the conclusion of the Longwood Utilities Inc. hearing, the board voted unanimously to approve a rate hike to $6.50 monthly Monday's high 88. Overnight requested by Seminole Cablevision, represented at the meeting by former State Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. and the firm's general manager Ron Dorchester.

When a franchise was granted to Seminole Cablevision several years ago, the monthly rate was to be $4.50. Cablevision is not yet available to Longwood city residents. However, Dorchester said Monday night some sections of the city will be served by the end of the year.

After being reminded by Councilman Gerard Connell that Seminole Cablevision had promised to give city residents a 30-day period during which installation fees would be waived, Cleveland and Dorchester said the firm would honor its former commitments. The rates approved for Seminole Cablevision in addition to the $6.50 monthly included: installation $25; reconnect charge $10; relocation $7.50; moving $5 or $10,

Bar Probe Moves Cautiously

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - The Florida Bar's Board of Governors is proceeding very cautiously on the possibility of investigating David McCain, who resigned from the Supreme Court under impeachment threat,

"It would be a tragedy to lose that one on a procedural error," one lawyer said. At its meeting last weekend in Gainesville, sources said Monday, the Board of Governors decided to allow any investigation to work its way through normal procedures which gives McCain an opportunity to rebut any ac-

Racial Restraint Urged

PENSACOLA (AP) - Air Force Gen. Daniel "Chappie" James, the nation's highest-ranking black military officer, has urged his home-town residents to maintain racial harmony.

"I am disturbed when I hear of the Ku Klux Klan marching in my hometown. I abhor that," the commander of the North American Air Defense Command said at a news conference Monday during a threeday celebration in his honor. He asked Pensacola residents "not to allow the Ku Klux Klan or any other group to destroy the racial harmony we have sought for so long."

Wilson Wants Explanation

TALLAHASSEE (AP) - Florida's only independent Senator says she wants Senate President Dempsey Barron to explain why he thinks the state has a moral obligation to either buy or lease two buildings under construction by the Winewood Corp.

"I'd like to know what's going on," Sen. Lori Wilson, I-Merrit Island, said Monday of her letter asking the Panama City Democrat for an explantion. "It seems to me to be a continuation of the Keller affair." "What I'm asking is what procedure is being used, what criteria are we using for the purchase of the buildings," she said in an interview.

Fishermen Seeking Permits

MIAMI (AP) - Some South Florida lobster fishermen plan to fish off the coasts of Central and South America since the Bahamian government has banned foreign fishing from its waters, a spokesman says. Jack Zatz, president of the Dade and Broward County chapters of the Organized Fishermen of Florida, said Monday some men have already gone to Colombia to file applications for fishing permits.

He said the U. S. Marine Fisheries Service "has been working very hard" to help the fishermen get permits to fish in areas where this country has bilateral agreements.

Aide Says Wallace Ready

MIAMI (AP) - An aide to George Wallace says the Alabama governor is in good shape and will prove it as he campaigns in at least 32 of the 33 presidential primaries in "He is paralyzed from the waist down, will never walk again, but he is not paralyzed from the neck on up like a lot of other politicians in the United States," Paul Mc-Cormick told a political club Monday. McCormick said that Wallace will formally announce his candidacy very soon and plans to make personal appearances in many of the primaries.

Fourth Escapee in Custody

JACKSONVILLE (AP) - The last of four men who broke out of Florida State Prison near Starke in December 1971 while a guard dog slept is back in custody, the FBI says. The FBI reported Monday that Gene Stoneman, 29, of Auburndale, was taken into custudy at Waycross, Ga.,

CIA Officer Defied Order, Kept Deadly Poison: Colby

WASHINGTON (AP) - A former middle-level CIA officer decided to keep a secret cache of deadly poisons in spite of presidential orders to destroy them, agency Director William E. Colby said today. Colby, without naming the retired officer, said he "made this decision based on the fact that the cost and difficulty of isolating the shellfish toxin were so great that it simply made no sense to destroy it, particularly when there would be no future source of the toxin." Colby said the toxin was moved in 1970 from the Army's Biological Laboratory at Ft. Detrick, Md., where it was developed, to the Central Intelligence Agency's laboratory storage facility. Presidential directives in 1969 and 1970 ordered the destruction of such poisons.

Colby said in testimony prepared for the Senate intelligence committee that the officer was "not directly associated" with the drug project at Ft. Detrick. At WASHINGTON (AP) — President Ford's Clemency Board has ended its work after processing claims for 15,468 applicants out of an estimated 120, 000 eligible men. The board's tenure expired at midnight Monday under the law that authorized its creation to enable men convicted of draft evasion or punished for desertion in the Vietnam war era to earn presidential pardons. Ford issued an executive order Monday delegating the Justice Department to tie up the loose ends of the board's

Consumers Get Weapon

WASHINGTON (AP) - Beginning next month, consumers will have a new weapon for dealing with those credit card company computers that just keep spitting out past-due notices in the face of protestations that the computer is wrong.

One of the requirements of a law taking effect Oct. 28 is that companies must advise credit users periodically how and where to file a claim for a billing error. The Federal Reserve Board announced Monday the final regulations that will provide the basis for enforcing the Fair Credit Billing Act passed by Congress last year.

The Irish Trouble: Moderation Needed

The British government is trying to extricate itself from Northern Ireland. There have been seven centuries of savage strife between the English and the Irish. Unfortunately, the end is not

The situation can be briefly put. The Republic of Ireland (population 3 million, more than 90 per cent Roman Catholic) seeks peaceful unification with Northern Ireland (population 1.5 million, twothirds Protestant) as the only solution to the troubles in Northern Ireland. But an overwhelming majority of the voters in Northern Ireland have voted to stay in the United Kingdom.

Violence and terrorism have escalated since 1968, when the Roman Catholic minority in Northern Ireland began demonstrating to protest discrimination against them in voting rights, housing and employment. There are 13,000 British soldiers in Northern Ireland. There has been no self-government in Northern Ireland for more than a year. Direct British rule has been imposed in order to keep the peace. The casualty totals are 1,290 dead and 12,800 injured.

A political solution seemed near in 1973. A new Northern Ireland constitution was passed by Parliament. Moderate parties, pledged to make the constitution work, won nearly two-thirds of the Assembly seats. The Catholic minority shared power. Arrangements were made for a Council of Ireland in which the Republic of Ireland and the government of Northern Ireland would be represented.

But the coalition Protestant-Catholic government lasted only five months. It was brought to an end by a 14-day general strike, led by Protestant extremists, in May, 1974.

Only a firmer stand for peace by the majorities on both sides who favor compromise can keep any settlement from being sabotaged by the extreemists on both sides, who favor continued violence.

We pray that the 78-man constitutional convention, which assembles for its second session next week, can find a peaceful solution. But the British soldiers must remain until the gang warfare ends.

New York's Problem

Each month the city officials of New York arrange "miracle" according to the news media of that economically beleaguered city. They manage to scrape up enough money to hold the city's creditors at bay even as they prepare for another "miracle" on the following month.

The town fathers are on a dead end street. Sooner of later the miracle will not be possible because New York City is not a good credit risk. The city will face a default on its obligations unless it changes its attitude.

As one responsible lender observed, "the price of municipal bonds includes a built-in moral credit of integrity." Should New York default, cities everywhere will feel the vibrations among bond firms, and the pressure would be even greater for all taxpayers throughout the country to help bail out New York City through the funnel of the federal treasury.

Congress cannot help New York City because this also would be morally wrong. Also, while New York was frantically trying to borrow $960 million for the "miracle of August," the federal government was out borrowing $6 billion for roughly the

The solution to New York City's problems lies within municipal limits. A recognition of that fact could be the city's first real miracle.

Out Of Control

Considering how brush fires can leap across canyons and freeways, it is no surprise that sparks and embers from the municipal strike in San Francisco have blown across the bay to Berkeley. Firemen in Berkeley saw their colleagues in San Francisco win a big wage increase by defying the law and abandoning their duty to the public, and followed suit.

If Berkeley can't contain this kind of irresponsible conduct by public servants, what community is next? City officials and the courts must stand up and take the heat to establish that these strike actions will not be tolerated.

Again we have been made frighteningly aware, as we were in Dallas in 1963, that despite the best protection it is humanly possible to provide, despite the most elaborate security precautions, our presidents are relatively easy targets for a determined assassin. What is especially sobering about the incident in Sacramento is that it was apparently no well thought-out plan or plot against the President. It had all the earmarks of an impulsive, opportunistic act by a deranged individual. What saved President Ford was that his would-be assassin, Lynette Fromme, simply did not know how to operate the pistol she held a scant few feet from his body.

The conjecture that has been offered, that the President's assailant did not intend to kill him but was merely seeking publicity for some cause she thinks she stands for, or as a warning to the so-called power structure, is perhaps even more disturbing in its implications.

Crime Soars Are Wasted

When the Law Enforcement Assistance Administration (LEAA) announced its intention to spend more than $200,000 in the search for proper footwear for America's gendarmes observers across the nation sighed in unison. The the Army for final development, was even criticized by cops themselves. It's absured, said Seattle Police Chief Robert Hansen, because, for one thing, "police spend more time on their butts than their feet."

It has always been thus for LEAA, a youthful (six years old) and immature federal bureaucracy: logic has never fazed its relentless quest for ways to spend the taxpayers' coins. Set up originally as another government attempt to curb crime through innovation, the agency has succeeded in the latter but at the expense of the Great numbers of people in this town are thus beginning to wonder whether there isn't a cheaper way for muggers and rapists to succeed. LEAA, of course, will have none of the talk of modification. Its latest project, for example, is a 15-week, $541,623 study "to improve the physical fitness of the nation's police officers." Noting that too many cops are going the way of all flesh, while criminals presumably keep fit and trim. LEAA proposes the development of exercises and exercise manuals which will "build confidence and effective police responses in dangerous situations." Nevermind that there are on the market today more exercise plans than there are police to use Camp Livingston had over 115,000 men stationed them, LEAA says $541,623 more is needed to there, all in tents, much like the refugee camp in develop something suitable for the nation's

NFL Owners Offer Proposal To Avert Player Strike

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

National Football League owners have made a six-point proposal, including the promise of a new contract offer by Sept. 25, in an effort to ward off a league-wide player confrontation stemming from the New England Patriots' strike, a spokesman said Tuesday morning. The NFL Management Council, the bargaining agent for the owners, reportedly made the overture during an all-night meeting with the NFL Players 25, 1975. Association at the Washington offices of federal mediator W.J. Usery, Jr.

Petty Has Chance

To Beat Own Record

DAYTONA BEACH (AP) - Richard Petty, on his way to a sixth national stockcar championship, also has a chance to better his own record of $309,225 in winnings for a vear.

He set the mark in 1971. Last year, he collected $299,175. So far this season he has won $247,895. With first prize money in the remaining eight races adding to a minimum of $99, 000, Petty has a chance go over the top. His victory Sunday in the Delaware 500 at Dover was the 10th time he has won in the year's 22 events so far on the Grand National circuit of the National Association for Stock Car Auto Racing (NASCAR). In the point race for the annual championship, Petty is out front with 3,694.

opening loss, was fairly quiet as coaches went over new strategy for the Orlando Boone game, Friday in Longwood. "We are going to have some changes, that's for sure," said Coach Dick Copeland. What distressed him most, besides six fumbles, was the new faces at ends and outside linebackers. "Oak Ridge was good ...but six fumbles?" he said calmly. "First play we fumbled, they got it and we held them. Then on our second play we fumbled, they got it and took it in to score That's the way it went. Of the six fumbles, three set up early defensive play on the perimeter. Chances are he will have some

And any heroes in defeat, coach? "Huh . . . " said Copeland. "Are there ever when you lose?

Boone was a 21-7 loser to Evans Friday night. Over at Trinity Prep, junior halfback Norbert Seals had the consolation of helping his team avert a shutout. John Carroll used the pass to good advantage and posted a 15-7 victory. Chances are the Saints will be working on their snaps from center for punting purposes. One sailed out of the end zone for a safety to compound Trinity's problems. Next for the Saints is Jacksonville Episcopal. A safety was the decider Saturday afternoon at Lake Howell Guess here is that coach Tom Ruby's Hawks will be generating more offense starting this weekend against Bishop Moore, which fell to Bishop Kenny, 12-0.
