Free Investment Lectures Slated

Gordon Toll, Sanford manager for Security Associates, Inc., stock brokers and investment bankers, announced today that a series of nine free lectures on Securities and Investing will be given at their main office in Winter Park beginning Wednesday at 7:30 p. m. and continuing weekly.
Guest speakers will include William Burr, president of Electro-Mechanical Systems, Inc., on the outlook for electronics, and Thomas Gleason of Salomon Bros. & Hutzler, nationally known government and municipal bond firm with headquarters in New York, who will speak about opportunities today in tax-free securities.
Registrations should be made with Toll at Security Associates' branch office in the Kirk Plaza, Sanford.

Youth Week Held At Lake Mary

Youth Week was observed by the First Baptist Church of Lake Mary last week, with special services presented with the help of their young people.
Jerry Luske gave the devotional at the Wednesday night prayer meeting and Bob Jones led the singing. At morning and evening Sunday services, Otis Ponds was special speaker. Bob Jones led the singing and the young people sang in both choral and solo parts in the services. The Adult Men's Sunday School Class was taught by Jerry Luske in observance of Youth Week.
A group of the young people of the church went to DeLeon Springs Saturday night in observance of Youth Night of the Seminole Association and enjoyed a wiener roast. Mrs. E. M. Chester, training director, attended with members Eileen Southward, Corky McManamin, Hilda Powell, Larry Chester, Linda Beal, Linda Scruggs, Diane Hickson, and guests Roy Dell and Diane Chester.

Before I go screaming off into the distance, I must try to compose myself long enough to dash off a report to the home office. Stiff upper lip, you know, and all that jazz.

I must warn my countrymen that this thing is not just a token uprising, agitated by a few rabble-rousers and malcontents. We may have to make a few concessions, give up a few sovereign rights, to stop those confounded drums.

For many years, those of us who have served in this distant outpost of civilization have sensed a stirring of rebellious spirits, a longing for independence, in America's smallest province.

We have seen the tribal chieftains of the District of Columbia make many trips to the top of Capitol Hill to powwow with their congressional rulers and try to curry favors.

In the pidgin dialect peculiar to this region, they pleaded with Congress to grant them "home rule," a term, I suppose, they picked up at the British Embassy.

Stripped of all of its parliamentary niceties, it means just one thing—the poor beggars want to vote.

I have been over to a House Judiciary subcommittee listening to a native delegation make the annual edifice pitch. They were a pitiable sight. I dare say less than half of them had law degrees and some of the women obviously were wearing last year's minks.

Those of you who did your history homework properly will recall that this area was hardly more than a swamp when the United States first occupied it, the land having been ceded to us by Maryland and Virginia.

We soon gave back the Virginia side but it is not just pride of empire that prompts me to say we have done very well with the Maryland sector. If the climate is still a little swampy, well some things are beyond human control.

The territory is governed by 337 members of Congress, which, by almost any measurement, is a lot of government for one metropolis. You can see why some of the natives might think they could do with less.

I couldn't help but feel a twinge of sympathy as I listened to their speeches beseech their voiceless plight. But I was amused, too, at the way some of them cringed and blanched when a subcommittee member threatened to turn the district back to Maryland if they didn't behave.

They vowed they would rather be voiceless than Marylanders. On the other hand, the subcommittee expressed doubts that Maryland would take them.

Planting Time For Vegetables Near

By OWEN A. TUCKER
This is the season when the pulling of leaves or garden seed catalogues is heard in the land. Planting time for many spring vegetables will soon be here. Better start your planning and soil preparation now.

The first step in planting a garden is always preparing the soil. You'll need to turn the soil and soil cover. This should be done — if possible — three weeks ahead of planting. Spade or plow the ground, then rework it to get a firm seedbed for planting.

Before deciding how much of each vegetable to plant — and consider the size of your family, and the amount of vegetables you will be wanting to can, freeze, store or sell, as well as those you will want to use fresh. Don't underestimate the amount of work and personal attention the garden will require.

When you go to the store to get your seeds — or when you order them — don't just ask for "bean seed" or "tomato seed." There are several varieties of any vegetable available for your choice. Find out which one is best for your area and buy it. But only treated seeds, or plan to treat them yourself. Treated seeds have been treated with a fungicide to prevent damping off disease, consequently you'll get a better stand of plants from them.

If you can get the variety you want, if you are fairly certain the source is satisfactory, and that the plants you get are free from disease and nematodes, it is all right to buy plants for your garden. It may, however, pay you to grow your own transplants. You can do this rather easily, and this method has several advantages.

You will need to use either commercial fertilizer or animal manure with superphosphate on your garden. On most sandy soils, use 6-6-6 fertilizer at a rate of 2 1/2 to 4 pounds per 100 square feet or 1/2 pound per 10' row. On much or peat use 1 1/2 to 2 pounds of 6-12-20 per 100 square feet or 1/6 pound per 10' row. Additional nitrogen may be applied 2 or 3 times during the growing season at the rate of about 1/4 to 1/2 pound of nitrate of soda or its equivalent per 100 square feet. Caution should be used on some fruiting crops such as tomatoes since large amounts of nitrogen may cause excessive vegetative growth and poor or delayed fruit set.

For details on recommended varieties, amount of seed to use or number of plants needed, planting distances and depth, and other gardening details, ask for a free copy of Extension Circular 104, Vegetable Garden Production Guide, at your County Agricultural Agent's Office.

U. S. Launched 'Radio Star' In Orbit

CAPE CANAVERAL (UPI) — The United States successfully fired a "radio star" earth satellite into orbit today to test a revolutionary air and sea navigation system that would be free from weather problems.

Confirmation that the navigation satellite was in orbit came at 8:36 a. m., when its radio signal was picked up at Las Cruces, N. M., the Navy announced in Washington.

The launching, carried out by the Air Force with an improved Thor-Able rocket, was described by the Navy as perfect in all respects. The satellite itself is a Navy project.

The Navy said the system probably will involve six satellites, including the one launched today, and that the system is expected to be fully operational in 1962.

The 263-pound satellite, equipped with four radio transmitters, soared into the sky at 7:02 a. m. Within minutes, signals were received by tracking stations around the world.

The new moonlet may show how to avoid disasters such as the Andrea Doria-Stockholm ship collision off the coast of Massachusetts and the crash of two airliners over the Grand Canyon in recent years. These were two of the biggest accidents blamed in part on navigational errors caused by bad weather.

For the price of a special radio receiver and a slide rule, a navigator will be able to use such operational "Transit" satellites to find his exact position on earth, day or night in fair weather or foul, scientists said.

The 36-inch sphere dubbed Transit 1B—rode into the sky aboard a new Air Force space rocket, Thor-Able-Star, launched at 7:02 a. m. This was essentially a repeat of a shot which failed last Sept. 17 because of rocket trouble.

If all went as expected, the Able-Star upper stage, equipped with a start-restart engine, would drive the instruments into a circular orbit about 500 miles above earth on its first sweep. The second-stage casing also was supposed to go into orbit after separating.

The planned orbit would carry the barber-pole-striped satellite around earth once approximately every 100 minutes, covering an area between Canada and Argentina in the western hemisphere. Under ideal conditions—at dawn or dusk in clear weather—it would be visible as a faint star.

Scientists said the satellite would be useful "as long as the batteries (both solar and chemical cells) hold out — which could be five years or longer." The satellite could remain up 30 years or longer.

The "heart" of the satellite consisted of the transmitters, operating on 54, 324, and 216 megacycles, and two oscillators. With these, scientists hoped to give working proof to a new navigational concept they described as a "major scientific breakthrough."

Six ground stations were set up to track the satellite. The shot had four basic objectives:

1. Checking out the navigational concept with simple demonstrations. Commercial and private organizations and individuals would not use Transit 1B since they do not have the necessary receiving equipment.

2. Giving an improved understanding of the effects of ionospheric refraction — or bending — of radio waves, necessary if transits are to give precise information.
3. Studying the earth's shape and gravitational pull, and distances between land masses. Current navigational maps are not exact, and could throw transit's data out of kilter unless better ones are made.
4. Improving orbital tracking. Scientists will have to know the satellite's exact position in space at all times if it is to have the desired precision in its data.

ELECTED BY THE ASSOCIATION for the coming year are, from left, Mrs. Baxter Rowan, executive committee; Mrs. Robert Steele, treasurer; Mrs. Mildred Butler, secretary; Don Fletcher, executive committee; E. A. Lilly, state president who was guest speaker at the local group's meeting; Mrs. W. W. Tyre, president, and Mrs. J. N. Azzarello, 1st vice president. Claude Hittell, 2nd vice president, was not present. (Herald Photo)

Candidates Charge County Board Effort 'Inadequate'

District 3 County Commission candidates Edward Zimmerman and James Avery charged today that the present County Commission with "inadequate handling of taxpayers' money" at a political rally at Bear Lake Tuesday night.

Zimmerman said that the board gives "thousands and thousands of dollars to civic organizations and we can come before them with a serious problem and they throw up their hands and say 'we just don't have any money.'"

Avery said that board had gone to "unnecessary expense to hire consulting engineers to meet with local engineers to find out where the money goes. The board could have gotten the same service free of charge from the U. S. Soil Conservation Service," Avery said.

Avery also said that if elected he would see that county road equipment is painted a distinctive color "so it doesn't get lost in private property."

District 3 incumbent Commissioner Lawrence Swofford in reviewing his record said that the County Commission has worked toward a "sound, orderly development of the county with new plant and zoning laws."

Tax Assessor Richard McCanna said that voters should elect the best candidate based on qualifications and not sentiment.

Mrs. Mary Earle Walker said she "ought for the taxpayers in 1959" and hopes that they will fight for her now.

The majority of candidates for other posts said they were not a "paw of any group" and if elected hope to conduct the business of the county on a sound basis.

District 5 Candidate James Fitzpatrick said that the main issue of the campaign is "taxpayers' money."

Incumbent from District 5, Homer Little, used his three minutes for a question and answer period and said he favored a full evaluation in answer to questions on taxes.

Circuit Court Clerk David Gatchel said he inaugurated a system to keep the clerk's office open during the noon hour. His opponent Arthur Beckwith Jr. said he would be "a full time clerk of the court."

Grandson Of Auto Magnate Kidnaped; $100,000 Asked

PARIS (UPI) — A kidnaper snatched the 4-year-old grandson of automobile magnate Jean-Pierre Peugeot and demanded the family pay $100,000 ransom without notifying police or the child would be killed, police reported today.

The youngster, Eric Peugeot, was said to have been led away from playing in the sand at the exclusive Saint-Cloud Golf Club Tuesday by a man who drove a black automobile.

The boy was playing with his seven-year-old brother, Jean-Philippe, and two other boys and his nurse and chauffeur were sitting in a car 100 yards away, police said.

Police said a ransom letter found by the nurse in the sand told Eric's father, Roland Peugeot, he had 48 hours to produce the money and that his son would be killed if police were notified.

The letter was understood to have been written in capital letters on a typewriter with a red ribbon but police declined to disclose any more details.

Police said the Peugeot chauffeur, Georges Perelli, and nurse, Jeanine Germano, drove Eric—who has crewcut blond hair and blue eyes—and his brother to a golf course and dropped them off to play in the club playground.

They remained in the car parked about 100 yards away.

At about 5 p. m., police said, Miss Germano noticed Eric was missing and ran from the car to ask Jean-Philippe where his brother was.

"A man took him away," the boy answered.

The nurse and chauffeur made a frantic search of the area, calling Eric's name, and then found the sealed envelope. They called Eric's father.

A greenskeeper said he noticed a parked car with another man at the wheel at the time of the kidnaping.

An 81-year-old gardener working nearby said it was, ironically, a black Peugeot car.

Collins Asks Flood Funds; Delegation Backs Control Work

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins, in a telegram Tuesday to President Eisenhower, asked him to allot $1,500,000 in disaster relief for Central Florida, hit by floods last month.

Collins said state and local agencies have spent or obligated over $9 million for relief work in the area.

He estimated private property of all ages, including agricultural loss, at $16,500,000. Total damage to public property, Collins said, amounted to more than $3 million dollars.

Florida congressmen went to bat for seven state projects in appearances Tuesday before the House Public Works Appropriations Subcommittee.

The representatives asked the subcommittee to approve $10 million for further construction and development of the Central and Southeastern flood control project.

The project, which covers 20 counties, is about 30 per cent complete. Five of the counties were among those hit by disastrous Central Florida floods last month.

The $10 million request is included in Eisenhower's budget.

Reps. Charles Bennett, Danis Fazzell, A. S. Harlong, and Paul Rogers, all Democrats, also asked for an unspecified amount to continue construction of the Jacksonville-Miami Intracoastal Waterway north from Fort Pierce.

Republican William C. Cramer asked the subcommittee to add $100,000 for a study of four river basins on the state's west coast. The rivers involved are the Hillsborough, Withlacoochee, Peace, and Ocklawaha.

Wilkins Company Not Connected With Asphalt Firm

The Wilkins Construction Co. has no connection with an asphalt plant near Paola which was the subject of a complaint by residents at the County Commission meeting Tuesday.

Application for a use permit from the zoning board in 1958 was attributed to the Wilkins firm in a Herald report of the meeting. This was an error.

J. M. Walter, secretary-treasurer of the Wilkins Construction Co. said the firm has no connection whatsoever with operation of the asphalt plant, but is in the paving business.

"We're proud of our business and want no mistaken articles giving the public any wrong impressions that might put it in a bad light," Walter said.

The Herald would like to emphasize that this unintentional error occurred in the routine report of the complaint at the commission meeting and was in no way intended to be harmful to any organization. The complaint is being checked by the commissioners.

The paper is glad to print this notice of the error with the same prominence given the original report.

Public Exposed To Worthless Medicines, Probers Are Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The former medical director of a large drug firm told Senate investigators today that doctors and the public are bombarded with a stream of worthless and sometimes potentially harmful medicines.

Dr. A. Dale Console of Princeton, N. J., who resigned as head of the medical department of Squibb Laboratories to return to private practice, said the motto of the drug industry is: "If you can't convince them, confuse them."

He told the Senate Anti-Trust and Monopoly subcommittee, which is looking into allegedly excessive profits by medicine manufacturers, that the drug industry "is unique in that it can make exploitation appear a noble purpose."

Too often, he said, drug firms send dozens of promotion men to sell new products to doctors while experts in the home office try "to determine the best way to make nothing appear like a pot of gold."

"Since so much depends on novelty, drugs change like women's fashions," Console declared. Other congressional news:

Sen. Jacob K. Javits (R-N.Y.) called on the administration to support the voluntary federal-state-private medical insurance program for old folks proposed by eight GOP senators. Court Upholds Claim — WASHINGTON (UPI) — The U. S. Tax Court has upheld the Internal Revenue Service claim that singer Gordon MacRae owes the government $120,000 in back taxes and penalties. The court Tuesday rejected a contention by MacRae and his wife, Sheila, that they were entitled to tax deductions for interest they paid on money they borrowed to buy one million dollars worth of U. S. Treasury notes.

Volusia To Resist Any Integration Of School Action

DELAND (UPI) — The Volusia County School Board Tuesday authorized school attorney John R. Goodbee Jr. to employ legal help in case court action is begun to integrate county schools.

The board acted after Volusia county's first integration petition was received at its Tuesday meeting. Thirty-six Daytona Beach-Ormond Beach residents, including the Rev. E. C. Tillman of Daytona Beach, signed the petition.

Tillman is one of two Negroes recently named to serve on a biracial segregation study committee appointed by Gov. LeRoy Collins.

The petitioners called for desegregation of county public schools and for the reassignment of teachers on an integrated basis.

The board declared by passing a resolution rejecting county pupils were assigned in accordance with state pupil placement laws, and by giving legal instructions to Goodbee.

Savage Tornado Rips Texas Town

DIMMITT, Tex. (UPI) — A savage tornado, one of several that skipped across the Texas panhandle Tuesday night, ripped one tiny town to shreds and left four persons known dead and dozens injured.

Only a pile of debris remains where the town of Dimmitt, Texas, once stood, about 15 miles south of Dimmitt. The twister raced into the town almost without warning. It demolished a church where 76 men were having a fellowship meeting, a community store and half a dozen homes near the church.

The Department of Public Safety (DPS) reported the four dead, and said it had counted at least 60 persons injured, some critically. A little girl and a boy had their arms torn off, a woman was found still alive with a head protruding from her back and most of her face torn away.

Killed were J. H. Hogan, owner of the Sunnyside Mining Co., and R. Kidd, 55, of Plainview, and Nevada Braden, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Braden of Sunnyside.

The DPS said the other victim was mangled so badly, immediate identification was impossible.

Another twister injured at least three persons at Friona, 69 miles southwest of Amarillo. Other tornadoes struck at Amarillo and at Mulvany, about 60 miles southwest of Amarillo, but did little damage.

Sheriff Jack Cartwright headed a rescue team of state and local law enforcement men and about 40 volunteers sifting the wreckage for more dead or injured. They said they found "quite a lot" of livestock that was killed.

The twister was part of a thunderstorm system that scattered rain, hail and high winds through the Texas and Oklahoma panhandles and into western Kansas. The Weather Bureau kept severe thunderstorm warnings for the area in effect until 6 a. m.

The storm system was expected to move eastward into the Ohio Valley by evening. Occasional rain was forecast along the West Coast. Skies were fair in the East.

Mayo Lapses Into Semi-Coma

OCALA (UPI) — State Agriculture Commissioner Nathan Mayo, seriously ill with an unusual type of lung cancer, rested quietly today at Munroe Memorial Hospital.

Mayo, 50, took a turn for the worse early Tuesday and lapsed into a semi-coma. But hospital attendants said early today his condition was unchanged since then.

Mayo, secretary of agriculture since 1923, announced late last year that he would not be a candidate for another term.

Florida congressmen went to bat for seven state projects in appearances Tuesday before the House Public Works Appropriations Subcommittee.

The representatives asked the subcommittee to approve $10 million for further construction and development of the Central and Southeastern flood control project.

The project, which covers 20 counties, is about 30 per cent complete. Five of the counties were among those hit by disastrous Central Florida floods last month.

The $10 million request is included in Eisenhower's budget.

Reps. Charles Bennett, Danis Fazzell, A. S. Harlong, and Paul Rogers, all Democrats, also asked for an unspecified amount to continue construction of the Jacksonville-Miami Intracoastal Waterway north from Fort Pierce.

Republican William C. Cramer asked the subcommittee to add $100,000 for a study of four river basins on the state's west coast. The rivers involved are the Hillsborough, Withlacoochee, Peace, and Ocklawaha.

Wilkins Company Not Connected With Asphalt Firm

The Wilkins Construction Co. has no connection with an asphalt plant near Paola which was the subject of a complaint by residents at the County Commission meeting Tuesday.

Application for a use permit from the zoning board in 1958 was attributed to the Wilkins firm in a Herald report of the meeting. This was an error.

J. M. Walter, secretary-treasurer of the Wilkins Construction Co. said the firm has no connection whatsoever with operation of the asphalt plant, but is in the paving business.

"We're proud of our business and want no mistaken articles giving the public any wrong impressions that might put it in a bad light," Walter said.

The Herald would like to emphasize that this unintentional error occurred in the routine report of the complaint at the commission meeting and was in no way intended to be harmful to any organization. The complaint is being checked by the commissioners.

The paper is glad to print this notice of the error with the same prominence given the original report.

Paola Political Rally Thursday

The Democratic Executive Committee will sponsor its fifth political rally at the Wilson School in Paola at 8 p. m. Thursday.

A meat loaf dinner will be served at 5:30 p. m. by the P.T.O.

McCall Elected High School Prexy

Emmett McCall was chosen Seminole High student body president in a runoff election Tuesday.

Sandra Wood was elected vice president of next year's senior class and Donna Young was chosen secretary of next year's sophomore class.

The student body and class officers chosen in Friday's election and Tuesday's runoff will succeed to the posts after this term is over.

Bozeman Named Benefits Official

James E. Bozeman is new Social Security field representative for the Sanford area.

Bozeman will visit Sanford on a regular schedule which will be placed in the Sanford Post Office.

Representative for the Sanford area, Bozeman is also available by appointment to discuss Social Security problems with social staff, civic clubs, high school classes or other organizations.

Bozeman's assignment was announced by Col. Byron E. Foblon, district Social Security manager.

Collins Asks Flood Funds; Delegation Backs Control Work

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — Gov. LeRoy Collins, in a telegram Tuesday to President Eisenhower, asked him to allot $1,500,000 in disaster relief for Central Florida, hit by floods last month.

Collins said state and local agencies have spent or obligated over $9 million for relief work in the area.

He estimated private property of all ages, including agricultural loss, at $16,500,000. Total damage to public property, Collins said, amounted to more than $3 million dollars.

Chicago Demo Machine Steamrolls Candidates To Primary Nomination

CHICAGO (UPI)—Democratic and Republican organizations steamrolled to victory in Illinois today, crushing the hopes of insurgents in both parties who sought to oust the governor's nominees in Springfield.

Gov. William G. Stratton, seeking an unprecedented third term, won the Republican nomination and Otto Kerner, choice of organized Democrats, stopped cold

New Racial Crisis Plagues Nashville

By United Press International
Police reports in downtown Nashville, Tenn., were strewn today in the wake of sporadic outbreaks of racial violence and one bomb blast.

Four students from Tennessee State A. & I. University presented a warning by the State Board of Education that students convicted of "personal misconduct" would be expelled. Four students of the college were arrested Tuesday after taking part in a demonstration and were to go on trial late today.

One other Negro and two white teenagers were arrested in outbreaks of fighting and bottle throwing.

Crucifixes of Easter shoppers were on Nashville streets Tuesday when Negroes began picketing the stores and taking seats at segregated lunch counters.

Expert Describes The Open Mind

ANN ARBOR (UPI)—The "open mind" has four marks, says Dr. Milton Rothsch, professor of psychology at Michigan State University.

The four standards of measurement emerge from laboratory studies Dr. Rothsch conducted in an effort to work out a practical method of measuring people's "open" or "closed" mindsets.

Dr. Rothsch says that an open-minded person generally is one who:—is not upset by the idea of a major change, and can adjust to changes in life situations as these arise;

—is relatively free of preconceived notions about other people, and can meet, accept or reject them without regard to their religion, race, social or national origin;

—evaluates and reacts to ideas not in terms of who else may be for or against them, but solely in terms of their apparent merit;

—approaches people in positions of authority without, on the one hand, hesitancy, timidity or submission and, on the other hand, without the need to conform to what he imagines the "official" position to be.

Happiness Through Health Accidents Can Happen

(By DR. F. LEO KERWIN)

Some folks have the idea that once they have had the services of a Chiropractor they never need see the Chiropractor again.

A similar situation would be that of running your car into a tree, heading it out of shape, having it repaired and then expect to never need the services of a mechanic again. Unfortunately, you can run into another tree.

As long as folks are active they need the services of a Chiropractor. Activity is good for health. So work and enjoy life, but be sure to have a Chiropractic check-up regularly and straighten out spinal dents occasioned by stress and strain of everyday living.

Candidates For Governor Discuss Segregation At Jacksonville Meet

By United Press International
Half the 12 candidates for governor spoke at the Jacksonville Baseball Park Tuesday night with segregation the principal subject. Bill Hendrix and the Rev. George Downs took staunch pro-segregation positions.

Beverly Changes Suicide Story

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Beverly Aadland, 17, who briefly lived a rich and exciting life as the late Errol Flynn's "protégé" finds out today whether she will be made a ward of juvenile court.

The blonde teenager has been held in juvenile hall since Saturday when Billy Stanciu, 21, was found fatally wounded in her apartment. She changed her original story that he shot himself and admitted Tuesday that Stanciu was shot in the head while she and he struggled nude on her bed for a gun.

Beverly was ordered to appear before Juvenile Court Judge Donald A. Odell to face police charges that she is a "sex delinquent" and lacks proper supervision by her mother. The hearing was closed to the press and public.

She has been cleared by police of any criminal responsibility in Stanciu's death. Police listed his case as accidental death.

Mrs. Florence Aadland, the mother, vowed she strenuously would resist having Beverly declared a ward of the court. Such action by Odell would place Beverly's life under supervision of the juvenile court until her 18th birthday in September.

Beverly's about-face of her earlier story that Stanciu shot himself while playing Russian roulette after forcing his way into her apartment was met with tears of relief by the young bit actor's mother.

"I knew it was all lies. I'm so glad my son's name has been cleared," sobbed Mrs. Florence Stanciu.

Uncle Sam Wants To Pay Taxpayers $20 Million

WASHINGTON (UPI)—Here's news bigger than man-and-dog: The government wants to pay 20 million dollars to the taxpayers!

The money is in the Treasury, waiting to be claimed by about 400,000 taxpayers who failed to receive their income tax refund checks over the years.

The government will keep the money available "forever," the Treasury told United Press International.

This information was disclosed to file their 1959 income tax returns.

"I am the only candidate who has said in public he is a 100 percent segregationist," said Hendrix, a Ku Klux Klan leader. He said he would close all schools in the face of any integration threat.

Farris Bryant said he was proud of the progress made by Florida Negroes in recent years, and favored continuance of racial separation.

Ted David said he was "disgusted" by Hendrix's remarks. Doyle Carlton and Jacksonville Mayor Haydon Burns did not touch on the segregation issue.

Carlton proposed a plan aimed at relieving crowded classroom conditions in public schools. Burns said the type of administration he has given Jacksonville was needed in the state capital.

Earlier Tuesday, David called five of his opponents "racial extremists" and said a "cool head" will be needed in the governor's office during the next legislative session.

Farris Bryant has panicked and become an extremist as he did in the 1956 election; John McCarty has embraced the bigotry of Gen. Sumner Lowry; Doyle Carlton becomes more intemperate as the election nears; Haydon Burns and Fred Dickinson were extremists from the beginning," David said.

McCarty sent a telegram to the Board of Control Tuesday urging the white and Negro students participating in lunch counter sit-downs be expelled.

Burns, speaking at Crescent City, told supporters the most over-rated role in Florida politics is that of state legislator. Five of his opponents have legislative experience.

He said the state Legislature meets only 60 days every two years and lawmakers are "elected by an infinitely small vote from their home areas. . . . Yet some propagandists have drawn images of them being comparable to members of the U. S. Congress."

Carlton speaks in Jacksonville Tuesday and said, "We face a danger of economizing ourselves into a second-rate school system."

"The people of Florida can't afford a third-rate school system," he said. "Are we going to advance and thrive. . . . Or are we going to stagnate with regrets through false economy."

ist, presided and opened the meeting with the usual ritual. Mrs. A. B. Key gave a report on the state conference, held in Miami Beach recently; she and Mrs. Rounhill represented the chapter at this meeting.

Mrs. Key reported that the DAR has a membership of 137,000. The following nominating committee was elected to secure candidates for office for the next term of two years. They will be voted on at the May meeting. They are Mrs. M. W. Rucker, Mrs. L. P. Hagan and Mrs. A. C. Benson.

Mrs. Benson had charge of the program when members gave the names and services of their revolutionary ancestors. At the social hour the hostesses served refreshments.

These attending were Mrs. R. S. Rounhill, Mrs. Rucker, Mrs. Key, Mrs. Hagan, Mrs. Benson, Mrs. Stuart Brown, Mrs. A. C. McCollum, Mrs. L. W. Fellows, Mrs. R. P. Fry, Mrs. F. E. Bois, Mrs. J. B. Ray, Mrs. R. M. Mason, Mrs. C. E. Butler, Mrs. Howard Brewer, Mrs. C. E. Dawson, a guest, Mrs. Wilbur Hagerman and the hostesses.

Aluminum may suggest present tin and glass supplies, but it won't alter two familiar shapes. Hard-to-open milk and sardine cans will remain. The milk can because it assures maximum product safety, and the sardine can because it's best suited to the shape and fragility of the fish.

MEMBERS OF THE SANFORD PILOT CLUB are shown displaying some of their novelty Easter eggs, made by club members. They will go on sale Friday at the Carlton headquarters building on First Street. They will also be offered for sale in front of the Winn Dixie grocery on French Ave. all day Saturday. Admiring the novelty display are, left to right, Mrs. B. E. Chapman, Mrs. Walter L. Carter and Mrs. Raymond Ball. (Herald Photo)

Oviedo Woman's Club Names Officers For The New Year

BY MARIAN R. JONES
Mrs. E. W. Estes, who has served as president of the Oviedo Woman's Club for the past two years, was re-elected to serve another two-year term in that capacity at the regular meeting of the club Friday at Fellowship Hall of the First Methodist Church. Mrs. B. G. Smith, chairman of the nominating committee, presented the names of Mrs. Estes and other officers of the club for the next two-year term, as follows: Mrs. E. L. Luttrell, first vice president and finance chairman; Mrs. W. T. Walker, second vice president and program chairman; Mrs. E. P. Wheeler Jr., third vice president and membership chairman; Mrs. James E. Brookshire, recording secretary; Mrs. James Wilson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. H. Staley, treasurer and Mrs. B. G. Smith, parliamentarian. Mrs. A. W. Ellis and Mrs. Roy Clout Jr. were the other two members of the nominating committee.

The members unanimously elected the entire slate of officers, to be installed at the May meeting. Mrs. A. H. Ray Jr. and her committee, Mrs. Alex Leinhardt, Mrs. J. Y. Harris, Mrs. J. C. Michael, Mrs. Jack Dodd, Mrs. Roy Britt and Mrs. A. W. Ellis served a delicious breakfast preceding the meeting.

Guest speaker for the occasion was Mrs. James B. Bourdette, who spoke on "Interior Decorating." Mrs. Bourdette is connected with the Barnes Drapery and Floor Covering in Orlando and is also a graduate of the University of Miami. She said her interpretation of decorating is "to arrange to suit your taste."

Mrs. Estes presided over the business session, at which time Mrs. W. H. Martin again spoke on the plans for the political supper and rally Saturday night, from 8:30 to 7:30 p. m., sponsored by the club for the building fund.

It was also reported that the chicken supper given by the president of the club for the benefit of the building fund recently netted $118.00.

It was not ascertained the exact amount derived from the cooked food sale, which was held in conjunction with the meeting, as dishes were furnished by luncheon committees not previously reported.

Personals

Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Strickland and son, Jack, of Wauchula, spent the past weekend with Mr. Strickland's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Strickland, at their home on Palmolive Ave.
Mrs. Lee Patton spent the past weekend in Winter Haven with Mr. and Mrs. Wes Guan and Dr. and Mrs. M. Frederick Kelber. She served as Godmother to Miss Jeanette Innes Guan, who was confirmed at the morning service of the Grace Lutheran Church. Following the service, the church held a reception for the 18 young people who were confirmed.
Drip-dry tablecloths are a new convenience. Just launder by hand or machine, rinse away suds, and hang to drip dry. With no ironing needed, laundry time is cut to a minimum.

Personals

BY MARIAN R. JONES
Mrs. Louis L. Day, wife of the former pastor of the First Baptist Church of Oviedo, stopped briefly to call on friends en route from Daytona Beach where she was attending the WMU convention.

Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Johnson, of Pennington, N. J., who were touring the state of Florida during the spring holidays, were the guests of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Lawton, Friday. Professor Johnson is dean of languages department at the Pennington School where James Lawton, son of Dr. and Mrs. T. W. Lawton is also associated.

Mrs. George Rettle, who has been at her Ft. Lauderdale home commitments, returned to her home Sunday with her husband who had gone to Ft. Lauderdale for the weekend to bring her home.

C. L. Allen, father of Mrs. F. Shull, celebrated his birthday April 8, at which time homemade ice cream and cakes were enjoyed by the honoree and Mr. and Mrs. Shull and family, also Mr. and Mrs. Laddie Mariner and family of Orlando, Eugene Shull, Jimmy DeShazo, Jimmy Jones and Wesley Swanson.

Mac Jones, who has been confined to the Orange Memorial Hospital, was able to return to his job Tuesday.

About 150 people attended the Seminoles Association of the Brotherhood of the First Baptist Church in Oviedo, recently. A fish fry was held in the educational building of the church. Dr. John Maguire, secretary of the Southern Baptist convention, spoke to the group in the sanctuary, following the supper.

The Nettie Farnell Circle of the First Baptist Church presented the monthly program at WMU meeting, with Mrs. A. B. Tedford in charge.

Auxiliary To Meet

The Ladies Auxiliary of the Lake Mary Volunteer Fire Department will meet at the first house Thursday at 8 p. m. for the regular monthly session. All ladies are urged to attend and help make plans for next month's activities.

Sanford Couple To Celebrate 50th Anniversary Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Anson Oscar Stoffer will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary April 17 at their home, 761 West 20th St. with open house from 2 to 5 p. m.

The couple moved to Sanford, from Sebring, Ohio, in 1947. Mr. Stoffer formerly operated a self-service laundry in partnership with his son, but he is now retired.

They have three children, Mrs. Esther Thompson of Orlando, Mrs. Wilma Cranston of Napa, Calif., and Homer Stoffer of Sanford.

They also have six granddaughters and five great grandchildren. All friends and neighbors of the couple are invited to attend their golden anniversary celebration at the appointed hours, Easter Sunday.

Auxiliary To Hold

Easter Bake Sale

The DeBarry World War I Auxiliary met at the Community Center Saturday afternoon. Twenty-six members were present, including one new member, Mrs. J. Van Dusen. Delicious refreshments were served by Mrs. Aaron Dungan, who also accompanied on the piano the group singing which followed.

The auxiliary is sponsoring a bake sale Saturday, April 16. In addition to baked goods, Easter eggs will also be on sale. Mrs. Barney Anderson is chairman, and Mrs. Frank E. Hill co-chairman of the sale.

The next meeting of the barracks and auxiliary will be in the form of a picnic at Juniper Springs in the Ocala National Forest, May 14.

The seventh district department meeting will be held at the DeLand American Legion Hall at 10 a. m. April 24. Mrs. E. Miller DeBerger will represent the DeBarry auxiliary and Mrs. Nicholas Kahoe, auxiliary president, plans to attend.

Local Events

THURSDAY

Asiles Circle of the Sanford Garden Club meets at the home of Mrs. J. A. Young, 308 Escambia Dr., at 8 p. m. for a program on corsage making.

Central Circle meets at the home of Mrs. Volie A. Williams, 609 Magnolia Ave., at 8:30 a. m. Semore Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. B. Newsome, 609 West 5th St. at 7:30 p. m. Mrs. C. E. Lind will present a program on corsage making.

Members of the Palm Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Gregory Kessenich on Pines Rd., DeBarry at 9:30 a. m. Following the business meeting the hostesses will serve refreshments, then they will go in a group to DeLand to visit Mason and Happy Studios, who specialize in dried arrangements.

When choosing seat covers for the family car, match the mood to the exterior. Black, dark blue, and grey auto need conservative seat covers, but a fire-engine red, bright yellow and other dramatic colors labe exciting interiors, says a seat cover designer.

He also suggests changing seat covers for winter and summer. Some of his customers even have covers made to match their favorite dresses in washable yarns and broadweaves.

To keep lacquered copper clean, wash in warm soap or detergent suds. Then rinse, also with warm water, and wipe dry.

Women on the Go

BY JEANNE WARNEK
MARY D. KNOX was honored at a reception last Thursday at the home of her daughter, Muriel (Mrs. F. D.) Scott and Mr. Scott. The occasion was in commemoration of her birthday and also marked her farewell as executive secretary of the American Red Cross of which she has so admirably served for the past 15 years. Mrs. Knox, wife of the late Dr. A. W. Knox, came to Sanford in 1926 from Canada where she had graduated from the Toronto General Hospital as a registered nurse. In Sanford she was a member of the rationing board during the war years and was first a volunteer worker with the Red Cross before her job as executive secretary. She is a member of the B&P Women's Club, the Sanford Woman's Club and also is a member of the Medical Auxiliary.

Other interests are oil painting, music and gardening, which make her, indeed, a remarkable person. At her reception, Mrs. Knox wore a lovely orchid corsage presented to her by a friend—among the many friends calling during the afternoon, were officials of the Red Cross. Mrs. Camilla Bruce presided at the punch bowl and was assisted by three young hostesses, the Misses Jeannie Robson, Debbie and Mary Scott. The table, overlaid with a linen and lace cloth, was pretty with crystal appointments and a cascade arrangement of pastel flowers.

LEAVING SANFORD TODAY is (Mrs. George) Palmer who will go to her summer cottage in Connecticut. Mr. Palmer, busy with wrapping up the stately Mayfair Inn for the summer months, will be joining her soon.

QUIDA (Mrs. Harry) LEE says it's certainly nice to have friends. This week she has enjoyed looking over the many cards, plants and other gifts received since the car accident—but it's regrettable that she and her husband will be unable to take the cruise they had anticipated this month. Still planning to leave on the 27th are MR. AND MRS. FRED DYSON—the cruise will last 12 days and the first stop will be in Jamaica, the last in the Dominican Republic.

MRS. DYSON was quite proud of her young granddaughter, Shelley Mebane, last week—Shelley, daughter of Elizabeth and Frank Mebane, was a "real charmer" in the Easter parade at the Rosalind Club in Orlando. The Rosalind, one of the oldest and most exclusive social clubs there, has a parade every year before Easter for children or grandchildren of members. This year Shelley wore an orchid dotted Swiss nylon dress that featured a bouffant skirt and matching duster... a bonnet with harmonizing purse and white gloves completed her parade attire.

MR. AND MRS. H. E. TOOKE are vacation-minded, too, this month. They will leave New York City on the 15th aboard the "America" and will spend three months touring Europe. A highlight of their trip will be visiting their son, Henry, who is stationed with the Army in Germany. In June they will be at the airport in Rome to meet Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Patrick who will join them on their sight-seeing excursion. The Tookes are not having too much time before leaving to get acquainted with their new granddaughter—Becky Lynn, who weighed 6 lbs. 9 1/2 ozs. when she arrived last week. Congratulations to Patricia and Frank Stenstrom!

JANE (Mrs. Cliff) MCKIBBIN is enjoying a special occasion today. She and her husband are guests of Cmdr. I. M. Rowell aboard the Independence at Mayport. She said it would be her first time aboard an aircraft carrier—lunch and a full tour were planned by her host.

MARGARET (Mrs. R. A. P. H.) WOOD, (her husband is a major in charge of the Marine barracks here) did a Samoan dance at the spring fashion show held in Mead Botanical Garden in Winter Park—and she is quite adept at doing such a dance since she was born on Samoa. Her parents—in the shipping business—still live there. She attended schools in Honolulu and also Wellesley College in Mass.

For her performance in Winter Park she wore a sarong and an unusual lei made for her by Mary (Mrs. A. B. S.) Peterson. It was fashioned entirely out of white giant rick-rack which created the appearance of frangipani or gardenia flowers.

DORIS (Mrs. Doc) FAULKNER is the Sanford ticket chairman for the card party and fashion show to be sponsored by the Pink Ladies of the Seminole Hospital. The event will take place May 12, at the Woman's Club. Tickets are $1 and please call Doris for yours!

North Orlando Club To Meet Thursday

The North Orlando Garden Club will meet Thursday at 7:30 p. m. at the home of Mrs. Richard Stodden, 151 Edgeman Ave. with Mrs. George Bradford serving as co-hostesses.

William Deutsch, executive vice president of Master Builders Corp. will be guest speaker. His topic will be "landscaping." Membership is still open to new residents of this area, all those interested in joining the club contact one of the members.

About four out of five children born with heart defects can now be helped by various operations, the Florida Heart Association reports.

Lake Mary WMU Presents Program On Missions

"More than a name" was the subject of the regular monthly meeting of the WMU of the First Baptist Church of Lake Mary last week.

Mrs. C. N. North, president, had charge of the meeting. Mrs. E. M. Chester was in charge of the program. Mrs. Willard Boman and Mrs. Harley Wilhelm spoke about Spain. Mrs. J. T. Real and Mrs. W. T. Wansley told about Italy. Mrs. J. E. Green and Mrs. J. A. Varn gave a report of France.

The women discussed the work of the missionaries and the need for missions. Refreshments of cake, cookies, and coffee were served by Mrs. Wilhelm, Mrs. Real, and Mrs. Boman.

Members attending were Mrs. North, Mrs. R. H. Chambers, Mrs. Green, Mrs. J. W. Crawford, Mrs. J. G. Osburn, Mrs. Cathy Jones, Mrs. Helen Ferguson, Mrs. Louis Horine, Mrs. Thomas Whigham, Mrs. Ray Rose, Mrs. Gus Ricketson, Mrs. Beal, Mrs. Boman, Mrs. Cathy Shavers, Mrs. Jerry Luske, Mrs. Wilhelm, Mrs. Carol Tiple, Mrs. Thelma Renfrow, Mrs. Varn, Mrs. Chester, and Mrs. Wansley.

PAT AND KAY DWYER and their two children, former residents of Sanford, spent the weekend here as guests of Mrs. Audrey Brownlee—the Dwyers now live in Brunswick, Ga. On Saturday evening, Audrey entertained with cocktails and dinner at home... those attending, other than the Dwyers, were Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Tucker, Lcdr. and Mrs. Steve Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Wally Phillips, Lt. and Mrs. William Hackett, Cdr. and Mrs. Ralph Mattus, Lcdr. and Mrs. Bart Bartholomew and Cdr. George Humphries.

BEING WELCOMED BACK are Cdr. and Mrs. Sy Johnson, who have been stationed in Washington, D. C. They lived here two years ago and Lou taught school in Lake Mary.

MORE NAVY NEWS is that Jean Reedy (wife of a former C. O. of the Naval Air Station, now living in Jacksonville) is a grandmother! Her daughter, Molly, married to a Navy man and living in Whidbey Island, Wash., has a son born April 1.

ANOTHER GRANDMOTHER, Mrs. Nancy Brock, saw her only granddaughter christened last Sunday in Dade City—her namesake, Nancy Louise, is the daughter of Mary Louise and Pete Brock and was born on Christmas Day... "a little Christmas angel," says Mrs. Brock. For the ceremony, Nancy Louise wore a beautiful dress made by Mrs. W. H. Stewart. It was of white Swiss-Imported batiste with dainty embroidery and tating.

THE "GLAD TO BE ABOARD" party given by Capt. and Mrs. Robert Slye Friday night was a gala event with station officers in their white uniforms and the women looking their prettiest in lovely cocktail dresses. June greeted guests in a white faille dress trimmed with rhinestones. The party was held in the wardroom of the BOQ and among the large group attending were many of the Slye's civilian friends.

Sanford HD Club To Meet Thursday

The Sanford Home Demonstration Club will meet at 2 p. m. Thursday at the Home Demonstration Center on East 25th St. Mrs. Eva Harkey and Mrs. John Senkarik will present the program on "getting the most out of your year." All members and visitors are invited to attend.

OES Presents Easter Program

Easter was the theme of a program presented by Seminole Chapter No. 2, O. E. S., at a recent meeting held at Masonic Hall, with 41 members and eight visitors present.

Steak Fry Enjoyed By VAH-5 Wives At Goben Home

The officer's wives of VAH-5 held a steak fry recently for their monthly pot luck supper. Mrs. H. A. Lackey and Mrs. H. G. Goben were co-hostesses at Goben's Lake Markham home.

At the short meeting following dinner Mrs. D. E. Dearolph announced that the luncheon for the month would be held at L'Auberge's in Orlando on Thursday April 21. Mrs. R. W. Repp will be Mrs. Dearolph's co-hostess.

Mrs. H. S. Moore presented Mrs. Lackey with a silver cup for her new baby, Ray Benjamin. The others who attended were Mrs. E. W. Foote, Mrs. D. J. Brough, Mrs. R. E. Farmer, Mrs. A. W. Smith, Mrs. H. L. O'Hara, Mrs. E. E. Austin, Mrs. D. W. Caswell, Mrs. J. A. DeGanahl, Mrs. A. J. Blaha and Mrs. C. D. Schoonover.

The officers carried Easter baskets during the incoming and outgoing marches in token of the season.

The worthy matron, Mrs. Marjorie Shepard, gave a short talk on the meaning of Easter. As she spoke of the darkness that fell during the crucifixion of the Lord, the lights were dimmed and a candle on the altar lighted. The Star Points, with appropriate remarks, lighted the candles of Fidelity, Constancy, Loyalty, Faith and Love.

The worthy matron spoke of the lights that encircle the world and recited the words of Jesus—"Let your light so shine that men will see it and glorify your Father who is in heaven." While the soloist, Mrs. Eloise Pfeilaut sang "Light Up The Corner Where You Are" the marshal, Mrs. Irene White, lighted the remaining candles at each officer's station.

Several Seminole officers have been honored with grand chapter appointments. Junior matron Linnie Moyer and Junior patron Harvey L. Dunn, will act as grand escort and assistant grand sentinel respectively, at the Grand Chapter Convention to be held in Tampa April 12 through 15. Virginia Anderson, chaplain, has been appointed grand instructor for District 24.

Mrs. Moyer, with the assistance of Misses Maude Humphrey, Ethel Moore and Beulah Moyer, served refreshments after the meeting. As pants increase in popularity and in prestige for resort wear, the ensemble has greater potential, registering strongly in patterned cottons and silks. By the pool, on the patio, all through the day and out to dinner, such costumes are worn more and more in most Southern spots and for cruise, reports Women's Wear Daily.

Monroe Home Club To Meet Thursday

The Lake Monroe Home Demonstration Club will meet at the home of Mrs. J. C. Sapp on Orange Blvd., Thursday at 7:30 p. m. for their regular monthly meeting.

Mrs. Clover Marrs will be co-hostess and Mrs. Lenora Andrews will present the program on "Family Life." A report will be given from the nominating committee. All members are urged to attend as this will be an important meeting. The club will hold a bake sale Saturday, starting at 11 a. m. at the Monroe Postoffice. Colored eggs will also be sold. Proceeds will be used to send a member to the short course at Gainesville this summer.

Rice is produced in commercial volume in Florida.

Covington Covers Sports

By JERRY COVINGTON
Activity around the Florida State League is humming with the season opener less than a week off.

The Sanford Greyhounds are scheduled to arrive late Saturday night via Greyhound bus and they will spend the weekend at the Giant dormitories before they scatter throughout the city in various apartments. The squad of 19 youngsters are all single with the exception of one player and, of course, manager Robbie Robertson, who will bring his wife and two children with him.

Robertson is still more than pleased with his fine group of baseballers and he feels that his club will be as strong as any in the league. He is a go-go type of manager and the local fans can be assured that they will get their money's worth this summer.

In discussing the ball club with business manager Pete Schaal he said, "we have already ordered bats with the individual players names on them so Robbie must feel pretty sure that he will go with the same rookies all season."

Schaal announced also that the business office at the ball park will be opened

Saturday at 10:30 a. m. and anyone that is interested in working at the park this summer should contact him after this time. The phone in the office will be connected and the number is FA 2-1940.

Ward Goodrich was in town the other day and he is getting "butterflies" over the opener already. Ward went to Thomasville, Ga., last week to get a look at his ball club and when I asked him what they looked like he replied, "I'm not saying a word." Just come over Tuesday night and we will get a look at them together. And this is just what I plan to do.

Things are shaping up for a great summer of baseball and the stage will be set Tuesday night in Leesburg's Venetian Gardens. After a very poor showing last year the Greyhounds, who are now a Kansas City club, are going all out to bring us a winning team. Some of the fans who went night after night last summer only to see a ball game kicked away are going to have to be shown something before they attend regularly again but, I sincerely believe that we have the ball team that can do it.

The league will be fast and when the Greyhounds are home we can count on a top notch ball game.

Pinch Hit Homer In 11th Proves Bums Still Have Knack Of Doing Things The Hard Way

United Press International
Manager Walt Alton still has that World Series magic and the Los Angeles Dodgers still have that uneasy knack for doing things the hard way.

That was the big story Tuesday night when the Dodgers eliminated one of the greatest opening days in National League history with an uphill 2-3, 11-inning victory over the Chicago Cubs.

A record night game crowd for the league was turned out in the massive Los Angeles Coliseum and was treated to a sensational game in which:

—Don Drysdale, 1939 strikeout king, fanned 14 Cubs and allowed only seven hits over the last 11 innings.

—The "old" hanger" Dodgers rallied from an early 2-0 deficit, brought about with the help of ex-teammate Don Zimmerman's homer, to tie the score in the fifth inning and carry the game into extra innings.

—Alton, who twice got pinch-hit homers from Chuck Essegian in the 1939 World Series, called on the rugged utility outfielder with two out in the last of the 11th — and got the game-winning homer from him.

Essegian's teammates gathered at home plate to meet him as he ran out the game-winning homer and the huge crowd accorded the ex-Stanford football player a thunderous ovation. It was the third straight homer for Essegian as a pinch-hitter, dating back to the '39 series.

Pitcher Bob Anderson's single and a double by Tony Taylor gave the Cubs their second run off Drysdale in the third inning but the Dodgers tied the score on two walks and a double by Wally Moon, another of the Dodgers' 1939 heroes.

The attendance broke the old National League single-game night record of 67,637 set by the Dodgers against Milwaukee at the Coliseum last Aug. 8 and rounded out a day during which the four National League openers drew a total of 178,732 fans.

The San Francisco Giants dedicated their new 15-million-dollar Candlestick Park and beat the St. Louis Cardinals, 2-1, before 60,232.

The Milwaukee Braves edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 4-3 before 55,000 and the Cincinnati Reds romped over the Philadelphia Phillies, 9-4, before 36,975 in the daylight openers. American League openers are scheduled for April 19 and April 20.

Vice President Richard Nixon was among the capacity throng of San Francisco as Sam Jones hit a three-homer and Orlando Cepeda drove in all three Giant runs. Jones fanned three and walked only one, yielding the St. Louis run on a homer by ex-Giant Leon Wagner. Cepeda tripled home two runs in the first inning and staged home Willie Mays in the third.

Chicago (UPI) — Rocky Kase, the Philippine welterweight champion and Philadelphia's Geraint (Sugar) Hart each predicted a knockout victory for their scheduled 10-round fight tonight.

"I'm going all out to score a knockout, the earlier the better," Kalinge said, "and I think I can knock him out with my right hand."

"This is one fight where I'm sure that someone will be carried out," Hart said, "and I'm sure it won't be me. I've got too much at stake to lose to a newcomer and I'll prove it tomorrow night."

Charlie Dresen made a victorious debut as manager of the Braves when Joe Adcock blasted a two-run eighth-inning homer off Pittsburgh relief ace Roy Face, who didn't lose his first game of the 1939 season until Sept. 11.

Warren Spahn had homered and pitched shutout until the Pirates tied the score at 2-3 in the eighth. Don MacMahon picked up the win with ninth-inning relief aid from Lew Burdette.

Red Schoendienst made his first start for the Braves since the 1938 World Series but went hitless in three trips to the plate.

Roy McMillan and rookie Tony Gonzalez hit homers as the Reds spoiled Robin Roberts' 11th consecutive opening-day appearance with a nine-hit attack. Roberts was rocked for seven hits and eight earned runs in 4 1-3 innings. Jim O'Toole, who shut out the Phillies for the third through the eighth inning, was the winner.

Kalime Favored To Cop AL Honors

NEW YORK (UPI) — Al Kalime, brilliant 28-year-old outfielder of the Detroit Tigers, is favored to romp off this season with his second American League batting title.

The United Press International's 1939 board of baseball experts, sports writers and broadcasters who saw the teams in spring training, picked Kalime to wrest the title away from teammate Harvey Kuesen.

Kalime, who won the crown with a .346 average in 1935, was picked by 22 of the 30 experts. Kuesen, the 1939 champion with a .333 mark, was chosen to repeat this year by 14 experts.

Mickey Mantle, the New York Yankees' injury-harassed superstar, was chosen by seven writers and Rocky Colavito and Johnny Temple of the Cleveland Indians, Nelson Fox of the Chicago White Sox and Norm Siebern of the Kansas City Athletics received one vote each.

The bout could be "make or break" for both fighters. It will be Kalime's fifth match in the United States and should be less to the seventh ranked Hart, he'll probably have to return to Hawaii, his current home, to rebuild his reputation. A win could put him in line for better U. S. matches and a chance to climb up the contender's ladder.

Hart has lost his last two matches, to Luis Rodriguez and to Charlie Scott and a third straight defeat probably would drop him out of the top 10.

ROSEMONT, Mont. (UPI) — NBA world middleweight champion Gene Fullmer and challenger Joey Giardello each scored four rounds Tuesday in preparation for their 15-round title bout at the Montana State University Field House, April 25.

ELMSFORD, N. Y. (UPI) — Mike Turnesa, 25, father of the famous golfing brothers, died Tuesday in his sleep at the home of one of his daughters, Mrs. John Boehle.

Frick To Rule On Avila's Right To Be Optioned

By United Press International
Commissioner Ford Frick has been asked to rule whether hold-out second-baseman Bobby Avila can be optioned to a club in the class AA Mexican League and still be free to rejoin the Braves for the final 30 days of the National League season.

The matter went to Frick when Avila, one-time American League batting champion and a 11-year veteran, offered to waive his 10-year veteran rights. Avila's long service in the majors entitles him to an unconditional release if he is optioned to the minors but he has said he will forego the release if optioned to the Mexican League.

It is reported that Avila, who refused to accept a 25 percent pay slash by the Braves, can accept a player-manager's job in the league. General Manager Johnny McHale says the arrangement is all right with the Braves but that Frick's approval is required.

The Detroit Tigers, meanwhile, acquired 25-year-old outfielder Norman Cash from the Cleveland Indians in exchange for third-baseman Steve Demeter. Cash, a left-hander, who is expected to play first base, hit .246 for the American League champions last season. Demeter hit .319 in 22 Grapefruit League games this spring.

The Tigers also sent five players to Denver of the American Association, a 25-year-old third baseman Steve Boros and pitchers Phil Regan, Al Pehanick, Bob Smith and Don Kaiser. The cuts reduced their roster to 27 players.

Canucks Stomp Leafs In Cup Play

TORONTO (UPI) — The stage is set for the final game of the Stanley Cup hockey playoffs between the Toronto Maple Leaf Coach Punch Imlach and the Winnipeg Stanley Cup history can repeat itself.

Eighteen years ago, the 1941-42 Leafs were down 3-0 to the Detroit Red Wings but stormed back and captured the coveted piece of silverware. Imlach is hoping the world's professional hockey crown.

Imlach needs a repeat because the Leafs trail the haughty Montreal Canadiens, 3-0, in this spring's final National Hockey League playoffs.

The Canadiens got two goals from third-string center Phil Goyette in the first game. Imlach (Rocket) Richard, Henri (Pocket Rocket) Richard and Donnie Marshall.

The struggling Leafs — who skated their finest game of the series thus far — received counters from Maurice Wilton and Bert Olmstead, a couple of NHL cast-offs.

Callans Spark Family League

The Mister and Missus Bowling League has had plenty of action over the last six weeks and some good scores have been rolled.

The top scorers of the league is the Callan family with a 12 and 5 record. Betty Callan has rolled the top game and series of the league for the women, showing the men how to roll last Sunday with a 218-287 total.

The Accardis are two games behind the leaders with an 11-7 record, with the Rogels and the Motis tied for third at 10 1/2 wins to 7 1/2 losses. Carl Rogel has the high series for men this far into the season with a 592 total.

The Accardis and the Carrers are tied for fifth with 10 and 8 records, while the Wichars have an even record of 9 wins and 9 losses. The Richards and the Trapnells are tied for eighth with 8 and 10 records, and the Jacksons are right behind with a 7 1/2 score. J. A. Jackson has rolled the high single game for men with a big 246 his first night of rolling.

Medics Battle To Save Mohr

MADISON, Wis. (UPI) — Champion college boxer Charlie Mohr was kept alive by medical science for the fourth day today, despite odds that remained heavily against his survival.

"He's still hanging on and considering the gravity of the case, that's something. He has improved a bit, but only a minimum," said Dr. Maucher Javid, associate professor of neuro-surgery who performed the brain surgery on Mohr Saturday night and early Sunday.

BUREBANK, Calif. (UPI) — Billy Anderson, 20-year-old son of Eddie (Rockstar) Anderson of the Jack Benny television show, has survived the four-day tryout camp of the Los Angeles Chargers of the American Football League. He is a 6-foot, 190-pound halfback who formerly played with DePaul College and the Chicago Bears.

Philippine Welter Champ, Hart Clash Tonight; Both Predict KO

NEAL V. FARMER (right), president of the Seminole County Board of Realtors, confers with Florida Realtors' state president James H. Adkinson, Pensacola, at quarterly meeting of the Florida Association of Realtors in Orlando last Saturday. Farmer, a Sanford Realtor, was one of several hundred Realtors and their salesmen from all parts of the state who attended the two-day sessions featuring a salesmanship clinic, talks by members of the Florida Real Estate Commission, a forum and dinner for Realtor Board president, and professional committee meetings of the 8,700-member Florida Association of Realtors.

Three Tourists Jailed In Cuba

HAVANA (UPI)—Cuban police announced Tuesday they have jailed three American tourists, two of them from Florida, on charges of possessing counterfeit Cuban 20-peso notes.

The three are Marilyn Menger of Miami Beach, Martin Silverman of Miami, and Naomi Stevenson of Independence, Mo., and New York.

Police said the three had notes totaling 15,000 pesos. They said Miss Menger and Silverman told them the notes had been left in their care by some one they did not know. Miss Stevenson said some false bills which she had spent had been won in a gambling casino.

Moscow Hints New Drive On To Tighten Grip On Red Army

LONDON (UPI)—Soviet officials apparently are getting ready for a new crackdown on Red Army commanders who refuse to knuckle under to Communist Party directives.

An issue of the official Red Army newspaper Sovetskaya Armiya which has reached London complains about officers "who forget party instructions."

The newspaper, admits that renewed friction has cropped up between professional army men and the political "commissars" who are assigned by the Kremlin to keep them under thumb.

A conference of party secretaries will be called soon to take up this situation which "cannot be tolerated," Sovetskaya Armiya said.

The meeting was expected to set the stage for a Kremlin crackdown against army leaders viewed as too independent.

Army resentment toward the Communist functionaries who attempt to guide training and organizational policies is not new in Russia. However, it had thought to be on the wane under the more liberal policies of Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev.

The conflict was greatest under the late Joseph Stalin, especially during the war years when commissars exerted supreme control over army units and frequently countermanded orders of the field commanders.

At issue is a paradox which confronts all totalitarian regimes who use a strong military to enforce their tenure in government. They take a chance their commanders will someday feel that politicians are just an added encumbrance.

Broward Vote Registration Up

FORT LAUDERDALE (UPI)—Voter registration in Broward County has increased almost 100 percent in the last four years, registration supervisor Easter Lily Gates reported Tuesday.

She said 113,023 persons have registered to vote in the May 3 primaries. Only 66,454 were registered in 1956 and only 42,601 in 1952.

By party, the registration breaks down to 77,539 Democrats, 32,851 Republicans, and 2,533 independents. The count includes 8,988 Negroes and 19 Indians.

A postage stamp commemorating the 100th birthday of the Pony Express will be issued in July 1960.

Red Chinese Put Grab On Famous Mount Everest In Frontier Move

By PHIL NEWSON
UPI Foreign Editor

Red China put the land grab on Mt. Everest the other day.

This latest was against the tiny Hindu state of Nepal, wedged between India and Red China on the slopes of the Himalayas.

Mt. Everest and the Abominable Snowman said to wander its snowy heights have been Nepal's chief claim to fame. And since Mt. Everest is known to every schoolboy, it served to dramatize Red China's unceasing efforts to extend its frontiers at the expense of its neighbors.

To the north of Mt. Everest stretches Red China's "wild west" and the real reason for this discussion.

For while Red China moves in on thousands of square miles of territory on a border line extending from India's northwest territory to Burma, evidence continues to accumulate that she still has plenty of trouble controlling the land she already has.

Recently it was disclosed that what previously had been dismissed as a minor uprising in Tsinghai Province of northwest China in late 1958 actually was of such massive proportions that the red Army had to be called in to put it down.

Prior to that there had been the 1957 uprising in neighboring Sinking Province, and, immediately after, the revolt in Tibet which reached its height in March, 1959.

Other outbreaks were reported in the province of Chinghai and in Mongolia.

Here are wild streams and lands, towering mountains and a people who never have bowed to the Chinese will.

In the region are more Tibetans than there are in Tibet, and more Turkistan than there are in Chinese.

As in Tibet, the Tsinghai rebellion centered around the Buddhist monasteries.

Kao Feng, first secretary of the Tsinghai Communist Party committee, reported to the rebels: "Under the guise of protecting the interests of national religion, they occupied monasteries as bases of operation, attacked the people's government, murdered revolutionary cadres and activists, destroyed pasture and livestock, burned down dwelling houses."

Kao Feng concluded: "The heroic fighting of the rebellion-suppressing units of the Chinese people's army quelled the revolt."

These are rugged individualists fighting a losing battle, but still determined to preserve their right to decide.

Quotable Quotes

By United Press International

LONDON — A British woman, objecting that a bronze bust of Princess Margaret by the late sculptor Jack Epstein just doesn't look like her:

"It makes her look very serious — as though she needs a good meal."

WASHINGTON — An internal revenue spokesman, revealing that the IRS is holding onto about 400,000 tax refund checks that could not be delivered in hopes that the taxpayers will turn up some day to claim them:

"The records are kept forever. We never dissolve an obligation like that."

HOLLYWOOD — Producer Doris Schary, when asked whether there ever was a "Hollywood blacklist" of writers who were ex-Communists:

"There wasn't a 'blacklist' per se, but there were lists you may be sure. And names had to be cleared."

City To Aid Greyhound Team

Sanford's City Commission voted Monday to transfer $1,000 to help cover non-budgeted expenses for this season's Sanford Greyhound games.

City Manager Warren Knowles reported that the Greyhounds will play 10 games here and have four open dates. They are expected to include salaries for ball park maintenance men, lights for the stadium, and police salaries for game duty, total $4,107.80.

Stevenson Holds Door Ajar In Bid For Nomination

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Adlai E. Stevenson reclaimed a share of Democratic attention today while the two active campaigners for the presidential nomination took a rest.

Despite denials that he is a candidate, Stevenson is holding the door ajar for the Democratic National Convention to draft him for a third try at the White House if other candidates falter.

After touring Latin America while the 1960 campaign warmed up, he made the first speech since his return Tuesday night at a Founder's Day celebration at the University of Virginia.

He translated many quotations from Thomas Jefferson, founder of the university, into a 1960 campaign document which was an indictment of the Eisenhower administration.

Stevenson accused the administration of deception and concealment which he said was denying the American people information they need about the world crisis confronting them.

"Our foreign policy has been dominated by sterile anti-Communism and stupid wishful thinking, our domestic policy by fear of inflation and mistrust of government," he said.

Sen. John F. Kennedy (D-Mass.), who won the Democratic presidential primary in Wisconsin last week, and Sen. Hubert H. Humphrey (D-Minn.), the loser, broke off campaigning to rest until after Easter.

Humphrey announced he would return next Tuesday to West Virginia, where he faces a second two-man contest with Kennedy in the presidential primary May 16.

Annual Union Good Friday Service Set

Sanford Area Ministerial Association will hold its annual Union Good Friday service in the First Presbyterian Church from 12 noon through 3 p. m.

The speakers for the service will be Rev. R. H. Spear Jr., Rev. Ira E. Heidman Jr., Rev. Robert O. Byrd, Rev. W. T. Parsons, Rev. Ernest Bolick Jr., Rev. James N. Barnett, and Rev. Gail Smith.

Musical selections will be furnished by the church choir requested in the association. The public is invited to attend any part or all of the service.

NAS Crew Wins Monthly Award

Lcdr. H. F. Bryant, Heavy Attack Squadron Nine Safety Officer, and his crew won "crew of the month award" for March.

Points are awarded for proficiency in Radar Bomb scoring, pin point bomb drops, camera attack on unfamiliar cities, and in the various phases of navigation to mention only a few.

Lcdr. Bryant's crew is composed of R. H. Kennedy, AQCA (bombadier/navigator), and H. G. Wangle, AT2 (third crewmember). Both men know their jobs and have proven this by the teamwork which they displayed in becoming "top gun" of the month.

SEMINOLE HIGH'S MUSICAL COMEDY, "Pickles," just goes to show that the course of true love never runs smooth as in this scene where Don McCoy discovers romantic Winston Percy making love to a rather reluctant Suzanne Jones. The musical, put on by the Seminole High Choralliers, will be presented April 21 at 8 p. m. in the Seminole High auditorium. (Herald Photo)

Texas, Indiana Shift Suggested To Clarify Presidential Effort

By DICK WEST
WASHINGTON (UPI) — I think it might help clarify the presidential campaign situation if we could persuade Texas and Indiana to change places for the next few months.

Geographically, of course, this might not work out too well. It would tend to overcrowd the Midwest while leaving a couple of hundred thousand square miles of blank space along the Rio Grande.

But politically, it could be a boon to Sen. Lyndon B. Johnson of Texas and Rep. Randall S. Harmon of Indiana, who seem to be trying to widen their horizons.

According to recent reports, Johnson wants to move Texas out of the South to foster his presidential ambitions. Now it appears that Harmon is seeking to move Indiana into the South for much the same reason.

Five Killed In Head-On Crash

ALTIQUIPPA, Pa. (UPI) — Five persons, including an attorney's wife and two of her four children, were killed Tuesday night in a head-on collision here.

The other two children of Beaver Falls, Pa., attorney John Cartwright received critical injuries.

The accident happened about 8:30 p. m. when one of the drivers, possibly a heart attack victim, lost control of his car. It struck four parked vehicles before slamming into the Cartwright automobile on the three-lane Altiquippa-Monaca Boulevard.

Egg whites heat up faster and better if removed from the refrigerator about a half-hour before use.

Sanford Youth Wins Scholarship

Unless you were out to lunch or something, you may remember that I made penetrating analyses of all the announced candidates who have campaign headquarters here. Then I made penetrating analyses of all the unannounced candidates who have campaign headquarters.

After that, I made a penetrating analysis of Johnson, an unannounced candidate who does not have a campaign headquarters. This brought me to Harmon, who sort of defies description.

When I interviewed him in the lobby just off the House floor, Harmon seemed more intent on returning to Congress than on reaching the White House.

He has eight opponents in the May 3 Indiana Democratic Primary and this has tended to diminish his interest in the "Harmon for President Club" organized by some of his home town friends.

The club's slogan is "he brought back the front porch," a tribute to Harmon's well publicized achievement in managing to become the government's landlord as well as its tenant.

However, according to published reports, it was another matter that caused membership in the club to take a big jump recently. They say that southern congressmen signed up in droves after Harmon unexpectedly voted against the House Civil Rights Bill.

Meanwhile, back in the Senate, Johnson was making a bid for presidential support outside the South by supporting civil rights legislation.

This sort of thing can get somewhat confusing which is why I think a little map revision might be helpful. Rand-McNally, take it away!

Zoo Gets Three New Monkeys

NEW YORK (UPI) — Dogdom in the United States probably would have the envy of most canines in other countries of the world, notes the weekly retail digest of the American Newspaper Publishers Association. For instance, dog owners in this country spent $330 million on dog food alone last year, but this does not include mealtime leftovers most pooches are so fond of gobbling up.

The Sanford Zoo got three new monkeys Monday.

The owl-faced and black monkeys came from Sugar Mill Gardens in New Smyrna Beach. Their donation to Sanford was arranged through one of the Volusia County Commissioners.

Arrangements call for a fourth monkey to be given the zoo.

Religious Issue In Political Race Not As Fiery As In 1928 Campaign

By LYLE C. WILSON
WASHINGTON (UPI) — The issue of man's religion is firmly established in American politics in this presidential year.

The religious issue of 1960 lacks the fire and ferocity, however, of the religious and allied issues of 1928 when Alfred E. Smith of New York lost to Herbert C. Hoover of California.

Beer and whisky were bitter issues in the 1928 campaign. The South and much of rural, Protestant America elsewhere scorned and hated Al Smith not merely because he was a Roman Catholic. Religion was an issue. No doubt about that.

As big an issue or bigger and, surely, more angry and better understood, however, was the allied issue of prohibition. Smith was for repeal or real modification of the bone-dry drinking regulations which the best organized political pressure group in U. S. history was trying to impose on the American people.

There was a touch of anti-Semitism, too, in the opposition to Smith. Wherever his campaign train pulled up and the candidate and his advisers disembarked, there were prominent in the Smith parade certain notable New Yorkers. Their very names upon the bigots and lunatic fringe among what H. L. Mencken used to describe as the yokelry.

Mrs. Belle Moskowitz was prominent in the Smith campaign cabinet. Another was Judge Joseph M. Proskauer. Moreover, Al was an eccentric to the ears and eyes of southerners and others. Al wore a brown derby. His speech twanged of the Bowery. Radio was the scientific wonder of the day and Al referred to this amazing gadget frequently, pronouncing it each time "radio" with a short A.

All of this was strange, even offensive, to Mencken's yokels. Smith's religion was only one of the differences although an important one. In the background of the 1928 campaign was the great and unplumbed bitterness of 1924.

The wets, the Catholics, the big city delegates ganged up behind Smith. The dries, the Ku Kluxers, the Protestants, the small town and country folk rallied around William G. McAdoo.

These forces slugged it out for 102 ballots and, on the 103rd, the warfare ended in the nomination for president of John W. Davis of West Virginia. Davis scarcely was heard of again.

But the bitterness remained and, in the 1928 campaign, Mrs. Maria Walker Wilbrandt, a Republican campaigner, uttered a shocking clarion call. She was speaking in defense of prohibition and she said:

"Preachers, to your pulpits!" It was a direct political appeal to Protestant voters.

Some years later I asked Mrs. Wilbrandt why she did such a thing. She replied that she made the "to your pulpits" speech at the request of Dr. Hubert Work, chairman of the Republican National Committee.

New European Economic Union Causing Concern Among Statesmen

By PHIL NEWSON
A European economic union entered into with high hopes in March, 1957, is causing worried thoughts among European statesmen who fear it ultimately may split Western Europe into two sharply divided economic, political and even military camps.

With a deadline approaching July 1, Western leaders are spending almost as much time on these problems as they are on preparations for the East-West summit conference in May.

It was the subject of worried cabinet meetings in Bonn and was a major topic for President Charles DeGaulle and Prime Minister Harold Macmillan during the former's current visit to London.

Concern also is felt in Washington, both for the possible effects on U. S. business and the possibility that a plan to unite Europe may actually assist in dividing it for decades to come.

At the root of the concern is a recommendation by the executive commission of the six-nation European common market that internal tariffs be cut 50 per cent on July 1, with corresponding protective barriers going up against non-member nations.

Bitterly opposed are the nations of the River European Free Trade Association. As opposed to the "Inner Six" of the EEC Market, the members of the EFTA are known as the "Outer Seven."

In the common market are West Germany, France, Belgium, The Netherlands, Luxembourg and Italy.

In the EFTA are Britain, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, Switzerland, Austria and Portugal.

The EFTA is strictly an economic grouping set up as a weapon against the common market. The common market is both political and economic, with an important objective the intertwining of the various economies in such a way as to make war among the member nations an impossibility. It particularly hoped to avoid any future conflict between France and Germany. It hoped to abolish all tariff and other barriers among the six in 12 to 15 years.

Fearful of being shut out of a rich market, Britain long sought a compromise solution which would permit her to participate in the common market. No solution could be reached, partly because of French suspicions of British motives and partly because of Britain's own Commonwealth commitments.

WASHINGTON — Not long ago Sen. Barry Goldwater of Arizona, chairman of the Republican Senatorial Campaign Committee, delivered perhaps the most scathing attack heard to date on the Eisenhower foreign policy. It had the hell-fire and brimstone of the McCarthy era and while the senator named neither the president nor his secretary of state clearly they were the authors of the appeasement bringing ruin on the nation.

Coming from a Republican rather than from the opposition, this raises an interesting question about how foreign policy will figure in the coming political campaign. On balance it is unlikely to be a major issue as it was in 1952 when General Eisenhower, the Republican candidate, repeatedly attacked the Truman-Acheson "record of catastrophe" that he charged had brought on the Korean War.

The response to the president's proposal for a moratorium on small nuclear explosions and a binding treaty covering all others has been an interesting question of Chairman J. William Fulbright of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee believes such a treaty, if negotiated, can be ratified before Congress adjourns in July.

Of the two Democratic candidates actively contesting the presidential nomination in the primaries, Sen. Hubert Humphrey, has taken the lead in the effort to achieve realistic disarmament and he has long favored an enforceable "nuclear test ban treaty. Sen. John F. Kennedy, while the president, saying he would continue the moratorium if he were to become president next January.

But while at the top level foreign policy as such is unlikely to be in dispute, there are signs that the sniping characteristic of past campaigns will be revived. Democrats already can be heard to say, "They accused us 10 years ago of losing China. Well, when the time comes we'll demand to know who has lost Latin America." Behind this threat is a horrible nightmare that may become a reality before November. The fall

ASSIGNMENT WASHINGTON by Ed Koterba

WASHINGTON — Somewhere, in a secret cubbyhole off a hidden corridor of the Pentagon, there dwells, undoubtedly, a little man whose sole job is to find new and exciting ways to spend all that surplus Defense Department money.

He's an individual, I would say, who is endowed with qualities exactly the reverse of King Midas. Through his hands run billions of dollars which he feels gnawingly compelled to spend — somehow, somewhere.

Who but a bureaucrat with these traits, with a flair for the fantastic, could have thought up the $100,000 footlocker game?

It all started simply enough. The Air Force discovered it lacked 300 footlockers for its 4,000 men at a base in Europe.

A few miles away, at an Army base, there was a supply of 700 lockers, which could have been made available to the Air Force.

To have transferred the needed 300 footlockers from the Army would have cost taxpayers a mere

WORRY CLINIC by Dr. G. W. Crane

CASE # — 427: Larry G., aged 23, has been out of college two years.

"Dr. Crane," he began, "I have held five jobs in the two years since I graduated.

"But there was no future in any of them, so I quit again just last week.

"Now I am looking for a position that holds out a future. Have you any suggestions?"

There is no future in ANY job: Will you high school and college graduates please get hep to that fact?

Instead, the future is always in the worker who holds the job. Jobs are like the stationary rungs on a ladder. They don't move higher.

But an ambitious climber can use them like stepping stones as a means of rising in the world.

Any job can lead to the White House or the presidency of a corporation, if the worker keeps his wits about him and keeps climbing.

So cut out the false notion that there is a "one and only" job for you or that some jobs have a future in them.

Remind yourselves daily that "my future is in me."

Then employ jobs as a means of gaining practical experience, plus a good pay check as is possible in legitimate fields.

And by "legitimate fields," I mean those in which your efforts add to the greater welfare and happiness of mankind.

As a rule, if you are a shy, shrinking violet (introvert), you may not like sales work or other "fronting" positions where you must meet the public.

But that doesn't mean you cannot be successful there: if you have perseverance and ambition.

Some of the most timid men and women have resolutely forced themselves to become sociable. They have deliberately learned to

Critic Likes Sardonic Diversion From Unusual Television Drama

By FRED DANEG
NEW YORK (UPI) — Just as the diet of TV drama was growing especially stale, along came Monday night's "Author at Work" to give it a diverting flavor.

The half-hour teleplay on NBC-TV by Friedrich Duerrenmatt, Switzerland's answer to the polyanal outburst, starred Ernie Kovacs and Henry Jones in a provocative story about unpublished crime — a subject that rarely pops up in the mass entertainment fields.

Duerrenmatt, of course, is a writer who can find gullible dimensions in every man. Even if Santa Claus came under his scrutiny, it's certain old Santa would come away branded as a seedy second-story man and a fellow who gets his kicks from whipping the reindeer. That's the Duerrenmatt formula. While the sardonic attitude grows repetitive through the years, it serves to keep our self-esteem from completely overwhelming all sense of reality.

In Monday night's play, Kovacs played the part of Maximilian Krob, world-famed author who suddenly encountered a man who learned, after 10 years' investigation, that all of Krob's 22 books were based on real-life murders committed by Krob.

The playwright, Jones, didn't realize that Krob does not pay. He learns that Krob is just what the public wants him to be. And, as a final flourish, becomes murder victim No. 23 and the subject of book No. 23.

Said Krob: "Only a very small number of those who murder are ever brought to justice. The majority not only remain unpunished, but, like myself, receive great honors. Think," he added, "of your military, your judges, your public prosecutors. And your physicians."

Of course, Duerrenmatt is oversimplifying things and confusing issues in order to make his point. But I still enjoyed the exercise in cynicism because it worked out of the TV story rut and afforded some stimulating ideas.

The play, directed by Paul Hindle, was done with an eye to its sardonic undertones. Kovacs played it broadly, while Jones, who may have been intended to sugar-coat the rather bold premise of the story. Since it didn't lessen the play's meaning, I suppose it was all right but I felt the Duerrenmatt approach required more serious behavior.

Why Kids Leave
COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo. (UPI) — A push in the mud, and subsequent spanking by his mother, led 7-year-old Timmy Case to hitchhike here recently from his hometown of Pueblo, some 60 miles away. Timmy told local police two girls, both classmates of his, pushed him and got his clothes dirty. He said his mother spanked him so he decided to leave home. A motorist saw him on the highway and gave him a ride to Colorado Springs.

Jones, who is getting to look more and more like the late Gene Lockhart, had a more forthright, compelling approach to his task.

It was one half-hour TV play that won't be easy to forget. How many can make that statement? One week after picking up an Oscar as the motion picture industry's best actor, Charlton Heston turned up on "The Steve Allen Show." His first chore was as part of an elaborate introduction for one of Steve's piano solos.

Later, he took part in an engaging sketch about various types of admirers encountered by celebrities. I had a feeling Allen did this sketch, or something very much like it, before.

Incidentally, while National Library Week has ended, I'd like to note that Stevenino and Jack Pate — who usually don't see eye to eye — are plugging the same book.

The Channel Swim: "Expedition," a filmed series in the travel-adventure genre, is slated for ABC-TV's early-Tuesday night schedule next season, starting Sept. 30 on NBC-TV. Tad Tadoch, a featured dancer on "The Agatha Christie" series, will assist Murray Party, who will assist Murray Party, who will assist Murray Party.

When ABC-TV's "Rebel" shows an episode called, "The Earl of Durango," viewers will be seeing a pilot film for a new series. A private-eye series called "Holly Wood Angel" replaces NBC-TV's "Alcoa-Goodyear Theater" on Monday nights next season. A recreation of the radio antics of "The Dicksons," starring Frances Langford and Don Ameche, is a feature of Miss Langford's Sunday, May 1 special for NBC-TV.

County To Push For Canal In Proposed Water Control Plan

A proposed plan which lists the long-discussed Sanford-Titusville Canal as one possible means of discharging excess waters in this area will be discussed at a meeting in Sanford April 21.

Seminole, Brevard, Orange and Volusia County officials who have been working on water problems will attend the meeting in the courthouse to talk about the plan with representatives of the Central and Southern Florida Flood Control District, who proposed it.

The flood control district is asking support of the proposal by officials and property owners in counties involved. A report distributed by the district stresses that emphasis being placed on "reflection of local interests" in the plan.

Chamber of Commerce Manager John Krider said the plan has much merit, but that Seminole County interests would be served best by a drain-off outlet somewhere in this section instead of much farther south as has been suggested.

This would mean that the Sanford-Titusville Canal could serve two purposes - for navigation and to discharge excess waters, with part of the cost of the canal being borne by the flood control district.

"At present we're getting no real benefit from any funds being spent through the flood control district as all the money is being put into projects in the south end of the state," Krider said.

Seminole County will propose that the canal be included in the plan as one of two runoff channels, he said.

"We have improved on the idea for the canal by eliminating some complications concerning the route it would take," Krider said.

"We now think it might terminate south of Titusville, maybe around Indian River City. This would bypass some well fields and other obstacles easier than in some earlier proposals and we have the support of some property owners involved in the rights of way."

The plan to be discussed at the upcoming meeting here may soon be recommended to the U. S. engineers if it is received favorably by the areas affected, the report of the flood control district said.

It includes a series of dual purpose water storage reservoirs in the low lying marsh area and the existing river channel. During the wet portion of each year the water in these reservoirs would be lowered to elevations calculated to provide the storage capacity required in case of excessive rainfall and high flood runoff. The minimum elevations would leave adequate water to prevent fish loss and for home and industrial demands.

During the dry season the reservoirs would retain enough water for irrigation of farms and other requirements.

Four such reservoirs are suggested, forming a series of lakes, two to four miles wide just above SR 46 in Seminole and Volusia Counties to SR 60 in Indian River County, a distance of 80 miles. Each would be retained behind a dam with gates for use as required.

The report said that runoff would be taken through Sebastian Creek in southeast Brevard County. It noted that a second diversion canal had been considered, but now might not be required.

Seminole County planners think that runoff is necessary in this section as well as in the Sebastian location and will push use of the canal as the means of disposal. Another point is that control of the water head for the dry season is considered necessary here.

Board Adopts Drain Aid Plan

The County Commission Wednesday unanimously adopted the recommendations of the County Water Control and conservation committee and halted the long range plan as a "step forward" in eliminating flooding in the county.

The Commission agreed that the first step in the program was to ask the U. S. Geographical Service for survey maps of the county to find out where to locate the four primary drainage canals in the county as recommended by the committee.

The Commission also added two new members to the five member board including Zoning Director Robert Brown and Homer Osborn of the County Farm Bureau.

The commission also asked Ben Wiggins of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service, County Agent Cecil Tucker, Sanitarian Val Robbins and County Engineer Robert Davis to serve as an advisory board to the committee.

L. L. Cullum, who acted as spokesman for the committee in the absence of Chairman Harold Kastner, said that the county needs a definite policy for solving its drainage and conservation problems and stated that the principal recommendation as made by the group was the removal of water from county property and the setting up of a series of primary canals or ditches.

The committee pointed out that this was a long range project and could not take care of any emergency measures.

The commission stressed that if there is any serious drainage problem in an area of the county, the only solution was a "step forward" in the county and not a county-wide last ditch effort.

The commission asked the committee to continue its work to find out where to locate the primary ditches. Chairman John Krider said that he felt that the commission should not act as a permanent drainage committee because politics could cover its eyes.

"This is not a political problem," Krider said.

Hurricane Winds Lash Island Off Washington Coast

By United Press International

Hurricane force winds with gusts up to 85 miles an hour lashed Teahou Island off the coast of Washington state Wednesday night.

The sheriff's office reported the small island, which dumped more than an inch of rain on the island, knocked down trees and telephone lines. But there were no reports of injuries.

Fancy Drug Ads Used On Doctors, Committee Told

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Senate investigators were told today that some companies use the same advertising techniques to peddle new drugs to physicians that are used to sell new automobiles to the general public.

Dr. Chauncey D. Leake of the Ohio State University Medical School said drug prices could be reduced if manufacturers toned down advertising and promotional campaigns.

He said drug advertisers "seem to think that physicians are simpletons and that they may be persuaded to use new drugs in the same way that people generally are persuaded to buy new clothes and new automobiles."

Leake made his statements in prepared testimony to the Senate Anti-Trust and Monopoly subcommittee, headed by Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn.), which is investigating prices and profits in the drug industry.

Leake also recommended that every new drug be tested first on healthy adult humans — "preferably by those advocating the new drug" — before it is used on sick people.

County Health Department concerning the method of water supply and sewer disposal.

The policy was recommended by County sanitarian Val Robbins who said that last year 65 percent of homes built in the county were connected to a public sewer system and it should be 90 percent.

He added that in many instances septic tanks were built near homes on low ground. "This new policy would stop all that," he said.

The board authorized Zoning Director Robert Brown to draw up maps showing existing sewer systems and present them to the health department for study.

The County Commission also agreed Wednesday to order the Dallas Asphalt Plant in Paola to live up to all conditions of its use permit agreement within 10 days.

A delegation of residents in the area had complained to the board Tuesday that the sand removing

New Art Exhibits On View At DeBar

There is a new group of exhibitions hanging in the galleries of the Florida Federation of Art Dealers in DeBar. The new exhibits will hang until April 20.

In the Benjamin West Hall a group of small watercolor sketches by Charles Edger, Rustia Art Club member and WPA officer, is being shown. This exhibit is the third in a series of memorial one-artist shows.

In the Whistler and Innes Galleries is a traveling exhibit of the Florida Artist Group. These are 20 paintings in this collection, the tenth annual one for this organization, which is one of many engaged in circulating art exhibitions and includes 130 professional artists from throughout Florida.

Visiting hours for the galleries are 10 a. m. to noon and 4 p. m. Monday through Friday, and 1 to 5 p. m. Saturday and Sunday.

Outlawed African Group Urges Action

JOHANNESBURG, South Africa (UPI) — The outlawed African National Congress has launched an underground move for a new active stay-home protest against South Africa's racial laws, it was disclosed today.

Police broke a similar demonstration last week by raising the native township of Nyamang on several days and beating blacks who refused to go to work.

Leaders signed by an "emergency committee" of the congress were found in Middelburg, 30 miles north of Johannesburg. They called on Africans to pull a week-long stay-home protest starting next Monday.

The move was seen likely to touch off a new round of violence.

The country has been relatively quiet since a white assassin shot and killed the Prime Minister Hendrik Verwoerd last Saturday.

Cabinet member Paul Kruger accused the government last week of stirring up violence and that the situation was as serious as the 1956-57 race riots which led to the formation of the African National Congress.
