

Local Control Asked In Mix

ST. AUGUSTINE (UPI)—A former state educational policy official today called for local control of Florida's public schools to enforce segregation without complete shut-down of classrooms.

Fred H. Kent, Jacksonville attorney, said if this procedure were followed, only those counties directly involved in integration litigation would have to close their schools to prevent desegregation.

He said state control of education might mean closing all schools in Florida if one county decided it should shut down to prevent racial integration.

Addressing the local Rotary Club, the former Board of Control chairman condemned the so-called "Daytona Beach Manifesto" in which several key legislators resolved to enact a law to shut down all state schools in the event of court-enforced integration.

"No such bill should ever be enacted into law in Florida," Kent said. "This is exactly the type of law which brought integration to Virginia," he said.

He also said the bill would be unconstitutional and "the state courts themselves" would throw it out. "Such a law would play right into the hands of the NAACP," he said.

Kent, who has been mentioned as a possible candidate for governor in 1960, also criticized Gov. LeRoy Collins for failing to "exhaust all of the legal remedies at his disposal for maintaining segregation before permitting integration at the University of Florida."

The veteran attorney said the Legislature also should broaden its pupil assignment law and initiate a tuition payment law "along the lines suggested by Attorney General Richard Ervin."

He said he considered two recent speeches on the matter by Asst. Atty. Gen. Ralph Odum "the finest exposition of the law on that subject which I have read."

At Cascade, Wis., a snow-laden tavern roof collapsed Sunday night after 800 persons attending a 50th wedding anniversary celebration fled out of the building unhurt.

Witnesses said a rumbling overhead gave warning to evacuate the Sheboygan County building.

The heaviest snow Sunday night and early today occurred in upper New York near Lake Ontario, where both Buffalo and Rochester reported two inches of new snow.

Forecasters predicted snow or snow flurries from the Dakotas eastward across the Great Lakes to southern New England, with three to six inches expected to accumulate in upper New York.

The rain coincided with a warming trend which boosted overnight readings from 10 to 20 degrees from the Gulf states into the Ohio Valley and the lower Great Lakes. Generally fair skies prevailed in the West.

Produce Man Dies In Shotgun Ambush

TAMPA (UPI)—A 40-year-old Tampa produce man was shot to death from ambush early today as he walked toward the front door of his home.

Police said Bennie Lazzara was killed instantly from approximately five shotgun blasts. His wife, who was at his side, was not injured.

Officers said they could find no motive for the gangland-style slaying. Lazzara, they said, was not known to be connected with any underworld activities and was a respected partner in the produce firm of Lazzara and Valenti.

Mrs. Lazzara said she and her husband arrived home early today after visiting with friends Sunday night. She said they had not stepped from their car and were walking up the sidewalk when the gunfire began.

Lazzara slumped dead on the lawn. Police said the gunman apparently sped off in a car parked in a nearby alley.

13 Cubans Given Castro 'Justice'; Total Now Is 416

HAVANA (UPI)—The execution of 13 war criminals over the weekend increased the unofficial toll of Cuba's revolutionary firing squads to 416—16 more than the 400 premier Fidel Castro had estimated as the maximum.

Four men were executed in Palma Soriano, three each in Santa Clara and Pinar del Rio, two in Holguin and one in Camaguey.

In the eastern provincial capital of Santiago, 43 firmen acquitted of "genocide" last week were sentenced by a special military tribunal to prison terms ranging from 2 to 30 years.

Nineteen pilots were sentenced to serve 30-year terms, 10 gunners were sent to prison for 10 years each, and 14 gunners drew 2-year terms.

Ex-Resident Jailed For Stealing Auto

Glenn Lavone Spivey, 31, was arrested by Sanford police yesterday and turned over to Sheriff's authorities.

Officers said the former Sanford resident had stolen a car in Covington County, Ala. Warrants are being sent for grand larceny and forgery from Sheriff M. E. Meredith of Covington County.

Heavy Fighting Erupts In Iraq

Will Seats Be Empty?

An Editorial
The Florida Symphony Orchestra will present a concert in the Sanford Civic Center tomorrow night.

A count of the tickets sold reveals that the 80 persons in the orchestra might outnumber the persons attending.

The City Recreation Department isn't too worried about the financial success. The sale of patron tickets, the $500 for the free children's concert, underwritten by Odham & Tudor, and the programs assure officials that proceeds will be within about $100 of expenses.

However, many of the purchasers of patron tickets do not plan to attend. Sales of tickets for the general public have been almost nil.

The Florida Symphony plans to present a program of popular music, for the first time in its history. Selections will be rendered from "My Fair Lady," "Oklahoma," "South Pacific" and other popular shows.

For those who like it on the "heavier" side, it will be available.

The Civic Center auditorium seats 1,500. If the Florida Symphony is faced with 1,200 or more empty seats, Sanford will suffer a cultural blight of momentous proportions.

More than 1,000 empty seats will be very hard to explain.

Air Alert Slated When It's Needed

Pentagon Declares

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The United States will put atomic bombs on continuous airborne alert as soon as the Soviet missile threat requires it, a high administration source said today.

On such an alert a certain number of Strategic Air Command bombers armed with nuclear weapons and guided missiles would be in the air at all times.

The purpose would be to prevent the planes from being targeted for destruction on the ground and to be in the best position to react to attack, thus increasing the deterrent to war.

Gen. Thomas Power, SAC commander, touched off a controversy when he told the Senate preparedness investigation in January that he would like to get an air alert going as soon as possible. The Defense Department denied a report that Power had been turned down to save money.

Sen. Stuart Symington (D-Mo.) and Rep. Daniel J. Flood (D-Pa.) later demanded that SAC keep some of its planes in the air at all times. Power had warned that with the "zero warning time" of a missile attack Soviet rockets might destroy his planes on the ground.

Like several military leaders who were consulted, the administration source has no immediate need for a large-scale around-the-clock bomber patrol. He said it might not be needed for a year or more.

Civil War Flares After Overthrow

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI)—Civil war erupted today in Iraq between a heavily armored revolutionary army regime and the leftist government of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

The government forces sent a fleet of bombers against the revolutionary headquarters of Col. Abdel Wahab Shawaif in the northern Iraqi city of Mosul and the rebels began a march on Baghdad.

The exploding crisis turned into open warfare 24 hours after Shawaif proclaimed a revolutionary command in Mosul, 250 miles north of Baghdad, aimed at deposing the "traitor Kassem."

Kassem's regime has strong Communist support and the new Middle East blowup could involve both East and West.

Mosul radio, mouthpiece of the army revolt in north Iraq, announced that "aircraft of Kassem are flying over the city of Mosul and bombarding it."

It announced at the same time the revolutionary forces are heading for Baghdad and said the rebels were picking up strength along the way. The rebels were known to have one of the strongest army units in Iraq.

The rebels appeared to be gaining ground in the north, the oil-producing center that supplies much of the world's oil.

The radio transmitter at Suleimaniyah, 200 miles east of Mosul, went on the air in the insurgents' support calling for another march against Baghdad. Kirkuk, center of the vast oil fields, lies midway between Mosul and Suleimaniyah.

Baghdad radio announced early today the revolt had been "crushed" and Shawaif shot by one of his own men but the broadcast apparently was erroneous.

Two women and a baby were riding north on French Ave. when another vehicle attempted the crossing. The cars collided, one was knocked into the front of a tractor-trailer on the east side of French Ave. The truck bed fell from the struck car, spilling a live full of bees. Few escaped, however.

The women were identified as the wives of Milford Lettys Calhoun and Harry H. Calhoun, of Warren, Pa. Their husbands are in the city jail for stealing a golf bag from the Mayfair Inn.

The five-bearing car was driven by Thomas Russell Alford, an AEC employe from Sanford. Charles Smith Jr. W. 11th St. was the driver of the tractor-trailer. Smith was waiting to cross west on French when the accident occurred.

Alford was charged with failure to yield the right of way. Police officers said a request had been made repeatedly to the State Road Department for a light at the dangerous intersection.

Trial was held for the Calhoun brothers Friday afternoon under Judge Ambrose Oliff, who will assess today's accident. The men were fined $227 each or 60 days in jail.

The doctor's examination revealed no serious injuries. The baby suffered a few bruises, and the women were "shaken up," police said.

Ralph King Dies; Funeral Tomorrow

Funeral services for Ralph King, 63, who died Saturday in a Winter Park hospital, will be held at graveside, tomorrow at 3 p. m. in Ovidio Cemetery. The Rev. Jack Bryant will officiate.

Mr. King was born in Sanford Sept. 26, 1895. A resident of Ovidio for the past 47 years, he was grove manager for Charles T. Niblack. He attended the Ovidio Baptist Church, was a member of the Ovidio American Legion and a veteran of World War I.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Maria G. King, Ovidio; one daughter, Mrs. C. L. Eriola, Sanford; one son, Ralph Edward King, Tampa; two granddaughters, Tom and Elaine Eriola, Sanford; six brothers, Jack King and Joe King, both of Ovidio; Foster King, Sanford; Richard King, West Palm Beach; Leonard King, Tampa; and Herb King, Daytona Beach, and two sisters.

Brisson Funeral Home is in charge of arrangements.

One Person Hurt, 3 Wrecks Listed Here On Weekend

Forest Wendell Laster, VAIL 3 received lacerations and bruises Friday afternoon when his motor cycle collided with an automobile driven by Willis Price Heard at the intersection of 9th St. and French Ave.

No injuries were reported in an accident Sunday morning involving Bobby Warren Thompson and Mrs. Mae Jamison Lowe. The collision occurred at 3rd St. and Park Ave.

Clifton Marvin Wells and William Eugene Padgett, VAIL 3 were involved in a motorcycle car accident at 8:35 p. m. Saturday in the 200 block of Sanford.

Savage Sons Head Home To Sanford

The pot will boil in Sanford again when the Savage Sons of Sanford return this week to their home base at Ranney Field.

Heavy Attack Squadron Five deployed in August to the Mediterranean aboard the USS Forrestal. On Wednesday afternoon, the first of their A1D Skywarriors are expected to touch down at the Sanford Naval Air Station to the enthusiastic welcomes of families and friends.

The Porriault is scheduled to dock in Norfolk the following day, and additional planes and pilots will leave her decks early that morning for Sanford.

West Will Lose, Khrushchev Says

BERLIN (UPI)—Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev predicted today the Western allies soon will lose their rights in Berlin and that communism will defeat capitalism "without war, without war."

Khrushchev made the confident predictions during a brief courtesy visit to East Berlin's Communist-run City Hall where he scribbled in the guest book "I express the belief that in no distant time all Berlin will be free of the remnants of the occupation regime."

Then in a short formal speech he predicted the eventual triumph of communism "without war." He had called a few hours before for "peace, peace and again peace," but it was a peace on his own rigid terms.

Informed Communist sources said the Soviet leader would present his plan for peace at any future East-West conference on Berlin—but that he would not back down in his determination to turn West Berlin's access routes over to the East German Communists.

Khrushchev met today with Erich Ollenhauer, leader of the West German Socialist Party, in an apparent attempt to win him over to the Soviet viewpoint and to undermine the authority of West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer.

Ollenhauer has opposed many of Adenauer's policies in the past but has sharply rejected Khrushchev's views on making West Berlin a "free city" surrounded by Communist territory.

Arnold Probst Sr. Succumbs At Home

Arnold William Probst Sr., 78, died Friday afternoon in his home at Cowan-Moughton Terrace.

Mr. Probst was a retired mill worker, and came to the Sanford area from Cleveland, O., in 1951. He moved to Cowan-Moughton Terrace in January from West First St.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Lena C. Probst, Sanford; one son, Arnold Probst Jr., Fairview, O.; three daughters, Mrs. Kathleen Dick, Parma, O.; Mrs. Caroline Humble, Homestead, Pa.; O., and Mrs. Ruth King, Berea, O.; two brothers, John Probst, Sanford, and Fred Probst, Columbus Station, O.; one sister, Mrs. Emma Colleen, and several grandchildren.

Remains were sent Saturday to Gortman Funeral Home, Cleveland for services and interment. Gortman Funeral Home was in charge of local arrangements.

Ex-Judge To Talk To Group Tonight

E. M. Sharpe, retired state supreme court judge, and past Grand Master, Sovereign Grand Lodge of Oddfellows of the world will speak at the Oddfellows Lodge at 8 o'clock tonight.

Sharpe will speak on his travels and of Oddfellows. Lunch will be served at this meeting. All members are urged to attend.

Just Cold Facts

SYRACUSE, N. Y. (UPI)—Police investigating the derailment of a railroad car found that it was refrigerated, that it was on a siding owned by the Arctic Ice Company and that the accident was caused by ice on the tracks.

County To Discuss Building Tomorrow

Seminole County Commissioners will interview local architects tomorrow morning.

One will get the nod to draw up plans for the new health unit. A decision is expected on the French Ave. site next to the telephone company. An abstract has been ordered on the land, which is considered "very adequate" for the county health unit.

A hearing on the commercial zoning of portions of Weathersfield is also on the agenda. Commissioners will meet at 9:30 a. m. in the Commission room at the court house.

Training Time Again

Baseball is in the air. Tomorrow, the first minor league team of the San Francisco Giants arrives in Sanford to begin spring training. Nine teams will be here within the next month.

Seminole High kicks off its baseball season a week from today against Lyman of Longwood. Other spring sports are planned. Among them are golf, swimming and track.

Iraq War Creates Fears About Reds

LONDON (UPI)—The Iraqi revolt set off fears today of possible Soviet intervention in the oil-rich, strategic republic.

Moscow lost no time in broad-casting an ominous charge that an imperialist plot was behind the Mosul rising, designed allegedly to throw the Middle East into fresh turmoil.

The Kremlin stands committed up to the hilt to the Baghdad regime of Premier Abdel Karim Kassem.

Soviet diplomacy has been extremely active in recent months and weeks to ingratiate itself with the Kassem government.

Soviet offers were understood to have ranged from economic assistance to military aid but the exact scope of Soviet aid remained ungranted to date has actualized an official secret.

Red diplomacy has been suspected of playing a double game in the embattled Middle East, seemingly trying to build up the Kassem regime as a counter against President Gamal Abdel Nasser's influence in the area.

24 Persons Dead, 41 Seriously Ill After Alcohol Jag

MONTERRIE, Mexico (UPI)—The death toll of last week's paint-thinner "jag" rose over the weekend to 24 soldiers and migrant workers dead and 41 hospitalized in serious condition.

The victims took drinks from a drum of denatured alcohol, intended for thinning paint, which fell off a truck passing through Monterrey, last week. Local authorities left the drum on a lot between an army post and a recruiting center for migrant farm workers.

Seminole Band Receives High Honors In Contest

Despite heavy rains Saturday night, the Seminole High School band came away with honors in the District Four band contest of the Florida Handmasters Association.

Band drills were rained out Saturday night for the 27 participating school bands.

The Sanford Seminole Band recently moved up to the fifth classification, but still drew an excellent in concert and superior in sight reading from the judges.

One of the judges, Charles Quarby, said, "This young band shows excellent promise. The youngsters are getting a wonderful musical experience under very capable leadership. This group is on the way up."

Bandmaster Ernie Cowley said that individuals and bands with superior ratings will go to the state contest in May. The competition will be held in Daytona Beach.

Superiors in solos went to Tommy Williams, trombone; Joyce Cook, trumpet; Pat Smith, Jude

Aiken Gets Calls Meant For Adkins

Among those receiving protesting phone calls about the Adkins Advertising Agency is a local advertising man.

Dick Aiken, of the Aiken Advertising Agency, said that people were calling him, thinking his firm was the one calling local residents in a merchandising gimmick.

Aiken said, "Although there is some similarity in names, there is no connection between our agency and that of Adkins. We are a local firm. They are from out of town."

School Will Vote On Leaving PTA

The Sanford Grammar School will get the facts tomorrow night about the National Congress of PTA.

Present at the 8 p. m. meeting will be D. W. Ladd, former FBI worker, and Mrs. John Haghey, president of the Geneva PTA.

The Geneva Club has withdrawn from the National Congress, on the grounds that the organization is promoting "one-worldism."

Mrs. Haghey has received valuable information from PTAs in Indiana and Illinois, which have been conducting their affairs on a local level.

After the business meeting, the PTA at Sanford Grammar School will go into special session. Under the leadership of President, Mrs. Ralph Wright, the local organization is expected to withdraw from the National Congress.

All parents are urged to attend.

Weather

Light Agenda Set For Commission

A light agenda is scheduled for Sanford City Commissioners tonight.

The leaders will discuss the raise less requirements for large stores, and a resolution opposing the proposed gasoline tax bill.

The meeting will begin at 8 p. m. in City Hall.

County 4-H Achievements Recognized

More than 400 Seminole County 4-H Club members climaxed their observance of National 4-H Club Week Saturday.

During the week, outstanding 4-Hers and their accomplishments were saluted. Under the leadership of the County Agricultural and Home Demonstration Agents, these 4-H members carry on widely varied projects, from raising live-stock, poultry and gardens to studying insects, working with electricity to conserving wildlife and soil.

Keeping with their motto, they strive to "make the best better." They round out their activities with play and recreation, as well as other interesting worthwhile project work. Character development and good citizenship are their most significant goals. 4-H Club work is one of the most effective defenses against juvenile delinquency because it gives them something to do with their hands.

Seminole County 4-Hers have been very active throughout the past year. Not only has participation been good in the various county events, but Seminole County has been represented in every district 4-H Club activity as well as a number of state-wide events.

During 4-H week, officials pinpointed some of Seminole County's 4-H Club activities and saluted some of the club members and their leaders.

Perhaps the highlight of each 4-H Club year is the Annual Achievement Day program. The last program was held at the Seminole County Farm Bureau monthly membership meeting. Present were 175. In this joint program, over 33 awards and achievement pins were given to the 4-H Club members for outstanding work during the previous year.

They were Gerry Fore, Oviedo; Carl Stubbings, Lake Mary; Jerry Arndt, Oviedo; Charles Fox, Sanford; Owen Cammack, Geneva; Tommy McLain, Geneva; Jimmy Wiederhold, Lake Mary; Dave Thomas, Geneva; Gene Ballard, Lake Monroe; Scott Wintney, Sanford; John Norden, Lake Mary; Charles Rabun, Lake Monroe; Robert Mikler, Slavia; Billy Franks, Lake Monroe; Karl Wolff, Oviedo; Billy Fulford, Geneva; Horace Johnson, Geneva; Loy Caldwell, Slavia; Mervel Irwin, Slavia; John Jakubek, Slavia; Tommy Wiederhold, Lake Mary; Bob River, Sanford; Jerry Oakley, Slavia.

This year, for the first time, Seminole County formed a dairy judging team which participated in both the district and the state contests. The team composed of Catherine Cammack, Owen Cammack, Dave Thomas and Tommy Wiederhold won second place honors in the district, with two of the members, Tommy and Owen, placing second and fourth, respectively, in individual score.

In the state contest, Owen Cammack placed in the top 20, making him eligible to compete in an elimination contest for one of the top four spots on the state team. In dairying, four were saluted: Catherine Cammack, Owen Cammack and Dave Thomas, all of Geneva, and Tommy Wiederhold of Lake Mary.

In the field of beef production, there are some dozen 4-Hers taking this project, four of which showed their animals in our county district shows. At Kissimmee, there were seven animals shown by Seminole County 4-Hers. Arden Arndt and Jerry Arndt of Oviedo and Robert Hopkins and Carl Stubbings of Lake Mary made excellent showings in this field. Seminole 4-H Clubs had one entry in the Eighth Annual Rabbit Show at the Central Florida Fair in Orlando this year. Robert Best, Lake Mary, was the entrant.

Over 150 4-H Club boys and girls journeyed to Tampa on 4-H Club Day at the State Fair this year. As a part of this program an outstanding 4-H Club member was recognized. Jerry Arndt, 15-year-old 4-H boy from Oviedo was chosen for his outstanding achievements in 4-H.

4-H Club activity usually reaches its highest intensity during the spring and early summer of each year. 4-Hers look forward to County Contest Day in which they take part in public speaking, the operation of tractors and the good reading lamp contests. Winners in these fields will represent us in the district event.

Last year's winners were: Owen Cammack, Geneva, tractor operator; Loy Caldwell, Slavia, public speaking and lamp contest winner. The highest honor a 4-Her can win in the county level is a trip to Short Course. This is a week of classes and tours at the State University. Only the top five 4-Hers are taken each year from the county. Although this year's winners have not been selected, last year's participants were Jerry Arndt and Gerry Fore of Oviedo; Billy Fulford, Geneva, and Carl Stubbings, Lake Mary.

The last activity of the school year is 4-H Club Summer Camp. Last year some 40 4-H Club boys and girls from Seminole County attended Camp McQuarrie, near Astor Park. Camp this year will be July 6-11.

Over 150 4-H Club boys and girls journeyed to Tampa on 4-H Club Day at the State Fair this year. As a part of this program an outstanding 4-H Club member was recognized. Jerry Arndt, 15-

Touhy Appointed By Savings Group

George Touhy, executive vice president of the First Federal Savings and Loan Association, Sanford, has been appointed to a committee of the U. S. Savings and Loan League.

The League is the nationwide trade organization of the savings and loan business and represents more than 4,500 savings associations and cooperative banks.

Touhy will serve on the Investments and Mortgage Lending Committee, studying mortgage loan servicing and procedures. The Committee's recommendations have resulted in improvement in home financing of direct benefit to savings associations and home-buying families.

Chamber Is Reaping Rewards For Efforts

The Seminole County Chamber of Commerce and its various committees now are reaping results of a lot of hard work.

Too often, a Chamber of Commerce is viewed from a "results only" angle. All of the hard work and effort on the "ones that got away" aren't considered. No city, county or Chamber of Commerce gets all, or even nearly all, of the industries they seek. A batting average of 50 per cent is considered to be outstanding.

But, viewed only from the angle of results, the Seminole Chamber in the past week set something of a record.

First came the announcement of Dynatronics, Inc., which employs about 100 now and is picked to become one of the area's major employers in a few years.

The week was climaxed by announcement that the Peninsula Paint and Plastics Manufacturers, Inc., would start construction of a plant.

That made two new industries within a week. But, equally important, were several Chamber announcements during the week.

Sanford Manufacturing Co. plans to expand. The city gave the firm an option on land. Company officials indicated that they would move all operations to Sanford.

York Manufacturing announced that it would break ground, March 14, for a new building. The firm has outgrown its original quarters. Employment will be increased when York moves into its new plant.

Piero Manufacturing has moved into its new quarters. Open house will be held next Saturday, at 402 Pecan Ave.

All of this, two new industries and expansions in three established plants, means that Sanford and Seminole County are growing. Each of the five announcements is something of which the Chamber, the city, the county and the people may be proud. Each announcement represents progress, growth, more jobs, more payrolls, more homes, more sales, more people.

These things don't "just happen." They are accomplished only through efforts of many. Some of the announcements came after months of negotiations and "selling" on the part of the Chamber and its committees.

As the week ended, the Chamber was attempting to "close" an agreement on another new industry.

This work isn't easy. Often, it's not even rewarding. It can be, however, when people work together for the common good of the community.

Shad Netting Again

State conservation and wildlife officers have nabbed another shad seine in this area.

The illegal pocket seine was confiscated in Mullet Lake Park. This time, officers were able to free the fish. On a previous occasion recently, some 1,000 pounds of shad died as a result of seining. The culprits never were apprehended.

Harry Hervish, wildlife officer, and C. A. Willis and C. V. Holland, agents of the State Board of Conservation, were on a routine patrol when the 125-foot net was found. It apparently had been placed in the water only a short time before.

Seineers just won't take "no" for an answer. It appears. This continuing disregard for the law should result in stiffer penalties and stricter prosecution of such cases.

Airline Requests Big Cut In Rates

MIAMI (UPI) — National Airlines has announced plans for a sharp reduction in night coach fares that officials say would enable passengers to travel cheaper by plane than by bus.

National announced that it has asked the Civil Aeronautics Board for permission to reduce its night coach rates by 24 per cent on a four-month trial basis, beginning April 20.

CAVE OF THE WINDS

Washington Calling

By Marquis Childs

WASHINGTON — Military and economic aid to underdeveloped countries is one of the most troublesome problems American policy makers confront, and there could be no better illustration of what this means than in Iran.

The Russians are breathing fire at their neighbor, Iran threatening the direst consequences if the Shah and his government conclude a mutual defense treaty with the United States. Back of this is a curious tragedy involving the unhappy Baghdad Pact and the fears and sensitivities of a country with an ancient tradition of greatness.

Three years ago with a stable government in power after the ouster of the volatile Mohammed Mossadegh Iran became a member of the Baghdad Pact. Even among those glad to see Mossadegh go this caused concern, since Iran with a 1,200-mile border with the Soviet Union has long maintained a policy of neutrality.

Last summer when Iraq blew up there were nervous tremors in Tehran. As the Communist infiltration in Iraq increased so did the fear in Tehran. From the neighbor on a third border, Afghanistan, came similar reports of extensive Communist infiltration. In response the pressures on Washington grew to provide more military aid, more budgetary aid, more aid of every kind. And when it was not forthcoming in a quantity considered sufficient there was an intimation that if Washington couldn't provide security then perhaps the Soviet Union might be interested in negotiating a neighborly pact of friendship and nonaggression with Iran.

A team of Russian negotiators went to Tehran ostensibly to work out such a pact. While much is unclear they certainly did not go on their own initiative to look at the beautiful mountainous scenery that surrounds the capital. Then after the Shah had retreated into a diplomatic illness for a week the whole thing was called off and the Russian negotiators went home with Moscow charging that Washington had forced the Iranians to pull out.

What makes this fairly characteristic mess all the more distressing is that it can disrupt, if not destroy, a sensible economic program that has made marked progress. A law backed by the Shah provided that between 1953 and 1962 a billion dollars of Iran's oil revenues should go into building railroads, highways, irrigation and flood-control projects, schools and hospitals. The money was to be spent under the direction of an independent agency, the Plan Organization, headed by Abdoel Hassan Eshelaj who has a high reputation for forcefulness and honesty.

The Plan Organization hired the Development and Resources Corporation of New York to carry out one of the largest of the projects, the Khuzestan development program in a region with untapped resources 362,000 acres will be irrigated and transmission lines will bring electricity to people still living in the primitive simplicity of ancient Persia.

At the head of the New York firm are David Lilienthal and Gordon Clapp, both former chairmen of the Tennessee Valley Authority. For underdeveloped countries everywhere TVA has been a model of how to raise the standards of a whole region. Clapp and Lilienthal, both of whom are in Iran now, have included in their planning means to train Iranians and give them the operation of the project. They have brought in Italian, Dutch and British as well as American firms to do the work.

But the complete project depends on a loan from the International Bank. Investigators for the bank are beginning to be doubtful because of the rapidly rising Iranian defense budget.

This raises some deeply disturbing questions. Did membership in the Baghdad pact give the Iranian military unreasonable ambitions for advanced military hardware? What is the utility of a large military establishment in the defense primitive Iran against the challenge of its inchoate Communist neighbor? Does the military feed on its own ambition for larger tanks and newer planes?

There are no simple answers to these questions. Pride and prestige are deeply involved. But if the committee that President Eisenhower named to examine the foreign aid problem is really interested in the facts they have in Iran a complete laboratory of trial and error.

29 To Represent County At Meet

Twenty-nine delegates will represent Seminole County at the Florida Educational Association Conference in Tampa, March 19-21.

Delegates met for a special session last night in support of Ernest Cowley, band director of Seminole High School, as a candidate for director of District Five.

The caucus was presided by the regular meeting of the Education Association of this county.

Outsiders Welcome

MONTPELIER, Vt. (UPI) — Ten members of Vermont's House of Representatives come from Canada, two from England and one each from France, Denmark, Scotland and Bavaria.

Letter To The Editor

Editor, The Herald:

I would like to take this opportunity to express in this way, my sincere appreciation to the many people who helped, materially or physically, place our Seminole County Exhibit in the Central Florida Fair last week.

Few people — except those closely connected with such an affair — realize the effort and materials needed to put together an attractive exhibit which represents our county. In fact, were it not for the efforts and hard work of a selected few and the cooperation of many, Seminole County would not be represented at the Central Florida Fair.

There are always more people behind the scenes than the average person realizes. It is these people who make a successful exhibit, yet never enter into the "light" of leaving someone out. I would like to list those who have contributed in the exhibit and take my hat off in thanks to them.

The real "work horses" — those who stuck through the thick of putting the exhibit together — Mr. and Mrs. Eric Vihlen, Grapeville Nursery, head the list. They and Kenneth Robbins worked long, hard hours bringing truckloads of their plants and placing them properly in the exhibit. Then they helped late into Sunday night with the million other things needed to be done.

4-H Club members were a big help on Saturday and Sunday, namely Bobbie Harbour, William Leffer III, Tommy Best, Bobby Rest and Owen Cammack. Mr. E. W. Dinkins and Mr. Denver Johnson, Jr., employees of the City of Sanford, gave a big hand on the painting of the exhibit. Last minute touches on Sunday afternoon were given by Mr. and Mrs. Dick Mapes. Mrs. Cecil Tucker spent Sunday afternoon hauling flowers and collecting together last minute items for the exhibit. Marcel Patis and his co-workers, Jean Guay, worked late into Sunday night preparing the signs and placards for the exhibit to give it that professional touch. Behind the scenes, between office and phone calls, the Agent's secretaries, Miss Hattie Kirk and Mrs. Dick Mapes, put in long hours picking and cleaning up items for the exhibit as well as making many phone calls in behalf of the exhibit.

The fruit and vegetables were gathered by Harold Kastner and his farm manager, Clyde Humphrey, and were furnished by Harold Kastner Company, Sanford Fruit Company, Patrick Fruit Co., Orange Fruit Co., Chase and Company, A. Duda & Son, State Produce Company, Sanford Grinnell and Charlie Grinnell. The celery which was given away from Seminole County Day was furnished by Chase and Company and American National Growers Corp.

The plants used for the back drop and patio in the exhibit were furnished by Grapeville Nursery. The lovely mass of yellow chrysanthemums used in the gate were furnished by Patterson's Flower Farm, Sanford. The framing of photo-odors around the "mums" was furnished by Vaughn, Inc. of Fern Park.

The floral arrangements were made by members of the Hermetocallis Circle of the Sanford Garden Club, namely, Mrs. C. H. Moss, Mrs. R. L. McKnight, Mrs. O. V. Boutwell, Mrs. Billie Kimmons and Mrs. J. W. Willis.

Agriculture and art-business suitable items were furnished by many companies and individuals; honey, Phil Packard, model gunnery cow, Harold Ward; dish garden, Vaughn, Inc.; model tractor, Sherwood Tractor Co.; seeds, Kilgore Seed Co., fertilizer and insecticide, Chase and Company, Wheeler Fertilizer Co., and Fosgate Coop; citrus concentrate display, Fosgate, jelly display, Winn Dixie.

Miscellaneous items: colored sawdust for floor covering, Strickland Morrison; coquina rock, Mrs. Juanita Tucker of Christmas and wrought iron furniture, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Berry of the Berry Warehouse Furniture Company.

Celery bags for Seminole County Day were furnished by Kilgore Seed, Senkarik Glass and Paint Co., H. D. Thompson and Son of Purina Feed and Hunt's Tuxedo Feed Store.

Many local businesses went out of their way to help gather materials to be used in the exhibit. Among them were Senkarik Glass and Paint Co., Sanford Flower Shop, Jewell's Office and Supply Co. and Hill Lumber and Supply Yard.

Seminole County Road Department personnel helped haul rock and materials used in the exhibit. The Home Demonstration Clubs under Miss Myrtle Wilson's leadership held the responsibility of manning the exhibit throughout the week. Some of the many who stayed at the exhibit include: Mrs. J. H. Tindel, Mrs. J. E. Andrews, Mrs. Paul Marra, Mrs. J. C. Sapp, Mrs. Agnes Bryant, Mrs. W. Gregg, Mrs. E. P. Mulaney, Mrs. Elton Bennett, Mrs. H. R. Gray, Mrs. George Otto, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Roehlk, Mrs. Sarah Kate Myers, Mrs. Ruth Gowen, Mrs. O. P. Wade, Mrs. S. E. Norwood.

Miss Norrine Norwood, Mrs. David Fauver, Mrs. Harold Factor, Mrs. Vincent Matecki, Mrs. Elizabeth Lavin, Mrs. Charles Bushong, Mrs. Ralph Hammond, Mrs. Ruth Daniel, Mrs. Lynn Mosier, Mrs. E. L. Fulford, Mrs. T. W. Prout, Mrs. Ruby Sjoblom, Mrs. M. O. Willis, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Linn, and Mrs. Mae Hardin of Chuluota.

My appreciation also to any others who participated and I may have failed to mention.

We have perhaps failed to do our own personnel and the Extension Service staff in Gainesville credit for pictures and other items furnished and made for the exhibit. Not mentioned either is the pick-up truck which the Board of County Commissioners furnished for the Agent to use during this week of preparation.

As a before, putting together a County Exhibit is a back-breaking job. When you see any of these 8500 people on the street, take time to thank them for their part. They have gone out of their way to put Seminole County and its products before the public.

Sincerely yours,
(Signed) Cecil A. Tucker, II

Assignment Washington

By Ed Kotorba

WASHINGTON — The other day, the 70-year-old clown at our house asked blandly for a dollar to buy a gun that shoots rubber bands, six at a time.

There was no sense in buying a gun that shoots rubber bands six at a time, and I told him so. But he saw a lot of sense in it. Kept yawning. "Why can't I have a dollar... just tell me, why can't I have a dollar?"

So finally I told him why he can't have a dollar. "You're in debt," I said. "Already you owe more than $100 — every man, woman and child in this country owes that much — and the way things are going it'll be a lot more next year."

"Who do I owe money to?" he said.

"To Uncle Sam!"
"Who's Uncle Sam?"
"He's a symbol. He's an old man who represents the people of the United States."
"I'm a people, ain't I? Then I owe the money to myself. So I'm even... so can I have the dollar?"

I gave him the dollar and went up to the Hill where the folks have a deeper understanding of higher economics.

There I learned what Representative Clarence Cannon (D., Mo.), chairman of the House Appropriations Committee, had to say about the national debt.

Today, it has risen to $285 billion. Cannon's gunners are trying to shoot holes in it, but aren't having much success.

The lawmaker had before him a classic example of what the national debt will be costing us in interest in the years to come. He called it fantastic.

He said if we made regular payments of $8,368,612,150.60 every year, it would take 144 years to pay off the debt, as it stands now.

He figured in a conservative interest rate of three percent. At that rate, calculated the lawmaker, by the time the debt would be paid off — in the year 2103 A. D. — the total amount paid in would be $1,205,078,709,686.40.

Spelled out, that's one trillion, two hundred five billion, seventy-eight million, seven hundred nine thousand, six hundred eighty-six dollars and forty cents.

The boys in the appropriations office double-checked this figure with the Treasury Department, and it jibed to the penny.

Another appropriations man, Representative John J. Rhodes (R., Ariz.), said he keeps introducing a bill that provides our budget isn't balanced unless it includes an item for reducing the Federal debt by at least $2 billion a year.

But the bill never passes. "I realize," said the lawmaker, "that putting this in the budget act is giving the government the idiot treatment, but it is my hunch that if we do not start to reduce this debt, we deserve the idiot treatment."

What he meant, I gather, is that unless we start reducing the debt, we're all dopey. Just thinking about that debt has made me feel that way. Wonder if Junior would let me play with that gun that shoots six rubber bands.

Democrats Oppose Money Tightening

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Democratic demands for easier government money policies mounted in Congress today. In the wake of a Federal Reserve Board move to lighten up on credit, protests were touched off against the board's interest rates to four member banks from 2 1/2 to 3 per cent in an effort to curb inflation. Higher rates reduce the supply of money available for loans.

Mayfair Inn Scene Of Easter Lily Ball

The first annual Easter Lily Ball given Friday evening in the ballroom of the Mayfair Inn Hotel was highly successful with over 300 attending the gala social event which marks the opening of the Easter Seal drive.

To call attention to the drive Kenneth McIntosh, local attorney, and society president, presented a wheelbarrow filled with Easter Seal envelopes, to Harold A. Appleby, assistant post master. These addressed envelopes soon will be mailed in this county.

The imposing ballroom of the Mayfair Inn Hotel was decorated with baskets of stately Easter lilies and greenery for the event. A huge Easter Seal poster was placed over the orchestra stand and Pete Bukur's nine piece orchestra, with Ruth Hamilton, vocalist, furnished the music.

The highlight of the evening was a floor show which presented Dorothy de Houghton, Spanish dancer who twirled with castanets in a festive red and white costume. A waltz exhibition by Mr. and Mrs. George J. Haumbach received loud applause and they returned for an encore. Miss Martha Tiller, Orlando television performer, played her guitar and accordion.

Seated at the head table were Mr. and Mrs. McIntosh with Senator and Mrs. Douglas Stenstrom and State board members who attended the Ball. Mrs. McIntosh wore a lovely royal blue chiffon dress which was accented by a center ruffle blue satin bow.

The Seminole County medical advisory committee was represented by Dr. Gordon Stanley, Dr. Vann Parker and Dr. Thomas Largent. Mrs. Stanley was gowning in a cocktail length dress of yellow paisley silk with matching earrings. Mrs. Parker is an attractive red and black combination and Mrs. Largent wore a purple and green floral print silk sheath.

Mrs. Paul W. Burmaster of Longwood and chairman of the Ball was seen in a black lace sheath over aquamarine taffeta. Mrs. Robert Bradford, Altamonte Springs and co-chairman, chose a rose lace sheath for the evening. From Oviedo were Mrs. William H. Marine wearing bouffant champagne colored taffeta with lace bodice and Mrs. John W. Evans in pink chiffon with white bodice.

Mrs. Harold Appleby, past president of the Crippled Children's Society, who was recognized during the evening for her outstanding work, wore a pink chiffon gown draped from back to the side where a cluster of flowers were pinned.

Mrs. Brack L. Perkins Jr., seen chatting with a party of friends, wore a red nylon tulle dress with ruffled skirt. Mrs. Thomas McDonald, in a lilac silk sheath with black flowing panels and Mr. McDonald were in a party composed of Mr. and Mrs. David Gatchell, Mr. and Mrs. George Andrew Speer, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Wharton, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Rainorn and Mr. and Mrs. Bob Wright.

Mrs. Gordon Frederick chose a black lace sheath draped in back with a red bow; Mrs. F. Wade Tye, a Hall length gown of iridescent green and Mrs. Walter L. Carter, who did much of the "back of the scene activity" wore a pink chiffon waist length gown with lace bodice.

During the evening many beautiful door prizes, donated by Sanford, Winter Park and Orlando merchants, were awarded. Among those receiving a gift were R. S. Miller, John Evans of Oviedo, Mrs. Lile Reese of Orlando, Loren G. Mahoney, Oviedo, Dale Hussong, Winter Park, Robert Cushing, Mrs. R. W. Wright, E. C. Harper, Jr., Kay Shoemaker, Mrs. Bess Motly, Orlando, R. E. Erickson, Mrs. Christy Walsh, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Senator Douglas Stenstrom and Mrs. John Green.

PICTURED AT THE EASTER LILY BALL, are Senator and Mrs. Douglas Stenstrom, Mrs. Kenneth McIntosh and Mr. McIntosh, president of the Crippled Children's Society of Seminole County.

Easter Motif For Luncheon

The wives of VAHT chose the Cherry Plaza in Orlando when they met recently for their monthly luncheon with Mrs. King Hodges and Mrs. Monty Lilliboe as hostesses.

The U-shaped table was bright with Easter decorations featuring Mr. and Mrs. Bunny with basket and nests of crepe paper "fun" balls which were a courtesy of Sweeney's store. Little individual rabbits marked the place of each guest.

Door prizes were awarded to Mrs. S. H. Ingersoll, a guest from New Port, R. I., and Mrs. Kenneth Russell. Others attending were Mrs. Harold Lang, Mrs. G. Beihl, Mrs. Harry Bryant, Mrs. Robert Donaldson, Mrs. Felix Jablonski, Mrs. Verne Jennings, Mrs. Dean McPherson, Mrs. Dick Mergal, Mrs. Howard Weigle and her sister, Mrs. Charles Moore of Sharpville, Penn., Mrs. Jack Youngblade, Mrs. Andy Poulter, Mrs. Bob Bora, Mrs. Ed Gold, Mrs. George Ackles, Mrs. S. S. Evans, Jr. Mrs. John Lauback and Mrs. Ernest Philz.

In Sanford

25 Years Ago

Miss Daphne Connelly, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. Hawkins Connelly, is improving at her home on Palmetto Avenue from a recent illness.

Miss Clifford Shinholser will spend the weekend in Miami with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar W. Burchard of El Paso, Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John J. Thomas at their home, Hachtia Lodge, at Golden Lake.

Friends of George A. Maffet will be glad to learn that he is able to be out again after undergoing an operation recently at the Florida Sanitarium in Orlando.

New Leg Look

The leggy look that came with short skirts has led to a new concept in hosiery—checked, tweed, twill and lace stockings. They are made to flatter legs giving them texture and form, says designer Helen Sasson. The checked type is for casual wear, the shadow twill is in deep tones for dressy occasions and lightened browns for town. Tared comes in salt-and-pepper and iridescent blonde colors. The lace stockings are designed of stretch nylon for evening.

The Boy Scouts of the First Presbyterian Church will meet at 7 p. m.

The Session of the First Presbyterian Church will meet at 7:30 p. m.

March 9th through the 11th the First Baptist Church will have Week of Prayer. Monday at 10:45

Catholic Women Hold Meeting

The All Souls Catholic Women's Club met at the Civic Center with approximately sixty members present and three new members were accepted into the club. Mrs. Pat Heinz, Mrs. Josephine Stankiewicz, and Mrs. "Bernie" Brooks. Three more names of pockets were added to the monthly "birthday apron" Sarah W. Easterly made an apron which is now called the "birthday apron" and the object is to raise money for the club. How it works is quite novel and interesting as the apron is covered with pockets and as a member has a birthday she puts in a penny for each birthday and sews the pocket up. At the end of the season Sarah will count the amount of money contained in those pockets.

Circle Has Meet

The Ethel Root Circle of the Congregational Christian Church held their regular meeting at the home of Mrs. Ed Woods, Lake Jeany with twelve members and one guest present.

Mrs. Oscar Zitrower presided over the meeting and Mrs. Gus Schmah gave an inspiring devotional.

Mrs. Schmah reminded the group of the May Day fellowship to be held at the church this year. Mrs. Hemsul chairman of the children's Easter Egg party, announced her committees for the party and they will be headed by Mrs. Gertrude Woods and Mrs. Anna Herbst. The party will be an event of Saturday, the 20th between the hours of three to four at the church.

The Women's Day Gift will be given at the next meeting with Mrs. Schmah in charge of the program.

During the business meeting it was announced that the group would give a purse of $100 as an Easter gift to the church trustees. And it was also voted that in the future the Circle would meet once a month.

The hostess, Mrs. Bea Allford, served refreshments of sandwiches, coffee, cookies and miniature candy eggs, during the social hour.

A Bright Tip

Aluminum pans that have become dark inside are safe to use. The darkness is caused when the pan comes into contact with alkaline material such as baking soda, hard water or certain vegetables, says Florence Ehrenkrantz, University of Minnesota home economist.

To brighten up pans, heat a weak acid solution, such as water mixed with a little vinegar or cream of tartar. Do not let the solution stand in the pan for more than half an hour. Another way to shine the pans is to cook grape jelly in them. The jelly will be safe for use afterwards.

All of these newcomers to Sanford live on Flamingo Drive.

Busy Week For Girls

This week marks the beginning of Girl Scout Week and the emphasis this year in Seminole County is upon citizenship. In order to carry out this theme so that all troops could participate, a program was adopted to obtain permission from 27 federal, state, county, and city offices to permit one Girl Scout from each troop to fill an office.

Following is the completed list of girls to supplement that one reported earlier last week.

Monday: Director of the room—Betty Hobby, troop 470 Lake Monroe.

Sanford Mayor—Sue Orson, Troop 204.

Tax collector—Joyce Walter, Troop 212.

Juvenile Court Judge—Nikki Morgan, Troop 211.

Director of Finance—Stephanie Westgate, troop 233.

County Agent—Mary E. Johnson, Troop 197.

Tuesday: Has been announced in former writup.

Wednesday Tax Assessor—Martin Parlin, Troop 320 Oviedo.

Supt. of Schools—Suzanne Parlin, Intermediate Troop Oviedo.

City Bldg. Inspector—Donna Davis, Troop 221 Health Clinic.

Police Chief—Linda Perkins, Troop 265.

Fire Chief—Vicki Wilson, Troop 284.

County Bld. Inspector—Denise Rowland, Troop 112.

Thursday: City Attorney—Dawn Holmes, Troop 41 county.

Clerk—Paula Brooks, Troop 241.

County Judge—Harriet Gunter, Troop 205.

Friday: Director of Parks and Recreation—Janet Leas, Troop 278.

Margo Dunn, from Senior Troop 131, will occupy the position of Sheriff on Wednesday, March 11.

Each day during Girl Scout Week a different poster highlighting the special theme for that day will be placed in various Sanford business establishments. These seven posters have been made by the girls in Brownie Troops 155 and 321 and Intermediate Troops 206, 240, 211, 233, and 204.

The cooperation from all the civic leaders who have worked with the Girl Scout chairman on this citizenship project has been most whole-hearted and enthusiastic. It is with such support that the Girl Scout program can continue to grow in Seminole County.

Miss Carrol Ann Flood Weds In Saturday Chapel Service

Miss Carrol Ann Flood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. John Flood became the bride of Lt. (jg) Joseph John Schiffgens in a ten o'clock ceremony Saturday, at the Naval Chapel. The Rev. Nilus Hubble officiated.

The groom is the son of Mrs. John J. Schiffgens, and the late Mr. Schiffgens, of New Kensington, Penn.

The Chapel altar was decorated with vases of white glads and mums interspersed with greenery. Nuptial music was furnished by Mrs. Charles Oshorn, organist, and Mrs. Bruce Saxon who sang, "Ave Maria," "Pans Anceitius" and "O, Lord, I Am Not Worthy."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of silk organza with appliques of re-embroidered lace trim. The gown, featuring a scooped neckline and brief sleeves, was princess style with a voluminous skirt ending in a full Chapel train. Her finger tip veil of French silk illusion was attached to a cap of silk with a high cabbage rose as a back interest. She carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid and streamers of alephants.

Miss Marion Crim, maid of honor, was gowning in an aqua princess style silk organza fashioned similar to the bride's dress. She wore a matching head dress and carried a cascade of yellow carnations and ivy.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Eleanor Davis, aunt of the bride from Norfolk, Va., and Miss Patricia Smith, cousin of the bride from Trenton, N. J. Flower girl was Catherine Canning. They were gowning in silk organza fashions and also carried cascade bouquets of yellow flowers.

Neil Schiffgens brother of the groom from New Kensington, Penn., served as best man. Ushers were Lt. (jg) Joseph J. Harriott and Lt. (jg) William Sherwood.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's wedding a champagne sheath of silk with Chantilly lace inserts with which the wore green orchids. The groom's mother was dressed in Navy blue and white with a white orchid pinned at her shoulder.

For her wedding trip Mrs. Schiffgens wore a blue and green print suit dress with white accessories and a white orchid corsage.

Courtesy Given

Mrs. Kenneth Sanden extended a social courtesy to Mrs. Noid Gaylor Friday morning when she entertained with a coffee in her honor. Mrs. Gaylor has been visiting here from Washington, D. C. and was acquainted with the hostess several years ago while their husbands were stationed in Atlantic City, N. J.

Mrs. Sanden used a white embroidered cloth on the coffee table and centered it with a lovely arrangement of pink and white snapdragons. Silver candleabra held white tapers on either side. Mrs. Ernest Horrell and Mrs. L. R. Bauer presided at the table.

Other guests were Mrs. Patrick Cullen, Mrs. Kenneth Simmons, Mrs. Edmund Chevalier, Mrs. N. Melius, Mrs. Floyd Harris, Mrs. E. P. Yates, Mrs. S. Oliver, Mrs. Kenneth Howell, Mrs. David King, Mrs. C. N. James, Mrs. John Dooley, Mrs. V. E. Savage, Mrs. O. H. Phillips and Mrs. James Hamaage.

Egg And Noodle

Egg and noodle casserole is a flavorful Lenten dish. Cook by package medium noodles according to package directions. Drain and put into 4 individual casserole. Arrange quartered hard-cooked eggs, using 6 in all on top of noodles. Pour 1/2 cup sauce over egg and noodles and bake in 375 degree oven 15 to 20 minutes or until lightly browned.

The First Baptist Church of Providence, R. I., houses the oldest Baptist congregation in the nation. It was established in 1639 by Roger Williams and other early settlers.

ception was held in the Officer's Club where a champagne luncheon was served to the wedding guests. Music was furnished by Dave Shannon orchestra and the club room was decorated with palms and an all-white floral decor.

Out-of-town guests included the groom's sister, Mrs. Edward Griger of Pittsburgh, Penn., Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Schiffgens of St. Petersburg, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Schiffgens of Orlando, Mrs. Sara Wey, the bride's grandmother from Norfolk, Va., Mrs. David Tracy of Miami, Mrs. Agnes Wey, bride's great grandmother also from Miami, and others who were members of the wedding party.

MRS. JOHN JOSEPH SCHIFFGENS

Giants' Farm Teams To Start Arriving Tuesday

Spring Sports Take Seminole Spotlight

By JERRY COVINGTON
With the close of basketball season, several sports will take over the spotlight at Seminole High school.

With spring-like weather taking over, the local school is getting its outdoor sports program under way. All around the campus and at the staff swimming pool, students are seen preparing for the various types of events in which they will compete this spring.

To usher in the spring sports program, a "letterman's dance" will be held in the school gymnasium Friday night, beginning at 8 o'clock. Special guests will be lettermen in all sports.

The most prominent of the new active sports is the Seminole baseball squad. This year, Coaches Dave Laude and Jim McCoy will be at the helm and are hard at work with the squad of 26 in an effort to be ready by the season's opener next week.

All of the home games will be played under the lights at Memorial stadium at 8 p. m. With the Sanford grounds and the Seminoles both in the stadium, there will be very few nights this spring that a baseball lover cannot go out and see a contest. The Seminoles will play their games when the grounds are on the road.

The Seminole squad this year is very inexperienced. The pitching staff is untested, but it is a cinch that Laude and McCoy will get the most out of the boys. If the Seminoles can come up with a good pitcher or two, they should have a fine season. McCoy is a newcomer to high school sports, but is respected around Seminole for the fine job that he did with the junior high footballers last fall.

The first game will be next Monday night at the stadium against Lyman of Longwood. The game will be sponsored by the Boosters club, which urges everyone to support the club this season. The game will begin at 8 p. m. A pep band and entertainment will get the new season underway.

Coach Jim Pizott also will get his track team rolling soon. The boys have been working for three weeks. Several home meets are slated at the newly-constructed cinder track behind the school. Track has become a very prominent sport and the local squad will be ready to compete with the best of them.

While Pizott feels that track is a must for a good football team, he also feels that it is an outstanding sport in itself. Red-headed Chester Kewley is currently the best member of the squad and holds the school record for the mile.

The Seminole swimming team also will begin action in the near future. It currently is working out at the Mayfair pool. Another new name has been added to the coaching staff. This year, John Gilbert will be coaching the swimmers. His experience in this sport should produce many fine swimmers. Both girls and boys will participate in this sport.

Athletic director Fred Gamae will be coaching the golf team this spring. The squad will be very inexperienced, but there are several new shooters in the 90's, with several weeks to go before the first match. At present, Gamae's squad has matches with Leeborn and Kusta. There are possibilities for other matches on the schedule.

Celtics Setting Records In Pro Basketball 'Romp'

United Press International
The Boston Celtics, runaway leaders of the Eastern Division, are leaving their mark in the National Basketball Association—and leaving it all through the league's record book.

The Celtics accounted for no less than three records Sunday night when they whipped the Cincinnati Royals, 141-131, at Boston. They set team records of 52 wins in a season (with one more game to go) and 67 games over the 100-point mark, and left center Bill Russell set a league season record of 1,588 rebounds.

In fact, if Cincinnati's Jack Twyman hadn't set a Boston Garden record with 19 baskets (part of a 43-point haul for the Royals), the game could have been one of the season's most lopsided.

In other Sunday NBA games, Minneapolis downed St. Louis, 120-108, Syracuse trounced Philadelphia, 133-102, and New York rallied to beat Detroit, 127-120.

Boston's 52 wins break a league mark of 51 shared by the 1949-50 editions of Minneapolis, Syracuse, and the Rochester Royals. The 67 games at 100-plus points breaks the mark of 64 set by New York last year. And Russell, by nabbing 23 rebounds in this game, equaled his own season record of 1,564.

The Royals had a 76-72 lead during the third period but then fell behind to stay as Bill Sherman scored 19 points in that period for Boston en route to a game total of 29.

At Minneapolis, rookie Elgin Baylor pumped in 38 points to lead the Lakers. Bob Pettit had 30, and Cliff Hagan 29 for the Hawks. Pettit improving his season-record point total now to 2,018.

At Syracuse, Hal Greer's 22 points led the winding Nats although Vern Hatton had 30 for the Warriors. Warrior ace Paul Arizin, the league's No. 2 scorer with 1,851 points, missed the game with a hemorrhage in his right arm as the result of a blow and also will miss the finale Tuesday.

The Knicks racked up 37 points in the fourth period to beat Detroit after trailing, 45-76. Willie Naulls led New York with 24 points and 15 rebounds.

Tenn. State Leads Small Colleges

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (UPI)—Defending champion Tennessee A&I State led a parade of 22 teams today at the week-long small college NAIA basketball championships got underway.

The 21st annual National Association of Intercollegiate Athletics (NAIA) event ranked the Tennessee Tigers with their 27-1 record in favored position to regain the title this year.

A steady march of opening round games began at 10:30 a. m. e. s. t. today and wind up with a 10 p. m. game Tuesday.

The first game was between Austin College of Texas and University of Minnesota (Duluth Branch).

Second-seeded West Virginia Wesleyan boasts a 32-1 record. Pacific Lutheran is No. 3 with a 22-2 mark and Grambling of Louisiana, the nation's only undefeated team, is seeded fourth with a 27-0 record.

Southwest Texas State (23-3) is seeded fifth, Indiana State College (17-4) is sixth, Pikeville of Kentucky (28-4) is seventh and Illinois Normal University (22-4) is eighth.

The other rated teams in order include Youngstown of Ohio (18-8), University of Minnesota (Duluth) (21-3), Plattville of Wisconsin, Westminster of Pennsylvania (18-7), Culver-Stockton of Missouri (18-7), Central Oklahoma State (20-9), Fort Hays State of Kansas (20-2) and Lenoir Rhyne of North Carolina (22-5).

The rest of today's opening round schedule:

12 noon: Christian Brothers of Memphis vs Grambling; 1:30 p. m. Central Oklahoma vs Kentucky State; 3 p. m. Arkansas State Teachers vs Pikeville; 4:30 p. m. Pacific Lutheran vs Western Montana; 5 p. m. Indiana State vs Morningstar of Iowa; 8:30 p. m. Fort Hays State vs Westminster of Utah; 10 p. m. West Virginia Wesleyan vs Whittier of California.

land notched two baskets in the last 35 seconds but fell short as Bill Haag led DePaul to victory with 19 points. The Blue Demons thus qualified to meet nationally top-ranked Kansas State at Lawrence Friday night.

Robertson and Co. blew their first chance to wrap up the Missouri Valley Conference title, and with it an NCAA berth, when they took an 81-66 shellacking from Bradley Saturday night.

Now Cincinnati is down to its last game of the regular season and that's at home tonight against St. Louis, which will be one of the seeded teams in the National Invitation Tournament opening in New York on Thursday. If Cincinnati loses this one, too, it will finish the conference race in a tie with Bradley and force a playoff game between the two on Wednesday at Wichita, Kans.

If Cincinnati wins tonight, the Bearcats qualify for an NCAA berth against Texas Christian Friday night in the Lawrence, Kan., regional and Bradley, at last eliminated from the league race, would be free to accept the last remaining berth in the 12-team NIT.

The other empty NCAA berth will definitely be settled tonight because it goes to the winner of the New Mexico State-Arizona State I game at Las Cruces, N.M. These two teams, along with Texas Western, tied for the Border Conference title. New Mexico State eliminated Texas Western, 64-48, in a first playoff game Saturday. Tonight's winner goes on to meet Idaho State in an NCAA first-rounder probably at Portland, Idaho, Wednesday.

The NCAA tournament actually got under way with a single game at Portland, Ore., last Saturday night in which DePaul scored a 57-56 thriller over Portland. Port-

Last Of Tourney Berths Can Be Decided Tonight

By JOHN GRIFFIN

The last two berths in the already begun NCAA major college basketball tournament may be filled tonight—unless those pesky St. Louis Billikens can hand Oscar Robertson and his Cincinnati teammates their second straight upset.

Borrowed Putter Gets Mickey Win In Jax Tourney

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—Mickey Wright was "ready to make this course my home base" today after picking up the winners share for the third time in the Jacksonville women's open tournament.

Miss Wright, of San Diego, Calif., used a borrowed putter Sunday to sink long birdie putts on the last two holes and cut short a last ditch effort by Betsy Rawls. They gave her a four-round total of 286, to 288 for Miss Rawls.

Marlene Dauer Hagg, Pittsburgh, Pa., took third place Monday with a one-over-par 73 and a four-day total of 292. One stroke back in fourth place was Louise Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., who also shot a 73. Faye Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, and Marilyn Smith, her roommate from Wichita, Kan., were tied at fifth place with 291.

The lanky, 24-year-old Miss Wright, who led throughout the tournament, entered the final round with a two-stroke lead. But it was nip and tuck after the front nine.

Miss Wright lost a stroke on the 10th hole in an approach shot which tied her with Miss Rawls. She rolled in a 20-footer on the 17th hole and a 35-footer on the 18th to match Miss Rawls' par two-stroke margin for the title.

"I'm ready to break apart," said the jubilant champion, who also won in 1956 and 1957. "I'm ready to make this course my home base now."

Littler hung onto his lead Sunday with a 72-stroke par performance and extended the final day with a three-hole mark of 23:44-20, one stroke ahead of Collins. The Californian jumped into the lead Saturday with a record-smashing eight-under-par 64.

Joe Norman of Toronto held down third place with 70:22-213.

Five players were tied in fourth, among them PGA champion Dow Finsterwald of Tequesta, Fla., who shot a 79 Sunday for a 213 total. Tied with Finsterwald were Bob Gajda of Bloomfield, Mich.; Wes Ellis Jr., of Aldershot, N.J., winner of the Texas Open in San Antonio two weeks ago; Huston Laclair of Birmingham, Ala.; and Billy Maxwell of Odessa, Tex.

Nine Clubs Slated For Training Here

The solid smack of hickory meeting horsehide, and horsehide meeting leather will echo from Memorial Stadium tomorrow.

It is this group which will be watched closely. This is the last stop on the way up. It also is the first stop, usually, on the way down. On the Phoenix roster are players going up, and some who have been up but didn't make the big show.

Three teams report March 18. They are Class A Springfield, Class C Fresno (Calif.) and Class D Hastings (Neb.). On March 22, the Class B Eugene, Ore., team reports. On March 25, the Class D Artesia (N. M.) squad arrives. The final two clubs arriving, on April 1, are Michigan City (Ind.), Class D, and St. Cloud, Minn., Class C.

In all, nine teams will train here. On the rosters of the nine teams are 190 players. Each club will get about 22 days of training under the watchful eyes of some of the nation's best baseball scouts and coaches.

In addition to Hubbell, quite a few other "name" baseballers will be watching the minor leaguers. Among them will be Dale Alexander, former American League batting champion with Detroit; Hugh Poland, National League pitcher for 10 years; Johnny Hudson, National League infielder for eight years.

All managers in the Giants' system have been in professional baseball. Many were in the Major Leagues.

Hubbell will release the exhibition schedule later this week. He extended an invitation to the public to watch the workouts and the exhibition games.

Do Gooder Picked In Track Feature

One of the kennel club's most beautiful young pups, red fawn Do Gooder, is picked to head an 80-round racing field tonight as the 15th week of competition is launched at Sanford-Orlando.

Sixty-six pound Do Gooder has posted victories in two of his last three Grade-A contests, in addition to nothing three schooling triumphs. The soft-coated huster seeks his sixth season win from the fifth post position.

Early odds rate Do Gooder the favorite in the Grade-A frothy five-to-two. His recent win parry, however, was marred Tuesday when the game gent fell into a first turn jam, did a Suggs, Sea Island, Ga., who also shot a 73. Faye Crocker, Montevideo, Uruguay, and Marilyn Smith, her roommate from Wichita, Kan., were tied at fifth place with 291.

'Young In Heart' Is Never Too Old

Proof that the "young in heart" are never too old was typified last week when Rear Admiral Luis DeFlores, USNR(Ret.), embarked for his first flight in an ASD jet Skywarrior.

Although the Admiral declined to give his actual age, (his birthday was Wednesday) he did admit to having long since passed 60.

The Admiral, who is a member of the Secretary of the Navy's official party currently touring eastern naval air bases, is often referred to as the "father" of the Navy's Training Aide Program. He is one of the first Naval aviators and owns and personally operates an amphibious aircraft quite extensively. He commenced flying his own aircraft forty-seven years ago.

The flight, which consisted of low level flying around the local area, was piloted by Commander Hal Lang, commanding officer of Heavy Attack Squadron Seven. He was demonstrated the jet maneuver in the Skywarrior.

In addition to the Admiral Lt. Col. G. A. Gilliland, the Secretary's Marine Corps Aide, was aboard, making his first jet flight. The Third Crewman was R. W. Jones, aviation electronics technician third class, U. S. Navy, who briefed the Admiral prior to take-off.

During flight, the Admiral assisted Lang in the navigation and to quote Lang, "did a bang-up job." The Admiral was most impressed with the ASD, particularly with respect to the relative comfort as compared with other jet aircraft in which he has flown, and upon return stated it was one of the most enjoyable flights he had ever experienced.

Rev. Timms Gets Call To Gainesville

The Rev. William E. Timms has been appointed to the Centenary Methodist Church, Gainesville, Fla.

The retired minister, who has been a resident of Sanford for two and one-half years, reported to his new church yesterday.

Rev. Timms was the teacher of the Men's Bible Class of the First Methodist Church during his stay here.

As a member of the Michigan Methodist Conference since 1929, Rev. Timms had served as the Women's (Mich.) Lake Bible Conference for the past 10 years.

He and his wife are natives of England, and have traveled in seven countries throughout the world. The former Sanford resident is known as one of the most dynamic evangelists in America. He will serve in Gainesville until the Florida Methodist Conference in June.
