The new multi-million doliar Sanford Shopping Center will be open to the public next August, it was announced this morning by R. M. Thompson Jr. at groundbreaking ceremonics.

Attending were dignitaries of the city, the county, the Chamber of Commerce, and officials of Investment Property Builders, Miami; R. M. Thompson Construction Company, Clearwater; Publix Markets and Eckerd Drugs of Florida. Thompson, president of Investment Property Builders and the Thompson Construction, assured the more than 50 dignitaries present that his and allied firms were "expressing confidence in the growth of Sanford and Seminole County" by commencing construction of this new shopping center.

Gen. J. C. Hutchison, chairman of the Seminole County Commission and master of ceremonies, called on the Rev. George Kinnoman, of Good Shepherd Lutheran Church, for the invocation.

General Hutchison expressed appreciation to the assemblage for the principals' confidence in Sanford and Seminole County, As did Karlyle Housholder, president-elect of the Chamber of Commerce. W. C. Hutchison Jr., Sanford city attorney, also expressed appreciation for the city.

George Jenkins, president of Publix Markets, pointed out that his firm will have two supermarkets in Seminole County "and this will be the 101st in our chain."

Jack Eckerd, president of Eckerd Drugs of Florida, also spoke briefly and pointed to he growth of Sanford and Seminole County and the confidence my firm has in this growth."

Center will be located east of Highway 17-92 and north of Onora Street. An entrance parallel to 17-02 will be constructed from Opora Road. Thompson and Sanford city officials have been conferring relative to annexation of the center site to the city.

The change had some fairly limited effects, but on the whole did not yield the results anticipated. In 1963, the Rules Committee, under leadership of the veteran chairman Howard Smith of Virginia, seems to be functioning with all its old

Smith, under heavy pressure, finally has said that in January his committee will hold hearings on the highly controversial Kennedy-Johnson civil rights bill calling for —

ing a small group of House members, often quits unrepresentative of the larger body, to act virtually as final arbiter in determining what bills shall come to the House floor.

It seems so basic it should not have to be said: All major matters, including the most continuestal. including the most controversial, ought in a freely working democracy to have a full airing and then be voted up or down.

Critics of a particular proposed course of action often argue against it on the ground that Congress, in its wisdom, has "not acted on the question." They imply they would accept such a course if Congress did act.

But the Rules Committee today, not just in civil rights but in many matters, labors unabashedly to pre-vent the very kind of open, free de-cision by the nation's lawmakers which our system is supposed to aswhich our system is supposed to as-

The countries of England, France, Germany and Mexico were represented through their own carols of Christmas. Mrs. Ben Wiggins, one of the sixth grade teachers, Barbara Chambers and Mrs. D. G. Walton, sixth grade teachers. The students, dressed white choir robes with red bows, sang "The Wassail Song" and "The Boar's Head Carol," carols from England. From France the selections were "Bring A Torch, Jeannette Isabella" and "The First Noel." From Germany, the well known "Silent Night," and from Mexico, "Christmas Lullaby" and

"Fum Fum Fum." Narration of the customs and traditions of the different countries during the holidays was given by Ricky Smith, a sixth grade student.

The Builord Berall

By Jane Cassellerry Lyman High School Hand and Chorus will present a light winter concert at 8 p. m. this Thursday in the auditorium with 75 students participating under direction of Music Director

Included in the performance will be the Toccots for Band, by Erickson, and several spe-cial Christmas arrangements for combined band and chorus. The Dixle Land Band, composed of Pat McLaughlin, Dennis House, Roger Deppen, Richard Morgan and Bill Wharton, also will be featured. Although the band is small for in size this year the quality has not suffered and the evening of entertainment promises to be wall worth the price of admission which also includes a dance to follow the concert.

The 18-piece stage band will play for the dance offering a good variety of popular dance music ranging from the "big band era" to modern dance shythms that will appeal to all

Cuban Refugee Reports Seeing Soviet Rockets

MIAMI (UPI) - A Cuban refugee reported Monday he saw a Russian convoy o trucks and trailers transporting what appeared to be huge rockets on a highway in Cuba. Ignacio Biaderes, a 21-yearold akin diver, said the "cylindrical objects" aboard the vehicles were covered with canvas but they "certainly must be rockets . . . and really hig ones."

Bladeres, who fled the Communist Island with three friends, was picked up by an American oil tanker when the refugees' small boat sank about 15 miles off the Florida coast. Fifty-three other refugees arrived here from Cuba over the weekend. Several Cuban fishermen
