18 MINERS ARE DEAD IN BLAST IN OKLAHOMA

Fate of eight others is unknown; rescuers seek to find those still buried

SALT LAKE CITY, Feb. 7.—(AP)—Eighteen mine workers were dead to-day and the fate of eight others was unknown as rescue crews delved into the lower pocket of a coal mine at Standardville, Utah, following a terrific explosion which rocked the mountain side late last night and crumpled the walls of the mining tunnel.

None of the bodies located in the various slopes of the mine, 10 had been identified from men who were alive.

Cause of the terrific blast was not determined but the men who escaped and rescue officials believed that the deadly gas made it virtually impossible for any of the remaining eight men in the mine to escape unless by accident a cave-in of the tunnel cut off the faces.

Bougherty, one of the four miners to escape, and the explosive were recovered and the walls of the tunnel crumpled. He said T. L. Pritchett, one of the men found dead, was working in the same tunnel as the other two, Rulof Bannock, and the other man who was found alive, but when the explosion occurred he moved deeper into the mine to rescue his brother T. H. Pritchett, and never returned. His body was found later by the rescuers.

Bougherty said that in the fight from the mine, Bulevansky and he were forced to run between piles of debris and the walls of the mine to get out by the light. He said he got out immediately, filled all spaces of the mine.

Rev. Cahill To Give His Last Sermon At All Souls Church

Rev. R. P. Cahill who has been conducting a series of sermons in connection with the mission work in the All Souls Catholic church this week will preach his final and most important sermon tonight at 7:30, according to Father M. G. Cheary, pastor of the local Catholic Church on South Oak Avenue.

Saturday night from 7:30 o'clock until 9:30 o'clock, Rev. Cahill will give a special "Hour Devotion," which will feature the "Dominican Mission." At this time confessions will be heard. Father Cahill will close the mission by giving the "Papal Benediction" at 8:30 o'clock and 10:30 o'clock masses Sunday morning.

Last Wednesday evening the visiting pastor preached on the subject "The Oceans of Sin" on Thursday night the subject, "Cause and Cure of Vice" was treated. A large congregation is said to have attended both services and Rev. Cahill declared, "An active sense of spiritual value is among the people."

Fletcher Will Study Situation In Haiti

WASHINGTON, Feb. 7—(AP)—Henry P. Fletcher, former legislator to Rome and to Mexico City, will be a member of President Hoover's commission to make a study of the situation in Haiti, it was learned today.

The former ambassador to Rome has represented the United States in practically all of the Pan American conferences of recent years and is regarded highly throughout Latin America. He accompanied both President Hoover on his good will trip to South America and now serves as a member of the commission which is endeavoring to settle the Honduras-Guatemala boundary dispute.

NAMED PRESIDENT

JACKSON, Miss., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Dr. Bradford Keeney, president of the Alabama Pollution Institute, was nominated today for the presidency of the association of southern agricultural workers and unions, was nominated for the 1931 convention city.

Ford Arrives In Ft. Myers; Declines Automobile Ride And Walks Long Way Home

FORT MYERS, Fla., Feb. 7.—Gowen Ford, racing driver and old cronies club owner, Thomas A. Gibson, testifies any President Hoover arrived by private car. Gibson, according to his custom of always walking two miles from his modest winter home, including the Edison estate, to Ford.

Ford ignored a winding automobile road and walked straight through town to Gibson's laboratory where he stopped to greet the silver-haired inventor before entering his own home for the annual celebration last February.

"Don't ask me any questions about Florida," said Ford to the inventor, who caught him walking eastward through the city with his arms crossed. "I am a simple Indian birthday party this year."

BENSON SPRINGS STORM TO CAUSE ORPHANAGE HAS STRONG WINDS IN WORTHY RECORD FLORIDA TONIGHT

95 Percent Of Children Have Proved To Be Upright Citizens

MIAMI, Fla., Feb. 7.—(AP)—Fresh and many strong winds were winds will be felt today through Southern Florida as a disturbance passes over the state from the Gulf of Mexico toward McAllen. This was predicted yesterday by George W. Gandy, Director of meteorological service, who said the winds will continue very quickly on the afternoon of continental features. The free and easy life the children lead and the religious and spiritual advantages offered.

The orphanage, situated in the Miami Woods, has a population of 300 boys and girls, all orphans and half orphans, who are educated, clothed and fed.

The institution, directed by Rev. W. C. Morrissey, has 150 of which were in evidence and seem in excellent health. At present its valuation is placed at approximately $200,000.

The institution caters to 250 children, 50 of whom are boys ranging from four to 18 years old. The organization, although originally supported by Methodist contributions, is open to children of all denominations who are orphans and half orphans whose parents are unable to provide for them.

While the Chamber of Commerce was being reorganized in the City Hall, many another Sanford person was going to the dogs Wednesday night. They say the old parimutuel system of lottery is being used but under the new "corporation plan," which according to the Attorney General's recent ruling is legal if there is no gambling involved. The farmers did not win every time Wednesday night but paid good money when they did, so that nearly everyone got his money back and a little bit to boot. That makes everyone happy and they come back for more.

An Optimistic Omen

Those who attended the reorganization meeting of the Chamber of Commerce Wednesday night were impressed almost to a man by the fine spirit of optimism which prevailed and the evident willingness of everyone to forget personal troubles and join wholeheartedly with their fellow citizens in this movement, or any movement, which might be for the betterment of Sanford.

There was a marked contrast to that meeting—one year ago when the same men, and several others, sat around the dining tables of the Forrest Lake Hotel and discussed the same plan which was not fulfilled until Wednesday night. Then faces were long, chins drooped into soup plates, conversation bespoke a dire future, and such speeches as were made had to do mainly with the City's bonded debt and what was going to happen to us.

Since that time other misfortunes have befallen us. The Mediterranean fruit fly was discovered in an adjoining county and then right in our own groves and farms, and the strictest quarantine regulations were placed upon Seminole County. The First National Bank, Seminole County's oldest and largest banking institution, failed. The Bank of Oviedo, also closed its doors. The Forrest Lake Hotel, for the first time since it was built, did not open for the winter season.

And yet the outlook at the present time is brighter than ever. Those who attended the meeting Wednesday night realized it. There was a spirit of enthusiasm which has not been felt in this city in a long time. It was the feeling that one has after awakening from a bad dream to find that the big black spider and the slimy green lizard didn't get him after all and that in reality all is well with the world.

The people, realizing that they must either go backward or forward, that they cannot stand still, seem to know that there is only one direction now which they can take. Whatever misfortunes were in store for this city have already fallen, and those people who still remain, who are, after all, the backbone of this community, find the situation not half so bad perhaps as they expected it to be. They are now willing, and eager, to work for their city.

So they elected Mr. Papworth president of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Papworth is in a sense a newcomer to Sanford, having lived in New York, prior to 1927, for nearly thirty years. But as a matter of fact, he is one of our oldest inhabitants. He first came here in 1884, long before many of us were born. During those early days of the community, between 1884 and 1898, Mr. Papworth was quite a civic leader, serving as an alderman, as president of the board of aldermen, as acting mayor, and for eleven years as voluntary chief of the fire department.

He went to New York in 1898, after the big freeze, for the purpose, to use his own words, "of making a living." But even while far away in the big metropolis, he could not forget the lure of Sanford, and came back later to marry Miss Julia Robinson and always thereafter, whenever he was able, he returned, to spend a vacation in February and to look after his grave interests which he always maintained.

We believe that Mr. Papworth has just the right combination of qualities to make the ideal civic leader, so badly needed at this time. He has the broader vision and wider range of experience of one who has waged the battle for existence in a far off metropolitan city. But he has also the finer sensibilities and delicate understanding of one who is raised in a small town, a quality so seldom found in city bred people and so necessary for success in the so called " hinterland".

All Sanford should take hearted this reorganization movement, forget their personal difficulties, and unite with one another in the building of a city.

A Business Comparison

The year of 1929 was not a particularly prosperous year for those who have their principal business interests in Sanford, or for those on the whole who reside anywhere in Florida, but many of the large industries and business houses in the country generally, found that 1929 was quite remunerative. A comparison between the net profits of these concerns for the last quarter of 1929 with the last quarter of 1928 shows a decided advantage in most cases in favor of the former period, as follows:

H. L. du Pont de Nemours & Co. during 1929, stockholders increased from $9,370 to $5,440; $72,300,000 in against $58,753,000.

Franklin Automobile Co., selling organization of the H. H. Franklin Mfg. Co.; $1,123,000 as against $555,000.

General Railway Signal Co. between 1920 and 1929 an unsuccessful venture in clothes and dish washing machine; $3,118,000 as against $2,048,000.

A. C. Gilbert Co. ("Gilbert Toys Make Happy Boys") also "Polar Club" tank, electric heaters, hair dryers; $450,000 as against $316,000.

Gulf States Steel Co. (largest independent in the South) properties in Alabama; $1,310,000 as against $924,000.

Headline Hershey Corp. (shock absorbers, bumpers and other motorizing accessories. Biggest customer Ford) $2,399,000 (11 months) as against $2,230,000 (full year).

Indian Motorcycle Co. (also makes a motorboat engine); $343,000 loss as against $419,000 loss.

Howe Sound Co. (lead, zinc, copper and silver from British Columbia and Mexico); $3,662,000 as against $2,49,000.

Hudson Motor Car Co. (300,783 cars during 1929); $11,594,000 as against $13,457,000.

D. Emil Klein Co., Inc. ("Haddon Hall," "Nottingham" and "Emerson" hand made cigar); $114,999 as against $87,600.

Madison Square Garden Corp. (owns entire stock in the New York Rangers Professional Hockey Club, Inc.); $11,925 loss (six months) as against $230,745 loss in corresponding period.

Paraffine Cos., Inc. (roofing, wall board, tire bricky paint); $1,486,000 (six months) as against $1,478,000 for corresponding period.

Pratt & Lambert, Inc. ("Polaroid" lacquer); $1,251,000 as against $1,322,000.

Servel, Inc. ("Electrolux" and "Servel" refrigerators, also gas engines and truck bodies); $835,000 (estimated) as against $236,000.

Ward Baking Corp. (22 bakeries); $1,124,000 as against $1,293,000.

White Rock Mineral Springs Co. ("White Rock" water, mineral root beer, sarsaparilla also "Stil Rock" and Kentucky Nip); $1,229,000 as against $1,150,000.

TELLING THE WORLD

BY NEIL OHARA

The Biggest Biography of the Year
The life story of Prince Carlo, the largest biography in the world.

Prince Carlo was born in 1877, already weighing 7 lbs. pounds, and started growing at an unusual rate. At one year old he measured 36 inches, so he learned the knack of putting his toes in his mouth and strangling himself. They gave him a large kerchief filled with hot coal and he used it as a rattle and tied a raffia cloth around his neck like a bib. To give him plenty of exercise they took him out at the end of the garden railroad and walked him up and down 30 times.

When little Prince Carlo was a baby and a half old, they exposed him to the cold in a wine press every morning for six minutes.

They took him milk direct from the milk gallon can using a rubber tubing bladder as a nipple. The little fellow prospered and grew healthy, they put him in a gun carriage and wouldn't break through the fence, and when the girls would wash him they placed him in the wash tub.

By the time Prince Carlo was two years old he had grown to his father's height.

At age three he weighed 100 lbs. and when he was four he was 150 lbs. and when he was five he weighed 200 lbs.

He became a favorite in the royal household and was given a special place in the royal family.

When he was six he was given a pony and a dog.

Bridge-Party Is Given By Auxiliary Of Elks

Hostesses at the subscription bridge party given Thursday evening at the Elks' Home on Oak Avenue, for the benefit of the Elks' Auxiliary, were Mrs. Dave Bruske, Mrs. Hugh Waters and Mrs. Rex Packard. About seven tables of players were present to enjoy the bridge games throughout the evening.

After games were added at late hour, prizes were awarded. A man received a high score prize for the ladies, a no city door prize, while Mr. Moses who had high score for the men was given a set of hook ends. Low score prize for the ladies, a tiny book cover, went to Mrs. E. G. Cameron and low score prize for the men, a neck tie, was awarded to S. M. Robins. Mrs. Robins cut high and was the recipient of a deck of playing cards.

At the supper hour refreshments consisting of a sweet course were served by Miss Rebeca Wilson and Miss Margaret Murff who were dressed in tailoring costume. Later in the evening several dances were presented by Miss Wilson and Miss Murff.

Those invited to be with Miss Walker on this occasion were Mrs. R. B. Wright, Mrs. George Gray, Mrs. Jack Freedman, Mr. Peter Paul, Mrs. Mandie Armstrader, Mrs. H. M. NAME OF SARGON NOW NATIONWIDE

New York Firm,
With Branches in Leading Cities, Selling
at Rate of Over
One Million Bottles Yearly. California Also Using at Rate of
One Million Bottles A Year.

What Sargon was first given to the world, well known author lets predicted it would become one of the great outstanding healing remedies of the age, but the men of science who labored for years to perfect it little dreamed it would become a household word in so short a time.

According to the statements of people everywhere who have actually put it to the test, it is restoring literally hundreds of thousands of weak, run-down, half-sick, discouraged men and women by some of the latest and most advanced methods known to Medical Science.

The demand for Sargon is probably without parallel in the history of the drug trade. In the State of California alone, it will require over one million bottles to supply the people of California during the first twelve months
after it was placed on sale.

One big New York firm, with whole sale houses, in leading cities have sold and distributed 300,000
bottles in the past eight months
at the rate of one million per year.

Kansas City wholesale and retail firms have sold and distributed over 300,000 bottles within twelve months, or an average of almost one bottle for every family in the State of Kansas.

Texas dealers required nine carloads the first four months
in the Northwest, the Twin Cities of Minneapolis and St. Paul have been selling at the rate of over $100,000 per year, to say nothing of the immense wholesale distribution. Sales in other sections have been correspondingly large.

Back of Sargon's triumph in the drug stores is Sargon's triumph in the homes. When a suffering man or woman finds a medicine that helps them, they invariably tell their friends about it and in this way the fame of Sargon is spreading from coast to coast, sweeping the country
like a great tidal wave.

BILIOUS COLOR AND BAD TASTE

Black-Draught Proved Just the Medicine Needed, Says
North Carolina Lady.

Winston-Salem, N. C.—"I used to suffer from spells of constipation
when my system would get all out of order," says Mrs. C. B.
Dunnigan, 422 Cleveland Avenue, this city. "I would wake up in the morning dull and achey, and would not feel like doing my work."

"At times I would have bilious headaches. My color would be as yellow paper. I would have a bad taste in my mouth."

There was a period staying with me at that time who kept after me to take Black-Draught. Finally, she gave me some that she had on hand. I found it to be the very thing for me. A few doses of the tea seemed to have cleaned out my system and made me feel

"Since then, I have kept it in my house almost all the time. I've been using Black-Draught, whenever I need a laxative, for the last ten years, and I find that it answers the purpose. I have recommended Black-Draught to many of my friends for I know it to be a good medicine."

FOR DRINKING

AND COOKING

KLIM is fresh milk powdered. Butterfat, solids, all the essential vitamins, remain.
Only the water is removed. Restore the water (directions do the can) and you have the freshest, purest, richest milk you've ever used.

Klim is ideal for drinking. Its rich milk never makes it palatable for old and young,
—the children love its taste and it's so good for them!

Klim is perfect, too, for cooking. It makes foods richer, tastier, more nutritious.

Use it as you'd use fresh liquid milk.
With Klim you've got a steady, uniform supply of milk that never fails.

Klim is economical, too. It keeps without ice in summer—never freezes in winter. It's always ready for you—on your pantry shelf.

Klim is for sale in 1, 2, 4, 6 and 9 lb. cans.
The larger size you
buy, the more you

This letter is about me and folks. I am one of your best friends. I am sometimes just crazy, and sometimes I am angry. Sometimes I am in your home and sometimes
I am in everybody's home.

I don't sleep, and folks don't mind telling me when I am awake, but I am not doing some folks don't like to tell me when I am awake. So when I get to some of these folks' houses I like there for a mighty long visit, till I am nearly home sick, sometimes I get picked around, as though I was a silly bird, and stay until I come over to you and tell you up.

This folks always say that they like me, and that they like to be around me. The only reason they say this is because when I get better or go on a long trip it is because they don't know where I am at.
Gee, I am all tired and tired out. I would like to have a nice hot bath and a good drink of milk or cream. PLEASE take me home.

BUSINESS SCHOOL ALMOST DOUBLES IN YEAR'S TIME

Success Of Pupils Is Given As One Reason For Its Popularity

The Smith-Hughes Vocational School which is conducted by Mr. James D. Moughton and which has its classrooms in the HHP building has almost doubled its enrollment since this time last year. This increase is attributed mainly to the prevention business conditions which make it easier for a number of families to get children away to college. Also this school has gained widespread popularity as a result of the reports of numbers of students who have secured lucrative positions in Sanford and elsewhere as a result of training received there.

The curriculum offers dual business and academic courses and embraces college, high school and elementary school work. An outstanding feature of the school includes weekly lectures and discussions presented by local men and women who are leaders in their own professions. There are no age limits and there are now enrolled students ranging from 14 years to 60, the only requirement for enrollment is that the applicant be engaged in some active business when he is registered.

This school derives one-half of the funds for its maintenance from other counts. The remainder is made up one-fourth from the Federal government and one-fourth from the state under the provisions of the Smith-Hughes Act which was passed in 1935 to provide for the establishment of such schools in every town of 5,000 inhabitants in the United States.

Divine Healing Is Emphasized During Revival Of Richey

Divine healing is emphasized as an evangelizing agent by Rev. A. Richey, spokesman of Full Gospel Tabernacle, State Highway and Gossage avenues. Just as Men confess God throughout the afternoon when they are sick, so He would not be turned to. Hence any other way of cure is unchristian than this, he maintains.

Richey, who has been a Christian for 30 years, says that his church is unique in that it has no pastor, but instead the services are conducted by laymen.

The young people here are taught to believe in God as the source of all good.

Mr. Richey adds from the pulpit that Jesus is concerned in spiritual things, but not in the works of the flesh. "We live by faith."

Faith, he says, can do anything.

He says that God has given him the ability to help others.

In the course of his ministry he has seen many instances of God healing the sick.
