The Cornetist's Teeth.
"Do you know the great dread of the cornetist?" said a cornet virtuoso. "I'll tell you, son—the loss of his teeth. Worst thing that could happen to him. It means the end of his playing. No man can play the cornet with false teeth. When his own cusps and canines are gone he loses his embouchure."—New York Press.

Discouragement.
"So you have quit laughing at your wife's hair?"
"Yes," replied Mr. Growcher. "The funnier they seem to me the more convinced she is that they must be correct in style."—Washington Star.

Psychology of the Crowd.
"What makes the crowd gather so over there?"
"Oh, vulgar curiosity, I suppose. Let's go over."—Harvard Lampoon.

WHY THE WIND BLOWS.

The Basic Principle, the Tendency of Hot Airs to Rise.

The wind, like other things of everyday life, rarely invites notice unless it is unusually "high," and rarely do we hear the questions, "Why does the wind blow?" "Why doesn't the wind blow?"

What is this wind that rushes "out of the nowhere into the here?" Why should it blow at all, or why sometimes so gently and at other times with the relentless force of the hurricane?

The wind could have no power, it could not even exist, if the air had no weight, this weight having been shown to be about thirty-one grains for each hundred cubic inches of air. When air is put in motion the effect is like that obtained by throwing a ball against an object. The harder you throw the ball the harder it will strike, and the greater the number of balls thrown at one time the greater will be the force of the blow. When the wind is blowing it strikes what it blows against, and the harder it blows (that is, the greater the speed of the air) the harder it will strike against the resisting object.

What causes the wind to blow or why the air should be in motion is not easy to explain. Simply stated, it is caused by the tendency of hot air to rise and thus to form a partial vacuum into which the cooler surrounding air rushes, in much the same way as water will rush downward to seek its level. If the earth were smooth, if it did not rotate and if there were no sun the air would be motionless. When the sun shines on a wide space of the earth the air of that region becomes heated, this great volume of warm air rises and the cooler, heavier surrounding air flows in to take its place. As the earth rotates there tends to be formed a ring of heated and rising air with currents indowing at the bottom and at both sides. This is the condition that prevails near the equator and causes the trade winds that blow so steadily. The rotation of the earth causes the wind south of the equator to flow toward the northwest and that north of this line to flow toward the southwest.—St. Nicholas.

THE CLOWN'S FACE.

Pathetic Incident From Which the Use of Black Lines Sprang.

"Every once in awhile," says a prominent comedian, "I am asked by some newspaper or magazine to tell of the actual feelings of a man who is called on to appear before the public as a continuous funmaker. Usually I reply by calling attention to the fact that one of the greatest tragedies of the theater is connected with the clown.

"In the time of Louis XIV, there was a famous clown known as 'Fat William' (Gros Guillaume), who held his audiences in the Rue Favari by his wonderful eccentricities of gesture, voice and mimicry. One night, so the legend runs, his wife was dying, and he was still obliged to go on and entertain the clanking, clashing, ribald Parisian mob that stood in the pit. It was in the days before there were seats in the orchestra.

"Like all imitators of the Italian 'commedia,' his face was whitened with flour. Under the burden of his great domestic sorrow he was stupid and slow in his performance, and in order to stir him up his companion on the stage hit him with a resounding whack with a heavy cane. The combination of his sentimental troubles and the physical pain caused Gros Guillaume to weep. As the tears streamed down over his whitened face the aspect was so comical that the audience cheered and laughed itself into hysterics. And ever since then every clown has black lines on his whitened face.

"Many are the black lines on the face of the actor that the audience knows not of."—Chicago Tribune.

Just a Precaution.
"So you are attending cooking school?" says the friend. "Are you going to do your own work?"
"No. I want to be able to teach my husband how to prepare the meals in an emergency."—Judge.

Dickens as a Reporter.

Dickens once described the conditions under which he pursued the calling of a reporter—conditions, he said, of which his successors could have no adequate idea. On one occasion he transcribed his shorthand notes of important election speeches, he said, on the palm of his hand, by the light of a dark lantern, in a postchaise and four galloping through a wild country at the dead of night at the then surprising rate of fifteen miles an hour. He once, in the castle yard at Exeter, took an election speech of Lord Russell in the midst of a lively fight.—Westminster Gazette.

Pure Reading Matter.

"One of the funniest requests I ever got," the advertising manager told us, "was from a local dry goods merchant. He said, 'I want this advertisement put in a part of the paper where women will be sure to read it.'
"Great Scott, man! I said. 'Don't you know that when we have some pure reading matter that we want women to be sure to see we put it next to a dry goods advertisement?'"
—Cleveland Plain Dealer.

An Ox Hide.

"Thomas," said the professor to a pupil in the junior class in chemistry, "mention an oxide."
"Leather," replied Thomas.
"What is leather an oxide of?" asked the professor.
"An oxide of beef," answered the bright youngster.—Chicago News.

Showered With Attention.

"Now that you are rich I suppose everybody is anxious to serve you."
"That's the way it seems. I'm on the lookout all the time for subpoena."

ALL AROUND FLORIDA

The General News of "The Land of Flowers."

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

An Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Port St. Joe, a town that was wiped out more than half a century ago through a combination of yellow fever and business adversities, is to be restored to the map of Florida. A land company and a railroad company are behind the new movement.

The Gainesville jail is not an inviting place of refuge for the inmates, as almost every week the papers give reports of an attempted escape.

In the course of a few weeks the new plant of the Florida Woodenware Company, located in Palatka will begin operations, when a large force of men will be given employment, and the task of producing thousands of buckets and tubs daily will begin.

Senator Duncan U. Fletcher had a narrow escape from serious injury, perhaps death, in the railroad wreck in Georgia Saturday. He changed sleepers and the one in which he originally intended riding was smashed.

The Plant City Courier prints a strawberry cartoon illustrating that enterprising town's excellent location as the center of this growing industry. The Courier cites the fact that $62,000 has been already paid for berries on the railroad platform there, which shows the extent of the business.

The harem skirt has "arrived" at Tampa. As yet it is only dropped on a wire figure in a show window but may become animated ere long.

That St. Johns county is going to be precipitated into a wet and dry campaign is now evident. The movement has been launched by citizens of Hastings and is being carried on independently of the county branch of the Anti-Saloon League.

Only ten Florida Militia officers will be chosen to attend the army maneuvers in Texas, as news has come from Washington that only 1,000 will be selected from the national guard organizations of the various States. Allotment is made on the strength of the organized militia.

Policeman Wilson lies at the point of death at the Gordon Keller Memorial Hospital at Tampa and Charles Brown, a negro, with whom the policeman fought a pistol duel, is in the same condition at the Clara Frye negro hospital. A negro named Williams, returning home unexpectedly, is alleged to have found Brown in company with his wife. He sent for the policeman, and as soon as the latter appeared Brown opened fire. The officer was wounded in several places about the body before he could return the fire. Wilson fell to the ground, but, lying flat on his back, drew his revolver and probably fatally wounded the negro.

Weather For April

A reactionary storm period is in progress as we pass from March into April. Storms of rain, wind and thunder will culminate on and touching Sunday the 2nd, winding up with possible snow in northern extremes.

Rising barometer, fair weather and frosty nights will visit most parts of the country between the 2nd and 5th.

A regular storm period covers the 4th to 8th, having its center on the 6th. During the 6th to 8th, storms of rain, wind and thunder will make their transit from west to east, touching most parts of the country. These storms will be in the form of heavy April showers, breaking into severe thunder squalls and thunder storms in many localities. Fair weather and cool nights, with possible frost northward, will follow these storms.

A reactionary storm period on and touching the 11th and 12th will bring severe thunder, rain and hail to many sections.

A regular storm period extends from the 18th to the 21st. On and touching these dates, expect many active April storms and squalls, to much cooler.

A reactionary storm period has its center on the 24th and 25th, and threatening weather will appear.

A regular storm period is central on the 29th, extending from the 27th to May 3rd.

PROCLAMATION

ANOTHER BIG LAND DEAL

Nineteen Thousand Acres in Geneva Section Changes Hands

One of the largest transactions in land consummated in Orange county took place a short time ago when the Musselwhite and Howard tract comprising 19,000 acres in the Geneva peninsula passed into the possession of the East Sanford Land Company, of which Mr. W. A. Whitcomb of Bloomington, Ill., is the moving spirit.

This body of land which sold for $142,000, lies in townships 19, 20 and 21 east, and ranges 31, 32 and 33 south, which are between Lake Harney and Jessup, the land being bounded on three sides by the two lakes and St. Johns river. There is a well defined opinion in this section that land situated on or near a large body of water has a certain protection against the cold that does not attain with land not so located, which if true makes of this tract one of the best pieces of land undeveloped in the state for home and farms.

It was learned from Mr. Whitcomb that it was the intention of his associates and himself to dispose of the land in tract of five acres or more. The land in the central section of the tract is well adapted to the growth of citrus fruits, peaches, pears, pecans and other nuts as well as figs and persimmons of the Japanese variety. The land near the river and lakes is of the flowing well type, there being some 4,000 acres of this nature, which adapts it perfectly to the production of winter vegetables such as are grown in the Sanford celery delta. The fact that this section has just passed through a drought covering fifteen weeks, during which period the Sanford crops grew to maturity without being stunted in any particular, further demonstrates the worth of the system of irrigation as obtained here through the inexhaustible supply of artesian water which flows naturally. The 4,000 acres of this tract that can be irrigated as Sanford lands are irrigated, will form the nucleus of a very thrifty settlement—Times-Union.

Commercial Club Meeting

The meeting of the Commercial Club last Monday was fraught with good results and there was a feast of reason and flow of the soul (a la Budweiser).

Messrs. McLain and Culpepper of Geneva met with the club and called attention to the need of a drawbridge at the Geneva crossing. Hon. Frank Woodruff, member of the board of county commissioners stated that the board had under advisement the matter of this bridge and that they would pay half if the citizens would pay half. Also that the crossing to Osteen would be bridged by a drawbridge supported through toll rates.

This is good news to the people of Sanford and there is no doubt about both of these bridges being built.

Freight rates, railroad facilities and other important matters were taken up and discussed. The official button for the Club was distributed among those present by secretary Woodruff. The button has the inscription, "Sanford Commercial Club" and the "Garden Spot of the World", on a white ground with a stalk of celery, on rampant, (whatever that is).

Every one who attended the meeting was greatly encouraged by the future outlook of Sanford and many enrolled their names as members of the Club.

THE LAST CALL TO THE POLLS

Popularity Piano Contest Closes Today. Votes Still Pouring In

Well now, what do you know about the bunch of star contestants who are in The Herald's Popularity list to receive the $500 Grand Contest Piano?

These contestants accomplished a good work which will be a monument to them in future years, the monument of placing in the homes a weekly paper which is clean, up-to-date and facts about Sanford's marvelous advancement. (The greatest power in the world for bettering a community is the newspaper and the American home is rated by the newspapers and magazines that enter it. As soon as you receive this issue sit down and make a list of those who would be happier, and better by receiving the Herald. Then send in the list at once. Think of those away from home, The Herald would be liked a letter from home from all the dear acquaintances that would inspire them to strive for greater achievements in their chosen vocation in life. Make out a list and send to the Contest Manager and votes will be given your favorite contestant.

Until Noon Saturday to Vote

In order that every possible chance can be given. You can cast your votes until noon Saturday. The Contest Manager will receive returns at the Herald Office until Saturday noon. It rests with you to win and the contestant receiving the largest number of votes, will get the Herald Prize Piano.

In the following issue a full account of the winner and exact standing of each contestant will be given.

Write your name plainly and name your favorite contestant and votes will be given by the Contest Editress Mrs. M. F. Keyes

Musicale at Welaka Club

One of the most enjoyable events that have been given at the Welaka club was a musical last Tuesday afternoon. Mrs. R. Hornighous was chairman of the most efficient committee that arranged the program. The first number on the program was a vocal solo by Miss Mabel Bowler and her sweet voice was never heard to better advantage. Mrs. H. C. Matland came next and completely charmed the audience with two beautiful vocal selections and responded to repeated encores. Mrs. Matland is teacher of vocal music in the Livingston College at Enterprise, and is also a gifted reader, delighting the club with a humorous selection on this occasion. Miss Madge Ward and Miss Ruth Abbott two of Sanford's favorite pianists played numbers that were much enjoyed and Miss Mercedes Munson very sweetly sang two pretty selections. Social half hour with refreshments followed.

Boy Invents Aeroplane

Joseph E. Anderson, a 19-year-old inventor, of Greenwich, Conn., expects to be one of the competitors for the Gould prize of $15,000 for aeroplanes driven by a double propeller system. Young Anderson's machine combines some of the best features of the Wright type of biplanes with some of those of the Antoinette.

One principle in the monoplane has never yet been used in aeroplanes of this class. The machine will be so constructed that there will two engines and two propellers, either one of the propellers to be driven by either engine.

GROWERS GET GOOD RETURNS

Florida Vegetables Growers Association's Good Work

Under the able management of Harry Ward the Florida Vegetable Growers Association has made good this season. At the present time celery that under ordinary conditions would not bring 50 cents per crate is netting the growers $1.00. The association has been a power and every grower is pleased with the good showing made. At this time last season the price was very low and the good price prevailing this year while not entirely due to the association has certainly been bettered by the methods of marketing pursued by the association.

Co-operation is the secret of success in business these days and until all the growers are corralled, under one head a systematic method of growing and marketing crops will never be effected.

Despite difficulties and knotty problems the first year of the association has certainly been a success and should stimulate the growers into creating a much larger membership next season. In unity there is strength!

Death of F. J. Symes

After a short illness and surrounded by his children and grandchildren F. J. Symes breathed his last on Sunday at the home of his daughter, Mrs. B. A. Howard. The funeral services occurred on Monday. Rev. J. F. McKinnon officiating. Interment was made in the family burying ground at McBain, Michigan.

Mr. Symes was greatly beloved by all who knew him at his adopted home in the Southland. He had been coming to Sanford for several years and was largely interested in the improvement of this section.

His cheerful, helpful life; devoted to his wife and family and kindness to everybody will long linger as a fragrant memory in the home which his presence brightened and which death has now darkened. Though he is gone his record has been made and will remain with us as a lasting treasure. His life was gentle but like the still waters it was deep. In his heart he carried those he loved, and his hand never weary, his steps never failed in caring for and ministering to those who were in any way dependent upon him.

Besides a devoted wife he leaves two daughters, Mrs. B. A. Howard and Mrs. Kent Rossetter, and one son, Roy T. Symes all of this city. We can only remind these mourners that he is not dead he is only asleep—resting after a long and well spent life here, he cannot, and would not if he could return to us; we can, if we will, go to him. Behind the storm clouds always lurks the rainbow and when the storm is past it weeps upon the flowers of the land and the pearls of the sea. Darkness precedes the dawning and out of the blackness of night comes the sunshine and joy of the day.

Card of Thanks

Died March 26, 1911, at the home of of his daughter, Mrs. B. A. Howard, Mr. Frank J. Symes. To those who so kindly assisted us at the time of our bereavement. We wish to express our heart-felt thanks.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

Nine people were killed and fourteen injured in a Dixie Flyer wreck at Tifton, Ga., last Sunday.

One hundred and fifty people were killed in a shirt waist factory fire in New York last Saturday. Lack of fire escapes was the principal cause of the many deaths.

John F. Gaynor, just released from the federal prison at Atlanta, Ga., where he and his partner, Benjamin F. Greene, were sent for frauds estimated at $2,000,000 in the contract for the Savannah harbor improvements, has arrived in New York, a physical wreck.

There are multiplying evidences that the coming session of congress is going to be a long one. When the Dingley bill was passed at an extra session congress finished its work during the month of August, and when the labor of making the Payne-Aldrich tariff bill it was done it was the latter part of July. If adjournment is had at the coming extra session before September many persons will be surprised.

An Atlanta preacher paid $25 for speeding his automobile. Preachers seem to have no rights at the capital of Georgia that even the law respects.

A Cincinnati druggist was fined $50 and costs for selling cocaine without a prescription. This is another case of the punishment not being in proportion to the offense.

A clear chain of wireless telegraph stations extending from Maine to Florida is now included in the Marconi Wireless Telegraph Company's system, according to the company's annual report. Many coastwise vessels south of New York have been added to the fleet equipped with the Marconi system.

It is stated from sources that are close to the president that the pardon appeals of both Charles W. Morse, the convict banker and "ice king" of New York, and John R. Walsh, the convicted Chicago banker will be denied.

With the proposed international highway from New York to Montreal apparently in a fair way of success, friends of the project are now advertising the extension of the road from New York to Jacksonville, Fla. A bill appropriating $1,000,000 to complete New York's state share of the highway from New York to Rouse's Point passed the senate and probably will come up for passage in the assembly this week. Governor Dix has already announced his approval of the measure.

Can't Kiss The Babies

Columbus, Miss., March 29.—"Don't kill me; I don't like it, and you may have germs. Try some one who likes it."

Thus reads the tag worn by the first company of the first regiment of babies enlisted in the campaign against tuberculosis by the American Tuberculosis Exhibition, under the direction of E. G. Routzahn.

The mothers have enrolled the children and tagged them. There will be more as the fight goes on and other mothers join in the crusade to preserved baby's health.

Livingstone College Recital

Mrs. Hornighous went to Enterprise Saturday to assist in a recital at Livingstone College. Mrs. Hornighous is at the head of the vocal department of the college and Mrs. Matland at the head of the piano and school of expression. These two teachers, assisted by the students of the three departments, gave a recital last Saturday evening, which was attended by a large and appreciative audience. The college is growing in numbers and interest and is now preparing for the first commencement exercises.

Hogs Stolen

B. F. Ball who resides near Ethel, in Lake County had seven hogs stolen one day last week. Five of them escaped and returned home but the other two are probably in some other fellow's pen. The hogs were black with white feet and Mr. Ball would like to learn of their whereabouts.

Special Correspondence to The Herald.

I understand that a scrimmage took place in one of the "near beer" places last week in which one of the parties was hit on the head with a near beer bottle. Being a near bottle the blow was only a near blow inflicting a near wound. The near fight was hushed up there being no near policeman to make a near arrest and we hope there will be no more near fights in the near beer saloons in the near future.

Those veiled threats and innuendoes directed against yours truly have no more effect than water on a duck's back. There are many things that need the searchlight of publicity directed upon them and while I have been tongue-tied in some instances for the good of Sanford no such scrapes will hold me longer and I purpose to open up a continuous performance shortly that will jar the gold paved streets of Sanford.

Whether the opera house is safe or not it deprives us of a place of amusement and I hope that Mr. DeCottea will be able to get an air dome up the status of affairs changes. If the building is unsafe no one wants to go in it and the remedy ought to be applied at once. The dull summer will be dull indeed with no moving picture show.

The fire last week demonstrated the truth of my assertion that Sanford needs better water pressure, two hose wagons, two drivers and a first class fire department. The volunteers work faithfully but the fire also burned slowly and under adverse circumstance a different tale might have been told. My idea of the two wagons, two paid drivers and a better department still holds good and you can't beat it for the money.

A great calamity has been averted for the south. Booker Washington was assaulted in New York by a man who alleges that Booker was peeping through the keyhole. As to whether there is any truth in the assertion or not remains to be seen but what a howl would have gone up if the assault had taken place in the south and what a beautiful opportunity for the northern "yellows" to jump on the south--but "it happened in Nordland" to use the phrase of Weber and Fields.

The best way to build up a city is for each and every man in it not to strive to rend and tear down. Wherever a man in the town is doing well do not try to tear him down. All the residents of a town are partners not opponents. In all likelihood the more business done by your rival the more you will do. Every gentleman who treats his customer honestly, courteously and fairly, will get his share, and the more business that can be secured by united effort, the better it will be for all. When a town ceases to grow it commences to die, and the more the people try to kill off each other in their business and good name, the more rapidly will utter ruin come to all. Stand together for the advancement of every citizen. If a man shows ability to prosper do not pull him back with jealousy or weigh him down with cold indifference.

How many of our children's parents ever visit the schools or even know the teachers when they meet them on the street? How many know what their children are studying, or how they are progressing? Is there any of you who have a building to make or a fence to build; a dress to make; a house to paint, or whatever the job may be, that say to the one you have employed: "Here are the tools and material, go ahead and do it to suit yourself, and it will suit me". Is not that what many of you are doing with your children. You say by your actions: "Here is my child, with books, paper and pencil, I've furnished material and tools, educate him as you like." Now we hear some of you say: "The teacher knows better what they ought to study than I do." While that may be in part true, the carpenter or a dress-maker, or a painter, knows better how to work than you do, yet you do not leave it all to them. On the rising generation depends the welfare of this great nation. Patrons and parents, take more interest in our schools and visit them often, and by your presence give the teachers more encouragement; ask them how your children are doing. Perhaps a few minutes talk with them will save trouble that years to come can never undo. Think about this and ask yourself if you are doing right.

Jacksonville and several other Florida cities are having an epidemic of hydrophobia and it would be well for Sanford to keep an eye open to this disease among the dogs. Our city is burdened with hundreds of worthless dogs and right now steps should be taken to make the owners keep them off the streets or muzzle them. If the dogs are not worth taking care of they are not worth having, and the best thing that could happen to about two hundred of them would be sudden death.

The backyard is the measure of the man who lives in front of it. As the backyard is, so is the man. It is an unerring index to the character of the owner or renter. He may maintain the bluff of lace curtains at the front windows, but if the backyard is cluttered with rubbish and allowed to remain untrimmed and unkempt it shows that he is simply a "four-flusher" with no prospect of filling his hand. If you are thinking of employing a man and suspect that there is some shoddy mixed with the character fiber, go and take a good-rubber-neck at his backyard. It will tell the story better than a bushel of gilt edged references. The bluffer never thinks of his back yard.

Of recent years it has become the practice of the party in power to take care of its so-called "lame ducks." Never before in the history of the country did so many prominent United States senators fail of re-election as this year. National figures that we had been forced to believe were fixtures in the senate as long as they should live were given their dismissals from our highest legislative body, but it appears that they are not to be forced away from the government's money crib. The president has selected a number of these for important government positions, in many instances with salaries attached of even greater amounts than the pay of a senator.

Such a practice is not a healthy one in my opinion. If the people of the states which those men represented cared for their services they would have been retained in the senate. By their votes the people who knew those men best said that they were through with them, that they had been tried and found wanting. New men were chosen to take the places of the older lawmakers, but through political pulls and the influence of interests, many of those same men have landed in berths just as important and just as desirable from a monetary standpoint as the seats in the senate.

Some politicians of no more than ordinary ability seem to feel that their party owes them a living and they are going to see to it that it is collected. Many of this class have been in office since they were young men and they will undoubtedly die with their names on the government payroll.

It is a strange thing how some politicians feel that they must step right from one office to another. We have had examples of such in Florida. Before they finish a term in one office they are casting about to find some other snap they can usurp.

The men who were retired from the United States senate on the fourth of this month were in the most part, undesirable as officer holders and it would have been better had President Taft permitted them to return to private life.

The Ananias Fishing Club
The Ananias Fishing Club held an interesting meeting last week and elected P. M. Elder, president; W. J. Williams, vice president; W. L. Miltner, treasurer and J. K. Mettinger, secretary. The club expects to purchase a launch and a camping outfit and will go into the fish business on a large scale. The proceeds from the fish will go toward publishing that book soon to be edited by George Washington Spencer.

WHAT CURES ECZEMA?

We have had so many inquiries lately regarding Eczema and other skin diseases, that we are glad to make our answer public. After careful investigation we have found that a simple wash of Oil of Wintergreen, as compounded in D. D. D., can be relied upon. We would not make this statement to our patrons, friends and neighbors unless we were sure of it--and although there are many so-called Eczema remedies sold, we ourselves unhesitatingly recommend D. D. D. Prescription.

Because--We know that it gives instant relief to that torturing itch.

Because--D. D. D. starts the cure at the foundation of the trouble.

Because--It cleanses, soothes and heals the skin.

Because--It enables Nature to repair the ravages of the disease.

Because--The records of ten years of complete cures of thousands of the most serious cases show that D. D. D. is today recognized as the absolutely reliable Eczema cure.

Drop into our store today, just to talk over your case with us.

After Socialist

To the Editor of The Herald:

In the last issue of your paper there is an article signed "Socialist." Now what does "Socialist" want? Is not this the best government on earth? Is not our system of business economics the finest, grandest, most honest the sun ever shone on? Are not the people satisfied with present conditions? Are they not exactly what the people made them by their votes? Do not the people get just what they voted for? If they "get it in the neck" is it not because they voted that way? Is not competition the life of trade? Is not the survival of the fittest a law of nature; that is, that the strong and cunning shall survive and simple minded shall go to the wall, be crushed under foot? Is not this right? Is not the height of civilization, as exemplified in this glorious country, "Every man for himself and the devil take the hindmost?"

J. P. W.

Please publish this, as I should like these questions to be answered by "Socialist," or some one else.

Herndon House on Fire

The large residence of E. H. Herndon on Magnolia avenue, and occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Brown, caught fire in the upper part last Saturday about one o'clock and for a time it looked as though the house and several others would go. The water pressure was slow in coming and lack of organization gave the fire a good chance. The volunteers did good work and finally gained control, but not until the whole roof and upper story had been damaged by flames and the entire house ruined by water.

The people acted as they always do under stress of excitement and carefully carried pillows down stairs and rudely threw mirrors out of the window. Several strong minded men carefully took the blinds off the house and gave the fire a better draft but saved the blinds.

Mrs. Brown lost some valuable silver during the excitement. Some person who walked off with it is probably walking yet and when they see this article will return the same.

Mr. Herndon had the house partially insured and will suffer a loss on his furniture. The Browns also lost heavily and will be deprived of a home until the house is repaired.

As usual the fire demonstrated the need of a paid fire department.

An Interesting Relic

F. W. Munson of this city has an interesting souvenir of the civil war in the shape of a portion of the Vicksburg Daily Citizen, of the date of July 2, 1863. During the siege of Vicksburg the printers could not get newspaper and were forced to print the news upon wall paper. The portion of paper in the possession of Mr. Munson was set in type on the second and issued on the fourth after the surrender of the city to Grant, being published by his order on that date. The following note in the paper explains the situation: "Two days bring about great changes. For the last time the Citizen appears on wall paper. No more will it eulogize the luxury of mule meat and fricasseed kitten. This is the last wall paper edition and is from the type as we found them: Soldier printers worked this form".

After the capture of the city the soldiers found the forms ready for press and printed the paper a copy of which Mr. Munson now holds for a souvenir. The print is very legible and the news contained therein is very interesting reading at this late day and Mr. Munson prizes the paper very highly.

Mrs. Annie Erickson

Mrs. Annie Erickson died on March 18th at her home on West Third street this city. Interment was made on Sunday in Lakeview cemetery. Mrs. Erickson leaves three daughters and a son to mourn the loss of a loving mother.

After a long, busy and useful life she died as she had lived—honored, trusted and loved. She reared her own monument while she lived in the hearts of all who knew her. Her life was completed if work all done and well done constitutes completion. Her Christian life was beautiful from its beginning to its close, and through all the vicissitudes and sorrows that she met in the way, her faith in God never wavered.

Mourn not the lost! In realms of changeless gladness Where friendship's ties are never crushed and broken, we still may meet; He who beholds our sadness Hath to the trusting heart assurance spoken of that blest land, where, free from care and pain, Fond friends unite again."

DRAWBRIDGE ACROSS ST. JOHNS

Will Prove of Great Value to Sanford and Geneva People

The county commissioners of Orange county now are contemplating the immediate construction of a drawbridge across the St. Johns river at Cook's ferry and have had an expert in bridge building to make the proper soundings to ascertain if there was right kind of bottom there on which to rest the foundation. His report was favorable and it is now thought that the work on construction will begin at an early date. This improvement will be of great importance to Sanford as it will place the residents of the Geneva peninsula in direct touch with Sanford and enable them to get in and out of this city with little or no trouble as compared with the past. The bridge will also become a most important factor in the development of this large body of land.

It is planned to establish a town at or near Cook's ferry and the surveyors are now in the field busy with this project. The branch of the East Coast railway now being extended from Palatka by the way of Maytown to Lake Okechobee will pass directly through the city of Geneva and the center of this body of land, thus making all portions of it available for immediate settle.

The merchants of Sanford are much gratified at this additional plan of development which will be worked out from this city, as it will bring hundreds of families here and will increase every line of business. It is the purpose of the promoting land to place in service a line of light boats to ply between Sanford and Cook's ferry and others points which are touched by the water. The company has some bluff river front lands which will be very valuable for winter homes after their scheme of improvements have been installed. The headquarters of the company are temporarily in Sanford and will later be removed to Bloomington, Ills., from which the major portion of the business of the city will be handled.—Times-Union.

Diversity of Florida Crops

Cattle and hogs can be raised here better and more cheaply than anywhere else in the Union, because the food can be produced more easily and the climate is more favorable, and there is more water, which is a necessary requisite.

No state in the Union can surpass Florida in either corn or cotton, both of the long and short variety. It is the real home of the tobacco plant and nowhere in the south can syrup be made with the excellent flavor of the Florida product.

Alfalfa, peas, clover, peanuts, chufas, pumpkins and in fact every vegetable and farm product that can be grown in the temperate or semi-tropical regions can be grown in Florida with the greatest ease and facility. Every fruit on the continent, with the exception of apples, does well in this state, and does better than in most other places.

While Florida boasts and should boast of her wonderful climate and of the fact that in the winter this is the playground for all the rest of the country, sight should never be lost of the important fact that the great diversity of her agricultural products is Florida's best asset, and is the attraction that is drawing thousands of sturdy farmers from the great northwest to make their homes among us add to the greatness of this nature favored state.—Ft. Pierce Tribune.

Card of Thanks

We the children of Mrs. Annie Erickson wish to thank the many friends for their many acts of kindness and words of comfort in the sickness and death of our beloved mother.

A PROPHET

or the son of a prophet are not required to predict that farm lands in Orange County will never cost less. Desirable cheap government land has decreased so rapidly the past few years that improved farming land in this section have felt the law of supply and demand and are rapidly increasing in value. Don't delay. See us today.

 Subscription Price, $2.00 a Year in Advance
 Entered as second-class mail matter August 22nd

Office in Herald Building
 Telephone No. 148.

Every citizen in Sanford should become a member of the Commercial Club.

Baseball season is with us again and Sanford should encourage a good team.

Don't let that matter of a drawbridge across the lake at Geneva crossing slip your memory. The board meets on April 4th, and you should see your commissioner about it.

At last we have received a copy of the daily Ft. Myers Press and it is a credit to Lee county. Congratulations to Bros. Ruhl and Stout. The people should give the paper their support which such enterprise deserves.

After paying all premiums and expenses, the Orange County Fair Association has a cash balance of $2,000. And yet there are many good citizens of Orange County who hesitated to take stock in the Association.

Hon. H. H. McCreary, editor of the Gainesville Sun leaves for Tallahassee in a few days in his capacity as Senator. He is lucky in having such a fine force as Major Butler, F. M. Prewitt and his son Elmer McCreary to manage affairs while he is away. Major Butler at the helm assisted by Mr. Prewitt is just as good as any newspaper would want.

CAPITOL REMOVAL

The question of removing the capitol from Tallahassee to some other city is again being agitated this time by St. Augustine. We hope Tallahassee will hold it until after the meeting of the Press Association and then we will bring it back to Sanford which is really the best location in the state since so much development has taken place south of us. When the removal takes place Sanford will get the state house—we repeat, when it takes place.

The parties who circulated the report that there was small pox in the public schools ought to receive a jail sentence. Mayor Jewell of Orlando made this offense a penal one and the party who started any small pox reports in Orlando was promptly jailed. Such a procedure should be taken in Sanford for this glaring small pox advertising has gone far enough. Just why any one should start such a report without any foundation is a mystery. The Herald has kept quiet long enough on this subject, and a few exposures will silence these small pox reporters.

UNDER CHARITY'S GUISE

Sanford has been worked to death by travelling attractions that blow into town and under the protecting wing of some society put on a show, and by this method the dear public is obliged to come across for tickets in advance. The young ladies are obliged to canvass the city and hold up the people, thinking they are working for the interests of Sanford, when in reality they are working for the principals in the attractions, who blow out of town the next day with two-thirds of the gate receipts. If any charities of this city wish to raise money in the future do it by your own individual efforts. There is not a business man in Sanford who would rather guarantee a certain sum to the hospital, improvement society, high school, fraternities, library or what not, every year than to be obliged to give up every day to some so-called home affair. Charity begins at home and if we are obliged to give up our ill gotten gains and filthy lucre for sweet charity's sake then let sweet charity keep said lucre at home, where it can revert to the trade channels and where we can all have a chance to corral it again.

WHY NOT?

Speaking of express companies and the necessity for them as the means of doing a systematic transportation of small packages, did it ever occur to you to give a thought or two to the baggage system of the same railroads that haul the express matter? You hand in your baggage, get a paper tag check for it, and on your arrival at the common destination of yourself and the baggage you present the check and recover your property. It would seem to be a reasonable inference that by putting on a few more baggage cars and agents the roads could handle the express business with the same certainty and convenience and cheapness that they now do the baggage business. The public is coming to the conclusion that the railroads should be required to do their transportation business in full at reasonable compensation instead of creating parasite companies as an excuse for doubling and trebling the charges. In cool fact there is no reason in business why there should be separate express companies. They are merely a tool and convenience for extorting money from the shipping public. They and their officials do nothing that could not be done just as well by railroad clerks and messengers. —Tampa times.

THOSE IMPORTANT BRIDGES

At the last meeting of the Commercial Club the matter of bridges across the river at the end of Celery avenue and at Geneva ferry came up for discussion.

Mr. J. T. McLain of Geneva urged the prompt construction of a bridge and explained the importance of the highway to the business community of Sanford.

Mr. F. L. Woodruff, our commissioner, has given this matter much time and careful consideration and gave excellent reasons why the people of Sanford should give this work substantial support.

It is estimated that the Geneva bridge will cost $10,000. The county will pay one-half and Mr. Whitcomb stated that the company he represented would pay one-fourth. This leaves a balance of $2,500.00 to be found.

The president of the Commercial Club appointed a committee to call on our merchants, professional men, property owners and manufacturers for money to complete the work. All funds put out by our people for the construction of this bridge will be an investment pure and simple. This is a very important matter, and it is to be hoped it will be met by our citizens in the usual patriotic, public spirit by which they are influenced to stand by Sanford first, last and all the time. It has become common talk over the state: "The people of Sanford are building a city." Sanford has its shoulder to the wheel.

The committee will call on our citizens in the interest of this work at an early date. Prompt and liberal response will be appreciated by those who have been delegated. Engage in this undertaking.

The bridge across the river at the end of Celery Ave., known as the east coast bridge will for a time be a toll bridge. Reasonable rates will be assessed on automobiles and other vehicles. This bridge will be used not only by our people, but by many who are passing to and from the east coast. The Geneva bridge is a county bridge to be used by those of our friends in the Geneva section who are knocking at our door for a place to trade. Will we help them become a member of our family?

The Wednesday Club

A large number of the members of the club were present Wednesday afternoon at their last meeting in the charming home of Mrs. Geo. H. Fernald.

After the conclusion of the program the club expressed their appreciation of Mrs. Fernald's hospitality by a rising vote of thanks.

Those members who were not present Wednesday afternoon are notified that Mrs. D. L. Thrasher has kindly invited the club to make her house their club home for the month of April.

Miss Gertrude Speer opened the program for the afternoon by reading her paper on Hampden-Sidney College, which had been postponed from last week. This short but interesting review of the college noted that its founder, Samuel Stanhope Smith, gave the institution the name of Prince Edward Academy, and that a year later the name was changed to Hampden-Sidney College, in honor of the men who gave their lives in the cause of liberty.

The life sketch of Edgar Allen Poe, with the "Pathological Study" was a brief but most interesting paper by Mrs. G. B. Waldron, who cleverly sketched the percentage, early life and subsequent but short career, and lamentably sad life of this erratic, but remarkably gifted southern poet and writer.

Mrs. A. E. Phillips entertained her listeners by a charmingly prepared paper on "Poe's Place in Literature." A unique synopsis of the weird and mysterious names he gave his poetical and prose writing, with striking comments upon many.

In Mrs. L. R. Phillips' absence, Mrs. C. C. Worthington read "The Haunted Palace and Anabell Lee," selections from Poe's poems which were much enjoyed by the club.

Program for April 5th:
 I. Patrick Henry—"Virginia's Great Commoner." Mrs. H. H. Chappell.

Reading, (Hallie Rives), Mrs. J. C. McDaniel.

II. Chief Justice Marshall, Mrs. O. W. King.

James Monroe, Miss Alice Whitner.

George Mason, Miss Peaches Loffer.

The Randolphs, Miss Mell Whitner.

George Wythe, Mrs. Lyman Phelps.

The Lees, Mrs. S. O. Shinholser.

Pendleton, Miss Charlotte Keeler.

Roll call from the patriots.

Mrs. John Z. McDonald

Few persons are able to round out full eighty years and keep body and mind vigorous nearly to the end. Such was the life of Mrs. Belle McDonald, who came to a peaceful end on the morning of Wednesday, Mar. 22nd. Up to last summer when Mrs. MacDonald fell and broke her hip she was still in the vigor of a second youth. Few of her friends thought after the accident that she would be able to get up again; but in an incredibly short time she was about on crutches, mentally as alert as ever.

A strong will power and cheerful grip on life were bringing her back again to her accustomed vigor, when she was stricken down a few weeks ago with fever. This fever was soon broken, but she failed to rally and grew gradually weaker. It was evident to those who watched that the end was approaching. Tuesday friends from her old home in Longwood spent the afternoon with her. Wednesday morning she seemed rather stronger, but suddenly the heart grew weaker and she passed off quietly about ten o'clock.

Mrs. MacDonald was born in Pennsylvania eighty years ago last September. Her father moved to Ohio five years later and was a pioneer in that state. Thus she experienced the hardships and the trials of frontier life from the very first. The MacDonalds moved to Florida thirty-five years ago and took up a homestead in the then undeveloped wilderness of Longwood.

They set out trees and soon had a vigorously growing orange grove. This was wiped out in the freeze of 1895. But they continued to live upon the place until Mr. MacDonald's death eight years ago. Then Mrs. MacDonald moved to Sanford and has since made her home with Mrs. Will Hand, whom she brought up. Mrs. Hand is her niece and her nearest relative in Sanford.

Mrs. MacDonald early became a Christian, uniting with the Methodist church in Ohio. After the Longwood Congregational church was organized she joined that church. Then on coming to Sanford removed her membership to the Peoples Congregational church of this city.

She was always vigorous, cheerful, determined to make the best of everything. Neighbors tell of many a thoughtful and kindly service rendered by her. "Auntie" MacDonald she was known to all the many friends. "Her works do follow her."

The funeral took place on Thursday at the residence of Mrs. Will Hand. It was in charge of her pastor, Rev. George B. Waldron, assisted by Mr. McKinnon of the Presbyterian church. Burial took place at the cemetery in Longwood, beside the grave of Mr. MacDonald.

A Card of Thanks

Mr. and Mrs. Will Hand wish to express their appreciation of the kindness of neighbors and friends during the sickness and death of their aunt, Mrs. John McDonald.

Notice to Stockholders

You are hereby given notice that a special meeting of the stockholders of the Crystal Ice Company will be held on Monday, the first day of May, A. D. 1911, at the principal office of the company, at its factory site, near city of Sanford, in Orange county, state of Florida, for the purpose of voting upon a proposition to increase its capital stock from Fifty Thousand Dollars, consisting of five hundred shares, of the par value of one hundred dollars each, to Seventy-Five Thousand Dollars, to consist of seven hundred and fifty shares of the par value of one hundred dollars each.

Under and by virtue of an execution issued out of and under the seal of the Circuit Court of the Seventh Judicial Circuit in and for Orange County Florida, wherein Kincaid & Company, limited, a corporation is plaintiff and Frank L. Have you seen Temple's Blue Rose? The recent rains are making fine garden truck. D. M. Gornio, a prominent attorney of Jacksonville was in the city on Tuesday. A. Dorner, of New York has been the guest of his brothers, A. Dorner and Fred Dorner. W. M. Pepper of the Pepper Publishing Co., of Gainesville was in the city on Monday.

Get a Sanford Booster button from Secretary Woodruff and help to advertise your city. Dean Spencer spent several hours in the city on Tuesday enroute from Orlando to Eustis. A. J. Phillips of Knoxville, Tenn., spent a few days in Sanford this week the guest of relatives.

Mrs. Homer Traak and family left on Thursday for Petoskey where they will spend the summer. Dr. Denton and Dr. King have joined the professional auto brigade and both have fine new cars. Mr. and Mrs. L. Gardner are making Sanford their home while Mr. Gardner is compiling a city directory.

B. A. Howard and Roy Symes accompanied the remains of Mr. F. J. Symes to Cadillac, Mich., on Monday. Miss May Hamilton of Sanford has recently accepted a position to teach Latin in the college at Enterprise. G. M. Chapin of the Florida Financial and Industrial Record, was in the city this week in the interest of this great state paper.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Phillips accompanied their friends Mr. and Mrs. Webb Howard, as far as Jacksonville on their return to the North. Mrs. T. L. Lent and little daughter left last week for Baconton, Ga., where they will spend the summer with Mrs. Lent's parents. Mrs. A. E. Housholder returned to her home in Plant City Monday after a pleasant visit at the home of her son, Dr. W. E. Housholder.

Mrs. Chas. Clark received the sad intelligence of the death of her father, Mr. Creys, on Tuesday and left for Rice Creek where he resided at the time of his death. Don Peabody is shaking hands with old Sanford friends this week. Don is now in the theatre business in Ocala and reports business in the Brick city as flourishing.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Aycocke have the sympathy of their many friends in the death of their beautiful baby girl, Lillian, which occurred on Monday last. The remains of the little one were carried on Tuesday by the sorrowing parents to St. Augustine for interment. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Davies have returned to Sanford and will make this city their home. Mr. Davies has accepted a position with the department store of D. A. Caldwell & Co. This firm is doing such a large business that they have added three new clerks during the past week.

Sanford can boast of a number of heroes whose names and achievements have not been emblazoned to the world in poetry and song, but whose willing hearts and ready hands are hers to command when the need arises. The fire last week, like all emergencies are invariable tests, that show what men are. Mr. and Mrs. Harry Maitland spent Tuesday in Sanford as guests of Dr. and Mrs. Homrighous. Mrs. Maitland was over from Enterprise to sing at the musical given by the 'Welaka' Club, and Mr. Maitland, who had been visiting his wife, returned to his work as evangelist singer in the north. This was Mr. Maitland's first trip to Florida and he was delighted with the country.

A former citizen of Sanford, who lived here several years ago, Mr. E. W. Trafford now living in Richmond, Va., is making quite a reputation for himself in his chosen profession, electrical engineering. An article in the Richmond Dispatch last week had some very flattering things to say about him and his work and decisions as an expert on some very important engineering work now in process of erection. Mr. Trafford is a brother of the Misses Emily and Allie Trafford.

Change of Hour for Evening Service By agreement of the pastors the hour for evening service in the churches has changed from 7 to 7:30 o'clock, both for the Sunday and Wednesday evening services.

Barbarous Profit System Hol "ye" Editor:—I see some "socialist crank" is knocking what he calls "this barbarous profit system". What does he propose to do with profit? Does he propose to work for nothing, or, just for his health? For my part I want something for it, and the more I get for it the better I am pleased. I don't see how he can live on air and sun-shine even way down here in Florida. I can't live that way. I generally want three meals a day, and if they are sometimes called a "square meal" I don't kick. The children of Israel wandered around a long time in the wilderness sustained only (except a quail supper) by manna dropped down from Heaven, but manna has stopped coming down in that good old way, and if it hadn't I would be out after my share any old time I had a chance, and if I got more than my share I would want to put it in cold storage and keep it till I might need it.

Now Mr. Editor, if this crank who dares to call you a "comrade", (although I know you are no old soldier, for you have never had to eat "hard-tacks" and gun-powder) wants to work for nothing, send him around and I will find him a job any day in the week and will guarantee him steady employment. Now may be he don't mean to be so generous with his labor power. If he don't, let him explain himself in such a way that no "way-faring man or fool need error therein". I'm out after light. If he has a candle, let him not hide his light under a bushel. If he can make himself clear to your readers I will try to put myself into a receptive mood and garner a few ideas myself. I'm not afraid of any excessive enlargement of gray matter if I learn a little more.

In the old log cabin many years ago seated upon an old slab seat I learned my a-b-c's, from Noah Webster's old blue back speller. I learned my first lesson under the stress of compulsion, having been driven all the way from the parental threshold to this unpretentious seat of learning by a switch in my mother's hand. After the flight of all of the years that have intervened I am more eager to learn than I was in those primitive days, when I was in the first of Shakespeare's seven ages of man.

I've heard it said that some people can only learn when their stomachs get empty. This seems to imply that their thinking powers, if they have any thinking powers at all, are located somewhere in their digestive organs. I hope none of your readers are so constituted either mentally or physically.

In this age of steam, electricity, aviation and general progress some knowledge of economics is essential to a proper mental equipment. The world is moving in more senses than one. Turn on light in more senses than one. Turn on the light and let us see "whither are we drifting". Old Fogy.

CELERY AVENUE NEWS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:
Mr. Andrews who purchased the Whitner estate, the Shell Mound at east end of Celery Ave, has begun the erection of a bungalow facing the Shell Mound. Mr. Andrew will make this his winter home. We learn that contractor Shinholser has the contract for erecting this fine residence. We welcome Mr. Andrews and trust his new purchase may prove both pleasant and profitable.

Byron Squires has gone to the Beach to spend a month or so cavorting with old Neptune.

Mr. and Mrs. John Hawkins, parents of Mr. T. L. Hawkins returned home to Commerce Ga this week.

Mrs. W. A. Raynon has returned home from Sanford where she has been under Dr. Forsters care for a month. We are glad to learn that she is gradually improving.

We regret to learn of the death in Sanford of Mr. Simms, father-in-law of Mr. Kent Rossiter, one of Celery avenues popular truck farmers.

Albert Dorner, of New York is visiting his brother on Celery Ave, Mr. A. Dorner. Mr. Albert is loud in his praise of Sanfords magnificent climate and her marvelous arctean wells.

Celery has been going forward from the farmers quite lively in the past 2 or three weeks and is now pretty well cleaned up.

We note with pleasure and some envy that another of Celery Ave, prosperous celery farmers has taken to motoring. all we ask is please don't run that locomotive on rubber tires over us just give us a get to the side toot and its all yours.

Yours for more automobiles more property, more good roads and last but not least more subscribers for the Herald as it takes subscribers to make a paper. What would we do without a good live paper like the one editor Holly is giving us.

GENEVA JOTTINGS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:
E. N. Sutton spent Saturday and Sunday at New Smyrna with his wife who is slowly improving from her recent illness.

W. H. Howard is on a business trip to Jacksonville.

Mr. Council from North Carolina is in Geneva for a few days looking after his interests here.

Mr. Burns and young daughter, Miss Elizabeth from Louisville Kentucky are visiting their relatives, Dr. J. J. Burns and Mrs. C. A. Raulerson.

Dr. Bosford who lived in Geneva twenty-four years ago, but now hails from Rochester, N. Y., came on a visit to his friend "uncle Jack Holder". For years these two were bosom friends. The people would be glad to have Dr. Bosford stay, he is a true christian physician, doing a kindness where ever he can.

Mrs. Dr. Lewis entertained the M. M. S. society on last Thursday afternoon at her winter cottage on Lake Geneva. It is always a pleasant afternoon the society spends with this cultured lady.

Mr. and Mrs. Curry came over from Orlando Sunday in their machine and visited Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Little and other relatives.

Mrs. Grant and daughter, Miss Nevada, visited Sanford one day last week.

Miss Bray, our teacher in the primary department, is spending the week with Miss Leta Peters.

Young Clifford Proctor has opened a new grocery store, using the same building his father used for many years. Things look clean, goods are new and we trust the public will give our young friend a liberal portion of their patronage.

We are glad to know that Mr. Adams is much more comfortable now than for some time; he can now walk some without the use of his cane.

"Uncle John Holder" also continues to improve slowly.

Quarterly meeting was held at the Methodist church last Saturday and Sunday. The new preaching elder, Mr. Blackman, was present, and gave fine sermons, especially was the eleven o'clock sermon on Sunday instructive, elevating and practicable. Mr. Blackman made many friends while here who hoped to see him in Geneva again soon. He left Sunday afternoon for Sanford where he preached that evening.

The citizens of Geneva are highly in favor of the proposed bridge across the river at the ferry.

PAOLA POINTS

Special Correspondence to The Herald:
This cool, wet weather is a decided change anyway, and the rain is most welcome out here on the hills.

Mrs. Martha Kell and son of Island Lake left for their home in Steubenville, Ohio on Monday, the 20th.

O. F. Cooley of Madison, Wis., is making a visit at his Paola home.

Mrs. E. A. Curtis is again among us.

Mr. and Miss Campbell returned from St. Petersburg Thursday.

Mrs. W. W. Long, Mr. W. H. Wood and Prof. Elliot of Sanford made a weeks' end visit in the family of Mr. C. F. Cooley, returning home Sunday evening.

A delightful surprise, in shape of chicken pillau, was given Miss Zachary in honor of her birthday last Saturday evening. The jolly party going out on the evening train were "returned" by a big mill team in the "wee sma' hours."

We understand there is again some prospect of a good road from Sylvan Lake to Paola, if the people of the neighborhood will do their part, and it is to be hoped they may be induced to pull together and put the matter through this time.

OVIEDO AND LAKE CHARM

Special Cor. to The Herald.

Mrs. Mary E. Foster and party left Lake Charm for their northern homes Monday morning March 27. Mrs. Foster and companion for Clifton Springs, N. Y., Madam Mead for Brooklyn, N. Y., Miss Louise Manning Hodgkins for Wilbraham, Mass., Miss Margaret Evans for Northfield, Minn., Miss Hodgkins and Miss Evans will visit Dayton and St. Augustine before leaving Jacksonville.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Hankinson and Mrs. Smith, mother of Mrs. Hankinson, leave for their new homes in New Jersey the first of April after spending several weeks in Mrs. McCheaney's cottage at Lake Charm. They will be several days in St. Augustine before sailing from Jacksonville.

Mr. T. L. Mead and Madam Mead, his mother, made a pleasant trip to Eustis just previous to their going north. The Meads have recently sold large property interests in Eustis, a former home; Mrs. Mead had great pleasure in meeting many friends and old acquaintances.

Mrs. T. L. Mead arrived at Lake Charm Friday, March 24, after several months of travel in European countries. The trip from Naples to Sanford was made in fourteen days—a short trip since the voyage was made via one of the slower going steam ships. As Mr. and Mrs. Mead stepped from the Sanford train a large company of friends and neighbors had assembled at the Lake Charm station to give Mrs. Mead a cordial welcome home.

Messrs. Wadley and Wright, contractors, are making fine progress with the new railroad—Mr. Wadley goes back and forth every day from Oviedo in a fine auto. Mrs. Wadley has recently spent a week with her husband at Captain Argo's house. Mr. Hale, supervising engineer, and wife, are located at the Argo house for some months. Mr. and Mrs. Wadley, Mr. and Mrs. Hale were invited guests to tea one evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Yonge. The Wadley family and the Yonge family were old-time Georgia friends.

Oviedo is to have a new grocery store in the Wilson Block, Douglas and Drew are proprietors.

Mr. L. F. Lezatt and W. F. Strand, who have been prospecting in Florida with a view to settling permanently have reached their homes near New York. Before leaving they purchased building lots of Mr. Joe Leinhardt and contemplate new dwellings for their families before another fall. Mr. Lezatt in writing up their trip for his home paper in Cattkill speaks very flattering of Lake Charm and Oviedo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Luther and guests Miss Canley, Miss Zettrance and Mrs. C. L. West attended the school picnic at Geneva Tuesday. Miss Zettrance of Savannah, Ga., is making a brief visit in Oviedo at Mr. and Mrs. Luther's home.

Mr. C. E. Taylor of New York is spending several weeks at the Cushing House. This popular hostelry is the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hays, newly married young people in our midst.

Oviedo and Lake Charm are appreciating copious showers of rain these days.

MOORE'S STATION

To the editor of The Herald:
Frank Rultenik of Mentor, Ohio was a visitor here again last week making twice within a month he has been here investigating the gardening lands, his brother-in-law Mr. Langman of Cincinnati, Ohio was with him this trip.

Mr. Crimm of Cameron Ave, was in Cincinnati, Ohio, and Indianapolis, Ind., last week on a business trip for the growers association.

A party of about twenty young folks gave Miss Annie Cameron a surprise party last Friday evening, a fine time is reported.

There are said to be several cases of whooping cough and measles among the youngsters about here.

Some of the Ohio people about here are talking about a buckeye club on society, why not? and use the horsechestnut for a badge as they do in Eustis, St. Petersburg and other places in Florida.

The contest was ended at the Sunday School last Sunday and the red ribbon side was ahead with credit for bringing in the most new pupils, the blue ribbon side are feeling "blue" as it is their business to provide a treat for the red ribbon pupils, a picnic and fish fry is being planned for April 8 to take place at Geyena ferry.

Archie Cameron is buying the celery raised by some of the smaller growers about here.

At the West Side Park

On Thursday March 23, at 3 p. m. the ladies of the West Side Improvement Society met at West Side Park to enjoy a little picnic, the first of a series of those little social outings. The gentlemen of the west side being rather delicate felt that they could not face the inclement weather, decided to stay indoors, and were noticeable by their absence, however the occasion was graced by his honor, the Mayor, and gentlemen of the city council, who after looking over the park, and drinking from the fount of pure life giving water, gave a verdict that Sanford afforded none better. They were pleased and surprised at the progress made by the improvement society in so short a time and pledged themselves to lend a helping hand when it was needed.

Oh! Ye Editor of the Sanford Herald where were ye, methinks ye must have won a new panama in the grand Herald contest ye were afraid ye might get it spoiled by the dampness of the atmosphere or perhaps ye were afraid ye might catch cold in that broad high noble forehead of yours. Under the circumstances ye are excused.

After a while spent in pleasant consideration the table was spread and all were invited to draw near and partake of the delicious cake and cream prepared by the ladies which was enjoyed very much. It became necessary to take refuge under umbrellas, most of us being Methodist and Presbyterians, had no objection to sprinkling, but there was not a sufficiency for the needs of our deep water sisters and brethren who were well represented. All declared a most enjoyable time and moved to adjourn to their respective homes, they were a little damp but still in the ring.

If your aim in life is to economize and to have for your everyday use dependable goods at the lowest possible prices we ask you, not for our sake, nor for this town's sake, nor for the sake of anything but your own pocket book and your bank account, to aim for our store and hit the centre of economical buying. The Mapes Complete Manures

Where seems to be great dissatisfaction throughout the State generally as to the results obtained from most of the fertilizers used last season.

Many growers are now beginning to see clearly what we have been suggesting for some time, they might expect to have happen from the continued use of the Acid Phosphate (rock) goods.

A curiously large number of those of our old customers who were gotten away from us by the inducements of the so called "cheap goods" "Just as good as Mapes," are coming back to us this season to have their groves and fields restored.

The Mapes Fertilizers are evidently considered a refuge in extremity when help is needed and hope almost gone. You certainly get the benefits of over thirty years experience in Florida and over fifty years in the manufacture of fertilizers generally. If we cannot help you the case is indeed hopeless.

SANFORD :: FLORIDA

Improved transportation is the forerunner of increased values.

An Investment in the 7 per cent Preferred Stock of the

SANFORD LAND DEVELOPMENT CO.

LOOKS GOOD!

Suppose you had a thousand dollars to loan. A mortgage on a good farm for five years at 7 per cent. would look like a good place for it, wouldn't it?

At the end of the five years your money would come back to you and you would have the thousand dollars and 35 per cent. of interest, or $1,350.

Suppose you should buy Preferred Stock in the Sanford Land Development Company for the thousand dollars.

At the end of the five years it would come back to you plus 5 per cent., or $1,050 of principal, and you would have drawn the 7 per cent. dividends semi-annually, which would equal $350, the same as the farm mortgage, and the whole amount would be $1,400 OR A GAIN OF 50 PER CENT. ON THE DEAL THAT FAR.

BUT THAT ISN'T ALL

We give you a bonus of 25 per cent. of common stock. You would get $250 of a bonus of common stock, and when your money was paid back for the Preferred this common would be worth much more than its face of $250. It should pay you at least 50 per cent. dividend every year thereafter. But if it doesn't, it will always be worth the $250. which, to the $1,400, would make $1,650 for your thousand, which would be $350 better than a 7 per cent. farm mortgage.

Perhaps you think it isn't safe, but if you will ask the business men of Sanford they will assure you that it is.

Our announcement which was published last week in The Herald was given a lot of very favorable comment. Business men in position to judge of its merits called on us to offer congratulations and also subscribed for stock. Some wrote us letters telling what they thought of it.

BELOW ARE PUBLISHED A FEW LETTERS ON THE SUBJECT:

SANFORD, FLORIDA, March 24, 1911.

Mr. B. A. Howard, President,
Sanford Land Development Company,
Sanford, Florida:

Dear Sir:—I have carefully read your announcement, outlining the policy of your Company, which was published in The Sanford Herald of the 17th. You can perform with ease every promise made in this prospectus. Every dollar of your common stock, I predict, will be worth three for one inside of five years. The preferred stock offers to the public an investment of the soundest sort, at a very high dividend rate for anything so well secured. The business is sound in every particular, and you should meet with immediate success in selling your securities.

Yours truly,
(Signed) W. D. HOLDEN

SANFORD, FLORIDA, March 23, 1911.

Howard-Packard Land Company, City:

Gentlemen:—I have noticed with much interest and pleasure your announcement of the new Development Company and but for absence, would have written my hearty endorsement of your plans ere this. Having planted the first celery grown at Sanford and closely identified with every development since, I wish to say that my experience convinces me that you are on the right line.

To put the matter as briefly as possible, it is unquestionably true that the sub-irrigated lands of Sanford, properly and economically handled, would pay a handsome interest on $1,000 per acre. I base this on the fact that from October until April, independently of rain or drought, we can grow all vegetables for the northern market. Between April and October, on these same lands, we can grow as much corn as is grown in Illinois and Missouri per acre, and remember that the corn is worth 50 per cent. more in Florida than it is in those states. After this crop is gathered the land is ready to begin to plant the fall crop of vegetables.

It is not quite clear to my mind that corn would be the most profitable crop, possibly rice or peanuts would yield a larger revenue. At any rate our sub-irrigated lands are worth as much from April to October as any farm lands in the country. In addition to this, from October to April we believe them worth more for truck growing purposes.

Not to take up any more of your time, I wish to say I am going to take some stock in your Company and wish to avail myself of the opportunity to buy some preferred, with a bonus of common stock.

Yours truly,
(Signed) J. N. WHITNER

SANFORD, FLORIDA, March 29, 1911.

Sanford Land Development Company,
Sanford, Florida:

Gentlemen:—I have noticed with interest your plan for opening up a line of improvement, development and investment that is to differ widely from anything heretofore proposed. Your proposition looks good to me. I believe it will prove a fine success and that those who take hold of it will make no mistake. It would seem that the returns must be not only safe and sure, but highly satisfactory. Your concentration of effort and the command you will thus have of the factors that determine results, as for instance economy in operating, highest quality of product, minimum carrying rates, advantageous distribution and marketing, etc., all augur the very best for those who take hold of or connect themselves with your Company.

I congratulate you on your plan and bespeak for you and all concerned the largest measure of prosperity and financial profit.

Very truly yours,
E. T. WOODRUFF,
Sec'y Sanford Commercial Club

WILL HELP SANFORD

Now this stock is not only a good investment for you in the way of dividends, but it will help the entire situation. To improve a thousand acres of land will require a lot of labor, materials and equipment. Every dollar paid out for labor will find its way in the hands of merchants, business men and banks at Sanford.

Improving a thousand acres of land will inspire confidence of capital in our town and district.

It will stimulate farm values.

It will keep our town growing.

It will make additional business for everyone in Sanford.

It will relieve the dullness of a summer season which is sure to follow a strenuous winter of truck-gardening.

THE SANFORD LAND DEVELOPMENT COMPANY will help the small farmer.

HOW?

By having influence and capital enough to help solve the problems of selling and transportation. These are the two great problems before the Sanford Growers. A company with sufficient acreage and capital can do what cannot even be attempted under present methods.

WE WANT YOUR SUBSCRIPTION

We do not look to Sanford for a great deal of the capital stock of our company. Most of our capital will be from the north and east. This outside capital is what will help Sanford.

BUT WE WANT YOUR INFLUENCE

If our solicitors in the north can show their customers that our home people have taken stock it will help them. The amount you take is not so important as your name. We want you on our list of stockholders and we want you now.

You can pay for this stock in five payments.

Get some of this first issue of stock while you can get the bonus of 25 per cent. of common.

Let us explain any point to you which you may not understand.

California's Climate

A gentleman writing to the Chester (Pa.) News about California draws a comparison favorable to Florida and at the suggestion of Prof. Maris who knows the gentlemen the article is produced below:

"My first impression of California, received in the lower end, was that it was one grand desert. Then all at once we dropped into a garden evidently made by man, because such as I saw was not natural, but created through irrigation. Through the liberality of the banks and the financial classes, it has become today a paradise.

"We also find that in this proposition we had an opening for certain financial interests like the Southern Pacific, to gain a monopoly and force out the independent investor. They have a grand monopoly of that great territory of Southern California and Los Angeles, and as I found it, oranges that were shipped to the East cost more for shipment than for production. The railroads being interested have complete control of the citrus belt. The stranger going into California and not being wise to this proposition, would lose his money as quickly as in any proposition in the East.

"As you go farther north in California, you get into the bean district and Santa Barbara, in the Santa Clara Valley. The bean is the only thing they can ship, as strawberries, which they can raise for the market.

"As you go farther north into the oil country, you find that the oil is so impregnated with asphalt that it cannot complete with the oils from Pennsylvania and the adjoining fields, as the separating of this base is too costly.

"As you go toward the San Jose Valley, and toward Frisco, you get into a fine valley, but this valley has been usurped by the financial class, so that today there is no chance for the home seeker.

"As you go farther, toward the Sacramento Valley, the land is flat, so as to compare with New Jersey. The citrus belt you find is not so pleasant to behold as the fruit belt in Pennsylvania or the East. For the reason of the dry atmosphere there, and the irrigation, they must cultivate every inch of the soil, and this produces a barren look, as of a lot of trees placed regularly on a bare landscape.

"As regards the climate of California, it has its great period of sunshine, the harvest season, when everything is dusty and forlorn, and you wish a guest would come up to clear the air, as it does in our April showers at home. But this shower never comes until about the last of October. They have an eternal reign of dust from May to October.

"Then, as I understand, for I was not there in the Winter, they have their rains and fogs—a winter of misery, followed by Spring."

Dr. E. D. LARKIN, West Chester, Pa.

Charles D. Stringfellow

Charles D. Stringfellow, eldest son of Judge L. G. Stringfellow was born at Port Orange, Florida afterward removing to Sanford with his parents where he passed the years of early boyhood. Being of a roving disposition he started out to see the world and for several years his life read like a romance. He visited almost every country on the globe and finally made New York his home where he married and settled down. Mr. Stringfellow was a well known athlete in the N. Y. A. A., and while riding in a bicycle race had the misfortune to collide with an iron pillow breaking his ribs and puncturing one of his lungs, the effect producing tuberculosis superinduced by a case of la grippe. Mr. Stringfellow endeavored to combat the disease and came back to his old home thinking the change would benefit his health, but he came too late and his life was ended last Thursday.

He leaves a wife and one child to mourn the loss of a loving husband and father.

THE DOCTOR'S QUESTION.

Much Sickness Due to Bowel Disorders. A doctor's first question when consulted by a patient is, "Are your bowels regular?" He knows that 98 per cent of illness is attended with inactive bowels and torpid liver, and that this condition must be removed gently and thoroughly before health can be restored.

Rezall Orderlies are a positive, pleasant and safe remedy for constipation and bowel disorders in general. We are so certain of their great curative value that we promise to return the purchaser's money in every case when they fail to produce entire satisfaction.

Rezall Orderlies are eaten like candy, they act quietly, and have a soothing, strengthening, healing influence on the entire intestinal tract. They do not purge, grip, cause nausea, flatulence, excessive looseness, diarrhoea or other annoying effect. They are especially good for children, weak persons or old folks. Two sizes, 25c. and 10c. MOCK COURT TRIAL IS SUCCESS

Many Amusing Incidents Are Related Which Keep Large Audience in An Uproar

The suit for breach of promise in the Mock Court Trial filled the High School Auditorium last Friday evening. Court was called by the Hon. D. L. Thrasher who gave the "Oyez, Oyez," in all the old style figures. C. H. Leffler acted as clerk and called the docket like an old timer. Hon. Thos. Emmet Wilson acted as judge and carried out the part with stern demeanor and decorum. Marshal Green Smith acted as court officer and kept the witnesses moving lively. Hon. Geo. A. DeCottes was attorney for the defense and sat at his desk in severe legal demeanor.

In the witness box sat Mrs. Yeiser, Miss Peachea Leffler, Mrs. Bowler, C. R. Walker and A. T. Rossetter. Hidden behind his attorney as the defendant in this celebrated case, sat B. F. Whitner.

The jury impanelled was as follows: John L. Sullivan (F. P. Forster), Bill Taft (J. K. Mettinger), Joe Cannon (S. O. Chase), Chauncey Depew (M. F. Robinson), John D. Rockefeller (J. D. Parker), J. Pierpont Morgan (T. J. Miller), Teddy Roosevelt (L. P. McCuller), Senator Bryan, (E. W. D. Dunn), Gov. Gilchrist, (H. R. Stevens), Robert Peary, (Felix Frank), Dr. Cook (J. D. Roberts), Admiral Dewey (N. H. Garner).

The first case on the docket was that of P. M. Elder, charged with working. It was clearly proven that he had done nothing of the sort for twelve months and the case was dismissed. The case of Archie Botta, charged with eating more than one oyster at a church supper was next. Mr. DeCottes moved the indictment be quashed on the grounds that but one byster was ever found in church oyster soup. Then came the case of D. A. Caldwell, charged with selling undressed kids. Mr. DeCottes for the defendant explained that undressed kids meant undressed kid gloves. Judge Wilson let the defendant go, provided he would hereafter dress the kids and spank the undressed ones.

Then cost the most important case—that of Jerusha Rug Perkins (Mrs. Yeiser) against Benjamin Franklin Whitner for breach of promise and several thousand dollars to heal her wounded feelings.

After swearing the jury, most of them holding up their left hands, a statement of the case was made. The complainant was the first witness called and she told a pathetic story of how the ruthless Whitner had made love to her and after having gotten her consent to become his better half, he settled his affection on another. She swore that Mr. Whitner was the most gallant beau she had ever had, rarely if ever missing an opportunity to take her to church or to a free show. Her story was well told and Mrs. Yeiser played her role to the satisfaction of all. The next witness was Mrs. Bowler, who substantiated the testimony of the complainant, and added that Mr. Whitner had also trifled with her affections. She also told the court and the jurors that Whitner frequently accompanied her to the various free attractions. Rossetter and Walker told of seeing the defendant and complainant in company many times while they boarded with Mrs. Perkins at her Perkins' Paradise. Miss Jerusha Ray, impersonated by Miss Peachea Leffler, was questioned and she admitted that she was the Perkins that Whitner was in love with and that he frequently called on Jerusha Rug Perkins and stayed very late in order that she should retire early the following evening and give him an opportunity of seeing her niece of nearly the same name. Mr. Whitner's testimony was along these lines, he swearing that the love letters exhibited in court by Mrs.

Perkins were intended for her pretty niece. The testimony of Dr. T. A. Neal was very important, as he had made a study of the various diseases and troubles he thought Mrs. Perkins' heir to. He used medical phrases like a veteran and admitted that he had a license to practice medicine from the drug store. Rapt attention was given the testimony of the witnesses, all of whom acquitted themselves with credit. During the testimony of the much damaged woman, attorneys and jurors shed tears copiously, and at one time the complainant and the defendant both swooned. Mr. DeCottes made an excellent speech for the defense and was followed by Col. Newton, who was most eloquent. He first had the jury weeping and then applauding. Speeches completed, the jury was charged by Judge Wilson and under the escort of court officer Smith they were taken to their room to make a verdict. No sooner had they gotten in, when one dry member ran back to the court and inquired if any one had a cork screw? Col. Newton happened to have one and he took it to the jurors forthwith. Mr. DeCottes, suspecting something, also had business with the jurors but returned soon while wiping his mouth. A few minutes later the jury filed into the court, each man using his handkerchief as if he had been there before and was trying to wipe the odor off. "Have you made a verdict?" asked Judge Wilson. "Yes, your honor," answered John L. Sullivan, the foreman. "Then read it," said he. "We the jury, find for the complainant and award damages of $2.48, two dollars for the jury and 48 cents for the judge.

The trial was a very clever piece of acting and the local hits were greatly enjoyed. The High School realized a neat sum for the performance, as did Col. Newton, the man who made the play possible.

CULLED FROM THE STATE PRESS

Epitome of the Week's Most Important Happenings in the State's Domain.

Felix Faust, a chauffeur of New York, was killed, Misses Doris McDonald and Gertrude Pfeiffer, of Boston, fatally injured and Miss Emma Laird, of Boston, hurt internally in an automobile "joy ride" accident on the Port Orange road Daytona on Sunday.

The eleventh biennial report of Commissioner McIna is a very interesting and valuable compilation, and it should prove of special interest and value to home-seekers and new settlers. It is a book of more than 800 pages and is very handsomely printed. The arrangement of the matter is convenient and intelligent.

The twenty-eighth annual meeting of the General Congregational conference of Florida and the southeast was held in the Union Congregational church, West Tampa, beginning Tuesday evening and continuing through Tuesday.

St. Augustine's postoffice is to be the fifth first-class postoffice in Florida. This became known when Postmaster Alba completed the task of totalling up the business of the office for the past quarter and the past year. St. Augustine's postoffice has well exceeded the $40,000 annual business required by the department at Washington before establishing a first-class office.

One of the most notable addresses delivered before the Southern Commercial Congress at its Atlanta meeting was that by Secretary of Agriculture James Wilson. He predicted a remarkable future for this section through its agricultural development and declared that the most important question now before the southern states is in its fields.

Director Rolfe of the experiment station says that Florida can produce more nutritious forage crops than any other in the Union. The plants are for the most part of foreign origin. This accounts largely for the tardy development of the state in cattle raising and dairying.

One of the strange facts about the Everglades region of Florida is that it is really a decayed mountain top. The crest is formed of massive limestone, usually covered by a mantle of sand. In this formation are numberless potholes, which vary in size from a few feet to thousands of acres; also countless lakes of fresh water, springs and frequent subterranean streams and pools.

A Bermuda onion crop, raised on Henry Brothers' large truck farm in south Tampa this year, has netted the grower $830 an acre.

Mrs. John McDowell of Gainesville was killed and Mrs. Louise Lynch was badly wounded in an accident to their auto on the road from Gainesville, nine miles north of Ocala last Tuesday. In the car, which was on its way here, were Mrs. Youngblood, her daughter, Mrs. McDowell, Mrs. Lynch, Miss Annie Scarratt, Misses Lou and Bettie Miller and Messrs. G. M. Youngblood and J. H. Whitney. A tree blew down just as the car was passing and fell right across it. Whitney was driving. He was knocked senseless, but instinctively shut off the power. Miss Scarratt had a painful bruise. The others escaped with slight hurts.

At least part of the $10,000 which was stolen from a registered mail pouch somewhere between Tampa and Tarpon Springs on March 23 has been recovered. J. J. Abbott of Brooksville, mail clerk on the Tampa Northern train which carried the pouch from Tampa when it was consigned to the Bank of Clearwater by the Exchange National Bank of Tampa is in jail at Brooksville. The amount recovered is $3,210 and somewhere, presumably at Ocala, is H. H. Horace, who is being sought by the detectives as the man who first located the money, and who is presumed to be playing the part of the hero in the "Brewster's Millions" story—getting rid of his easy money as fast as he can.

Holy Cross Episcopal

Services during Holy Week at the Church of the Holy Cross will be at 10 o'clock a. m. and 7:30 p. m. every day except Saturday. Friday evening the rector, Rev. B. F. Brown, will speak on the intermediate state or Christ in Paradise. All seats free. A cordial invitation is extended to all.

PUTTING UP THE DOUGH

Sanford Business Men Are Wanting That Geneva Bridge

The question of that drawbridge connecting Sanford with Geneva is in a fair way to be built. The business men of Sanford are always alive to the best interests of the community.

The following merchants have subscribed the amount set oppose each name, to help build a bridge across the river at Geneva ferry. This is the result of about two hours work by the committeemen Saturday afternoon, April 1.

The banks have not named the amount they will give and the committee have not heard from the fertilizer factories.

Mr. J. T. McLain, Mr. Speer and Mr. Peters of Geneva covered the city with the committee appointed by the Commercial Club.

This is a creditable showing and indicates that the part the city of Sanford has been asked to subscribe will be forthcoming. It is just as the members of the Commercial Club who were present at the last meeting predicted. When the people of Sanford see that a proposition is for the welfare of the community they come to the front as one man and stand by the biggest city for its size in the country. There is not room for doubt when the public spirit of the people of Sanford is appealed to. A city with a citizenship like we have here marches in the front rank all the time.

The committee called on a large number of merchants, some were not at their places of business, some were out of the city and one of our big merchants was sick. If those who the committee were not able to see will send their subscriptions to the secretary of the Commercial Club much time will be saved.

The committee is giving the time of its members to this work and the hearty co-operation of not seen Saturday will be appreciated.

Catholic Church

Father Bresnahan wishes to announce, for the benefit especially of those who have not been attending the lectures regularly this week, that they will continue at least until Sunday night and perhaps longer if all the questions have not been answered by that time.

The subject for Friday night is the Worship of Images by Catholics; Saturday night, Devotion to the Virgin Mary; Sunday night, The secret of Catholicity's progress.

The services will end Friday night with the solemn Way of the Cross.

Sunday being Palm Sunday palms will be blessed and distributed at the 10 o'clock mass.

Devotions for Holy Week will begin Thursday morning, April 13.

High School Notes

Monday afternoon the Boy's Debating Society held a debate, "Resolved that the duties of the Policemen in the larger cities are more hazardous than those of the Firemen". The negative won.

Monday morning, Mr. Fagg superintendent of the Florida Home Mission, gave us an interesting talk on the lives of the children of the poor in the large cities.

The play to be represented by the High School commencement week has been selected and the rehearsals have begun.

The Irving Literary Society held its regular meeting Monday.

PASS RESOLUTIONS

Adopted By City Council Protesting Against Incorporation

Whereas, The City of Sanford, Orange County, Florida, has drafted and prepared a new city charter to be presented to the legislature of 1911 for passage, and,

Whereas, in said proposed charter the territorial limits of the city of Sanford have been extended, and

Whereas, on April 3rd, A. D., 1911, twenty-six residents of Orange County, some of whom are negroes, all alleged to be qualified electors of the state of Florida and further alleged to be residents of the suburb of Sanford Heights, did purport to effect a permanent organization of a municipal corporation under the name of the town of Sanford Heights, Orange County, Florida under and by virtue of the general laws of the state of Florida, and

Whereas, said purported corporation is immediately adjacent and contiguous to the present southerly territorial limits of the city of Sanford, Florida, and

Whereas, practically all of the male residents of Sanford Heights have their places of employment and business in the city of Sanford and derive their livelihood and income from business enterprises conducted in the city of Sanford, and

Where, at the present time there are hardly more than seventy-five inhabitants in Sanford Heights, including men, women and children, and

Whereas, Sanford Heights cannot seriously be considered as a growing or thriving community, entitled to the privileges of a municipality, and

Whereas, there are no business enterprises in the alleged territorial limits of Sanford Heights, and never likely will be as said addition to Sanford, Florida was intended, solely for residential purposes, and the said community of Sanford Heights at the present time is nothing more than a suburban residential district of the city of Sanford, Florida, proper, and

Whereas, the said Sanford Heights is located inland, immediately to the south of the present limits of Sanford, a distance of approximately three-fourths of a mile from Lake Monroe on a straight line, and as the said suburb increases in population it will necessarily be forced to install a sewerage system, and

Whereas, Lake Monroe is the only available outlet for a system of Sewerage to Lake Monroe except through the streets of the city of Sanford, which could not be done without the consent of the municipality of Sanford, and

Whereas, it will be many years before the said town of Sanford Heights could possibly be in a financial position or condition to undertake said work, and

Whereas, by necessity, said town of Sanford Heights must at this time dispose of the present sewerage matter and will be forced to eventually install a system of cess pools, not having any available outlet for an up-to-date system of sewerage, and

Whereas, the said town is on a higher elevation than Sanford, and

Whereas, by natural laws the seepage of sewerage from Sanford Heights would naturally flow through the present municipality of Sanford to Lake Monroe and will be a serious menace to the health and safety of the entire population of the city of Sanford and extremely offensive, disagreeable and obnoxious in every respect, to every one living within the confines of the city of Sanford, and

Whereas, the said alleged municipality has been solely organized for political reasons and not because of the fact that the present conditions in Sanford Heights necessitate the forming of a municipality, and,

Whereas, the said alleged municipality has been promoted and effected by a disgruntled few who depend upon the businesses and enterprises of Sanford for a living and income, who have formed said municipality primarily for the purpose of avoiding paying their proportion of the just and lawful taxation intended to be imposed by the city of Sanford in the near future,

Therefore, Be it resolved by the city council of Sanford, Florida, in session the sixth day of April, 1911, that it is the sense of this board that the attempted formation of the town of Sanford Heights is unreasonable, uncalled for, unfair, unjust and without precedent, and detrimental to the thriving and progressive municipality of Sanford and will work a hardship upon the municipality of Sanford and its citizens with a correspond-

THOUSAND DOLLARS PER ACRE

Five Acres of Sanford Land Sells for That Price This Week

A. S. Nidor has sold his five acre farm on the West Side this week to Herbert M. Dowley of Norwich, Conn.

The price paid was the regular price for improved land in the great subirrigated Sanford celery delta, $1,000 per acre. Mr. Nidor was satisfied to accept this price because it was the same price he paid for the land just fourteen months ago. In that period he has made $6,000; last year taking over $2,000 net and this year he has already sold $2,460 worth of lettuce and celery and has returns coming to him from two cars of celery that will net him over $1.00 per crate.

Mr. Nidor was not a practical farmer and yet was able to make a good profit in vegetables after hiring all the labor and trusting the crops to other people. His success under these conditions is only another proof that good returns are possible on Sanford's subirrigated lands—results that cannot be duplicated anywhere else in the world.

On the other hand the purchaser, Mr. Dowley, is satisfied to give $1,000 an acre for land that has proven true to name and if he succeeds half as well as Mr. Nidor will be well content.

This is another instance of a man making good on Sanford land that costs $1,000 an acre.

The Wednesday Club

A large attendance of the club were present Wednesday afternoon for their first meeting in the charming home of Mrs. D. L. Thrasher.

The first paper on the program, "Patrick Henry, Virginia's Great Commoner," which was to have been given by Mrs. H. H. Chappell, was postponed until next week, as Mrs. Chappell was detained at home by sickness in the family.

The reading from Halle River by Mrs. J. C. McDaniel was also postponed until next week.

Mrs. O. W. King entertained the club with a finely written paper on Chief Justice Marshall. The life sketch of this great son of Virginia was a well deserved and gracefully offered tribute to the noble life and service of a patriot whose memory will live with the history of Virginia, and fittingly paid to him by one who proudly claims Virginia as her native state.

The sketches of Monroe by Miss Alice Whitner, George Mason by Miss Peachon Leffler, and the Randolph by Miss Mell Whitner were postponed until next week, owing to the absence of these young ladies.

Mrs. Lyman Phelps gave a sketch of George Wythe, reminding the club of the proud peace this patriot won for himself in the history of his country, by his services in his behalf and his attitude toward the famous Stamp Act. This sketch was supplemented by a reading by Mrs. Key, and giving in detail more of the life of George Wythe.

Mrs. S. O. Shubolser, in her sketch of the illustrious and patriotic family of Lees mentioned in detail only reminiscences of Richard Henry Lee, father of Gen. Robert E. Lee and Henry Lee, a cousin. The incidents reviewed in the lines of each were most interesting and were pleasant reminders of a name and patriotism as closely woven in the history and fame of Virginia as that of Washington.

To the roll call of the patriots many of the members responded with quotations, reminiscences and suitable readings.

"Virginia has become among friends and enemies the recognized field of romance," T. N. Page.

Program for April 13th:

I. Wisdom, Wit and Pathos of Virginia Authors, Mrs. L. R. Phillips.

II. My Lady of Literature, Miss Alice Tetherly.

ing benefit to the citizens of Sanford Heights, and

Be it further resolved that a certified copy of this resolution be forwarded to Honorable L. C. Massey, Senator from Orange county, Fla., and Honorable S. A. Robinson and Honorable Forrest Lake, Representatives from Orange county, Fla., in the legislature of 1911, and that they are hereby urgently requested to exercise and use every effort possible to secure the passage of a bill to abolish the present municipality of the town of Sanford Heights, Orange county, Florida.

HAPPENINGS DURING THE WEEK

Here the Readers Will Find a Brief Historical Spring Flowing For Hurried Readers

The old battleship Texas has found a watery grave. The guns of the New Hampshire proved too much for her and she was practically demolished by the twenty-volley fired the first day of the target practice. She now lies a mass of twisted metal and jagged armor on the mud flats in lower Chesapeake Bay.

It is estimated that there are in the United States about 700,000,000 acres of land under cultivation; which produced in 1910 crops worth $8,828,000,000, an average of $12.75 an acre. Florida soil product was worth $109.78 an acre.

Uncle Sam has more gold in his possession than he has ever had before in his life. Treasurer Lee McClung looked over his balance sheet March 1, and found the government had over $1,000,000,000 in gold coin, to say nothing of $128,000,000 in billion. Never before in the history of the government, according to the New York Globe, has it had so much gold piled up in its coffers.

The Presbyterian Church in Waycross Ga., has discarded its bell as a means of calling its members to worship. In its place a group of high-power electric lights has been installed on the highest point of the steeple. When services are to be held, the light is turned on and remains on until the service is concluded.

Eight hundred persons arriving on the Italian steamship Verona, from Genoa and Naples, via New York, are detained aboard the vessel because of an outbreak of smallpox among the passengers.

Assurances that foreign interests in Mexico will be protected are made by Francisco I. Madero, Jr., president of the provisional government of Mexico, in a communication to Secretary of State Knox and diplomatic representative of other interested governments.

The druggists who desire to cut the rates on prices of proprietary remedies will have the right to continue so to do. The attempt to put a ban on such practice in this country received the unqualified disapproval of the supreme court of the United States when that tribunal this week declined, in an opinion rendered by Associate Justice Hughes, to give its aid to such an attempt, on the ground that it would afford the manufacturer of medicine an unlawful monopoly.

Fines and costs aggregating $13,000 will be collected from "soft drink" sellers who pleaded guilty to violation of the state liquor revenue laws. Nearly 300 persons were assessed fines of $25 each and costs.

The wonderful record made by sixty hens owned by Henry Johnson of Glenville, New York, which laid 1,038 eggs in February, winning a bet for their owner, has been passed. The hens have kept up the good work, and last night Mr. Johnson said they had laid 1,228 eggs during March.

Notice

By mutual agreement we the undersigned, C. A. Dobbins and R. G. Stockton, agree to separate in the bakery business known as the Sanford Bakery, by and in consideration of sum of money paid to C. A.
