Area One Step From Higher Education

By Fred Van Pelt
Higher education is coming to Seminole County if... That's an IF in capital letters and it means that higher education has one major hurdle to become a reality... the State House of Representatives at Tallahassee. It is a foregone conclusion that Gov. Haydon Burns will approve. Higher education for Seminole County already has hurdled the Senate committees, the full Senate and the House appropriations committee. According to United Press International, it will come before the full House on Thursday. Rep. S. J. Davis Jr. this morning advised The Sanford Herald that the House appropriations committee gave approval Tuesday evening to the Seminole Junior College. Davis spearheaded the move through committee and said he "will be in there pitching" Thursday before the full House. Sen. Mack N. Cleveland Jr. already had guided the measure through the Senate and had it certified to the House. The junior college would be financed thusly: $30,000 for planning and $219,664 for operations during the second year of the biennium, both to come from the general operating fund, and $368,885 for capital outlay (construction), included in the $80 million implementing bond bill. The implementing bond bill, in the University of Florida appropriation, also provides the Central Florida Experiment Station on Celery Avenue with $117,000 for an office-laboratory building, $40,000 for land acquisition and $31,000 for a greenhouse and "head" (furnace) house. Furthermore, this implementing bond bill provides $7.5 million for construction of the proposed East Central Florida university in Orange County, on SR 520 three miles south of Oviedo at the Seminole County line. The Seminole Junior College would be operated and maintained by the Seminole County Board of Public Instruction. School Supt. R. T. Milwee said today that, if the House approves Thursday, the $30,000 appropriation will be used for planning purposes. Furthermore, he added, Tallahassee state education people said they will send in a team of experts to assist the local educators in planning. It was believed, at the beginning of the thought of a junior college, that it could commence at the beginning of the 1965-66 school year next September but this morning Milwee stated the college could not possibly begin operations until the start of the 1966-67 school year. The Sanford Herald this morning went a step further and telephoned J. P. Wiegiers, president of the Bernarr Macfadden Foundation at New York City, sponsors of the Sanford Naval Academy. The Foundation will complete purchase within the next week of the Mayfair Inn and Motel for Academy purposes from the San Francisco Giants. The present Academy on Mellonville Avenue was purchased by the Foundation from the Giants two years ago. Wiegiers, apprised this morning of the Seminole Junior College and the need of a facility for the first year of operation, agreed that "it is an interesting and pleasing idea" to permit the Seminole

School Board the use of the Academy's Mellonville Avenue facility. The Academy is expanding, and will add a junior class this year and a senior class next year. However, Wiegiers said this morning, all operations will be contained during the next year or two at the Mayfair, to be known as "Commodore Barry Hall." After that, he added, the Mellonville property will become the "junior school," for the Academy's lower grades. "You know," the Foundation head said, "I am for anything for education and I am for anything that's for Sanford. I do not believe there is any terrible problem which cannot be ironed out in our letting the Seminole School Board use the Mellonville facility for the junior college for the first year," until the college facility is built and ready for operation. "That is a fine gesture on Mr. Wiegiers' part," Milwee said, "and undoubtedly we will be in touch with him about it when we have completed our preliminary planning stage."

Scenic Roads Advocated By President

WASHINGTON (UPI) — President Johnson asked Congress today for legislation to erase auto junkyards and billboards from the nation's highways and make travel more scenic for American motorists.

In a letter to the House speaker and Senate president, Johnson said he was transmitting a package of four bills designed to beautify the 250,000 miles of interstate and primary highways.

Two of the bills would strengthen control on outdoor advertising and junkyards within view of motorists. The President proposed that states—as a condition to receiving federal highway grants after Jan. 1, 1968—control outdoor advertising along sections of highways not owned or used predominantly for commercial or industrial purposes.

In general, such controls would require that no new advertising signs be erected in areas within 1,000 feet of the pavement and visible to passing motorists.

Present billboards would have to be removed by July 1, 1970. While paying tribute to advertising as having "an important and valuable" role in American life, Johnson said: "It is neither in the interests of the advertising industry or the nation, to permit a further decrease of our dwindling natural beauty."

Christopher Hauch of Sanford has been named treasurer of Beta Phi Gamma, national honorary journalism fraternity, at Daytona Beach Junior College.

The Red Cross is in dire need of volunteers who will take emergency phone calls after office hours. The Red Cross subscribes to the telephone answering service, but needs six persons to whom messages can be referred, according to Dr. Arthur NeSmith, chairman. If you can help call the ARC office and offer your services.

John W. Higginbotham, a senior at the University of Florida, has been named to the Dean's List for the Spring trimester. He is the son of Mrs. Dorothy Austin, The Herald's City Editor.

The Red Cross is moving its office from 112 1/2 Palmto Avenue to Rooms 201 and 203 in the Meisch Building (over Cowan's Department Store). They'll make the move Thursday night, according to Mrs. Barbara Clemmer, executive secretary. Persons having sick room equipment to return should bring it to the new office. The phone number remains the same.

"Es t r, e s t r e". Can you interpret that? It's ABC shorthand for "Easy to write, easy to read." This is a new course being taught at the Seminole County Business School this summer. Mrs. Penny Lovv, school principal, says you can do around 80-100 words a minute with it—a great help for students, salesmen, reporters or anyone who needs to write fast. It doesn't replace Gregg shorthand, but it's a completely incomprehensible to anyone else—practically in code!

Millions Eyed For Jax Area

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The House armed services committee has approved an appropriation of $14,778,300 for construction at three naval air stations in the Jacksonville area.

The biggest single amount approved was $6.5 million for an aircraft maintenance hanger and access apron at the naval air station at Jacksonville. The total spending approved for the Jacksonville facility was $11,628,000.

The Cecil Field naval air station will receive $3,288,000. A total of $28,000 was appropriated for the Mayport naval air station.

Area Schools Set Year-End Activities

Seminole and Oviedo High Schools have scheduled their Awards Day activities Thursday at their respective schools with Oviedo ceremonies to get underway at 8 a. m. in the auditorium and Seminole to begin at 1:30 p. m. in Fleming gym.

Lyman and Crooms High Schools will present their awards in conjunction with Class Day activities on June 4. Lyman will begin at 11:45 p. m. and Crooms at 8 p. m. Seminole High School's Senior Class Day will be held June 4 with ceremonies in the school auditorium at 8 a. m.

Yearbooks will be distributed to Juniors and seniors at that time and the dedication of the "Salamagundi" will be made by Editor Sherry Marzilia.

After the program, seniors will depart the school for a day-long beach party. Baccalaureate services at all schools will be at 8 p. m. June 6, with the exception of Crooms High School where the ceremonies will take place at 9 a. m.

All graduation exercises will be held June 7 at 8 p. m. in the school gymnasiums. June 4 will be the last day of school for all other schools, elementary, junior high, parochial and private. Graduation ceremonies at All Souls Parochial School and the Sanford Naval Academy also are June 4. Parochial school students will return on June 6 to pick up report cards.

TO RUN OR MIAMI (UPI) — Miami Mayor Robert King High has ordered a political survey of Florida in June to see if he should run for governor again.

CHOIR GIRL NORTON-SUB-HAMDON, England (UPI)—Mrs. Bessie Green celebrated her 93rd birthday with the claim of being Britain's oldest choir girl. She has been in the choir at the village church for 78 years.

CAPE KENNEDY (UPI)—In the black vacuum 150 miles above Hawaii, a lonely man will stand on the edge of a metal precipice and wonder whether to leap off.

If he takes that one step, he writes his own chapter in the history books of the space age.

If he doesn't American forfeits to the Soviet Union another two-month lead in a critical area of manned conquest of space.

Such is the decision that faces rookie U. S. Astronaut Edward H. White when, on the morning of June 8, he opens the right-hand hatch of his orbiting Gemini-4 capsule, stands up in his seat and debates whether to take America's first "walk in space."

Flames Leave Family Homeless

By Jane Casselberry
A Casselberry mother and her four teenage children lost everything they owned, except the clothes on their backs, late Tuesday afternoon when flames completely destroyed their two-story frame home.

The home, valued at $9,100, was located on Highway 17-92, and was owned by Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Casselberry, of Casselberry.

When the fire started, the tenant, Mrs. Helen Wilkins, was at work across the highway at Vaughn's Nursery. Her daughters, Betty, 15, and Nancy, 16, were at home. Other children are Sharon, 13, and Robert, 14.

Several church and civic organizations in the area are rallying to aid the family and Fire Chief Paul Bates, of the Casselberry Volunteer Fire Department, has announced that donations of clothing, food, furniture or household goods may be left at the fire station.

Firemen, unable to save the structure, confined the blaze, keeping it from spreading to nearby homes and a lumber company.

Firefighters from Altamonte Springs, Longwood and the Florida Forest Service assisted the Casselberry Department.

First Marines Ready To Depart

SANTO DOMINGO (UPI) — U. S. Marines, the first unwounded American troops to leave the Dominican Republic since last month's landings, boarded ship for the homeward journey today.

They are to go aboard the Boxer, a converted aircraft carrier lying offshore. It was not certain how many Marines would leave today, but the number was not expected to exceed a few hundred.

The Boxer will not sail at once, because the Marines boarding today will not be a full load for the ship.

The U. S. Navy has ruled that its ships cannot leave the Dominican area until they are fully and economically loaded.

Canal Directors Meet Thursday

A special called meeting of directors of the St. Johns-River Canal District will be held in Sanford at 1 p. m. Thursday.

Chairman John Krider said the meeting is to approve amendments to legislative acts and other important business. It will be held at the Chamber of Commerce building.

5 Flags Fiesta Commemorated

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The House passed a resolution today commemorating the Fiesta of Five Flags in Pensacola.

The fiesta is held yearly to commemorate the landing of Don Tristan de Luna in Pensacola on Aug. 14, 1565. It will be held this year June 8-14.

School Meet Scheduled On Segregation

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — County school officials are scheduled to meet with a federal representative on Thursday to prepare plans for compliance with the Civil Rights Act of 1964.

R. T. Milwee, Seminole County school superintendent and W. W. Wharton, director of guidance and testing, will attend the meeting in Tallahassee.

"We must submit our new plan by June 15. After we return from Tallahassee, our local board will get to work on our new plan," Milwee said.

School Supt. Thomas D. Bailey announced he had requested the U. S. education commissioner to send a staff member to Florida to help the school officials.

Bailey explained the officials were having trouble getting advice for the plans to comply with the 1964 act.

The ting, which will last for two days, will be held by Richard E. Day, a law professor at Ohio State University.

All 67 counties in Florida have filed compliance papers with the U. S. Education Office, but 88 counties, including Seminole, had their plans for desegregation of their school systems rejected. Another 14 counties have received no answer to their plans.

Under the civil rights law, the federal government can withhold funds to county school systems that continue racial discrimination.

Jax Prisoners Fail To Escape

JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — Three Duval County jail inmates held a guard hostage and controlled a cell block Tuesday night before discovering they couldn't get out of the building.

The three prisoners, armed with a sharpened spoon, roamed freely on the second floor for less than an hour as 120 other inmates looked on.

Police, sheriff's deputies and Florida highway patrolmen surrounded the jail on the St. Johns River and bathed the building with searchlights before the prisoners surrendered.

Danny Roberts Hit In Head By Rifle Bullet

JAMES COURIER, versatile Oviedo High School athlete, will sign an athletic scholarship with University of Florida this week. By Harry Lawes
A camping expedition into the Big Tree swamp area by four boys who skipped school Tuesday, ended in tragedy when one of the youths fatally shot himself.

Dead is Danny Joe Roberts, 14, son of Thomas Roberts, 183 East Pine Street, Longwood.

According to Sheriff J. L. Hobby, young Roberts and three companions took the day off from school for a trek into the woods. Roberts, with his friends, Mike Goodall, 14, Joseph Brown, 15, and Kenneth Foster, 13, gathered up camping equipment and went into the woods apparently to spend the day and night.

Young Brown took along his father's .22 caliber rifle. Apparently after reaching their camping site, Roberts began playing with the rifle and it discharged, the bullet striking him in the forehead.

The three boys ran about 1 1/2 miles to summon the Goodall boy's father.

Returning to the scene of the shooting, Goodall and the boys made a stretcher out of a tent and carried the wounded Roberts through the woods to a road where an ambulance took him to Winter Park Memorial Hospital. The boy was pronounced dead on arrival at the hospital at about 6:45 p. m. The shooting took place around 5:45 p. m.

Coroner Hugh Duncan, who viewed the body, ruled the death accidental.

In South Viet Nam, carrier-based U. S. planes flew more than 80 sorties against Viet Cong troop concentrations, villages, command posts, storage areas and buildings.

Eight Area Pupils Get Scholarships

Eight Seminole County high school students have received $250 scholarships for the Florida college of their choice under the Gov. Haydon Burns scholarship program. Receiving the grants are David Lanier, Margaret Bower, Frank Murray and Marlon Nichols, of Seminole High, and Elmer Brooken Jr., James Davis, Dolores Mungen and Shirley Ann Rhodes, of Grooms high. The funds are a portion of the $140,000 raised at a series of inaugural balls last January. Others will be held in each succeeding year while Burns is in office.

Garage Doors Lure Airplanes

WASHINGTON (UPI) — If you have a radio-controlled garage door, lower the antenna or you might find an airplane trying to land in the driveway.

The Federal Aviation Agency (FAA) disclosed that such doors can inadvertently emit radio signals hazardous to air navigation.

The agency said it has found 58 garage-openers in the Los Angeles area alone which were interfering with navigation signals, in some cases strong enough to be picked up by aircraft 16 miles away.

"Thus it would be possible for a pilot to inadvertently 'home in' on a garage door signal and fly directly toward it with great accuracy—conceivably with disastrous results," the FAA warned.

Citrus Harvest
Coming To End

LAKELAND (UPI) — The 1964-65 Florida citrus harvest will end this week for all intents and purposes, Florida Citrus Mutual said today.

Mutual said that based on the U.S. Department of Agriculture crop estimate less than three million boxes of oranges remain to be harvested.

Mrs. W. W. Anderson Named President Of Garden Club

By Margaret Cosby
The North Orlando Garden Club, at the May meeting at the home of Mrs. Billy Piloian on Bombay Avenue, elected officers for 1965-66. In the group are Mrs. W. W. Anderson, president; Mrs. George Duquette, vice president; Mrs. Jessie Wallace, secretary; Mrs. Hilton Thompson, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Ware, reporter; Mrs. Walter Blanton, chaplain. These officers will be installed at the annual banquet in June and committees will be named at a later date. Chairman of the banquet committee is Mrs. James Mayer with Mrs. C. E. Howell, co-chairman, and Mrs. Duquette and Mrs. Ewington Harville assisting. Garden of the Month chairman, Mrs. Carl Hyatt, announced that the award for this month went to Mayor and Mrs. David Tilson. The beautification committee, Mrs. Hyatt, Mrs. Anderson, and Mrs. Duquette, have planned a luncheon at Mrs. Hyatt's home June 1 following the tour of inspection by the judges who will determine winners in the Beautification Month Contest. The entire garden club will participate in presenting this luncheon. Mrs. Wallace, flower show chairman, expressed appreciation to all members cooperating in the South Seminole Garden Club Show. She said "it was a most delightful and rewarding experience and everyone enjoyed the contest." With the press of business, the June meeting was changed to the first Thursday of the month and will be held at 7:30 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Wallace, 30 S. Edgemon Avenue with Mrs. R. E. West as co-hostess. Door prize went to Mrs. M. E. Berrie. It was a cute hand crocheted hat cover for a tissue roll. Devoted to the garden club to the very end was Mrs. Duquette who was celebrating her 13th wedding anniversary by attending the club's election meeting. Mrs. Wallace reported that the club's yearbooks are completed and will be distributed at the banquet. The meeting then was turned over to Mrs. Wallace who conducted a program of scrambled word games. Winner of this was Mrs. Mayer. Prize was a pair of terry-cloth slippers. Refreshments were served by the hostesses, Mrs. Piloian and Mrs. Fred Wyman. In keeping with the giant garden centerpiece, there was a prettily flowered sheet cake and an artificial orchid was floating in the bowl of fruit punch. There were chewy brownies and other tasty tidbits.

Wives Discover Missing Men

CHICAGO (UPI)—The bodies of two workmen were found in the rubble of an abandoned hotel by the men's wives, who hadn't seen their husbands for three days. After receiving no reports on their husbands' whereabouts the women decided to check the old Cadillac Hotel, which their husbands had been helping to wreck. They found a man's leg protruding from the rubble and unearthing bodies. Fire department crews were summoned to the building. They said there might be more bodies in the wreckage. The victims were identified as Marner Skinner and Lafayette Jones, both of Chicago.

Annual Fourth Of July Fiesta Cancelled By Longwood VFD

By Donna Estes
Longwood Fire Chief Claude Layo has announced that the city fire department will not sponsor a Fourth of July Fiesta this year.
The event, sponsored by the department for the past number of years, was cancelled because of prohibitive costs of liability insurance the department would have to carry in order that persons working at or attending, the Fiesta would be protected, Layo explained. The firemen will sponsor, however, the Miss Flame of Seminole County beauty contest this September in conjunction with their widely acclaimed fried chicken dinner. Other activities also are being planned for the same time with the exact date in September to be announced.

In the past month the department's emergency vehicle, which had been dented more than a year ago, was involved in an accident while en route to a fire and damaged beyond repair. Thus the men are left without means of transporting the emergency equipment which includes a resuscitator, two-way radio, first aid gear, portable lights, and other necessary fire fighting and rescue aids.

Necessity of the vehicle has been quite evident during the past year when the lives of several persons were saved through its use. Firemen took it to all fires as well as answering other emergency situations including accidents and swimming mishaps.

A vehicle has been found by the department which can be purchased to serve as an emergency unit for $1,100, plus costs of special accessories needed. The city has helped by making a down payment of $300 with the balance to be raised by the firemen.

With hope of raising the additional moneys, the department is sponsoring a canoe award project, with the award to be made at 8 p. m., Saturday, July 10, at the fire hall. Persons attending the award program will be served coffee and doughnuts.

Anyone wishing to make donations to assist the fire department in the endeavor may send contributions to "Longwood Volunteer Fire Department" and will receive receipts by mail.

Seminole Boasts Unique Driving Classes

Seminole County boasts three unique classrooms. Really they are combined into a three-in-one classroom . . . one of only 13 in the entire state.

The classrooms are outdoors and about the size of a baseball diamond. Their purpose: To aid in teaching young people the proper and safe way of driving an automobile.

The unique classrooms, located at Seminole, Lyman and Crooms High Schools, are laid-out courses which simulate conceivable traffic patterns and hazards to be met on public streets. One fleet of learner cars circulate among the three high schools.

Driver education students, learning in automobiles furnished to the county by Sanford new car dealers, tour the marked course guided by their instructor's voice coming to them over walkie-talkies. This unusual method of instruction allows the instructor to clearly see any errors the students make and give corrective criticism. It also allows for more students to participate at the same time.

To complete the course at Seminole High School, instructed by Mr. and Mrs. Ken (Dutch) Campbell, students spend 30 hours in the classroom and six hours behind the wheel of a car. Of these last six hours, the time is split between the practice driving range and actual traffic.

A fleet of 10 automobiles has been made available by the local auto agencies. This fleet includes a Rambler, furnished by Bill Hemphill Motors; two Ford Galaxies donated by Strickland-Morrison; two Mercury Comets from Hunt Lincoln - Mercury; a Chevrolet Impala and an Oldsmobile, courtesy of Holler Motors; and a Plymouth from Haag Chrysler-Plymouth.

Currently at Seminole High School there are 150 students enrolled in the driver education course. Another 175 participated during the first half of the academic year.

Students and teenagers out of school, between the ages of 14 and 20, are eligible to enroll in the driver's training summer courses to be given at Seminole County high schools beginning June 11. Private school students also will be accepted.

Students presently enrolled at Seminole, Lyman, Crooms and Oviedo will sign up for the course at their schools. Persons now out of school and private school students are asked to pick up their application forms at the school administration office. May 28 is the deadline for enrollment.

Through the summer course, students have the advantage of getting the class "out of the way" before enrolling in regular academic subjects during the regular school year.

A certificate of completion of the course permits a ten percent decrease in the cost of automobile insurance. Students with driver's training may get their regular driver's license at 16. Without it they cannot get a license until age 18, unless parents sign a declaration with the Florida Highway Patrol assuming full responsibility.

Junior High Summer School Opens June 8

Summer school at South Seminole Junior High School in Casselberry will begin at 8 a. m. June 11, for a period of four hours daily, Monday through Friday for seven weeks.

Students will be allowed to enroll for one subject, either to make up one unpassed or to make an additional credit. Subjects for new credit will be determined by enrollment.

Registrations are currently being accepted in the school's main office.

PRINTING BOOM JACKSONVILLE (UPI) — The Florida Chamber of Commerce says printing in Florida was a $75 million business in 1963, and has more than doubled in the past five years. The figures do not include newspapers or engraved products.

KEN CAMPBELL, Seminole High driving instructor, uses a walkie-talkie to impart instructions to seven student drivers in seven automobiles all at the same time. (Herald Photo)

Shaggy Dog Story In Two Parts

MIAMI (UPI) — This is a story of two shaggy dogs. One is named Dusty. He looks like a collie but his genealogy is varied. Charlie Frye, 10, of Miami Springs, lost Dusty Feb. 21.

Dusty has turned up in Brazil. The other dog is named Polly.

Involved in the confusion are the embassies of the United States and Brazil, the U. S. Information Agency and the Brazilian Air Force.

Polly's story began in Virginia, where she was purchased for the Brazilian breeder and shipped off aboard a Brazilian Air Force plane. Two days later, the Brazilian went to an airport in Rio de Janeiro to welcome Polly and was greeted by eight-year-old Dusty, who was panting a bit.

Obviously Dusty wasn't worth $300, no matter what young Charlie Frye says. The Brazilian breeder protested. Hence the embassies. Then someone noticed Dusty had a dog tag. It was traced to Miami.

Finally everyone figured out what happened. Polly had an overnight stay in Miami while en route to Brazil from Virginia. She was taken for a walk. She got away. She was chased across an alley.

There a collie stood. The leash was put on and the dog was sent to Brazil. The dog was Dusty. Polly is still missing. She must have had her puppies last month.

Friday, June 4, will be the last day of school for the students this year but teachers will be holding a post school planning period through June 10.

Both Charlie Frye and a Brazilian collie breeder in Sao Paulo are upset about Polly being here and Dusty there.

Constable, JP Areas To Be Re-districted

A special meeting of the Seminola County Board of Commissioners will be held at 8 a.m. Thursday to establish new constable and justice of peace districts in the county.

The board discussed a proposal district plan at its Tuesday meeting but could come to no conclusion on the new lines.

Constables and JPs are expected to be on hand for the Thursday meeting.

In other action Tuesday, the commissioners voted to make available certain aid to the Casselberry sinkhole area.

The board agreed to make a drag line available and for dirt out of the county pit to be used, if needed, to fill in the sinkhole. It also said it could possibly furnish some trucks if the State Road Department couldn't handle the job.

Commissioners also voted to pay for an administrative assistant, if needed, to Seminola county legislators during the closing days of the Legislature. They said an assistant might be needed in the last-minute rush of legislation.

In another action the commissioners rejected a request by Randall Chase to clear a fence line on the north border of Bellair Grove on the west extension of 25th St.

The work would have been done on private property and would serve no county purpose, the opposing commissioners contended.

Voting against the request were Chairman John R. Alexander and Commissioners W. Lawrence Swofford and Edward Yarborough. Voting for were John Fitzpatrick and Lee Gary.

In another move the board voted to post Crystal Lake Park to warn swimmers of a sharp drop-off in the lake. It also voted to re-post the area prohibiting the use of alcoholic beverages on the property.

Gordon Orr, Orange-Seminola County planner, appeared before the board to bring it up to date on the status of road recommendations to the new university site near Oviedo.

Orr said no highway development plan had been agreed upon as yet. He urged that Orange and Seminola Counties work together on developing roads in the area.

The board indicated it favored the development of County Line Road as a main access route to the new East Central Florida University site.

Seminole Girl Scout Troops Spend Weekend At Ticochee

By Jane Casselberry

A successful weekend camporee was held recently at Camp Ticochee near Barberville with 128 girls and 19 adults with eight Seminola County Junior Girl Scout Troops participating.

Mrs. Gerald McGinnis of Eastbrook, leader of Troop 472, served as coordinator for the camporee.

American Red Cross Water Safety Co-ordinator, Mrs. James Birkenmeyer of Casselberry, supervised water activities in the camp pool and assisted in passing some of the scouts on their Waterfront Badge.

Small campfire programs were held in the units Friday night. Troops conducting the flag ceremonies during the camporee were Troop 351, Bear Lake; Troop 299, Sanford; Troop 633, Tanglewood; and Troop 695, Sanford.

Among Saturday's activities were a wide game planned by Troop 472 and won by Troop 299; trail signs laid out by Troop 303, Sanford, and a "critter crawl" under the auspices of Troop 329, Altamonte Springs.

Troop 472's entry, a chameleon named "George II" won the event over a field made up of a spider, an ant, a toad, two caterpillars, a grasshopper and a gopher.

A large campfire was held Saturday night with each Troop presenting a skit. Indian dances were staged and Troop 329 gave their version of "Hiawatha" with all the girls in Indian costumes.

Troop 910 of Casselberry was in charge of the "Scout's Own" devotional on Sunday morning.

Each troop planned and prepared their own meals.

Troop leaders were Mrs. Gladys Downey, and Miss Judy Robb, senior scout, Troop 229; Mrs. Caroline Lavender, and Mrs. C. L. Geiger, Troop 303; Mrs. Jesse Andrews, Mrs. Sara Stouendmire, and Mrs. Virginia Watkins, Troop 605; Mrs. Elaine Cox, Mrs. Allene Smith, and Mrs. Barbara Gurr, Troop 329; Mrs. Mary Jane Wilson, and Mrs. Joan Martin, Troop 351; Mrs. McGinnis and Mrs. Betty Quarles, Troop 472; Mrs. Wilma Morris, and Mrs. Charles Engle, Troop 633, and Mrs. Lois Lockyer and Mrs. Marian Marsh, Troop 910.

The bride-elect was stunning in a white two-piece arnel jersey frock with the shell blouse etched in turquoise trim.

Palph Voss Guest Speaker At Final Garden Club Meet

Members of the Garden Club of Sanford met recently at their Garden Center for the final luncheon and general business meeting of the year.

Guest for the occasion was Ralph Voss, local landscape designer, who spoke about his hobby of bonsai. He pointed out that he was demonstrating what might be termed "instant" bonsai, since the development of an authentic specimen can require several hundred years. The process of developing these dwarfed plants was perfected by the Japanese because of their love for natural beauty as expressed in the appearance of ruggedness and endurance which results from dwarfing.

Using manicure scissors and clippers, a knife and wire, the speaker showed how to prune, root trim and shape a Kurume azalea to give the effect of a dwarfed tree. Voss pointed out that any specimen chosen for bonsai should be planted in the type soil found in its natural habitat. He recommended monthly feeding with liquid plant food. Watering is a daily necessity and good drainage a must. On display were several specimens of Japanese black pine and juniper in various stages of development.

Voss, a native Floridian, studied horticulture and landscape design at the University of Florida and operates Voss Landscape Service which provides both complete landscape maintenance and design. He, his wife, Barbara, and their four children came here from West Palm Beach.

Mrs. J. M. Fahy, presided at the business session during which members elected Mrs. Irving Fryer as vice-president. Announcement was made of acquisitions for the building including more than 150 chairs, 10 tables and a gift of 200 glasses from Central Circle.

Arrangements of spring flowers decorated each table. Camellia Circle received an award for an arrangement of glorioza lilies in a wrought iron container. Honorable mention was given to an assortment of colorful flowers grown and arranged by Mrs. Charles Wilke for Rose Circle and to a design of red roses from members of Ivy Circle.

A drawing determined the winner of a quilt handmade by members of Hibiscus Circle to be Mrs. F. M. Leucker who was also the successful bidder in a Chinese auction for a bonsai plant and container donated by Mr. Voss.

On display was a painting by Mrs. Mildred Babcock of an arrangement of a strelitzia designed by Mrs. Wade Garner for the recent dedication. The picture, which will hang in the lobby, is a gift from Palm Circle in memory of Mrs. Martin Stinecpher and Mrs. Arthur Wait.

Gala Western Party Delights Oviedo Seniors

By Evelyn Lundy
"Ranch House Saloon," printed in large letters on the garage door, greeted Oviedo High seniors as they gathered at the lovely new home of the Jim Partins in Mead Manor in Oviedo.

Co-hosts with the Partins were Mr. and Mrs. John Courier who were entertaining for Marilyn Partin and Jimmy Courier, both members of the senior class. Hosts and guests were attired in western garb.

The western theme was carried out, from the sign on the garage door to the back patio around the swimming pool.

The garage had been converted into the saloon. Bridles and stirrups were hung around the room. The wall was covered with "Wanted" pictures of each high school teacher, their pictures drawn in caricature with such titles as "Sargent Holder," "Baby Face Mikler," "Cocky Calvert," etc.

Card tables were set up with red paper covers and dice placed on each table. At the back of the saloon was a most impressive bar holding lighted kerosene lamps and mugs. Back of the bar was a large mirror with a rough wooden frame decorated with spurs. By the bar was a huge wooden barrel containing ice water.

The delicious menu served to the cow girls and cow pokes was a barbecue sandwiches, baked beans, potato chips, donuts and soft drinks. Jim Partin, attired in his western outfit, as a dude acted as bartender.

On the patio by the pool were several bales of hay; in the corner was a large wagon wheel, and on the fence, bridles, saddles and a skeleton of a cow's head were used as decorations.

After eating, there was a roundup of the ranch hands for a scavenger hunt. Guests were divided into poses such as Jessie James, Wyatt Earp, etc.

Returning from the hunt, a western hoe-down was enjoyed in the corral. Climaxing the fun of the evening, the ranch hands enjoyed a moonlight dip in the creek on the Partin-Courier Ranch.

JIMMY COURIER AND MARILYN PARTIN relive the old west at a recent Oviedo High School graduation party given in their honor.

Several of the officers who had attended the Grand Chapter Session in Miami Beach, reported on the meeting. The red heart theme in the decorations were pronounced outstandingly beautiful. All were unanimous in the opinion that Semipole's Junior Matron, Mrs. Louis Estes, who acted as one of the Grand Escorts, was the prettiest on the floor. Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. J. E. Blackman, Miss Anna Mae Muller and Mrs. Charles Cole. Oh, yes, Mr. Blackman helped too!

Antique Pinups Championed By Firemen

BRADLEY BEACH, N. J. (UPI) — Firemen said they would protest an order to remove pinups from the firemen's club room.

The pinups are more than 80 years old, according to Irv Konners, president of Fire Company 2.

"They weren't nudes and they weren't lewd. They are antiques compared to what the magazines publish today," he said.

The frames, Konners said, were even provided by a former borough commissioner.

The pinups were first noticed when Peter J. G. Flood, commissioner of public property, inspected the clubroom. He ordered the pictures removed.

Last week he found out the pictures were back up again and ordered a policeman to remove them.

The firemen have acquired a lawyer and intended to fight the move at a commission meeting.

Fading Blossoms

Sending the queen of Washington's Cherry Blossom Festival to Japan to tell the people about cherry trees sounds like carrying coals to Newcastle.

After all, the cherry tree has been venerated in Japan for hundreds of years. It was Japan that in 1912 gave us the trees that burst into celebrated bloom around the Tidal Basin in the nation's capital each spring.

Alas, the sad fact is that the trees are dying in Japan—from neglect and air pollution, it is charged, both unfortunate by-products of a bustling industrialized society.

To avert this disaster, a number of organizations in Japan have launched a drive to save the trees by replacing dying ones with saplings and have invited this year's festival queen to help them publicize the campaign.

New Hope For The World

Soviet scientists quickly qualified an announcement by Tass, the official government news agency, that they had detected radio signals from intelligent beings in another star system.

What is significant is not that the Russians are on the lookout for such signs of rational life elsewhere in the universe. Other astronomers around the world are searching the reaches of space; many believe it is only a matter of time, and luck.

What is important is that the Russian scientists publicly rebuked Tass for not respecting its journalistic responsibilities.

If such scientific devotion to the truth catches on in Russia, there may be hope for life on earth as well.

Thought For Today

It is good that you should take hold of this, and from that withhold not your hand; for he who fears God shall come forth from them all.—Ecc. 7:18.

The Christian religion is the only one that puts morality on its proper and right basis: the fear and love of God.—Samuel Johnson, 18th century English author.

Dr. Crane's

Worry Clinic

Jamie shows the dangers that occur at the dinner table. For a child's food preferences can be altered for life by just one unpleasant table episode. Beware! And scrapbook this case, for it shows that all of our food preferences must be linked with the infant's original inherited liking for sugar.

CASE W-403: Jamie J., aged 1 1/2, is a table problem. "Dr. Crane," his worried mother began, "how can I get Jamie to like new foods?"

"Regardless of what I offer him, if he has never tasted it before, he puckers up his mouth and may spit it out."

"Then that may make his daddy irate. Last night, Jamie splattered spinach all over his daddy's white shirt."

"So his daddy decided to MAKE him eat the spinach. But Jamie screamed and choked."

"Today he then made a scene even when I tried to put a little spinach on his plate. He hates it, now!"

"How can parents make their children like new foods?"

At birth, babies have no innate or inborn fondness for ANY food, except sugar.

So all of our later appetites must indirectly be tied-in to that original inherited liking for sugar!

Here's how it occurs: the baby is usually fed by its own mother, either via the breast or from the bottle.

So the mother becomes linked with the sweet milk. Incidentally, cow's milk is not as sweet as human milk, which is why we add extra sugar to the infant's formula for bottle feeding.

It isn't very long till the baby links mamma with the sweet milk.

They become almost like Siamese twins in his eyes.

Soon, the very sight of its mother will make the infant smile and coo.

Political Notebook

WASHINGTON (NEA) — Sometimes Viet Cong victories turn sour in their mouths. It's one thing to be successful guerrilla fighters. It's quite another to govern a village after you've conquered it.

In 4,000 hamlets, the VC came in with promises of reform: "Help us and the land will be yours. Your boys won't have to leave home to fight. They won't die in senseless battles. You no longer have to pay exorbitant taxes. Absentee landlords will go. Forced labor will go. Corrupt judges and officials will go."

Then the Communists took over these 4,000 hamlets. The VC village official was blunt about the reason he deserted the Reds: "The higher-ups made me increase the rice tax 300 per cent. The people began to hate me."

In some parts of the Delta, farmers in VS territory complain the Communists raised their taxes, allegedly to build schools. The promises were big, they say, the results small.

In Red-controlled areas near Ca Mau in the far south, word seeps out to relatives and friends: "There are too many casualties among our husbands, sons and cousins serving with the VC. Many of our men have been gone a year or more without any indication of whether they're dead or alive."

In Vinh Binh Province, southeast of Saigon, farmers report so many guerrilla troops have been killed that VC army recruiters are being forced to take young kids. Some reports indicate increasing numbers of 14 and 15-year-olds are being "drafted."

Recent "heavy casualties" are "causing disaffection."

In Da Phuoc Village farmers complain the VC are killing people against whom they bear personal grudges. There are increasing complaints about kidnappings, abductions and senseless VC murders.

In some hamlets, farmers switched to the Reds to end VC terrorism in their midst. They've found terrorism continued unabated after the Communist take-over. This has been quite a shock to some.

The Viet Cong are introducing forced labor in more areas.

Shortages of medicine, salt, cloth and shoes are reported frequently.

Reports from here and there in Viet Cong territory are that "land reform," Red-style, isn't working out as expected. Some sharecropper farmers who had been anxious to receive land now say the reform has done them more harm than good. They say they're not able to make a living. Their plots are too small to work. They're unable to get credit for seed and fertilizer.

In parts of Kien Hoa Province, Red officials have been ordered to forget land distribution, put stepped-up rice production first so the Viet Cong can collect more taxes.

Vietnamese-U.S. attacks on Communist rice stores—resulting in the capture or destruction of thousands of tons of VC food stocks—are forcing the Reds to spend less time thinking about winning friends and more time about getting the food they need to carry on their fighting.

The Lighter Side

United Press International WASHINGTON (UPI) — Auto junkmen have feelings, too, you know. In our zeal to make America beautiful, we must be careful that we don't bruise them.

Such was the message brought to the capital this week by Terry Fiskin and Herb Lieberman, two fastidious junkyard operators from California.

They feel that their industry has received a black eye in all the talk about eyesores stemming from efforts by President and Mrs. Johnson to promote a more aesthetic landscape.

Fiskin and Lieberman made the point that not all junkyards are unsightly, and that this country now has a new breed of junkmen who are sensitive about their image.

In fact, even the term "junkmen" pains them. They prefer the more mellifluous title of "auto dismantlers."

The organization they represent, once known as the Auto Wreckers Association, now is called the Auto Dismantlers Association (ADA) of Southern California.

As a disciple of the theory of dispositional, which holds that getting rid of things is becoming the world's number one economic problem, I am totally in sympathy with their campaign to make dismantling yards socially acceptable.

I question, however, whether the measures they advocate, such as building screens around the heaps of scrapped cars, are adequate to overcome the general public's prejudicial attitude.

Beauty, after all, is more of a state of mind than anything else. What the dismantlers should do is associate themselves with the great cultural explosion that is taking place in this country. This can be done very easily by taking advantage of the so-called "pop art" that is currently in vogue. Sculptors and painters, as you may be aware, are turning away from traditional materials and have started creating works of art out of such things as bedspreads, coffee cans, wagon wheels and old tennis shoes.

Auto dismantlers, of course, have a rich source of potential art supplies readily available. All they need to do is start exercising their creative instincts.

For openers, I would suggest that Fiskin and Lieberman sponsor a contest to see which dismantler can compose the most graceful arrangement of wrecked cars hauled off the Hollywood Freeway on any given Tuesday.

Once the public begins thinking of an auto junkyard as a studio or art museum, the problem will be solved.

Editor, The Herald:

Happy to see the county commissioners are beginning to start on the long range recreational planning committee's recommendation for Cameron - Wight Park and Levi Park at Mullet Lake.

Next, should be either Big Tree Park or the cutting of the river into Lake Jessup near Marina Isle. This will help the pollution trouble that is causing the fish kills there.

This pollution trouble will probably get progressively worse as it is likely that the Econ will be cut into Jessup, thus bringing East Orlando's sewage effluent into the lake also.

Would like to see you do an editorial or two on the destruction of the recreational potential of Lake Jessup and the real estate values around it.

In the manner of the one you recently had on the preservation of the redwoods in California.

Glenn G. Smith Heads DeBary Republicans

DeBary Republican Club re-elected and installed Glenn G. Smith as president during the business session of the club's annual meeting.

Other officers named are Earl D. Merrill, first vice president; Albert D. Williams, second vice president; Thornton K. Smith, third vice president; Mrs. Virginia Harrison, secretary; Mrs. Lillian Wind, treasurer, and Mrs. Viola Leone, financial secretary.

Everett L. Swift, installing officer, in his induction charge to the new slate of officers, stressed the fact that primary responsibilities for the DeBary club and its officers are to work to secure for Florida the benefits of a two party government; to continue the fight for a balanced budget to protect against destructive inflation, and to insist on elimination of wastes in spending in foreign aid programs and in the operation of state and national governments. He also emphasized the need for an active and growing club to sell Republicanism and to share in the election of responsible officials.

Merrill announced a meeting with the membership committee, Howard Middleton, Ralph Witherell, Mrs. William Naegel, and Louis St. Amand, to organize methods of building the club's membership.

Speaker for the program following elections was Sgt. James McKinnon of Ocala, special service officer in charge of traffic safety education in three counties, who spoke on measures planned to reduce excessive loss of lives and property from highway accidents.

SSJH To Lose Two Teachers

By Jane Casselberry

Several members of the staff and faculty of South Seminole Junior High School at Casselberry will be leaving at the end of this term to accept other positions.

Wayne Byerly, eighth grade math teacher, will be employed by Martin Company of Orlando as a financial analyst.

Eighth grade science teacher, Joe Akerman, and his wife, Princess, school financial secretary, will be leaving for Madison (Florida), where he has accepted a position as instructor in freshman English at North Florida Junior College. They have resided at Lake Mary for several years and have a three year old son, Mark.

Akerman plans to begin work on his doctorate in English at Florida State University, which is only 50 miles from where he will be teaching. He will receive his Master of Art Degree this summer from Rollins College in Winter Park.

Mrs. Pat Hasley, secretary to Mrs. Louise Gilpin, guidance instructor, has undergone surgery at Winter Park Memorial Hospital and will not be able to return to her post for the remainder of the school year. Taking her place is Mrs. Faye Wilhelm, who was formerly employed at the Air Force Base at Panama City.

Spare The Rod . . .

So Youth Jailed

TAYLORSVILLE, N. C. (UPI) — A father allowed his 18-year-old son to be sentenced to two years imprisonment rather than whip him in public.

Alexander County Recorder's Court Judge Sam Poole had left the decision up to the father of Steve Sout, charged with another youth with three counts of breaking and entering.

Poole told the father he would not give the youth an active sentence if the father would administer a whipping outside the courthouse.

The father said he would punish his son inside the courthouse but not in public. The judge refused to compromise and sentenced Sout and the other youth, Ronnie Brown, 17, to two 12 months terms each at a young offenders camp.

Florida Council On Alcoholism Aims Outlined

By Dottie Austin

There are more than 11,000 alcoholics in Orange and Seminole Counties and their problem has a direct effect on more than 50,000 people, primarily members of their families.

These statistics were revealed by Richard D. Stanbro, executive director of the Central Florida Council on Alcoholism, speaking to members of the Rotary Club.

"We're not talking about heavy drinkers or social drinkers, but addicted drinkers who cannot conquer their illness without help," Stanbro pointed out.

"No one ever sets out to become an alcoholic. Much research into this problem is needed to determine why some persons become hopelessly addicted, while others are able to continue social drinking or even occasional heavy drinking without becoming alcoholic.

"The problem is one of fantastic proportions, with over six million alcoholics in the United States, 300,000 of them teenagers and with the lists growing about 200,000 a year. Their illness affects more than 24 million other persons in the family relationship.

"The situation is appalling when consideration is given to the tremendous loss of people, their abilities and talents," Stanbro pointed out.

Education and information are the primary purposes of the National Council on Alcoholism. The Central Florida Council is the first such organization in Florida. It offers a speakers bureau, club, radio and television programs.

"The real alcoholic is a sick person with all the symptoms of disease including increase in tissue tolerance, withdrawal symptoms, changes in metabolic function and loss of control of faculties," Stanbro emphasized.

"Alcoholism among women is much more difficult to detect but researchers studying the problem believe there are almost as many women alcoholics as men," Stanbro added.

"The need for more information and education on this problem is apparent from the tremendous number of phone calls and letters we receive each time we present a program on the subject," the speaker concluded.

Florida Favors Birth Control

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Legislature today passed Florida's first birth control law.

The bill, whipped through the House and the Senate without debate, authorizes the Cabinet to initiate a planned parenthood program in the Welfare Department if funds are available in the second year of the biennium.

It provides that birth control information furnished to an unmarried woman receiving help under the Aid to Dependent Children program will not make her ineligible under the Suitable Homes Act.

The general appropriations bill also provides authorization, if funds are available, for furnishing birth control devices to all welfare pensioners.

Appeals Court Bill Snatched From Death

TALLAHASSEE (UPI) — The Senate snatched from death Tuesday and passed a constitutional amendment authorizing creation of a fourth district court of appeals to be composed of 10 counties running from Fort Lauderdale to Titusville.

The measure, passed by the House unanimously weeks ago but killed in the Senate by opposition from Sen. John McCarty, of Ft. Pierce, was reconsidered and passed unanimously after it was amended to delay the vote of the people until November, 1966.

It then was rushed back to the House for concurrence in the amendment putting off the statewide vote which the house had set for November of this year as an emergency.

McCarty's opposition to the emergency election prevented supporters from getting the required 33 votes for an emergency. With the one-year delay McCarty withdrew his objections and it skimmed to 42-0 passage.

The fight revolved around location of the headquarters of the new court, with Vero Beach and Fort Pierce the principal combatants and West Palm Beach standing in the wings as a possible compromise location.

The site fight was left for a later day as the co-sponsors, Sens. Mack Cleveland, of Sanford, and Merrill Barber, of Vero Beach, asked colleagues to go along with the one-year delay, saying "we would rather take the delay than lose this bill altogether. This court is badly needed."

J. Palmer Heads Oviedo PTO

By Evelyn Lundy

Oviedo Parent-Teacher Organization officers were installed by Jonathan Lukas, outstanding student in ceremony conducted as conclusion of the organization's final meeting of the year.

Officers are James Palmer, president; Mrs. Jack Bratten, first vice president; Mrs. Clyde Holder, second vice president; Lt. Col. (ret.) A. E. Soball, third vice president; Mrs. John Evans, secretary, and Ben Jones, treasurer.

Jonathan, member of the senior class and son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lukas of Slavia, has majored in public speaking in local 4-H clubs as well as in his English classes. He was introduced by Mrs. Donna Neely, English teacher, and was highly commended by those attending for the fine job he performed as installing official.

Plans for summer school in Oviedo were announced by Principal Clyde Holder who advised that summer classes, with credits received, will be taught for the first time this year at the school. A remedial reading clinic will be held three hours daily for a seven week period for students in grades five through eight. Spring roundup for all prospective first graders is scheduled for 2:30 p.m. next Tuesday and a pre-school session will begin July 14 for a four week period.

A complete recreation program will be conducted during the summer and special band classes will be held two days and one night each week.

The meeting was conducted by Jack Syme, current president, with opening devotions given by Rev. F. Jernigan of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Milton Gore, program chairman, introduced office girls and the "Band-Aids" and told of their work. A gift was presented by the PTO to the girls, Marian Carpenter, Jan Beasley, Jan Sutton, Gay Ulrey, Bonnie Warfield, and Pat Erwine, office girls, and Linda Brewer and Linda Higgins, band-aids who appeared in their striped uniforms.

Mrs. Leon Olliff, hospitality chairman, presented Syme with a gift and announced that money usually spent to give teachers individual gifts at the end of the term was used this year to redecorate the teachers lounge.

Growers, Shippers To Hear Of Space Race

R. V. Phillips, president of the Growers and Shippers League of Florida, has announced that the 42nd annual business meeting and dinner will be held June 17 at the Robert Meyer Hotel, Orlando. The dinner will be preceded by a reception sponsored by the Central Truck Lines for members and guests of the League.

President Phillips stated this meeting will be one of the most important ever held by the League and that an excellent speaker will address members and guests.

Through the courtesy of the Chrysler Corporation, T. R. Brown Jr., operating manager of the Chrysler Corporation, Florida Missile Operations, Cape Canaveral, will discuss "Missiles and Space; Past and Present." He holds BS degree from Georgia Tech, is a member of the board of directors of United Fund of Brevard County, ara representative for the American Ordnance Association, serves on the board of trustees of Brevard Engineering College, Melbourne, and belongs to the American Institute of Aeronautics and Astronautics, and the National Management Association.

The League's executive committee, according to Gordon Stedman, executive vice president, will meet beginning with luncheon at noon June 17 at the Robert Meyer to review currently active matters and determine policy and procedure as to problems which will confront the fresh and processed citrus industry in the future as such problems are related to the transportation of these commodities.

The membership will elect the board of directors that evening, to be followed by election of officers and members of the executive committee.

The present officers are first vice president; John T. Lesley, second vice president; John G. Arko, third vice president; S. O. Chase Jr., treasurer; Stedman, executive vice president and Thomas E. Halle, secretary-traffic manager.

FIRST BABY born during Hospital Week was Kenneth Leon Veech, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Veech, of the Park Avenue Trailer Park. The lucky baby received a $25 savings bond from the Seminole Hospital Auxiliary. Mrs. A. F. Hunt (right) makes the presentation to the parents. Veech is attached to RVAH-13 at Sanford Naval Air Station. (Herald Photo)

IS THIS THE HAPPY DIFFERENCE?

Did you say 2 1/2 to 3 inches?

Sure! Make it thick!

That's the way to order a steak for full flavored enjoyment.

Want a king-size, extra-thick sirloin, a deluxe filet mignon, pork chops with pockets or simply a special size pot roast?

Just say the word to the Publix Meat Man. He pre-cuts a lot of meat in the style and sizes popular for average family meals. But he'll be happy to custom-cut meat to your order.

Next time you want meat smaller, larger, thicker or thinner than the prepackaged cuts in the cases — or want something you don't see — just booken.

Custom-cut meat is part of the Happy Difference in shopping at Publix. Enjoy it soon.

Dear Abby:

By Abigail Van Buren

DEAR ABBY: I've been married to a successful attorney for 30 years. Our children are grown and gone. My husband is a wonderful, generous man. He's been very good to me, but I have never known where we stood financially. He always gave me a generous allowance to run the house, and I never asked any questions.

It just occurred to me that in all the years we've been married he has brought home a blank income tax form for my signature. Then he would take it to his office to fill out later. I know nothing about his total income, deductions, etc. Do you think I'd be asking for trouble if, next time, I refused to sign it until he fills it out so I'll know what's what?

CURIOUS
DEAR CURIOUS: As an attorney your husband surely knows the many complications wives face when they suddenly become widowed with no knowledge of their husbands' financial affairs. You should be aware of what he owns and what he owes. It's only common sense for a wife to know the score. Ask your husband to fill you in NOW instead of filling out his income tax form "later."

DEAR ABBY: I am getting married soon and we plan to take a cabin on a lake for our honeymoon. I was thinking of taking my 12-year-old sister with us so she could take pictures of my husband and me together. If we were to go alone, we would have to settle for pictures of ourselves taken by each other. My fiance says it is okay with him, but he thinks it might seem silly to some people. Please answer soon. Thank you.

MAKING PLANS: A picture is supposed to be worth 10,000 words, but I doubt if it's worth taking your 12-year-old sister along on your honeymoon. Leave her home and ask a friendly tourist to assist you.

DEAR ABBY: I wonder if other women have had this stunt pulled on them, and how they handled it? I have been invited to luncheons and even dinner parties where there are three and sometimes four "hostesses" who have gone in together to give the party. Now, I always reciprocate when I have accepted an invitation. But at some of these affairs I have known only one hos-tes—the one who invited me. Am I indebted to ALL the hostesses, or just the one who invited me? Please print the answer. Either I have a lesson to learn, or some of my friends have.

SHIRLEY: You are indebted only to the hostess who invited you.

DEAR ABBY: What do you do with a man who tells his wife she should be able to do all her housework in a few hours and then sit down for the rest of the day? I am 27 and have 5 children. The youngest is eight months old and the oldest is seven. My husband never offers one bit of help, which is all right, if he just wouldn't voice his opinion on how things could be done easier and better. If the kids are sick, he says it's my fault for not taking better care of them. If I am sick, he has a fit. I had infectious hepatitis last year. The doctor said all I could do was "rest" and my husband said I was just plain lazy. I would leave him in a minute—but where can a woman with an 8th grade education go with five kids?

OLD BEFORE THIRTY: Your mate is hardly a gem. But what you saw in him eight years ago has probably been obscured by the steam of boiling diapers. Think back. And then ask a Family Service counselor to help you back into each other's arms and off each other's backs.

Jacoby On Bridge

By Oswald Jacoby

Today we have a discussion of the two-way finesse.

Jim: "What is the origin of the expression that a peek is worth two finessees?"

Oswald: "You aren't supposed to look at an opponent's cards but some players are so careless that you can't help seeing some of their cards some of the time. When you have to finesse for a king it does you no good to see it. If it is in back of the ace you can't finesse for it. If it is in front of the ace you would have fished in any event and picked it up. When it comes to the queen you may have two ways to go for it as in today's hand."

Jim: "You sure have two ways to go for that queen of clubs and you had better go the right way if you want to make your three so-trump."

Oswald: "Yes, East wins the spade lead with the ace and returns the suit. It makes no difference whether you play the queen or the ten, since West has the king and jack. He takes three more spade tricks and leads a heart. You have four diamond tricks and two heart tricks in top cards and need three club tricks to make your contract. Since the East-West hands have not been shown, how would you go after that missing queen?"

Jim: "I see the reason for the expression. It would be nice to have seen that queen. Failing that it is theoretically an even money chance or nearly so. I do have the advantage of having seen some discards on my diamonds and also East's discard on the fourth spade. Eventually I will have to go after clubs and probably will do so before I cash the second heart so as to be sure not to go down more than one."

Oswald: "Would you say you had an even money chance?"

Jim: "No, and neither would you think that your chance of success was even money. Somehow or other, every good player gathers some information from the manner in which his opponents play their cards and his so-called even money two-way finessees work at least two times in three."

At a luncheon party recently I talked with three men who have what they call "Worthy Products," and one product which I saw is, to my way of thinking, not only worthy . . . but a modern miracle!

Women who so long have worked hard at making smart-looking draperies, sewing like mad yet never quite able to obtain a "decorator" pleat, now need sew no more. The new quick drape is here! In 60 seconds you can pleat curtains in the perfect decorator pleat, with no sewing, no pinning.

If you want to line a pair of curtains, just place the material together, turn over a deep hem and use the quick drape completely reusable pleaters. Everything is in the box. Just follow directions and use the "pleaters," slip on the holders and there you are.

When you wash or have the drapes cleaned, just remove the pleater gadgets and you have straight curtains cleaned or put through the washing machines. There are no pleats to try to press properly. Just reuse your pleaters.

There is something about curtains which fascinate women. They would rather have new curtains now and then than a new piece of furniture. And curtains do dress up a room. Now you can have spring, summer, fall and winter draperies so easily!

I think women should always decorate a room to flatter their own coloring and personality. Have only things

We The Women:

By Ruth Millett

For years now the experts on family living have been worrying out loud and in print over the American housewife and how confused she is over her role in modern society. She has been pictured as feeling guilty if she works outside the home and guilty if she doesn't contribute to the family income.

She's not sure, according to the experts, of her own worth—because everyone tells her how easy she has it with all today's labor-saving equipment.

She no longer even believes that "mother knows best" about her own children and so she is a frightened, instead of a confident, parent.

Now a sociologist who has been teaching marriage courses for many years claims that the American husband is confused about his role, too.

Dr. Henry A. Bowman of the University of Texas says men "no longer have a definition of what it takes to be a real two-fisted red-blooded man."

Because there is no real way for a city dweller to measure this quality in himself many men today, says the professor, become too absorbed in their jobs, spending more time than they should away from home. Or they become overly strict in disciplining their children. Or they try to prove their masculinity by woman-chasing.

If both men and women are as confused and uncertain in their roles in this fast-changing world as the experts claim, it would seem that in this period of transition husbands and wives should try harder than ever before to make each other feel secure, needed, loved and admired.

After all, a wife isn't going to worry too much about her own worth and her own contribution to the world if her husband lets her know that he thinks she is a wonderful wife, a fine mother, a stimulating companion and a real helpmate (whether she is a full-time homemaker or a working wife).

And a man needn't worry about proving his masculinity if his wife glories in it—letting him be head of the family, leaning on his strength and building up his ego as only a truly feminine woman can.

So while husbands and wives are stumbling along trying to find their way, they can make the road much easier for each other—if they only will.

Highlights TV Time Previews

10-11 p.m. (CBS) The Danny Kaye Show. (Rerun). Imogene Coca and Danny get together again tonight and there is no end to the comedy routines these two can pull off. Either as a husband and wife team or in doing a parody on love scenes from the movies they go great. Singer Nancy Wilson guests with "The Best Is Yet To Come" and "Love Has Many Faces." She also joins Danny in "Simple Melody."

7:30-9 p.m. (NBC) The Virginian. "Ride A Dark Trail." (Rerun). This one has a fairly exciting plot, heavy with dialogue made most interesting by Lee J. Cobb as Judge Garth. It is a flashback to the time when Trampas came into Garth's fold, but as an antagonist rather than a worshipping employe. Trampas is a juvenile delinquent whose father (Bunny Tufts) isn't much better. When the father is killed by Garth in self-defense, Trampas secretly gets a job at the Garth ranch to wreak vengeance on the judge.

8:30-9:30 p.m. (ABC) Shindig. Honest, this is not a rerun. Or even a re-creation. But the show has to be regarded as a howling success, what with such impervious-to-taste stars as the Rolling Stones,

The Poets, The Explosion, The Shindigs, The Wellingtons, The Blossoms, plus Rick Lancelotti. Song hits include "Shakin' All Over," "Ready Teddy," "We're Gonna Make It" and "Dr. Feel Good."

9-9:30 p.m. (CBS) Dick Van Dyke Show. "There's No Sale Like Wholesale." Buddy's out to prove he can really get it for you wholesale and Rob and Laura are his selected victims. Laura wants a raccoon coat and, in order to complete Buddy's very special transaction, Buddy, Rob and Laura all have to pretend they're Italian and go through several assorted forms of humiliation. As usual, a very funny half hour, once you get into it.

9-11 p.m. (NBC) Wednesday Night Movie. "Hell Is For Heroes." (Rerun). A squad of infantry secures a small beach in the Siegfried Line and foot the Germans into believing they have a large group with them. Steve McQueen plays a surly medal winner who has been broken to private and Bobby Darin is the squad operator who is more concerned with taking loot than fighting. Fess Parker and Harry Guardino are sergeants, and Nick Adams plays a Polish refugee who tags along after the GIs. Even comic Bob Newhart gets into the act as a PFC.

9:30-10:30 p.m. (ABC) Burke's Law. "Who Killed Cassandra Cass?" (Rerun).

A writer takes issue with the hospital cracking down on visitors.

"I think our hospital is getting a little too independent," says John L. Rich Sr. "After all when does a friend need a friend?"

Rich is referring to the hospital's plea to cut down on the time and number of visitors. "The people are paying a good price to be in there to start with and I think the people who pay for their service have a say so in the matter as long as other hospitals and doctors are close by," Rich says.

Judge Robert W. Ware went unashamedly as the Kiwanis Club honored him Wednesday with its "Gold Service Award." It was an emotion-packed meeting for the judge and a complete surprise.

Robert Sparkman, former Sanford resident and now of Orlando, is a member of the American Red Cross "Task Force" and chairman of the mobile canteen serving emergency workers in the Casselberry sinkhole area.

The canteen is on loan from the Southeastern Area Headquarters in Atlanta and is being manned by volunteer workers from throughout the county.

More volunteers are needed to staff the unit which will be on duty as long as it is needed.

When work begins on repairing damage and filling in the hole, their efforts will be especially appreciated.

Anyone wishing to donate a few hours in the canteen may call American Red Cross Chapter in Sanford, or volunteer at the scene.

'This Is Your Life' Stars Judge Ware

Robert W. Ware, 55-year-old attorney and former city and county judge, was honored with the Kiwanis 50th Anniversary Golden Service Medal in "This Is Your Life" ceremonies at the club luncheon Wednesday.

Rev. Robert Jenkins, pastor of First Methodist Church, of which Judge Ware is a member, was master of ceremonies for the occasion. Ware has taught the Men's Bible class there for the past 40 years.

Present for the event were Judge Ware's daughter, Mrs. Muriel Gardner, and his grandson, Ware Gardner. His son, Rev. Milton Ware, was unable to be present.

Another person who helped recall "the old days" was Mrs. Joel Field, the former Hazel Murray, who was a first grader in the Georgia school where Judge was once principal.

Mrs. Ophelia Bennett sang the judge's favorite song, "In the Garden."

Ware was born in Georgia and received his BA degree from Dalton College. He moved around quite a bit and finally settled in Warrenton, Ga. where he served as mayor, school superintendent and state legislator.

He moved to Sanford in 1925 and opened law practice here. He was elected city judge and later county judge, a position he held for three terms.

Rev. Jenkins credited Judge Ware with inspiring the six young men from First Methodist Church, who have entered the ministry, including his own son.

A resolution was read by Edwin Shinholser commending Judge Ware as "a great source of inspiration and guidance in education, local and state government, religious and church work."

First indications were that the cease-fire which ended the near-civil war between the army and trade unionists had come apart.

There were reports of dead and wounded but the casualties could not be confirmed immediately.

The present north-east runway has been closed for the next 15 days while soil boring tests are conducted for the extension.

Tough Policy Promised Chinese, Russ

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Secretary of State Dean Rusk has served notice on Russia and Red China that the United States will not be frightened out of Viet Nam by threats of a wider war in Asia.

Rusk made his tough policy statement at a news conference during which he also revealed that a second Soviet anti-aircraft missile site may be under construction in Communist North Viet Nam.

He said he believed that the additional missile site involved a "deepening" Soviet commitment. The State Department had announced last April 16 that one Surface-to-Air Missile (SAM) site "appears to be in preparation near Hanoi."

"There may be a second in the immediate Hanoi area," Rusk said. "We don't know whether there may be others in that area. In terms of the normal geographic positioning of such sites around a heavily populated area."

The secretary said at another point that he was not alarmed by reports of a recent interview of Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin by U. S. industrialist Cyrus Eaton. Kosygin said at that time that Russia might enter the Vietnam war unless the United States changed its policies.

He said he didn't attach "undue importance" to what Eaton has said. But, he added, "it is very important . . . that no one misunderstand the gravity of the situation."

"If, in fact, those who are supporting North Viet Nam, or feel themselves associated with North Viet Nam, feel that they can drive us out of our commitments there in Southeast Asia—these commitments are serious, they are of long standing—we are determined."

"When we ourselves say, as we have said for a long time, that we don't want a larger war out there in Southeast Asia . . . it would be a great mistake if the other side should think that that means that they can have a larger war with impunity, and that a larger war on their side would remove us from Southeast Asia."

LATEST SINKHOLE to form in the Casselberry-Fern Park area developed to a depth of some 10 feet early Wednesday morning in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Garnie Bessinger on Fern Park Boulevard. Neighbors Balk At Sinkhole Aid

By Jane Casselberry

Neighbors who have balked at signing property access releases have delayed, or perhaps ended all chances of, promised state and county aid for victims of the monstrous sinkhole which developed in Casselberry May 13.

The property access releases are needed so that heavy machinery may be brought in the area to fill the chasm which devoured one home and damaged three others on Northmoor Road.

Meantime, the latest in a rash of sinkholes to plague the Casselberry-Fern Park area occurred early Wednesday morning in the backyard of Mr. and Mrs. Garnie Bessinger, 528 Fern Park Boulevard.

By mid-afternoon the cavity was approximately 10 feet deep and 10 feet wide.

For the past two weeks the Bessingers have noticed signs of settling. Cracks have developed in every room of the house, accompanied by popping and cracking sounds. A depression was noticed to be forming in the yard.

The Bessinger property adjoins the lot at 618 Prairie Lake Drive where a sinkhole formed some weeks ago. Mrs. Ivy Campbell, who is renting that house, has noted some settling in her house and yard in spite of the 10 truckloads of sand used to fill the gaping hole.

A neighbor, Mrs. O. E. Smith who also lives on Prairie Lake Drive, stated that as long as two years ago she had a clue that the artesian ground water was drying up when their 150-foot deep well failed and a deeper one had to be drilled.

Another small sinkhole has been located in a Casselberry orange grove on Lake Warren.
