Shack Dwellers Are Assured Of A Better Home

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

The utter despair in which Johnie and Ethel Johnson have been surviving for many years in a ramshackle hut at 2206 1/2 McCarthy Road may turn to joy Friday.

If the plans of Operation CHURH (Christian Helpers United to Reach Humanity) come to pass, a newer mobile home will be placed on the Johnson's property Christmas Eve.

A used mobile home, inspected by a local mobile home dealer, is being purchased from Woody Hoyle of Lake Mary for $2,000.

The dealer said the price is right and the trailer is in reasonably good condition.

Brother Anthony Miller of the Second Shiloh Baptist Church and chairman of Operation CHURH said while the mobile home will be on the property today it cannot be occupied by the couple until water and electricity are connected and a new septic tank being installed is approved by county officials Monday. The county hopefully will issue a certificate of occupancy at that time.

May Gilmore, who is administering a bank account at Flagship Bank in Sanford for the benefit of the elderly couple, reported today that there is $1,545 in the account.

Some $500 is to be paid down on the trailer and a $50 cost for moving it from Lake Mary to the Johnson property is to come from the account. The balance in the account is being held in reserve until costs for the various connections and the septic tank installation are determined.

Miller said that business men and others who donated their time and labor have cleared the property of trash and debris. And the shack is to be razed as well once the old couple is moved into their new home.

Minor repairs also must be done on the trailer, he noted such as installation of new flooring in the bathroom and replacement of a window.

The engineering firm of Conklin, Porter and Holmes conducted a percolation test on the property Wednesday and certified that a septic tank will function well there.

Operation CHURH has taken the family clothing, provided hot cooked meals on weekends when Meals on Wheels does not provide its one hot meal a day to the unfortunate.

And Miller said hot meals will continue to be provided to the couple on weekends. A prepared Christmas dinner will also be delivered to the pair.

Additional money is yet needed to pay off the mobile home. But in the meantime, Miller said he will stand good for the payments on the trailer.

Just a week ago, Brother Miller and the Rev. William Lewis, both of Operation CHURH, visited the couple at their home.

They found that the hut in which the Johnsons live has no running water, no electricity and, thus, no refrigerator and no cooking stove. The hut also has no kitchen at all and no heat.

There was only one bed and Mrs. Johnson, 78, spends much of her time there because of her high blood pressure. Johnie, 82, slept in an easy chair. Within hours, Miller had taken the elderly gentleman a new mattress for the bedstead he had.

The hut was originally a trailer that had long ago deteriorated and concrete blocks were placed around it on the 60 by 100-foot lot. The hut has no windows and has gaping holes in the floor and the roof.

The property is valued by Seminole County Property Appraiser Bill Suber at $1,300 including $480 for the shack.

"That means the house is worth practically nothing at all," Suber commented.

Miller said all types of people have volunteered assistance for the family, from those who gave of their time to perform menial labor to those who provided heavy equipment to clean up the property.

Some volunteers used their trucks, carrying load after load of trash away while paying dumping fees out of their own pockets, Miller explained.

Others, like B.C. "Cal" Conklin of Conklin, Porter and Holmes, have provided professional assistance.

At Hidden Lake

No Hazards Found From Odors In Pit

Despite the stench, no health hazard exists from the pit on the west side of Art Lane off Lake Mary Boulevard and behind the Hidden Lake Subdivision in Sanford, according to a county health department official.

Bud Corbett, sanitation supervisor in the environmental section of the Seminole County Health Department, said he inspected the pit Tuesday and again Wednesday.

"The pit has water in it and we found discarded building materials in it, but no garbage," Corbett said.

Apparently the smell from the pit comes from the rotting building materials which include lumber, trees, sawdust and things of that nature, said Russ Miller, county section director.

"We're going to have to turn this over to the state Department of Environmental Regulation and let them handle it. There is nothing there that we have jurisdiction over," Corbett said.

"There is a peculiar odor coming from the pit. I have no idea how badly the odor is permeating the air in the late evening or early morning hours," Corbett said, adding it "doesn't appear, however, to pose a health hazard."

John McManamy of the DER, Orlando office said earlier this week that if a dump is being operated off Art Lane, it is being done without a state license.

McManamy said while awaiting a report from Miller, he was contacting DER enforcement officers in the interim to be on standby if Miller reports an illegal dump is being operated. Miller said Wednesday only DER can determine whether it is an illegal situation.

Meanwhile, Hidden Lake residents have complained to authorities that the pungent smell from the pit brings tears to the eyes and causes nausea.

The sulphur-like fumes have permeated the area for the past couple weeks.

Sanford City Manager W.E. "Pete" Knowles and city Public Works Director Bob Kelly, who inspected the site on a complaint from residents, determined the pit is not within the corporate limits of Sanford, but rather is located in the unincorporated area of Seminole County.

Knowles said the air there is "stenchiferous" with a stench similar to that around pulp and paper mills.—DONNA ESTES

Sanford Charter Vote Puzzling City Officials

What did Tuesday's city election in Sanford mean? A new city charter requiring residency districts for city commissioners went down to a stunning defeat.

Sanford City Commissioner Eddie Keith, looking at final returns Wednesday after absentee ballots were counted and the results certified, said, "I wonder if this means that only 115 Sanford residents were not satisfied?"

The other commissioners at a special meeting called to canvas the election did not analyze the results. Official results showed that 301 voted against adoption of a new charter while only 115 voted for adoption.

Of the 12 absentee ballots, one was not marked and two were spoiled and, thus, not counted. The remaining nine absentee votes were against adoption.

Mayor Lee P. Moore said this was the first time he has ever seen all the absentee votes cast in the same manner—this time all against adoption.

The city's official turnout in the election was 425 of the city's 8,830 registered voters for a 4.81 percent turnout.

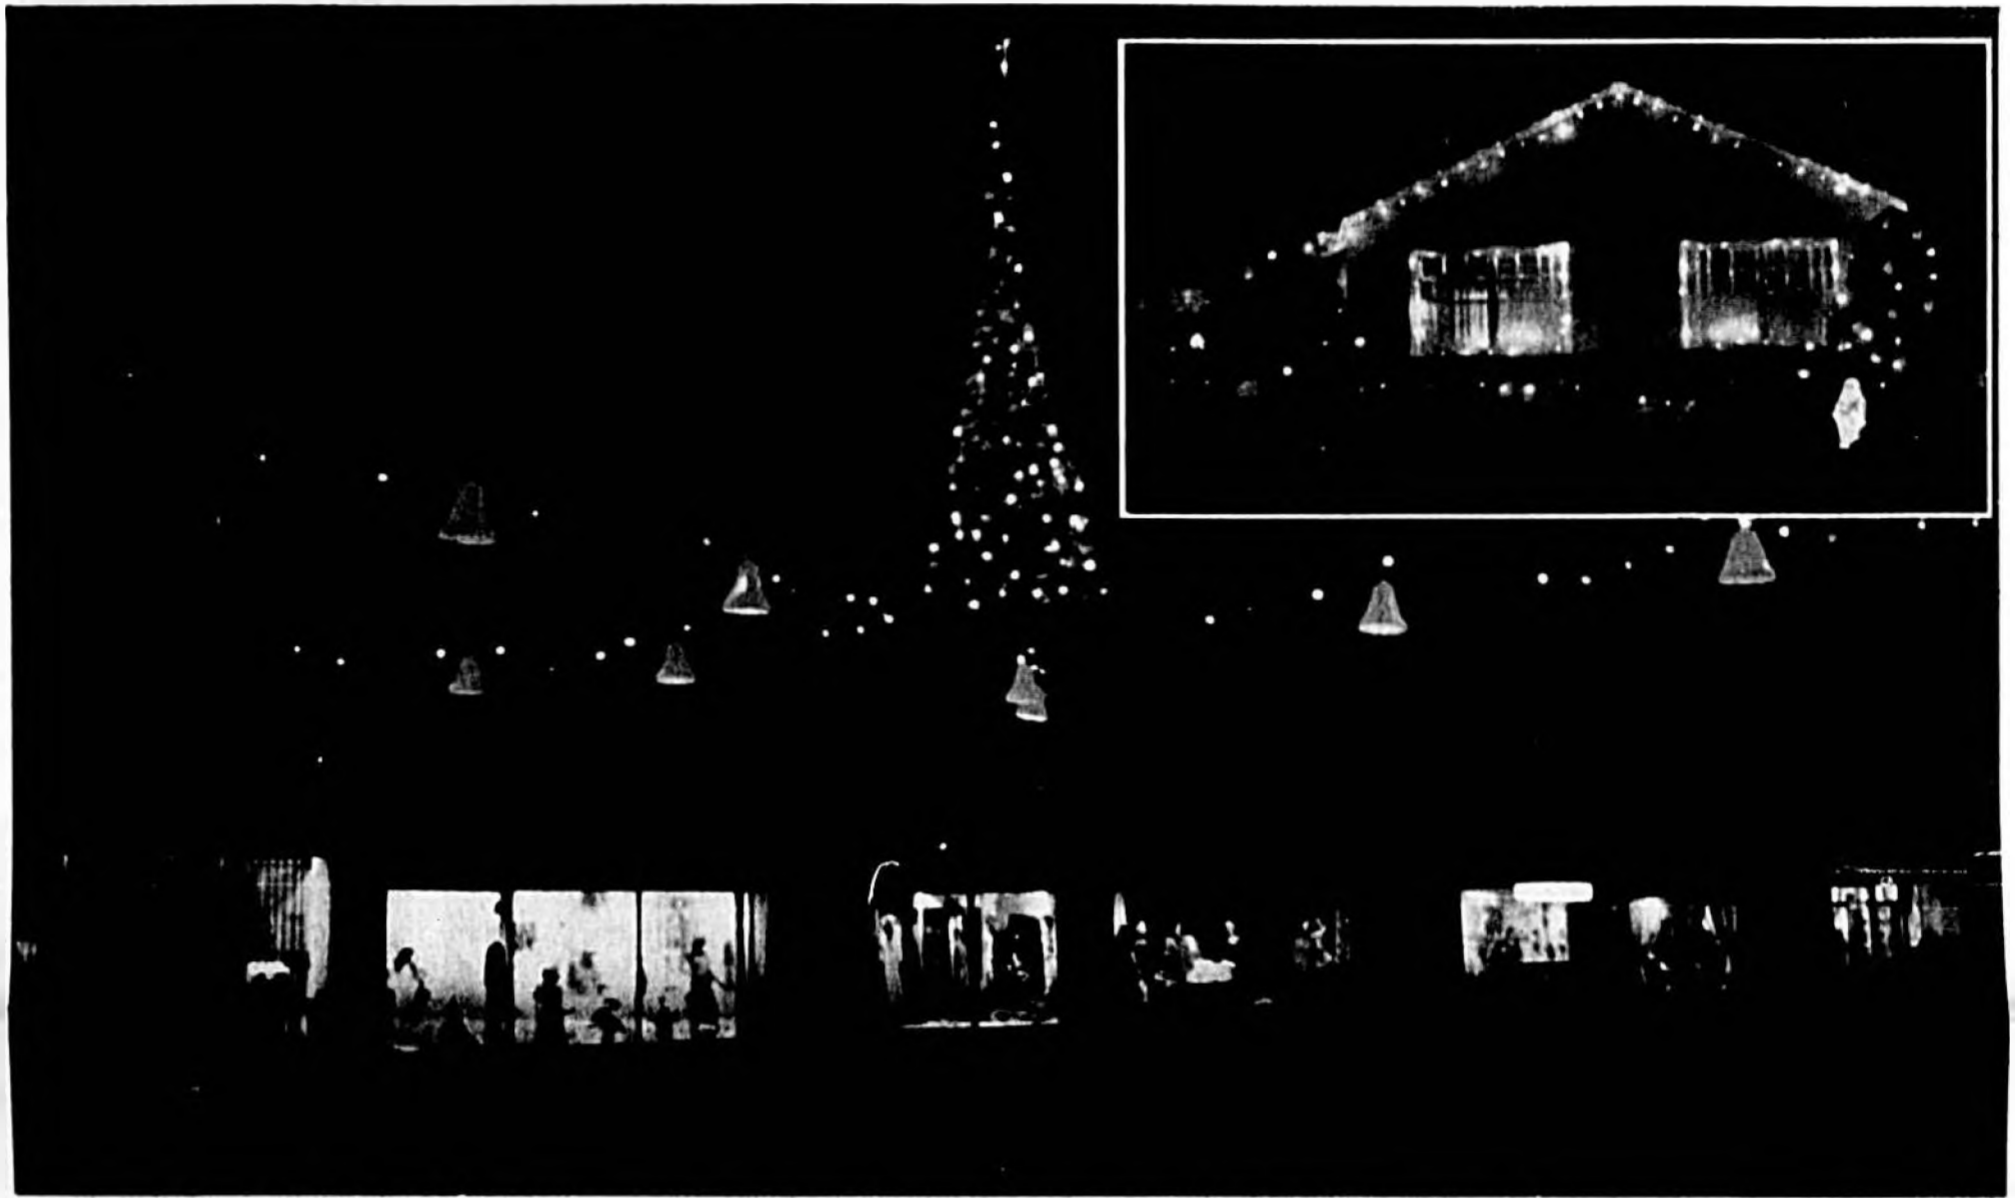

The commission Wednesday at its noon meeting considered three other items.

The new Sanford branch of ComBank was designated a depository of city funds for the remainder of the 1982 year and for 1983.

This will make ComBank eligible to bid with other city banks on time deposits of city funds. Other financial institutions already designated as city depositories are: Atlantic, Flagship, Mid-Florida Savings and Loan, First Federal Savings and Loan, Tropic and Southeastern.

City Commissioner Milton Smith was named liaison between the City Commission and the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce.

Moore was authorized to execute a lease between the city and All Souls Catholic Church for the city-owned park property on Ninth Street. The church is to maintain the property and provide insurance for it. —DONNA ESTES

7 New Liquor License Candidates Picked

By DONNA ESTES
Herald Staff Writer

Seven new liquor licenses are to be issued in Seminole County in 1983 and the names and numbers assigned to the top seven persons who are to be considered for those licenses were pulled from barrels in a lottery system at Sanford City Hall Wednesday.

The lottery system was conducted by the state Department of Business Regulations, Division of Alcoholic Beverages.

Sgt. H.A. Scroggin at the department's Orlando office said the top seven names selected were: Mary Ann Sanguigolo of Nucci's in Casselberry; Jack Johnson, formerly of S&M Market, State Road 436 in Altamonte Springs; ABC Liquors Inc., 402 S. U.S. Highway 17-92 in Longwood; Jo Roberts Jr., Roberts Liquors, 13th Street in Sanford; George Martin of Capt. Hooks on SR 436 in Altamonte Springs; JoAnn and Ferdinand J. Fries, Fred's Liquor in Oviedo; Wilbur Daniel Grant, Wib's Bar, Roberts Liquors in Sanford.

Scroggin said a complete background check will be conducted on the seven persons selected. If one of the seven fails to meet the statutory requirements for a liquor license, he said, that person's name will be removed from the list and names selected eighth, ninth and so on will be considered.

He said persons granted a license cannot have been convicted of a felony or of violating any state law concerning alcohol or drugs and must be of good moral character.

Applicants need not place the license at the businesses listed, he said. These licenses are limited to Seminole County.

Persons granted the licenses must pay an initial fee of $5,000 and then a fee of $1,750 for the first year and each year thereafter. The license cannot be sold by the individuals for at least three years, Scroggin said.

Four more drawings will be held annually to award additional licenses.

The additional licenses became available after the 1980 census. State law permits each county to have one liquor license per 2,500 residents.

Those wishing to be considered for the new licenses were given a 90-day period in which to apply for those licenses in 1981, Scroggin noted.

He said all the persons had to do during that period was to submit their names and fill out an application at the state beverage office in Orlando.

With Seminole County's 175,000 population, the county will have more than 70 liquor licenses in operation before the end of this decade.

Senate OKs 5 Cent Gas Tax Increase

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senators anxious to go home for Christmas today smashed a conservative filibuster and then passed President Reagan's nickel-a-gallon gasoline tax hike, clearing the way for adjournment of the 97th Congress.

Final approval of the measure, which will generate funds for highway and bridge repair, came about two hours after the filibuster headed by Sen. Jesse Helms, R-N.C., was broken on a tally of 81-5 vote, 21 more than necessary.

The House passed the bill earlier this week and adjourned Tuesday, leaving the issue to the Senate. The measure will cost the average motorist about $30 a year.

The bill — the last act of a Congress that passed both the largest income tax cut and the largest income tax increase in history — now goes to Reagan for his signature.

Man Charged After Shootings

By MICHAEL BEHA
Herald Staff Writer

A Lake Mary construction worker is being held without bond after police said he shot a Great Dane, threatened his ex-wife and her employer and pointed a shotgun at a police officer.

Johnnie Bennett Jr., who gave his address as 610 Country Club Road, is being held in the Seminole County Jail today on charges of kidnapping, three counts of aggravated assault, grand theft auto and cruelty to animals.

Bennett, 38, a construction worker, showed up at his ex-wife's house Tuesday morning in a car recently reported stolen in Volusia County, according to Lake Mary police.

Bennett, who has been divorced for more than a year, entered the house without her permission and shot her Great Dane three times as the dog slept in her bedroom.

Bennett was apparently looking for his ex-wife, Ginger, when he entered the house, police said. The couple's 12-year-old son was playing next door when the incident occurred.

After shooting the dog, Bennett drove to the Lake Mary Veterinary Clinic, where Mrs. Bennett works, walked in and grabbed her around the throat with one hand while holding a shotgun in the other, police said. Bennett told his wife he was going to take her outside and kill her, police reported.

Mrs. Bennett managed to escape from her ex-husband and to hide in a closet. Dr. Brannen Murphy came out of an examining room and Bennett threatened to kill him too, police said.

Murphy persuaded Bennett to leave the clinic, police said, and after leaving, Bennett fired the shotgun three times through his wife's car window.

During the gunfire, Lake Mary policeman Thomas Hannon arrived at the scene and ordered Bennett to drop the gun. Police said Bennett fired one more shot into his wife's car and then pointed it at Hannon.

The officer had drawn his weapon and again ordered Bennett to drop the gun. Bennett finally dropped the shotgun and was taken into custody.

Christmas Edition

Although Sylvester Bryant Jr. was only 17 when he died recently, friends think the Midway youth was a success in the things that really count. Friends pay tribute to him in the special Christmas section in Friday's Evening Herald.

NEW YORK (UPI) — Americans who once viewed marriage as the only acceptable way of life have changed their opinion during the past 20 years and no longer place a stigma on being single, a study shows.

9 Enter Pleas In Court

Several people, arrested for crimes in Seminole County, entered pleas of guilty or no contest to charges in Circuit Court recently. Among those are:

- Robert J. Pelletier, 26, of Orlando, violation of probation in connection with a December, 1979 car theft conviction. Circuit Judge Dominick J. Salfi accepted Pelletier's guilty plea and ordered that a pre-sentence investigation be conducted and that Pelletier be returned to Orange County to serve a jail sentence there.
- Michael Powers, 29, of Goshen, Ohio, second-degree grand theft in connection with the theft of a van from Charles Rodgers, of Longwood, between Dec. 1981 and Jan. 1982. Sentencing was set for March 3.
- Zina Davis, 22, of 77 Castle Brewer Court, Sanford, pleaded no contest to charges of grand theft and possession of less than 20 grams of marijuana before Circuit Judge C. Vernon Mize Jr. Ms. Davis was arrested July 3 after security men at Zayre department store, 2938 Orlando Drive, Sanford, chased her from the store to Lakeview Middle School after she reportedly stole $140 worth of photography equipment. Police said the illegal drug was found during a search at the jail. Sentencing was set for 11 a.m. on Feb. 10.
- Willie Lee Williams, 17, of 619 Palmetto Ave., Sanford, grand theft in connection with the disappearance of a 1979 GMC truck which belongs to James Lee, 400 Sanford Ave., Sanford. No sentencing date has been set.
- Bryant Samuel Ward, 23, of Orlando, possession of burglary tools, and trespassing on school grounds at Lyman High School on Aug. 3. Salfi stipulated that Ward's sentence will be served on weekends at the jail under the work-release program.
- Mary Melissa Bozman, of 1302 Fernwood Blvd., Fern Park, possession of more than 20 grams of marijuana. Sentencing was set for 10 a.m. Feb. 10. Bozman was arrested Aug. 5 after undercover agents found the illegal drug in her home, records show.
- Darrell Lamar Garris, 18, of 1900 W. 18th St., Sanford, no contest to two counts of burglarizing a home and two counts of grand theft. Sentencing was set for 11:30 a.m. Jan. 20. Garris was arrested Aug. 20 in connection with the burglary of the home of Sheralyn Brinson, 1800 W. Fourth St., Sanford. During the burglary, a stereo, television set, food, typewriter, clothes, an adding machine, calculator and cash were stolen.
- Kevin P. Quigley, 20, of Quality Inn North, Longwood, burglary to a dwelling. No sentencing date has been set. Quigley admitted to the Sept. 3 break-in at the home of Donna Jean MacKenzie and William Bryon, 132 Charles St., Longwood, records show.
- Inge Brownlow, 36, of Orlando, second-degree grand theft. Sentencing was set for 9:30 a.m. March 3. Brownlow was charged with removing a television set from a display at the Zayre department store in Fern Park, on Sept. 17, then trying to get a refund for the TV.

Farm Group Calls For Ban On Temik Pesticide

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — A farmworkers' group called for a ban on the use of the pesticide Temik Wednesday, but Agriculture Commissioner Doyle Conner said he will await the recommendations of a scientific task force before acting.

Cliff Thael, director of the Association of Migrant Organizations, called Temik the most toxic of pesticides on the market today and said too many questions about its possible effect on humans remain unanswered.

Conner appointed his Temik task force in August and convened a special session Tuesday after the discovery of Temik residues in groundwater samples taken from a Lakes Wales test grove earlier this month.

The group adjourned without making any recommendations but will meet again Jan. 14. Conner said any action on his part now would be premature.

Construction On Way Back

PENSACOLA (UPI) — A boom in housing starts during the final months of 1982 signals a possible turnaround for the construction trades in the Florida Panhandle, economic forecasters said.

Construction of apartment buildings with three and four units, called triplexes and quadplexes, on lots meant for single-family homes led to the boom, Bill Stanton, a forecaster with Southern Bell, said Wednesday.

Although the figures were promising, Stanton said a turnaround was not certain. "Just because you have construction activity, doesn't mean someone is going to occupy the house," he said.

Three Bombs Targeted At Jewish Sites In Sydney

SYDNEY, Australia (UPI)—Powerful bomb blasts ripped through the Israeli Consulate today, injuring two people, and damaged two cars parked near a Jewish recreation club in a nearby suburb, police said.

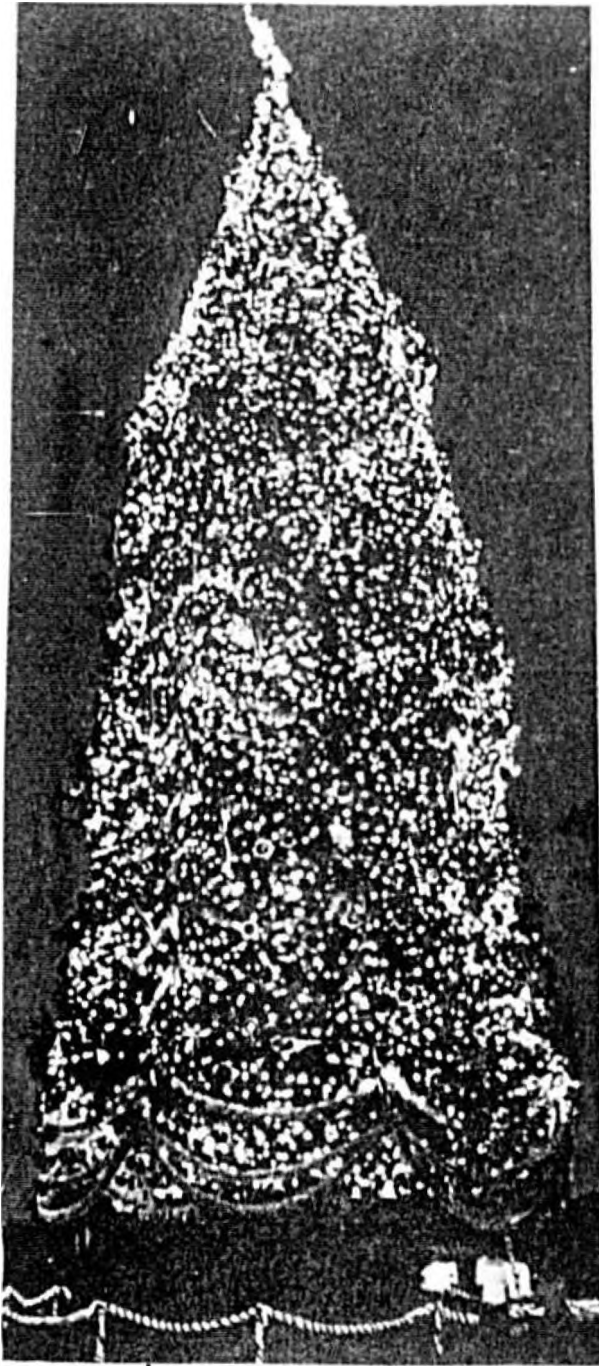

Israeli Consul-General Moshe Liba told a Sydney radio station the Palestine Liberation Organization claimed responsibility for the first of the explosions but a Palestine Information Office spokesman later denied the charge.

Polish Internees Released

WARSAW, Poland (UPI)—Poland's military authorities announced all remaining internees would be freed today, except for seven senior leaders of the banned Solidarity union who will be prosecuted on unspecified charges.

The move by military authorities came in anticipation of the suspension of martial law by next Friday—the end of the year. Polish leaders had promised the remaining estimated 200 internees would be released by Christmas.

By formally charging the seven Solidarity members, it means military leader Gen. Wojciech Jaruzelski can order them held even though internment—preventive detention without charge—will cease with the suspension of martial law.

MIGHTY FIR

The world's largest decorated Christmas tree, centerpiece of the National Enquirer Christmas Spectacle of Lights, stands 12 stories tall in Lantana. The giant Douglas Fir is 120 feet high, weighs 11 tons and wears 15,100 electric lights, 1,050 colored balls, 225 bows, 250 candy canes and snowflakes and is topped with a silver star six feet tall.

Dear Santa: 'I Believe In You'

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U.S. Postal Service is flooded with uncounted thousands of letters addressed "Santa Claus, North Pole." None is stamped "return to sender" and many are even answered.

"Dear Santa, Please! Please! Please! May I have a puppy," read one letter received by the post office in the nation's capital.

"I'd like the puppy dog to have a brown head, and a black back and white chest, and a black tail. If you cannot get me a puppy like that just get me a plain black and white puppy. Love, Jenny."

"I believe in you," one child wrote Santa. "Some people think you are real. I think you are real. Like my brother, he things (sic) you are not real but don't leasen (sic) to him. He don't believe in anything, not even Christmas. By the way his name is George. Will you bring him something? Your friend, Georgette."

The letters are written in pencil, crayon and paint. Some don't even have stamps.

George Conrad, a Postal Service spokesman in Washington, said, "We wouldn't send a letter back to a child. It would probably take them off Santa for the rest of their lives."

In many cities, postal service employees, volunteers and relief agencies answer the letters — especially requests from needy children.

Postal Service spokeswoman Jeanne O'Neill said the neediest children are the least selfish. "The really needy ask for others," she said.

From Maryland: "Dear Santa, please don't let us spend to (sic) much money because we are getting poor. So all I want is to be able to take horseback riding (sic). And please leave me a note so I can take it."

"P.S. Please don't let us get poor."

In San Francisco, post office supervisor Yoneo Kawakita said, "We receive a considerable amount of letters. I imagine, based on the economy, we will get more this year than last."

Eat A Mint . . .

MIAMI (UPI) — Two lawyers have enraged state officials by distributing a flyer that advises drivers who get stopped for drunk driving to eat a mint, stand straight, avoid talking and have their licenses ready. And to call either of the lawyers if those techniques don't work.

Sino-Soviet Triangle

Peking's recent blast at U.S. policy in the Middle East was more than just another effort by China's leaders to identify their country with the Arab (i.e., Third World) cause. It was one more indication that China's current leadership is tempering the decade-old Sino-American rapprochement by adopting a foreign policy critical of both the United States and the Soviet Union.

China's new foreign policy line has been evident for the last 18 months. It has been marked by an increased willingness to criticize U.S. policy, openly, especially in places such as Africa, Central America and the Middle East. Moreover, China has been sending a steady stream of signals that it would welcome an improvement in relations with the Soviet Union.

Last October, the Chinese opened negotiations with a deputy Soviet foreign minister in an effort to resolve at least some of their many differences with Moscow. The Soviets reciprocated with conciliatory statements and even hinted at a possible reduction in Soviet military forces along the Chinese border.

None of this adds up to a budding Sino-Soviet alliance comparable to that which so frightened the West during the 1950s. China's historical differences with Russia have bred enduring enmity and distrust on both sides. The current Soviet alliance with Vietnam and the Kremlin's continuing war in Afghanistan make a true detente with China even more unlikely.

But the Chinese have obviously decided that their own interests are best served by steering something closer to a middle course between the superpowers. In effect, Peking is trying to play Washington off against Moscow. That should come as no surprise to American policymakers who have attempted during the last decade to play Peking off against Moscow.

To complete the triangle, the Soviets now seem prepared to try their own hand at stirring trouble for the United States by muting hostility toward China.

These exercises in traditional balance-of-power diplomacy should underscore the need for the United States to keep its own options open in Asia. That means continuing U.S. efforts to strengthen relations with the proven American allies in Asia — Japan, South Korea, the non-communist nations of Southeast Asia, and, not least of all, with Taiwan.

Improving relations with Taiwan, which are now technically unofficial, will not require any radical shift in current U.S. policy, which officially regards the island as a province of mainland China. But it should preclude any further concessions to Peking on the Taiwan question.

More specifically, there should be no more talk in Washington of ending U.S. arms sales to Taiwan. The current agreement permitting the Nationalist government on Taiwan to purchase F-5E fighter planes should be implemented.

Then too, the Reagan administration should let it be known that the provisions of the Taiwan Relations Act, approved by Congress following establishment of formal diplomatic relations with Peking in 1979, will be honored in both letter and spirit.

The act pledges the United States to a continuing interest in Taiwan's security. The best way to promote that security is to ensure that Taiwan is not left defenseless should China abrogate its own promises to promote reunification only by peaceful means.

Camilla Bruce, Seminole County's elections supervisor for the past 31 years, will be sorely missed by old-timers in the community.

Mrs. Bruce was appointed to the office in 1951 by then-Gov. Fuller Warren and was subsequently elected eight consecutive times, opposed only three times, once by a Democrat and twice by Republicans.

But whatever personality the office has had over the years was hers. She first had an office in the Greater Sanford Chamber of Commerce building, later occupying space in the basement of the old courthouse before the new courthouse was built.

In recent years, her office was moved out of spacious quarters in the courthouse and relegated to part of the ground floor at the former county jail, directly behind the courthouse. In recent years, Sandy Goard, her office manager, has been her good right arm and that's who she is recommending that Gov. Bob Graham appoint to the remaining 20 months in her term when her resignation becomes effective March 1.

Whether the governor will heed her recommendation is unknown.

Her resignation will leave only three other Democrats in countywide elective office in Seminole — Clerk of the Circuit Court Arthur H. Beckwith Jr., Tax Collector G. Troy Ray Jr. and Sheriff John Polk.

The irony in Charlie Lyle's election to the City Council in Lake Mary Tuesday was that if the same scenario had been played a year from now he would not have been elected.

Certified Public Accountant George Duryea and Lyle came in first and second respectively in a three-person race in the Dec. 7 city election.

The city's current charter requires a successful candidate to receive a majority of the votes cast in a city election and thus the runoff had to be held.

Lyle won and Duryea lost. The new city charter to go into operation within the next few weeks calls for a plurality to prevail, thus eliminating runoffs. If that had been the case this year, Duryea would have won and Lyle would have lost.

Women have lost their majority on the Winter Springs City Commission with the resignation of Maureen Boyd and the appointment of Martin Trencher to the two years remaining in her Commission term.

Nofziger's Stumble A Hit In D.C.

WASHINGTON (NEA) — There's nothing that Washington insiders enjoy quite so much as watching one of the political pros blunder. The enjoyment is greater when the blunder is made publicly — and so it's with great relish that political Washington is watching the woes of Lyn Nofziger, former White House political director and Reagan confidant.

Shortly before President Reagan and his top advisers left on their South American trip, Nofziger — who is now a private political consultant — sent a letter to key administration officials and private political consultants. In it, he called for a meeting to plan the Reagan re-election effort — despite the fact that Nofziger hadn't discussed such a meeting with the president or any of his key advisers.

However, what caused an immediate tempest was some of the remarks contained in the Nofziger letter.

In the letter, Nofziger said that one of the purposes of the early meeting was to ensure that the 1984 campaign would be "run by Reaganites" and would be a "Reagan-Bush campaign, not a Bush-Reagan campaign."

All viewed these comments as a not-so-thinly-disguised slap at the supporters of Vice President Bush who now hold high office in the Reagan administration — foremost among them being James Baker, the White House chief of staff.

Conservatives have never trusted Baker, nor do they now: They believe that his influence is responsible for leading the administration, and Reagan, away from traditional conservative goals. As a result, they are willing to do almost anything to lessen Baker's influence in the coming campaign and in a second Reagan term, should there be one.

Baker learned about the letter during the South American trip, and he called Nofziger from aboard Air Force One while flying from Colombia to Costa Rica. At the time, Nofziger was addressing a meeting of Republican campaign aides in a Capitol Hill meeting room, and he interrupted his speech to take the call. Reportedly, Baker told Nofziger exactly what he thought of the remarks made in the letter.

Nofziger resumed his speech, but, a few minutes later, he was again called to a phone in the meeting room — this time to take a call from the president himself.

It isn't known what Reagan said, but Nofziger was overheard telling the president that he was at a public meeting and asking if they could discuss "the matter" in a private meeting when the president had returned.

The 4 1/2-hour strategy session called by Nofziger was held, but — on direct orders from the White House — no high-level administration or Republican officials attended. Among those who were invited, but did not attend, were Sen. Paul Laxalt, R-Nev., the new "general chairman" of the Republican Party; Richard Richards, retiring GOP chairman Frank Farhenkopf, who is expected to take over the day-to-day running of the Republican National Committee; and a number of administration officials, including Transportation Secretary Drew Lewis and FCC Chairman Mark Fowler — both high-level political insiders.

Most of those who attended were conservative political activists, and they did not report what happened at the meeting. But, after the meeting, Nofziger did issue a public apology to both Bush and Baker for his "misinterpreted remarks."

Meanwhile, Washington seems to be enjoying Nofziger's public discomfort. The early consensus is that by shooting himself in the foot, Nofziger probably has eliminated himself from the race to run any Reagan re-election effort.

Did Ex-CIA Agent Know Of Murder?

WASHINGTON — On the morning of Sept. 21, 1976, ex-CIA agent Edwin Wilson had breakfast at Washington's Mayflower Hotel with an associate and bodyguard who went by the alias of Peter Wagner.

Wilson had just returned from Geneva, where he had met with three Cuban CIA agents and, the federal government later charged, had attempted to arrange the assassination of a Libyan dissident. He said nothing of this to Wagner. But Wilson did ask his associate what he'd be doing that day and where he'd be.

Wagner replied, according to a secret House Intelligence Committee transcript, that he would be checking with two private investigators who were on a divorce case stakeout in northwest Washington. Wilson then leaned forward, Wagner said, "and advised me ... why didn't I stay out of that area...and stay in the offices the rest of the day."

But Wagner ignored the advice and drove to the area to give instructions to his agents. By the time he returned to Wilson's office, the radio waves were crackling with the news that a bomb had exploded in a car at Sheridan Circle — just two blocks from where Wagner's agents were stationed. Killed were Chilean exile leader Orlando Letelier and an American co-worker.

According to the secret transcripts, obtained by my associate Dale Van Atta, Wagner later joined Wilson and several other people for drinks at a local club. The occasion quickly assumed the atmosphere of a victory party. Wilson, Wagner said, "was pleased that things turned out the way they did. It was obvious to everybody at the office. That is when I really became a little leery of Ed..."

Wagner also recalled that he had heard Letelier's name mentioned many times around Wilson's office.

Wagner's testimony before the intelligence committee once again raises an intriguing question that has hung over the Letelier murder for years: Did Edwin Wilson, who has just been convicted of illegally supplying weapons to agents of Libyan dictator Muammar Qaddafi, have advance knowledge of the plot to kill Letelier?

In March 1977, I reported that anti-Castro Cubans were linked to the Letelier murder. A month later, Bob Woodward of the Washington Post reported a link between Wilson and the Letelier assassination. Federal investigators first denied the allegation, but then decided to interrogate Wilson because of his close ties to Cuban expatriates, with whom he had worked as a CIA official.

ANTHONY HARRIGAN What If They Won't Work?

It's imperative that the best minds in the country address the problem of long-term unemployment.

The unemployment I refer to is not that which is caused by the current severe recession. Many people who lose their jobs because of low demand for goods and services will get them back or find new work as the economy recovers.

The most serious unemployment is that caused by the gradual change from smokestack capitalism to computer capitalism. Stepped-up automation of plants and offices is a fact of life. As new computers and automatic equipment are devised, companies will need fewer employees. To be sure, the computer revolution creates new jobs. However, "high tech" enterprises don't require the same number of workers as the old smokestack industries and the pre-automation offices.

This situation indicates that the country is faced with significant long-term unemployment unless new job opportunities are created. The make-work jobs programs promoted by politicians don't address this revolution in the workplace.

Most new jobs today are being created in small and often new companies. Those who find employment with such firms are happily situated. However, the new, small enterprises aren't likely to absorb all the workers who seek employment. The new unemployed, or as someone has said, "the new needy," often are white-collar workers or college-educated young people who trained in non-technical fields such as history, English, psychology and social science.

The situation is one that prevails in all the advanced countries. The situation in the United States is acute because of the abysmal failure of the American public school system to provide a sound basic education. Many of the public schools in the nation are blackboard jungles where academic standards have been deteriorating for years and where political concerns prevail over educational considerations.

The Economist, published in Britain, recently addressed this issue, saying that "About three million of the worst-educated Britons are on a slow-turnover scrapheap where they are growing used to unemployment as a way of life." The United States has a similar problem.

How is the United States to find employment for the long-term unemployed? Individual searches of the "help wanted" columns is not a completely satisfactory answer. The ablest minds in the nation need to study the dimensions of this problem, present the realities, and come up with remedies. The country can't afford to be indifferent to the long-term unemployment caused by the computerization of industrial and office procedures.

A new proletariat, made up of people who want to work but can't find work will pose a very serious danger to the stability of a free society. America must address this problem with speed and determination.

Callaway Cracks Seminoles, 66-56

By SAM COOK
Herald Sports Editor

Seminole's basketball team played like a broken windshield Wednesday night against Oak Ridge. Once it developed a crack in the third quarter, it grew wider and wider until the game's end.

When the insurance man was finally summoned, Oak Ridge's Pioneers had filed a 66-56 victory claim over Sanford's frustrated Seminoles who watched a five-game win streak dissolve in the semi-final game of the Burger King-Metro Whopper Shoot Out at Valencia Community College.

"We couldn't play defense. We couldn't get out in front of him (6-4 Fred Callaway)," said Seminole coach Chris Marlette about the loss. "Callaway is tough. He's one of the best players I've seen this year."

Tonight at 7:30, the Tribe takes on Boone, a 73-49 loser to powerful Evans, for third place. Evans, fifth-ranked in the 4A state poll, meets Oak Ridge in the 9 p.m. championship game.

Callaway was, indeed, too tough for the 'Noles. The 6-4 leaper scored 19 points and grabbed 10 rebounds as the Pioneers broke open a tight game in the third quarter and ran away to a 10-point victory.

In the process, Oak Ridge put the defensive clamps on Calvin "Kiki" Bryant, who had 36 points Tuesday, and senior Vernon Law.

"We knew we had to stop 'Kiki'," said Pioneer coach Jeff Asher. "We felt if we held him at 15 points or under, we would win. We held him to just five points in the second half. That's pretty good."

And the Pioneers did hold Bryant to 15 for the game. Law, who handed out 11 assists and had a pretty good floor game, scored just two points which didn't help.

The only person the Oak Ridge boys didn't stop was center Willie Mitchell. The Tribe junior tossed in 22 points as he continually beat Callaway and 6-5 David Boisvert on short jumpers in the paint. "Mitchell played a great game," confirmed Marlette about the 6-2 center who also grabbed eight rebounds. "They couldn't stop him. "We should have gotten the ball to him more, but our wing players (Bryant and Wynn) couldn't get it inside."

Seminole opened a 16-12 first-quarter lead as Mitchell hit 5 of 6 shots. The Pioneers came back quickly, however, in the second period as Boisvert scored eight points for a 22-19 lead with two minutes gone.

Bryant wished one to pull Seminole within 22-21, but little Rick Lorraine tossed in a short jumper, was fouled, and converted a three-point play to a 25-21 lead.

"That's Mr. Three Points," said Asher about his 5-10 reserve guard. "Our bench gave us a big lift. It's the best we've executed all year."

Boisvert and point guard Chris Horne hit quick baskets to open a 34-28 lead at the beginning of the second half.

Bryant countered with a rebound, but Callaway widened the crack by sticking in a rebound for a 36-29 lead. Wynn and Mitchell countered with buckets to pull within three, but Oak Ridge shattered any Seminole comeback hopes by outscoring the 'Noles, 10-5, in the last four minutes.

Seminole's Vernon Law (left) and Torie Hendricks attempt to defend Oak Ridge's Mike Tolbert. The Seminoles lost a 66-56 decision to Oak Ridge. Tonight at 7:30, Seminole plays Boone for third place in the Burger King-Metro Basketball Tournament.

"Mr. Three Points" did it again with just three seconds left as Lorraine picked up a loose ball, scored and was fouled by Bryant. Lorraine made the foul shot for a 46-38 third-quarter lead.

The Pioneers outscored Seminole, 9-4, at the outset of the fourth quarter for a 55-42 bulge and the Tribe never came closer than nine points the rest of the way.

In retrospect, Seminole was beaten on the backboards (28-22). And every time the 'Noles get outrebounded, they lose. The Tribe is 6-3. Oak Ridge is 8-2.

"We stressed cutting off the baseline because we know that's where they (Oak Ridge) like to go," said Seminole assistant Wayne Talbot. "But we didn't cut it off. They were very aggressive too."

Seminole hit 21 of 40 shots for 53 percent.

The big difference was turnovers. The Tribe turned the ball over 11 times to Oak Ridge's seven. In the final 16 minutes, though, the Pioneers had just one turnover.

Along with Callaway's 19 points, Boisvert added 13 and Horne, who "dogged" Law, had 10.

In the second game, Evans had little trouble with Boone. Tony Fluker (20), Cleve Williams (15), Moses Gordon (13) and Joe Wright (12) all scored in double figures in the 25-point rout. Lenny Grace had 22 for Boone and Andy Hungerford tallied 11 before fouling out.

UCF Selects Saban

The University of Central Florida took a big step toward revitalizing its football program today when Lou Saban was named its new head coach. The announcement was made at a press conference at the Tangerine Bowl.

Saban, 61, was one of three candidates interviewed for the job by UCF Athletic Director Bill Peterson. The other two were Tennessee defensive coordinator Bobby Jackson and Colorado offensive coordinator Gene Hochevar.

Saban, president of the New York Yankees since 1981, will make $43,000 a year and another $15,000 for a television show. Details were still being worked out for the television show Wednesday night.

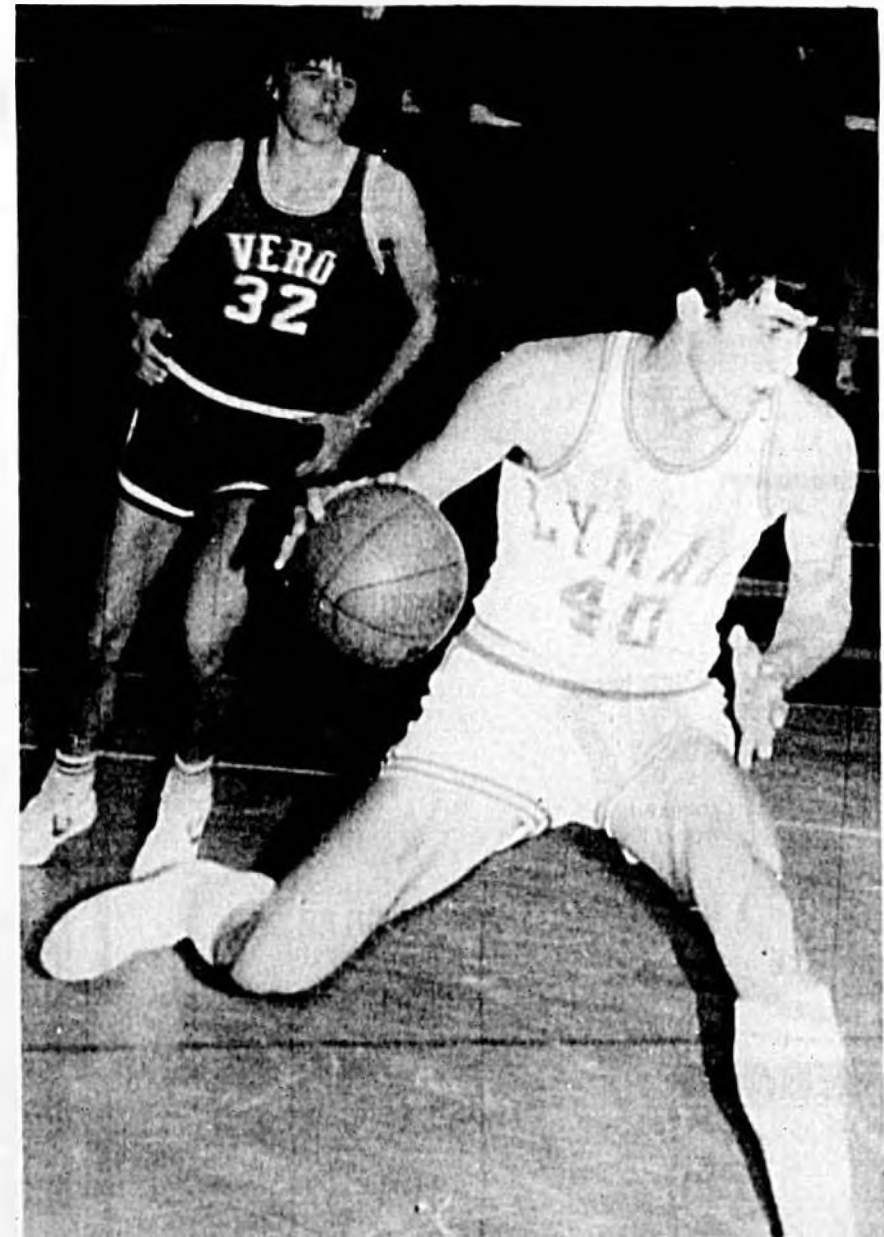

Saban last coached in 1979 at West Point, but he left there after the academy failed to meet commitments that were made to him.

He also coached for the Boston Patriots, Denver Broncos and Buffalo Bills of the National Football League. Other college stops include Maryland, Miami (Fla.), Western Illinois and athletic director at Cincinnati, which lasted 19 days.

Although Saban has developed a vagabond image from his frequent early departures at college programs, Peterson didn't think the label was justified.

"Lou's a helluva coach," said Peterson earlier this month. "He left those schools because they didn't keep their promises. I'm not going to offer him anything I can't come through with."

Saban will have three full-time assistants and one graduate assistant. Last year, when UCF went 0-10 under Sam Weir, it didn't have any full-time assistants.—SAM COOK

Ronnie Murphy mesmerized Lake Mary.

The mere presence of Oviedo's sensational 6-4 senior intimidated the youthful Rams and while Lake Mary was busy trying to defend Murphy, which proved to be futile since Murphy poured in a game-high 29 points, the Lions 6-2 forward Bill McCartney was driving the baseline and dropping in layups as Oviedo rolled to a 73-59 victory Wednesday night in semi-final action of the Oviedo Outlook Invitational Tournament at Seminole Community College.

The victory vaults Oviedo, 6-3, into tonight's 8:30 championship against the Lyman Greyhounds who upended Vero Beach, 63-47.

"McCartney going baseline opened up our offense," Oviedo coach Dale Phillips said. "Then Lake Mary had to concentrate on him instead of just Murphy."

From the early moments of the game, Murphy had the Rams playing cautiously every time they moved the ball in his defensive area. However, seven first-quarter turnovers by the slow-starting Lions enabled Lake Mary to build a 10-8 first quarter lead.

Jeff Reynolds' layup early in the second quarter gave Lake Mary, 5-2, its biggest lead at 14-8. Oviedo then outscored the Rams, 16-6, with McCartney scoring seven, to take a 24-20 halftime advantage.

Lake Mary hit its first two shots of the second half and pulled to within two, 26-24, but the Rams then went cold and Murphy went wild.

Behind Murphy's 13 third-quarter points, Oviedo outscored the Rams, 26-16, and took a 50-36 lead into the fourth quarter. The Rams, plagued by foul trouble, could not climb back into the game as Oviedo coasted to victory.

Murphy's 29 points and game-high 14 rebounds were followed by McCartney with 20 and Dave Knott's nine points. Fred Miller led the Rams with 19 points, Darryl Merthie added 15 and freshman Chris Jackson netted eight.

Oviedo had only one more field goal than Lake Mary but the Lions connected on 21 of 47 free throws while the Rams hit 9 of 18.

Lyman coach Tom Lawrence said the Oviedo Outlook would give his team a chance to work out a few kinks that led to a mediocre 2-3 start.

And, once the Greyhounds ironed out those kinks, they turned in an impressive performance in scalping the Vero Beach Indians, 63-47.

Lyman's hard-pressing defense caused numerous Vero Beach turnovers while the offense patiently waited for its time to put Vero Beach away.

Vero Beach played the 'Hounds step for step for the first quarter and midway through the second. With 4:20 remaining until halftime and Lyman clinging to a 22-20 lead, Lawrence decided to go to a delay game.

The Greyhounds, only looking for the easy layup, whittled over two minutes off the clock before James Pilot was hacked going to the basket.

Pilot hit both free throws and Lyman gave Vero Beach just one shot the next time down the floor and Tom Felter pulled down one of his game-high 11 rebounds. The delay game worked again as Alexis Cleveland dropped in a layup and then hit a jumper from outside the three-point circle with four seconds left to give Lyman a 28-20 halftime cushion.

Lyman turned the ball over a mere three times in the first half while Vero Beach committed 11.

The Greyhounds continued to allow Vero Beach just one shot every trip down the floor while the offense moved the ball around in fine fashion. By the end of the third quarter, Lyman had a 13-point lead, 44-31, and the 'Hounds put the game on ice by rolling up a 54-33 lead midway through the fourth quarter.

Cleveland led the Greyhounds, 4-3, with 25 points while Felter added 13 and James Pilot chipped in 11. Vero Beach, 3-7, was led by Vincent Parker's 12 points, James Melia netted 11 and Raymond Hicks added 10. Vero Beach will play Lake Mary tonight at 7 in the consolation finals for third place.

Indiana Stuns Second-Ranked Kentucky; Ewing Hits 35 Points In Win

By United Press International
On the first full day of winter it was springtime in Indiana. Indiana beat Kentucky 62-59. And in these two basketball, crazed states this is no small matter.

In one of college basketball's great rivalries, the No. 2 Wildcats ventured across the state line to Bloomington and ran into one powerful Hoosier team Wednesday night.

"That's the best defense we've played against all year," Kentucky Coach Joe Hall said. "They pressured us and ran us out of our offense. We also weren't doing a good job on the boards."

The guts of Indiana's attack was Randy Wittman. The 6-foot-6 swingman had 17 points and 12 rebounds and helped the Hoosiers recover from a seven-point deficit in the second half. On defense, Wittman put the clamp on Kentucky guard Jim Master, limiting him to three points.

"We had a good stretch playing ourselves back into the game and Wittman, was very important in that stretch," said Indiana Coach Bobby Knight, whose No. 5 team is 8-0. "We beat a good team. That was the best Kentucky team I've seen since I've been here."

Knight has seen plenty of Kentucky over the years. In fact, Hall's squad had beaten Knight's in six of the last eight meetings, including the previous three times.

The Wildcats entered the game shooting an extraordinary 61 percent from the floor. Indiana, always ferocious on defense, held Kentucky to 38 percent shooting in the first half and 41 percent for the game.

The Hoosiers were as steady as the line as they were on defense — hitting 13-of-15 down the stretch. Indiana made nothing but free throws after Wittman tied it 49-49 with about five minutes remaining. Ted Kitchel, with 16 points, sank six free throws in the closing minutes.

Elsewhere in the Top 20, No. 10 Tennessee routed Oklahoma City 99-56; No. 12 Georgetown defeated Southern 89-65; No. 16 Villanova downed Seton Hall 87-68; and No. 18 Nevada-Las Vegas defeated Baylor 77-65.

At Knoxville, Tenn., Dale Ellis scored 25 of his career-high 39 points in the opening half to carry Tennessee. The Vols, 7-0, ran off 15 straight points in the first half to crack it open. Jones Richmond had 18 points for Oklahoma City.

At Landover, Md., Patrick Ewing hit 13-of-15 shots for 35 points and grabbed 15 rebounds to power Georgetown. The Hoyas were up by just 5 points at the half.

Pitt Nips Florida State

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Trent Johnson hit the front end of a one and one with 20 seconds remaining, and a last-second desperation shot by Tony Williams missed the mark, as Pitt defeated Florida State 75-74 Wednesday night.

Johnson, who finished the game with 10 points, hit the most important basket of the game when he tipped in a missed shot by teammate Clyde Vaughan with 1:42 remaining. The basket gave Pitt a 74-72 lead, its first in the game.

The Seminoles, playing their fourth straight game without All-American Mitchell Wiggins, dropped to 3-4. Pitt lifted its record to 5-3.

Wiggins, suffering from mononucleosis, is expected back with FSU after Christmas.

Florida State lead throughout the game by as many as 11 points, but could never put the feisty Panthers away. In losing, a great individual effort by Vince Martello went to waste. Martello had his best night as a Seminole with a game high 27 points.

Bradley, USF Win Again

TAMPA (UPI) — Charlie Bradley, the nation's leading scorer, hit 32 points to help the University of South Florida trounce Roosevelt University 117-73 Wednesday night.

Four other South Florida Bulls (6-1) in double figures were Dave Bastian, 15, Jorge Azcoitia 11, Jim Grandholm and William Conner each with 10.

The three top Roosevelt Laker (4-7) scorers were Dan Montgomery with 17 and Ken Slater and Bob Christie each with 13.

South Florida took an early lead, taking a 23 point spread to the dressing room at halftime (54-31).

Strawbridge's stuff gave the Bulls their largest margin of 50 (117-67) with 1:07 remaining.

Pirates Acquire Mazzilli To Take Moreno's Place

PITTSBURGH (UPI) — The Pittsburgh Pirates, moving to fill the gap left by center fielder Omar Moreno's jump to the Houston Astros, Wednesday acquired Lee Mazzilli from the New York Yankees for four minor-league prospects.

The Yankees received outfielder Don Aubin, right-handed pitcher Tim Burke, catcher John Holland and infielder Jose Rivera. None of the four is expected to be of immediate help to the Yankees.

Mazzilli, a 27-year-old switchhitter, is being ticketed as the starting center fielder for Pittsburgh. He previously was with the New York Mets and Texas Rangers before being traded to the Yankees last Aug. 8 for shortstop Bucky Dent.

Mize Has Heart Surgery

ATLANTA (UPI) — Johnny "The Big Cat" Mize, power hitter for the New York Yankees during their World Series domination in the 1950s, was reported in good condition Wednesday following a triple bypass heart operation.

Mize, 69, who had been complaining of chest pains for several weeks, underwent the five-hour operation Tuesday at Emory University Hospital.

His wife, Marjorie, said Wednesday her husband was doing very well.

Going Fishin'?

OSTEEN BRIDGE FISH CAMP
Specks haven't been too good until Wednesday, reports Dell "Sarge" Abernethy from the Osteen Bridge camp. "They were running pretty slow until a couple of young fellers brought in 20 in one hour's fishing," said Dell.

Longwood's Dennis Misuraca, 13, and Winter Springs' Ricky Grabowski, 16, brought in the catch just before noon Wednesday.

Dell expects the cold water to chase the Specks up into the beds for the weekend, though.

A lot of people have caught Blue Gills and Specks at the bridge by the pilings. "I expect the Specks to be real good when this full moon comes around Dec. 30," said Dell.

Vacationing Evening Herald photographer Tom Vincent, who fishes and suns himself between beers on Dell's new sundeck, combined with Richard Hittell to pull in 25 Blue Gills, Bass and Specks on Tuesday.

MARINA ISLE
Sue and Bill Hill report the shade are coming in at Marina Isle and can be landed from Marina Isle to Lemon Bluff. Blue Gills are also biting, although the Specks are similar to Osteen Bridge.

Kings Embarrass Nuggets, 146-102

By United Press International

You might say the Kansas City Kings and Denver Nuggets displayed varying reactions to pre-game trade rumors Wednesday night. About 44 points worth.

With both teams showcasing young forwards, the Kings embarrassed the Nuggets 146-102 at Kemper Arena to set a club record for points.

"If I can make one judgment, I'd say I really screwed up talking about trading," admitted Denver coach Doug Moe, who started seldom-used James Ray ahead of high-scoring Kiki Vandeweghe. "We were talking trade and everybody played like they were looking over their shoulder. They just lost confidence."

"We might as well have not even been out there. I probably never should have said a word."

The focal point of the Kansas City trade rumors, second-year pro Kevin Loder, matched his career high with 25 points. Eddie Johnson added 22, rookie LaSalle Thompson 16, Ray Williams 15, Steve Johnson 14, Larry Drew 13 and Reggie Johnson 12. The Kings, who moved within a half-game of Midwest Division-leading

Pro Basketball

San Antonio, surpassed their previous record of 145 points, set in 1975.

"Loder played better tonight than he has been playing," said Kansas City coach Cotton Fitzsimmons amid speculation Loder is heading for San Diego or Portland. "We felt it would be an extremely high-scoring game and Denver is a team we've had a hard time with. It was just one of those nights; we were very good and they really struggled."

With 10 points by Loder, the Kings bolted to a 16-3 lead before Vandeweghe came off the bench to score 10 straight points. A 22-5 spurt by the Kings helped them to a 44-23 advantage and Kansas City shot 61 percent in the first two periods to build leads of 31 points.

Vandeweghe scored 28 to pace Denver, which fell to 10-16.

Celtics 140, Bulls 131
Larry Bird scored 26 points to pace six Boston players in double figures as the Celtics overcame a 46-point effort by Chicago's Reggie Theus en route to a home triumph. Boston led 74-66 at halftime and took control with a 12-3 burst at the start of the third quarter as Danny Ainge, who scored a career-high 21, had eight straight points in the run.

Cavaliers 100, Pacers 98
At Richfield, Ohio, Cliff Robinson banked in the winning basket at the buzzer and World B. Free tossed in 27 points to help the Cavaliers end a seven-game losing streak. Indiana's Herb Williams connected on 1-of-2 free throws to tie the score 98-98 with eight seconds remaining before Robinson took a pass from Free and hit a 12-footer.

Lakers 124, Jazz 100
Kareem Abdul-Jabbar scored 21 points and Magic Johnson added 12 assists to pace the Lakers to a rout at home that moved them back into a first-place tie with Seattle in the Pacific Division. The Jazz, who had won two in a row, played without league-leading scorer Adrian Dantley, who is sidelined with a wrist injury. Replacement Jeff Wilkins led the Jazz with 20 points and Utah's 7-foot-4 reserve center Mark Eaton had nine blocked shots.

SPORTS IN BRIEF

Perez Looks For Fighters For Sanford Golden Gloves

A workout for the upcoming Golden Gloves Boxing Competition has been scheduled for Dec. 26, according to Victor "Taco" Perez, a spokesman for the Golden Gloves.

"We had an excellent card last year in Sanford," said Perez. "The crowd was great and so were the fighters. We hope to get even more local kids involved this year."

Perez, along with Mike Fordham and Bruce Nelson, will begin putting the fighters through the paces Monday at the Second Street (and Poplar) Gym in Sanford.

There will be three Golden Gloves fights in this area. The first is scheduled for Daytona Beach for the last week in January. The second will be in Sanford during the first week of February and the third will be in Orlando later in February.

Perez is looking for boxers at least 15 years old. He figures to fight his boys in the novice (five fights or less) division.

Contact Perez (323-6297), Fordham (323-5660) or Nelson (323-1772) for any further information. Anyone with boxing equipment for the training period can also contact Perez.

Gretzky Gets Into Fight

By United Press International

Minutes after Wayne Gretzky was presented with the Sports Illustrated Sportsman of the Year award, he scarcely behaved like one.

The usually mild-mannered Gretzky fought with the Minnesota North Stars' Neal Broten early in the first period Wednesday at Edmonton, Alberta. Gretzky still scored his 27th goal and set up two others and Glenn Anderson scored three goals in the Oilers' 8-2 rout, but the superstar center was hard pressed to defend his actions in only the second fight of his career.

Ironically, Broten, as a member of the 1980 U.S. Olympic team, was a recipient of the last Sportsman of the Year award given to a hockey player by Sports Illustrated magazine. Gretzky received his in a pre-game ceremony.

In other games, Buffalo topped the New York Rangers 3-1, Philadelphia downed New Jersey 3-1 and Chicago edged Toronto 4-3.

South Seminole Sweeps

The Inter-County Basketball Association prepared for its Jan. 8 opening with a pre-Christmas mini-tourney in which one-third of the new league's teams participated. South Seminole captured both tournament titles.

In the Varsity (8th grade) division round-robin, South Seminole defeated the Tusawilla Black Knights 46-25 and Eatonville 49-24. Oscar Wilder led the way in the opener with 18 points on a perfect 9 for 9 from the floor. Darryl Hellford added 12, Vince Florence pulled down 11 rebounds and Ricky Deming dealt out 8 assists. Brian McKnight led the Knights with 18, Marty Nystrom added six.

Against Eatonville, Hellford scored 15, Vince Florence and Darryl Crist 8 each. Phil Florence added 6 points and 10 rebounds. Darryl Gallagher led Eatonville with 10, Derrick Lewis had six.

Tuskawilla topped Eatonville, 46-39, behind McKnight's 29 points Nystrom scored 14, Gallagher led Eatonville with 19 and Lewis had 8.

The JV (6th & 7th grades) division produced a few thrillers. In the opening round South Seminole nipped the Tuskawilla Lakers 25-21 in overtime and the Tuskawilla Celtics topped Eatonville 30-23. John Flath scored 8 for South Seminole, including 6 in the overtime period. He also pulled down 14 rebounds. Mike Sandeman added six points. Dan Rubin five and Eugene Rivers four. Gary Peterson led the Lakers with eight, Trevis Hall and Aaron Gammons had four each. Tim Lamoureux had a big 24 for the Celts, Gary Blocker added four. Don Williams led Eatonville with six.

In the semi-finals, South Seminole defeated the Jackson Heights Purple People Eaters, 35-25, and the Jackson Heights Dirty Dozen cleaned up on the Tuskawilla Celtics, 32-18. Rivers led South Seminole with eight, Flath had seven and Sandeman six. Garth Bolton topped JH with nine. John Dowdle led the Dozen with 10 and Andy Barth scored eight. Lamoureux had 12 for the Tuskawilla Celtics and Bow Williamson added six.

The championship game was another overtime affair as South Seminole beat the Jackson Heights Dirty Dozen, 23-18. Flath scored eight and had nine rebounds for the winners. Rivers added six. Ron Veres and Barth led Jackson Heights with six each.

The ICBA will open league play after the Holidays at Lake Howell High School, Oviedo High School, Winter Park Jr. High and Rollins College.

Couple Misled By Hosts At 'Tacky' Get-Together

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I were invited to a "little Sunday night get-together" at the home of casual friends. Assuming it was to be a social function, I asked if we could bring something and was told, "Just bring yourselves."

Upon our arrival, much to our surprise, we found it was a commercial promotion! We had absolutely no interest in any of these household products since I am retired and financially secure, and we have everything we need.

We politely endured the sales pitch and left at the earliest possible moment.

It has since disturbed us to think that even casual friends would try to use us in this way. We do not want to get trapped in such a get-together again and would be interested in your response to the following questions:

Dear Abby

1. What are your feelings relative to this practice?
2. How can one determine what type of "party" is planned?
3. Would we have been justified in leaving as soon as we knew it was a commercial affair? Sign us...

MISLED IN N.C.

DEAR MISLED: 1. It's tacky. 2. Ask. 3. Yes.

DEAR ABBY: What is your opinion of a doctor who would tell a patient that he had only three or four more months to live? Don't you think the doctor should have told the family first, and the family should have decided whether or not the patient should have been told?

Do you think the patient would or would not give up the fight to live if he knew that he was going to die?

NEEDS YOUR OPINION

DEAR NEEDS: There are no hard and fast rules for all patients. I believe the patient has the right to know what his chances are. Nobody "knows" how long a person's life is going to be. A doctor may predict, but he doesn't "know" for certain.

DEAR ABBY: Now that it's gift-giving time again, please say a few reassuring words to those of us who give grandchildren, nieces, nephews and other loved ones a check instead of a gift.

Shopping is not always easy for older people. I've been giving checks for birthdays, graduations, Christmas and weddings for years. Sometimes I'm thanked by telephone, in person or with a lovely note. Occasionally, the only way I know that my check was received is when my bank statement and canceled checks arrive with the endorsement on the backs of the checks.

I'd be fibbing if I said I didn't feel a wee bit hurt, but my gifts always come from the heart, and I have never given a gift because I wanted a thank-you.

CHECK AND DOUBLE CHECK

DEAR CHECK: Your unselfish motivation doesn't excuse the bad manners of those who fail to acknowledge your gift. Read on for a letter from a reader who offers an excellent suggestion for acknowledging checks:

DEAR ABBY: Many in my family now receive checks for birthdays, etc. When they endorse the checks, they always write a little message on the back: "Thanks, much!" "This will buy that neat sweater I've had my eye on. Thank You." "You are a doll, and I love you, Grandma," etc. And sometimes a clever drawing is added.

I usually get a note farther down the road from each of them, but when the cancelled checks come back to me, I enjoy the cute messages on the back.

NO NAME, PLEASE

DEAR NO NAME: Another correspondent wrote to say that he had sent his grandson a check for his bar mitzvah, and he was thrilled beyond words to receive the most beautiful thank-you letter he had ever received written on the back of the cancelled check.

Desserts Extraordinaire Using Simple Techniques

Elegant desserts often appear to be difficult to prepare, but in reality, many are not. Garnishes, frosting techniques or special fillings can be the difference between an ordinary dessert and a dessert extraordinaire.

Torte, for example, is an old German name for a special type of rich dessert. It is often a multilayered cake or meringue dessert that is filled with rich buttercream or fruit and topped with lavish whipped cream frosting. Fancy, yes. Difficult, no.

Cake rolls or logs are sheet cakes that are shaped while warm and filled with jam or a cream-type mixture. Topping is optional. Easy-to-follow directions make this dessert possible for even the novice baker.

Garnish a simple dessert, such as bar cookies, with complementary foods or ingredients prepared in a special way. Cinnamon-flavored garnishes spice up apple desserts. Mint complements chocolate.

CHERRY-ALMOND STRIPS

1 package golden brownie mix
2 eggs
¼ cup margarine or butter, softened
2 tablespoons water
¼ teaspoon almond extract
2 egg whites
1½ cups powdered sugar
½ teaspoon almond extract
½ cup sliced almonds
½ cup cut-up candied cherries
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease bottom only of rectangular pan, 13x9x2 inches. Mix brownie mix (dry), eggs, margarine, water and ¼ teaspoon almond extract with spoon. Spread in pan. Bake 25 minutes.

Beat egg whites in small bowl until foamy. Gradually beat in powdered sugar. Continue beating until stiff, about 3 minutes; beat in ½ teaspoon almond extract. Spread over warm brownies; sprinkle with almonds and candied cherries. Bake until meringue is light brown, about 10 minutes. Cut into strips, about 3x1 inch. 36 strips.

CHERRY CREAM TORTE

1 package super moist white cake mix
3 egg whites
1-3rd cups milk
1 tub creamy deluxe vanilla ready-to-spread frosting
1 package (3 ounces) cream cheese, softened
1 can (21 ounces) cherry pie filling, drained (reserve syrup)
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease and flour jelly roll pan, 15½x10½x1 inch. Beat cake mix (dry), egg whites and milk in large bowl on low speed, scraping bowl constantly, until blended. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl frequently, 2 minutes. Pour into pan. Bake until cake springs back when touched lightly in center, 20 to 25 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pan; cool cake completely on wire rack.

Beat ¼ cup of the frosting and the cream cheese in small bowl on high speed, scraping bowl constantly, until smooth, about 1 minute. Cut cake crosswise into 3 equal parts. Place 1 part on plate; spread with half of the cream cheese mixture, cherries and 3 tablespoons reserved cherry syrup. Top with another part cake; spread with remaining cream cheese mixture, cherries and 3 tablespoons cherry syrup. Top with remaining part cake. Frost sides of cake with remaining frosting. Spread top with ½ cup cherry syrup, allowing some to drizzle down sides. Refrigerate at least 1 hour before serving. Refrigerate any remaining torte.

CHOCOLATE-CHERRY CAKE ROLL

3 eggs
½ package super moist devil's food cake mix (about 2 cups)
1-3rd cup water
2 tablespoons vegetable oil
1 cup chilled whipping cream
1 package creamy white frosting mix
1-3rd cup chopped maraschino cherries
¼ cup chopped toasted almonds
Heat oven to 375 degrees. Line jelly roll pan, 15½x10½x1 inch, with waxed paper; grease. Beat eggs in small bowl on high speed until thick and lemon colored, about 2 minutes. Gradually beat in cake mix (dry), water and oil on low speed; continue beating, scraping bowl occasionally, 1 minute. Pour batter into pan, spreading evenly to corners.

Bake until cake springs back when touched lightly in center, 12 to 15 minutes. Immediately invert on towel sprinkled generously with powdered sugar. Carefully remove any waxed paper. While hot, carefully roll cake and towel from narrow end. Cool on wire rack 1 hour.

Beat whipping cream and 2 tablespoons of the frosting mix (dry) in small bowl until stiff peaks form; fold in cherries and almonds. Unroll cake; remove towel. Spread cake with whipped cream mixture. Roll up; refrigerate until chilled, about 4 hours.

Prepare remaining frosting mix as directed on package; frost cake roll. Garnish with red cinnamon candies or chopped maraschino cherries and chopped toasted almonds if desired. 10 servings.

SPICE-NUT FUDGE BARS

1 package supreme fudge brownie mix
1 teaspoon ground cinnamon
¼ teaspoon ground nutmeg
¼ teaspoon ground cloves
¼ cup coarsely chopped nuts
Spice Glaze (below)
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease bottom only of jelly roll pan, 15½x10½x1 inch. Prepare brownies as directed on package except — stir in cinnamon, nutmeg and cloves with the water. Spread in pan; sprinkle with nuts. Bake about 15 minutes; cool. Drizzle with Spice Glaze. Cut into bars, about 3x1½ inches. 3 dozen cookies.

Spice Glaze: Mix 1 cup powdered sugar, ¼ teaspoon ground cinnamon and 1 tablespoon water in small bowl until smooth. Stir in additional water, 1 teaspoon at a time, until of desired consistency.

BRANDIED CHERRY-CHOCOLATE CAKE

1 package super moist devil's food, chocolate fudge or sour cream chocolate cake mix
3 eggs
1½ cups water
½ cup dairy sour cream
¼ cup vegetable oil
1 tablespoon brandy flavoring
Cherry Filling (below)
Creamy Vanilla Frosting (below)
1-3rd bar (4-ounce size) sweet cooking chocolate, finely shredded (about ½ cup)
Heat oven to 350 degrees. Grease and flour 2 round pans, 8 or 9x1½ inches. Beat cake mix (dry), eggs, water, sour cream, oil and brandy flavoring in large bowl on low speed, scraping bowl constantly, 30 seconds. Beat on medium speed, scraping bowl frequently, 2 minutes. Pour into pans. Bake until cake springs back when touched lightly in center, 30 to 35 minutes. Cool 10 minutes. Remove from pans; cool cake completely on wire rack.

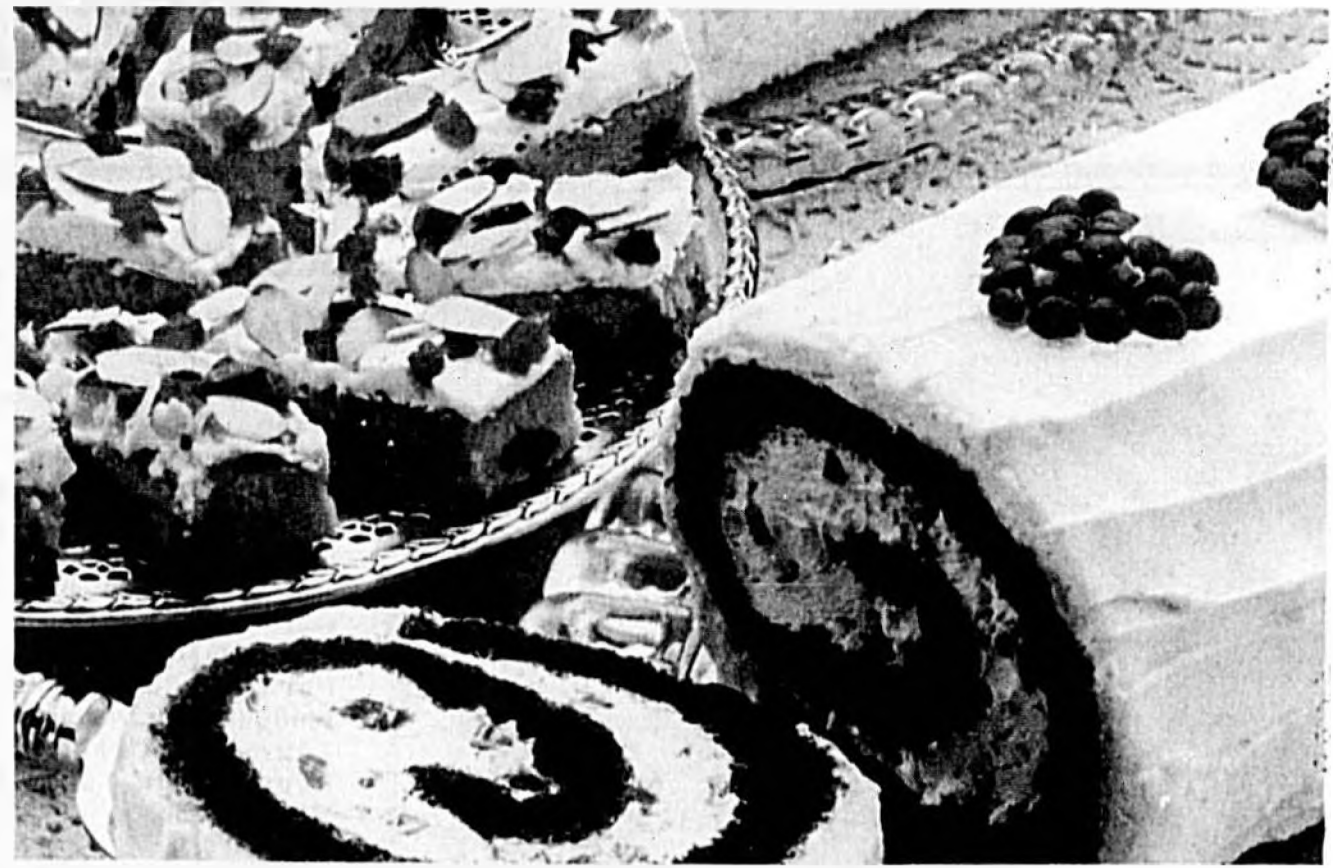

Prepare Cherry Filling and Creamy Vanilla Frosting. Split cake to make 4 layers. (To split, mark side of cake with wooden picks and cut with long, thin knife.) Place 1 layer, cut side up, on plate; spread with half of the Cherry Filling to within ½ inch of edge of cake. Top with another layer, cut side down; spread with ½ cup Creamy Vanilla Frosting. Top with another layer, cut side up; spread with remaining Cherry Filling. Top with remaining layer, cut side down. Frost side and top of cake with remaining Creamy Vanilla Frosting. Gently press chocolate by teaspoonfuls on side of cake.

CHERRY FILLING

1 can (16 ounces) pitted dark sweet cherries, drained and chopped (reserve syrup)
2 tablespoons cornstarch
2 tablespoons sugar
1 tablespoon brandy flavoring
Add enough water to reserve cherry syrup to measure ¾ cup. Mix cornstarch and sugar in 1-quart saucepan; stir in syrup mixture. Cook over medium heat, stirring constantly, until mixture thickens and boils. Boil and stir 1 minute; cool to lukewarm. Stir in cherries and brandy flavoring. Refrigerate until chilled.

Creamy Vanilla Frosting: Beat 1 envelope (1½ ounces) whipped topping mix and ¼ cup cold milk in small bowl on low speed 1 minute. Beat in 1 tub creamy deluxe vanilla ready-to-spread frosting on high speed, scraping bowl frequently, until smooth and creamy, about 2 minutes.

Almond strips and cake roll are divine delicacies.

Nutty Sauce Tops Potpourri Of Good Things To Eat

This delicious butterscotch sauce is the perfect topping to spoon over poached whole Bosc pears. A sprinkling of chopped, salted nuts adds to the flavor.

Such a topping would also be good over vanilla ice cream

BUTTERSCOTCH PEANUT SAUCE:
 1-3rd cup butter or margarine
 2-3rd cup packed brown sugar
 3 teaspoons cornstarch
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1-3rd cup heavy cream

1 tablespoon each corn syrup and lemon juice
 1/2 teaspoon vanilla
 Whole Canned or Poached Bosc Pears
 Blanched, salted peanuts, chopped
 Melt butter. Combine sugar, cornstarch and salt; stir into butter. Add cream, corn syrup and lemon juice. Heat to boiling; boil and stir 1/2 minute. Stir in vanilla. Cool completely. Spoon over whole Bosc pears; sprinkle with peanuts. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 1 1/2 cups.

WHOLE CANNED BOSCH PEARS
 1/2 to 3/4 pounds small Bosc pears
 3 quarts water
 4 cups sugar

1-3rd cup lemon juice
 Pare Boscs, taking care to keep stem and blossom ends intact. Combine water, sugar and lemon juice; heat to boiling. Add pears; simmer, covered, 5 minutes. Pack into clean, hot 1-quart wide-mouth canning jars to within 1/2-inch of jar tops. Add syrup to within 1/2-inch of tops. Seal jars according to jar manufacturer's directions. Place on rack in canner. Process 30 minutes in boiling water bath with boiling water two inches above jar tops. Remove jars from canner. Place on thick cloth or wire racks; cool away from drafts. After 12 hours, test lids for proper seal; remove rings from jars. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 7 quarts.

To Can In Pint Jars: A pint jar of Whole Canned Bosc Pears hold 2 whole pears, the ideal gift-size for a family of one or two members. For 7 pints you will need: 6 to 6 1/2 pounds small Bosc pears, 4 1/2 cups water, 1 1/2 cups sugar and 2 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice. Prepare as above. Makes 7 pints.

Poached Bosc Pears: Pare 2 1/2 to 2 3/4 pounds (about 6) small Bosc pears, taking care to leave stem and blossom ends intact. Combine 3 cups water, 1 cup sugar and 1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice; heat to boiling. Add pears; simmer, covered, 15 minutes or until tender. Remove pears from syrup. Serve warm or cool. Makes 6 servings.

SPICED SUGAR COOKIES
 1 1/4 cups flour
 1 teaspoon low sodium baking powder
 1/2 teaspoon ground nutmeg
 1/2 cup plus 1 tablespoon sugar
 1/4 cup salad oil
 2 egg white
 grated peel of 1 fresh lemon
 1 tablespoon fresh squeezed lemon juice
 1 teaspoon nutmeg
 1 teaspoon vanilla
 1/2 cup sugar and oil. Add egg whites, lemon peel and juice; beat well. Add dry ingredients, mixing well. Chill 1 hour or longer. Combine remaining 1 tablespoon sugar and 1/4 teaspoon nutmeg. To make cookies, shape dough into 1/4-inch balls; dip balls into sugar mixture. Place on greased cookie sheets. Bake at 375 degrees for 10 minutes. Cool on wire racks. This kitchen-tested recipe makes about 3 dozen (2 mg. sodium, 44 calories per cookie).

CHOCOLATE FRUITCAKE IN CANDIED ORANGE SHELLS
 1/2 pound candied pineapple and cherries, finely chopped (about 1 1/4 cups)
 1/4 pound pitted dates, finely chopped (1 cup)

3/4 cup finely chopped walnuts
 1 cup unsifted flour
 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/4 teaspoon ground cloves
 1/4 teaspoon ground nutmeg
 1/4 cup corn oil margarine
 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar
 1/4 cup dark or light corn syrup
 2 eggs
 2 squares (1 oz. each) semisweet chocolate, melted
 1 tablespoon orange-flavored liqueur or orange juice
 Candied Orange Shells (recipe follows)
 In large bowl stir together candied fruits, dates and walnuts. In small bowl stir together flour, cinnamon, cloves and nutmeg. In small mixer bowl with mixer at medium speed stir margarine to soften. Add sugar and corn syrup, mix well. Beat in eggs until blended. Beat in chocolate and liqueur. Gradually beat in flour mixture until well blended. Pour over fruit mixture; stir until well coated. Spoon into Candied Orange Shells, filling 3/4 full. Place in muffin cups. Brush with reserved syrup. Bake in 300 degrees F oven 1 hour or until cake tester inserted in center comes out clean. Cool in pan 10 minutes. Remove. Cool completely on waxed paper-lined tray. Cover with tops. (Bake any remaining fruitcake mixture in greased muffin cups.) Store in tightly covered container in cool, dry place several days. Roll in granulated sugar. Wrap in plastic wrap. Slice horizontally to serve. Makes 10 small or 6 large cakes.

Candied Orange Shells:
 Cut slice from top of each of 10 small or 6 large oranges. Scoop out pulp. In 5-quart dutch oven or saucepot stir together 3 quarts water and 1 tablespoon salt. Add orange shells and tops. Bring to boil; simmer 5 minutes. Drain. Repeat using another 3 quarts water and 1 tablespoon salt. Drain well. Scoop loose pulp from shells. In same saucepot stir together 3 cups sugar, 1 cup water and 1/4 cup light corn syrup. Stirring constantly, bring to boil over medium heat. Without stirring, cook until temperature on candy thermometer reaches 240 degrees F or small amount of mixture when dropped into very cold water forms a soft ball which flattens on removal from water.

Add orange shells and tops. Cook 10 minutes. Remove from heat. Cool slightly. Place shells and tops in 15 1/2 x 10 1/2 x 1-inch jelly roll pan. Brush with syrup. Let stand 3 hours, turning and brushing with syrup occasionally. Remove shells and invert on small juice glasses to drain overnight. Drain tops on waxed paper-lined tray. Reserve syrup.

CRUNCHY CHICKEN WITH PEACH SAUCE
 1-3rd cup dark corn syrup
 1/4 cup spicy brown mustard
 2 whole chicken breasts, skinned, boned, cut in 1-inch cubes, 1/4-inch thick
 2 egg whites
 4 tablespoons corn starch
 2 tablespoons water
 3 cups finely chopped pecans
 1 quart (about) corn oil
 Peach Sauce

In small bowl stir together corn syrup and mustard. Add chicken; toss to coat well. Cover; refrigerate several hours or overnight. In small bowl beat egg whites lightly but not until frothy. Gradually stir in corn starch and water until smooth. Dip chicken pieces, a few at a time, into corn starch mixture; then coat with pecans. Dry on waxed paper-lined trays while coating remainder. Pour corn oil into heavy 3-quart saucepan. Heat over medium heat to 350 degree F. Add chicken pieces, a few at a time, fry about 1 minute or until golden brown. Drain on paper towels. Serve with Peach Sauce. Makes 8 servings as an hors d'oeuvre.

PEACH SAUCE
 2 cups fresh or frozen peach slices, thawed
 3/4 cup dark corn syrup
 1/4 cup cider vinegar
 1/4 cup finely chopped onion
 1/4 teaspoon ground cinnamon
 1/8 teaspoon ground nutmeg
 In 2-quart saucepan stir together peaches, corn syrup, vinegar, onion, cinnamon and nutmeg. Stirring occasionally, bring to boil over medium heat and boil gently 15 minutes. Place fruit mixture, about 1/2 at a time, in blender container; cover. Blend on medium speed 5 to 10 seconds or just until coarsely chopped. Store in lightly covered container in refrigerator. Serve with Pecan-Coated Chicken. Makes 3 cups.

BEEF AND NOODLE MEDLEY
 2 tablespoons vegetable oil
 1 pound ground beef
 1 1/2 cups diced celery
 1/2 cup diced onion
 1/2 cup diced green pepper
 2 cups uncooked medium-width noodles
 2 cans (1 pound each) tomatoes, broken up
 1 can (15 1/2 ounces) red kidney beans
 4 teaspoons original Worcestershire sauce
 1 teaspoon salt
 In a large skillet, heat oil until hot. Add beef; saute for 5 minutes. Add celery, onion and green pepper; saute for 5 minutes. Drain excess fat. Add remaining ingredients. Bring to a boil. Reduce heat, simmer, covered, until noodles are tender, about 20 minutes. This kitchen-tested recipe makes 6 portions.
