

Once-Useful Basement Leaving Today's Home

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The basement, which evolved from a place to store food for the winter in a gadgeted recreation—and even sleeping—a room, is slowly disappearing from the American house.

Government statistics reveal that in 1960 about 8 per cent of all new, single-family houses had a full or partial basement. By 1966 the proportion had dropped to 43 per cent.

Experts say the drop reflects: "A decrease in the proportion of nationwide housing starts accounted for by the Northeast, where basements are more popular than in other sections of the country."

A long-term shift in housing fashions which is gradually dismantling the basement to the past.

Figures on Basements

Latest government figures, based on a 1955 survey, show the following proportions of houses with full or partial basements for different parts of the nation:

—Northeast 41 per cent.

—North central 69 per cent.

—South 18 per cent.

—West 37 per cent.

According to officials of the National Association of Home Builders (NAHB), housing professionals applaud the swing away on grounds of common sense, comfort and economy.

"People don't make full use of their basements," NAHB housing engineer Milton W. Smithman told United Press International. "They also clutter them up with a lot of stuff they don't need. As for things that should be saved, we still have the attic for storage."

Basements Cause Problems

As for habitation, Smithman said, "people are not accustomed to living in holes in the ground. Living below ground causes problems of moisture, heating and lighting. Basement apartments are obviously considered less desirable because the rent on them is less."

For the few items—such as the heating plant and the water heater—which many people associate with basements, Smithman continued, space can be provided above ground at less cost.

"One obvious advantage of eliminating the basement is the saving in stair-climbing," Smithman noted.

If space is so expensive as to require having the house on more than one level, Smithman continued, it is generally cheaper to build up than to dig down.

Inventor Leaves Hobo Jungle For Home

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — Dabbed "Elmer Meukel," 41-year-old inventor who left home to escape his creditors and lived in a hobo jungle, was on the threshold of possible fame and fortune today.

An electronics firm, Polaris Engineering Co., wanted to discuss with Meukel as soon as possible his idea for a device to prevent airplane collisions.

If everything works out, the self-educated inventor could receive as much as $35,000 a year in royalties for his electronics device, plus a salary as consulting engineer for its development.

Polaris said the government had expressed interest in spending millions on Meukel's concept for preventing aerial collisions if a working prototype could be developed.

The lanky, hawk-nosed "dreamer" returned home Sunday after three months of a life as a hobo, hitchhiking and hopping freights in a journey that ended at a hobo jungle near Reno, Nevada.

Waiting for Meukel was his wife, who had taken a job to hold the family together, and their three children, Christine, 11; Eric, 8, and James, 3.

"Bills were piling up," he said in explaining his decision to leave home last June 23. "I guess I was just in a mental funk."

Before he left, Meukel had tried to interest Polaris in his invention.

Integration At-A-Glance

By AL KUETTNER
United Press International
Temporary but still integrated classes were set up today for students of Clinton, Tenn., high school. But officials expressed fear that school bombing might be repeated elsewhere in the county.

The blasts that shattered the now-historic school building at Clinton Sunday prompted school officials to seek an emergency conference with President Eisenhower. The Anderson County School Board authorized a delegation to request the meeting "at the earliest possible date."

Officials planned to open classes for the 879 bombed-out students at a vacant elementary school building in the nearby "atomic city" of Oak Ridge, made available by the Atomic Energy Commission.

Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation helped local authorities comb through the rubble of Clinton High in search of clues. They are seeking evidence that the bombing may have been a direct violation of the injunction against interference with integration at the school.

Federal Crackdown

In Washington, the blast touched off a new move for legislation that would permit the federal government to crack down on the destruction of public property with explosives.

The NAACP went ahead with legal efforts to have nine Virginia schools reopened on an integrated basis. Hearings are scheduled later this week on petitions concerning schools in Norfolk, Charlottesville and Warren County.

Transfer Denied

Virginia Gov. J. Lindsay Almond turned down the request of a 16-year-old white boy who had requested assignment to a Negro school at Norfolk. The youth argued that his admittance would automatically close the school under state law and persuade Negroes to withdraw applications to white schools.

Negro attorneys at Memphis said they would request "as soon as possible" an injunction that would allow Negroes to enter Memphis State University, a state-supported school.

Little Rock Says
It Has Teachers,
Money And Rooms

LITTLE ROCK, Ark. (UPI)—A member of the Little Rock Private School Corp. said today the corporation has the money, classrooms and teachers to start completely independent private schools for white high school students. "I think if parents will be willing to relax and wait out the week," he said, "we will have a school for their children."

The corporation member asked not to be identified because, he said, the corporation had agreed that its president, Dr. T. J. Harvey, would act as spokesman.

Raney said the corporation will open privately supported high schools "as soon as we can get things rolling."

He said he did not expect to be able to detail plans for opening the private schools for a day or two.

By deciding to go ahead and try to operate classrooms in churches, office buildings and rumpus rooms, the corporation indicated it does not expect a favorable ruling.

Clarence A. Laws, southwest field secretary of the NAACP, indicated that the Negroes are still putting their faith in a white movement to force the schools to open on an integrated basis.

This is the sixth week that the schools have been closed.

"The opening of the schools is of major importance now, since it will permit the more than 3,000 high school students to return to their classes," he said.

JOILET, Ill. (UPI)—Police are hopeful this town's latest prankster will quit before he runs through the entire United States. A Guatemalan flag was found flying Monday morning from a hospital flag pole and a Peruvian flag was hoisted to the top of St. Francis Academy. Flag poles on other private and public buildings have recently sported the flags of Denmark, Tunisia, France and Japan.

Commissioner John McCloud, who made the motion for the gambling proposal a week ago, voted for the motion to kill it today, but he explained that he would fight to abolish parimutuel betting and Miami horse and dog tracks and jai alai frontons if the Legislature does not assure Duval County of more revenue from those tracks and frontons.

The present law divides up all revenue from parimutuel betting equally among the state's 67 counties, even though a large part of that revenue is raised in Duval County.

All commissioners present voted to kill the gambling ordinance. Fossey said Farris Cowart, who was attending the installation of a new Roman Catholic bishop here, told him he would vote against the gambling ordinance if he were present.

Pope Regains Faculties; Still On Brink Of Death

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (UPI)—Pope Pius XII regained his full mental power and his power of speech today, another step toward recovery from the brink of death but a high Vatican official cautions that the frail 82-year-old Pontiff remained "gravely ill."

A medical bulletin this morning said the Pope passed a generally good night, despite a brief recurrence of fits, received some food and continued to improve. There were no signs of paralysis.

But it still was an unpredictable battle between life and death for the spiritual leader of Roman Catholics. He suffered a stroke and a "kidney crisis" Monday morning.

Four doctors who have attended him since Monday appeared to be waiting cautiously to see if the Pope's remarkable recovery was a genuine improvement or the result of his many formidable stamina and will power.

Janice No Threat
To U. S. Mainland

MIAMI (UPI)—Hurricane Janice built up to 90 miles an hour Saturday night 10 miles east of Daytona Beach but continued to turn north away from the mainland.

Qualls from the big storm's fringes were expected to soak the South Atlantic coast with 15 miles an hour winds and high tides.

The weather bureau emphasized that "there are no indications that damaging winds will occur anywhere along the South Atlantic coast."

Gale warnings flew from Cape Fear, N.C., to Vero Beach, Fla., and small craft were advised to stay in port.

It said that his condition "improved" and he was lucid following yesterday's attack, but that his temperature, pulse and respiration were normal.

The weather bureau explained, "These gale warnings are displayed because of the strong pressure gradient existing between the area of high pressure north and west of the south and the hurricane center, resulting in strong gales a very short distance offshore . . . and not because the hurricane center is expected to approach the coast."

Jane was expected to continue on its present course for the next 48 hours with no marked intensification.

Reds Set Sunday Punch, Reports Say; U.S. 'Silent'

Big Russian Guns Moved Into Place Opposite Islands

TAIPEI (UPI)—The Communists silenced their blockade batteries only to give them time to move eight 12-inch guns into place opposite the Quemoy and Matsu Islands, intelligence reports indicated today.

The Communists have kept their promise to suspend the bombardment of the Quemoy for a week despite the refusal of their Chinese Nationalist allies to meet their terms.

The Defense Ministry announced however, that observation posts in the adjacent islands saw "large Communist groups and vehicles moving around the distant shore guns Monday.

Sources on Quemoy told UPI Correspondent Robert L. Miller, the senior American weapons observer here—the Nimitz monitors being unloaded at Keeling, an early atomic warhead, but their range is not believed to be sufficient to carry to the mainland from the bases prepared for them on Formosa. They are primarily anti-aircraft rockets.

Such guns, half again as large as the ones that had furnished the Communists "Sunday punch," could pound the Quemoy at what amounts to point-blank range. They also could blanket the Matsu, only lightly bombarded in the past because they were mostly out of range.

"Death is the only answer at punishment for this brutal and terrible crime," said the prosecutor, Charles Adams. "We expect to prove beyond doubt that Mrs. Tyle was committed in this act. We will demand that the jury return a verdict of guilty without mercy."

Mrs. Tyle, 51-year-old former operator of a popular downtown restaurant, also is charged with poisoning her husband and a mother-in-law by spicing their food and drink with arsenic and antimony. Only the older woman died of arsenic poisoning.

Tax Being Investigated, Faubus Hits U. S. Claim

Little Rock, Ark. (UPI)—Gov. Orval Faubus charged today that the federal government is trying to nail him for income tax evasion exceeding as far back as 1934.

Faubus disclosed his tax troubles at a news conference he opened by saying a reporter had asked him at a previous conference whether his segregation stand could be broken.

Faubus said he wanted new to answer the question.

"Yes, anyone can be broken with enough pressure," he said.

"As an example of the pressures now being brought to bear, I was told last year by an internal revenue agent that my income tax return would be checked. I didn't mind. I had faith in my government. I had nothing to hide."

Good Years Loom For Minute Maid

ORLANDO (UPI)—The Minute Maid Corporation's less damaged citrus groves "should generate handsome earnings" for the firm in the next two years of citrus shortages, it was predicted Monday.

President John M. Fox said the company's groves were only slightly damaged in last winter's freezes, and that near-capacity production this season would benefit from high prices due to the over all citrus shortage.

"Our own grove holdings should generate handsome earnings on the 3,000,000 to 4,500,000 boxes of citrus that are expected to produce," Fox said.

Minute Maid's increased gains during the current fiscal year, Fox added

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Grant, Sanford, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Joan Louise, to Wendell J. Brooks, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Brooks, Sanford.

Miss Grant was born in Niagara Falls, N. Y. She attended schools there until 1953, transferring to Seminole High School that year and graduating with the class of 1958. While attending high school she was active in D. C. T. and served as the club's treasurer.

Mr. Brooks attended local schools and also graduated from Seminole High School with the 1958 class. At the present time he is studying engineering at Stetson University.

Final plans for the December wedding will be announced at a later date.

Oviedo Meet Slated

The Oviedo Woman's Club will meet Friday at the club house. Guest speaker will be Mrs. Mary East Walker, tax assessor of Seminole County.

Mrs. John Coulter is chairman of the luncheon committee for the meeting. Her assistants will be Mrs. Karl Dahl, Mrs. George Kelley, Mrs. B. G. Smith, Mrs. Sparks Lee Clonts, Mrs. William H. Martin and Mrs. Wayne Ellis. Luncheon begins at noon.

Eastern Star Chapter Meets; Transferred Ensign Honored

Seminole Chapter No. 2, Order of the Eastern Star, held its first meeting after summer vacation on Thursday evening, October 2. Honor was paid the Associate Patron, Mr. Henry Bullard, who has attained the rank of Ensign in the navy and is being transferred. The Associate Matron, Mrs. Linnie Moyer, and Mr. Bullard were seated in the East during the ceremony. After the Associate Patron had been introduced and received to the East, the Worthy Matron, Mrs. Shepard, presented him to the Chapter. The members wood and sang "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." The Worthy Matron presented a two-sister travelling bag on behalf of the officers.

Mrs. Vivian Welsh and Mrs. Dolores Stein, representing the Seminoles and wearing sailor white caps, approached the East and presented gifts with voices of praise and affection. At the close of their remarks the Starlets—who were also wearing white hats sang "He's No longer a White Hat."

Many other gifts were presented to Mr. Bullard from the Worthy Patron, Mrs. Shepard, Associate Matron, Mrs. Moyer, Mrs. Kathleen Reynolds on behalf of the Rainbow Girls and Mrs. Shepard on behalf of Mrs. Irene Frierson, Grand Instructor of District 24, who was unable to be present. The Worthy Matron also presented Christmas gifts to Mr. and Mrs. Bullard as they will not be present at that time.

Mr. Bullard expressed his appreciation of the honor accorded

Rush Party Is Planned

At a called business meeting last week the Gamma Omega Chapter of ESA completed plans for an October rush party.

The party is slated for Saturday, Oct. 11, at the home of Mrs. Ernest Couley, 119 Laurel Drive. A pirate theme will be used for the affair, which will begin at 4:30 p. m.

Mrs. Ernest Couley submitted her resignation as president. Miss Patty Walker, vice-president, has assumed her duties.

It was announced that the chapter netted $45 dollars on the rummage sale held Sept. 27. Plans were discussed for another sale in the near future.

Following adjournment, Mrs. Eugene Estridge, hostess, served refreshments.

The Worthy Patron reported that the Masons are putting a Trestleboard and that the Eastern Star will be represented in that publication by an insert each month. One copy will be mailed to each family of the Eastern Star.

The Chapter stood and sang "Wedding Greetings to You" to the Worthy Matron and Worthy Patron who are observing their 33rd anniversary.

Hostesses for the occasion are: Mrs. W. B. Hinman, Mrs. Clyde Ramsey, Mrs. George McCall, Mrs. J. L. Jewel, Mrs. W. D. Hoffmann.

Osteen PTA Has Recent Meeting

The Osteen Parent Teacher's Association met Thursday evening at the school with Mrs. Dick Jones presiding.

A film entitled "Crowded Out" was shown.

Mrs. John Latum, chairman of the Halloween "Carnival" told plans made for this event and named her committee.

Mrs. Gerald Hosack reported on the county council meeting held in Holly Hill and announced future dates for such meetings.

Members voted to sponsor the sale of stamps to apply on the purchase of United States Savings Bonds and appointed Mrs. Marvin Riggs to be in charge of sales.

Special recognition was given Mrs. Wesley Lome for the donation of her services as volunteer librarian for the school.

A discussion of the recent school bond issue was conducted by Harold Harris, after which the pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades presented a program based on their Social Studies.

Mrs. Gerald Hosack and Mrs. John Jurs served refreshments of cake and punch from a beautiful table overlaid with green linens. In the social period following the meeting the serving table center piece was of pink pinto and fern and pink lace vases surrounded the pink bowl.

Approximately 60 members attended.

Hoop Craze Spreads; Last Word On Matter

The hula hoop craze, it seems, isn't confined to Sanford, or Florida.

In the current issue of The Rebel Unipresser, publication of United Press International for newspapers which subscribe to UPI, is the following:

Ground rules for covering hoop-twirling stories: Re-cords: Any claim to any twirling record must be substantiated by at least three reputable witnesses, whether for number of whirs or time of uninterrupted twirling; no record will be authenticated or reported on UPI wires if it is found the contest that produced said record was originated by a UPI reporter to produce a story for the purpose of brightening a dull news day.

Unusual twist (or twists): In cases of persons claiming to have twirled a hoop in any unprecedent fashion, such as with the nose, 20 fathoms down, reporters are to check source and reference books and files to ascertain whether the claim is valid.

Accounts of persons fainting or being overcome by exhaustion from hoop-twirling will be permitted on regional (state) wires, but not on trunk relays (Southeast).

In event of a person being killed by a hoop, either by becoming hopelessly entangled in the thing and strangling, or by being amitten upon some vital part by a hoop being twirled by another person, reporters are to handle on a bulletins basis.

Twirling by reporters: No objection provided it is done on reporter's time and not within 500 feet of bureau. Injury, exhaustion or any other physical impairment as result of twirling is excluded from medical and hospital benefits. Any expense bearing either the word "hoop" or the word "hula" will be disallowed, automatically.

That, it would seem, is 'nuff said about those "things" which have invaded the home.

Citrus Preparedness

Florida citrus producers this year expect to break records, but that rosy glow will fade unless the industry plans for the future. So said John T. Lesley of the Florida Citrus Exchange in a speech to the board of directors of that organization.

The supply and demand picture at present won't last forever, Lesley said. The industry should continue planning toward the time when large crops again will cause marketing headaches.

This season's crop is small due to tree damage during last winter's killing freezes. A strong demand is expected to keep fruit moving at high prices.

But, if fresh fruit shippers allow this season to pass without taking advantage of the opportunity to prepare for the heavier seasons to come, their positions will return, progressively, to one of less favorable volume at lower prices, Lesley pointed out.

Beirut Is Rocked By 15 Bomb Blasts

BEIRUT, Lebanon (UPI) — Bomb explosions rocked Beirut before dawn today in fresh attempt by followers of former President Camille Chamoun to enforce their two-week-old general strike against Premier Rashid Karim's government.

Police reported some 15 dynamite blasts inside and outside the quarter controlled by the pro-Chamoun Christian Phalangists.

At least four shops were damaged, police said, but no casualties were reported, apparently because the blasts took place before opening hour.

Officials said at least three of the damaged shops were within the heavily guarded commercial district, proving the opposition was able to get to the very heart of the business district.

The explosions were aimed at intimidating merchants to keep their shops closed and thus make the general strike totally effective.

Movie Studios Fail To 'Make' TV

By VERNON SCOTT

UPI Hollywood Correspondent
HOLLYWOOD (UPI) — Hollywood's unsolved mystery is the failure of motion picture studios to make good in television.

Excepting Columbia and Warner Brothers, the major film plants have fallen flat on their sound stages attempting to invade video.

One TV blimp, Harry Ackerman of Screen Gems (Columbia Pictures TV subsidiary) has some of the answers. His outfit grinds out 14 network shows per week—more than all the other studio operations put together.

"The movies were unwilling to change their ways when TV came along," Ackerman says. "They refused to learn new methods or give creative people financial interest in the shows."

From TV To Movies

Ackerman knows whereof he speaks. He witnessed TV in its infancy 10 years ago at CBS where he developed such shows as "I Love Lucy," "Gunsmoke," "Amos and Andy." His latest contributions are "Bachelor Father" and "Leave It to Beaver."

As vice president in charge of production at Screen Gems, Ackerman is one of the few television executives hired by a movie company to keep the TV film cameras running.

"This instance, motion picture people don't understand situation comedy technique. It is strictly a TV invention. The pace is entirely different, even in dramas. Movie producers let a story unfold while it develops the characters involved in the action.

"TV doesn't have that much time. In an hour show—and especially in half-hour programs—the characters must be delineated at once."

Functions Independently

Ackerman credits Ralph Cohn, head of Screen Gems, and Irving Briskin, originally a movie maker, with Columbia's success in television. The subsidiary is completely free of the studio's top brass, functioning as an independent organization.

If it were not for the TV adjunct, Columbia's sound stage would be as dark and inactive as those of Universal - International and Paramount.

MGM and 20th Century-Fox are plodding along with little success, while Warner Brothers has struck gold with its hour-long Westerns.

Physician Against 'Prolonged Dying'

By DELOS SMITH
UPI Science Editor

NEW YORK (UPI) — Should a physician prolong the life of a hopelessly ill and dying patient? A small-town doctor has given an emphatic "no" to this delicate and profound question of medical ethics. His arguments in favor of bowing to "nature's wisdom" are now being circulated throughout the medical profession.

Physicians generally feel their obligation is to life, even if it's a mere thread of life that's frayed almost to the breaking point. To this concept, Dr. Martin Donelson Jr. of Danville, Va., replies that "life is indeed sacred but not sacrosanct to the point of inflicting costly and painful indignities on someone who has earned his repose."

No Mercy Death

In these hopeless and dying cases the physician should not prescribe blood nor "undue" artificial feedings, Donelson said, "and at the end should have the courage to discontinue antibiotics if these are an unduly prolonging factor."

On Golden Rule

He spoke only of dying persons whom physicians keep "in vegetative existence" by artificial means. He had observed "competent and conscientious physicians preserve life for weeks and months in cases with stupor and even coma, in patients who would have quietly expired in a day or so if left merely alone."

Donelson based himself morally upon the Golden Rule and upon a portion of the Hippocratic Oath which all physicians take and which is the cornerstone of medical ethics. He quoted this portion: "I will follow that method of treatment which, according to my ability and judgment, I consider for the benefit of my patients and abstain from whatever is deleterious and mischievous."

Doctors should be "in consientious attendance and control over the case," and he should be "sure his patient is free of pain and thirst and has good nursing care."

Laymen should not confuse Donelson's views with the idea of "mercy death." There the physician helps death to take over. Donelson's view is that when death is present and life, though existing, has no chance, the physician should "embrace watchful waiting."

Eight Persons Die In Weekend Traffic

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — At least eight persons were killed in automobile accidents during the weekend, the state Patrol reported today.

John M. Walters, 16, and his brother, Enoch, 12, of Chipley, were killed in Chipley Saturday when the car in which they were riding collided with another automobile.

Ada Van Horn, 28, and K. C. Berry, both of Jupiter, died in an accident Friday, north of Lake Park near West Palm Beach.

Bingman Rhodes, 56, was killed Saturday, when the car he was struck by in Jacksonville.

Vicki Grange, 11, of Miami, died Friday when the car in which she was riding, driven by a 4-year-old girl just learning to drive, plunged into a canal.

William F. Messell, 18, Hollywood, was killed on the University of Florida campus when his motorcycle collided with an automobile.

Carol Lee Schaffer, 11, of Miami, was killed Friday when she ran in front of an automobile in Miami.

Casey, Haney Ponder Gamble

MILWAUKEE (UPI) — To gamble or not to gamble—that's the question that confronts rival managers Fred Haney and Casey Stengel today when they name their starting pitchers for the ninth game of the World Series.

Haney, his world champion Milwaukee Braves still on top, three games to two, had a well-rested Bob Rush to throw at the New York Yankees but apparently was undecided whether to go with Bob Buhl, an 18-game winner in 1957 who was out with an arm injury most of this year.

And Stengel, still insisting his Yankees could come on to win the series, had an equally-well-rested Don Larsen, the perfect game pitcher, ready but wondered whether he could afford to gamble with relief ace Ryne Duren or right-hander Art Dimer.

Bear Bryant Tells Team 'Do Things 11 At Time'

United Press International On the University of Alabama practice field this week, members of the football squad are being taught to do things eleven at a time.

Coach Paul Bryant, who already has installed a classroom defense, now is working toward a Crimson Tide offense. He is still looking for his first win on the new stand, and will send his boys out against Furman Saturday.

"We have got to move that football" he told the squad Monday following a 90-minute workout on punt returns and conditioning.

Other Southeastern Conference teams got back down to serious business today after relatively

Romeo, Prinzi Get Votes Of Writers

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — End Tony Romeo and quarterback Vic Prinzi, both of Florida State University, have been picked by the Florida State Sports Writers Assn. as Line man and Back of the Week.

Prinzi, 170-pound senior from Waycross, N. Y., was cited for his outstanding performance in FSU's 27-26 win over Wake Forest Saturday. Prinzi passed two touchdown passes, intercepted two passes that stopped Wake Forest scoring threat, ran for two extra points, and twice hauled down Deacon runners who had broken into the secondary.

Romeo, 199-pound sophomore from Tampa, dominated line play in the same game, ranked as one of the big upsets of the week.

A standout on defense, Romeo also made several key blocks to pave the way for the Seminoles' swift running attack. It was his block in the second period that set up Fredrickson's 25-yard touchdown run.

This marks the first time that the sport writers have selected one of the Lineman and the Back of the Week from the Florida State ranks.

Seminole Facing Rugged Practice

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Florida State bulldogs planned another rugged practice session today for next week's battle against Georgia. Georgia in a game FSU Coach Tom Nugent predicts will be full of action.

Nugent warned the Seminoles to be prepared for an "avalanche of offense" by the Georgia Bulldogs, beaten this season by Texas, Vanderbilt and South Carolina.

"We fully realize that bad breaks have been the difference in all three of Georgia's games," Nugent said. "Our scouts are impressed that Georgia has an outstanding team."

"Georgia has looked great at times. They get mad and really go," he added.

light Monday sessions. All 12 SEC entries will see action this week.

Georgia Tech, due for a tough test against Tennessee Saturday should find four of its key offensive players expected back in harness after spending some time on the bench with injuries.

The Vols heard a scouting report Monday on the Yellow Jackets' passing attack and started work on defensive strategy.

The Vanderbilt Commodores, still shaken from the bruising victory over Alabama Saturday, took it easy. Coach Art Gueris is still looking for someone capable of spelling first-line fullback Jim Butler.

Georgia Coach Wally Butts promoted junior Carter Ramsey to first-string squad and sophomore Phil Ashe to alternate center as the Bulldogs began getting ready for Florida State.

There was taking it easy for the Mississippi Rebels who ripped through a full-speed scrimmage.

Coach Johnny Varnell said his boys looked "Jacchidocious!" In defending Trinity Saturday — in the sixth game of the World Series Wednesday at County Stadium.

Auburn Tigers watched films of last year's game with Kentucky and again began getting ready for the Wildcats, in defend their No. 1 national ranking. A light scrimmage was set today.

Coach Wade Walker began experimenting with his lineups and said new faces may appear in the home opener Saturday against Memphis State.

Tulane continued polishing its passing attack, the biggest weapon in the Greenie arsenal this year. The game with Mississippi Saturday night is Tulane's homecoming.

Hurricanes To Get 'Revamped Lineup'

CORAL GABLES (UPI) — A revamped lineup, which includes six hometown players will probably start for the University of Miami Friday night against Louisiana State in the Orange Bowl.

First-year quarterback Fran Currel, who comes from Miami will include Frank Boulding at fullback, Guards Bill Hayes and Joe Stanley, Tackles Charlie Diamond, end on Jim Merlewick.

Sophomore George MacInnis, Jacksonville, may see additional duty. Coach Andy Gustafson said, MacInnis engineered one touchdown drive against Baylor last week and completed four out of four pass attempts.

Coaches said MacInnis probably will be called on to handle virtually all of the defensive quarterback chores, plus spell Currel on offense as well.

Sid on the injured list and expected to miss the LSU game are guard James Crawford with a sprained ankle; halfback Neil Fleming, injured in the Baylor game; and center Jack North, with a strained knee.

Stengel Breathe Defiance

Stengel pointed out: "I can just ask him to throw as hard as he can as long as he can and follow him with anybody I need. I've got a lot of pitchers and they've got all winter to rest so nobody's going to be spared."

It seemed certain, however, that Haney would hold out two wins — Warren Spahn for the seventh game — if one is necessary.

Rush, a 10-game winner in the National League season, lost the 40 third-game decision to Larsen but allowed only two runs in the six innings when Larsen retired after seven shutout innings and Duran completed the game.

Duran started only one game for the Yankees this year but

McDougald Thinks Yanks Can Take It, Even In Milwaukee

By GIL McDougald

Written for UPI NEW YORK (UPI) — I hope we've got them a little worried now.

Most people think the odds are against us now because we have to play the last two games in Milwaukee. I don't think it that way at all.

It may surprise you to know that a lot of us, myself included, would rather hit in that Milwaukee park than at Yankee Stadium. Why? The "Yanks" are a lot easier to reach. Don't forget we have some pretty good sluggers on our club, too.

When that home run ball left my bat in the third inning, I could tell from the feel in the handle that I hit it real good. I knew it was going to reach the seats but I was afraid it was going to hook foul. As it turned out, it hit sharply during the early innings but had allowed only one run.

Gil McDougald thinks home — until the roof fell in on him in the big sixth.

Army, Navy Facing First Grid Tests

By JOE SARGIS

United Press International

Army and Navy, two of the nation's highly regarded football teams, get a chance to prove how good they really are next Saturday when they play their first major opponents of the season.

The fifth-ranked Cadets rolled into their second straight victory last Saturday by whipping Penn State, 26-0 and the previous week they had an equally easy time of it, routing South Carolina, 31-0.

However, the Buckeyes did manage to squeeze out a 12-12 tie, while the Golden Bears humbled Washington State, 34-14 before a home town crowd and a national television audience.

Badgers Wallup Marquette

Wisconsin, ranked seventh, turned up with a 30-0 win over Little Marquette, but doesn't figure to do anywhere near as well against Purdue, which went all the way to Texas to hand Rice a convincing, 24-0 whipping. The Boilermakers are ranked 11th.

Fourth-ranked Auburn and fifth-ranked Mississippi also had things pretty much their own way on Saturday. The Tigers breezing over little Chattanooga, 30-8 and Ole Miss toppling Trinity (Tex.) 21-0. The Tigers play Kentucky, idle Saturday, while Mississippi meets Tulane, a 140 loser to Georgia Tech.

The Air Force Academy team, some of the nation's other ranked teams found the going a bit rough.

Sooners Edge Oregon

Top-ranked Oklahoma, a 21-point favorite, had all it could do to beat Oregon, 40-0, and the Sooners have to play Texas next.

The Longhorns, in a tie for 13th place in the national rankings last week, beat Missouri, 12-0 for their second straight.

Michigan State, trailing 12-6 with less than four minutes to play, finally gained the equalizer against surprising tough Michigan, but missed the try for extra point. The Spartans meet ninth-ranked Pittsburgh, a 137 winner over Minnesota, Saturday.

Third-ranked Ohio State ran into about as much trouble as did Oklahoma in handing another West Coast team, Washington.

Sports Parade

NEW YORK (UPI) — Memo to fellow sportswriters:

"Seems we're about to get what we deserve. And hold on now, before you go jumping out the press box window, this is good."

"Television is going to show just what fine, courageous types we really are."

All of this will start coming about Oct. 8 when NBC begins a new series about a gent named "Bat Masterson." He was, as you recall, a sports columnist for the New York Morning Telegraph a few years back after having trained as a buffalo hunter, Indian scout and sheriff.

But the advance publicity, at least, plays heavily on the fact he was a sports writer for 18 years. And I've got to allow they're pretty honest about us fellows because they label sportswriter Bat as — and I quote — "a dapper charmer, with thinker and man of intelligence, strength, courage and action."

It's all of us, naturally.

Times Don't Change

It's a program which figures prove times don't change. Because research discloses Bat was a man who waxed wrath and irate (got mad) when there were little "upssets" which didn't seem to be sweetly aromatic.

Once, after a Madison Square Garden bout between Sam Langford and Joe Jeannette, (who fought more often than Eddie and Debbie) he wrote:

"If Joe and Sam were trying Friday night — and thinking it over, I've concluded they were — both are as fine a pair of prize-fighting bums as I ever saw. But understand, I'm only one of a very few men who believe they were trying. Ninety per cent of the crowd was convinced it was a frameup."

If that has a slightly familiar ring, it just goes to prove boxing hasn't changed a bit. You probably wrote the identical words the last time you covered a fight.

The only thing puzzles me is why they had to dig back so far.

Court Aces Named

NEW YORK (UPI) — Backcourt aces Vern Hatton of Kentucky and Tommy Kearns of North Carolina have been chosen to play for the College All-Stars against the New York Knickerbockers at Madison Square Garden, Oct. 19.

Cushenan Purchased

MONTREAL (UPI) — The Montreal Canadiens have purchased defense man Ian Cushenan from the Chicago Black Hawks in a straight cash deal to replace injured rookie Junior Langlois.

Team Shows Profit

BEES SHOW PROFIT

SALT LAKE CITY (UPI) — The Salt Lake City Bees baseball club has reported a profit of $15,000 in its first year in the Pacific Coast League.

HE GOT IT — Shortstop Tony Kubek of the New York Yankees grabs a foul lifted close to the third base box seats by Milwaukee Braves' Johnny Logan. Umpire Bill Jacowski watches Kubek make the catch.

Linemen Signed

OTTAWA (UPI) — The Ottawa Rough Riders of the Canadian Big Four have signed two linemen who were recently cut from National Football League teams. They are center-linebacker Sam Palumb from the Green Bay Packers and tackle-guard Dalton Triax from the New York Giants.

Clinton Group Sees Assistant To like; Bomb Clue Hunted

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Presidential Assistant Robert Stellman was to confer with four Anderson County, Tenn., officials today on the bombing of Clinton High School.

Frank Wilson of Oak Ridge, Tenn., acting attorney for the group, said there was a possibility the officials would get an opportunity to talk to President Eliezer.

"We have a prepared statement to deliver," Wilson said. "I don't believe it would be proper to say what's in it until the press gets it."

Wilson said the group will not ask for an end to integration which started in 1954 under a federal court order. "A stay of the court order has not entered the discussion," he added.

Other members of the delegation are County Judge J. D. Yarnell, and Board of Education members O. C. Mayes and R. G. Crosson.

The pre dawn blast Sunday opened up the inside of the 19-year-old building and did an estimated $300,000 damage.

Crosson was chairman of the education board in November 1956 when the group passed a resolution calling on the U.S. attorney general for federal help in enforcing racial integration at the school. The board said the alternative would be to close.

FBI agents, agents of the Tennessee Bureau of Criminal Identification, and local police are combing Clinton and the school for clues that might lead to those responsible for the bombing.

Supt. of Schools James D. Newland said a guard will be on duty as a precautionary measure when Clinton students move into temporary classrooms at Lander School in nearby Oak Ridge, probably Thursday.

'Rebuffed' Negro Moving To Africa

GULFPORT, Miss. (UPI) — Negro minister Clemon King, rebuffed in two integration attempts in Mississippi, was prepared to day to sell his "worldly goods" and move to Africa.

King put an ad in the Biloxi Gulfport Daily Herald Tuesday declaring: "I am going back to Africa in search of the freedom our African-American people lost 300 years ago."

The former professor at Alcorn State college said the lease on his home here would expire Oct. 15 and "most all of my worldly goods must be sold."

King said his possessions included a television set and automatic washer and that they had to be sold at any price.

"Promptly buying all or some of these items will help me secure my passage home," said King, who tried to enroll in the white University of Mississippi during the summer and attempted to register his oldest daughter in a white school here this fall.

While King was at Alcorn he wrote articles criticizing the NAACP, and students protested by boycotting the college.

His most recent action was a prayer fast until same Mississippi Negro family attempts to enroll a child in a white school. It apparently failed.

King concluded his newspaper ad, "Please help."

Schools To Close In Token Of Aid

GENEVA, Ala. (UPI) — Alabama County schools will be closed Dec. 1 as a token of support for Alabama Gov. Orval Faubus and his segregation stand against the federal government.

James A. Mulkey, chairman of the county board of education, said the resolution was adopted unanimously Monday night. He declared the school board "uniquely opposed to federally enforced integration in our public school systems."

News Briefs

Pope's Last Words

CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy (UPI) — Among the last words reportedly spoken by Pope Pius XII before he died was this plea: "Pray, pray so that this singular situation for the church ends."

Reds' Root 'CBS'

MOSCOW (UPI) — The Soviet government has ordered the Centralized Black Recording System to close its Moscow bureau immediately in retaliation for a number of alleged anti-Soviet plays and broadcasts the network has carried.

Suicide Difficult

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (UPI) — Urban S. Anderson, 47, was reported impaled in a hospital bed despite his little attempts to take his own life. Investigation is under way to determine if he was acting on behalf of another.

The Clinton M. McClure, 26, Anderson's son, was the lone passenger in what Air Force authorities called a "perfect" takeoff of the much-delayed Minuteman III project.

The Air Force took the balloon and reached the edge of outer space.

Air Force officials said the balloon was drifting slowly south and southwest in almost calm conditions. They said it might come down over Virginia sometime Thursday morning, after flying more than 31 miles aloft at a 100,000-foot altitude.

Adams Returns Rugg

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Boston industrialist Bernard Goldstein is about to get back the control of 32,000 intestinal orgs he loaned to Sherman Adams.

It was said that Adams had him pickup the bug to be cleaned and shipped back to Goldstein.

Schools Get Setback

HARRISBURG, Pa. (UPI) — A federal judge today ordered Charlottesville and Warren County, Va., to stop operating segregated private schools on a segregated basis while their teachers are paid with public funds.

Judge John Paul said the state and the school boards of the two localities must complete an all connection with the private schools or allow Negroes to attend them.

Duke's Club Closed

LONDON (UPI) — The Peter and Thomas River, the royal favorite haunt of English royalty's furnishings, has been closed since it served liquor.

A Malvernhead court Tuesday closed the club "at the insistence of the Duke of Kent," it was deliberately closed without any attention being paid to regulations.

Invitation 'Unfit'

LONDON (UPI) — The Royal Embassy rejected an invitation to attend the Piccadilly Theater opening of "Shadow of Horrors," a story of the Hungarian rebellion.

Daily Express critic John Ross said the embassy "did not merely decline" it sent back the invitation.

"There may be no more but I doubt it," Ross said.

Janice Is Blamed For Deaths Of 19; Speeding Seaward

MIAMI (UPI) — Janice, most deadly hurricane of the season but perhaps also the last, picked up forward speed in the Atlantic today and moved further from the U.S. mainland.

At least 10 persons were dead in the Bahamas as a result of her passage.

Top winds near the storm center remained at hurricane strength, but the weather bureau lowered gale warnings from Washington, D.C., to Key West Beach.

The stretch of South Carolina coastline from Vinyard to Cape Hatteras was still alert for gale winds.

Forecasters said the storm probably would continue to gain strength as it moves westward across the central Atlantic.

Eighteen Haitians survived Tuesday when their 45 foot sloop capsized and sank in high waves off Tonton, long Island, about 20 miles southeast of Nassau, the Bahamas.

Joseph Soar, one of the passengers, managed to swim ashore and was the only survivor according to Capt. D. Durward Knobles of the Nassau air sea rescue unit.

The previous day a sailboat skipper drowned in Nassau harbor when his lungs gave out. He was tentatively identified as William Johnson.

Chief forecaster Gordon Dunn of the Miami weather bureau said Janice "should well be the last storm of what has been a most hurricane season."

"There may be no more but I doubt it," Dunn said.

Local Leaders Hear Talk On Adoption Of Children

Fourteen Seminole County cas-

ers received the services of the Children's Home Society of Florida last year, local citizens were told yesterday.

David C. Adkins, public relations director for the agency, said two children were placed in adoptive homes, three adoptive care studies were completed, seven families received casework services, one child was adopted legally and one case referred from Seminole County to additional services.

Speaking at Jim Spence's Restaurant at a luncheon, Adkins gave a brief summary of the agency's service programs and the state's child adoption problems.

Randall Chase and Roy Holler, members of the Society's board of directors, were hosts for the meeting. Attending were officials of the Seminole United Fund, which each year helps raise money for the society.

The Children's Home Society is the largest of 16 licensed private adoption agencies operating in Florida, Adkins said. About one half the total licensed agency placements are made by the Society, which is the only state-wide non-sectarian, private agency operating in the 42 counties. He added The Society placed 250 children in adoption in 42 Florida counties last year.

Only 22 per cent of all the children placed in adoption in 1957 were placed by licensed agencies. Adkins revealed. The others were placed by doctors, lawyers, or given away by their mothers. Independently arranged adoptions afforded increased opportunities for the Society.

The Society's consequences, which sometimes occur in the case of independent placements, are cited as a social problem of "gross miseries" to many children.

We know that what many of these children do is not good.

He is seeking justification for U.S.S.R.'s policy of continuing to restricted nuclear testing now that progress has been made in that field.

We once again reaffirm our position to suspend tests at the end of this month provided the Soviet Union does the same.
