The best gift for your motor 365 days of the year!

Keep your new car motor at peak performance with Motaloy. New cars should be Motaloyed immediately to insure continued top performance for the life of the engine. The steady accumulation of lead deposits (common in most gasolines) in the combustion chamber of your motor and on the tips of your spark plugs, is the chief cause of pre-ignition and spark plug misfiring. It is one of the major causes of poor motor performance. MOTALOY COUNTERACTS THIS ACTION.

OLD CARS Older models, due to their greater deposits of lead and carbon, need Motaloy even more so to retain their original efficiency. The slushing of fuel (gasoline or diesel) over these tabs creates a Chemical Motaloy gas solution. The chemical remains in suspension in the fuel, passes through the fuel system and has absolutely no effect on anything until it reaches the flashfire and intense heat in the combustion chambers of the engine. Its first action is to completely and absolutely clear all hard, crusty carbon from the interiors of combustion chambers down to the skirt of each piston (including oil ring slots). Then it sets to work filling in all scored, scratched or pitted places and building up worn surfaces on the cylinder walls, pistons, ring faces, valve faces, stems and guides with a friction proof tin plating—AT TOLERANCES NO HUMAN HAND CAN DUPLICATE (because it is being done under ideal conditions—intense heat and moving parts) while you drive.

NATIONALLY ADVERTISED—Colliers, Saturday Evening Post, Christian Science Monitor, Popular Mechanics, American Weekly, Argosy, True, Holiday, Ford Dealer News, All Florida Magazine and leading newspapers.

1. Simply drop four Motaloy tabs in vehicle's gas tank. That's all!

2. In driving, Motaloy goes into "suspension" in gasoline.

3. The gasoline-Motaloy solution passes into engine's combustion chambers.

4. Flash fire and heat start Motaloy working to remove carbon deposits.

5. Motaloy metalplates worn, pitted surfaces on cylinders, rings, valves.

'Sanford In Atomic Age' Subject Of Rotary Talk

Anderson Reports To Market Director On Status Of Sales

"Our bean market was depressed for most of the week, but we had a fairly good report period with quite a tonnage going to canners and dehydrators," Manager Sandy Anderson of the Sanford State Farmers' Market pointed out in his weekly report to L. H. Lewis, Director of the Florida State Farmers' Markets.

"Beans continue to lead in volume followed by celery, cucumbers, citrus fruit and iceberg lettuce. Sales totaled 46,813 packages at a gross valuation in excess of $100,000."

"Lack of cold damage to fruit and vegetables, the apparent beneficial effects of the cold on straw berries at Plant City, the good acceptance of vine-ripened tomatoes in eight and 10 pound cartons at Pompano, the excellence of the quality of tomatoes at Fort Pierce, are the highlights of this week's market reports," Director Lewis stated.

"The news of no damage to strawberry plantings in Florida's big winter strawberry production area certainly is good. Average is reported a little heavier than last year, many of the fields are in good condition with a good deal of bloom showing," Lewis said.

CAPT. R. W. JACKSON

Captain Jackson Speaker

Problem Simple, Listeners Told

The Commanding Officer of the Naval Auxiliary Air Station in Sanford spoke to the Rotary Club today at its noon luncheon meeting.

Capt. Robert W. Jackson addressed the local civic club on the subject, "Sanford In The Atomic Age."

Capt. Jackson said, "The great problem facing the United States is in its essence, simple. Can we meet the needs of the world from fulfilling its potential? His intention is to drive the United States from power and influence in Eurasia, to isolate the United States on this continent, and to deal with us by its own good time from the huge bomb he would then control.

"In the enemy making progress toward his goal," Capt. Jackson reminded his Rotary audience, "Today we appear to be at a resting point between rounds but I believe he is still making important progress."

Giving the word picture of the military position confronting us, Captain Jackson explained the "spirit of the offensive" which is undertaken now by leaders and forces together, and the manner in which it was instituted.

Capt. Jackson explained the term "spirit of the offensive" as the "spirit of youthfulness." He said, "The spirit of the offensive is a willingness to take calculated risks for victory. It is a spirit of dedication and selflessness which thinks more about victory than it does about numbers or size."

His explanation continued, "The spirit of the offensive is an aggressive spirit but not a belligerent one. It is not one which starts wars; but once started with them, it is a spirit of initiative, of innovation, and of experimentation. It is a spirit subdued and guided by sensible doctrine. Most of all, it is a spirit which says that nothing less than victory is acceptable. And finally, it is a spirit based on confidence, knowledge and experience."

Capt. Jackson's address concluded, "Today the 'spirit of the offensive' based on the same confidence, knowledge and experience, exists right here in Sanford. On next weekend we set our tank traps in the area over St. Louis."

Seven Autos Involved In Saturday Accident

Seven cars and eight injured was the final tally Saturday morning when Florida Highway Trooper T. Mark Mack completed his investigation of a collision at the intersection of State Road 600 (17-92) and State Road 436 (Glass Fountain).

Trooper Mack said that a heavy fog and smoke which had drifted over the highway for the distance of approximately a mile was the chief cause of the freak accident. The smoke, he said, came from a truck fire some distance from the highway.

Here's the way Trooper Mack described the incident: A 1931 Ford, driven by Russell Knight, 24-year-old Jacksonville man, was traveling south about five to 10 miles per hour, was in collision with a 1934 Ito Semi, traveling north on 17-92, driven by John Norman Miller, 38-year-old truck driver of Hooper, N. C.

Report Of Missing Made By Mother Of 14-Year-Old Boy

A 14-year-old negro boy has been reported missing from his home since Saturday, according to his mother, Bernice McKinney.

The boy, Robert Lee McKinney, is said to have been wearing a brown jacket, brown trousers and black shoes when last seen Saturday night.

Bernice McKinney said today, just before noon, that the missing youngster has been reported to the Sanford Police Department and to the Seminole County Sheriff's office.

The boy weighs approximately 130 pounds, the mother said, and is about 5 feet tall.

He attends Cross Academy and is in the 10th grade. He did not report to school this morning, according to latest reports.

The boy lives on Rt. 2, Box 215, in Midway and the home phone number is 1237-B. The mother asks that if anyone knows the whereabouts of her son that it be reported to the Sanford Police Department, the Seminole County Sheriff's office or by calling her.

Controversy Caused By Collection Fee

The new refuse collection fee appearing on the city service bill for the first time has caused considerable controversy during the past three weeks.

The ordinance was passed by the commission to be effective Oct. 1, 1955, and billed starting on the November 1, 1955 billing. There was very little comment when the ordinance appeared in the paper; news articles were written and discussions were held over the radio.

The need of additional revenue was apparent to the commission with the request for the public refuse street resurfacing. The request was the result of the recent resurfacing by the City of East First Street and Sanford Avenue at a cost of over $27,000. A proposed plan calls for 7.78 miles of resurfacing at an estimated cost of $41,000. Such a resurfacing program had not been undertaken since the late 1920's. The proposed streets to be resurfaced are 25th Street from Park to French, Laurel and Elm Ave. from 24th to 26th Street, Mayfair section, Mellonsville Ave. 20th St. Palmelle Ave. from 25th to 26th St. and Sunnyside Ave. from Celery Ave. to 25th St. There is little question by anyone driving an automobile as to the need of a street program for Sanford. However, such a program, while progressive, is costly.

The needed revenue could have been obtained by a 2 to 2 1/2 cent increase of the tax rate. This method would have had the commercial and business property owners paying the major share of the program since this type of property does not receive homestead exemption. Since nearly everyone uses the city streets, it appeared much fairer to distribute the cost by means of a service charge. In this way, the large number of property holders that are exempt from taxes because of homestead exemption would bear their proportionate share of the cost of a program that they also use.

Although any additional service charges or fees are unpopular, the entire City Commission voted for the plan as being in the best interests of the City and because it was more equitable to all. This resulted in the ordinance establishing the following rates:

Refuse collection fees and the monthly rates assessed: Residence, churches, lodges, nurseries, $1.00. Residence—apt., residential—rooms, duplex, $1.50. Business, business—tailor, business—quarters, business—apts, business—lodge, quarters, quarters—residence, schools, tourist court trailer park, hotel, hospital, $3.00. Apartments, $3.50.

Such an ordinance is not uncommon. Similar service fees are already being charged in neighboring communities.

The rates are based on daily pickups for most of the business property and three pickups per week (two garbage and one trash) for residential property. Realizing that an ordinance can not be drawn to fit each account, with over 4,000 accounts, and that extreme circumstances might surround particular accounts, the City Commission will review individual accounts upon written application for statement stating the reasons for requesting an abatement. The authority to abate the service charge rests with the Commission and not with the clerks or officials. If it is felt by an individual that a request should be made, it should be remembered that the service charge was made in order to avoid raising taxes and to share the cost burden of helping to make Sanford progressive and attractive.

A fact, that may be scoffed at by many, is the public statement made by the City Commission that the service charge is definitely only a temporary charge. The Commission does not intend this charge to become "temporarily permanent" as several state and federal taxes appear to be now.

Property Owners Receive Letters From Utility Dept.

A letter, from the City of Sanford's Utility Department, is being delivered to property owners concerned.

However, in order to completely inform those who are concerned with sewer taps and new sewer lines that are being installed, the letter is being published.

"On Nov. 21, 1955, the City Commission adopted the following policy in regards to sewer taps. As the City forces construct new sewer lines, the residents shall be allowed to make sewer taps for the sum of $25.00. This privilege will be for a period of sixty (60) days from the date of availability of the sewer line for use. After this period, the fee shall return to the normal charge of $80.00.

This shall constitute a notice to the residents, whose property is within seventy-five (75) feet of the sewer line as a notification that the newly constructed line is available for use at the above date. Sixty (60) days from this date the fee will be $50.00 if it is not applied for during this period.

In accordance with the sewer ordinance, all residents within seventy-five (75) feet of an available line are subject to a sewer service charge of a minimum of $1.63 to a maximum of $2.94 per month, based on the water consumed. Said charge will appear on the City service bill following the completion of the installation or sixty (60) days from this date, regardless of whether or not the tap is applied for.

Sever tap applications may be made at the Planning Office in the City Hall.

Also slated to be heard at the annual meeting are Robert Wenz, famous pianist, and the Orlandoans, a barbershop quartet of note from Orlando.

Sheriff's Deputies Named By Cordell; Singletary Is Chief

J. Denver Cordell, newly appointed Seminole County Sheriff, replacing J. Luther Hobby, who was suspended pending a trial on charges of "liquor conspiracy," took over his new duties Friday afternoon at 5 o'clock after Hobby relinquished his office without notification from Governor Leroy Collins.

Cordell announced his deputies when he took over the office. James Singletary, Cordell said, would be his Chief Deputy. Former deputy R. C. E. Pratt will also serve as deputy.

This morning, Sheriff Cordell announced that W. Mansfield "Cotton" Brown has been appointed to serve as a deputy. Brown came to Sanford originally in 1942 when assigned to the local Navy Base and retired from the Navy at the local base last March.

J. Luther Hobby, the suspended sheriff, said today that he has secured William W. Judge of Daytona Beach as counsel to represent him along with J. Herdin Peterson of Lakeland.

Hobby said today that he has returned to the Atlantic Coast Line Railroad to assume his duties there and made his first run yesterday.

Former Chief Deputy O. G. Owens under Hobby, along with State Auditor John Burkett are going through the books of the sheriff's office to close out the records up to the time that Sheriff Cordell took over here.

Ground Observers' Training Exercise Is Held Yesterday

The monthly Ground Observer Corps training exercise "Skytrain IV" commenced at 4 a. m. yesterday and terminated at 8 p. m. the same day.

Every GOC volunteer that participated in the active defense of his country is another link in the chain that is vitally needed to protect the United States from a sneak enemy attack.

The eyes, ears and voices of the American people are urgently needed by the Ground Observer Corps. The defense of your own home town is what the GOC is trying to accomplish but without the help of the civilian volunteers this cannot be properly done.

"All that is asked of the volunteers is their time. Can you spare an hour or so a month to perhaps save your life or someone dear to you? Wake up! Sign up! Look up! Contact the Ground Observer Corps in your town today or write to Civil Defense in care of your county," a spokesman urged.

Constable Galloway Tells Of Arrests Made In His Area

Constable J. O. "Slim" Galloway reported seven arrests over the weekend, in the district which he serves.

Those arrested and charged are: Augustin Rosado, 23, Spanish City, laborer, driving while intoxicated; Santana Tello, 31, 1105 W. 11th St., Sanford, laborer, affray; den; that this emphasis is needed. Churches and church people have often raised their voices in protest of the high tone of the commercialization which has become a part of the Christmas celebration. The sponsors of the parade are to be highly commended for their stand which is indeed a step in the right direction.

Franklin D. Coffman, 22, E. N. driving without a license; Eddie Benjamin, 33, Lake Monroe, assault and battery; Gerald Grands, 24, Sanford, affray; Rennie Dean Smith, 31, assault and battery; and Willie Tucker, Sanford, public intoxication.

"But, is it enough that we adopt Christian slogans and mottoes? Can we put Christ back into Christmas... if we stress the true Christmas story instead of the fantasy...? All our Christmas cards are Scripture text cards... if we think of the spirit of Christmas as the spirit of giving... if we pledge ourselves in worthy Christmas charities... if we make a more concerted effort to be faithful to our churches during the Christmas season... there is no question but that a great deal would be accomplished if we diligently and conscientiously follow all these suggestions."

"In Ephesians we find the reason for Christmas. It is that Christ might fill all things." This phrase gives us the answer to the question "How can we put Christ back into Christmas?" He must fill our Christmas programming in the church... our Christmas planning in the home... our Christmas singing, worshiping, giving. Most of all he must fill ourselves. Christ will never be back into Christmas until He is first of all filling those who celebrate Christmas."

Pastor Perry L. Stone of the First Christian Church preached Sunday morning on "Belonging to the Church" using as text Acts 12:1, 2, 4:8-9. "About that time Herod the king had violent hands upon some who belonged to the church. He killed James the brother of John with the sword." The minister said "It is a compliment to the energy and zeal of James as a champion of the Christian cause that when Herod determined to carry away with his subjects by persecuting the Christians he laid violent hands on James and put him to death, making him the first apostle martyr. It really cost something for James to belong to the church."

"Nominal church membership costs nothing and means nothing. It is a mere token of respectability. But if we really belong to the church we cheerfully acknowledge its prior claims upon our time, abilities and income. Meaningful membership involves growth in grace and knowledge, intimacy of fellowship, and the giving of self. James gave his life for his church. We complete our following Christ with a little sacrifice of money, effort and hours."

poor visibility pulled over to stop at the time he was hit.

He was behind a 1953 Allstate, driven by Jennette Lewis, 42-year-old Orlando woman who had also stopped.

The Mercury bounced off the Allstate and went through a heavy hedge and yard of Harry Russell's, smashing into the Russell house and then into a 1948 International pickup truck parked in the yard.

As an aftermath to the collision, a 1953 Buick, driven by Roy Allen McAnelly, 36-year-old Navy man of VAH 9, Sanford Naval Auxiliary Air Station, was headed north and stopped at the scene of the collision and was hit in the rear by a 1953 Chevrolet driven by Charlotte Moseley of Orlando. Trooper Mack said she wasn't able to stop her car in time to prevent the crash.

Injured in the collision were: James H. Walline, 71, Orlando, underminded injuries to the neck; Laura Walling, 66, Orlando, lacerations of the left leg; Russell Knight, 21, Jacksonville, lacerations of right forehead; Glenn Knight, 1, very minor scalp wound; Mrs. Joyce Knight, 19, Jacksonville, severe and multiple lacerations to the face and possible fractures of the body; Mrs. Sara Millington, 40, Jacksonville, serious and multiple lacerations of the face and possible internal injuries; Mrs. Frances Middleton, 47, Jacksonville, minor abrasions to face and knee; and Mrs. Bonnie L. Beech, minor abrasions to knee, contusions to chin and chest.

Damages, when estimated, were as follows: to the Allstate, $35; the International pickup, $15; Mercury, $500; Ford, $300; to the Buick and Chevrolet, $1,500. The overall total damage was $1,800.

Trooper Mack filed charges at the sheriff's office of "reckless driving" against John Norman Miller, the driver of the truck. Miller said, at the sheriff's office, that "visibility was no more than ten feet."

The accident occurred at 6:25 a. m. Saturday morning.

Gasoline sales and gasoline tax collections for the current fiscal year continue to maintain a steady increase over sales and collections of last year. The tax collected in November on October sales of 86,201,886 gallons, amounted to $6,706,160.53, this year, as compared with $5,994,552.51 on 83,430,464 gallons a year ago.

The tax collected in the first five months of this fiscal year totals $33,950,233.39, which is four million dollars greater than in the same period last year, an increase of over 13 percent. If this increase continues as we expect it to, gasoline tax collections will outstrip last year's revenue from this source by close to ten million dollars, said Ray E. Green, State Comptroller.

"The tax collected in November on October sales in Seminole County amounted to $44,992.09 and we are distributing $18,436.13 of gasoline tax money to this county for road building purposes," said Green.

Case Of Reluctant Organist, Spinster Ended In Court

CHICAGO — The case of the reluctant church organist and the spinning spinster has ended in court.

The spinster was victorious in court but if she still is bent on hobnobbing to the organist's soothing hymns, she may have to hire a detective to find him.

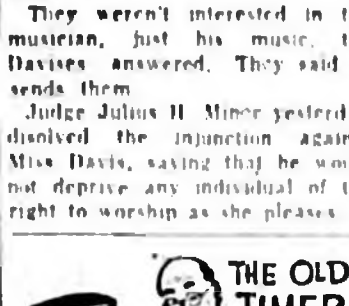

The case began nine months ago when organist Robert J. Metzler, 30, obtained an injunction to prevent Miss Harriet Davis, 35, and her mother Helle, 55, from attending any church where he was working.

Metzler complained the mother and daughter sat in front pews and stared at him. This made him fidgety and he skipped notes in hymns. When he quit one job to get away from them, he said, the Davises followed him to a church 20 miles away in suburban Glenview.

They weren't interested in the musician, just his music, the Davises answered. She said it sends them to heaven.

Judge Julius H. Miner yesterday dissolved the injunction against Miss Davis, saying that he would not deprive any individual of the right to worship as she pleased.

Headlines That Praise County More Beneficial To Community

Seemingly, the continued pilfering of public funds is one of the philosophies of the modern trend.

We are not criticizing any one person, or even a group of persons, for without all of the facts surrounding the incidents, we cannot bring the burden upon anyone's shoulder.

It stands to reason, however, that the citizens of the community demand that persons of unparalleled honesty be allowed to handle the monies that are paid in to the coffers of the community fund by them.

The Board of County Commissioners immediately released the person involved in the alleged misuse of misappropriation of the money named in an information filed by the State's Attorney.

This, however, was the second incident within recent years of such a miscarriage of faith placed in employees.

Seminole County, when such things occur, receives only bad publicity in the news columns of papers from one end of the State to the other.

We're much more in favor of headlines that praise or show progress. Certainly, should newspapers carry such stories as "one million dollar project started", "new roads through county", "industry moves to Seminole County", "giant expansion planned", would create in the citizens mind, not only trust in its government, faith in the people that are carrying out plans that taxes provide, and implicit belief in the employees that serve the government, but also produce a willingness to bear the burden of a tax necessary for a bigger and better county.

If there were such an instrument as a "dead microscope" to view every move made by employees, one should be secured for use of our governing bodies. But, in place of that instrument, there should be a thorough security of every avenue where

This is the season that brings petty thieves into our midst. With crowded streets, stores, and unlocked automobiles, comes the opportunity for the professional thief to make a big haul. Watch for pickpockets, purse snatchers, and automobiles pilferers. Don't handle your money carelessly and openly, and don't carry it where these law-breakers can get to it easily.

The newly commissioned sheriff, Mayor J. Denver Cordell, has taken over the sheriff's office. Certainly he wants the cooperation and support of every citizen in the county. Whatever your thoughts might be in the matter of the sheriff's office, law enforcement is a necessity for our county community and without your complete support this is impossible.

CofC Annual Meeting

One of the most important events in our community is the Annual Meeting of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce. It is at this meeting that a summary will be given of all of the accomplishments of your Chamber of Commerce for the years just passed.

To keep up with the continuing chain of events that lead to the growth of your community is just as important as keeping up with your own business and its growth within the community.

Not only do you hear of these accomplishments, but you also hear nationally important speakers, entertainers, and authorities.

Your fellow citizens who work hard on committee assignments, are proud of what they have done to broaden the accomplishments of the citizen and business supported agency of the community.

The annual meeting is an event of tomorrow evening at the Mayfair Inn, and whatever you have planned should include your attendance at the banquet and the meeting.

There is a place for you there.

Are you making plans to be away from home for the Christmas Holidays? What we are asking is this: in your plans, be sure to include enough time to make your trip safely. Every citizen of our community is a valuable one and we don't want anyone injured or killed because of a traffic mishap. Speed is one of the greatest causes of accidents.

One little bitty Santa Claus drew lots and lots of attention during the Annual Christmas Parade staged in Sanford last Wednesday. It was refreshing to see the superb performance of the youngster produced for the benefit of his onlookers throughout the parade route.

The new idea of a flower show, arranged and planned by the Sanford Garden Club, was certainly an inspiration. We couldn't believe that as many beautiful combinations of flowers could be arranged. This should certainly be an annual event.

The Sanford Police Department will have its hands full for the Christmas Season in the handling of traffic in the downtown shopping area. The trouble has already started. Each motorist can lend a helping hand here, and perform a service to the community by being patient, and by observing all traffic regulations of the city.

After months and months of planning, the municipal parking lot is taking shape and will soon be open to the public. This is another important step toward solving our downtown parking problem. We hope that shoppers will take advantage of the convenience provided them in this modern step by the City Fathers.

Did you notice the picture we carried the other day when a huge check was presented to our Tax Collector for County Taxes? Private industry provides an income for our community and this is just one of the many sources of revenue. Take these funds away and the burden on the smaller taxpayer becomes greater.

World Always Merry-Go-Round

NEW YORK (AP) — Curbside reflections of a pavement Plato. The world has always been a merry-go-round. It still is.

Looking at the present merry-go-round, what do we find? Let us go around the world, starting with the American.

The American doesn't feel the need of war. He is enjoying the highest level of individual and national prosperity ever achieved in the history of mankind. To defend that happiness, however, he feels at heart ready, willing and able to deal death to any quarter of the globe that threatens him. He hopes he'll never have to fight again—but he'll fight. And he'll fight on.

The English, following their modern pattern, concede in advance that their situation is hopeless militarily. They are reconciled to a fight in which they will never really give up.

The Frenchman, individual as ever, takes pride in his empire overseas but refuses to be drafted to defend it. As his hired soldiers from abroad dwindle, his empire will dwindle. Meanwhile, he'll claim a hold on the world's culture.

The German, having learned his lesson, is as always ready to fill the nearest gap of power, then fall to pondering whether, after all, he couldn't really win a world—if he could fight in only one direction at a time.

The Russian is trying to do everything. He is trying to be, above all, militarily self contained. He wants to keep a foot on Germany, build housing for his masses, create and maintain the world's largest war machine, and put Red China on the back at the same time he feels for a weak spot he may use later.

The Chinese are riding the peak of their wave. In their land revolution climbs a red throne, and reaches from yesterday toward today.

Crowded India yearns to be the fulcrum, the balance point between the East and West, but vast China holds out the crimson band of bargaining.

Prices Continuing Upward Trend

NEW YORK (AP) — Prices continue their upward trend. The increases are slight and so far consumers have scarcely noted them. The touch of inflation, in fact, tends to add to the glow of the business boom by swelling the dollar volume of production and sales.

The consumer hasn't minded much because the one price he worries most about—the price of food—hasn't been touched yet. But meat prices may have about hit bottom now. Government forecasts stress that rising prices of livestock are to be expected as the season of heavy marketing ends. Price advances this week have been announced for shoes and carpets, for some steel products, copper, tin and silver. Transit fares and commuting costs rise here and there.

The oil industry, although it has unused capacity, is debating a price rise in crude oil. A number of steel men stress that further rises in that basic commodity are in order.

In almost all instances the price hikes have been blamed on rising costs of materials or labor or distribution, or of all three.

A little inflation actually has widespread popular appeal. It's likely to make times look a little better than they are.

Deflation, on the other hand, brings out immediate squawks. Witness the current rookus over credit restraint curbs and the decline in home building.

People shopping for new homes noted right away that repayments weren't as easy, that interest rates were higher.

Price increase in goods and services, on the other hand, have not stirred consumers much. For one thing, the price gains started at the manufacturing level. An increase in the price of a ton of steel leaves consumers cold. It's only after the price hike has added to the cost of making a car, and the auto manufacturers raise prices on the new models that the public takes note.

Now that price rises are beginning to appear at the finished goods level, consumers still aren't much moved, because retail competition is so keen that the good shopper feels he can always find a bargain.

But probably the chief reason the average consumer is undisturbed by the price hikes so far as that his own personal income is likely to be higher now than a year ago. Consumers, with dough in their pockets, don't wince too much at price tags these days.

Gelatin Strengthens Brittle Fingernails

By MERRILL H. ROBERTS, D.D.S.

DO your fingernails split and peel easily? Then here's a tip—try some unflavored gelatin.

Splitting fingernails are a warning problem for many women, especially housewives. For some time now, relatively little has been done by medical science to relieve brittle nails.

But tests conducted by two doctors in Bridgeport, Connecticut, show that unflavored gelatin apparently has great value in preventing nails from splitting and peeling.

Daily doses (7 grams) of this gelatin in a glass of water, fruit juice or milk halted the affliction in all but eight of 36 women who took part in the survey, according to Dr. Saul Rosenberg and Kurt A. Oster.

Of the eight who were not helped, three discontinued the treatments and the five others had other health problems.

Noted Improvement

While some women noted improvement after the first month, the best was carried out over a three month period, the approximate time required to grow new nails.

You can take your daily quota of gelatin in any of several ways. Simply tear 7 gram envelopes into three-fourths of a glass of water, tomato juice, orange juice or other juices, stir and drink.

If you want to take it in milk, mix the unflavored gelatin in one glass of whole milk, or mix it thoroughly with 2 to 6 tablespoons of instant nonfat dry milk in a glass, fill with cold water, stir and drink.

The gelatin will not dissolve if served cold, but the soft particles will be dispersed in the liquid.

Yokes Hot

It can be taken hot in bouillon or broth. Empty an envelope of unflavored gelatin into one-fourth cup of cold water to soften. Then add 1 bouillon cube and three-fourths cup of boiling water, stir until the gelatin is dissolved.

If you wish, you can substitute three-fourths of a cup of any very hot broth for the bouillon cube and hot water.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

D. W.: Can you tell me what can be done to help Morton's toe or bunion?

Answer: A strip of leather about 1/2 inch wide and 1/4 inch thick, placed along the width, on the outside of the shoe, at the ball of the foot, has been found to give relief in this condition.

Spirit Of Christmas' Theme Carried Out In First Yuletide Flower Show

The first Christmas Show sponsored by the Sanford Federal Garden Club came to a very successful end last night at 7 p. m. in the Mayfair Inn.

Using the theme "Let's Keep the Spirit of Christmas" throughout all the arrangements the event could be termed one of the best ever held. One of the most pleasing and noticeable things was the lovely Christmas music which formed a fitting background for the show.

Mrs. George Warden captured the show's tri-color award in artistic arrangements with Mrs. Irwin Fleischer winning the tri-color in horticulture. Mrs. J. E. Terwilliger Jr. won the sweepstakes in artistic arrangements and Mrs. Barney Beck in horticulture.

Mrs. Fred Ganas, show chairman, announced that the sweepstakes competition was so close that the committees resorted to a point system to determine a winner. Runners up were Mrs. George Warden, Mrs. C. W. Baker and Ben Wiggins.

Joshua Chase, son of Mr. and Mrs. Randall Chase was the shrub winner of the tri-color in the junior division. He is seven years old and a student at Southside school. His winner was an apple Santa Claus composed of marshmallows and sweet potatoes along with tooth picks and apples.

The various circles of the club added to the show by selling, on the porch surrounding the hotel, Christmas decorations, plants, Christmas wrappings, plant materials, corsage, and numerous articles. A refreshment booth was set up also and served steaming cups of coffee and slices of fruit cakes. In the lobby, where the coffee table entries were on display, was an unusual exhibit of shells found on Florida beaches. Also very noticeable was a beautiful orchid display which gave an exotic air all its own.

The orchid exhibit was an educational one to show that it is easy to grow orchids in Florida. All orchids donated for this exhibit by were grown by Mrs. Larry Spencer.

Exhibit was made by Palm Circle, Sanford Garden Club; Committee: Mrs. Wallace Gabler, Mrs. Edna Tideman, Mrs. Arthur Watts, Miss Estelle Shiber, and Mrs. Arne Erickson.

Something to make the Driftwood Circle, navy wives, very proud was the fact that the judges through their own comments of clipped palms, Christmas balls, and other greenery, "got the feeling of the whole show". It stood in the center of the lobby and was almost center of attraction.

In the ball room, where the exhibit were on display was an eye catching creation which covered one entire wall. Made up entirely of Florida plants and shrubs it featured a tiny running brook which cascaded down the center. Around the edges were grasses, pine branches and many other varieties.

All arrangements were beautiful and impressive. The rules asked that when necessary the exhibitor writes the inspiration for her entry on the back of her card, which many did.

To the many visitors who poured through the hotel doors to view the lovely creations and arrangements it was a unique way for the Garden Club to say "Merry Christmas."

The sky rodent has captured new generation, this time as host of the weekly ABC TV hour, the Mickey Mouse Club.

Mickey never had it so good. His outside ears are popping up on the heads of kids all over the land; they're buying the mouse hats (29 to 36 cents) at the rate of 24,000 a day. (Whatever happened to conkins?) Two hundred other pieces of merchandise connected with the club are being sold, and more are added daily.

The mouse has captured daytime ratings honors, showing under his major opponents, veterans Howdy Doody and Pinky Lee. A recent survey gave the club a 76 per cent advantage over the opposition in the East.

Judging from the reaction at Walt Disney's studio, parents have mixed feelings about the show:

1. They are delighted to have a show that doesn't insult their children's intelligence

2. They are appalled by the amount of commercials.

As one of the captive audience—our TV set is monopolized from 5 to 6 each weekday—I agree. The show is both entertaining and enlightening, done with as much taste and care as any adult program.

But the commercials! They're enough to drive you nuts. Not only are there three in every 15 minutes. The station also sneaks in these more every 15 minutes at the station break.

The Disney people are just as upset as the public. Walt apparently didn't foresee the excesses of the network; he vows that next year he'll have some control over such matters.

Spotlight On Hollywood

By BOB THOMAS

WOLLYWOOD (AP) — The comeback star of the year is a 27-year-old one time has-been named Mickey Mouse.

The sky rodent has captured new generation, this time as host of the weekly ABC TV hour, the Mickey Mouse Club.

Mickey never had it so good. His outside ears are popping up on the heads of kids all over the land; they're buying the mouse hats (29 to 36 cents) at the rate of 24,000 a day. Someone has said, "New fashions and new jewelry go hand in hand for a beguiling holiday gift." I believe it's true after seeing some of the breath-taking gems and gifts in our local jewelry stores.

KADER'S JEWELRY STORE reminds us there's a double-barreled approach to men's fashion this winter. For men who like their jewelry interesting, dramatic and different the trend is toward larger sizes and greater use of color. For the conservative styled man there are smaller proportions with quiet—but not apologetic—designs and patterns.

It comes the reminder that men's jewelry is in a price range that welcomes budget shoppers. Have you thought of giving him an initial ring. Mr. KADER has many suggestions on what to choose. His silver is exquisite.

WERT JEWELRY STORE points out the fact that with one stroke they can change a smart ensemble into a beautiful one with a delicate jeweled pin or a linked bracelet. Fast gaining in interest are importantly-sized stone rings, either single gems in simple settings or domeshaped ones sprinkled with pinpoints in emerald, sapphire, ruby or diamond. Another delightfully feminine gift is the new Lady Sunbeam Razor which comes in a wide choice of beautiful colors. Put it in layaway.

FRANK NOELL JEWELER says make it a "Watch-ful" Christmas with the smartly designed watches of today. And there are few who won't agree that, large or small, the diamond is one of the magnificent of all gems. People tend to forget that they can buy interesting diamond-set jewelry for far less than one hundred dollars. This comes as a particularly happy reminder just before Christmas, when budget-minded shoppers are looking for something fine and lasting for those very special people on their gift lists. A watch, with a few diamonds set in it and a gold pin centered with a diamond are some of the many attractive pieces available in his store.

CHRISTMAS bells will have to tinkle louder this year if they are to be heard above the musical clamor of the new women's jewelry, according to MARGARET GWALINEY JEWELER, located in the Mather store she can make many suggestions for a spectacular gift because of the wide neckline this winter, the base of the throat necklace is an important accent. In tailored and daytime jewelry styles, a gold-colored metal is a leader, often set with people's voices make your feet tickle."

Circuit Judge Refuses To Answer Question On Collins' Eligibility

Federal Officials Turn Down Request To Probe Till Case

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP)—Federal authorities have turned down Gov. William G. Stratton's request for an investigation of the Emmett Louis Till case in Mississippi.

The Illinois governor yesterday released a letter from Atty. Gen. Herbert Brownell Jr., saying that no federal offense was involved in the case.

Stratton said Brownell told him the only basis for federal jurisdiction would have been if state or local officers had been involved in the crime or if Till had been abducted and taken across state lines.

"All available information, however, indicated that those who perpetrated the offense were private persons and that the kidnapping was confined to the State of Mississippi," Brownell wrote Stratton. "Such being the case, this department is without any authority to take investigative or any other action."

Postcard Poll Said To Favor Warren

TALLAHASSEE (AP)—First returns from a postcard poll to test sentiment on the question of former Gov. Fuller Warren running again were reported to be favorable.

Charles L. Clark, a former administrative assistant to Warren, said the test in Leon County was 85 to 15.

Warren said he was not a candidate.

Clark said he mailed out letters to 15,377 registered voters enclosing postcards; that he received 3,768 replies; that 2,461 were marked "yes" and 888 "no."

Thirteen were indefinite and 276 were returned unopened, he said.

Clark said he mailed the postcards without consulting Warren and paid the expenses himself.

Man Is Questioned On Triple Slaying

PORTLAND, Me. (AP)—Authorities today questioned a 39-year-old Michigan man arrested on a traffic violation charge in connection with the October slaying of three Chicago boys.

Police Chief James Parker of nearby Holly, who arrested him, and two state police detectives said there was no evidence to link Owen Robert Moore of Fenwick, Mich., with the slaying.

Moore is held in Oakland County Jail on a charge of possessing an unregistered firearm. Parker said he found the gun in Moore's car when he arrested him on the traffic charge Saturday.

Parker said Chicago police were "mistaken" in reporting he had told them Moore had signed a triple slaying and added, "I don't know where they got that idea."

Langer Asks Probe Of Dixon-Yates Power Contract

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Langer (R-ND) said today he will present his demand for a public investigation to show whether backers of the now-repudiated Dixon-Yates contract contributed to President Eisenhower's 1952 campaign fund.

In a surprise move yesterday Langer demanded that a Senate Antimonopoly subcommittee on which he serves subpoena Postmaster General Summerfield, who was Republican national chairman in 1952; Sherman Adams, top White House aide; Stephen A. Mitchell, the 1952 Democratic national chairman, and others.

His request was in the form of a handful of resolutions filed with the subcommittee at a public hearing. It is investigating what Chairman Keaganer (D-Tenn.) termed "a criminal side" of the contract negotiation.

Private Services Held At Graveside For Mrs. M. Schaal

Private services were held at the graveside in All Souls Catholic cemetery here yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Mary A. Schaal, 68, who died suddenly in Orlando late Friday. The Rev. Fr. Richard Lyons of All Souls officiated.

A native of Minnesota, where she was born June 21, 1887, Mrs. Schaal came to Sanford in January of 1919 with her husband and three small children. She resided here until mid-1943 when she moved to Orlando where she had lived since except for short residences in Deland, St. Petersburg, Clermont, and Winter Park.

She is survived by three sons, Peter Schaal of Orlando, Carl G. Schaal of Mt. Dora, Raymond M. Schaal of Sanford; two brothers, George Marmor of Vermilion, Minn., and Charles Marmor of Hastings, Minn.; three granddaughters, Brenda, Allison, and Melane Schaal, of Orlando; several nieces and nephews in California and Minnesota.

Area Is Doubled For Trading Post

In order to accommodate the vast crowds that visit the new business on State 6007, said F. Goodwin, owner and operator of the "Super Trading Post," "We have had to double the area of the show room."

"We started our business, Mrs. Goodwin and me, just last January," he said, "and the demand for high grade used furniture has made it necessary for immediate expansion."

However, Goodwin explained in order to take care of our continuing growth and demand, we plan to, very soon, erect a new building with 3,000 square feet of floor space which will be used exclusively for low furniture.

Additional space for the immediate requirements was accomplished by adding another floor to the present building, Goodwin said.

Crackerjack Alert Sounded Yesterday

WASHINGTON (AP)—United States and Canadian air units and volunteer civilian ground observers were rallying today to repel mock "enemy" planes probing for defenses in North America's air defense armor.

A surprise alert—dubbed Operation Crackerjack—sounded late yesterday. The drill was expected to continue three or four days.

Joining in the manuever were units of the U. S. Air Force, Reserve, National Guard, Navy and Marines, plus Canadian forces and some 400,000 members of the Ground Observer Corps.

MOORE, KNOXVILLER TERRY
CHATTANOOGA, TENN. (AP)—Somebody is in the E. W. Peckinpaugh Co. fishing equipment store yesterday and stole $2,000 fish hooks.

A few dozen live minnows were taken.

Christmas Program Awaited

People who previously have attended one of the annual all music Christmas services presented by the Chancel Choir of the First Presbyterian Church are looking forward eagerly to this year's version which will be held at 7:30 p. m. next Sunday. The theme this year revolves around the story of the Nativity and the subsequent adoration of the Christ child in four different settings, according to Mrs. George Touhy, Minister of Music.

There will be nine anthems sung by the 33 voices of the choir and the first five will relate the story of the birth, the significance, the humble surroundings, the adoration and the proclaiming of the Christ.

The second section of the hour of worship gives a musical portrait of Christmas observance in Austria, Portugal, Early America, Modern America and the world over.

The instrumental portion of the service will consist of the Christmas Chimes that begin at 7:25, three organ preludes and an offertory, which will be played by Mrs. Touhy.

Solo portions of the anthems will be taken by Mrs. Charles Wilke, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Harris Folds and Dick Aiken. Mrs. Roy Mann will be heard at the piano keyboard.

The members of the choir who are participating are sopranos: Mrs. David Bach, Mrs. Robert Connell, Mrs. E. M. Galloway, Mrs. Robert Graham, Mrs. Richard Packard, Mrs. Nick Pfeiffer, Mrs. Charles Wilke and the Misses Gene Nunnally, Patty Walker and Joan Wilke.

The alto section is made up of Mrs. Robert Berg, Mrs. Al Coe, Mrs. Ernest Cooper, Mrs. Robert Crumley, Mrs. Harris Folds, Mrs. A. C. Fort, Mrs. Roy Mann, Mrs. Joseph Graham, Mrs. Rudy Sloan, Mrs. Leon Walker, and the Misses Dial Hoyle and Barbara Robb.

In the male sections are tenors: Dick Aiken, Andrew Bracken, Al Case, William Hoag, Robert Mares and George Touhy, while the basses are Warren Adams, Robert Crumley, Donald Howard, Clifford McKibbin and Charles Morrison.

Increasing interest indicates another overflow congregation and officials are asking that those planning to attend arrive before the starting time, not only in order to get seats but to avoid interrupting the service.

"The church extends everyone an invitation to attend."

Delay Of Payments Questioned By GI's

MIAMI (AP)—An investigation is under way to determine why veterans administration payments to GI's at the University of Miami are delayed.

Rep. Dante Fascell (D-Fla.) said yesterday that hundreds of veterans had not received a single subsistence check from the VA since school started in September.

He said VA officials at Pass-A-Grille reported the delay was not their fault; that once a veteran's educational benefits are approved checks come from the Treasury Department at Atlanta.

Fascell said he was informed between 18,000 and 19,000 students in Florida are on the award list and that more than 500 had not received their checks.

Fascell reported it might take a week or 10 days to get out the checks, and he added:

"I feel that some administrative action should be taken so this will not occur again and I certainly intend to see to it that it will be taken."

Ike, Top Advisers Hit On Agreement

GETTYSBURG, Pa. (AP)—President Eisenhower and top military and budget advisers reached virtually final agreement today on 1956-57 defense spending in the neighborhood of the present 34½ billion dollar a year.

The decision did not appear to hold out much hope the administration could ask a substantial tax cut at the next session of Congress.

Secretary of Defense Wilson told a reporter after an hour and a half meeting with the President and Budget Director Rowland Hughes that "no final figure" was set for defense spending in the next fiscal year.

Wilson added, however, he expects "a major change" from the current spending level.

W. J. McNell, Pentagon comptroller said today's meeting just about settled the final defense budget. McNell said he and Wilson do not plan any further negotiating here with the President before the budget estimates are put into final form.

Repairs Are Asked For County Kitchen

Faust Sundry Store Opens In Sanford At French, 20th

"My sincere faith in Sanford and Seminole County," said Earl C. Faust, owner and operator of Faust's Sundry Store, has led me to expand my business here in Sanford and open another store to be known as "Faust's Sundry Store" at the corner of French Ave. and 20th St.

Faust came to Sanford five years ago and since then he said, "I have seen phenomenal growth and greater economic security." The Sanford druggist who has made thousands of friends in this area said, "I believe that this community is going to continue its already unusual expansion."

"I have a payroll of more than 250,000 a year," he said, "with 22 or more employees in the run stores."

More than anything else, Earl Faust explained, I appreciate very deeply the fine way folks in Sanford and this area have treated me. Naturally, he said, when we have friends and the good will of those about us, we want to invest in the community where we live.

Faust's Sundry Store will be more than just a corner store, said the owner of the newly opened establishment. It will be a gift center, featuring right now both toys and other gifts for the Christmas season. Also, he said, we will have health needs, baby needs, a complete line of patent medicines, and for the convenience of those who would like the service, prescriptions may be left there to be compounded at Faust's Drug Store and promptly delivered.

In addition, the new neighborhood store, facing French Ave. at 20th St. will have a modern fountain where tasty sandwiches and sodas will be prepared.

"Sanford is growing," said Earl Faust, "and we want to grow with it."

Outstanding Rating Is Given To VAH 9

"Outstanding" was the word Earl William F. Lyons had for the members of the Heavy Attack Squadron Nine after conducting an inspection of all hands yesterday. Hastened by the threat of imminent rain, the inspection was climaxed by the presentation of advancement certificates to 43 HATRON Nine men who were advanced in rate recently.

Among them was a brand new Chief Petty Officer, P. N. Fritts. In keeping with a time-honored custom, Chief Electrician's Mate Fritts was presented with a new hat by his shipmates.

Details Complete For Annual CofC Meet At Mayfair

Annual Meeting Chairman John Fitzpatrick said that everything is in readiness for the event which starts promptly at the appointed time.

Assistant to the President of Capital Airlines, Jennings Randolph, has arrived in Sanford for his part on the evening's program as principal speaker.

Others to appear on the program at the annual meeting and banquet are Robert Weir, famous pianist, and the Orlandoans, barbershop quartet of Orlando.

"Earl Higginbotham, immediate past president of the Seminole County Chamber of Commerce will report on the activities of the past year under his leadership.

Chamber of Commerce officials have urged a complete attendance of the organization's membership at this most important meeting of the year.

Arguments Heard On Immunity Law

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court heard arguments today on the constitutionality of a law aimed at compelling witnesses to testify in national security cases under a grant of immunity from prosecution.

This first challenge to the validity of the 1954 immunity law was raised by William Ludwig Ulman, a former Air Force major and one-time Treasury employee who has figured in congressional investigations of alleged Communist spy activity in the government.

Labor Secretary Joins In Debate

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Secretary of Labor Mitchell today joined in the debate over organized labor's role in politics. He told the newly merged AFL-CIO it has a duty and a responsibility to speak up "loud and clear" in political matters.

Mitchell's words, prepared for the New York convention of the 16-million-member labor group, struck much the same note as those prepared for the same meeting by Gov. Averett Harrison of New York.

Harrison, a potential candidate for the 1960 Democratic presidential nomination, said "it is up to labor to make its voice heard" in support of what he termed "wise and progressive policies."

Mitchell said he expected labor's voice to rise in support of Eisenhower administration policies rather than those of the Democrats.

In a message to yesterday's convention opening, President Eisenhower said labor unions have a right to deal in political issues. But he urged that minority sentiment within unions be scrupulously protected and their views accurately reflected.

George Meany, president of the combined AFL-CIO, termed Eisenhower's address a "very fine message." It was relayed by special circuit from the President's Gettysburg, Pa., office.

Walter Reuther, an AFL-CIO vice president, said the talk "refutes completely the Goldwater line"—a reference to recent criticism of union political activity by Sen. Goldwater of Arizona, chairman of the Senate Republican Campaign Committee.

Both Meany and Reuther told congressional delegates they plan to step up political activity.

Presidential aide Harold Mason said in a Detroit speech last night he looks for the AFL-CIO to "step up" as political activity. But he added:

"This is a dangerous trend for the future well-being of the workers and of the nation as a whole."

Sen. H. Alexander Smith (R-N.J.) said today in a Washington interview that he thinks it is "sound practice for labor unions to keep their members politically indoctrinated."

He added, however, that he thinks it would "be a mistake for them to endorse any candidates" in next year's campaign for control of Congress.

The politics of another big group of voters—the farmers—were discussed yesterday by Secretary of Agriculture Benson of a Syracuse, N. Y., news conference.

161 County Youths Given Work Permits

A total of 161 Seminole County children under 18 obtained work permits through October this year, reports Industrial Commission Chairman James T. Vorelle.

Statewide, 19,841 of the employment certificates were issued through the third quarter of this year, compared to 14,344 through the same time in 1954, Vorelle said. The increase amounts to 33 per cent.

The Seminole County certificates included 121 for boys, and 34 for girls.

By age groups, there were 106 taken out by youths 15 through 17 years of age, and 55 by children 12 through 14. Normally, more of the older children hold jobs.

The certificate totals do not cover all children who work. Some occupations are exempt from certificate requirements, such as work in domestic service, or on farms outside school hours, and street trades such as newspaper selling, in which youths are self employed.

Statewide estimates are that 62,000 children now hold jobs in Florida. Vorelle said the great increase in numbers of employment certificates issued in Florida children this year means that not only are more youths working, but also that educational programs of the FIC Child Labor Department are paying off in informing children and employers about requirements for children under 18 obtaining the permits before they can legally work.

"The injury rate has been only 57 per cent this year, compared to 84 per cent through the same time last year, and an actual decrease of 108 fewer injuries, even though more children are working," Vorelle said. "This is extremely gratifying and shows a greater observance of the Child Labor Laws of the state, better safety measures on the part of employers, and greater compliance with prohibitions against children working over hours or in hazardous occupations."

Fleet Reserve Assn. Directors To Meet

Judge Ware, according to the "Kiwanis Bulletin" has done much in his quest for rehabilitation of boys discharged from Marianna.

SHS Principal Back From Convention

Seminole High School Principal Herman E. Morris returned Friday from Miami where he spent the past several days attending the annual convention of the Southern Association of Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Attended by some 1,500 delegates from the 11 southern states, vital discussions surrounding problems confronting the modern school were held. Subjects discussed were "accelerating and policies for the future," "juvenile delinquency," and "school drop outs."

Headquarters for the convention were in the DelLido Hotel in Miami Beach, Lincoln Road. Seminole High School has been sponsored since 1954.

Meriwether has been charged with first degree murder in the death of Mrs. Mills and attempted murder in the attacks on Mills and the boy.

County Property Discussed

No Action Taken On First Request

The Board of Seminole County Commissioners transmitted their business today, including the approval of vouchers and claims, in two hours and five minutes, adjourning at 11:55 this morning.

A request was made before the Commissioners that the Sanford Canning Kitchen, now known as the Home Demonstration Center, be repaired so that the building could be more broadly used by the Home Demonstration Club groups.

The request included the repairs to the roof which is now leaking, the sealing of the building inside, and the providing of heat for the colder months and fans for the summer.

No action was taken on the request pending an investigation into the repairs needed, the cost, and possibility of improving the building. The Commissioners referred the matter to Commissioner Fred Dixon. A report will be made at the next meeting of the Board.

Property owned by Seminole County on Park Ave. at 24th St. in Magnolia Ave. was discussed along with the possibility of reworking a dedication so that the 20 lots owned in this area could be sold. Commission Chairman said, "The property has been lying there for years and years and not on the tax rolls."

Seminole County engineer M. C. Hagen requested that if the lots are placed at the disposal of possible purchasers that the right-of-way be widened from the present 60 feet to 82 feet.

Reminding the Board of Commissioners that the City of Sanford had agreed to revoke its dedication on the 20 lots, the Board of Seminole County Commissioners agreed not to take any action until further developments had materialized.

A location sketch of the Little Wicket Road was approved when the proposed route was shown to be straighter than heretofore agreed to and at a saving of more than 1,000 feet of paving. The proposed road is off the Matham Road and will join with State Road 434.

Bonds were approved for the carrying of streams by R. E. Carroll, and for Deputy Sheriff W. Mansfield Brown.

Other action this morning by the Board of County Commissioners included the approval of a Revised Plat of Block "A" Benson's Acres on the Lake Mary Road. The Board also approved two admissions to the Florida Tuberculosis Hospital which were presented by County Health Officer Dr. Terry Black.

A check drawn to the Seminole County Road Department was presented to the Commission from St. Lee Fillmore as partial payment of the restitution to be made of the $2,177 taken from county funds. The Commission ordered the money deposited to the Road and Bridge Fund of the County.

On a proposal that the clay pit at Elder Springs be sold, it was revealed that the approximately two acres is still the property of Orange County and has not been deeded to Seminole County.
