By HILTON GRAMAM AP Features Sports Editor NEW YORK—This is the year McCarthy can silence his critics. A considerable number of fans, who admit they have been an unusually successful pilot, have felt that any manager could win with a club like the Yankees. They have been ready to deal out too much praise to Joe Joe.

Recreation Group Makes Report For First Year's Work

(Continued from Page One) with cooperation of the staff of the Recreation Division was organized in April, 1942 as a committee under the Division of Home and Community Service, of which Mrs. A. W. Kuhn, is chairman. The Rev. Frank E. Lewis headed the committee, and Mrs. Shames was vice-chairman. There were two parts to the recreation program: that for service troops and that for civilians.

The Enduring Music

This shell, this slender spiral in the hand,
Held to the ear, shall still evoke the sound
Of the sea's sandals running on the sand,
The voice of foam, whose music is profound.
The drift of water falling against stone,
Or the spume-fingered breakers when the sea alone
Are heard here still, the sound of sea alone
Falling upon the ear and without haste.

The ideas that washed the shores of Greece are here,
The rush of waters around Zan Zibar,
Held quietly against the waiting ear,
One hears across some far and distant sea,
The waves of lost Atlantis, dim and deep,
Whose waters are the crystal ideas of HAROLD VINAL.

The Rotary Club in this week is sponsoring a drive for the Central Florida Food Bank. The use of blood plasma to revive victims of accidents, injuries on the battle field, or other cases is without doubt the greatest discovery of modern science. Thousands of men already have their lives saved by this new blood plasma. It is a wonder that it is not used more widely. It would be only fair to have $500,000 more in blood plasma.

It is looking through my eyes and I see a lot of boys who are doing a lot of good work. It is looking through my eyes and I see a lot of boys who are doing a lot of good work. It is looking through my eyes and I see a lot of boys who are doing a lot of good work.

Doing Something

A subscriber writes to his favorite columnist: "I think we have a new slogan in this country. It's 'I don't know what we can do about it.' MacArthur wants planes, and everybody says: 'I don't know what we can do about it.' China and Russia want planes, housewives want more food. But— I don't know what we can do about it!"

What's familiar about this? Oh, yes? Demosthenes. Fourth century B.C. He saw the growing power of Philip of Macedonia and the complacency of Athens. The Athenians said, "We don't know what we can do about it," and went right on to the theatre. Demosthenes delivered some famous orations, which have come down to us. Their constant refrain was "We must do something!" "It's our duty to do something!" "Athenians, get busy and do something!" Substitute Hitler for Philip in these lines, and see how they apply today: "When, Athenians, will you rouse and do your duty? What new event, what pressing need, do you await? What contingency more urgent for free men than the danger of dishonor? Will you always assemble in the public squares to ask each other, 'Well, what is new? What can be newer than a man from Macedonia making himself victor of Athen sand master over all Greece?' Is Philip dead? No, he is only sailing. But what matter to you if he be sick or dead; if heaven were to deliver you from him today, tomorrow you would cause another Philip to arise, for his victorious advance is far less a result of his own power than of your inertia."

What happened? Why the appeasement party won, and there was a negotiated peace, and Philip got Athens, and it wasn't funny at all. It began the end of the really great and splendid and democratic Greece. What has Demosthenes to do with today? Everything. Never again let yourself say "I don't know what we can do about it." At least we can always buy another bond.

Up-To-Date Taxation

There can be no question now about the American people preferring a "pay-as-you-go" plan for federal taxes, rather than continuing to pay in advance in the current year's income. Every poll of public opinion shows it. And Congress finally seems convinced.

The only troublesome question left is whether, in changing from deferred collection to current collection, any liability for taxes technically incurred last year under the old system should be "forgiven" now. And if so, how much?

Well, wouldn't the average taxpayer have to pay at least as much this year, under a simple pay-as-you-go plan, as he would pay on the taxes nominally incurred last year and normally payable this year under the old system? For he is making at least as much money now as he made last year.

People still owing for taxes incurred before last year, and not paid last year when they should have been, should obviously clean up that obligation and get down to the main job. But beyond that reservation why not skip last year's taxes, as if it had never existed, and tackle the main job of raking in the money earned this year, quarter by quarter, as a sound foundation for collections hereafter?

Practically, as far as an ordinary citizen can see, there wouldn't be any loss to the treasury in that simple and realistic procedure. Instead, there would presumably be a gain for the government, because all would be paying from current income while they still had the money, and the government would have smaller losses. There would be no "repudiation" but merely a formal change in bookkeeping.

Tail Wagging Dog

European France is completely conquered, but Algeria is free. Could not the necessary rebuilding of the French government start with Algeria, with France subordinate until normal peace times are restored?

This might seem like the tail wagging the dog. But it has already happened to a European country in modern times. In 1807, fearing conquest by Napoleon, King John VI of Portugal and his court took ship for Brazil, then a Portuguese possession. They liked it so well that they did not return till 1822, and then only because of threats that if the king would not live in Portugal, there would be another ruler.

If Portuguese affairs could be managed from Brazil, almost 5,000 miles away, in sailing vessel days, there need be no difficulty, in these days of planes and fast boats, about the 400 miles that separate Algeria and France.

Incidentally Petain's fame might have been higher if, instead of surrendering to the Nazis, he had imitated the Portuguese king and continued the fight from across the sea.

I have recently had the President of two of our schools tell me that certain of these delinquents there were making excellent grades in their work and in citizenship in response to the love, care and attention of interested people.

Governor Shows Pride In Work Of Defense Council

80 Page Report Is Submitted Telling Of Achievements

TALLAHASSEE, May 3. Legislators are studying an 80-page report of the State Defense Council covering two years of operations which was sent to them with a covering letter from Governor Holland in which he expressed pride in the accomplishments and gratitude to the hundreds of thousands of loyal Floridians participating.

The Governor, who is chairman of the State Defense Council, pointed out that "Protective Units of the Defense Councils have already proved their worth directly in connection with the coastal dim-out directed against submarine warfare," and that they are available "in vent of hurricane fire, accident or sabotage as well as providing a minimum of insurance against the risk of air raids."

War Service units, he said, contributed to the winning of the war through a score of more of ingeputer departments ranging from victory gardening to pooling of the state power resources.

Power and Fuel—Organization of power sources through a state committee which represents 48,480 kw or 24 percent of the total power available in Florida, pooled in such a way that power can be exchanged through interconnecting private and municipal systems at $5,000 kw exchange with other states of the southeast.

Water Supply and Fire Protection—Sprayed state's fire fighting equipment, obtained emergency equipment from Federal OGD, Forest Fire Fighting supply coordinator appointed in Service organization and state water plan conservation.

Coal Strike Is Over But Few Miners Return To Work

President Roosevelt, speaking 20 minutes after announcement of a 15-day truce in the coal strike, declared last night "coal will be mined no matter what any individual thinks about it" and expressed hope that every man will be at work Monday as the mines resume operation under Government control.

Mr. Roosevelt addressed the Nation at 10 P.M. (Eastern War Time) after President John L. Lewis announced at 9:05 P.M. that the United Mine Workers' Policy Committee had voted unanimously "to restore all mines to immediate operation for a period of 15 days, beginning Tuesday."

The President, not once mentioning Lewis by name, told the Nation that "the tremendous forward movement of the United States and the United Nations must not be hampered by any one individual or by the leaders of any one group here back home."

"I want to make it clear," the President said, "that every American miner who has stopped mining coal—no matter how sincere his motives, no matter how defensible he may believe his grievances to be—every idle miner directly and indirectly is obstructing our war effort."

"A stoppage of the coal supply, even for a short time, would involve a gamble with the lives of American soldiers and sailors and the future security of our whole people."

"There are 10 million men and women in all American war plants at home and abroad—the production of our war effort."

Labor and Personnel—Registered 750,000 Floridians willing to do volunteer war work; set up Volunteer Offices.

Agriculture—Set up statewide organizations which have been helpful in obtaining adjustments in regulations and stimulating cooperation in connection with farm labor, citrus, seed, poultry, dairy products, livestock, field crops, sheep, general, protection, and farm labor. War active in obtaining fire dehydrated plants for Florida.

Salvage—Organized aluminum, rubber, metal, silk, and nylon, tin can and glass campaigns in Florida 23 counties exceeded the War Production Board goal of 100 pounds per capita.

Retiring Judge Thanks Chief Roy Williams

Retiring Judge Roy Williams has been interested in and I can truthfully say that never did you ask a favor of a law officer who may have been one of your tenants, which I know has happened with many who have appeared before me.

In order that all may know my reasons for resigning, I have prepared a letter to the press which fully explained my action in closing let me again say that my work with you has been a pleasure and I wish success to each and every one of this noble department and its personnel.

Chief Roy Williams then expressed in turn the pleasure of the Judge Department in its association with Judge Miller and a letter of the Department and City Clerk H. S. Scott presented to me with a gift mounted Everhart set and a letter of appreciation.

Dog Is Called Santa's Best Friend When It Comes To Catching Spies

BY ALBERTSON, May 3, (Special) The next Axis saboteur who pads his way to an American beach on a rubber life raft from some undersea raider or spy likely to find furry, snoring, lying, trouble waiting for him. For this country now has four-legged defenders. They are "Santa's best friend" dogs, recruited from homes throughout the nation to sniff out traitors, with unusual, as well as human and mechanical protection. With all the scientific ingenuity of the airplane, the patrol boat, the coast gun at his disposal, man still finds it hard to find thousands of traitors. They are almost 600,000 of the larger, more powerful breeds of dogs, trained to sniff out traitors in a matter of minutes. The Coast Guard and Navy use them for shore duty. The Marine Corps and Army for combat. They are trained to sniff out traitors in a matter of minutes. The Coast Guard and Navy use them for shore duty. The Marine Corps and Army for combat. The following are a few of the charter members, and at the same time, other names that have been added to the roster over this period. The old times here tonight will undoubtedly recall some of them who live now only in memory. Many of these people have moved to widely separate places, and some, alas, the stretch of years has taken them. Next was a man by the name of J.W. Sneath, and I notice by the minutes that a communication was received in reference to him from a Palmello Lodge as late as 1917. Then follows W. B. Marsh, John W. Wellington, W.S. Whitney, and as late as 1916 the minutes show where a communication was received in connection with Whitney; Charles S. Partridge, John A. Rowan,

Beth Taylor, A. McDowell, C.C. Singletary, A.J. French, Charles M. Hand, who was listed as a contractor, and later others joined the organization as we drifted through the 30's and up to the present. Lewis Montgomery, Robert Derby, T.A. Granger, Geo. J. Rourke, H. Ferguson, Max Myerson, Joe Cameron, A.V. Springer, O.B. Senn, who still lives here, William G. Adkins, O.H. Dineen, G.B. Colburn, W.G. Hill, J.D. Davidson, Forrest Lake, L. P. McCuller, Frank Miller, Jno. D. Jenkins, who was listed as a stenographer, J. F. McClelland, and many others. I have mentioned only a few of these names as they are probably familiar to most of you.

Since this organization was founded it has had on its roll 565 members and its growth was steady and consistent. You can tell however, by the minutes, that many others, I have mentioned only a few of these names as they are probably familiar to most of you.

Therefore on the 18th day of January 1933, the Odd Fellows BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATION was organized with H.J. Lehman as President, J.J. Boyd, Vice-President, W.W. Van Ness, Secretary, and Treasurer. The Board of Directors consisted of W.W. Van Ness, J.J. McClelland, J.K. Smith, John Ledwith, J.J. Boyd, J.E. Lehman, and J.A. Loring. Of course you are familiar with the progress since that time. There stands today a tangible tribute to the wisdom, foresight, and energy of the Officers of this Organization, supported by a cooperative and enthusiastic membership. And that is the very thing that we are working to accomplish. Each of us, and every member, is made up of individual men and women, and every man and woman has a part to play in the building of this organization.

cording Secretary, and J.F. McClelland, Treasurer. J.F. Hixson was Warden, R.J. Powell was Chairman, etc. On Apr. 12, 1916, the following persons were admitted to membership in the Rebekah Lodge: Miss Georgia McClelland, Miss Ollie B. Hixson, Miss Beulah Hutchinson, Miss Mildred Chorpington, Miss Jessie Hutchins, and Miss Ethel Hickson, Eugene Brown, Frank Roper, W.P. Stone, C.F. Hannon, Thomas Boyd, C.C. Morris, C.C. Cobb, G. Y. Arant, E.H. Spires, J.J. Dickinson, and J.H. Ferguson.

This organization grew and prospered and occupied a position of Honor and Respect in the community, a position that only the Rebekahs could occupy, and you are no doubt familiar with the splendid work it has done, and the many very fine women who have been and are now on its roll.

In conclusion, it is hardly necessary to remind you that when organizations of this character are made up of God Loving, God Fearing men and women and is founded on a righteous cause that it becomes a living, breathing institution and moves from generation to generation.

Americans Find Funny Names In New Guinea

AP FEATURES

AN ADVANCED BARE IN NEW GUINEA—Citizens of Peculiar Names. Hot Coffee, Mias, and other pieces whose names encourage whimsy may find some comfort in the maps of New Guinea and New Britain. They are rich meat for seekers of place-names that make people pause and wonder—but they are no comfort to the American and Australian soldiers who have to untangle them.

New Guinea's Wamakloknokana, Bedamumunono and Klabekogotaba must rate right along with Dneprotrovska in anybody's jaw-breaking contest. But then there are such easy ones as Ta, Ba, Ela, Bau, Hau, No, Mo, Omo, Not, Owo, Wuvu and Egrad.

The biggest headaches here are similarity and repetition. For instance there are three villages named Gal, all in the same vicinity.

On field telephones, through which even the best voices take on a raspy gravel, quality, imagine what can happen to Arawa and Trava, Asimba, and Avunga, Irua, and Irua, Mrs. and Mrs. Pupunata and two Popunatitas, Guna, Gum, Guna and Gunu, Buna and Puna two Buis, two Husos and three Husus. Three rivers in the Buna area are the Amboga, Samboga, and Emboga.

Lots of names are plain double-talk, such as Biddi Biddi, two Waga Waggas, Bibi and Yu. Then there are Bena-Bena airdromes, Kwabikwabi point, Papa Papa point, Bada Bada bay and the Nawa-Bawa district.

Rev. R.H. Spears of Homestead will be revivalist speaker at Lake Mary.

Light Docket Is Heard In Court

The last session of City Court to be presided over by Judge F. L. Miller, Friday evening, offered only a light docket.

Frank Hunt Herdon of Orlando, charged with driving while drunk, left court before his case came up, and so forfeited bond of $51. His driver's license was revoked by Judge Miller.

A pistol figured in the case of John Henry Coleman, negro from whom it was taken after he had been arrested for making threats against a negro. He was given $25 and costs on this charge, or 75 days, and a like penalty for disorderly conduct.

White cases included, Tom Harley from whom $6 was extracted for drunkenness; James Meyer, reckless driving, $6 bond extracted; and Wesley Cunningham, drunkenness and disorderly conduct, case continued.

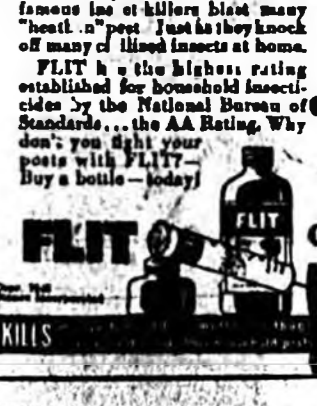

Negro cases included: Essie Mae Holloway, drunk and disorderly, who was transferred to a State Hospital; Eddie Mae Coffery, transferred to County Elton Evans, gambling, $36 bond extracted; Josephine Blackman, gambling, $36 bond extracted; Hector Smith, reckless driving, case continued; Floyd Morgan, gambling, continued; J.E. Jones, operating a gambling device, continued; Eddie Williams, drunkenness, $11 bond extracted; and Evans Du Bose, failure to take treatment for contagious disease, sentence of 30 days suspended.

YOU CAN HELP BUILD THIS BOMBER!

"It may sound funny to hear a girl like me say that you can help build a bomber—but it's true just the same."

"I take thousands of long distance telephone calls to build one of these giant bombers—calls to every part of the country, and for many reasons, from changing telephone plans to providing the delivery of parts. These long distance calls are as important to me as any other work I do."

"To help speed the building of more bombers, ships and guns, won't you please make only the most necessary long distance calls and be brief on all calls? In this way you will definitely help us win the war and our men at the front who need more food, more of all kinds of war materials."

"The next time you reach for your telephone to make those long distance calls, won't you please remember to say just what you need and to hang up as soon as you can?"

Allied Forces Storm Nazis Near Bizerte

Americans Beat Off Counter-Attacks As French Drive Wedge Below Tunis

LONDON, May 5. (AP)—The largest of four-engine bombers yet sent over fighters dropped nearly 1,500 tons of bombs last night on Dortmund, Ruhr Valley industrial city, an RAF commander said. The air ministry reported the "very heavy" saturation attack cost 36 bombers.

Great-ton bombs were dropped and participating pilots described the raid as the heaviest of the year. Tens of thousands of incendiary bombs were tossed, starting flames which big explosions spread late great conflagration.

(By Associated Press) American and French troops driving along the Mediterranean coast have stormed within 10 miles of Bizerte, dispatches from Allied headquarters said today, and a BBC broadcast reported other United States forces were about four miles from Tebourba on the central Tunisian front.

Another American column, striking from Matera, was reported within five miles of Ferrucile in the Bizerte dock area.

The communications said the Americans beat off counter-attacks and continued steady progress toward Bizerte while the British First Army repulsed a counter-attack east of Medes-al-Bab, in the vicinity of the coast. Both big further gains, French troops were reported to have driven a wedge in the Bizerte sector of defense, 25 miles south of Tunis.

The British continued their advance in the Bizerte sector, and were reported to have driven a wedge in the Bizerte sector of defense, 25 miles south of Tunis.

Red army troops were pictured in Soviet dispatches as having lightly ringed Novorossiysk by the Germans holding desperately to hold the important naval base, losing 125 planes in two days.

In the Pacific, the United States Navy described today how its forces had forged a new link in a far-flung chain of advance bases menacing Japan's Pacific empire, had sunk six Japanese vessels in submarine forces and had put a superior Japanese surface force to flight in a north Pacific encounter.

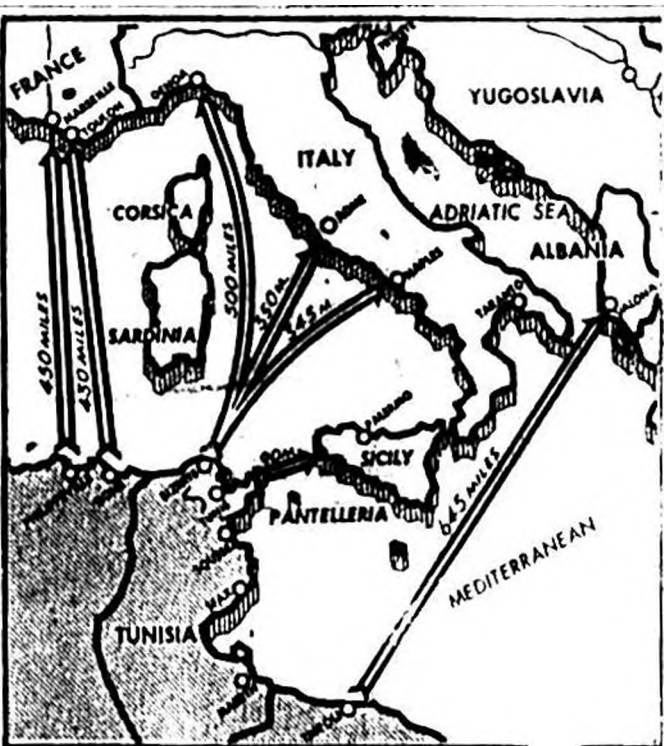

The developments: 1. American occupation of the Marshall Islands, which guard the exposed flank of Guadalcanal in the Solomon Islands, likely preliminary to more important actions. 2. United States submarines have sunk two Japanese destroyers and four additional craft, and damaged a transport, bringing to 224 the total of Japanese ships sunk since the start of the Pacific war. 3. A Japanese force consisting of a heavy cruiser, a light cruiser, and four transports, was sunk in the Pacific and the large transport was damaged and probably sunk.

4. Details disclosed by the Navy showed the scope of our victory in the war's first naval battle in the north Pacific. The engagement was the battle of the Komandorski, fought May 31, near the Russian Islands at the confluence of the north Pacific and the Bering Sea, and first announced March 22 in naval communiqués which told of an American force's turning back a Japanese force evidently bound for Kiska or Attu.

5. The House of Representatives today passed a bill which would increase the pay of the members of the House of Representatives. The bill would increase the pay of the members of the House of Representatives from $15,000 to $18,000 per year.

6. The Senate today passed a bill which would increase the pay of the members of the Senate. The bill would increase the pay of the members of the Senate from $18,000 to $21,000 per year.

O P A Administrator Has 4 Point Program For Holding Line On Inflation

WASHINGTON, May 5. (AP)—War Food Administrator Davis is expected to announce soon a new field organization to carry out food production programs here before administered by local farmer committees under direction of the AAA. The Agricultural War Board, State war food administrators would be set up responsible to Davis and county administrators responsible to state administrators.

ATLANTA, May 5. (AP)—Regional OPA Administrator Joseph J. Spangler yesterday announced that flat dollars and cents ceiling prices on 21 categories of food will be set for the Southeastern region "probably by the first of next week."

Work already has begun, Spangler said, on surveys of prevailing prices in 16 Southern states with a view to implementing the new price order.

Included in the list of foods to be covered are packaged fruits, land, coffee, processed fish frozen fish, cooking and salad oils, shortening, canned citrus fruits and juices, evaporated and condensed milk, eggs, honey, flour and flour mixes, macaroni and noodle products peanut butter sugar cereals, poultry, packaged cheese and butter.

Washington OPA Administrator Prentiss M. Brown said "I have drawn up a four point program to control and in many instances to reduce the cost of living and then to hold it. I have instructed my staff to put this program into effect without delay to the limit of our power."

"First, to extend price control across the board, to every important commodity," he said. "Second, to extend price control back to the source of supply."

Pay As You Go Tax Plan Is Nearer Okeh

George Summons Senate Group To Study Measure Tomorrow

WASHINGTON, May 5. (AP)—Chairman George Summons the Senate Finance Committee today resumed tomorrow for speedy action on the pay as you go legislation. Unsettled by the House approved compromise measure to wipe out 75 percent of 1942 income tax liabilities, Summons advocates expedited Senate passage of the full tax year amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 5. (AP)—Ending one of the bitterest party battles of recent years, the House yesterday passed, 313 to 95, a pay-as-you-go bill wiping out the 1942 federal income tax liabilities completely for approximately 90 percent of the taxpayers and imposing a 20 percent withholding levy against the taxable portions of wages and salaries, effective July 1.

The action came on a dramatic series of steps in which the Democrats barely battered down, 200 to 202, the modified Ruml plan which would have skipped a complete tax year.

Against the Ruml plan were 192 Democrats, 11 Republicans, three minor party members.

When the Ruml bill failed the Republicans swung almost to the man to the compromise, and a measure supported by Democratic leaders never came to a vote.

In the debate, tempers flared, at one time reaching such a pitch that Speaker Rayburn got out the bugle to call a recess so that no member could call another a "demagogue."

The approved bill, offered by Representative Holtzman (D., Pa.) and Farand (D., R. I.), alters the six percent normal and 13 percent first bracket surtax on the 1942 income of all taxpayers, wiping out approximately $7,000,000,000 of the $10,000,000,000 of federal tax assessments against the last year's income.

It now goes to the Senate where Republicans and some Democrats are prepared to open a new battle for the Ruml skip-a-year plan.

Robertson told the House the measure would virtually all of the nation's 14,000,000 individual income taxpayers immediately on a pay-as-you-go system whereby they henceforward would remit taxes in one year on the basis of income the same year instead of on the income of the previous year.

What'll Provide? The House approved bill would provide for income tax collection as follows: 1. Wage and salary earners (except members of the armed services, agricultural labor, ministers, and domestic servants) will have 20 percent of their taxable income deducted weekly, sent monthly from their pay envelopes or salary checks. This will not be an additional tax but provides a means of current collection against taxes now on the statute books.

The collections will cover both income tax and the victory tax obligations. After July 1 there would be no separate collection of five percent on victory taxes. 2. Persons with incomes from sources other than wages and salaries, such as business and professional men, would be placed on a pay-as-you-go basis by requiring them to estimate their tax for the current year and pay such estimated tax within the (Continued on Page Two)
