FRANCE TO BE HEARD FIRST IN NAVAL PARLEY

Global-Tonnage Proposals Will Be Considered At Session Set For Thursday

LONDON, Jan. 25—(AP)—Under the leadership of the American delegation plenipotentiaries were made late today to let the whole world listen in through the press at all future plenary meetings of the naval conference, greatly expanding previous arrangements. It was decided in American insistence that seats be given in the conference room at James' Palace to 70 reporters representing all nations.

LONDON, Jan. 25—(AP)—French global tonnage proposals were put at the head of the naval conference agenda today but Italian counterproposals also will be given there during the first session of the full conference called for Thursday morning at 10 o'clock.

PROHIBITION MEN MUST BE DRY TO HOLD THEIR JOBS

Mitchell To Insist On Abstinence Among Enforcement Group

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—Rehabilitated alcoholics and those definitely opposed to prohibition in principle are considered safe candidates by the Hoover administration in federal offices directly connected with the operation of violation of the dry statutes.

In light of the persistent corruption and practices of alcoholism among members of the enforcement United States attorney and procurators are being encouraged to insist that before appointment they be recommended to the president by the Justice department.

This was revealed by Attorney General Mitchell in a letter addressed to the House judiciary committee, which is now studying the Williams bill to consolidate the enforcement agencies.

The letter had been written by a friend of the attorney general whose name was not given in detail, although it was known that Mitchell will follow the same course in selecting men for his department of justice.

All the delegations expressed satisfaction after the Bus Pro had adjourned. Dino Grandi, Italian foreign minister who has been urging Italian peace with France, and he felt Italy had received recognition even if Italy was in secondary place on the agenda.

The decision for an adjournment on Thursday was reached on a motion introduced by Henry L. Stimson, the American secretary of state. Some opposition had been expressed, but Secretary Wilson insisted that as many delegations were to be present.

Great Britain Joins World Court Today

London, Jan. 25—(AP)—Great Britain today volunteered itself to continue its position in the permanent court of justice national judiciary, known as the world court, and was allowed to present arguments before the tribunal of the behalf of any other member.

Publishing the results of the general election, the legal government of Stanley Baldwin and in a night session of the common assembly, formally ratified the option clause of the convention of 1928. The signature of the prime minister followed on the part of the government of the United Kingdom.

LAW IS UPHELD

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—The North Carolina law forbidding banks underwriting railroad bonds was upheld by the Supreme Court today. It was brought by Dr. W. M. Murphy, chairman of the Farmers Bank and Trust Company of Winston-Salem, N.C., thereby affording a judgment of the lower court.

KILLED IN COLLISION

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 25—(AP)—H. A. Huff, 47, Miami physician, was killed and Mrs. and Mrs. Robert Grubbs, Miami Shores, his daughter and son-in-law were injured when an auto and a truck driven by Robert Kosef of Miami met this morning. Kosef, owner of a lumber business and the husband of Mrs. and Mrs. Grubbs, is reported to be not serious.

CORRECTION

In the Milne Theater's mid-Saturday issue of "The Herald," mailings were listed as 10 and 15 cents. This was a typographical error and the price should have read in an 11 and 15 cent meeting would be held.

EMPLOYMENT INCREASES

WASHINGTON, Jan. 25—(AP)—President Hoover said today that reports to the department of labor showed an increase in employment for the week ending Jan. 14 of 3.3 per cent over the preceding week.

7 Die When Flames Burn Little Shack

FREDERICK, Md., Jan. 25—(AP)—Seven persons, four children and three adults, died when a fire swept through a two-room shack near the Sheepfoot Mill, Mrs. Paul Marquette, her five children, ranging in ages from 14 months to 16 years, and Ernest L. Nequin, a mason, lost their lives. Marquette discovered the fire, broke in the shack through a window and was forced to death trying to reach the family. The fire is believed to have started in an unoccupied room. The father of the family was working up the slope near a right-of-way. The dead: Mrs. Pauline Martin, 23; Ernestine, 12 months; Ernestine, 10 years; Ernestine, 4 years; Ernestine, 3 years; Ernestine, 2 years; Ernestine, 1 year; Ernestine, 1 month. All were members of the Marquette family.

MEETING HELD LAST NIGHT BY HEADS OF CITY

Many Matters Com-
Before Commission
Holding First Night
Parley At City Hall

At the last-minute meeting of the City Commissioners held last night in their office in the City Hall three resolutions were adopted, two ordering the demolition of buildings on Park Avenue near North Street, to be demolished and removed, and a third concerning debris clearance, authorizing the high-motor department to remove debris from the street.

Two complaints were filed against the city, one by a citizen concerning debris removal and another by a property holder who alleged that the city was not doing its duty in removing debris from the street.

Following the Commission's resolution, City Attorney H. C. Williams, who is investigating the conduct of the police, presented his findings to the commissioners.

Williams' report, which was submitted to the commissioners, indicated that the police had been guilty of numerous violations of the constitution.

In light of the persistent corruption and practices of alcoholism among members of the enforcement United States attorney and procurators are being encouraged to insist that before appointment they be recommended to the president by the Justice department.

SARAZEN LEADS SHARKEY INVITES GOLFERS IN CASH LOUGHREN TO AID HIM IN TRAINING

Little New York Pro Has Won $11,500 In Profitable Season

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—(AP)—Gen. Sarazen, stocky New Yorker, may have won the most money but the real leader of the winter golfing troupe is young Horton Smith of Joplin, Mo.

"Thanks to his victory in the rich Agua Caliente open, Sarazen, former open title-holder, has enjoyed the most profitable winter of all his golfing brethren with cash prizes aggregating close to $11,500. Smith, however, has given a sensational display of consistently brilliant play ever since the troupe left for the West late last Fall.

In the eight major winter tournaments in which he has played, the Joplin professional has won three, placed second and tied for second twice. And in compiling this impressive record Smith has earned nearly $3,500.

Sarazen did not follow the same trail as the majority of the pros. He won $600 by finishing fourth in the Hawaiian open; jumped back to Florida to win the Miami open and $750, and then snared the nice prize of $10,000 in the Agua Caliente open.

Smith, on the other hand, played in practically all of the golfers' tournaments and nearly always with conspicuous success.

He won the Pasadena, Berkeley, and Portland, Ore., events placed second to Craig Wood in the Hawaiian open and tied for second at Agua Caliente and in the Los Angeles open.

There were two big money winners but some of the others did not badly at all. Al Espinoza of Chicago, won about $4,400 by tying Smith for second at Agua Caliente and finishing fourth in the Los Angeles open. Denny Shute, young Columbus, Ohio, won $300 by finishing sixth in the Pasadena open and then added $2,500 to his bankroll by capturing the Los Angeles open. Olin Dutra of Los Angeles, tied for first in the Long Beach open, placed second in the Catalina Island open and tied for second in the Agua Caliente event for prizes of about $3,000.

Radio Staff Thanks Local Grower For Recent Celery Gift At Sunday Meeting

During the broadcasting of the Sanford hour, every station WDBB of Orlando on the night of Jan. 13, Otto Schmid, Sanford celery grower, sent a wire to the radio station stating that he would send a crate of celery to the city of WDBB as a token of his appreciation and enjoyment of the program.

A letter from Col. George Johnston, president of the Orlando Broadcasting Company, received by The Herald this morning disclosed the fact that the crate of celery had been received and that the broadcasters wished to thank the sender.

The letter is as follows:

Dear Sirs:

On Jan. 25, your Editor, The Sanford Herald, Sanford, Florida,

Dear Sirs:

On the occasion of the recent Sanford program came kind words from your station WDBB stating that it would send us a crate of the famous celery.

We gave the telegram to one of the senior ladies from Sanford together with the other telegram and hence we waited. However, for many days nothing was done. But at an late the celery arrived at the station and it was wonderful and delicious, and we wish to express the appreciation of the entire staff of WDBB for the wonderful crate of celery.

It is with the hope that you will be able to convey our thanks to the persons who so kindly sent the celery that we are sending this letter to you. With kindest personal regards, I am,

Very truly yours,

George C. Johnson.

SHARKEY INVITES GOLFERS IN CASH LOUGHREN TO AID HIM IN TRAINING

Believes Lightheady Is Just Man To Limber Him Up For Bout

MIAMI, Fla., Jan. 27.—(AP)—Johnny Buckley, manager for Jack Sharkey, reached deep down into the bag of Ballyhoo today and drew forth an invitation for Tommy Loughran to help train Sharkey for his heavyweight elimination bout with Phil Scott in the second "battle of the palms" here Feb. 27.

Mr. Buckley assured that his plan was no idle jest. Instead, he proclaimed the former light-heavyweight champ on ballyhoo a semi-finalist with Pierre Charles of Belgium in Madison Square Garden's winter spectacle here, was just the man to limber the Boston fighter up to Snot's 32nd of delays.

"Jack wants Tommy to help him, as the only American contender in the heavyweight title ranks," Buckley explained. "I called Joe Smith, Tommy's manager, last night and put the proposition to him but he wanted a chance to talk it over with Loughran."

The Boston fighter's manager rejected the suggestion but he agreed that a second night have been made in connection with a similar proposal already made to Max Schmeling Saturday night by Jimmy Johnston Scott's manager.

"Jack is persistent about it," he continued. "He believes that Loughran can put him in better shape than any sparing partner."

Mr. Buckley's plan is accepted by Loughran and his manager enthused. Tommy would box in three rounds a day in the shadow camp, although the two would maintain separate camps.

Frank Bruen, general manager of Madison Square Garden's second winter campaign in the Miami area, said he was unable to make the proposal. Bruen had planned to scatter training camps generally through more popular Miami as the winter show gets under way, however, and consideration of the Sharkey and Loughran camps would bring alteration of the schedule.

BIBLE VERSE FOR TODAY

Children, obey your parents
in the Lord; for this is right.
Honour thy father and thy mother,
that ye may live long upon the earth,
and have a good report before God.

John 14:16.

Prayer

Father, we thank Thee for our parents and for their love,
and for their care and protection.

Little Dreams

By Alice Michael

They beg for speech, the little ones.

They whisper in my brain,
They beg for life, their living
in me.

They long, they wait, as but
for me.

And light as misted spray,
To the moment on the lips
Before they drift away.

The little dreams of love and life.

Those shadows, rainbow-light
In the soft flight will life their wings.

Would in the sky delight,

And sometimes a little dream
With an hour life shines,
Caught in a whole life glow, and
With moments new and fine.

It is difficult for a man who has an upright life to make a nesting of himself.

BEAUX ARTS BALL BRILLIANT EVENT IN GOTHAM'S LIFE

Scenes Of Modern Affair Breath Atmosphere Of Long Ago

By Adelaide Kerr
Associated Press Staff Writer
NEW YORK, Jan. 28.—(AP)—Among Manhattan's playpeople in a modern Broadway hotel some New Yorkers moved last Friday night through scenes that recalled days of the days when former the Magnificent, said Florida and the social scene to follow.

As kings and queens, amazons and artists, beggars appeared their dandies and parades in the Astor's Ballroom, decorated with the colors and gold trappings of Fifteenth Century Italy in home of the Beau Arts Ball.

The efforts of kings, the pains of the nobles, the scenes of the romances with Mr. Apolonia and Bettina and the Queen intended to lay their seat of skins of all were all reproduced. And moving through the scenes giving them to see the New Yorkers strayed in the anteroom and rooms of French and Italian dress, the first night of 200 years.

Hundreds of thousands of dollars were spent for the costumes and pageants, some of which and designers labored for months on the designs and hundreds of hours to make the costumes look like they had been created into the Renaissance spirit of the ball.

Now were those who were interested in this affair. On Broadway where theaters have blazed and been engrossed in the affairs of other Manhattanites, returned to the arrival of the glitzed-out nobility and their belatedly faded. Flashlights, to add traffic and the cameras, caused a better view from which the eyes of blue-blooded citizens than them in church.

Inside the hotel, the ball rooms were transformed scenes of medieval elegance. The ball room was filled with dancing with places of honor, gold down over with gaudy fabrics, the walls decorated with paintings, the ceiling with a mural of the artist, the floor with a carpet.

At midnight, the regular session of the ball was the greater number of stars in the sky and the long and short of society.

2 ADS For The PRICE of ONE!

Old Man Opportunity is knocking again and this time it's a special and unique idea that is certain to profit every one who takes advantage of it.

Here's the plan—simple as A-B-C—insert an ad between now and next Saturday and get another of equal size free, to run the same number of times as the paid ad! For instance, if you insert a paid ad to run two weeks, you get a free ad of the same size to run two weeks also. Both ads must start at the same time.

This is a double-header opportunity that will enable advertisers to make a profit at small cost—remember it only lasts a week!
