Casselberry Church To Welcome Minister

By JANE CASSEBERRY
Members of the Casseberry First Presbyterian Church will welcome their new full-time minister, Rev. John N. Montgomery and his family Sunday.

Orlando Baptists To Host Convention

Florida Baptists, meeting Nov. 14 through Nov. 16 for a state convention at the First Baptist Church of Orlando, will be challenged to start 250 new churches and missions next year, by Dr. John Maguire, executive secretary of the convention.

Young Churchmen Enjoy Halloween Supper And Party

The Junior Episcopal Young Churchmen of Sanford's Holy Cross Church celebrated Halloween at a picnic supper and party in Fort Mellon Park Sunday afternoon.

Elder To Open Adventists Appeal

Elder Walter L. Nazat, leader of the Sabbath School and Home Missionary Dept., Adventists' Florida Conference, will be speaker at the Forest Lake Seventh-day Adventist Church Saturday at 10:30 a. m. and Claire, arrived this week from Fort Myers and will live at 2036 Chippewa Trail in Demmerich Hills.

Attending college in Grove City, Pa., and a graduate of Princeton Theological Seminary, Rev. Montgomery served as a Navy Chaplain during World War Two and the Korean Conflict. His former pastorates include First United Presbyterian Churches in Miami, Clewiston and Green Cove Springs.

He will conduct his first service in Casseberry at the 11 a. m. Sunday Worship Hour in the Women's Club Building on Overbrook Dr. which is serving the congregation as a temporary meeting place.

Serving the church since the resignation of former pastor, William Benson, has been Rev. Earl G. Harris of Winter Park. Members feel fortunate in having such a man fill the pulpit, even though on a temporary basis, for he has worked diligently at helping reorganize the church and making personal calls on its members.

Rev. Harris and his wife were missionaries from Africa who retired four years ago after 33 years of service in the field and in the Presbyterian Church. A member of the North Florida Presbytery, he often is called from retirement to serve in cases of need.

The Harris' daughter is a missionary in Brazil and their son is studying for the ministry at the Biblical Seminary in New York.

Sunday School of the Casseberry Presbyterians meets at 9:45 a. m. M. O. Kent of Longwood serves as organist for both the worship services and Sunday school meetings.

Inquirers Class Begins Sunday At Holy Cross
An Adult Inquirers Class will meet for the first time Sunday evening at Sanford's Holy Cross Episcopal Church.

To be conducted on a weekly basis between the hours of 8 p. m. and 9:30 p. m., this class and the Children's Confirmation Class which begins today at 4 p. m., are free of any costs and are open to the public according to Fr. John W. Thomas, rector.

"We would like it clearly understood that attendance in either of these classes entails no obligation on the part of any member of a class," he advised.

Rev. John T. Adams To Conduct Service At Ebenezer Church

Rev. John T. Adams of the Sanford First Methodist Church will be the guest minister at Ebenezer Church for 11 a. m. services Sunday.

Based on the theme, "The Community Challenge," this will be

Central Baptist Family Expected Home In December

Capt. and Mrs. L. E. Tew, members of Sanford's Central Baptist Church who are now in Ethiopia, will come home for a visit in December.

The Tewes are much loved in the mission community they serve and he, as an Ethiopian Air Lines pilot, cheers many hearts as he flies over lonely mission stations giving them a "buzz" in greeting.

A report on the family in a mission magazine reads, "Smiles broaden on the faces of our travelers at the Addis Ababa Airport or at an airstrip in the interior when the words, 'Lem is pilot today,' are heard.

Mission personnel in this land depend greatly on the EAL for through its services travel time to and from stations is cut by days and sometimes weeks. In many cases, it is the only means of transportation except for mule trek and food and other supplies are hastened to stations by the airlines."

Members of the Central Baptist WMS Lou Ellen Circle, which was named for Mrs. Tew, reported the family's forthcoming visit after learning their plans at a covered dish luncheon held Thursday at the Church.

'Don't Do It...! Let Church Youths Wash The Cars

Sanford residents, who, due to the particularly dry and dusty atmosphere coupled with Halloween, had decided they couldn't put it off a minute longer but just MUST wash the car this weekend, can forget it!

"Don't wash your cars, let us do it . . . We promise a personal touch for each job with special care given to the whitewalls," said Susie Halback, secretary of the Senior Episcopal Young Churchmen of Holy Cross Church.

Members of the organization will put young muscles and youthful energies to work from 9 a. m. until 5 p. m. Saturday at Warren's Phillips 66 Station on Park Ave. at Third St. when they sponsor the carwash as a money-raising project.

Scotland was settled by Scots, Picts, British and Angles. The Romans called the land Caledonia.

Church Of Christ Sets Revival

William Hatcher, a man of 20 years experience in church work and foreign missions, will conduct nightly revival services at the Church of Christ next week.

From Garland, Tex., Hatcher has done foreign mission work in Italy, Germany and in Greece and has served churches in the United States in Pensacola and in Detroit, Mich., in addition to the congregation in Garland.

William Beck of the Sanford Church at 1512 Park Ave has extended an invitation to the public for the services of the revival which opens Sunday with meetings to begin each day at 7:30 p. m.

Church Teachers Hear Book Review

Church School Teachers of Holy Cross Episcopal Church, attending the October training session heard a book-review of "The Rough Years" written by Chad Walsh.

Fr. John Griffith, director of the church school department, in giving the review pointed out that "this is a book presenting teenagers to us, not as we might like to see them, but as they actually are." The book is available to all members of the teaching staff.

The group also saw a film-strip taken from the forthcoming MGM movie, "The King of Kings."

The resignation of Mrs. Alice Finn, fourth grade teacher who is in ill health, was accepted with regret.

Castle Class Plans Supper

Members of the Castle Class of the First Methodist Church will meet at 7 p. m. Saturday in McKinley Hall for a supper.

Ben Wiggins, president of the class, and Mrs. Ted Williams, supper chairman, promise an evening of fun and fellowship and advise that a nursery will be available for the children.

Thurber's Death Saddens Literary World

NEW YORK (UPI) — In death, the boy who roamed the streets of Columbus, Ohio, as Jamie Thurber will return to that Midwestern wilderness of his humor — his talent now compared with that of Mark Twain.

James Thurber died late Thursday at 66. The author-humorist-cartoonist-playwright had entered Doctors Hospital a month ago for surgery for a blood clot on the brain. Pneumonia set in this week.

Burial was scheduled in the Thurber family plot in Columbus, the town where he was born "on a night of wild portent and high wind in the year 1894" and grew up amid a family of glorious eccentricity, which had a passion for Civil War and dogs — one of which bit the lieutenant-governor of Ohio but was immediately, according to his mother, sorry.

In its obituary today, the New York Herald Tribune called Thurber "perhaps the greatest humorist this country has known since Mark Twain, but, like Twain, he was far more."

Danny Kaye, the comedian who starred in the movie made from Thurber's short story "The Secret Life of Walter Mitty," said he believed Thurber was a humorist of Twain's stature and that "Walter Mitty" would be as universal and immortal as "Huckleberry Finn."

William Shawn, editor of the New Yorker, the magazine on which Thurber began his rise to fame in 1927, called Thurber "a master among comic artists, one of the great American writers of our time, and one of the few great humorists in all literary history . . . his writings and drawings were loved by millions of people throughout the world."

James Grover Thurber wrote some 25 books and did thousands of comic cartoons; he did essays, sketches, New Yorker "essays," a full-length biography of New Yorker founder Harold Ross; he co-authored the play "The Male Animal" with his former Ohio State University schoolmate Elliott Nugent; he acted in the recent musical "A Thurber Carnival," made from his writings.

And yet, for the last two decades he had been, for all practical purposes, blind. When he was 56, he lost his left eye in an accident. Surgery failed to help; gradually, he lost his right.

CONTROL APHIDS ON CABBAGE WITH ORTHO THIODAN

ORTHO Thiodan gives outstanding control of aphids on cabbage, as well as worms and loopers. Residues on sprayed plants remain effective longer than some other commonly used insecticides, thus providing savings in spray material as well as reducing the number of applications needed during the growing season. ORTHO Thiodan is compatible with most fungicides, and easy to use. For better crops that produce greater dollar returns—try ORTHO Thiodan.

City Soon To Occupy Old Jail

The City will take over the old county jail in about two weeks and City Manager W. E. Knowles said today he will ask the City Commission to move the utilities department into the building with the second and third floors to be used by the police department as a future jail. Knowles said he hopes to make an inspection of the building to check on the plumbing and other facilities there.

He added that he favors using the first floor for the utility department with possible drive-in windows so residents could pay their water bills there.

Knowles also said that the building could be modified for use as a possible fallout shelter.

He declined to elaborate on just how much of the building would be repaired or renovated.

"It could cost $200 to $2,000," he added.

Sheriff J. L. Hobby said this morning he hopes to be completely moved out of the building in about two weeks.

Last year, the county turned the jail over to the city for $1 and an exchange of property.

Light Vote Seen Tuesday

A light turnout for Tuesday's city commission election and countywide school trustee election was predicted today by registration officials.

In the City Commission race, incumbent Joe Baker will square off against political newcomers Mrs. Rita Crews and Chester Oxford.

The polls will open at 7 a. m. and close at 7 p. m.

City Registration Officer Henry Tamm Jr. predicted that only about 900 persons would turn out at the polls, based on past voting records.

At the present time there are 3,514 registered voters. Tamm said the small turnout was predicted because there is no major county election scheduled.

In the 1960 city election, with two city seats open, 1,393 of the 3,474 registered voters turned out.

Tamm said that the votes would be tabulated a little after 7 p. m. and that the City Commission will meet in special session at noon Wednesday to officially canvass all the votes.

In the school board trustee election, the only contested race will be between Don Bales and Margaret Eichelberger. Unopposed in their respective elections will be Ray Blanton and Fred Bistline.

County voters also will vote on the district millage requested by the school board for the operation of the schools throughout the next two years. The millage is the same—2.75 mills for the district and one mill for the district building and bus fund levy for a total district millage of 3.75.

The 23 county voting precincts will be open from 7 a. m. to 7 p. m. and Supervisor of Registration Camilla Bruce today urged freeholders to bring their registration cards with them to the polls.

Supt. of Schools R. T. Milwee anticipates a light vote.

12 West Berlin Police Rout 200 Border Reds

BERLIN (UPI)—A dozen West Berlin police today beat back about 200 Communist police supported by armored personnel carriers and water cannon in a border battle with tear-gas grenades, West Berlin police reported.

Although outnumbered more than 16 to 1, Western police managed to pull down a wire fence which the Communists had put up on West Berlin territory.

The Communists threw 30 tear-gas grenades with explosive charges. The West Berliners retaliated with 60.

The incident occurred along a 200-yard stretch of the Wilhelmstrasse railway yard at the French sector border with East Germany.

A second tear-gas battle occurred at another section of the border. The East Germans did not use their guns but they opened fire at two other border points and captured two refugees at gunpoint.

The Wilhelmstrasse battle started when six West Berlin workmen protected by 12 policemen began removing a wire fence the Western police said had been built by the Communists three feet inside Western territory.

Sixty East German policemen arrived and demanded the workmen be stopped. The West Berliners ignored them. Another 140 Communist police arrived in armored personnel carriers, wearing steel helmets and with sub-machine guns.

West Berlin police said the tear-gas battle lasted an hour and a half and when it was over they continued to pull down the fence without further interference.

Firemen Find All Rooms Saturated With Kerosene

Fire Department officials today opened an investigation into a house fire at 805 Laurel Ave. which was gutted by fire early this morning and all the rooms "saturated with kerosene," Fire Chief Mack Cleveland said today.

No one was in the house at the time of the blaze, Cleveland said. Firemen fought the blaze for three hours and only fast work by fire crews stopped the fire from spreading to neighboring homes.

"We are definitely investigating arson in this case," Cleveland said. The home is owned by Nathan Italey, who according to Cleveland, was out-of-town at the time of the blaze.

The fire, which started in the living room and quickly spread to the rest of the house, was discovered by patrolmen at 8:54 a. m.

It was at first believed that there were children in the house at the time. Fire crews waded through rubble and heavy smoke but found only a 10 gallon jug filled with two gallons of gasoline in the living room.

The six room frame house was heavily damaged, according to Cleveland who said he could not estimate the damage yet in dollars and cents.

Gunman Kills Youth; Girl Flees Shots

SOUTH BOSTON, Va. (UPI)—A lovers' lane gunman Sunday night shot and killed a teen-ager sitting in a car with his girl friend and fired at the girl when she ran for help.

Officers said Tommy Joe Howell, 18, was killed by three bullets fired at close range which struck him in the back of the neck. The girl, Becky Solomon, 16, escaped injury. Officers had few clues and gave no motive for the killing.

Sheriff C. T. Coates and state troopers rushed to the area with bloodhounds in a futile search for the assailant. "We've ruled out jealousy," Coates said today. "The girl had never dated anyone but this boy."

Officers said the bullets were fired at close range through the open window of young Howell's car.

They quoted Miss Solomon as saying Howell told her before he died to drive away, but the car failed to start and she ran for a farm house while the gunman fired at her.

Navy Over Top In UF Campaign

Latest returns from V-11, deployed aboard the USS Independence with the Sixth Fleet in the Mediterranean has pushed Heavy Attack Wing One over the top in the United Fund drive, with a total pledged combined contribution from all squadrons of $1,829.75. Capt. Joe Tully headed the drive for the squadrons.

The Naval Air Station under Capt. Robert Slye also went over the top in their drive with a combined total of all departments of $1,383, giving a grand total of all Navy of $3,222.16 or 104 percent of quota.

Seminole County Laundry and Southside School also report 100 percent participation in their groups. Thursday, UF workers and leaders will hold a Victory luncheon at the Civic Center at 12:15.

City Acts In Rabies Threat

The City today took a decisive step to stop the spread of rabies throughout the city after a rabid skunk was discovered and killed.

City Manager W. E. Knowles said the skunk attacked several animals just south of the city limits.

Missing Navy Plane Sought

JACKSONVILLE, Fla. (UPI)—The Navy and Coast Guard began a search along Florida's east coast at dawn today for a missing twin-engine anti-submarine plane carrying four persons.

The plane, an S2F Tracker, took off from the Jacksonville naval air station Sunday night bound for Homestead Air Force Base in Miami, apparently on a training mission.

Another S2F with the missing plane turned back after running into rough weather near St. Augustine. The second plane reported it was also returning to Jacksonville, but was not heard from again.

Both planes were attached to the New Orleans naval air station, the Navy here said. The Squadron is a recently reactivated reserve unit.

Bombing Derby Flights Planned

Tuesday will be another busy time for the flight crews participating in the Bombing Derby. During the day the crews will fly that night.

The crews will leave Sanford, fly north, and return at a low altitude. Each crew will be graded on the amount of error they have at each given check point. Also, exact timing must be adhered to and will also count in the final score for the Low Level Navigation Mission. Provided all check points are met exactly, and on time, a perfect score of 300 points will be obtained.

V-11, last year's winner, will be defending the Bombing Derby trophy.

Breezy Inga Eyes Brownsville Area

TAMPICO, Mexico (UPI)—Tropical storm Inga moved slowly through the Gulf of Mexico early today toward the Texas coast but the Weather Bureau said it should lose most of its punch by the time it reaches land.

The storm, packing winds of 55 miles per hour, was located about 140 miles northeast of Tampico early today and moving about five miles per hour northward. Its present course could take it inland near Brownsville, Tex.

Ship With Crew Of 68 Explodes, Sinks

TUNIS (UPI)—The 7,129-ton Scottish steamer Clan Keith, carrying a crew of 68, exploded Sunday night in heavy seas and sank early today about 20 miles off the Tunisian coast.

The Tunisian shipping radio station said 60 persons were missing and eight had been rescued.

A French freighter spotted two bodies floating in the water, the station said, and the British warship Blake picked up another body.

The agency said that rain that fell Saturday in Fukuoka contained 600,000 counts or 1.820 micromicrocuries per cubic centimeter.

This compared with a previous high of 1,047, micromicrocuries measured on April 6, 1957—a time when the United States still was setting off nuclear test explosions in the South Pacific.

Saturday's measurement, coming five days after the Soviet Union exploded a super-nuclear bomb of 50 megatons or more, was by far the highest recorded in Japan since the Soviet Union resumed nuclear testing Sept. 1.

The previous high was on Oct. 26 when 240 micromicrocuries was measured in Yonaka City.

Japan Reports High Radioactive Fallout

TOKYO (UPI)—The Central Meteorological Agency cautioned Japanese today to cover open wells and filter rain and river water used for drinking as the result of a record level of radioactive fallout from Soviet nuclear tests.

The agency said there was no immediate danger to health but that ample precautions should be taken in case the level of fallout continued high.

Drainage Plan Report Nov. 14

County Commissioner Vernon Dunn will present a report on the proposed joint Seminole-Orange County drainage and water control plan at the board's next meeting Nov. 14.

Dunn said that last year the local board held several joint meetings with Orange County commissions discussing flood conditions.

The fact that an extensive area of North Orange County drains in a northeasterly direction through Seminole in the Little Wekiva River, Howell Branch and the Little Econlockhatchee River into Lake Jessup and the St. Johns River was the basis of an agreement that plans for both counties must coincide, Dunn said.

Dunn said that an engineering report on the drainage and water control program for Howell Creek has been received and added he would present a summary of the plan next Tuesday.

Injured Youth's Condition Good

A Sanford youth was reported in good condition today at Seminole Memorial Hospital after he was hit by a car on Sanford Ave. where he was bicycling Saturday.

The youth, Steve Vickers, of 114 Coleman Circle, received cuts and bruises. The driver of the car, Robert Jolly, was not charged in the mishap.

Hurricane Kills 22

ATHENS (UPI)—A hurricane that struck in three stages and produced man-killing floods and left thousands homeless and many dead throughout Greece today, the Ministry of the Interior said 22 persons were dead, more than 200 injured and some 3,000 homeless.

U.S. Unveils Electronic Computer Center Which Will Check Tax Returns

MARTINSBURG, W. Va. (UPI) — Treasury Secretary Douglas Dillon today dedicated a modern, electronic computer center which by 1966 will give the once-over the tax return of every American.

Dillon hailed the center in prepared remarks as "a giant stride toward collecting all taxes on a single basis."

He said the center would make life "far more difficult for the foolish few who are tempted to cheat or to evade."

The Internal Revenue Service (IRS) has estimated that some $25 billion of income is unreported every year. The taxes on this sum might come to $5 billion or more.

The National Computer Center, a one-story, flat-roofed new $750,000 building here is called the core of a new automatic data processing system the revenue service is gradually putting into use.

The service is adopting automatic data processing for two reasons:

—To make it physically possible to keep up with rapid growth in paper work Internal Revenue handles. The number of returns received by the service is expected to climb from this year's 95 million to 110 million in 1970 and 135 million in 1980.

—To crack down on tax cheaters mainly those who under-report their income, claim refunds they are not entitled to and take excessive deductions. Tougher enforcement will be accomplished by electronic means and also through the freeing of agents from routine manual paperwork.

"The new technique will not dehumanize our tax administration," Dillon said. "It will not be man against machine—the individual taxpayer versus a giant, impersonal monster that thrives only on numbers."

Rather, he said, IRS employees will have more time to give personal assistance to taxpayers who need it.

M. W. Phillips Rites Tuesday

Malcolm W. Phillips, 53, died Friday afternoon at Seminole Memorial Hospital here after a short illness. He was born March 11, 1908 in Bear Creek, Ala., and had lived in Osteen for 40 years.

He is survived by two daughters, Miss June Phillips, Newark, N. Y.; Mrs. Joan Mobbs, Lyons, N. Y.; and his two grandchildren: mother, Mrs. Rose J. Phillips, Osteen; two sisters, Mrs. Cecil Flowers, Sanford and Mrs. J. H. Nelwander, DeBary; four brothers, Ralph V., New Smyrna Beach, Neil C., Sanford, Talton H., Jacksonville, James F., Jacksonville.

Funeral services will be at 3 p. m. Tuesday at the Brison Funeral Home with William Beck officiating. Interment in Oaklawn Memorial Park.

Pallbearers include Walter Bridges, Jim Crowe, Bert Studebaker, Rufus Benton, Lee Hunter, Raymond Schaal.

St. Johns Boat Group Elects

Gene Meadors of Winter Park was re-elected president of the St. Johns River Marathon Assn. Sunday and two Sanford men also were re-elected as officers.

D. H. MacGillis was named secretary for another year and J. Leon Taylor re-elected treasurer of the association which stages the annual Sanford-Jacksonville race for outboard boats. L. M. Howard of Jacksonville remains as vice president.

The association met at Shell Harbor near Welaka to set May 16 as the date for the annual marathon, changing it from a Saturday event to Sunday to give drivers more time to check in for the race.

Meadors' first action after re-election was to appoint a committee to review rules for the big race and that group will report on its findings at a meeting Dec. 10.

All-Night Sing

The Sanford Firemen are sponsoring their annual All-Night Gospel Sing, at the Civic Center, 8 p. m. Nov. 17.

The sing is sponsored to raise funds for the Sanford Firemen's Benefit Fund and all Firemen have tickets to the show.

The famous "Big Jim Waits" from Atlanta, Ga., will be one of the singers. Others are the Florida Boys from Pensacola, The Harmoners from Atlanta and the Harmonetts from Pahokee.

seek it. The new system also will permit earlier mailing of refund checks and improve chances that a check will get to taxpayer who has moved.

The center is scheduled to start checking business tax returns from seven Southern states in January. A year later it will also receive returns from Middle Atlantic states and business returns from the Middle Atlantic states.

By 1966, Internal Revenue Commissioner Mortimer M. Caplin predicted, returns of every taxpayer in the nation will be checked here.

The actual returns will not go to Martinsburg. Nine regional service centers will code information on the returns on punch cards and then magnetic tapes.

Voice Of America Aims Barrage At Russia

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The truth is great and shall prevail. A massive radio effort to tell the Russian people about the world's revolution at their government's nuclear testing apparently broke through intensive Soviet jamming Sunday.

The Voice of America (VOA), which sent the special Sunday punch on the airwaves, said preliminary reports indicated the Communists were unable to block most of the 80 frequencies used in the unparalleled broadcasts.

So far, the only news the Soviet citizens have received from their government about its nuclear tests was Premier Nikita Khrushchev's recent remark at the Communist party congress that Russia had exploded a bomb of more than 50 megatons.

They had not been told of the increase in radioactivity, of appeals from other countries for an end to the testing, of scientists' fear for the future of mankind.

Using the theme "have you been told," the Voice abandoned its regular programming and began eight hours of almost continuous broadcasting of the Soviet nuclear tests at 6 p. m. Moscow time (11 a. m. EST) Sunday.

It used as many as 52 transmitters generating some 4,331,000 watts to get the word to the Russian people in eight languages—English, Russian, Ukrainian, Georgian, Armenian, Lithuanian, Estonian and Latvian.

The concentration of broadcast signals, equal to more than 86 of the strongest U. S. radio stations, was the greatest ever aimed at the Iron Curtain. It included a million-watt medium wave signal from the VOA transmitter in Munich as well as short wave transmissions.

The VOA's barrage was augmented by a similar broadcast concentration from Radio Liberty, a privately supported network beaming programs to the Soviet Union.

Radio Liberty used transmitters in Western Europe and the Far East with a total power of 1,260,000 watts on 24 frequencies to broadcast repeatedly the true story to the Russians in five languages.

To keep the truth from their own people, the Communists used 2,000 jamming transmitters in an effort to blot out the VOA and Radio Liberty broadcasts. But Voice officials said broadcast conditions were unusually good. Monitors in Washington even picked up a 35-kilowatt relay station in Ceylon aiming its message to central Russia.

There were no estimates on how many Russians might have been able to hear the broadcasts. VOA officials hoped, however, that those who did hear them would spread the word to their fellow Russians.

Mrs. Sarah Ann Cowan, 75, died Saturday morning at the Seminole Memorial Hospital here following an illness of more than a year. She had lived in Sanford for 37 years on South Cameron Avenue. She was a member of the First Presbyterian Church of Sanford and of the Beardall Chapel and Circle.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. Annie Mae Howard, Miss Jennie Cowan, Miss Mary Etta Cowan, all of Sanford; two sons, Frank W. Cowan and William A. Cowan both of Sanford; three grandchildren, two great-grandchildren and one brother, Albert Woods, Monticello, Ind.

Would Have Muzzled Walker Too -- Truman

CHICAGO (UPI)—Former President Truman, displaying the same nerve and shoot-from-the-hip frankness that characterized his years in office, said Sunday President Kennedy was right when he "muzzled" Gen. Edwin A. Walker.

"He should have been muzzled," the former Chief Executive said. "I'd have muzzled him if I were President."

Walker was relieved of his command recently following charges that he attempted to indoctrinate his troops with anti-Communist beliefs. He was transferred to a lesser job in Germany and resigned several days ago.

Truman himself was an expert at "muzzling" military leaders. He fired former Gen. Douglas MacArthur when the well-known war hero disagreed publicly with the policies of the Truman administration.

Truman, in Chicago with Mrs. Truman during a brief stopover between trains, was asked if he believed the United States should resume nuclear tests in the atmosphere.

"Of course," he replied. "I never was for stopping them in the first place."

On fallout shelters, Truman's response was terse: "If you're afraid of fallout, build your shelter," he said. "If you're not, you don't need it."

Pacing down the long near-empty platform in the Sunday morning chill, the former president, dressed in a brown overcoat and hat, indicated it wasn't easy for him to answer questions while walking in cold weather.

"I'm 78 years old now," he said.

Truman, en route to Kansas City, was in New York Saturday campaigning for Mayor Robert F. Wagner, in the mayor's bid for re-election, and in New Jersey Friday to stump for Richard J. Hughes, the Democratic gubernatorial candidate.

1000 Parents 'Go To School' In Altamonte

The October Parent - Teacher Conference Day at Altamonte Springs Elementary School was attended by more than 1000 parents.

This was the initial conference of the second year the plan has been used at Altamonte Elementary and faculty members feel that much is accomplished through the resulting close relationships between the parents and the teachers.

During the day, mothers and fathers visited their children's rooms at proscheduled times for 15-minute sessions with teachers. Overall, discussion was centered around the reading-level groupings, daily work and effort and report cards of the first six-week period.

Junior Olympics Set Nov. 25

The Pre-Teen group of the Sanford Recreation Dept. is planning a Junior Olympics to be held Nov. 25.

Included in the Olympics will be such events as: running and standing broad jumps; 25-50-100 yard dashes; softball throw; ball kick and jump rope for girls.

Before the final contest there will be classes held to instruct the youngsters in the basic fundamentals of each event. The only regulations governing the Junior Olympics will be that each child will be allowed to enter no more than three running events, and no more than three events from the remaining five.

AF Perfects System That Can Order Jets Into Action Fast

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Despite its growing arsenal of anti-aircraft and anti-missile missiles, the Air Force still is trying to bolster the combat effectiveness of its old standby—jet fighters. The Air Force Systems Command at nearby Andrews Air Force Base, Md., Sunday night announced perfection of an electronic communications system that can issue attack orders instantaneously to hundreds of manned fighters.

Officials said the device, called Time Division Data Link (TDDL), makes interception of a target by jets as automatic as it is with pilotless missiles. Project personnel have nicknamed it "Tiddle."

The process employs a ground-based electronic computer to calculate commands for an aerial battle and instruct the pilots to perform interceptions. The signals also can be fed directly to automatic pilots aboard the planes.

Maj. Hollie A. Wilkes of the Electronic Systems Division said "Tiddle"-operated planes have these advantages over missiles: —The manned aircraft can be recalled from a mission. —They allow for positive, human, identification of a target. —They allow for use of human judgment.

Wilkes pointed out, that keeping final authority to a pilot was particularly important in case of a malfunction. He said a pilot might be able to continue the attack if the machine failed.

No Athletes, They

We've all seen pictures of the underground railway that takes our senators from the two Senate office buildings to the Capitol for debate and action on legislation.

Well, evidently quite a few either get car sick or just don't like to travel that much. For some 30 of the 100 senators have small offices in the Capitol itself, and the number will rise to 60 when the new Capitol addition is finished soon.

Sen. William Proxmire of Wisconsin says these "hideaways" are a luxury and wholly unnecessary. But separating senators from luxury never has worked very well.

We might make more headway if we argued that their tendency to limit their foot and rail travel on the hill is a gross violation of President Kennedy's physical fitness program.

Dr. Crane's Worry Clinic

Joe shows the typical psychology of a patient who is not really ill. He is making a total slave out of his wife. She should call his bluff and get out for an afternoon to obtain some recreation and relief.

CASE K-441: Joe M., aged 62, has been bedfast for several weeks. "Dr. Crane, he has almost worn me out," his elderly wife protested.

"He moans and groans half the night and always wants me to be at his elbow to wait on him.

"The past week or two I've been so tired and I didn't get up as promptly as he thought I should, so he's been cursing me and saying I want him to die.

"He now argues much of the time about my lack of interest in him and says he is dying.

"Yesterday he told me he wouldn't last another week. Dr. Crane, I try to do the best I can for him but you know it is pretty hard waiting on a sick man."

Joe isn't dying. When patients grumble and complain, they seldom are fatally ill.

And if a husband can curse at his wife or quarrel with his nurse, he still has surplus vitality.

When people are seriously ill and at death's door, they are seldom in the mood to complain or argue, for every bit of energy is required to fight off the infection. So irritable patients are usually getting better.

If your sick baby lies quietly in bed and doesn't play with its toys or show interest in external reality, then that baby is probably in the valley of the shadow. That's when the doctor's don't waste any time shooting the works to help tip the scales in favor of life vs. death.

But when patients, either child or adult, complain and grumble, or sneak out of bed to watch television, they have a surplus of energy and are usually not critically ill, despite their fever.

It is the listless, prostrated patients who are sick. The argumentative kind are usually getting well or have chronic ailments that may be painful but not fatal.

Baby Sitters
Since invalids require almost as much attention as babies, you members of the family in constant attendance deserve a half day holiday.

Then go to the movies and divert your mind from your long vigils at the bedside at home.

Even if you have a patient who really is dying of some incurable ailment, but who will probably last for weeks or months, you should not exhaust yourself by too constant vigils at the bedside.

Take at least one afternoon off per week so you can break the tension and obtain a little wholesome recreation.

Some crotchety middle aged husbands grow to be veritable tyrants when they become sick. They even accuse their wives of not loving them if the latter want to go out just for an afternoon.

But don't let such childish criticisms disturb you unduly. Go out anyway! For you need it and you will also be better appreciated by your mate when you come back.

Besides, if you don't assert yourself, the usual chronic patient will soon make you a complete slave. So teach him to do without you for a few hours at a stretch and let him learn to wait upon himself.

If the house were to catch on fire, you'd be surprised at the thousands of supposedly helpless patients who would get up and climb out of the window to save themselves!

For anybody who is sick for a week or longer tends to develop into a dictator and soon enjoys being waited on. So use your horse sense.

(Always write to Dr. Crane in care of this newspaper, enclosing a long 4 cent stamped, addressed envelope and 20 cents to cover typing and printing costs when you send for one of his booklets.)

DIPLOMATIC SEE-SAW

Henry McLemore

Several of us devoted followers of the manly art of boxing plan to charter a kite and fly to Toronto on December 4th for the world heavyweight championship bout between Floyd Patterson and Tom McNeely Jr., youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas McNeely of Arlington, Mass.

The interests of our group in the fight are varied. One man has a new and expensive stop watch and he wants to see if it is fast enough to time Tom's first descent to the canvas.

Another wants to see whether young McNeely, at fight's end, will be returned to Arlington, Mass., or Arlington, Va.

I am not interested in the fight at all. I am going to Toronto to study Pete Fuller, McNeely's manager. From all I have read Mr. Fuller is a new and strange species of fight manager.

He is a Harvard man, to begin with, probably the first from Harvard to go in for boxing seriously since Teddy Roosevelt.

He is a millionaire, for the second time. There never has been a millionaire manager before, not even when one counts those who went in for counterfeiting between bouts.

He is the son of a former governor of Massachusetts, to continue the list of his peculiarities, and is said to talk from the center of his mouth, change shirts as often as twice a day, tip his hat to ladies, and always wash the chalk off his hands before leaving a pool parlor or billiard hall.

He is a far cry, this Mr. Fuller, from the managers I once claimed as close and intimate friends.

James Joy (Boy Bandit) Johnston, for instance. Mr. Johnston, a dapper Liverpool product, wore a hard hat, often carried an even harder blackjack when visiting socially, always had a cup of tea with an egg at three in the morning, and came close to making a heavyweight champion out of Phil Scott, the painting Englishman. Mr. Johnston also kept a secretary, whose main duty was to see that Mr. Johnston did not doublecross himself.

Khedda Man To Watch In Algerian Struggle

By PHIL NEWSOM
(UPI Foreign News Analyst)

A man to watch carefully is a dark be-speckled figure of severe deportment, an admirer of Red China who now is expected to quicken the pace of the Algerian rebels' guerrilla war against France.

He is Yousef Ben Khedda, little known even among Algerian rebels before he replaced Ferhat Abbas as premier of the Algerian nationalist provisional government.

He is described as a "pure, tough revolutionary," not necessarily Communist but a leader of the rebel "Chinese wing" which admires Mao Tse-tung's success in organizing 600 million Chinese.

Ben Khedda's ascendancy over Abbas is a defeat for the rebel conservative wing and has aroused doubts even among such ardent admirers of the Algerian revolt as president Nasser of Egypt and Bourguiba of Tunisia.

These doubts spring from a fear that Ben Khedda will open the way for further Communist penetration of Africa or to internationalization of the Algerian conflict through use of Chinese "volunteers."

These fears, still only in the speculative stage, have led to further speculation that North Africa could at some time in the future surpass Berlin as a world flash point.

Ben Khedda, who like his predecessor was trained as a pharmacist, led the Algerian provisional government's first mission to Peking as minister of social affairs in 1956.

Unconfirmed reports have said he soon will have at his disposal 3,000 Algerian "volunteers" trained in Red China. Some of these were said to have fought with the French in Indochina and to have deserted to communism there.

Ben Khedda's rise is regarded as the direct result of failure of this summer's peace talks with the French.

He is said not to oppose further peace negotiations but his terms are believed even tougher than those which the French already have refused to accept.

For his part, French President Charles de Gaulle now is believed about ready to go ahead with his plan for an "Algerian Algeria" without bothering further about the Tunis-based rebel regime.

The next few weeks should see the announcement of plans for holding the first referendum in Algeria to allow the people, Muslims and French alike, to say whether they want independence or remain tied to France.

This can be expected in turn to trigger new and bloody rebel reaction.

Contributing also the possibility of new violence in North Africa is the continuing problem of Bizerte, the French naval base on Tunisian soil which the Tunisians want turned over to them.

The French are reported in the process of turning back Bizerte to the Tunisians.

If negotiations had not been forthcoming, then Bourguiba, with full support of the Arab League, probably would have resumed rough tactics

Adlai Calls Test An 'Arrogant Act'

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (UPI) — U. S. Ambassador Adlai E. Stevenson said Monday that the Soviet Union's "arrogant act" of exploding a fifty-pig megaton nuclear bomb has "added injury to insult."

He said in a statement: "As he said he would, Mr. Khrushchev has finally exploded a bomb even larger than 50 megatons.

"By this arrogant act, the Soviets have added injury to insult. They broke the moratorium on nuclear weapons testing.

"They have raised atmospheric pollution to new heights.

"They have started a new race for more deadly weapons.

"They have contemptuously spurned the appeal of the United Nations and of all peace loving peoples.

"They have advanced no justification for exploding this monstrous and unnecessary weapon.

"They have been wholly unmoved by the dangers of radioactive fallout.

"The United States delegation deeply deplores this great leap forward by the Soviet Union—in the direction of disaster."

Ray Cromley Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA)—Several things have come to light that explain why the United States is lagging in space despite superior over-all U. S. science and technology.

These U. S. mistakes and omissions explain why Russia will probably get to the moon first, even though the $3 billion the U. S. has spent on space is considerably more than the Russians have poured in, and though the $20 billion to $40-billion U. S. moon program is considerably more ambitious than the Soviet plan.

First: There are strong indications the Russians are ahead on key basic instrumentation. There is reason to believe the Reds can measure high temperatures more accurately. They can measure great thrusts more precisely. They can measure extremely heavy weights more closely. They can measure some electromagnetic waves more finely.

The ability to measure is crucial. The measuring of high thrust is a prime prerequisite to building super-high-thrust space rocket engines quickly and efficiently.

The ability to measure high temperatures is a prerequisite to developing superior metals for rockets and space ships.

The ability to measure electromagnetic waves is crucial in developing better space communications.

Second: The Russians have shown a greater willingness to standardize in all aspects of their space work.

This standardization results in more reliability, less cost. It means that any particular space project can be accomplished more quickly.

The United States has more or less tailor-made every job. The U. S. tends to build a separate vehicle for almost every space payload. We thus have too many varieties of stabilization systems for satellites, too many different types of power supplies for our satellites and space vehicles. We have too many different varieties of telemetering systems.

Tailor-making complicated electronic space gadgetry means creating new variations, each with a series of bugs that must be ironed out before the project can go ahead. The cut in reliability as a result of this variety is tremendous. The U. S. has only 50 per cent success in getting its space vehicles into orbit.

Third: The United States tries to squeeze the last ounce of performance out of every space component. This means increased complexity and a further lowering of reliability. This constant refining is very expensive.

If the U. S. had spent more time and effort in making larger rockets and less time on refining the size of components, we would have done better.

In other words, our space scientists have spent too much of their time on minor refinements instead of looking for radical new approaches.

Fourth: The Russians are apparently pouring more time and effort than the U. S. into some key areas of basic space research. They are, for example, putting a great deal of effort into celestial mechanics.

The development of U. S. rockets and space vehicles has been held back by a lack of basic research. Builders have often had to go beyond present-day U. S. scientific knowledge by guess and by rule of thumb. This has usually resulted in minor improvements at great cost.

With more basic research, the U. S. could leapfrog ahead at much less expense and in much less time, over the long run.

As one space scientist puts it, "No matter how many billions you spend you can only increase the speed of a race horse by a small amount in terms of miles per hour. Whereas if you invest an automobile you can multiply that speed up to a point.

"And if you invest an airplane, or a rocket, you immediately jump into a whole new realm of speed. It's much cheaper to make these big jumps by new routes."

Man Loses Three Fingers In Mishap

A left-handed Casselberry man is in the Florida Sanitarium and Hospital today minus three fingers on the hand due to a misinterpreted signal by a fellow-employee at Inland Concrete Co. last Wednesday night. Doctors are working to save a fourth finger.

Larry Callenberger, working with Robert Deppens, also of Casselberry, made a mis-step with a lighted flashlight in his hand and Deppens, thinking it the prearranged signal, threw the switch putting in motion the machinery where the men were working. Callenberger was caught in the moving equipment and his left hand was severely mangled.

Relief Agencies Step Up Drive In Hattie Shambles

BELIZE, British Honduras (UPI)—The government and international relief agencies today stepped up their campaign against a possible typhoid epidemic in the shambles left by Hurricane Hattie. Sunday authorities ordered mass cremations to combat the menace. Workers continued to pull bodies of victims from debris-strewn mud flats, adding to the known death toll.

U. S. Navy doctors and nurses working alongside British relief crews and those of private agencies here inoculated an estimated 12,000 persons in two days. Five thousand additional shots were administered to residents of Stann Creek.

Hattie swept in on this capital city last Tuesday, taking lives, splintering houses and disrupting food and water supplies with 150 m.p.h.-or-better winds.

Skindiving Club Formed Here

The first meeting of the Cave Divers, Skindiving Club, was held at the Arts and Craft building on First Street recently. Ferguson On Missent Letters, Hunting

By HARRY FERGUSON
LONDON (UPI)—The postman delivered to my door a communication bearing the crest of Lord Mountbatten of Burma and the motto "Honi soit qui mal y pense" (evil to him who evil thinks). His lordship advised me that I had been on a shooting expedition with him at Broadlands and that he was sending along a box score of the game we bagged.

The street number on the communication was correct, but it was addressed to "R. Ferguson, Esq." Accordingly, I handed it back to the postman and thought, I was through with the matter. Not so. Two days later Lord Mountbatten's communication was again at my front door.

Here was a pretty kettle of fish indeed. The shoot apparently had lasted several days and ended on Oct. 28. Reviewing my activities, it seemed to me I had an iron-clad alibi to prove I had not been shooting at Broadlands during the indicated period. Miss Grace Duncan, who presides at the United Press International switchboard, was prepared to swear I had been in and out of the office every day and that on one occasion I had handed her five shillings to strengthen the capital structure of a joint enterprise in which we pit our money and cunning against the operators of the British football pools.

On the other hand a duly appointed representative of Her Majesty's government twice had notified me officially that toward the end of October I had spent several days shooting with Lord Mountbatten. One does not lightly defy the edicts of the British government. Scotland Yard, the Tower of London, the Old Bailey and all that sort of thing, you know. So I took the coward's course and knuckled under. If Her Majesty's government was going to insist that I had been at Broadlands in October, so be

it. To the critics of my craven conduct I have this to say: "Honi soit qui mal y pense."

The thing that impressed me most at Broadlands during the time I was supposed to be there, was that I was not a hunter, but a "gun." This was the first time I had been a gun since my ninth birthday when my father presented me with a repeating BB air rifle and suggested that I get out from underfoot and stalk some sparrows along Troost Ave., Kansas City, Mo.

Other guns at Broadlands included Maj. T. Baring, Sir Thomas Sopwith, Lady Sopwith, Commander G. M. Bradley and, of course, Lord Mountbatten.

Sketches By Teacher On Display At Local School

Currently on display in the Sanford Junior High School library is an exhibit of the pen and ink sketches by Joe Akerman, eighth grade English and science teacher at the school.

Among the subjects portrayed in these sketches are landscape scenes of Spain and France and hunting scenes of southeastern United States.

Akerman is a graduate of the University of Florida and attended college at Oregon State and the University of New Mexico. From October of 1936 until March, 1937, he toured Europe and studied in Madrid, Spain, and in Paris, France. Following that he did further studies in art at the University of Glasgow in Scotland.

Further exhibits including the work of students and paintings borrowed from the University of Florida are planned for the future.

UNICEF Drive Receives $85

Mrs. Leonard Casselberry, secretary of children's work of the Casselberry Community Methodist Church reports that some 33 youngsters participated in the annual "Trick or Treat for UNICEF" drive collecting at least $85 on Halloween night.

Assisting with the Penny-Counting Party when the children returned to the church were Mrs. William Young, Mrs. John Birkheimer, Mrs. Nelson Bunnell, Mrs. Robert Deppen, Mrs. R. C. Osborne, Rev. Darwin Shea, Mrs. C. K. Fisher and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Wood. Also taking part in the entertainment were several members of the Intermediate Methodist Youth Fellowship.

Highlight of the game period came when blindfolded children took turns trying to burst the pinata for the candy treats it contained. Refreshments of doughnuts, cookies and punch were served to close the evening.

Are we letting it fade away?

Today, they pledge allegiance to the flag of a proud and free nation. But, what of tomorrow? Unless America remains powerful—strong in the character of her people, in her adherence to democratic principles, and in the might of her arms—her freedom will fade away! In freedom of enterprise and individual initiative lies the strength of America. Failure to resist every attempt to weaken or destroy that strength through internal controls or external threats, places our national existence in jeopardy. Helping to keep America the most powerful electric nation on earth is a responsibility Florida Power & Light Company is proud to share with other power companies in the state. Together, we continue to expand and reinforce an interconnecting power network for all Florida. This powerfully important job calls for the greatest expansion program in Florida Power & Light Company's history—from our present generating capability of 2,128,000 kilowatts to 4,003,000 kilowatts by 1966—virtually doubling our generating capability in five years... helping keep Florida... and America... strong!

VAH-9 Wives Enjoy Morning Coffee

The refreshing colors of aqua, white and yellow provided an attractive background for the monthly coffee of the VAH-9 ladies at the home of Mrs. Robert Forster. Pecan tarts and cranberry nutbread were among the variety of homemade goods served by Mrs. Forster and co-hostess, Mrs. Ray Currie.

Mrs. Philip Monroe was welcomed as a new member of the group. Mrs. Ted Wagner, wife of VAH-9's commanding officer, led the business discussion concerning various coming social events.

Plans were discussed for a potluck supper at the home of Lcdr. and Mrs. William Bassett, for the Bombing Derby cocktail party and for a gala formal ball to be held in Jacksonville.

The ladies authorized Mrs. Jack Allen, treasurer, to purchase a large coffee pot for use at future functions.

Mrs. Tom Markley, Central Committee representative, was absent, and Mrs. G. W. Hinmons gave the report.

Others attending were Mrs. Charles Duker, Mrs. J. T. O'Mara, Mrs. Fred Slipp, Mrs. Al Karnes, Mrs. Ted Been, Mrs. John Moynihan, Mrs. Ernie Carson, Mrs. Warren Fordham, Mrs. John Carl, Mrs. Robert Tolle, Mrs. William Lassen, Mrs. Bartley Wood, Mrs. Ray Fox, Mrs. Leigh Ebbert, Mrs. Robert Harrop, Mrs. Robert Cooke and Mrs. Andrew Reno.

Lyle Nolands Enjoy Weekend In Gainesville

By JANE CASSELBERRY
Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Nolands and children, Dean, Janet and Meredith of No. 1 Quail Pond, Casselberry, spent an exciting weekend in Gainesville when they visited Mrs. Nolands' brother, Cliff Davis, freshman at the University of Florida.

On Friday night they went to the Gator Grow where they heard a speech by Vice President Lyndon B. Johnson and enjoyed skills presented by various fraternities.

They attended the Saturday afternoon Homecoming Game between the Gators and LSU and the Homecoming Dance that night.

On Sunday they spent a relaxing day on the Okiwaha River before returning home.

Susan Ray Entertains Playmates With Halloween Dinner-Party

Susan Ray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Troy Ray Jr., entertained her school friends with a Halloween party at her parents' home in Loch Arbor.

The carpenter was decorated with orange and black crepe paper and skeletons, black cats, pumpkins and witches were suspended from the ceiling to give a spooky effect. A lighted jack-o-lantern was on the serving table.

As the miniature goblins arrived they were a bit dampened by the rain but their spirits lifted when Mr. Clown, Susan's father, made his appearance. He assisted the children with their hot dogs, potato chips and orange drinks.

Following the supper, stories were read until the rain stopped, then the yard was filled with fairies, witches, ghosts, black cats, ballerinas and many other eerie characters. Balloons, noise makers, candy and bubble gum were given to the guests in trick or treat bags.

Playmates invited to enjoy the evening with Susan were Douglas Burnham, Bill Dunn, Dennis and Steve Epps, Pat Howard, Tommy Keith, Albert Mathers, Walter Moran, Jerry Parker, Clyde Smith, Stuart Stetson, Charlie

Cancer Program Presented At Woman's Club

The Fine Arts Department and General Business meeting of the Sanford Woman's Club held a joint luncheon meeting, Wednesday at the club house.

Mrs. Thomas L. Largen, sponsor of the club cancer program, spoke briefly to the group and stated that the American Cancer Society is trying to get every woman in America to have an annual check-up, including the "pap" smear test. Many who are stricken with cancer can be saved by early diagnosis.

Dr. Largen also spoke to the club members and showed the film "Time and two women." Gene Hassel, of Orlando, district director of the American Cancer Society told of plans by the General Federation of Women's Clubs, to assist in a drive to get all the club members to get this test.

Mrs. D. C. Ragan, a new member, was introduced and Mrs. W. L. Gramkow, club president, gave a report on the state board meeting held in Fort Lauderdale, which she and Mrs. Charles N. Rust, president of the Seminole County Federation of Women's Clubs attended.

Mrs. D. C. Howard will be chairman of the art display at the Arts and Hobby show at the club, this Thursday. Anyone interested in entering their work should contact Mrs. S. J. Nix.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. George Wells, Mrs. C. R. Schilke, Mrs. E. A. Monforton, Mrs. A. F. Ramsey, Mrs. D. C. Howard and Mrs. Roy Wiley. Mrs. Ramsey furnished the flowers and Mrs. Schilke was in charge of the beautiful arrangements of yellow mums, crotons, casia, green grapes and greenery.

Pumpkin Time Was Fun Time At Kindergarten

Halloween morning was a time of fun at Happy Acres for the kindergarten and nursery classes. Parents assembled on the playground and listened to David Mathes and his electric guitar while all the ghosts, witches and goblins were getting ready for the parade.

At 9:15 the old school bell rang out and the parade began. Music filled the air of the surroundings while Huckleberry Finn, Jack-in-the-box, witches, ghosts, rabbits and other characters marched with orange and black pom poms.

Each child stepped forward and took a bow to the applause of the spectators. Mrs. George Pittard, teacher, invited the parents to visit class rooms and observe how learning can be fun.

Many of the children recited poems and songs were sung, under the supervision of Mrs. Banks, music teacher. Following the program, Mrs. James Pigott and Mrs. J. D. Beverly assisted the teachers in serving refreshments and art displays.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: In your column a woman wrote that she would like to know who God is. God is a spirit. Just as beautiful and wonderful as He can be. God made all things out of nothing. God is everywhere. God had no beginning. He always was and He always will be.

I am in the second grade. I am seven years old and my name is MARY MARGARET GOFF

DEAR MARY MARGARET: Your letter is a treasure and I hope you don't mind my printing it. I want my readers to see for themselves that in these troubled times there are children who are still being raised properly.

DEAR ABBY: I've been going to this doctor for several weeks. I like him more every time I see him. I could easily love him, and I have reason to believe that his interest in me is more than professional. How can I find out if it is only his wonderful bedside manner or if he cares for me? I don't want to do anything bold or unethical. He is unmarried and so am I. He would make a dream husband. Also tell me how I can get rid of his nurse. She sticks to him like glue.

COULD CARE

DEAR ABBY: Unless the doctor asks to see you socially, be assured that his interest in you is strictly professional. Don't attempt to "get rid" of his nurse. Her presence is necessary.

presence is necessary.

DEAR ABBY: My boy friend and I have gone steady for a year. I am 15 and he is 18. He has enlisted in the Army and is due to be called soon. He said that when he goes into the Army he wants us to break up. He feels it would be unfair to me to be tied down to a fellow who isn't around. He wants me to go with others and have fun. He says I am too young to promise to "wait for him." I am sure he is the one for me and I want to wait for him. I know I couldn't enjoy the company of another boy. What should I do?

SOLDIER'S GIRL

DEAR SOLDIER'S GIRL: Do as he says, and go with others while he is gone. It is in your faithfulness in your heart that will remain there until he returns. Better test it. You are only 15 and too young to wear a reserved sign.

CONFIDENTIAL TO MINNIE: Sorry, but his net income does not make up for his gross immaturity. Lose him.

Everybody has a problem. What's yours? For a personal reply, write to Abby in care of this paper. Enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

For Abby's booklet, "How To Have A Lovely Wedding," send 50 cents to Abby, Box 9365, Beverly Hills, Calif.

Errors Mar 'Show Of The Week' Production

NEW YORK (UPI)—The leaders of the "music of the 30's" expedition set out to recapture memories and bring "em back alive, or on film, but production underbrush tripped them up. NBC-TV's "Show of the Week" special forgot to remember that when it comes to the music of the 30's, it's not so much the music that stirs the memory. It's the voices that delivered the songs. Songs such as "I'm Putting All My Eggs in One Basket," "Over the Rainbow" and "Why Was I Born?" continue to get played today. Quite understandably, they have become standards. So, if you're going to evoke a great feeling of nostalgia, give us the soundtracks and records, scratches and all, that filled the air in those days and nights. They sound thinner, younger, even hungrier, but they'd sure get a rise out of us. Don't misunderstand me, though, Dorothy Loudon, who delivered "Why Was I Born?" Sunday night, is a talented young lady. But she's no Helen Morgan. Blossom Dearie? A great favorite of mine. But she isn't Fred Astaire. And Bill Hayes isn't Judy Garland. And so it went with the hour. By continually shunning voices every bit as important to the period as the fine old film clips showing Joan Blondell, Myrna Loy, Dick Powell, Ruby Keeler and Benny Goodman. The special also gave John Bubbles and the Count Basie band some work. Basie was called upon to mug for the TV camera, so you can see how far we've come from the "music of the 30's." We The Women:

By Ruth Millet

Could it possibly be that the fashion and beauty industries have decided to let women grow old gracefully instead of continuing to kid them into believing that if they fight the battle of the bulge, keep up a constant skirmish against wrinkles and dye to keep the silver threads from appearing among the gold, they can be forever young?

without trying desperately to look younger than she is. Then, too, the people who manufacture hair dyes and have every woman with gray hair ashamed of it are doing an about face. Now, instead of trying to convince every gray-haired woman in the land that she owes it to herself to make up her mind whether she wants to be a blonde, brunette, or redhead, they are telling her how to make her gray hair "shine like silver."

than to try desperately to look like a girl. It is bound to be easier to make gray hair shine like silver than to keep it dyed. And it would probably be a lot more flattering to most middle-aged women, too. After all, there's nothing shameful about a woman's looking her age. We've just been sold on the idea that there is. With the fashion and beauty industries at last giving us a bit of a break maybe we can dare to give up the pitiful struggle for eternal youth. With all the striving, few women have ever been able to fool anyone into actually believing they are younger than they are.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

A new method of selecting the team to represent the United States in the 1962 world bridge championships is being tried this year. Sixteen qualified pairs will meet in an eight-session event at Houston, Tex., starting on Nov. 18, and the three top pairs will form the team. Stockbroker John Simon of St. Louis is the oldest man in the group. His partner is bridge teacher Jack Danny of Akron, Ohio, and they qualified by being second in the open pairs at the Spring Nationals. John likes to bid every hand to the limit and then some, so after Jack showed that they held all the aces in today's hand, John went all the way to seven no-trump. The hand illustrates an important point of play that many people overlook. South needs to run the club suit, and he has no way to do it if East holds all the missing clubs, so Mr. Simon started the club suit with the play of the queen from his own hand. Then when East showed out, he was able to lead twice toward dummy's ace and king. West could split his fack and ten or not, but there was no way he could make a trick with them.

Davis Sparks Comeback Victory Over Wildwood

Halfback Scores 3 Touchdowns

By PETE LEVEQUE
Herald Sports Editor

With Sanford's Bubba Davis spearheading an astounding three touchdown retaliatory attack, the Seminole High Seminoles surged ahead to slay the Wildwood Wildcats 21-13 in Memorial Ball Park Friday night in a heated gridiron battle that for the first time in the gridiron season saw the Seminoles scoreless until halfway into the second quarter.

Undaunted by an early 13-0 Wildcat lead, the offensive-minded Seminoles rallied to the task with determination before the watchful eyes of hundreds of Seminole spectators as Davis, Butch Riser, and John Boniface in the role of Wildcat tamers launched the Seminoles on the road to their seventh successive win of the season.

Scoring only in the second and third quarters of the ball game, the Sportswriter ranked Fourth-in-the-State Seminoles managed to crack the whip on the woolly Wildcats to the snap of three touchdowns, two on runs and one on a pass and three conversion units to wrap up the Seminoles' fourth Orange Belt Conference win of the season.

Wildwood broke the ice to score the first touchdown in the game with four minutes left in the first quarter. Five plays set up a two yard dash by Wildcat fullback Joey Evankuk to give the Wildcats a first down on the Seminoles' 6-0. The conversion point was attempted by Wildwood and missed.

Sanford received the kick. The ball was advanced for the Seminoles by Jim Terwilliger and Butch Riser. Wildcat Carl Vause recovered a Seminole fumble for Wildwood. Yardage was gained for the Wildcats by Harp. On a screen play pass to Evankuk, Wildwood got a first down. With seconds in the first quarter Wildcat end Hossa Walls covered Wildwood's punt.

Wildwood's ball into the second quarter, Wildcat Bramlett's pass to Hensley was complete, setting up a second touchdown play for the Wildcats. Wildwood fullback Joey Evankuk ran the ball from the one yard line to score for the Wildcats. Chip Harp made the conversion point for Wildwood, giving the Wildcats an early second quarter lead of 13-0.

With this turn of events in the ball game the Seminole fans were horrified. Until Lessburg's Yellow Jackets crossed the Seminole goal line the first time last week, Sanford's defense had been impenetrable. Seminole Coach Jim Pigott and Jim McCoy anxiously paced the sidelines, hoping the tide would turn for the Seminoles.

Hensley kicked off for the Wildcats. The pigskin went out of bounds and was Sanford's ball on the 40 yard line. Yardage was gained for the Seminoles by Davis and Riser. Terwilliger punted the ball and Straudt received for the Wildcats on their own ten yard line. Wildwood fumbled and Boniface recovered for Sanford on the 13 yard line for a first and ten.

On the next play Tommy Hanson gained yardage for the Seminoles. On a sweep right end play sidestepping four Wildcat players, Seminole Bubba Davis ran 13 yards scoring the first touchdown for Sanford. Gary Davidson made a successful conversion kick, bringing the score to 13-7.

Davidson kicked off for the Seminoles with six minutes left in the half. Harp received the ball for Wildwood on the Wildcats seven yard line and made a 24 yard return to be stopped on the 31 yard line. Brownfield was brought down after a three yard gain by Harvey and Walsh for Sanford. Seminole Williams, Phillips, and Pearson tackled Straudt on about the 43 yard line.

With five minutes left in the second quarter, Sanford took possession with a punt by Wildcat Joey Evankuk. On the second Seminole passing play of the ball game, Butch Riser threw to Bubba Davis for a tremendous 77 yard touchdown run, bringing the Seminoles back into the ball game. Gary Davidson kicked the extra point, giving Sanford a 14-13 lead at the end of the first half.

The third touchdown advance for the Seminoles was begun near the end of the third quarter with a Wildcat fumble. Sanford gained possession of the ball as Jim Williams recovered the ball for the Seminoles. With less than a minute left in the third quarter, Bubba Davis penetrated to the Wildcat three yard line where he was shaken up in a Wildwood effort to stop his advance.

With Davis slightly dazed in the last play, Sanford's Bill Phagan set up the final touchdown for the Seminoles. Wildwood fullback Joey Evankuk advanced by advancing the pigskin to within six inches of the goal line. Davis then carried the ball over for the Seminoles' third and final scoring of the ball game. Gary Davidson made the conversion point for Sanford, bringing the final score to 21-13 in favor of the Seminoles.

Lyman Trounces St. Cloud, 28-0; Williams Stars

With star halfback Jim Williams playing on a taped sprained ankle, the undefeated fighting Greyhounds of Lyman High School leaped ahead to their eighth straight gridiron victory as the 'Hounds trounced the St. Cloud Bulldogs 28-0 at Lyman Field Friday night in a gridiron contest that saw scoring plays by all three players in Lyman's famed triple-threat backfield trio.

The first scoring play of the ball game began in the first quarter when the Bulldogs kicked a punt which was received on Lyman's ten yard line by Williams. Williams, sprained ankle and all, hobbled 90 yards for a Lyman touchdown successfully evading efforts by St. Cloud to tackle the fiery Greyhound.

About halfway in the second quarter Williams once again came into the Lyman spotlight with a 40 yard pass and run play. From about the 41 yard line Williams received a 20 yard pass from Paul Blackford which he ran for an additional 20 yards to be stopped on the one yard line. Carl Presley carried the ball over for the Greyhounds from the one. The conversion point was made by Presley bringing the halftime score to 14-0.

In the second half, halfback Paul Blackford scored two more touchdowns for the Greyhounds. The first scoring play for Blackford was on a 35 yard run. The extra point was run by Blackford to bring the Greyhounds' lead to 21-0. The last touchdown of the game was made by Blackford on a ten yard sprint over the goal line. On this touchdown Blackford also tried for and made the conversion point, bringing the final score of the ball game to 28-0 in favor of the Greyhounds.

Out For Season
PHILADELPHIA (UPI)—Defensive halfback Tom Brooks of the Philadelphia Eagles is sidelined for the remainder of the National Football League season with a fractured right leg. The former Colorado star suffered the injury in the fourth period of Sunday's game with the Chicago Bears.

Who Says Unitas Is Washed Up?

United Press International
There were whispers around the National Football League that Johnny Unitas had slipped and the Baltimore Colts were just another ball club, but don't try to sell that idea today to the chagrined Green Bay Packers.

Unitas, who had been taking his lumps during these past two seasons, looked like the all-pro quarterback of 1957-58-59 Sunday when he threw four touchdown passes and led the Colts to a 45-21 romp over the Packers in the NFL's upset-of-the-day.

The champion Philadelphia Eagles staved off defeat and clung to their Eastern Division lead when they pushed over a third-period touchdown and then watched the Chicago Bears miss two comparatively easy fourth-period field goal tries. The Eagles won, 16-14.

The Cleveland Browns, one of the Eagles' top challengers, were not so lucky. They were upset, 17-13, by the Pittsburgh Steelers when castoff Bob Schnelker caught a 26-yard touchdown pass from Rudy Rukich with less than three minutes to play.

It was easy pickings for the New York Giants, who scored their most one-sided victory in 28 seasons by overwhelming the hapless Washington Redskins, 33-0. This was the 16th consecutive NFL defeat for the Redskins.

The San Francisco Forty-Niners and Detroit Lions battled to a 20-20 tie in the NFL's first deadlock of the season; the St. Louis Cardinals defeated the Dallas Cowboys, 31-17, and the Los Angeles Rams dropped the Minnesota Vikings into the Western Division cellar with a 31-17 setback.

In the American Football League, the San Diego Chargers scored their ninth straight win and clinched at least a tie for the Western Division lead when they clobbered the New York Titans, 48-13; the Houston Oilers drubbed the Denver Broncos, 35-14, and the Oakland Raiders upset the Buffalo Bills, 31-22. The Boston Patriots defeated the Dallas Texans, 28-21, Saturday night.

Despite the Packers' defeat at Baltimore, they remained in first place in the Western Division with a 6-2 record as the runner-up Bears (5-3) lost at Philadelphia. Philadelphia (7-1) risks its Eastern Division lead next Sunday against the Giants (4-2) in New York.

The Colts, with a 4-4 record, do not figure to be much more than "spoilers" the rest of the season. But for one day, at least, Coach Weeb Ewbank watched the vestige of his great team that won the NFL title in 1958 and '59. "We blocked and tackled today," Ewbank succinctly summed up the victory. When someone asked him if he thought the Colts would continue to block and tackle for the rest of the season, Ewbank shot back:

"Have you got a outja board?" Unitas rarely was in better form. He completed 22 out of 35 passes for 218 yards. He threw four yards to Alex Hawkins and 38 to Lenny Moore for touchdowns in the first half and then hit Jimmy Orr with 19 and 4-yard TD tosses during the final half.

The Packers hardly looked to him the club which had won six straight games and held their opponents to an average of less than 10 points per game. With linebacker Ray Nitschke in the Army and halfbacks Paul Hornung and Boyd Dowler due to follow him, Green Bay could be in trouble in the tough Western Division.

Looks Like Texas Heading For 'Perfect' 1961 Season

United Press International
It's been 41 years since the University of Texas has gone through a perfect college football season but Coach Darrell Royal's Longhorns look powerful enough to accomplish that feat this year.

Texas, Alabama, Colorado and Rutgers stood alone today as the only major college unbeaten and untied teams after Saturday's rash of upsets which included the defrocking of top-ranked Michigan State and second-ranked Mississippi.

The downfall of the Spartans and Ole Miss threw the battle for the national title into a wide open scramble with Texas and Alabama each with seven victories, bidding strongly for the No. 1 spot.

Third-ranked Texas, which has rolled up 223 points this season while giving up only 46, added Southern Methodist to its list of victims Saturday, 27-0, behind the running of James Saxton and Jerry Cook.

Fourth-ranked Alabama defeated Mississippi State, 21-0, in its third straight shutout; eighth-ranked Colorado edged Missouri, 7-4, and unranked Rutgers toppled Lafayette, 37-6. Meanwhile, 10th-ranked Minnesota stopped Michigan State 13-0, as Sandy Stephens and Bill Munsey elicited both touchdowns and LSU, ranked No. 7, downed Mississippi, 10-7, on Wendell Harris' field goal and touchdown run to break the Rebels' 21-game winning skid.

What's on tap next weekend for the unbeatable? Texas hosts Baylor (3-3) in the first of three remaining Southwest Conference battles; Alabama's bowl-bound Crimson Tide is expected to easily dispose of Richmond (4-4) at New York.

Herald Paces 'T' Bowlers

The Sanford Herald leads the "T" League this week in the bowling lineup with 21 wins and 15 losses, followed by Sinko's Tavern in second place with 20 wins and 16 losses. Running a close third is Wieboldt's Camera Shop with 19 1/2 wins and 16 1/2 losses.

Nationwide Insurance is in fourth place with 18 wins and 16 losses. Next is Karn's Insurance with 16 wins and 20 losses followed by Thriftway Market with 14 1/2 wins and 21 1/2 losses.

The Thriftway team had a 556 high game and 1559 high series. Individual high games and series were Dot Burton's 185 high game and 463 high series. Other high games were Delores Todd, 159; Yagi Hudson, 144; Cary Jane Garton, 152; Clara Timlin 149; and June Gasman, 144.

Yagi Hudson and June Gasman made turkeys and Bernice Achsefer made a 3-10 split.

Colo- rado's Buffaloes, leaders of the Big Eight Conference, tangle with Utah (5-3) on its home ground and Rutgers, front-runners in the Middle Atlantic Conference, hosts Delaware (4-2).

Fifth-ranked Ohio State, unbeaten but once tied, is rolling along in high gear. The Buckeyes look over first place in the Big Ten Conference by beating Iowa's anguishing Hawkeys, ranked No. 9, 29-13, Indiana, winless in conference play, meet Ohio State next week.

In other important Big Ten action, Michigan State hopes to rebound against speller Purdue (4-2) and Minnesota's resurgent Gophers (5-1) engaged Iowa.

Ole Miss, now 6-1, should bounce back against Chattanooga next weekend and start another winning streak.

Georgia Tech, ranked No. 8 and a 20-winner over Florida last Saturday, plays Tennessee (3-3) and LSU meets North Carolina (4-2) in other games involving top 10 teams.

The ABC-TV network will telecast regionally the Minnesota-Iowa LSU-North Carolina and Wyoming-New Mexico games.

Colo- rado's Buffaloes, leaders of the Big Eight Conference, tangle with Utah (5-3) on its home ground and Rutgers, front-runners in the Middle Atlantic Conference, hosts Delaware (4-2).

from ages 18 to 32. Prepare now for U. S. Civil Service job openings in this area during the next 12 months.
Government positions pay as high as $18,000 a month to start. They provide much greater security than private employment and excellent opportunity for advancement. Many positions require little or no specialized education or experience.
But to get one of these jobs,
you must pass a test. The competition is keen and in some cases only one out of five pass.

Lincoln Service helps thousands prepare for these tests every year. It is one of the largest and oldest privately owned schools of its kind and is not connected with the Government.

Male Chorus Schedules Fall Concert Nov. 14

The Sanford Male Chorus has scheduled their annual fall concert for Nov. 14, this year, to be held at the Civic Center, jointly sponsored by the Woman's Club, Robert Carnie, director of the group, has planned a well balanced group of songs, designed for listening pleasure with something to suit every taste.

Volleyball Loop Race Stiffens

Competition in the Men's Volleyball League has become increasingly stiffer. Though the Florida State Bank team still remains undefeated, the scores to their games are becoming closer each time they play.

The reason for their success is not through the efforts of one person, but by good team play. The use of two set ups and one hard slam is the way to win in volleyball and Florida State Bank team uses this method.

Pinecrest Baptist Church is in the win circle with a win over the Jaycees, while the "Juckless" Jaycees have yet to win a game victory, though they have won one set.

Next week's games are: Jaycees vs. Pinecrest, Tuesday; Pinecrest vs. Florida State, Thursday.

"HITLER" CAST COMPLETE HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Theodore Marcuse has been signed to portray a rabble-rousing newspaper owner in E. Charles Straus' "Hitler." Marcuse was the last actor to be signed for the Allied Artists' production.

group, has planned a well balanced group of songs, designed for listening pleasure with something to suit every taste.

Mrs. Robert Smith will again accompany the chorus and guest soloist chosen for this performance will be Mrs. Harry Echelberger, who will be heard in two groups of familiar and favorite songs.

The enthusiastic group of Sanford men, joined by fellows from the Navy and from DeBary continue to strive for improvement in their weekly rehearsals. Proceeds from the concert will go toward the Woman's Clubs many civic projects and for the enlargement of their music library.

How About Some Takers For This $100 Reward?

The first week in November has been designated as Litterbug Week by the Florida Federation of Garden Clubs and the following is an article prepared by Mrs. C. M. Flowers, publicity chairman for the Garden Club:

"Illegal trash dumpers spoil roadside beauty. Bounty hunters could have a field day in most every county of the state. But county commissioners throughout the state say no one has tried to collect rewards for helping to enforce a very serious, but much neglected, law of the road. "For information leading to the arrest and assistance in getting the conviction of Highway Litterbugs the commissioners are willing to pay $100 rewards. Signs stating this fact are placed along all highways.

"It is cheaper to pay the rewards and thoroughly discourage the strewing of trash than to pay road crews to clean up the mess.

"Why have there been no takers? Some authorities say citizens aren't inclined to squeal on their fellow men even though they are violators of the law.

"I feel the throwing out of cars of beer cans should be covered by this law. On East Geneva Ave. the county crews recently cleaned the shoulders on Highway 44. Now it is dotted with beer cans.

"In urban areas commercial garbage companies serve the homeowners. These firms operate under franchises granted by the county and their dumps are subject to county regulations.

"Perhaps if every one knew these facilities were available more citizens would use them and thus keep our highways free of trash, making them more beautiful."

Fatigued Pilots Renew California Fire Attack

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Fresh men and dog-tired borate bomber pilots renewed the attack at dawn today on the worst fire in Los Angeles history, hoping to halt its drive toward the sea that has left 250 homes in ruins so far. Heartened by decreasing winds during the night, almost 2,000 firemen sought to keep two separate blazes from joining to form a combined threat to Pacific Palisades. An estimated 8,000 acres was already blackened. When the renewed battle began, most of the fire lines were holding, but residents in the lower canyon areas were ready to flee if they had to. The blaze, which began early Monday, routed some 3,000 persons, closed at least four schools, razed another school and partially destroyed Mt. St. Mary's College, a few blocks from the University of California at Los Angeles. UCLA was not in immediate danger. Homes in the fire-stricken neighborhoods range in price from $30,000 to $250,000.

Hurricane Jenny Losing Power

MIAMI (UPI) — Hurricane Jenny lost a little power and remained almost stationary in mid-Atlantic today, lessening a threat to the disabled iron ore carrier Venore caught in the storm's gales. Hurricane hunter planes found top winds of 70 miles an hour although a ship reported hurricane-force gusts of 75 m.p.h. early this morning, the weather bureau here said. At 11 a. m., the hurricane's center lingered about 745 miles east-southeast of Bermuda, near latitude 29.0 north and longitude 52.7 west, with no apparent movement. It offered no threat to the U. S. mainland.

Odham To Make Decision Soon

ORLANDO (UPI) — Former state legislator Bradley Odham of Sanford will decide later if he will oppose another ex-legislator, Republican Bill Coleman of Orlando, for the newly created 11th District congressional seat. Odham, also unsuccessful candidate for governor, replied Monday night to what was, in effect, a challenge by Coleman, a former member of the State House of Representatives, who announced his congressional candidacy Sunday.

Heart Council To Meet Here Tonight

The monthly meeting of the Seminole-Dellary Heart Council will be held at 8 p. m. today at the caucus room at First Federal. Reports will be heard on the National Convention of the American Heart Assn. held recently in Miami, and attended by local delegates.

Early Vote Disappointing

Heavier Turnout Expected Later This Afternoon

Less than 12 percent of the city voters turned out to vote in the City Commission election during the first six hours this election day while less than five percent have voted in the school trustee election throughout the county, records at 1 p. m. revealed. As of 1 p. m. slightly over 400 persons went to the polls out of 3,514 registered voters to name a city commissioner. In the race are incumbent Joe Baker, Mrs. Rita Crews and Chester Oxford. Registration officer Henry Tamm Jr. said at noon that voting was much lighter than last year when two City Commission seats were open. However, Tamm predicted a spurt in voting at 5 p. m. The polls close at 7 p. m. Last year, a little over 50 percent voted in the city election. A check of the 23 polling places in the school board trustee and millage election revealed that at 1 p. m. slightly over 100 persons voted out of the 13,990 registered voters.

By LARRY VERSHEL

Nobody asked me but, whatever happened to Henry Miller's "Tropic of Cancer" that we noticed in drug stores in Sanford over two weeks ago and now have disappeared. The book, riding on the national best seller list, has been called lewd, lascivious and indecent. Wonder if the police have stepped in. The book has been banned in six Florida cities.

Has President Kennedy's economy program delayed construction of the new post office building here?

Seminole County will receive $24,000 from State Comptroller Ray Green in the latest distribution of race track money. The cut compared to $18,000 given each county in November of last year.

To show you the apathy on the part of most of the Seminole County voting public . . . as of 9:50 a. m. some three hours after the polls opened, one precinct hadn't had a voter show up.

Good news from the courthouse: Circuit Judge Volle Williams Jr. reports that his office didn't leak during the recent rains.

Now that the County Commission seems to be starting a secret ballot trend — how about approving the minutes by ballot now.

City Judge Ken McIntosh was a surprised man in court last Friday. His name was called to pay a $2 parking fine.

Will the youngster who dug up a yard at 2019 Park Ave. come back today and pick-up the sand-spurs.

Oviedo Police Chief George A. Kelsey was host Monday night to the Mayor and Town Council at a steak dinner in the Town Hall. Maybe the chief wanted to show his appreciation to the city fathers for authorizing the purchase of a much-needed police car.

After eight years as a member of the Oviedo Town Council J. Y. Harris has decided he will not seek another term.

Isn't A and P going into Bradley Odham's old office in the near future?

Melvin Siskin is renovating the two stores across from the Herald.

Nobody asked me but, how come the hit and run case that happened early this year hasn't come to court yet? That's the case where two youngsters were hit by a motorist outside Longwood.

TV crews shot some films of Kingswood builder homes at the Parade of Homes this morning and it will be shown on Channel 8 at 8:30 tonight.

U.S. Scores In UN On Renewal Of Test Talks

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (UPI) — The United States, over Soviet objections that the question is "not urgent," successfully moved today for immediate General Assembly consideration of a UN call for resumption of negotiations on a foolproof nuclear weapons test ban.

The assembly's main political committee approved by a 67-11 vote with 18 abstentions a U. S.-British resolution calling for Russia to join those two powers in resumption of the Geneva talks on a test ban treaty broken off when the Soviet Union began its unprecedented series of nuclear explosions Sept. 1.

Although the assembly itself ratified a resolution calling for renewal of an uncompleted moratorium on nuclear weapons tests, the U.S.-British call for treaty talks was not called up for a vote Monday.

At the outset of this morning's committee meeting, U. S. Ambassador Arthur H. Dean asked that the assembly be requested to take action on the Anglo-American resolution as soon as possible.

Soviet delegate Semyon K. Tsarapkin objected.

Civic Hall Offered By North Orlando

Dave Tilson of the North Orlando Civic Assn. reported to members of the organization at their meeting Monday night that the North Orlando Co. has offered a building at the corner of SR 434 and Fairfax Ave. as a temporary Civic Hall.

The company also offered to repair the building at an estimated cost of $2,000; to assist with the labor when its men are not otherwise occupied; to install two restrooms and to provide utilities and use of their tools and equipment.

Tilson, who received the offers from John Schwartz, secretary of the company, said that the building could be used with no strings attached, and that all the association has to do is to see that the repair work is done.

The association to be in charge of the Hall, voted that other organizations in the community offering labor on a volunteer basis will be allowed to use the building upon its completion free of charges. However, fees will be expected from those groups who do not assist with the work.

No further discussion of the move to get a new charter for the village by putting the issue to a referendum vote of the residents was made at the Monday meeting.

Court Seeks Foster Parents For Boy Who Prefers Reform School To Home

By DOTIE HIGGINBOTHAM
The boy looked like any other 12 year old lad as he walked into the Judge's office. His blond hair had a wave in it and the blue eyes were clear and intelligent, with a questioning look in them. He flashed a shy smile at the judge and the reporter as he took his seat. But there is something very different about this boy. He wants very much to go to "reform school," where his older brother has now been sent for the third time. In order to get to go there he deliberately set out a few weeks ago to make enough trouble so that the judge would have to send him. The boy's brother has told him that at "the School" you have your own bed, with clean sheets, three good hearty meals a day, baths, clean clothes, and no one wants to go, it's home, (or what is loosely construed as a home). He's one of 13 children and they have all gone away, except three young ones. They had to put him some place. Seminole County has no foster home, no juvenile shelter, no place of detention. So they put him in the county jail. And there he has been for more than a week. It shivers your soul to see them taking him back over there, because there's no place else to put him. The judge says he's not going to send the boy to the industrial school. He talked to the boy a long time. The boy finally said that he would like to go and stay with some nice people, who would like to have him. He likes the principal of his school and his teacher. He likes reading and arithmetic and you have only to look into those blue eyes to see the intelligence, the alertness, and farther back, the wistful misery and the desperation. He's a good student the teacher says, behaves himself at school. . . . School is o. k., but he just doesn't want to go home, under any circumstances. The judge wants this boy to have a home, a good home. He wants him to have tender loving care, decent clothes, a warm bed, healthful food. He wants home to have a sober, reliable, kindly father, a tender smiling, loving mother, and maybe some friendly children to play with and grow up together. Do you know someone like that who is just wishing for a boy to raise, to play ball with, to go fishing, to give a real home?

Here is the stranger that the Master spoke of when he said, "Inasmuch as ye have done it unto the least of these, my brethren, ye have done it unto me." (Late Monday afternoon, a well-known Seminole County citizen and his wife took the boy to their home for a few days, until someone can be found to give him a permanent home.)
