State Senate Asks For Resignations Of Wildlife Board

Commission Accused Of Racketeering And Inefficient Conduct;

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 17—(AP)—The House today passed 65 to 25 the Darda bill to provide for State regulation of private electric power companies. The measure now goes to the Senate which already has passed a similar measure before it. House passage followed two days of complex parliamentary maneuvering. Opponents of the bill offered a number of amendments, most of which were beaten down.

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 17—(AP)—The Florida Senate today adopted by a vote of 20-18 a resolution calling on members of the State Game and Wildlife Commission to resign.

The resolution, by Senator Bracklin of Crestview, followed a blistering attack on the commission by an interim Senate committee which probed the commission's activities.

Senate President Shivers left the room to level a sharp attack on the commission, charging it "has been unable to accomplish one good thing for" conservation in Florida.

He said the commission has been in one scrap after another and each commissioner was trying to undermine each other. He termed the commission's operations a "matter of shame" and called on the Senate: "Let's get this house clean."

Senator Baynard of St. Petersburg opposed the resolution, saying it was the constitutional duty of the Governor to remove State officials guilty of malfeasance and misfeasance.

Senator Johns of State also opposed the move, saying it is "unwarranted" and "unjustified."

Smith To Preside Over Hearing On Terminal Bonds

Circuit Judge M. B. Smith will preside tomorrow morning at 10:00 o'clock at a hearing at the Court House in regard to the City's motion to strike the answer of taxation to the bonds. The City officials deny the validity of the bonds and terminal bonds amounting to $350,000 which the City had proposed to issue.

The motion to strike the answer was filed in behalf of the City attorneys by E. R. Shindler and G. W. Spencer.

Fred R. Wilson, former city attorney, and D. C. Hill, DeLand, will represent the protesting taxpayers who include Harold Chase, W. C. Hill, W. A. Laffler, Lee Samuel, F. B. Ashdown, R. T. Humphrey, J. H. Hatfield, Malcolm G. MacNeill, W. F. C. Smith, Wynne Sayer, Frank L. Woodruff, Jr., R. A. Newman, Ira E. Southward, D. L. Harper, E. R. Shipp, R. L. Hagan, Sydney O. Chase and E. C. Smith, Jr.

In this proceeding the City filed its motion to have the bonds declared valid. After the opponents filed their answer, the City moved to strike this answer.

The matter of the bond issue has been under active consideration by the City for several years. Mr. Shindler pointed out today.

In 1949 the Legislature passed enabling legislation for the port terminal, and the City Commission, after more than a year of additional consideration and investigation, adopted a resolution providing for the issue of the bonds which are now involved in this suit.

First Auction Held By Farmers Market

The Sanford State Farmers Market opened its initial auction sale of the season yesterday, and bidding was active, said Sandy Anderson, market manager.

Frank Corvelli, with 110 bags of cabbage, was the first bidder to enter the auction block. This lot of cabbage was sold by Verrill Co., auctioneer, to Chase and Co., the highest bidder.

Bonnie Carter was the first grower to reach the block, at the second auction of the day starting at 4:00 o'clock and offered for sale a quantity of red cabbage in burlap bags. The purchase and highest bidder was W. L. Corvelli, operating out of his home in Sanford and South Carolina.

The sales were well attended, said Mr. Anderson, with all of the dealers at the market present.

Hawaii Stages Huge Welcome For MacArthur

General Leaves For United States And Address To Joint Congress Session

HONOLULU, Apr. 17—(AP)—General MacArthur leaves the flower-scented hospitality of Hawaii today on his stern mission to challenge in Congress the views of the President who fired him over war policy.

The sleek, shiny plane, the Bataan, was scheduled to take off from Honolulu international airport at 9:30 A. M. (2:30 P. M. EST) enroute to San Francisco and Washington.

The Bataan should arrive at San Francisco International Airport about 8 P. M. (11 P. M. EST). After an overnight rest in San Francisco and brief ceremonies there Wednesday morning, MacArthur will depart for Washington and his appearance Thursday before a joint session of Congress.

The five-star General and hero of three wars got a foretaste here yesterday of the applause but none of the acrimony that awaits him in Washington.

For two hours Hawaii's polyglot population lining a 25-mile route cheered MacArthur, his wife, Jean, and their son, Arthur, 13.

The spontaneous outburst of acclaim at this starting point of the Pacific war which MacArthur fought from beginning to end—presaged pageantry and public demonstrations planned for him in San Francisco, Washington and New York.

But there was no note of the antagonism that has split America and the non-Communist world over his views. He urged that the Allies should bomb Chinese Communist bases in Manchuria and use Chinese Nationalist troops against the Reds to end the Korean war.

MacArthur's Hawaiian welcome, gushing with a full measure of the traditional island friendship, was short of partisanship. It was the acclaim given a conquering hero.

MacArthur smiled and waved in response to the shouts of the crowds. He shook a child's hand. He chatted with an ex-soldier who had fought with him on Iwojima. He chuckled as a fat, bare-footed woman danced a hula when his green sedan rolled by.

He received an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Hawaii in an amphitheater jammed with 8,000 people. He heard the university president acclaim him "one of the greatest Americans of all times."

He stamped (Punchbowl), a national honor, on the occasion.

Condition Of Howie Described As Fair

JACKSONVILLE, Apr. 17—(AP)—Attendees said today the condition of James R. Howie, 27-year-old guided missile base technician shot in the head at the aftermath of a gay weekend party, was fair.

Police said Howie was wounded by Dr. Hans Strasser, Brevard county health director, when he found Howie in bed with Mrs. Strasser, who was slain by her husband when he made the discovery.

Dr. Strasser is being held without charge in the Brevard county jail.

The shooting took place in Titusville midway down the Florida Atlantic coast.

Dr. Strasser said he had practiced medicine in Reno, Nev., for five years and that he obtained a divorce there from his first wife who now lives in Mount Clair, N. J. He also remarried in Reno.

Republicans Demand Special Probe Of United States Far East Policy; Bradley Raps MacArthur Strategy

General Endangered World Peace With Plan To Hit China.

CHICAGO, Apr. 17—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur, today declared Asia military policies advocated by the deposed commander would "jeopardize world peace."

Bradley was the first of the homecoming General's five-star brothers in rank to speak out publicly against the theory of carrying the war to China since President Truman dismissed MacArthur last week. Bradley did not mention MacArthur's name.

Last year's quick United Nations action in Korea, Bradley declared, may have stayed the Kremlin's hand as it was about to precipitate World War three.

Bradley roundly backed the President's stand against MacArthur's ideas and defended the Administration's policy of limiting the war in Korea. As chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, Bradley has a large part in policy making.

In a speech prepared for delivery to the national association of radio and television broadcasters, Bradley also declared:

1. The Korean war, under present conditions, may be headed toward a stalemate, but it can be brought to an honorable conclusion.

2. The United States will not wage a preventive war.

3. The one price the U. S. will not pay for peace is appeasement.

4. The Reds have made no effort to end the Korean war.

5. Any attempt to settle the world crisis by an ultimatum would be tantamount to a great defeat.

"Slim" Galloway Is Re-Elected Head Of Legion Fair Group

James Q. "Slim" Galloway was re-elected president of the local Legion Fair Association at a special meeting following the regular session of Post 63 last night at the Legion Hut.

Denver Cordell, commander-elect of the post, was elected vice-president of the Association. Karyl Housholder, who presided, was re-elected secretary and John Senkari, treasurer.

Three new candidates were admitted to post membership: Richard T. E. Walker, A.C.E. employee, Randall W. Barnes, also of the A.C.E., and William M. Hoag.

Mr. Galloway reported that receipts of the Legion sponsored Seminole County Fair had been favorable, and thanked those who had assisted in the program. The directors were told to go ahead with plans for the 1952 fair.

Capt. T. Laska, stated that the Department Convention in Tampa will be the biggest in the history of Florida, replete with beauty queens, drum and bugle corps. He urged as many members as possible to hear National Commander Rife Cooke tell of his rebuff by President Truman in a talk Sunday morning at 10:30 o'clock at the Tampa Armory.

Adjutant James Singletary announced that the following delegates will represent the post: Karyl Housholder, J. Q. Galloway, Joel Field, James Singletary, E. A. McFonton, Denver Cordell and Chester Miller.

Royal Navy Submarine "Affray" Is Missing Without Trace In Channel

PORTSMOUTH, England, Apr. 17—(AP)—The Royal Navy submarine Affray with at least 75 men aboard vanished without a trace today after a test dive in the English Channel.

Helicopters, airplanes and ships including two American destroyers—began searching a stretch of sea 75 miles long and 25 miles wide along the South Channel coast of England for the 1,000-ton submarine which has Schnorr-100 depth apparatus and search devices.

The radio code signal "Sub-mash" which alerts the Royal Navy's submarine rescue machinery, was flashed to all stations soon after the Affray failed to surface as scheduled this morning.

The Affray went into her dive about 25 miles south of the Isle of Wight around 8 P. M. (3:15 P. M. EST) Monday. She was due to resurface about 20 miles southeast of the starting point. This is a small cape jutting into the Channel near Devonport which is nearly 100 miles west of here.

Submarines of the Affray class carry a normal crew of 60. In a spokesman for the Admiralty said the missing submarine had at least 75 men aboard.

An admiralty statement said it was possible the sub's commander had misinterpreted his surfacing instructions. But a spokesman added that the Navy suspects serious trouble.

The U. S. destroyers, Elison and Perry, put out from Weymouth to join the hunt. The Admiralty quickly accepted their offer of help.

Navy divers were down to the bottom of the Channel today.

Capital Outlay Bill Is Proposed By Boyle

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 17—(AP)—Legislation to allow counties to set aside funds in their annual budgets for capital outlay was proposed yesterday.

It was introduced in the House by Representative Woodrow M. Melvin of Santa Rosa County, on request of the counties, and by Senator Lloyd P. Boyle of Sanford in the Senate.

Melvin said it would be "very beneficial to small counties." It would allow them to set aside small sums each year until they had piled up enough to buy certain equipment they might need, but which, if put into the budget of one year, would take a big portion of county funds. He gave road building machinery as an example of this heavy equipment.

The reserve for capital outlay could not exceed 20 per cent of the budget in a given year. Reserves for contingencies could not exceed 10 per cent.

The bill states that it's "for the purpose of promoting economy and efficiency in the financial operations of the county governments."

Violence Erupts In Textile Mill; Worker Wounded

Agitators Are Blamed For Riot Outside Dan River Factory

DANVILLE, Va., Apr. 17—(AP)—Dan River Mills blamed violence which broke out today at the company's strike-bound textile plant here on the work of professional agitators.

The disturbance occurred at Dan River's major plant in suburban shifts at midnight.

State police lobbed tear gas bombs into a swirling crowd of pickets to break up the demonstration. An outbreak of pistol fire resulted in the slight wounding of a striker. Workers on the 8 A. M. shift were not disturbed when they entered the plant today.

Basil D. Browder, vice president of the corporation, in a formal statement said the Textile Workers' Union of America (U. A. W.)

Taft Denies Favoring Invasion Of Chinese Mainland By U. S. Forces

WASHINGTON, Apr. 17—(AP)—Senator Taft (R-Ohio) said today he does not favor a full-scale invasion of China by U. S. troops.

A statement issued by his office referred to a speech Taft made Apr. 12 before the Yale Engineering Association in New York. The statement said:

"The Associated Press put a lead on this speech which gives a completely erroneous impression of what he (Taft) said. The lead was as follows:

"Senator Taft, Republican of Ohio, says prevention of a third world conflict cannot now be accomplished without an aggressive war against Communist China."

"This gives the impression that he advocated a full scale invasion of China by the American Army, which is directly contradicted by the words of the speech."

"President Truman had claimed that the aggressive war against Korea was justified as a means of preventing World War III. Senator Taft merely pointed out that this whole justification for the war had failed, because the same principle required a similar

Senate Banking Group Orders Investigation Over Loan Agency

WASHINGTON, Apr. 17—(AP)—Senate Banking Committee today called plans to address the American society of newspaper editors Thursday in order not to interfere with General Douglas MacArthur's day.

WASHINGTON, Apr. 17—(AP)—Senate Republicans, asking equal representation for their party, today promised creation of a special 24-member, Senate-House committee to investigate Far Eastern policy.

They promptly ran into Democratic opposition. Senator Russell (D-Ga.) told the Senate the Armed Services Committee, which he heads, and the Senate Foreign Relations Committee are already moving jointly to make an inquiry into foreign and military policy. He said they would cover the same ground.

Russell also announced postponement of tomorrow's scheduled start of an inquiry by the Armed Services Committee only. Secretary of Defense Marshall was to have been the lead-off witness.

He said the postponement is designed to give his committee and the Foreign Relations Committee, headed by Senator Connally (D-Tex.), time to work out plans for joint hearings.

Russell raised his objections immediately after Senator Ferguson (R-Mich.) introduced a resolution for a special Senate-House committee. This idea had received formal endorsement from the

Way Cleared For Fair Trade Law Price Increases

WASHINGTON, Apr. 17—(AP)—Government price control officials cleared the way today for wholesalers and retailers to apply for ceiling price adjustments to meet levels fixed under state fair trade laws.

The Office of Price Stabilization (OPS) issued an order permitting sellers to ask price relief under certain conditions. The order is effective April 21.

Forty-five states and the District of Columbia have fair trade laws which permit manufacturers and retailers to agree on minimum prices for specific items.

OPS said that since the general price freeze of Jan. 26, some sellers have ceiling prices which are lower than the minimum set by the State Fair Trade laws. The general freeze prevents these ceilings being raised.

OPS said this situation resulted in some cases in violation of a fair trade contract in other, the agency said, the manufacturer announced a new fair trade price but permitted distributors to dispose of marked inventory on hand at the old price.

The general freeze provides that a seller's ceiling is the highest price he charged during the base period.

Two Are Injured In Car Collision At 2nd And Laurel

Two persons were injured at 6:15 o'clock last night in an automobile collision at Second and Laurel Avenue, which according to Police Chief Roy G. Williams, was the direct result of an automobile race between two cars going west on Second Street at high speed.

The injured were Steven Matthews, 17-year-old high school student of 1205 East Second Street, and Mrs. C. F. Watkins, who lives in the trailer block at Fourth Street and Laurel Avenue.

Stewart Matthews is still confined in a Franklin-Dunham Memorial Hospital where he was taken in a friend's ambulance following the wreck. He suffered a concussion and x-rays were being taken today to determine a possible fracture of the hand. Mrs. Watkins was given first aid for bruises and was released from the hospital.

Police Chief Williams stated this morning that according to witnesses who saw the accident, young Matthews, driving a 1949 Ford Sedan, and James D. Borne, 17, of 109 West Ninth Street were turning west by side. The latter was driving a 1949 Buick convertible. Matthews' car was struck by Borne's car, which was driving north on Laurel and a collision with young Matthews' car resulted. Borne's car escaped the collision was estimated at $500 and the Ford at $150. Const. Roy Tills and Patrolman J. T. Hekson investigated the accident.

Talks Postponed

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 17—(AP)—U. S. Senators Holland and Smithers (D-Fla.) will appear before the Florida Legislature Apr. 20 instead of Apr. 19 as originally scheduled.

They asked for the postponement so they will be able to be in Washington to hear General MacArthur's report to Congress.

have for avoiding war and at the same time remaining able to win

while the driver was going straight ahead, only 2,160 while he was on a curve.

Allan Morris writes from Talla-

Those who are talking so glibly
about the merits of Truman's Far Eastern policy as opposed to General MacArthur's policy should postpone their judgment in the matter at least temporarily until
they have heard from General MacArthur himself just what his policy for the Far East really is,
something which may now be deferred no longer than Thursday
of this week. Heretofore, all they have known about General Mac-Arthur's policy is what President Truman said it was.

We have recently pointed out
how the cost of city government
compares with the cost of state government. Now we see where the cost of state governments (all 46 of them combined) is as nothing
compared with the cost of our
one federal government. State governments spent $13,180,000,000
altogether last year as compared with $40,000,000,000 for the federal government which is now
heading for a $70,000,000,000
expenditure this year. Oh, well says you, the federal government
naturally spends more than the state governments. But it was not always so. In fact, up to a generation ago, the state governments
always spent more than the federal government.

Most writers who support Truman in the MacArthur controversy
emphasize the fact that it is necessary to keep the civilian government superior to the military;
they do not argue that placing U.
S. Troops in Korea at the mercy of the Chinese without allowing them to strike back across the Yalu River is good military strategy. But we submit that if Truman merely believe in this policy
and had wanted to do the right thing, he did not have to use
force, he could have ordered

The Statehood Matter

This is a good time to ask what has become of the proposals of statehood for Alaska and Hawaii. The House passed the statehood measures last year. It will be recalled, but the Senate, deeply engrossed in its mysterious affairs, was too busy to be bothered with them. Since the Congress has now changed, the whole thing must be done over. The bills must not only be approved by the Senate but also go through the House again.

Although fresh statehood measures have been presented to the new Congress, little has been heard of them.
Apparently the statehood matter is regarded in Washington as one which can safely be put aside. Yet this matter is fundamental to the American principles of democracy
which so deeply concern not only ourselves but the peoples of a large part of the world.

This matter relates to the present and future status
of two important geographic minorities in our population, the residents of the two territories involved. They want the self-respecting, self-governing status of sovereign states.
No one should doubt that they should have it.

This question gives the lie to the fine speeches our representatives make to the rest of the world about the inherent rights of people to determine their own form of government and their own destinies. Let's practice what we preach.

Shakespeare Notebook?

Just one "if" between Alan Keen and riches. The "if"
is a formidable obstacle. Keen, a London bookdealer, says that he has come into possession of an original notebook
by Shakespeare. The notes occur on the margin of a historical work published in 1550. They contain bits of dialogue about Kings Richard II, Henry IV and Henry V, which scholars will be interested to compare with the finished Shakespearean product in these plays.

If Keen's identification is accepted as correct, he can probably retire for life on the proceeds. But is he right?
One fundamental reason for doubt is the meager material
available which is known to have been written by Shakespeare's hand, and therefore suitable for comparison. There are only six signatures in known existence and the words
"by me" at the end of his will. Nor is much more likely to turn up. The sixth signature was found after a long search by Prof. C. W. Wallace of the University of Nebraska. He reasoned that anyone living in London for a long time would eventually appear in court in some connection, and went through tons of documents until he finally found a single signed deposition. Some such find as Keen's presents the most likely possibility of adding to this scanty material.

The discouraging point for Keen is that scholars differ on the few remaining signatures. One such, in a copy of Montaigne's "Essays," was pronounced genuine by the head of the British Museum's manuscript department in 1872, and was called spurious by his successor. Where experts differ, who can decide?

At least Keen will have the satisfaction of having started something.

Watching The Birds

The simple and unadorned activities of birds attract
many observers.

A report from George Washington University says that a non-credit course in bird-watching has 150 students registered. This course is conducted with the College of General Studies, and is attended by doctors, lawyers, secretaries, Red Cross workers, housewives, an FBI man, an acc-cutter, and even a member of the unemployed. According to their instructor the only classifications under which
these students can be placed are male and female.

The problem common to these various students of bird-life is that of the complexity and stress of modern living. But the habits of birds have changed little in the thousands of years of their existence, and their activities
have remained on the simple basis of the satisfaction of natural needs. This simplicity, together with their beauty of form, color and song, exerts a powerful attraction. Bird-watching is a real and satisfying hobby.

British Submarine

scene from bases in Scotland.
Seventeen vessels, including six submarines, destroyers and the American warships were called out to hunt. One was the Royal Navy's Reclaim, a deep diving
training vessel especially equipped for salvage.

The Affray had orders to move
westward at a speed of four and a half knots (five and one-eighth land miles per hour) after submerging.

In the 11 1/2 hours in which she was ordered to stay down she thus could have covered nearly 60 miles.

The search centered between the Isle of Wight, which is near
the port city of Southampton,
and Portland, about 60 miles
westward.

Navy officers refused to speculate on how long the crew might stay alive if the Affray remains underwater. Vessels equipped with her breathing apparatus can stay submerged for weeks or even months, so long as they are undamaged and their breathing tubes remain above water.

Searching ships and aircraft
were instructed to hunt for oil
spots or wreckage as well as
marker buoys which a submerged
submarine in trouble could be expected to send up.

Textile Strike

eral Union of America (CIO) had brought in agitators "to stir up trouble." Today's disturbance was the first in the 17-day-old strike
of about half of the company's 12,000 workers.

The demonstration was led
by a woman with a northern accent
who never worked in the mills. He gave no further identification.

He charged the same woman had been influential in forming a
"human carpet" pickets strike
lined out on the ground—to block
the entranceway to the plant Sunday night.

"She is one of many agitators
brought in by the union," Broderick
said. "We are obtaining information on them."

Union spokesman have had no
comment on this morning's demonstration.

Den River, one of the largest textile mills in the South, manufactures virtually all types of cotton and cotton-base cloths. Officials estimate 30 per cent of the firm's current orders are on government defense contracts.

Farm Owners Now Served By FHA, Supervisor Says

Farm owners as well as tenants
are now being served in the Farm Ownership program of the Farmers Home Administration, says Curtis J. Green, FIA County Supervisor here.

Seminole County farmers who own inadequate farms may make essential improvements on their land and buildings with Farm Development loans made or insured
by this agency, he explained. Fugitives unable to get suitable credit
elsewhere may qualify.

This credit is extended to improve farms that are large enough,
but not well developed to enable the owners to make a good living, Mr. Green said. Funds may be used for basic soil conservation
practices, pasture improvement,
construction or repair of buildings and other major improvements.

Payment schedules are set up
for 40-year periods, but borrowers
refinance their loans as soon as they can do so on satisfactory
terms. The interest rate is 4 per cent.

Mr. Green pointed out that the FHA loan for Farm Development credit in Seminole County is:

1) To construct or make improvements on house, barn, shed,
or other structures affecting
farm's efficiency.

2) To clear land by removing
trees, stumps, brush, and adding pasture or pasture.

In developing their farms, Mr.
Green explained, borrowers are encouraged to do as much of their own work as possible and to use
native materials whenever they
can. He said the Farmers Home Administration cooperates in its Farm Development program with other agencies, including the State College of Agriculture, Extension Service, Soil Conservation Service
and Forest Service.

"We can include funds in these development loans," he added, "to refinance indebtedness the farmer
may have against his farm."

All applications go before the Seminole County Farm Development Committee, headed by Gordon W. Johnson,
Orlando. Other committee members
are Henry Schumacher, Jr., Route 2,
Box 210, Sanford, and Wilson B.
Miller, Route 1, Sanford. Curtis J.
Green, county supervisor, may be contacted at the Farmers Home Administration, P. O. Box 1831, Orlando.

This committee is responsible for the selection of farms which are eligible for a loan and whether his farm can be developed into an efficient family-type farm management unit within the legal investment limit of $12,000 for Seminole County.

The Farmers Home Administration also makes and insures loans
to buy farms and to enlarge farms
that are too small to be efficient,
Mr. Green said.

State Senate

commissioner listening to all the
sportsmen's gripes in the state it could run a good agency and preserve conservation.

Senator Franklin of Fort Myers
has introduced a bill to create a Game Commission, former chairman of the commission.

Game Commission officials
claim the deficiencies of which the state is complaining have been corrected or do not exist. They included charges of political bias;
incompetence among commissioners;
"flagrant inefficiency" in administering the conservation program, and granting of special privileges to some hunters.

MacArthur Returns

tional cemetery in the extinct
crater of a volcano overlooking Honolulu and Pearl Harbor. He placed a wreath of orchids at the base of the flagpole in honor of 13,000
World War II dead buried there.

Some of the neat white rows
of crosses marked the last resting place of men who perished in the Japanese sneak attack on Pearl Harbor Dec. 7, 1941.

After standing rigidly at salute
for a minute, MacArthur turned to correspondents, pointed at row on row of the crosses and said "I know the glory of their death."

It was the simple praise of a man who had lived through the latter campaigns of the Pacific
war and had watched men die
from Bataan to Okinawa on the long, hard way to Japan's surrender.

The citation in the honorary degree from the University of Hawaii spanned the crowded months
of his campaign with such
laudatory words:

"Fighting General of the Philippines, magnificent defense of Bataan and Corregidor, Conqueror
of Japan, the distinguished nation of 70,000,000 have the privilege of honoring you as a representative of the code of democratic laws and system of justice."

President Gregg M. Sinclair of the university said:
"The people of the world will always be indebted to him for his courage, for his extreme devotion
to duty and for his indefatigable
endeavor for labor for justice
and freedom."

"The university," said MacArthur in impromptu remarks of acceptance, "is one of our main marks of civilization, representing
a symposium of science, culture
and divinity."

The general rode in the lead car
with his Hawaii host, Admiral Arthur W. Radford, Pacific Fleet
commander.

In the next car with Mrs. Radford were Mrs. MacArthur and Arthur, who hurried to join the procession after a romp on the white
sands of Waikiki Beach.

GOP policy committee at a forenoon meeting.

The resolution calls for "a complete evaluation of the United States policies in the Far East
and their relation to the foreign
and military policies of the United States as a whole."

Senate Democratic leaders have agreed there should be an airing
of the policy differences behind
President Truman's firing of General Douglas MacArthur from his post in the Far East.

However, the Republican opposed such party representation on the suggested committee—13
Democrats and 19 Republicans.

The Democrats could be expected to insist that the majority party, they should have majority representation on any inquiry group.

Meanwhile an investigation of whether Congress members have solicited their influence with the RFP and other agencies, the Banking Committee.

The action was taken after a
closed door discussion of reports
President Truman once made and later discussed in the House.
Congress members have received
funds for helping applicants for RFP loans.

Rotarians Plan To Attend District Meet In Orlando

A group of Rotarians from Sanford plan to attend the annual Conference of the 244th District of Rotary International from April 23-24, in Orlando, Orville Touch-
ton, President of the local Rotary Club, said today.

Representatives from the 32
other Rotary Clubs in the Central Florida and West Coast area which make up the District also will attend the Conference. This series of meetings is held each year.

President Touchton said, to review
the Rotary service activities of the preceding year and to make plans for increasing their effectiveness.

Senator Spessard Holland will make the principal address at the Conference, District Governor Frank M. Rhodes of St. Petersburg will preside at the Conference
sessions.

One of the most important matters to be taken up at the Conference is the nomination of a Rotarian to succeed Mr. Rhodes as District Governor. The man nominated will take office as governor on July 1, and will be the official representative of rotary international, the world-wide organization of all Rotary Clubs, in the 244th District.

Although nomination at the district conference is equivalent to election, the new governor will be formally elected along with more than 200 other District Governors
from all parts of the world, at Rotary International's 1951 Convention in Atlantic City, New Jersey,
U.S.A., May 21.

Korean War

Chinese base and road junction.
Yenchon, on the road leading northwest to Choron, was abandoned by the Reds. The Allies held high ground on all sides of Yenchon, but had not entered the town itself.

An Allied tank-infantry force
smashed into a Red pocket of resistance on the main road to Kumhwa, a Chinese location on the central front. Fifty of the 250
Reds were killed by tank and rifle fire.

Kumhwa is east northeast of Choron and northwest of Hwa-chon. It is a key point in the Red holdup area.

The exact location of the fight
was not reported.

Activity on the east and west
fronts was limited in what the United Nations said.

Div-bombing of U. S. F-80 Shooting Star jets struck Communist rail facilities Tuesday for the third straight day. Pilots reported that the jets had destroyed
two trains.

The Reds lighted forest fires
and smudge pots in an effort to hide their ground movements
from the probing eyes of Allied planes. They used the same trick
last November, just before they opened their drive down the heart
of the peninsula.

The new field commander of the U. S. Eighth Army in Korea,
Lt. General James A. Van Fleet,
visited his troops Tuesday on the western front.

He told AP correspondent Jim Becker earlier that the United Nations forces were ready and able to contain any Communist threat.

Spring was breaking fast in Red Korea as Van Fleet made
his first frontier tour. Reds
again were dry and dusty.

In the ground fighting east of the Hwachon reservoir, Allied forces held fast to Yanggwu and Fashon, towns they seized from the Reds two days ago.

Andy Carraway To Represent City On Armed Forces Day

Mayor Fred A. Dyson announced
today the appointment of Andy Carraway, city commissioner, to represent his office as civilian chairman of Armed Forces Day on May 10. Mr. Carraway, long active in civic affairs, will choose a civilian committee who will plan the events
which are to honor the Armed Forces.

Simultaneously with the Mayor's announcement, Major General
Joseph C. Hutcheson, commander of Florida's 48th Infantry Division
of the National Guard, announced
the selection of Capt. Robert M.
Baker as Project Officer for the Armed Forces Day for the Post
of Sanford. Capt. Baker will act
as liaison between the civilian committee and the military, under direction of Col. William E.
Brakley, USAF, State Project
Officer in Jacksonville.

Mr. Carraway said that a wide variety of events is being planned
for Sanford to carry out the theme of the second Armed Forces Day, which is two-fold:
(1) To honor the Armed Forces as an integral and independent part of the total material and spiritual power of America now being mobilized.
(2) A renewal of faith in our country's sacred heritage, the ideals of peace and freedom, to
the preservation of which our power is dedicated.

Capt. David Gatchel, commanding officer of Sanford's Company "I" 124th Infantry, of Florida's 48th Division, said his company will cooperate in every way possible to help make the observance of Armed Forces Day
memorable to everyone in Sanford in the vicinity.

Why not give your Pride a break?

Let's see what it means to own a Roadmaster. It means, first of all, that you're a shrewd judge of fine manufacture. Nowhere will you find a mechanism more skillfully fitted part to part with scrupulous precision—engineered to stricter standards of fine-car quality—than the deep-framed and durable Roadmaster chassis.

It means, also, that you possess keen appreciation of everything that makes for unsurpassed performance.

For there's more to this dazzling beauty than its thrilling take-off. There's the surplus of power that you need to make you the master of busy traffic or open road—plus the velvet magic of Dynalloy Drive (at no extra cost, mind you).

There's the level-going luxury of ample roadweight buoyantly balanced on coil springs on every wheel—and the serenity of brakes specifically engineered for firm control of this great powered beauty.

But there's still another distinction to being a Roadmaster owner. It marks you as one who buys wisely and well. Size for size, pound for pound, feature for feature, few cars can even approach what your dollars will buy in the finest of Buicks.

There's much more to be discovered by a visit to any Buick dealer's show room.

There's the sumptuous softness of cushions, the custom excellence of fabrics and interior trim, the grace and charm of every line and contour.

So if you've dreamed of sometime owning a car superbly fine, there's no time like the present—and no car like Roadmaster for making dreams come true.

When better automobiles are built Buick will build them

Russian Plan

(Continued From Page One) last March that another such plan would be undertaken this year. Main outlines of the new plan may be announced soon at a meeting of the Supreme Soviet (Parliament). Perhaps significantly last night's announcement gave no figures in non-ferrous metals—non-ferrous. Nor did it claim Soviet production targets in this important field had been met.

Bradley Statement

(Continued From Page One) to bomb Russia—is militarily impracticable and might backfire. In Washington, the Defense Department said Bradley's speech was cleared by the State Department in line with a White House edict last December requiring clearance of policy statement by government officials. In quoting MacArthur from the Far East command, Mr. Truman cited disregard of that order as a reason for the action.

Russian Plan

The announcement also admitted there was a lag in construction of agricultural machines. The government-controlled press recently has blasted the agricultural machine building ministry and reports that she is suffering from shortages in such things as nickel, copper and coal.

Bradley Statement

Bradley made it plain that "I have no intention of entering the foreign policy field or even urging a particular policy in the conduct of foreign affairs. Conduct of foreign affairs is a civilian responsibility." But he added "A soldier can often see strategic points the layman might overlook. It is fundamental that our foreign policy must be headed for a stalemate, and our capabilities to back it up."

Russian Plan

It boasted that the Russians had improved their techniques of iron and steel production and introduced labor saving devices. Great strides also were claimed in the oil industry, which the broadcast said was "completely reconstructed and re-equipped."

Bradley Statement

MacArthur recommended, in a series of statements and a letter to Rep. Joseph Martin (Mass), House Republican leader, that the solution is to use Chinese Nationalist forces on Formosa to carry the war to the mainland and to bomb Manchurian bases. Bradley said: "Any recommended course of present war is contrary to our best interests, and by jeopardizing world peace, ultimately would threaten our security."

Bill Allowing 18-Year-Olds To Vote Passed

Ervin's Bill Hitting Bookies Approved; Re-examination Of Welfare Law Asked

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 18.—The Florida Senate today approved by a 22 to 16 vote a bill to broaden the State sales tax and bring in $17,500,000 more in the State each year. The bill takes off the 3 percent tax exemption on such items as clothing, most jewelry, candy, etc. It also straightens out many collection methods.

TALLAHASSEE, Apr. 18.—(AP)—A proposal to let 18-year-olds vote in Florida sailed through the House with a 77-13 vote today after an Army sergeant on leave to serve in the Legislature drew applause for his speech in behalf of it.

Rep. Williams of Citrus County, who often shows up for House sessions in his Army uniform, declared youths old enough for Army service not only should be allowed to vote—"They should have priority."

He told the House he had scores of youths serving with him and under him in a combat Army unit and he knew he soon would be leading some of them to their deaths.

"We're not going to be President of the United States right away but they're going to give their lives for you," he declared. "What else can a man give?"

Williams drew an ovation, not common in the House, as he returned to his seat.

The measure, which now goes to the Senate, would let the people vote on the question at the (Continued On Page Two)

Reds Give Ground Stubbornly As Allied Offensive Grinds Forward

By OLEN CLEMENTS
TOKYO, Apr. 18.—(AP)—Allied troops advanced 2,000 to 3,000 yards on the west Korean front today behind heavy air and artillery attacks.

The Reds gave that ground—1 1/2 to 2 miles—grudgingly.

The big gains were south and southeast of Choswon, a five-highway hub about 15 miles inside Red Korea.

One Allied infantry team pushed up a valley road within two miles of the rubbled city. The doughboys met Chinese mortar and rifle fire and withdrew.

A tank force lunged into the Red lines near Chipyong and killed 100 Communist Chinese in seven miles southeast of Choswon and seven miles southwest of Kumbwa.

Wednesday's gains carried the main Allied line to about eight miles south of Choswon, Choswon and Kumbwa are the western bases of the Red buildup area where an estimated 600,000 Communist combat troops were deployed.

The Reds retreated slowly in the west but they stood and fought for Hwachon, the eastern base of the Choswon-Kumbwa-Hwachon triangle.

Ten Allied thrusts at the Hwachon dam were turned back Wednesday.

One was a frontal attack on the dam itself. The other was a flanking movement across the Pukhan River east of the dam. Both bogged down under heavy Communist fire.

South Korean forces fought a five-hour battle with 250 North Korean Reds on the east coast of front elsewhere. In the rolling hills around Inje Allied units straightened and re-adjusted their lines.

Allied foot troops slugged ahead with little opposition east and north of Yangu on the western tip of the huge Hwachon Reservoir. Some Communist mortar fire was reported.

They ranged east and south-west of Yonchon on the west central front without meeting Communist forces. The tanks destroyed 70 tons of Red ammunition southwest of Kumbwa, the Russian-made jets returned briefly Wednesday to the North Korean skies. Twenty-five MIG-15s darted across the Manchurian border and tangled with 16 American F-86 Sabre jets.

One MIG was damaged in the 15-minute dogfight that swirled at 30,000 feet. All Allied planes returned to their bases.

Time Runs Out For Lost Submarine; Signals Are Heard

PORTSMOUTH, Eng., Apr. 18.—(AP)—Faint underwater signals spurred a blind search today for the British submarine Afray, stuck on the bottom of the English Channel. Time was swiftly running out for any of the 75 officers and men aboard who might still be alive.

The submarine, trapped in the initial dive of a train exercise, had been under 198 feet of water for 40 hours when the Royal fleet it had been unable to make (Continued On Page Two)

European Nations Combine Coal And Steel Industries

Six Countries Pool National Output In Schuman Plan

PARIS, Apr. 18.—(AP)—Six West European nations today signed a treaty pooling their $4,000,000,000 a year coal and steel industries.

West Germany and France are the main partners in the historic pool. It is commonly known as the Schuman plan, after France's Foreign Minister Robert Schuman, Italy, Belgium, the Netherlands and Luxembourg are the other members.

The pool has great political implications.

The French are convinced that by using the heavy industries of France and West Germany as a future war between the two nations is impossible.

To become operational, Parliaments of the six nations will have to give their final approval. The ministers, including France's Schuman and West German Chancellor Konrad Adenauer, signed three documents in a public ceremony before 200 newsmen and photographers in a salon of the French Foreign Ministry.

The documents were the treaty itself creating among other things a high joint authority to run the pool, a supplementary paper providing for a transitional period before the pool goes into operation, and a declaration pledging the nations to go on working for the "European Community."

Other signers included Carlo Scforza of Italy, Joseph Bech of Luxembourg, Paul Van Zeeland of Belgium, and Dirk Stikker of the Netherlands.

Britain, Europe's biggest coal producer, has stayed aloof from the plan.

In what perhaps was an allusion to this, the nations, in (Continued On Page Two)

Sanford Spelling Champions Make Tour Of Herald

Seminole County's school spelling champions, Nadine Bostick of the Geneva School and Robert Nolan of the Lyman School, Longwood, visited The Herald yesterday afternoon and took a keen interest in learning how a newspaper is printed.

They were accompanied by R. C. Steele, principal of the Sanford Grammar School, who had charge of the local spelling contest and Mrs. Marvin Estes, Robert's mother.

The children were fascinated by the three typewriter machines. Dick Linger, Associated Press dispatcher from all over the world, the linotype machines and operators also proved to be of much interest.

L. E. Sears, pressman, showed Nadine and Richard how the press works and took them to the building in the rear and explained how lead is melted and poured into molds to form plates for printing full page advertisements, comic sections, etc.

Nadine, the spelling champion, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nolan, Force of Geneva. Richard, his mother pointed out is much interested in reading and this included the daily papers, and books from the library which include adventure stories and historical narratives.

Nadine and Richard will compete in spelling with children throughout Florida in the state contest sponsored by the Miami Herald at the Miami Municipal Auditorium on Apr. 27.

Murder Warrant Is Issued For Strasser

TITUSVILLE, Apr. 18.—(AP)—A warrant charging first degree murder was issued late yesterday for Dr. Hans Strasser, Brevard county health officer.

Dr. Strasser, in full beard, was charged with shooting in death his wife and wounding James H. Howie, 27, Guided Missile Base technician, Saturday when he found them in bed together.

She was nude, Howie clothed. They were asleep. The discovery was made when Dr. Strasser and Mrs. Howie returned to the Strasser home after leaving it briefly to buy cigarettes. The Howies were weekend guests of the Strassers.

Howie, shot in the head, was taken to a Jacksonville hospital where his condition today was reported good.

The murder warrant was issued by County Judge Vassar H. Carlton on request of Sheriff H. T. Williams.

Because the charge is first degree, no bail was allowed. The case must go before a grand jury at the fall term of circuit court.

Screaming Thousands Greet MacArthur In San Francisco; Senate Promised Policy Probe

President Hoover To Testify On Plan To Kill RFC Agency; Cain Plan Ignored

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—(AP)—Senator Robert Taft today promised a "ky-the-limit" inquiry into the Eastern policy and the clash of opinions which led to the ousting of General Douglas MacArthur.

Chairman Russell (D-Ga.) of the Armed Services Committee said it intended the "widest possible" investigation in cooperation with the Senate Foreign Relations Committee.

He was speaking of the scope when heaving the sky was the limit.

Russell opposes a Republican move to create a special Senate House committee of 24 to investigate foreign and military policies with particular reference to the differences between President Truman and General MacArthur.

There appeared little prospect anything would come from a move by Senator Cain (R-Wash.) for either (1) a declaration of war against Communist China and North Korea, or (2) a withdrawal of United States forces from Korea.

Cain introduced this two-point proposition contrary to advice from some of his Republican colleagues. Senator McClelland of Arizona, vice Democratic floor leader, told reporters he thought it would be quickly tucked away in the committee pigeon hole.

Meanwhile, former President Hoover agreed to testify before the Senate Banking Committee on Apr. 27 on bills to abolish the Reconstruction Finance Corporation.

The Republican former President accepted a telegraphic invitation sent him by Senator Byrd (R-W. Va.) as Administration leaders strive for speedy Senate confirmation of W. Stuart Sappington as head man of a reorganized RFC.

In a telegram to Byrd, one of those who has moved to wipe out the agency entirely, Hoover said that he would be "glad to assist the committee in any way possible."

Noting that he had public engagements every day next week and in the evening on Thursday and Friday, Hoover said he would appreciate being able to testify by noon, so that he could be free (Continued On Page Two)

Economist Tells Of Trends Which Affect Farmers

Consumer Decisions Must Be Forecast, Hauck Tells Vets

Consumer trends that strongly affect the welfare of the farmer was the subject of a talk by Dr. Charles W. Hauck, Federal Extension Service marketing economist, to members of the Seminole County Farm Bureau and the Veterans on the farm class last night at the High School farm building, John Pearson presided.

"Decisions made by consumers in retail stores," said Dr. Hauck, "strongly affect the welfare of agriculture. If the producer does not please the consumer and 'he' decides to leave it alone, the effect is felt all the way back to the farm." He was introduced by Forest Gathel.

Dr. Hauck told of his own interest in consumer collecting and pointed out that the subject is taught in some colleges, with pupils receiving full semester credits.

The farmer is a man working the land, he said, it is that he has a hobby such as fishing, collecting, and that of notable persons, past and present, who have found relaxation and relief from the cares of business or profession by collecting things.

Among the most ardent collectors, he said, was the late President Franklin D. Roosevelt. When Mr. Churchill is declared, the president of the United States, and the affairs of state, to retire and spend several hours with his stamp collection, emerging to (Continued On Page Two)

Wagner Refuses To Resign As Head Of Rollins College

WINTER PARK, Apr. 18.—(AP)—President Paul Wagner refused to resign from Rollins College today in the face of criticism over firing 23 faculty members.

The 73-year-old president who has been a school center since the cuts were announced several months ago, challenged his critics to make their charges under oath "at a public trial."

Some alumni, faculty and students have charged him with bad faith, with lopping off faculty heads without regard for length of service or contribution, and without warning or consultation with them.

When he announced that about a third of the faculty would have to go, he also announced that Rollins was dropping into collegiate athletics.

He spoke for an hour in the college Anne Russell Theater which seats 141. Many persons had to stand. The majority of the audience was students.

Dr. Wagner told his audience that the faculty cuts had been ordered by the board of trustees at the annual meeting in February. He said the action was based on facts and figures which were presented by his administrative staff on the basis of an estimated number of students who would return next fall, and of new students.

Wagner charged that a "board trustees meeting last weekend refused to consider anything but 'status quo'." He said the committee which had been named to investigate—some say those listening to charges against him at the charges.

Wagner charged that of both (Continued On Page Two)

Overstreet Takes Charge Of Graft Prosecution Case

TAMPA, Apr. 18.—(AP)—State Attorney Murray W. Overstreet of Kissimmee will prosecute suspended Sheriff Hugh Culbreath, charged with taking gambling graft.

Circuit Court Judge E. A. Grayson said today Governor Warren assigned Overstreet to prosecute the Hillsborough county ex-sheeriff. Grayson said he was unable to find a qualified Tampa attorney willing to handle the prosecution.

The Australian general is the first important British Commonwealth officer to speak in favor of bombing Allied cities. The British Foreign Office and Commonwealth governments have strongly opposed MacArthur's program for fear it would spread the war.

A man who attended the conference said Robertson expressed his off-the-record view Apr. 10—the day before President Truman dismissed General MacArthur.

It was presumed Robertson, like MacArthur, had spoken without consulting his home government.

Robertson said failure to act would result in a disastrous stalemate. He saw little hope of maintaining an Allied defense line along parallel 38 and even less of holding positions farther into Red Korea.

The Australian general repeated MacArthur's argument that the further the Allies go into North Korea, the harder it will be to supply them and the easier it will be for the Reds to supply their troops.

Robertson left the impression that serious consequences face United Nations forces in Korea if the Reds' Manchurian bases are permitted to operate freely as the supply funnel into Korea.

L. General Matthew B. Ridgway, new top Allied commander, has based his Korean war strategy on the theory that if the Reds are hit constantly—even on a limited scale—they can't organize for an offensive drive.

British Military Official Supports MacArthur Tactics

By WILLIAM JORDEN
TOKYO, Apr. 17.—(AP)—The top British military officer in Japan has voiced support of General MacArthur's proposal to bomb Red Chinese bases in Manchuria.

General Sir H. C. H. Robertson, administrative commander of British Commonwealth Forces in Korea, last week took a confidential conference of British news men that the best hope of forcing Chinese Reds out of the war and preventing a costly stalemate, he said the only alternative would be to send a tremendous land army—larger than anyone has contemplated—into Korea.

Constructive Game Policy Demanded

Senator Charles Johns of Clarke has the right idea regarding the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission, Porter H. Lansing, President, Florida Wildlife Federation, stated today.

"If our Senate and Legislature would work with the Game and Fresh Water Fish Commission and the organized sportsmen, we would have a better commission and greater harmony," he stated.

"There are a few politicians left in the Senate and the Legislature who try to tear down all that the sportsmen have furnished by spending their own money and furnishing their own time in an effort to conserve and replenish our game and fish for the future generation."

DRAFT CALL CUT

WASHINGTON, Apr. 18.—(AP)—The Army today cut its May draft call from 80,000 to 40,000 men.

The action follows the halving of the April call which was cut from 80,000 to 40,000. Both cuts were based on the increase of volunteer enlistments, the Army said.

General Is Welcomed Home In Impressive Ceremony Attended By Governor Warren

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 18.—(AP)—General Douglas MacArthur told the nation and the world today he does not intend to enter politics. "The only politics I have is that of a touring crowd," he said in a simple phrase known well by all of you—God Bless America.

He declared, just as he prepared to fly to Washington for a joint meeting of Congress, "I have no political aspirations whatsoever. I do not intend to run for any political office and I hope that my name will never be used in a political way."

SAN FRANCISCO, Apr. 18.—(AP)—A tremendous ovation greeted General MacArthur as he walked out of his hotel at 9:44 A. M. today for a triumphal parade through San Francisco.

Powell Street in front of the St. Francis Hotel and Union Square across the street were jammed with thousands of people.

As the parade started, General MacArthur sat in an open car flanked by Governor Earl Warren of California, and Mayor Elmer Robinson.

The street was packed as thick with cheering San Franciscans the car was barely able to move.

As he was leaving the hotel someone asked MacArthur if he was anxious to get to Washington where he will tell Congress his side of the story that led to his removal by President Truman from his Far East commands.

The General did not answer. But he turned to his questioner and gave him a big smile.

Mrs. Jean MacArthur and their 13-year-old son, Arthur, followed the general.

Mrs. MacArthur, greeted by the American welcome, said she and (Continued On Page Two)

MacArthur Firing Blamed On Korean Failure By Pravda

By THOMAS P. WHITNEY
MOSCOW, Apr. 18.—(AP)—Pravda today asserted that President Truman had dismissed General MacArthur because the former Far East commander had been unable to accomplish the invasion of China.

The Communist Party news organ in the first Russian comment on MacArthur's dismissal, said the General had been given the job not only of taking all of Korea, but also of invading Manchuria to attack the Chinese People's Republic.

The T. S. President, Pravda said, was unable to do this because of the responsibility for American failures in Korea.

The editorial accused three columns on the front page of Pravda under the heading "Threats of the Manure of President Truman."

"President Truman said he had fired MacArthur because of the General's public avowal of an invasion of the Chinese mainland by troops of Chiang Kai-shek's Nationalist regime, contrary to U. S. government policy, throughout a third World War."
