

DRIVE SAFELY

ENJOY THE HOLIDAYS, BUT REMEMBER... YOU ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR THE SAFETY OF YOUR COMMUNITY

At least 51,000 people will die in traffic accidents this year unless you and every other motorist do your part to make our highways safe!

Over 41,000 people died in traffic last year. The National Safety Council reports traffic takes more lives in one year than did the Korean War.

Why all this slaughter on our highways? Inconsideration. Excessive Speed. Neglect of safe driving rules. These are the reasons.

Your car is a lethal weapon more dangerous than a gun. Only you are responsible for how you handle it. Death can come in one split second of carelessness.

You must drive safely, and you must insist that the members of your family do so. Make sure you use the rules of safe driving... Don't wait for the anguish of a sobbing voice; "I killed somebody!" Professional driving lessons cost little... a fraction of the cost of an accident, a charge of "involuntary manslaughter".

Your courtesy and consideration on the road will save lives.

You can be a safe driver if you use courtesy and safe driving rules. Stay alert and stay alive!

YOUR GREATEST CONTRIBUTION TO HIGHWAY SAFETY IS COURTESY

Remember when you were a kid and the only thought for the Fourth of July was to be up and out early to shoot off your firecrackers? And then anxiously await for dark for the sparklers and Roman candles and sky rockets? Not an inkling of a thought for the true purpose of the holiday.

Of course, we doubt if England is celebrating our holiday today.

Did you know those "Indians" who dumped the tea in Boston Harbor really were Masons? They converted lodge, recessed, donned their "war paint," had their "tea party" and returned to lodge. That was Dec. 16, 1773.

This will give you just an inkling of the freedom we enjoy. During WW II residents in Algeria and French Morocco had to obtain passes to proceed 10 or more miles from home. And they never could understand why it is not necessary for us to obtain a passport to proceed from Florida to Georgia or Alabama. To them it was just not understandable that we can travel at will through these United States and our possessions without passports.

Our second and third Presidents, John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, died on the same day, July 4, 1826.

Ring those bells today! It will make you feel good and will impressively recall that the thousands and thousands of war dead did not die in vain.

Gen. George Washington, heading a force of Virginians, was sent July 3, 1781, to the Forks of the Ohio (Pittsburgh). It was Washington's first battle. He later surrendered to the French at Fort Mifflin, marking the beginning of the French and Indian War.

On July 4, 1776, the Declaration of Independence of the United States of America, as drafted by Thomas Jefferson, was adopted and signed by John Hancock as president of Congress. Other signatures were added Aug. 2 and later. The original is on display at the Library of Congress, in Washington.

The first tariff act became law July 4, 1789.

Construction on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad, the first iron railroad in the United States, was started on July 4, 1828.

The Independent Treasury Act became law July 4, 1840. It was the Democratic substitute for a central bank, providing for the keeping of federal funds under direct control of government officials.

The national net debt was $15.9 millions (not billions) on July 4, 1845.

Cornerstone of the Washington monument was laid July 4, 1848.

One of numerous conventions to protest the Kansas-Nebraska Act, held at Jackson, Mich., July 4, 1854, gave its members the names of Republicans, which specifically became the name of a new national party.

Extra session of the 37th Congress convened July 4, 1861, with 11 Democrats, 31 Republicans and seven Unionists in the Senate and 44 Democrats, 108 Republicans and 27 Unionists in the House.

July 4, 1863, surrender of Vicksburg.

Letter postage was reduced to two cents an ounce and second-class postage to one cent a pound on July 4, 1885.

General amnesty was granted in the Philippines and the insurrection declared at an end on July 4, 1902.

Guido Acts To Nip Argentine Election Riots

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (UPI)—President Jose Maria Guido called in military leaders today in an attempt to head off chaos in national elections which followers of ousted dictator Juan D. Peron have announced they will boycott. The elections are scheduled for Sunday.

The National Popular Front, a powerful coalition of the Peronist Popular Union and the radical intransigents of deposed President Arturo Frondizi, announced Wednesday night it would abstain from voting because of a government decree disqualifying some of its presidential electors.

Vicente Solano Lima, coalition presidential nominee, had been considered the strongest candidate in the race, although none of the four leading candidates appeared capable of winning a majority.

Lima was reported to be the personal choice of Peron, currently living in exile in Madrid.

In Argentina, the president is not elected by direct popular vote but through a 478 member electoral college scheduled to meet July 31 in the various provincial capitals.

The Peronist decision to boycott elections followed the government ban on presidential candidate Dr. Raul Alfonsi, a Peronist who split with his colleagues and entered the race as a Christian Democrat Monday night.

Osteen Section Hit By Storm

A tornado-type storm hit the Osteen section Wednesday at about 3:40 p.m., uprooting trees, ripping the roof off one house and damaging an unoccupied trailer.

Part of the roof of the home of Robert Miller was blown off, hurled back around and slammed into the side of his house. A huge oak tree at the home of J. S. Peterson was blown down, and the trailer of Ann Stevens was damaged. A tenant was to have moved into it today, according to Mrs. Clarence Snyder, who reported the storm to the Herald.

Mrs. Snyder said that three small oak trees at her place were uprooted and that a large pine at the home of Bill Corf was blown across a fence.

Osteen residents who saw the cloud said it seemed to be swirling, but that it was not funnel shaped like a tornado cloud.

Academy Picks Commandant

Appointment of Capt. John W. Williams, U. S. Navy, as commandant of cadets and executive officer of the new Sanford Naval Academy was announced today by Col. H. J. Furman, superintendent.

Captain Williams, who also will be director of naval training for the cadets, plans to retire from the Navy on Sept. 1 and will immediately join the faculty of the academy.

A native of New Orleans, Captain Williams was graduated from the U. S. Naval Academy with the class of 1940. During World War II he was executive officer and later commanding officer of torpedo squadrons. Since the war he has specialized in ordnance. He spent seven

Nikita Warns West To Stay Behind The Wall

BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev flew home to Moscow today. He had issued here a new call for Communist unity and a warning for the West "not to stick its nose into the East's affairs."

Khrushchev took off from East Berlin's Schoenefeld airport at 3:18 a. m. EDT, concluding a six-day visit to East Germany.

He was seen off by East German Communist boss Walter Ulbricht and the entire East German Politburo.

In a free-swinging farewell speech, Khrushchev said the Communist wall separating East Berlin from West Berlin "has shut out the wolf."

"The border is closed now," he said. "In the past the Westerners could squeeze through . . . but now the border is closed and the wolf's tail has been hacked off and now he is in a bad way."

Khrushchev, speaking without notes into a microphone at the airport, praised Communist East Germany's economic growth. "A new era is beginning in the history of relations between the Ger-

Weather Good In Most Areas

By United Press International
Most of the nation celebrated the Fourth of July today with fair weather.

Except for thundershowers and lightning which laced the early morning skies over Alabama and for scattered showers in the Pacific Northwest, the weather contributed to a festive spirit.

Small amounts of moisture also fell early today across New Mexico and southwest Texas. A half inch of rain or less fell at Walnut Ridge, Ark., Hatteras, N. C., and Salem, Ore.

Forest City, Iowa, had an inch of rain Wednesday, and about a half inch fell at Jacksonville and Pittsburgh, Pa. Cool air flowed across much of the nation Wednesday in sharp contrast to the record-setting readings in the 90s and 100s of recent days. The mercury only reached 65 at Chicago and San Francisco.

As usual, it was 103 in Las Vegas, Nev., and 105 in Phoenix, Ariz., Wednesday.

Demonstrations Mark Fourth Observances

United Press International
Negroes in several cities were expected to use Independence Day as a setting for segregation protest demonstrations.

A mass meeting was scheduled in Danville, Va., where a civil rights leader urged Negroes Wednesday to test a federal court injunction against unruly demonstrations.

At Savannah, Ga., city attorney Aaron Kravitch told city council that Negroes planned a demonstration at Savannah Beach, crowded with holiday vacationers. Negro leader Hosea Williams said Wednesday night demonstrations would resume since negotiations with city officials had broken down.

The National Education Association (NEA) convention in Detroit braced for fireworks today on a motion to form study groups to facilitate desegregation within the NEA.

Southern delegates were reported planning delaying tactics to keep the issue from being brought to a vote.

In Chicago, the NAACP planned to climax its 54th annual convention with a huge Independence Day "march for freedom" through the downtown section of the city. A turnout of more than 30,000 persons was expected.

Mac Faces Two Election Tests

LONDON (UPI)—Prime Minister Harold Macmillan, battling to restore Conservative party prestige undermined by the Profumo scandal, faced new tests today in two parliamentary by-elections.

Political observers said the best the Conservatives could hope for would be a strong second-place showing in the two districts, Deptford and West Bromwich.

The worst would be to finish third behind the Liberal party.

Today's by-elections were occasioned by the death of two Labor party members of Parliament, both of whom won easily in the 1959 general elections by majorities of about 7,000 votes.

Deptford is a London suburb and West Bromwich is a Midlands town.

De Gaulle Off To Confer With Adenauer

BOON, Germany (UPI) — French President Charles De Gaulle flew here from Paris today to begin a visit pitched in low key to avoid any hint he was competing with President Kennedy for popularity.

De Gaulle and five of his cabinet ministers scheduled two days of meetings with Chancellor Konrad Adenauer and his aides.

The meetings are among the first of many to be held under the Franco-German friendship treaty signed by the two nations in January and ratified last month.

The French president, who is developing an independent nuclear force for his own country, is the Western alliance's prime exponent for a strong Europe under minimum U. S. influence.

It was believed that Kennedy during his recent European tour tried to line up support for his plans for a surface nuclear fleet under the North Atlantic Treaty Organization to be manned by mixed crews.

Oval, Casselberry, left Sunday accompanied by her mother for Miami Beach where she is taking part in the Southern Regional Skating Competition being held at the Deauville Hotel this week.

She will compete in the Junior Dance classification with her partner, Chuck Best, of Sanford. They will represent Melodee Skating Rink along with Linda Ley and Judy Harman who will be accompanied by Mrs. J. S. Best.

Sheri and Chuck skate under the direction of Gene Burt of Ocala, skating pro. The pair skated the dance melody which they will present in Miami Beach at a Skating Exhibition held at Buellton Skating Studio in Ocala last Saturday night.

Pretty, blonde, blue-eyed Sheri has been skating for three and one half years and has earned many proficiency awards and three trophies in local competition at the Melodee Rink.

She will be a sophomore at Lyman High School this year and has played with the Lyman Band for the past three years as bass clarinetist. She was a cheerleader last year at South Seminole Junior High.

Legislation To Avert Railway Strike Likely

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Kennedy was expected to be told today that he may have to ask Congress for legislation to end a dispute that could trigger a national railroad strike.

The report was being submitted to the President by Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz, who consulted with all parties in the dispute Wednesday. Wirtz had a noon, EDT, appointment with Kennedy.

On June 15, the President called both sides to undertake intensive efforts to settle the dispute before July 10. He asked Wirtz to report on the progress of those efforts.

After meeting with the parties Wednesday, Wirtz told a news conference that the negotiations "have reached a point where it becomes exceedingly doubtful whether there could be any possibility of settlement by collective bargaining."

The labor secretary emphasized that the government had not "by any means abandoned this case." But he added that "realism requires recognition of the fact that the parties are still quite far apart."

His statement followed an announcement by the nation's railroads that they will put new work rules into effect at 12:01 a. m. EDT on July 11.

Five railroad unions have warned that they will go on strike if the companies put the changes into effect.

The new work rules could cost the jobs of up to 37,000 firemen, plus others later. In general, they would make it possible for the railroads to reduce crew sizes, overhaul pay systems, assign road crews to do yard switching and yard crews to do some road work, and permit longer runs without crew changes.

35,000 See Gettysburg Battle

United Press International GETTYSBURG, Pa. (UPI) — That uniquely American phenomenon — the Civil War buff — left here today with his appetite for history whetted by three days of battle reenactments, parades and colorful pageantry.

He was joined by the estimated 40,000 tourists who had jammed into this small community for the centennial commemoration of the Battle of Gettysburg.

An enthusiastic crowd, estimated by state police at 35,000, turned out Wednesday for the highlight of the observance — the re-enactment of Pickett's charge.

Confederate soldiers massed on Seminary Ridge at 3 p. m. and began the assault across a mile-long field. They appeared first as gray specks but five minutes later the Southern soldiers and their colorful battle flags drew a gasp from the crowd.

A rebel war cry and a volley of artillery brought Union troops racing to the top of Cemetery Ridge. Northern officers drew their sabres and enlisted men loaded their rifles. About 100 yards to the rear, Union artillery prepared to answer the Southern volley.

A stereophonic loudspeaker network set up for the dramatization piped the sounds of battle to the onlookers. "The Battle Hymn of the Republic" and "Dixie" were played alternately as the Southerners inched forward.

The crowd, which had lined the entire route of the Confederate advance, fell behind the Southerners as they advanced up the gentle slope of Cemetery Ridge until, when the two forces met, there was a mass of humanity surrounding them.

The soldiers, braced at present arms, stood together as the American flag was run up a staff at the top of the ridge and the Star Spangled Banner was played.

Spy Case Revives Wiretapping

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Members of the Senate Judiciary Committee said today they agreed with Sen. Robert F. Kennedy that new wiretapping legislation is needed to fight increasing Communist espionage activities.

But one, Sen. Kenneth B. Keating (R-N.Y.), warned that Congress was not likely to accept the administration's bill until Kennedy backed down from his position that no court order be required for tapping telephone lines of spy suspects.

Mrs. Slavik's Father Dies

Friends of Mrs. R. L. Slavik, of Oviedo, are extending their sympathy in the loss of her father, Raymond W. Dunklee, of Lakeland, who recently passed away after an extended illness.

Funeral services were held in Lakeland and burial was in Punta Gorda.

Mrs. Dunklee returned home with Mrs. Slavik for a short visit.

Proponents of the bill said there was little likelihood Congress would take quick action on wiretap legislation of any kind. Both the Senate and House Judiciary Committees are preoccupied with top priority civil rights bills.

Essentially, the administration bill would permit the government to use information obtained from wiretaps in court.

Under present law, wiretapping is permitted but the evidence cannot be used in court.

Kennedy told a news conference Wednesday the Justice Department was "seriously hampered" in anti-espionage activity by lack of laws to permit use of

Navy Blue Here To Be Enhanced In September

The familiar sight of khaki and navy blue military uniforms which gives Sanford and the surrounding area the air of a Navy town will be enhanced, come September, by the sight of more of these same uniforms, but in miniature.

Sixth, seventh, eighth and ninth grade students who will be attending the new Sanford Naval Academy will be attired in neat trim uniforms, similar to those worn by midshipmen of the U. S. Naval Academy, when the school opens its doors for the first time on Sept. 16.

But military training is not the main purpose of the school, said Col. H. J. Furman, superintendent of the new academy, who has been in Sanford for several weeks, making preparations for the school opening.

"The real place of a private school in the educational facilities of the country is the ability of such a school through close liaison of boys and instructors to bring out the best that is in a student," the Colonel said.

"The firmness and close-knit atmosphere of a military school results in the habits of self-discipline, physical bearing, manner and attainment in a boy which are of benefit to a man, no matter what course in life he may follow," the Colonel pointed out.

Father of twin 16-year-old sons, James and Richard, and a daughter, Mrs. Charles Neunhoffer, of Dallas, Texas, Colonel Furman has worked with the Castle Heights Military School in Lebanon, Tenn., for the past seven years.

Beginning as a military instructor after completing his graduate study following his retirement from the service, the Colonel has risen through engineering and administrative duties on the staff of Castle Heights, to the new post of superintendent of the new Sanford Naval Academy.

A Southerner, the Colonel was born in North Carolina, but moved to Greenville, S.C., while a child and considers Greenville his "home town."

During World War II, he saw service in the European Theater of Operations with the Corps of Engineers, and has served in capacities from platoon commander to battalion commander.

Peacetime overseas duty was spent in the Philippines, Japan and in Europe, with a stint at the Engineering Research and Development Laboratories in Fort Belvoir, Va.

Presently he is making his headquarters at the Mayfair Inn, accompanied by his son, James. The rest of the family will arrive at a later date.

For a time, Colonel Furman expects to occupy administrative apartments in what was the Grants training school building, which will now be the administrative offices and dormitory for students and instructors.

Instructors for the school will be drawn from among men of military background and a strictly academic, college preparatory curriculum will be followed, with daily athletics and military drill periods.

Quicker as to the potential sports program of the school, Colonel Furman stated that an intra-mural program would be set up at first, branching out into inter-scholastic athletics with other schools of the area, as soon as feasible.

As superintendent of the new school, Colonel Furman said that he would welcome inquiries as to enrollment and curriculum of the school. An informative booklet is now being published and will be available soon for interested parents.

Although he prefers to have an opportunity to see and talk to prospective students and their parents, this is not a hard and fast requirement and enrollment by mail is possible and feasible.

Announcements of the opening of the new school have already been made in area newspapers and a number of inquiries have been received.

Besides the regular boarding school students, day students from Sanford and the surrounding area are also being accepted, Colonel Furman said.

Employment, Unemployment In State Gain

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Both employment and unemployment increased slightly in Florida in May, the Industrial Commission reported today.

Unemployment, totalling 85,200, was just a little above April. This did not include 20,600 unemployed Cuban refugees in the Miami area.

Nonfarm employment in May, totalling 1.3 million, was a new monthly high, the index reaching 218 per cent above its 1947 base.

Contract construction gained strength with 111,700 employees, more than 2,000 above the figure two months ago and more than 4,000 ahead of May, 1962.

Building materials, hardware and farm equipment also showed substantial increases.

The expected start of the seasonal decline in tourist related industries was reflected by monthly drops in wholesale and retail trades and services. Hotel and motel employment dropped off 6,500 to 40,000.

Over the month, wholesale trade fell 2,500 to 83,800. Retail trade was down 8,300 to 280,300. But both were considerably higher than last May.

Restaurants and similar places were down 3,100 to 61,900 and personal services declined under the seasonal influence.

Navy Launches New Polaris

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The U. S. Navy Wednesday successfully fired the new, long-range Polaris "A-3" missile more than 1,300 miles to a target in the Atlantic Ocean.

The launching from a land pad here came on the heels of Tuesday's firing of two Polaris "A-2" missiles from the nuclear submarine U.S.S. Lafayette. The successful "A-2" launchings were witnessed by Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara from on board.

In Wednesday's launching the bullet-shaped "A-3" rose from its pad on a mighty blast of compressed air, hovered for an instant and then darted into the sky when its huge booster engines ignited.

The rocket climbed steeply, leaving a white vapor trail characteristic of solid-fueled missiles. Its booster stage and a dummy warhead soaring to the edge of space.

Ballerina
NEW YORK (UPI) — Ballerina Maria Karnikova, who made a hit in the role of a fading strip-teaser in "Gypsy," has been signed to appear in "Apollo and Miss Agnes," a new musical co-starring Nancy Dussault and David Wayne.

The show, based on Giraudoux's comedy, "The Apollo of Bellac," will debut at the State Fair Music Hall in Dallas, Tex., in August.

Propeller Pitch Can Be Secret Weapon Of Winning Speedboats

MIAMI BEACH (NEA)—The secret weapon of winning speedboats can be one-half inch of propeller pitch. When the top racing drivers of southern Florida finish tuning engines and polishing hulls, they may slip around to a small building behind the Miami Beach Boat Berths on Purdy Avenue facing Biscayne Bay.

The sign says Arne's Propeller Shop. Inside, a sneak thief trying to walk through in the dark would cut his feet off at the ankles. Wall-to-wall props, large and small, bronze and aluminum, over the floor. In the center stands the anvil where Nils Arne Persson hammers miles per hour and revolutions per minute into propeller blades.

Many of the props crowding the shop show what happens when whirling blades tangle with coral reefs, sand bars, palm frond stumps and coconuts.

Other propellers look perfect. These Persson's careful hammer and measuring gauge must treat to urge a little extra performance into each blade. No welding and brazing will be necessary for repair.

Instead, a fractional change of pitch may bring the prop back to true or decrease its slippage enough to give it a winning edge.

Arne hammers in blade angle or takes it out to improve engine performance. Increasing pitch can bring an overrevving engine back down into its best operating range. Reducing pitch may stop an engine from lugging and boost the r.p.m. up where more torque can give more speed with easier operation and use less gas.

Originally a New Jersey machinist, Persson wanted to move south and found that, as in most places, there weren't many propeller experts there. After training in a prop manufacturing plant, Arne moved to Miami 20 years ago. Prop work piles up around him on the floor but he refuses to hire a helper.

"How could I do my work and still watch to see if he's doing a perfect job?" this craftsman wants to know.

Many boatmen will find their speed or r.p.m.'s are off, and get a complete engine overhaul without checking to see if a bent prop could be causing the trouble. All racing drivers want a rush job, Persson complains.

SANFORD LITTLE MAJOR LEAGUE CHAMPIONS

A PERFECT WIN RECORD of 26-0 ranks Yowell's as the champions of the Sanford Little Major Baseball League. The nine topped all comers to win the National League title and then won two straight from the American League champs, George's. Pictured, from the left, front

15 Americans In British Open Koufax In 7th Straight Shutout

LYTHAM ST ANNES, ENG. (UPI)—Fifteen Americans were among 261 golfers who took off today on the first of two qualifying rounds for the British Open championship. Defending champion Arnold Palmer, the Pennsylvania strongman, and 40 other fairway artists were exempt from qualifying. A total of 120 will compete in the open proper, July 10-12, over the par-70 Royal Lytham links. Palmer, who will be shooting for his third straight British Open title, Jack Nicklaus and Phil Rodgers are the leading U.S. challengers with the withdrawal of Billy Casper and Cary Middlecoff.

Hey, ma, that man with the whitewash is here again! That would be dazzling Sandy Koufax, who leads the majors with seven shutouts and is the first National League pitcher to pitch that many in one season since Warren Spahn achieved that total in 1951. Koufax turned in his seventh shutout Wednesday night with a scintillating three-hit 5-0 victory over the St. Louis Cardinals that increased the Los Angeles Dodgers' lead to 1 1/2 games. The victory for the southpaw Dodger fastballer was his 13th of the season with only three defeats. A pre-holiday crowd of 31,898 at Chavez Ravine saw the Cincinnati edged Houston, 2-1, Milwaukee beat San Francisco, 6-5, and the Chicago Cubs ripped the New York Mets, 9-2, in other National League games. One measly dollar—currently worth about 42 cents—suddenly has caused the Baltimore Orioles to look like a million bucks. Annoyed over the many mental mistakes they were making, the Baltimore players decided last Tuesday to mete out fines among themselves for any further lapses. The average fine is one dollar, although some are as high as five. They have won two games since the system was put into effect and have climbed into fifth place. Wednesday night they beat the Los Angeles Angels, 3-1, behind Mill Pappas, who posted his seventh victory in 11 decisions.

'Drafting,' Speedy Pit Stops May Decide Stock Car Races

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla. (UPI)—The fine art of stock car "drafting" and speedy pit stops were seen as the deciding factor for the Firecracker "400" auto race at the International Speedway here today. The $53,000 race was to start at 11 a.m. EDT. Fireball Roberts of Daytona Beach and Fred Lorenzen of Elmhurst, Ill., in 1963 Ford's were to start right behind two 63 Chevrolet's in the pole positions driven by Tarheels Junior Johnson and Jim

Moehling Ahead In Canadian

TORONTO (UPI)—The mere mention of Ed Moehling's name always brings the same question: "Who's he?" Moehling, a 22-year-old product of Mt. Prospect, Ill., needn't feel badly about his anonymity. The same question was asked when Arnold Palmer won the 1965 Canadian Open golf championship. Palmer's name is now well known, and Wednesday Moehling took a step in the same direction. The tall, blond former state amateur champion slashed five strokes off the par 71 Scarborough Golf Course as he battered his way through gusts of wind up to 30 miles per hour and toured the rugged 6,738-yard layout in 66 strokes — three strokes better than Doug Ford, Tommy Aaron and Fred Hawkins.

Good Samaritan Benefit Staged

By Robert B. Thomas Jr.
FA 2-5756

The benefit program for the Good Samaritan Home was a success and certainly a most enjoyable one. It was held at Freewill Holiness Church.

Special features were a solo by Jimmie Hill, a song by Willie White and two songs by the Saint Paul Gospel Chorus under the direction of Earl Minnett.

Dr. George H. Starke, the speaker for the occasion, expounded in his discourse, in essence, he challenged everyone to strive for efficiency in his respective field of endeavor in order to meet the challenge of change.

Mrs. Carolyn Johnson and Miss Katie Robinson, presidents of the Service Men's Wives Club and the Young Ladies Community Club, respectively, presented the contribution to Rev. Ruby Wilson.

Mother Wilson expressed her appreciation and gratitude to everyone.

Mrs. Louise B. Foster did a thorough job as mistress of ceremonies.

Those who could not attend the program missed a treat. Was truly wonderful.

Jackson Heights PFA, through Principal S. T. Muller, also presented a contribution to Good Samaritan Home.

NORFOLK, Va. (UPI) — A $15, second-hand bicycle is playing a small but vital role in the building of the $120 million Chesapeake Bay Bridge-Tunnel. The bicycle belongs to Elmer Campbell, an inspector for consulting engineers on the 17.6-mile long complex of trestles, bridges, tunnels and man-made islands that will span the bay.

Campbell's job is to travel back and forth across the completed portions of the structure to inspect construction and check the strength of the concrete roadway. Rather than walk his "beat," which gets longer every day, he bikes.

As I talked with this senior citizen the expression on his face reminded of a child with his toys on Christmas morning. This is what he said: "I wouldn't sell this car for any amount of money." Harris further stated that he has changed tires only 11 times in 36 years. The two original headlights are still working with efficiency.

In addition to the car there were guns, tools, etc. on display.

Price heard of Strickland-Morrison, remarked: "He certainly has taken good care of the car for 36 years. I concur—the car looked fine."

SELECTING MEAT FOR OUTDOORS

Fresh air and the pleasant view of outdoor cookery sharpen appetites and call for generous servings of meat. A guide in selection is to allow 1/2 to 1 pound per serving for bone-in cuts, 1/4 to 1/2 pound per serving for boneless cuts.

Mrs. Jack Hoganson promises not to take a peek; Mrs. Bill Yelinek won't eavesdrop; and Mrs. David Fall claims she won't say a word about the posters that will greet Mrs. James Mayo at the Change of Board Coffee to be held at 10 a.m. July 18 at the NAS Ballroom. BARBECUED BEEF FOR PICNICS
Wherever the picnic, barbecued beef sandwiches will make a hit. An easy way to prepare them is to brown ground beef in a frying-pan. Then add the ingredients for your favorite barbecue sauce, cover and simmer 30 minutes. If you're traveling to your picnic, put the barbecued beef in a covered container. Place in an insulated bag or wrap in several thicknesses of heavy paper.

GOOD GOBLER NEWS
Boneless turkey roasts can be grilled on the spit over wood charcoal briquets. Brushing beforehand with a dark and savory bouquet sauce helps seal in juices and gives deep color.

She's Woman Of Many Interests

Shirley A. Westworth
A most informative and interesting morning was spent recently by this reporter engaged in animated conversation and reminiscing with Mrs. J. N. Anrum, wife of retired Colonel in the U. S. Infantry, resident of 3061 Cecilia Drive Bear Lake.

Mrs. Anrum or "Jo" (short for Josephine) as she is better known to her many friends, is a tiny, energetic person who takes an active interest in both civic affairs of the area and everything and anything pertaining to growing, whenever possible, gardening, in particular the hibiscus and Dutch Amaryllis are her garden favorites.

A native of Dallas, Tex. and a resident of Bear Lake since June of 1950, Jo recalls the sparseness of inhabitants of the area and the rapid growth of the vicinity to its populace of today. Being married to a service careerman, her travels and experiences were many and varied before coming to Florida.

With her husband an infantryman in the first World War, Mrs. Anrum began her career in the Philippines as a bride and wife. After a two year stay there the couple returned to Fort Benning, Ga. From there it was on to San Francisco, then Hawaii, Wyoming and Oklahoma. Once again they were sent to Wyoming where Colonel Anrum acted as District Commander for that State in the CCC (Civilian Conservation Camp). From there the couple enjoyed a two year stay in Panama then back to South Carolina and on to the New York Military Academy at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson.

After New York they were sent to Japan and there spent two years. They then returned to Mississippi and while there were retired.

During her travels, Mrs. Anrum always took note of the flower gardens both here and abroad and kept one of her own, whenever possible, growing every imaginable flower.

Too, Jo took an active part in club work even then and at one time was both secretary and treasurer for two years of the Persidio Women's Club of San Francisco that included wives of the service personnel from the entire Bay area.

During her stay at Fort Benning she belonged to the Officers' Wives Club and took an active part in their affairs. While stationed at Cornwall-on-the-Hudson she was a member of the Cornwall Women's Garden Club for four years.

While in Japan Mrs. Anrum devoted from the garden path and acted as manager of the sales force at the Osaka Post Exchange, a most interesting and challenging position, commented Jo.

On coming to Florida she became interested in every type flower grown here but soon the beauty of the hibiscus caught her fancy. Stemming from this interest she soon became a member of the Mid-Florida Chapter of the Hibiscus Society where she held the office of secretary for two years and the vice presidency for one year. An active member now for seven years Jo is at present one of the directors of the Society and also a junior judge.

Due to the winter freeze and having lost most of her numerous hibiscus plants she is now hard at work replacing some of the 25 varieties lost. Due to her thorough knowledge of the hibiscus, she has been asked to speak on the subject before many gardening groups both in Seminole and Orange Counties.

Many blue ribbons have been won for her entries in hibiscus flower shows around Central Florida. Her recent entry in the September show held in Orlando won for her an additional blue ribbon honor. In 1962 her blooms added a tri-color award to her growing collection of awards.

Another hobby is the cultivation of the Dutch Amaryllis.

It was love at first sight when in 1951 Jo spied a white blooming amaryllis. She promptly sent away for her first seeds and has been growing and breeding this stately beauty ever since. Much of the seeds are obtained directly from Holland and her spacious lakefront garden now holds over 200 plants. Anyone wishing to see the gorgeous blooms that appear during the middle of March through April are cordially invited to do so.

Jo has also spoken before various clubs on the Amaryllis and through the years has acquired as thorough a knowledge of their care and growth as she has on the hibiscus.

In this field too, her blooms have excelled, coming away with top honors in the flower shows. Her Dutch Amaryllis "Orange Wonder" won for her a blue ribbon in the 1963 DelRay Garden Club Flower Show. In 1961 her entry, once again at DelRay, captured a tri-color award.

Not all her time is devoted to gardening work and her plants, although at most times Jo can be found busily working in her huge and attractive yard. She does save a little of her time and energy to take an active part in the Retired Officers' Wives Club of Orlando where she has been a member since the club was inaugurated.

In her charming home can be found many mementos collected over the years of her travel.

Exquisite Japari chinaware, used for decorative purposes, are on display in the home, brought back with them from the Orient. Too, Jo has quite a collection of Oriental figurines, nests of both delicate and heavy chinaware, silver inlay worked on glass decanters, and, of course, one lovely jade piece of bric-a-brac.

When asked how the like she leads now compares with her earlier days, Jo will readily admit she misses the traveling that had brought with it so many and varied experiences. However she is content now to devote her time to the things she loves best—her gardening and keeping up with civic activities, and of course, enjoying the Florida climate with her husband.

My here it is July already. And still time for picnics... and parties. Everyone loves "Finger Foods" because they add an atmosphere of fun to your family meals or when you entertain guests. Here are several finger food ideas.

Ham and Nut Chip Cones
1/2 cup ground boiled ham (lean)
1 tsp. chili sauce
1/2 cup thinly sliced Brazil nuts
Rye bread (real fresh)

Prepared mustard

Blend ham, chili sauce, and potato chips with enough mayonnaise to spread. Spread fresh bread slices lightly with mustard, then with ham mixture. Roll into cone shape and hold together with toothpicks. Lay on shallow pan and place in hot oven (475 degrees) until bread is toasted. Serve hot.

Celery Fingers
1 bunch celery
1 lb. American cheese
1/4 oz. pkg. Roquefort
3 ozs. cream cheese
3 tbsps. cream
1 tsp. sugar
1/2 cup crumbled potato chips

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: We have just returned home from a weekend with some friends who have a beautiful, expensive, push-button home. The guest room was unbelievably furnished. There was one three-quarter-sized bed. (The room was large enough to accommodate one large double bed or a pair of twin beds.) There was one small, decrepit straight-back chair, a tiny hooked rug and one thin blanket. The mattress sagged in the middle, and to top it off, there was NO mirror in the room. My husband said that they intentionally furnished the guest room poorly to discourage guests from returning. Considering that the rest of the house was so elegantly and comfortably furnished, could my husband be right?

NO NAME PLEASE

DEAR NO: Your husband is very probably right. I can't think of a more effective way to discourage overnight guests.

DEAR ABBY: Somewhere in a modest home is the luckiest woman alive, and I'm sure she isn't even aware of it. The "Other Woman" usually writes a tale of woe. I am the "Other Woman" but I have no "tale of woe" because of a decision I have just made. This wife I speak of is lucky because her children are healthy and well-behaved. They have a pleasant, middle-class home, with good food, good clothes and a good car. Their lives are secure. Her husband is with her, and he always will be. If I could tell this wife one thing, it would be to LOVE her husband and let him know it. He wanted me, and I wanted him, and only God knew how much. But when people are basically good, they refuse to hurt innocent people. Especially children. He's the man I've been searching for all my life. I love him and he knows it. But he is HER husband, and THEIR father. And he has integrity. I wish he were mine. But he's not and he never will be. Thank you, Abby, for letting me say this. I feel better now.

TOOK AN OATH

DEAR ABBY: We have neighbors who do not have a telephone, but they have given all their friends OUR telephone number, and we have to run and get them when they get phone calls. When they first moved in, we told them they could use our telephone for emergency calls, but so far they have been using it for gossip and gabbling and we are getting tired of this. How can we tactfully get our point across?

FED UP

DEAR FED: Don't waste your energy with "tactful" cover-ups. Tell your neighbors that you will be glad to deliver an "emergency" message, but if they want the use of a telephone for social chitchat to get their own.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

If bridge players had to pass a life saving test before they were allowed to rescue their partners it would probably improve their game. Certainly, if South had given himself such a test, he would have let his partner struggle with two spades and not dived into the hopeless two-no-trump contract.

West opened the ten of spades. East signaled with the eight and West was able to read that as a suit preference because obviously West could not expect ever to run a spade suit. Hence West made a mental note to lead his deuce of hearts whenever he got in.

South cashed a second spade and discarded a heart while West let a club go.

Jack. West won and in accordance with his early note led that deuce of hearts.

East won with the queen and led his four of hearts to his partner's nine. West cashed his ace and promptly led a low club.

West had no worries about this lead. His partner had doubled both two spades and two no-trump and had shown up with the jack of spades, and nothing in diamonds. So he was marked with the ace of clubs!

East won the club, cashed his king of hearts and led a club to give his partner two more club tricks. Down three!

Not bad when you note that it would have taken perfect defense to beat two spades just one trick.

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

So you didn't finish high school.

So you meet people you believe are better educated than you. And you feel you can't talk to them—on their level—that you can't hold their interest.

After all, you think, you can't always just sit there and listen. You have to contribute an idea yourself now and then.

Actually, you have no big problem. In this day and age anyone who lacks formal education can replace it to a great degree without too much trouble.

What do these better-educated people talk about?

World affairs? You won't have to sit in silence if you will make a practice of reading at least two newspapers a day and one news magazine a week.

Music? You can learn to appreciate good music with a radio and record player, provided you tune in the best programs and carefully select the records you buy.

Art? Art galleries are usually free—and there again reading can help you out.

But chances are the conversations you are afraid to take part in, simply because your friends are better educated than you are, aren't too often concerned with such matters.

The fact that you didn't finish your education isn't important in itself, so far as your social hours are concerned. The only thing that makes it important is your belief that it is.

If you'll start educating yourself, you'll lose that feeling.

English Lad To Make Home In Casselberry

FRED PULLEN, who arrived in this country last Friday from England, brings his aunt, Mrs. Henry Duncan of Casselberry, up to date on news of their homeland. Fred will be making his home with the Duncans for the next two years.

By Jane Casselberry
Celebrating the Fourth of July will be a brand new experience for 18-year-old Fred Pullen who arrived at Herndon Airport in Orlando last Friday night from England to make his home with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Duncan of Lake Drive in Casselberry.

His home is in Dagenham, Essex, which is located 25 miles northeast of London. Mrs. Duncan, who came to this country as a war bride in 1945, is a sister to Fred's mother.

It took the two families eight months of wading through red tape to make arrangements for Fred to come to this country and, finally, after bidding his parents and brother and sister "goodbye" on Friday morning, he boarded the Pan American Boeing 707 jet for the flight across the Atlantic (his first plane trip).

After landing in New York, a helicopter ferried him to another airport. En route it circled the Statue of Liberty giving him a memorable view of the famous lady as well as of the New York skyline. Fred found the summer heat here rather overpowering since he is accustomed to an average summer temperature in England of 60 degrees.

He is impressed with the large scale of everything he has seen in the United States and with the fast pace of life here. He is looking forward to seeing as much of Florida as possible and says that "most of all" he would like to see a rocket launching at Cape Canaveral.

Fred was a sports fan in England and enjoys swimming. The Duncan children, Linda, Glenn, Steve and Craig, are eager to initiate their English cousin in the American way of life and do not plan to give him the slightest opportunity to become homesick.

He already has enjoyed a day at Daytona Beach with Linda and a group of her teenage friends and the Florida sun has given his native fair complexion a rosy glow. Fred plans to find work here soon and the Duncans hope that he will stay for at least two years.

Village Council Hears Proposal On Financing

A tentative proposal for supplying the North Orlando Police and Fire Depts. with immediate financing was made by Councilman Art Ferrin at Tuesday night's meeting of the Village Council.

The plan, as presented by Ferrin, would call for subscriptions from each resident of the community which would be put directly into the village treasury. Ferrin went on to suggest that although the amount be set at $1 per annum, the first payment should be set in the amount of $3 which would cover the years 1963-66. In this manner a sufficient sum could be collected to give each department operating capital which primarily would be used to stage money-making projects to build the fund.

The proposal will come under consideration after it is presented to the Volunteer Fire Dept. at next Wednesday night's meeting.

College Mixes Arts, Sciences

MORAGA, CALIF. (UPI) - St. Mary's College, a four-year liberal arts school located in a verdant valley 25 miles east of San Francisco, is trying to give its students more than just "random courses in the humanities."

The college, which has an enrollment of about 800, has recently introduced courses designed to give students an idea of the relationships among the arts, sciences and social sciences.

The school offers an "integrated curriculum" to some students. Such a curriculum is intended to give students an idea of the links between science and mathematics, on the one hand, and history, literature and philosophy on the other.

All students also must take a course in "Great Classics," which introduces them to Freud, Marx and Einstein as well as Plato, Aquinas and Shakespeare.

Ouch! Inventory Lists Foot Ills

CHICAGO (UPI) - The average American walks about 65,000 miles in a lifetime, the American Podiatry Association reports.

But 80 per cent of Americans have suffered or are suffering from some sort of foot ailment, according to the foot experts.

More than 85 per cent of senior citizens are afflicted, 40 per cent of school children by age six, and more than 70 per cent by high school age.

The nation's foot doctors claim that not all foot ailments are caused by corns and calluses. Other causes include weak arches, hammer toes, ulcers, imbalance, heel spurs, skin diseases, fractures and tumors.

Defenders Meet With Gov. Bryant

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — New public defenders were told by Gov. Farris Bryant Wednesday that the lives and fortunes of many people would depend on the way they conducted their offices.

The 16 new public defenders, all named by Bryant under a newly adopted law, met together in the state cabinet room to hear from state officials.

(The public defender for the Ninth Circuit, which includes Seminole County, is W. D. Frederick Jr., of Orlando.)

On hand were Bryant, Comptroller Ray E. Green, Supreme Court Justice E. Harris Drew and Bowers Bowers, head of the criminal appeals division of the attorney general's office.

Bryant told the defenders, who will provide free legal counsel for needy lawbreakers, that it was significant they had come to the capital on the eve of Independence Day. Your new posts, he told them, "gives new assurance of justice for all."

"The post does thrust on your shoulders a very significant responsibility," Bryant said. "The lives and fortunes of many people will hang on the way you conduct yourselves."

Justice Drew urged the new officials to see persons accused of crimes as soon as possible. He said the public defenders should be certain that persons accused of crimes were advised of all of their rights under the law.

"This marks a high point in the system of American jurisprudence," said Drew. Drew's immediate predecessor as chief justice, B. K. Roberts, headed up the judicial council which recommended to the last legislature creation of the public defender system.

The proposal was sparked by a U.S. Supreme Court decision that ruled an accused felon must be represented in court by a lawyer for his sentence to be valid.

Bowers gave the new officials some first hand advice on representing clients. "Give every case you get the old college try," said the veteran assistant attorney general. "I cannot emphasize that enough. Treat each case as if he were paying you a substantial fee for representing him."

Teacher Bans Books, Cupid

AUSTIN, Tex. (UPI) — A University of Texas dean says the idea that marriage makes for better students is a myth. "We find marriage seldom make a good student out of a poor one," Dean of Students Glenn Barnett says.

Barnett warned that mixing marriage and college can mean troubles for both husband and wife.

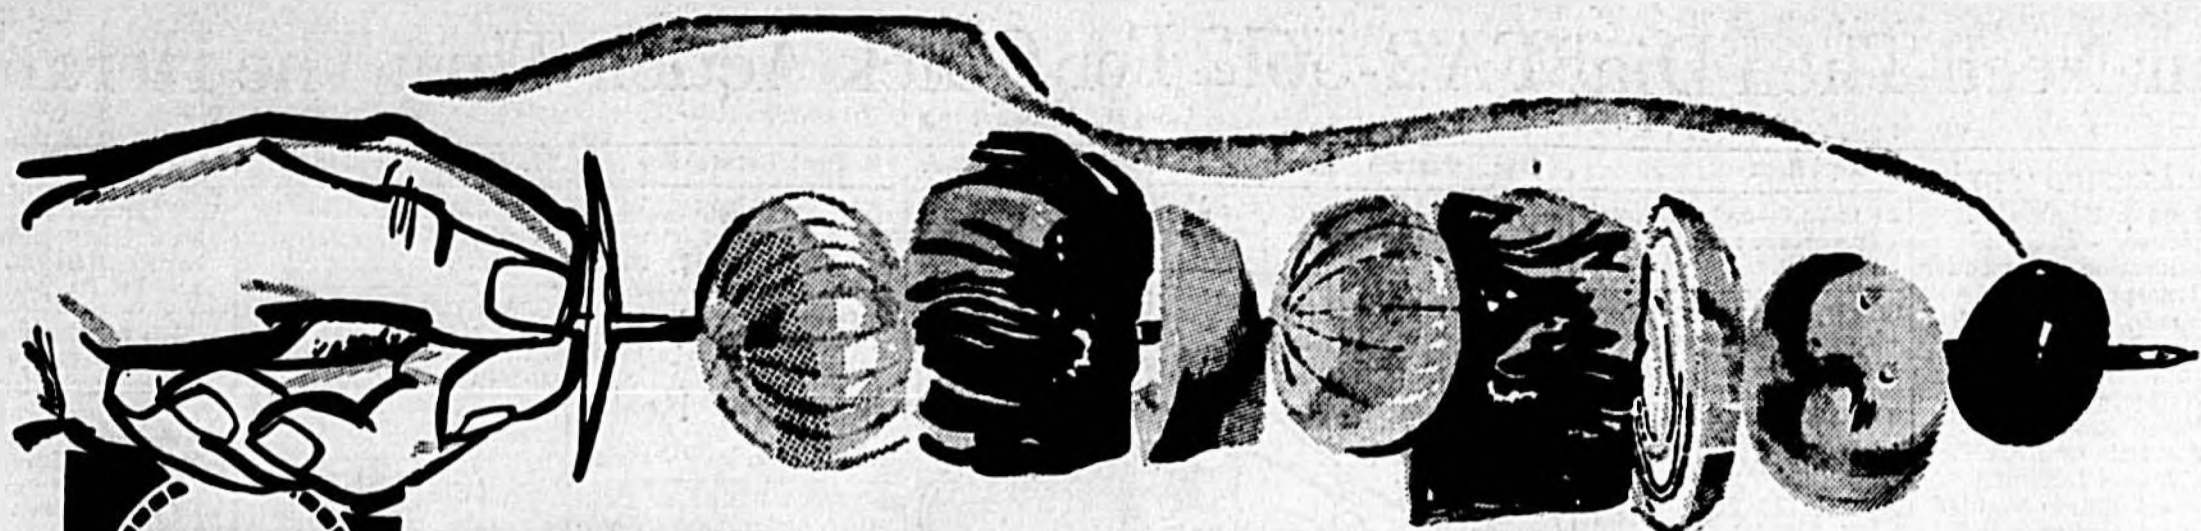

"If the wife was a competent student and dropped out for marriage," Barnett says, "she frequently feels an underlying resentment if her student husband doesn't excel."

"In many cases," he adds, "his grades go down as the time and concentration needed for his work are nibbled away by the demands of family life."

Barnett also says that a student-father can grow extremely sensitive about his own position while his wife plays the role of breadwinner. "When a girl tells me she is quitting to get married," Barnett says, "I try to impress upon her the importance of continuing her own education some time, whether soon or many years from now."

"The boy she marries is going to continue to grow and probably become a leader in his profession and his community. Her growth will have to keep pace with his if the marriage is to succeed," Barnett says.

Death toll from accidents in the U. S. during 1961 was about 91,500, according to the Britannica Book of the Year.

Russians, Chinese See Red, But Of Different Hues

Moscow Ideological Talks Open In Angry Mood

By United Press International MOSCOW (UPI)—The Chinese delegates to the Sino-Soviet ideological talks arrived here today in an atmosphere charged with hostility by a last-minute exchange of bitter charges.

The Chinese's negotiating team flew in by special plane from Peking they were met by Soviet delegation leader Mikhail Suslov, senior Kremlin ideologist.

The two sides wasted no time getting down to business. They agreed to hold their first meeting within hours of the arrival.

Relations between the two Communist giants were strained to the breaking point just hours before the opening session of the showdown talks that will determine the course of international communism.

Red China announced a bitter new protest against the Soviet Union earlier in the day, and the Russians printed a front-page editorial in the Communist party newspaper declaring they would not back down.

Western observers felt there was a possibility of a historic split of the Communist camp. The Chinese apparently delayed the departure of their delegation to the last possible moment.

The latest Chinese protest, as reported by the New China News Agency, accused the Russians of creating "new obstacles" to the "unity" talks on ideological and political differences.

The protest was in connection with the recent expulsion of three Chinese diplomats and two students from the Soviet Union for distributing copies of a Chinese letter strongly condemning the Kremlin's position in the dispute. The Kremlin refused to publish the letter.

The Chinese note, which was delivered to the Soviet Embassy in Peking Thursday, charged that Russia has "created new obstacles to the bilateral party talks."

Legislation To Avert Rail Strike Likely

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Labor Secretary W. Willard Wirtz sought again today to untangle deadlocked railroad negotiations.

He hinted strongly Thursday that Congress will be called into the dispute if a threatened nationwide strike cannot be avoided.

Wirtz was scheduled to meet with representatives of the nation's railroads and spokesmen for five rail unions this morning.

The unions have promised to strike if the railroads put work rule changes into effect next Thursday to eliminate so-called "feather-bedding."

The labor secretary said Thursday after a 30-minute Independence Day conference with President Kennedy that emergency legislation would be requested from Congress to avert the strike if the opposing parties cannot find a solution themselves.

As Wirtz put it when asked whether Congress would be brought into the four-year-old dispute: "That possibility is certainly imminent."

The charges the rail lines are ready to install would cost up to 37,000 jobs of diesel firemen, plus others later. They would also change pay scales for those who kept their jobs.

The dispute has gone through two presidential investigating commissions and all the way to the Supreme Court, which ruled the railroads had the right to make the work changes.

Herlong Warns On 'Frittering'

Postmaster and Mrs. Clyde Kerce of Casselberry attended the dedication of the new Post Office Building in Groveland last Thursday and the Fourth of July Celebration in Lake David Park.

Mrs. Kerce, who is democratic committeewoman for precinct 17, took advantage of the opportunity to visit with Rep. A. S. "Sly" Herlong who was the principal speaker at both events.

Herlong warned his audience against the danger of American "frittering" away their freedom by becoming overly dependent on the Federal government and falling for "right promises" of those people in high offices who want only to perpetuate themselves in these positions.

Using Federal aid to schools as a case in point, Herlong said: "After they take more of your money in order to grant Federal aid, they will put part of it back into your schools like you ask but they will expect something in return, namely, control of the school system."

Mother's Story Of Baby Probed

SAN MATEO, Calif. (UPI)—Police today investigated the chilling case of a San Carlos, Calif., mother who said she threw the body of her two-year-old daughter off the Golden Gate Bridge.

The mother, Anna Buckleman, 40, underwent psychiatric examination Thursday at San Mateo General Hospital. She was held under what a hospital spokesman called "security guard" to prevent a possible new suicide attempt.

Mrs. Buckleman said the child fell down the cellar stairs 10 days ago.

Early the next morning, while her husband slept, she found her child dead in bed, she told authorities. She drove to the bridge, threw the tiny pajama-clad body over the side but then could not get up the nerve to jump herself, she said.

Instead, she fled to New York where she attempted to kill herself with an overdose of sleeping pills.

that "the Soviet government will not again rashly take actions harmful to the unity of China and the Soviet Union and to relations between the two countries."

The primary cause of the dispute is the violently opposed stands on the question of war or peace with the Western world.

Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev advocates peaceful co-existence. The Peking regime rejects this thesis.
