QUEEN OF SOUTHERN FESTIVAL

Miss Garnette Northcott, of Huntington, W. Va., will reign as queen of the Fifth Mountain State Forest Festival at Elkins, W. Va., in October. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Northcott and is prominent in Huntington society. (Associated Press Photo)

MISS WINTER HAVEN

This is Miss Alene Dugger, society girl of Winter Haven, selected there in the Popularity Contest, of the Florida World's Fair Commission, as "Miss Winter Haven."

New Job With NRA Looms For Richberg

Some regarded it as probable that Donald Richberg (above) would be asked to take over the judicial side of the National Recovery Administration as a consequence of his conference with President Roosevelt at Hyde Park, N. Y. Richberg and Administrator Hugh Johnson recently came to words over the NRA, but indications are that the President will retain both in the recovery drive.

70 HURT IN RHODE ISLAND MILL STRIKE RIOTS

Saylesville, R. I., resembled a war-torn village as 500 national guardsmen patrolled the streets after two days of textile strike rioting which brought injuries to 70 persons. The national guardsmen clashed intermittently with 3,500 strikers and sympathizers, and finally dispersed the throng with tear and nausea gas. Later the troops were forced to fire over the heads of a small group of demonstrators to make them retreat. State troopers are shown above firing tear gas bombs as they gave ground to strikers at the height of the rioting. The strikers threw stones and bricks. (Associated Press Photo)

YOUTH HAS ITS FLING IN NATIONAL AMATEUR

Two of the youngest entries in the national amateur golf tournament at Brookline, Mass., supplied two of the most sensational upsets in the early rounds. Although he was eliminated in his second match, a brilliant 18-year-old from Detroit with the magic golfing name of Bobby Jones put out the veteran Francis Outmet, 1 up in 18 holes. The scene at the left (above) is of the final green as Jones was sinking the putt that ousted the former champion. At right is 16-year-old Bobby Jacobson, of Deal, N. J., who eliminated Johnny Goodman of Omaha, former open champion and International player, in the second round. Jacobson also won his third round match but he was eliminated in the next match. TESTIFY AT SHIP FIRE INQUIRY

Chief Engineer Eben S. Abbott of the Morro Castle is shown above taking oath before a federal inquiry board which he told that within half an hour after the alarm he left the doomed vessel in a lifeboat containing 32 members of the crew and only two passengers. He also testified that the first he and his first assistant knew of the fire was when they heard a general alarm. Third Officer Irwin Freeman (left) also testified and agreed with other officers that the ill-fated liner was set afire by arsonists. (Associated Press Photos)

WHAT A FINE PASTURE FOR 'CHARLEY HORSES'!

If you hear football players at the University of Florida groaning and "rubbing their legs," you'll know the reason. They were put through vigorous leg practice, as shown above, to get their limbs in tip-top shape for the time when supple knees and nimble feet will count for touchdowns. Yes, it's not much fun—but a "charley horse" now and is preferred far more than a muscle-bound thigh in mid-season. (Associated Press Photo)

DRAG PICKET FROM BLOODY RIOT

A striking textile picket is shown as he was dragged by a state trooper from the scene of rioting at Saylesville, R. I., where 70 were shot and injured in battles between pickets, troops and mill guards. (Associated Press Photo)

BOBBY JONES, MEET BOBBY JONES

That, no doubt, was the introduction when these two got together at the national amateur golf journey at Brookline, Mass., for that's both their names. The Bobby Jones at the left is Atlanta's famous golfer who was a spectator at the meet, and the Bobby Jones at the right is Detroit's youthful player whose fame threatens to rival that of the Georgian. The Detroit Bobby Jones provided a sensational upset in the first round by defeating Francis Outmet, the veteran, although he himself was eliminated in the second round. (Associated Press Photo)

use KAL-CITE

PACKED IN MOISTURE PROOF BAGS TO INSURE PROTECTION AND TO AVOID WASTE

A POTASH-CALCIUM MIXTURE

Now is the time to correct and improve soil conditions in your vegetable fields and citrus groves. Use KAL-CITE for this purpose. It is safe, dependable and economical. As a soil corrective KAL-CITE is twice as efficient as hardwood ashes. It contains twice as much potash as does hardwood ashes and also furnishes many additional and valuable secondary plant foods that have been found to be important in plant nutrition. KAL-CITE is a hardwood ash base mixture that has steadily increased in popularity throughout Florida. When KAL-CITE is used under the same conditions and for the same purpose as hardwood ashes an application of one-half of the amount of ashes used gives an equivalent soil correction. Use COPPER KAL-CITE to correct ammonium and die-back in citrus trees. It is an excellent tonic for both soil and the tree.

For outstanding and dependable results for growing vegetable crops here are two very popular brands of IDEAL FERTILIZER for use in your section.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(A.P.)—The government planned today to make another effort to collect more than $1,000,000 from Andrew Mellon.

Senator H stings Demands Probe Of Use Of U. S. Cutter

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(A.P.)—In a bitter attack on the Roosevelt Administration yesterday, Senator Hastings, of Delaware, chairman of the Republican senatorial congressional committee, demanded an investigation into the use of a coast guard cutter to bring Mrs. Ruth Bryan Owen, minister to Denmark, home from Greenland.

Hastings asserted that "part of the blame for the long Morro Castle death list falls on the head of whoever sent the cutter Champion to Greenland."

"The explanation of Secretary Morgenthau that the Champion was sent to Greenland on an 'oceanography' expedition is ridiculous. The Champion would never have deserted its highly important patrol post on the north Atlantic had not somebody high in authority ordered the ship to bring back Mrs. Owen 'oceanography' expeditions do not call for speed. What a price that junket cost—not as much in dollars and cents as in human lives needlessly sacrificed."

The Problem Of Armaments

Senator Nye's investigation of American armament... has brought vividly to mind one of the most vicious influences in the world today.

Our government, in an outburst of righteous indignation... may pass laws prohibiting the sale and export of American armaments to foreign countries.

Further, if American armament factories are forced out of business by Acts of Congress...

We understand it is the hope of Senator Nye and his committee that the revelations during his investigation...

Certainly if there is one field of enterprise into which it would appear that the government has a right to go...

Can anyone imagine that the likelihood of war would be less prevalent today if the great Krupp armament factory in Germany were owned by Hitler...

It might even be possible to abolish all factories of this kind altogether. Through the successful termination of some disarmament conference...

If the nations of the world sincerely wish to abolish wars, let them eliminate the causes of war...

HOGS HAS NO END OF PLANS TO HIT AT OUR NEW DEAL

Kingfish Proposes 'Not-Raising-Hog-Business' In Nation

NEW ORLEANS, La., Sept. 15.—A "not-raising-hog-business" is Senator Kingfish's latest device to plague the New Deal.

It was Senator King who once offered to eat every apple that sprouted from President Roosevelt's reforestation program. It was King who tried unsuccessfully to line up the South in a cotton bolling plan and then bemoaned the "blowing up of cotton and the marketing of hogs" in the government's surplus-reducing program.

"The 'not-raising-hog-business' was exploited in Long's newspaper 'American Progress' recently, in the form of an open letter to Secretary of Agriculture Wallace. It was signed 'Octave Broussard,' of New Orleans. The phraseology is strangely familiar. The letter said: 'My friend Boudreaux over in Terrebonne parish received a $1,000 check from the government this year for not raising some hogs.'"

AAA Counsel Says It Is Not Necessary To Stock Shelves

WASHINGTON, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Housewives who are stocking pantry shelves with canned fruits and vegetables in anticipation of a winter food shortage are doing it needlessly, says Dr. Frederick C. Howe, consumer counsel of AAA.

"Supplies of canned fruits and vegetables promise to be six percent greater this year than last," he says, "and yet reports are coming to me that merchants are using scare propaganda to persuade the public to hoard foods."

"I have also noticed that in some cases they offer no special price inducement for quantity purchases, but seem to be trading simply on the fear that consumers may not have enough to eat next winter. Consumers who buy in dozen or case lots are certainly entitled to a discount."

SOUTH COACHES PUSH PLAYERS IN HARD WORK-OUTS

Grid Season To Open In Two Weeks; S.I.A.A. Opens Today

ATLANTA, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Sprinters and long drills in practice, tacking, punting and passing held the attention of Southeastern conference coaches this week as they redoubled their efforts to develop strong lineups for the opening games of the 1934 season two weeks hence.

Added to some extent by cool weather, all 13 squads are reported further advanced in condition than for several years. Some injuries have cropped up, but so far they have been of a minor nature.

Some time next week most of the plots are expected to start reducing their squads, cutting off those candidates who have shown little promise so that the others may receive more attention.

The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association teams—Georgetown and Louisiana College—will officially open the season in the South this afternoon at Pineville, La. They did not meet last year. Chattanooga was undefeated in the association in 1933, while Louisiana won one game and lost four.

The schedule calls for one other game between Boston College and Elon College at Salem, Va. University of Kentucky will be the first Southeastern eleven to go into action. The Wildcats open their season on Sept. 22 with little Maryland College at Lexington, Ky.

Two weeks from today will find all 13 conference teams in action. One intra-conference game is scheduled for that date between Vanderbilt and Mississippi State. The Maroons pulled a surprise last fall by holding the favored Commodores to a 7 to 7 tie in an early encounter. Other games carded for Sept. 29 include Georgia Tech-Chattanooga; Auburn-Oglethorpe; Tennessee-Chattanooga; Tennessee-Rice; Louisiana State University-Walla Walla; and Mississippi-Memphis.

Washington's second game is with Washington and Lee of the Southern conference on Sept. 29.

Both Tigers, Giants Advance Nearer To 1934 World Series

Both major league leaders, the Giants and the Tigers, advanced a step nearer the clinching point of the 1934 pennant races yesterday. The Giants, defeating the second-place St. Louis club, 4-1 in the second game of their series, increased their National League margin to 10 1/2 games with only 14 to go. They also added a half game to their lead over the third-place Cubs, who were idle, leading them by 4 1/2 games.

The Tigers, after all but losing a 10-inning slug with Washington, led 2-1 while the second-place Yankees took a 12-5 drubbing from the Indians. The combination added a game to the Tiger lead in the American, making it 1-1/2 games. Despite their victory, the Indians held their chance to win the flag steady. They remained 15 games behind with 14 to go and had a slender chance to tie the Tigers.

Standing of the pennant races:
AMERICAN LEAGUE
Tigers 79
Yankees 72
Indians 67
Cleveland 65
Detroit 64
Chicago 59
Philadelphia 57
Boston 56
Washington 55
St. Louis 54
New York 53
Cincinnati 52
Pittsburgh 51
Detroit 48

Both teams are "in the hole" they have opened on an economy basis and other teams in the loop, notably Dayton Beach, are attempting to raise more money than the $500 sought by the local team.

Failing to make enough progress against the stiff type of competition faced from other teams in the loop, members of the Deland club have nevertheless put up an entertaining exhibition of the national pastime throughout the season. Half race, and funds must be raised immediately to meet the salaries which are due out of town players.

OKLAHOMA TO STERILIZE 52 INSANE WOMEN
VINNYA, Okla., Sept. 13.—(AP)—The Oklahoma Board of Health yesterday ordered the sterilization of 52 insane inmates after a hearing at the Eastern Oklahoma hospital for the insane.

It was the largest group ever ordered sterilized in the state. Eleven patients were ordered operated upon at a central state hospital at Norman some weeks ago, and as a result of a hearing at the state penitentiary at McAlester, a test to determine whether the new state law applies to habitual criminals.

TYPICAL SUMMER WEATHER OVER STATE IN AUGUST

Crop Report Shows Official Data Of Value To Growers

QUANTA, Sept. 14.—(AP)—Florida crop report for September follows:

Typical summer weather prevailed during the past month with the rainfall over the state about normal, except in West Florida where there has been too much rain for late maturing cotton and the harvesting cotton that has opened during the past month. Rainures are good as a whole all over the state and have improved some in the south central part due to the flood waters receding during the past month. Cotton crops are much better than last year with a limited amount of blight and weevils being evident. The planting of fall truck crops is well under way with some corn already planted and additional acreage being prepared.

Conditions of country was reported on Sept. 1 at 75 percent or normal, compared with 66 percent on Aug. 1 and 72 percent on Sept. 1, 1933. Cornfruit was reported at 75 percent compared with 78 percent on Aug. 1 and 76 percent on Sept. 1, 1933. Sugarcane are still reported at 75 percent normal compared with 75 percent in 1933. Soybeans are reported at 75 percent compared with 78 percent Sept. 1, 1933. Cotton bolls are reported at a little under average quality. Soybeans are expected to produce a record crop in northwestern Florida.

The production of peaches, pears and grapes remain the same as a month ago.

The state crop report shows better than the index of the two preceding years, although some average has been lost from heavy rains in north and north-central Florida. The crop is now forecast at $375,000,000 compared with $350,000,000 in 1933. This is forecast at $4,000,000,000 compared with $3,000,000,000 a year ago. The crop has been lost some by rain in north and west Florida, resulting in the loss of 100,000 bushels of wheat. The estimated production of 100,000 bushels of wheat is 100,000 bushels less than the 1,000,000 bushels in 1933.

Deland Reds End Season With $500 Deficit, Says Page

DELAND, Sept. 14.—Deland's Northern Florida League baseball club is going down for the third time last time, according to President W. J. Page, who recently issued an appeal for support of the club by local firms. Facing an approximate $500 deficit, the local club ended its season before a small crowd at Deland Thursday.

Although the Reds are "in the hole" they have opened on an economy basis and other teams in the loop, notably Dayton Beach, are attempting to raise more money than the $500 sought by the local team.

SOUTH COACHES PUSH CHARGES IN HARD WORK-OUTS

1934 Grid Season To Open In Two Weeks; S.L.A. Opens Today

Atlanta, Sept. 13.—(AP)—Seminaries and long drills in blocking, tackling, punting and passing held the attention of Southeastern conference coaches this week as they redoubled their efforts to develop strong lineups for the opening games of the 1934 season two weeks hence.

Added to some extent by cool weather, all 15 squads are reported further advanced in condition than for several years. Some injuries have cropped up, but so far they have been of a minor nature.

Some time next week most of the players are expected to start reducing their squads, cutting off those candidates who have shown little promise so that the others may receive more attention.

The Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association teams—Clemson and Louisiana College—will officially open the season in the South this afternoon at Pineville, La. They did not meet last year. Clemson was undefeated in the association in 1933, while Louisiana won one game and lost four.

Other games carded for Sept. 29 include Georgia Tech-Clemson; Auburn-Oglethorpe; Tulane-Chattanooga; Tennessee-Cornell; Louisiana State University-Houston; Georgia-State; Florida-Molina; and Mississippi-Memphis.

Kentucky's second game is with Washington and Lee of the Southern conference on Sept. 29.

Both Tigers, Giants Advance Nearer To 1934 World Series

Both major league leaders, the Giants and the Tigers, advanced a step nearer the clinching point of the 1934 pennant races yesterday. TYPICAL SUMMER WEATHER OVER STATE IN AUGUST

Crop Report Reveals Official Data Of Value To Growers

ORLANDO, Sept. 13.—The Florida crop report for September follows:

Typical summer weather prevailed during the past month with the rainfall over the state about normal, except in West Florida, where there has been too much rain for late maturing cotton, and for harvesting cotton that has opened during the past month. Pastures are good as a whole all over the state and have improved some in the south central part, due to the flood waters receding during the past month. Citrus crops are much better than last year, with a limited amount of splitting and melanose being evident. The planting of fall truck crops is well under way with some crops already planted and additional acreage being prepared.

Conditions of oranges was reported on Sept. 1, at 70 percent or normal, compared with 80 percent on Aug. 1 and 79 percent on Sept. 1, 1933. Grapefruit was reported at 77 percent compared with 71 percent on Aug. 1, and 54 percent Sept. 1, 1933. Tangerines are still reported at 75 percent normal as compared with 67 percent in 1933. Satsumas are reported at 75 percent compared with 70 percent Sept. 1, 1933. Citrus fruits although a little under size, bids fair for a better than average quality. Satsumas are expected to produce a record crop in northwest Florida.

The production of peaches, pears and grapes remain the same as a month ago. The state corn crop averages better than for either of the two preceding years, although some acreage has been lost from heavy rains in north and north-central Florida. The crop is now forecast at 5,584,000 bushels compared with 5,384,000 bushels in 1933. Oats are forecast at 91,000 bushels compared with 80,000 bushels a year ago. Hay crops have been hurt some by rains in north and west Florida preventing the saving of wild hay. The estimated production of wild hay as of Sept. 1 is 42,000 tons compared with 43,000 tons on Aug. 1, and 37,000 tons on Sept. 1, 1933. The sweet potato crop has suffered a setback the past month, with an estimated production of 1,600,000 bushels compared with 1,600,000 bushels Aug. 1, and 1,470,000 bushels Sept. 1, 1933.

HOW RHODE ISLAND MOBS OPERATE

Ungovernable crowds looted the downtown district of Woonsocket, R. I., in what was described as by far the worst rioting in New England since the general textile strike started. Store windows were smashed and crowds of rioters, estimated at 10,000 overwhelmed police and Rhode Island National Guardsmen. Here is shown a liquor store "cleaned out" by the mob. SCHACHT PAINIS DOLEFUL VIEW OF GERMAN FUTURE

World's Attitude On Debts Must Change, Says High Official

LEIPZIG, Germany, Sept. 15.—(AP)—Vision of darkening economic clouds that will force Germany to take shelter behind even stricter trade regulations than those now in effect was presented by Hjalmar Schacht, minister of economics, at a press conference Sunday at the opening of the Leipzig mercantile fair.

He sounded a warning to the world that the present attitude toward Germany's debts "would lead to chaos."

"We are about to work out methods to bring our imports into harmony with our ability to pay," he asserted, and added that Germany would encourage the domestic production of raw materials.

Schacht's address was almost uniformly pessimistic when he referred to the "failure of other nations to co-operate in the settlement of the foreign debt problem."

The economics minister, however, repudiated any idea of inflation or devaluation which he said had been suggested as remedies for the prevailing economic dislocation.

But occasionally he sounded a note of optimism. He expressed confidence in the integrity of German merchants who wish to work with other peoples in peaceful and profitable trade, and voiced the hope that Germany can develop "exchange and compensation business" with raw material producers that might lead to trade development.

DICTATORSHIP TALK PURE BUNK SAYS PROFESSOR

Best Features Of New Deal To Be Retained, Says State Mentor

GAINESVILLE, Sept. 15.—To say that the United States is headed toward a dictatorship is "pure bunk," Dr. J. M. Leake, professor of history and political science at the University of Florida, told the Gainesville Kiwanis Club Thursday in his second address in two days on various phases of the Constitution.

He spoke on the "Background of the Constitution" at the Gainesville Rotary Club Tuesday. The talks were made in connection with Constitution Week.

"The parts of the New Deal that are sound and constitutional will go on," Dr. Leake said in refuting the arguments of those who contend a dictatorship is imminent. "The part that is unconstitutional, if such is the case, will be scrapped or brought under the Constitution or the Constitution will be amended to embody it."

Continuing the speaker said it is not difficult for a dictator in Italy, Germany or Russia to brush aside the constitutions of those countries because they do not have constitutional government as we know it in America.

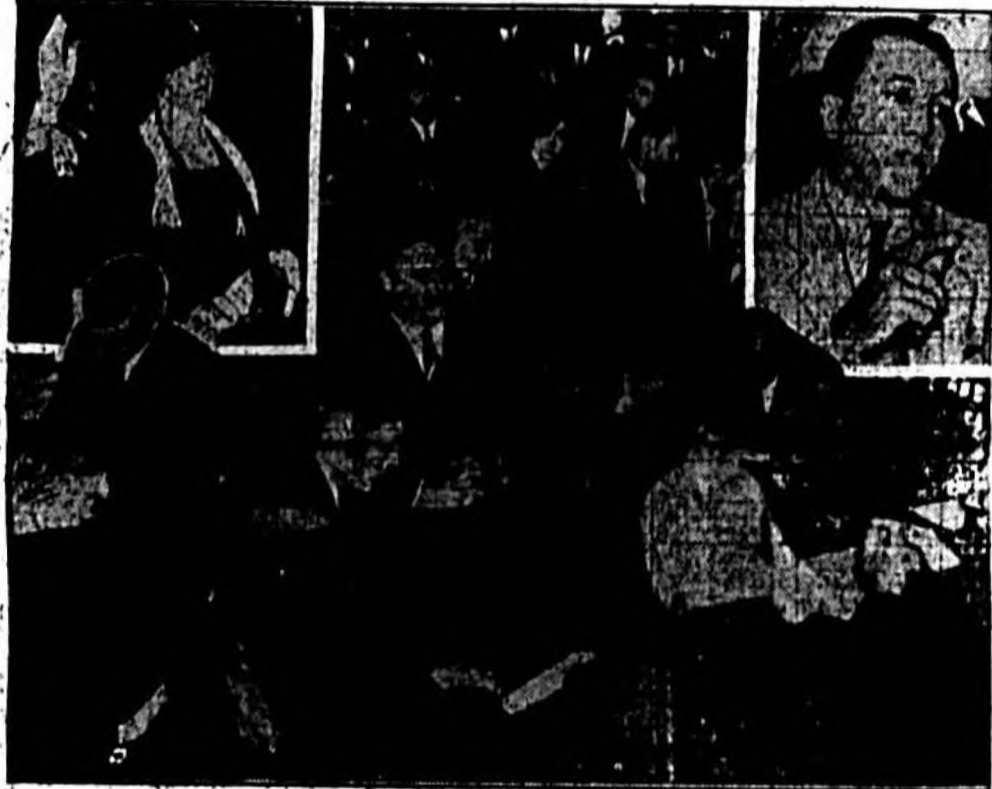

"Our Constitution," he added, "wouldn't work with a people who do not have the knack of self-government. The test of government is not material well-being, but something more than that. The purpose of a constitution is to make a government act as an agency for promoting the welfare of the governed."

"The people of Europe are confusing their economic well-being with their freedom. In reality they are not free, but kept slaves."

Dr. Leake ventured the assertion that fifty percent of our people have never read the constitution through and added that he was "sure a large part of those who have don't understand it."

He emphasized that the Constitution of the United States sets up a field of individual rights, not of one individual against another—but certain rights which the government itself cannot trespass upon. Among these he listed our "religious heritage" and our "intellectual birthright."

DIVERSE STORIES TOLD OF SHIP DISASTER

Some of the most sensational testimony brought out at the federal inquiry into the Morro Castle disaster was that of George W. Rogers, chief radio operator. He is shown above as he told that it was fully 30 minutes after he was awakened by the fire that he received an order to send out an SOS call. He also testified that the ice Alagna, his first assistant, some time ago had "tried to investigate discontent on the ship." Mrs. Governor Morris Phelps (upper left inset), a passenger who, with her husband and son, was saved, said that "at no time" was an alarm given and that no effort was made to put passengers in lifeboats. Anthony Bajic (upper right inset), first assistant engineer, testified that he was at his post for an hour after the alarm was given before leaving the ship. (Associated Press Photos)

Strikers Demand Prompt Removal Of General Johnson

The number of strike idle was estimated by independent survey during the day at slightly more than 400,000. While mill centers were reported generally quiet, additional militiamen were mobilized in Maine and Connecticut. The Georgia National Guard was called out.

Still pending in a special session of the Rhode Island legislature, resumed yesterday, was Governor Greene's request for authorization to call in regular army units on which action was deferred Thursday night. It voted him $100,000 for emergency use in connection with the strike.

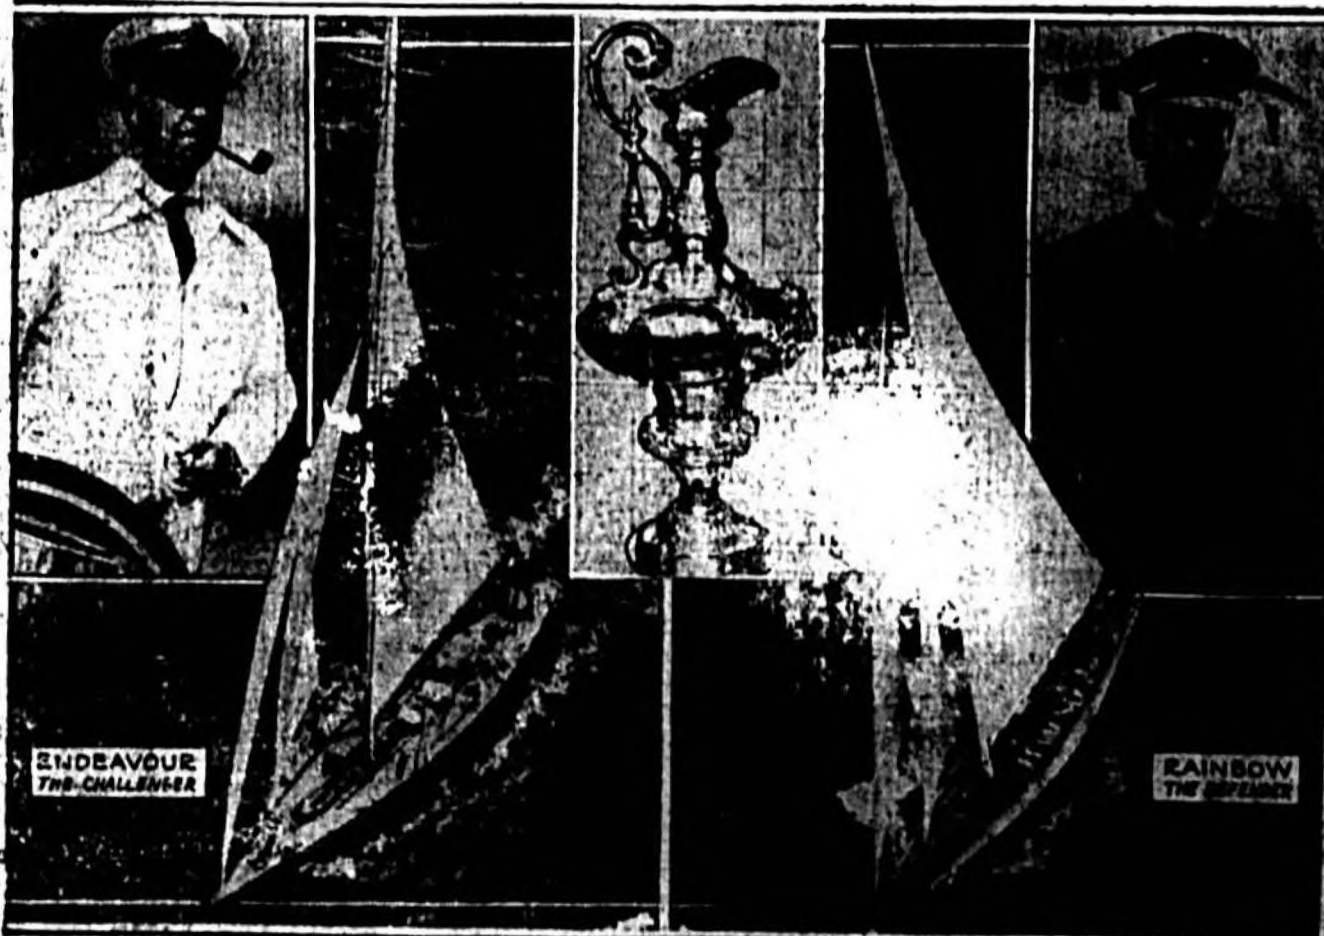

Veterans in the tin hats of war days patrolled the streets of several mill towns, releasing the local constabulary for duty at the mills. They acted as individuals after veterans' organizations had voted to take no part in the labor disturbance.
