END OF SENATE FIGHT ON SHIPPING BILL TODAY APPEARS NEAR AT HAND

THROUGH AN AGREEMENT MADE BEHIND CLOSED DOORS FOR ARMISTICE

IN FILIBUSTER

Which Blocked All Business Since Monday in Executive Session

(By The Associated Press) WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—The end of the senate shipping bill fight appeared near at hand through an agreement made behind closed doors for a temporary armistice in the filibuster which had blocked all business since Monday. In executive session the senate agreed to adjourn tonight at six o'clock to take up minor bills for two hours tomorrow, then proceed with the shipping bill, but with the possibility of a vote in the meantime on a motion for reconvening.

Butted by another day of filibuster in the senate, the administration shipping bill last night appeared headed toward its doom. The end seemed likely not later than Saturday on a motion to reconvene the legislature or to replace it with another bill. The filibuster which began Monday night, continued unabated through the day and into the night. During its progress there were a number of private conferences between Republican senators and later between Republican and Democratic senators in which negotiations were conducted for definite action by Saturday night so that the final week of the session might be left open to consideration of other pressing legislation.

Opponents of the shipping bill after canvassing the strength of their forces openly said for the first time that they had enough votes to get the measure out of the way unless its supporters could obtain some action upon it within the next two days. The prospect of its supporters being able to do this appeared dark, in fact it grew darker with each hour that the day of talk continued.

Several senators who have been mildly favorable toward the bill privately admitted during the day that they would not continue their support of the measure much further, if it continued to block other legislation.

One Senator, Willis, Republican, of Ohio, stated on the floor that he desired to develop if the bill was to be killed by filibustering, for if so, he said, there were many other bills, including some he was interested in, which should be taken up. Senator McKeitar, Democrat, Tennessee, plainly told the senate that it was the intention of those opposed to the legislation to kill it by any legitimate means and that he considered filibustering legitimate.

The opinion of senators as to the means of bringing the filibuster to an end differed, some opposing reconvening and favoring displacement by another bill. Either method, it was generally conceded, meant the death of the ship measure. General agreement seemed to prevail, however, that nothing should be attempted until the bill was given at least another day of life.

After an agreement the administration leaders conceded the shipping bill was "as good as dead." Not later than tomorrow night it was said a vote on reconvening would come and the bill would be "interred with the proper obsequies." Plans for a break in the filibuster and the abandonment of the night session tonight were made at a conference at the white house between President Harding, and Senators Curtis, assistant Republican leader. The willingness of the administration leaders to call off the night session tonight and spend two hours to adjourn won minor bills was regarded by opponents of the shipping bill as a sign of dissolution.

Would Compel Seaboard to Build Depot at Lockhart

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 23.—The railroad commission has applied to the supreme court for a writ of mandamus to compel the Seaboard Air Line to build a depot at Lockhart. The commission recently directed that the carrier erect the building, but the application for a writ sets forth that the road has refused to comply.

Condemned Negro Reprived Ten Days by Order of the Governor

Percy Bayliss, Gets Respite This Morning on Eve of Execution

Almost on the eve of the hanging of the negro, Percy Bayliss, today, Governor Hardee wired Sheriff Hand to stay execution and a ten day reprieve having been granted the negro, the execution that was to have taken place today at 10:30 was delayed for a period of 2 weeks. The wire stated that the attorneys for the negro had asked for ten days in which to investigate the case and the governor was in duty bound to grant the reprieve. No one here knows just what the nature of the investigations into the case are since the attorneys have evidently been employed by the former employer of Bayliss in Mississippi or some friends of the negro in the city of Columbia where he resided before coming to Florida last fall.

Sheriff Hand and his deputies had everything arranged for the legal execution of the negro today and it is the opinion of those who have followed the legal aspect of the case that there is nothing whereby the case can be continued after the ten day period since the trial was regular in every particular and there is not any question of the negro's guilt and the ten day delay is only granting a reprieve that is made necessary when it is requested by attorneys in the case.

The negro has been taken away for safe keeping and it is not known where he is at present, but it is believed best to keep him hidden until the day of execution, although the people are anxious for the law to take its course.

Cabinet Officials Throw Off Business to Make Their Tour

(By The Associated Press) TALLAHASSEE, Feb. 23.—Cabinet officials threw unfinished business to gether this morning in preparatory for leaving this afternoon for an official inspection of the state's gigantic reclamation project in the Everglades. The party headed by Governor Hardee expected first to go to West Palm Beach. It is understood the tour will be cut short to five or six days in order that they may get back to pressing business at the capitol.

IRISH LEADERS CAPTURED MAY HAVE EAMON DE VALERA IS REPORT FROM FREE STATE

Stated Several Important Captures Have Been Made This Week

LONDON, Feb. 23.—A Central News dispatch from Dublin reports a rumor that the Free State government has arrested Eamon De Valera and Liam Lynch. Detectives of the Irish criminal investigation department, the dispatch says, made several important captures early today. The men taken included five of the principal irregular leaders. The dispatch to the Evening Standard from Dublin this afternoon says Secretary of William Cosgrave head of the free state government, denies DeValera has been captured.

DUBLIN, Feb. 23.—More than twenty Irish irregulars were captured in raids in Dublin last evening and this morning it was stated. Additional raids are in progress. Five irregulars, the most important of whom was Sean Fitzpatrick, were captured in a raid at Drum Condra state army headquarters. Fitzpatrick had been commandant Dublin brigade of irregulars. Rumors are in circulation that DeValera has been arrested but there was no confirmation.

SOLDIERS BONUS ADVOCATES GIVEN GLIMMER OF HOPE IN HOUSE YESTERDAY

Fordney Said Mellon Had No Objection to Using Debt Money

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—Soldiers' bonus advocates in the house were given a glimmer of hope yesterday by Chairman Fordney of the ways and means committee, author of the measure voted by President Harding, but it proved short lived.

Mr. Fordney, addressing the house on the British debt settlement, said Secretary Mellon had told him he had no objection to the use of the money received from the foreign debt, principal and interest, in financing a bonus for former service men after the money had been obtained.

Mr. Mellon, when his attention was called to Mr. Fordney's remarks, said he had no recollection of having made the statement and it was reiterated at the treasury that he adhered to his position that the government was obligated to apply at least the interest from the debt to the retirement of liberty bonds.

The treasury secretary communicated with Mr. Fordney by telephone and the Michigan representative stated later that evidently he had misunderstood Mr. Mellon and would strike his remarks from the record of the house proceedings. He added that at the first opportunity he would make an explanation of the matter to the house.

The opportunity was afforded at a session of the house last night, Mr. Fordney taking the floor explaining that the secretary had told him he had not intended to convey any such impression as given by the Michigan representative. Mr. Fordney said he

INTERNATIONAL COUNTERFEIT SYSTEM WAS WRECKED BY SECRET SERVICE GOOD WORK

Gang Had Branches in All Parts of the Civilized World

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—With the international counterfeiting system wrecked, the secret service agents who laid its workings bare Wednesday and with 500 to 600 persons connected with the ring in a dozen countries, under arrest, federal authorities today prepared for a court fight to send the counterfeiters to jail for the maximum term of 45 years.

While court evidence was being set in order, the dragnet of the secret service was extended to most of the large cities of the United States to catch hundreds of passers of counterfeit paper, implicated by clues captured in Tuesday's raids here.

Joseph A. Palma, chief of the special secret service squad, which for eight months tracked the makers and distributors of spurious money, gave evidence of the widespread international national ramifications of the plot by announcing that 15 persons had been arrested in England, France, Egypt, Germany, Cuba, Austria and the Bahamas, as a result of information furnished by the American secret service.

New York police, who began an independent investigation, professed to find a direct connection between the counterfeit plot and many hitherto unsolved gang murders of the last few years.

Several of the murders believed to have resulted from passage of bogus money and from double-crossing in the ranks of the counterfeiters.

A number of crimes, it was said, had been committed in or near the Brooma Street cafe owned by John di Rosa, arrested as one of the ring's large wholesalers of counterfeiters.

Palma agreed that scores of important criminals were in the ranks of the counterfeiters. Immigrants unfamiliar with American money, he said, were the easiest victims, but the gang also hunted out small stores kept by aged women and stores left at times in charge of children.

Secret service men are checking up on all possible sources of information thrown open to them by Wednesday's counterfeiting conspirators turned over the vast quantities of narcotics they bought to independent gangs or whether they used their own nationwide organization for the distribution of the drugs.

Some of the dies used in making spurious specie were smuggled here from Italy in large cheeses, officials said today.

Braves Have Exceptional Opportunity as Rag Contenders Now

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Friends of Christy Mathewson say he has "hot a gold-mine at a tax-side." Matty returns to baseball after regaining his health at Saratoga Lake, New York, his head of the Boston Braves. He drops into Boston as a stockholder and directing boss of a tail-end National League team which has however a wealthy history and money-making potentialities far greater than outsiders realize.

George Washington Grant, owner of the club, got it for a small price several years ago and lack of active direction as much as anything else caused the team to spend more seasons in the rack. Grant's price in selling his team is understood to have been very moderate for such a property in the Major Leagues. Baseball men here believe that Matty has an exceptional opportunity to build up an aggressive ball team under picturesque leadership and to vastly increase the value of his buy, especially as the Red Sox, the rival Boston team are in local disfavour.

Mathewson has always been a frugal athlete, saving a large part of his salary. Although he was under heavy expenses in his long refuge at Saratoga, he received almost $50,000 from the game at the Polo Grounds for his benefit and it is believed that he put considerable money of his own into the Braves' deal.

There is still talk here of the sale of the Giants and Dodgers, particularly the former. Charles A. Stoneham, majority owner of the Giants, insists, however, that he is not now negotiating to let rid of the team. Charles A. Ebbets, owner of the Dodgers, announced several weeks ago that he might clear out but no body has yet been discovered who is willing to buy his real estate, uniforms and the contracts which bind a collection of minor leaguers to the team.

United Mine Workers President is Freed on Murder Charge

Frank Kenney, president of the West Virginia United Mine Workers who was brought to trial as an accessory to the murders in the Logan County industrial disturbances ended abruptly today when Judge Woods threw out the indictments on a motion of the prosecution. AT BOCHUM AND MANY DISTURBANCES ARE REPORTED ALLIED ENGINEERS

Will Take Place of the German Strikers on the German Railways

(By The Associated Press) BERLIN, Feb. 23.—Martial law has been declared in Bochum, says a dispatch to the Central News in consequence of yesterday's disturbances in which French soldiers fired on a crowd with fatal results.

PARIS, Feb. 23.—A decision to replace the German railroad administration in the Ruhr with an allied civil administration was officially announced last night as one result of the conference here between Premier Thunis of Belgium and Premier Poincare. Representatives of the French ministry of Public Works and the state railroads are leaving for Dusseldorf to confer with General Degoutte and Payot and Paul Tirard, president of the international Rhineland commission.

The civil administration will hold the same position as regards its relations with the military occupational authorities as did the German administration. The director of the railroads will be French with two deputies, one French and one Belgian.

ESSEN, Feb. 23.—Gelsenkirchen having been evacuated by the French forces after their several days of punitive occupancy, the spotlight on the Ruhr valley developments rested yesterday on the penalties the Franco-Belgian court martial and the border control bodies are inflicting on the Germans because of their resistance to the allied authorities.

The latest move of the occupiers to offset German obstructions to the maintenance of railroad transportation has been a ban against any locomotive leaving the occupied area. All German manned trains reaching the edge of the Ruhr eastward bound, are required to leave their engines behind and await locomotives from the unoccupied territory to pull them further.

Reports from Walthrop and other points indicate that the ejection of German railway men from their dwellings and offices is only being conducted on an intensified scale.

At Castrop a court martial dealt with 11 German officials and other citizens all in one day, the charges being of a wide variety. The sentences ranged from 10,000 marks fine against an inkeeper for failure to show a menu to military guests, to two months' imprisonment and 200,000 marks fine against a small town official because certain supplies were not furnished. A Sharnhorst railway inspector received a fortnight's confinement because a railway engineer was allowed to drive a loaded coal train through this station at full speed into uncontrolled Germany.

In the meantime the German Red Cross is making an effort to intercede for the Germans already sent to jail. Their efforts are especially in the interests of two of these men. One of the mis Vice Lord Mayo Schaefer of Esch, sentenced to two years' imprisonment and fined 10,000,000 marks for failure to supply automobiles for the troops. The other is Recorder Guyens, of the Essen Retail grocers association charged with signing the circular urging merchants to refrain from selling to the French and sentenced to two years and a fine of 8,000,000 marks.

These two men are alleged to be confined together in one cell which the Germans claim is seven cubic meters smaller in dimension than the cell prescribed by the Germans for individual criminals of the lowest type. The red cross is said to have been refused the privilege of having representatives visit them despite several applications to General Fournier.

Seizing the German mines will bring only a temporary advantage. The thing to do is to seize the German stock.

America now has celebrated almost everything except Dry week.

I am never asked to talk on the subject of children's reading that I do not feel I want to begin by explaining that I speak not from the standpoint of a professor, a librarian, or a literary critic, but simply as one mother to other mothers, with such knowledge of the subject as I have gained from a most loving and sympathetic study of the nature of childhood at all the various stages of its development and a most earnest desire to bring to children all the good that is obtainable, holding every other consideration of small account beside the serving of the real interests of the child himself. And you will forgive me if I make no effort either to be clever or entertaining but speak to you straight from my heart of the subject which is so near to my heart.

Although there has already been a great awakening to the importance of what the child reads outside the school room, I feel that such reading is still regarded by too many parents as merely an amusement, of no very great importance with no object save to entertain the child. It is therefore held to be deserving of no more attention or supervision than any other phase of his play. My earnest wish today is to free the whole subject of reading from the results of this superficial view and place it before you in its true light, as the very basis of your child's thought, of his views of life, of the moral and ethical standards he is forming, the spirit that is awakening and quickening in him, the character that is unfolding.—Reprinted from the Child's Welfare Magazine.

PROPOSED $20,000,000 BOND ISSUE FOR ROADS

Elsewhere in this issue the Times publishes an address made in Gainesville last Saturday before the convention of road construction engineers in Florida by Hon. W. M. Corry of this city, member of the State Road Department from this congressional district. The address is full of pertinent information and well-informed source concerning highway construction, which is undoubtedly the most important issue now before the people of Florida, and it is well worth the reading by any citizen concerned for the growth of his state.

But its most noteworthy feature is that Mr. Corry has taken the initiative and given clear expression to an opinion, which we believe is held by thousands of the progressive citizens of the state, that the time has come for Florida to get in line with her sister state and vote an adequate bond issue for the construction and maintenance of a great permanent system of modern highways through this state.

Mr. Corry conservatively fixes the amount of the proposed bond issue at $20,000,000, but looking at what other Southern states have done and are doing it would seem that the issue should be for at least $30,000,000. Even the $20,000,000 proposition will probably shock some of the citizens and they will wonder if we are not really near the end of the world when such awful things can be proposed.

Such men have failed to keep up with the times in their thinking on ways and means for public improvements and they reason in terms of a dead and gone day when the mighty strength of co-operation in enterprises for the general good was unknown, when public improvement was almost nil, when country roads were a terror and a disgrace, when our towns and villages were small, unsanitary and unkempt in respect, without paving, lights, sewerage or even water except in malarial wells.

In those days commerce moved slowly in a few fixed, primitive ruts that gave trade only to a small number of merchants dealing with a sparse population and no one dreamed of the vast potential resources all around us needing only the touch of broad-visioned enterprise to spring to life and flood the land with new activities.

These men who insist on old-time ways and modes of thought for a new day and time when the world has awakened to new conditions and new inspirations, are good men, too, who stand for personal and business integrity, the safety of the social order and the finest home life. Their only trouble is that they have not permitted their minds to keep pace with modern methods of development and, with a tenacious, almost sentimental affection for the past and its ways, they have forgotten the fundamental fact that progress is just as surely a law of nature as gravitation and to oppose it is not to defeat it, but to incur its inevitable penalty of stagnation and decay.

Here in Florida the wonder land of the south in its actual and potential resources, we are right now at the parting of the ways. The most tremendous development in our history is right ahead of us; we must take part in it or we must stay passive and inert in the ancient and obsolete ways. We won't do it. We have too much at stake. We have already done great things in Florida, and we are well-empowered from primitive conditions and are challenging comparison with California itself in the attractions we offer for more people and more money and more enterprise to help us reach the magnificent development that lies ahead of us.

And we have accomplished all this in many of our towns, cities and counties by voting bonds for improvement. In no other way could we have done it. The biggest and best conception of modern times to emancipate America and every state and county in it, from slavery to petty individualism, small enterprise and laggard growth is that of bond issues by popular vote for the public benefit. It has made this nation great and rich and is now fully accepted by unprejudiced men as the true and only way to build up our various states and communities by furnishing a platform for development. Bond issues are universal for that purpose and they are granted so carefully that they cost no burden to the taxpayer not fully compensated by the advantage gained.

It is now well understood that no state can get in the procession without good modern roads. They are indispensable. They draw migration and capital. They mean new enterprise and development. They mean the stimulation of every form of useful activity in the life of the state, the creation of many new activities and raising the level of our prosperity as no other agency can.

We have examples all around us. North Carolina is now a name to conjure with all over the south, and her marvelous development is a source of pride and wonder to the rest of the country. That state has voted $100,000,000 in bonds for good roads, with authority to issue half that amount as soon as needed. This development has been going on for Carolina easily tops any state in the south in material prosperity, with more money in circulation, more business, more building of all kinds, more people employed, better schools and better paid teachers and a higher level of general good times than she ever had before.

The voters of that state are a notably shrewd, cautious and conservative people, but they realized that a large issue of bonds producing ample money for highway construction was the only way to pull the state out of the dead past and make it a prosperous commonwealth, and they voted the bonds.

Alabama has voted $25,000,000 for good roads; Georgia is moving in the same direction, and nearly every state, not only in the south but in the whole Union, has voted heavy bond issues for good roads. They are indispensable to development, and prosperity, and that Florida, in the front rank of Southern states in progress and now attracting world-wide attention as the rival of California should "lay down" her opportunities at the bidding of the ancient, primitive, croaking past and refuse to bond her boundless resources to get a great modern highway system is almost unthinkable.

In this proposed bond issue we are simply asked to do on a larger scale for a correspondingly larger benefit what counties and cities have been doing all over the Union for years past as the best way, and in fact the only way to raise money for necessary public utilities. The veteran argument that we are unjustly saddling a debt on our posterity for our benefit won't hold water. Posterity is only asked to pay its share and it will be the beneficiary in constantly increasing measure from the results accruing to the state from the bond issue. Among these results will be more people, more money, more business and industrial activity and enhanced property value and the tax burden in consequence will be really lighter upon posterity than the present generation.

But there will be no debt upon posterity if the plan proposed goes through. The $20,000,000 will build the roads and the present revenues of the Road Department, now used for piece-meal construction, will pay the interest on the bonds and provide a sinking fund for their redemption. That will come pretty nearly letting posterity out while giving it the full benefit of the general betterment resulting from the bond issue. It is practically certain that the next legislature will be asked to submit a constitutional amendment to the people to provide for a good roads bond issue and there will be plenty of time to discuss every phase of the question before the election if it shall be called. With a fair and full discussion we feel sure that such an amendment would carry by a decisive majority.—Quincy Times.

It is astonishing how a real bargain will attract the buying public and from the information at hand we are satisfied that our weekly special ads are giving results. The way to build substantial is to show those to the price line and give the general public just what they are calling for. In the past two weeks a store in this city has sold a large number of odd size shoes, a real bargain, and have advised the public through these columns. For this Monday they are going to give an assortment of ladies', girls' and children's shoes at $1.95 that ranged from $4.00 to $6.00 at original price. See Lloyd's Shoe Store window for these bargains.

LENTEU SERVICES TONIGHT AT ALL SOULS CHURCH

The record of a series of Lenteu lectures will be given tonight at All Souls church, 9th and Oak avenue. These lectures deal with the fundamentals of life and are in keeping with the lenteu spirit.

Man's intellect without the aid of divine revelation can establish the supreme intelligence. God's communications to man till the coming of the Son Jesus Christ have given us the Christian religion.

Last Sunday night the introductory talk was on the inevitability of death. Tonight's lecture will be on the apparent disregard of this outstanding fact on the part of men of the twentieth century.

Services commence at 7:45 p. m. Strangers welcome to free settings.

LYE SAVES YOUR AUTO TIRES

Grease and oil on the garage floor eats your automobile tires so you can make your tires last longer if you will scrub your garage floors with lye. Grease and oil make a mess that's hard to move, but lye eats it up. Use it as directed below on concrete floors of garage, laundry or cellar and see them show up clean, sparkling and sanitary, for lye disinfects as it cleans.

Directions: Dissolve one can of lye in 6 to 8 gallons of water and scrub concrete with an old broom. Rinse clean with the hose.

The Fat's in the Fire. RANGE burners often get a baptism of grease from the skillet. Burned to a crisp it means endless scraping and scouring to remove it. A better and easier way is to clean them with Giant Lye. It's a quick job and leaves the burners clean and restores the blue flame. Skillets and pans can be quickly cleared of soot and encrusted grease in the same way. Then you know they're clean and scoured. DIRECTIONS: Boil the burners 5 minutes in a solution of 1 teaspoonful of Giant Lye in 4 quarts of water and rinse. Boil pans and skillets in the solution or boil the solution in them. Never use lye on aluminum. GIANT LYE For 50 years the Best. Its Tight Top Holds the Strength.

W. M. Corry, member of the State Road Department, has a fine idea in this issue about road bonding and road building.

Richard Edmonds, editor of the Manufacturers' Record shows up the Federal Reserve Board in an article that demonstrates beyond peradventure just what the people of the United States are up against when it comes to high finance.

We will give the lawmakers at Washington credit for one thing. They stayed on the job yesterday, even though it was a holiday and kept up the filibuster and the hot air debates without any regard to the "Father of His Country," whose picture was hanging over their heads.

President Harding will spend his vacation in Florida on a houseboat on the East Coast canal. If that canal from the St. Johns river to Indian River was opened now he could come to Sanford and go down the St. Johns river on his return trip. This is only one of the many distinguished parties that would stop at Sanford if we had that canal.

There is nothing definite about our million dollar hotel but the Herald can truthfully state that the parties interested think Sanford is the ideal spot for one of the finest tourist hotels in Florida if that means anything and we think it does. We really have more to offer the tourists in the way of amusements than any city in the state.

The Orlando Sentinel says: Some day when a laurel wreath is given for the brightest newspaper paragrapher in Florida, Benjamin of the Ocala star will wear it, declares the Miami Metropolis. Hear what he has to say about that contempt-of-court jailing of Joe Earman at West Palm Beach: "The jail is a great resort for great men. In fact, almost every great man in history has been in jail, unless he got out of town ahead of the police. Socrates was in jail. Christ would have been in jail had not the crowd that took him been too busy torturing him to give him the little rest he might have found in jail. Paul was in jail. Bunyan was in jail. Nathan Hale was in jail. Jeff Davis was in jail. We have been in jail. And now Joe Earman is in jail. The names of our great men who have been in jail stand up like lighthouses along the coastline of history, but who can remember off hand, any of the guys who caused us to be locked up?"

GIVING RECOGNITION TO FAITHFUL SERVICE

Local railroad men will be especially interested in an incident which occurred a short time ago in connection with the retirement of Edward H. Minkler, a conductor on the New York Central lines, who, after fifty-three years of active service for the company, retired to private life. New York newspapers comment on the fact that his acquaintanceship is probably the most extensive of any man in the country, his friends including such prominent railway people of affairs as Chauncey Depew, who is again in St. Augustine spending the winter and is in his eighty-eighth year, the late Jay Gould and Cyrus Field and such other living notables as John D. Rockefeller, Mrs. Helen Gould Shepard, James Speyer and a host of others. But it is not this circumstance of wide acquaintance that is important. It is the record of long and faithful service held by this man who is able to boast that during the many years of active railroad life no train he operated was ever in an accident. His career combines two elements, fidelity and carefulness. His life may well be accepted as an example to all others similarly engaged, or, for that matter, in any other sphere of usefulness. His experience points to the fact that the pay envelope is not all there is to this life; that there is reward for those who labor because they recognize they have a work to do in the world and do that work in the right frame of mind, pleasantly and in tune with their fellows.—Lakeland Star-Telegram.

HANGING IS DELAYED

Governor Hardie evidently had a good and sufficient reason for granting the negro Bayliss a reprieve today. If he did not and if he was not compelled by law to grant a reprieve he has evidently made a mistake and has put a big load on Sheriff Hand's shoulders. The sheriff is doing his duty. He did it when he spirited the negro away the day of the murder of the deputy sheriff—his deputy sheriff—and he did his duty between midnight and dawn this morning when he again spirited the negro murderer away to a place of safety. If there is any flaw in the proceedings in which the negro was adjudged guilty of murder it should have been brought out the day of the verdict and sentence. Today when the hanging was to have taken place the negro is given two weeks in which his attorneys can investigate the case. Today is a bad day to take a delay. The negro should have been hanged and the law should have taken its course without any delay. These delays and these technicalities are what make men disregard the law and take it into their own hands. The Herald however believes in upholding the law and would advise patience in this case although sometimes patience ceases to be a virtue when the law allows so many loopholes and vexes our souls with so many delays and technicalities.

Four Reasons Why You Should Buy Your Ford Car This Month

I. The unprecedented demand for Ford Cars throughout the winter months has taken the entire output of the Ford plants working at capacity, indicating that the demand this Spring will be far in excess of the number of Ford Cars that can possibly be built.

II. January was the tenth consecutive month in which retail deliveries exceeded 100,000 Ford Cars and Trucks. Requirements for February, the month when preparations are already under way for Spring business, called for 148,407 Cars and Trucks—more than 24,000 in excess of the number we can possibly produce.

III. Ford Dealers in many parts of the country are already finding it necessary to specify future delivery dates on Ford products because there are no reserve stocks to draw from.

IV. Your order placed now will protect you against delay or disappointment later on—it is the only way you can be assured of reasonably prompt delivery.

We consider it important to give you these facts, so that if you are planning to Purchase a Ford Car, Truck or Fordson Tractor for use this Spring or Summer you can list your order at once and take advantage of our dealer's first opportunity to make delivery.

Champs won another. Third week finds only the Champs and Rotes in first place.

But there is no telling what the fourth week will find as it is pretty near time for the Rotes to blow up—maybe.

Basketball game (we should say games) at the Grammar School court tonight. Daytona Boys and Winter Garden Girls—and the fur will fly. Be there and see it.

Otis George, the pro at the Country Club, is swamped with golfers, or would be golfers taking lessons. He still has a few hours each day that he can take some one else on, and as the time is getting short, see him to-day.

Every man or woman who is going in for golf should take some lessons. It will increase your interest in the game, and then get you started right. This summer will find quite a few good ones, and if you will keep in the running—get those lessons.

Judge Herring celebrated his birth day and Gen. Washington's birth day by turning in some good scores at the links. The judge is getting rather proficient considering the little time he has to devote to the game.

Arthur Yowell, L. P. McCuller, Col. Knight, Dick Maxwell and Ed. Higgins played what they call a "mob game" at the links yesterday. They are all getting to be in the regular class and their golf playing is increasing every day. One of them will no doubt be sent to Jacksonville to represent the club in the play for state honors.

THE ECONOMY GROCERY IS AFTER BUSINESS

FOR THE MOVIE FAN

"Ebb Tide" tonight and tomorrow night.

This is the week's best picture and will be seen by some large crowds.

The Producer—George Melford, creator of "The Sheik"—"Burning Sands"—and other Paramount pictures, puts forth his greatest cinema triumph in this picture "Ebb Tide."

James Kirkwood, Lila Lee, Raymond Hatton, George Fawcett, Noah Beer and Jacqueline Logan are some of the players of note that will be found in "Ebb Tide."

Robert Louis Stevenson and Lloyd Osbourne, the former a famous British novelist, are the authors of this story. Many of their stories have been screened by Paramount.

Some of the strong scenes in "Ebb Tide" include a thrilling battle with an octopus in the ocean, in which Lila Lee and James Kirkwood take part. A storm scene and the discovery that a cargo of champagne is water firely and the meeting of Ruth Attwater and Robert Herriek, which leads to the regeneration of the latter through love.

Another strong scene is the desperate battle on the Schooner in which Herriek is overpowered by Davis and Rich and Ruth made a prisoner. Taking all in all, this is one super enough good Paramount feature. Don't miss it.

And by the way—this is Mendel Fox's birthday. Mendel won't tell us his age, but he looks to be like a "perfect 25" and we will help him celebrate by making him the honored guest as well as his lady, at the Paramount feature "Ebb Tide," at the Princess tonight. Bring the lady and be there, Mendel.

On a country road the tourist has his ups and downs. In one place he goes down and in another he rises up.

TWO BIG BASKET BALL GAMES HERE TONIGHT

In order that the general public will not forget, we once more call attention to the double basket-ball bill that will come off on the Grammar school court tonight. The preliminary game, or girls battle will be between the Sanford and Winter Garden girls. These two teams are evenly matched and a good game is assured.

The main attraction of the night, the last game of the Celery Feds or the home lot, will be between the Fed and the strong aggregation from Daytona. The Celery Feds are confident that they will end the season with plenty of glory and will not allow the Daytona boys to stand in their way of added laurels and the Daytona team is just as certain that it will be they who will put a crimp in the Fed's sails, so this game should prove to be a regular hummer.

This being the last game of the season, plans are being made for a record breaking crowd. The captains of both the girls and boys teams have tickets to sell and judging from the advance sale of these tickets, all records for attendance will be broken. If you haven't already done so, get your ticket or tickets and be on hand at the grammar school court tonight.

GET STRENGTH EASILY NOW

New Product Proves That "Run Down" and Despondent Folks Can be Robust and Strong Again

People nowadays must have plenty of energy and endurance. It is really forced on them by the requirements of modern methods. Their ambition is to take on the "keep it the same," but many can't ordinarily survive the nerve-racking pace of modern times. Because they have disregarded the laws of God and humanity until they have become victims of nervousness, easy exhaustion, lack of energy and strength. That's the reason that when they realize the condition they are in, one by one they join the multitude which with almost one mind is searching for a revived energy, strength, health and endurance.

Thousands of these folks are learning every day that the one reliable way to revive their lost health, and run down system is to use the phenomenal new treatment known as RE-CU-MA. It puts those vitamins into their blood which nourish withered tissue, starving nerves and flabby muscles. Consequently they begin almost immediately to feel stronger, have greater endurance, look brighter and show the change is taking place in their body by their cheerfulness.

RE-CU-MA is sold in Sanford by the Union Pharmacy and the leading druggists in every city.—Adv.

Potato Growers Injured by Cold Turn to Cotton

With many of the large potato fields of this section badly damaged by cold coveral of the farmers are turning their attention to planting cotton, and indications are that several thousand acres will be planted in Putnam and St. Johns counties.

Charles A. Smith, who has leased the Cole plantation at McViekin from the Cummings estate, will plant 1,000 acres in long staple cotton, and Chris Wadron and others on the east side of the river have already ordered seed to put in a crop.

It is believed that the boll weevil, which put a stop to the planting of cotton here, has entirely disappeared and that there will be no danger from this source. With long staple cotton bringing a splendid price, and with the boll weevil menace removed it is believed that the industry will prove highly remunerative.

Many of the older inhabitants of Palatka well remember when the streets were lined with cotton bales, and when boats plying the St. Johns river were piled high with the staple. There were a number of gins in Palatka and at one time cotton growing was one of the chief industries of the county. But when the boll weevil struck most of the growers turned their attention to potatoes, and as a result cotton growing has been neglected.—Palatka News.

LOVELY BRIDGE PARTY

One of the most enjoyable social events of the week, was the bridge party given yesterday afternoon by Mrs. R. J. Holly, at her home on Park avenue. There were four tables of players and the guests included the members of the Mercie Matrons Bridge club.

The rooms were a veritable bower, baskets and vases of early spring flowers were artistically arranged. Sweet peas, red roses, snap dragons and jessamine were used.

Dainty tally cards were given, and when scores were counted after an absorbing game of bridge, the prize for high score among the club members, a box of dainty hand made handkerchiefs, was won by Mrs. Fred Walmsa, while the high score guest prize, a Jade pendant, was won by Mrs. Frank Miller.

Following the awarding of the prizes, the tables were laid with dainty covers, and refreshments of creamed oyster patties, stuffed tomatoes, olives, cheese straws, wafers, coffee followed by strawberries topped with whipped cream and Angel food cake were served.

The guests enjoying this pleasant afternoon were Mesdames Harry Heeron, George Bishop, F. E. Rounhill, Frank Miller, Walter Wight, Fred Daiger, A. W. Pitts, S. Puleston, J. G. Sharon, W. M. Scott, C. E. Henry, George Knight, W. T. Langley, D. P. Drummond, Fred Walmsa and Miss Annie Hawkins.

FERGUSON-FIELDING

A wedding which came as a great surprise to the many friends of this popular couple was that of Miss Dorothy Mae Fielding and Dr. S. W. Ferguson, of Titusville, which was solemnized Wednesday evening at the Baptist church, at Daytona.

The bride wore a lovely costume of white Roshanara crepe with hat to match. Her flowers were a shower bouquet of pink roses and valley lilies.

Immediately following the ceremony, the couple left in their car for a short wedding journey, after which they will be at home to their friends at Titusville.

Mrs. Ferguson was visiting here as the guest of Miss Lucy Byrd Smythe, when plans were made for the wedding, which was to be kept a secret. She is an unusually attractive young woman and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Fielding of Titusville, having scores of friends here formed during her frequent visits here. She was attending Stetson university at DeLand and was prominent in the Phi Beta and Alpha Xi Delta societies.

Dr. Ferguson is a graduate of the University of Maryland and has a large drug store in Titusville.

The ceremony was witnessed by Miss Lucy Byrd Smythe and Grantland Wilson of this city.

The many friends of this young couple join in wishing them every future happiness.

DAUGHTERS OF WESLEY

The birthday party given last evening by eight hostesses of the Daughters of Wesley class of the Methodist church, at the home of Mrs. A. K. Powers, was charming in every detail.

In the receiving line were Mrs. A. K. Powers, Mrs. Claude Herndon, Mrs. H. H. Chappell, Mrs. Zeb Ratliff, Mrs. Virginia Coney, Mrs. Estridge, Mrs. Robert Thrasher and Mrs. A. B. Zachary. All represented historic ladies of the Revolutionary period. Mrs. H. H. Chappell, teacher of the class, impersonated "One Grandest Lady," "Martha Washington," and was lovely in old Chantilly lace and gurls.

The eight Daughters of Wesley did credit to the great women of the American Revolution. They were beautiful living pictures of the glorious past.

The rooms were a bower of roses, baskets, vases and jardiniere were filled with these old fashioned flowers.

Games our grandmothers played were revived and enjoyed. George's hatchets were in evidence at every turn as they should be at a Daughters of Wesley party, for it is their aim to emulate all which is noble and good, and their work stands as a testimonial of their successes and good works.

The group of songs given by Miss Lillie Ruth Spencer to the pleasure and delight of all. Mrs. Claude Herndon rendered "Martha" and as usual the audience was delighted and encored until she gave "Comin' Thru the Rye."

At a late hour the hostesses served delicious refreshments of chicken salad, pickles, coffee, ice cream and Lady Baltimore cake. Hatchets were given as favors.

There were forty guests who enjoyed this lovely event.

The latest arrival in the new Meisch building is the Baumel Specialty shop that removed from the Bishop block last Saturday and is now in the east room of the Meisch block, next to the postoffice. This is one of the best appointed store rooms in the city and the large show windows are well adapted to the needs of the Specialty Shop and last Saturday the informal opening drew a large crowd to the store. The very latest creations in dresses and millinery were shown and refreshments were served to the customers during the day. Mr. and Mrs. Baumel and their pleasant assistants were on hand to greet the old and new customers and all day long the new store room was crowded with the ladies of Sanford and many from surrounding cities and while the opening was informal it was none the less popular. In a few weeks Baumel's will have the annual Fashion Show in the Parish House and this is an event looked forward to by the feminine portion of this city as well as the masculine as Baumel's Fashion Show is always up to the minute and very popular, not having one dull moment during the show. The new store was beautiful Saturday being decorated for the occasion and the new spring styles in ladies ready to wear and capes and gowns and hats and novelties being decorated to advantage in the store and the windows.

Today the Specialty Shop has an advertisement calling attention to the new spring frocks, millinery and the capes, etc. See the advertisement and watch for the Fashion Show announcements.
