NEW YORK (AP)—Who says there is no adventure in everyday life? The mere art of shaking hands with a stranger is a pioneering social venture into the dark unknown. To the Romans the handshake was merely a form of guarantee between two men that at the moment of meeting neither planned to huck each other to death. As in the modern world the handshake may lead to anything—from neither could draw his sword. The handshake today is no insurance against fatality. It does protect you from stabbing—but may result in your being talked to death.

NAAS personnel joined with enlisted members of the fleet units attached to the station last night in a gala party and dance which officially opened the 10th Anniversary of the United States Navy's Merit Club. George Powell, you man first officer and president of the club was pleased with the large turnout for the celebration.

Free refreshments were served from 8:00 p.m. until 8:00 p.m. and at 9:00 p.m. music was furnished by dancing by Dave Shannon and his orchestra. Included as guests at the club last night were Capt. and Mrs. J. L. Chittenden, Dr. and Mrs. E. R. Browneller, Lt. R. W. Jamney, Special Services Officer, Lt. W. J. Walker, Navy Exchange Officer, and Lt. J. M. Davidson, captain of NAAS.

While Station Personnel and a band of Photographers Squad on 12 were enjoying themselves together at the EM Club, the basketball teams of the respective units were battling each other in Orlando City League game. The high-scoring squad from VJ-2 led off to an early lead in the game and held a 14 point margin over the NAAS team at half-time. The second half was a different story, however, as Owen Seymour of an NAAS attack which closed the gap in the center and, in the final two minutes of playing time, the Station team took over and led the lead to emerge the victors in a hard fought game, 53-41.

THURSDAY FEB. 5, 1953
TODAY'S BIBLE VERSE Theologians differ radically in their beliefs. There can be no difference in men's minds about the way the Great Nazarene lived. A child can understand that way. Jesus said unto him, "I am the way."
—John 14:6.

Ruth presented one of the loveliest pictures of family devotion.
She became the ancestress of the Great Nazarene on his mother's side. She deserves great honor.
Entreat me not to leave thee, or to return from following after thee.
—Ru. 1:16.

Floridians have an unusually high degree of sympathy and understanding for the people of Holland and Western Europe when it comes to this hurricane business.

We see where Horace Stoneham is giving some thought to bringing his New York Giants to Florida.
There's a new industry we might start working on.

If business houses seem to be not quite up to their usual high degree of efficiency, don't be too hard on them. It is not easy to do the same job with half your crew and with the flu.

President Eisenhower who is an old football player himself has decided to carry the ball himself in the international game of politics.
And yet Joe Stalin is doing a lot of wondering these days which way he is going to run with it.

The first of the auto tag funds, some $4,300,000, made available for school purposes by the constitutional amendment last fall, has been released by the Cabinet. This is but a drop in the bucket, but it should help to get the program started.

Despite all the efforts of Drew Pearson to stir up trouble between President Eisenhower and Senator Taft, they were still at least reports on good speaking terms. "On only one or two minor points," said the Senator following the State of the Union message, "do we disagree".

The Tampa Tribune points out that the State payroll in Florida jumped from $38,000,000 in 1948 to $61,000,000 in 1952, after four years of Governor Warren's "frontier frugality". It would be interesting to know what would have happened if the former governor had been a frontiersman of the less frugal type.

Ralph Cowan has really accomplished miracles so far in his personal effort to put Sanford on the state's industrial map. He has of course had some help and there will be praise enough for all in the due course of time, but meanwhile Mr. Cowan has spearheaded the campaign which has raised nearly $30,000 in pledges to further the cause. That is no small task, as anyone who has ever tried to raise money in Sanford can testify.

The Eisenhower administration has launched a campaign to get rid of all homosexuals, chronic alcoholics and "blabbermouths" in government. It seems hardly necessary to add, though in fairness to all we will, that not all of those mentioned in government, or even all of those apt to be fired now, are of this category, but after what has happened in the last few years it seems important to emphasize that responsible positions in government are no place for any such characters, mental semiretards or the contrary. Even responsible and creative as a "blabbermouth" can be a dangerous

The Waterfront Buck

The longer the investigations into the New York waterfront continue the more sordid the testimony becomes and the more brazen the racketeers who have infiltrated the longshoremen's unions appear. Recently Joseph Ryan, who heads the unions of the New York docks, admitted that he knew that Murder Incorporated mobsters once took over three locals over which he had authority. He also conceded that it was possible that 30 per cent of his International Longshoremen's Association officials have criminal records.
Ryan, however, calls reports of crime along the docks "grossly exaggerated." He said he wasn't aware of any "wholesale" infiltration of the union by hoodlums.

The head of an organization is hired to direct it, to assume responsibilities to give able leadership. Ryan heads the ongshoremen at a salary of $20,000 a year with an expense account that amounted to over $241,000 in the last five years.
If, as he says, he was incapable of keeping mobsters out of his organization, he was failing in his responsibility. If he was unaware that infiltration was "wholesale," he was poorly informed on matters it was his duty to know about.
It is time that those responsible for the disgraceful conditions on the New York waterfront stop passing the buck.

Tied To China

Since 1900 when Secretary of State John Hay announced the policy of the Open Door in China, the destiny of China has been tied to the actions of the United States. On February 6, 1922, at the Washington Naval Conference, held to arrange reduction in the naval armaments among world powers, nine nations signed a pact to respect Chinese soverignty, to maintain the Open Door, and to seek no special privileges in China for their own citizens. The nations which signed the pact in addition to China and the United States were Great Britain, Japan, France, Italy, Portugal, Holland and Belgium.

The agreement stood until 1931 when Japan invaded Manchuria. The nine-power pact was written and signed with many good intentions but like so many diplomatic agreements it lacked machinery for making signers keep their word. Since 1931 China has been in constant turmoil with Japanese invaders and native Communists responsible for much of its misery and unrest.

Thirty-one years have passed since the signing of the nine-power agreement and again the destiny of China is pageone news. President Eisenhower has removed the blockade around Formosa and encouraged the Chinese Nationalists to try an invasion of the Communist held mainland? Whatever the ultimate outcome of his decision it is likely to have a great effect on the future course of world events.

Medical Science Victory

Continuous, and often heated, arguments in countless communities over the advisability of mixing fluoride in drinking water to reduce tooth decay should be settled conclusively by the six-year experiment just ended in Texas.

Even the most dubious individual must be convinced by results of carefully controlled tests made in the towns of Marshall and Jacksonville (Texas) under auspices of the American Medical Association, the American Dental Association, and the Texas States Health Department's Dental Division.

Exhaustive records were kept of children in Marshall, where fluoride was added, and those in nearby Jacksonville, where it was withheld.

Of interest to parents everywhere is the report that Marshall children have 57 per cent fewer cavities than those in the same age group in Jacksonville; 35 per cent of Marshall six-year-olds have no cavities, while only 13 per cent in Jacksonville are cavity-free; and children of all ages in Marshall have shown a steady decrease in cavity rate, while children in Jacksonville had an increase during the test period.

Communities seeking the welfare of their children would do well to study the report on the Texas experiment and obtain the advice of medical experts as to whether fluoride should be mixed with their water. It could be that the step would reduce needless tooth problems.

Judging by results of the tests, it seems that medical science and research have won another notable victory over the ailments to which man is subject. — Times-Union.

Endorsement Is Given To Army's New Coldbar Suit

By JIM BECKER
CENTRAL FRONT, Korea (AP)—
The U. S. Army's new Coldbar suit has received its first test in combat and a patrol leader who wore it gave it hearty endorsement.
"It's amazing," said Lt. William E. Aaron Jr. of Lyon, Miss. "These new suits kept me and my men warm in spite of zero weather." Plans call for the brown-colored plastic suit, named from a contraction of "cold barrier," to be issued to 3,000 infantrymen of the 2nd Infantry Regiment for mass tests.

Aaron and his patrol engaged a Communist patrol the night of Jan.
16. Tests under combat conditions were continued for several days.

The suit is worn next to the skin without undergarments of any kind. It is covered by regulation cotton field trousers and jackets to prevent snagging the spongelike material. If the suit is snagged it can be quickly patched with special tape issued with each garment.

The plastic suit creates a vapor layer next to the skin which keeps body warmth in and outside cold out—like the vapor barrier boot first used last year.

The Coldbar suit weighs about four to five pounds—eliminating eight pounds of ordinary winter combat gear.

The man wearing the new suit is in a perpetual "steam" of his own perspiration, but Aaron said the slight discomfort was more than made up by its warmth.

An Army team headed by Maj.
John W. Irving is supervising the Coldbar test. Irving says the suit will keep a man warm in temperatures as low as 50 degrees below zero.

Due to its multicellular design, the Coldbar gives a buoyancy that will keep a man afloat even when soaked down by rain, snow or blood. The amount of water that seeps into the suit through snags and tears is also reduced by temperature. The new and light successful Coldbar suits have been in use in Korea for several days. They bunkers and tents have been put on a quota basis to cut down black market operations in fuel.

Eight Army supply officers said four men living in a bunker get slightly more than five gallons of gasoline a day for their stove.

"No man will go cold," an officer said. "We haven't had any complaints yet."

As for the reported shortage of ammunition, supply officers claim artillery and mortar shells are issued to units under a quota system, but they are in plentiful supply.

An Eighth Army officer explained, "We have found the troops here are shooting slightly more ammunition than they did in similar situations in World War II. So recently we increased the shell allotment."

A front-line visit appears to confirm that there is no real shortage of anything for U. S. troops in Korea.

As one infantryman put it:
"We get enough of everything—except sleep and rotation points."

THE WORLD TODAY By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Chinese Communists' latest suggestion for ending the war not only was not new, it had been rejected last December by the United Nations, including the United States. Why, then, did they repeat it?
Perhaps for psychological reasons. President Eisenhower and his advisers seem to be strong believers in the usefulness of psychology in war. The Communists may have felt they'd give him a taste of his own medicine, but quick.

It was only last Monday that Eisenhower announced he would order the Seventh Fleet to let Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalists attack the Chinese Communist mainland from Formosa.

Whether or not such a move will have any practical military effect, the mere announcement certainly had a psychological effect here and abroad.

It got world-wide attention in spite of the fact that Chiang is in no better shape to make a big invasion now than he was before and anyway he has been making small raids on the coast from nearby islands for more than a year.

But the reaction to the announcement was mixed. Some people, especially in this country, welcomed the news, having long wanted some positive action in the stalemated war and hoping this was only the first of a series of moves.

It certainly put the Communists in the position of wondering what Eisenhower might do next.

Still, some of this country's allies were concerned about the economic, but not unpredictable, results. While Eisenhower said he wants the fleet to let Chiang hit the mainland, he was silent on what the fleet would do if the Communists attacked Formosa, by air or water.

Presumably, he'd tell the fleet to stop and protect Formosa.
That might put us deeper in the war and even widen it. At any rate, there has been concern among America's allies, who want the fleet ending the Korean war.

So the Communists, whose policy is to drive a wedge between this country and its allies if they can, may have felt, after watching the Eisenhower reaction, that this was a good time to try.

For the Communists didn't simply repeat their old but unaccepted proposal for ending the Korean fighting. They also warned this country against helping Chiang invade the China mainland.

They may have felt that, by calling for the end of the Korean war, they could jigger jittery American allies into a willingness to settle in Korea on Communist terms.

The Communists had nothing to lose, or so it seems on the face of it, by their proposal or their action. At the least they make propaganda for themselves by once more talking cease-fire.

Around the world many people may fasten onto the phrase—"cease-fire"—as a pleasant and welcome suggestion, while overlooking, or forgetting, the strings attached to it.

The truce talks in Korea have broken down because the United Nations has refused to send prisoners back to the Communists against their will. The Communists say they can be no more accommodated unless all prisoners are returned, willingly or unwillingly.

Last December the U. N. General Assembly overwhelmingly upheld the United States position: no cease-fire if it has to be obtained at the price of sending prisoners back to the Communists by force.

The Communists made their offer: a cease-fire right away and then a commission to work out the problem of prisoners. That kind of cease-fire, as far as the West was concerned, would mean argument over prisoners going on perhaps for years. The U. N. rejected the Communist offer.

The offer the Communists made last night was the same as the one the U. N. turned down in December.

between the plaintiff and defendant.

He declared that the decision of the court was as binding as any of the larger courts with the single exception where appeals are justifiable.

Explaining the procedure for filing claims in the court, Mr.
Hutchinson stated that $3.40 is the fee charged by the court to file cases involving claims up to $50 and from $150 to $250 the fee is $5.00.

This fee is paid usually by the defendant he added.

Once the judge is consulted and the fee posted by the creditor or plaintiff, he explained, the next step is for the judge to draw up the claim. The judge then must mail a summons or notice to the defendant to appear, with a copy of the claim by registered mail.
When the defendant and plaintiff appear before the judge an equitable settlement or reconciliation is attempted through the judge.

Should the defendant fail to live up to the adjustment, then the judge will automatically hand the sheriff a lien on the property over and above the defendant's $5,000 homestead exemption and $1,000 allowable personal property exemption.

The sheriff may seize with this lien any and all property necessary to settle the claim, if the defendant has any assets over and above the allowable exemptions.
"I think this court can provide a definite service to the community by expediting small claims so long as it doesn't become too technically involved in litigation," he said.

At the conclusion of Mr. Hutchinson's speech, Jaycee President Stoverson thanked the speaker and threw the meeting open for questioning by members.

Charles Atkinson was appointed to assist Dick Craig in handling the Jaycee Boy Scout drive. Superintendent of Public Instruction, Rayburn T. Millwee, will be next week's speaker, it was announced.

Family of Twelve Is Getting Along On $50 Per Week

By EARL ARONSON
PITTSFIELD, Me. (AP)—Can you rear a family of 12 young daughters and their grandfather—plus two dogs, two cats and a guinea pig—on $50 a week?

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Brooks are doing it—but it isn't easy.

The couple, both 37, and their family live in a remodeled schoolhouse four miles outside this village. Brooks earns $50 a week in the picker room of a woolen mill.

"Living on $50 a week we don't have pies and cake every day," says Mrs. Theodosia Brooks. "We do try to have it at least on Sunday."
"Everyday living on this amount requires a lot of thinking and making stretchy dishes," she said in an interview.

The heartiest meal is supper when all 15 are at home.

"We have potatoes, one-half peck a meal, plenty of vegetables and milk. We have either meat or fish once a week and use about four or five pounds. In the morning for breakfast we have cooked cereal, requiring about a half package, canned milk, toasted biscuits or graham rolls (30), coffee and cocoa.

"At noon the four little ones (the girls range in age from 14 months to 15 years, grandpa and I eat at home and have what is left over from the previous supper warmed up. Mr. Brooks and Eunice, the oldest daughter, a student at Maine Central Institute, carry their lunch. The other seven eat at school, three working during the noon hour to pay for their."

The family practically lives out-of the garden in the summer.
"We raise string beans, peas, several kinds of greens, carrots, beets, turnip, cabbage, squash, cucumbers, lettuce, radishes and sweet corn," Mrs. Brooks related.

"We put up in jars as much as we can spare for winter consumption. Also, all the older girls and I pick as many berries as we can—strawberries, blueberries, raspberries and cranberries, also canning them for winter use. Then, too, we go clamming at the coast, bringing some home to steam, fry and to make chowders."

Great amounts of vegetables given en the Brooks by friends, neighbors and relatives supplement their supply.

Fortunately, says Mrs. Brooks, the family doesn't have to buy much clothing. "We just couldn't.
Other than shoes, coats and snow suits, most everything is given to us."

Unless there is a pay raise the $50 is going to have to feed another addition to their family in mid-March.

Program Announced For Rollins Magazine

WINTER PARK, (Special)—An hour of international importance will be held at the Rollins College campus during "Founders' Week" later this month when several of the world's leaders will address the college and the public.
The President of the General Assembly of the United Nations, the Chairman of the United States Armed Forces Joint Chiefs of Staff, and the former United States Ambassador to Russia are among the speakers who have accepted invitations to appear and to speak.
The Hon. Lester Pearson, of Canada, U. N. Assembly president, will speak at the college's Convocation Day exercise Feb. 23.
The exercises will be held in Knickerbocker Memorial Chapel. The following day the U. N. convenes in New York City.
General of the Army Omar N. Bradley, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, former Army chief of staff, and commander of the largest group of men in the field in U. S. history, will contribute to the Animated Magazine Feb. 22. He will join with other notables in delivering their articles out of doors on the campus.
Admiral Alan Goodrich Kirk, former U. S. Ambassador to Russia and now Director of the Psychological Strategy Board, will appear with Gen. Bradley on the program.
Dr. Francis Thompson of the department of creative writing at Johns Hopkins University has also accepted an invitation to contribute to the magazine. Dr. Thompson has achieved recognition both as a writer and teacher of writers.
All guests of the college during Founders' Week, including the above named, have been invited to attend the Founders' Week Dinner at 7:30 p.m. Feb. 21. It will be held at the Orlando country club.

Mr. Harman Discusses Youth Delinquency

"Youth Conservation" was the subject of an informative talk by Marion Harman at the monthly luncheon of the Sanford Woman's Club yesterday. Mr. Harman pointed out the need for a recreation center where trained leaders can provide suitable recreation for children. He added that the local schools and churches should be congratulated on their efforts in providing recreation for youth but emphasized that more can be done along these lines.
Stating that according to FBI and Children's Bureau reports delinquency is increasing and that in combating delinquency recreation plays an important part, Mr. Harman added that in his opinion the key to controlling delinquency is to return to the simple life where daily prayer plays a more prominent role.
Mr. Harman was introduced to the group by Mrs. C. M. Flowers. Hostesses for the luncheon were Mrs. J. N. Gillon, chairman; Mrs. Ozer, Mrs. J. E. Courie, Mrs. R. T. Warren and Mrs. Roderick Adams.
Decorations in the club house were under the direction of Mrs. Bovee and were of fresh vegetables which were used in clever and artistic arrangements on the speaker's table, mantle, entrance table and the small tables where members and their guests were seated.
Mrs. Owen Harrison led the devotional and guests were introduced as follows: Mrs. Guy Freet and Mrs. Norman Patton of Illinois; and Mrs. Arthur Harrison of Sanford, Me.
Mrs. Flowers reminded members of the annual bridge luncheon on Feb. 11 at 1:00 p.m. which will be the first of a series of such events. She said that she doesn't have to flatter women to make them like you. You just have to understand their problems and sympathize.
A case in point was a cover Dohanos did last summer, showing a weary housewife in the kitchen of a beach cottage, drying the last dish and looking fondly at the window at her husband, stretched out on the sand enjoying a sun bath while their small son played nearby. Every line of the woman's body showed weariness, but her face showed loyal devotion. She obviously didn't mind that this vacation was just the same old grind for her—the family was having fun, says Dohanos.
"That's the stuff that gets 'em sympathetic," he said. "I'm sure of this: Dohanos, who also is one of the 12 artists conducting the "Famous Artists Course," a correspondence school for would-be artists.

Formosan Policy

"Citing the risks of Chiang attack in the China mainland, Morrison declared:
"Supposing he gets into difficulties, supposing he is defeated, supposing some of his troops are surrounded, supposing there is a naval action by Communist China against his troops in transit—what is the United States going to do then?"
"Is the United States going then actively to participate as the United States directly in warlike activities against the mainland of China or against Chinese naval forces?"
"There is a real risk that there might be major trouble between Communist mainland China and the forces of the United States."
Morrison emphasized:
"The government of the United States ought not to be under any illusion as to British public opinion about that situation if it arises."
"We should deplore it, we should not feel we could associate ourselves with it. We should think it had arisen from a mistaken policy on the part of the new President and his administration."
"We should certainly take the view that it would be wrong for British forces to be involved in those operations."
"Supposing the forces of Chiang Kai-Shek conduct a blockade against the Chinese mainland and interfere with British merchant shipping peacefully going about its business."
"I would like the foreign secretary (Anthony Eden) to inform us what her majesty's government would do. What does the Royal Navy do?"
"We could not tolerate Chiang Kai-Shek interfering with peaceful British shipping and that shipping would be entitled to the active protection of the Royal Navy."

Effie Knowles Dies At Age Of 113 Years

A venerable Negro woman, Effie Knowles, born in slavery in Lowndes county, Ga., died Tuesday at Lakeland at the age of 113 years, less than a month away from her birthday, her son, John Knowles, 69, of William Clark Court, said today.
She was born and married in slavery. The marriage ceremony, Knowles said, took place in the master's house. Her master, the son-in-law, was William Ziegler. The former slave lived in Georgia most of her life. She had eight children, five grandchildren and nine great grandchildren. A granddaughter, Pauline Walker, Knowles said, lives in Lakeland. Her other daughter, Pharisine, Barbara Lee and Patricia Walker, live in Georgia.
Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2:00 p.m. at the Mt. Pleasant A.M.E. Methodist Church, Lakeland. Burial will be in the family plot of the church cemetery.

Holland Flood

The town was destroyed. Across the North Sea in eastern England, gale whipped seas gave Dutchmen a preview of their new peril when high tides broke through hastily patched dikes along the Lancashire coast and spread again through the empty streets of Malborough and Sutton. These two towns were evacuated after the week end storm.

State Cabinet

"I am thoroughly committed to no increase in taxes," he said. "If our income dropped during the next four years through circumstances over which we have no control, there would have to be some drastic revisions of our fiscal policy."

Business Mirror

NEW YORK (AP)—What will price decontrol do to the cost of living? Merchants believe that most of the things you buy in their stores will move only slightly either way. Most pressure right now is toward price cutting rather than toward boosting.
Businessmen, however, may find a long list of materials they buy are likely to rise—mostly in the metal fields, but including probably oil, some machinery, office machines, and such specialized things as surgical instruments.
Such price rises in materials would increase the costs of making consumer goods and—if consumer demand is high enough—this cost could be passed along to you later as higher prices on many durable goods.
At present, however, the tendency is to cut prices on such things as cars—and not pass on higher costs.
The timetable of decontrol worries businessmen most right now. In the period of uncertainty some sellers may withdraw from their markets to raise prices once they get free of controls if they hold down their current sales. If this happens there will probably be a cry of shortages.
Both consumers and businessmen noted President Eisenhower's price predictions—"some up, some down."
They expect the first decontrol measures very shortly will see these products likely to be down. These include consumer items now selling well below price ceilings—like meat, some clothing and textiles still under controls, and some consumer durable goods.
These also include such raw materials as natural rubber, lead and zinc.
Last products likely to be freed from controls are those having against the price ceilings. These include copper, steel, aluminum, petroleum, and some machinery. And such consumer items as cigarettes, washing machines and of fire equipment.
But while these wait out their Down on the farm was never like this! But it is fun to pretend: These are the lovely Glamour "Tears" of Las Vegas of 1953, coming to the Central Florida Exposition, Feb. 23 through 28, Orlando Municipal Auditorium. The pert little farmerettes are all dolled up for a neighborly barn dance sequence titled "Hey Neighbor."

turn in the dying days of controls, there will be a lot of jockeying among producers and manufacturers.
Resetting prices in a free and open market—which in many cases includes world markets as well as those in the United States—will be a tough job in many cases, after the long period in which the pricing and distributing of materials has been closely controlled by governments.
Many raw materials will still be under control of foreign governments, and American businessmen will have to work out price arrangements in a half-free, half-controlled market.
But the cost of living—after a few more weeks—is going to be set in the marketplace once more. That is, it will depend upon the supply of goods available and the urge you have to buy any particular item—plus that important factor, the number of dollars you have in your pocket.
The change-over period from controls, though, may be a little rough.
Although women in Europe often received education equal to that of men in the monasteries from the 6th to the 10th Centuries, such practices died out and were not revived until the 19th Century.

It is estimated that it will cost another 10 year's work and 15 million dollars to complete the restoration of colonial Williamsburg, Va.

Oviedo's Jones Leads County With Lofty 207 Points

Driskill Of Lyman Cracks 100 Marks; Sanford's Gordon Clark Is Fourth

By KENT CHELAIN
Rampaging Johnny Jones, Oviedo's amazing 15-year-old cage wounder, cracked into the select 200-point circle with a resounding 30 production against Titusville last Tuesday night which gave the left one-hander 207 points in 11 games to continue his complete domination over all Seminole County scorers.

Jones likewise boasts of the county's leading field goal output of 37 and average points per game, 18.8. Sanford's Junior Metts, who was suspended before the Seminoles' last game, still retains his free throw mastery over all other Johnny Jones, Bobby Driskill Seminole County prep cagers with 42.

Lyman's pesky little sophomore, Bobby Driskill, maintained his second position in the basket scoring race by vaulting the century mark to 108. He is only the second cager this year to pass the 100-point figure in Seminole County.

The Longwood high school also claims the No. 3 scorer in Seminole County, Charlie Shaw, who has raked in 94 markers this year in 11 contests.

Seminole High School's leading scorer is Gordon Clark, the Frankfort, Ky. transfer who Gordon Clark, Charlie Shaw the fourth ranking county point getter with an 84-point total for nine games.

Sanford also claims fifth place with Metts who has 82 points, only two behind Clark. While the sixth high cager is not listed in the Top Five bracket, Sanford fans point with pride to Jimmy Krider, who is sixth with 79 points.

If the busy Feb. 15 date had been suspended he probably would have been in the Top Five this week.

The Oviedo Lions own the record in the county with a lofty 9-2 mark while Sanford has a dismal 3-7 count and Lyman an even lower 1-8 record.

The Seminoles travel to Titusville tomorrow night, while Oviedo will be out to extend their winning streak to nine straight when they play host to Groveland, Ky.

17th Annual Barr Umpire's School Opens Up Today

Mayor Randall Chase
And Ray Kennedy
To Attend Opening

Over 100 guests, students, officials and baseball luminaries are expected to jam the Longwood Hotel in Longwood to attend the formal opening of the 17th annual George Barr Umpire's School this afternoon at 2:00 p.m.

Both mayors, Randall Chase of Longwood, will be on hand to accord the welcoming mat for Barr and his four-man staff.

Widows of national pastime immortals, Christy Mathewson and John J. "Mugsy" McGraw, who are in Melbourne for the New York Giant farm team opening, have sent word they intend to be at Barr's 17th inaugural today.

A large delegation from Sanford will make the opening headed by Ray Kennedy, mayor general manager of the Sanford Bears, Pittsburgh Pirates and farm director of the Detroit Tigers, Florida State League umpire, X-Barr student and St. Louis Cardinal hurler Ken Burkhart is also planning to make today's inaugural.

Approximately 25 regularly enrolled students will be on hand for the first day. In addition, 16 others from the Third Army are taking the course.

Among the students registered is William Paffen, who will play in the Netherlands.

Instructors assisting Barr are Jimmy Odum and Gene Bothell, both of the Big State League, both time former Florida State League umpire, and Nick Weiss, who was assigned by the Army to assist Barr with his school in Japan for last two years.

But after eight rounds of pummeling, Harrison stumbled back to his stool for a quick freshening up. His manager, George Parnassius, took one hit at Tommy and called it quits. So it went into the record as a ninth-round TKO under Michigan rules.

Harrison was hopelessly behind on all official's scorecards when Parnassius tossed in the towel. The only round he took on all cards was the fourth, and that only because a low hit at Tommy and Charles, weighing 187, had an advantage of nearly six pounds on his 23-year-old opponent from Los Angeles. But his skill and experience edge was even more decisive.

Of the regular 1952 National League shortstop, Chicago Cub Roy Smalley played the last number of games at the position. He was in 82.

neither team was ever ahead more than six points, and in the last quarter the edge was never more than three.

With the score tied, 75-75, Edvin Hansel put Stetson on top with two free throws and Ingmund raced in with his clincher.

Mel Yanuck paced Miami with 17 points.

Yankees Have Largest Payroll But Are Unable To Sign Players

By WILL GRIMSLEY
NEW YORK (AP)—The New York Yankees have close to a million dollars they're ready to ladle out in salaries—the largest payroll put in baseball history—but no club is having more trouble getting diamond employees under contract.

The players' theme song seems to be: "No, gimme more."

"You don't realize what a problem it is to sign up a ball club that has won four straight world championships," said George Weiss, general manager of the Yankee empire and the man with the chronic winter headache.

"I don't think there's an organized boycott campaign or anything like that. Each of these fellows figures he was greatly instrumental in our success and he wants his reward on the pay check."

The Yankees have signed only two of their regulars for the 1953 season while most other clubs are announcing signings in clusters. The Brooklyn Dodgers, the Yankees' victims in the last World Series, for instance, have signed all of their players.

The two regulars who have come to terms are catcher Yogi Berra, who autographed a contract for a reported $40,000, and infielder Gil McDougald, who signed for what's believed to be around $20,000.

Allie (Big Chief) Reynolds, who has had two tremendous years with the world champions, failed to get any satisfactory offers in a conference with Roy Hamey, assistant general manager, who does the

Fain Is Highest Paid Player Ever To Sign Sox Pact

CHICAGO (AP)—Ferris Fain, two-year American League batting champion today perhaps the highest paid player ever signed by the Chicago White Sox, reportedly coming to terms for more than $20,000.

Fain, 32, who earned a reported $28,500 last season with the Philadelphia Athletics, needed just a two-minute phone conversation with Sox General Manager Frank Lane to agree on a 1953 contract.

Fain inherits the top-salary role enjoyed last season by Eddie Robinson, who was swapped for Fain in a five-player trade.

Fain led the American loop with a .327 batting average after winning the 1951 crown with .344. He was the sixth American league batter ever to win two or more successive titles.

Fain was tops in the league last season in getting on bases, 282 times on 170 hits, and walked and one time as a hit batsman.

TAMPA (AP)—Tampa drivers finished one-two in the All-Florida automobile race today, Florida State Fairgrounds Wednesday with a Miami thray.

Clay Williams Will Play Mayfair Net Pro This Evening

Clay Williams, runner-up in last year's Sanford City tennis championship, will play Mayfair Inn net professional, Bill Sweeney at the Mayfair courts tonight in the featured exhibition match of the evening.

Charles Morrison will officiate the match. Several matches will be played under the lights on this evening's schedule. The public is invited free of charge. Sweeney said.

Gators Gain In SEC By Beating Auburn

By The Associated Press
Thanks to second half rallies, Florida grabbed a firmer grip on the SEC title and Georgia Tech moved into a tie for fourth in the Southeastern Conference basketball championship race last night.

Both teams won close ones. Florida downed Auburn 66-62, and Tech defeated Georgia 78-73. Auburn led Florida at halftime 40-37, and Georgia was ahead of Tech 39-33 at the intermission.

The losing teams came up with the high scorers. Guard Ippy Morocco of Georgia got 29, and Tech guard Eric Crake sparked the Engineers with 27. Center Bob Miller led the Auburn attack with 18, while forward Roy Roberts and guard Sonny Powell pushed in 14 for Florida.

LSU still leads the league with a 60 mark, Florida is second (41), Tulane third (42), Alabama and Tech are tied for fourth (43), and Vanderbilt and Tennessee are tied for sixth (44). Then come Auburn and Mississippi State, each with 14 records, Mississippi (1-5), and Georgia (0-8).

Seminole Blues Collect $1,775 And Will Enter FSL, Says Prexy

NEW YORK (AP)—The talk in the office of the New York Giants had for some time concerned that vanishing type of American known as the 300 hitter. There had been various interesting theories as to why this once-flourishing breed is going the way of the passenger pigeon and the buffalo.

One member of the seminar insisted that they simply are not turning out the kind of batters they used to, when almost any club boasted two or three players who consistently batted .300 or better, which traditionally separates the men from the boys. Another felt equally certain that improved pitching has steadily taken its toll.

However, Callahan said he was trying to sign a manager before the league meeting, but refused to divulge the name of the prospective pilot.

State League directors are faced at next Sunday's meeting with naming a successor to John Krider as the FSL president. Krider resigned suddenly at the circuit convalesce in Crescent City in January.

The three most often mentioned candidates for the post are Peter Schaal, Silver Springs; Bill Terry, former New York Giant first baseman who resides in Jacksonville; and Dr. Huntley, Orlando.

Joe Black of the Dodgers needed 151 innings, or eight more than he pitched, to lead the National League officially in last year's ERA. His ERA was 2.15.

Giant Hoyt Wilhelm led the league with 2.43 based on 159 innings.
