News reports from St. Jean Cap Ferrat, France, that Author Somerset Maugham is seriously ill at his Villafranche villa, reminds R. E. Porter that he traveled and dined with the author and his secretary (now his adopted son), Alan Searle, on a French liner to France shortly after World War II. Which brings to mind, Maugham intended to treat three guests with caviar (which he had brought along) but the waiter proofed and served all nine at the table.

Whoppen to that short stretch of "road" leading to the parking lot of our next-door neighbor and to our back door? City crews stepped down some asphalt or sunpim to smooth out the access—and you should see it now! All the hard work turned into hard bumps that are real spring-busters. Puhlease, Mr. Knowles! Those pleas are from the bank patrons, no less.

You should see the zip in the beautification committee under energetic Co. Jack Bolt's chairmanship. Priorities, plans, programs and pep! Here is a chance for Garden Clubs, and all other clubs interested in developing our home town into "The City of Splendor" to lend a hand—sweat and a shovel or few good old depreciated U.S. dollars (or rection) "Lend the shovel, but GIVE the shekels" is the way that's supposed to read.

Command Change Slated April 27

Reconnaissance Attack Wing One change of command ceremony will be held at 2 p. m. April 27 at the Sanford Naval Air Station.

Capt. Richard E. Fowler Jr., former executive officer of the aircraft carrier USS Independence, will relieve Capt. James O. Mayo as commander of the Wing, which controls all RA-5C Vigilante reconnaissance bombers around the globe.

Captain Mayo, Wing commander since July 1963, has orders to report to the fleet officer, USS Nantahala, as commanding officer. The Nantahala operates out of Norfolk.

The ceremony will be a relatively short event but the greater part of the change-of-command will not be seen by the expected guests.

Preparations are in progress right now and have been for the past two months as the two captains exchange the voluminous information indispensable to running the far-reaching fleet command.

Captain Fowler's schedule since reporting to Sanford has been a succession of briefings, conferences and Vigilante aircraft familiarization courses. Only Thursday he made his first flight in an RA-5C Vigilante attack bomber.

Captain Fowler is no stranger to Sanford or the Wing's attack program. This is his third tour of duty in the area. From 1957-58 he served as operations officer of Sanford-based Heavy Attack Squadron Nine.

'Phone Users Pay $20 Tax

Southern Bell Telephone customers in Florida paid an average of $20.42 for federal excise taxes on telephone service during 1964.

That's the figure released today by Robert Shadden, Southern Bell's manager here in Sanford.

"The total excise tax bill for Southern Bell customers in the state for 1964 was $20,017,231 and this represents the 10 per cent federal excise tax levied on local and long distance telephone service," he said.

He explained that the excise tax is a tax on telephone companies, not on telephone customers, since the telephone company merely acts as a collector of the tax and passes it on to the government.

Half-Million Florida Jobs Said Affected

By Paul Brookshire

The shortage of agricultural labor may affect the jobs of some 500,000 other Floridians, John W. Evans, Oviedo, president of the Florida Fruit and Vegetable Association, said today.

Evans said the loss in income could amount to several million dollars.

Evans' warning, which came at a meeting of the board of directors of the association in Orlando, followed on the heels of an order from U. S. Labor Secretary Willard Wirtz that 3,500 off-shore citrus workers must become completely inactive Monday through March 21.

The association said the edict would have the effect of slowing the citrus harvest once again with substantial picking remaining to be done.

The agricultural labor situation was the main item of discussion at the Orlando meeting of the association.

"The shortage of qualified field labor is causing drastic problems for the producers of Florida's citrus, sugar cane and truck crops and the end is not in sight," Evans said.

"The shortage may affect the jobs of some half million other workers in the state whose livelihood is dependent on agriculture," Evans said.

He pointed out that the labor situation is causing a reduction in harvest and a reduction of flow of produce through the packing houses.

He said the labor shortage could hit thousands and thousands of other workers whose jobs are tied to the fruit and vegetable crop through packing houses, transportation and related fields.

"This is a serious problem and thousands of workers not in the agricultural field are involved," Evans said.

The inactive order by Wirtz for British West Indies and Bahamas workers comes at a time when the grapefruit crop is estimated at 50 per cent larger than last year and the Valencia crop one-third larger. Substantial harvesting of both crops remains to be done.

In addition to Evans others from Seminole County attending the board of directors meeting today included Andrew Duda Jr. and Rex Lantz, Oviedo, and Gen J. C. Hutcheson, Harold Kastner and Sydney O. Chase Jr., all of Sanford.

'Operation Beautify' Underway

Sanford Drive For Funds Led By Dr. Darby

By Dottie Austin

"Operation Beautify" is underway in the Sanford area, with the landscaping of the Lake Monroe shoreline from the city limits west and north to Interstate 4 scheduled to begin at once.

Dr. John Darby, of the Central Florida Experiment Station, heads the drive to raise $150 in funds to kick off the city's part of the county-wide long-range beautification plan.

This money will be used for the laketront planting along with a county-wide Arbor Day tree planting by school children during this spring.

City Manager W. E. Knowles informed Jack Bolt, chairman of the Sanford area beautification committee, that the city is ready to begin planting sabal palms in island clusters along the laketront in accordance with plans. The palms will be complemented with plantings of Spanish bay onch and other low-growing low maintenance plants.

The Arbor Day program will be under the direction of Sanford's 400 school children which will arrange to have hundreds of flowering trees distributed among school children to be planted throughout the county, Bolt said.

Dr. Darby revealed that a portion of the $1500 allotted is assured with a $100 contribution from the Kiwanis Club and $100 from Rotary club.

Dr. Darby said he had received a letter from the city council asking for a permit for the track starting that David Joyce had visited him on four occasions pleading with him to let up pressure opposing the track.

Building inspector William E. Jones in a statement revealed that he had refused, and would continue to refuse, a variance of permit as applied for by the brothers for three buildings to be constructed on the Sanlando Springs Drive site until he was given specific instructions by council to issue such permit.

When Councilman R. J. Hines protested that the city had no right to refuse the requested permit, Cohn charged that even though the Joyce brothers are related to Hines, the permit was not in the best interest of the city.

Councilman R. H. Ferrell suggested that council take a definite stand on the issue after further considering the matter in a special session. The board agreed to meet and give the next Thursday at 8:30 in the next Thursday.

Councilman Carl Tommler conducted the meeting as temporary chairman in the absence of Chairman R. C. Carlson, who is hospitalized.

Longwood Ponders Stock Car Stadium

Lee Cohn, of Sanlando Springs, a prominent area builder, appeared at Longwood City Council's regular session Thursday evening as spokesman for a group to urge council to approve a building permit for the proposed Joyce brothers stock car stadium.

Cohn questioned council as to whether the brothers had applied for and received a building permit for the track, stating that David Joyce had visited him on four occasions pleading with him to let up pressure opposing the track.

Group Levels Abuse Charge Against Chief

By Evelyn Lundy

Charges of abusing and mistreating citizens and of using profanity were leveled at Police Chief George Kelsey by members of the Community Improvement Council at the Oviedo City Council meeting Thursday night.

Some members of the group asked that Kelsey be removed from office.

They specifically referred to treatment received by Thomas Wilson, a 17-year-old youth, who was shot while being arrested Feb. 26.

They urged that Kelsey be ousted until an investigation into the incident could be made.

Mayor Lee Gary told the group that an official investigation already had been made and found the shooting of Wilson to be accidental.

A report from the Seminole County Sheriff's Department has been sent to Gov. Haydon Burns. Details of the investigation have not been made public.

Mayor Gary promised the group that Kelsey would use more consideration in the future in making arrests and would use no profanity.

Speakers protesting against Kelsey included Rev. J. H. Browdy and Jesse Smith.

Smith called for more understanding between the races and urged that the mayor appoint a biracial committee to meet from time to time to work out issues as they arise. Gary promised to look into the matter.

"If things are normal out now," Smith told the council, "we may avoid bloodshed later."

'Cracker Days' . . . Friday And Saturday . . . Sanford

Rev. Grover Sewell

Touchy Subject

Teddy Roosevelt was police commissioner of New York City long before he was president of the United States. One day a young Irishman appeared before him as an applicant for a job on the police force. This young man had some qualities that impressed Mr. Roosevelt, however, he was unaccustomed to answering questions and since he had only recently left Ireland he was not familiar with American ways. The questions had to be fashioned to suit the man so some of them were a bit unusual. One was, "If a mob had gathered and you were sent to disperse it, what would you do?" The young man pondered the question and then the answer came to him. His face lighted up as he exclaimed, "I'd pass the hat."

Seriously, why are we so reluctant to talk about money if it means we may be asked to part with some of it? If we can answer this question objectively we find it is because we love it so much. People often get angry when asked for a contribution to a cause no matter how worthy it might be. This again stems from a love for possessions. As we know, elementary psychology tells us that we often become angry at what we fear and if we suspect that we may be deprived of some of our treasure we flare up.

It is so easy for money to become one's god. We are not afflicted with idols of stone; we do not worship the sun today; blood is not our threat. The idol that creeps into so many lives and sometimes captures them before they realize it is material.

Jesus knew the threat of a person making an idol of his possessions. Over half of His parables and about one verse in five of the four Gospels seek to teach people how to handle their material possessions. He did not condemn people for having possessions but for misusing them.

Jesus said much in His "Sermon on the Mount" about material things, and in the sixth chapter of Matthew summed up His teaching by saying, "But seek ye first the kingdom of God, and His righteousness; and all these things shall be added unto you."

Of course, once God's Kingdom becomes the most important thing in our lives we will realize that our time, talent, and substance will be rightly recognized as His already and we will determine to use our all for Him and His Kingdom.

Concordia Choir Will Present Sunday Concert

The 45-voice male choir of Concordia Senior College, Fort Wayne, Ind., which will present a 8 p.m. concert Sunday in the auditorium of Seminole High School, will present the message of the church in some of the most expressive works available to the church.

A member of the choir to sing here Sunday is John Goers, son of Rev. Herbert W. Goers, of Sanford's Lutheran Church of the Redeemer, and a graduate of Seminole High School. He was valedictorian of the 1942 class.

The choir's concert here is being sponsored by the three Lutheran churches in Seminole County, Church of the Redeemer, Ascension Lutheran Church of Casselberry and St. Luke's Lutheran Church in Slavia.

The public of Seminole and neighboring counties is invited to join the Lutheran congregations to hear this outstanding and inspiring musical program which will include selections dating from the 15th to the 20th century.

The modern facility includes a chapel, a dining hall, eight duplex cabins with counselors' rooms, four classroom buildings, a faculty housing building and an administration building with office, clinic, sickroom, director and nurse's bedrooms.

The program will be held in the chapel and all persons in this area who have worked and planned toward completion of the facility are urged to attend. Fred H. Girls Dormitory At Forest Lake Ready April 1

Construction on the north wing of Memorial Hall, girls dormitory at the Seventh-day Adventist Forest Lake Academy in Forest City, is well underway and is expected to be ready for occupancy by April 1.

The old building will be wrecked with rebuilding of this unit to be completed by school's opening next September.

The new wing is as fire-proof as possible. It is of concrete block construction and will have a concrete stairway and concrete roof structure. Furniture is being built in and covered with formica and as air-conditioning was included in original planning, the use of electrical heating units will be possible thus eliminating use of boilers and water treatment for boilers.

Last Sunday night, a joint meeting was held on Africa with the Older Youth Group reporting on geography, the Seniors on religion, and the Intermediates on peoples and cultures.

The mission emphasis for the next quarter will be on the Philippines and Southeast Asia.

Capt. Harry S. Foden Speaker For DeBary WSCS Birthday

A resume of history and work done by the Salvation Army was presented by Capt. Harry S. Foden of the Sanford Unit for the ninth birthday luncheon Tuesday of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of DeBary's Community Methodist Church.

Called the "Halleluia Army" in 1866, name later was changed to "Salvation Army" in London. In 1885, at Hartford, Conn., the first prison brigade was started and in 1886 a rescue home for women was established.

Today, Salvation Army has two houses to care for unwed mothers in this state, one at Jacksonville and one at Tampa.

In 1917, the Army worked with troops in France and in 1929 it began work to help the distressed during the depression years.

There are 29 operating corps in Florida today which are governed by the Jacksonville headquarters. There also are five mental service stations in the state.

Operations in Cuba are now being allowed at indoor meetings and recently a new building was opened in Havana. The Army also provides fresh air camps, camps for women and children, music camps and conducts an active youth program geared to religion.

Capt. Foden brought with him several musical instruments which he explained are all made by Salvation Army in its factory in England.

A native of Liverpool, Ohio, and former member of the U. S. Air Force, Foden joined the Sanford Unit in 1962.

The anniversary luncheon was held in the social hall of the church. Tables were decorated with sprays of ivy and varied azalea blooms. A large white birthday cake with nine glowing pink candles centered the speakers table.

Invocation was given by Rev. Cecil N. Ogg, pastor of the church, and Mrs. O. G. Potter was in charge of the dining room while Mrs. Margaret Powell directed work in the kitchen. Hostesses for the meeting were members of the WSCS Mary and Martha Circles.

Mrs. Charles Crensey, president, gave the welcoming address and conducted the afternoon session. Mrs. William Fidler gave devotions and introduced Capt. Foden.

Following the program, a hymn sing was enjoyed with Mrs. Everett Swift as pianist. Receiving hostesses were Mrs. M. Gashert and Mrs. H. Coffin.

Epidemic Up

BUDAPEST, Hungary (UPI)—The Hungarian Ministry of Health reported Wednesday the East European influenza epidemic was now sweeping south and central Hungary.

(Editors Note: In Seminole County it is a rare occurrence for a family to be threatened by a hunted criminal. With this in mind, The Herald is privileged to report a first hand account, as told to Bear Lake-Forest City correspondent, Mrs. Maryann Miles, of the terrifying experience suffered by Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stone last Sunday evening when the escaped convict, Everett Thomas Rennie, subject of a statewide search, took their automobile, food and a sum of money before being fatally shot by a State Trooper when the car crashed into a tree on SR 46. Mrs. Stone relates the harrowing experience.

By Mrs. Harvey Stone
While waiting for my husband to return from an errand, I noticed his car lights shining into our home . . . I opened the door. Right behind my husband I noticed another man. When I asked who the stranger was, my husband stepped aside and only then did I see a gun pointed in my direction. This stranger turned out to be the fugitive, Everett Thomas Rennie . . . my husband recognized him from pictures published in the newspapers.
He told us to be quiet and cooperate and that we would not get hurt. When we told him we both would be 66 years old this year, he said that he respected our age and that no harm would come to us. He apologized for what he was doing and began tying us together. I was sick with fear and began retching so he allowed me to go to the sink where he chained one of my wrists to the sink after which he tied my husband to the bed post with an electric wire.
He again apologized for what he was doing but said he had "gone too far to stop."
He took canned goods and other foods, my husband's billfold and his good clothing and asked if there was any more money in the house.
We said "no," but as he searched, he found a small sum of money in the bureau and accused my husband of lying to him.
I spoke up to tell him that the money belonged to a neighbor who runs a small fruit stand.
Rennie said that he would take the money but would mail it back to us in time.
As he left, he waved good bye to us and, I don't know why, but with my free hand, I responded to his wave. However, before he did leave, he tightened the chain around my wrist so that it soon became numb. He explained that he had to do this because he was afraid that I would get loose.
After he left, taking our car, my husband was able to wriggle over to me and I was able to reach into his pocket to get his penknife to cut him free so that he could call the sheriff.
Rennie told us he wouldn't be taken alive, and, true to his word, he was killed by a bullet from the officer's gun after the car hit a tree. He died on the way to the hospital.

The Stones live at 220 Nashua, Mobile Manor, near Sanlando Springs. Maryann as an afterthought, asked them if they felt their lives really were in danger. Their reply: "He said he had killed before and one or two more wouldn't make any difference."

Teachers As Salesmen

By Susan Light
Dear Mrs. Light: This is in regard to Disappointed's letter in your column, "Why Not Encyclopedias?" May I offer a possible connection between the plight of poor "Disappointed" and the fact that one major encyclopedia concern has worked out a real "payola" racket with the teachers, recruiting better than 80 per cent of their sales people from the ranks of teachers.

Wouldn't you call it "payola" when public servants use their jobs of public trust to take advantage of a situation wherein they have their submissive prospects "on the spot"?
I would like to hear from people everywhere who can substantiate my belief that teachers selling "payola style" is a common occurrence.

Dear Abby: By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I have been hurt so bad by my husband that I don't think I will ever get over it. When our second daughter was born and I was being wheeled from the delivery room into my regular room, my husband was waiting in the hall. After seven hours of labor and a dry birth to boot, do you know what he said to me? He said, "You are just never going to have a boy, are you?" How can a man be so mean and ignorant? He doesn't know it yet, but I am never going to have another girl, either.

back for vacations with THEIR kids, or in case they got divorced. I would like to tell her that if her husband wants to keep the big house, she should tell him to do all the cooking and cleaning and yard work. After parents raise their children and marry them off, they are entitled to take it easy in a cozy apartment. If the husband is so crazy about doing yard work, let him go to his children's homes and work his head off.

ON THE SPOT
DEAR ON: Yes, that means you must invite that person to your wedding. Pity you were "trapped," but to exclude her would be unthinkable. P.S. That's a pretty sneaky way to get an invitation to a wedding.

Sharp Shopping

Save Money On Food

With Allren
Can you save money by shopping around for groceries? A study directed by a Cornell University professor shows you can save at least 5 per cent on your weekly grocery bill. Further noddling and aisle-wandering shows you can save as much as 10 per cent without feeling depressed about your food budgeting.

Shopping with a list. This discourages spur-of-the-moment buys of expensive gourmet foods.
Comparing cost per serving. Food varies greatly in waste. How much do you throw away because your family doesn't like the meat or vegetables you buy? How much do you lose when you buy a cheaper grade meat that is heavily boned or fattened?

ALL THROUGH
DEAR ALL THROUGH: When the new mother, the thoughtless father and the all-girl family return to normally, remind your husband that the MALE determines the sex of a child. And if he EVER again expresses disappointment because you bore him no son, tell him that HE can have the next baby—with your blessing.

DEAR ABBY: A woman who had been married for 20 years asked you if she and her husband should sell their large home and move into an apartment because their children were married and gone and it was too much work to care for the house and yard. Her husband wanted to keep the house in case their married children wanted to come

CON FID E N T I A L T O
"CURIOUS IN CAMBRIDGE" This is the church's ruling on wedding rings, according to ELDER LEWIS LANGWORTHY, Pastor of the Hollywood Seventh-Day Adventist Church:
"The church performs 'ringless' marriage ceremonies. However, if an individual wishes to wear a wedding ring to make life less complicated—such as a working wife who wishes people to know that she is not available, a ring is permissible. Simple and functional jewelry (watches, tie pins, brooches, etc.) are permitted. But strictly ornamental jewelry (bracelets, necklaces, earrings) are taboo."

Do It Yourself:

Name A Sticky Problem

By Mr. Fix,
There's a tape for almost any mending job imaginable. While most pressure-sensitive tapes—self-sticking tapes—will do a variety of jobs, it's still best to get the tape designed for the job at hand.

jobs. Freezer tapes remain tight at low temperatures—most tapes will not.
There's a masking tape available (also cellophane) that has adhesive on both sides. Use in place of glue for temporary fastening, or where glue might harm one of the surfaces—mount snapshots in albums, hold shell paper down, fasten felt to lamp or book end bases.

We The Women: By Ruth Millett

A man who feels bogged in marriage won't be easy to live with.
Any wife can avoid this pitfall by exercising just a little control over any urge toward possessiveness.

Don't ask, "Who was that, dear?" when he receives a phone call.
Don't put him through a third degree when he comes home from a club or lodge meeting if he wants to tell you about it, listen. If he doesn't, tell him what you've been doing while he has been gone.

Never tell him he simply MUST do something about a problem. Lead him toward facing an unpleasant situation—don't PUSH him.
Let him retire behind his newspaper or a book or magazine when he wants to interrupt his reading every few minutes won't give you the companionship you're seeking. Find something to read yourself.

"If I took a course in exercises at a salon, would that reduce me? I am so much overweight I cannot walk very much. I puff when I do any physical work. Please advise. I am forty-four.—M"
Let me be frank if you are so much overweight that you "puff" and cannot walk very much, HOW can you contemplate doing exercises (which will not reduce you)? To be very honest, I recommend that you go at once to your doctor and let him examine you and give his instructions for your gradual weight loss. Diet will do it, but you must be examined by your doctor. I beg of you to do this at once. You are a young woman, and must have the proper weight because of health and looks.

Useful Types
Cellophane tape is about as useful as masking tape, is used principally for sealing, patching, mending and packaging. It's available as clear tape or in a host of colors which makes it great for fancy packages. There's an ultraclear tape which looks frontly on the roll but is practically invisible when applied which makes it perfect for mending torn paper in a book.

DEAR POLLY — Men's pants always seem to wear out on the inside backs of the cuffs where they rub against the shoes. For longer wear, saw a piece of grosgrain ribbon the color of the pants and about 1 or 1 1/2 inches wide and 4 or 5 inches long over that part of the underwear cuff.—JIM.
GIRLS—This is too good to keep just for the men. Try it on the boys' pants, too.—POLLY.

Michigan Club Is Organized In Delfona

By Mildred Haney
Bad weather on a recent Wednesday evening did not deter 50 former Michigan residents from meeting at the Delfona Community Center to organize a club.
Under the leadership of J.W. Field, the Wolverine Club of Delfona was formed with meetings set for the fourth Wednesday evening of each month.

Annual Arts, Crafts And Hobby Day Scheduled In Casselberry Tomorrow

By Jane Casselberry
Final plans for the first annual Arts, Crafts and Hobby Show were made at a meeting of the Woman's Club of Casselberry held Tuesday afternoon at the clubhouse on Overbrook Drive.

Mayor Owen Ansley was present to sign the proclamation naming Saturday, March 6, as "Arts, Crafts and Hobby Day" in Casselberry.

Mrs. Carl Jack, chairman of the show, has announced that at least 50 exhibitors have signed up for the event. Doors will open to the public at 10 a.m. but exhibitors are asked to have their displays set up by 9 a.m.

Some of the interesting exhibits will be paintings, ceramics, shells, buttons, rocks, jewelry, antiques, wood work and handicrafts.

A nominating committee consisting of Mrs. L. E. Swope, Mrs. Clarence Doelner, and Mrs. William Til-ford was named to make up a slate of officers for the coming year to be presented at the April 6 meeting.

The club will conduct the annual cancer drive in the year and plans were discussed at the Casselberry area again this week.

A rummage sale will be held jointly by the club and the American Legion Auxiliary Memorial Unit 256 of Casselberry at the Super Valu Store on April 2 and 3.

Prior to the meeting delicious refreshments of cakes, cookies, sandwiches and coffee were served by the hostesses, Mrs. H. J. Duerr, Mrs. Elwood Heiss and Mrs. Richard Murphy. The serving table was gaily decorated with green shamrocks and Irish hats in the St. Patrick's Day theme.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY was the inspiration for the decorations and refreshments at Tuesday's meeting of the Woman's Club of Casselberry. Hostesses shown left to right were Mrs. H. J. Duerr, Mrs. Elwood Heiss and Mrs. Richard Murphy.

His And Her Club Views Colorful Roses Film

Colored slides of winning exhibits at flower shows in various states, with particular reference to roses, were shown by James R. McAvoy to the members of the Chulata His and Her Garden Club at their March meeting held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George T. Haig.

A member of the American Rose Society and a judge of the world's most loved flower, McAvoy showed his audience what experts considered the choicest blooms of the All American Rose Selections of recent years as well as some of the all-time favorites such as Peace.

Flower arrangements, showing the full, the side, the tall triangle and the various circle designs as well as some Bonsai were of particular interest. The Hersey gardens in Pennsylvania, which are changed frequently during the growing season, gave the members an idea of what could be done with annuals to maintain a colorful display.

At the business meeting field trips were discussed. Mrs. Russell J. Hammond was asked to make arrangements for a tour of the Experimental Station in Sanford at a time which would meet their convenience.

Mrs. Will W. Dill introduced her guest, Mrs. Thomas Angle, formerly of Michigan, who is a new resident of the community and has found gardening in Florida a fascinating hobby.

Area Civic Music Membership Drive Led By Mrs. John Duda, Jr., Slavia

By Evelyn Lundy
One of the busiest persons in this section these days is Mrs. John Duda Jr., of Slavia. She has undertaken the gigantic task of being Civic Music Membership committee chairman.

Music lovers throughout Seminole County have for many years enjoyed the music of some of the most outstanding artists in the world while attending the programs offered by Civic Music of Orlando.

Civic Music is entering its 29th season in Orlando and promises to have attractions that will be enjoyable to both young and old. Some of the programs that members may look forward to are New Christy Minstrels, singer John McCurdy, The Detroit Symphony, National Ballet Company, Norman Luboff Choir of singer Joan Grillo and the duo-piano team of Vronsky and Bahin.

When Civic Music first started in Orlando there were only 200 members and they held the attractions at the Sorosis Club. Today the membership is limited to 3,000 members and there are no reserved seats for any event.

Floyd Eaddy, chairman of Civic Music in Orlando, entertained members of the Oviedo Woman's Club last month with his singing and is most enthusiastic about this season's program. According to Eaddy "Civic Music is a going concern throughout the United States today with its mass booking capabilities plus a policy of as little overhead as possible through no reserved seats or box office put it in a position to offer the biggest bargain in good music available to the American public today."

Anyone who wishes to purchase tickets may call Mrs. Duda at 365-3293.

Mrs. Fred Pearson of Oviedo is on the telephoning committee in Oviedo. March 12 is the deadline for purchasing tickets.

MRS. JOHN DUDA JR., left, Civic Music membership chairman, and Mrs. Fred Pearson, telephone chairman, discuss plans for the forthcoming area Civic Music membership. (Herald Photo by Evelyn Lundy)

When moving trees and large shrubs other than those in containers, best results are obtained by root pruning about a month before transplanting. Now is the time to move camellias and these too should be root pruned about a month in advance.

In the fertilization of trees the material is often broadcast under the tree with excellent results, but where trees are surrounded by a thick turf the tree roots may get too little of the nutrient applied. In such cases the fertilizer is best applied in small holes punched to a depth of a foot and spaced three or four feet apart.

The area fertilized should extend to a little beyond the drip of the branches half way back to the trunk. Holes should never be made close together in successive years.

If you have a camellia tree that has become a light yellow green in color, try some are not enough to bring it back to the deeper, dark green. And so a happy spring-time garden cleaning! Don't it fun?

Curly Girlie Coiffures Replace Teased Tresses

NEW YORK (UPI) — It's out with the hot-rod and in with the curly curls coiffure for spring and summer, say some of the world's leading hair stylists.

"We find women of all ages more interested in curl, but some only, no tight tresses," said Leonard Benner, a Hollywood, Wash., salon owner who is president of the National Hairdressers and Cosmetologists Association.

Benner said the revival of curls was in part a rebellion against all the teasing and rattling of the past few years which created full, face-framing arrangements, although they were counted into straightness.

"With curls as we do them now a woman can still maintain that fullness," said Benner.

Buddy Walton, a St. Louis shop owner and styles director of the association's hair fashion committee, said the change to softness in feminine fashioning also was a factor in curls' comeback. Hair styles follow clothes styles, he said. "We're doing waves, too," said Walton. A sort of Jean Harlow effect, but modernized and much softer, not plastered to the head.

Most of the new styles feature curls in the crown section and some wave at the ears and down the sides in the Marjette Co. area. Presley is first vice president of the association.

The three men were among the 1000 hairdressers gathered in New York for the international beauty convention. Evening, half way across the world was Miss K. Wlossak who with her mother runs a shop in Melbourne, Australia. There, she said, everybody studies all the beauty magazines. Curls are back with even the teenagers teasing less and having up more.

Telephones first were in stalled in the White House in December of 1878.

'Thinking Day' Observed By Scout Troop

"Thinking Day," a special day celebrated each year on the birthday of the founders of the Girl Scouts in England, was observed by Junior Girl Scout Troop 223.

The Scouts, led by Carla Jarrell, Renea Park and Cindy Baker lit candles, gave the Girl Scout promise and explained the World Association pin.

They said that Girl Scouts all around the world join their thoughts and prayers for friendship and understanding. At the conclusion of the program, the girls were presented with their pins by leaders Mrs. Joyce Sawyers and Mrs. Margaret Burke.

Highlight of the program was a talk by Mrs. Mollie Satter, who was born and reared in Dusseldorf, Germany, and recently moved to North Orlando. She spoke of her life as a child in Germany, of youth activities and schooling and taught the local girls some words and greetings in German and a German song.

At another meeting the troop practiced mouth-to-mouth resuscitation on Reasi-Annie, under the leadership of Mrs. Martha Kilpatrick and Mrs. Edith Aveni, water safety instructors with the Red Cross. For this meeting, scouts from Troop 503 and their leader, Mrs. Carolyn Lavender joined Troop 223.

The troop is scheduled to attend the First Methodist Church 11 a.m. worship services Sunday, in observance of Girl Scout Sunday.

House Needy, LBJ Requests

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson asked Congress today to provide housing for one million needy families over the next four years.

In a "message of the cities" Johnson proposed a new program of rent supplements for slum dwellers, the elderly and families displaced by urban renewal or highway construction.

The President also asked Congress for money to acquire and fix up existing houses for needy families and to help low income home owners to repair their dwellings.

Scrub Up Day

Saturday will be "Scrub Up Day" at South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry. The Student Council is asking all students who can to come out and participate in getting the school in ship-shape order.

ing studied by members of the Orange-Seminole Joint Planning Commission, Gordon Orr, planning director, said at a meeting of engineers and the press in City Hall.

ment and a team of transportation engineering specialists from Wilbur Smith and Associates, of New Haven, Conn.

Here are the questions:
1. Is the Lake Jessup Causeway a feasible project in providing north-south access in Seminole County and, if so, when should the causeway be constructed?

2. Will an Orlando Beltline limited access highway be of benefit to South Seminole County and, if so, when should it be constructed?

3. Are interchanges on I-4 at Lake Mary Road and at 25th Street extended (Paola Road) feasible and, if so, when should these interchanges be constructed?

4. Should SR 415 be improved and in a new Osteen bridge justified on the St. Johns River?

5. Should SR 46 be improved and should a by-pass be constructed to expedite through traffic around the city of Sanford?

"Maps illustrating the existing highway system and committed road projects have been submitted for review and represent an up-to-date compilation of local municipal and county road plans," Orr told The Herald.

"The SRD and their consultants are undertaking initial field surveys in the two county area and an interviewing survey is planned in the area. Aspects of this survey will be explained to the people of Seminole County prior to commencement of the survey," Orr added.

Present with Orr at the conference were Paul Conrad, R. A. Hubbard and D. Foxworth of Smith Associates; Marvin Gray, project engineer for the SRD; Tom Bates, SRD, and Tom McCarthy, assistant planner with the Orange-Seminole Joint Planning Council.

Miss Whirl Favored In Jax Club Match

Larry Hughes' Miss Whirl was established today as an early favorite to win her third straight special race of the season Saturday night at the Sanford-Orlando Kennel Club in the match race against the Jacksonville Kennel Club.

Miss Whirl has taken both of SOKC's special events this season. She took the opening night Inaugural Handicap and came back last Saturday night to win the King and Queen championship.

Darold Robertson's L. L. Me Too also has been a sensational pup this season finishing in the money in all of her 15 starts. She has nine wins.

Cecil Austin's Ripmy, who also has turned in a fine record this season, is the third starter for SOKC.

Jacksonville's three starters are Eleanor Brown's Illinois Baron, Sam Gerard's Zaulman and Red Fork Kennel's Mandarin Guss.

Illinois Baron won the Jacksonville medley championship last Saturday night—one of the biggest events of the season at the North Florida track.

Lyman Tackles Landon Of Jax At Smyrna

Coach Dick Copeland will take his Lyman Greyhounds to New Smyrna Beach this evening where they will compete against highly-rated Landon High School of Jacksonville in the first round of the Class A - Region 2 basketball tournament. The game is slated to get under way at 7:30 p.m.

The Hounds' opponents from Jacksonville, according to Copeland, have compiled a fine season record this year and have lost only one game on their home court.

Among their string of victories was an impressive decision over the Cocoa Tigers, a class AA team which ranks among the best in the state.

Landon, according to the Lyman mentor, is a ball club with exceptional height, their smallest player being six feet tall. They are reported to have good speed and a good press, thus enabling them to score a lot of points.

The Greyhounds have been victorious in 14 of their 24 encounters thus far, including two key triumphs last weekend in the group play-offs at Longwood.

They defeated Kissimmee, 62-40, on Friday night, and then edged the tough Cocoa Beach Minutemen, 64-49, in a squeaker the following evening. These two performances rank among the best this season for Copeland's charges, especially the Cocoa Beach game.

The Lyman defense was outstanding throughout the evening and the offense posed a major threat to the Minutemen the majority of the time. Copeland pointed out the first quarter, in which the Hounds took an early 15-5 lead, "our best demonstration of ball handling all season." The first period eventually proved the margin of victory in the close affair.

Coach Copeland plans to use the same starting line-up tonight as he has used throughout the season.

Starting at right forward will be Gene Winklemier, who comes closer to being a playmaker than anyone else on the starting five.

Eddie Long will be at left forward in the initial quintet. Long has scored over 20 points on several occasions this season.

Mike Sterling, senior captain of the champion eagles, will be the starter at the right guard position.

Joe Asher will be the other starter in the back court.

The "sixth man" for Lyman is Junior Richard Moore, who proved the hero in the Kissimmee game with 16 points and 14 rebounds. Steve Simpkins, newly arrived from the junior varsity has come

Hungry Oviedo To Lake Butler In First Tilt

By Marshall Lingco
Herald Sports Writer

The Oviedo Lions travel to Lake Butler tonight to take on the Tigers of Lake Butler High School in regional basketball play.

The Lions, hungry for a win, will be facing top-ranked Lake Butler in an affair that should prove to be a very close contest.

The Lions meet Lake Butler at 9 o'clock tonight, following the contest involving Santa Fe and Madison beginning at 7. The victors of tonight's games will face each other at 8 p.m. Saturday.

Oviedo, who beat Father Lopez and Bunnell in the group 8 tournament at Oviedo last week, is expecting some tough competition this weekend at Lake Butler (a lot tougher than they encountered in the group tournament).

Lake Butler, who beat Baldwin and Callahan in the group tournament last week, has a height advantage over the Lions and also has the edge in that it will be playing on its home court.

Coach Paul Mikler of the Lions will probably start Rex Brooks, Tim Colbert, Jimmy Courier and Billy Mikler. Ted Belthorn and Ardie Arndt will alternate in the fifth position.

The regional tournament is the last hurdle before the state championship and the Lions have high hopes of going to state this year.

Terrell Touted For Heavyweight Tainted Title

CHICAGO (UPI) — Ernest Terrell and Eddie Machen tangle tonight for the tainted title of world heavyweight boxing champion.

They weighed in at 11 a.m. today for their scheduled 15-round bout, from which the winner will emerge with recognition as champion by the World Boxing Association.

Terrell was a 2-to-1 favorite. But this version of the crown is disputed by its former holder, Cassius Clay, as well as the states of New York and Massachusetts, which do not accept a WBA decision vacating Clay's right to the title.

There has been talk that Clay might be willing to meet the Terrell-Machen winner in the fall to clear up the split title, assuming that Clay can hold his share in a rematch with Sonny Liston.

Promoters of tonight's bout said flatly "that's just conversation."

UGLY CUSTOMER. This six-foot, four-inch rattlesnake, possessor of 13 rattles, lost a battle with a bulldozer when City Commissioner Earl Higginbotham spotted him slithering into a gopher hole. "He won't get any of my cattle now," said Higginbotham. (Herald Photo)

All-Star Game Slated Tonight

Sanford Church League All-Stars and the Forest City Men's League will meet in a benefit basketball game at 8 p.m. tonight at the Seminole High School gym.

Intermediate League All-Stars, youths who participated in the City League, will open the evening's program with a game at 7 p.m.

Sanford Junior High's Bravettes and B Bravettes will present a twirling exhibition. Proceeds will be used for the Church League.

Palms Springs Ponder Election

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (UPI) — Deputy city clerk Judith Sumich reminded voters that today is the deadline for registering to vote in a special election that may never be held.

The city council won't decide for a few days yet whether to hold a special election about April 27 to determine whether the city should buy a $300,000 golf course now leased by the city.

"If the city council votes for an election and you want to vote, register today," said Miss Sumich.

35 Panthers Out For Baseball

By Bob Thomas Jr.
Crooms High Panthers baseball squad has held its initial workout.

Coach Dick Evans greeted some 35 prospects, including several lettermen.

Evans sent his boys through a brisk session following conditioning drills. He worked on the techniques of bunting, fielding and the proper ways to cover bases.

Pitchers and catchers were shown the rudiments of their respective positions.

Since becoming baseball coach in 1959, Evans has fielded some fine teams, including winning the state championship. His teams have finished second in tournament play on four outings.

Evans is hoping that he can muster an 18-game schedule this season.

America - Helping Hand

If there is any one characteristic that can be called uniquely American, it is, in the opinion of one man, our "spirit of voluntarism"—our peculiar readiness not only to lend help to others who ask for it but to go out into the world and seek those who need help.

The man ought to know. He is Frank L. Goffio, executive director of CARE, a private, nongovernmental organization without parallel in any other country or any other time.

Were it not for this voluntarism on the part of Americans, CARE would never have come into existence, and what began with emergency food packages to Europe after World War II would not now encompass the entire world with a variety of aid programs.

A similar voluntary organization is MEDICO, organized in 1958 by Dr. Peter D. Comanduras and the late Dr. Thomas A. Dooley. In 1962, CARE and MEDICO merged, with the latter becoming "a service of CARE."

Today a total of 54 men and women are overseas on two-year team assignments in countries that are at least a generation behind western medicine—sometimes centuries behind. Another 100 or so volunteer specialists are slated for short-term duty to augment the teams or conduct projects in their specialties.

CARE-MEDICO is currently in the midst of a $3 million campaign to pay for programs which will benefit an estimated 600,000 people this year, at an average cost of $5 a person.

The funds will cover the work of American and Canadian doctors, nurses and technologists involved in 18 projects in nine countries.

More important in the long run, though, is MEDICO's training of local personnel. Last summer, for example, a five-year orthopedic project in Jordan was turned over to Jordanian surgeons who were trained by Americans.

Thus CARE-MEDICO's ultimate goal is to make itself superfluous in the world. That goal will not soon be reached, however.

"For lack of polio inoculation, thousands of children are crippled," says Goffio. "For lack of proper treatment, countless men and women are blinded or paralyzed by nerve injuries. Literally millions of people are debilitated by malaria, tuberculosis, intestinal parasites—diseases modern medicine can prevent or cure."

Americans can continue to express their "spirit of voluntarism" through CARE and MEDICO. Its headquarters: 660 First Avenue, New York, N.Y., 10016.

Thought For Today

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — The canard is widespread that South Vietnamese won't die for what they believe.

Let's look at the facts.

In the past four years, Communist Viet Cong murdered 6,000 village leaders, rural police and their wives and children. These were men and women who refused to yield to V.C. threats.

About 1 a.m. one night, 30 armed Viet Cong moved into Binh Thanh hamlet, assassinated with gunshots a young girl, Phan Thi Trinh, chief of the hamlet Republican Youth. The terrorists pinned on her body a death sentence signed Forces for Liberation of South Viet Nam.

Eight o'clock one evening, 20 Viet Cong broke into the house of Ngo Tien, 58, of the Phu Hai hamlet council. They read an indictment condemning him to death, then knocked him down with sub-machine gun shots. The assassins left the indictment on his body signed Front for Liberation of the South.

At midnight, Viet Cong entered the house of Dang Thien Mon, 70-year-old treasurer of the Trung Hai fishing co-operative. They killed Mon with 10 sub-machine gun shots and then murdered his 60-year-old wife. They left leaflets of the Front for Liberation of the South.

Many of these Vietnamese took hamlet responsibilities knowing their chance of living was not great.

Within eight months, the V.C. made three bombing attacks on the life of a Dinh Tuong district chief, once blowing up the car he had just gotten out of. He told me he was not about to quit.

In Chu Duc hamlet, Dai Lac Province, two hamlet chiefs had been killed and three abducted. That didn't prevent a young primary teacher from taking the job.

Some hamlet chiefs keep foxholes handy near their homes, depend on a youth lookout force to warn them when Viet Cong assassins sneak into the area.

Other officials sleep every night with friends in nearby towns, come back each morning to do their work.

Not all Vietnamese are brave, of course. The country has some village militiamen who run and hide when Viet Cong approach, and some regular troops who only go through the motions of fighting. There are turncoats, traitors and weaklings.

But in the past four years, 20,000 Vietnamese soldiers have been killed in action and 25,000 wounded.

Consider, too, how difficult it is to fight under these conditions.

One of the earliest Communist Viet Cong operations was directed against the rural Vietnamese police. The Reds would send a small guerrilla force to the outskirts of a town and entice the police garrison to come out and fight. The villagers expected these rural police to go out and protect them.

While the unit was out of its barracks, trying to grapple with this guerrilla force, another Communist group would slip into town and murder the families of the police left behind in the barracks area.

A NOBLE EFFORT

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

"Give me the right word," said Joseph Conrad, "and I will move the world." So study the origin of words and make this a fascinating dinner table game. For it will help your children earn higher grades in school. Even the sign language of the deaf becomes fascinating, as you will see below.

George W. Crane, Ph. D., M.D., CASE V-129: Cathy, aged 3, was visiting us at our summer farm home.

As we walked up the road to feed the horses some sugar, she brushed her arm against a blackberry briar and scratched the skin.

"Grandpa," she moaned, "I have an ouchy!"

Please notice her use of "ouchy" for she employed it to take the place of what you and I would call a "scratch" or "scrape" or "wound," etc.

And "ouchy" is an example of what English teachers call "onomatopoeia," which is a 6-syllable term to describe words that imitate the natural sounds to which they refer.

In addition to Cathy's "ouchy" you might thus recall "hiss" and "buzz" as well as "gurgle" and "bang."

As a dinner table game you might try to expand this list of words that indicate onomatopoeia.

When our daughter Judy's youngest son James was two months of age, but he routinely referred to our dog as "how wow."

In similar fashion, primitive mankind evolved language, starting with monosyllabic words and adding very striking visual characteristics, too, that represented the objects they wished to describe.

Nowadays, we still use the letter used by the deaf in their sign language.

For their basic signs are often based on a "root" gesture, much as we employ a Latin "root" for many English words.

The deaf will thus slap their right thigh as the sign for "dog."

Maybe you people with normal hearing don't see the connection, but just observe the usual dog owner the next time he wishes to call his pet.

He will whistle and slap his thigh repeatedly.

But the deaf folks don't hear the whistle though they see that patting of the thigh, so they have adapted it as the "cine" symbol.

Their sign for human "female" is a little flick of the right thumb toward the clock.

It refers to the old homet strings that used to fasten under a woman's chin.

If you first stroke your thumb against your right cheek but then hold both index fingers together in a parallel position, what do you suppose such a sign means to the deaf?

Well, it refers to a female who has the same parallel line of ancestry as you all. Who would that be? Your sister?

Use the same "root" gesture of thumb stroking the cheek and then clasp the hand. What female does this indicate?

Since the hands are clasped in the wedding ceremony, this sign refers to a wife.

Employ that same "root" gesture with your thumb, then follow by holding your two arms as if you have a baby thereon.

This means a mother.

Double the gesture with the two arms, and these indicate a female who has had two generations of babies, meaning, a grandmother!

Language is a fascinating study if you make a game of it and also visualize the death of words among primitive mankind.

So study your dictionary with more interest and always look for the "root" words out

Phil Newsom Says . . .

'Out Of The Question'

If, in Viet Nam, the Russians find themselves in a squeeze play between the United States and the Red Chinese, it is not the first time.

In Viet Nam, the theory is that Soviet Premier Alexei Kosygin's first intent on his recent visit to North Viet Nam was to urge a "political settlement" of the Communist-supported war in South Viet Nam.

This portion of his mission failed because of the Red attacks on American installations and the United States' prompt response.

The subsequent swift march of events contained the danger that Russia, even though reluctantly, might become involved in the war itself.

Whether or not the stepped-up attacks against the Americans were timed to coincide with Kosygin's visit, the results fit in nicely with Red Chinese policy.

Either the Russians would have to do something or forfeit their claims to be the defenders of the Socialist world and their hopes for a new voice in Asia.

The Chinese then would be the gainers in the struggle for leadership of world communism.

On the other hand, a major factor in the Chinese opposition to the Soviet Union's proclaimed policy of co-existence has been their fear of agreement between the United States and the USSR.

As the situation developed in Viet Nam, the Chinese could not lose.

Other instances come to mind.

Back in 1958, during the Mid-east crisis, former Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev first proposed a summit conference in Geneva or "anywhere else" and then agreed to a counterproposal by President Eisenhower that a big-power meeting be held in the United Nations Security Council.

There followed a secret meeting between Khrushchev and Red Chinese Leader Mao Tse-tung in Peking in which the Chinese vetoed the idea of a meeting which not only would include the United States but the Nationalist Chinese as well. Khrushchev bowed to the Red Chinese and the meeting never was held.

The Khrushchev-Eisenhower meeting in 1959 engendered the short-lived friendly "spirit of Camp David." After it, Khrushchev once more visited Peking.

As Mao Tse-tung trumpeted on the Socialist revolution, Khrushchev declared:

"We, on our part, must do everything possible to preclude war as a means for settling outstanding questions."

Then came the U2 spy plane incident over the Soviet Union and the collapse of the Paris summit conference in May, 1960.

Remarked Mao: "In the past certain people (Khrushchev) have described Eisenhower as a person wholly devoted to world peace. I hope these people will be awakened by this incident."

So it was familiar reading when at the 15th anniversary of the Chinese-Soviet treaty of friendship the Chinese declared co-existence with the United States "out of the question" and demanded "concrete action."

PENALTY

You've been speeding, and you get a ticket. You don't like it, but you know you've been wrong. With little or no argument, you pay your fine.

You've been staying home from church on Sundays for one of a dozen reasons. Maybe you like to sleep late. Maybe the minister in your church preaches dull sermons. Maybe you don't consider yourself the church-going type. Whatever your alibi—nobody's going to come after you.

This is a summons you'll have to serve on yourself. For an infraction of God's law is something that can't be ignored. Until you declare yourself guilty, you will be deliberately shutting yourself off from the greatest fellowship in the world. No judge in history has ever pronounced a sterner sentence.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL — ALL FOR THE CHURCH

Day	Book	Chapter	Verses
Sunday	Psalms	66	8-20
Monday	Luke	12	4-12
Tuesday	Luke	14	15-24
Wednesday	Acts	16	16-34
Thursday	Romans	1	18-25
Friday	Romans	3	9-20
Saturday	Romans	8	31-29

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and read your Bible daily.

1. For his own sake. (2) For the sake of his community and nation. (3) For the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

President Urges Beefed-Up Attack On Crime

'Malignant' Foe Of U.S.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson called today for a beefed-up federal and local law enforcement to attack what he called the "malignant enemy" of growing crime in the United States.

In a special message to Congress, Johnson asked for a comprehensive program including a federal ban on all firearms shipments in interstate commerce.

Only exceptions would be among importers, manufacturers and dealers licensed by the Treasury.

In a lengthy message to the House and Senate, the Chief Executive said there was no suggestion of federal interference through a national police force in the primary police responsibilities of state and local governments.

But Johnson said "crime is no longer merely a local problem."

The time has come, he said, for a multiple, co-operative federal-state-local effort to "arrest and reverse the trend toward lawlessness" which is costing the country tens of billions of dollars annually, plus countless lives and many injuries.

The President called this the essence of his program: "Increased federal law enforcement efforts; assistance to local law enforcement efforts; a comprehensive, penetrating analysis of the origins and nature of crime in modern America (this analysis to be completed in a study by a new presidential commission on law enforcement and administration of justice)."

He added: "This message recognizes that crime is a national problem."

"That recognition does not carry with it any threat to the basic prerogatives of state and local governments."

"It means, rather, that the federal government will henceforth take a more meaningful role in meeting the whole spectrum of problems posed by crime."

"It means that the federal government will seek to exercise leadership and to assist local authorities in meeting their responsibilities."

The President had announced previously his intention of naming a commission to study the whole field of law enforcement and make recommendations to combat crime.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has ruled out once again any possibility of negotiations to end the Vietnamese war until the Communists decide "to leave their neighbors in Southeast Asia alone."

LONDON (UPI) — Two members of the International Control Commission—India and Poland—today supported Communist charges that American bombing raids on North Viet Nam were "violations of the utmost gravity."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Social Security Administration reported today it collected $258.4 million in Florida during 1965.

The agency said the money came from a total of $3.68 billion in wages and self-employed income in the state.

A total of $17.53 million was paid to 702,229 social security recipients.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Rep. Charles E. Bennett (D-Fla.) is in satisfactory condition today at Walter Reed Hospital after breaking his left leg in three places Saturday in a fall on ice.

Bennett, a polo victim, carries a cane and has a brace on his right leg. He contracted polo at Luxon in the Philippines during World War II.

Leathernecks In Viet Nam

Reds Protest U.S. Step To 'Aggression'

SAIGON (UPI) — Combat-ready U.S. Marines swarmed ashore today and took up defense positions around the Da Nang airbase only 80 miles from Communist North Viet Nam.

It was the first Marine landing in a combat zone since the Korean war.

Communist China and North Viet Nam immediately protested the amphibious operation as another American step to "widen the war of aggression."

Today's landing involved 1,400 Leathernecks, the first of two Marine battalions totalling 3,500 men who were ordered into South Viet Nam to provide security at the Da Nang base.

It is the jumping off point for American and South Vietnamese air strikes against the Communist north.

The Marines raise the number of American troops in South Viet Nam to a record high of 27,000.

In a major political development, South Viet Nam's powerful Buddhist leaders called on the United States to withdraw its troops from Vietnamese territory.

The Marine landing party encountered no opposition but Communist guerrillas were busy elsewhere in Viet Nam.

Viet Cong unleashed a barrage on mortar and recoilless cannon fire on a U.S. Army special forces camp in mountainous Binh Dinh Province 275 miles northeast of Saigon.

Two trucks from Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department answered the call but men were unable, due to distance and time loss involved, to do more than prevent fire from destroying all homes in the closely populated area.

WASHINGTON (UPI) — A bandit held up the National Press Club Sunday night and escaped with $1,200 in cash and checks.

DALLAS (UPI) — Jack Ruby, almost a year to the day he was convicted and sentenced to death, was to appear in court today for arguments on his sanity.

Judge Joe B. Brown, who presided at the Ruby trial last February and March, ordered the slayer of presidential assassin Lee Harvey Oswald to court for a hearing to decide if a jury should be given the task of determining Ruby's present sanity.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI) — The Titan-2 rocket set for American's first two-man project Gemini spacecraft later this month developed a propellant leak today during a mock launch test.

The leak was discovered in a nitrogen tetroxide line in the booster's second stage 85 minutes after the full-scale seven-hour countdown started.

State Ponders Entering Hunt For Treasure

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida is thinking about creating a treasure hunting agency.

The Florida Cabinet has under consideration a proposal from the state museum at Gainesville for a two-year program to recover treasure from sunken ships.

If the two-year program is a success, it would be continued into future years.

The museum asked the Cabinet Trustees of the Internal Improvement Fund—an agency whose duties include governing offshore Florida waters—to sign a contract with the museum.

The contract would empower the museum to take over "research and conservation" to save relics of the state's history from destruction by gold hunters.

The program would cost $70,121 during the two years. Expenses include diving equipment and salary for two technicians.

The IFF was severely criticized last year because of apparent easy regulations for gold hunters.

Florida must license all treasure seekers and gets 25 per cent of the gold, silver and artifacts plucked from the ocean bottom.

One recent find put $400,000 in old gold in the state's pockets.

Constable Hurt In 3-Way Wreck

Constable Robert Carroll was treated and released from Seminole Memorial Hospital Saturday with back injuries suffered when his patrol car was struck at the intersection of 13th Street and Park Avenue late Friday night, police reported today.

Also treated and released was Charles M. Craig, 62, driver of the car which struck Carroll's car and knocked it into the rear end of a taxi driven by Robert Smith.

Craig, whose address was listed as 2401 Willow Avenue, was charged with reckless driving and driving while intoxicated.

All three men were jailed.

Sweden Mourns

STOCKHOLM (UPI) — Sweden today began a six-week period of mourning for Queen Louise.

The beloved monarch became "our queen" to the Swedish people because she shopped in Stockholm's stores and markets just like any housewife.

The queen died Sunday at the age of 75. A great-granddaughter of Britain's Queen Victoria, she suffered a blood clot in her right leg last Thursday.

County To Outline Road Plan For State Tuesday

An extensive county-wide highway improvement program will be requested by the Seminole County Commission when it meets with State Road Department officials at 4 p.m. Tuesday at DeLand. This is the annual meeting when counties present their road programs to the state.

In the proposed primary program (state projects to be accomplished with state funds), No. 1 priority has been given to the four-laning of State Road 46 (25th Street) from French to Mellonville Avenue.

The state already has announced it will open bids for this project on March 30, and will let the contract on April 30.

But, Commission Chairman John Alexander explained, the county has given this project No. 1 priority again "because we want to keep it up there in that position in case the state doesn't get around to it again this year."

Other primary proposals to be presented by the county, listed in priority in sequence: State Road 415 (13th Street-Celery Avenue), from French Avenue to the City limits; SR 426, Goldenrod through Oviedo to Geneva, realign, rebuild and straighten curves, widening strips, resurface; I-4 at Lake Mary Boulevard, construct interchange; SR 419, Gee Creek box culvert, widen abutments; SR 46, I-4 west to Lake County line, four-lane construction; SR 46, Mellonville Avenue east to proposed Osteen Bridge approach, four-lane construction.

SR-425, 419 and 520, from intersection of S-425-427 south across new causeway over Lake Jessup via Oviedo to S-520 at Orange County line, designate as primary road from Sanford to the proposed state university, four-lane construction, (The Lake Jessup causeway long has been proposed.)

SR-436, I-4 west to Orange County line, four-lane right-of-way; SR-436, near Lake Howell south to Orange County line, four-lane construction; I-4, at SR-46A (Paola Road), construct interchange, and SR-415, construct new Osteen Bridge across St. Johns River.

Sixteen secondary projects are proposed, to be constructed by the state with county funds held by the state. A number of these tie in with the primary proposals in that the projects will be accomplished with state funds by the state but the county must provide the rights-of-way with the county's secondary monies held by the state.

The secondary proposals are: SR 46, French to Mellonville, four-lane right-of-way;

S-427, from S-434 north to the ACL railroad at General J. C. Hutchison Parkway, two-lane right-of-way and construction; S-426, Goldenrod to Oviedo, two-lane right-of-way to eliminate dangerous curves; S-427, Ginderville to Five Points, two-lane right-of-way and construction; S-427, ACL railroad at General Hutchison Parkway north to Five Points, two-lane right-of-way and construction.

SR-415, realignment for new Osteen Bridge, two-lane right-of-way; SR-436, near Lake Howell south to Orange County line, four-lane right-of-way; S-15, ACL railroad at Lake Mary north to terminus, widen to 24 feet and resurface.

SR-426, ACL railroad east of S-434 at Forest City, construct railroad signals; SR-436, intersection with S-431 and S-434 at Forest City, construct traffic signal; and engineering and surveying for the following projects: The right-of-way south on Sanford Avenue, over a new causeway on Lake Jessup to the new university site; four-laning of SR-46 from I-4 to Lake County; four-laning of SR 46 east to Volusia County; two-laning S-15 from SR-46 to Lake Monroe, and needs for a future railroad overpass at Rand's Crossing on SR 46 west of Sanford.
