 of the code.

A. L. Lorrann, Longwood mayor and real estate man, was inducted into membership of the realtor's board by A. P. Henderson, Ormond Beach, vice president of District 2 of the association, and one of the special guests at the meeting.

making of foreign policy and for deciding whether the American people will pay tribute to the Cuban Communist dictator," he declared.

Dodd's attack was the latest in a growing congressional bombardment of the citizens committee soliciting money to buy 500 tractors — Premier Fidel Castro's price for releasing the rebels captured in last month's invasion attempt.

The foreign relations committee was considering a meeting with Secretary of State Dean Rusk on the situation unless the department clarified its policy toward the private group. But no session had been definitely scheduled.

Democratic congressional leaders said Tuesday after a White House meeting that President Kennedy had ordered the government to keep hands off the private fund-raising project.

President Kennedy called on all Americans today to contribute to the voluntary "tractors for prisoners" fund seeking release of Cubans held by the Castro regime.

Kennedy said export licenses for the tractors would be granted routinely by the State Department. But he said he thought the fund-raising campaign should be kept entirely in private hands.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The U. S. Information Agency has dropped its controversial overseas "orange" polls which caused a furor during last year's presidential campaign. The decision was reported today in testimony released by a House appropriations subcommittee.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy's public education bill, apparently safe from a religious fight in the House, is scheduled closer to Senate passage.

House strategists appeared to have averted the measure clear of a collision with a parochial school plan backed by Francis Cardinal Spellman. With a working solution seemingly in hand, final approval was expected today in the House Education and Labor Committee.

Pending in the Senate was a proposal by Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz.) to eliminate the payment of teachers' salaries in the $2.3 billion administration-backed measure.

Goldwater lost on another proposal Tuesday night when the Senate rejected, 79-10, his plan to allow property owners a deduction to $100 a year from their federal income tax bill as rebate for local real estate taxes used to support schools.

The parochial school aid forces in the House committee were led by Rep. Herbert Zelenko, (D-N. Y.), whose plan for federal grants to build non-religious facilities at private and parochial schools has Spellman's endorsement. Zelenko had planned to propose incorporation of his plan with the Kennedy bill Tuesday.

But Zelenko held his measure back, apparently because Chairman Adam Clayton Powell, (D-N. Y.), declared it would be welcome for submission as an amendment to the National Defense Education Act extension bill.

Powell scheduled hearings on the extension measure, which provides equipment loans to public and private schools, starting June 1.

Senate leaders hoped to complete floor action on amendments to their bill today. That would leave only debate and a final vote on Thursday, with passage all but assured.

RICHMOND, Va. (UPI)—Convicted kidnap-killer Melvin Davis Ross Jr. was brought to Virginia from Maryland Tuesday to go on trial for another murder charge.

Ross must stand trial in Spotsylvania County for the deaths of two years ago of Carroll Vernon Jackson and his 18-month-old daughter, Janet. He is under a federal life sentence for the kidnap-killing of Mrs. Mildred Jackson and the Jackson's other daughter, Susan, 6.

The bodies of Mrs. Jackson and Susan were found in Maryland. The bodies of Janet and her father were found near Fredericksburg, Va.

A preliminary hearing is scheduled Friday.

Unemployed Teenagers Called 'Explosive' Problem

FIRST BAPTIST CHOIR OFFICERS were among the guests at a patio party at the Guy Bishop home as the church prepared for its choir program this week. Shown are, from left in front, H. E. McSwain, Mrs. A. B. Maddox, Mrs. B. M. Dyson, Mrs. Wendell Scott, Mrs. Marvin Milam, Mrs. Fred Wilson, Mrs. H. E. McSwain, Buck, W. L. Dickerhoof, E. B. Carter, Fred Wilson, C. E. McCord, Rev. W. P. Brooks Jr., Ed Alderman and Fred Fisher.

WASHINGTON (UPI)—A leading educator said today the growing number of jobless teenagers confronts the nation with an "explosive" social problem.

Dr. James B. Conant, former president of Harvard University, made the appraisal at the opening of the first national conference studying unemployment among youngsters who have left school.

Three cabinet members — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy, Labor Secretary Arthur J. Goldberg, and Welfare Secretary Abraham Ribicoff — also were scheduled to give their views on the problem. Conference officials said the rate of unemployment among youths was more than 13 per cent of the labor force, or double the national average.

Conant said this was "not only a great waste of manpower—it is an explosive situation."

They would establish programs to put teenagers to work in rural and urban areas on conservation or public works projects.

Labor Department officials also are considering some form of subsidies to employers for hiring youth as part of on-the-job training programs.

Conant said that 26 million youngsters would enter the labor market looking for jobs in this decade, an increase of 40 per cent over the corresponding period of 1950-60.

This flood of jobseekers represents "social dynamite" unless the nation takes "bold and imaginative measures to help them vocationally," Conant said.

About 350 management, labor, government and community agency officials were expected to participate in the three-day meeting. They were assigned to make recommendations on schooling, placement and federal-state responsibility for reduction of obstacles that confront a young worker.

Firm Officer Knuckles Under Nazi 'Hate' Brigade

NEW ORLEANS (UPI) — A busload of "Nazi storm troopers" ran into rain and an unympathetic police officer in their confused and unglorious entry into the city Tuesday night.

The American Nazi party members first were headed out of town by police, then turned away by a motel operator, and finally permitted to stay in town overnight after compromising on their "hate" signs.

But the Nazis maintained their "hate campaign" against CORE, the NAACP and Otto Preminger's film "Exodus," will come off as scheduled today.

Police never let the bus, painted with "hate" signs, out of their sight after it entered the city Tuesday night. When the Volkswagen was parked in the city outskirts, a police captain confronted the driver.

"I want you to understand what I tell you and get it right," said Capt. T. H. Troclair. "You are not to move a wheel until you cover up every one of those signs."

Operation Leaves Actress Speechless

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (UPI) — Actress June Allyson, 37, will be speechless for about a week from an operation performed Tuesday to remove a growth from her vocal cords.

The former wife of actor-producer Dick Powell was in good condition today at St. John's Hospital.

A spokesman for Miss Allyson said she should be home sometime today but will not be able to use her voice normally for a week.

She underwent surgery for removal of growths about two weeks ago and Tuesday's operation was the second step.

Sanford Man Wins Coveted Award

Bob Park, son of Dr. and Mrs. G. L. Park Sr. of Sanford, has received the coveted "Man of the Year" award at the University of Florida.

The award is an annual presentation of the student newspaper, "The Florida Alligator," and is considered to be one of the highest honors bestowed at the university.

Park, student body president last term, was selected "for symbolizing student efforts to improve higher education and for inspiring a renaissance of intellectual activity on the campus."

The honored student who will receive his LL.D. degree at June Commencement exercises, plans to continue at the university where he will study for his Masters.

Safety Movies Set At Casselberry

The Water Rescue and First Aid Dept. of the Casselberry Volunteer Fire Dept. has planned two 30-minute film programs for residents of the area on Thursday.

The nine-minute color reel entitled "That They May Live" is made available through the Seminole County Chapter of the American Red Cross and demonstrates the mouth-to-mouth artificial respiration techniques.

Paul Bates, chief of the Casselberry volunteers, said today "every man, woman and child ought to see this movie. It could be the most valuable half-hour they'll ever spend."

12 Killed, 5 Missing In Cargo Plane Crash Shortly After Takeoff

TACOMA, Wash. (UPI) — Twelve men were killed and five others reported missing when a giant Globemaster C124 crashed shortly after taking off from McChord Field early this morning.

Five others aboard the plane were taken to Madigan General Hospital in critical condition. The Air Force said the plane carried 15 passengers and a crew of seven.

The plane took off from the base just south of here at 2:30 a. m. bound for Donaldson Air Force Base, S. C.

R had left the runway and traveled about five miles when it plunged to earth.

Names of those aboard were not released.

The plane is a four-engine transport built at a cost of $17 million. Douglas Aircraft, the makers, delivered the last Globemaster to the Air Force in 1955.

Normally, it carries a crew of four but can be converted to carry 200 troops in a double deck cabin.

It was believed the men aboard were returning to Donaldson after taking part in the recent Exercise Lava Plains at the Yakima firing center in Central Washington.

communism" and "We do hate race mixing."

The Nazis began trying to cover up the signs with paper, but a drizzling rain turned into a downpour and forced them to shelter. Then they ran out of paper.

They telephoned their "Fuehrer," George Lincoln Rockwell, at his command post in a New Orleans hotel, and apparently on his advice told the officers of the plight.

The Nazis said they were unable to cover the signs, but the officer maintained the signs broke the law. The Nazis said they would have to "move a wheel" to get out of the parish and Troclair ordered an escort.

Before reaching the city limits, the Nazis, from Arlington, Va., said they had changed their minds and asked permission to seek lodging on the condition they rip off the cardboard signs on the sides and use what paper they had to cover the signs on the front and rear of the bus.

The police agreed, but the first attempt at finding beds for the night failed.

The Nazis later found a sympathetic motel clerk and lodging for the night.

Woman With Eight Names Pulls Fraud

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Authorities sought a well-dressed woman with eight different aliases today in connection with a scheme that allegedly defrauded a Miami bank of $31,000.

County Solicitor Edward M. Booth termed the woman's operation as "one of the cleverest fraud schemes pulled in Jacksonville in many years."

He said the woman opened savings accounts in eight local banks, using different names at each, with $72,000 in checks drawn on the Dade National Bank on the account of a Miami real estate firm. Booth said she made withdrawals against the deposits, and the checks later proved to be counterfeit. The bank honored the checks.

Good Business

Keeping our city clean, beautiful, healthful and safe is not only good citizenship but good business. It maintains and even improves real estate values; prevents fires and lowers insurance rates; cuts down on sick time lost; improves employe morale; improves vacant lots; develops community spirit, civic responsibility and respect for property.

It also increases business from those who prefer to do business with a clean, attractive well organized community. It also encourages business to locate in such an advantageous area.

We heard of one town out West that lost out on the location of an important plant, even though it had some very practical assets, simply because it looked so messy and run-down. Aside from esthetic considerations, the company just did not feel it could get the kind of cooperation from the community or its people that it deemed necessary with such patent evidence of slovenly habits.

The full and wholehearted support by every single citizen of our town for the Clean Up—Paint Up—Fix Up campaign, we think, cannot fail to pay whopping big dividends for all.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

CASE H-93; Henry H., aged 37, a tongue-tied husband. "Dr. Crane," his attractive wife began. "We've been married 15 years, yet I can't recall his ever having shown me his approval or his disapproval. "He has never said 'This is good' or 'This is bad.' "Except when I deliberately ask him, he has never even told me he loved me. "Although I love him dearly, and he has been a good provider, I have sometimes debated divorce just because of his complete failure to talk. "We have never shared a single secret. He is just a Sphinx when at home. "Yet he is really a wonderful man. He is kind in other ways and generous. He is intelligent. "But he doesn't even tell me he is feeling sick or well, and I would faint if he volunteered a compliment on my cooking. "Since he also reads your column regularly, maybe you can reach him via the newspaper, for I am so unhappy I can't go on like this. "Like most wives, I try to do things to please my husband, but it is so discouraging when they say never a word. "Benjamin Franklin gave us some sterling advice when he said: "As we must account for every idle word, so we must for every idle silence." "Most men are certainly not gossip. They generally don't pass malicious information around by word of mouth. "But many men cause untold unhappiness for their wives by being too tight lipped. "And children often go astray because they think their father hates them or at least doesn't love them - - - all because he never says anything. "Thomas Carlyle was a husband back like Henry. His devoted wife worked hard to please him. She decorated the table with flowers. She baked and cooked his favorite recipes. "She ran errands for her literary husband and tried her very best to make him happy. One night at the table, when she felt as blue as Henry's wife, she finally asked Carlyle: "Why don't you praise me when I do something you like? Didn't the dinner taste good?" Carlyle roused from his reverie and sternly looked at her in shocked surprise. "Woman," he intoned critically, "must you be paid for everything you do?" Then he abruptly left the table to hide away at his attic desk where he pushed his quill pen. When his wife died a few years later, Carlyle was distraught. In his grief, he thumbed through a diary his wife had faithfully kept, and on the pages thereof, many of which were stained with her tears, he found this recurring question: "Oh, why can't you say something nice if I have pleased you in any way? Why must you be so quiet and moody? I am starving for just a word of praise from you, yet you ignore everything I do to make you happier." Carlyle rushed out and knelt upon the wet clay grave, crying "Oh, Jane, I wish I had only known." Men, you now know, so get help. Heed Ben Franklin and never again be guilty of an "idle silence." Words are verbal bouquets to our wives and children, so buoy up their moral NOW, while they are still alive, instead of waiting till the funeral to become remorseful, a la Carlyle.

Cloak and Dagger

From Rome

Henry McLemore

NICE, FRANCE — Every time I come to France something always happens to me to make me wonder if De Gaulle isn't going to too much trouble.

The French are vivacious, yes. The French are frightfully civilized, yet.

And they are, I guess, gay, chic, romantic, and terribly individualistic.

And there is no doubt they can outcook the rest of the world.

But I don't get along with the French and they don't get along with me. As soon as I cross the border, we start rubbing each other the wrong way.

The politeness of the French is celebrated, and I wonder why. They can't touch the English or Italians for genuine courtesy, and compared to the Spanish — the most polite race on earth — they are rudeness itself.

The French make a tremendous show of graciousness, but it isn't very deep. Like their kisses on the cheek, it soon wears thin. They become irritated so easily and their patience with a foreigner stands ready to snap in a second.

The average French policeman would be fired from the Italian or English force two hours after he went on duty. Grounds: discourtesy.

Ask a French policeman for directions and he snaps at you. Hesitate at a corner, unsure as to which way to turn, and he will sound his whistle, yell commands, and never think once, much less twice, of offering his services.

In all the other European countries sales people go far beyond the call of duty to be obliging. They'll help you shop until you're ashamed to bother them further. Don't expect this in France. Sales people want you in and out in a hurry. They frown on indecision, and any suggestion that an article is too dear makes them almost stamp their little sharp feet in anger.

In driving from Rome to France we had no trouble finding baby-sitters while in Italy. A maid was always willing to keep an eye on Megan while we had dinner, or went out in the evening. France is a different matter.

You are an American. You are in France. You have a baby. Okay, you pay for it — and good. We have yet to find a maid who would keep an eye on Megan for less than $1.50 an hour, and most of them have wanted $2 and $2.50 an hour. Snippy little things, too. After about three of them, Megan looked at her mother and said, "Mama, don't let any more of those French people in our room." I am beginning to feel the same way. It takes a lot of superb sauces and crout almonds to make up for the French attitude. Maybe De Gaulle should spend his time preserving the chefs, and let the others fall apart, or go any way they want to.

If this column sounds peevish, I'm sorry — for I want it to sound a lot stronger than peevish. As an American, I have never felt welcome in France. There just isn't any warmth in the French reception of foreigners.

Coming straight from Italy, an American really feels this lack of welcome.

The Italians take Americans in. The French only take Americans.

Billy Graham Ordered To Rest

LONDON (UPI) — American evangelist Billy Graham was ordered to bed by his doctors today, 20 minutes before he was to address 2,800 English preachers at the opening meeting of his fifth British "Crusade for Christ."

The doctors confined Graham to his Park Lane hotel because of a throat infection. His place was taken by Cliff Barrows, musical director of the meetings.

Peter Edson's

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — AFL-CIO President George Meany was opening witness for Senate Employment subcommittee Chairman Joseph S. Clark (D-Pa.) and his "Emergency Employment Acceleration Act" on the same day that U. S. Chamber of Commerce held a conference on "Employment and Unemployment — the Problem of the '60s."

What came out of the two meetings was so different that it is impossible to see how they could be talking about the same problem.

The basic fact is, of course, that 7 per cent of the U. S. labor force — or nearly five million workers — was unemployed in April. The problem is what caused it and what to do about it. And here is where the senator and the labor leader are poles apart from U. S. Chamber of Commerce economists.

Pointing out that the unemployment rate was only 1.9 per cent at the end of the Korean war in 1953, Meany declares that the increase is due to basic changes in the growth pattern of the American population.

There will be a net increase of 1.3 million new workers a year entering the labor force in the 1960s—a 50 per cent increase over the 1950s.

Total employment in manufacturing is shrinking from the impact of automation and technological improvements under which goods can be produced with fewer and fewer workers, according to the Meany theory. This is also the general view of the Kennedy administration, which is seeking to correct it.

Meany went all out for the Clark bill, which would appropriate $500 million for short-term grants for public works projects that could be started within 90 days. The grants would end when unemployment dropped below 4 per cent.

There was nothing even faintly resembling this coming out of the Chamber of Commerce conference, where "automation" was hardly mentioned at all and unemployment causes were said to be different.

Dr. Clarence D. Long of Johns Hopkins University told the business organization that only one-sixth of the unemployment since World War II has been traceable to recessions.

He admitted there has been a creeping upward of unemployment levels from one peacetime prosperity period to the next. But he said this might be an accident which could reverse itself in the next boom and bring an end to creeping unemployment.

From past statistics Long finds that unemployment has been on the low side in periods of large increases in the labor force, so there is nothing to worry about there.

Unemployment in depressed areas, which is double the national average, Long brushes off as a "trifling contribution thus far" in the national picture, being responsible for only 7 per cent of total unemployment, or 350,000 jobs.

It remained for Dr. Yale Brozen of University of Chicago to advance theories that it is the government which is responsible for much of the high unemployment.

Minimum wage laws have decreased the employment of the unskilled minority groups in disadvantage areas of the country like the Southeastern states, says Brozen.

But the major external factor capable of creating widespread joblessness is Federal Reserve Board's monetary policy, Brozen declares. Other variables in the business cycle may cause 4 to 5 per cent unemployment, he says. But when monetary policies affect the economy adversely, the unemployment problem is compounded, according to Brozen's theory.

Brozen blames the "Fed" whenever it varies from its unofficial rule of thumb to allow the money supply to grow about 5 per cent a year.

From mid-1958 to mid-1959 the money stock grew by 3.8 per cent. Then the Fed cut it back too rapidly, before unemployment had dropped back to the 1957 level. And this precipitated the recession of recent months, according to the economist.

Peter Henle, AFL-CIO economist soon to become a Department of Labor official, was the lone union representative on a panel asked to comment on the Long and Brozen theories.

He asked if they proved anything. Various factors in the business cycle may move in the same direction simultaneously, he maintained, without one causing the other.

Two Shells Mark Spot Where Rebel Cavalry Fought Against Union Ship

PALATKA (UPI) — Two old shells in a Confederate memorial are all that remain today of an almost-forgotten Civil War clash involving a Confederate cavalry unit, a Union war ship and a dashing Rebel captain who harassed Federal forces near here 97 years ago.

On this date in 1864, a handful of Confederate guerrillas, many of them clinging to trees overlooking the St. Johns River, bravely opened fire on a 133-ton Union gunboat, the Columbine. Although heavily outnumbered, the Rebel cavalry unit, commanded by Capt. J. J. Dickson, succeeded in overpowering the war vessel and burned it to prevent its recapture.

Pilot Dies In Jet Fighter Crash

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Lt. Gary W. Offerman, 28, of Jacksonville, was killed when his F4U single-engine jet crashed after taking off from the carrier Roosevelt in the Mediterranean Sea, the Navy announced Monday night. The Navy said Offerman was on a routine training mission when his plane crashed Monday morning.

Power Sewing Classes Planned

Plans have been made for the opening of power sewing classes for the benefit of the Seminole garment industry in the office of E. S. Douglass, Director of Vocational Education.

Attending the meeting were John Kridler of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce; Bill Wade of the Florida State Bank and Jim Grant of the Florida Power and Light Co. representing the Committee of 100; Bob Jernigan of the Florida State Employment Service; Marvin Meltzer of Sanford Manufacturers, Inc.; Abe Gussow of Brookfield Mills; John Pierro of Pierro Manufacturing Co.; and Douglass.

These industrial classes will be organized by the Vocational Education Department of the Seminole County School system. Applications for the course are being taken by the Florida State Employment Service. All those interested should apply at the Employment Service office on French Avenue, Sanford.

Dickson's exploits earned him the nickname "War Eagle" among Confederates and "Dixie" among the Federals. The territory west of the St. Johns was known as "Dixie's Land."

Millican said after the war Dickson settled near Ocala, and became active in Florida politics. Two shells from the fighting at Horse Landing were made part of the Confederate monument on the courthouse lawn at Palatka, seat of Putnam County.

But there are no local ceremonies, and not much else, to remember the long-ago battle. "And that's a shame," said Millican. "I think it was one of the most interesting battles to come out of the Civil War."

Big Rookies Give Reds, Tigers Spark Again

United Press International
Ken Hunt and Steve Boros were just a pair of names on the rosters of the Cincinnati Reds and Detroit Tigers last spring but they're on their way to winding up next autumn as the major league rookies of the year.

Neither played a single inning in the big time in 1950 but the 23-year-old fireballing Hunt is a key reason why the Reds are a surprise challenger in the National League while the 22-year-old Boros has developed overnight into a star for the Tigers.

Both demonstrated again Tuesday night why rival managers are scratching their heads and asking, "Why couldn't that have happened to me?"

Hunt, a 6-foot, 5-inch right-hander, who pitched in the Sally League last season, scored his fourth victory on the season as the Reds downed the Los Angeles Dodgers, 2-0, while Boros, up from Denver in the American Association, hit one of three successive ninth-inning homers that carried the Tigers to a 5-3 victory over the Minnesota Twins.

The victories enabled the Reds to move within 2½ games of first place in the NL and the Tigers to stretch their first place lead to 4½ games in the AL.

The St. Louis Cardinals routed the first-place San Francisco Braves, 12-4, the Milwaukee Pirates, 1-0, and the Philadelphia Phillies scored a 2-1 victory over the Chicago Cubs in other National League games.

In the American League, the Los Angeles Angels stopped the Cleveland Indians' six-game winning streak, 9-0, the Baltimore Orioles beat the Chicago White Sox, 3-1, and the Washington Senators defeated the Kansas City Athletics, 7-3.

Hunt yielded five hits in 7 2-3 innings before walking two consecutive batters and giving way to more-experienced Bill Henry who pitched hitless ball the remainder of the way. Gus Bell's sacrifice fly and Gordy Coleman's single produced the Cincinnati runs off Don Drysdale in the sixth inning. Hunt reduced his earned run average to 2.47.

Boros, who is hitting .341, hit his second homer of the season in the ninth inning as the Tigers tied a big league record with three successive homers to snap a 2-2 tie. Norm Cash hit the tie-breaking homer and Dick Brown followed Boros' smash with one of his own. Hank Aguirre, fourth Detroit pitcher, picked up his second win of the season. Al Kaline also homered for the Tigers.

Bill White drove in five runs with a homer, double and two singles to pace a 15-hit Cardinal assault that routed Sam Jones and dealt the Giants their fourth loss in five games. Curt Flood and Alex Grammas also had three hits for the Cardinals as Ray Sadecki went the distance for his third victory.

Low Burdette pitched a five-hitter to win his fourth game for the Braves and top Bobby Shantz, who was making his first start since August, 1949. Frank Bolling tripled and Eddie Mathews singled in the first inning to produce the only run of the game.

Bobby Malkmus' 10th inning triple drove in the run that gave Frank Sullivan of the Phillies the verdict over the Cubs' Glen Hobbie. Ernie Banks made his debut in the outfield for the Cubs but had only one single in four swings.

Ken McBride pitched a three-hitter and Leon Wagner, Ken Hunt and Earl Averill homered as the Angels scored their first shutout and their highest one-game run total of the season. It was the fourth win of the season for McBride, who walked five and struck out five.

Billy Hoert and Hoyt Wilhelm combined in an eight-hitter to top the White Sox' Billy Pierce who struck out 12 Orioles. Dick Williams and Jerry Adair homered to give the Orioles an early lead and then Wilhelm, making his 17th appearance of the season, protected a two-run margin over the last three innings.

Chuck Hinton and Dale Long paced the Senators' 13-hit attack with three hits each to pave the way for Ed Hobaugh's second victory. Marty Kutyna took over in the eighth and went the rest of the way after choking off a Kansas City rally. Ray Herbert lost his third game for the Athletics.

Tom Best Heads New Thursday Men's League

An election of officers and rules for the coming season were held at a meeting at Jet Times for the newly organized Thursday evening Men's Handicap League.

Tom Best was elected president, Paul Best, vice president, and the secretary-treasurer is Donald Brumfield.

The league will commence bowling this Thursday at 8:45 p.m. and continue through the summer months until August 31.

There are six teams entered in this league. If there is sufficient interest to add two more teams by Thursday, this will be done.

Teams entered are Smith's American Gas—P. Nash, D. Kallmeyer, P. Bray, T. Best and R. Hardy; American Legion Post—G. Swann, T. Best Sr., J. Piarro, B. Keele, P. Pesold; Art Day's Turkey—Art Day, B. Pilscher, C. Nelson and two other members to be named; Biggs Snacco Station—D. Brumfield, R. Dean, O. H. Rogers and T. French; Orioles—Ben Ward, Bob Ward, W. A. Ward Jr., H. Ray and B. F. Wheeler Jr.; Team No. 6—L. Edwards, D. Smith, D. Sibley, J. Bridges and R. Parker.

All new entrants are requested to register for this league prior to Wednesday night in order to be assigned to a team.

Navy, 1st Federal Teams In Lead

Navy leads the American League with a 9-1 record and First Federal is tops in the National Little League standings with the same season mark.

Navy is followed in the American league by Sanford Atlantic Bank, 7-4; Perfection Dairies, 4-6; George's, 3-7, and Florida State Bank, 2-8.

Trailing the leader in the National are Chase, 6-4; Yowell's, 4-6; Standard Oil, 2-6, and Monroe Harbor, 1-7.

Two identical scores resulted in Tuesday night's Little League play. Chase beat Yowell's, 12-9 and Sanford Atlantic won over Florida State by the same margin.

Elks Score 12-1 Win Over Oviedo

The Elks scored a dozen runs while holding Oviedo to a single rally Tuesday to win a Babe Ruth League contest, 12-1.

Pros Warm Up For $50,000 Try

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (UPI)—Many of the nation's top golf pros warmed up today for the $50,000 "500" Festival tournament by battling for the $5,000 in prize money in a celebrity pro-am event over the Woodway course.

The top attractions included Masters champion Gary Player of South Africa, defending Festival tourney champ Doug Ford, runner-up Jerry Barber and Billy Casper, who fashioned a course record 63 last year.

National Open titlist Arnold Palmer was on the "doubtful" list because of a severe cold until he sent word that he will compete. He said earlier this week he may be forced to pass up the second annual 75-hole grid, with $9,000 going to the winner.

The par 71 course, half of it in the infield of the sprawling $50-million auto race track, was prepared in top condition.

Glenn Davis Listed For Gridiron Hall Of Fame With Nine Others

NEW YORK (UPI)—Glenn Davis, the famed "Mr. Outside" of Army football, was among 10 men named today to the football Hall of Fame.

Chester J. La Roche, president of the National Football Foundation, and Vincent Draddy, chairman of the awards committee, made known the list of eight former players and two coaches selected by the honors court of the foundation and approved by the awards committee and the executive committee.

The other players named along with Davis are Weldon Humble, Rice; Pat Fawcett, Lehigh; Charles (Choo Choo) Justice, North Carolina; George McAfee, Duke; Bob Sutherland, Tennessee; Claude Rooks, Oklahoma; and Bob Reynolds, Stanford.

The two coaches were the late

Roy Harris Quits Ring After Loss

HOUSTON, Tex. (UPI)—A battered Roy Harris, the colorful, courageous former backwoods school teacher from Cut 'N Shoot, Tex., who once knocked heavyweight champion Floyd Patterson down in a losing effort, quit boxing today after a thrashing at the hands of Canadian heavyweight Bob Cleroux.

"I guess there is nothing left for me to do but hang them up," Harris said, after being knocked down three times Tuesday night by Cleroux, who won a fifth round technical knockout victory.

"When a man can't stay on his legs after three rounds it's time for him to quit fighting," the bruised Texan said.

The bullish Cleroux, who weighed 205 pounds to Harris' 191, pounded Harris with a vicious body attack. He floored the Texan twice in the third round and once in the final fourth. The ring physician decided Harris should not come out for the fifth round.

Banks Becomes 'Thinking Man' In Outfield Post

CHICAGO (UPI)—Ernie Banks said today that his switch from shortstop to left fielder has made him "a thinking man."

The National League slugging star, who had played all of his 1,111 games as a Chicago Cubs infielder, said it would take a lot of practice to learn to play his new position.

"I've played shortstop for so long that it became automatic," he said after his outfield debut Tuesday which ended in a 2-1 loss to the last place Phillies.

"I've got to keep remembering that I'm in left field all during a game. I've got to learn not to fire the ball to George Altman in center as soon as I scoop it up. I'm a thinking man," Banks grinned.

The slender slugger, who has hit more home runs than any shortstop in major league history, hauled in four routine flies Tuesday and charged in to field one single.

Vedie Rimal said Banks' mound performance "completely satisfied" him.

The Cubs called a hurried news conference Tuesday to announce that Banks would be moved to left field "at his own request" because of a knee injury.

The move had been urged for the past week, however, by Chicago sportswriters. They said Banks' baseball life and slugging potential might be increased by putting him in a less demanding position.

Lyman Has Four Big Slug Marks

Lyman High School Greyhounds baseball team had four hitters batting more than .300 as the squad ended its season with a 15-4 record.

Lak led the batting efforts with a .438 mark, followed by Elgin with .423 to give the team a pair of better than .400 sluggers.

Blackwith with .351 and Williams with .319 rounded out the top offensive stars.

Floods Cover Kansas Farming Areas

By United Press International

The floodwaters covered 175,000 acres of Kansas farms and home-lands today and an Army engineer estimated total damage at $2 million.

Spring planting suffered heavy setbacks on hundreds of farms. The livestock losses were equally as heavy in flooded Marais des Cygnes - Osage area of eastern Kansas.

Col. A. P. Rollins Jr., district engineer at Kansas City, Mo., conducted a preliminary survey Tuesday and set the $2 million damage estimate.

The picture was brightened by a steady fall on Kansas' Neosho and Cottonwood rivers and widespread pattern of warmer weather that covered the eastern two-thirds of the nation.

Critical areas remained in Nebraska along the Big and Little Blue rivers, expected to overflow on Thursday near Crete and Friday at Beatrice in southern counties.

Mud-caked homes and furniture from early week flooding still plagued families at Council Grove and Emporia. But the Kansas City metropolitan area hailed another victory for the network of levees and flooded guards that sprang from the Kaw River's $1 billion rampage 10 years ago.

In Texas Tuesday, an isolated tornado heavily damaged a house and destroyed a garage at Ganado in southeastern Jackson County. On a nearby farm, a bolt of lightning struck and killed Miguel Morales, a cotton picker.

Severe thunderstorms roamed in parts of southeast Texas until late evening. Central Texas measured rains up to three inches.

Odds Against Kennedy In Effort At Summit Type Negotiations

By LYLE C. WILSON

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The precedents and the odds are long and hard against President Kennedy in his meeting with Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev.

But the young president will journey to the two-man summit with one big advantage going for him. That advantage is the tradition of failure in such presidential ventures in personal diplomacy on foreign shores. He cannot do less and may do more than did other presidents.

Kennedy will be the fifth U. S. president to undertake such a journey to Europe to deal with world politics. The others all came croppers, one way or another.

Franklin D. Roosevelt made personal diplomacy work for a time, and pay off. He delighted in it. Then came Yalta where the free nations began the bitter experience of losing the peace.

Harry S. Truman experienced the frustrations of Potsdam in 1945 as Hitler's dream faded and Red armies squatted on eastern and central Europe like a plague of locusts. Truman was baffled and unprepared. He knew he had lost that bout with Josef V. Stalin and it irked him.

It is upward of 40 years since Woodrow Wilson sailed to Paris and Versailles. The Versailles peace conference became a kind of initiation of the young United States into the shrewdly adult society of old world nations. The initiation was complete with painful hazing and humiliation.

Wilson's powerfully phrased pledge to "make the world safe for democracy" came to nothing. His high-minded mission was a catastrophic bust, so shocking to U. S. public opinion that there followed many years of what was called isolation.

The late George Harvey, U. S. ambassador to Great Britain, spoke for the isolationists in a pat phrase when he returned in the mid-1920's from his tour of London duty. Harvey told the reporters that the United States should let the troubled, near-bankrupt nations of the Old World "stew in their own juices." Millions of Harvey's fellow citizens applauded that.

The American people expected and demanded great things of Wilson's pilgrimage. They expected and for a time did obtain great satisfaction from FDR's adventures in personal diplomacy. Harry S. Truman's 1945 misadventure in Potsdam was not understood by the American public until long afterward. There was hope but little confidence in Dwight D. Eisenhower's two summit efforts.

Americans scarcely can expect Kennedy to score.

Children Victims Of Eichmann In Czech Case, Prosecutor Says

JERUSALEM (UPI) — Adolf Eichmann was responsible for the deportation and slaughter of 100 non-Jewish Czech children from the martyred village of Lidice in Czechoslovakia in 1942, the Israeli prosecutor charged today.

Briefly interrupting his case against Eichmann for the mass murder of six million European Jews, the prosecution submitted a series of documents designed to prove that Eichmann also ordered the deportation of the children to Poland.

There, the prosecution charged, the children were handed over on orders from Eichmann's office to the Gestapo and killed.

Eichmann consistently has claimed he does not remember the incident and knew nothing about it.

Later, the court heard a witness testify that about 71,000 out of 89,000 Jews in Slovakia, about 80 per cent of the total, perished either in Nazi camps or at the hands of extermination squads during World War II.

The witness, a Slovakian Jewish statistical expert, estimated that the Nazis stole virtually all property belonging to Slovakian Jews and valued at 4,300 million Czech crowns ($43 million).

The children were orphans whose parents were killed by the Nazis. The village of Lidice was razed and its inhabitants slaughtered in June 1942 in reprisal for the assassination by Czech partisans of Reinhard Heydrich, Eichmann's former secret police boss who later became Nazi "protector" of Bohemia and Moravia.

The documents showed that the secret police racial problems department decided that seven children were suitable for "germanization"—that is, to be transformed into Germans.

New Dispute Starts On Laos Delegates To Conference

GENEVA (UPI) — A new dispute shaped up today over the seating of Laotian delegates at the international conference which is trying to settle the crisis in their little kingdom.

The Russians were expected to join the Red Chinese at today's session in rejecting a Thai proposal for rotating representation among the various Laotian political groups here.

Observers said the procedural wrangle likely would further delay work on the main task of neutralizing Laos and policing and guaranteeing that neutrality.

Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko and British delegation leader Malcolm MacDonald, co-chairmen of the 14-nation conference, were to meet before the afternoon session to try to resolve some of the procedural problems.

Delegations, meanwhile, were considering France's proposal for a neutrality charter to remove Laos from the cold war. The Americans received the proposal with enthusiasm, but the Communists were said to oppose it.

A ROUND OF FAREWELL PARTIES have brightened the last few weeks remaining to Lonnie and Tommie Tension, who leave Friday for Washington, D. C. and position for Lt. Cdr. Tension in the Pentagon.

Four years of duty in VAH-11's Checkertails have made many friends for the Tensions in Sanford and almost all of them gathered at some time or another during the parties given for them which started with a dinner party given at the home of Mary Lou and John Shattuck.

They were also feted with dinner parties at the Richard Andrews' and at the Bill Malczewski's, who will miss them.

An unusual luncheon which was given by Gladys Thom made Tommie "Queen for a Day." When she arrived wearing a pink frock as she had been requested to do, she was crowned with a beautiful floral crown made of pink roses, pink carnations and baby's breath, with a lovely nosegay to carry and the pink theme carried throughout the house and the refreshments.

A very lovely tea was given by Laverne Hamilton and Lawanda Sandon at Mrs. Sandon's home and more recently a cocktail party was hosted by Steve and Anne Oliver at their home for the departing couple.

Lcdr. Tension was recently transferred to the newly commissioned VAH-13. The home in which they resided while living in Sanford has been purchased, we hear, by Admiral Paul Dudgey (as an investment not a home). He is the father-in-law of Lcdr. Glenn Hatch, who was formerly stationed here in VAH-11, but is now at Annapolis.

While in Sanford, the Tensions were active in the chapel and in squadron affairs. Mrs. Tension was the representative from 11 to the Officers Wives Club.

Tommie and Lonnie with daughters, Kimberly, six and Lisa, two, leave by car for D. C. to find a new home while he serves his tour of duty there.

MORE ABOUT THE NAVY:

The dessert card party sponsored by the Officers Wives Clubs Monday for the benefit of the Navy Relief Fund turned out to be a big success from all reports.

Seventeen tables of cards were in play with the top score gift going to Mrs. Howard Goblen and Mrs. B. C. Hamilton. Mrs. Hamilton got the Italian beach bag donated by Mrs. Eubank and Mrs. Goblen won the gift certificate from Yowalla.

Second place winners were Mrs. Earl Higginbotham and Mrs. Robert Maham and canasta winner was Mrs. D. F. Kirkpatrick.

Low score consolation prizes went to Mrs. Clayton Mamele and Mrs. W. E. James. Mrs. Harold McCumber won the traveling prize, an appropriate travel clock.

Coffee, cakes and cookies were served and gifts were donated by McReynolds Drug Store, Ray's Pastry Shop, Ro-Jay's and Sanford Flower Shop.

MRS. B. C. HAMILTON

MISS ABIGAIL BOYD, who graduates this year from Seminole High, will receive her diploma at a luncheon at the Imperial House last Saturday, given for her by Miss Barbara Ruprecht.

Centerpiece for the luncheon table was an attractive arrangement of black magnolia leaves. Nut cups and place cards were designed as tiny mortar board hats and each guest received a bottle of perfume as a memento of the occasion.

Dining with Abigail were Penny Anderson, Madeline Derkis, Niki Ashby, Margaret Jones, Bonnie Wilson, Susan Hausch, Jeanne Rusnak and Mrs. C. M. Boyd.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayne L. Levins invited a group of neighbor children in to help celebrate their son's first birthday.

The young host, Greg Levins, and playmates, Richard Forbes, Becky Simpson and Elizabeth Cowley, enjoyed playing with toys from 3 to 4:30 p.m. at the Levins home, 120 Laurel Drive.

Six year old sister, Louetta, and his mother served refreshments of birthday cake and cold drinks to the youngsters after the playtime.

OES Members

Participate In Friendship Nights

Thirty-four members and four visitors participated in the Seminole Chapter 2, OES program Thursday night, at Masonic Hall. First time visitor, Mrs. Carl Dapfelson, of Belhlehem 108, Saginaw, Mich., expressed appreciation for the friendly manner in which she was welcomed as a visitor.

There was a discussion of the Grand Chapter Triennial, scheduled for Nov. 4 through 9, in Miami, and plans made for attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Peurifoy reported on their participation in friendship night at the DeLand lodge and Mrs. Virginia Anderson, Mrs. Essie Cole, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Thompson and Mrs. Helen Leinhardt, told of their participation in the Daytona Beach chapter's friendship night, last week.

No special program was planned for the evening and at the close of the business session, members and guests were invited to the dining room for refreshments of sandwiches and cold drinks.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talbot, Mrs. Louise Beasley, Mrs. Willie Mae Brown, Mrs. Ruby Jones, Mrs. Bernice Parker, Mrs. Gladys Malcolm and Mrs. Hettie Ragsdale, all of Oviedo.

VAH-7 Wives

Meet For Coffee At Milner Home

The wives of VAH-7 were entertained at the monthly coffee by Mrs. F. D. Milner at her home on Magnolia Ave.

A lovely bouquet of garden flowers, given to the hostess by Mrs. T. W. Ownby, graced the serving table. An assortment of pastries and rolls were served.

Mrs. Milner presided at the business meeting and welcomed Mrs. D. W. Hezeau and Mrs. J.E. Bratton into the group.

Reports were given by Mrs. H. A. Moreland and Mrs. F. H. Gallone. Plans were made for the coffee and luncheon which are to take place next month.

Mrs. M. W. Otto and Mrs. A. S. Poulter received lovely silver trays as farewell gifts. Mrs. L. R. Boucher, who is leaving the group, turned the treasurer's book over to Mrs. C. C. Wells.

Others attending were Mrs. Ownby, Mrs. B. B. Gear, Mrs. L. E. Faust, Mrs. R. W. Martin, Mrs. A. J. Perrella, Mrs. H. H. Harrison, Mrs. M. D. McPherson, Mrs. F. D. Stipp and Mrs. G. F. Schneider.

Mrs. Peterson

Surprised With Farewell Party

Mrs. J. B. Wilkins and Mrs. Betty Weber were hostesses at a surprise farewell party for Mrs. D. E. Peterson at the Wilkins home, 156 Pinecrest Drive, Friday night.

Chief Peterson and his family are leaving for Minneapolis, Minn., when he retires from the service about June first. He has 21 years of service with the Navy. Their son, Don, will enter the University of Minnesota this fall.

Mrs. Peterson was invited to the Wilkins home to see some home movies. She was very much surprised when the guests arrived at 7:30 with their arms full of gifts for her.

The house was decorated with arrangements of pink gladioli and the refreshments and napkins carried out a pink color theme.

A large cake with the words "Good Luck Marge" on the top was served with lime punch, nuts and mints. Friends enjoying the evening with the honoree and hostesses were, Mrs. Evelyn Baldrer, Mrs. Al Berwick, Mrs. Chester Miller, Mrs. George Amy and daughter, Kathy.

Afternoon Tea Honors All Graduates

One of the loveliest afternoon teas of the graduation season was given Thursday for Miss Rosemary Southward, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Southward, at the gracious home of her grandmother, Mrs. Ira Southward, assisted by Mrs. Bill Southward and Mrs. Al Doudney.

All of the girls of the 1961 graduating class were invited to call from 4 to 5:30 p.m. as well as the senior class sponsors.

Mrs. Southward's home on Hibiscus Court was beautifully decorated with arrangements of spring flowers. An arrangement of gardenias and calla lilies graced the entrance hall and a lovely cluster of magnolias, accented with waterlilies waited their perfume throughout the house, from a console in the dining room.

The dining table was covered with a white linen cloth and centered with a silver epergne holding arrangements of white chrysanthemums and baby's breath with burning black tapers in the candle holders.

Orchid corsages were presented to the honoree and her mother by the hostesses. A gift of luggage and a beautiful cedar chest were also gifts to the graduate.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: What is a girl who wasn't born beautiful supposed to do? I am 18 and have never had a boy friend. I am of medium build, maybe a little underweight. Anyway, my figure is nothing sensational, and the way my mother makes me dress, even if it were no one could notice it. My hair is light brown, gets oily fast and just hangs. I wear glasses and braces.

Believe me, it is not an inferiority complex that gives me the idea that no boy would look at me twice. I have tried to be the kind of person who is fun to have around, but I am a big flop.

Can you give me a few tips on how to get a boy to notice me?

NOTHING SPECIAL

DEAR "NOTHING": Maybe you're trying too hard? And maybe the fish you're casting for are too big for your line? Be yourself. Be your best-groomed, kindest, sweetest self. Pay particular attention to the shy little guy whom no girl notices." I'll bet you catch something pretty special.

DEAR ABBY: My wife is a big-hearted woman who feels sorry for a friend of hers who happens to be a widow. When I drive this woman home my wife always says, "Honey, be sure to kiss Vera good-night." Vera is not hard to kiss, but I don't think it's right for my wife to ask me to kiss a woman just because she has no one else to kiss her. We have been friends for years, and I know Vera doesn't take me seriously, but don't you think eventually this could lead to trouble?

IN DOUBT

DEAR IN: Only if YOU do!

DEAR ABBY: My problem is an expensive one. Whenever I wash, my neighbor washes, and she takes my good diapers off the line and leaves me her old ragged diapers, which are full of holes. I have never seen her do it, but I know she does. Diapers cost $2.58 a dozen, and I am tired of buying new ones all the time. Print this. Maybe she will take the hint. I don't want to accuse her.

DIAPER POOR

DEAR DIAPER POOR: Write your initials in indelible ink in the corner of each new diaper. Then tell your neighbor (in a friendly way) that you think you have been getting your diapers mixed up with hers, and have marked yours so it won't happen again. And I'll be it doesn't.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell "Must Have Been Crazy" that she has company. I am another secretary who fell for her boss. I was 21 and he was 44. I had to have his child to grow up. I was married and so was he. He said he loved me. I was blonde, five feet four, 36-25-36. He said I was perfect. When my measurements changed, so did he. This is all ancient history, and thanks to heaven, and an understanding husband my life was not ruined. But please tell girls who get a yen for their bosses to quit while they are ahead.

OLDER AND WISER

We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

An educator makes what at first blush sounds like a preposterous assertion that most of the public hates children. He protests that "this hatred of children and anger at them is a serious adult symptom."

"Why should I be bothered? They're not my children. Why don't their mothers keep them in their own yards, where they belong?"

And in these letters children have done nothing more vicious than to pick a flower, cut across a neighbor's lawn, or climb a garden tree. These acts aroused so much anger in letter writers that the children are described to sound like hardened criminals. No wonder we have a juvenile delinquency problem, if this resentment of children is as widespread and deep-rooted as these letters seem to indicate.

The educator quoted above also said, "I have never encountered a delinquent child who had what I would call a decent adult friend."

Think that over, you good women who get enraged at the sight of a small child on your prized lawn.

For some thought-provoking reading, see Ruth Millet's booklet, "How to Have a Happy Husband." Send 25 cents to Ruth Millet Reader Service, c/o The Sanford Herald, P. O. Box 488, Dept. A, Radio City Station, New York 19, N. Y.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

While most take out doubles show a minimum strength equal to an opening bid there is one classic exception. That is the double in fourth seat when your right hand opponent has opened the bidding and his partner has passed. In this situation you can be sure that your partner won't show up with a blank hand and therefore you can afford to base your double on the cards you expect him to have.

North had a fine fourth hand take out double, and South converted it to a penalty double by passing. South opened the queen of spades. East let it hold, but had to win the second spade lead. For want of anything better to do, he led a diamond. North won; cashed the jack of spades while South discarded a diamond and continued with the king of spades. East ruffed and South overruffed. South led the king of diamonds. North overtook and led a third diamond. Again South overruffed East.

At this point the defense had six tricks in and even though he was now end-played South was able to make three more tricks for a nice 800-point profit.

JV Key Previews

Wednesday's top television shows as previewed and selected by TV Key's staff of experts who attend rehearsals, watch screenings, and analyze scripts in New York and Hollywood:

Hong Kong. — "When Strangers Meet." (A repeat), very absorbing intrigue tale. Without using any violence or contrived tortures, this episode manages to weave a nicely motivated story-line that holds your interest right to the end. Reporter Evans is looking for a missing girl, and at each turn of the road he finds her hailed either as a saint or a sinner. You'll stay with it for the answer. 7:30 p. m. ABC.

Ferry 'Come. — Perry is entertaining the National Restaurant Association tonight, "Live!" from McCormick Place in Chicago, and he's got Martha Raye, George Gobel and Johnny Puleo to give him a helping hand. Come open the show with "Chicago," of course, Puleo plays his harmonica and has a knack for pulling at people's sleeves. Gobel sings when he can and does a monologue too. Martha is fun whatever, and the cast has a three-acting handstand style from Wayne King, Lombardo, to Goodman and Weeks. 9 p. m. NBC.

Circle Theater. — "Days of Confusion: The story of college admissions." Though the confusion mentioned in the title is recounted and compounded by the use of a symbolic rather than a real family situation, this dramatized documentary manages to answer many legitimate questions posed by real-life parents and high school students about the problems of college admission. Particularly in the second half of the program, a valuable roster of facts, figures, pressures, and suggestions are offered that make it truly worth while. 10 p. m. CBS.

Chicago Teachers Seek Protection

CHICAGO (UPI)—The Chicago teachers union has reported a survey indicating teachers in 71 "blackboard jungle" Chicago schools fear for their personal safety.

The union, Local 1 of the American Federation of Teachers, said teachers at 78 schools wanted full-time police protection and inspectors at 64 asked for part-time protection.

John M. Forbes, president of the union, said the organization queried 500 teacher delegates a week after the rape-slaying of Mrs. Josephine Keane by a 14-year-old fifth grader at the Le. Champlin school on Chicago's South side. Of those queried, 400 responded.

The answers cited frequent vice behavior problems at 27 schools; while 163 had severe problems less often; 182 schools said problems occurred daily but were minor, while 30 schools said discipline was no problem. At 27 of the schools, classrooms and hallways were listed as dangerous before and after school.

Trainer Not So Long On Memory As Elephant

FORT LEE, N. J. (UPI)—An elephant never forgets—but his trainer does sometimes.

Sidney, a six-ton 22-year-old elephant, was left behind at Fallsides Amusement Park Sunday night when the Clyde Beatty-Cole Bros. Circus pulled up stakes and headed for Philadelphia.

The oversight was discovered when trainer Steve Fanning counted only 30 trunks at Philadelphia's Lighthouse Field instead of 31.

"I was frozen with fear for the moment," said Fanning.

Then it was recalled that Sidney had been temporarily anchored behind a building where he was being taught a new routine between shows.

Fanning reclaimed Sidney and took him to Philadelphia.

Sidney was expected to remember the incident for some time. So was Fanning.

Senate's Redistricting Plan Termed Best For Seminole

Seminole County bills rewriting the civil service law for Sanford and regulating pleasure boats in lakes were in the legislature today and Reps. Mack Cleveland and Gordon Frederick had their eyes on the congressional redistricting act.

Cleveland said this morning the Senate action putting Seminole into a district with Volusia, Citrus, Sumter, Marion, Lake and Osceola counties "appears the most satisfactory for Seminole County."

Also in the House is the boat regulation measure requested by the County Commission. This bill will give authority to law enforcement officers to make boaters adhere strictly to speed and other regulations while operating in lakes near homes, beaches and other private property.

Wednesday's calendar was upset by action expelling Rep. E. Bert Riddle of Walton County for asking "an immoral question" of a young girl.

Riddle, an elderly member serving his third term in the House, was expelled from the body by an 82-0 vote. He was charged with handing the girl a note asking "an immoral question," according to a special House investigating committee.

Radio Satellite Try In Second Failure

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — America suffered its second straight setback Wednesday in an attempt to launch a radio beacon satellite to study the earth's ionosphere.

Warning Given On Lake Swimming

A warning was given today by Miss Sally Neider of the Red Cross Water Safety Corps concerning swimming in lakes around the county this summer.

Living Costs Remain Same

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Living costs in April held steady at their record high, the Labor Department reported today.

Cat Takes No Courting Restriction To Court

ALAMEDA, Calif. (UPI) — Herman the tomcat, whose romantic meanderings resulted in a court-ordered restriction to quarters, plans to take legal action seeking one night a week to howl.

is "getting a little neurotic" as a result of staying around the house all the time.

So Herman went Wednesday to Bank of America, where he has a defense fund donated by cat lovers from around the world during his losing battle for complete freedom last year.

HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Marilyn Monroe, the No. 1 blonde in the movies, was scheduled to undergo "minor surgery" today at Cedars of Lebanon Hospital, doctors said.

Students Fined

GAINESVILLE (UPI) — Two University of Florida students were fined $125 each Wednesday for their part in the theft of examination papers from the university campus.

Mississippi Firm, But Quiet In Arrests Of 27 As Freedom Riders Enter State

JACKSON, Miss. (UPI) — Authorities today promised swift trials for 27 "Freedom Riders" who roared into Mississippi from Alabama and were arrested for trying to end 80 years of hard-core segregation here.

guardsmen and newsmen. Those arrested, including James L. Farmer of New York, national director of the Committee on Racial Equality, refused to post $1,000 bond each and were lodged in jail.

at the border and a few jeers and catcalls along the way.

Negro leaders vowed to continue the all-out assault on Deep South segregation and indicated a third group of "Freedom Riders" might depart today from Montgomery, Ala., for Jackson.

Authorities permitted the group easy access to telephones and other conveniences in the jail. It appeared Mississippi officials were trying to show extreme courtesy to the jailed riders.

Department officials were watching the arrests in Mississippi closely. But they had no intention of moving in on the civil rights cases at the local police level.

Bryant Has Plan If Violence Starts

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. Farris Bryant said today he would offer assistance to local officials in curbing violence if "Freedom Riders" came to Florida.

Football games — free ones, at that — are scarce this time of year, but Sanford grid fans can see a practice contest between teams of Seminole High School at 4:15 p. m. Friday at Memorial Stadium.

"I am clear in my mind exactly what I will do, but I will wait for the occasion to arise before saying anything more," he said.

City crews got started today on renovation of the city commissioners' room and it will be modernized and made more comfortable for citizens appearing at the meetings.

Direct Dial System Tested In Preview Sanford Event

The climax of many months work will be reached Sunday at 2:01 a. m. when Southern Bell cuts the Sanford dial office into the vast national dialing system.

Southern Bell officials say today that with the new system in operation, Sanford telephone users with one or two party lines can dial directly some 45,000,000 telephones in 365 exchanges throughout the nation.

A banquet was held Wednesday night in celebration of the forthcoming conversion. The banquet was attended by approximately 30 city, county and telephone officials. Local newspaper and radio representatives also were present.

Casselberry Seats New Alderman

Casselberry's Board of Aldermen spent a brief 15-minute session Wednesday called to certify the May 15 election results and to administer the oath of office to its new member, Paul Bates.
